Over 100 entries had been received by Wednesday, some of them ingeniously contrived in their presentation, and from owners and managers of every type of theatre. The awards will total $2,025.

Meanwhile, judging of the entries for the $250,000 "Movie Quiz" contest proceeds, with a week remaining before the judges finish their work. Winners will be announced on the evening of February 20, simultaneously to all theatres participating in the drive. The Chemical Bank and Trust Company will handle the announcement and distribution of these awards.

In order to insure a simultaneous break to theatres throughout the country in the announcement of the winners of the $250,000 "Movie Quiz" contest, on February 20th, notification of winners' names will be delivered to theatres in the contest as follows: Eastern, 8 P. M.; Central, 7 P. M.; Mountain, 6 P. M.; Pacific Coast, 5 P. M.—all Standard Time.

The Committee recommends that the sealed envelope containing the list of winners be opened on the stage by the manager of the theatre in the presence of some public official and the winners announced in that way.

The list for each theatre will consist of the national winners (24 principal winners), as well as the local winners in the community where theatres are situated.

Allie Robertson is now handling publicity for Pathe News. Miss Robertson was formerly with the Salzburg Advertising Agency, of Wilkes-Barre, and is a graduate of the University of Kentucky and Hamilton College, Ky.

RKO RADIO MEETS THE DAWN OF A NEW DAY WITH THE PROUDEST PRODUCT IN ITS HISTORY...

On the following pages a few of the big attractions that will highlight the COMING WEEKS... One after another... starting RIGHT NOW!...

Big shows that set the pace for the industry!...

"One of the big money pictures this year . . . extended runs and resounding grosses appear certain . . . Spectacular in sweep . . . tremendous in dramatic portrayals." —Variety

"Held its premiere audience at the Pantages, Hollywood, taut as a regimental drumhead . . . Fast, furious and fascinating . . . Battle scenes have never been equalled . . . For extended exhibition in any theatre, any place, any time." —Motion Picture Herald

"Here is truly a moving picture! . . . An action-crammed melodrama that should set box offices afire." —Film Daily

"RKO has fashioned a motion picture of enormous popular appeal...Must certainly serve with admirable box office results."
—Motion Picture Daily

"It's big!.....A whale of a show!...'Gunga Din' has it and RKO has 'Gunga Din.' And a lot of lucky exhibitors." —Box Office

"Unquestionably a top grosser...Packed with entertainment values, produced on a magnificent scale...Teeming with action."
—Showmen's Trade Review

"Conservatively speaking, this is RKO-RADIO'S biggest, best contribution to the welfare of the box office...For the top money."
—Jay Emanuel Publications

PRE-RELEASE ENGAGEMENTS RADIO CITY, LOS ANGELES, MIAMI, TERRIFIC AS WE GO TO PRESS! . . .

CARY GRANT ⋆ VICTOR McLAGLEN
and
DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS, JR.
in
A DIN
WITH
SAM JAFFE · EDUARDO CIANNELLI · JOAN FONTAINE
PANDRO S. BERMAN IN CHARGE OF PRODUCTION
PRODUCED AND DIRECTED BY GEORGE STEVENS
RKO RADIO PICTURES

NEW YORK NOTICES KEYNOTE THE NATION'S ACCLAIM FOR THE FIRST OF THIS YEAR'S "TEN BEST"

"A great show . . . has powerfully potent charm that cannot help but attract patronage."
—Kate Cameron, N. Y. Daily News

"A disarming and enchanting film . . . Story told with such warmth and such a sure sense of screen values that you will be making a mistake to miss it."
—Howard Barnes, N. Y. Herald-Tribune

"A noteworthy picture . . . Has a simplicity which is endearing, and it builds up to a climax which reduces one to tears."
—Bland Johaneson, N. Y. Daily Mirror

"A picture with its heart in the right place . . . Engaging performances lift it now and again into charm, pity and tenderness."
—B. R. C., New York Times

"Like a breath of fresh air on a sultry evening . . . As fine and engrossing an entertainment as the screen has offered in months."
—William Boehnel, N. Y. World-Telegram

"A real picture—a tender, rollicking comedy with all the drama it needs. Might have been written originally with just its present cast in mind."
—Eileen Creelman, N. Y. Sun

"Has both charm and humor . . . adroitly fashioned and thoroughly enjoyable . . . well worth seeing."
—Rose Pelswick, N. Y. Journal & American

"Yesterday's premiere audience charmed . . . packs a wallopy appeal and divine sense of humor . . . Barrymore puts forth magnificent performance."
—Irene Thirer, N. Y. Post

The GREA

"THE

PETER HOLDE

PANDRO S. BERMAN IN

RADIO CITY MUSIC HALL ATTRACTION . . . NOW PLAYING FIRST RUNS COAST TO COAST

A MAN WITH A HOLE IN HIS PANTS . . . and two loyal kids . . .
bring you priceless entertainment.

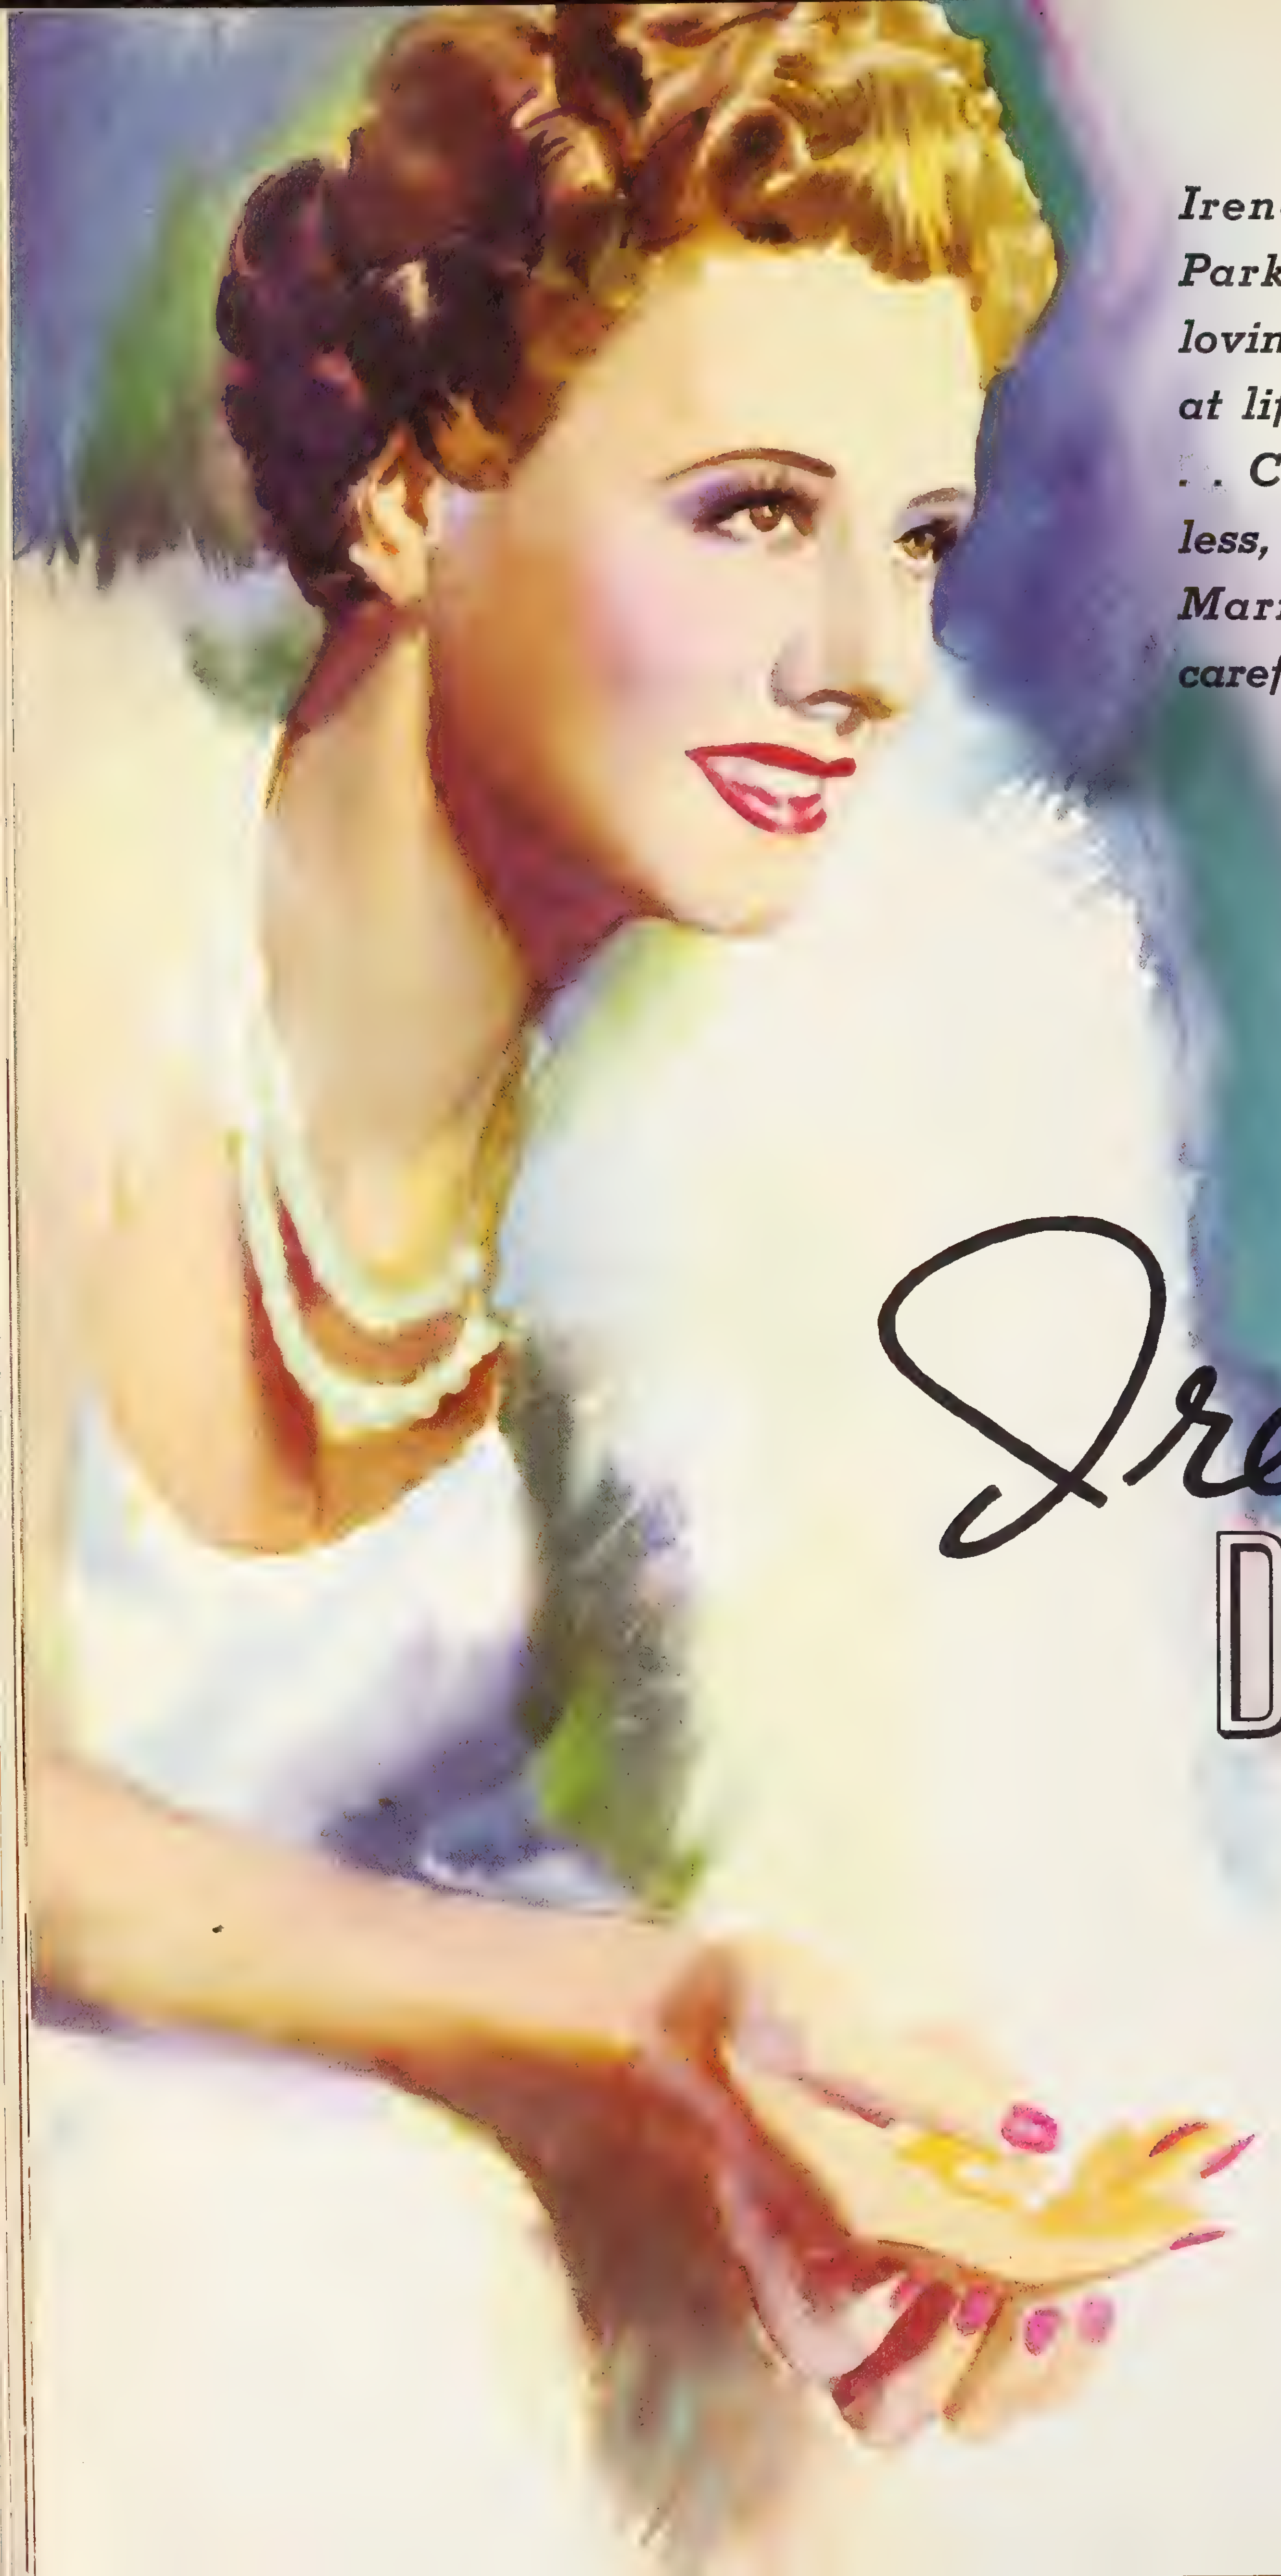
John Barrymore

GREAT MAN VOTES"

VIRGINIA WEIDLER · DONALD MacBRIDE · KATHARINE ALEXANDER

GE OF PRODUCTION · DIRECTED BY GARSON KANIN · PRODUCED BY CLIFF REID · SCREEN PLAY BY JOHN TWIST



Irene Dunne, as Terry McKa
Park Avenue lady of leisure .
loving ease and luxury. . playin at life in the world's gay places
. . Charles Boyer, as the reck less, dashing, irresistible Miche Marnay. . international love carefree heartbreaker! . . . . .

Irene DUNNE

A LEO McC

"LOVE

MARIA OUSPENSKA
ASTRID ALLWYN • M
SCREEN PLAY BY DELMER DAVES

DIRECTED BY

se two — swept off their feet by ove that would not be denied!

at a situation for burning romance! — drama, conflict, hope and heartbreak elled in settings of richness such as to use the secret dreams of every woman! . What Box-office! . . . Stars, Story, ctor, Production Elegance — everything big money!

Charles BOYER

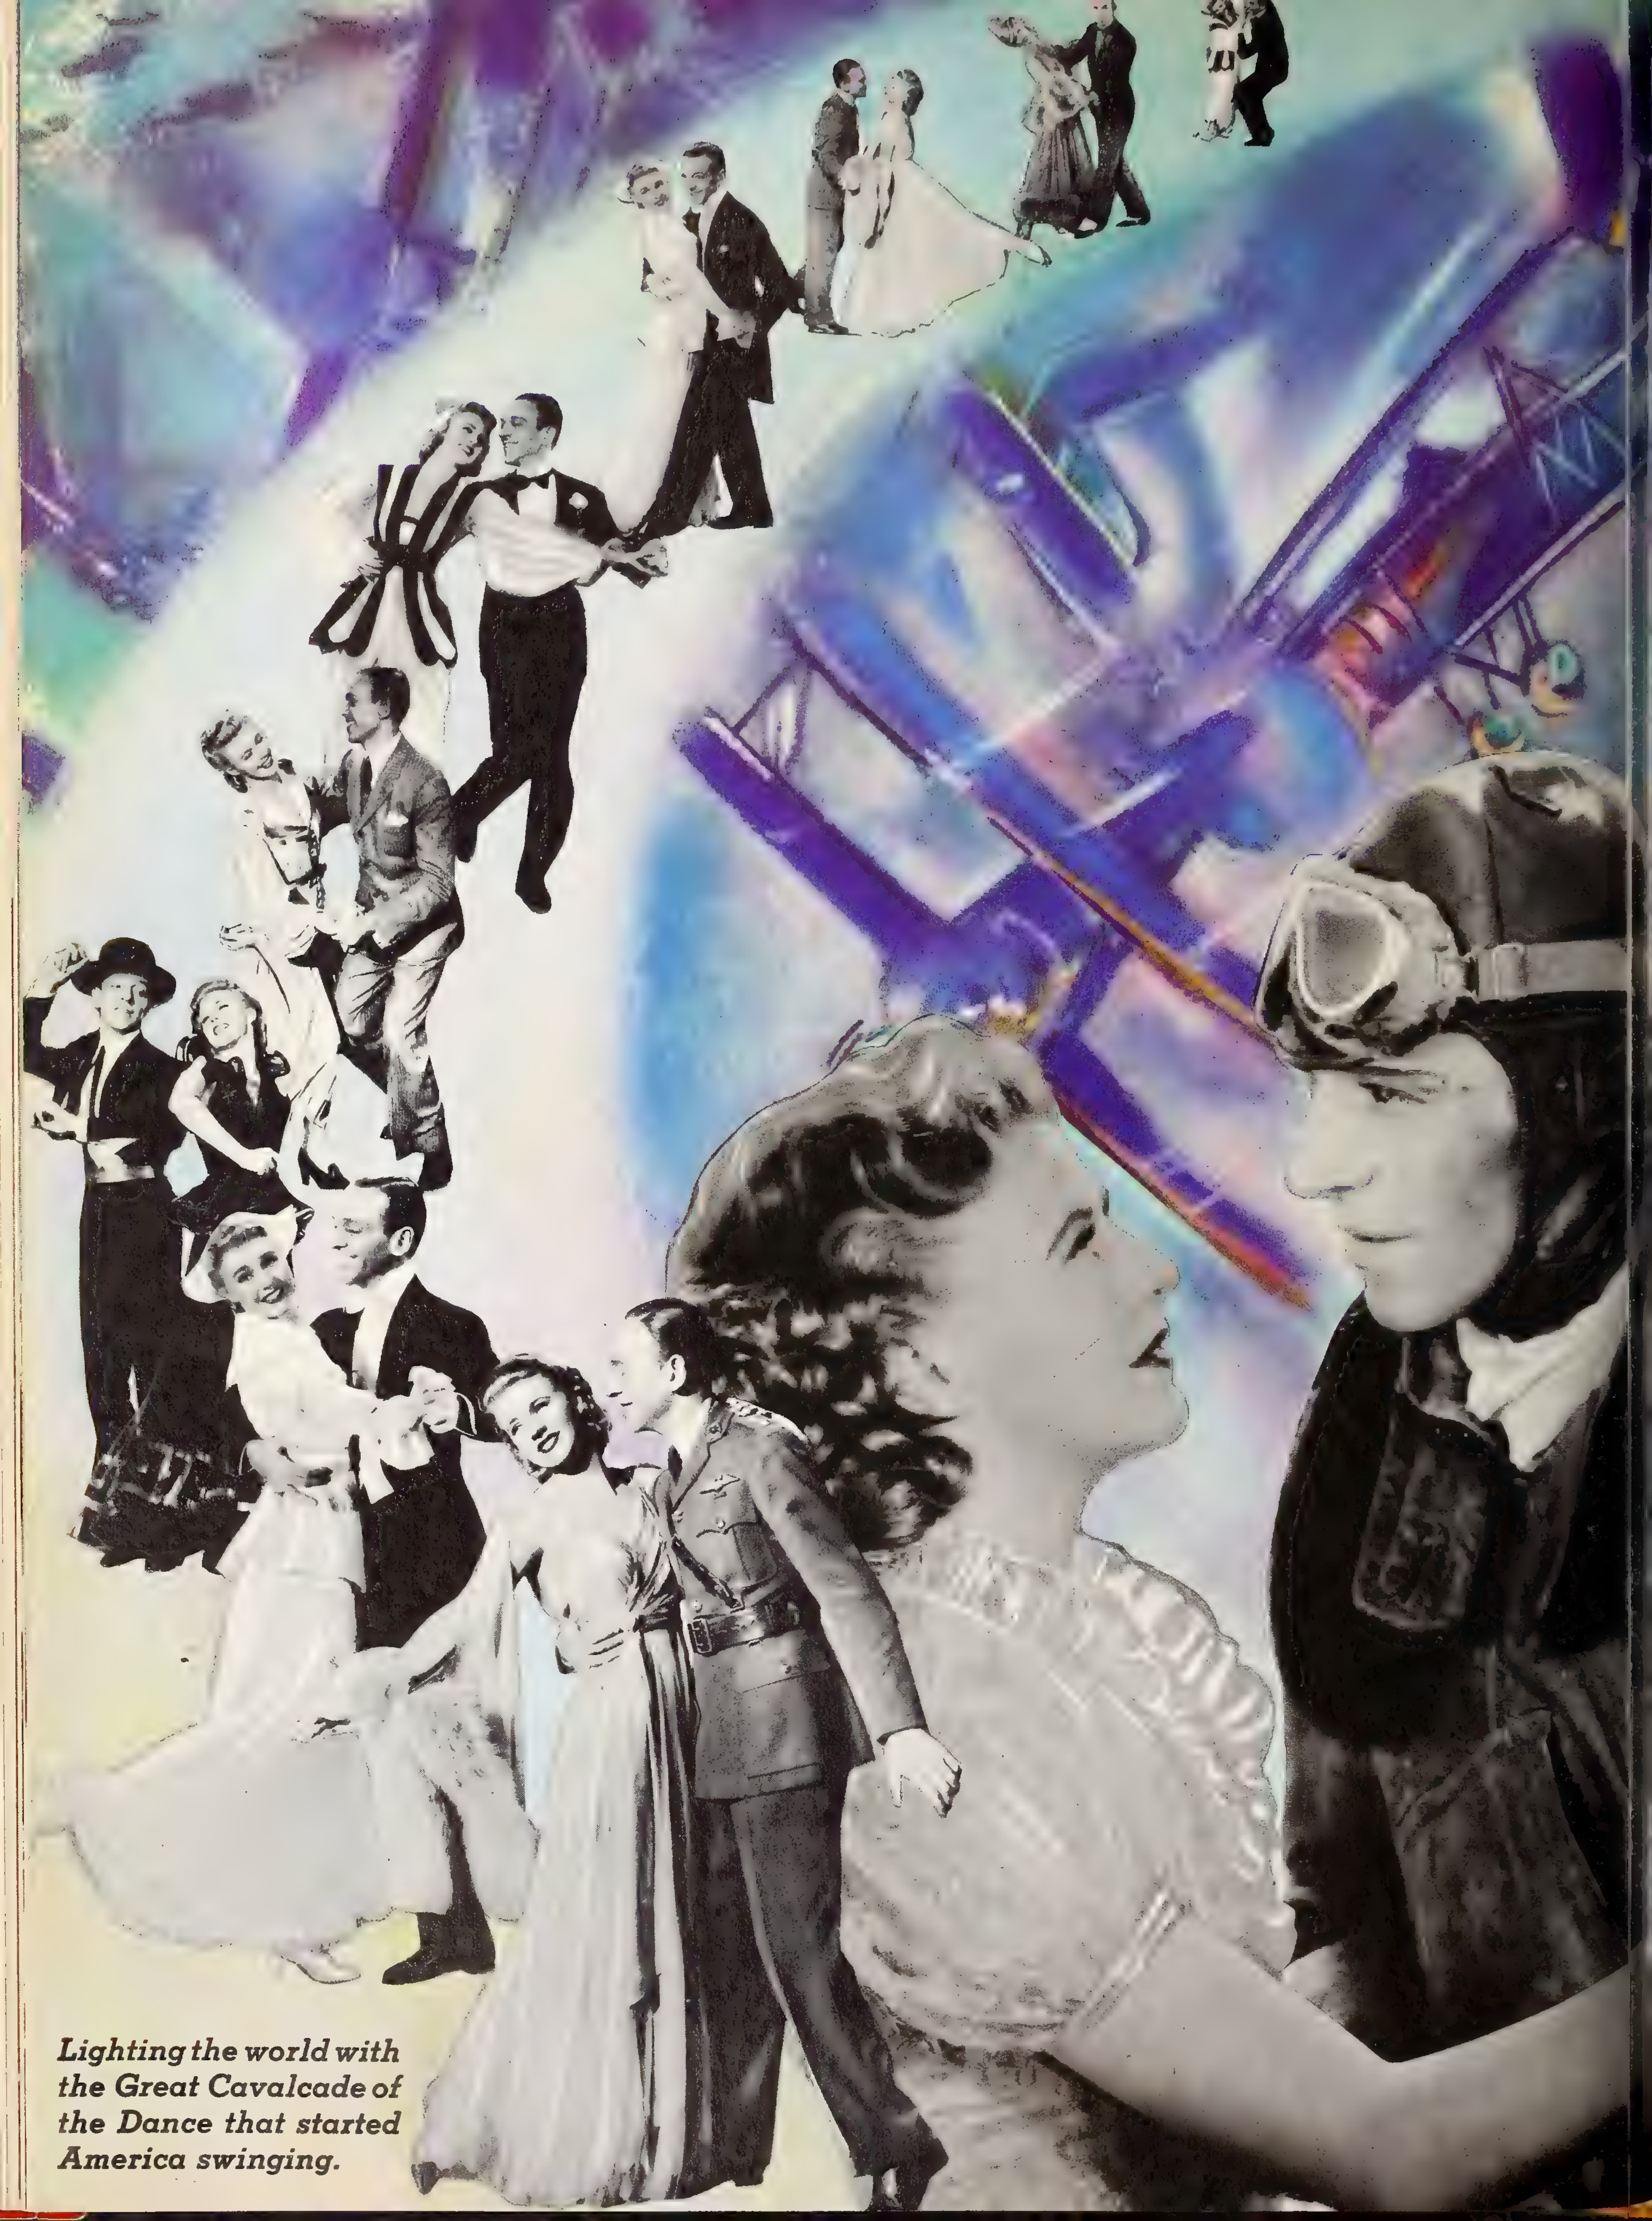
Y PRODUCTION

FFAIR"

· LEE BOWMAN
ICE MOSCOVICH
DONALD OGDEN STEWART

EO McCAREY

LEO McCAREY, director of a dozen hits including the Academy Award Winner, "The Awful Truth".



Lighting the world with the Great Cavalcade of the Dance that started America swinging.

At last Fred and Ginger in a great DRAMATIC LOVE STORY! . . . portraying the lives of the glamorous couple who made dancing the great international pastime! . . . Irene, the fashion-plate girl who wore the first bobbed hair; Vernon, the Beau Brummel whose rhythmic feet were stilled in war-torn skies . . . Tender romance, high hope, laughter, heart-throbs and fight against odds! . . . Fred and Ginger re-living the sensations of the first Castle Walk, the Tango, the Maxixe, the Texas Tommy! — the most thrilling dancing of the Astaire-Rogers careers — to the haunting hit melodies of the exciting times . . . All the glory that made the Castles the most talked-of figures of their brilliant day make this THE BIG STANDOUT SHOW FOR TOP GROSSES THIS YEAR!

FRED GINGER

ASTAIRE ☆ ROGERS

IN

THE STORY OF VERNON and IRENE CASTLE

(TEMPORARY TITLE)

EDNA MAE OLIVER • WALTER BRENNAN

LEW FIELDS • ETIENNE GIRARDOT • JANET BEECHER

PANDRO S. BERMAN IN CHARGE OF PRODUCTION

DIRECTED BY H. C. POTTER ASSOCIATE PRODUCER — GEORGE HAIGHT

g Town Goes Wild
In Welcome to Doug
By DAMON RUNYON
Hero Business,' Bars Fund Drive
THREE 3 CENTS
CORRIGAN
DOUG CORRIGAN DRENCHED IN THUNDER
,000 ROAR GREETING TO WRONG W igan Quit Eating to Test
ds That Took Up Little Space
DAILY MIRROR, SATURDAY, AUGUST 6, 1938 oug Captures City Throng
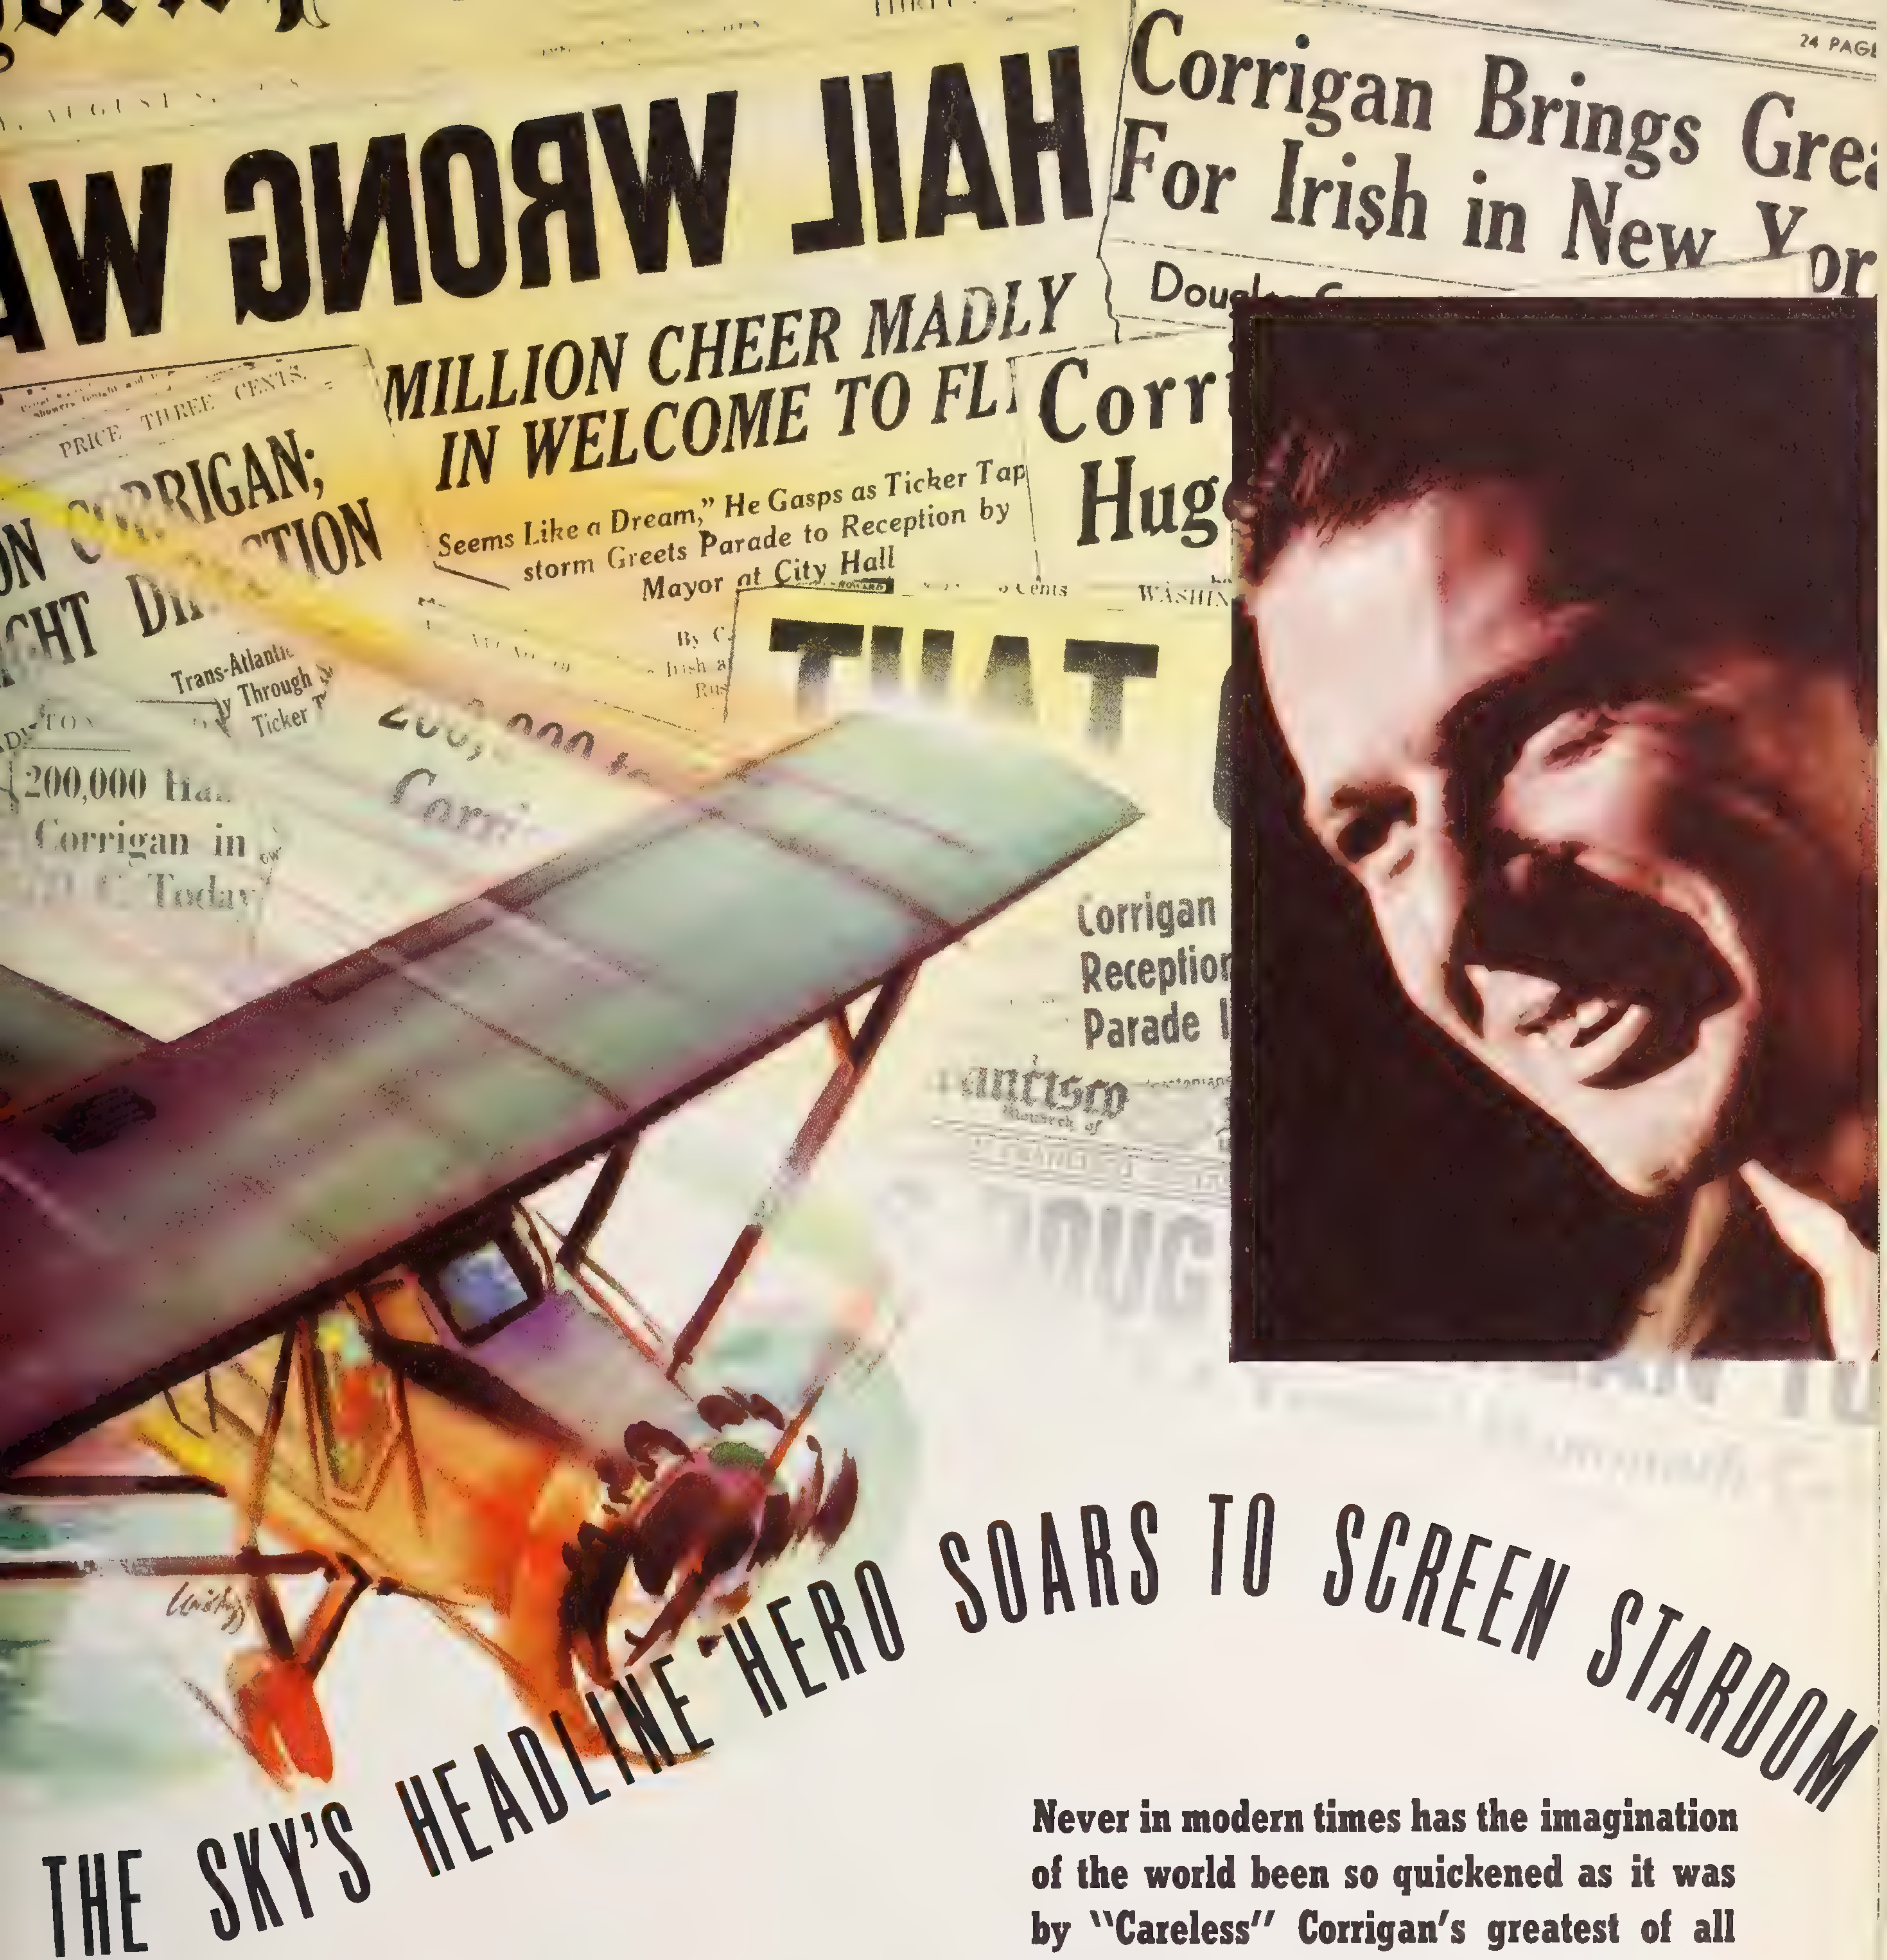
Dublin Officials Extend Corrigan
Corrigan Withou
Doug Corrigan
Opera Tonight
DOUGLAS
"THE FL



HAIL WRONG WA
Corrigan Brings Grea
For Irish in New Yor
24 PAGE
MILLION CHEER MADLY
IN WELCOME TO FL
Seems Like a Dream," He Gasps as Ticker Tap storm Greets Parade to Reception by Mayor at City Hall
PRICE THREE CENTS
CORRIGAN;
TION
Trans-Atlantic
Through Ticker
200,000 Ha
Corrigan in Today
Corr Hug
THAT Corrigan
Reception Parade
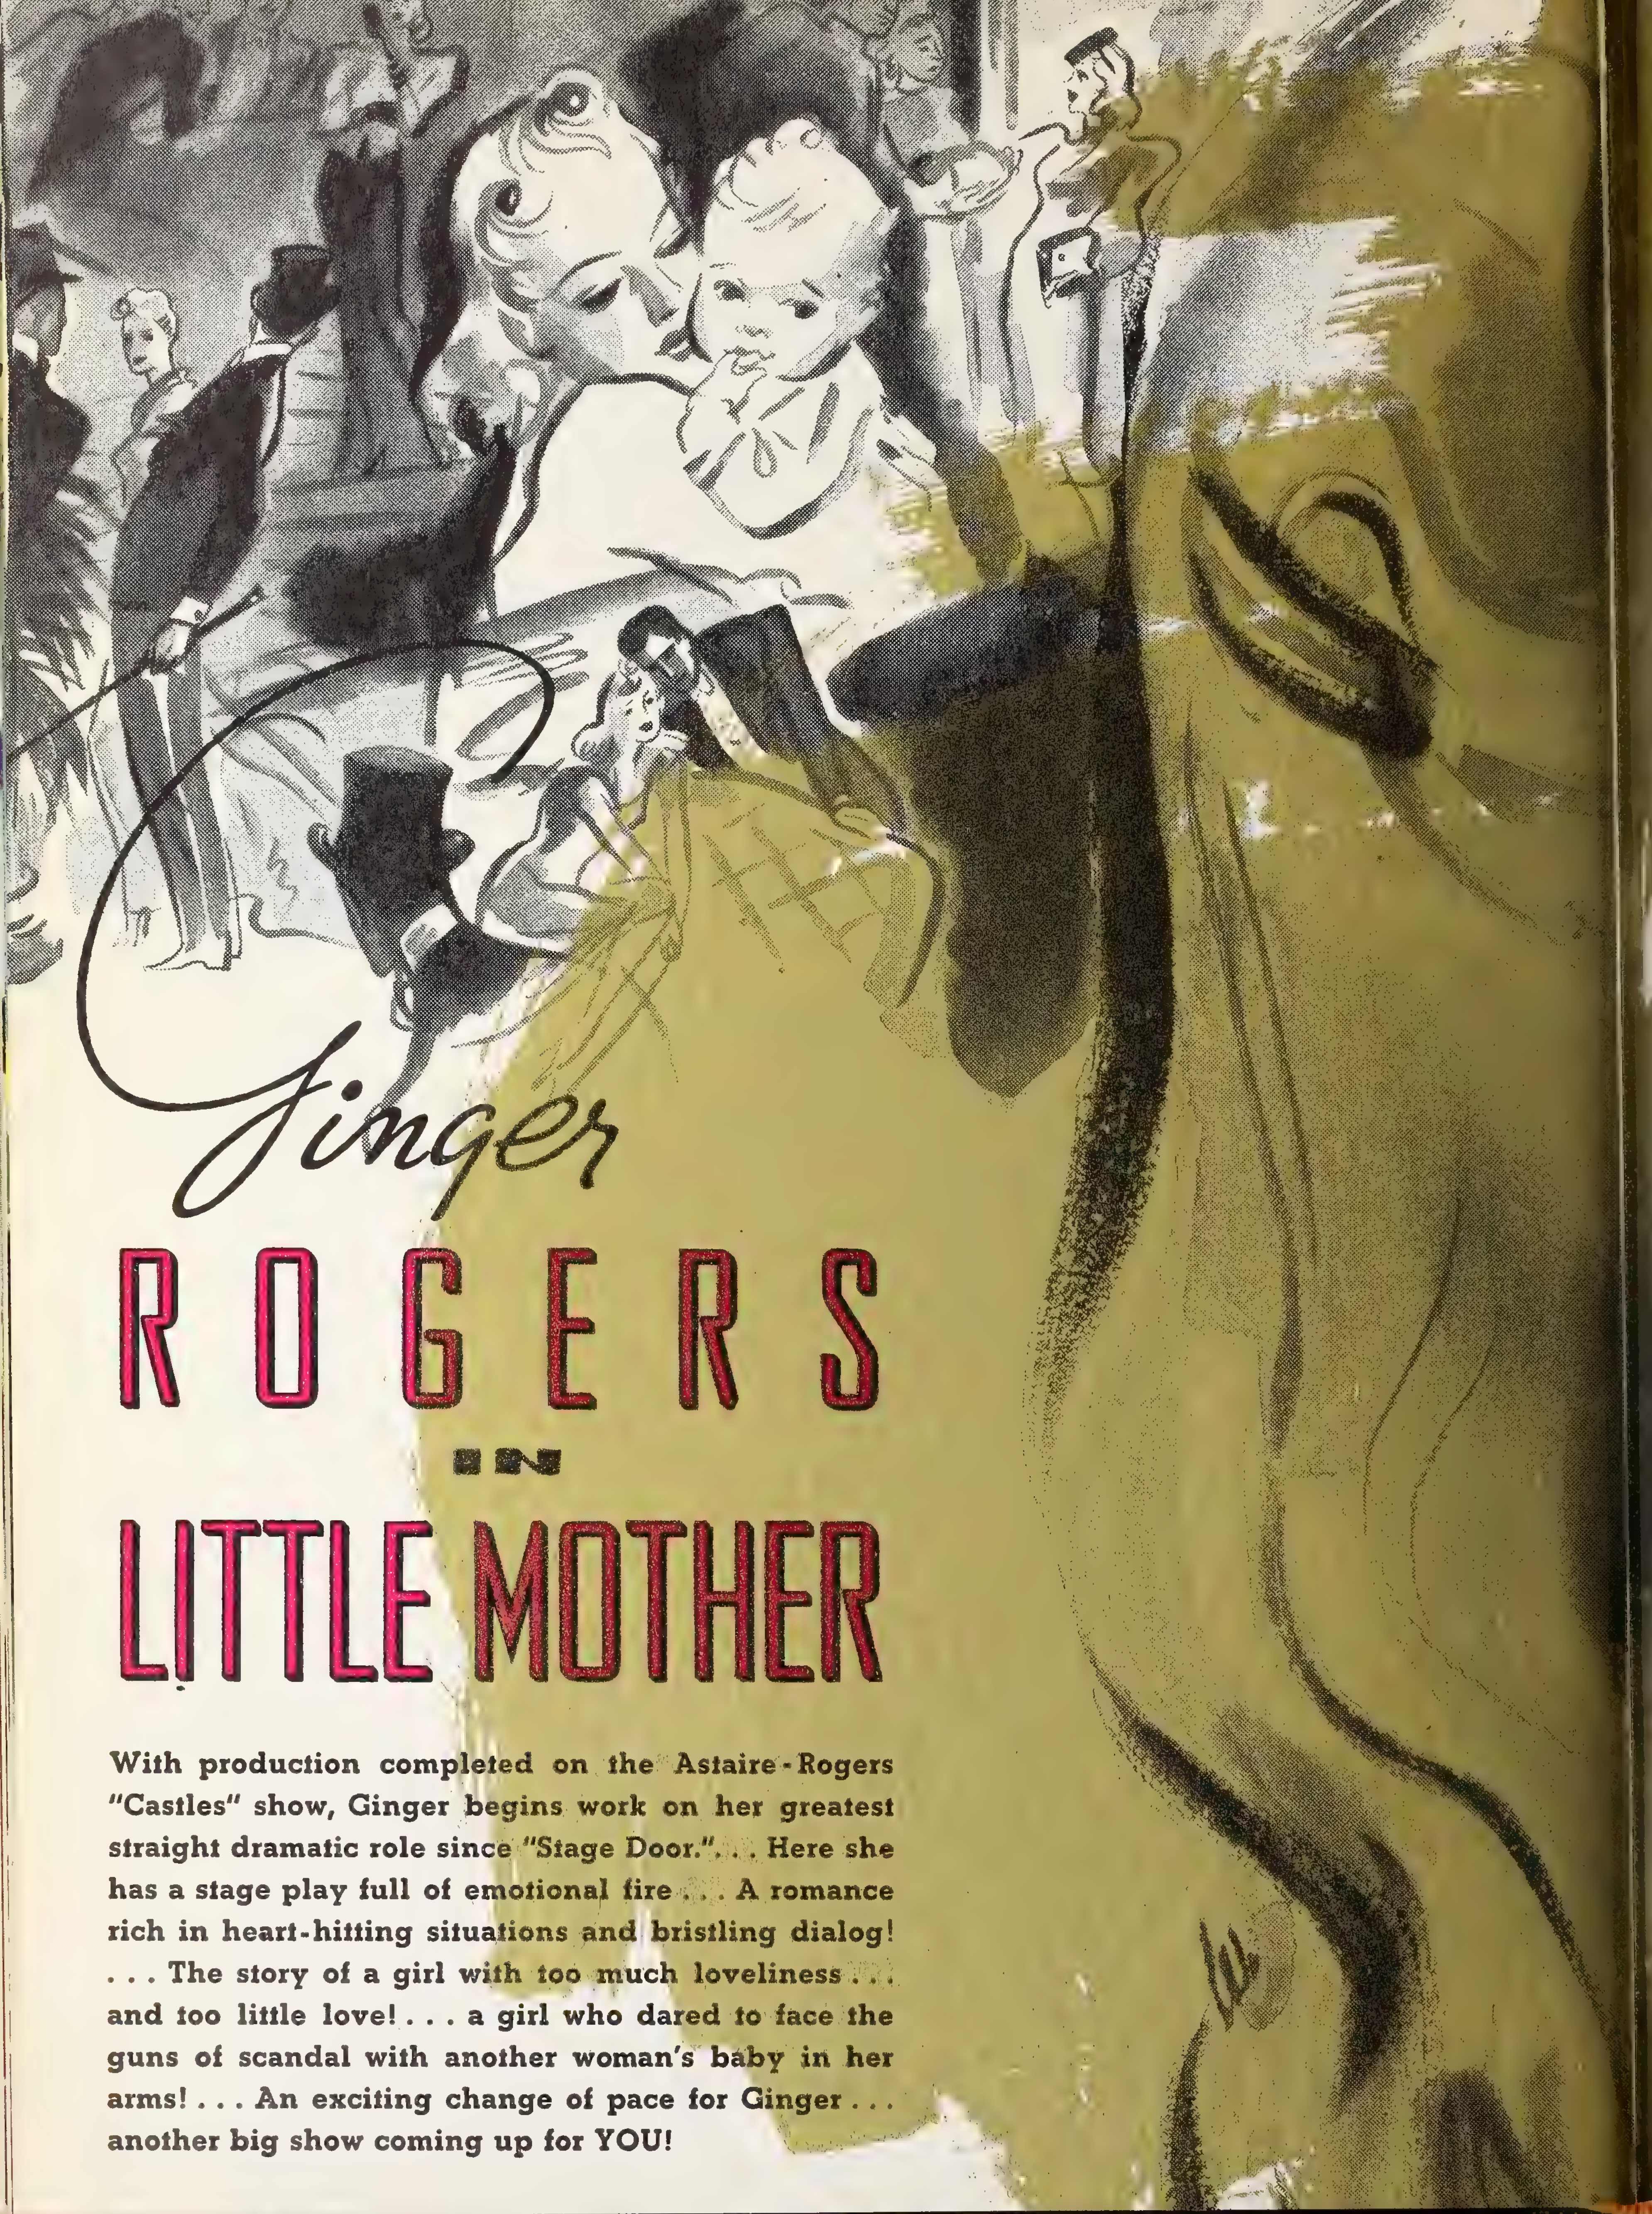
Doug

THE SKY'S HEADLINE HERO SOARS TO SCREEN STARDOM

Wrong Way} CORRIGAN

NG IRISHMAN"

Never in modern times has the imagination of the world been so quickened as it was by "Careless" Corrigan's greatest of all do-or-die deeds! . . . Overnight he became dear to the heart of every man, woman and child with a drop of red blood in his veins . . . Now he's on the screen, with his smile, his "crate," his life, his flight — woven into a drama of such excitement, such speed and thrill and ready exploitability as to stamp this great picture THE NUMBER ONE SHOW SENSATION OF THE SEASON!



Ginger ROGERS IN LITTLE MOTHER

With production completed on the Astaire-Rogers "Castles" show, Ginger begins work on her greatest straight dramatic role since "Stage Door."... Here she has a stage play full of emotional fire ... A romance rich in heart-hitting situations and bristling dialog! ... The story of a girl with too much loveliness ... and too little love! ... a girl who dared to face the guns of scandal with another woman's baby in her arms! ... An exciting change of pace for Ginger ... another big show coming up for YOU!

RKO Radio is ready!..Look at the product!..Never before has there been like privilege in this industry of bringing to the screen so many fine pictures in so short a time as will bear the RKO Radio trade-mark during the coming weeks.. And that's only the beginning of the new day!..That's why RKO Radio is shouting –

WE'RE GOING PLACES!

R K O RADIO
PICTURES

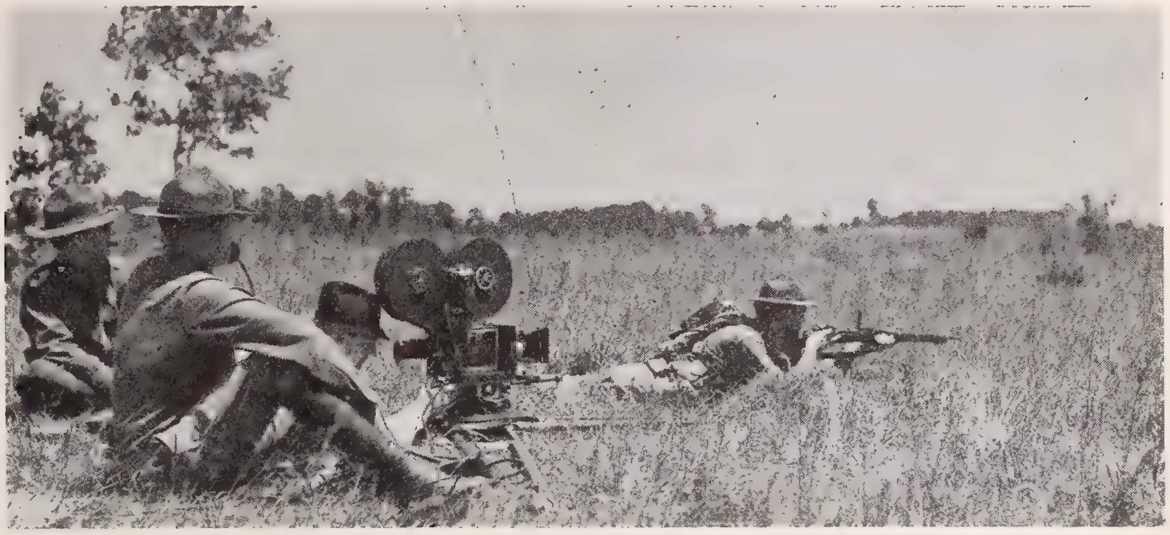
GEORGE SCHAEFER DRIVE

JAN. 28..JUNE 2

FILMS ARE GIVEN IMPORTANT ROLE IN U. S. ARMY'S PREPARATIONS

Will Be Used for Instruction and for Battle Direction; Units and Laboratories for the Field

by JAMES P. CUNNINGHAM



The Army tests its plan for the increased use of the motion picture camera in the field to supplement reports and facilitate the work of the Signal Corps under combat conditions. Left, Captain William A. Marsh, Inf., technical adviser; center, Major M. E. Gillette, Signal Corps, with telephone handset for directing activity; and, at camera, Roland Barrett, civilian cameraman.

The United States Army has decided to use motion pictures to an unprecedented extent as a quick-training medium in the event of a "national emergency," and already is laying tangible plans, as part of the present "billion-dollar" campaign to strengthen the armed forces of the nation, in preparation for "M-Day."

Information disclosing the important role that would be given the screen comes from official Army sources, along with an insight into the plans for the use of Army films for rapid instruction of thousands in soldiery, supplanting to a considerable extent the old-fashioned and much slower manner of teaching the manual of arms, schooling and discipline.

For Battle Direction, Too

In addition, the Army will use motion pictures for battle direction, taking pictures of the progress of conflict on the fields, dispatching the films by motorcycle runners to the officers behind the lines determining strategy and providing more effective operation than the field telephone system.

Sound and camera units and "floating" film laboratories for developing and printing, built into Army trucks of special design and construction, will be assigned to the field.

Under supervision of the U.S. Signal Corps, the Army's filming plans and photographic activities divide into two general divisions, motion pictures, all in 35 mm. standard width, and "still" pictures. The motion pictures, in turn, are sub-divided into four groups: Historical or record pictures, General-interest pictures, Engineering pictures and, lastly, training films.

The Signal Corps of the Army is concerned only with the production of training films. Any future necessity for circularizing socalled "publicity" pictures among the public in regular theatres, such as during the World War, would be in the hands of other Governmental agencies, which likewise was the case in 1917-19, as is further explained.

Only this week, in the New York Herald-Tribune, a person designated by the initials "O.N.S.," and reported in Army circles to be an Army officer, wrote, "We have in the motion picture film the most facile and realistic medium of transmitting ideas and training, and this method of instruction is especially applicable in our country in the particular circumstances of the world race for rearmament.

"A program of motion picture training films is sound defense planning on a thrifty budget."

This method, the author added, is most speedy in training an adequate army "against any future emergency," continuing: "A method of rapid training is imperative, for there will be no period of grace for getting ready as in the last war." He likens the training films to the films being used today in industry to teach shop practices, explaining that the films must have everything from the most elementary "Squads right" to the most intricate artillery drills and tactics.

"There is nothing new about training films, but a complete plan for the preparation and use of them to help train the Army, Navy, aviation and even civilians in their parts in a war has never been carried out," until now the Signal Corps, under the General Staff, "is ready to expand and do a comprehensive work on this method of training, so that in case of an emergency we would have a complete program of thousands of training films ready for instructing in every department soldiers and civilians alike. . . . Drills could begin in every community with the aid of films even before uniforms and rifles are issued . . . first looking at the film and then repeating in the drill what the movie depicts—continually alternating this process over and over again. Moreover, such films would go a long way in making up a deficiency in trained officers and non-commissioned personnel or instructors insufficiently trained.

"It is equally important to have films to teach civilians what to do in case of air raids, how to protect lives and property, and all the necessary instructions for the citizen to play in a war. These films can be prepared and sent to local theatres for showing to instruct the community—a most vital psychological necessity in keeping up the morale and confidence of the public."

An insight into official filming activities of the Signal Corps is given by Major M. E. Gillette in "Signal Corps Bulletin No. 101—Restricted," issued by the War Department at Washington, which gave official permission to reproduce certain parts therefrom.

Covers Important Events

The first, or "historical or record pictures" filming activity of the Signal Corps, covers pictures of important events in which the Army participates. Pictures having long-range historical value are embraced, laying particular stress on subjects tracing the development or evolution of various types of important military equipment, such as motor vehicles, airplanes, weapons and other materials.

The second group, the "General-interest pictures," embraces pictures of military activities of passing interest with little or no value for retention as historical pictures, but having Army value because of their factual contents.

Next are the "Engineering pictures," of the record type, made for the purpose of analytical study of performance tests of equipment or other experiments in order to carry a visual performance of such tests to members of the technical and administrative staffs. They are said to provide an effective method of reexamining disputed points and serve the necessity for repeating such activities to permit observance from more than one observer's viewpoint.

For Instruction

Fifth and last group, "Training films," are made specifically for use as instructional aids in the training of the Army and are considered by far the most important from a military viewpoint. More than 90 per cent of the Army's motion picture effort is now directed toward production of films in this class, with the result that training time can be cut 25 to 50 per cent.

In the Army, military activities are becoming more complex with the addition of new weapons, mechanization, new technique and changing tactics. An officer in any one branch scarcely can hope to become highly proficient in all phases of his own branch much less attain much of a working knowledge of other arms with which he must work in combat. Proper performance of his duties requires a higher degree of proficiency and knowledge of a wider variety of equipment than was the case 20 years ago, during the World War. The demands for time in which to study and at the same time carry on his regular duties, are very pressing. On the motion picture, therefore, the Army now stands ready to depend for much of a solution.

"Upon mobilization of a large army in time for an emergency, the pressure for time in which to train both officers and enlisted personnel will be tremendous," points out Major Gillette. "The difference between winning or losing a conflict may conceivably be dependent upon the rapidity with which the hastily mobilized force is trained and placed into action. As the results of the tests indicate, instructional motion pictures can be made to aid in shortening the training time of a hastily mobilized force."

Significant is Major Gillette's observation that "It would seem that the better thing to do is to direct the peacetime effort in training film production along lines that will insure the gradual building up of an extensive library of basic subjects to the end that a large library of such films will be immediately available on

(Continued on following page)

FILMS BECOME ARMY INSTRUCTOR

(Continued from preceding page)

'M-day' without delay incident to the production of new subjects."

The Signal Corps Setup

Under the general supervision of the third section of the General Staff of the War Department, the Signal Corps is charged with the production of the Army films. The Photographic Division of the Office of the Chief Signal Officer acts as coordinating agency, maintaining close liaison with the "G-3" section and with the training divisions of the various arms and services. It is the advisory agency to the War Department on technical and policy matters pertaining to motion picture production, and within the Signal Corps, directs the production effort and acts as the central business office.

A central motion picture laboratory for film development, printing and sound, and the production of animated scenes is now located at Fort Humphreys, Washington, D. C. Hollywood trained army officers are in charge.

A special training film unit for the field operates from Fort Monmouth, N. J. A field unit as now constituted consists of an officer-director, a civilian first cameraman, editors, one enlisted cameraman, one general utility man and the sound men. This will be the minimum unit. Selected enlisted men are trained for the work.

Increasing Training Reels

The present production of a minimum of 20 training reels a year is being stepped up considerably, to add to the 250 reels already on file. An elaborate plan has been mapped out for the films, from the many technical phases of production to actual distribution and exhibition in the various corps areas. The Army also is encouraging additional use by Reserve organizations, Reserve Officers Training Corps units, National Guard organization and the like.

The Army's interest in motion pictures began shortly before the World War when the Medical Corps produced and experimented with the use of pictures on social hygiene, locomotion and kindred medical subjects. As is well known, the Signal Corps made negatives during the World War in visually recording events and activities of actual conflict in Europe where the Army participated. A total of some 2,000,000 feet of battle action was filmed. This material, together with subsequent additions, is said by the Army to constitute the most valuable collection of historical motion pictures on military activities in existence.

63 Reels Before Armistice

It is not so well known, however, that the Army was one of the first to use motion pictures on a large scale. In addition to the Medical Corps films, the Signal Corps produced 63 reels of training films for the General Staff before the Armistice and many other reels were made for the Army by commercial agencies. The production program was in full swing at the time of the Armistice in November, 1918, with more than 100 reels of pictures on military training subjects in use.

The value of this material as a training adjunct was recognized by the Army, but the pressure for readjustment in the service immediately following the World War stopped all new production and precluded any extensive experimentation, although the wartime subjects continued in circulation. No new subjects were produced until ten years after the war when, in 1928, renewed interest in visual education brought about the adoption of Army regulations governing the initiation and conduct of training film production. The Signal Corps was then designated as the technical agency charged with technical production matters under the supervision of the "G-3" section of the War Department General Staff and with the various arms and service branches collaborating in determining the subject scope and content and supplying the necessary troops and facilities for the action before the cameras.

BRITAIN SETS ROLES OF THEATRES FOR CRISIS

Following conversations between the Cinematograph Exhibitors' Association and the British Home Office and other Government departments, a plan has been prepared in England which outlines the rôle of the film theatres of the country in the event of any international crisis involving England.

Although details are not available, it is understood the plan covers the part to be taken by the theatres as places of public assembly, and the powers and duties of the theatre personnel.

The Red Cross Pictures

In the World War the first real junction of the screen and war affairs came through the American Red Cross. The Red Cross had to grow tremendously and it had to get to the public fast. It started a bureau of pictures and sought to reach the public with "publicity" films in a hurry. The pictures were shown mostly at meetings. They were miscellaneous collections of foreign and domestic pictures pertaining to the war. In his "Million and One Nights," history of the motion picture, Terry Ramsaye said, "They were not theatrical products in any sense, which is another way of saying they were amateur pictures without entertainment and a punch." In any new "national emergency," the United States Army intends to see to it that no such situation exists as in 1917-1918, when militaristically and otherwise this country found it necessary to arm in a hurry.

On April 14, 1917, George Creel was appointed chairman of the "Committee on Public Information." Continuing Mr. Ramsaye's account on the event, Mr. Creel's was the "difficult assignment to be at once and the same time something of a censor and very much of a press agent for the war."

Meanwhile the motion pictures made by the Signal Corps, which were the only American war films available, were going to the Red Cross. Their only important distribution was through the Red Cross bureau of pictures to the news-reels. "The films were haphazardly made, haphazardly distributed and presented in the same way."

Charles S. Hart, then an executive of the Hearst magazines organization, was drafted into the service of the Committee on Public Information and assigned by Mr. Creel to look into the matter of motion pictures. Mr. Hart reported shortly that Red Cross distribution was not giving America a proper pictorial message. It was not meant to be a criticism of the Red Cross, because it was not a propaganda organization. It was a mere incident of the jumbled makeshift rush of war moves.

In March of 1918, nearly a year after America's entry into the war, a meeting of Red Cross officials, headed by George Murnane, a New York banker, and the heads of the Creel organization was held at 10 Jackson Place in Washington, headquarters of the Committee on Public Information. As a result of that session the pictorial activities of the war were turned over to Mr. Creel. The Division of Pictures of the Committee on Public Information resulted. Establishing offices in New York, Mr. Hart set about trying to connect the flow of war pictures available from the Signal Corps, and other sources, with the established channel of distribution to the theatres, the motion picture industry.

A curious problem existed. The government could hand a story to the news association and it got wide circulation. If the government handed out a free motion picture, many felt nobody would see it. The government, therefore, was forced into the motion picture business, as a business, through the Division of Pictures of the Committee on Public Information, charging rentals for the films intended to "sell America." Statistically the history of the Government in the war-film business takes about four lines, as reported in "A Million and One Nights," as follows:

Films	Theatre Bookings	Film Rentals
Pershing's Crusaders	4,189	$181,741
America's Answer	4,548	185,144
Under Four Flags.............	1,820	63,946
Official War Review.........	6,950	334,622

And there were some 18,500 theatres operating in those silent-film days of the industry, in which the "Official War Review," most widely circulated of the war publicity films, got little more than one third of the total available circulation. In any new "national emergency," it is not expected that any rentals will be charged theatres, what with the advanced stage of the business, and it is expected that the circulation will be far greater, what with the greater efficiency and centralization of the industry.

Paramount Redeeming Bonds February 20th

Paramount has set February 20th as the date for redemption of $5,000,000 of its six per cent debentures, as authorized recently by the company's board of directors. The debentures to be redeemed were drawn by lot and will cease to bear interest after the redemption dat.

Calling of the debentures leaves $4,500,000 of the six per cent issue still outstanding of an original issue of $26,000,000.

Derr Prepares Four Monogram Pictures

E. B. Derr is ready with four additional stories for production for Monogram, which will make his program total eight films for that company. Frank Melford is associate producer for Mr. Derr.

The four new stories are "Star Reporter," from John T. Neville's screen play, scheduled for production this week; "Undercover Agent," headed for production January 28th, with Martin Mooney, the writer; "The Girl From Rio," scheduled to be started February 15th, with screen play by Tay Waters, and "Prison Born," which may start in March, with David Freeman writing the screen play.

Richey Sees Changes Due in Exhibition

Changes are due in motion picture presentation whereby 75 per cent of the public who today do not attend the motion picture theatres will be attracted, H. M. Richey, director of exhibitor relations for RKO Radio, said Tuesday at the annual convention of the Independent Exhibitors, Inc., of New England at the Statler Hotel in Boston.

Nathan Yamins, former president of national Allied, was reelected president, and so were Max L. Leventon, and Francis C. Lyndon, vice-presidents; Adolph Bendsley, secretary; E. Harold Stoneman, and Arthur K. Howard, business managers.

Mr. Yamins told the delegates that independents were willing to compromise on some industry arguments so that all might prosper.

Mr. Richey said it appeared to him that "the standardization of the industry is at an end and it is under the new set-up that a higher premium will be placed on the individual initiative of various individual companies, theatres, distributors, and it will go right down the line to each small element in the business."

"I believe that there's going to be developed a new technique of showmanship that, starting at the production end will be reflected in new modern methods of distribution," he said. "These changes may be necessary because of a lesser number of higher quality pictures being made, maybe the result of a more or less classification of exhibition, whereby pictures unsold for certain theatres or communities will find a market not recognized today."

Paramount Has 18 Set for Release

Paramount has 26 features set for release from January to May, sales manager Neil Agnew has announced. Eighteen are completed; eight are in production; two are starting. Those completed are "Zaza," "Disbarred," "Ambush," "Two Weeks With Pay," "Paris Honeymoon," "St. Louis Blues," ". . . one third of a nation . . .," "King of Chinatown," "Persons in Hiding," "Sunset Trail," "Cafe Society," "Bulldog Drummond's Secret Police," "The Beachcomber," "Hotel Imperial," "Never Say Die," "I'm from Missouri," "Back to Heaven," "Silver on the Sage."

Radio Film Critics Organize

The New York radio film critics have organized a Radio Film Critics' Circle. The first session was held last week at the Hotel Edison. Their first announced objective is "a code of ethics for radio film commentators."

Anderson Joins Commission

R. E. Anderson, former financial vice-president of Paramount and more recently associated with Tri-National Films, has resigned to become financial adviser to the Maritime Commission in Washington.

Rapp & Rapp, theatre architects, are drawing up plans for direct connections between the Balaban and Katz Chicago, United Artists, Roosevelt and State Lake Theatres and the new subway.

Wanger's Americanism Essay Wins Mention in Air Contest

Producer Writes That "Day of Free Ride to Freedom is Over"

Walter F. Wanger participated in a contest on the question of "What Is America's Greatest Need Today?" broadcast as part of "America's Town Meeting of the Air," and received first honorable mention for an essay which he submitted. Housewives won the first two prizes. The results of the competition were broadcast last Friday evening. Time limitation prevented the broadcasting of Mr. Wanger's essay.

Scented Publicity, Found None

Mr. Wanger almost lost out altogether, as Town Hall officials, apprehensive of being involved in a publicity move, very nearly discarded it, despite opinion among them that it was one of the best entered.

There had been no restrictive conditions attached to the essay rules. Nevertheless, the Town Hall officials were not taking any chances, and so they examined the contents again and carefully, but they found nothing, not even a line, about Hollywood. This only increased their surprise. They went into production reports and discovered that Mr. Wanger's latest picture was "Stagecoach," directed by John Ford, and then re-examined the essay lest there be some reference to the picture in it, which they might have overlooked. However, there was nothing even remotely connected with the film.

They also noticed that his entry was on plain, white stationery, unadorned by any printed reference to his business or occupation, and that the signature was just plain "Walter F. Wanger." There was no further identification.

He got a clean bill of health.

The Essay

Mr. Wanger in his essay said:

"It's a long time since Washington's frozen and starving and dauntless troops at Valley Forge were the measure of the American people's practical devotion to democracy. What America needs today is a rebirth of that spirit, not in its warlike phase but in its quality of a whole people in motion, roused to conscious self-sacrifice . . . working together, not merely talking, to serve the common good.

"We need a new understanding of the privileges, rights, and, above all, the duties of American citizenship. We need the kind of social and political understanding, on the part of each of us, so that every citizen is ready and willing to make the sacrificees required today for the preservation of that liberty which has been won at such great cost and which is the envy of the world. We need a newer Americanism imbued with a truer patriotism—a patriotism that includes respect for the constitution, the government, the American people, and the flag. Mere lip service to democracy is not enough; that which is needed is devoted and self-sacrificing action.

Says System Must Work

Praise of our system is not enough; it must be made to work, Mr. Wanger wrote. A solution must be found for the people's pressing problems; the farmer's, the housing problem, labor's problem. Principally, he said, it means looking at liberty not as a pleasant abstraction, not as the freedom to do nothing, but as the living instrument for achieving a richer life.

"The day is past when democracy can be taken for granted. At home and abroad its cunning and relentless enemies are on the offensive. Its great worth must be fully understood by every citizen, and every citizen must thereby be prepared to pay for the privileges it confers by self-sacrificingly working to defend it. This means more than merely sending a check to a worthy cause; it means more than conscientiously casting a ballot once a year. It means we must have a militant citizenry, roused in defense of our great democratic heritage, and working day by day, individually and cooperatively, to understand the problems facing our country and to solve them.

"The day of the free ride to freedom is over. Our greatest need today is to put American citizenship, through education and action, on a 'pay as you enter' basis."

Walter Wanger's "Trade Winds" has been chosen by executives of Loew's Theatres as the film with which they will inaugurate their single-feature policy in New York City at the Ziegfeld Theatre, commencing February 9th.

Schwartz Heads Cleveland Group

Ernest Schwartz was unanimously re-elected president of the Cleveland Motion Picture Exhibitors Association for the sixth consecutive year last Thursday, while A. E. Ptak, M. B. Horwitz and G. W. Erdman were also unanimously reelected vice-president, treasurer and secretary, respectively. L. G. Baldwin and Frank Porozynski were elected to the board of directors for three years, and Jack Shulman and Myer Kaplan for one year.

The Motion Picture Theatre Owners of Virginia will hold their midwinter convention on Monday in the Shoreham hotel in Washington, with officers to be elected, and the Motion Picture Theatre Owners of Western Pennsylvania and the Independent Theatre Owners of West Virginia will hold a joint meeting at the Waldo Hotel in Clarksburk, West Virginia, on February 28th, at which time trade reform proposals are expected to come up for consideration. The convention of the Independent Theatre Owners of Wisconsin has been postponed to late in February or early in March.

Due to report to New York Allied's regional unit in Syracuse on Wednesday is the committee appointed to study five cent admissions, with an eye to their elimination. At the same meeting a regional secretary is slated for election, as well as appointments made for a grievance board of three members to adjust exhibitor disputes with the Buffalo exchanges.

Dinner for Dunbar, Dortic

The Independent Theatre Owners of West Virginia is tendering a testimonial dinner for Robert Dunbar, of the Warner Pittsburgh exchange, and Charles Dortic of Grand National, on February 8th at the Waldo Hotel, Clarksburg, W. Va. Both Mr. Dunbar and Mr. Dortic were sales representatives for their respective companies in the West Virginia territory.

More Tax Bills; Others Affect Signs, Billboards

A brand new assortment of bills proposed in state and municipal legislatures this week added to the already overflowing legislative hoppers intended to affect motion pictures or motion picture operations, for the most part, adversely. The new crop of laws proposed deal with taxation, two-men-in-a-booth measures, bills regulating signs, billboards and theatre marquees.

State Senator Phelps Phelps has introduced a companion bill in the New York Legislature to that of Assemblyman Robert Crews requiring persons threading up motion picture apparatus for operation in first-class cities to have licenses at all times. Senator William F. Condon, Yonkers, has introduced a bill forbidding the rental or usage of theatres and radio stations for distribution of pamphlets or utterance of statements inciting race hatred or religious bias.

Another bill introduced in Albany is that by Senator Thomas A. Desmond and Assemblyman Herbert Whitehall which would ban roadside signs more than 32 square feet in area within 100 feet from the road, and signs of dimensions greater than 25 feet by 12 within 300 feet.

A bill introduced by Councilman William Keegan in New York City which would amend the present Administrative Code and permit nine-foot marquee signs for theatres was vetoed this week by Mayor LaGuardia and returned to the City Council, which passed the law over the veto.

An amendment to the state law governing Sunday shows in Rhode Island, providing for the presentation of legitimate theatre attractions, has been introduced in the State Senate. Senator Henry R. DiMascolo, who introduced the bill, said he did so at the request of "Providence theatre men."

Citizens of Eastman, Ga., have voted 443 to 327 in favor of showing motion pictures on Sunday for charity.

A Sunday film bill, legalizing Sunday films in Delaware under local option after two in the afternoon, has been introduced in the state legislature. The measure contains a clause providing a referendum for cities and towns on the matter.

In a move to increase municipal revenue, the Woonsocket, R. I., Board of Police Commissioners has increased theatre licensing fees and authorized Mayor Felix A. Toupin to consider placing firemen on duty at all theatres daily. In place of the $2,190 paid by Woonsocket's six theatres to the city each year, the increased license fees and anticipated cost of the firemen would bring $13,728 into the city treasury.

Motion picture operators have filed a two-men-in-a-booth bill in the Connecticut Legislature. A similar bill has been defeated seven times in the past. The bill is filed as a public health and safety measure.

A measure taxing admissions to theatres and other places of amusement has been introduced in the Georgia House by Representative Cooper of Dawson County. It would apply a tax of one cent on each 10-cent unit of the purchase price of admission.

The Cleveland City council has before it a bill to license all marquees. The bill restricts marquees to lettering, and forbids the use of valances, or signs over the marquee.

Twentieth Century-Fox on Tuesday in superior court, in Hollywood, filed suit against the three Ritz Brothers, Harry, Al, and Jim, asking $150,000 in damages, and charging that the three comedians failed to report for work on "The Gorilla."

Trailer-Made Sues National Screen

Trailer-Made, Inc., filed suit for $300,000 on Tuesday in the New York federal district court against National Screen Service, alleging that company had induced five large theatre circuits to breach impending contracts with Trailer-Made. The plaintiff asks $100,000 for "loss of profits," and $200,000 for "loss of prestige."

The circuits mentioned are Fox West Coast, 200 theatres; Fox Midwest, 109 theatres; Fox Intermountain, 80 theatres; Skouras Theatres, 64 theatres, and Warner Brothers Circuit, 451 theatres. The suit charges that National Screen induced them to refrain from signing the contracts. All the circuits have been National's customers for years.

M. E. Comerford, Circuit Executive, Dies in Miami

M. E. Comerford, chief executive of the Comerford Circuit of New York and Pennsylvania, died Wednesday night in Jackson Memorial Hospital, Miami, Fla. He had been taken ill of pneumonia last week while on vacation in Florida and subsequently suffered a heart attack.

Mr. Comerford became associated with motion picture exhibition shortly after Thomas Edison marketed his invention. He opened his first theatres in Philadelphia and Baltimore and later in Scranton, Wilkes Barre and through the northeastern section of Pennsylvania. Organizer and president of the first theatre owners organization in Pennsylvania, he became one of the founders of the Motion Picture Theatre Owners of America and for years was a national director of that organization.

The Comerford circuit was merged with the Paramount-Publix circuit during the formation of that organization, but Mr. Comerford reacquired control in 1933 and was its active head since then.

He was a civic leader in Scranton, where he resided, and was a director of the Chamber of Commerce. Frank C. Walker, head of the circuit, and Mr. Comerford's nephew, was at his bedside.

Eastern Pennsylvania Allied

The new Allied of Eastern Pennsylvania board of governors, elected Tuesday, comprises Morris Wax, Milton Rogasner, and Ben Fertel, who will serve three years; Luke Gring, David Milgrim, and Columbus Stamper, to serve two years; E. B. Gregory, Charles Steifel, and Harry Perlman, who will serve one year. The foregoing are from Philadelphia. Out-of-town members are Al Fischer and Joe Conway, for three years; Harry Fried and Henry Sork, for two years.

Shapiro Succeeds Birdwell

Victor Mansfield Shapiro has been appointed advertising and publicity director of Selznick International. He succeeds Russell Birdwell, who resigned to head his own publicity organization.

Fox Winding Up Air Tour of 18 Cities for "Spin"

Charles E. McCarthy, of Twentieth-Century-Fox, on Wednesday reported progress by the two coast-to-coast exploitation airplane units sent out by the company to draw public attention to its film "Tail Spin."

Two groups of noted women flyers and groups of Fox studio girls, all bedecked in "Tail Spin" uniforms, return to New York next Thursday in time for a trade and press preview and banquet at the Waldorf Astoria, honoring the "Ninety-niners' Club," women flyers' organization.

Starting from Los Angeles on January 28th, one flight traversed the northern route eastward, and the other the southern. Fox sent out advance campaign men to all of the 18 places being covered. Receptions, luncheons, testimonials and whatnot, culminated in each instance with an "official" delivery of a "Tail Spin" print to the local theatre booking it.

The southern group was headed by Betty Huyler Gillies and Cecile Kinyon, fliers; Gloria and Barbara Brewster, Alice Armand and Iva Stewart, of Fox studio, and William Chambliss, of Mr. McCarthy's staff.

From Kansas City, Oklahoma City, Dallas, New Orleans, Memphis, Atlanta, Philadelphia and Boston, they wired word of Mayoralty airport receptions, fire and police department escorts, radio and press interviews, City Hall presentations, etc. In many sections local exhibitors participated.

The northern touring unit wired in virtually the same progress on the campaign, visiting San Francisco, Seattle, Denver, Chicago, St. Louis, Detroit, Cleveland and Pittsburgh. Rita Nichols and Margot Bain Tanner are flying. Lillian Porter, Dorothy Dearing, Jean Valerie and Helen Erickson, with James Johnson, also of the home office press staff, in charge.

Brulatour Leaves Hospital; Appears in Court

Jules Brulatour, distributor of motion picture film, was released last Sunday from New York City's Lenox Hill Hospital, where he was treated for a gunshot wound in the neck, and on Tuesday was released in felony court, on $500 bail for trial in Special Sessions, the charge being violation of New York's Sullivan law, which forbids the possession of unlicensed pistols. Mr. Brulatour has explained to the police that he wounded himself accidentally, while cleaning the gun. Attorney Max D. Steur represented him.

Universal Sues Tippetts

Universal Pictures on Wednesday filed suit in New York supreme court for $270,000 damages and an accounting against John D. and Eugene T. Tippett, citing a deal between the Tippetts and Carl Laemmle, Sr., former Universal president, on commissions on the sale of raw film to Universal.

Rochelle Hudson has been placed under long term contract by Columbia Pictures.

An all-fun cast in an all-heart show!..

..with Bobby Breen better than ever!

All these box-office names playing roles that you might have chosen for them yourself!...What a "family"...What a crew! —for fresh adventure, heart-hitting drama and rousing laughs in a story locale new to the screen—San Francisco's colorful colony of lovable fisherfolk!...Sol Lesser gave this homespun story everything it needs for big box-office click!...Sure-fire for all types of audiences—everywhere!

BOBBY BREEN

Fisherman's Whar

with LEO
CARRILLO
HENRY ARMETTA
LEE PATRICK and SLICKER THE SEAL

PRODUCED BY SOL LESSER DIRECTED BY BERNARD VORHAUS
SCREEN PLAY BY BERNARD SCHUBERT · IAN HUNTER
HERBERT CLYDE LEWIS

RKO RADIO PICTURES

IN THE CUTTING ROOM

Federal Offense

(Paramount)

Melodrama

Just a few days ago Paramount previewed "Persons in Hiding," the subject matter of which was found in several chapters of the book of the same title, by J. Edgar Hoover, head G-man. Trade and daily newspaper reviewers were fairly unanimous that the picture was entertainment of better than ordinary caliber. Now, the studio has taken other chapters, assigned Horace McCoy, who collaborated with W. R. Lipman on the story of the previous picture, and placed the property in the hands of Edward T. Lowe to produce and Louis King to direct, as they did before. These episodes, documentary and imaginative, real and fictitious, in the Hoover book will be released as "Federal Offense."

This time renegade doctors, off-shoots of gangsterism, will be the centers of attention. The story details the practices of men of medicine who seek a quick way to wealth bv treating wounded criminals, performing facial operations to conceal identities, and so on.

With whatever impression "Persons in Hiding," may attain as an entertainment and commercial feature to serve as a springboard from which to dive into exploitation campaigns, the production will feature Lloyd Nolan, who scored a major hit in "St. Louis Blues," J. Carrol Naish, newcomer Shirley Logan, who will follow the footsteps of Patricia Morison, Heather Angel, Brod Crawford, Robert Wilcox, Richard Carle, John Eldredge, George Meeker, Raymond Hatton and Philip Warren.

Release date: May 5, 1939 (tentative).

Juarez

(Warner)

Historical Melodrama

To a great many persons Juarez is just a word on the map, the name of a city on the south side of the United States-Mexico border.

In the early 19th century two boys of strange destiny were born. One, the child of poor, illiterate Zapotecan Indian parents, was born in an adobe hut in Mexico. He was named Benito Pablo Juarez. Twenty-one years later, roaring guns, blaring trumpets and banners flying over a Vienna palace heralded the birth of the Archduke Maxmillian von Hapsburg, brother of Franz Josef, next in line to the Austrian crown. The Indian lad, as our own Abraham Lincoln, fought, studied and won his way to power in statecraft. His only tools were a great will to learn and an inflexible ideal. Of Maximillian, "Juarez" is the story of a patriot who lived to triumph; of a scion of royalty who died before a firing squad. These two were central figures in as amazing a piece of international banditry as ever was attempted.

The United States was engaged in the Civil War. Mexico was a constitutional democracy. Juarez, an inspired liberator, had declared a moratorium on foreign debts, given the land back to the people. Native reactionaries, conspiring with Napoleon III, planning to circumvent the Monroe Doctrine and forestall U. S. intervention, connived a plebiscite whereby the Mexican people should declare for a monarchial government. Court intrigue and international banking chicanery chose Maximillian and his wife Carlotta to be Emperor and Empress of Mexico. The fate of Mexico was placed in the hands of Juarez and Maximillian. The emperor came to realize that he was the victim of a gigantic fraud. He tried to be a just ruler.

Meanwhile Juarez, beaten and hunted, fought guerrilla battles, strove to keep the soul of free Mexico alive. Peace came to the United States and a reunited nation told France to take the French flag out of Mexico, to remove the phantom crown. Maximillian, deserted by all, even his wife, died before a firing squad. Juarez, who ordered his death, came to mourn at his bier.

Warners is producing "Juarez" on a gigantic scale. It may be expected that settings, backgrounds and other sustaining detail will take rank with the most impressive the screen has seen.

The company has regimented a true all-star cast. Paul Muni will be seen as Juarez, Brian Aherne as Maximillian. Bette Davis is Carlotta and Claude Rains, Napoleon III. Other figures will be relived in the persons of Gale Sondergaard, John Garfield, Donald Crisp, Gilbert Roland, Joseph Calleia, Pedro de Cordoba, Harry Davenport, Robert Warwick, John Miljan, Hugh Sothern, Frank Reicher and nearly a score more.

William Dieterle who has accounted for many of Warners' most successful pictures, particularly the biographical "Story of Louis Pasteur" and "Life of Emile Zola," is directing.

Release date: To be determined.

Wuthering Heights

(UA-Goldwyn)

Melodrama

At first consideration it might seem that "Wuthering Heights" will be difficult to exploit. So it will if only routine methods are adapted. But a more probing analysis bares unique and potent facts upon which an interesting campaign may be based.

Important is Samuel Goldwyn's reputation for turning out class pictures. The Emily Bronte novel, written over a century ago, has been established as a classic in literary merit and appeal. Two very modern-minded writers, Charles MacArthur and Ben Hecht, remarkably successful in evolving a stirring "Gunga Din" from Kipling's epic poem, were charged with the task of transposing the written words to a melodramatic romance for the films. The production is being directed by William Wyler, maker of "Jezebel" for Warners and Goldwyn's "Dodsworth," "Dead End," "Come and Get It" and "These Three."

"Wuthering Heights" is an English story. Its setting is the stony, forbidding moors of the Yorkshire country, its characters are a moody and brooding folk. Their happinesses are few and far between.

There will be an all-English cast. Merle Oberon, David Niven, Donald Crisp and Miles Mander are well known to domestic audiences. Hugh Williams and Laurence Olivier have appeared in a few Hollywood pictures, but their greatest success was attained in British-produced films. Leo G. Carroll, Flora Robson, Geraldine Fitzgerald, Cecil Humphries, Romaine Callendar and Helen Grant are only vaguely known, if known at all, by American theatre goers.

In character the story is somber melodrama. From the time he was a foundling the central character has known no happiness. A victim of persecution, morose, ill tempered, cruel, the only brightness in his life is love with a girl whom he cannot have. Consequently he lives for vengeance. He becomes rich. Those who persecuted him become poor. To avenge himself upon the woman he wants, he marries another, but makes his wife's life as cold and heartless as his own. When the girl he loved dies, he blames himself as her murderer. He finds solace by wandering with her ghost on the moors and dying with that ghost cradled in his arms.

It will be noted that "Wuthering Heights" is an emotion thriller rather than a physical thriller. Consequently its primary appeal will be to specialized audiences. Those who expect "galloping" in a picture won't find any in "Wuthering Heights." On the other hand there will be plenty of melodrama, the result of the impact of clashing personalities and emotions.

Release date: To be determined.

On Trial

(Warner)

Melodrama

"On Trial," an Elmer Rice stage play, has been adapted to the screen under its title at least twice before; the last time about ten years ago. Variations of its theme have been the subject of pictures countless times. Nevertheless, many have forgotten it, and a generation of theatre-goers has grown up to whom the story is brand new.

Bryan Foy is producing the 1939 version and Terry More is directing from a screen play by Don Ryan.

The production does not boast any exceptional cast while some of the players are familiar, the real showmanship meat of "On Trial," undoubtedly will be found in the story itself. However, John Litel, Margaret Lindsay, Janet Chapman, Nedde Harrigan, James Stephenson and Edward Norris are listed as the principals.

A young man is on trial charged with murdering a wealthy roué. He pleads guilty and, despite the judge's interest in his behalf, tries to force himself into the electric chair. His attorney, a young inexperienced laywer, receives no assistance from his client. The attorney, without the knowledge of his client, brings his wife and child into the case. Then things take a melodramatic turn.

Release date: To be determined.

Elman Celebrating 30th Film Year with Johnston Jubilee

Henri Elman, president of Monogram's Chicago and Indianapolis exchanges, will celebrate his 30th year in the motion picture industry in connection with the W. Ray Johnston Silver Jubilee, during February and March.

Mr. Elman started his career in 1906 in Chicago when he worked for the White City Amusement Park. He entered the film business in the Warner Brothers distributing office in Chicago and in 1910 he joined the Universal exchange there when that company was owned by Carl Laemmle.

MAJORS CITED FOR NLRB VIOLATIONS; UNIONS GIVEN AUTONOMY BY IATSE

Board Issues Formal Complaint Against 10 Studios, in Fight Between Writers Guild and Screen Playwrights for Say

Charging a long list of violations of the National Labor Relations Act, the National Labor Relations Board at Washington issued a formal complaint over the weekend against ten Hollywood studios, thereby accentuating the fight between the Screen Writers Guild and the Screen Playwrights for control of the producers' screen writers. The NLRB ordered the majors to hearings on February 13th in Los Angeles.

Named in the complaint were Universal Pictures, Hal Roach Studios, Selznick International, Twentieth Century-Fox, Loew's, Warner Brothers, RKO, Columbia Pictures, Paramount and Samuel Goldwyn, Inc.

Certified Guild

The national board explained that on August 8th last, it certified the Screen Writers Guild, after hearings in complaints against MGM and the Motion Picture Producers Association, as having been selected as bargaining representatives by a majority of persons employed by each respondent in those cases as screen writers. Thereafter, it was said, the Guild requested that the other Hollywood studios recognize it, but was refused.

The complaint charges that the refusal to recognize and bargain with the Guild constitutes unfair labor practices under the Wagner Act and that the ten studios, by their refusal to recognize, negotiate and bargain with the Guild as exclusive representative of their screen writers, "have interfered with, restrained and coerced, and are interfering with, restraining and coercing their employees in the exercise of their rights" under the Act.

Charges "Plan of Interference"

Each of the companies is charged with engaging in a "plan of interference" with the self-organization of its screen writer employees and with their freedom of choice of representatives for collective bargaining since July 5, 1935, "and particularly between March 1, 1936, and Feb. 10, 1937."

Each of the companies, in pursuance of that "plan," is charged with "making known to said employees respondent's disapproval of and hostility to the Guild; making known to said employees respondent's opposition to membership in or assistance to the Guild," and individual companies are charged with other activities, such as, in the case of Universal, "soliciting its employees to resign from the Guild and furnishing to said employees prepared resignation forms for said purpose; and making speeches and distributing propaganda calculated and intended to interfere with the internal affairs of the Guild, and advising members of the Guild to vote against certain proposed organizational changes in the Guild."

Additional Charges

Other charges are that Twentieth Century-Fox pursued its plan by "making speeches to its employees in which the officers and leaders of the Guild were referred to in opprobrious, vile and defamatory language; by making speeches to its employees and using language hostile and derogatory to the Guild; by threatening to discharge and otherwise discriminate against employees who failed to resign from the Guild; and by threatening to 'blacklist' employees who failed to resign." Loew's and Warner Brothers are charged with "threatening to close down studios if certain organizational changes in the Guild occurred."

SAMUEL GOLDWYN REJOINS THE AMPP

Samuel Goldwyn, on Monday, rejoined the Association of Motion Picture Producers, west coast affiliate of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, from which he resigned about six years ago.

The principal topics at the meeting were withdrawal of the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees from the basic pact; and the methods of future collective bargaining with the four IATSE locals which last week were given complete autonomy by the IATSE leadership.

In furtherance of their plans, the Board alleged, the respondents entered into an agreement with Screen Playwrights on Feb. 10, 1937, effective April 19, 1937, when they "knew or in the exercise of reasonable care should have known that Screen Playwrights did not represent a majority of persons employed as screen writers by any one of said respondents." Thereafter, it was charged, the companies insisted that certain parts of the agreement with Screen Playwrights be incorporated in individual contracts with their employees.

St. Louis Operators Sue Union Leaders

George E. Browne, president of the IATSE, was named last week in a suit filed in St. Louis by the members of Local 143, Motion Picture and Projecting Machine Operators Union, charging "gross mismanagement of union affairs." Named with Mr. Browne were John P. Nick, president of the local, and Clyde Weston, its business agent. Hearing is set for February 9th.

Mr. Nick is under indictment with Edward M. Brady, member of the state legislature.

In Kansas City, exhibitors Homer F. Pautz and Charles W. Rohde, of the Sun theatre, in the suburbs, sought an injunction in federal court to restrain the IATSE projectionists' union, Local 170, from picketing. The petition was dismissed on the grounds that the federal court had no jurisdiction.

Completing a final step in the reorganization proceedings of the Roxy Theatre, in New York, whereby 20th-Century-Fox acquires and operates the house, Federal Judge Francis G. Caffey on Tuesday terminated the reorganization proceedings, declared the deal was "fully consummated," discharged Howard S. Cullman from his duties as trustee of the Roxy Theatre Corporation, provided for the immediate release of the company from all debts and liabilities, and ended the rights and interests of its stockholders.

Decision Is Expected to Withdraw IATSE as Force in Dealings of Hollywood Producers with "Big Five"

More than 12,000 members of four IATSE affiliated unions in Hollywood were informed this week by its chief officers, after the executive board meeting in Miami, that the local unions in Hollywood henceforth would deal with the producers individually. The ruling, effective immediately, is expected to withdraw the IATSE as an effective force in the dealings of the producers with the socalled "Big Five." These are the IATSE, American Federation of Musicians, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, Teamsters' Union, and Carpenters' Union, all of whom had a basic agreement, with the studios, having about three years more to run. Last week's ruling also is expected to result in the dismissal of charges before the National Labor Relations Board that the IATSE is, in effect, a "company union," coercive in not allowing the Hollywood locals to negotiate their own agreements.

The Unions Affected

The Hollywood unions affected are the Studio Technicians Local 37; International Photographers Local 659; Laboratory Technicians Local 683, and Sound Technicians Local 695. Jeff Kibre, of the Motion Picture Technicians Committee, had filed charges with the NLRB.

The letter of Harold V. Smith, international representative of the IATSE, to the membership, read, in part, as follows:

"International President George E. Browne has stated to the studio locals that he does not wish to quarrel with the membership. I also wish to state that in granting the privilege to the local executive boards and officials the power to negotiate matters affecting your wage scales and working conditions, that neither your international president nor I have any more desire now than in the past to quarrel with the membership.

"Your interests are our interests. You may rest assured your international officials are vitally concerned in your welfare, and it is the sincere prayer of your international president and myself that the demands to be made by your executive boards and officers will be recognized by the motion picture studios and will develop to a full measure with benefit and abundance to you as members of the studio locals of the International Alliance."

Mr. Browne also wrote personal letters to the executives of the four unions affected, explaining the new policy.

The Hollywood locals met on Monday to set up jurisdictional machinery to settle local differences between the IATSE locals and various carpenters' and utility workers' locals.

Elevated to Stardom

John Garfield, Ann Sheridan and the "Dead End" youngsters have been elevated to stardom by Warner Brothers.

Lya Lys, now appearing on Broadway, has received a term contract from Warner Brothers and may be assigned to "Confessions of a Nazi Spy."

The Box Office Champions For December

ANGELS WITH DIRTY FACES: Produced and distributed by Warner Brothers. Associate producer, Sam Bischoff. Directed by Michael Curtiz. Screen play by John Wexley and Warren Duff. Original story by Rowland Brown. Photographed by Sol Polito. Film editor, Owen Marks. Cast: James Cagney, Pat O'Brien, Humphrey Bogart, Ann Sheridan, George Bancroft, Billy Halop, Bobby Jordan, Leo Gorcey, Gabriel Dell, Huntz Hall, Bernard Punsley, Joe Downing. Released November 18, 1938.

DAWN PATROL: Produced and distributed by Warner Brothers. Associate producer, Robert Lord. Original screen play by Seton I. Miller and Dan Totheroh. Directed by Edmund Goulding. Assistant director, Frank Heath. Photographed by Tony Gaudio. From an original story by John Monk Saunders. Music by Max Steiner. Special effects by Byron Haskins and Edwin DuPar. Art director, John Hughes. Cast: Errol Flynn, Basil Rathbone, David Niven, Donald Crisp, Melville Cooper, Barry Fitzgerald, Carl Esmond, Peter Willes, Morton Lowry, Michael Brooke, James Burke. Released December 24, 1938.

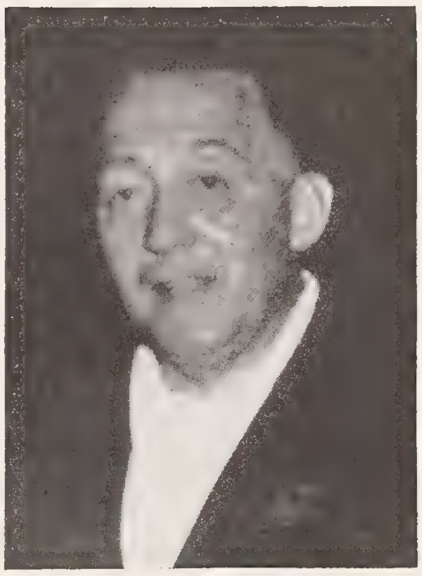
Ray Enright, director, "Hard to Get".

George B. Seitz, director, "Out West with the Hardys".

SWEETHEARTS: Distributed by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. Produced by Hunt Stromberg. Directed by W. S. Van Dyke II. Book and lyrics by Fred de Gresac, Harry B. Smith and Robert B. Smith. Music by Victor Herbert. Screen play by Dorothy Parker and Alan Campbell. Musical adaptation by Herbert Stothart. Special lyrics by Bob Wright and Chet Forrest. Dances and ensembles by Albertina Rasch. Art director, Cedric Gibbons. Photographed by Oliver T. Marsh. Color director, Natalie Kalmus. Montage by Slavko Vorkapich. Cast: Jeanette MacDonald, Nelson Eddy, Frank Morgan, Ray Bolger, Florence Rice, Mischa Auer, Herman Bing, Reginald Gardiner, Fay Holden. Released December 30.

THE YOUNG IN HEART: Produced by David O. Selznick. Distributed by United Artists. Directed by Richard Wallace. Screen play by Paul Osborn. From a story by I. A. R. Wylie. Assistant producer, William H. Wright. Photographed by Leon Shamroy. Art director, Lyle Wheeler. Assistant director, Eric Stacey. Cast: Janet Gaynor, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., Paulette Goddard, Roland Young, Billie Burke, Richard Carlson, Minnie Dupree, Eily Malyon, Lucille Watson. Released October 21, 1938.

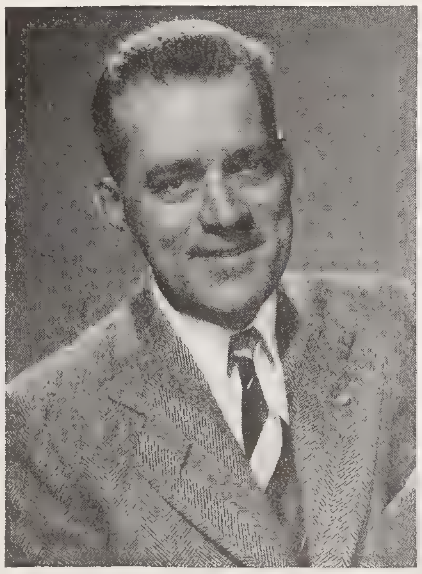
Michael Curtiz, director, "Angels with Dirty Faces".



Edmund Goulding, director, "Dawn Patrol".

HARD TO GET: Produced and distributed by Warner Brothers. Executive producer, Hal B. Wallis. Associate producer, Sam Bischoff. Screen play by Jerry Wald, Maurice Leo and Richard Macaulay. From an original story by Wally Klein and Joseph Schrank. Directed by Ray Enright. Dialogue direction by Hugh Cummings and Gene Lewis. Assistant director, Jesse Hibbs. Photographed by Charles Rosher. Edited by Thomas Richards. Cast: Dick Powell, Olivia de Havilland, Charles Winninger, Allen Jenkins, Bonita Granville, Melville Cooper, Isabel Jeans, Grady Sutton, Thurston Hall, John Ridgely. Released November 5, 1938.

OUT WEST WITH THE HARDYS: Produced and distributed by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. Directed by George B. Seitz. Screen play by Kay Van Ripper, Agnes Christine Johnston and William Ludwig. Photographed by Lester White. Film editor, Ben Lewis. Cast: Lewis Stone, Mickey Rooney, Cecilia Parker, Fay Holden, Ann Rutherford, Sara Haden, Don Castle, Virginia Weidler, Gordon Jones, Ralph Morgan, Nana Bryant, Tom Neal, Anthony Allan. Released November 25, 1938.



W. S. Van Dyke II, director, "Sweethearts".

Richard Wallace, director, "The Young in Heart".

HOLLYWOOD'S WORLD FILM INCOME DECLINES SIX PER CENT IN A YEAR

Drop Is Considerably Sharper in Totalitarian States; Equipment Exports, Except in 8 mm. and 16 mm. Projectors, Less

First tangible and official disclosure of the extent of Hollywood's film market losses abroad, as a result of the attacks from several quarters, came this week from the United States Government, which reported that U. S. film exports to the world's markets in 1938 dropped 6.1 per cent. This is an average for all of the world, the decline having been considerably sharper in the "totalitarian" states of Italy, Japan and Germany, with its absorption of Austria and part of Czechoslovakia.

Increased business in South and Central America was noted.

Exports Down 13,000,000 Feet

American motion picture film exports for the full 12 months of 1938 show a decrease of 13,000,000 feet in positive and negative sound films over those exported in 1937, according to Nathan D. Golden, chief of the Motion Picture Division of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce of the U. S. Department of Commerce, Washington.

In 1938 exportation of motion picture entertainment films to all foreign markets totaled 202,526,821 feet with a declared value of $4,519,594, as compared with 215,721,956 feet with a value of $4,797,641 for 1937. This is a decrease of 6.1 per cent, in 1938, of all films exported. The values are not full production values, but proportionate values based on their print cost, plus a percentage of sale possibilities.

Mr. Golden reported the 1938 exports of American motion picture positive sound film to the 10 leading markets were in the following order: The United Kingdom in 1938 supplanted Argentina as our largest consumer of American motion pictures. In 1938 there were exported to the United Kingdom 14,359,042 feet of American film with a declared value of $380,040, as compared with 15,432,385 feet valued at $396,627 during 1937.

Argentina Second

Close behind the United Kingdom came Argentina, to which were exported 14,230,004 feet of American pictures with a declared value of $241,042 in 1938 as against 17,213,406 feet with a value of $337,638 in 1938.

Brazil maintained its position as our third largest market in point of footage for 1938. During the year just closed, 13,042,075 feet of American films declared at $255,385 were exported to Brazil as compared with 12,856,031 feet of our films valued at $258,336 for the year 1937.

Mexico was in fourth position in 1938, supplanting the British West Indies as our third largest user of films. To Mexico during 1938 we exported 9,045,028 feet of American pictures with a declared value of $264,569 as contrasted with 8,594,637 feet valued at $271,331 exported during the year 1937.

Fifth largest consumer of American films are the British West Indies. In 1938 there were exported 7,581,128 feet of American film valued at $17,388 as against 10,169,863 feet of American motion pictures with a value of $24,762 during the year 1937.

The next five leading markets for American motion pictures during 1938 and comparative exports to these markets during 1937 is given in the following table:

1938

	Feet	Value
France	6,876,093	$174,632
Panama	6,813,912	92,393
South Africa	6,040,263	120,799
Canada	5,898,139	223,716
Cuba	5,300,245	95,934

1937

	Feet	Value
France	7,930,138	$151,492
Panama	10,123,039	127,992
South Africa	4,975,184	114,856
Canada	6,110,452	209,357
Cuba	5,801,007	115,358

REICH VIES WITH U. S. IN ECUADOR

In attempting to obtain the contracts for government radio stations and a radiophone service in Ecuador, the Radio Corporation of America and the American Telephone and Telegraph Co. are reported meeting powerful competition from the German government-sponsored Transocean Service. The German service is reported seeking favor with newspapers in Ecuador's capital, Guayaquil, and offering these part of its news information, gratis. The Transocean Service already is supplying news bulletins to many South American stations and newspapers.

Exports of sensitized not exposed 35 mm. positive motion picture film for the year 1938 totalled 132,573,556 feet with a declared value of $1,238,184 as against exports in 1937 amounting to 134,396,856 feet with a value of $1,362,736. Negative film exports of this type of film during 1938 amounted to 41,034,667 feet valued at $1,086,493 as compared with exports in 1937 totaling 69,100,374 feet valued at $1,757,191.

Exports of sensitized not exposed motion picture film less than one inch, during 1938, amounted to 44,011,816 feet with a declared value placed upon it by the exporter of $1,059,435 as against 36,391,140 feet with a value of $759,979 during the year 1937.

35 mm. Equipment Exports Drop

Exports of all types of motion picture equipment with the exception of sub-standard gauge (8 mm. and 16 mm.) motion picture projectors, during 1938, also show a decrease. During 1937, 1,070 standard gauge 35 mm. projectors valued at $382,729 were exported to all foreign markets as compared with 1,625 projectors valued at $449,142 during the year 1937.

Exports of sub-standard gauge motion picture projectors of 16 mm. or less during 1938 amounted to 25,866 projectors with a value of $754,822 as compared with 21,327 projectors valued at $662,750 for the year 1937. An encouraging increase of more than 4,000 projectors.

Standard gauge 35 mm. camera exports for the year 1938 totalled 197 with a value of $108,445 as against 490 cameras valued at $161,503 during the year 1937.

Sub-standard gauge camera exports of 16 mm. or less, for the year 1938 totalled 25,085 valued at $668,706, a marked decrease of 14,000 cameras for the year, as compared with 39,435 cameras with a value of $1,061,477 during the year 1937.

Recording sound equipment exports for the year 1938 amounted to $283,139 as compared with $1,745,322 in 1937. Sound reproducing equipment valued at $1,340,438 were exported during the calendar year of 1938 as compared with $535,639 during the year 1937. Exports of both types of sound equipment dropped from $2,280,961 in the year 1937, to $1,623,577, said Mr. Golden.

ASCAP Bill In Connecticut

A bill to invoke state regulation of the powers of the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers has been filed in the Connecticut Senate by Senator Roy Enquist, at the request of Irving Jacocks, Jr., president of the Connecticut Motion Picture Theatre Owners. Mr. Jacocks declared it "the first constitutional bill of this kind to be offered." Several anti-ASCAP bills have been enacted or proposed in other states, the constitutionality of some of which are now being challenged in the federal courts.

The bill would require the registration of each copyrighted song by ASCAP or members of ASCAP by name, number, copyright date, name of author and publisher, of present copyright owner and owner of performing rights, at the office of the Secretary of State, together with an affidavit describing performance rights to be sold and authority of affiant to sell. This information will be open to the public or published annually or more often. The act declares it illegal for two or more owners of song copyrights to combine for profit on a blanket royalty unless each member of the association shall make available to each user the right to perform publicly for profit each such copyrighted musical composition owned by him or it at a price established for each separate performance of such song. Price schedule is to be filed with affidavit that price so stated has been determined by copyright owner, not acting in concert with other owners. Schedule is to contain classifications of users, and equal treatment is to be accorded all persons within the same classification. Any person issuing a blanket license for performance rights shall file with the Secretary copy of such license with affidavit. The act would also impose a three per cent gross tax for the act or privilege of selling or licensing performing rights of compositions in this state.

Harry H. Thomas, who recently closed with Tri-National Films to distribute their pictures in the East, has appointed Jerome Wilson as his assistant. Mr. Wilson will work with Merit Pictures Corporation, New York, Mr. Thomas' distributors in the metropolitan territory.

THESE BEAUTIFUL EYES . . . turned a yellow rat

into the most dangerous tommy-gunner
the world has ever known!

They are the EYES of America's No. 1 Gun-Moll
. . . the woman behind the man behind the gun!

Read about her on the next page →

...She's beautiful

...She's dangerous

...blasting her way from the amazing, true pages of J. Edgar Hoover's "PERSONS IN HIDING" ...the most sensational crime drama ever to explode on the screen!

J. EDGAR HOOVER
Director of Federal Bureau of Investigation

"Unquestionably top-of-the-bill quality from every angle. The real, authenticated article. All other previous excursions into this field have been ordinary 'cops-and-robbers' stuff." —Hollywood Reporter

Adapted from J. EDGAR HOOVER'S

"PERSONS IN HIDING"

LYNNE OVERMAN · PATRICIA MORISON · J. CARROL NAISH · JUDITH BARRETT
A Paramount Picture · Directed by LOUIS KING · Screen Play by William R. Lipman and Horace McCoy

PRINTED IN U. S. A.

THE HOLLYWOOD SCENE

All for the Best

In the last few months every major studio has reduced its contract player lists. Economy was advanced as the reason. Of course, a lot of dead wood was eliminated, but Hollywood also thus had a reply to the government contention that the majors were monopolizing talent.

The victims, stock company members, a few leading players and potentialities to whom no opportunity to develop was granted, were at first just as happy as anyone else who loses his job.

But in Hollywood, where everybody seems to be equipped with something more useful than a pitchfork when it's raining twenty dollar gold pieces, the purge became a boon. Stock in the free lance market jumped. Producers found they no longer had to look at the same old faces playing secondary roles. Casting directors, to whom the contract list was as a mill-stone, saw that they could go into the open market and buy talent previously denied them. Players who had worn the same suit until it was threadbare were amazed to find out that other bosses were eager to employ them and dress them up in new outfits.

Players who had been so indelibly typed that it seemed all the gasoline in the world couldn't wash away the ink marks, exploited potentialities that couldn't be typed. Journeymen artists, whose work often had made stars of apprentices, found themselves in demand, with their former employers in competition with rivals for their services.

So far, no reports have come in from exhibitors or the public as to what the purge has meant to them. When both become aware of what has been going on, each will probably feel that he, too, has been declared in on the dividend.

Production Rides High

Coming into the stretch week of January, Hollywood finished thirteen pictures and started eight, indicative of the speed at which the production wheels will roll for some time.

Over at RKO-Radio, where everyone seems to be in the mood to bet that "Gunga Din" will outgross any rival attraction, three pictures were completed, to leave only one actually in work. "The Castles" finally was turned over to the music scoring and editing departments. Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers are the stars. Lew Fields, Walter Brennan, Edna May Oliver, Janet Beecher, Robert Strange, Frances Mercer and Donald MacBride have important roles in re-creating the life story of the famous dancing pair. "A Knight in Ghost Town" will feature George O'Brien with Rosalind Keith, Chill Wills, Ward Bond, Monty Montague and Ray Whitly. The cast of "Picardy Max" lists James Ellison, Helen Wood, Robert Kent, June Clayworth, Robert Warwick, Leonard Penn, John Wray and Brandon Tynan.

Monogram wound up two productions. John Trent, Milburn Stone, Marjorie Reynolds, Jason Robards, Lucien Littlefield, Polly Ann Young and Tommy Bupp are in "Sky Pirate." Leading players in "Star Reporter" are Warren Hull, Wallis Clark, Marsha Hunt, Virginia Howell and Clay Clement.

CHICAGO CHILDREN VOTE FOR MICKEY MOUSE

Mickey Mouse is movie hero number one among Chicago children, and "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" is their favorite picture, according to a recent survey made by a committee of the Women's Exchange of Chicago. Conducted on successive Saturday mornings at the Esquire theatre, the survey was made among 300 children.

Two pictures also were completed at Universal. The stars of "You Can't Cheat an Honest Man" are W. C. Fields, Charlie McCarthy and Edgar Bergen. Princess Baba, Ed Brophy, Grady Sutton and Frank Melton also will be seen. Preston Foster, Irene Hervey, Walter Woolf King and Fred Keating finished "Key Woman."

MGM completed "I Take This Woman," with Spencer Tracy, Hedy Lamarr, Walter Pidgeon, Ina Claire, Majorie Main and Louis Calhern.

Republic completed "I Was a Convict," featuring Barton MacLane, Beverly Roberts, Clarence Kolb, Horace MacMahon and Ben Weldon.

"Federal Offense" came off the stages at Paramount. Lloyd Nolan is starred, supported by J. Carroll Naish, Janice Logan, Heather Angel, Brod Crawford, John Eldredge, Richard Carle, Philip Warren, Raymond Hatton and George Meeker.

After a few days of pick-up shots, Warner Brothers concluded that "Dodge City" was finished as far as the cast was concerned. It will present Errol Flynn, Olivia de Havilland, Ann Sheridan, Bruce Cabot, Frank McHugh, Alan Hale and Victor Jory in the leads, supported by Henry Travers, John Litel, Henry O'Neill, Guinn Williams, Gloria Holden, Douglas Fowley, Paul Guilfoyle and Cora Witherspoon.

Fine Arts finished "Panama Cipher," in which will be seen Charlotte Wynters, Leon Ames, Weldon Heyburn, Sidney Miller, Adrienne Ames and William von Brincken.

Columbia's "Blondie Meets the Boss" will feature Penny Singleton, Arthur Lake and Larry Simms, with Jonathan Hale, Dorothy Moore, Don Beddoe, Linda Winter, Gene Anderson and Walter Sands.

"Gone" Starts

So much has been said about it that it was almost impossible to surround the start of "Gone with the Wind" with fanfare. The picture is actually on the way. Vivien Leigh, Leslie Howard and Olivia de Havilland were lined up at the starting mark when director George Cukor shouted "Quiet! Roll 'em! Action!" Number one man in the cast, Clark Gable, reports next week.

Another big picture, "Susannah of the Mounties," was one of the pair starting at 20th Century-Fox, given the go signal. Shirley Temple is the star. Margaret Lockwood, Randolph Scott, J. Farrell MacDonald, Moroni Olsen and Victor Jory will be seen with her. Leading players in "News Is Made at Night" are Preston Foster, Lynn Bari, Eddie Collins and Russell Gleason.

With Robert Taylor and Myrna Loy the top line names, MGM started "Lucky Night."

Republic's box office leader, Gene Autry, began work in "Mexicali Rose." He will be supported by Smiley Burnette, Luana Walters and William Royle.

After a few interruptions Warner put "Hell's Kitchen" into work. The "Dead End" kids are the center of activity, which also will concern Margaret Lindsay, Stanley Fields, Ronald Reagan, Grant Mitchell and Charlie Foy.

Paramount's new activity is "The Gracie Allen Murder Case." Gracie, the star, is assisted by Warren William, Kent Taylor, Horace MacMahon, Judith Barrett, Donald MacBride and Jerome Cowan.

For Columbia release Larry Darmour started "The First Ranger." It will present Bill Elliott, Veda Ann Borg, Charles Whittaker, Jack Ingram and Jack LaRue.

Chinese Puzzle

Along about 11:35 p. m. on Thursday, February 23, at the Biltmore hotel, Los Angeles, a lot of pseudo-gold statuettes, real plaques, medallions and diplomas will be handed out, and it will be recorded that the membership of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences has voted the finest achievements in pictures of 1938.

Persons reading about those awards in the newspapers never will understand that they represent a more or less successful solution of a Chinese puzzle more intricate and perishable than a really complex Chinese puzzle.

For example, there are 477 motion pictures listed this year as eligible for honors, which is quite a list to ponder over, considering that a three-to-one shot is deemed a pretty good gamble. What about the risk members of the senior Screen Actors Guild take? All they have to do is nominate five actors for lead, five actors for support, five actresses for lead and five actresses for support. They have only 1,769 names to consider, out of a total of 221 casts. From these eligibles 20 nominees will be chosen for honors which are paralleled only by those won in earlier years.

Writers and directors get an easier break, for they have to glance over only 477 picture titles, try to remember what they were about, and then select their candidates. Yet anyone who can make head or tale of how the scientific and technical awards are made is more than qualified to tell Einstein the solution of his own theories.

In Color

Current features in Technicolor and those either in work or scheduled, are as follows: "Sweethearts," "Wizard of Oz," "Gone with the Wind," "Kentucky," "Jesse James," "The Little Princess," "Untamed," "Dodge City," "Four Feathers," "The Thief of Bagdad," "The Mikado" and "Sixty Glorious Years." The last four mentioned are English productions.

"U" TO EXPAND IN SOUTH AMERICA; "UA" MANAGER SEES UPTURN AHEAD

Exhibitors Leaning Toward American Methods and Finding Them Profitable, Says Paul Wir, United Artists Manager

With United Artists, for one, last year doing the biggest business in its history in Central America, the film interests of the United States can look ahead with confidence to that market, according to Paul Wir (picture in Pictorial Section), United Artists' Panama manager, in New York on a visit. Mr. Wir, with offices in Cristobal, supervises a territory including Panama, Trinidad, Costa Rica, Ecuador, Guatemala, Nicaragua, Salvador, Honduras, British Honduras, Venezuela and Jamaica. In this territory there are as many currencies and problems as there are countries, he said, with most of the 300 theatres inadequately equipped, and illiteracy among the Indian-blooded patrons presenting a handicap to distributors and exhibitors alike.

Adopting U. S. Methods

"Nevertheless, we are making progress and business is up," Mr. Wir declared. "We have better contacts with the exhibitors than before because they seem to be leaning more towards American methods, which they find profitable. Their theatres, for instance, which they used to build without any regard for acoustics and other sound and screen problems, are improving. For instance, there is the Carib theatre in Kingston, Jamaica, which seats 1,300 and has the latest equipment, one of the best equipped theatres in Latin America. Then there is the Lux, in Guatemala, and there are others."

"The exhibitors are slowly adapting themselves to our American exploitation system," he continued. "Of course, in the monopoly situations, we are still at the exhibitor's mercy, and he can sell the picture the way he wants."

The American distributors have largely succeeded in holding down the use of the double feature, he said. "Naturally, such a practice means a loss of revenue," he added.

Want Spanish Language Films

Mr. Wir noted that the demand for Spanish speaking pictures has increased.

"We do our best with as many Spanish language pictures as we can get, and I think we have convinced Spanish producers that they do better in distributing through us than by themselves. That is because we have better entree than they have; we can get better terms from the circuit heads."

He pointed out that the United Artists Spanish speaking release, "Rancho Grande," received "phenomenal contracts," playing many repeat engagements and long first-runs.

"Up to then it had not been the practice to play Spanish pictures first-run, because the product did not warrant it. The public had been educated to American pictures. They had seen only pictures from Spain, and they were weak. Now, Mexico and I think Argentina are copying the American type films."

American films still occupy about 90 per cent of the screen time, Mr. Wir said. They are preferred over German and French films, he said, adding, as an instance, the run of "Algiers" in Venezuela, after the French version, previously played, "couldn't get to first base."

"Hurricane" also was mentioned by him as doing exceptional business. "In fact, all our 'A' pictures do well in my territory," he asserted.

The "pet peeve" of the Latin American is the "social drama," he noted. "Every once in a while we get one of those pictures, with boiled shirts and stiffer dialogue, and the Latin Americans simply can't understand what it is all about. This is particularly true in domestic triangles. Your average Latin American can't understand a thing like divorce, or faithlessness."

"In some of the small backwoods theatres, one man will read the Spanish titles aloud. That is because he is the only one who can read. And, if you were to use the Spanish language in sound, some of the sound in those theatres is so poor you couldn't understand any language!"

Dubbed films are not appreciated, he pointed out. "The Latin audience feels it's a falsehood when favorite actors of other lands speak Spanish. The idea of Shirley Temple speaking Spanish—it's preposterous to them."

Censorship Problems

Of censorship difficulties, he singled out Trinidad as an example. The island has 200,000 East Indians, "easily incited," and "to show those people what execution a machine gun or an automatic will do" is not relished by the authorities.

Scenes portraying violence, and especially revolution, are taboo in spots, he noted. MGM's "The Tale of Two Cities" was withdrawn from exhibition in Jamaica, presumably because of the scenes depicting the French Revolution.

The exhibitor's business season is operated on the calendar year, not the motion picture year.

United Artists is distributing 36 pictures this year in the territory, Mr. Wir said.

"I think we are making the Latin American theatre owner a bit more logical," he concluded. "Whereas before they wanted a full house, no matter what the admission price—and they usually lowered their admission prices—we now have made them see they can keep their prices on a higher level and still make just as much money, and more. Whereas they used to overbuy, with the result that they did not give the individual pictures enough playing time, they are now beginning to realize that a picture should be played for all the time it is worth."

REPUBLIC'S CREDITS AT END OF PICTURE

Upon direct orders from Herbert J. Yates, Republic has curtailed the main leader on all its pictures to include only the title and cast, the remainder of the credits following the picture. The Production Code Administration seal, the IATSE label, and such credits as associate producer, director and writers, are placed at the end of the picture.

The order goes into effect with "The Mysterious Miss X."

Mr. Yates' order was said at the studio to have been predicated upon his belief that credits, exclusive of the cast, mean nothing outside of Hollywood.

German and Italian Films Are Practically Negligible Competition, Says Seidelman, Taking Three-Reel Trailer on Tour

While German and Italian commercial products have made inroads into American business with South America, their films at this time provide "practically no" competition for American pictures, according to J. H. Seidelman (picture in Pictorial Section), general foreign sales manager for Universal, who sailed Wednesday on the SS Gripsholm for a 56-day tour of South America, one feature of which, he said, "represents an entirely new departure in selling films to our Latin-American neighbors," as part of a campaign to extend the South American market for Universal. To date United Artists has been the most active in that market.

Screening Trailer on Ship

Mr. Seidelman took with him a three-reel trailer, which he plans to screen aboard ship for exhibitors, newspapermen, state department officials, and to the local nobility and officials at the 12 ports at which the ship will stop. These ports are Trinidad, Havana, Calloa, Cristobal, Valparaiso, Buenos Aires, Montevideo, Santos and Rio de Janeiro. The trailer contains excerpts from "Three Smart Girls Grow Up," the new Deanna Durbin picture; from "The Spirit of Culver," "The Son of Frankenstein" and "You Can't Cheat an Honest Man." In this trailer Deanna Durbin and Bing Crosby are shown speaking and singing Spanish, and Charlie McCarthy joking in Spanish with W. C. Fields, from "You Can't Cheat an Honest Man." There are also shots of Dannielle Darrieux in her picture, "Rio," and of Irene Dunne. With the trailer will be shown bits from "The Mikado," an English-made picture, with Victor Granados, the composer, advising the Latin-Americans of its merits, in Spanish.

"I had been trying to figure out something which will give a distinctly new keynote to our efforts to exploit the Spanish American market," said Mr. Seidelman, "and I think this is it.

Producing in Mexico City

Mr. Seidelman cited the production, now under way, of three pictures in Mexico City, the producer of which is Ferrando de Fuentes, who is urged by the Hollywood studios of Universal to "draw freely" upon them for technical and story sources, inasmuch as "Mexico City is but a few hours away from Hollywood by airplane."

Mr. Seidelman remarked that he had urged upon the Universal studios the establishment of a Spanish "supervisor" who would see that all films made in English, but dealing with Spanish themes, were in good taste, and accurate.

He cited the singing of a Spanish song by Deanna Durbin in "His First Love."

Regarding the "menace" of foreign competition in South America, Mr. Seidelman doubted that the German film is a force to be reckoned with. "The German films are practically extinct, the Italian films are negligible, and there is no Japanese competition," he said. "The French pictures are some competition; they and the native product. As a matter of fact, there seems to be a measure of resistance, on the part of native customers, to German-made films."

"And we are certainly not lying down," he pointed out. "I don't know of any better flag wavers than the American films."

CAPITAL TAKES UP FORM OF NEW FCC; RADIO STARTS ON NEW ARTISTS PACT

Administration and Regulation of Three-Man Commission Would Be Under an Assistant Secretary of Commerce

Now that President Roosevelt has made public his wishes for a new Federal Communications Commission, plans for such a commission started taking tentative form in Washington this week. The new setup, it is generally agreed, will call for three members, and automatically, if adopted in the present session of Congress, will end the terms of the seven members, who, with Frank R. McNinch as chairman, now comprise the Commission.

Would Be Under Hopkins

Behind the new proposal is understood to be a "blueprint" prepared by Thomas G. Corcoran and Benjamin V. Cohen, long noted as White House aides, calling for laying the administrative and regulatory functions of the commission in the Department of Commerce, under an assistant Secretary of Commerce, who would be responsible to Harry L. Hopkins, the new Secretary of Commerce. The commission's judicial functions would be transferred to an independent body, which would take under advisement censorship problems.

In a move both to forestall a Congressional investigation of the FCC and to give Chairman McNinch scope for the "clean up" which he was appointed a year ago to undertake, the President, in a letter to Senator Burton K. Wheeler of Montana, chairman of the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee, had asked enactment of legislation setting up a new administrative body and clearly defining the policies of Congress with respect to broadcasting.

The new body asked by the President will be the third set up in 12 years in the effort to develop a satisfactory control of broadcasting.

Originally in the hands of the Federal Radio Commission created in February, 1927, enforcement of the radio laws was vested in the Communications Commission in June, 1934, as a result of criticisms of the original body. The setting up of the new commission, however, failed to still the criticisms which had been directed at the radio board, and enforcement since has further suffered by continuous dissension among the members of the commission and the frequent public airing of their controversies.

Chief Difficulties in 1937

The major difficulties of the FCC, however, began in 1937 when protests against programs and commission policies were voiced in Congress and attempts made by the late Representative William P. Connery of Massachusetts to obtain an investigation.

Following Representative Connery's death, his brother, Lawrence J. Connery, who succeeded him in Congress, continued to agitate for an investigation, and last spring, succeeded in getting House consideration of a resolution. The President meanwhile had appointed Mr. McNinch, formerly chairman of the Federal Power Commission, as head of the FCC with instructions to clean it up, and by appealing to the House for an opportunity for Mr. McNinch to show what he could do, Administration leaders succeeded in defeating the resolution. Mr. McNinch has incurred considerable enmity, both in the commission and in Congress, by his "purge" of a number of FCC officials, his allegedly high-handed methods in pushing reorganization and his failure to initiate the study of alleged monopoly in broadcasting which he had promised House leaders he would undertake. Hearings on the question of monopoly were not begun until November 14, last, and will not be concluded for several months, effectually eliminating all chance of a report to Congress this session.

RADIO STATION USES FILM EDITING METHOD

Copying the methods used in motion picture production, whereby a scene is "shot" and recorded, then subjected to editing, New York City's municipal station, WNYC, is experimenting with "on-the-spot" sound in transcribed broadcasts. The first of a series of test programs on the various city departments has been completed and is ready for broadcast. It depicts a day spent in a neighborhood health center. The actual conversations were recorded.

Appeals to White House

In connection with his efforts to instill discipline in the commission, the Chairman frequently took his woes to the White House where he succeeded in enlisting the support of President Roosevelt to his plan for reorganization of the agency. This support was evidenced by the President, when he suggested to Senator Wheeler that Mr. McNinch could make recommendations for the new legislation.

"Although considerable progress has been made as a result of efforts to reorganize the work of the Federal Communications Commission under existing law, I am thoroughly dissatisfied with the present legal framework and administrative machinery of the commission," the President wrote Senator Wheeler. "I have come to the definite conclusion that new legislation is necessary to effectuate a satisfactory reorganization of the commission.

"New legislation is also needed to lay down clear Congressional policies on the substantive side—so clear that the new administrative body will have not difficulty in interpreting or administering them."

The President's letter was received at the Capitol with considerable satisfaction by critics of the FCC. Senator Wheeler, himself long dissatisfied with conditions in the commission, disclosed that he has some ideas of his own as to the proper setup for administration of the communications act, and declared the situation in the commission is due to "too much politics."

Bill Expected Soon

Senator Wheeler is scheduled shortly to introduce a bill for the new commission. Commissioner McNinch expressed himself as agreeing "fundamentally" with the three-man commission idea; but observers feel the bill will be written irrespective of the wishes of the commission's members.

Neville Miller, president of the National Association of Broadcasters, this week in San Francisco, speaking before the Advertising Club, warned the radio industry to "set its own house in order" lest the government take the industry over, "thoroughly." He had indorsed the President's suggestion for anew board.

In charge of the legislation will be Senator

(Continued on following page, column 1)

Representatives of Actors' Federation and Advertising Agencies Meet to Agree on "Code of Fair Practices"

With the threatened strike of America's radio actors averted by a "last minute" capitulation of the organized advertising agencies, representatives of the American Federation of Radio Actors and the American Association of Advertising Agencies began conferences this week in the Bar Building in New York, to last "without recess" until an agreement is reached on submission of a "code of fair practices" by the actors' union to the advertising agencies.

Empowered to Act

The advertising agency committee, which is empowered to act for 80 per cent of the commercially sponsored programs (the networks and certain individual advertisers and agencies, notably the Wrigley Company, have already signed with the union), is composed of the following: Chester La Roche, vice-president of Young and Rubicam, chairman; J. G. Sample, president of Blackett-Sample-Hummert; John U. Reber, vice-president of J. Walter Thompson Company; Chester Bowles, chairman of Benton and Bowles; W. B. Ruthrauff, vice-president of Ruthrauff and Ryan; Leonard T. Bush, vice-president of Compton Company; and Don Francisco, president of Lord and Thomas.

The previous AAAA committee had been merely a "fact finding committee." Nevertheless, its attitude in terming the unions' demands "unreasonable" caused the union's representatives to walk out of their sessions with it several weeks ago.

Officials of the major networks had pleaded with the advertising men to come to an understanding with the actors. The union had decided to negotiate individually with various agencies, scoring certain successes in New York; and had determined to go ahead with the strike against those sponsored programs whose advertising agencies maintained "the solid front" against signing.

One of the points of difficulty is understood to be the insistence by the advertising agencies that actors be paid for rehearsal at a certain rate, without allowances for overtime. The practice now is to run rehearsals for as long a time as necessary, without extra pay.

Proposed Scale for Actors

The printed code, sent out last week by the AFRA, calls for payment of actors at $15 for programs of 15 minutes or less; at $25 for 16 to 30 minutes; at $35 for 31 to 60 minutes. It asks for $10, $12.50, and $17.50 in these categories, respectively, for re-broadcasts; and for rehearsals, it asks $6 per hour, for the first hour required, and specifies that, after the first hour, this rate may be "computed and paid in half hour periods at the rate of $3 per half hour or part thereof." The code details the payments to be made to singers and announcers, as well, and lists the program categories, with suitable payment rates for each.

In the "rules" section it is stated that "the producer agrees that he has notice that the performer is a member of AFRA, and must obey its rules."

Other salient features to which the producer is bound, after signing the code of the union,

(Continued on following page, column 3)

SHAKEUP SEEN IN RADIO COMMISSION

Television Phase Concerns Films

(Continued from preceding page, column 2)

Wheeler and Representative Clarence Lea, head of the Senate and House Interstate Commerce committees.

That the film industry would be vitally concerned is indicated by the interest the present commission has taken in television.

Policy Committee Asks "Code"

The policy committee of the FCC meanwhile suggested to its parent body a "code" embodying the "minimum" requirements necessary for radio stations to operate in the public interest. It stated, in submitting its report, that the Commission's anti-censorship stand hampered the prescribing of a very definite policy.

The Western Union Case

Apart from radio, the FCC last week instructed its law department to meet with the Department of Justice to survey steps possibly to be taken on the refusal of the Western Union Telegraph Company to submit its tariffs to the commission, governing the company's service from foreign countries to the United States.

Western Union, asked by the commission on December 21, 1937, to file the schedules, had refused in an answer on Oct. 31, 1938. On January 6 of this year, the commission directed a letter to the company asking reasons for the refusal. The company then replied that the FCC had no authority to require the filing of tariffs containing rates for incoming cable messages.

This week, Congressmen Connery and Wigglesworth are engaged in an effort to make the bill for reorganization of the FCC an accompaniment to an investigation of the commission and of radio generally. They have reintroduced into the House their resolutions asking for an investigation by the House into the present commission.

Tuberculosis Film

Under the auspices of the Provincial Committee for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, a film entitled "Health and Happiness" will be produced in Montreal by Cine Craft Studio. Aimed to enlighten the public on the disease, it is planned to show the picture in every theatre, parochial school, college and convent in the Province of Quebec. The film, which is expected to be completed by March, was written by Robert Choquette.

Federal Theatres Report

Federal Theatres Company, a subsidiary of Warner Brothers, and Bird Theatre Corporation, its wholly owned subsidiary, report net profit of $9,108.63 for the year ended last August 31st. The company operates nine theatres on the South Side of Chicago. The statement shows net income of $369,790 before interest income and before $192,344 amortization and depreciation and $146,390 interest expense. Deficit is currently carried at 1,488,844. The amount of $145,995 is owed to Warner Brothers Pictures.

NEW WARNER FILM SEEN AT BROADCAST

The audience of the Kate Smith broadcast at CBS Playhouse No. 2 was expected to witness a gratis showing of Warners' "Wings of the Navy" following the radio show. The film opens its New York run at the Strand on Friday. The idea for the showing was developed by Ted Collins, manager for Kate Smith. Mrs. Isabel Turner of Warners handled it.

George Brent, star of the picture, will be heard on the program in a dramatization of excerpts from the film.

Hearing on RKO Plan Set Feb. 10

Hearing on confirmation of the RKO plan of reorganization has been put off to February 10th by Federal Judge William Bondy. Confirmation may be given then if consents already filed are not withdrawn. Sunday is the final day for withdrawal of consents under Judge Bondy's previous order.

Counsel for Irving Trust Company, trustee of RKO, reported at last week's hearing that the conditions set forth in the order approving the plan, as to publication and notice to creditors, have been complied with.

Judge Bondy stressed the necessity of proceeding "very slowly and very carefully" to avoid reversals on appeal by the circuit court.

Judge Bondy on Saturday signed an order authorizing the Irving Trust, as trustee of RKO, to execute a proposed agreement with the Bank of America, Chemical Bank and Trust Company and Radio Corporation of America, extending the secured notes of RKO and provisions of a contract made on August 30, 1934, relating to the note, until June 1, 1939.

Sears Drive Ahead Of 1938 Campaign

With the first quarter of the Warner Sears Drive completed, the home office reports a 15 per cent increase over a similar period last year. Last year's drive was the most successful in the company's history.

O'Brien Films Reissued

Sol Lesser has announced that he will reissue four George O'Brien pictures which were at one time released through Twentieth Century-Fox. The films are: "The Dude Ranger," "When a Man's a Man," "Cowboy Millionaire" and "Hard Rock Harrigan." Fred McConnell, of Record Pictures, will handle the sale of these pictures.

Arbitration to be Featured in Code

(Continued from preceding page, column 3)

are the submission of controversies or claims to arbitration, under the rules of the American Arbitration Association, judgment upon any award rendered to be entered in the "highest court of the forum, state or federal, having jurisdiction," and the agreement by the producer that he has notice that the code represents the "minimum terms" in network broadcasting, and that "anyone engaging performers in this field who breaches or violates conditions of the code may be regarded as unfair, and performers may be instructed not to work for anyone who is unfair."

In submitting the code, union spokesmen said they never would deal with an agency except upon the basis of an AFRA closed shop and accused agency spokesmen of opposition to a closed shop, even if the wage and hour demands were granted.

One result of the crisis has been the sudden lift in the business done by transcription agencies.

Canadian Broadcasters Meet

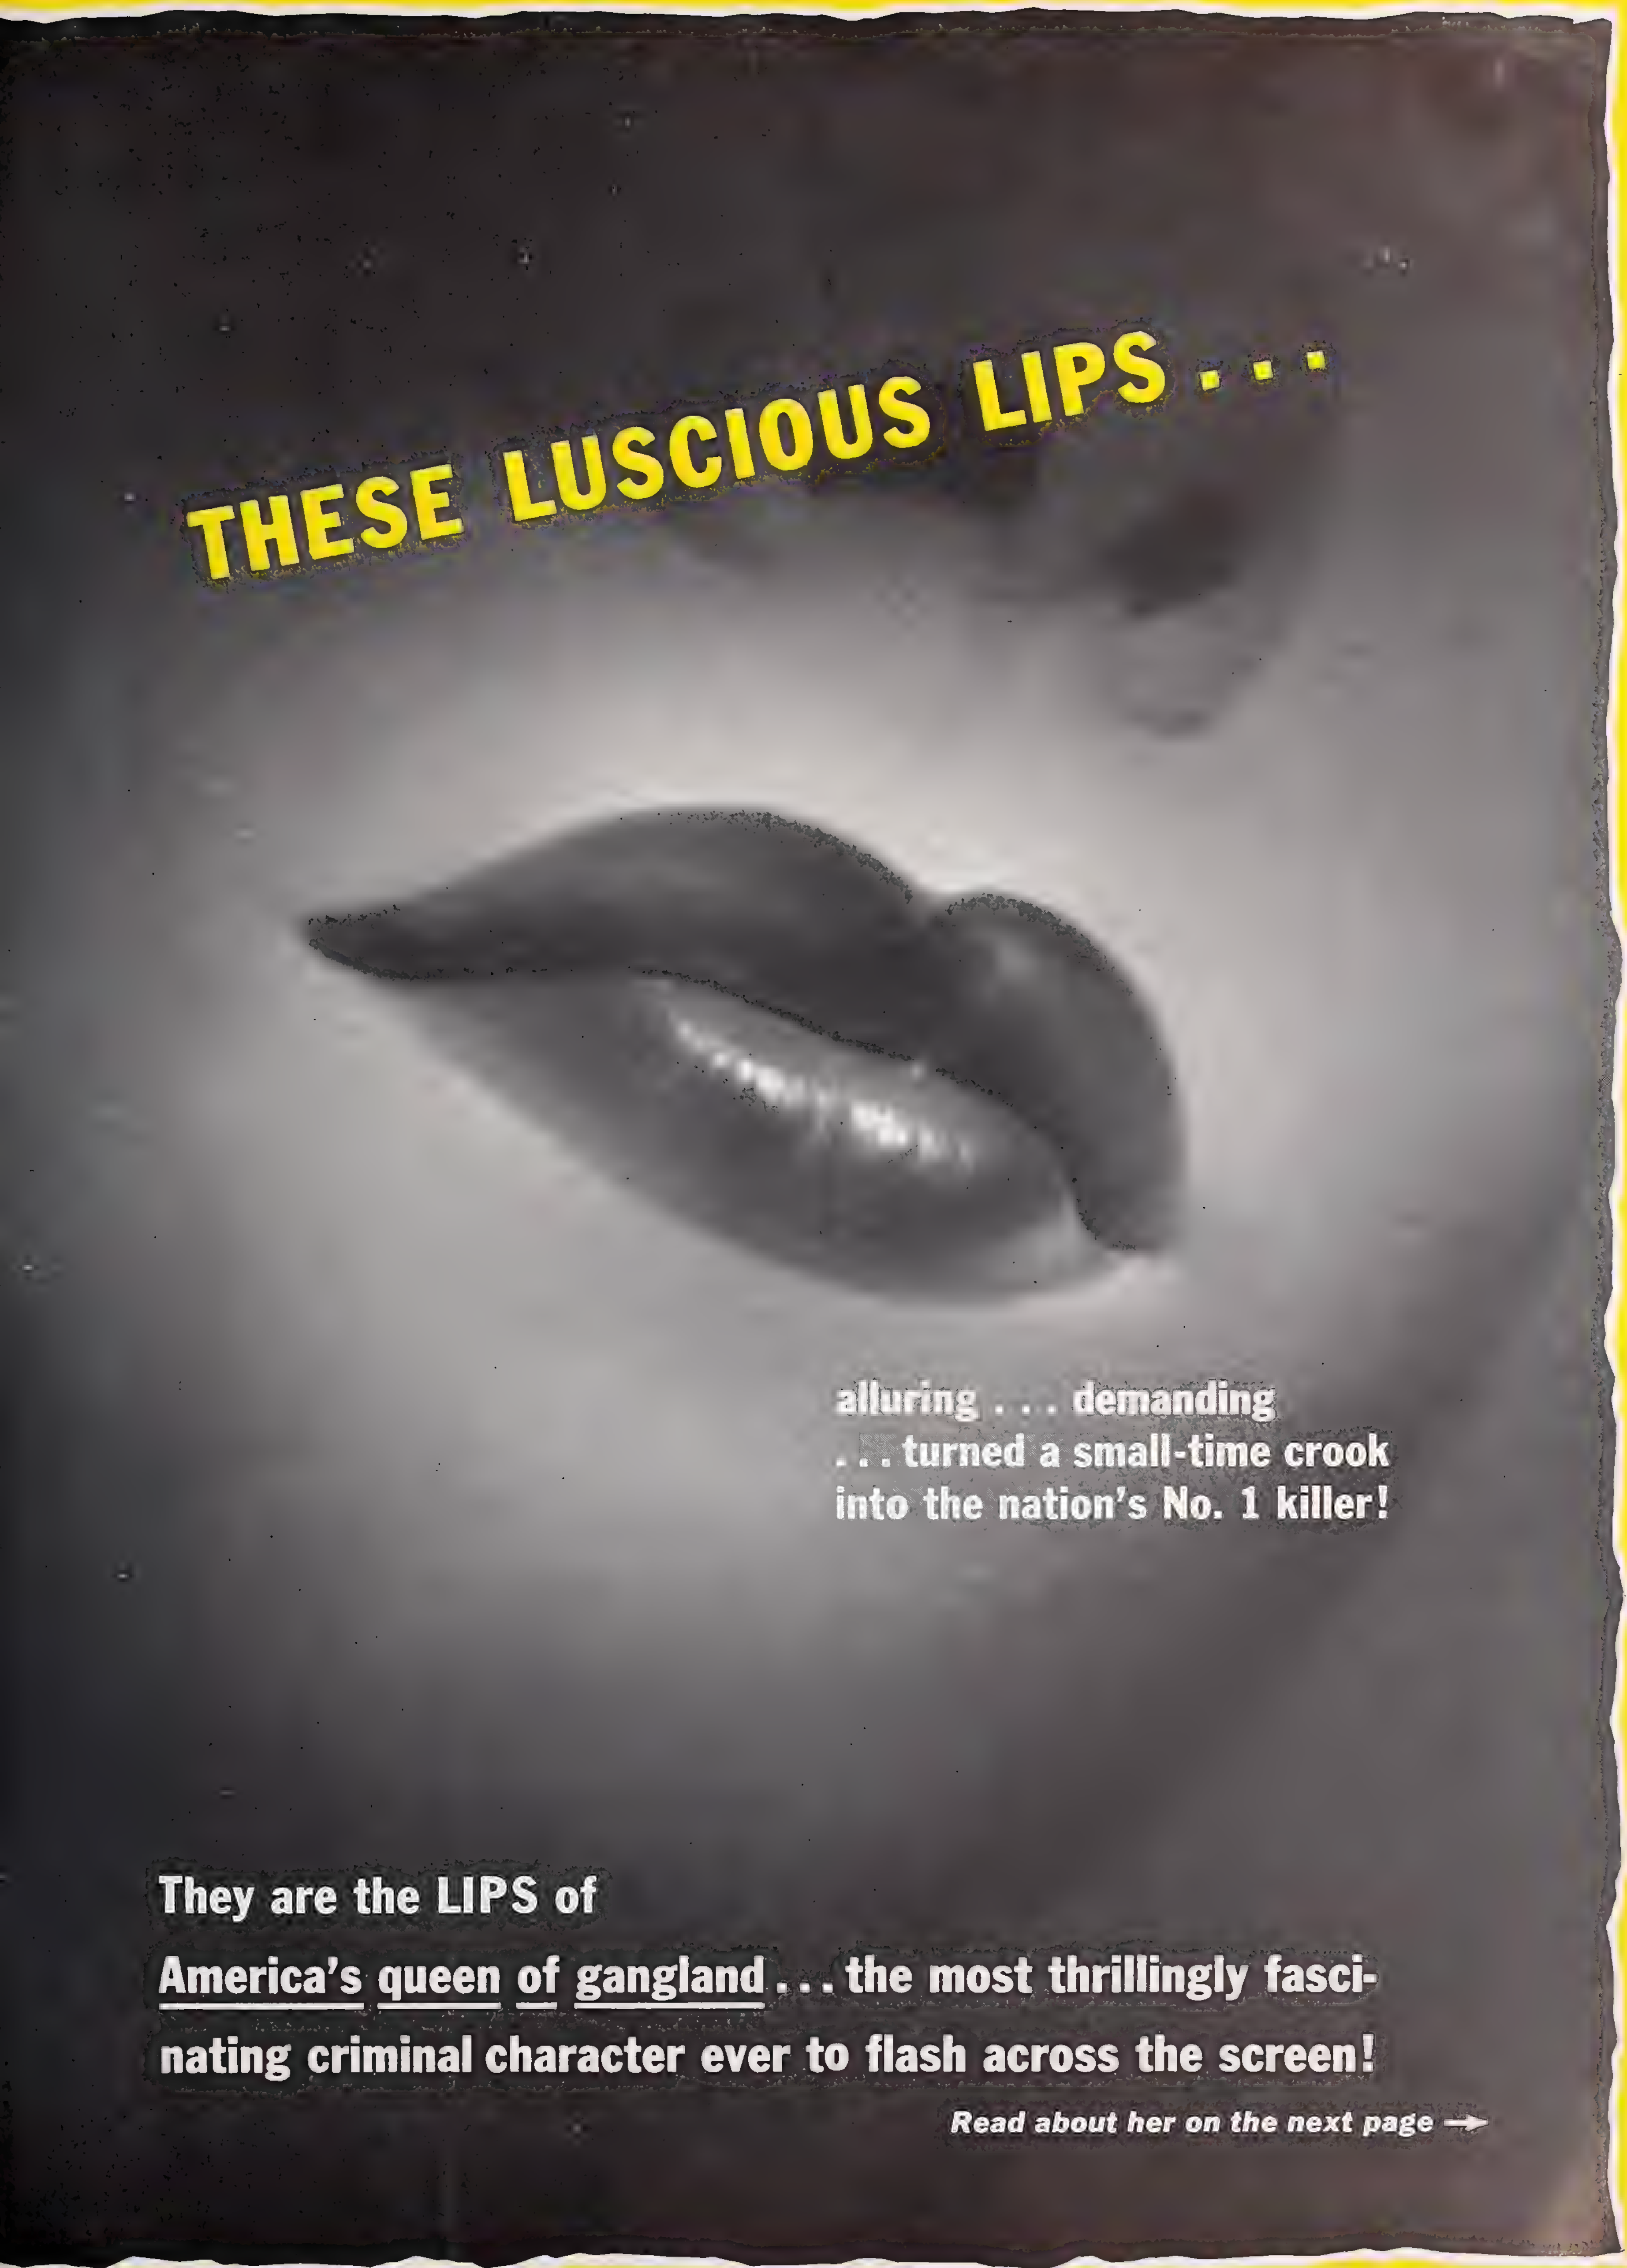
Other comparatively minor developments in radio were the adjournment last week of the convention of the Canadian Association of Broadcasters without deciding policy on the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation and the position of private stations under Federal government supervision, when individuals make controversial speeches; the rejection by the Copyright Appeal Board of the Canadian performing Society's proposal for an increase in the annual license fee for broadcasting stations; and the preliminary approval given in the Minnesota House of Representatives to a joint resolution asking the FCC to modify the licenses of radio stations who permit actors indicted or convicted of crimes carrying more than one year penalty, to appear on their programs.

The Canadian broadcasting association appointed a committee headed by Harry Sedgewick to meet in March with the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation officials, and a Parliamentary radio committee, the meeting to be held in March.

UA Playdates

Minnesota Amusement Company and United Artists, having reached an agreement on terms, there will be five United Artists' 1938-39 films played off in the first runs in the Twin Cities during the next six weeks. Playdates had been held back through failure of the circuit and the distributor to agree; with United Artists wanting only percentage deals, now modified to flat rentals or percentage. United Artists product will now be made available to subsequent runs once the protection period is over.

Paramount has joined forces with the Pan-American Petroleum Corporation in a cooperative advertising campaign. Claudette Colbert, Madeleine Carroll, Martha Raye, George Raft, Fred MacMurray and Cecil B. DeMille, together with other Paramount players, will appear in all Pan-American advertisements.



THESE LUSCIOUS LIPS . . .
alluring . . . demanding
. . . turned a small-time crook
into the nation's No. 1 killer!

They are the LIPS of America's queen of gangland . . . the most thrillingly fascinating criminal character ever to flash across the screen!

Read about her on the next page →

J. EDGAR HOOVER

. . . Director of Federal Bureau of Investigation, tells the true . . . inside story of the girl behind the man behind the gun!

*She's beautiful . . .
she's dangerous . . .
she's ten times tougher than any man! . . .*

Persons in Hiding
J. Edgar Hoover
Persons in Hiding
J. Edgar Hoover
Little Brown and Company

Adapted from J. Edgar Hoover's best-selling book . . .
"PERSONS IN HIDING"

"'PERSONS IN HIDING' is from J. Edgar Hoover's book of the same name. That is the ace line of copy for any showman's advertising campaign. If they don't come in to see this picture, there's no use in making any more gang films." . . . Motion Picture Daily

Adapted from J. EDGAR HOOVER'S

"PERSONS IN HIDING"

LYNNE OVERMAN · PATRICIA MORISON · J. CARROL NAISH · JUDITH BARRETT

A Paramount Picture · Directed by LOUIS KING · Screen Play by William R. Lipman and Horace McCoy

PRINTED IN U. S. A.

ASIDES and INTERLUDES

By JAMES P. CUNNINGHAM

Radio broadcasters feel they are sitting pretty in the matter of obtaining outside or other background sounds and noises needed for studio programs. The sounds of automobiles, trains, horses, boat whistles and such easy availables were obtained on records at the inception of radio years ago, and some other sounds have since been reproduced by home-made methods in the studio. But now, after years, they have available on records virtually every conceivable noise or sound, all "the McCoy."

Charlie Michelson, in New York, for one, has some 10,000 different noises, sold at $2.00 per noise, all the way from the sound of baa-ing sheep and bawling cattle to western mourning doves and yelling Indians.

He can furnish the sounds of a complete air raid and 23 other airplane noises, zooming, shooting, idling, and 50 different automobile noises, crashing, door slamming, horns and traffic jams.

He lists the sound of "babbling brook" as another, crows cawing and frogs croaking, bells, birds and blizzards, the noises of branding cattle, cement mixers, dog fights, erecting wooden frame buildings, funeral processions, hansom cabs and Malaysia pheasants, milking cows and turkeys gobbling. The stock of warfare sounds, cannons booming, shells exploding, "pitched battles," air raid warnings and the like has had to be increased greatly of late.

▽

Hard-to-Understand Department, from a theatrical advertisement in the London Era:

Owing to the regrettable accident to
MR. GEORGE ROBEY,
MISS CHICK ELLIOTT is very successfully playing the part of Dame in Robinson Crusoe at the Alexandria Theatre, Birmingham.

▽

The managers of the St. Louis Zoo have turned down an offer of $500 a week for a career in Hollywood for their five pet monkeys—they said it would affect their health.

▽

Some London pessimists are running around the movie studios and film houses offering for sale specially-constructed bombproof shelters.

▽

H. I. Phillips, of the New York Sun, went to the Roxy to see what Jesse James really looked like, and found him, as personified by 20th-Fox's Tyrone Power, to be a glamour boy, with pearly teeth, perfect features, the finest head of hair in all Missouri and a matinee idol in any stickup, with "the skin you love to touch"—and dimples, with eyes big and blue and soulful and as beautiful a pair of eyebrows as ever blew up a safe. Mr. Phillips feels that he now knows everything about Jesse James except who his tailor was.

▽

"My family," said Mrs. Mabel Parkhouse, Hays organization, "is waiting." Whereupon the assistant to Charles Clyde Pettijohn quickly rose from her desk and went to the window, where on the ledge were five noisy pigeons, who received from Mrs. Parkhouse their five o'clock meal of chopped split-peas.

Mrs. Parkhouse's "family" embraces anywhere up to 50 hungry pigeons who gather regularly three times daily on the ledge of her 21st floor window. She has one favorite "child." Likes him because he's "so streamlined."

Always the perfect gentleman, Major Edward Bowes, of radio and films, affects top hat formality when he goes a-visiting yachting neighbors in his New Jersey water grounds in the Atlantic, though not these days. (Photo courtesy of G. E. DeNike of National Union Radio Corporation.)

The Major has been a yachtsman since the early San Francisco days of the old Corinthian Yacht Club and as a sailing man and master helped win it many a cup in the Golden Gate Regatta. And even now, half a century later, he commutes to work daily from his New Jersey ocean-front home at Riveredge to New York aboard his 81-foot yacht, the "Edmar"—weather permitting. Major Bowes does not confine his yachting to the Edmar either—he has several boats—a veritable navy.

All of which reminds us—and is probably unknown to the Major—of another Major Bowes boat incident which came to light not long ago while U. S. Army officers were examining some of the films taken during the World War and which they were cataloguing down in Washington. Thousands of feet of the archive stuff was being run through projectors for inspection when, lo and behold, along came a shot of the Major himself, as an Army Captain, riding herd on a bunch of burly stevedores on a wharf in Brest, France, unloading a ship that had just arrived from New York with supplies for the Allies. He got no billing in that picture. An Army man in the D. C. audience recognized him.

When the Florida Supreme Court the other week decided that "bank night" was a lottery; violated the laws of the state and could not be legally operated, the Sparks Circuit of theatres found themselves holding the bag—a rather nice little bag containing several thousands of dollars of uncalled for prizes, which had been offered by their many houses through the state.

The company was willing to pass the money along to winning patrons, but, try as they did, they could not devise a way that would not conflict with the law. Reluctantly, they finally decided to retain the money—on the grounds that it was really theirs anyway.

▽

Paramount, too, is going in for patriotic shorts, having just finished "Oh, Say, Can You Ski?"

▽

The "big electrics" and communications companies had better get busy on that television telecasting they've been promising. Israel Zion Hospital, in Brooklyn, is going ahead on its own to telecast operations.

▽

And in New York they're claiming that "home diathermy," that machine used for curing everything from lumbago to rheumatism, is delaying home television. Prominent radio engineers and members of the American Medical Association met with manufacturers of diathermy equipment to talk about a solution.

Diathermy equipment, it was said, utilizes properties of radio propagation to cause the generation of heat in various parts of the human anatomy. The equipment in reality is a miniature radio transmitter, it was declared, utilizing that part of the ultra high-frequency spectrum set aside for television, thereby causing interference with the reception of television images in the home.

▽

Last week's report on Universal's Mexican trade advertisements publicizing "Mikado" as "El Milkado," is followed this week by the way Cuban trade papers printed RKO's advertisement publicizing "Gunga Din" as "Cunga Dim."

▽

Comes the story about Latin American logic, as picked up by Floyd Stone, concerning the exhibitor down there who, while screening a Warner Brothers film, lost his theatre and equipment through a fire in the projection machine. He made Warners the defendant for damages because it was their film that caught fire.

▽

Irene Beasley is the merry old friend of air-listening housewives, broadcasting cooking and canning recipes and whatnot every Monday morning on her "R.F.D. No. 1" program over Columbia networks. Last Monday morning she talked long and loud on the fine characteristics of garlic as a flavoring ingredient in the roasting pan and the sauce pan, and when she finished the band struck up that popular number, "You Took My Breath Away."

▽

Broadway Belle Baker can't help wondering why pats on the back generally raise bumps on the head.

▽

A sound laboratory in Toledo finds that it can sour milk by sound waves. Sound waves sour many a radio program, too.

CARL LOMB, OF BAUSCH AND LOMB, DIES AT 84

Lens Manufacturer Active in Providing Technical Education and in Citizenship Societies

Carl F. Lomb, vice-president of Bausch and Lomb Optical Company, of Rochester, N. Y., died at his home there last Thursday at the age of 84. For 60 years he had served the company, one of the largest in the United States manufacturing lenses for motion picture projectors and other optical requirements.

Came to America in 1873

Born at Birstein, Hesse Cassel, Germany, May 31, 1854, Mr. Lomb came to the United States in 1873 and became a citizen in 1879. He was first associated with the banking house house of Jay Cooke & Co., of New York, and later joined the First National Bank of New York.

In 1874, Mr. Lomb became associated with the New York office of Bausch and Lomb. In 1875 he went to Rochester to aid in the formation of the Rochester German Insurance Company. He returned in 1877 to his work with Bausch and Lomb in accountancy and finance. In 1882 he was elected secretary of the company and in 1909 was made a vice president, a position he held continuously until his death. In addition to his association with Bausch and Lomb, Mr. Lomb served as vice-president of Yawman and Erbe Manufacturing Co., director of the Security Trust Company and director of Rochester Telephone.

Headed Mechanics Institute

As was his cousin, Captain Henry Lomb, who founded Bausch and Lomb, Mr. Lomb was not content with a life devoted solely to business achievement. His youth and his native interests gave him an intuitive insight into the needs of young folk. Mechanics Institute, whose lectures he attended as a young man, became the medium for the expression of his interest. In 1910 he was elected to the board of directors of Mechanics Institute and in 1916 became its president. Subsequently, Mr. Lomb was made chairman of the board, a position he held continuously until his death. For 30 years he gave of much effort in building up the institute to fit young men and women for careers in crafts and technical fields.

Mr. Lomb's interest in the country of his adoption was revealed in his support of the Standard Bearers organization started by Captain Henry Lomb 50 years ago. Through the collaboration of the G.A.R. this movement has now become nationwide. In schools in which it has been adopted, the outstanding student and leader is designated as "Standard Bearer." This student receives a medal on Washington's Birthday, at an appropriate ceremony, when the flag is transferred to his successor.

Honored by Society of the Genesee

Mr. Lomb was active in the period of adjustment of the Rochester Athenaeum and Mechanics Institute following the loss of such leaders as Captain Henry Lomb, Ezra R. Andrews and Lewis P. Ross. Educational requirements in western New York were changing rapidly and the board was confronted with demands for teachers of applied arts, home economics and manual training. Rapid changes were brought about by post-war rehabilitation problems and the continuous expansion of the Institute's educational program.

CARL F. LOMB

To these problems Carl Lomb brought the leadership he had given to the industrial life of Rochester. In January, 1936, Mr. Lomb was one of eight disinguished educators in western New York chosen by The Society of the Genesee to be honored at the Society's 37th Annual Dinner in New York City.

On July 25, 1930, on behalf of the families of John J. Bausch and Captain Henry Lomb, he dedicated the new Physics Building at the University of Rochester, erected by the families in memory of the founders of the company.

On May 30, 1932, he took part in the dedication of Lomb Memorial Park and the Lomb Monument at Memorial Day Exercises, conducted under the auspices of representatives of the Grand Army of the Republic. This park occupies a city block extending from St. Paul Street to Martin Street and immediately adjacent to the Bausch and Lomb plant in Rochester. It was dedicated as a memorial to Captain Henry Lomb.

Organized Citizenship Council

Mr. Lomb's interest in the assimilation of American traditions by German-Americans and a broad exchange of cultural relations between the United States and Germany was expressed in his large contributions to the Carl Schurz Memorial Foundation, of Philadelphia, and his aid to the German societies of Rochester. They equalled his interest in civic affairs and good citizenship. He was one of the organizers of the Better Citizenship Council of the Chamber of Commerce and served as chairman of this group.

Mr. Lomb was a member of the Country Club of Rochester, Oak Hill Country Club, Rochester Yacht Club, Genesee Valley Club, the Rochester Club, Chamber of Commerce and Automobile Club of Rochester.

Mr. Lomb left no immediate family. Mrs. Lomb died on Oct. 3, 1929. Before her marriage she was Caroline Bausch, a daughter of John Jacob Bausch, who passed away on Feb. 14, 1926.

Funeral services were held at his home, 597 East Avenue, Rochester, on Saturday.

Harry Shiffman Dies in New York

Harry Shiffman, 47, until recently head of Parland Theatres, died in his sleep early Saturday morning of a heart attack at his home in New York. Previously he had been general manager of the Parland (Sol Brill) circuit for 25 years. A few weeks ago the Fabian circuit acquired eight of the remaining Brill theatres, on Staten Island, and Mr. Shiffman, it is understood, had arranged to join the foreign department of a large distributor.

Mr. Shiffman started at 14 with his uncle, the late Sol Brill, as an assistant projectionist in a penny arcade at 700 Broadway. In 1911 he became film buyer for the Brill theatres and later general manager. When Mr. Brill died in 1931 Mr. Shiffman became president of the circuit, which included houses on Staten Island and in Brooklyn, Manhattan, Port Jervis and Lakewood, N. J.

He is survived by his wife, Lucille Olive; three sisters, Mrs. Sylvia Hazen, Mrs. Mildred Trilling, and Mrs. Ruth Felder, and one brother, Irving, with Universal in Boston. George Trilling, with the Si Fabian circuit, and Lee Hazen, an attorney, are brothers-in-law.

Funeral services were held Monday at Riverside Memorial Chapel. Dr. Nathan Stern, rabbi of West End Synagogue, officiated. Burial was in Ferncliff Crematory.

Frank Beetson

Frank C. Beetson, office manager for Edward Small Productions, died January 30th at Huntington Hospital, Pasadena, Cal. He had been with Mr. Small for nine years.

Joe Rapf

Joe Rapf, 53, formerly supervisor of wardrobes for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, and brother of Harry Rapf, MGM producer, and Arthur M. Rapf, of Rapf and Rudin, New York exhibitors, died January 29th in Hollywood of heart disease.

Henry T. Moore

Henry T. Moore, an exhibitor for 33 years, died January 26th at Tucson, Ariz. Mr. Moore had operated theatres in Tacoma, Wash., for 25 years. He was operator of the Rialto and Lakewood there.

Edward McEwan

Edward Kaercher McEwan, 71, of Overbrook, Pa., former secretary of the Victor Talking Machine Company, died January 24th in Ventnor City, N. J.

Helen Ware

Helen Ware, 61, actress, died January 25th at Carmel, Cal., of a throat infection. She appeared on the stage for many years after making her debut in 1899 as an extra in "The Little Minister," which starred Maude Adams. In 1928 she became a motion picture player and appeared in several silent and early sound pictures, including "The Virginian" and "Abraham Lincoln."

Frank P. Harpster has been promoted from city manager in Mansfield, Ohio, to district manager in charge of Mansfield, Sandusky, Lorain and Coshocton, by Warner Brothers.

$879,904,000 FILM INCOME REPORTED; WARNER LISTS FOURTH QUARTER NET

Gross for 1936 Was $190,354,000 Over 1935, Says Revenue Bureau; Paramount's Quarterly Earnings Nearly $2,200,000

The United States Internal Revenue Bureau this week disclosed combined gross income of $879,904,000 in production and exhibition in 1936 by companies filing official income reports to the Bureau.

The 1936 gross income was $190,354,000 more than the $689,550,000 of 1935.

Gross income of corporations engaged in production in 1936 totaled $320,789,000 compared with $213,759,000 in 1935. The Bureau's reports on industry income usually run two years late.

Gross income of corporations engaged in exhibition totaled $539,115,000 in 1936 against $475,791,000 in 1935, it was shown.

101 Corporations Showed Net

However, it was revealed by the Bureau's annual analysis of corporation income returns, only 101 of the 279 corporations engaged in production showed net income for 1936 and only 2,192 of the 4,066 corporations engaged in exhibition. In 1935, the proportion of enterprises in the black was even lower, with but 69 of the 259 producers and 1,727 of the 3,811 exhibition companies showing net income.

The 101 producers with taxable income for 1936 showed an aggregate gross income of $174,585,000 and a net income of $29,726,000 on which they paid $2,074,000 in normal taxes, $359,000 in surtaxes on undistributed profits and $17,000 on excess profits. For 1935, the 69 producing corporations with net income reported an aggregate gross of $147,227,000 and a net of $8,524,000 on which they paid $1,172,000 in normal taxes and $46,000 on excess profits.

Of the companies having no net income, 129 reported an aggregate gross income of $146,204,000 but after deductions had a deficit of $11,354,000, and 49 others were inactive through 1936. In 1935, 145 corporations with a gross income of $66,532,000 reported a deficit of $3,698,000, and 45 were inactive.

Exhibition Net $47,483,000

In exhibition, the 2,192 tax-paying corporations reported an aggregate gross income of $424,912,000 and net income of $47,483,000 for 1936, paying $5,402,000 in normal taxes, $725,000 on undistributed profits and $136,000 on excess profits. For 1935, 1,727 exhibition corporations had a gross income of $278,875,000 and a net of $22,795,000 on which they paid $3,133,000 in normal taxes and $137,000 on excess profits.

The report showed that 1,685 exhibition corporations with no taxable income had a gross income of $114,203,000 and a deficit of $6,689,000 and that 189 companies were inactive in 1936. In the preceding years, 1,901 companies with a gross income of $196,916,000 had a deficit of $20,231,000, and 183 companies were inactive.

—

Warner Net Was $2,595,269 Before Taxes, Charges and Deductions

Warner Brothers' statement of consolidated profit and loss and deficit for the 13 weeks ending November 26, 1938, follows:

INCOME:
Film rental income, theatre admissions, sales and miscellaneous income		$24,442,346.14
Rents from tenants and royalties		975,820.01
		$25,418,166.15
COST OF SALES AND EXPENSES:
Amortization of film costs	$ 7,828,333.56
Other costs, including ropalties and participations	459,397.66
Operating and general expenses	14,535,175.78	22,822,897.00
NET INCOME before other income and charges shown below		$ 2,595,269.15
DEDUCT:
Amortization and depreciation of properties (other than $273,580.94 in respect of studio properties charged to film costs)	$ 1,182,866.86
Interest expense	1,065,248.29
Provision for investments in affiliated companies (net)	631.86
Provision for contingencies	12,358.76	2,261,105.77
PROFIT before other income and charges shown below		$ 334,163.38
OTHER INCOME:
Interest and discount earned	$ 47,350.81
Dividends received	5,074.00	52,424.81
PROFIT before minority interests' share of profits and losses and Federal income taxes		$ 386,588.19
ADD—Proportion of loss applicable to minority stockholders (net)		2,216.54
PROFIT before providing for Federal income taxes		$ 388,804.73
Provision for Federal income taxes		285,000.00
NET PROFIT from operations for the thirteen weeks ending November 26, 1938, carried to deficit		$ 103,804.73
DEFICIT, August 27, 1938	$ 327,298.60
DEDUCT:
Discount realized on redemption of bonds of subsidiary companies	23,083.80	304,214.80
DEFICIT, November 26, 1938, carried to balance sheet		$ 200,410.07

Warner Brothers Fourth Quarter Net $103,804

Warner Brothers Pictures, Inc., and subsidiary companies report for the 13 weeks ending November 26, 1938, a net operating profit of $103,804 after deducting all charges, including amortization and depreciation and Federal income taxes, as compared with a net operating profit of $1,685,599 reported for the corresponding period of 1937.

The net profit from operations for the 13 weeks ending November 26, 1938, before charges for amortization and depreciation of properties, and income taxes, was $1,845.252.

The gross income, after eliminating intercompany transactions, for the 13 weeks ending November 26, 1938, was $25,418,166. The comparable gross income for the 13 weeks ending November 27, 1937, adjusted to include two companies not then consolidated, was $27,395,762.

During the period there was a credit of $23,083, made directly to deficit account.

Earnings per share—$103,804.73 is equivalent on Preferred Stock to $1.00 per share on 103,107 shares outstanding at November 26, 1938. Dividends in arrears as at December 1, 1938, amounted to $25.9875 per share.

After allowance for current dividend requirements on Preferred Stock the earnings available for the Common Stock amounted to $4,564.24.

Current and working assets were listed at $27,854,753, against current liabilities of $19,833,770. Total assets were $174,234,221.

—

$2,200,000 Estimated Earnings Of Paramount in Quarter

Paramount is expected to show earnings of about $2,200,000 for the fourth quarter, according to Broadway estimates. This, it is anticipated, will make the company's earnings, before the preferred dividends on the fourth quarter, about $4,200,000 for the past year. This is about 75 cents a share on the common stock. Paramount's board of directors, last Thursday, declared the regular quarterly dividend of $1.50 per share on the first preferred stock, and the regular quarterly dividend of 15 cents per share on the second preferred stock. The dividends are payable on April 1 to stockholders of record at the close of business March 15, 1939.

Court Approves Fox Liquidation

A decision approving the plan for the liquidation of Fox theatres, submitted by Milton C. Weisman, receiver, was handed down last Friday by Martin T. Manton, senior judge of the United States circuit court of appeals, prior to his resignation from the bench. The plan as approved will relieve Mr. Weisman of his office and transfer the assets of the company to two trustees, to be appointed by Judge Manton. The assets of the company were listed in the proposed plan at $150,785 current, $358,957 in investments in four subsidiary companies, and a claim of $7,500,000 against William Fox. Liabilities are listed at $8,100,350, in addition to a contingent claim of Fox for $7,186,000. Already paid is an eight per cent dividend on allowed claims of $8,100,350.

Judge Manton also handed down a decision disallowing a claim of $250,000 filed against Fox Theatres by Myers and Keating, Jack Leo, and Hanover Capital Trust Company, as assignees of Alfred E. Fiegel. The claim, previously disallowed in the report of Special Master Courtland Palmer, was based on a contract for the solicitation of advertisements for the Fox Weekly.

Zanuck and Johnson To Answer Action

Darryl Zanuck and Nunnally Johnson were ordered this week to answer written interrogatories in Los Angeles in connection with an infringement suit brought by Morgan Wallace and Lawrence Shubert Lawrence against Twentieth Century-Fox. Federal Judge Murray Hulbert in New York granted the motion of the request of the defendant. The suit seeks an injunction, damages and an accounting of the profits for alleged infringement of the play, "Congratulations" in the film, "Thanks a Million."

Tully Suit Defendants to Be Examined Before Trial

William K. Howard, Bernard Steele, president of Odessco Productions, Inc.; Al Wilkie and Robert M. Gillham, publicity and advertising directors of Paramount Pictures, Inc., John Bright, Robert Tasker and H. B. Cruikshank were ordered this week by Federal Judge Murray Hulbert in New York to submit to an examination before trial on application of Jim Tully. Mr. Tully is suing Paramount, Odessco and Mr. Howard for $50,000, claiming violation of the New York Civil Rights Law in the alleged wrongful use of his name to advertise the picture, "Home Town."

Ruling Reversed

The appellate division of the New York supreme court this week reversed an order which granted Superior Talking Pictures and Stage and Screen Productions a temporary injunction and a receiver against Principal Film Exchange. The court ruled that the lower court had erroneously granted the order.

Cain Named Receiver

Judge Cornelius Harrington in Chicago this week appointed Byron Cain as receiver for Metropolis Theatre Company, land lessee upon which Oriental theatre stands. The property owes $400,000 in back taxes.

IN NEWSREELS

MOVIETONE NEWS—No. 40, Vol. 21.—Contributions for infantile paralysis drive pour into Washington.... Fishing boats cut through ice....Beach rodeo in Miami.... Fortune in radium mined....Tyrone Power and Jeanette MacDonald chosen favorites by newspapers' poll....New style dwellings....Night pictures of New York....Lew Lehr....New snow scooter.... Robot boxer....Ice skating....Skiing.

MOVIETONE NEWS—No. 41, Vol. 21.—Franco advances in Catalonia....Chamberlain visits Pope.... Hore-Belisha inspects British guns....Unemployed stage "lie-down" strike in London....Icy winter grips nation....New merchant marine vessel taking shape....Justice Frankfurter dons robes....Einstein awards medal to Mann....Await Coast fair opening ....Fashions....Basketball....Ice horse racing.

NEWS OF THE DAY—No. 238, Vol. 9.—Thousands flee from Spanish war area....Ice grips Boston fishing fleet....Tyrone Power and Jeanette MacDonald win in newspaper poll....Flood of dimes aids paralysis fund....Navy pilots tune up air defense.... Florida selects girl representative for New York fair.

NEWS OF THE DAY—No. 239, Vol. 10.—Coast Guard cutter rescues trapped boats....French mobilize naval might....Britain speeds up arms program....Loyalists taken prisoners....Lights transform world's fair of west....Plane breaks speed record....American liner takes shape....Stunt men risk necks for charity ....Cunningham still king of milers....Pistol match ....Horse racing on ice.

PARAMOUNT NEWS—No. 51.—Spanish war news.... Dimes aid paralysis fund....Raise question of citizenship of Chinese baby....Cat show....Fire destroys church in Harlem....1939 grows early fish story crop ....Sports.

PARAMOUNT NEWS—No. 52.—Test pilot sets speed record....Open Slovaks parliament....Einstein presents medal to Thomas Mann....Camel caravan to Mecca starts....New French hat styles....New liner biggest ever built in U. S.....Franco pushes on from Barcelona....Harness horse racing on ice....Monty Stratton....Glenn Cunningham.

PATHE NEWS—No. 55, Vol. 10.—New Hampshire logging job begins. ..Maine harvests 27,000 ton ice crop....Federal project transforms slums....Doris Cromwell home completed in Honolulu....Vogue previews fashion of 2,000 A. D.....Record shipment of rare chinchilla....Fiesta in the shadow of the Andes ....Rodeo on beach thrills Miami crowd.

PATHE NEWS—No. 56, Vol. 10—Slash in relief funds protested....Chile's new president....Biggest U. S. liner takes shape....Giant palace of ice constructed ....Plane smashes speed marks....Thomas Mann given Einstein medal....Winter fills nation's ski-trains....Cunningham wins mile race.

UNIVERSAL NEWSREEL—No. 740, Vol. 9.—Fighting around Barcelona....Dimes swell paralysis fund.... Ships safe after ice storm....British tea centenary feted....Kiddie sport fashions shown....Ski fashion queen chosen....Skiing....Golden Glove boxing bouts.

UNIVERSAL NEWSREEL—No. 741, Vol. 11—Cold wave sweeps nation....Franco routs Loyalist army ....Plane breaks speed record....Mystery blast rocks Britain....Air raid defenses tested....Coast fair ready ....Big battle cruiser launched....Biggest U. S. liner being built....City fetes old man winter....Ice boating....Stunting.

Singer-Waterloo to Appeal

The Singer-Waterloo Corporation will appeal to the Iowa supreme court against the enforcement of a temporary injunction prohibiting its use of the name "Iowa" in connection with Mort H. Singer's Iowa theatre at Waterloo. John Dostal, manager, expects to ask the supreme court for a ruling. The injunction was granted by a Waterloo court to Rosenthal Brothers, Inc., operators of Rosenthal's Iowa theatre at Waterloo.

Files Infringement Answer

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Distributing Corporation and Loew's, Inc., have filed answer in United States district court in Charlotte, N. C., denying infringement of the copyright of the book, "Marshal Ney: A Dual Life," by Legette Blythe, in the film "The Bravest of the Brave." In response to an order signed by Judge E. Yates Webb, Mr. Blythe has prepared a bill of particulars, purporting to show in detail how the scenes and characters and plot of his book were incorporated into the film.

Dinner for Balmer

James Balmer, general manager of the Harris Circuit in Pittsburgh, will be honored at a dinner February 9th at the Hotel William Penn in that city by the Pittsburgh Variety Club in honor of his 30th anniversary in the show business.

Loew Stockholder To Appeal Ruling

Permission to intervene in the Loew's stockholders' suit was denied Wednesday in New York supreme court to Max Pakula, a stockholder. Mr. Pakula contended that the decision of Justice Louis A. Valente which exonerated Loew's officers and directors was erroneous.

The motion was opposed by Emil K. Ellis, principal attorney for the stockholders, on the grounds that the action had been pending for over a year and that Mr. Pakula had done nothing in that time.

Supreme Court Justice Ferdinand Pecora, who denied the petition, also denied permission to Mr. Pakula to appeal the case.

Conclude Hearings in "Letty Lynton" Suit

Hearings before Special Master Kenneth E. Walser in the "Letty Lynton" infringement suit against Moredall Realty Corporation, operator of the Capitol theatre in New York, were concluded Friday. Both sides were given until February 17th to submit briefs.

The question involved is whether an exhibitor who plays an infringing picture must surrender all his profits to the authors or merely that portion attributable to the film. The defense contends that its stage show policy, which was in force when the film was shown, accounted for a substantial part of the profits.

Cancel Raft Contract

Paramount has canceled George Raft's contract for failure to accept a part in "The Magnificent Fraud." He was replaced by Lloyd Nolan. Raft thus ends eight years with the studio, the last two years being marked by three tiffs over casting. He recently completed "The Lady from Kentucky."

Davis Leaves Exhibition

Joseph A. Davis has sold his half interest in the Black Rock theatre, Bridgeport, Conn,. to A. M. Schuman, with whom he was formerly associated in exhibition. Mr. Davis, who recently relinquished his interest in the Colonial theatre, Southington, Conn., plans to return to the distribution field.

Republic Cuban Deal Set

Republic has concluded a new franchise deal with Tropical Films de Cuba of Havana; the deal covering the entire island. The arrangement supersedes that between Republic and Republic Films of Cuba, which name, Tropical probably will assume.

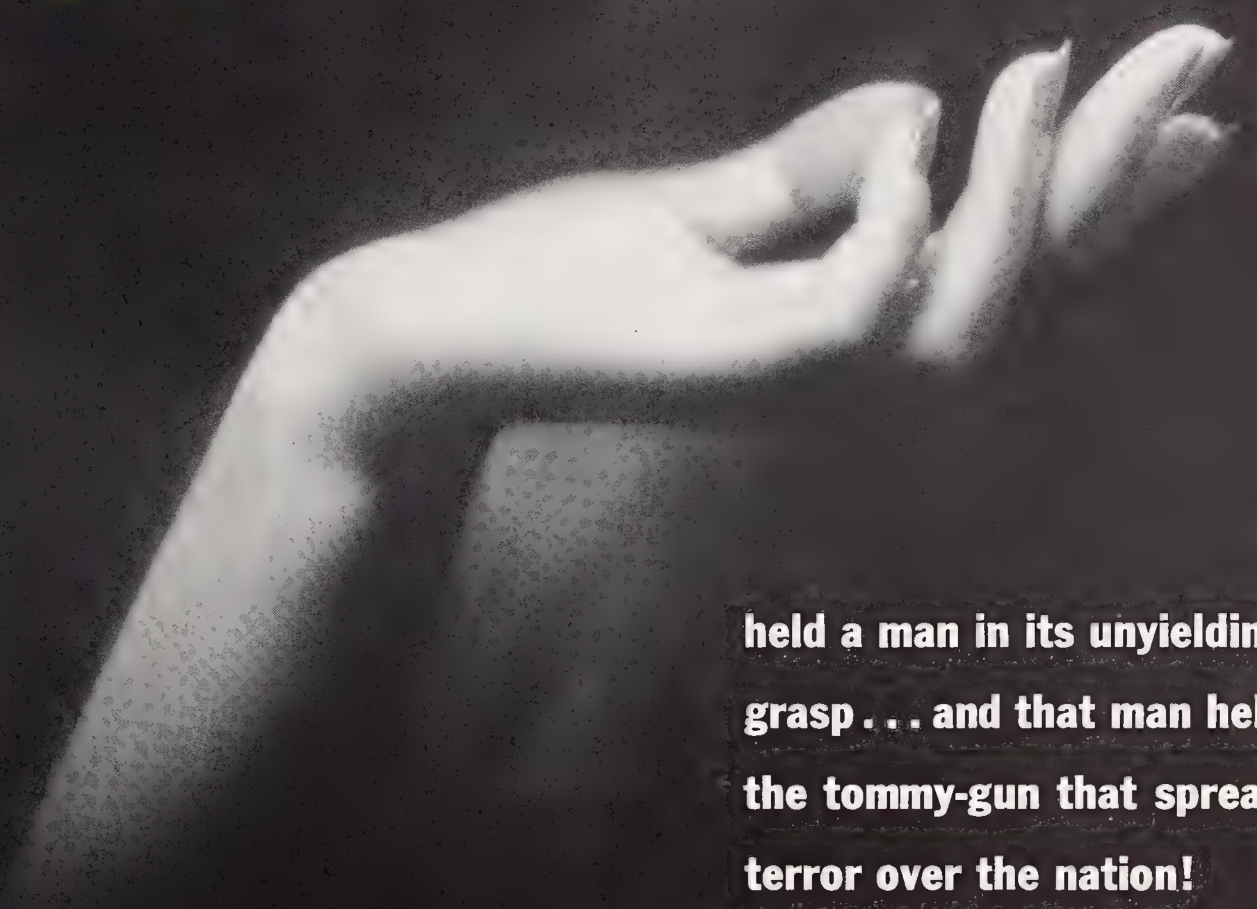
Williams Acquires Two

K. Lee Williams Enterprises has purchased the Grand and Gem theatres in De Queen, Ark. New seats and sound will be installed in the Grand.

Arlen Signed

Universal has signed Richard Arlen to a term contract calling for his starring in six outdoor action pictures per year. The pact becomes effective next April. The films will not be westerns.

THIS TENDER WHITE HAND...



held a man in its unyielding grasp... and that man held the tommy-gun that spread terror over the nation!

It's the HAND of America's queen of gangland!

Read about her on the next page →

Persons in Hiding
Persons in Hiding
J. Edgar Hoover
Little Brown and Company

...Straight out of the amazing pages of J. EDGAR HOOVER'S "PERSONS IN HIDING" comes the true story of the beautiful . . . dangerous girl who sold out the man she loved for a fur coat and a bottle of perfume!

> "One of the most gripping and entertaining mellers to come forward in many a moon."
> ...Daily Variety

Adapted from J. Edgar Hoover's best-selling dramatic history of America's criminals and crime-busters, "PERSONS IN HIDING."

Adapted from J. EDGAR HOOVER'S

"PERSONS IN HIDING"

LYNNE OVERMAN
PATRICIA MORISON
J. CARROL NAISH
JUDITH BARRETT

Screen play by William R. Lipman and Horace McCoy
A Paramount Picture · Directed by Louis King

PRINTED IN U. S. A.

FRENCH EXHIBITORS PROTEST PLAN FOR GOVERNMENT RULE OF RECEIPTS

Cleanup of Fraudulent Producers Demanded; Five Circuits Now Own All But 5 of Paris' 21 First-Run Theatres

by PIERRE AUTRE
in Paris

The new decrees on business and working conditions taken by the French Government have not included any special prescription concerning the cinema industry, contrary to what has been expected, if not feared.

However, a plan for an official organization of the French motion picture industry has been presented to the Cabinet by Jean Zay, minister for national education. The proposed decrees include measures which Mr. Zay has advocated for two years.

Here are the main features proposed:

1. Establishment of a Cinema Central Register Book, which would record the whole "life" of any film produced in France from its conception, and would include financing, studio renting, engagement of writers, directors and artists; also developing, printing, foreign sales, and general distribution. Thus intrinsic value would be established, on which it would be possible to borrow money without prohibitive rates of interest.
2. Efficient protection of the film workers, so that employees would be assured of payment.
3. A "clean-up" of the industry to eliminate producers, distributors or exhibitors who have been in fraudulent bankruptcy.
4. Reorganization of censorship so that the board would be under the control of the prime minister, who would entrust the ministers of the interior, national education or foreign affairs to look after films relating to their departments.
5. Obligation upon all French exhibitors to show documentary films at each performance. This would be done to protect production of documentary films (which the double bill programs are killing), as well as to permit the training of young directors.
6. Official control of motion picture theatres' receipts, with state employees collecting in each theatre the percentage allotted to the distributors, the state and town taxes as well as the authors' copyrights.

Paris First-Run Theatres and Distribution of Product Shown

	Number of Theatres	Number of Films Being Shown	Number of French Films	Number of American Original Versions
Single feature programs	20	20	10	10
Double feature programs	1	2	. .	2
TOTALS	21	22	10	12

Exhibitors Protest

The last-named project has raised unanimous protests from the Exhibitors Association, whose official weekly organ, L'Ecran, has said:

"The cinema exhibitors will be obliged to wage a much harder fight than they have ever known for the defense of their interests and rights."

In all probability the double feature could not be suppressed in France. One of the two films is always an American dubbed picture and the Franco-American trade treaty signed two years ago stipulates that "no new measure can be taken which would restrict the importation and the circulation of the American films in France."

Technicians Demand Protection

A measure not included in the proposed decree but demanded by the French technicians calls for protection against increasing the number of foreigners, mainly German and Austrian refugees, who work in French film production.

The Professional Syndicate is asking revision of all working cards delivered to foreigners since 1935, prohibition of working cards for the newcomers, limitation of the number of foreigners to a maximum of 10 per cent of the total number of the French workers, interdiction for all foreign technicians to change the spelling of their names so that they look French, and an obligatory deposit at the ministry of labor, by each producer, two weeks before starting a film, of the full list of the technicians and workers belonging to the production unit.

To prevent unscrupulous producers from starting a new business under a different name or through a "dummy," the Syndicate asks that:

1. All producers be members of the French Syndical Chamber of Cinema Production, which will be responsible for their activities.
2. Prohibition for any producer to start a new film before having finished paying the staff employed in his previous film.

The latest statistics of the French minister of the interior show that in Paris alone 4,040 foreigners are making their living off the French film industry.

Trade Agreements

The French Industry, realizing that many French films are now very successful in foreign countries, is asking the French Government that in the future French films as well as equipment be remembered when France is signing trade agreements with foreign countries, in other words, to push the exportation of French pictures. Concerning importations, there is a trend to demand production in French territory of material coming at present from foreign countries, including raw film (12 million francs of yearly imports), projection and studio equipment, financing (15 million francs per year), insurance (10 million francs), which with sound royalties makes a total of at least 50 million francs ($1,025,000) per year.

21 First-Runs in Paris

There are 21 first-run theatres in Paris now, and all these, except six independent specializing theatres, are managed and owned by five theatre circuits.

The main chain is the Siritzky circuit, owned by Leon Siritzky, who has 5 first-run theatres in Paris, a second-run, and 28 first-runs in the French key towns. The five first-runs of Paris include three devoted to French pictures, the Olympia, Marivaux, and Max-Linder, and two on the Champs Elysees, the Biarritz and Cesar, showing American or British films in original versions.

Mr. Siritzky is responsible in great part for the development of film advertisement in the Paris and provincial newspapers.

The Gaumont Company has four theatres, all devoted to French films: the Colisée, Madeleine, Aubert-Palace, and the Rex. This circuit owns additionally 13 theatres in Paris, among them the 4,000-seat Gaumont-Palace, and 15 in the Provinces.

Pathé-Cinema owns 31 theatres in Paris and 10 in the Provinces. It operates two of the most important first-run theatres in Paris, the Marignan and the Normandie.

The Paramount circuit has only three theatres in France, but owns in Paris the Paramount theatre, managed by René Lebreton, a winner of the Quigley silver plaques for showmanship. This theatre shows generally popular French films or dubbed versions of Paramount American films.

The most important chain for specializing theatres is the Umanski circuit, which includes the three first-run specializing theatres on the Champs Elysées: the Paris, the Avenue and the Lord Byron. It is in these three theatres and the Biarritz, that the main American films are shown in their original versions in Paris.

The Italian Sales Problem

At the very time that Italian blackshirts and students were developing agitation for acquisition of Tunis, Corsica and other French territories, Signor Giacomo Paulucci de Calboli Barone, chairman and managing director of the Ente Nazionale Industrie Cinematografiche (ENIC), the governmental film company entrusted with the Foreign film monopoly, was guest of honor in a famous restaurant on the Champs Elysées, Paris.

Signor Paulucci is reported to have acquired a large number of French films.

It is clear that Italy needs films to supplant the American productions, and it is said that Mr. Paulucci's search in Germany was not so successful.

It was recently printed in the French press that the Italian Market have had up to now 300 features a year including 260 American, 60 of various countries and 40 Italian. The Italian Government would plan to have 50 French films, 20 British, 30 German and 100 Italian, totaling 200 instead of 300.

The Italian Government is ready to help financially and morally the production of national Italian films. In Paris, however, there is skepticism of the quality of Italian films. Only two Italian films have been shown in France this season, "Vivere" and "Scipio Africanus," which is far from being a success.

French producers, selling their films in Italy, until recently were unable to get all their money from the Italian clearing house as fewer sales were made from Italy to France than from France to Italy. Now the Instituto Nazionale per i Cambi con l'Estero (National Institute of Foreign Exchange) has placed at the disposal of the Compensation Board of the Paris Trade Chamber 1,500,000 lire with which to pay French producers.

IN THE BRITISH STUDIOS

by AUBREY FLANAGAN
in London

Gala for Formby

George Formby, leader in Motion Picture Herald's poll of British stars, was accorded a gala premiere for his film, "It's in the Air," shown recently at the New Gallery cinema, Regent Street.

Members of the Air Council and Air Ministry were present at the opening, and 50 airmen in uniform from the No. 1 R.A.F. depot at Uxbridge marched up Regent Street to take their places in the audience. In the theatre, the R.A.F. band played for three-quarters of an hour and a telephone message from Formby was relayed to the audience from a Manchester theatre, where he is playing in pantomime.

The Air Force collaborated during the making of the film, permitting the use of their training grounds, instructors and machines.

Anthony Kimmins, who directed the film, was a War pilot.

Entire Unit Moves

Work on the new Will Hay comedy, "Ask a Policeman," in production at the Gainsborough Studios, has been transferred to exterior locations. For this purpose the entire production unit, including lighting expert, cameramen, sound staff, engineers, continuity girl, carpenters and plasterers, were moved from the Islington Studios into the grounds of Sound City, Shepperton. There were filmed sequences supposedly taking place on country roads, in lonely meadows and in a smugglers' encampment.

While the unit was on location, art sets were being built, in the studio, of a country hamlet, with carelessly-placed cobblestones, an ancient water trough and thatched cottages.

Supporting Will Hay are Graham Moffatt and Moore Marriott. Marcel Varnel is directing and Edward Black is associate producer.

At Elstree Again

Elstree once again is the location for production work on the Jack Buchanan comedy, "The Gang's All Here," directed by Thornton Freeland. Four weeks' work already has gone into the box.

Recent sequences have been shot on a set representing the palatial offices of a large assurance firm.

Googie Withers is leading woman, while Edward Everett Horton, Otto Kruger and Jack LaRue also are playing in the film with Jack Buchanan. The script was written by Ralph Spence. Claude Friese Greene is in charge of the camera and Walter Mycroft is producer.

FROM "LUCKNOW" TO SANDHURST

Maurice Elvey, hero of the defunct "Lucknow" film project, abandoned following protests from India to England, has won a consolation prize in being commissioned to make a story devised around Sandhurst, training college for English military cadets. Written by Major Dudley Sturrock, it is entitled "The Sword of Honour".

Collaborating with the producers of the film is the British War Office, who have arranged that Elvey be permitted to shoot film at Sandhurst itself. Among the sequences to be included is the passing-out ceremony, when 600 cadets will parade and Geoffrey Toone will be awarded the Sword of Honour.

25 Sets of School

Twenty-five different sets representing sequences of the same public school, Brookfield, have been built at the Denham studios for scenes in "Good-bye, Mr. Chips," the MGM British production now being directed by Sam Woods.

The sets include quadrangle, cloisters, chapel, master's and porter's houses, classrooms, ancient and modern, and various corners of this ancient and venerable, if fictitious, seat of learning.

Ealing Active

No time has been lost in renewing activity at the Ealing Studios, where the new George Formby comedy, "Trouble Brewing," recently was concluded.

Walter Forde has gone into production on the first of Michael Balcon's twelve films for 1939, a new version of Edgar Wallace's "The Four Just Men." The novel has been adapted freely for the film version by Angus McPhail and Sergei Nolbandov, and dialogue has been written by Roland Pertwee. The story has been brought up to date, so much so that the first shot of the film shows an escape from a political prison camp in middle Europe.

In the film Roland Pertwee, stage actor, soldier and painter, makes his debut as a screen actor, playing a small part written for him by Messrs. MacPhail and Nolbandov.

Leading the cast of "The Four Just Men" are Anna Lee and Hugh Sinclair, with Griffith Jones, Frank Lawton, Ellaline Terriss, Basil Radford, Edward Chapman, Basil Sydney and others.

Later this year Forde will make "The Return of the Four Just Men."

Airline Cooperates

Collaboration between K. L. M. Royal Dutch Airlines and the Warner-First National unit at Teddington has resulted in installation of a note of authenticity into "Too Dangerous to Live," thriller in production at the Thames-side studios under the direction of Anthony Hankey and Leslie Norman.

The story deals with jewel thieves and contains airport and flying sequences. K.L.M. loaned one of its latest Douglas DC3 luxury airliners for scenes at Croydon, and gave the services of a staff of four, 2 pilots, radio-operator and air hostess. A "mock-up" has been built in the Teddington studios.

Playing in "Too Dangerous to Live" is Greta Gynt, svelte stage discovery of 1938, who has played not only in revues, such as "8.45 and All That," but also in the Greek tragedy "Lysistrata."

Itemized

For some time silent and dark, the Riverside Studios, Hammersmith, became active again while Religious Films, Ltd., the chairman of which is J. A. Rank, film trade financier, produced a three-reel subject, "The Prodigal Son." In preparation to follow it is a screen version of Bunyan's "Pilgrim's Progress," which is to be of feature length, with Harold Simpson directing.

* * *

The tentative titles of three films announced for production during 1939 by Gamma Films, Ltd., heads of which are Roy and Pamela Kellino and James Mason, are "Green Races," "Twice the Man" and "Balcony Scene," a story written around the personality of Don Juan. "Green Races" goes before the cameras in March.

* * *

A mixed grill of entertainment is prospected by Widgey R. Newman, chief of Associated Independent Producers, production unit whose features and featurettes have served as quota for Twentieth Century Fox, Paramount, Warner Bros., etc.

* * *

Special music for the Bergner film, "Stolen Life," has been written by William Walton, noted British composer.

* * *

Work has been resumed on "Black Eyes," the Associated British picture, at the Elstree Studio. Production was interrupted by the illness of Mary Maguire. Herbert Brenon is directing.

* * *

England's annual flat racing festival, the Derby, forms the set for one of the sequences in Jack Raymond's production, "The Mind of Mr. Reeder," for Grand National release, in which Will Fyffe, Kay Walsh and John Warwick are playing. The film is being shot under Raymond's own direction at the Highbury Studios.

BRITONS FEAR EXODUS OF TALENT UNDER MULTIPLE QUOTA PENALTIES

Distributors of Quality Films Required to Acquire Inferior Product in Increasing Quantity under Films Act

by AUBREY FLANAGAN
in London

The initial voyaging of Oliver Stanley's ill fated Films Act, designed to transport the British film industry to the shores of Elysium, not only has not been a smooth passage, but there is more than a minor indication that it is perilously close to shipwreck, with drastic consequences for its crew and passengers. Already, to quote the London Financial News, the industry "is wringing its hands and appealing for succor in the manner of the distraught heroine of the films."

Concern at the operations of the multiple quota clause, and its penalization of quality production and of distributors who sponsor it, has risen now to sheer alarm, and the consequences, foreshadowed in these columns last week, of an abandonment by United States producers here of the superfilm production they have so successfully sponsored, are considered far from remote—perilously near, in fact.

One Brief Sentence

For reasons of pure economics, and the elementary fact that they are in business to produce and distribute films at a profit, large distributors in Britain, unless the Act, now a year in operation, is amended so as to remove the present anomaly, which creates a position generally considered impossible, may find themselves compelled to abandon super productions and concentrate exclusively on handling, for their quota, minimum cost films.

The necessary change in the Act which immediately would alter the entire complexion of the production situation, could be achieved by the substitution of one brief sentence for another in one section of the Act.

It was reported this week that the Board of Trade was working on such an amending measure aiming at explanation and clarification of the criticized passage. Pressure of Parliamentary business makes it improbable that the bill will be introduced before April.

Then the Debates

The introduction and passage of the one-sentence Amending Act need be only a formality, taking but a few days to operate. Such an Act could be introduced either by the Government or by a private member. The situation, however, is colored by the inevitability that such a step immediately would provoke another Parliamentary controversy and series of debates over British films, would open the way for further amendments and emendations, adjustments and improvements, with a virtual state of legislative chaos.

As already suggested in MOTION PICTURE HERALD, the Board of Trade diplomatically has inferred that penalties for defaults due to the operation of the multiple quota clause probably will not be imposed.

Though it is agreed that no section of the Act could be more complex in its legal phrasing, it is now implicitly understood and agreed by the Board of Trade, that the section permitting distributors to register double or treble quota films—that is, films made at a proportionately increased labor cost—calls upon them, none the less, to find half of what footage they register in actual celluloid. On the face of it, this would seem a not unreasonable demand. But the fact is that it so operates that the more footage registered by a distributor, the more actual celluloid he must acquire. The fifty per cent actual footage or single quota film he handles must be not merely fifty per cent of his legal requirements, but fifty per cent of whatever he registers, even if he registers a thousand per cent or more than he is legally called upon to do.

THE CLAUSE THAT CAUSED THE TROUBLE

". . . a renter shall be deemed not to have fulfilled the quota conditions imposed . . . if the aggregate of the registered lengths of the films acquired by him in that period or year, as the case may be, for distribution in Great Britain, which are registered as British long films and also as renter's quota films, bears to the aggregate of the lengths which are to be taken, for the purpose of that paragraph, to be the lengths of those films, a proportion being less than one-half."

This penalization of distributors who have handled quality films of the calibre of "Sixty Glorious Years," "The Citadel" and "We're Going to be Rich," for instance, compels them to acquire trashy films in increasing quantity, for the more super films they handle, the more single feature footage must they register also, or, alternatively, to register the films they have spent perhaps £100,000 ($500,000) in making, as single features in the £15,000 category. This they are not likely to do, claiming that the risk involved with a picture costing £100,000 or over is too high to make that economic.

Secrecy of Film Council

It would seem to be an impasse from which there is no immediate visible way out. Nor is the problem assisted by the complete secrecy with which the Films Council continues to operate. It makes no public pronunciamentos, imposes obligations of secrecy on members, and offers no report of its proceedings beyond an occasional bald statement that a meeting has been held. It is apparent that the industry increasingly resents the working out of its destinies behind closed doors through which neither the industry itself, nor the public—for whom the Council are appointed to speak—are permitted to enter.

It was only recently that the exact significance of the multiple quota clause became evident, and then only because Twentieth Century-Fox permitted publication of its correspondence with the Board of Trade. Films made at less than quota cost may have passed the quality test, but no indication has been given as to which, and producers thereby are deprived of what, they claim, would be a legitimate guide. No report has been offered of the representations of the Australian Government on the inclusion of Commonwealth films as quota. The labor unions' memorandum probably would have been guarded in like secrecy had the unions themselves not offered it to the press for publication.

A curtailment of the number of higher cost films produced would, of course, mean a proportionate increase in the number of £15,000 pictures made, with probably a slight rise in the employment figures among technicians. This would not necessarily bring about a proportionate increase in either renters' or exhibitors' takings, and in all likelihood would prelude a mass exodus of whatever British production talent remains, to the more lucrative pastures of Hollywood.

Meanwhile the City, which gave its millions the last few years with unparalleled generosity, having failed to find its investment profitable, would seem to have written off these millions as a very bad debt. The recent reorganization of the Denham and Pinewood affairs, inspired by financial interests, is a pointer in the direction which the City, always ready to back profit earning industries, would like British films to take.

Indications have been given from financial circles that centralization of production, internal rationalization and closer collaboration with distributors, native and foreign, and with the American organizations, might readily provoke a reawakening of interest among the financiers. Other informed circles seem to favor the thesis that investors in cinema properties should not be expected to shoulder the speculative risks of production, a hint that a sharp financial differentiation between the two interests might awaken a more friendly spirit in the City.

Film Imports Decline

British exposed film imports for 1938 totalled 20,343,073 linear feet, a decline of a little more than a million and a half compared with 1937. The value of last year's stock was £163,324 ($816,620).

On the other side, the country exported 24,842,780 linear feet, compared with 22,679,394 and 22,390,532 in 1937 and 1936 respectively. The 1938 export was valued at £162,449.

Cinematograph films re-exported totaled 7,701,266 linear feet, a small increase over 1937, but less than 1936, when the re-exports totaled 9,846,512.

A committee of independent exhibitors is to be named within the London branch of the Cinematograph Exhibitors Association, to permit a voicing of the independents' views. The committee will meet before each monthly executive session of the branch.

RKO Radio Foreign Sales Drive Won by French Staff

The RKO Radio foreign sales drive held from October 2nd to December 31st and known as the Phil Reisman Flight to New York Drive, was won by Reginald Armour and the French organization, which he led, with 221.07 per cent or 121.07 per cent over the billings quota. Switzerland, headed by Armand Palivoda, was second with 202.81 per cent; Sweden, Carl-Gerhard Wallman in charge, was third with 179.87 per cent and Bert Reisman's Peru organization was fourth with 172.34 per cent. Of the 25 RKO foreign branches participating in the drive 19 were above the quota.

Arthur Jacobson has been named head of the Paramount talent department, following the resignation of Ted Lesser. John Zinn, formerly legal advisor, was named business manager of the casting department.

SHOWMEN'S REVIEWS

This department deals with new product from the point of view of the exhibitor who is to purvey it to his own public

Made for Each Other

(UA-Selznick)

Finespun Homespun

David O. Selznick went back to first principles for the stuff of which this comedy melodrama is made, and the laughter and tears of a starched and perfumed preview audience were of a kind to suggest that in first principles is to be found precisely that something which languishing box offices have been crying for. This is a straight line story of events in the unremarkable married life of two unremarkable young persons to whom only one remarkable thing happens and that one as melodramatically as Lincoln J. Carter would have arranged it. Dropped down in the current welter of stupendous, extraordinary, magnificent and extravagantly smart pictures, this finespun length of homespun is refreshing as a breath of spring.

As counted in terms of settings, color, location trips and such, "Made for Each Other" does not scream its overhead. But as counted in terms of fine acting, graphic character portrayal, potent dialogue and learned direction it foots up an impressive total. Single sequences are built with the impeccable finesse of a Lunt interlude. Time after time accumulated tension is relaxed a split second before breaking point. Humor of a dozen kinds, from sly digs at pomposity to broad caricature of the servant problem, contributes to the foundation upon which a sheerly melodramatic climax finally is superimposed. By that time the audience has been prepared for approval of whatever flight of imagination may be undertaken, as the picture takes a jump into heroics.

Showmen have two outstanding performances around which to concentrate their sales talk. They can bill Carole Lombard's in her first serious performance in two or more years and declare it to be a better piece of work than any of her comic appearances. That ought to get the men in. James Stewart's performance can be billed as the one his several recent successes were runners-up to, and that ought to bring in the women. Once in, both men and women are quite likely to go out looking for persons to tell about it.

The screen play by Jo Swerling is lightly rigged and tightly integrated. A young New York attorney meets a girl in Boston. They are married forthwith and he brings her home to his mother, who had plans for him to marry his employer's daughter. The three share an apartment. The mother is critical of the daughter. The boy doesn't get the promotion he believes due him. His wife coaches him to lay down the law to his boss. Instead, he takes a cut, then gets drunk. Meanwhile they've had a baby. Finally they decide to separate. Then the baby becomes ill, the three are reunited in suspense, and the baby's recovery brings not only the family but the hardhearted employer around to looking at things differently.

The story is, in skeleton, as banal as that. It is not banal as produced. The young couple are warmly likeable, the mother-in-law is not a shrew, the boss is more practical than hardhearted, and it's possible for the onlooker to sympathize with all hands at all times. He does so to such an extent that he is relieved rather than shocked when the story goes abruptly into action with a daredevil pilot flying a feeble plane through a blinding blizzard to bring the life-saving serum from Salt Lake City to New York. In this section the film blows the lid off of plausibility, but by then nobody minds.

John Cromwell's direction is a work for beginners to study with care. He makes a staple story look like new. Charles Coburn, Lucile Watson, Louise Beavers and other excellent players give him a lot of assistance in doing so.

Previewed at Grauman's Chinese, Hollywood, where a seasoned audience, accustomed to expecting the brand new and brilliant from David O. Selznick, wept and laughed at this equally seasoned story as though they'd never heard it before and could use a lot more of the same. —WILLIAM R. WEAVER.

Produced by David O. Selznick. Distributed by United Artists. Director, John Cromwell. Screen play by Jo Swerling. Production designed by William Cameron Menzies. Music directed by Lou Forbes. Photographed by Leon Shamroy. Art director, Lyle Wheeler. Special effects by Jack Cosgrove. Interior decoration, Edward G. Boyle. Costumes, Travis Banton. Supervising film editor, Hal C. Kern. Film editor, James E. Newcom. Recorder, Jack Noyes. Assistant director, Eric Stacy. P. C. A. Certificate No. 4846. Running time, when seen in Hollywood, 84 minutes. Release date February 10, 1939. General audience classification.

CAST

Jane Mason	Carole Lombard
John Mason	James Stewart
Judge Doolittle	Charles Coburn
Mrs. Mason	Lucille Watson
Conway	Eddie Quillan
Sister Madeleine	Alma Kruger
Eunice Doolittle	Ruth Weston
Carter	Donald Briggs
Dr. Healy	Harry Davenport
Cook	Esther Dale
Collins	Russell Hopton
Hatton	Ward Bond
Farmer	Olin Howland
Farmer's Wife	Fern Emmett
Cook	Louise Beavers
John Mason, Jr. (newly born)	Bonnie Belle Barber
John Mason, Jr. (one year old)	Jackie Taylor

Honolulu

(MGM)

Hollywood-to-Hawaii Musical

There are about as many ways to sell this musical comedy as there are kinds of audiences to buy it. For instance:

Where comedies sell readily, "Honolulu" can be billed as one of the season's lightest and gayest;

Where dancefilms go like hot cakes, "Honolulu" can be advertised as one in which the screen's top tapdancer (feminine) steps off four routines in her liveliest manner, including the Hawaiian;

Where pictures about Hollywood and screen stars appeal to the customers, "Honolulu" can be offered as a film wherein all the ranking MGM stars not present in the cast are present in dialogue reference or by impersonation in a masquerade sequence of considerable duration and laugh content;

Where Eleanor Powell, Robert Young, Burns & Allen and Eddie ("Rochester") Anderson are names that bring the paying public rushing to the box office, "Honolulu" can be exploited as made-to-measure amusement.

So much for the expository technique in exhibitor exploitation of "Honolulu." The expository technique is, in this case, more likely to be permanently successful than the adjectival. The film is light, fairly swift, pleasantly tuneful, novel in a number of ways, but not so excessively light, swift, tuneful or novel as to suggest breaking out the vocabulary of superlatives. It is, in short, okay but not colossal.

The story by Herbert Fields and Frank Partos, an original screen play, comes from 'way back in the era when technicians discovered a lot of amusing results were to be had from photographing one performer as twins, that is, the dual-role school of comedy, and it's so long since the stunt's been used that the comedy inherent in it is almost as good as new. Mr. Montgomery is the beneficiary of it here, cast as a movie star and a pineapple grower who looks like him and consents to double for him on a personal appearance tour.

The picture opens brightly in Hollywood, where a preview is presented amusingly, and then goes, via the separate personalities played by Mr. Montgomery, to Hawaii and to New York. The Hawaii side gets most attention.

Miss Powell's dances are among the best she's done; she doesn't need to do much acting.

Miss Allen has several effective outlets for her style of humor and tops them in a final brief session with Mr. Burns near the end of the film.

Harry Warren and Gus Kahn have supplied some suitable music and Edward Buzzell's direction is adequate. It's a Jack Cummings production.

Previewed at the Village theatre, Westwood, Cal., to the immense amusement of a chiefly collegiate public attendance and the evident satisfaction of the professional contingent present.—W. R. W.

Produced and distributed by MGM. Producer, Jack Cummings. Directed by Edward Buzzell. Story and screen play by Herbert Fields and Frank Partos. Music and lyrics by Harry Warren and Gus Kahn. Dance direction by Bobby Connelly and Sammy Lee. Incidental music by Franz Waxman. Photography by Ray June. Film editor, Conrad A. Nervig. P.C.A. certificate No. 4999. Release date, Feb. 3, 1939. Running time, when seen in Westwood, 80 minutes. General audience classification.

CAST

Dorothy March	Eleanor Powell
Brooks Mason George Smith	Robert Young
Joe Duffy	George Burns
Millie de Grasse	Gracie Allen
Cecelia Grayson	Rita Johnson
Mr. Horace Grayson	Clarence Kolb
Nurse	Jo Ann Sayers
Gale Brewster	Ann Morriss
Wong	Willie Fung
First Detective	Cliff Clark
Second Detective	Edward Gargan
Washington	Eddie Anderson
Psychiatrist	Sig Rumann
Eve	Ruth Hussey
Native Dancing Girl	Kealoha Holt
Jailer	Edgar Dearing

Tailspin

(Twentieth Century-Fox)

Women Aloft

Twentieth Century-Fox has enlisted a band of publicity men to go about the country and help showmen exploit "Tailspin." Members of the cast, men and women, are flying here and there across the map to make personal appearances on the occasion of the film's regional premieres. These bits of producer-exhibitor

(Continued on page 61)

STAGECOACH

IS COMING!!

2 WOMEN ON A DESPERATE JOURNEY WITH 7 STRANGE MEN . . . . . .

WALTER WANGER presents

STAGE

Dance-Hall Girl: Nothing mattered but a man she'd never seen before.

Convict: He gave himself up in order to be taken to Lordsburg; where three men waited to kill him.

Man of Mystery: A strange whim, something from the past...forced him to go on .

Doctor: It took 12 cups of coffee to sober him in time.

COACH

Wife: "We must go on, I've got to find my husband."

Marshal: Why did he release his prisoner?

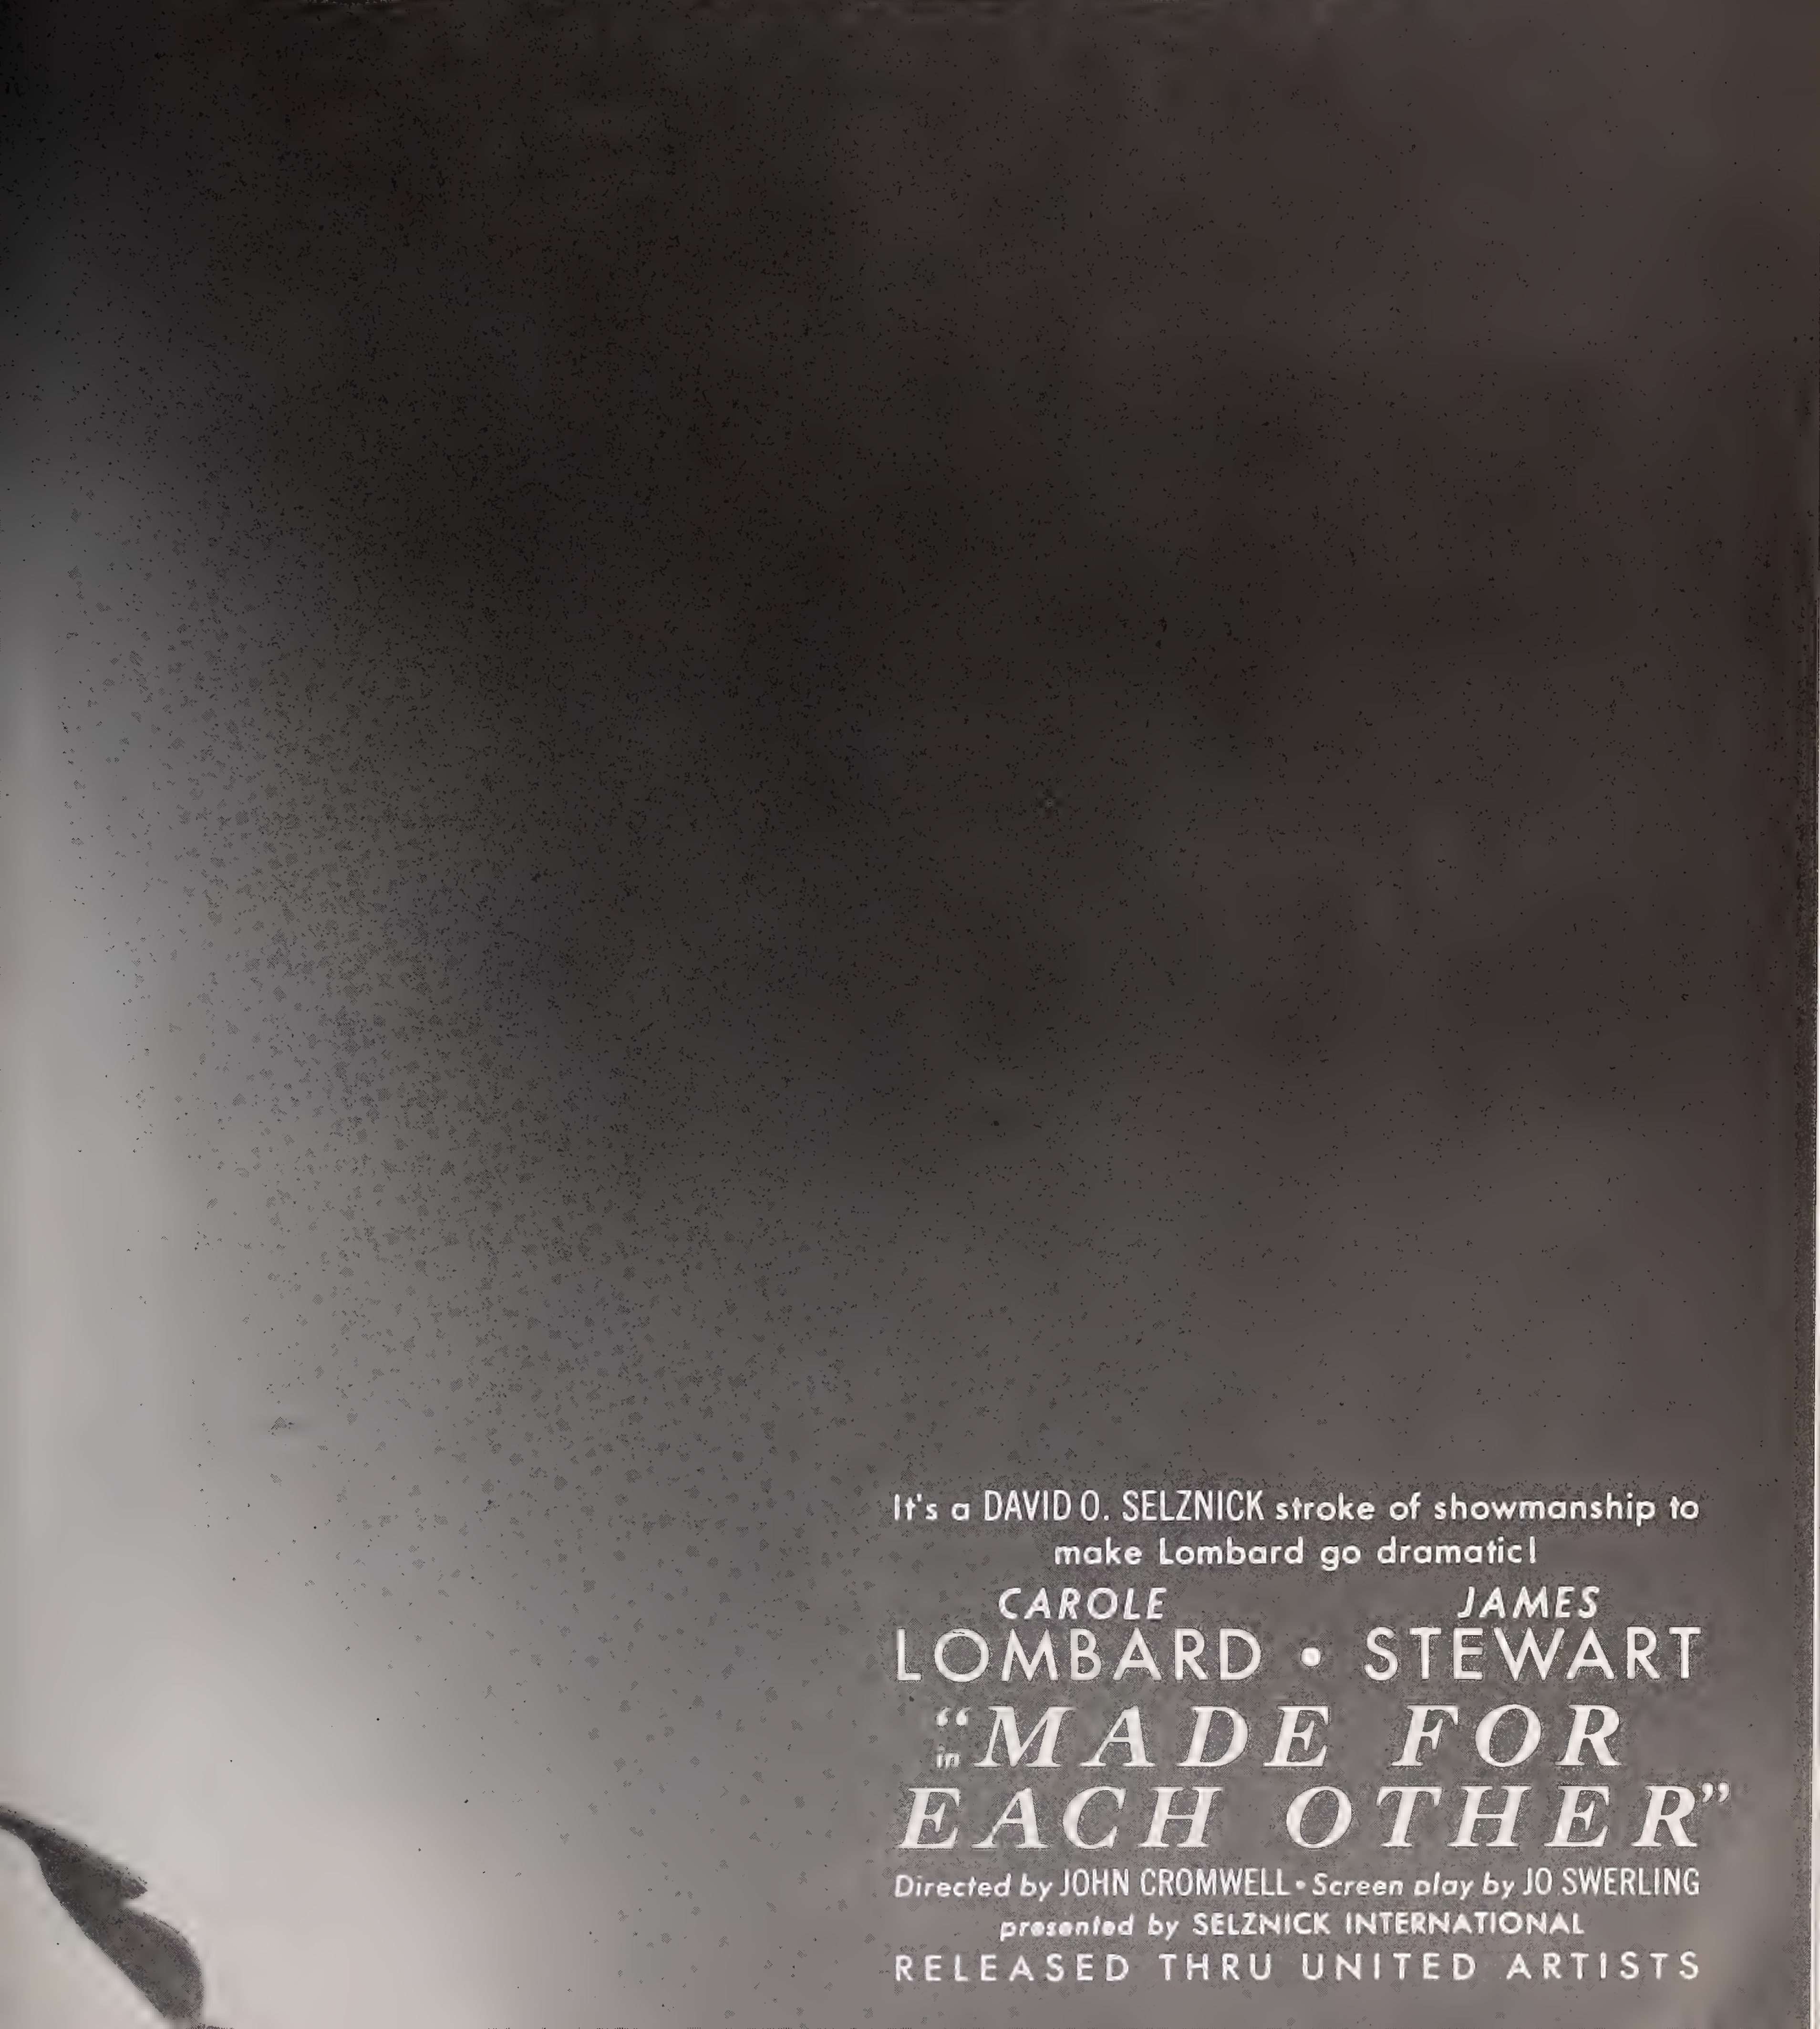
Traveling Salesman: "I'm a married man ...father of five...I insist we go back."

Banker: Why so careful of the little black bag?

Driver: He wanted to go home.

CAROLE

CRIES!



It's a DAVID O. SELZNICK stroke of showmanship to make Lombard go dramatic!

CAROLE LOMBARD • JAMES STEWART

in "MADE FOR EACH OTHER"

Directed by JOHN CROMWELL • Screen play by JO SWERLING presented by SELZNICK INTERNATIONAL superintendent of nurses, and Sara Haden, Phillip Terry and Tom Neal. Miss Merkel, Ebsen and Miss Ralph supply the comedy deftly, and the other characterizations are neatly done. Nat Levine was the associate producer. Dorothy Yost wrote the adaptation of the original story by Nathalie Bucknall and Endre Bohem. S. Sylvan Simon directed.

RELEASED THRU UNITED ARTISTS

(Continued from page 61)

Anxious to marry well and leave a life of drudgery, "Norma Page" first pays court to "Dr. Melford" and then to "Maitland," a playboy. By leaving her post she indirectly causes the death of "Mary Forbes," a fellow student who relieves her and is killed by an insane patient. "Norma" is shunned by her classmates. Her sister, "Patricia," marries "Maitland." Then "Norma" regains the good graces of all by risking her life in a train wreck and dam break.

Previewed at the Uptown Theatre, Hollywood, to an audience which laughed and shuddered.—V. K.

Produced and distributed by MGM. Produced by Nat Levine. Directed by S. Sylvan Simon. Screenplay by Dorothy Yost. Original story by Nathalie Bucknall and Endre Bohem. Art Director, Cedric Gibbons. Associate, Stan Rogers. Wardrobe by Dolly Tree. Photographed by Leonard Smith. Montage effects by Peter Ballbusch. Edited by George Boemler. P. C. A. Certificate No. 5026. Release date, Jan. 27, 1939. Running time, when seen in Hollywood, 70 minutes. General audience classification.

CAST

Norma Page	Florence Rice
Gertie Robbins	Una Merkel
Patricia Page	Ann Rutherford
Mary Forbes	Mary Howard
Doctor Stephen Melford	Alan Marshal
Robert Maitland	Kent Taylor
Express	Buddy Ebsen
Miss Tobias	Jessie Ralph
Miss Bennett	Sara Haden
Doctor Phillips	Phillip Terry
Doctor Sidney	Tom Neal

Code of the Streets

(Universal)

Melodrama

Here's a picture that not only provides good general audience entertainment but also makes available to exhibitors an unusual opportunity to prove their showmanship ability at bringing youngsters into the theatre. Basically, it's a crime melodrama. It tells a realistic story in a forceful way. There's no "love" in it, other than the great love which a boy has for his father and which another lad has for his condemned brother. There are no women in it, unless little Juanita Quigley, who has a brief bit, can be counted a woman or the background players can be considered important. It's melodrama until the last, minute-long sequence wherein a moral is preached.

Although adult Harry Carey, Paul Fix, Leon Ames and El Brendel make important contributions to the show, the youngsters, Frankie Thomas, James McCallion and the Little Tough Guys are the featured characters. All do good work. Following the lines and situations of Arthur T. Horman's original screenplay, directed with force and understanding by Harold Young, the troupe makes everything that happens seem realistic and logical.

Within the meaning of the title two boys, one a policeman's son, the other the brother of an innocent man who has been condemned to death, take the law into their own hands to rectify two injustices. Already scoffers at the law, "Danny" and his slum hoodlums become its outright enemies when brother "Tommy" is framed into the death house. "Lieut. Lewis" is demoted for expressing his opinion that the man is innocent. Convinced that neither his father nor "Danny" has been given a fair deal, "Lewis'" son, "Bob," associates himself with "Danny's" mob. When they discover he is a cop's boy, he gets a complete gangster going-over, but when they realize he is on the level, they combine forces to run down the actual killer. They do this in ways that, while neither legal nor ethical, are nonetheless efficient. Kidnaping "Foster," they third degree and torture him (he thinks) until they force a confession exonerating "Danny," incriminating himself and one that makes possible "Lewis'" reinstatement to detective rank. They then become apostles of law and order in wiping out juvenile petty crime.

Previewed in the Universal studio projection room in Hollywood.—G. M.

Produced and distributed by Universal. Burt Kelly, associate producer. Directed by Harold Young. Original screen play by Harold T. Horman. Maurice Wright film editor. Photographed by Elwood Bredell. P. C. A. certificate number 5055. Running time 71 minutes when seen in Hollywood. Release date: May 26, 1939 (tentative). General audience classification.

CAST

Bob Lewis	Frankie Thomas
Lieut. Lewis	Harry Carey
Danny Shay	James McCallion
Cynthia	Juanita Quigley
Tommy Shay	Paul Fix
Chick Foster	Leon Ames
Halstead	Marc Lawrence
Mickey	El Brendel
and The Little Tough Guys
Sailor	Harris Berger
Murph	Hally Chester
Yap	David Gorcey
Monk	Charles Duncan
Trouble	William Benedict

Women in the Wind

(Warner)

Flight Film, Feminine

The coast-to-Cleveland air race for women may be mentioned by showmen playing this picture as the essential episode in it, Kay Francis as the aviatrix who wins it. In localities where customers are known to like to laugh at Douglas Corrigan's expense, it may be added that Eddie Foy, Jr., does what used to be called a take-off on him. Other names pertinent to marquee sale of the merchandise are listed below.

The film is from the Bryan Foy department of Warner Brothers with Mark Hellinger down as associate producer, John Farrow director, Lee Katz and Albert DeMond writers of the screen play and a novel by Francis Walton indicated as the source.

Synopsis: "Janet Steele" needs to win the women's air derby so she can buy her invalid brother costly medical treatment. She persuades "Ace Boreman" to lend her his round-the-world plane, but his not completely divorced wife interferes. So she borrows the home-made plane in which "Denny Carson" has just flown the Atlantic backwards (the other way) and wins anyway. Then "Boreman's" wife turns out to be completely divorced after all, so "Janet" wins him, too.

Previewed at Warners' Hollywood theatre, quietly.—W.R.W.

Produced by Bryan Foy. Distributed by Warner Brothers. Associate producer, Mark Hellinger. Directed by John Farrow. Screen play by Lee Katz and Albert DeMond. Novel by Francis Walton. Photography, Sid Hickox. Film editor, Thomas Pratt. P.C.A. certificate No. 4707. Release date, April 15, 1939. Running time, when seen in Hollywood, 65 minutes. General patronage.

CAST

Janet Steele	Kay Francis
Ace Boreman	William Gargan
Doc	Victor Jory
Stuffy McInnes	Maxie Rosenbloom
Denny Corson	Eddie Foy, Jr.
Frieda Boreman	Sheila Bromley
Kit Campbell	Eve Arden
Bill Steele	Charles Anthony Hughes
Johnnie	Frankie Burke
Sloan	John Dilson
Farmer	Spencer Charters
Farmer's Wife	Vera Lewis
Palmer	William Gould
Air Race Official	Gordon Hart
Joan	Ila Rhodes
Phyllis	Rosella Towne

So This is London

(Twentieth Century-Fox, British)

Transatlantic Farce

There is an immediate appeal to both sides of the Atlantic in this new and lively adaptation of George M. Cohan's play. The playful tilts at English dignity and American intolerance thereof should entertain with both audiences and the interweaving of New York and London scenes and of accents from both territories should appreciably widen the interest in a film amusing enough, and made with sufficient polish, to command the attention of the market on its general commercial qualities.

Americans in the cast, with Berton Churchill topping the list, and library shots cunningly woven into the continuity, give the production an air of authenticity. Most of the action, however, unfolds in the English mansion of Lord Worthing, whither Hiram Draper and his family come from Manhattan to clinch a deal for a vitaminized bread. It is comedy based mainly on the racial antipathies of the irascible elders, Churchill and the baldheaded Alfred Drayton, with the self-possessed and hyperbolical sprite, Robertson Hare, buffeted between the two, and a Casanovan crook complicating matters. The comedy passages between Churchill and Drayton as the irritable Lord, with Hare as a sort of legal football, are often richly funny, thanks not only to good dialogue lines but to grand character work from all three. There is slapstick with basins of flour and old armor, a dumb bride who walks in her sleep and two grotesque kitchenmaids, but it very seldom palls. Drayton and Hare are particular favorites with English audiences and there are very few reasons why they should not register with U. S. patrons. Stewart Granger offers an agreeable romantic foil to Carla Lehmann, while Fay Compton and Lily Cahill pleasantly handle the roles of the English and American mamas. Revnell and West, a vaudeville comedy team, mean something in Britain and beyond that suggest usable comedy material.

There are indications here and there of retaking, and passages the excision of which would accelerate the pace, but camera work, settings, mainly in the baronial manner, and sound have good technical sheen.

Previewed in London at a small trade show theatre, the film evoked constant laughter and seemed to dodge the acid criticism so frequently applied to home comedy.—Aubrey Flanagan.

A Twentieth Century Production. Distributed by Twentieth Century-Fox. Produced by Robert T. Kane. Directed by Thornton Freeland. Based on a play by George M. Cohan. Screen play, William Conselman. Dialogue, Ben Travers. Photoplay, Otto Kanturek. Recording, Western Electric. Length, 7,624 feet. Running time, 85 minutes. Adult audience classification.

CAST

Lord Worthing	Alfred Drayton
Henry Honeycutt	Robertson Hare
Dodie	Ethel Revnell
Liz	Gracie West
Hiram Draper	Berton Churchill
Mrs. Draper	Lily Cahill
Elinor Draper	Carla Lehmann
Lady Worthing	Fay Compton
Lawrence	Stewart Granger
Doctor Dereski	George Saunders
Mrs. Honeycutt	Mavis Clair
Butler	Aubrey Mallalieu

Flat Foot Stooges

(Columbia)

Moe, Curly and Larry

The Three Stooges, Moe Howard, Jerry Howard (Curly) and Larry Fine are up to their old tricks, pummeling one another with the same abandon as when they made their first bow. Here they are firemen. Their immediate task is to prepare the horses for the contest at the firemen's picnic. After the horses have been dolled up the boys return to the firehouse in time to go out on a fire call. The firehouse is burning down but the boys take a circumscribed route. Others in the cast are Chester Conklin and Dick Curtis. Running time, 15½ minutes.

Unusual Occupations, No. 3

(Paramount)

Want a Job?

One of the troubles producing the unemployment situation today, according to the authorities in the know, is that many of the occupational fields are too crowded. The cue would be to choose a vocation with little or no competition. Suggestions for such a move could

(Continued on page 67)

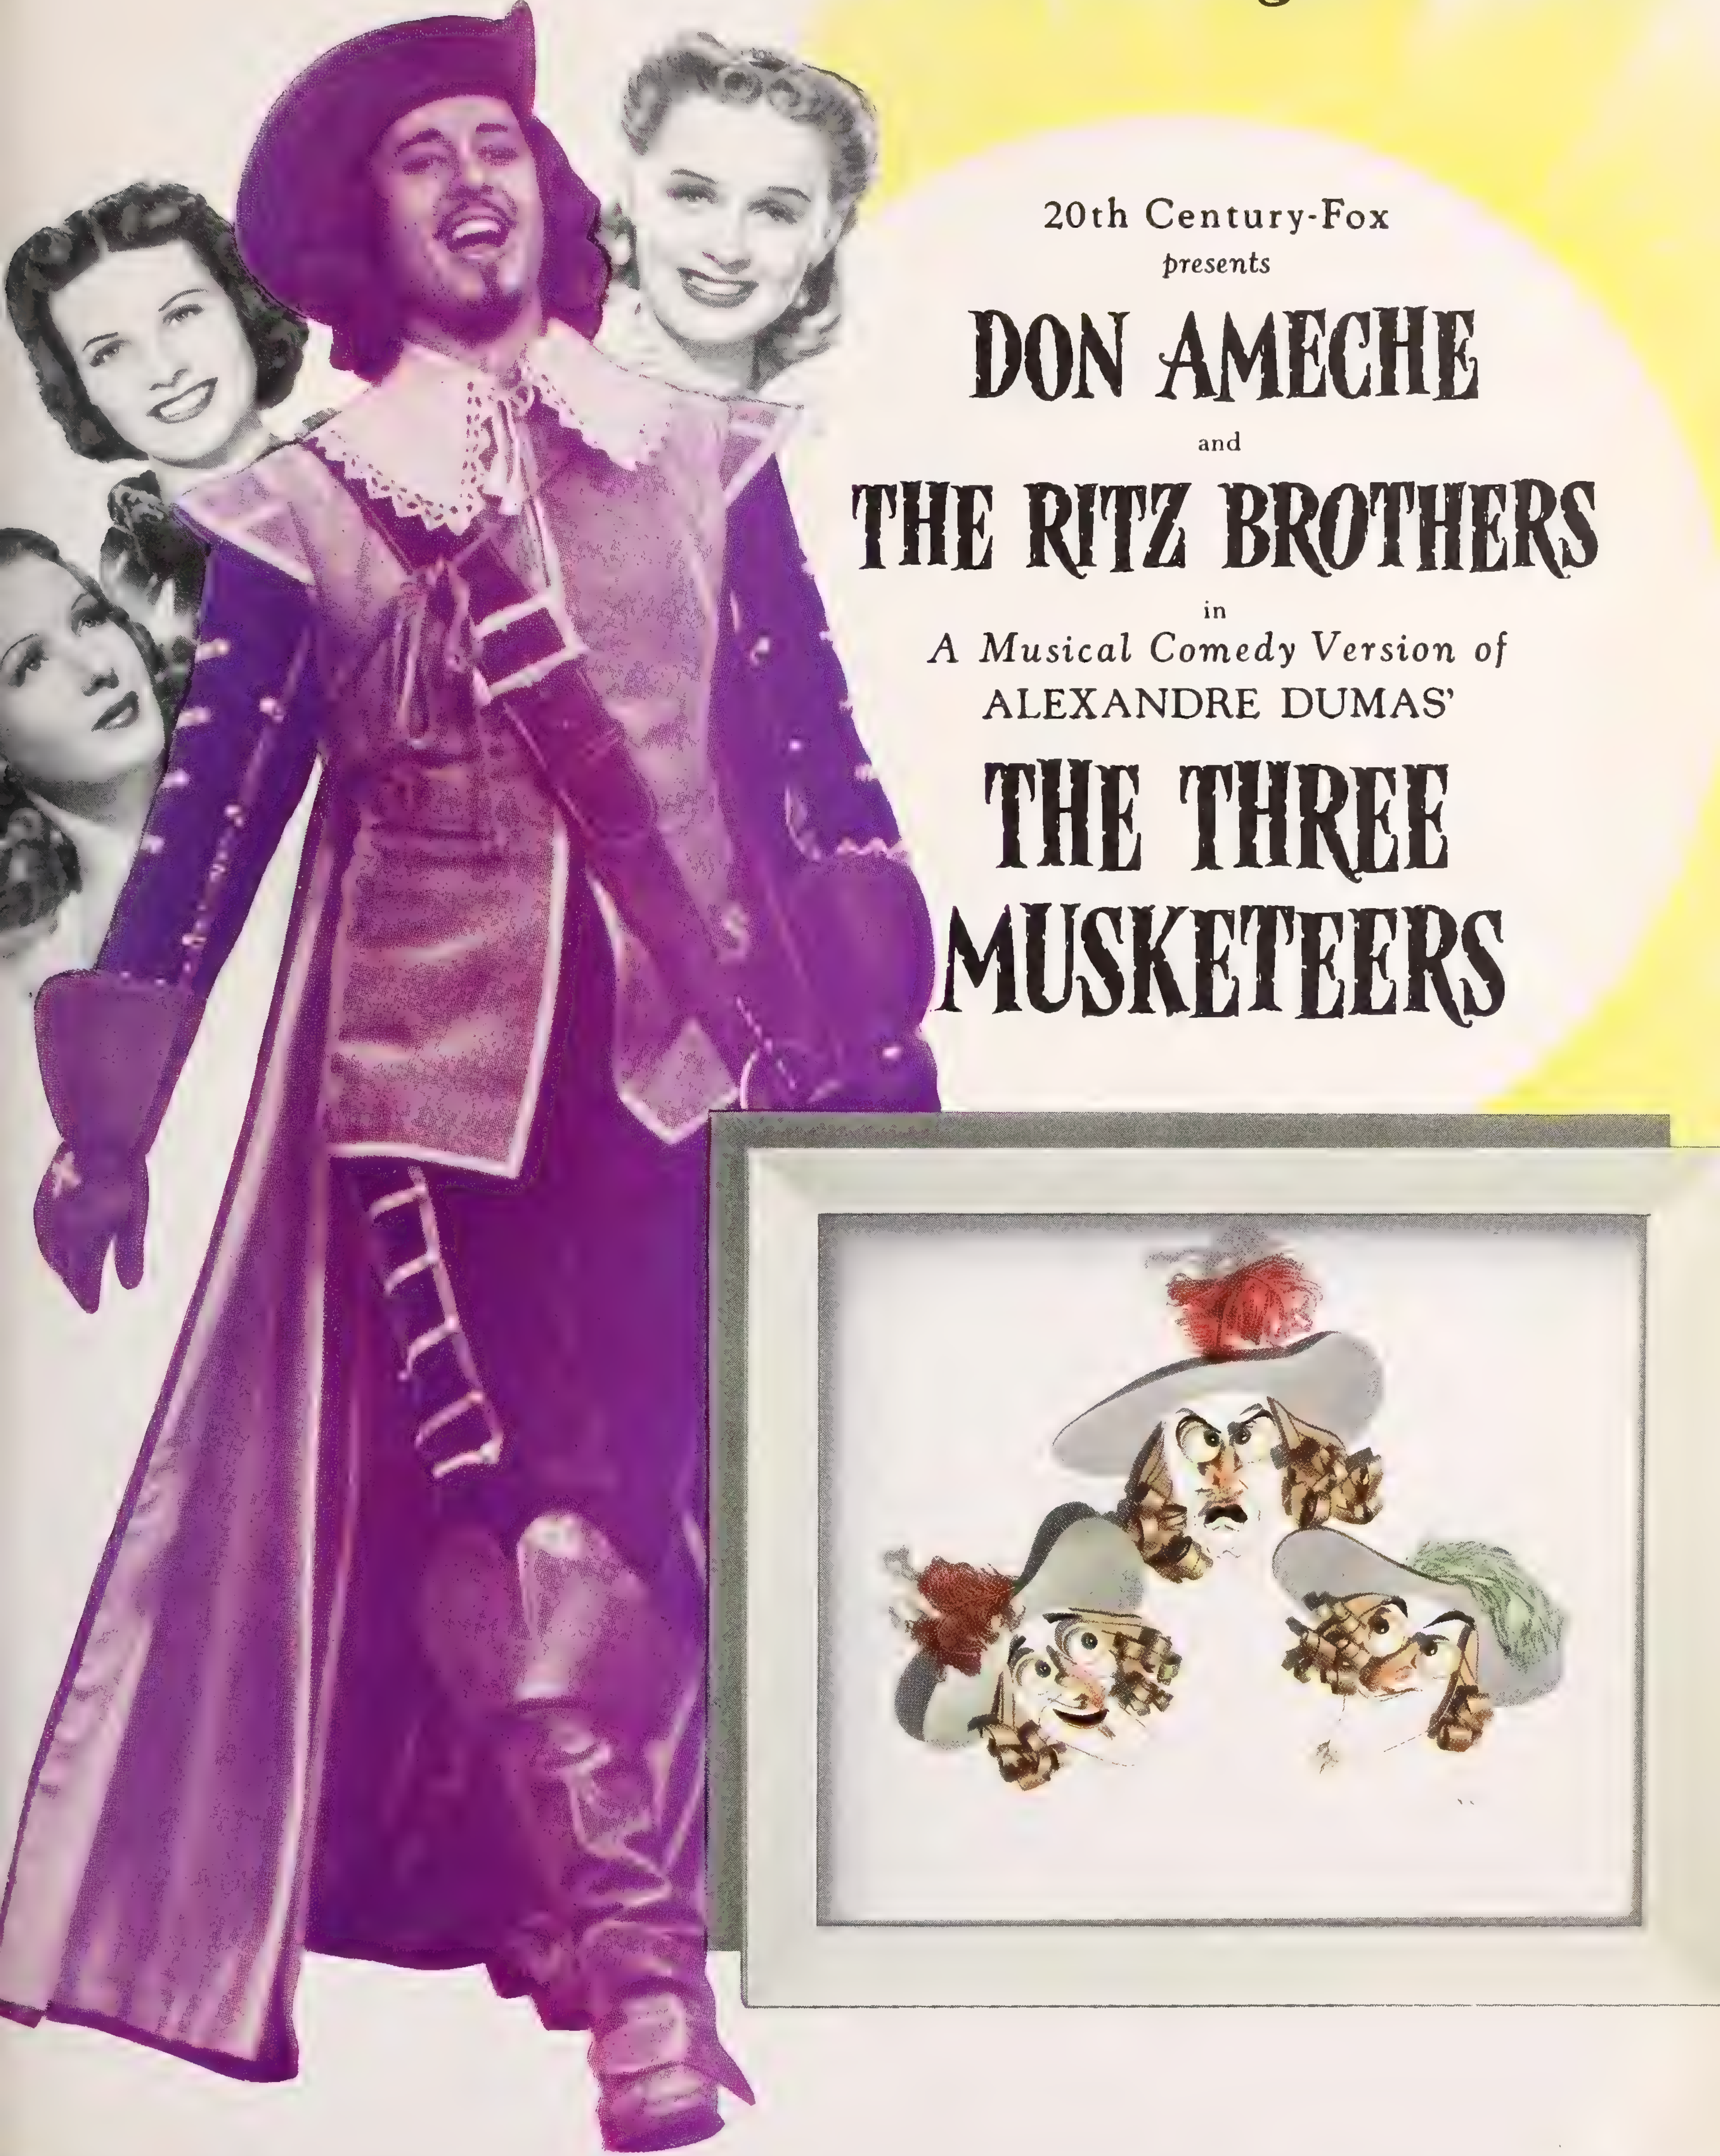
The happiest entertainment idea since the movies began to move!



20th Century-Fox
presents

DON AMECHE

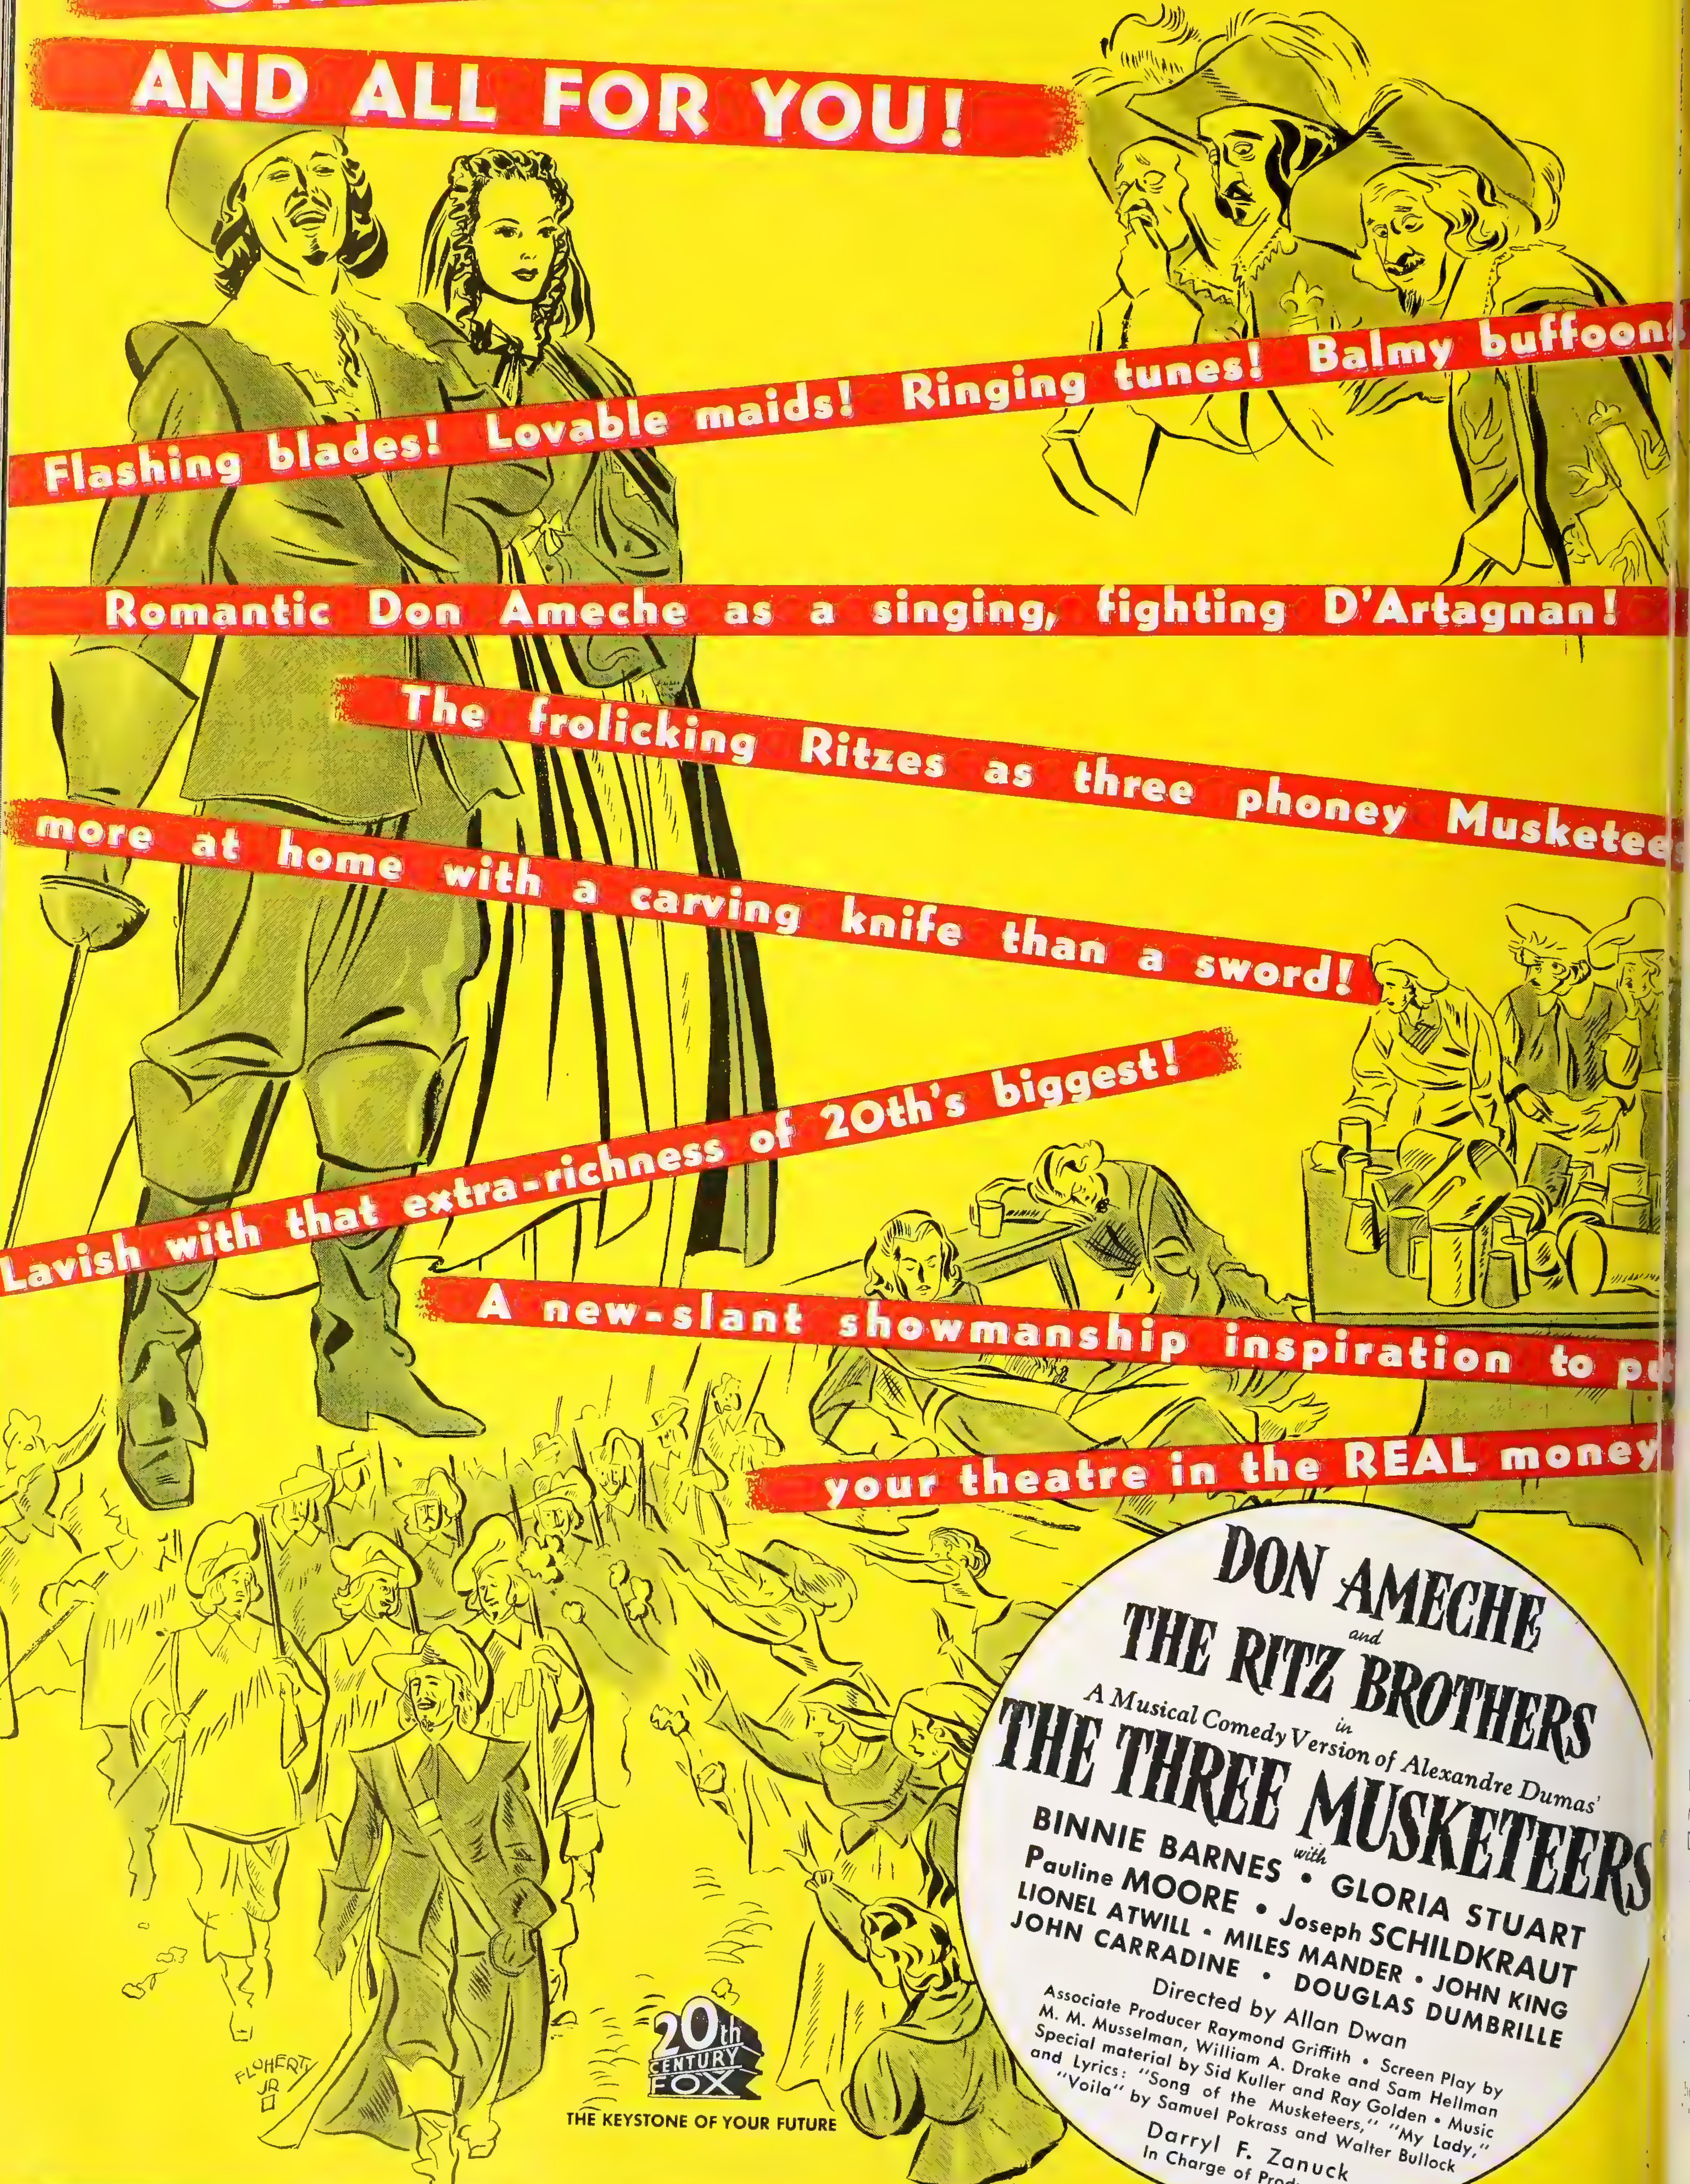
and

THE RITZ BROTHERS

in
A Musical Comedy Version of
ALEXANDRE DUMAS'

THE THREE MUSKETEERS

ONE FOR ALL
AND ALL FOR YOU!



Flashing blades! Lovable maids! Ringing tunes! Balmy buffoons

Romantic Don Ameche as a singing, fighting D'Artagnan!

The frolicking Ritzes as three phoney Musketee more at home with a carving knife than a sword!

Lavish with that extra-richness of 20th's biggest!

A new-slant showmanship inspiration to p your theatre in the REAL money

DON AMECHE
and
THE RITZ BROTHERS
in
A Musical Comedy Version of Alexandre Dumas'
THE THREE MUSKETEERS
with
BINNIE BARNES • GLORIA STUART
Pauline MOORE • Joseph SCHILDKRAUT
LIONEL ATWILL • MILES MANDER • JOHN KING
JOHN CARRADINE • DOUGLAS DUMBRILLE
Directed by Allan Dwan
Associate Producer Raymond Griffith • Screen Play by
M. M. Musselman, William A. Drake and Sam Hellman
Special material by Sid Kuller and Ray Golden • Music and Lyrics: "Song of the Musketeers," "My Lady,"
"Voila" by Samuel Pokrass and Walter Bullock
Darryl F. Zanuck
In Charge of Production

20th CENTURY FOX
THE KEYSTONE OF YOUR FUTURE

(Continued from page 64)

be drawn from the sight and inspiration of a New England woman who had taken the Cape Cod custom of fish net weaving and utilized its scheme and variety for the manufacture of feminine finery. A hint for a profession can be found in the rare and delicate profession of a Mexican metal sculptor. England comes into the study with an inspection of the ancient trade of roof thatching. A trip is made to the famous Madame Tussaud wax museum for a glimpse of some of the world's most illustrious dummies. A lesson to the world and to the legion of critics who censor the frivolous whirl of the screen folk can be drawn from a visit to the home of actor Warren William to admire the many useful and ingenious gadgets Mr. William has concocted in his leisure time.—Running time, 11 minutes.

Alfalfa's Aunt

(MGM)

Our Gang

The Our Gang troupe, led by Alfalfa Switzer and Spanky MacFarlane, strike a new field in their adventures, a murder plot. Alfalfa doesn't know that his aunt is writing a mystery story and using family names for characters. He chances upon a page of her writings in which Alfalfa is to be the victim of a diabolical murder. He notifies the Gang and they start removing all available weapons. Auntie screams for the police. Everything turns out all right when the aunt cuts short her visit.—Running time, 11 minutes.

Mechanix Illustrated (No. 2)

(Vitaphone)

Interesting

Patrons who are mechanically inclined and, for that matter, all others who have merely an amateur interest in the field of science and invention, should enjoy this layman's lecture on scientific items. Shown are the manufacture of illuminating gas from coke, the production of flivver airplanes, the modeling of clay figures and the preparation of cosmetics. The incidents are wisely chosen and the commentary is simple and understandable.—Running time, 10 minutes.

Oh Say, Can You Ski?

(Paramount)

Timely

Just in time for the fall of the winter season's first snow is the release of this instructional and at the same time entertaining miniature lesson on the art of skiing. Localed at the famous American winter resort at Sun Valley, Idaho, the location sites of which Paramount used to shoot "She Met Him in Paris," and staffed with a corp of educated and professional skiers, the subject reveals many valuable points on the what to do and what not to do variety. Outside of ski enthusiasts for whose inspection the subject will be a natural, the material offers the non sportive members of the audience some excellent photographic highlights.—Running time, 10 minutes.

Mental Poise

(MGM)

Doctor, Heal Thyself

The newest chapter in the Benchleyan routine of being all things to all men offers somewhat of a setback in the cult of Benchley hero worship. In a sequence that mental healers will not be too enthusiastic about, psychiatrist Benchley goes about his business of asking all sorts of silly questions of his patients. In comes his double, a befuddled and troubled Benchley, the payoff is arrived at when the doctor and patient interchange positions. On the whole, the subject is the least active of the Benchley lot.—Running time, seven minutes.

Singapore and Jahore

(FitzPatrick-MGM)

Travelogue

James FitzPatrick in this Traveltalk visits Singapore and Jahore and makes excellent use of his camera in photographing the people and customs and the places of interest in the cities. At Jahore considerable footage is given to the Sultan and his palace and a review staged by the small but highly trained army of the Sultan, who received his education in England.—Running time, nine minutes.

Land of the Inca Memories

(Paramount)

Colorful Archaeologic Short

Contrasted with the recent news stories of the Pan-American conference, this study of the historic past of the land and the people in the countries of Bolivia and Peru makes fascinating and informative entertainment. Cleverly formulated in dramatic comparison, the material consists of a juxtaposition of modern living in the South American metropolitan centers with the primitive past of the land's first settlers. Incan civilization is intelligently summarized. A fact-studded commentary, knowing camera angles and some glowing color application help the subject to this result.—Running time, 10 minutes.

How to Sub-let

(MGM)

Benchley Humor

The very busy humorist, Robert Benchley, finds time in this to try, more or less, to sublet an apartment. The humor is typically Benchleyan, and that includes the Benchley facial contortions. The ordeal really isn't so bad, though, for when he lights the stove, the rather domineering woman visitor sort of leaves through the window.—Running time, eight minutes.

Soup to Mutts

(Universal)

Lantz Cartune

A cat defies an interdiction and tries to enter the amateur show conducted by the dogs. Three times thrown out, the invader finds a discarded dog skin and reenters the show, winning the prize with a balancing act. Unfortunately the ruse is discovered and the show ends in disaster.—Running time, 7½ minutes.

Once Over Lightly

(MGM)

Musical Comedy

A musical comedy subject kids the great American college sport of football. There are no footballs to be seen and the sport itself is not mentioned, but when the barber colleges, Clipton and Beardsley, meet on the stadium field in their annual shaving contest there's no mistaking what is meant. The coach of the Clipton team is Billy Gilbert, an expert on sneezes, coughs, snores and other voice cultures. The romantic leads are Dixie Dunbar and Johnny Downs, who is also Clipton's champion barber. It is a humorous subject produced with care and well worth playing.—Running time, 19 minutes.

The Great Heart

(MGM)

Father Damien

This is the story of Joseph Damien de Veuster, a Belgian priest, who devoted his life to the betterment of conditions in the leper colony on Molokai Island. When Father Damien arrived on the island in 1864 the resentful lepers lived in squalor and filth. Undaunted, the priest went about his task. The hatred of the lepers turned to love. When Father Damien contracted the disease and died, the simple story reached the climax of an inspiring example of personal sacrifice. Tom Neal portrays the priest. Dave Miller directed from a script by Morgan B. Cox. Carey Wilson was the narrator.—Running time, 11 minutes.

Sophomore Swing

(Vitaphone)

Swinglined Education

A group of college professors, hopelessly old-fashioned on the matter of modern swing songs, are exposed to a stiff dose of hot, fast and low-down orchestral and vocal thumping, and then do an elementary turn at the shag, trucking and allied dancing steps. In between a bit of young talent demonstrates the ways of our dancing and singing daughters and sons. The Merry Macs of radio take care of the vocal assignment, a bevy of New York Harvest Moon Dancers trip it lightly. A spoofing song on the current radio craze for informational and guessing programs is cleverly parodied by Ballin and McEvoy. Naturally, principal appeal will be found in the younger generation of patrons.—Running time, 20 minutes.

Sydney—Pride of Australia

(MGM)

First Rate

The latest locale for the FitzPatrick travel jaunts is the beautiful capital city of New South Wales. Reviewed are the sights and fine points of the metropolis' famed harbor, one of the largest and loveliest in the world. To complete the picture there is viewed the celebrated Sydney Bridge. Additional points of inspection include beach spots, architectural landsites, gardens and zoos. It is a well rounded and first rate travelogue. As customary in this series, commentary, color and camera work supply additional entertainment assistance.—Running time, nine minutes.

Pudgy in Thrills and Chills

(Paramount)

Dog on the Ice

This being the season of slaloming, the latest cartoon cutups for the canine character, the puppy Pudgy, afford a bit of timely humor and interest. Accompanied by Betty Boop, the pup visits an iceland playground where he meets thrills and chills that range from being dunked in the icy waters to almost being catapulted over a waterfall. Miss Betty cuts a fine figure on ice. The showoff performance of a fellow sport fan, who is more intent on impressing Betty than on keeping his equilibrium, offers an amusing caricature. — Running time, seven minutes.

Nature's Mimics

(Vitaphone)

Different

An interesting and different variety show with an all star cast of animal performers is presented for the entertainment and education of the audience in this newest number from the Color Parade corp. The bill of performers omits the trick fox terrier and the talented circus pony but offer in their stead juggling seals, racing bulls, a harmonic playing elephant, a bevy of frisky monkeys and a troupe of amazingly schooled pigeons. These feathered friends without any malice aforethought steal the acting honors from their brother and sister animal actors with their execution of such difficult tricks as pulling a rickshaw, driving an automobile and shooting a bow and arrow. Pet partisans and particularly the children will enjoy every minute and variation of the subject. However, it is to be feared that upon seeing the animal ability presented in this miniature some envious patrons will begin to subject their house cat and hound to a rigorous and unappreciated term of trick instruction.—Running time, 10 minutes.

SCREEN NOT A POLITICAL PLATFORM, SAYS LEWIN

Producer Says "Knights of the Round Table" Will Affirm Anglo - Saxon Patriotism

While Hollywood producers "back-pedal" before the authoritarian countries in producing films with political content, this retreat is not done out of fear, Albert Lewin, Paramount producer, said before he sailed for England last week on the SS George Washington. Mr. Lewin sailed for "a vacation, and practically nothing else"; will stay abroad six weeks, and probably will visit friends in Paris.

"Why should we have to be bothered by protests, and investigations, and publicity of a sort that might be unfavorable?," asked Mr. Lewin, pointing out that the screen is for entertainment, not a debate platform.

Positive, Not Negative

He said that his forthcoming picture, "Knights of the Round Table," which he will start in July, would have "certain political implications, which grownups will realize. In a sense, King Arthur's Round Table was a sort of League of Nations."

Such political message as the picture will contain will be "oblique," however, Mr. Lewin said. The message will be positive, not negative; an affirmation of democratic and Anglo-Saxon patriotism, not an attack upon the opposing schools of thought.

Mr. Lewin emphasized that "politics" was not his primary purpose in making the film.

"Of course," he said, "it will be an intensely patriotic picture for Britain and all the other patriotic countries.

" 'The Knights' is 'my pet subject, personally. I've been thinking about it for years. It bespeaks a tradition we cannot well lose, but which we are in danger of losing."

Mr. Lewin said the picture would follow the legendary tales, through the death of King Arthur. "It is good for people to cry," he added. "I think they enjoy it as much as any other emotion."

Production in Hollywood

The possibility of production of the picture in Britain itself was discounted by Mr. Lewis.

"The England of today is not the England of yesterday. The English countryside is pretty well cultivated. I think we in Hollywood will be better able to duplicate Arthurian countryside, and I have a lot of faith in my art director, Mr. Hans Dreier."

Mr. Lewin said that he might travel in the West of England, the scene of the Arthurian legends, and "get a few ideas," and "might look around there for a few English actors."

Mr. Lewin expects to be back here by April, and is due on the coast April 3rd, the time between then and July to be occupied in research. He has two other productions "on the fire," "The Lady Eve," and "The Amazing Marriage," tentative titles.

Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., is the only star thus far definitely signed for "Knights of the Round Table."

By Staff Photographer

ALBERT LEWIN

National Decency Legion Classifies Eight Films

Of eight pictures reviewed and classified by the National Legion of Decency in its listing for the current week two were approved for general patronage, five were listed as unobjectionable for adults and one was cited as objectionable in part. The pictures and their classification follow.

Class A-1, Unobjectionable for General Patronage: "Fisherman's Wharf," "Gunga Din." Class A-2, Unobjectionable for Adults: "Four Girls in White," "Inside Story," "Pardon Our Nerve," "Persons in Hiding," "St. Louis Blues," Class B, Objectionable in Part: "Idiot's Delight."

Bourgeois Appointed Astor Sales Manager

O. K. Bourgeois has been appointed sales manager of Astor Pictures Corporation. He assumes complete supervision and direction of the 33 franchise offices in the United States and Canada. W. J. Figueroa, who has been in charge of sales, becomes vice-president and comptroller.

Mr. Bourgeois has been with Astor the last seven years doing field work among the exchanges. R. M. Savini is president.

On March 1st the company will announce the first of a group of four features and four short subjects. One of the features is a musical, "Everything Is Rhythm," featuring Harry Roy and his band.

Loew's Books "Mamele"

Following a five week run at the Continental Theatre on Broadway, "Mamele," Sphinx Films picture starring Molly Picon, has been booked into the Loew's theatres in New York. The Supreme Theatre, a Randforce house, is opening day and date with Loew's Palace in Brooklyn; with the film to be booked into neighborhood houses.

Fewer Delaware Charters in '38

Fewer motion picture film, theater, radio, and miscellaneous amusement companies were incorporated in Delaware in 1938 than in the previous 12 months, according to charters listed by the Secretary of State at Dover. In 1938 a total of 59 new amusement corporations were chartered, as compared with 75 in 1937. Two listed an increase in capital during the year as compared with 16 in 1937 and one changed its name as compared with 14 the previous year.

New amusement companies incorporated in Delaware in the last year follow:

RKO Pictures of China, Inc.; Metropolitan Pictures Corp., American Pictures Corp., Fox East Side Theatres Corp., Eureka Amusement Co., London Amusement Co., American Films Corp., Westinghouse Electric Co. of Brazil, Griffith Arizona Theatres, Inc.; New Mexico Theatres, Inc.; Columbia Pictures of West Indies, Ltd.; MCA Artists, Ltd.; Lake Amusement Co., Pyramid Pictures, Inc.; Asia Theatres, Inc.; Film Corporation of America, White Rose Theatre Corp., Missouri Orpheum Corp., Will Osborne, Inc.; Brooks Productions, Inc.; DeWitt-Johnson Film Corp.

Studio of the Theatres, Inc.; Pro-Ara Films, Inc.; Hollywood Follies, Inc.; Film-File, Inc.; Uptown Theatre Co., Partnership Theatres, Inc.; Amusement Corporation of America, Universal Pictures Corporation of Porto Rico, Filmica International, S. A., Inc.; Lindmont Theatre Corp., Mayflower Motion Picture Service, Inc.; Southland Theatre Equipment Co., Inc.; Augarland Amusement Corp., Bayco Productions, Inc.; Medical Newsreels, Inc.; K. Lee Williams Theatres, Inc., The American Academy of Concert Artists, Inc.; Farnsworth Television & Radio Corp., Tri-Color Corp., Philco Distributors, Inc.; Philadelphia LaScala Opera Co.

Cosmograph Pictures Corp., National Theatres and Concerts, Inc.; Ballets Russes, Inc.; Co-Operative Booking Offices, Inc.; McLaughlin's Amusements, Inc.; Telemusic, Inc.; Radio Service Laboratories, Inc.; Film Crusaders, Inc., Telefilm, Inc.; Iceland Recreation, Inc.; Derby Night Films, Inc.; Western Radio Union, Ben Chrome, Inc.; The Playwrights Producing Co., Jay Cee Music Corp., Dwight Deere Wiman, Inc.

Victor Animatograph Corp., Davenport, Ia., increased its capital stock from 1,000 to 2,000 shares, no par value, and the Fox Caldwell Theatres Corp., Boise, Idaho, from $1,000 to $1,500.

The Millerfilm Corporation changed its name to Miller Broadcasting System, Inc., New York.

Last year two companies listed an increase of capital, compared with 16 in 1937. One changed its name; 14 did so the previous year.

Schenck Leaves Bank Board

Joseph M. Schenck, chairman of the board of directors of Twentieth Century-Fox, has resigned from the board of the Bank of America. Additional duties placed on him by his post as president of the Motion Picture Producers' Association was given as the reason for Mr. Schenck's retirement.

RKO Acquires "Hunchback"

RKO Radio has purchased "The Hunchback of Notre Dame" from Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer which had acquired the rights from Universal. The picture will be the largest on RKO's schedule, according to Pandro S. Berman, production head.

The Dramatists Guild has awarded six $1,000 fellowships to young playwrights, with the fellowships made under a grant from the Rockefeller Foundation. The awards have been given to Leopold Atlas, Alladine Bell, George Corey, Alis De Sola, Ben Simkhovitch and Arnold Sundgaard.

William Fadiman, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer fiction editor, left New York last week for the coast. While at the company's studio, Mr. Fadiman will confer with coast story department heads.

GRACIE FIELDS' NEW HAPPINESS HIT NAMED "BEST GENERAL FEATURE OF THE MONTH" by Hollywood critics in monthly Hollywood Reporter preview poll!

Gracie picks up the fun where she left off in "We're Going to be Rich"... and never lets up for a second!

"Hilarious! Gracie Fields should win a new host of American fans!" —Boxoffice

"Excellent boxoffice! Miss Fields unmatched in versatility by anyone on the American marquee!"—Picture Reports

"Numerous laughs! Fast-moving filmusical! Songs delivered in crackerjack style by Miss Fields!" —Variety

"Gracie Fields has sure-fire appeal to American audiences!" —L. A. Times

"Best vehicle yet for the extraordinary talents of Gracie Fields!"—Daily Variety

Gracie Fields in SMILING ALONG

MARY MAGUIRE · ROGER LIVESEY · with PETER COKE · JACK DONOHUE · and "SKIPPY"

Directed by Monty Banks

Screen Play by William Conselman · Scenario by Val Valentine · Dialogue by Rodney Ackland

Robert T. Kane, Managing Director

A 20th Century Production Released by 20th Century-Fox

20th CENTURY FOX

THE KEYSTONE OF YOUR FUTURE

RULES UNION CAN'T HALT RECORDED MUSIC SHOWS

Musicians Federation and IATSE This Week Prepare to Appeal in "Opera on Tour" Case

The musicians' and stage hands' unions, working in concert, have no legal right to boycott traveling stage units employing so-called "canned" music and "live" talent because either one or both of the unions object to non-employment which they lay to the use of "canned" music, New York's court ruled last week.

Attorneys for the American Federation of Musicians and the International Alliance of Theatrical Stagehands and Employees this week were preparing an appeal to the New York state appellate division, taking exception to the ruling of Kenneth O'Brien, Supreme Court Justice in New York, that the cooperative action of the two unions in preventing the functioning of "Opera on Tour, Inc.," was illegal. Judge O'Brien was to sign the order for an injunction against the two unions this week.

Follows Stagehands' Strike

"Opera on Tour, Inc." is a project using recorded music but singers in person, and stagehands. In August of last year, the company, of which Mrs. Harold S. Lehman, niece of the New York State Governor, is a treasurer and sponsor, started a "road show" of Southern cities. Aroused by the use of the "canned music," the AFM called upon the IATSE for help, whereupon the stagehands struck while the opera company was showing "Faust" in Birmingham. The opera company ended its tour November 22, in Chapel Hill. It then sued for an injunction in the New York courts.

At the hearings Mrs. Lehman testified that the opera company, which as yet had the one piece in its repertoire, "Faust," would grow; that it brought "good music" into towns where opera never could go because of the expense involved in the use of living talent; that its low admission prices brought opera to persons who otherwise could not afford it. Officials of the AFM testified that the use of "canned music" established a precedent disastrous to living musicians; that in itself, it deprived living musicians of employment.

Says Unions Exceeded Rights

In granting the injunction against the two unions, Judge O'Brien emphasized that he saw "no labor dispute" between the company and the two unions; that the unions had no right "to enter into any plan or scheme to prevent the plaintiff from conducting its business or producing opera in its own manner"; that the conduct of the IATSE "is the exercise of an arbitrary power, which it has used upon the pretense that they had a right to refuse to render services because of an alleged controversy between the plaintiff and the union."

The Judge added: "I hold that the plaintiff is within its rights to conduct its business in such a manner, and the illegal interference by the defendants, indicated here as a group, can be enjoined, thus leaving the plaintiff to obtain help outside the union without being charged with a violation of labor union rules, where a union refuses to furnish help by its members, or where the members of the union individually refuse to take employment of the plaintiff."

The decision was used in editorial comment by New York newspapers as evidence of the illegality of "sympathetic" strikes by third parties not directly involved in a labor dispute.

Taking heart from the decision, proponents of "Vode-Vision," also a project using recorded music with principals in person, and described as a type of vaudeville "adapted to present day circumstances," are conferring this week with attorneys for the opera company. Noting a similarity between their fight against the AFM and the opera company's stand, "Vode-Vision" is seeking legal bases in event of dispute with the AFM.

"Vode-Vision" units last year toured several Pennsylvania cities but were hampered in the production of further units by the refusal of AFM musicians to make records for the shows. Rather than use "outside" musicians for the recordings and incur the wrath of AFM, the "Vode-Vision" stopped the unit's tour and the manufacture of recordings. The company filed a protest with the Department of Justice, charging undue "interference" of the AFM with their business. The protest has not yet been acted upon.

At the New York offices of Dave Blyth and J. E. Horn, who are interested in the "Vode-Vision" idea, it was said that the decision of Justice O'Brien "leaves us much more optimistic. It can be said almost officially now, that Weber (Joseph Weber, president of the AFM) has exceeded his authority. We see great similarity between the opera company's case and ours, and will speak with their attorneys to determine in just what respect we can benefit from the decision. Of course, we still have that brief in Washington, and that is another iron in the fire."

At the offices of Arthur De Young, president of "Opera On Tour, Inc.," it was said that no further tour of the opera troupe is scheduled at present.

At the offices of Henry Friedman, attorney for the AFM, it was said that "there is no doubt that the decision will be reversed."

Foland Acquires Exchange

Atlantic Pictures Exchange in Kansas City, formerly in charge of E. W. Kolb, has been taken over by Jim Foland, associated with film and supply distribution in the territory for 26 years. O. K. Bourgeois of Atlantic Pictures has been named traveling auditor for Grand National in Kansas City.

Alexander Korda Sails

Alexander Korda sailed Saturday for London. He will return to this country in June to start on his American production program for United Artists. Four others will be made at Denham, also for United Artists.

Morris Helprin will sail February 10th for London for conferences with Mr. Korda in connection with the latter's production of "Four Feathers," for United Artists release.

J. H. Hoffberg this week opened offices in Los Angeles with William G. Smith, sales supervisor for the territory. He also named Miss Helen Mindlin special representative to handle 16mm. release.

The Hiram Percy Maxim Memorial Award for the best non-theatrical film of the year has been awarded to "Mexican Fiesta" by Ralph Gray of Mexico City. Editors of "Movie Makers" were judges.

PLAYING BROADWAY SHORT PRODUCT

Week of January 28

CAPITOL
	Once Over Lightly	MGM
	White House, The	Columbia
CRITERION
	Goonland	Paramount
	Unusual Occupations, No. 3.	Paramount
	Streamlined Swing	Paramount
PARAMOUNT
	On with the New	Paramount
	Unusual Occupations, No. 4.	Paramount
RIALTO
	Clyde Lucas and Orch.	Vitaphone
	Johnny Smith and Poker Huntas	Vitaphone
RIVOLI
	Night Watchman	Vitaphone
	Busse Rhythm	Paramount
ROXY
	Shooting for Par	20th Cent.-Fox
	Owl and the Pussycat	20th Cent.-Fox
STRAND
	Points on Pointers	Vitaphone

Relief Fund on Pay-as-You Go

The Motion Picture Relief Fund in recent months has been placed on a workable income plan basis gauged to care for the hundreds who receive assistance from it annually without being faced at each year's end with a growing deficit, Jean Hersholt, president of the Fund, said this week in New York.

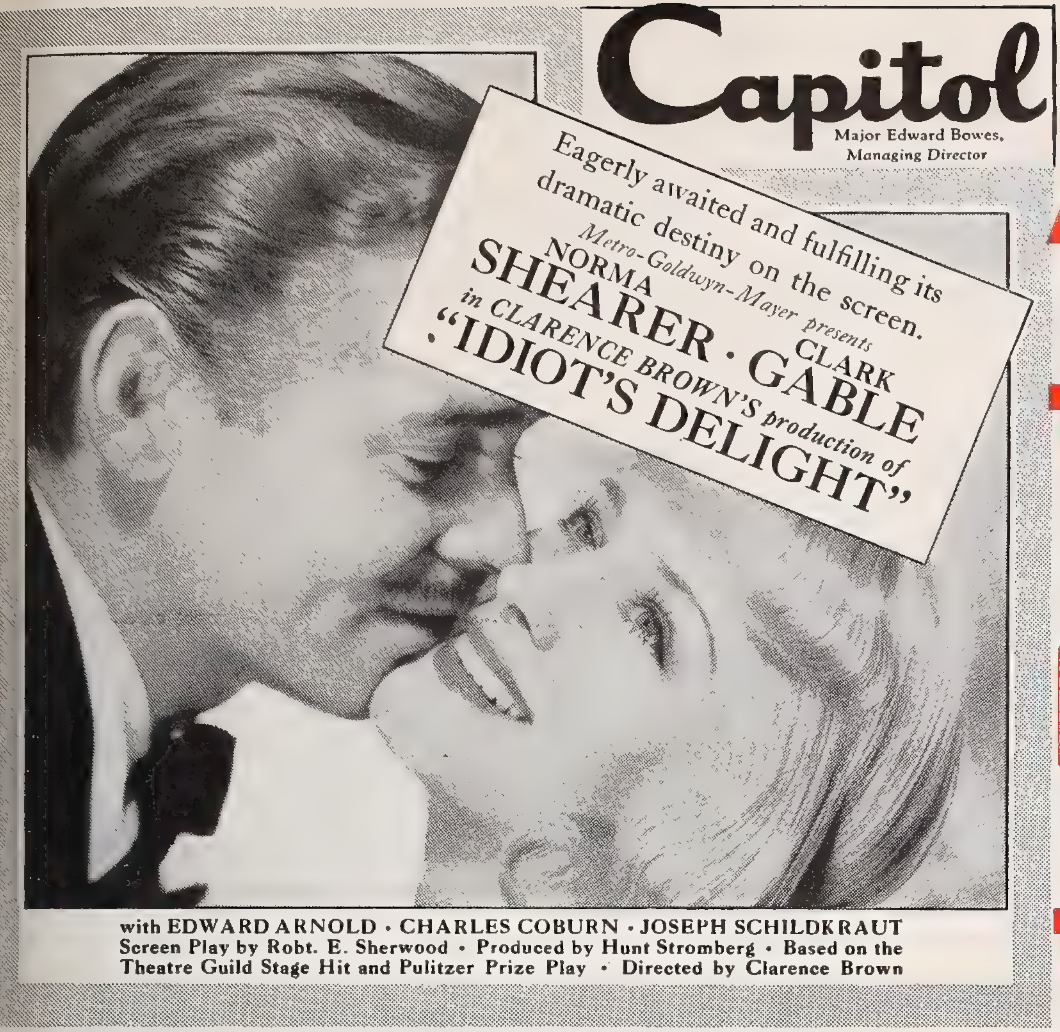
The Fund was reorganized early last year, its management being turned over to a board of 33 trustees appointed by the various Hollywood guilds and unions. Each Hollywood employee earning $100 or more weekly is asked to give one-half of one per cent of his salary to the Fund.

In the case of Screen Actors Guild members, the contribution is compulsory, irrespective of the amount of salary earned. This provided the backbone of the Fund until recently, when arrangements were made with Gulf Oil for a weekly radio program to be established by the Screen Actors Guild, with stars donating their services. From this the Fund will receive $10,000 weekly for 39 weeks.

Anyone who has worked in motion pictures for three years is eligible to receive assistance from the Fund. Its $325,000 disbursement last year cared for more than 2,000 cases, which represented an increase from the $196,000 of disbursements in 1937.

Warners Promotes Harpster

Frank P. Harpster has been promoted from city manager in Mansfield, Ohio, to district manager in charge of Mansfield, Sandusky, Lorain and Coshocton, by Warner Brothers. William V. Dworski, manager of the Madison in Mansfield, becomes city manager.



Capitol

Major Edward Bowes, Managing Director

Eagerly awaited and fulfilling its dramatic destiny on the screen.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer presents

NORMA SHEARER · CLARK GABLE

in CLARENCE BROWN'S production of

"IDIOT'S DELIGHT"

with EDWARD ARNOLD · CHARLES COBURN · JOSEPH SCHILDKRAUT
Screen Play by Robt. E. Sherwood · Produced by Hunt Stromberg · Based on the Theatre Guild Stage Hit and Pulitzer Prize Play · Directed by Clarence Brown

Above: Typical ad from New York campaign

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY!

This observation is made as "Idiot's Delight" leaps into the box-office headlines, electrifies America from Coast to Coast:

M-G-M hits are for every box-office, no exceptions!

Nobody is fooled when trade ads high-light a few spots and proclaim a nation-wide hit!

"Idiot's Delight" like "Sweethearts" and "Stand Up and Fight" which preceded t, is a picture for all audiences!

And this is equally true of M-G-M's important releases immediately following:

"HONOLULU"—Eleanor Powell, Robert Young, George Burns, Gracie Allen
"THE ADVENTURES OF HUCKLEBERRY FINN"—Mickey Rooney
"LET FREEDOM RING"—Nelson Eddy, Virginia Bruce, Victor McLaglen, Lionel Barrymore, Edward Arnold
"THE ICE FOLLIES of 1939"—Joan Crawford, James Stewart, Lew Ayres, Lewis Stone

The thought for today is definitely:

"Don't mistake the flash in the pan for gold!"

You'll find the national currency as usual in Metro-GOLDwyn-Mayer!

PRODUCTIONS IN WORK

TITLE	WRITER AND DIRECTOR	CAST	STAGE OF PRODUCTION
COLUMBIA
"Plane No. 4"	Director: Howard Hawks.	Jean Arthur, Cary Grant, Richard Barthelmass, Thomas Mitchell, Sig Rumann, Rita Hayworth.	Shooting
"The Lady and the Mob"	Original story, George Bradshaw, Price Day. Screen play, Richard Maibaum, Gertrude Purcell. Director: Ben Stoloff.	Fay Bainter, Ida Lupino, Lee Bowman, Henry Armetta, Warren Hymer.	Shooting
"Outside These Walls"	Director: Ray McCarey.	Dolores Costello, Michael Whalen, Virginia Weidler, Don Beddoe, Charles Halton.	Shooting
"The First Ranger"	Original screen play, Nate Gatzert. Director: Joseph Levering.	Bill Elliott, Veda Ann Borg, Charles Whittaker, Lee Shumway, Paul Everton.	Shooting
METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER
"Sergeant Madden"	Director: Joseph Von Sternberg.	Wallace Beery, Alan Curtis, John Brown, Laraine Johnson, Marian Martin.	Shooting
"Tarzan in Exile"	From the story by Edgar Rice Burroughs. Director: Richard Thorpe.	Johnny Weismuller, Maureen O'Sullivan, Ritz Inescourt, Henry Wilcoxon, Henry Stephenson.	Shooting
"The Hardys Ride High"	Screen play, Agnes Christine Johnston, Kay Van Ripper. William Ludwig. Director: George Seitz.	Mickey Rooney, Lewis Stone, Fay Holden, Cecilia Parker, Ann Rutherford, Sarah Haden.	Shooting
"Lucky Night"	Director: Norman Taurog.	Robert Taylor, Myrna Loy, Douglas Fowley.	Shooting
MONOGRAM
"Mystery of Mr. Wong"	Screen play, Scott Darling. Director: William Nigh.	Boris Karloff, Grant Withers, Dorothy Tree, Morgan Wallace, Craig Reynolds.	Shooting
PARAMOUNT
"Man About Town"	Director: Mark Sandrich.	Jack Benny, Dorothy Lamour, Edward Arnold, Eddie Anderson.	Shooting
"Invitation to Happiness"	Producing director: Wesley Ruggles.	Irene Dunne, Fred MacMurray, Donald O'Connor, Charlie Ruggles.	Shooting
"Beau Geste"	Producing director: William A. Wellman.	Cary Cooper, Ray Milland, Robert Preston, Brian Donlevy, J. Carroll Naish, Donald O'Connor.	Shooting
"Gracie Allen Murder Case"	From the novel by S. S. Van Dine. Director: Alfred E. Green.	Havilland, Thomas Mitchell, Barbara O'Neil. Ann Judith Barrett.	Shooting
REPUBLIC
"Rough Rider Patrol"	Original screen play, Jack Netteford. Director: Joseph Kane.	Roy Rogers, Mary Hart, Raymond Hatton.	Shooting
"Mexicali Rose"	Director: George Sherman.	Gene Autry, Smiley Burnette, Luana Walters, William Royle, LeRoy Mason, Roy Barcroft, Noah Beery.	Shooting
RKO RADIO
"Picardy Max"	Original screen play, Harold Shumate. Director: Les Goodwin.	James Ellison, Helen Wood, Robert Kent, June Clayworth, Robert Warwick, Leonard Penn, John Wray, Brandon Tynan, Joe Bernard.	Shooting
"They Made Her a Spy"	Original story, George Bricker, Lionel Houser. Screen play, Jo Pagano. Director: Jack Hively.	Sally Eilers, Allan Lane.	Shooting
TWENTIETH CENT.-FOX
"The Hound of the Baskervilles"	From the novel by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle. Director: Sidney Lanfield.	Richard Greene, Basil Rathbone, Anita Louise, Nigel Bruce, Lionel Atwill, John Carradine, Beryl Mercer, Barlow Borland.	Shooting
"Alexander Graham Bell"	Director: Irvin Cummings.	Don Ameche, Henry Fonda, Loretta Young, Polly Ann Young, Sally Blane, Georgianna Young.	Shooting
"Rose of Washington Square"	Director: Roy Del Ruth.	Tyrone Power, Alice Faye, Al Jolson, Marie Wilson, Douglas Fowley, Hobart Cavanaugh, Moroni Olsen, E. E. Clive.	Shooting
"Susannah of the Mounties"	Director: Walter Lang.	Shirley Temple, Randolph Scott, Moroni Olsen, J. Farrell MacDonald, Martin Goodrider.	Shooting
"News Is Made at Night"	Director: Alfred Werker.	Preston Foster, Lynn Bari, George Barbier, Eddie Collins, Russell Gleason, Minor Watson, Paul Harvey.	Shooting
UNITED ARTISTS
"Wuthering Heights" (Samuel Goldwyn)	From the novel by Emily Bronte. Screen play, Charles McArthur, Ben Hecht. Director: William Wyler.	Merle Oberon, Lawrence Olivier, David Niven, Flora Robson, Hugh Williams, Geraldine Fitzgerald.	Shooting
"Captain Fury" (Hal Roach)	Director: Hal Roach.	Brian Aherne, Victor McLaglen, Paul Lukas, John Carradine, June Lang, George Zucco, John Warburton.	Shooting
"Gone with the Wind" (David O. Selznick)	From the novel by Margaret Mitchell. Screen play, Sidney Howard, Oliver H. P. Garrett. Director: George Cukor.	Vivien Leigh, Clark Gable, Leslie Howard, Olivia de Havilland, Thomas Mitchell, Barbara O'Neil, Ann Rutherford, Evelyn Keyes, Laura Hope Crews, Fred Crane, George Bessolo, Rand Brooks, Harry Davenport, Virginia Howell, Robert Gleckner, Jane Darwell, Marcella Martin, Mary Young, Georgiana Young, Ben Carter, Hattie McDaniels, Oscar Polk, Butterfly McQueen.	Shooting
UNIVERSAL
"You Can't Cheat an Honest Man"	Original story, Charles Vogel. Screen play, George Marion, Jr. Director: George Marshall.	W. C. Fields, Edgar Bergen, "Charlie McCarthy", Frank Jenks, Edward Brophy, David Oliver, Princess Baba.	Shooting
"Three Smart Girls Grow Up"	Original screen play, Bruce Manning, Felix Jackson. Director: Henry Koster.	Deanna Durbin, Nan Grey, Helen Parrish, Charles Winninger, Robert Cummings, William Lundigan.	Shooting
"Spirit of Culver"	Original screen play, Whitney Bolton, Nathaniel West. Director: Joseph Santley.	Jackie Cooper, Freddie Bartholmew, Andy Devine, Henry Hull, Jackie Moran.	Shooting
"East Side of Heaven"	Director: David Butler.	Bing Crosby, Joan Blondell, Mischa Auer, Irene Hervey, Jerome Cowan, Jane Goude.	Shooting
WARNER BROTHERS-FIRST NATIONAL
"Juarez"	From a story by Mrs. Berdita Harding. Screen play, John Huston, Aeneas McKenzie, Wolfgang Reinhardt, Abem Finkel. Director: William Dieterle.	Paul Muni, Bette Davis, Brian Aherne, Claude Rains, Gale Sondergaard, John Garfield, Gilbert Roland, Joseph Calleia, Charles Grapewin.	Shooting
"Hero for a Day"	Director: Crane Wilbur.	Jane Bryan, Henry O'Neill, Elisabeth Risdon, Dickie Jones, Charles Grapewin.	Shooting
"The Roaring Road"	Director: Lloyd Bacon.	Pat O'Brien, John Payne, Ann Sheridan, Gale Page.	Shooting
"Hell's Kitchen"	Director: E. A. Dupont.	Margaret Lindsay, "Dead End" Kids, Ronald Reagan, Stanley Fields.	Shooting

WHAT THE PICTURE DID FOR ME

Columbia

ADVENTURE IN SAHARA: Paul Kelly, Lorna Gray—A nice foreign legion desert picture that almost all of my patrons enjoyed. As I have said before Columbia will always deliver, be it a B or A picture, and you know that their B pictures are good and that their A pictures will always be on the 10 best list at the end of the year. Yes, we've got to hand it to Columbia. Play this one without any fear. Running time, 59 minutes. Played January 15-16.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

SMASHING THE SPY RING: Ralph Bellamy, Fay Wray—Here is a good picture that held the audience to the last minute. It gave good satisfaction. Columbia pictures have all made me money and I am mighty glad I have a contract with them. Really good service. Running time, 62 minutes. Played January 18-19.—Jim Haney, Milan Theatre, Milan, Ind. General patronage.

THERE'S ALWAYS A WOMAN: Joan Blondell, Melvyn Douglas, Mary Astor, Frances Drake—Lots of action and laughs. Played it to a midnight audience. Business fair.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU: Lionel Barrymore, Jean Arthur, James Stewart, Mischa Auer, Edward Arnold, Spring Byington, Ann Miller—Gentlemen, here is one swell picture. Pleased 100%; no kicks, no errors. Every part was cast perfectly. What a picture. Want particularly to call your attention to Ann Miller as one of the daughters and also to her talent as a dancer. In my mind here is a girl that is made now as a star and I would certainly like to see her cast in more leading parts. Running time, 126 minutes. Played January 16-19.—Chateau Theatre, Wauneta, Neb. General patronage.

First National

FOUR DAUGHTERS: Lane Sisters, Gale Page, Jeffrey Lynn, John Garfield, Claude Rains, May Robson—Here's a picture that will linger in our memory for many months, even years. It has everything and we mean everything. Swell story and a grand cast, especially Priscilla Lane (she's a honey) and John Garfield (he's a real comer). Pleased everybody. Played January 1-2.—Horn and Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Neb. Small town patronage.

SECRETS OF AN ACTRESS: Kay Francis, George Brent—There is absolutely no excuse for releasing such a picture as this one proved to be. If Vitagraph wants to kill off Kay Francis, they are doing a swell job of it. More walkouts than we have had for some time, and I'd have walked out too if I could have left the theatre unattended. Boresome; extremely so. —A. E. Hancock, Columbia Theatre, Columbia City, Ind. General patronage.

Grand National

BIRTH OF A BABY, THE: Properly handled with all touch of sensationalism removed, this picture is a sturdy box office bet for any theatre in any spot. Those who turned up their noses at it are now wondering if we can bring it back. It has class. It holds appeal for all adults, so much so that a minister in an adjoining town who saw it in the afternoon returned home, loaded up his and the neighbor's cars and returned with a goodly proportion of the adult people in the small community.—Harry M. Palmer, Temple Court Theatre, Washington, Ind. General patronage.

SHADOWS OVER SHANGHAI: James Dunn, Ralph Morgan—If this picture may be taken as a criterion, Grand National is coming back strong. It possesses entertainment in great gobs, something which a lot of our super-supers have sadly lacked. Here's a picture that will stand alone, or if you must double is worth the big spot.—Played January 4-5.—Harry M. Palmer, Temple Court Theatre, Washington, Ind. General Patronage.

SUNSET MURDER CASE: Sally Rand—Screened this subject and find it a highly diverting detective type of a yarn. The front for this picture is the kind that sells tickets. The customers will not be disappointed. Sally's supporting cast is good. Better, possibly, than she is. Mounting is excellent. A good number one feature on a double.—Harry M. Palmer, Temple Court Theatre, Washington, Ind. General patronage.

IN this, the exhibitors' own department, the theatremen of the nation serve one another with information on the box-office performance of product for their mutual benefit. It is a service of the exhibitor for the exhibitor. Address all communications to—

What the Picture Did for Me
MOTION PICTURE HERALD
Rockefeller Center, New York

SUNSET MURDER CASE: Sally Rand—Here is a letdown for you. Sally Rand, the world's most sensational dancer, does a three-minute dance in this one behind palms in the night club. Yes, they came one night; the balance of the engagement showed empty seats.—W. H. Brenner, Cozy Theatre, Winchester, Ind. General patronage.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer

BOYS TOWN: Spencer Tracy, Mickey Rooney—There is not much I can add in the way of praise to what other exhibitors have already said, but this is a wonderful feature and pleased 100 per cent. Spencer Tracy and Micky Rooney give the excellent portrayals we always expect from them, with little Bobs Watson running a close second. Gene Reynolds, Sidney Miller and Frankie Thomas are very good. Jonathan Hale is excellent. Leo has something to be proud of in this production. Running time, 93 minutes. Played January 6-8.—Gladys E. McArdle, Owl Theatre, Lebanon, Kan. Small town patronage.

CITADEL, THE: Robert Donat, Rosalind Russell, Ralph Richardson—This should have ranked as the year's finest picture in every respect and the Academy reward rightly belongs to the production. Patrons were loud in their praises and business above average in spite of stormy weather. You can be proud to play this one. Running time, 112 minutes. Played January 4-5.—M. R. Harrington, Avalon Theatre. Clatskanie, Ore. Small town and rural patronage.

CROWD ROARS, THE: Robert Taylor, Maureen O'Sullivan, Frank Morgan, Edward Arnold, Lionel Stander—Played this with "Little Miss Thoroughbred" but it was "Little Miss Hhoroughbred" that patrons commented on.—J. E. Stocker, Myrtle Theatre, Detroit, Mich. General patronage.

JUDGE HARDY'S CHILDREN: Lewis Stone, Mickey Rooney, Cecilia Parker, Fay Holden—These Hardy series are being well received in our community with gratifying box office receipts. Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

MARIE ANTOINETTE: Norma Shearer, Tyrone Power, Robert Morley, John Barrymore, Anita Louise, Joseph Schildkraut, Gladys George—An excellent historical picture and if you have the type of audience that appreciate this type of picture it will go over big. It all depends upon your clientele. In some spots it will flop and in others it will go over big. We ran two full pages of cooperative advertising in a nearby town and did a lot of special advertising on it with the result of good business. Swell acting and plot. A bouquet to you all. Running time, 145 minutes. Played January 19-20.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

OUT WEST WITH THE HARDYS: Mickey Rooney, Lewis Stone, Cecilia Parker, Fay Holden, Virginia Weidler—Another grand piece of film fare that pulled and pleased mightily. While patrons' comments expressed the belief this was not as good as the preceding picture of this series, they expressed no disappointment either. Running time, 84 minutes. Played January 1-3.—M. R. Harrington, Avalon Theatre, Clatskanie, Ore. Small town and rural patronage.

SHINING HOUR, THE: Joan Crawford, Margaret Sullavan, Melvyn Douglas, Robert Young—Good picture of its type, with Miss Sullavan outshining Joan Crawford, of whom we are hearing increasing complaints that they don't care for her, so many new stars are coming up, and I think that they are tiring of the old faces. Certainly, we heard most of our patrons comment on Miss Sullavan and did not mention Crawford.—A. E. Hancock, Columbia Theatre, Columbia City, Ind. General patronage.

SPRING MADNESS: Lew Ayres, Maureen O'Sullivan—The exhibitors that play this one will have a chance to twist the Lion's tail. It just isn't there, that's all. Two good stars wasted, and also the date. For once, Loew's director had something that he did not know what to do with it. So you get "Spring Madness" and the audience will catch some of the madness, too. And when the Lion has something like this, he should not roar so loud in the trailer. A little restraint was due on this one.—A. E. Hancock, Columbia Treatre, Columbia City, Ind. General patronage.

STABLEMATES: Mickey Rooney, Wallace Beery—A swell little picture. With Mickey Rooney box office like he is and then throwing in Beery, it couldn't help but "click." This was a very good picture with a horse race track plot. Beery and Rooney both deserve a hand for the wonderful performances which they turned in. An orchid, yes a bouquet of orchids, to you both. The picture will do corker business and your patrons will go out more than satisfied. Play it by all means. Running time, 89 minutes. Played January 15-16.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

SWEETHEARTS: Jeanette MacDonald, Nelson Eddy, Florence Rice, Frank Morgan, Mischa Auer—Very fine operetta in color which failed to draw in this small town and will probably do likewise in any small town. Played January 18-19.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

TOO HOT TO HANDLE: Clark Gable, Myrna Loy, Walter Connolly—With a popular cast and a locale from Shanghai to South America and all points in between, with thrills, comedy and remance, this is the answer to the small town exhibitor's prayer. Pleased one hundred per cent. Walter Connolly is excellent. Walter Pidgeon is very good, while Willie Fung and Leo Carrillo really go to town. Give us more like this one, Leo, and I'll forgive you for "Spring Madness," maybe. Running time, 106 minutes. Played January 13-15.—Gladys E. McArdle, Owl Theatre, Lebanon, Kan. Small town patronage.

YOUNG DR. KILDARE: Lionel Barrymore, Lew Ayres, Lynn Carver, Jo Ann Sayers—Swell picture. Did extra business on midweek dates. Cannot see why it could not develop almost as popular a series as "The Hardy Family." More drama in this one should give it strong appeal. Certainly we are very devoid of an overabundance of good drama of modern times. Running time, 80 minutes. Played January 18-19.—Horn and Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Neb. Small town patronage.

Monogram

HOOSIER SCHOOLBOY, THE: Mickey Rooney—Played a repeat on this excellent subject. Mickey is very good in this picture, which was made previous to his MGM pictures. Worth a comeback into any man's theatre. Played January 20-21.—Harry M. Palmer, Temple Court Theatre, Washington, Ind. General patronage.

HOOSIER SCHOOLBOY, THE (reissue): Mickey Rooney, Anne Nagel—Played this with "Hollywood Hotel." I hesitated booking "The Hoosier Schoolboy" reissue so soon after first release, but the manager of Monogram exchange said book it and pay after you play it. When playdate came along, January 10-11, we did better than expected. So we asked patrons on the way out as to which picture they especially came to see and was surprised at the number who said they came to see Mickey Rooney in "The Hoosier Schoolboy." The picture even without Mickey Rooney is a good picture; with him it proved a box office draw for us.—J. E. Stocker, Myrtle Theatre, Detroit, Mich. Neighborhood patronage.

Paramount

ARTISTS AND MODELS ABROAD: Jack Benny, Joan Bennett, Mary Boland, Yacht Club Boys—Went over OK. Appealed to the ladies especially but Benny drew the men. A good show for midweek but doubt greatly if it will do much business on the first part of the week. Running time, 95 minutes.—A. E. Eliasen, Rialto Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

(Continued on following page)

(Continued from preceding page)

ARTISTS AND MODELS ABROAD: Jack Benny, Joan Bennett, Mary Boland, Yacht Club Boys—This picture without a shadow of doubt at once qualifies for a position in the ever increasing ranks of deathly, deadly, inexcusable productions. It was so bad the type of audience who thought they'd like it were disgusted. Benny is no actor. His amazing lack of screen personality causes one to suspect that the success of his radio program is due to the script writers and his supporting cast. When Joan Bennett attempted to sing we all turned up our coat collars shuddering. Some drew on their mittens..—C. T. Cooney, Jr., Waldo Theatre, Waldoboro, Maine. General patronage.

BOOLOO: Colin Tapley, Suratna Asmaka—Very good picture of its kind. The trouble with this type of picture is that they always flop at the box office. —P. G. Held, New Strand Theatre, Griswold, Iowa. General patronage.

CAMPUS CONFESSIONS: Betty Grable, Eleanore Whitney, Hank Luisetti—Fair college picture with a little basketball. Seemed to please but had no business on this, although no fault of picture. Running time, 66 minutes.—A. E. Eliasen, Rialto Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

CAMPUS CONFESSIONS: Betty Grable, Eleanore Whitney, Hank Luisetti—Fair Entertainment.—R. V. Fletcher, Lyric Theatre, Hartington, Neb. General patronage.

RIDE A CROOKED MILE: Akim Tamiroff, Frances Farmer, Leif Erikson—Fair entertainment for Saturday.—R. V. Fletcher, Lyric Theatre, Hartington, Neb. General patronage.

SING, YOU SINNERS: Bing Crosby, Fred MacMurray, Ellen Drew, Donald O'Connor, Elizabeth Patterson—One of the best pictures that Paramount has put out in quite some time. Crosby excellent and MacMurray at his best. A swell family picture with a corker of a plot and splendid acting by everyone. If we could only have more pictures like this our worries would be over, but then every picture can't be another "Sing, You Singers." Running time, 90 minutes. Played January 14. Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

SONS OF THE LEGION: Donald O'Connor, Billy Lee, Lynne Overman, Elizabeth Patterson, William Frawley—Very poor entertainment. Set it out or show it to your Legion post free.—R. V. Fletcher, Lyric Theatre, Hartington, Neb. General patronage.

SONS OF THE LEGION: Donald O'Connor, Billy Lee, Lynne Overman, Elizabeth Patterson, William Frawley—This kid Donald O'Connor is about the whole works in this fine picture. When I saw him in "Sing, You Sinners," I said that he would make the grade. Give him the parts, Paramount, and you have something in this laddie. Lynne Overman and the rest of the cast were excellent, except the foreign boy who seemed to be over-rehearsed. He didn't belong in this picture. Play it up to the Veterans. They'll like it. Running time, 62 minutes. Played January 20-21.—Jim Haney, Milan Theatre, Milan, Ind. General patronage.

TOUCHDOWN ARMY: Mary Carlisle, John Howard—Fair midweek entertainment.—R. V. Fletcher, Lyric Theatre, Hartington, Neb. General patronage.

RKO Radio

FUGITIVES FOR A NIGHT: Frank Albertson, Eleanor Lynn, Adrienne Ames—It might get by on a double feature as the co-hit. Not anything to brag about and there are plenty better than this one. Running time, 63 minutes. Played January 10-11.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

KING KONG (reissue): Fay Wray, Bruce Cabot, Robert Armstrong—There's still plenty of life and drawing power in the old gigantic giant and in my opinion there never has been produced a bigger thriller. Seeing it after a lapse of years, it still remains the wonder picture to me and I still marvel at the technical skill that it took to produce this picture. I believe there is money in it for many exhibitors to show this to the new crop of theatre goers. I did not advertise it as a horror picture but as one of the biggest thrill dramas every shown. Threw in some gigantic, colossal words in ads for good measure. Business decidedly above average.—J. E. Stocker, Myrtle Theatre, Detroit, Mich. Neighborhood patronage.

KING KONG (reissue): Fay Wray, Bruce Cabot, Robert Armstrong—This picture, built up right, will do a terrific repeat business. We brought it back in this theatre and it did terrific receipts. Even better than "Boys Town" and "Stablemates." It's a jungle, horror show with pre-historic beasts and then, of course, the giant gorilla King Kong who gets on top of the Empire State Building and starts knocking airplanes down out of the sky. Fantastic but a real business getter. Running time, 95 minutes. Played January 8-9.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

LAWLESS VALLEY: George O'Brien, Kay Sutton —It will get by all right, I guess. Running time, 60 minutes. Played January 14.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

PECK'S BAD BOY AT THE CIRCUS: Tommy Kelly, Ann Gillis, Edgar Kennedy, Spanky McFarland—Good program picture that was more suitable for children than adults, but it went over quite well, so I guess the adults must have liked it, too. Running time, 68 minutes.—P. G. Held, New Strand Theatre, Griswold, Iowa. General patronage.

PECK'S BAD BOY AT THE CIRCUS: Tommy Kelly, Ann Gillis, Edgar Kennedy, Spanky MacFarland—A distinct surprise is in store for the exhibitor who plays this one. It is another picture of the "Little Red Schoolhouse" type. Gets you a lot of customers who rarely attend a theatre. And that little picture stealer, Spanky MacFarland, is right in his heighth of glory in this production. Played January 15-17.—Harry M. Palmer, Temple Court Theatre, Washington, Ind. General patronage.

ROOM SERVICE: Marx Brothers, Lucille Ball, Ann Miller, Frank Albertson—The Marx Bros. might have made some good pictures but this one is as funny as a crutch. It established a new low in my theatre and I don't want no more of them. Poor Ann Miller was simply lost. Everybody expected her to dance but she didn't even shake a leg. It was a percentage picture and a headache to me. Running time, 78 minutes. Played January 22-23.—Jim Haney, Mila Theatre, Milan, Ind. General patronage.

Republic

PRAIRIE MOON: Gene Autry, Shirley Deane, Smiley Burnette—Just lately we have noticed the last Autry pictures not doing so good as six months ago. This may be due to weather condition for they still have plenty of B.O. left.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

RHYTHM OF THE SADDLE: Gene Autry, Smiley Burnette—These Autry pictures have always been crowd pullers for us, but a few more like this one and we'll have to look for another western star to satisfy the lovers of horse operas. For the first time patrons walked out and their comments clearly indicated their feelings, the gist of which seemed to be that Autry was getting too swellheaded for his actual talents. Even the dialogue had everyone in the cast heaping praises on his head. It was just too much to swallow. Running time, 58 minutes. Played January 6-7.—M. R. Harrington, Avalon Theatre, Clatskanie, Ore. Small town and rural patronage.

UNDER WESTERN STARS: Roy Rogers, Smiley Burnette, Carol Hughes—This is a sensational start for a new western star. This is a topnotch western from every angle, story as well as the musical part of it. Rogers has a splendid voice for westerns and a most pleasing personality. If they give him good stories and production values, it should not be long before he begins crowding other western favorites for top honors. As yet this had no special drawing powers, but western fans first have to get to know him.—J. E. Stocker, Myrtle Theatre, Detroit, Mich. Neighborhood patronage.

WESTERN JAMBOREE: Gene Autry, Smiley Burnette, Jean Rouverol—Average western drama which pleased good business. Played January 20-21.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

Twentieth Century-Fox

DOWN ON THE FARM: Jed Prouty, Spring Byington, Louise Fazenda—Played this as a midnight prevue showing and patrons laughed themselves weak. Plenty of good old fashioned slapstick in this one, reminding you of the Mack Sennett comedies of yore. Running time, 61 minutes. Played January 13-14.—M. R. Harrington, Avalon Theatre, Clatskanie, Ore. Rural and small town patronage.

DOWN ON THE FARM: Jed Prouty, Spring Byington, Louise Fazenda—Very funny. Best Jones family picture in a long time. Pleased average business. Played January 16-17.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

JUST AROUND THE CORNER: Shirley Temple, Joan Davis, Charles Farrell, Armanda Duff, Bert Lahr, Bill Robinson—We had a bad break on this one. First night it snowed and the entire next day we had a blizzard. Business was very much off even for an ordinary picture. Think the picture pleased the Temple fans who saw it. Running time, 70 minutes. Played January 15-16.—Horn and Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Neb. Small town patronage.

KENTUCKY: Richard Greene, Loretta Young. Walter Brennan—Any theatre, anywhere, can be proud indeed to present a picture of this caliber to its patrons. Here is one of the most satisfactory films we have ever screened and patrons were positively effusive in their praises. Business OK in spite of adverse conditions generally present at this time. Running time, 95 minutes. Played January 15-17.—M. R. Harrington, Avalon Theatre, Clatskanie, Ore. Small town and rural patronage.

SECOND HONEYMOON: Tyrone Power, Loretta Young, Claire Trevor, Lyle Talbot—It's a good picture without a doubt, but it is so old that I doubt if many of you men could make a go of it unless you ran a dish night, a money night or something like that to go on with it. I personally ran my dish night with it. Mind you, there's nothing wrong with the picture but it's just the fact that it is rather old. Power and Young both do splendid acting in this one. Running time, 79 minutes. Played January 12-13.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

SUBMARINE PATROL: Richard Greene, Nancy Kelly, Preston Foster, George Bancroft—Right up the alley for a ten strike as far as our patrons were concerned. They left the theatre completely satisfied and you can't ask any more of a picture than that, especially when it does better than average in the face of unusual competition and adverse business conditions generally. Running time, 95 minutes. Played January 13-14.—M. R. Harrington, Avalon Theatre, Clatskanie, Ore. Rural and small town patronage.

SUEZ: Tyrone Power, Loretta Young, Annabella—A spectacular production done on a lavish scale, but it failed to pull to the degree expected of it. Pleased quite generally but failed to impress our patrons to the extent of rave praises. Business not up to average for some reason. Running time, 104 minutes. Played December 30-31.—M. R. Harrington, Avalon Theatre, Clatskanie, Ore. Small town and rural patronage.

THANKS FOR EVERYTHING: Jack Haley, Jack Oakie, Adolphe Menjou, Arleen Whalen, Tony Martin —Generally quite well liked but failed to pull the business. A cever plot that got somewhat out of hand along about halfway mark, with nearly disastrous results. But, for all that, it remains above average film fare, which may or may not pull in your situation, depending upon the pull of the stars among your patrons. Running time, 73 minutes. Played January 8-10.—M. R. Harrington, Avalon Theatre, Clatskanie, Ore. Rural and small town patronage.

UP THE RIVER: Slim Summerville, Tony Martin, Preston Foster, Phyllis Brooks, Arthur Treacher, Bill Robinson—Very amusing comedy of jail life. Tony Martin sings and Bill Robinson tap dances. Pleased all. Played January 15.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

United Artists

COUNT OF MONTE CRISTO, THE (Reissue): Robert Donat, Elissa Landi—Still a movie classic. I believe that I have played every "Monte Cristo" that has been filmed, even that one-reeler that was made in Hollywood years ago and which was the cause of the second gold rush to California. Perhaps Elissa Landi's emoting does belong to the old school, but that grand trouper, Robert Donat, makes you forget the crudities. Played January 18.—Harry M. Palmer, Temple Court Theatre, Washington, Ind. General patronage.

COWBOY AND THE LADY, THE: Gary Cooper, Merle Oberon, Patsy Kelly, David Niven, Walter Brennan, Thomas Mitchell—Here's one that should do a world of business in the small towns. This is tops for good clean entertainment and comedy. Play it by all means and yell to the world that you have it. Pleased everyone and they told me so. Business poor due to icy roads, snow, cold weather, mumps, measles, colds and about everything else that could befall one section of the state at one time, but play it and reap your reward. Running time, 92 minutes.—A. E. Eliasen, Rialto Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

TRADE WINDS: Frederic March, Joan Bennett, Ralph Bellamy, Ann Southern—Slow, but stars will put it over.—L. D. Jones, Star Theatre, Malad City, Idaho. General patronage.

YOUNG IN HEART, THE: Janet Gaynor, Douglas Fairbanks Jr., Paulette Goddard, Roland Young, Billie Burke—Very, very nice. Heard many fine comments on this excellent feature. It pleased all, I believe, and should have. Held interest from start to finish and even jerked a tear or so. Shove this hard and they'll like it. Running time, 90 minutes.—A. E. Eliasen, Rialto Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

YOUNG IN HEART, THE: Janet Gaynor, Douglas Fairbanks Jr., Paulette Goddard, Roland Young, Billie Burke—Good program picture that did not do very good at the box office. It seems as if Janet Gaynor don't mean a thing anymore. Running time, 90 minutes.—P. G. Held, New Strand Theatre, Griswold, Iowa. General patronage.

Universal

DRACULA (reissue): Bela Lugosi; FRANKENSTEIN (reissue): Boris Karloff—While we had shown these pictures singly when first produced, the reissues as the twin horror show drew very nicely. We wouldn't in the least mind a drawing card like this once a week. We advertised it as the twin horror show of the century. "Can you take it?. Those with weak hearts had better watch out."—J. E. Stocker, Myrtle Theatre, Detroit, Mich. Neighborhood patronage.

FORBIDDEN VALLEY: Noah Beery, Jr., Frances Robinson—It's a cowboy picture and you probably know the story on them better than I. Use your own judgment. Running time, 67 minutes. Played January 21.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

IDOL OF THE CROWDS: John Wayne, Sheila Bromley—A fair little picture with hockey playing as the background. This is a very appropriate picture for time of year, and tied up right and run as co-feature on a double feature program it should do all right for itself. Running time, 62 minutes. Played January 17-18.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

(Continued on page 77)

LET US LIVE...

LET US LIVE

MAUREEN O'SULLIVAN ★ HENRY FONDA
RALPH BELLAMY

Screen play by ANTHONY VEILLER and ALLEN RIVKIN
Based upon a story by Joseph F. Dinneen
Directed by JOHN BRAHM • Produced by William Perlberg

A COLUMBIA PICTURE

Vital!

Audiences demand that certain electric something that makes the skin tingle . . . that stirs . . . that rouses!

Here it is! Hammered out of life itself. . . uncompromising . . .unrelenting. . .unforgettable!

A gallant, human story of a humble boy and girl . . . battling a world that said a boy must die!

(Continued from page 74)

MAN WHO CRIED WOLF, THE: Lewis Stone, Barbara Read, Tom Brown—We played this one on Friday the 13th and came out all right. Of course, we did have "Second Honeymoon" and a dish night on the same program but this did make an excellent co-feature and our patrons were satisfied with it, so why shouldn't we be? Running time, 66 minutes. Played January 12-13.—Pearce Purkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

MERRY-GO-ROUND OF 1938: Bert Lahr, Alice Brady, Billy House, Jimmy Savo, Mischa Auer, Joy Hodges—A good picture with plenty of laughs but it is kind of old. I publish my own weekly theatre paper here in the North End and maybe some of you exhibitors can get some good ideas from it. It's yours for the asking, although we would appreciate a stamp for postage. Running time, 87 minutes. Played January 19-20.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

ONE HUNDRED MEN AND A GIRL: Deanna Durbin, Adolphe Menjou, Leopold Stokowski, Alice Brady, Eugene Pallette—A beautiful picture with lovely singing enjoyed by all. My people were actually enthralled with Deanna's voice, and even though this is a third-run house we had a swell attendance on this picture as most everybody would gladly see it again just to enjoy Deanna's singing. Running time, 84 minutes. Played January 10-11.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

SINNERS IN PARADISE: John Bowles, Madge Evans, Bruce Cabot—A fairly good picture. Use your own judgment. Running time, 63 minutes. Played January 21.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

STORM, THE: Charles Bickford, Barton MacLane, Preston Foster, Tom Brown, Nan Grey—Good program picture with plenty of action. Running time, 78 minutes.—P. G. Held, New Strand Theatre, Griswold, Iowa. General patronage.

Victory

SIX GUN TRAIL: Tim McCoy—A good western picture with excellent photography, a lot of action and a gal who can't sing. Why do the producers think it necessary to inject a coupla songs into a standard western? The most of the movie fans would rather have the action.—Harry M. Palmer, Temple Court Theatre, Washington, Ind. General patronage.

Warner Brothers

HEART OF THE NORTH: Dick Foran, Gloria Dickson, Allen Jenkins—Extra business and pleased 100%.—L. D. Jones, Star Theatre, Malad City, Idaho. General patronage.

HOLLYWOOD HOTEL: Dick Powell, Lola Lane, Ted Healy, Johnnie Davis, Frances Langford—Played this with "The Hoosier Schoolboy." "Hollywood Hotel" did its share to help the draw.—J. E. Stocker, Myrtle Theatre, Detroit, Mich. Neighborhood patronage.

LITTLE MISS THOROUGHBRED: Ann Sheridan, John Litel, Frank McHugh, Janet Chapman—"Little Miss Marker" started Shirley Temple on her famous career. "Little Miss Thoroughbred" is every bit as good a picture and resembles it in story. This was doubled with "The Crowd Roars" but it was "Little Miss Thoroughbred" that patrons commented on. Good luck to little Janet. Hope you keep up the good work. You may not be able to sing and dance like Shirley but you have talent and lots of it and appealing looks.—J. E. Stocker, Myrtle Theatre, Detroit, Mich. Neighborhood patronage.

VALLEY OF THE GIANTS: Wayne Morris, Claire Trevor, John Litel, Charles Bickford, Alan Hale—A nice little picture in color that did a nice little business. We played it with "King Kong" so it should do a good business. However, I do feel that this picture can hold its own in most any theatre. The scenery and colors are beautiful. It has a nice lumber land plot and the actors and actresses play their parts very nicely. Out hat is off to Wayne Morris for his splendid piece of acting. Running time, 79 minutes. Played January 8-9.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

VALLEY OF THE GIANTS: Wayne Morris, Claire Trevor, John Litel, Charles Bickford, Alan Hale—Very interesting picture with beautiful scenery, a good cast and story with just enough impossible situations mixed in to class it as a "glorified western." Running time, 79 minutes. Played January 20-21.—Horn and Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Neb. Small town patronage.

Short Features

Columbia

COMMUNITY SING: No. 11—They have their place and lend warmth to the program.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

FIDDLING AROUND: Broadway Comedies—Another Columbia laugh that loosens the ribs of our farm friends on a week end.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

SCREEN SNAPSHOTS: No. 3—Very popular with our audiences.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

SPRING FESTIVAL: Color Rhapsodies—A very nice colored cartoon.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General Patronage.

SUE MY LAWYER: Harry Langdon—A pretty good little comedy with that old timer, Harry Langdon. You just can't help laughing at him. I like to see these old ones once in a while just for a change. The audience liked it too. Running time, 18 minutes.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

THREE MISSING LINKS: Three Stooges—The usual and folks ate it up heartily.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

TIME OUT FOR TROUBLE: Charley Chase—Well received. Lots of laughs.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

WASHINGTON PARADE: No. 1.—A fine Washington travelogue. Very interesting, educational and timely.—C. L. Niles, Niles Theatre, Anamosa, Iowa. General patronage.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer

FOOTBALL ROMEO: Our Gang—A good comedy especially suited for the kiddies. We play this series right along on a Saturday and our audience seems to go for them. Running time, 10 minutes.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

FOOTBALL THRILLS OF 1937: Pete Smith Specialties—A bit tardy for most theatres now, but was enjoyed very much here. Excellent shots of many outstanding games of that year. After reviewing this short, one can readily see why "Clint" Frank was selected an All-American by virtually every authority. Running time, nine minutes.—J. A. Reynolds, Director of Recreation, Prison Theatre, State Prison, Trenton, N. J. Prison patronage.

GRID RULES: Pete Smith Specialties—Pete Smith shows the advancement of football and some of the reasons why certain rules were necessary. Good any time.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kansas. Small town patronage.

HOW TO RAISE A BABY: Robert Benchley—Good Benchley comedy but too sophisticated for small town.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

HOW TO READ: Robert Benchley—My patrons enjoy these Benchley short subjects, and while they are not knockouts, they do fill up the program and they carry their share in nice shape.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kansas. Small town patronage.

LITTLE RANGER, THE: Our Gang—This is a riot. Our Gang in an oldtime Western "mellerdrama" that brought down the house. Running time, 1 reel. —Gladys E. McArdle, Owl Theatre, Lebanon, Kan. Small town patronage.

MAGICIAN'S DAUGHTER, THE: Musical Comedies—A comedy based on the art of prestidigitation. It is quite amusing and contains some fair singing by a youthful couple. Will please most audiences. Running time, 18 minutes.—J. A. Reynolds, Director of Recreation, Prison Theatre, State Prison, Trenton, N. J. Prison patronage.

MEN OF STEEL: Musical Comedies—An excellent two-reel short. Running time, 21 minutes.—Gladys E. McArdle, Owl Theatre, Lebanon, Kan. Small town patronage.

MIRACLE OF SALT LAKE: MGM Miniatures—Average Miniature which pleased all.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

NEWS OF THE DAY: No. 232—Okay. Running time, 10 minutes.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

NOSTRADAMUS: Historical Mysteries—A swell short that will satisfy and make them talk.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kansas. Small town patronage.

OLD SMOKEY: Captain and the Kids—The Captain trades his fire horse off but he takes him back. A good cartoon that gets a few laughs.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kansas. Small town patronage.

OLD SMOKEY: Captain and the Kids—just aver-

(Continued on following page)

For the man who borrows your copy of MOTION PICTURE HERALD

We all know him. He doesn't mean to bother you. He really means it when he says he'll return your copy.

But you know that for some reason or other he seldom does.

Give this man the coupon . . . tell him for $5 he can get his own copy for the next 52 weeks.

COUPON
HERALD

MOTION PICTURE HERALD
Rockefeller Center, New York, N. Y.

Here's my check for $5*; enter my name on your subscription list for one year (52 issues).

Name..
Theatre..
City.................... State...........
What is your position?..............................

*Subscription prices are $5 in the Americas, $10 foreign.

(Continued frfom preceding page)

age cartooning.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

PARIS ON PARADE: FitzPatrick Travel Talks—Very interesting and instructive. A beautiful color film of the Paris Exposition. Do not pass this one up, theatre owners. Give your patrons a real break and book it. The men here rated it one of the best shorts we have ever shown. Running time, nine minutes.—J. A. Reynolds, Director of Recreation, Prison Theatre, State Prison, Trenton, N. J. Prison patronage.

PARTY FEVER: Our Gang—Good. L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

PASSING PARADE: No. 1—A very good single reeler and worth a date.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kansas. Small town patronage.

PENNY'S PICNIC: Prudence Penny, Pete Smith—Another outstanding short done in color and then more color aided by the comments of Pete Smith. We've shown all of this series and find they are as popular with the men as the women, proving we all like to eat or at least think about eating the delicious appetizing dishes prepared in these pictures. Running time, 10 minutes.—M. R. Harrington, Avalon Theatre, Clatskanie, Ore. Small town and rural patronage.

PYGMY HUNT, THE: Captain and the Kids—Good enough.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

SINGAPORE AND JAHORE: FitzPatrick Travel Talks—Excellent as usual.—C. L. Niles, Niles Theatre, Anamosa, Iowa. General patronage.

THEY'RE ALWAYS CAUGHT: Crime Doesn't Pay Series—First rate.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

Paramount

EASY ON THE ICE: Henry King and his Orchestra, Shirley Foster—A nice short for any theatre goer. Henry King's orchestra supplies good music as an accompaniment to the skating of little Shirley Foster. She certainly is good, and if opinion here is to be relied upon is a miss with a great future. Shorts of this type are a popular addition to any program. Running time, 10 minutes.—J. A. Reynolds, Director of Recreation, Prison Theatre, State Prison, Trenton, N. J. Prison patronage.

GOONLAND: Popeye the Sailor—Better than average Popeye.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

GUATEMALA: Color Cruises—Average traveltalk in beautiful color.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

HUNKY AND SPUNKY: Color Classics—A very clever and very well done cartoon in color. Shows a mother donkey and her young donkey and the trouble the youngster gets in with very good music as an accompaniment. Running time, seven minutes.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

HUNTING THRILLS: Grantland Rice Sportlights—A very interesting sport subject, showing the various new ways of going fishing. Running time, 10 minutes.—Peace Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

I YAM LOVE SICK: Popeye the Sailor—Popeye cartoons are always good but this particular one was nowhere near as good as some of his previous ones. At any rate, Popeye is a drawing card. That is, at least he is here. Running time, seven minutes.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

LIGHTS! ACTION! LUCAS! Headliners—A good orchestra short.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

OH SAY CAN YOU SKI: Paragraphics—Average sports reel.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

ON WITH THE NEW: Betty Boop Cartoons—Very good Betty Boop cartoon.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

PARAMOUNT NEWS: No. 44—Okay. Running time, 10 minutes.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

POPULAR SCIENCE: No. 1—A good, interesting colored reel.—C. L. Niles, Niles Theatre, Anamosa, Iowa. General patronage.

SONG IS BORN, A: Larry Clinton and His Orchestra—Average orchestra short which seemed to please.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

STRIKE: Grantland Rice Sportlights—If you've ever been down to the creek fishing for bullheads, then you'll get a kick out of this fishing short. They catch plenty of all kinds and it is interesting. Play it.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kansas. Small town patronage.

THREE SHOWMEN JOIN REPORTERS

New contributors to "What the Picture Did for Me" hail from three states. They are:

A. T. MULLEN, Park Theatre, Pelican Rapids, Minnesota

LEE SPROULE, Rex Theatre, Newton, Kansas

CHATEAU THEATRE, Wauneta, Nebraska

Read the reports of these showmen on pictures they have shown at their theatres.

RKO Radio

MARCH OF TIME: No. 5—Timely to the minute, since it deals with the refugee problem, and, what's more, shows a possible solution. Caused much comment among our patrons. Running time, 18 minutes. —M. R. Harrington, Avalon Theatre, Clatskanie, Ore. Small town and rural patronage.

MICKEY'S PARROT: Walt Disney Cartoons—Very good.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

MOTHER GOOSE GOES HOLLYWOOD: Walt Disney Cartoons—What a cartoon. Patrons stayed to see it twice and commented plenty, which is unusual procedure for a short subject. Running time, eight minutes.—M. R. Harrington, Avalon Theatre, Clatskanie, Ore. Small town and rural patronage.

SELF CONTROL: Walt Disney Cartoons—Not up to standard and not nearly as funny as most of the Donald Duck series. Running time, eight minutes.—Horn and Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Neb. Small town patronage.

STAGE FRIGHT: Leon Errol Comedies—It's a riot of fun and laughs. Good for any spot. Running time, 18 minutes.—M. R. Harrington, Avalon Theatre, Clatskanie, Ore. Small town and rural patronage.

Twentieth Century-Fox

ATHLETIC ODDITIES: Adventures of the Newsreel Cameraman—Average.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small Town Patronage.

FILMING BIG THRILLS: Adventures of the Newsreel Cameraman—Good. A condensed version of the newsreel for the year. Had some real thrills pohtographed.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kansas. Small town patronage.

FILMING MODERN YOUTH: Adventures of the Newsreel Cameraman—Here's tops in entertainment. Running time, 8 minutes.—A. G. Miller, Lyric Theatre, Atkinson, Neb. Rural patronage.

GANDY THE GOOSE IN DOOMSDAY: Terry-Toons—Average Terry-Toon cartoon in color, which pleased the kids.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

ISLE OF PLEASURE: Magic Carpet Series—Good traveltalk.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kansas. Small town patronage.

MOVIETOWN NEWS: No. 34—Okay. Running time, 10 minutes.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

NEW COMER, THE: Terry-Toons—Just another cartoon.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kansas. Small town patronage.

STRING BEAN JACK: Terry-Toons—A good cartoon done in color with Jack and the Beanstalk. The two-headed giant was fun for the kids.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kansas. Small town patronage.

VILLAGE BLACKSMITH, THE: Terry-Toons—Fairly good black and white cartoon.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

WHAT EVERY BOY SHOULD KNOW: Lew Lehr—Will somebody with influence tell Lew Lehr and Fox that he cannot hold up for an entire reel. Not bad in the News but even that is getting poorer on account of the silly 'magazine' subjects he is being given.—Horn and Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Neb. Small town patronage.

WHAT EVERY GIRL SHOULD KNOW: Lew Lehr—They are all right but you can get along without them and they'll never be missed.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kansas. Small town patronage.

Vitaphone

CRACKED ICE: Merrie Melodies—A nice little cartoon in color. Suited for all classes, and it adds class to your program.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

ISLE OF THE PINGO PONGO: Merrie Melodies—Very, very good cartoon. Running time, 7 minutes. —A. G. Miller, Lyric Theatre, Atkinson, Neb. Rural patronage.

LARRY CLINTON AND HIS ORCHESTRA: Melody Masters—Strictly for swing enthusiasts. Music lovers will wonder why there are such things. —L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

RAINBOW'S END: Broadway Brevities—Lots of fun in this and plenty of memories for the old timers who relish minstrel shows. The unique setting for this short brought plenty of laughs here. Perhaps it was the "jungle" which evoked them. Anyway, it was enjoyed by all, and many of the oldsters went back in memory to the days of Eddie Leonard. Sound could have been better. Running time, 22 minutes.—J. A. Reynolds, Director of Recreation, Prison Theatre, State Prison, Trenton, N. J. Prison patronage.

RAY KINNEY AND HIS HAWAIIANS: Melody Masters—Quiet tempo. Okay as such.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

STAR DUST: Broadway Brevities—Very ordinary Broadway Brevity. Running time, 22 minutes.—Horn and Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Neb. Small town patronage.

TOILS OF THE LAW: Floyd Gibbons' "Your True Adventure"—This series isn't doing what we expected at the box office. Think they are liked but not as well as the "Crime Doesn't Pay" series. Running time, 12 minutes.—Horn and Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Neb. Small town patronage.

ZERO GIRL: Broadway Brevities—Here's one of the finest two-reel subjects in moons. Loaded with laughs and fun, with most of the action taking place in an ice rink. It's a wow that can't miss your patrons' funnybones. Running time, 19 minutes.—M. R. Harrington, Avalon Theatre, Clatskanie, Ore. Small town and rural patronage.

Miscellaneous

SHOCK TROOPS OF DISASTER: (U. S. Government-W.P.A.)—A swell little short that gives pictures of the New England hurricane and at the same time glorifies the W.P.A. worker. A nice short which really meant something to our box office. Not in the least commercial and it really is interesting to your patrons. You can book same without any cost to you except for expressage on film by simply writing to your local W.P.A. office. Running time, 10 minutes.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

Henkin Joins Rosenberg

Sol Henkin, former Warner division manager in Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, has been appointed head of theatre operations of Congress Cinema Corporation, Metro Cinema Corporation and Daly Cinema Corporation, all controlled by Moe Rosenberg, Bronx, New York, exhibitor.

Mooney Names McManus

Milton A. Mooney, head of Cooperative Theatres of Ohio, with headquarters in Cleveland, has appointed H. E. McManus as one of his bookers. Sidney Cohen is the other booker. Mr. McManus was formerly manager of the Allen, Akron, where he has been succeeded by E. E. Blanc.

Leach with Imperial

Harry Segal of Imperial Pictures, Boston, has appointed Charles W. Leach, formerly GB representative in New Haven, in charge of Imperial Connecticut sales with offices in New Haven.

New Monogram Branch

Monogram has opened a new branch in New Haven, known as Monogram Pictures, Inc., with Phil Sherman in charge.

Arthur Mayer and Joseph Burstyn, foreign film distributors, have moved their offices to the Rialto building in New York.

SOMETHING BIG IN A SINGLE REEL! FANCHON & MARCO PRESENTATIONS ..FAMOUS FOR A GENERATION ..BRING THEIR DISTINCTIVE SHOWMANSHIP TO A NEW SERIES OF SHORTS. HERE IS A FANCHON & MARCO UNIT FOR YOUR SCREEN.

MUSIC HALL VANITIES

Produced and Directed by Arthur Dreifuss . . . Featuring NAME talent from stage, screen and radio!

NOW IN RELEASE—The First Of The Series

"A NIGHT IN A MUSIC HALL"

with Pinky Tomlin, composer of "Object Of My Affections" singing his latest number, "If It Wasn't For The Moon" . . . Nell Kelly, Betty Atkinson, Estelle Preston, The Majorettes, The Fanchonettes . . . a bevy of dancing beauties . . . and Ben Black and his Orchestra.

A COLUMBIA PICTURE

FILM INDUSTRY SUFFERS IN CHILEAN EARTHQUAKE

25 Theatres in Afflicted Area; 70% of Concepcion Destroyed; 4 U.S. Branches There

The motion picture industry suffered losses in last week's earthquake which in three minutes shattered a score of cities and hundreds of villages in Southern Chile, practically obliterated the two large cities of Chillan and Concepcion, killed about 30,000 persons, and made 100,000 others homeless. There are about 25 theatres in this area, and several distribution offices. Reports reaching New York, as yet scant, indicate most of these were damaged or destroyed. In Chillan, the Teatro Municipal collapsed, killing 1,000.

70% of Buildings Leveled

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, Warner Brothers, Paramount and United Artists had branch offices in Concepcion. Seventy per cent of the buildings in that city were leveled, according to reports from relief workers there, and new tremors this week increased the damage.

The Twentieth Century-Fox home office foreign department received word that Arthur Ruszica, its manager in Chile, who was in Chillan at the time of the quake, escaped injury. The Loew home office heard that its first-run house in Santiago had not been damaged, that city being just outside of the quake region.

There are approximately 233 theatres in the whole of Chile. Exhibition in the northern sections of the country is at a formative stage. The 233 theatres have a seating capacity of about 200,000. About 185 of them are wired for sound. Their yearly gross income is estimated at about 55,000,000 pesos. In Santiago, the biggest city, the average admission prices are as follows: 3.40 pesos for orchestra seats; 1.60 pesos for balcony seats; 0.80 pesos for "gallery" seats.

There is no local production. The total investment in the industry is reported to be about 125,000,000 pesos. This covers distribution and exhibition.

The American film industry supplies about 70 per cent of the films used. The chief competition comes from German, English and Italian films.

Reports from newspaper correspondents indicate the damage is so severe that several of the larger cities may yet have to be abandoned, rather than rebuilt.

Urges Fund to Offset Propaganda

In Washington, Republican Representative Hamilton Fish on Monday proposed that Congress appropriate $1,000,000 to finance the shipment to Chile of grain, meat, milk and medical supplies. Such a procedure "would do more," said Representative Fish, than the Lima Conference to offset anti-American propaganda in South America.

TEATRO AL DIA, a Quigley publication, the only Spanish language magazine published in the United States for the motion picture industry, and circulated in all of the Spanish speaking countries, listed the theatres in the area affected by the earthquake, as follows:

Teatro Lontue, Lontue, Talca Province; Teatro Universal Cinema, Talca, Talca Province; Teatro Municipal, Talca, Talca Province; Teatro Palet, Talco Province; Teatro Imperio, Talco Province; Teatro Municipal, Chillan; Teatro O'Higgins, Chillan; Teatro Coronel, Chillan; Teatro Puchoco, Coronel; Teatro Fanaloza, Penuco, Concepcion Province; Teatro Refineria, Penuco, Concepcion Province; Teatro Ferroviario, San Rosendo, Concepcion Province; Teatro Puren, Puren, Concepcion Province; Teatro Imperio, Talcahuano, Concepcion Province; Teatro Dante, Talcahuano, Concepcion Province; Teatro Esmeralda, Talcahuano, Concepcion Province; Teatro Municipal, Talcahuano, Concepcion Province; Teatro Colon, Talcahuano, Concepcion Province; Teatro Colon, Talcahuano, Copcepcion Province; Teatro Apostadero Naval, Talcahuano, Concepcion Province;Teatro de la Cia, Carbonifera e Industrial de Lota, Concepcion Province; Teatro Rialto, Concepcion Province; Teatro Arturo Pratt, Concepcion Province; Teatro Central, Concepcion Province.

U.S. Films Shown 94,369 Times

Motion picture films distributed by the Bureau of Mines of the United States Department of the Interior were shown on 94,369 occasions to an attendance of 9,500,000 persons in the calendar year 1938, according to M. F. Leopold, safety engineer of the Bureau and in charge of production.

In 1938 there were 1,260 reels added to the Bureau's film library, which now consists of 3,399 reels. Mr. Leopold said that members of the mineral and allied industries appropriated approximately $110,000 in the year to enable the Bureau to carry on the production of new films and the revision of others. "Every cent of expense incidental to the production of these films and that of providing copies for distribution is borne by American industries," he said.

Mr. Leopold said that in numerous instances the Bureau has as many as 100 copies of a subject for distribution, yet the demand from educational institutions and non-theatrical societies for the films is so great that many subjects are booked six months ahead.

The films are circulated under the direction of John A. Davis, chief engineer of the information division of the Bureau.

Form New Company

Ernest Gal, Hungarian film producer, who arrived in New York last week, has organized Ernest Gal Productions, and plans to produce a film in this country with a Hungarian theme. Mr. Gal has been a motion picture producer in Hungary since 1913. In 1916, with Alexander Korda, he established the Corvil Film Company in Budapest. He will also release several Hungarian pictures in this country, including "Borcsa Amerikaban" (Borcsa in America), "Erik A. Buzakalasz" (The Wheat Ripens), "Fehervari Huszarok" (Fehervari Hussars), and "Janos Vitez" (Master John).

Monroe Greenthal of United Artists is in Miami to prepare for the opening there February 10th of "Trade Winds." Harry Gold, eastern division sales manager, will attend the opening.

'Snow White' Cost, With Prints, Put At $2,300,000

Roy Disney, business manager for Walt Disney, now in New York, said this week that production cost on "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" amounted to $1,600,000 and print costs (there were 789 color prints in existence at the last count) cost another $700,000. The financing arrangement extended over a period of four and one-half years, during which the cartoon feature was in work. The loan has been completely liquidated long since, Mr. Disney said.

The Disney staff was more than doubled during the period in which the picture was in work, he said. The studio employed about 300 in 1934 and about 900 in 1938. The studio is ahead of production on their short subject cartoons and three features are in work with a fourth, which will make use of Leopold Stokowski and a symphony orchestra, will start sometime in April.

Of those in work, "Pinocchio" will be the first to be completed, probably next winter. Following it will be "Bambi" and "Alice in Wonderland." Separate distribution deals will be made for the features now in work. Offers have been received from several distributors already, Mr. Disney said, but arrangements are nowhere near a final stage. The studio's short subject distribution deal with RKO expires next year. No renewal discussions have been held yet.

The new Disney studio, which will be ready for occupancy next September, will have paved streets, curbs, street lights, sewer and storm drainage systems, fire fighting equipment, restaurant, hospital and a recreation park which will be landscaped and will include a baseball diamond and swimming pool. All told there will be 21 buildings.

"Devil's Island" Filmed

American adaptation is being rushed to completion this week on "Back to Devil's Island," French production starring Pierre Fresnay and Jean-Pierre Aumont, distributed by National Pictures. E. M. Fadiman, president of the company, said the film was the only one ever made by the French on their own convict-settlement, now actively revived as a penal colony under the Daladier government.

Warner Opening

Speakers at the opening of the new Warner theatre at Wilmington, Del., on February 8th are Governor Richard McMullen, Mayor Walter Bacon and Joseph Bernhardt, general manager of Warners theatres. "Wings of the Navy" will be the first feature. Lewis Black will manage the new 1,800 seat theatre.

Harry Black Honored

More than 100 friends of Harry Black attended a dinner at Jack's Restaurant in Albany, N. Y., Monday night in celebration of his promotion to the Fabian home office in New York. Mr. Black had been the manager of Proctor's, Troy, at the time of the shift; and will be succeeded there by Irving Liner.

MANAGERS' ROUND TABLE

An international association of showmen meeting weekly in MOTION PICTURE HERALD for mutual aid and progress

A-MIKE VOGEL, Chairman and Editor
GERTRUDE MERRIAM, Associate Editor

ONE SOLUTION

When one speaks of lack of manpower in theatre business having to do with the manager, that often alludes to lack of savvy and ingenuity in creating boxoffice showmanship. An exhibitor's idea of potent personnel is an able showman in every spot. With the situation as it is today, that's kinda like wishing for the moon. There are not that many good men to go around.

What's the solution, you say? Everyone has a pet solution. We'll go along with the procedure adopted recently by a certain group of theatres and described here by the Round Tabler who is to be credited for instigating the new practice. This member happened to be the best exploiteer and adman among his brother managers. He showed it clearly in his work. The bossman was careful to point that out at the regular meetings, and not to the advantage of the other managers, either.

* *

So, fed up on these weekly wranglings, the Round Tabler went to all the other managers and proposed that he take on extra work by planning advertising and exploitation for all the other houses, as well. He would work out general campaigns for each situation, make the tieins and other promotions. Then each manager would go on from there. The adman would of course be on call at all times for further assistance. He persuaded the others that such a plan would work to the advantage of all. He would work closely with each man to increase individual effectiveness in showmanship. And further, with the new plan, the adman would be in a position to see that the others were properly credited for their share of the job.

* *

With the backing of the rest, the Round Tabler was able to sell the bossman, at least for a trial period. In the new setup, he was given added help at his house to free him from details of physical operation. Then he went to work. So far, everything is aces and if nothing untoward comes up to jam the track, it is going to do a lot to lessen the cry for manpower, at least in that circuit.

In some quarters, the immediate reaction will be that any such procedure will take away the initiative of the other managers, reduce them to automatons, kill off their chances of getting ahead. The plan will only work where the other managers are smart enough to realize that its success must of necessity increase their personal value in the home office books.

HAS IT AN "EXTRA CARRY"?

Usually, a lobby stunt starts and finishes in the same spot. A window display lives a brief spell, and its immediate use is ended. In the majority of instances, an individual exploitation packs its own weight and nothing more is expected of it.

Up in Boston, H. M. Addison, Northeastern division manager for Loew's, engaged a well-known style expert to draw reproductions of gowns worn in "Sweethearts". The fashion designer working in the lobby of the State for the week ahead, completed a set of drawings, in color. As far as it went, the promotion was good, but publicist Joe DiPesa rolled up some extra exploitation dividends by planting the drawings for a special window in one of the city's most important department stores.

Many ideas are possessed of sufficient momentum to give them an "extra carry" to further publicize a date in some other manner at no extra expense than a bit of digging on the part of the theatreman.

▽ ▽ ▽

RIGHT OUT OF THE AIR

It so happens that the rescue of the Cavalier survivors comes a few days ahead of "Pacific Liner" at Schine's Hippodrome, in Gloversville. So Manager Lou Hart dispatches a congratulatory wire to the rescuers tieing in the picture, promotes Postal Telegraph for reprints for distribution, runs in his trailer with the rescue newsreel shots, follows through in newspaper advertising.

Lou says he "pulled the idea right out of the air." Well, he sure grabbed himself a boxoffice handful.

▽ ▽ ▽

The Judging Committee for the 1938 Quigley Grand Awards will meet on Tuesday, Feb. 7, at the Hotel Astor, in New York to select the Silver and Bronze Grand Awards winners for the year. Results of the voting will be announced in the issue of Feb. 11.

A-Mike Vogel

Round Table In Pictures

Fashions
Sweethearts
Adrian
Winifred Hemenway
New England School of Art

At left is style expert and fashion designer at work in lobby of Loew's State, Boston, recopying in colors Adrian's creations for "Sweethearts". Artist's finished product later served as the background for a window display in one of the main department stores. Tie-in was arranged by H. M. Addison, division head, and carried through by Joe Di Pesa.

Tieing in with the present craze for winter cruises, United Artists planted colorful window display in the American Express office on Fifth Avenue for engagement of "Topper Takes a Trip" at the Music Hall. Located in the smart Fifth Avenue-Radio City sector, display caught the eyes of shoppers who had but a block to walk to the theatre.

AMERICAN EXPRESS WORLD TRAVEL SERVICE
TOPPER TAKES A TRIP
ROLAND YOUNG CONSTANCE BENNETT RADIO CITY MUSIC HALL
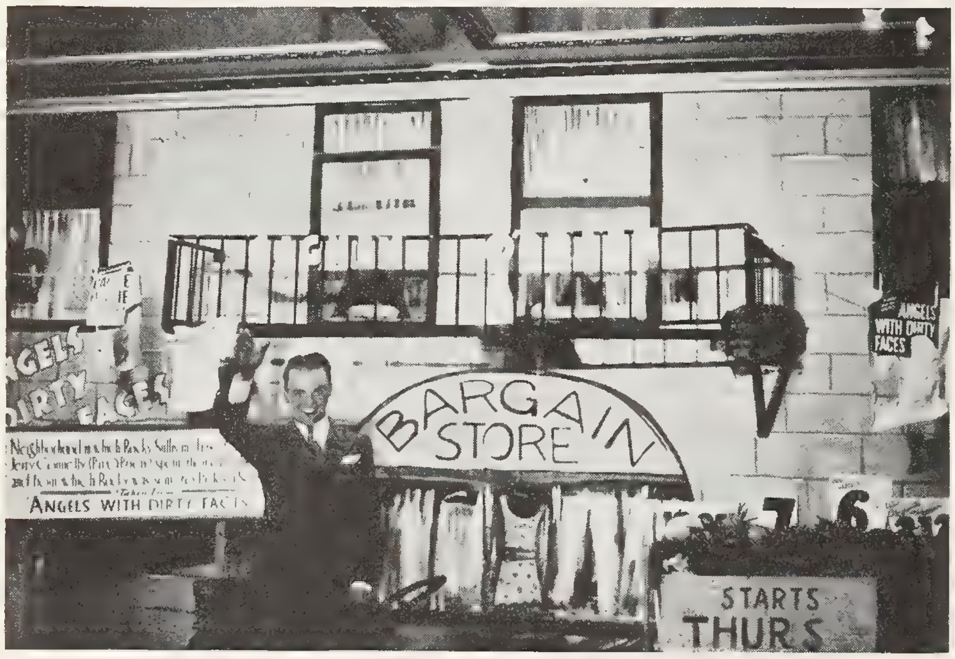
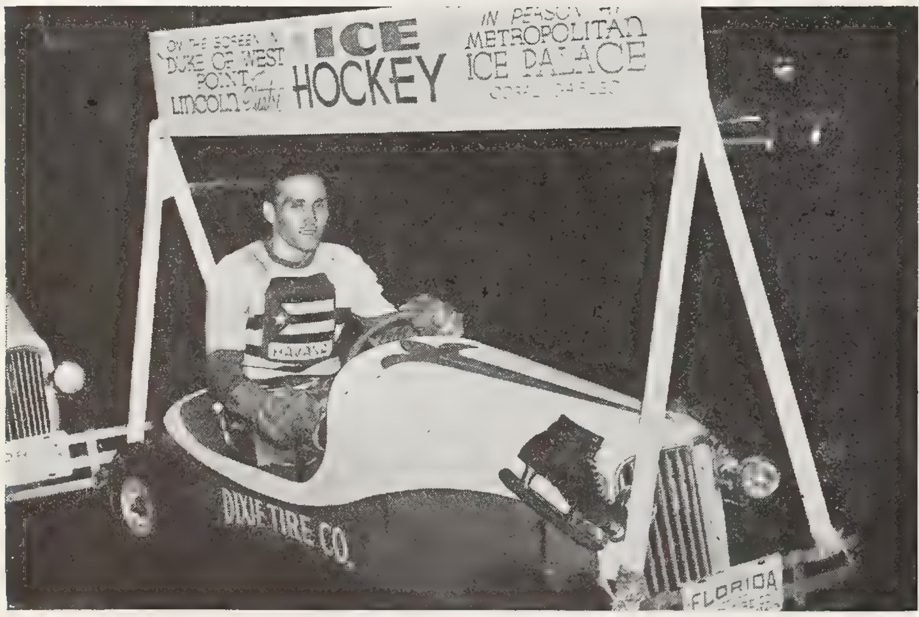
ESTIC
RUISES
TICKETS
OCEAN



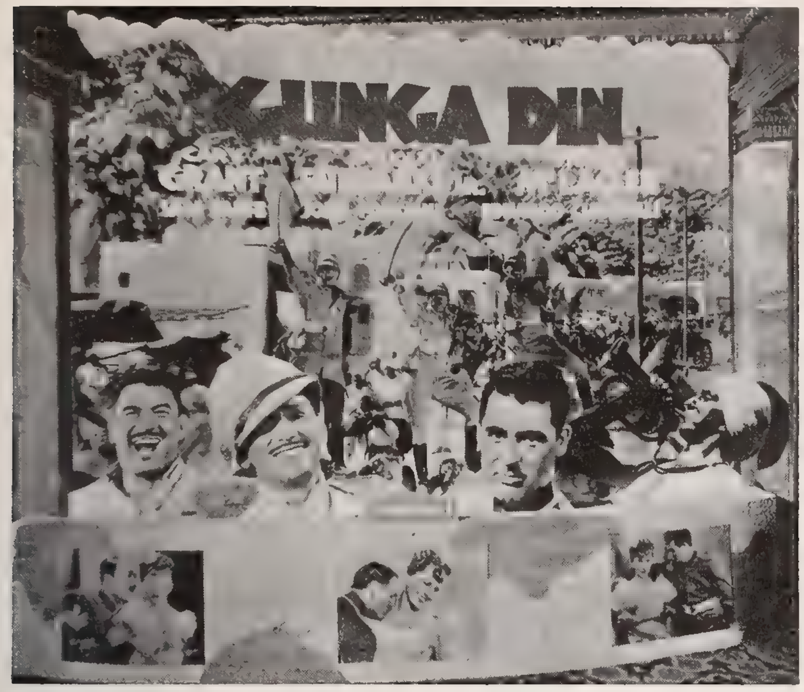
ANGELS WITH DIRTY FACES
ANGELS WITH DIRTY FACES
BARGAIN STORE
STARTS THURS

Tenement house street scene was the basis of lobby set-piece for "Angels with Dirty Faces", as reported by assistant manager, Vincent Iorio, at the Astoria Grand, Astoria, L. I. Lifelike standing cutout of Jimmy Cagney was stationed in front of bargain store. Fire escape carried cast, and tiein card at side carried picture copy.



ON THE SCREEN DUKE OF WEST POINT Lincoln Theatre
ICE HOCKEY
IN PERSON METROPOLITAN ICE PALACE
HAVANA
DIXIE TIRE CO.
FLORIDA

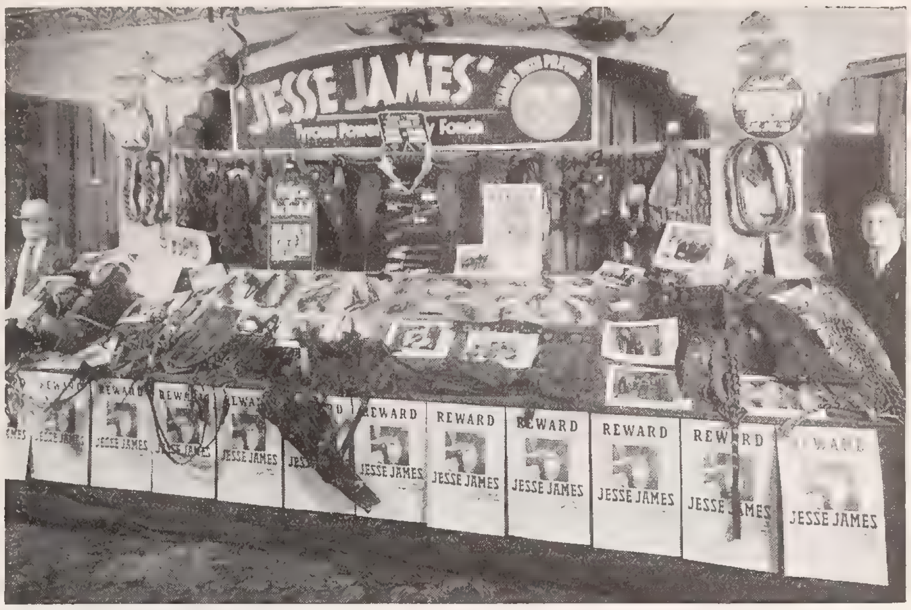
Circus publicity formed the basis of stunt worked by Sonny Shepherd and Carl Erbe for the engagement of "The Duke of West Point" at the Lincoln, Miami Beach, Fla. Arrangements were made for a parade of the members of the local Havana hockey team in midget bannered cars throughout the city to sports arena where a benefit game was held that was tied in with the film.



Eye-attracting, indeed, was the lobby display constructed and conceived by Manager Hardie Meakin, Keith's Theatre, Washington, D. C., for advance exploitation buildup on "Gunga Din". Against a background of giant action scene stills, cutout heads of Cary Grant, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., Victor McLaglen and Eduardo Giannelli were spotted.

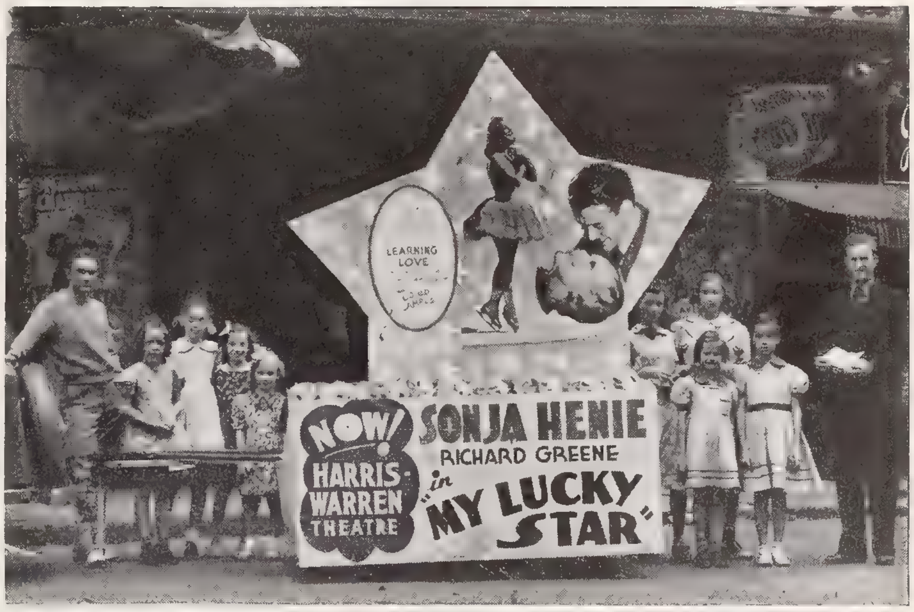
Below may be seen Mary Hanes, employee, holding the bronze Springfield, Ohio, Chakeres-Warner monthly service award. Mr. Chakeres, general manager of the theatres, presents this service trophy each month to the theatre force which extends to patrons the most efficient service and courtesy during the preceding 30 days. At the end of the year, theatre meriting the award the majority of months receives it permanently.

MONTHLY SERVICE AWARD



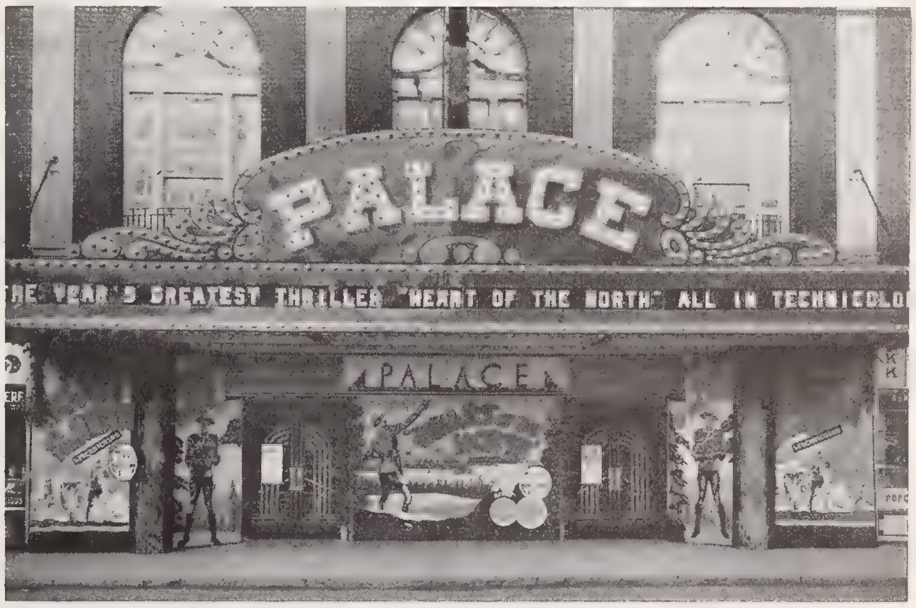
"JESSE JAMES"
REWARD
JESSE JAMES

Promoted by R. W. Russell, Palace, Canton, Ohio, was display of firearms and other paraphernalia used during the "Jesse James" period. Gentleman shown at left, together with his son at right, is the owner of the aggregation and both lectured in lobby on the historical value concerning the 200 articles on display.



LEARNING LOVE
NOW!
HARRIS-WARREN THEATRE
SONJA HENIE
RICHARD GREENE
in
"MY LUCKY STAR"

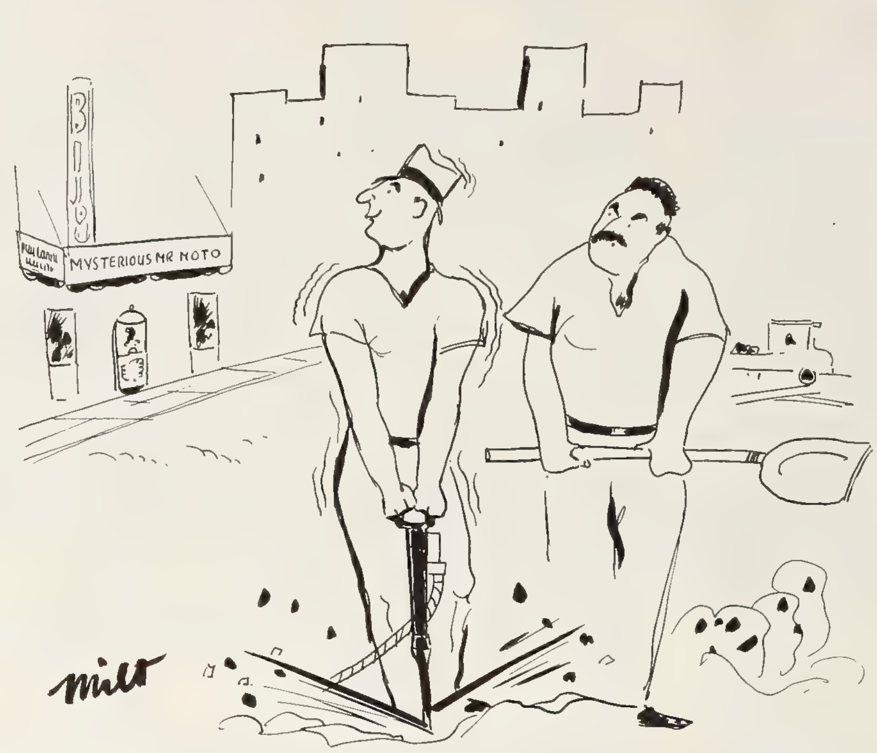
Street bally truck which created the attention anticipated was used by Earle Bailey, Harris Warren, Warren, Ohio, for "My Lucky Star". Oversized star, to which were tacked smaller stars, featured cutouts of Sonja Henie and Richard Greene, with title, cast and playdates.



PALACE
HE YEAR'S GREATEST THRILLER "HEART OF THE NORTH" ALL IN TECHNICOLO
PALACE

Pete Egan, Palace Theatre, Calgary, Alberta, Canada, is responsible for the front shown above and created for the "Heart of the North" engagement. Giant photos of the Royal West Mounted police were done in black and white and visible from some distance.

SHOWMEN'S LOBBY LAFFS



This cartoon from the brush of Milt Rosenfeld, Round Table cartoonist.

DRILLER: "MY WIFE LIKES PICTURES LIKE THAT BUT, PERSONALLY, THEY ALWAYS GIVE ME THE SHIVERS."

Model Airplane Contest Ushers in "Men with Wings"

Effected locally by H. H. Unterfort, Keith's Theatre, Syracuse, for "Men With Wings," was tieup with merchant who ran a model airplane contest for children, offering 100 prizes to those winning places with their attempts at building the models. Perin Flyers Company dropped 5,000 imprinted heralds from planes in various parts of the city as advance picture buildup and an exact replica of the Franklin aircooled motor with a propeller attached which recently broke the altitude record was used in front of theatre ahead and during run.

American Air Line cooperated by distributing imprinted folders house to house and for his street ballyhoo Unterfort sent two boys out wearing aviator outfits with back banners giving cast, title and playdates.

For "Suez," lad dressed in Arab costume bearing tiein copy rode about town ahead of opening of that picture. Through cooperation of school officials special letter addressed by the theatremen was posted on all bulletin boards and read to all social study classes, stressing the historic value of the picture and urging attendance. Libraries also tied in through use of scene still display and books on the Suez Canal.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

"Heart of North" Gets Premiere

"Heart of the North" was given a typical Hollywood opening night at its world premiere at the Orpheum Theatre, Vancouver, B. C. Gloria Dickson, who plays the female lead made a personal appearance on stage opening night, with floodlights greeting the city's celebrities who turned out for the festivities. Radio broadcast was also part of the proceedings. In ballyhooing the event, the theatre took a special ad in local papers announcing the importance of the premiere to the city.

Elaborate Ceremonies Held For "Duke of West Point"

Highlighted by a parade of the entire local National Guard and the placing in competition among the several military units of a trophy by Mayor Jasper MacLevy with elaborate ceremonies conducted at City Hall, was the campaign conducted by Morris Rosenthal for the engagement of "The Duke of West Point" at the Majestic Theatre, Bridgeport, Conn.

Presentation of the silver plaque trophy to Col. Moore, commanding officer of the Bridgeport National Guard, on behalf of the regiments, was made by Mayor MacLevy in the name of Edward Small, producer, from the City Hall steps, following a massing of the colors by the guardsmen. The trophy is awarded on a yearly basis to the regiment exceeding at target practice, manoeuvers and peace efforts, with the unit winning it three consecutive years retaining it permanently.

Parade of the combined National Guard regiments, headed by their bands from their armory through the city to the theatre, climaxed the day which has been officially designated as National Guard Day. At the conclusion of the parade, officers, as well as enlisted men, were invited to a special showing.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Warners Give "Wings" Timely Ad Campaign

Taking advantage of current national defense question, Warners advertising department has planned a timely campaign in advance of "Wings of the Navy," scheduled for national release on February 11, which is National Defense Week.

Campaign is built around the theme "Can America Defend Herself in the Air?" The ads incorporate current national trends towards building up a large air force and training American youth for aviation.

Lights-Out Prevue On 'Frankenstein'

Advertised as something new in thrills was the "Lights-Out Preview" for "Son of Frankenstein," staged exactly at midnight of the Saturday ahead by Pat Patchen for the date at the Midwest, Oklahoma City. Copy in newspapers, handbills and on the radio stressed that on the stroke of midnight, every light in the theatre would go out, and folks dared to "see it in the dark." Further copy warned patrons "Don't come alone. You may be afraid to go home. And don't see this picture if you have a weak heart or your nerves can't stand the intense shock." Total cost of the campaign was $25, writes Patchen.

The folks appear to have gone for the idea in a big way since all seats and available standing room were sold out clean a half hour before the show started, despite a rain storm that started earlier in the evening. Pat found it a real dough-getter and sat down to report on the stunt "in hope you can pass it along in time to do some good for someone else."

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

"Dr. Quizzer" Novelty Inaugurated by Limerick

Originating on the stage and in the audience of the Aztec Theatre, Enid, Okla., is the "Dr. Quizzer" contest inaugurated by George Limerick, which is broadcast over station KCRC each Thursday night for one-half hour. Local soft drink distributor sponsors the program and aids the theatre in the distribution of advertising.

The master of ceremonies works before a microphone on the stage and a number of assistants equipped with travelling mikes are placed throughout the audience to aid with the program. Members of the audience answering questions correctly are paid cash prizes by these assistants, the exact amount of cash being stipulated by "Dr. Quizzer" before the question is given to each patron. Everyone in the audience has a chance to participate by merely attracting the attention of one of the "microphone caddies."

Theatre stands the cost of the cash premiums awarded and the sponsor defraying cost of broadcast and assisting in distribution of advertising. Limerick reports the first program was broadcast November 3rd and has continued as a highly successful weekly buildup for his Thursday nights.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Kiddie Kartoon Karnival Inaugurated by Gamble

What he chooses to call his Kiddie Kartoon Karnival was the special Saturday matinee show recently put over successfully by Manager Jack Gamble, Regent Theatre, Norwalk, Conn.

To stimulate additional kid patronage as well as adult trade, theatreman ran this special show for 70 minutes, featuring cartoons, novelties and outstanding short subjects at no advance in price. Heralds carrying cuts of Betty Boop and Pop Eye were distributed in advance and in addition, Jack promoted lollypops for giveaway to the kids among other gifts.

Airport Breakfast On 'Wings of Navy'

Highlighting the campaign for "Wings of the Navy" in the Philadelphia territory were two events arranged by Everett Callow in charge of Warner theatre publicity in that zone. First event was a Sunday morning breakfast and preview of the picture at the Camden Airport. Invitations were mailed to scores of civilian fliers who own their own planes to fly to the airport to attend the festivities. Ex-army and navy pilots were also invited and newsreel and wire services covered the affair which was held two weeks ahead of opening at the Fox Theatre.

Second stunt was a testimonial dinner to Rear Admiral Julius C. Townsend, Commandant of the Fourth Naval District, Philadelphia Navy Yard, at which the picture was screened before high naval officials, cabinet ministers and civic officials. Lt. Commander Sease, technical advisor for the picture handled arrangements for the showing.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

"Gunga Din" Pressbook Gives Wide Coverage

Comprehensive treatment of display ads, exploitation, publicity and accessories is indicated in the "Gunga Din" press book turned out by the RKO Radio ad staff, under S. Barret McCormick.

Eight double-sized pages in four colors constitute the main section of the book. Still blowups mirror the big scenes of the production and there are scores of exploitation stunts outlined ranging from an elephant ballyhoo to giant outline letters designed to spell out the title when thrown against a hillside. There are four double-sized pages containing the mat features.

The advertising campaign embraces some forty pieces of copy from full-page size down to teasers and title slugs while the special accessories are highlighted by a mammoth roto herald, "Gunga Din" sun helmets and varied sizes of color-gloss stills. School promotion is featured by a group discussion guide to the appreciation of the photoplay based on Kipling's ballad and there are numerous library and book shop tieups suggested.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Numerous Slants Top "Sweethearts" Date

Intensive campaign in radio, free displays and newspapers was staged by Loew's Warfield, San Francisco, to exploit "Sweethearts." All music stores were tied up with window displays, as were leading department stores, drug stores, tobacco shops and jewelry stores. Leading music house also distributed 5,000 imprinted heralds, using them as package stuffers.

Full page "movie of the week" with picture serial of the film including theatre credits was promoted in Sunday Chronicle. Special art layouts were planted in Call-Bulletin's Green Flash section and fashion page, and in Daily News and Fanfare. Call-Bulletin also contributed full-page cartoon on the film, drawn by staff and artist. Plugs were obtained over KYA, KSAN, KJBS.

"GO AND DO IT"

The Quigley Awards for 1939 are now in full session. Started officially on Feb. 1, attention is directed to the First Preliminary period, ending on Feb. 13, when all entries received up until noon of that day will be given consideration in the selection of three to be considered for the First Quarter Plaques and for the title of "Fortnighter".

Detailed rules for the 1939 Quigley Awards have been run in the issues of Jan. 21 and Jan. 28. They emphasize that the Awards are now to be given for outstanding single ideas and not on complete campaigns as formerly. They point out, also, that the usual Quarters are now divided into two-week preliminary periods, the three winners in each preliminary to be considered in the judging for the Quarterly Plaques. On following pages are set down what the men in the field think about the new policy. More to come next week.

Theatremen are requested not to "go fancy" in preparing their entries. A simple presentation will do for all purposes. More than one idea may be submitted at one time. Entrants who desire to submit complete campaigns may do so providing the single ideas to be entered are plainly marked as such.

It is further requested that all entries be accompanied by detailed explanations of promotions and "reasons why" ideas are considered award-worthy.

That's all there is to do. Now, go and do it.

State Officials Help On "I'm from Missouri"

Among some of the highlights of the world-premiere campaign on "I'm From Missouri" at the Newman Theatre in Kansas City as put on by Manager Jerry Zigmond is the cooperation of Governor Lloyd C. Stark, who will have a private screening of the film at the executive mansion which will be attended by a selected guest list including important newspaper executives from Kansas City and the State Capitol.

The Chamber of Commerce of the City and the State Chamber will participate in the premiere with full cooperation anticipated from all state auto clubs and leading hotels throughout Kansas City. Special newspaper cooperation and full support from local radio station as well as broadcasts from Hollywood will play an important role in the premiere which is set for early in March.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Wright Gives "Fight" Special Treatment

Erle Wright's campaign on "Stand Up and Fight" at Schine's Glove Theatre, Gloversville, was used as a model for the balance of the circuit to follow. Steering clear of the poolroom, wrestling matches, etc., angle, Wright concentrated on the love interest, and used 36 teasers with sock copy such as "No woman likes a quitter," "If you're knocked down by Cupid," etc., etc.

The "famous fighting words" contest listed in the pressbook was planted with schools reported to have backed it 100 per cent. Special four-page tabloid was distributed, included in which were numerous scene stills, picture copy and other photos. Special front was constructed for the date, colored blowups with letters were appliqued on and colored stills planted at sides.

Radio Aids Brennan On Rooney Contest

Costless radio tieup was planted by E. R. Brennan, Orpheum Theatre, Green Bay, Wis., as advance exploitation for "Out West With the Hardys." Stations WTAQ and WHBY both conducted a Mickey Rooney letter contest, passes going to the 50 children writing the best 25-word letter on "Why I Like Mickey Rooney." Stations through their affiliation, secured from teachers in the various schools letters from children in their respective classes. Contest was plugged over air for a week ahead.

Additional publicity was garnered by Brennan who, through arrangements made with the MGM Studios secured different poses of Mickey Rooney and Lewis Stone reading the Green Bay Press Gazette. These were planted in the cooperating paper and included in tieups with department store merchants. Tieup was made with the Parent Teachers Association on sponsorship connection with the week's showing. Members of the organization, teachers and students sold tickets house-to-house.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Window Displays Tied to "Sweethearts"

Bill Brown, Durfee Theatre, Fall River, Mass., ushered in his date on "Sweethearts" with various window displays around town, including radio tieup with department store's record department. Store devoted part of its broadcast over WSAR to hit tunes from the picture with prominent playdate and title mention.

Numerous counter displays were planted in book departments of stores, telegraph company featured a window display and for his lobby Brown placed two love birds in cage week ahead with proper tiein copy.

THEATREMEN APPROVE NEW POLICY

GEORGE LIMERICK

City Manager, Griffith Theatres
Enid, Okla.

As a winner of several Quigley Awards in the past few years you can put me down as one who is highly in favor of the Awards as a whole.

I have found that if properly executed these campaigns stimulate the box office and in general help to stimulate the theatre as a whole. In the planning of campaigns, I have always called on the entire force for assistance and it has been a great help to the boys coming up in the business to assist with their ideas which in turn have been executed by the executive staff. This creates an interest with the boys coming up in the industry and if the attraction shows an unusually good gross or was responsible for a Quigley Award they feel they have had a definite part in it so consequently we all feel better in the end.

I think that you have really got something in your announcement for 1939. This idea in my opinion is "tops," as there are many times we have had single ideas which were responsible for a heavy increase in business. I am very happy to see that the Quigley Awards will be based on individual ideas in 1939.

ROBERT R. DEITCH

Assistant, Stanley
Jersey City, N. J.

I am glad to have the opportunity to express my thoughts on the merits of the Quigley Awards. I have been fortunate to be an Award winner each year for the past five years, and I shall continue to enter campaigns each year while the Awards remain.

The Quigley Awards, without a doubt, have contributed a great deal in turning the spotlight on the showmanship of the men in the theatres. It has encouraged newcomers to become conscious of the great possibilities of exploitation and publicity in the amusement field, and also has afforded them an opportunity to see what the experienced showmen are doing throughout the country.

FRANK W. MILLER

Advertising Manager, Metropolitan Morgantown, W. Va.

It was with considerable gratification that I won a Quigley Award in 1938, a splendid expression of goodwill and appreciation of my efforts to sell motion pictures to the public, and you may rest assured it will act as a very vital incentive to do my very best toward getting 100 per cent advertising and publicity values out of this year's swell product. Needless to say, the success in winning this Award was partly due to the splendid suggestions continually embodied in the exhibitors' press books and ads.

Motion pictures seem to have taken a new lease on life and the theatres I am affiliated with should become the mecca of amusement in this community and should be a real factor in a better appreciation of the motion picture industry by our townspeople and students.

ADDITIONAL JUDGES . . . .

John J. Friedl
President and General Manager
Minnesota Amusement Company

I will be glad to serve on your Judging Committee for the 1939 Quigley Awards.

It has been interesting to note in our territory the enthusiasm of the managers in striving for one of these Awards. We have never been fortunate enough to win top honors, but several of our men have repeated time and again in Honorable Mentions. Certainly this effort has reflected itself in our boxoffices.

I think your new plan of judging on a basis of single ideas or promotion will bring many more entries and far more competition.

▽

G. Ralph Branton
General Manager
Tri-States Theatre Corp.

It is distinctly an honor to be invited to be on the Judging Committee of the 1939 Quigley Awards, and I most gratefully accept.

Let me say such Awards as you make is one of the most outstanding incentives for young managers to do an outstanding job. Your Award means much to them, and I am certain that, nationally, your idea is promoting greater showmanship than any other one idea in the industry.

Please advise me what I must do to faithfully carry out my duties as one of the Judging Committee. I am happy and honored to assist in this grand program of yours.

▽

S. Barret McCormick
Director of Advertising and Publicity
RKO Radio Pictures

Pardon the delay in replying to your invitation to again be a member of the Judging Committee for the Quigley Awards. It will indeed be a pleasure to serve.

I have always felt that Managers' Round Table, conducted by Motion Picture Herald, was one of the most valuable departments in this publication — a meeting place for ideas and an inspiration for showmanship.

▽

Dan Michalove
National Theatres Amusement Company
New York City

This is the first opportunity I have had to reply to your letter of invitation but, as you know, I am always glad to serve on any of your committees and am pleased that you have included me in the 1939 Quigley Awards Committee.

JOSEPH A. DI PESA

Publicity Director, Loew's Theatres
Boston, Mass.

The Quigley Awards have, in a great measure, served to stimulate the utmost in our efforts. They are the inspiration of greater deeds, a rebuke to the belief that "it can't be done," and the palatable stimulant to the wide-awake, alert and aggressive showmen.

The Awards serve as the means of broadening our perspective, reflect largely our personal achievements and help materially in placing our industry on its deservedly high level. Let's keep up the practice!

DOUGLAS GEORGE

Advertising Manager, Standard Theatres
Oklahoma City, Okla.

Congratulations! The new Awards set-up is just what the real showman has been looking for. It will eliminate much "eye wash" that has been inserted in campaigns heretofore to make them look bigger. As you know, often times one single idea well executed means more to the box office than 100 small insignificant stunts.

JACK SIMONS

Manager, Loew's Poli
Hartford, Conn.

In this business of spotlights and limelights no light shines brighter within the circle of the men in the field than that which reflects on a manager who wins a Quigley Award. Proudly it points him out to the industry as having accomplished, definitely so, something for his theatre. The Award is proof conclusive.

In the industry in which he is ever striving to reach the top, all eyes are focused upon him for doing something a little bit better than his contemporaries. It is a grand feeling, indeed, and a mighty proud one.

HARRY RUBIN

Manager, Tivoli
Michigan City, Ind.

To me the Quigley Awards spur the man in the field to do a more complete job of exploiting.

I assume that every man exploits every possible picture he can, but the Quigley Award is an incentive to make each campaign more complete. Naturally, the more complete each campaign is, the more gross each picture brings.

Your new idea for Awards looks more interesting than any so far.

FRANK MURPHY

Manager, Loew's State
Syracuse, N. Y.

There is no denying the definite value and worth of the Quigley competitions both as a box office stimulant and personal prestige builder. Awards of this nature tend to create many new and profitable ideas, keep us wide awake and emphasize the inestimable value of publicity and exploitation in theatre operation today.

AWARDS CALLED MAJOR INFLUENCE

C. J. LATTA

District Manager, Warner Bros. Theatres
Pittsburgh, Pa.

We are more enthusiastic about Quigley Award competitions than ever. We definitely feel that they are a worthwhile prize for every manager to go after. In our experience they have proved to be a real stimulus to a keener showmanship.

BILL EXTON

City Manager, Kenosha and Gateway
Kenosha, Wis.

The 1939 Quigley Awards are especially valuable since they place all showmen on a par through the medium of exploitation on individual ideas. With the elimination of classifications, deadlines and other restrictions, everyone of us in the field should be more eager than ever to compete for the Quigley Awards.

As one who has been interested in the competitions from the beginning, I felicitate you on the new change and will endeavor to be represented in 1939.

CHARLES PINCUS

Manager, Centre
Salt Lake City, Utah

I have never entered into the Quigley Awards because we have a different situation than that which prevails elsewhere. Except in isolated instances, I have never had the opportunity to put over a complete campaign as I would wish.

The changes in the Quigley Awards for 1939 appear to remove a lot of obstacles and will give me a better chance to enter into the competitions. I think this is a great thing. Count me in.

L. J. WILLIAMS

Manager, El Rey
San Francisco, Cal.

Briefly, may I state that the First Mention and Honorable Mentions I have received are valued by me as my prize possessions. Recently I resolved to be a more consistent contestant, and I am very happy that the competitions will continue through 1939. I particularly like the new set-up as you have announced.

May I also state that no other consideration, money or otherwise, could stimulate a more earnest effort for better grosses than the thought of winning a Quigley Award.

DICK WALSH

Manager, Lafayette
Buffalo, N. Y.

In my mind, there is no doubt that Quigley Awards should continue as they have in the past to award theatremen some token for outstanding workmanship in the theatrical field. I surely believe that this Competition helps in many ways to keep all showmen alert and do a much better job for their employers.

I look forward to receiving each issue of the Herald so that I may have first hand knowledge of just what's going on in my line of work.

FIRST PLAQUE WINNER CREDITS COMPETITIONS

It was while stationed in Morgantown, West Va., for Warners that Ken Grimes was voted the very first Plaque in the Quigley Awards—January, 1934. Since then he has been promoted to the Warner Theatre, in Erie, Pa. Grimes still competes in the Awards. He says this about it:

"Mighty glad to hear that you plan to continue the Quigley Awards during the year of 1939.

"I have participated in the Awards ever since they started back in 1934 and I feel quite sure that through them I have improved my position with the company.

"The Awards have stimulated me to create and execute bigger and better campaigns which in my opinion have created bigger and better boxoffice figures for my theatre."

C. L. HOLLISTER

Manager, Babcock
Wellsville, N. Y.

It is a pleasure to give you my personal reactions to the Quigley Awards, and I will attempt to list each of the purposes of the Awards as they have affected myself.

On all campaigns which we have outlined with the thought of submitting them for Quigley Award consideration, grosses have been better always than on corresponding programs without campaigns considered by us of Quigley Award merit.

I believe all theatre managers are essentially proud of their accomplishments in revamping an old gag, or originating a new exploitation stunt. To have these published serves two purposes: the manager reading about a stunt successful elsewhere may decide it is exactly the stunt he wants to use in a particular campaign, and in the case of our own district and zone, there is always a feeling of friendly rivalry. To read of one of our associates' successful exploitations, is a goad for us to go out and try to surpass it.

In conclusion, I like the idea of the 1939 Awards very much, both as to elimination of classifications, and preliminary winners every two weeks. Quarterly is too long a period to sustain interest.

CHARLES B. TAYLOR

Director of Advertising and Publicity
Buffalo Theatres, Buffalo, N. Y.

I think your new procedure in regard to the Quigley Awards for 1939 is immense. This new set-up will give everybody a chance and should greatly increase the flow of entries.

The whole idea of the 1939 Competitions should be a real stimulus to showmanship everywhere.

MILTON S. HARRIS

Director of Publicity, Loew's Theatres
Cleveland, Ohio

The winning of a Quigley Award gives a contestant the self satisfaction that the efforts exerted in that particular outstanding campaign have not been in vain and further inspires the proud possessor of a certificate or trophy to display still greater ability with his next entry.

To the industry at large, the publication of exploitation campaigns, which merited these much sought after prizes, should serve as very valuable material in their respective endeavors to sell that particular picture for their own playdates.

The Managers' Round Table can well be proud of the service it renders the entire motion picture industry and long may it live.

With the elimination of the classifications and the adoption of the slogan . . . "It's what you do and not where or who you are" everybody has an equal opportunity of displaying their ability and you can earnestly rest assured that Loew's in Cleveland will strive to be amongst the top-notch winners in 1939.

E. V. DINERMAN

Advertising Director, RKO Theatres
Cincinnati, Ohio

The Quigley Award is the Pulitzer Prize of Press-Agentry.

It is the only merit-spotlight that focuses national attention on individual effort, encourages competition, and fosters the dispensation of new ideas into the brotherhood of Showmen.

SID HOLLAND

City Manager, Elco Theatres
Elkhart, Ind.

The values of the Quigley Awards to the industry in general and to the man in the field in particular are so self evident that my poor words could neither add to nor detract from the sterling merit of so worthwhile a project.

Your new set up on the "single idea and promotion" plan appears to be a step forward! More power to you.

ED McBRIDE

Manager, Loew's State
Providence, R. I.

As I see it, the Quigley Awards serve a three-fold purpose as far as the individual theatre manager is concerned. In the first place they serve as an incentive to greater effort in the field of exploitation. Secondly, they give to the manager a greater measure of general recognition for effort and accomplishment. Thirdly, the Quigley Awards have proved to be a sort of exchange medium for ideas and the practical application of them.

As a whole, the Quigley Awards have found a definite and useful place in the field of showmanship and I am certain that the 1939 set-up will cause them to become of even greater value to those engaged in the business of providing entertainment to the public.

LAST QUARTER WINNERS IN 1938

SILVER PLAQUES

CLASS "A" (Cities 250,000 and Over)
E. V. DINERMAN, RKO THEATRES, CINCINNATI
CLASS "B" (Cities 100,000 to 250,000)
KEN GRIMES, WARNER THEATRE, ERIE, PA.
CLASS "C" (Cities 25,000 to 100,000)
SID HOLLAND, ELCO THEATRES, ELKHART, IND.
Class "D" (Cities Up to 25,000)
NEWMAN CORKER, P. E. McCOY, L. & J. THEATRES, ATHENS, GA.
(Also awarded additional Citation of Merit for best entry among Plaque winners.)
CLASS "E" (Subsequent Runs)
JOHN BURHORN, GAYETY THEATRE, CHICAGO, ILL.

CITATIONS OF MERIT

CLASS "A" (Cities of 250,000 and Over)
RAY BELL, LOEW'S THEATRES, WASHINGTON, D. C.
CLASS "B" (Cities 100,000 to 250,000)
GUY MARTIN, COLFAX THEATRE, SOUTH BEND, IND.
CLASS "C" (Cities 25,000 to 100,000)
GEORGE LIMERICK, AZTEC THEATRE, ENID, OKLA.
CLASS "D" (Cities Up to 25,000)
REX WILLIAMS, HOOSIER THEATRE, WHITING, IND.
CLASS "E" (Subsequent Runs)
LYLE HARDING, SHERIDAN SQUARE, EAST LIBERTY, PA.

HONORABLES IN ALL CLASSES

FRANK AUSTIN, Fairmont, Fairmont, W. Va.
ARTHUR G. BRAUN, Regal, Wilkinsburg, Pa.
E. R. BRENNAN, Orpheum, Green Bay, Wis.
DICK BROWN, Rowland, Wilkinsburg, Pa.
A. F. BRYAN, Columbia, Warren, Pa.
LOUIE CHARNINSKY, Capitol, Dallas, Tex.
R. E. ENGLAND, Virginian, Charleston, W. Va.
CARTER ENGLISH, Majestic, Centerville, Ia.
GLENN FANNIN, Cactus, Lubbock, Tex.
JOE FLOYD, Granada, Sioux Falls, So. Dak.
J. K. FREEMAN, Manor, Greensburg, Pa.
LARRY GRABURN, Capitol, Halifax, Nova Scotia.
HAROLD GROTT, Met, Baltimore, Md.
C. L. HOLLISTER, Babcock, Wellsville, N. Y.
GEORGE HUNTER, Fox Midland, Pittsburg, Kan.
J. DAVID JONES, Kerasotes Theatres, Springfield, Ill.
JAMES KEEFE, Ritz, Clarksburg, W. Va.
JULIUS LAMM, Uptown, Cleveland, O.
ED McBRIDE, Loew's State, Providence, R. I.
HARRY MacDONALD, Warner, Milwaukee, Wis.
FRANK MONEYHUN, Loew's, Indianapolis, Ind.
PEARCE PARKHURST, State, Torrington, Conn.
GEORGE SARVIS, Library, Warren, Pa.
ASHER B. SHAW, United Artists, Detroit, Mich.
ALLEN SPARROW, Loew's, Richmond, Va.
CHARLES B. TAYLOR, Buffalo Theatres, Buffalo, N. Y.
F. T. THOMAS, Smoot, Parkersburg, W. Va.
H. H. UNTERFORT, Keith, Syracuse.

Mousson Reports Recent Activities

Airplane, neon lighted, flew over Nashville, Tenn., as part of Dewey Mousson's advance buildup on "Dawn Patrol." Slant was first advertised through newspapers and radios by a teaser campaign which said "watch the sky."

For "Brother Rat," Mousson sent 44 miles away to Columbia and brought over their 65 piece band. Street parade was held, banners heralding the opening. Through tieup effected with art classes in six schools, contest was staged, guest tickets awarded those submitting best drawings, using standee as a subject.

FIRST MENTIONS IN ALL CLASSES

JACK ALBERTSON, Indiana, Indiana Harbor, Ind.
BILL BELL, Majestic, Houston, Tex.
LIGE BRIEN, Prince, Ambridge, Pa.
JOE DI PESA, Loew's Theatres, Boston, Mass.
DON JOHNSON, Vic, Indiana Harbor, Ind.
ED MILLER, manager; MANNY PEARLSTEIN, publicist, Warners' Hippodrome, Cleveland, O.
SEYMOUR MORRIS, Schine's State, Cortland, N. Y.
FRANK MURPHY, Loew's State, Syracuse, N. Y.
GLENN NELSON, Harris, Findlay, O.
JIMMIE REDMOND, Bonham, Fairbury, Neb.
MORRIS ROSENTHAL, Majestic, Bridgeport, Conn.
HARRY RUBIN, Tivoli, Michigan City, Ind.
J. A. SANDERS, Chief, Gallup, N. Mex.
CHUCK SHANNON, Belmar, Pittsburgh, Pa.
CHICK TOMPKINS, Forsythe, East Chicago, Ind.
DICK WALSH, Lafayette, Buffalo, N. Y.
ART WARTHA, Roxy, La Porte, Ind.

THE RELEASE CHART

INDEX

On this and the following page appears an alphabetical index to the titles of all features listed in this week's Release Chart, with additional information for the exhibitor.

Following the title is information regarding the classification of the subject matter of the feature. A comedy is denoted by the abbreviation Com.; Melodrama by Mel.; Comedy-Melodrama by Com-Mel.; Musical by Mus.; Musical Comedy by Mus-Com.; Western by West. If the production is made in color, the letter "C" appears in parentheses after the classification. Thus: Com-Mel (C) denotes a Comedy-Melodrama in Color.

At the extreme right of the line containing the title of the production is the name of the distributor.

A

Abused Confidence, Mel..............Col
Adventure in Sahara, Mel..........Col
Adventure of Giacomo Casanova, Mel ....Amerital
Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, The, Com-Mel ....MGM
Adventures of Jane Arden, Mel.....WB
Affairs of Annabel, Com...........RKO
Alexander Graham Bell, Mel.....20-Fox
Alexander's Ragtime Band, Mus. 20th-Fox
Alf's Button Afloat, Com.......Foreign
Algiers, Mel..........................UA
Always in Trouble, Com..............GB
Always Goodbye, Mel...........20th-Fox
Amazing Dr. Clitterhouse, Mel.....FN
Ambush, Mel.........................Para
Angels With Dirty Faces, Mel......FN
Annabel Takes a Tour, Com.......RKO
Annie Laurie, Mel...............Foreign
Arkansas Traveler, Com............Para
Arrest Bulldog Drummond, Mel...Para
Arizona Bracelets, West...........Para
Arizona Legion, West..............RKO
Arizona Wildcat, Com..........20th-Fox
Army Girl, Mel.......................Rep
Artists and Models Abroad, Com. Para
Avocate d'Amour, Com-Mel.....Foreign

B

Back Door to Heaven, Mel..........Para
Ballerina, Mel......................Foreign
Barefoot Boy, Mel...................Mono
Battle of City Hall, Mel.............WB
Beachcomber, The Mel.............Para
Beau Geste, Mel.....................Para
Beauty for the Asking, Com......RKO
Billy the Kid Returns, West.......Rep
Black Bandit, West................Univ
Blackwell's Island, Mel..............WB
Blockade, Mel..........................UA
Blockheads, Com. ....MGM
"Blondie," Com. ....Col
Blondie Meets the Boss, Com........Col
Booloo, Mel. ....Para
Border G-Man, West................RKO
Boy Meets Girl, Com................WB
Boy's Reformatory, Mel............Mono
Boy Slaves, Mel......................RKO
Boy Trouble, Mel ....Para
Boys Town, Mel.....................MGM
Breaking the Ice, Mus............RKO
Broadway Musketeers, Mel...........FN
Broadway Serenade, Mus.........MGM
Bronze Buckaroo, Mel...........St. Rts.
Brother Orchid, Mel..................WB
Brother Rat, Com....................FN
Burn 'Em Up O'Connor, Com-Mel. MGM
Bulldog Drummond in Africa, Mel..Para
Bulldog Drummond's Secret Police, Mel ....Para

C

Cabira, Mel.........................Foreign
Cafe Society, Mel...................Para
California Frontier, West.............Col
Campus Confessions, Com...........Para
Campus Dormitory, Com............Para
Captain Fury, Mel....................UA
Captain Scorpiob, Com...........Foreign
Carefree, Mus-Com..................RKO
Carnival in Flanders, Com-Mel. Foreign
Charlie Chan in Honolulu, Mel..20th-Fox
Chalked Out, Mel....................FN
Chaser, The, Com-Mel.............MGM
Christmas Carol, Com-Mel........MGM
Cipher Bureau, Mel..................GN
Citadel, The, Mel...................MGM
City Streets, Mel......................Col
College Girl, Mel................Foreign
Code of the Cactus, West........St. Rts.
Code of the Fearless, West......St. Rts.
Code of the Streets, Mel............Univ
College Girl, Mel...................Henka
Colorado Trail, The, West...........Col
Comet Over Broadway, Mel.........WB
Convicted, Mel........................Col
Convict's Code, Mel................Mono
Convicts at Large, Mel..........St. Rts.
Come On, Leathernecks, Mel.......Rep
Come On, Rangers, West..........Rep
Cowboy and the Lady, Com.........UA
Cowboy from Brooklyn, Mus.......WB
Crashing Through, West.............GN
rashing Through Danger, Mel..St. Rts.
Crime Over London, Mel............GB
Crime Ring, Mel.....................RKO
Crime School, Mel....................FN
Crime Takes a Holiday, Mel.........Col.
Criminal Investigator, Mel.........Mono
Crossroads, Mel..................Foreign
Crowd Roars, The, Com-Mel......MGM

D

Dangerous Cargo, Mel.........20th-Fox
Danger on the Air, Mel.............Univ
Dark Eyes, Mel.................Foreign
Dark Rapture, Mel...................Univ
Dark Sands, Mel..................Foreign
Dark Victory, Mel....................WB
David Copperfield, Mel.............MGM
Dawn Patrol, Mel....................WB
Delinquent Parents, Mel.........St. Rts.
Deperate Adventure, Com-Mel.....Rep
Devil's Island, Mel...................WB
Disbarred, Mel........................Para
Divorce of Lady X, Com. (C)......UA
Dock on the Havel, Mel.........Foreign
Dodge City, Mel. ....WB
Down in "Arkansaw," Mus.........Rep
Down on the Farm, Com......20th-Fox
Dramatic School, Mel. ....MGM
Drifting Westward, West.........Mono.
Drums, Mel. (C) ....UA
Duke of West Point, Mel...........UA
Duke Steps Out, Mel............St. Rts.
Durango Valley Raiders, West......Rep.
Dybbuk, The, Mel................Foreign

E

Each Dawn I Die, Mel..............WB
East Side of Heaven, Mus-Com....Univ
Edge of the World, Mel..........Foreign
Empire of the West, West..........GN
Empty World, Mel....................GB
Evergreen, Mus. ....GB
Everybody's Baby, Com........20th-Fox
Exile Express, Mel. ....GN
Exposed, Mel. ....Univ

F

Fast and Loose, Mel...............MGM
Fast Company, Com-Mel.........MGM
Federal Man Hunt, Mel.............Rep
Federal Offense, Mel...............Para.
Female Fugitive, Mel.............Mono
Feud of the Range, West.......St. Rts.
Fighting Thoroughbreds, West......Rep
First Offender, Mel...................Col
First Ranger, The, West.............Col
Fisherman's Wharf, Mus..........RKO
Five of a Kind, Mel............20th-Fox
Flight at Midnight, Mel............Rep
Flight Into Darkness, Mel.......Foreign
Flight to Fame, Mel.................Col
Flirting with Fate, Com-Mel.......MGM
Flying Irishman, Mel..............RKO
Foggy Quay, Mel................Foreign
Forged Passport, Mel...............Rep.
40 Little Mothers, Mel...........Foreign
Four Daughters, Mel.................FN
Four Girls in White, Mel.........MGM
Four's A Crowd, Com...............WB
Freshman Year, Com-Mel.........Univ
Frog, The, Mel........................GB
Frontiersman, West.................Para
Frontiers of '49, West...............Col
Frontier Scout, West................GN
Fugitives for a Night, Com.......RKO

G

Gambler and the Lady, The........Para
Gambling Ship, Mel................Univ
Gang, The Mel...................St. Rts.
Gang Bullets, Mel..................Mono
Gang Smashers, Mel............St. Rts.
Gangster's Boy, Mel..............Mono
Garden of the Moon, Mus-Com......FN
Gateway, Mel. 20th-Fox
Ghost Town Riders, West.........Univ.
Girl Downstairs, The, Com-Mel..MGM
Girl Must Live, Com.................GB
Girl Refuge, The, Mel...........Foreign
Girls on Probation, Mel..............FN
Girls' School, Mel...................Col.
Give Me a Sailor, Com..............Para
Gladiator, The, Com..................Col
Glory of the Faith, Mel.........Foreign
Going Places, Com-Mel..............FN
Gold Diggers in Paris, Mus.......WB
Gold Is Where You Find It, Mel. (C) FN
Gold Mine in the Sky, West........Rep
Gone Harlem, Mel...............St. Rts.
Gone with the Wind, Mel............UA
Goodbye, Mr. Chips, Com-Mel....MGM
Gracie Allen Murder Case, Com-Mel, Para
Grand Illusion, Mel..... Foreign (World)
Grand Jury's Secrets, Mel.........Para
Great Man Votes, Com............RKO
Great Waltz, The, Mus...........MGM
Guilty Trails, West.................Univ
Gunga Din, Mel......................RKO
Gun Packer, West..................Mono
Gunsmoke Trail, West.............Mono

H

Hard to Get, Com-Mel..............WB
Hardys Ride High, Com-Mel......MGM
Harlem Rides the Range, West..St. Rts.
Hatred, Mel.......................Foreign
Having Wonderful Time, Com.....RKO
Heart of the North, Mel. (C)......WB
Heart of Paris, Mel..............Foreign
Hell Bound, Mel.................St. Rts.
Hell's Kitchen, Mel..................WB
Heritage of the Desert, Mel.......Para
Hero for a Day, Mel.................WB
Heroes of the Hills, West...........Rep
Hey! Hey! U. S. A., Com.....Foreign
Higgins, Family, The, Com.........Rep
His Exciting Night, Com...........Univ
Hold That Co-ed, Com.........20th-Fox
Hold That Kiss, Com..............MGM
Home on the Prairie, West.........Rep
Homicide Bureau, Mel...............Col
Honolulu, Mus-Com................MGM
Honor of the West, West..........Univ
Hotel Imperial, Mel.................Para.
Hound of the Baskervilles, Mel...20-Fox

I

I Am a Criminal, Mel..............Mono
I Am the Law, Mel...................Col
Ice Follies of 1939, Com-Mel........MGM
I Demand Payment, Mel.........St. Rts.
Idiot's Delight, Com-Mel..........MGM
If I Were King, Mel.................Para
Illegal Traffic, Mel...................Para
I'll Give a Million, Mel.........20th-Fox
I Married a Spy, Mel.................GN
I'm From Missouri, Com...........Para
I'm From the City, Com...........RKO
In Early Arizona, West..............Col
In Old Mexico, West................Para
In Old Montana, West..........St. Rts.
Inside Story, Mel...............20th-Fox
International Crime, Mel............GN
Invitation to Happiness, Com-Mel..Para
I Stand Accused, Mel................Rep
I Take This Woman, Com-Mel....MGM
It's in the Air, Mel..............Foreign
It's Spring Again, Com..............UA
Itto, Mel..........................Foreign
Ive Got a Horse, Mel............Foreign
I Was Made a Convict, Mel.........Rep

J

Jesse James, Mel. (C)..........20th-Fox
Jones Family in Hollywood, Mel. 20th-Fox
Josette, Com. 20th-Fox
Juarez, Mel...........................WB
Just Around the Corner, Mus-Com. 20th-Fox
Juvenile Court, Mel..................Col.

K

Keep Smiling, Com.............20th-Fox
Kentucky, Mel. (C).............20th-Fox
Kentucky Moonshine, Com.....20th-Fox
Key Woman, Mel ....Univ
Kid from Kokomo, The, Mel........WB
Kid from Texas, Mel..............MGM
Kipnapped, Mel. 20th-Fox
King Kong, Mel......................RKO
King of Chinatown, Mel...........Para
King of Alcatraz, Mel...............Para
King of the Turf, Mel................UA
King of the Underworld, Mel.......WB
Knight and the Lady, Mel...........WB
Knights of the Plains, West.....St. Rts.
Kreutzer Sonata, Mel............Foreign

L

Lady and the Mob, The, Mel........Col
Lady Objects, The, Mel..............Col
Lady of Windsor, The, Mel (C)...RKO
Lady Vanishes, Mel..................GB
Land of Fighting Men, West......Mono
Last Express, Mel...................Univ
Last Frontier, The, Mel.............UA
Last Warning, The, West.........Univ
La Vierge Folle, Mel.............Foreign
Lawless Valley, West...............RKO
Law of the Texans, West............Col
Law West of Tombstone, West....RKO
Let Freedom Ring, Mus...........MGM
Letter of Introduction, Com-Mel..Univ

(Continued on following page)

[THE RELEASE CHART--INDEX CONT'D]

(Continued from preceding page)

Let Us Live, Mel....................Col
Liebe Im ¾ Takt, Com.........Foreign
Lightning Carson Rides Again, West Victory
Listen, Darling, Mel................MGM
Little Adventuress, The, Mel.........Col
Little Flower of Jesus, Mel.....Foreign
Little Miss Broadway, Mus...20th-Fox
Little Princess, The, Com. (C).20th-Fox
Little Miss Thoroughbred, Mel.....WB
Little Orphan Annie, Mel.........Para
Little Tough Guy, Mel............Univ
Little Tough Guys in Society, Mel..Univ
Little Women, Mel................RKO
Lone Star Pioneers, West...........Col
Lone Wolf Spy Hunt, Mel...........Col
Long Shot, The, Mel.................GN
Love Affair, Mel...................RKO
Love Finds Andy Hardy, Com-Mel MGM
Lucky Night, Com.................MGM

M

Made for Each Other, Com-Mel.....UA
Mad Miss Manton, Com...........RKO
Mamele, Com ....Foreign
Man About Town, Com............Para.
Man from Music Mountain, West..Rep
Man from Texas, West............Mono
Man in the Iron Mask, Mel..........UA
Man's Country, West...............Mono
Man of Conquest, Mel................Rep
Man to Remember, Mel............RKO
Man with 100 Faces, Mel............GB
Marie Antoinette, Mel............MGM
Marseillaise, Mel.................Foreign
Marusia, Mus.....................Foreign
Meet the Girls, Mel............20th-Fox
Meet the Mayor, Com...........St. Rts.
Men Are Such Fools, Com-Mel.....WB
Men With Wings, Mel. (C).......Para
Mexicali Kid, West................Mono
Mexicali Rose, West..................Rep
Midnight, Mel.........................Para
Mis Dos Amores, Mus..............Para
Missing Guest, The, Mel..........Univ.
Mr. Chump, Com....................WB
Mr. Doodle Kicks Off, Com.......RKO
Mr. Moto in Terror Island, Mel.20th-Fox
Mr. Moto's Last Warning, Mel.20th-Fox
Mr. Moto Takes a Chance, Mel.20th-Fox
Mr. Moto Takes a Vacation, Mel. 20th-Fox
Mr. Wong, Detective, Mel.........Mono
Mother Carey's Chickens, Com....RKO
Mounted Police, No. 1, Mel.........Col
My Bill, Mel..........................FN
My Lucky Star, Mus-Com.....20th-Fox
My Song of Love, Mel..........Foreign
My Son Is a Criminal, Mel..........Col
Mysterious Miss X, Mel...........Rep
Mysterious Mr. Moto, Mel.....20th-Fox
Mysterious Rider, Mel.............Para
Mystery of Mr. Wong, The, Mel..Mono

N

Nancy Drew, Detective, Mel........WB
Nancy Drew, Reporter, Mel........WB
Navy Secrets, Mel..................Mono
Never Say Die, Com...............Para
Newsboy's Home, Mel.............Univ
News Is Made at Night, Mel...20th-Fox
Next Time I Marry, Com..........RKO
Night Hawk, Mel....................Rep.
Night in Ghost Town, A, West....RKO
Night on the Danube, Com-Mel..Foreign
Night Spot Hostess, Mel...........Para
90 Degrees South, Mel...........Foreign
North of Shanghai, Mel.............Col
Numbered Woman, Mel............Mono

O

Off the Record, Com-Mel..........WB
Oklahoma Kid, Mel.................WB
Old Bones of the River, Com....Foreign
One Third of a Nation, Mel........Para
One Wild Night, Mel..........20th-Fox
On Trial, Mel.......................WB
Orage, Mel........................Foreign
Orphans of the Street, Mel.........Rep
Outside These Walls, Mel............Col
Outlaw Express, Mel...............Univ
Outlaw's Paradise, West.........St. Rts.
Out West with the Hardys, Com-Mel. MGM
Overland Express, West............Col
Overland Stage Raiders, West.......Rep
Overland with Kit Carson, West....Col
Over the Moon, Mel. (C)...........UA

P

Pacific Liner, Mel..................RKO
Painted Desert, West.............RKO
Pals of the Saddle, West............Rep
Panama Cipher, Mel..................GN
Panamint's Bad Man, West.....20th-Fox
Pardon Our Nerve, Mel.........20th-Fox
Paris Honeymoon, Mus-Com.......Para
Paroled from the Big House, Mel. St. Rts.
Passport Husband, Com........20th-Fox
Pecks Bad Boy at the Circus, Com RKO
Peg of Old Drury, Mel..........Foreign
Penny Paradise, Mel............Foreign
Penrod's Double Trouble, Mel........FN
Personal Secretary, Mel.........Univ
Persons in Hiding, Mel............Para
Phantom Gold, West.................Col
Phantom Ranger, The, West.....Mono
Phantom Stage, West..............Univ
Picardy Max, Mel..................RKO
Pioneer Trail, West..................Col
Pirates of the Skies, Mel..........Univ
Plane No. 4, Mel......................Col
Policy Man, Mel................St. Rts.
Port of Hate, Mel..............St. Rts.
Port of Seven Seas, Mel..........MGM
Prairie Justice, West..............Univ
Pride of The Navy, Mel............Rep
Pride of the West, West...........Para
Prison Break, Mel..................Univ
Prison Nurse, Mel....................Rep
Prison Train, Mel...............St. Rts.
Prison Without Bars, Mel...........UA
Professor Beware, Com............Para
Professor Steps Out, The, Com-Mel. WB
Pygmalion, Com-Mel..............MGM

R

Racket Busters, Mel................WB
Radio Troubadour, Mus............Para
Rage of Paris, Com................Univ.
Rebellious Daughters, Mel.......St. Rts.
Red River Range, West.............Rep
Reformatory, Mel.....................Col
Refugiados en Madrid, Mel......Foreign
Religious Racketeer, Mel........St. Rts.
Renegade Ranger, The, West......RKO
Restless Age, The Mel..............UA
Renfrew on the Great White Trail, West. ....GN
Return of the Frog, Mel.........Foreign
Rhythm of the Saddle, West.........Rep
Rich Man, Poor Girl, Com-Mel....MGM
Ride a Crooked Mile, Mel..........Para
Ride 'Em Cowgirl, West............GN
Riders of the Rio Grande, West..Mono
Rio Grande, West...................Col
Road Demon, Mel..............20th-Fox
Road to Reno, Com................Univ
Roaring Road, The, Mel............WB
Rollin' Plains, West.................GN
Rolling Westward, West...........Mono
Room No. 111, Mel..............Foreign
Room Service, Com.................RKO
Rose of Tralee, Mel.............Foreign
Rose of Washington Square, Mus-Com, 20th-Fox
Rothschild, Mel..................St. Rts.
Rough Rider Patrol, West..........Rep
Rough Riding Rhythm, West....St. Rts.
Royal Divorce, Mel..................Para

S

Sabotage, Mel........................Col
Sacrifice d'Honneur, Mel.........Foreign
Safety in Numbers, Com.......20th-Fox
Saint Strikes Back, Mel............RKO
St. Martin's Lane, Mel.........Foreign
St. Louis Blues, Mel...............Para
Sante Fe Stampede, West..........Rep
Say It in French, Com............Para
Scandal House, Mel............St. Rts.
Secret Service of the Air, Mel.......FN
Secrets of a Nurse, Mel...........Univ
Secrets of an Actress, Mel..........FN
Sergeant Madden, Mel............MGM
Service De Luxe, Com............Univ
Shadows Over Shanghai, Mel.......GN
Sharpshooters, Mel.............20th-Fox
Shine On Harvest Moon, West.....Rep
Shining Hour, The, Mel..........MGM
Shopworn Angel, Com-Mel.........MGM
Silver on the Sage, Mel............Para
Sing, You, Sinners, Mus...........Para
Singing Blacksmith, Com-Mel. Foreign
Singing Cowgirl, The, West.........GN
Sin of Lena Rivers, Mel.........St. Rts.
Sisters, The, Mel.....................WB
Six Gun Rhyhm, Wes..............GN
Six Gun Trail, West............St. Rts.
Six Shootin' Sheriff, West..........GN
Sky Giant, Mel.....................RKO
Sky Pirate, Mel....................Mono
Slalom, Mel.......................Foreign
Slums of New York, Mel........Foreign
Smashing the Money Ring, Mel...WB
Smashing the Rackets, Mel......RKO
Smashing the Spy Ring, Mel........Col
Song of the Buckaroo, West......Mono
Son of Frankenstein, Mel.........Univ.
Sons of the Legion, Mel............Para
South of Arizona, West.............Col
South Riding, Mel....................UA
Spawn of the North, Mel...........Para
Speed to Burn, Mel............20th-Fox
Spirit of Culver, Mel..............Univ
Spring Madness, Com-Mel........MGM
Stablemates, Com-Mel............MGM
Stagecoach, Mel......................UA
Stand Up and Fight, Com-Mel....MGM
Starlight Over Texas, West.......Mono
Star Reporter, Mel.................Mono
Stolen Life, Mel.....................Para
Storm, The, Mel....................Univ
Storm Over Bengal, Mel............Rep
Story of a Cheat, Mel...........Foreign
Story of Vernon and Irene Castle, The, Mus. ....RKO
Straight, Place and Show, Com.20th-Fox
Strange Boarders, Mel..............GB
Strange Case of Dr. Meade, Mel.....Col
Strange Faces, Com-Mel...........Univ
Street of Missing Men, Mel.........Rep
Street Without a Name, Mel....Foreign
Streets of New York, Mel.........Mono
Student Nurse, Mel..................FN
Submarine Patrol, Mel.........20th-Fox
Sudden Money, Com-Mel...........Para
Suez, Mel. 20th-Fox
Sundown on the Prairie, West.....Mono
Sunset Strip Case, Mel..............GN
Sunset Trail, West.................Para
Susannah of the Mounties, Com-Mel, 20th-Fox
Sweepstake Winner, Com............WB
Sweethearts, Mus. (C) ....MGM
Sweetheart of Sigma Chi, Mus...Mono
Swing, Sister, Swing, Mus.........Univ
Swing That Cheer, Mel............Univ
Swiss Miss, Com..................MGM

T

Tail Spin, Mel..................20th-Fox
Tarnished Angel, Mel..............RKO
Tarzan in Exile, Mel.............MGM
Tenth Avenue Kid, Mel............Rep
Terror of Tiny Town, Mel...........Col
Texans, The, Mel...................Para
Texas Stampede, West...............Col
Texas Wildcats, West...........St. Rts.
Thanks for Everything, Mus-Com. 20th-Fox
Thanks for the Memory, Com.....Para
That Certain Age, Mus-Com.......Univ
There Goes My Heart, Com.........UA
There's That Woman Again, Com..Col
The Drive by Night, Mel........Foreign
They Made Her a Spy, Mel........RKO
They Made Me a Criminal, Mel.....WB
This Man Is News, Mel...........Para
39 Steps, Mel.........................GB
Three Blind Mice, Mel..........20th-Fox
Three Loves Has Nancy, Com-Mel. MGM
Three Musketeers, Mus-Com...20th-Fox
Three on a Weekend, Mel..........GB
3 Smart Girls Grow Up, Mus-Com Univ
Three Texas Steers, West...........Rep
Thundering West, The, West.......Col
Time Out for Murder, Mel.....20th-Fox
Titans of the Deep, Mel............GN
T-Kied Koff, Mel................Foreign
Tom Sawyer, Detective, Mel.......Para
Too Hot to Handle, Com-Mel.....MGM
Topa Topa, Mel..................St. Rts.
Topper Takes a Trip, Com..........UA
Torchy Blane Runs for Mayor, Mel..WB
Torchy Gets Her Man, Mel.........WB
Torchy Blane in Chinatown, Mel...WB
To the Rescue, West.................GN
Touchdown Army, Com............Para
Tough Kid, Mel.....................Mono
Trade Winds, Com-Mel.............UA
Treasure Island, Mel..............MGM
Trigger Pals, West...................GN
Trigger Smith, West..............Mono
Tropic Holiday, Mus...............Para
12 Crowded Hours, Mel............RKO
Two Gun Justice, West............Mono
Two Gun Troubador, West.....St. Rts.

U

Under Northern Lights, Mel.......Mono
Under the Big Top, Mel..........Mono
Union Pacific, Mel...................Para
Up the River, Mel..............20th-Fox
Utah Trail, The, West...............GN

V

Vacation from Love, Com........MGM
Valley of the Giants, Mel. (C)......WB
Volga Boatman, Mel...........Foreign

W

Wanted by the Police, Mel........Mono
Ware Case, Mel..................Foreign
Water Rustlers, Mel..................GN
We Are Not Alone, Mel.............WB
Wedad, Mel. ....Foreign
We're Going to Be Rich, Mus-Com. 20th-Fox
Western Jamboree, West...........Rep
West of Cheyenne, West.............Col
West of the Sante Fe, West.........Col
When the Husband Travels, Mus-Com, Foreign
Where the Buffalo Roam, West....Mono
While New York Sleeps, Mel...20th-Fox
Whispering Enemies, Mel............Col
White Banners, Mel.................WB
Wife, Husband and Friend, Com. 20th-Fox
Wild Horse Canyon, West........Mono
Wings of the Navy, Mel............WB
Winner Take All, Mus-Com......20-Fox
Witch Night, Mel................Foreign
Wives Under Suspicion, Mel......Univ
Wizard of Oz, Mus. (C)..........MGM
Woman Doctor, Mel..................Rep
Women in the Wind, Mel...........WB
Wuthering Heights, Mel.............UA

Y

Yellow Sands, Mel.........Assoc British
Yes, Madam? Com..............Foreign
Yes, My Darling Daughter, Com...WB
You Can't Cheat an Honest Man..Univ
You Can't Take It With You, Com. Col
Young Dr. Kildare, Com-Mel......MGM
Young Fugitives, Mel..............Univ
Young in Heart, Com-Mel...........UA
Youth Takes a Fling, Com.........Univ

Z

Zaza, Mel............................Para

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

THE CHART

Productions are listed according to the names of distributors in order that the exhibitor may have a short-cut towards such information as he may need, as well as information on pictures that are coming. Features now in work or completed for release later than the date of this issue are listed under "Coming Attractions." Letter in parentheses after title denotes audience classification of production: (A) Adult, (G) General. Numerals following audience classification are production numbers. Dagger symbol indicates picture is of the 1938-39 season. Asterisk (*) after title of feature denotes first appearance of picture in Release Chart.

NOTE: The totals for running time are the official figures announced by the home offices of the distributing companies.

When a production is reviewed in Hollywood, the running time is as officially given by the West Coast studio of the company at the time of the review, and this fact is denoted by an asterisk (*) immediately preceding the number. As soon as the home office has established the running time for national release, any change from the studio figure is made and the asterisk is removed.

Running times are subject to change according to local conditions. State or city censorship deletions may cause variations from the announced and published figures; repairs to the film may be another reason.

COLUMBIA

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Adventure In Sahara (G)	Paul Kelly-Lorna Gray	Nov. 15,'38†	58	Dec. 24,'38
Blondie (G)	Penny Singleton - Arthur Lake - Larry Simms-D. Mummert	Nov. 30,'38†	72	Nov. 5,'38
California Frontier	Buck Jones-Carmen Bailey	Dec. 15,'38†	54
City Streets	Edith Fellows-Leo Carrillo	July 1,'38	68
Colorado Trail, The	Chas. Starrett-Iris Meredith	Sept. 8,'38	55
Convicted (G)	Chas. Quigley-Rita Hayworth	Aug. 18,'38	58	Sept. 3,'38
Crime Takes a Holiday (G)	Jack Holt - Marcia Ralston - Douglas Dumbrille	Oct. 5,'38†	59	May 7,'38
Flight to Fame	Chas. Farrell-Jacqueline Wells	Oct. 12,'38†	57
Frontiers of '49	Bill Elliott-Luana De Alcaniz	Jan. 19,'39†	54
(See "California Cavalcade," "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 19,'38.)
Girls' School (G)	Anne Shirley-Nan Grey-Ralph Bellamy-Noah Beery, Jr.	Sept. 30,'38	73	Sept. 24,'38
Gladiator, The (G)	Joe E. Brown-June Travis	Aug. 15,'38	72	Aug. 13,'38
Homicide Bureau	Bruce Cabot-Rita Hayworth	Jan. 5,'39†	59
I Am the Law (G)	Edw. G. Robinson-Wendy Barrie-Barbara O'Neil-John Beal	Sept. 2,'38	83	Aug. 27,'38
In Early Arizona	Bill Elliott-Dorothy Gulliver	Nov. 2,'38†	53
Juvenile Court (G)	P. Kelly-R. Hayworth-F. Darro	Sept. 15,'38	61	Sept. 24,'38
Lady Objects, The	L. Ross-G. Stuart-J. Marsh	Sept. 9,'38	61
Law of the Texan	Buck Jones-Dorothy Fay	Oct. 24,'38†	54
Little Adventuress, The (G)	Edith Fellows-Robt. Paige	Oct. 24,'38†	62	Nov. 19,'38
Lone Wolf Spy Hunt (G)	Warren William - Ida Lupino - Virginia Weidler	Jan. 27,'39†	71	Jan. 28,'39
North of Shanghai	Betty Furness-James Craig	Jan. 5,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 12,'38.)
Phantom Gold	Jack Luden-Beth Marion	Aug. 31,'38	56
Pioneer Trail	Jack Luden-Joan Barclay	July 15,'38	55
Reformatory (G)	Jack Holt-Charlotte Wynters	July 21,'38	61	June 18,'38
(Exploitation: Aug. 27,'38, p. 77.)
Rio Grande	Charles Starrett-Ann Doran	Dec. 8,'38†	59
Smashing the Spy Ring	Fay Wray-Ralph Bellamy	Dec. 29,'38†	62
(See "International Spy," "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 3,'38; exploration: Jan. 28,'39, p. 60.)
South of Arizona	Chas. Starrett-Iris Meredith	July 28,'38	56
Strange Case of Dr. Meade	J. Holt-B. Roberts-N. Beery, Jr.	Dec. 15,'38†	67	Oct. 29,'38
Terror of Tiny Town, The (G)	Billy Curtis	Dec. 1,'39†	63	July 23,'38
There's That Woman Again (G)	Melvyn Douglas-Virginia Bruce-Margaret Lindsay	Dec. 24,'38†	74	Dec. 17,'38
Thundering West, The	Chas. Starrett - Iris Meredith - Sons of the Pioneers	Jan. 12,'39†	57
West of Santa Fe	Chas. Starrett-Iris Meredith	Oct. 3,'38†	57
You Can't Take It With You (G)	Jean Arthur - Jas. Stewart - L. Barrymore-A. Miller-S. Byington-E. Arnold-M. Auer	Sept. 29,'38†	127	Aug. 27,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 24,'38, p. 64; Oct. 15,'38, p. 51; Oct. 29,'38, p. 58; Dec. 10,'38, p. 64.) Dec. 24,'38, p. 54.)

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Blondie Meets the Boss	P. Singleton-A. Lake-L. Simms	Mar. 8,'39†
First Offenders	W. Abel-B. Roberts-J. Downs	Apr. 12,'39†
First Ranger, The*	Bill Elliott-Veda Ann Borg
Lady and the Mob, The	F. Bainter-I. Lupino-L. Bowman	Apr. 3,'39†
Let Us Live	Henry Fonda - Maureen O'Sullivan - Ralph Bellamy	Feb. 28,'39†	56
Lone Star Pioneers	Bill Elliott-Dorothy Gulliver	Mar. 16,'39†
Mounted Police, No. 1	Chas. Starrett-Linda Winters	Mar. 23,'39†
My Son Is a Criminal	Alan Baxter-Jacqueline Wells	Feb. 22,'39†
Outside These Walls	D. Costello - M. Whalen - V. Weidler
Romance of the Redwoods	Jean Parker-Chas. Bickford	Mar. 2,'39†
Sabotage	Jack Holt-Katherine DeMille
Texas Stampede	Chas. Starrett-Iris Meredith	Feb. 9,'39†
Whispering Enemies (G)	Jack Holt-Dolores Costello	Mar. 24,'39†	63	Jan. 7,'39

FIRST NATIONAL
(See Warner Brothers)

GB PICTURES

(Distributed in part by 20th Century-Fox)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Always in Trouble (G) 8012	Jessie Matthews-Michael Redgrave-Noel Madison	Dec. 1,'38†	79	Dec. 17,'38
(Reviewed under the title, "Climbing High.")
Crashing Through 327	James Newill	Jan. 20,'39†
Evergreen (reissue) (G) 8005	Jessie Matthews-Barry Mackey	July 15,'38†	81	June 23,'34
Exile Express 301	Anna Sten-Alan Marshall-Jerome Cowan-Jed Prouty	Jan. 20,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," (Dec. 10,'38.)
Frog, The 8011	Noah Beery-Gordon Harker	Nov. 15,'38†	78
Lady Vanishes, The (A)	Margaret Lockwood-Paul Lukas-Michael Redgrave-Dame May Whitty	Nov. 1,'38†	78	Sept. 3,'38
Man With 100 Faces (G) 8008	Lilli Palmer-Noel Madison	Oct. 1,'38†	72	Nov. 12,'38
Ride 'Em Cowgirl WI-2	Dorothy Page	Jan. 20,'39†
Strange Boarders (A) 8006	Tom Walls-Renee Saint Cyr	Aug. 1,'38†	73	Nov. 26,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 28,'39, p. 58.)
Thirty-Nine Steps, The (re-issue) (G) 8009	Robt. Donat-Madeleine Carroll	Sept. 15,'38†	81	July 6,'35
Three on a Weekend (G) 8004	John Lodge-Margaret Lockwood	July 1,'38†	72	Mar. 26,'38
(Reviewed under the title, "Bank Holiday.")

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Empty World	Nova Pilbeam
Girl Must Live, A	Lilli Palmer-Marget Lockwood

GRAND NATIONAL

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Cipher Bureau (G) 312	Leon Ames-Joan Woodbury	Nov. 4,'38†	70	Oct. 22,'38
Frontier Scout (G) 325	George Houston-Beth Marion	Oct. 21,'38†	*62	Sept. 17,'38
High Command 227	Lionel Atwill-Lucy Mannheim	July 15,'38	59
I Married a Spy 225	Neil Hamilton-Brigitte Horney	July 1,'38	59
Long Shot, The (G) 313	Marsha Hunt-Gordon Jones	Jan. 6,'39†	69	Dec. 31,'38
Renfrew of the Great White Trail 228	James Newill-Terry Walker	July 22,'38	59
Ride 'Em Cowgirl (G) WI-2	Dorothy Page	Jan. 20,'39†	52	Jan. 21,'39
Rollin' Plains 226	Tex Ritter-Harriet Spencer	July 8,'38	57
Shadows Over Shanghai (G) 311	James Dunn-Ralph Morgan	Oct. 14,'38†	65	Sept. 17,'38
Sunset Murder Case 345	Sally Rand	Nov. 11,'38†	57
Titans of the Deep (G) 326	Dr. Wm. Beebe	Oct. 28,'38†	48	Nov. 19,'38
Trigger Pals (G) WI-13	Art Jarrett, Lee Powell-Al St. John	Jan. 13,'39†	55	Jan. 21,'39
Utah Trail, The 229	Tex Ritter-Adele Pearce	Aug. 12,'38
(See "In the Cutting Room," July 2,'38.)
Water Rustlers WI-1	Dave O'Brien-Dorothy Page	Jan. 6,'39†	54

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Empire of the West	George Houston
Panama Cipher	Leon Ames-Charlotte Winters
Singing Cowgirl	Dorothy Page
Six Gun Rhythm	Tex Fletcher- Joan Barclay
To the Rescue 328	James Newill	Feb. 10,'39†

METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Blockheads (G) 844	Laurel & Hardy-Patricia Ellis-Billy Gilbert	Aug. 19,'38	57	Aug. 20,'38
Boys Town (G) 902	S. Tracy-M. Rooney-H. Hull	Sept. 9,'38†	93	Sept. 10,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 1,'38, pp. 55, 56; Oct. 22,'37, p. 64; Nov. 5,'38, p. 53; Nov. 12,'38, p. 68; Nov. 19,'38, pp. 92, 93; Dec. 3,'38, p. 50; Dec. 17,'38, pp. 74, 76; Dec. 24,'38, p. 57.)
Burn 'Em Up O'Connor (G) (919)	Dennis O'Keefe-Cecilia Parker-Harry Carey-Nat Pendleton	Jan. 13,'39†	70	Jan. 14,'39
Chaser, The (G) 842	D. O'Keefe-A. Morriss-L. Stone	July 29,'38	75	July 30,'38
Christmas Carol, A (G) 917	Terry Kilburn-Reginald Owen-Lynne Carver-Ann Rutherford	Dec. 16,'38†	69	Dec. 17,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 7,'39, p. 53; Jan. 21,'39, p. 54.)
Citadel, The (A) 909	Robert Donat-Rosalind Russell	Oct. 28,'38†	112	Oct. 29,'38
(Exploitation: Nov. 12,'38, p. 66; Dec. 10,'38, p. 62.)
Crowd Roars, The (G) 846	Robert Taylor - M. O'Sullivan - Frank Morgan-Lionel Stander	Aug. 5,'38	92	Aug. 6,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 3,'38, p. 60; Sept. 10,'38, pp. 102, 105; Sept. 17,'38, p. 62; Oct. 1,'38, p. 53; Oct. 15,'38, p. 54; Nov. 5,'38, p. 51.)

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Dramatic School (G) 915	Luise Rainer-Paulette Goddard-Alan Marshal - Ann Rutherford - Lana Turner	Dec. 9,'38†	80	Dec. 10,'38
Fast Company (G) 839	Melvyn Douglas-Florence Rice-Claire Dodd-Nat Pendleton	July 8,'38	74	July 2,'38
Flirting with Fate (G) 914	Joe E. Brown-Leo Carrillo	Dec. 2,'38†	70	Dec. 3,'38
Four Girls in White 921	Florence Rice-Kent Taylor-Ann Rutherford	Jan. 27,'39†	73
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 14,'39.)
Girl Downstairs, The (G) 916	Franchot Tone-Franciska Gaal-R. Gardner-W. Connolly	Dec. 23,'38†	77	Dec. 24,'38
Great Waltz, The (G) 908	Luise Rainer-Fernand Gravet-Miliza Korjus	Nov. 4,'38†	104	Nov. 5,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 1,'38, p. 57; Nov. 12,'38, p. 69; Nov. 19,'38, p. 94; Dec. 17,'38, pp. 72, 74; Dec. 24,'38, pp. 55, 56; Dec. 31,'38, p. 66; Jan. 7,'39, p. 50.)
Honolulu 922	Eleanor Powell-Robert Young-Burns and Allen	Feb. 3,'39†	84
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 10,'38.)
Idiot's Delight (A) 920	Norma Shearer - Clark Gable - Edw. Arnold-Burgess Meredith	Jan. 27,'39†	109	Jan. 28,'39
Listen, Darling (G) 904	F. Bartholomew-Judy Garland-Mary Astor-Walter Pidgeon	Oct. 21,'38†	75	Oct. 22,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 3,'38, p. 61; Sept. 10,'38, p. 102; Sept. 17,'38, p. 61.)
Love Finds Andy Hardy (G) 841	Mickey Rooney - Judy Garland-Lewis Stone-Cecilia Parker	July 22,'38	91	July 16,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 3,'38, p. 59; Jan. 21,'39, p. 53.)
Marie Antoinette (A) 845	Norma Shearer - Tyrone Power - J. Barrymore - Robt. Morley - Anita Louise-Gladys George	Aug. 26,'38	157	July 16,'38
(See production article, Mar. 26,'38, p. 16; exploitation: Sept. 10,'38, p. 98; Oct. 8,'38, p. 60; Oct. 22,'38, p. 66; Nov. 5,'38, p. 53.)
Out West with the Hardys (G) 913	Lewis Stone - Mickey Rooney - Cecilia Parker-Fay Holden	Nov. 25,'38†	85	Nov. 26,'38
Port of Seven Seas (A) 829	Wallace Beery-M. O'Sullivan-Frank Morgan-John Beal	July 7,'38	81	Apr. 9,'38
Rich Man, Poor Girl (G) 843	Robert Young - Ruth Hussey - Guy Kibbee-Lew Ayres	Aug. 12,'38	72	Aug. 13,'38
Shining Hour, The (A) 912	Joan Crawford-Margaret Sullavan - Melvyn Douglas - Robert Young-Fay Bainter	Nov. 18,'38†	76	Nov. 19,'38
Shopworn Angel (G) 835	Margaret Sullavan-Jas. Stewart-Walter Pidgeon-Alan Curtis	July 15,'38	85	July 9,'38
Spring Madness (G) 911	Lew Ayres - Burgess Meredith - Maureen O'Sullivan	Nov. 11,'38†	67	Nov. 12,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 17,'38, pp. 72, 74; Jan. 7,'39, p. 52.)
Stablemates (G) 906	Wallace Beery-Mickey Rooney	Oct. 7,'38†	89	Oct. 8,'38
(Exploitation: Nov. 26,'38, p. 47.)
Stand Up and Fight (G) 918	Robt. Taylor - Wallace Beery - Florence Rice - Helen Broderick - Barton MacLane	Jan. 6,'39†	97	Jan. 7, 39
(Exploitation: Jan. 21,'39, p. 52; Jan. 28,'39, p. 60.)
Sweethearts (G) 910	Jeanette MacDonald - Nelson Eddy - Florence Rice - Frank Morgan - Mischa Auer	Dec. 30,'38†	114	Dec. 24,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 31,'38, p. 66; Jan. 21,'39, p. 54.)
Three Loves Has Nancy (A) 901	Janet Gaynor - R. Montgomery - Franchot Tone	Sept. 2,'38†	69	Sept. 3,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 1,'38, p. 53.)
Too Hot to Handle (G) 903	Clark Gable - Myrna Loy - Walter Pidgeon-Leo Carrillo	Sept. 10,'38†	106	Sept. 17,'38
(Exploitation: Nov. 12,'38, p. 66; Nov. 19,'38, p. 93; Dec. 3,'38, p. 48; Dec. 10,'38, p. 63; Jan. 21,'39, p. 53.)
Vacation from Love (G) 905	Dennis O'Keefe-Florence Rice	Sept. 30,'38†	65	Oct. 8,'38
Young Dr. Kildare (G) 907	Lew Ayres-Lionel Barrymore	Oct. 14,'38†	81	Oct. 15,'38

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, The	Mickey Rooney - Walter Connolly - Lynne Carver - Rex Ingram	Feb. 10,'39†
(See "Huckleberry Finn," "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 24,'38.)
Broadway Serenade	Jeanette MacDonald-Lew Ayres-Ian Hunter	Mar. 31,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
David Copperfield (reissue) (G) 533	F. Bartholomew-W. C. Fields-Maureen O'Sullivan - Lionel Barrymore-Madge Evans		33	Jan. 19,'35
Fast and Loose	Robt. Montgomery-R. Russell	Feb. 17,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 28,'39.)
Goodbye, Mr. Chips	Robert Donat-Greer Garson
Hardys Ride High, The	M. Rooney-L. Stone-F. Holden-C. Parker-A. Rutherford
Ice Follies of 1939	Original Ice Follies Cast—Joan Crawford-James Stewart-Lew Ayres	Mar. 3,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 24,'38.)
I Take This Woman	Spencer Tracy - Hedy LaMarr - Walter Pidgeon	Apr. 7,'39†
Kid from Texas, The*	Dennis O'Keefe-Ruth Hussey	Mar. 24,'39†
Let Freedom Ring	N. Eddy - V. Bruce - L. Barrymore-E. Arnold-G. Kibbee-V. McLaglen	Fab. 24,'39†
(See "Song of the West," "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 14,'39.)
Lucky Night	Robert Taylor-Myrna Loy	Apr. 21,'39†
Pygmalion (A)	Leslie Howard-Wendy Hiller		87	Sept. 10,'38
Sergeant Madden	Wallace Beery-Marian Martin-Alan Curtis-Laraine Johnson	Mar. 17,'39†
Tarzan in Exile	J. Weismuller-M. O'Sullivan
Treasure Island (reissue) (G) 403	Wallace Beery-J. Cooper		103	July 14,'34
Wizard of Oz	Judy Garland - Frank Morgan - R. Bolger-B. Lahr-B. Burke
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 3,'38.)

MONOGRAM

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Barefoot Boy (G) 3810	Jackie Moran-Claire Windsor-Marcia Mae Jones-R. Morgan	Aug. 3,'38†	63	Sept. 3,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 29,'38, p. 57.)
Convict's Code 3822	R. Kent-A. Nagel-S. Blackmer	Jan. 18,'39†
(See "Paroled to Exile," "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
Drifting Westward 3853	Jack Randall-Edna Duran	Jan. 25,'39†
Gang Bullets (G) 3818	Anne Nagel-Robert Kent	Nov. 16,'38†	63	Dec. 10,'38
Gangster's Boy (G) 3801	Jackie Cooper	Nov. 16,'38†	80	Nov. 12,'38
Gun Packer 3851	Jack Randall	Nov. 9,'38†	49
I Am a Criminal (G) 3812	John Carroll-Mary Kornman	Dec. 7,'38†	73	Dec. 10,'38
Man's Country 3742	Jack Randall	July 6,'38	55
(See "In the Cutting Room," June 4,'38.)
Mexicali Kid (G) 3741	Jack Randall	Sept. 14,'38	51	Sept. 10,'38
Mr. Wong, Detective (G) 3804	Boris Karloff-Evelyn Brent	Oct. 5,'38†	69	Oct. 1,'38
Navy Secrets	Fay Wray-Grant Withers	Feb. 1,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 7,'39.)
Song of the Buckaroo (G) 3861	Tex Ritter-Jinx Falkenberg	Dec. 7,'38†	56	Jan. 14,'39
Starlight Over Texas (G) 3859	Tex Ritter-Carmen LaRoux	Sept. 7,'38†	56	Sept. 24,'38
Sweetheart of Sigma Chi (re-issue) (G) 3827	Mary Carlisle - Betty Grable - Larry Crabbe-Leif Erikson	Oct. 10,'38†	65	Oct. 14,'38
Tough Kid (G) 3819	F. Darro-D. Purcell-J. Allen	Dec. 28,'38†	59	Jan. 7,'39
Under the Big Top (G) 3811	M. Main-A. Nagel-J. La Rue	Aug. 31,'38†	63	Sept. 17,'38
Wanted by Police (G) 3817	F. Darro-E. Knapp-R. Kent	Sept. 21,'38†	59	Sept. 24,'38
Where the Buffalo Roam (G) 3860	Tex Ritter-Dorothy Short	Oct. 12,'38†	62	Oct. 29,'38
Wild Horse Canyon (G) 3852	Jack Randall-Dorothy Short	Dec. 21,'38†	50	Jan. 7,'39

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Boy's Reformatory	Frankie Darro	Apr. 5,'39†
Criminal Investigator		Mar. 29,'39†
Man from Texas 3864	Tex Ritter	Apr. 19,'39†
Mystery of Mr. Wong, The	Boris Karloff-Dorothy Tree	Mar. 1,'39†
Riders of the Rio Grande 3855	Jack Randall	Apr. 30,'39†
Rolling Westward 3863	Tex Ritter	Mar. 1,'39†
Sky Pirate	John Trent-Marjorie Reynolds	Mar. 8,'39†
Star Reporter	Warren Hull-Marsha Hunt	Feb. 22,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 28,'39.)
Streets of New York	Jackie Cooper	Mar. 29,'39†
Sundown on the Prairie 3862	Tex Ritter	Feb. 8,'39†
Trigger Smith 3854	Jack Randall	Mar. 15,'39†
Under Northern Lights	Movita	Apr. 12,'39†

PARAMOUNT

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Ambush (G)	Gladys Swarthout-Lloyd Nolan	Jan. 20,'39†	*65	Jan. 21,'39
Arkansas Traveler (G) 3806	B. Burns-J. Parker-F. Bainter-Irvin S. Cobb-J. Beal	Oct. 14,'38†	83	Oct. 8,'38
(Exploitation: Aug. 27,'38, p. 79; Sept. 10,'38, p. 105; Oct. 15,'38, p. 54.)
Arrest Bulldog Drummond (G)	John Howard-Heather Angel	Nov. 25,'38†	60	Jan. 21,'39
Artists and Models Abroad (G)	Jack Benny-Joan Bennett-Yacht Club Boys-Mary Boland	Dec. 30,'38†	90	Oct. 29,'38
Booloo (G) 3745	Colin Tapley-Suratna Asmaka	July 2,'38	61	July 23,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 10,'38, p. 99; Nov. 12,'38, p. 69.)
Bulldog Drummond in Africa (G) 3747	J. Howard - H. Angel - H. B. Warner	Aug. 5,'38	60	July 30,'38
Campus Confessions (G) 3802	Hank Luisetti - Betty Grable - Eleanore Whitney	Sept. 23,'38†	65	Sept. 17,'38
Disbarred (G) 3818	Gail Patrick - Otto Kruger - Robert Preston	Jan. 1,'39†	60	Jan. 14,'39
Frontiersman (G) 3856	Wm. Boyd-R. Hayden-G. Hayes	Dec. 16,'38†	74	Nov. 26,'38
Give Me a Sailor (G) 3749	Martha Raye-Bob Hope-Betty Grable-Jack Whiting	Aug. 19,'38	80	July 30,'38
(Exploitation: July 9,'38, p. 46; Oct. 15,'38, p. 51; Oct. 29,'38, p. 57.)
If I Were King (A)	Ronald Colman - Frances Dee - Basil Rathbone-Ellen Drew	Nov. 11,'38†	100	Sept. 17,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 17,'38, p. 73; Jan. 14,'39, p. 65.)
Illegal Traffic (G) 3809	J. Carroll Naish-Mary Carlisle	Nov. 4,'38†	67	Nov. 5,'38
In Old Mexico (G) 3855	William Boyd-George Hayes	Sept. 9,'38†	62	Aug. 6,'38
King of Alcatraz (A) 3804	Lloyd Nolan - Gail Patrick - J. Carroll Naish	Sept. 30,'38†	58	Oct. 1,'38
Little Orphan Annie (G) 3814	Ann Gillis - Robert Kent - June Travis	Dec. 2,'38†	58	Dec. 3,'38
Men With Wings (G)	Fred MacMurray-Ray Milland-Louise Campbell-Andy Devine	Oct. '38†specl.	105	Oct. 29,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 29,'38, p. 56; Nov. 26,'38, p. 49; Dec. 10,'38, p. 62; Dec. 31,'38, pp. 64, 66.)
Mysterious Rider (G) 3807	Russell Hayden - Weldon Heyburn - Charlotte Fields	Oct. 21,'38†	90	Sept. 24,'38
Paris Honeymoon (G) 3821	Bing Crosby - Franciska Gaal - E. E. Horton-Shirley Ross-Akim Tamiroff	Jan. 27,'39†	85	Dec. 17,'38
Pride of the West (G) 3854	William Boyd-Charlotte Fields	July 8,'38	55	June 25,'38
Professor Beware (G) 3746	Harold Lloyd - Phyllis Welch - R. Walburn - L. Stander	July 29,'38	87	July 16,'38
(See production article, Feb. 19,'38, p. 16; Sept. 17,'38, p. 63.)

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Ride a Crooked Mile (G) 3815	Akim Tamiroff-Frances Farmer-Leif Erikson	Dec. 9,'38†	78	Dec. 3,'38
St. Louis Blues (G)	L. Nolan-D. Lamour-T. Gulzar	Feb. 3,'39†	*90	Jan. 28,'39
Say It in French (G)	Olympe Bradna-Ray Milland	Nov. 25,'38†	70	Nov. 26,'38
Sing, You Sinners (G) 3801	Bing Crosby-Fred MacMurray-Ellen Drew-Donald O'Connor	Sept. 2,'38†	88	Aug. 13,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 7,'39, p. 53.)
Sons of the Legion (G) 3803	Donald O'Connor - Billy Lee - Lynne Overman-Eliz. Patterson-William Frawley	Sept. 16,'38†	60	Sept. 17,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 24,'38, p. 65.)
Spawn of the North (G) 3750	George Raft - Dorothy Lamour - H. Fonda - A. Tamiroff - J. Barrymore - Louise Platt	Aug. 26,'38	110	Aug. 20,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 15,'38, p. 50; Nov. 12,'38, p. 65.)
Texans, The (G) 3748	Randolph Scott - Joan Bennett - M. Robson - W. Brennan - R. Cummings	Aug. 12,'38	90	July 23,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 3,'38, pp. 59, 60; Set. 17,'38, p. 64.)
Thanks for the Memory (G)	B. Hope-S. Ross-C. Butterworth	Nov. 18,'38†	75	Nov. 12,'38
Tom Sawyer, Detective (G) 3811	Donald O'Connor - Robt. Kent - June Travis	Dec. 23,'38†	68	Dec. 24,'38
Touchdown Army (G) 3805	Mary Carlisle-John Howard	Oct. 7,'38†	70	Sept. 24,'38
Tropic Holiday (G) 3744	Dorothy Lamour-Ray Milland-Bob Burns-Martha Raye	July 1,'38	75	June 25,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 24,'38, p. 64; Nov. 5,'38, p. 53; Dec. 24,'38, p. 57.)
Zaza (A) 3819	C. Colbert-H. Marshall-B. Lahr	Jan. 13,'39†	86	Jan. 7,'39

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Arizona Bracelets	W. Boyd-R. Hayden-G. Hayes
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
Back Door to Heaven	Patricia Ellis-Wallace Ford	Apr. 14,'39†
Beachcomber, The (A)	Chas. Laughton-Elsa Lanchester	Mar. 10,'39†	88	Nov. 26,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 14,'39, p. 65.)
Beau Geste	Gary Cooper - Ray Milland - Robert Preston-Brian Donlevy-Donald O'Connor
Boy Trouble*	Charles Ruggles-Mary Boland	Feb. 17,'39†
Bulldog Drummond's Secret Police	John Howard-Heather Angel	Apr. 21,'39†
Cafe Society	Fred MacMurray - Madeleine Carroll - Shirley Ross	Mar. 3,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 24,'38.)
Campus Dormitory	Betty Grable-William Henry
Federal Offense	L. Nolan-J. C. Naish-H. Angel
Gambler and the Lady, The	George Raft-Ellen Drew-Hugh Herbert-Zasu Pitts
Gracie Allen Murder Case*	Gracie Allen-Warren William-Kent Taylor-Ellen Drew
Grand Jury's Secrets	John Howard-Gail Patrick
Heritage of the Desert	Evelyn Venable-Donald Woods
Hotel Imperial	Isa Miranda-Ray Milland	Mar. 24,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
I'm from Missouri	Bob Burns-Gladys George	Apr. 7,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
Invitation to Happiness	Irene Dunne-Fred MacMurray-Donald O'Connor-C. Ruggles
King of Chinatown	Anna May Wong-Lloyd Nolan	Mar. 17,'39†
Man About Town	J. Benny-D. Lamour-E. Arnold	May 26,'39†
Midnight	Claudette Colbert-Don Ameche-Francis Lederer - John Barrymore - Mary Astor	May 12,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 28,'39.)
Never Say Die	Bob Hope-Martha Raye	Mar. 31,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
Night Spot Hostess	Buck Jones-Helen Twelvetrees
(See "Me and My Gal," "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
One Third of a Nation	Sylvia Sidney-Leif Erikson	Feb. 24,'39†
Persons in Hiding (G)	L. Overman-Patricia Morrison	Feb. 10,'39†	*60	Jan. 28,'39
Silver on the Sage	Wm. Boyd-Geo. Hayes	Mar. 31,'39†
Stolen Life*	Elizabeth Bergner	Apr. 21,'39†
Sudden Money	B. Lee-M. Rambeau-C. Ruggles	Mar. 31,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
Sunset Trail (G) 3857	Wm. Boyd-R. Hayden-G. Hayes	Feb. 24,'39†	68	Oct. 22,'38
Union Pacific	Joel McCrea-Barbara Stanwyck-Akim Tamiroff-Robt. Preston	Apr. 28,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 17,'38.)

REPUBLIC

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Army Girl (G) 7002	Preston Foster - Madge Evans - Neil Hamilton-Ruth Donnelly	July 15,'38	88	July 16,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 7,'39, p. 52.)
Billy the Kid Returns 851	Roy Rogers - Mary Hart - Smiley Burnette	Sept. 4,'38†	56	Sept. 24,'38
Come On, Leathernecks (G) 7024	Richard Cromwell-Marsha Hunt-Bruce MacFarlane	Aug. 8,'38	65	Aug. 27,'38
Come on Rangers! (G) 818	Roy Rogers-Mary Hart	Nov. 25,'38†	57	Nov. 26,'38
Desperate Adventure, A (G) 7013	Ramon Novarro - Margt. Tallichet-Marian Marsh-E. Blore	Aug. 15,'38	65	July 30,'38
Down in "Arkansaw" (G) 805	Ralph Byrd - Weaver Bros. - Elviry - Pinky Tomlin	Oct. 8,'38†	66	Oct. 1,'38
Durango Valley Raiders 7128	Bob Steele-Louise Stanley	Aug. 22,'38	55
Federal Man Hunt (G) 820	Robt. Livingston-June Travis	Dec. 26,'38†	64	Jan. 14,'38
Fighting Thoroughbreds (G) 821	R. Byrd-M. Carlisle-R. Allen	Jan. 6,'39†	65	Jan. 21,'39
Gold Mine in the Sky (G) 7103	Gene Autry - Carol Hughes - Smiley Burnette	July 4,'38	60	July 16,'38
Heroes of the Hills (G) 7118	Three Mesquiteers-P. Lawson	Aug. 1,'38	56	Aug. 6,'38
Higgins Family, The (G) 7014	Gleasons, James-Lucille-Russell	Aug. 29,'38	64	Sept. 10,'38
Home on the Prairie	Gene Autry-Smiley Burnette	Feb. 3,'39†	58
(See "Ridin' the Range," "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 7,'39.)
I Stand Accused (G) 806	R. Cummings - H. Mack - L. Talbot - T. Beck	Oct. 29,'38†	63	Oct. 22,'38
Man from Music Mountain (G) 7104	Gene Autry - Smiley Burnette - Carol Hughes	Aug. 15,'38	58	Aug. 13,'38
Mysterious Miss X (G) 809	M. Whalen-M. Hart-C. Chandler	Jan. 10,'39†	65	Jan. 14,'39
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 24,'38.)
Night Hawk, The (G) 817	Robt. Livingston-June Travis-Robert Armstrong	Oct. 1,'38†	63	Sept. 24,'38
Orphans of the Street (G) 819	Robt. Livingston-June Storey-Tommy Ryan	Dec. 5,'38†	64	Dec. 17,'38
Overland Stage Raiders (G) 862	Three Mesquiteers-Louise Brooks	Sept. 20,'38†	55	Oct. 1,'38
Pals of the Saddle (G) 861	Three Mesquiteers - Doreen McKay	Aug. 28,'38†	55	Sept. 24,'38
Prairie Moon 7107	Gene Autry - Shirley Deane - Smiley Burnette	Oct. 7,'38	58
Pride of the Navy (G) 822	J. Dunn-R. Hudson-G. Oliver	Jan. 23,'39†	65	Jan. 21,'39
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
Red River Range 864	3 Mesquiteers - Lorna Gray - Polly Moran	Dec. 22,'38†	56
(See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 19,'38.)
Rhythm of the Saddle (G) 7108	Gene Autry-Smiley Burnette	Nov. 5,'38†	58	Nov. 12,'38
Santa Fe Stampede (G) 863	Three Mesquiteers-June Martel	Nov. 18,'38†	56	Dec. 10,'38
Shine On Harvest Moon 852	Roy Rogers-Mary Hart	Dec. 23,'38†	57
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 3,'38.)
Storm Over Bengal (G) 807	Patric Knowles - Richard Cromwell-Rochelle Hudson	Nov. 14,'38†	65	Nov. 12,'38
Tenth Avenue Kid (G) 7025	Bruce Cabot-Beverly Roberts	Aug. 22,'38	65	Sept. 3,'38
Western Jamboree (G) 841	Gene Autry - Smiley Burnette - Jean Rouverol	Dec. 2,'38†	56	Dec. 24,'38

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Flight at Midnight	Col. Roscoe Turner
Forged Passport	P. Kelly-L. Talbot-J. Lang	Feb. 15,'39†
Higgins Family, No. 2	Gleasons, Jas., Lucille, Russell
I Was a Convict	Barton MacLane-Beverly Roberts
Mexicali Rose	Gene Autry-Smiley Burnette
Man of Conquest	Richard Dix-Gail Patrick-Edward Ellis-Max Terhune
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 28,'39.)
Rough Rider Patrol	Roy Rogers-Mary Hart
Street of Missing Men	Charles Bickford
Three Texas Steers	Three Mesquiteers
Woman Doctor	Frieda Inescort-Henry Wilcoxon-Claire Dodd-Sybil Jason	Feb. 6,'39†	65
(See "Dr. Judith Randall," "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 7,'39.)

RKO RADIO

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Affairs of Annabel, The (G) 902	Jack Oakie-L. Ball-R. Donnelly	Sept. 9,'38†	68	July 16,'38
Annabel Takes a Tour (G) 908	Jack Oakie-L. Ball-R. Donnelly	Nov. 11,'38†	67	Oct. 22,'38
Arizona Legion (G)	George O'Brien-Laraine Johnson	Jan. 20,'39†	58	Jan. 14,'39
Border G-Man (G) 882	George O'Brien-Ray Whitley	June 24,'38	60	June 18,'38
Breaking the Ice (G) 845	Bobby Breen - Irene Dare - D. Costello - Chas. Ruggles	Aug. 26,'38	82	Aug. 27,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 29,'38, p. 58.)
Carefree 837 (G)	Fred Astaire - Ginger Rogers - Ralph Bellamy	Sept. 2,'38	83	Sept. 3,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 17,'38, p. 60; Oct. 1,'38, p. 54; Oct. 8,'38, pp. 62, 64.)
Crime Ring (G) 836	Allan Lane-Frances Mercer	July 8,'38	70	July 30,'38
Fisherman's Wharf (G)	B. Breen-H. Armetta-L. Carrillo	Feb. 3,'39†	*70	Jan. 28,'39
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 10,'38.)
Fugitives for a Night (G) 903	F. Albertson-E. Lynn-A. Ames	Sept. 23,'38†	63	Aug. 27,'38
Great Man Votes, The (G) 913	John Barrymore - Katharine Alexander - Peter Holden - Virginia Weidler	Jan. 13,'39†	72	Jan. 14,'39
Gunga Din (G) 912	Cary Grant - Victor McLaglen - D. Fairbanks, Jr.-J. Fontaine	Jan. 27,'39†	*135	Jan. 28,'39
Having Wonderful Time (A) 819	Ginger Rogers - D. Fairbanks, Jr.-Lucille Ball-Peg. Conklin	July 1,'38	70	June 18,'38
(Exploitation: July 23,'38, p. 67; Aug. 6,'38, p. 77; Sept. 3,'38, p. 63; Sept. 17,'38, p. 63; Sept. 24,'38, p. 65; Oct. 1,'38, p. 53; Oct. 15,'38, p. 54; Nov. 12,'38, p. 68; Nov. 26,'38, p. 49; Dec. 17,'38, p. 74.)
I'm from the City (G) 834	Joe Penner-Kay Sutton	Aug. 5,'38	66	July 30,'38
Lawless Valley (G) 981	George O'Brien-Kay Sutton	Nov. 4,'38†	59	Nov. 5,'38
Law West of Tombstone, The (G) 909	Jean Rouverol-Harry Carey-Tim Holt-Evelyn Brent	Nov. 18,'38†	73	Nov. 19,'38
(See "In the Cutting Room," Oct. 8,'38.)
Little Women (re-issue) 871	K. Hepburn - Joan Bennett - P. Lukas-F. Dee-J. Parker	July 8,'38	107	Nov. 11,'33
Mad Miss Manton (G) 906	Barbara Stanwyck-Henry Fonda-Frances Mercer - Whitney Bourne	Oct. 21,'38†	80	Oct. 15,'38
(Exploitation: Nov. 12,'38, p. 64.)
Man to Remember, A (G) 905	Anne Shirley-Lee Bowman-Edward Ellis	Oct. 14,'38†	79	Oct. 1,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 10,'38, p. 64.)

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Mother Carey's Chickens (G) 833	Ruby Keeler - Anne Shirley - J. Ellison-F. Bainter-R. Morgan	July 15,'38	82	July 30,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 3,'38, p. 59.)
Mr. Doodle Kicks Off (G) 904	J. Penner-J. Travis-R. Lane	Oct. 7,'38†	76	Sept. 24,'38
Next Time I Marry (G) 910	Lucille Ball-James Ellison	Dec. 9,'38†	65	Dec. 10,'38
Pacific Liner (G) 914	Victor McLaglen-Chester Morris-Wendy Barrie	Jan. 6,'39†	75	Dec. 31,'38
Painted Desert (G) 883	George O'Brien-Ray Whitley	Aug. 12,'38	59	Aug. 6,'38
Peck's Bad Boy with the Circus (G) 948	Tommy Kelly-Ann Gillis-Edgar Kennedy-Spanky MacFarland	Nov. 25,'38†	68	Nov. 26,'38
Renegade Ranger, The 884	George O'Brien-Rita Hayworth-Ray Whitley	Sept. 16,'38	59
(See "In the Cutting Room," Aug. 20,'38.)
Room Service (G) 901	Marx Brothers - Ann Miller - Lucille Ball-F. Albertson	Sept. 30,'38†	78	Sept. 10,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 8,'38, p. 64; Oct. 22,'38, p. 66; Nov. 5,'38, p. 50; Nov. 26,'38, p. 48; Dec. 3,'38, p. 50; Dec. 10,'38, p. 63.)
Sky Giant (G) 835	Richard Dix - Chester Morris - Joan Fontaine	July 29,'38	80	July 23,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 17,'38, pp. 61, 62.)
Smashing the Rackets (G) 832	C. Morris-F. Mercer-R. Johnson	Aug. 19,'38	69	Aug. 20,'38
Tarnished Angel (G) 907	S. Eilers-A. Miller-L. Bowman	Oct. 28,'38†	68	Oct. 29,'38

Coming Attractions

Beauty for the Asking (G)	L. Ball-D. Woods-F. Mercer	Feb. 24,'39†	68	Jan. 28,'39
Boy Slaves 911 (G)	Anne Shirley-Roger Daniel	Feb. 10,'39†	72	Jan. 14,'39
(See "Pure in Mind," "In the Cutting Room," Oct. 29,'38.)
Flying Irishman, The	Douglas Corrigan-Paul Kelly-Robert Armstrong	Mar. 17,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 24,'38.)
Knight in Ghost Town, A	G. O'Brien-R. Keith-R. Whitley
Lady of Windsor, The (G)	Anna Neagle-Anton Walbrook-C. Aubrey Smith		95	Oct. 29,'38
(Reviewed under the title, "Sixty Glorious Years.")
Love Affair	I. Dunne-C. Boyer-L. Bowman	Feb. 17,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 5,'38.)
Picardy Max	James Ellison-Helen Wood
Saint Strikes Back, The	George Sanders-Wendy Barrie	Mar. 10,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 14,'39.)
Story of Vernon and Irene Castle, The	Fred Astaire - Ginger Rogers - Edna Mae Oliver - Walter Brennan	Apr. 7,'39†
(See "The Romantic Vernon Castle," "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 17,'38.)
They Made Her a Spy	Sally Eilers-Allan Lane
Twelve Crowded Hours	Richard Dix-Lucille Ball	Mar. 3,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)

TWENTIETH CENTURY-FOX

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Alexander's Ragtime Band (G) 903	T. Power-A. Faye-D. Ameche	Aug. 19,'38†	106	May 28,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 3,'38, p. 60; Sept. 10,'38, p. 99; Oct. 1,'38, p. 52; Oct. 8,'38, p. 64; Nov. 12,'38, p. 69; Nov. 19,'38, p. 92; Nov. 26,'38, p. 47; Jan. 7,'39, p. 52.)
Always Goodbye (A) 852	Barbara Stanwyck-H. Marshall-Binnie Barnes-Ian Hunter	July 1,'38	75	July 2,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 29,'38, p. 56.)
Always in Trouble (G) 914	J. Withers-R. Kellard-J. Rogers	Oct. 28,'38†	69	Aug. 20,'38
Arizona Wildcat, The (G) 929	Jane Withers - Leo Carrillo - Pauline Moore - H. Wilcoxon	Feb. 3,'39†	69	Nov. 19,'38
Charlie Chan in Honolulu (G) 928	Sidney Toler-Phyllis Brooks	Jan. 20,'39†	68	Dec. 24,'38
Down on the Farm (G) 920	Jed Prouty - Spring Byington - Louise Fazenda	Dec. 16,'38†	61	Oct. 15,'38
Five of a Kind (G) 919	Dionne Quintuplets-J. Hersholt-Claire Trevor - Joan Davis - Slim Summerville	Oct. 14,'38†	85	Oct. 15,'38
(Exploitation: Nov. 5,'38, p. 51; Jan. 7,'39, p. 53.)
Gateway (G) 901	Don Ameche - Arleen Whelan - L. Talbot-G. Ratoff-B. Barnes	Aug. 5,'38†	74	Aug. 6,'38
Hold That Co-ed (G) 907	J. Barrymore-Marjorie Weaver-Geo. Murphy-Jack Haley	Sept. 16,'38†	80	Sept. 17,'38
I'll Give a Million (G) 855	Warner Baxter-Marjorie Weaver-Jean Hersholt-Peter Lorre	July 22,'38	75	July 16,'38
Jesse James (G) 921	Tyrone Power - Henry Fonda - Nancy Kelly-Randolph Scott	Jan. 27,'39†	*105	Jan. 14,'39
(Exploitation: Jan. 14,'39, p. 63; Jan. 21,'39; pp. 52, 54.)
Just Around the Corner (G) 915	Shirley Temple - Joan Davis - Chas. Farrell-Armanda Duff-Bert Lahr-Bill Robinson	Nov. 11,'38†	71	Nov. 5,'38
Keep Smiling (G) 902	Jane Withers - Gloria Stuart - H. Wilcoxon-Helen Westley	Aug. 12,'38†	77	June 11,'38
Kentucky (G) 923	Loretta Young-Richard Greene-Walter Brennan	Dec. 30,'38†	96	Dec. 24,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 17,'38, p. 75; Jan. 7,'39, p. 53.)
Little Miss Broadway (G) 856	Shirley Temple-Jimmy Durante-George Murphy - Edna Mae Oliver	July 29,'38	71	July 9,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 17,'38, p. 62.)
Meet the Girls 910	J. Lang-L. Bari-R. Allen	Oct. 7,'38†	66
My Lucky Star (G) 905	Sonja Henie - Richard Greene - J. Davis-C. Romero-B. Ebsen	Sept. 2,'38†	84	Sept. 3,'38
Mysterious Mr. Moto (G) 912	Peter Lorre-Mary Maguire	Oct. 21,'38†	63	June 4,'38
Panamint's Bad Man 853	Smith Ballew-Evelyn Daw	July 8,'38	60
Passport Husband (G) 854	S. Erwin-P. Moore-J. Woodbury	July 8,'38	67	July 2,'38
Road Demon (G) 918	Henry Arthur-Joan Valerie	Dec. 2,'38†	70	Aug. 27,'38
Safety in Numbers (G) 906	J. Prouty-S. Byington-S. Deane	Sept. 9,'38†	58	Aug. 13,'38
Sharpshooters (G) 916	Brian Donlevy-Lynn Bari	Nov. 18,'38†	64	Sept. 24,'38
Smiling Along (G) 933	Gracie Fields-Mary Maguire-Roger Livesay	Jan. 20,'39†	92	Oct. 22,'38
Speed to Burn (G) 904	Lynn Bari-Michael Whalen	Aug. 26,'38†	62	June 11,'38
Straight Place and Show (G) 911	Ritz Bros. - Ethel Merman - Richard Arlen-Phyllis Brooks	Sept. 30,'38†	68	Oct. 1,'38
Submarine Patrol (G) 909	Richard Greene-Nancy Kelly-Preston Foster-Geo. Bancroft	Nov. 25,'38†	95	Nov. 5,'38
(Exploitation: Nov. 5,'38, p. 52.)
Suez (G) 913	Loretta Young-Tyrone Power-Annabella	Oct. 28,'38†	104	Oct. 22,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 17,'38, p. 73; Jan. 7,'39, p. 50; Jan. 21,'39, p. 52.)
Thank You, Mr. Moto (G) 831	Peter Lorre-Jayne Regan	Dec. 24,'37	67	Nov. 27,'37
Thanks for Everything (G) 917	J. Haley-A. Menjou-A. Whelan-J. Oakie - T. Martin	Dec. 23,'38†	73	Dec. 10,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 17,'38, p. 75.)
Time Out for Murder (G) 908	Gloria Stuart-Michael Whalen	Sept. 23,'38†	60	July 2,'38
Up the River (G) 924	Preston Foster-Phyllis Brooks-Tony Martin-Arthur Treacher	Dec. 9,'38†	77	Nov. 5,'38
We're Going to Be Rich (G) 857	Gracie Fields-Victor McLaglen-Brian Donlevy	July 8,'38	78	July 16,'38
While New York Sleeps (G) 922	Michael Whalen-Joan Woodbury	Jan. 6,'39†	61	Aug. 27,'38

Coming Attractions

Alexander Graham Bell	Don Ameche - Henry Fonda - Loretta Young-Young Sisters
Chasing Danger (G)	Preston Foster - Lynn Bari		*60	Jan. 14,'39
Everybody's Baby (A) 931	J. Prouty-S. Byington-S. Deane	Mar. 24,'39†	62	Nov. 26,'38
Hound of the Baskervilles	Richard Greene-Basil Rathbone-Anita Louise-Nigel Bruce	Mar. 31,'39†
Inside Story (G) 934	Michael Whalen-Jean Rogers	Mar. 10,'39†	*60	Oct. 22,'38
Jones Family in Hollywood	Jed Prouty-Spring Byington
Little Princess, The 932	Shirley Temple-Richard Greene-Anita Louise - Ian Hunter - Cesar Romero-Arthur Treacher	Mar. 17,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 28,'39.)
Mr. Mto in Terror Island	P. Lorre-J. Hersholt-A. Duff
Mr. Moto's Last Warning 926	Peter Lorre - Geo. Sanders - R. Cortez-Virginia Field	Feb. 24,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 24,'38.)
Mr. Moto Takes a Vacation (G)	Peter Lorre - Virginia Field - John King-Joseph Schildkraut		68	Nov. 19,'38
News Is Made at Night*	Preston Foster-Lynn Bari
Pardon Our Nerve (G) 931	Michael Whalen-Lynn Bari	Feb. 24,'39†	68	Nov. 19,'38
Rose of Washington Square	Tyrone Power - Alice Faye - Al Jolson - Marie Wilson
Susannah of the Mounties*	Shirley Temple-Randolph Scott
Tail Spin 925	A. Faye - C. Bennett - Nancy Kelly-J. Davis-Chas. Farrell	Feb. 10,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 3,'38.)
Three Musketeers, The 927	Ritz Bros.-D. Ameche-G. Stuart-Binnie Barnes	Feb. 17,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
Wife, Husband and Friend 930	Loretta Young-Warner Baxter-Binnie Barnes-George Barbier	Mar. 3,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 14,'39.)
Winner Take All	Tony Martin-Gloria Stuart-Slim Summerville-Henry Armetta

UNITED ARTISTS

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Algiers (A)	Charles Boyer - Sigrid Gurie - Hedy Lamarr - Joe. Calleia - Alan Hale - Gene Lockhart	Aug. 5,'38†	96	July 2,'38
(Exploitation: July 23,'38, p. 66; Aug. 6,'38, pp. 75, 78; Sept. 17,'38, p. 63; Oct. 15,'38, p. 54; Nov. 12,'38, pp. 67, 69.)
Blockade (G)	M. Carroll-Henry Fonda-Leo Carrillo - John Halliday	June 17,'38	84	June 11,'38
(Exploitation: July 16,'38, pp. 80, 85; July 30,'38, p. 83; Aug. 6,'38, p. 77; Oct. 1,'38, p. 52.)
Cowboy and the Lady, The (G)	Gary Cooper - Merle Oberon - David Niven-Walter Brennan-Thomas Mitchell-Patsy Kelly	Nov. 17,'38†	90	Nov. 12,'38
(Explitation: Dec. 24,'38, p. 54; Jan. 28,'39, p. 59.)
Drums (G)	Raymond Massey - Sabu - Roger Liversey - Valerie Hobson	Sept. 30,'38†	96	Apr. 30,'38
(Reviewed under the title, "The Drum"; exploitation: Nov. 5,'38, p. 50; Nov. 19,'38, p. 94; Nov. 26,'38; p. 46; Dec. 3,'38, pp. 48, 49; Dec. 10,'38, p. 63; Dec. 24,'38, p. 54; Jan. 7,'39, p. 53; Jan. 14,'38. p. 64.)
Duke of West Point (G)	L. Hayward - J. Fontaine - R. Carlson	Dec. 29,'38†	109	Dec. 17,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 14,'38, p. 64.)
South Riding (A)	Ralph Richardson-Edna Best	July 1,'38	90	Jan. 22,'38
There Goes My Heart (G)	Fredric March-Virginia Bruce-Patsy Kelly - Alan Mowbray-Nancy Carroll-Eugene Palette	Oct. 14,'38†	84	Oct. 1,'38
(Exploitation: Nov. 19,'38, p. 94; Nov. 26,'38, p. 49.)
Topper Takes a Trip (G)	Constance Bennett-Roland Young-Billie Burke-Alan Mowbray	Jan. 12,'39†	80	Dec. 31,'38

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Trade Winds (G)	Fredric March - Joan Bennett - Ralph Bellamy-Ann Sothern	Dec. 22,'38†	95	Dec. 24,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 21,'39, p. 54.)
Young in Heart, The (G)	Janet Gaynor-D. Fairbanks, Jr.-P. Goddard-B. Burke-R. Young	Oct. 27,'38†	90	Nov. 5,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 17,'38, p. 73; Jan. 7,'39, p. 51; Jan. 14,'39, p. 65.)

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Captain Fury	Brian Aherne-Victor McLaglen-Paul Lukas-June Lang
Gone with the Wind*	Vivien Leigh - Clark Gable - Leslie Howard - Olivia de Havilland
It's Spring Again	Oliver Hardy - Harry Langdon - Billie Burke - Alice Brady - James Ellison - J. Lang - J. Parker
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 14,'39.)
King of the Turf	A. Menjou-D. Daniel-D. Costello	Feb. 17,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 14,'39.)
Last Frontier, The	Gary Cooper-Andrea Leeds
Made for Each Other	Carole Lombard-James Stewart-Lucile Watson-Charles Coburn	Feb. 10,'39†
Man in the Iron Mask	Louis Hayward
Over the Moon	Merle Oberon - Rex Harrison - Louis Borell
Prison Without Bars	Corrine Luchaire-Edna Best
Restless Age, The	Jascha Heifetz-Sigrid Gurie
Stagecoach	Claire Trevor - Andy Devine - John Wayne-George Bancroft	Mar. 3,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
Wuthering Heights	Merle Oberon-Lawrence Olivier-Flora Robson-David Niven

UNIVERSAL

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Black Bandit 3051	Bob Baker-Marjorie Reynolds	Sept. 16,'38†	57
Danger on the Air (G) 2032	D. Woods-N. Grey-W. Lundigan	July 1,'38	66	July 2,'38
Dark Rapture (G) 3041	Mr. and Mrs. Armand Denis	Aug. 26,'38	80	Oct. 15,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 29,'38, p. 57.)
Exposed (G) 3032	Glenda Farrell - Otto Kruger - Herbert Mundin	Nov. 4,'38†	63	Nov. 26,'38
Freshman Year (G) 3025	Dixie Dunbar - Ernest Truex - Wm. Lundigan-C. Moore	Sept. 2,'38†	68	Dec. 24,'38
Gambling Ship (G) 3023	Robert Wilcox-Helen Mack	Jan. 20,'39†	62	Aug. 20,'38
Ghost Town Riders 3054	Bob Baker-Fay Shannon	Dec. 16,'38†	54
Guilty Trail 3052	Bob Baker-Marjorie Reynolds	Oct. 21,'38†	57
His Exciting Night (G) 3036	Chas. Ruggles-Ona Munson	Nov. 11,'38†	61	Dec. 10,'38
Honor of the West 3055	Bob Baker-Marjorie Bell	Jan. 13,'38†	58
Last Express, The (G) 3028	K. Taylor-Dorothea Kent	Oct. 28,'38†	63	Oct. 1,'38
(See "In the Cutting Room," Sept. 24,'38.)
Last Warning, The (G) 3027.. (G) 3011	P. Foster-F. Jenks-F. Robinson	Jan. 6,'39†	63	Dec. 10,'38
Letter of Introduction (G) 2003	E. Bergen-"Charlie McCarthy"-Andrea Leeds-Adolphe Menjou	Aug. 5,'38	103	Aug. 6,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 10,'38, pp. 103, 105; Nov. 5,'38, p. 50.)
Little Tough Guys (A) 2008	"Dead End" Kids-R. Wilcox-Helen Parrish	July 22,'38	67	July 10,'37
(Exploitation: Nov. 12,'38, p. 66.)
Little Tough Guys in Society (G) 3011	Mary Boland-Edw. E. Horton-Mischa Auer-Helen Parrish	Nov. 25,'38†	73	Nov. 26,'38
Mars Attacks the World (G) 3042	Larry Crabbe-Jean Rogers	Nov. 18,'38†	68	Nov. 19,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 10,'38, p. 62.)
Missing Guest, The (G) 2031	P. Kelly-C. Moore-W. Lundigan	Aug. 12,'38	68	Aug. 20,'38
Newsboys Home 3015	Jackie Cooper - Wendy Barrie - Edmund Lowe - "Little Tough Guys"	Dec. 23,'38†	73
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 17,'38.)
Outlaw Express 2059	Bob Baker-Cecelila Callejo	June 17,'38	56
Personal Secretary 3034	W. Gargan-J. Hodges-A. Devine	Sept. 9,'38†	62
Pirates of the Skies 3033	Kent Taylor-Rochelle Hudson	Feb. 3,'39†	61
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 3,'38.)
Prairie Justice 3053	Bob Baker-Dorothy Southworth	Nov. 4,'38†	57
Prison Break (G) 2028	Barton MacLane-Glenda Farrell-Constance Moore-Robt. Wilcox	July 15,'38	72	July 23,'38
Rage of Paris, The (G) 2005	D. Dårrieux-D. Fairbanks, Jr.-Mischa Auer-H. Broderick	July 1,'38	78	June 18,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 17,'38, p. 64.)
Road to Reno (G) 3017	Hope Hampton - R. Scott - Helen Broderick - Glenda Farrell - Alan Marshall	Sept. 23,'38†	69	Sept. 3,'38
Secrets of a Nurse (G) 3022	E. Lowe-D. Foran-H. Mack	Dec. 9,'38†	75	Nov. 19,'38
Service De Luxe (G) 3013	C. Bennett-V. Price-C. Ruggles-M. Auer - H. Broderick - J. Hodges	Oct. 21,'38†	86	Oct. 29,'38
Singing Outlaw, The 2055
Son of Frankenstein, The (G)	Bob Baker-Joan Barclay	Jan. 23,'38	56
3004	Basil Rathbone - Boris Karloff-Bela Lugosi-Josephine Hutchinson	Jan. 13,'39†	94	Jan. 21,'39
Storm, The (G) 3016	Chas. Bickord-B. MacLane-P. Foster-Tom Brown-Nan Grey	Oct. 28,'38†	78	Nov. 5,'38
Strange Faces 3035	D. Kent-F. Jenks-A. Devine	Dec. 2,'38†	65	Nov. 12,'38
Swing, Sister, Swing (G) 3021	Ken Murray - Ernest Truex - Kathryn Kane-Johnny Downs	Dec. 16,'38†	67	Dec. 17,'38
Swing That Cheer (G) 3026	T. Brown-A. Devine-C. Moore	Oct. 14,'38†	63	Nov. 19,'38
That Certain Age (G) 2007	Deanna Durbin-Jackie Cooper-Melvyn Douglas-Irene Rich-John Halliday	Oct. 7,'38	101	Oct. 8,'38
(Exploitation: Nov. 19,'38, p. 94; Dec. 17,'38, p. 74.)
Western Trails 2058	Bob Baker-Marjorie Reynolds	June 3,'38	57
(See "In the Cutting Room," June 25,'38.)
Wives Under Suspicion (G) 2010	Warren William-Gail Patrick-C. Moore - W. Lundigan - R. Morgan	June 3,'38	68	June 11,'38
Young Fugitives (G) 2039	Robt. Wilcox-Dorothea Kent	June 24,'38	68	June 25,'38
Youth Takes a Fling (G) 3012	Joel McCrea - Andrea Leeds - Dorothea Kent-Frank Jenks	Sept. 30,'38†	79	Oct. 1,'38

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Code of the Streets	Frankie Thomas-Harry Carey-"Little Tough Guys"	May 26,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 14,'39.)
East Side of Heaven	B. Crosley-J. Blondell-M. Auer	Apr. 7,'39†
Key Woman	Preston Foster-Irene Hervey	Feb. 24,'39†
Spirit of Culver	Jackie Cooper-F. Bartholomew-A. Devine-H. Hull-J. Moran
Phantom Stage, The 3056	Bob Baker-Marjorie Reynolds	Feb. 10,'39†	57
Three Smart Girls Grow Up	D. Durbin-N. Grey-H. Parrish-C. Winninger-R. Cummings-..William Lundigan	Mar. 10,'39†
You Can't Cheat an Honest Man	W. C. Fields-Edgar Bergen-"Charlie McCarthy" - Frank Jenks	Feb. 17,'39†

WARNER BROTHERS-FIRST NATIONAL

First National Pictures

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Amazing Dr. Clitterhouse, The (A) 262	Edw. G. Robinson - C. Trevor - Humphrey Bogart-A. Jenkins	July 30,'38	87	June 25,'38
(Exploitation: July 30,'38, p. 80; Oct. 1,'38, p. 57; Oct. 15,'38, p. 51; Nov. 5,'38, p. 54; Dec. 24,'38, p. 58.)
Angels with Dirty Faces (A) 351	James Cagney - Pat O'Brien - Ann Sheridan-"Crime School Kids"-Humphrey Bogart	Nov. 26,'38†	97	Oct. 29,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 24,'38, p. 56; Jan. 7,'39, p. 52.)
Broadway Musketeers (G) 368	Margt. Lindsay - M. Wilson - A. Sheridan - John Litel - Janet Chapman	Oct. 8,'38†	62	Sept. 3,'38
Brother Rat (G) 355	W. Morris-P. Lane-J. Bryan	Oct. 29,'38†	89	Oct. 15,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 14,'39, pp. 64, 65, 66; Jan. 28,'39, p. 60.)
Comet Over Broadway (G) 370	Kay Francis-Ian Hunter	Dec. 3,'38	69	Dec. 17,'38
Crime School (G) 259	Gale Page - H. Bogart - "Dead End" Kids	May 28,'38	86	May 7,'38
(Exploitation: Aug. 6,'38, pp. 75, 76; Aug. 20,'38, p. 65; Aug. 27,'38, p. 76.)
Four Daughters (G) 352	Lane Sisters - Jeffrey Lynn - G. Page-C. Rains-J. Garfield	Sept. 24,'38†	90	Aug. 13,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 24,'38, p. 64; Oct. 15,'38, p. 54; Nov. 12,'38, p. 64; Nov. 26,'38, 46; Dec. 10,'38, p. 64; Dec. 17,'38, p. 76; Jan. 7,'39, p. 54; Jan. 21,'39; p. 53.)
Garden of the Moon (G) 358	Pat. O'Brien-Margaret Lindsay-John Payne-Johnnie Davis	Oct. 1,'38	94	July 30,'38
(Exploitation: Nov. 12,'38, p. 67.)
Girls On Probation (G) 369	Ronald Reagan-Jane Bryan	Oct. 22,'38†	63	Oct. 29,'38
Going Places (G) 359	D. Powell-A. Louise-A. Jenkins	Dec. 31,'38†	84	Dec. 24,'38
My Bill (G) 260	Kay Francis-John Litel-Anita Louise-Bonita Granville	July 9,'38	60	June 18,'38
Penrod's Double Trouble (G) 276	Billy and Bobby Mauch	July 23,'38	60	Apr. 2,'38
Secrets of an Actress (G) 365	Kay Francis-George Brent	Sept. 10,'38†	70	Oct. 18,'38

Coming Attractions

(See "Crime Is a Racket," Oct. 22,'38.)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Secret Service of the Air	R. Reagan-I. Rhodes-J. Litel
Student Nurse	Marie Wilson-Marg't Lindsay-Rosella Towne
You Can't Get Away with Murder (G)	Humphrey Bogart-Gale Page		*80	Jan. 21,'39

Warner Brothers

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Boy Meets Girl (A) 213	James Cagney - Pat O'Brien - Marie Wilson	Aug. 27,'38	86	July 23,'38
(Exploitation: July 9,'38, p. 46; Sept. 10,'38, p. 102; Nov. 5,'38, p. 52.)
Cowboy from Brooklyn (G) 217	Pat O'Brien - Dick Powell - Priscilla Lane-Dick Foran	July 16,'38	77	June 11,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 3,'83, p. 58; Sept. 17,'38, pp. 60, 63.)
Dawn Patrol (G)	Errol Flynn - David Niven - Donald Crisp-Basil Rathbone	Dec. 24,'38†	103	Dec. 17,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 31,'38, p. 66; Jan. 14,'39, p. 64.)
Devil's Island (G)	Boris Karloff-Nedda Harrigan	Jan. 7,'39†	62	Jan. 7,'39
Four's a Crowd (G) 306	E. Flynn - O. de Havilland - R. Russell-P. Knowles	Sept. 3,'38	91	July 16,'38
Gold Diggers in Paris (G) 206	Rudy Vallee - Rosemary Lane - Hugh Herbert-Allen Jenkins	June 11,'38	97	May 21,'38
(Exploitation: July 2,'38, p. 54.)
Hard to Get (G) 310	Dick Powell-O. de Havilland-C. Winninger-Allen Jenkins	Nov. 5,'38†	79	Nov. 12,'38

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Heart of the North (G) 362	D. Foran-Gale Page—G. Dickson-J. Chapman-A. Jenkins	Dec. 10,'38†	85	Dec. 17,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 21,'39, p. 53.)
King of the Underworld (A) 317	Kay Francis-Humphrey Bogart	Jan. 14,'39†	69	Jan. 14,'39
	son-J. Chapman-A. Jenkins	Dec. 10,'38†	85	Dec. 17,'38
Little Miss Thoroughbred (G) 219	Ann Sheridan - John Litel - F. McHugh-Janet Chapman	June 4,'38	63	May 7,'38
Men Are Such Fools (G) 215	Wayne Morris-Priscilla Lane-Humphrey Bogart-H. Herbert	July 16,'38	69	Apr. 23,'38
Mr. Chump 227	Johnnie Davis-Lola Lane	Aug. 6,'38	60
(See "In the Cutting Room," Apr. 9,'38.)
Nancy Drew, Detective 319	Bonita Granville-John Litel	Nov. 19,'38†	65
(See "In the Cutting Room," Oct. 22,'38.)
Off the Record (G) 314	Pat O'Brien-Joan Blondell	Jan. 21,'39†	71	Jan. 28,'39
Racket Busters (G) 205	George Brent - Gloria Dickson - H. Bogart-Walter Abel	July 16,'38	71	Aug. 20,'38
Sisters, The (A) 302	B. Davis-E. Flynn-A. Louise-J. Bryan-D. Foran-I. Hunter	Oct. 15,'38†	99	Oct. 8,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 8,'38, p. 62; Oct. 22,'38, p. 66.)
They Made Me a Criminal (G) 307	John Garfield-Ann Sheridan.... "Crime School Kids"-C. Rains	Jan. 28,'39†	92	Jan. 7,'39
Torchy Blane in Chinatown	Glenda Farrell-Barton MacLane	Feb. 4,'39†	58
Torchy Gets Her Man (G) 318	Glenda Farrell-Barton MacLane	Nov. 12,'38†	62	Oct. 15,'38
Valley of the Giants (G) 305	Wayne Morris - Claire Trevor - John Litel-Chas. Bickford	Sept. 17,'38†	79	Sept. 17,'38
White Banners (A) 208	Claude Rains - Fay Bainter - Jackie Cooper-B. Granville	June 25,'38	92	May 28,'38
(Exploitation: July 16,'38, p. 86; Sept. 10,'38, p. 103; Oct. 15,'38, p. 54; Nov. 5,'38, p. 52; Dec. 3,'38, p. 50.)

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Adventures of Jane Arden, The	Rosella Towne-William Gargan
Battle of City Hall
Blackwell's Island	J. Garfield-R. Lane-D. Purcell
(See "In the Cutting Room," Aug. 13,'38.)
Brother Orchid	Edw. G. Robinson-Wayne Morris-Gale Page
Dark Victory	Bette Davis - George Brent - Geraldine Fitzgerald - Ronald Reagan-Humphrey Bogart
(See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 12,'38.)
Dodge City	Errol Flynn-Olivia de Havilland Ann Sheridan - Bruce Cabot - A. Hale-F. McHugh-V. Jory
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
Each Dawn I Die	James Cagney-Edw. G. Robinson
Hell's Kitchen	Marg't Lindsay-Ronald Reagoan-"Crime School Kids"
Hero for a Day	Jane Bryan-Henry O'Neil
Juarez	Paul Muni - Bette Davis - B. Aherne-C. Rains-J. Garfield
Kid from Kokomo, The	Wayne Morris - Pat O'Brien - Joan Blondell-May Robson
Knight and the Lady, The	Bette Davis-Errol Flynn
Nancy Drew, Reporter	Bonita Granville-John Litel	Feb. 18,'39†
Oklahoma Kid	J. Cagney-H. Bogart-R. Lane
(See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 12,'38.)
On Trial	John Litel-Margaret Lindsay
Professor Steps Out, The	Dick Powell-Gale Page-Ronald Reagan-Ann Sheridan
("In the Cutting Room," Jan. 7,'39.)
Roaring Road, The	Pat O'Brien-Wayne Morris.... Ann Sheridan-Gale Page
Smashing the Money Ring	R. Reagan-R. Towne-J. Litel
Sweepstakes Winner	M. Wilson-J. Davis-A. Jenkins
Torchy Blane Runs for Mayor	Glenda Farrell-Barton MacLane
We Are Not Alone	Miriam Hopkins
Wings of the Navy (G)	George Brent-O. de Havilland-John Payne-F. McHugh	Feb. 11,'39†	*90	Jan. 21,'39
(Exploitation: Jan. 14,'39, p. 64.)
Women in the Wind	K. Francis-W. Gargan-V. Jory
Yes, My Darling Daughter	Jeffrey Lynn - P. Lane - Fay Bainter-M. Robson-R. Young	Feb. 25,'39†
("In the Cutting Room," Jan. 7,'39; exploitation: Jan. 14,'39, p. 64.)

STATE RIGHTS

Title	Star	Producer	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Bronze Buckaroo, The	Negro Cast	Sack	Jan. 1,'39
Code of the Fearless (G)	Fred Scott	Spectrum	Jan. 5,'39	56	Jan. 21,'39
Convicts at Large	Ralph Forbes	Record	Dec. 15,'38
Crashing Through Danger	Ray Walker	Excelsior	Sept. 15,'38	60
Delinquent Parents	Doris Weston	Progressive	July 15,'38
Duke Is Tops, The	Negro Cast	Popkin	Sept. 1,'38
Feud on the Range	Bob Steele	Webb	Jan. 15,'39
Gang, The	Gina Malo	Record	Dec. 1,'38	55
Gang Smashers	Negro Cast	Popkin	Jan. 1,'39
Gone Harlem	Negro Cast	Sack	Aug. 15,'38
Harlem Rides the Range	Negro Cast	Sack	Feb. 1,'39
Hell Bound (A) (reissue)	Leo Carrillo	Sack	Nov. 15,'38		Feb. 7,'31
I Demand Payment	Jack La Rue	Imperial	Nov. 15,'38	59
Lightning Carson Rides Again	Tim McCoy	Victory	Oct. 10,'38	59
Meet the Mayor	Frank Fay	Judel	Sept. 15,'38	60
Paroled from the Big House	Jean Carmen	J. D. Kay Prods.	Aug. 15,'38	57
Policy Man	Negro Cast	Sack	July 1,'38	61
Port of Hate	Stock Cast	Webb	Jan. 15,'39
Rebellious Daughters	Verna Hillie	Progressive	July 1,'38
Rough Riding Rhythm	Kermit Maynard	Ambassador	June 15,'38	57
Scandal House	Adrienne Ames	Progressive	July 1,'38
Sin of Lena Rivers, The (A) (reissue)	Charlotte Henry	Sack	Dec. 1,'38	67	May 28,'32
(Reviewed under the title, "Lena Rivers.")
Six-Gun Trail	Tim McCoy	Victory	Nov. 25,'38†	59
Slums of New York (reissue)	Mickey Rooney	Freuler	July 15,'38	61

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Producer	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Code of the Cactus	Tim McCoy	Victory	Feb. 25,'39
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 14,'39.)
Headleys at Home, The	Evelyn Venable	Standard		59	Nov. 12,'38
In Old Montana	Fred Scott	Spectrum	Feb. 5,'39
Outlaws of Paradise	Tim McCoy	Victory
Prison Train (A)	Fred Keating	Equity		64	Oct. 22,'38
Religious Racketeer (G)	Robert Fiske	Fanchon Royer		9 rls.	Apr. 23,'38
Texas Wildcats	Tim McCoy	Victory	Apr. 10,'39
Topa Topa (G)	Helen Hughes	Pennant		*65	Apr. 16,'38
Two Gun Troubador	Fred Scott	Spectrum	Mar. 5,'39

OTHER PRODUCT (FOREIGN)

Title	Star	Dist'r	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Abused Confidence (A)	Danielle Darrieux	Columbia	Nov. 30,'38	87	Dec. 10,'38
Adventure of Giacomo Casanova (G)	Nerio Bernardi	Amerital	Dec. 1,'38	70	Dec. 10,'38
Alf's Button Afloat (G)	Bud Flanagan	General Film		89	July 23,'38
Annie Laurie	Will Fyffe	World	April 15,'39
Avocate d'Amour (G)	Danielle Darrieux	Regal	Sept. 7,'38	88	Sept. 24,'38
Ballerina (G)	Janine Charrat	Mayer-Burstyn	Dec. 3,'38	80	Dec. 3,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 28,'39, p. 60.)
Cabiria*		Brodie	Feb. 3,'39	85
Captain Scorpiob*	Ecunomou	Brodie	Apr. '39	85
Carnival in Flanders (A)	Francoise Rosay	Tri Nat'l Films	Sept. 22,'36	93	Oct. 8,'36
(Reviewed under the title, "La Kermesse Heroique.")
College Girl (G)	Ellen Schwanneke	Henka Film	Sept. 9,'38	90	Sept. 24,'38
Crossroads (A)	Charles Vanel	Tri-National		80	Dec. 31,'38
Dark Sands (G)	Paul Robeson	Record	Aug. 1,'38	75	July 30,'38
Edge of the World, The (A)	Finlay Currie	Pax		75	Aug. 14,'37
Flight Into Darkness (A)	Annabella	Frank Kassler	Oct. 15,'38	81	Nov. 5,'38
Foggy Quay, The (A)	Jean Gabin	Films Victoria		90	Sept. 8,'38
40 Little Mothers (A)	Lucien Baroux	National	Dec. 23,'38	94	Dec. 31,'38
Gaunt Stranger, The (A)	Wilfred Lawson	A. B. F. D.		72	Nov. 19,'38
Girl Regugee, The*	Sophia Vebo	Brodie	Sept. 25,'38	110
Glory of the Faith, The (G)	Gabriel Farguette	French	Nov. 24,'38	75	Dec. 3,'38
Grand Illusion (A)	Jean Gabin	World		96	July 3,'37
(Reviewed under the title, "La Grande Illusion"; exploitation: Dec. 17,'38, p. 73; Jan. 28,'39, p. 59.)
Hatred	Harry Baur	World	Feb. 15,'39
Heart of Paris (A)	Raimu	Tri-National	Jan. 12,'39	85	Jan. 14,'39
Hey! Hey! U. S. A. (G)	Will Hay	G.F.D.		92	Oct. 22,'38
Irish and Proud of It (G)	Richard Hayward	Guaranteed	Oct. 29,'38	73	Nov. 19,'38
Ihr Leibhauser (G)	Magda Schneider	Casino		80	Nov. 12,'38
Itto	Native Cast	World	Feb. 30,'39
It's in the Air (G)	George Formby	A. B. F. D.		87	Oct. 8,'38
I've Got a Horse (G)	Sandy Powell	British Lion		76	Sept. 3,'38
Kreutzer Sonata (A)	Gaby Morley	Foreign Cinema Arts	Feb. 1,'39	87	Jan. 7,'39
La Vierge Folle (A)	Juliette Faber	Walch	Dec. 28,'38	80	Jan. 21,'39
Liebe im ⅜ Takt (G)	Leo Slezak	Casino	Sept. 23,'38	98	Oct. 8,'38
Little Flower of Jesus (G)	Simone Bourday	Sunray	Oct. 21,'38	75	Apr. 30,'38
Mamele	Molly Picon	Sphinx	Jan. '39	102
Marseillaise	Pierre Renoir	World	Mar. 30,'39
Marusia (G)	S. Melnyk	Ukrafilm	Dec. 8,'38	105	Dec. 31,'38
Mis Dos Amores (G)	Tito Guizar	Paramount		80	Aug. 20,'38
My Song of Love	Tito Schipa	World
Night on the Danube, A (G)	Leo Slezak	Casino		*85	Dec. 3,'38
Ninety Degrees South	Scott Expedition	World	July 1,'39
Old Bones of the River (G)	Will Hay	G.F.D.		90	Jan. 21,'39
Orage (A)	Charles Boyer	Tri Nat'l Films	Dec. 10,'38	105	Feb. 12,'38
Peg of Old Drury (A)	Anna Neagle - Sir Cedric Hardwicke	Tri Nat'l Films		75	Sept. 28,'35
Penny Paradise (G)	Edmund Gwen	A.T.P.		72	Sept. 24,'38
Radio Troubadour, The (G)	Tito Guizar	Paramount		*60	Dec. 3,'38
Return of the Frog (A)	Gordon Harker	British Lion		*75	Dec. 31,'38
Rose of Tralee (G)	Baby Binkie Stuart	Dublin Films	Oct. 15,'38	71	Nov. 12,'38
Rothschild	Harry Baur	Regal	Oct. 11,'38	78	Oct. 22,'38
Royal Divorce, A (A)	Ruth Chatterton	Paramount		85	Oct. 15,'38
Sacrifice d'Honneur (A)	Annabella	Tri-Nat'l.	Nov. 30,'38	75	Dec. 10,'38
St. Martin's Lane (G)	Chas. Laughton	Assoc. British		85	July 9,'38
Singing Blacksmith (A)	Moishe Oysher	New Star	Nov. 1,'38	100	Nov. 17,'38
Slalom (G)	Hella Hartwich	World	Mar. 1,'39	66	Jan. 23,'37
Story of a Cheat, The (A)	Sascha Guitry	Gallic Films	Sept. 26,'38	83	Oct. 15,'38
Street Without a Name	Pola Illery	World	Mar. 15,'39
They Drive by Night* (A)	Emlyn Williams	First National		84	Jan. 28,'39
This Man Is News (A)	Barry Barnes	Paramount		77	Oct. 1,'38
T-Kies Koff	Jewish Film	Foreign Cinema Arts	May 15,'38	102
Ware Case, The (A)	Clive Brook	A.B.F.D.		78	Dec. 31,'38
Wedad (A)	Egyptian Cast	Egyptian Film Co.		110	Nov. 26,'38
When the Husband Travels*	M. Phillipides	Brodie	Mar. '39	95
Witch Night	Gosta Ekman	World
Yes, Madam? (G)	Bobby Howes	Assoc. British		79	Dec. 31,'38

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

SHORT FILMS

[Numbers immediately following title designate date reviewed; for example, (8-6-38) August 6, 1938. Numerals following review dates are production numbers.]

COLUMBIA

BROADWAY COMEDIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Boom Goes the Groom 9431	Mar. 24,'39†	2 rls.
Ducking They Did Go, A 9406	Apr. 7,'39†	2 rls.
Flat Foot Stooges 9403 (3 Stooges)	Dec. 5,'38†	15½
Halfway to Hollywood 8436 Johnny Arthur-Tom Kennedy	July 1,'38	17½
Home on the Rage (12-17-38) 9426 Andy Clyde	Dec. 9,'38†	17
Many Sappy Returns 9421 Charley Chase	Aug. 19,'38†	18
Mutiny on the Body 9429 Smith & Dale	Feb. 10,'39†	17½
Mutts to You (1-14-39) 9402 (3 Stooges)	Oct. 14,'38†	18
Nag in the Bag (12-24-38) 9425 Smith & Dale	Nov. 11,'38†	17
Nightshirt Bandit (10-28-38) 8424 Charlie Chase	Oct. 28,'38†	17
Not Guilty Enough (10-29-38) 9423 Andy Clyde	Sept. 30,'38†	20
Pie a la Maid 9427 Charley Chase	Dec. 23,'38†	18
Sap Takes a Wrap, The 9430	Mar. 10,'39†	15½
Swing, You Swingers 9428 Andy Clyde	Jan. 29,'39†	19½
Soul of a Heel, The (6-11-38) 8435 (All Star)	June 4,'38	16½
Sue My Lawyer (10-15-38) 9422 Harry Langdon	Sept. 16,'38†	17
Three Little Sew and Sews 9404 (3 Stooges)	Jan. 6,'39†	2 rls.
Three Missing Links (6-25-38) 8408 (3 Stooges)	July 29,'38	17½
Violent Is the Word for Curly (9-10-38) 9401 (3 Stooges)	Sept. 2,'38†	18
We Want Our Mummy 9405	Feb. 24,'39†	2 rls.

COLOR RHAPSODIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Animal Cracker Circus (10-8-38) 9502	Sept. 23,'38†	7
Frog Pond, The (10-15-38) 8512	Aug. 12,'38	6½
Gorilla Hunt, The 9507	Feb. 24,'39†	1 rl.
Hollywood Graduation (9-10-38) 9501	Aug. 26,'38†	7
Horse on the Merry-Go Round, The (3-26-38) 8505	Sept. 17,'38†	8
Kangaroo Kid 9505	Dec. 23,'38†	7½
Little Match Girl (reissue) (11-27-37) 8502	Dec. 16,'38	8½
Little Moth's Big Flame (12-31-38) 9503	Nov. 3,'38†	8
Midnight Frolics	Nov. 24,'38†	7
Peaceful Neighbors 9506	Jan. 26,'39†	1 rl.
Poor Little Butterfly (7-23-38) 8510	July 4,'38	7½
Poor Elmer 8511	July 22,'38	7½

COLUMBIA TOURS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Bermuda—Isle of Paradise 9551	Nov. 4,'38†	10½
Big Town Commuters (New York) 9553	Feb. 3,'39†	1 rl.
Provincial Quebec (12-31-38) 9552	Dec. 15,'38†	11

COMMUNITY SING

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 10 (6-18-38) 8660 (Patriotic Songs)	July 4,'38	10
No. 11 (10-15-38) 8661 (Songs of Yesteryear)	Aug. 26,'38	10
No. 12 8862 (Scotch Songs)	Sept. 15,'38	10
(New Series)
No. 1 (10-15-38) (College Songs) 9651	Oct. 1,'38	10
No. 2 (South Seas) (11-12-38) 9652	Nov. 4,'38†	10
No. 3 9653 (Seasons Idea)	Dec. 2,'38†	11
No. 4 9654 (Girls' Names)	Dec. 30,'38†	1 rl.
No. 5 (9655 (Friendship Songs)	Jan. 27,'39†	10
No. 6 9656 (Moon Songs)	Feb. 24,'39†	1 rl.
No. 7 9657	Mar. 24,'39†	1 rl.

KRAZY KAT CARTOONS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
25. Krazy's Travel Squawks (6-25-38) 8706	July 4,'38	6½
26. Gym Jams (10-8-38) 9701	Sept. 9,'38†	6½
27. Hot Dogs On Ice 9702	Oct. 21,'38†	6
28. Lone Mounties, The 9703	Dec. 10,'38†	7
29. Krazy's Bear Tale 9704	Jan. 27,'39†	1 rl.

MUSIC HALL VANITIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Night in a Music Hall, A 9961

PICTUREGRAPH

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 1 9951	Feb. 10,'39†

SCRAPPY CARTOONS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
City Slicker (7-23-38) 8758	July 8,'38	6
Early Bird (10-1-38) 9751	Sept. 16,'38†	5
Happy Birthday 9752	Oct. 7,'38†	6
Scrappy's Added Attraction 9753	Jan. 13,'39†	1 rl.

SCREEN SNAPSHOTS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 12 8862	July 29,'38	10
(New Series)
No. 1 9851	Sept. 16,'38†	10
No. 2 9852	Oct. 14,'38†	10
No. 3 9853	Nov. 20,'38†	10
No. 4 9854	Dec. 15,'38	10
No. 5 9585	Jan. 10,'39†	1 rl.
No. 6 9586	Feb. 17,'39†	1 rl.

SPECIAL

SPORT THRILLS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Athletic Youth 8811	July 29,'38	1 rl.
Demons of the Deep (9-24-38) 8812	Aug. 19,'38	9
Fistic Fun (7-30-38) 8810	July 1,'38	9½
Football Giants (10-8-38) 9801	Sept. 28,'38†	10
Get Ready Navy 9804	Feb. 24,'39†	1 rl.
King Vulture (1-21-38) 9803	Jan. 6,'39†	10½
Ski Rhythm (12-24-38) 9802	Nov. 4,'38†	10
Sportlaughs 9804	Jan. 27,'39†	1 rl.

WASHINGTON PARADE

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 1 (1-7-39) 9901 (Harry Newman)	Nov. 18,'38†	10
No. 2 9902 (Inside the White House)	Jan. 27,'39†	1 rl.
No. 3 9903	Mar. 3,'39†	1 rl.

EDUCATIONAL

[Distributed through Grand National]

SONG AND COMEDY HITS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Cavalcade of Stuff, No. 1 EI-2	Jan. 6,'39†	9
Cavalcade of Stuff, No. 2 EI-2	Jan. 20,'39†	9

TREASURE CHEST

(Color Cartoons)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Baby Checkers EI-14
Monkey Business EI-15

[Distributed through Twentieth Century-Fox]

TERRY-TOONS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Eliza Runs Again 8526	July 29,'38	6½
Milk for Baby 8524	July 8,'38	6½
Mrs. O'Leary's Cow 8525	July 22,'38	6½

TREASURE CHEST

(color cartoons)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
We Live In Two Worlds (8-20-38) 8609	July 22,'38	11

MGM

CAPTAIN AND THE KIDS

(In Sepia)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Buried Treasure W-689	Sept. 17,'38	8
Captain's Christmas, The (12-24-38) W-692	Dec. 17,'38†	8
Day at the Beach, A (8-15-38) W-685	June 25,'38	10
Honduras Hurricane (12-3-38) W-691	Oct. 15,'38†	9
Old Smokey W-688	Sept. 3,'38	7
Petunia Natural Park W-693 (color)	Jan. 14,'39	9
Pygmy Hunt, The W-687	Aug. 6,'38	8
What a Lion! W-686	July 16,'38	9
Winning Ticket, The W-690	Oct. 1,'38	9

CARTOONS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Mama's New Hat W-882
Seal Siknners W-881 (sepia)	Jan. 28,'39†	8

CRIME DOESN'T PAY

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 18—They're Always Caught (10-8-38) P-615	Sept. 3,'38	22
No. 19—Think It Over (11-19-38) P-616	Sept. 24,'38	20
No. 20—The Wrong Way Out (1-21-39) P-811	Dec. 24,'38†	17

FITZPATRICK TRAVEL TALKS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Ancient Egypt T-856	Jan. 21,'39†	9
Cairo, City of Contrast (10-22-38) T-851	Sept. 10,'38†	9
Jaipur, The Pink City (12-31-38) T-853	Oct. 29,'38†	8
Madeira—Isle of Romance (12-3-38) T-851	Oct. 1,'38†	8
Paris On Parade (8-20-38) T-662	July 9,'38	9
Singapore and Jahore T-855	Aug. 31,'38†	9
Sydney, Pride of Australia T-854	Dec. 3,'38†	9

HISTORICAL MYSTERIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Bravest of the Brave, The (8-27-38) H-728	Aug. 6,'38	11
Joaquin Murrieta (7-23-38) H-726 (sepia)	June 11,'38	11
Man on the Rock, The (10-8-38) H-729	Sept. 3,'38	11
Nostradamus (10-22-38) H-730	Sept. 24,'38	11
Strange Glory (8-6-38) H-727 Frank McGlynn	July 2,'38	11

MGM MINIATURES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
City of Little Men, The (11-12-38) M-871	Aug. 20,'38†	11
Great Heart, The M-875	Dec. 31,'38†	11
Hollywood Handicap (7-9-38) M-678 "Original Sing Band"	May 7,'38	10
Ice Antics M-876
Streamline Swing (11-12-38) M-872 (In sepia)	Sept. 10,'38†	9
Miracle of Salt Lake (12-31-38) M-874	Nov. 12,'38†	11
They Live Again M-873 Shephard-Struwick-Mary Howard	Oct. 22,'38†	10
Tracking the Sleeping Death (8-27-38) M-680 Gilbert Emery-Doris Lloy	July 9,'38	10
Tupapaco (7-9-38) M-679 Moroni Olsen	June 11,'38	11
What Do You Think, No. 3 M-672	Jan. 15,'38	11

MUSICAL COMEDIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Canary Comes Across, The (2-5-38) R-602 Erik Rhodes-Virginia Grey	Jan. 29,'38	21
Dream of Love, A R-803	Jan. 28,'39†
It's In the Stars (8-27-38) R-606 Eleanor Lynn-Johnny Downes	July 30,'38	10
Magician's Daughter, The (8-20-38) R-605 Eleanor Lynn-Frank Albertson	July 16,'38	18
Men of Steel (1-28-39) R-801 Doris Weston	Dec. 17,'38†	21
Once Over Lightly R-802	Dec. 17,'38†	19

OUR GANG

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Aladdin's Lantern (10-15-38) C-931	Sept. 17,'38†	10
Alfalfa's Aunt C-935	Jan. 7,'39†	11
Football Romeo (1-21-38) C-933	Nov. 12,'38†	10
Hide and Shriek (7-2-38) C-740	June 18,'38	11
Little Ranger, The (8-27-38) C-741	Aug. 6,'38	11
Men in Fright (11-19-38) C-392	Oct. 15,'38†	11
Party Fever (10-15-38) C-742	Aug. 27,'38	10
Practical Jokers C-934	Dec. 17,'38†	9

PASSING PARADE

(Sepia)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 1—K-921 (11-12-38)	Oct. 15,'38†	10
No. 2—K-922 (New Roadways)	Jan. 28,'39†

PETE SMITH SPECIALTIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Anaesthesia (8-6-38) S-711	July 9,'38	10
Double Diving (1-28-39) S-904 (sepia)	Jan. 14,'39†	8
Follow the Arrow (8-20-38) S-712	July 30,'38	10
Football Thrills of 1937 (10-1-38) S-714	Sept. 10,'38	10
Fistcuffs (10-1-38)	Aug. 27,'38	10
Friend Indeed (1-1-38) S-703	Jan. 1,'38	10
Grid Rules (11-19-38) S-715	Oct. 15,'38	9
Heroes at Leisure S-905
Hot on Ice (12-1-38) S-901	Oct. 22,'38†	10
Man's Greatest Friend (12-31-38) S-902	Nov. 19,'38†	10
Penny's Picnic (1-14-39) S-903 (color)	Dec. 17,'38†	10
Story of Dr. Carver (7-2-38) S-710	June 18,'38	10

ROBERT BENCHLEY

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Courtship of a Newt, The (8-27-38) F-757	July 23,'38	8
Hour for Luch, An F-955
How to Raise a Baby (8-20-38) F-756	July 2,'38	9
How to Read (10-15-38) F-758	Aug. 27,'38	9
How to Sublet F-954		8
How to Watch Football (11-19-38) F-951	Oct. 8,'38†	9
Mental Poise F-953	Dec. 10,'38†	7
Opening Day (12-10-38) F-952	Nov. 12,'38†	9

PARAMOUNT

BETTY BOOP CARTOONS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Buzzy Boop T7-12	July 22,'38	1 rl.
Buzzy Boop at the Concert (10-8-38) T8-2	Sept. 16,'38†	7
Lost Kitten (7-23-38) T7-11	June 24,'38	7
My Friend the Monkey T8-6	Jan. 20,'39†	1 rl.
On With the New (12-17-38) T8-3	Dec. 2,'38†	7
Pudgy in Thrills and Chills T8-5	Dec. 23,'38†	1 rl.
Pudgy the Watchman (G) (8-20-38) T8-1	Aug. 12,'38†	1 rl.
Sally Swing (10-22-38)	Oct. 14,'38†	7

COLOR CLASSICS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
All's Fair at the Fair (9-3-38) C8-1	Aug. 26,'38	7
Always Kickin' C8-3	Jan. 27,'39†	1 rl.
Hunky and Spunky (7-23-38) C7-6	June 24,'38	7
Playful Polar Bears (11-12-38) C8-2	Oct. 28,'38†	8

COLOR CRUISES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Costa Rica (12-10-38) K8-3	Dec. 2,'38†	10
Guatemala (8-27-38) K8-1	Aug. 12,'38†	10
Land of Inca Memories K8-4	Jan. 27,'39†	1 rl.
Mexico (10-15-38) K8-2	Oct. 7,'38†	10

HEADLINERS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Busse Rhythm (10-22-38) A8-3 Henry Busse and Orch.	Oct. 7,'38†	10
Easy on the Ice (6-18-38) A7-13 H. King's Orch.-S Foster	June 3,'38	10
Hal Kemp and His Orch. A8-5	Dec. 2,'38†	1 rl.
Lights! Action! Lucas! (9-10-38) A8-2 Clyde Lucas and Orch.	Sept. 2,'38†	10
Moments of Charm (8-13-38) (A8-1 P. Spitalny & Girl Orch.	Aug. 5,'38†	10

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Orrin Tucker and Orch. A8-4	Nov. 4,'38†	1 rl.
Song Is Born, A (12-24-38) A8-6	Jan. 6,'39†	10
Larry Clinton and Orch.
Queens of the Air (7-23-38) A7-14	July 8,'38	11
Vincent Lopez

PARAGRAPHICS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Find What's Wrong (7-9-38) V7-12	June 17,'38	10
Mildewed Melodrama (10-15-38) V8-2	Sept. 9,'38†	11
Oh Say, Can You Ski V8-5	Dec. 16,'38†	1 rl.
Raising Canines (11-5-38)	Nov. 11,'38†	10
Rube Goldberg's Travelgab (10-15-38) V8-3	Oct. 14,'38†	9
Schubert's Unfinished Symphony (11-26-38) V8-6	Jan. 13,'39†	10
Silver Millions V7-13	July 15,'38	10
Tannhauser (6-4-38) V8-1	Aug. 12,'38†	16

PARAMOUNT PICTORIAL

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 11—Water Symphony—Nothing But Seals — Vineyards of California (7-23-38) P7-11	June 4,'38	10
No. 12 — Gigantic Farming — Steaming Scenery — Nobody's Pal (7-9-38) P7-12	July 1,'38	1 rl.

(New Series)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 1—P8-1 (8-20-38)	Aug. 5,'38†	10
No. 2—P8-2 (9-3-38)	Sept. 2,'38†	10
No. 3—P8-3 (9-24-38)	Oct. 7,'38†	10
No. 4—P8-4	Nov. 4,'38†	1 rl.
No. 5—P8-5 (12-3-38)	Dec. 9,'38†	1 rl.
No. 6—P8-6	Jan. 6,'39†	1 rl.
No. 7—P8-7	Feb. 3,'39†	1 rl.
No. 8—P8-8	Mar. 3,'39†	1 rl.

POPEYE THE SAILOR

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Bulldozing the Bull (8-28-38) E8-1	Aug. 19,'38†	7
Cops Is Always Right (1-21-39) E8-5	Dec. 30,'38†	7
Customers Wanted E8-6	Jan. 27,'39†	1 rl.
Date to Skate, A (12-3-38) E8-4	Nov. 18,'38†	7
Goonland E8-3	Oct. 21,'38†	1 rl.
I Yam Love Sick E7-10	May 20,'38	7
Jeep, The E7-12	July 15,'38	7
Leave Well Enough Alone	Feb. 24,'39†	1 rl.
Mutiny Ain't Nice (10-15-38) E8-2	Sept. 2,'38†	7
Plumbing Is a Pipe (6-11-38) E7-11	June 17,'38	7

PARAMOUNT SOUND NEWS

Two Editions Weekly

POPULAR SCIENCE

(In Color)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 6—P8-6	Jan. 6,'39†	1 rl.
No. 6 J7-6	July 8,'38	1 rl.

(New Series)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 1 (10-15-38) J8-1	Sept. 2,'38†	10
No. 2 J8-2	Nov. 4,'38†	1 rl.
No. 3 J8-3	Jan. 6,'39†	1 rl.
No. 4 J8-4	Mar. 10,'39†	1 rl.

SCREEN SONGS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Beside a Moonlit Stream SC7-6	July 29,'38	1 rl.
You Leave Me Breathless (7-2-38) SC7-5	May 27,'38	8
Jimmy Dorsey and Orch.

GRANTLAND RICE SPORTLIGHTS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 50—Red, White and Blue Champions (6-4-38) R7-11	May 20,'38	1 rl.
No. 51—Strike! (6-25-38) R7-12	June 17,'38	10
No. 52—Horseshoes R7-13	July 15,'38	1 rl.
No. 53—A Sporting Test (8-13-38) R8-1	Aug. 5,'38†	10
No. 54—Hunting Thrills (8-27-38) R8-2	Sept. 2,'38†	10
No.55—Racing Pigeons (10-15-38) R8-3	Sept. 30,'38†	10
No. 56—Champion Air-hoppers (11-12-38) R8-4	Oct. 28,'38†	10
No. 57—Super Athletes (11-19-38) R8-5	Nov. 25,'38†	1 rl.
No. 58—Frolicking Frogs R8-6	Dec. 23,'38†	1 rl.
No. 59—Two Boys and a Dog (12-31-38) R8-7	Jan. 20,'39†	10
No. 60—Hold Your Breath R8-7	Feb. 17,'39†	1 rl.

UNUSUAL OCCUPATIONS

(In Color)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 5 L7-5	Apr. 15,'38	10
No. 6 (6-8-38) L7-6	June 10,'38	10

(New Series)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 1 (8-27-38) L8-1	Aug. 5,'38†	10
No. 2 (10-22-38) L8-2	Oct. 7,'38†	11
No. 3 L8-3	Dec. 2,'38†	1 rl.
No. 4 (1-28-39) L8-4	Feb. 3,'39†	10

RKO RADIO

LEON ERROL COMEDIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Berth Quake 83,705	May 6,'38	16
Crime Rave 93,703	Jan. 13,'39†	18
Home Boner 93,704	Mar. 10,'39†	20
Jitters, The (6-25-38) 83,706	July 1,'38	19
Major Difficulties 93,702	Nov. 18,'38†	19
Stage Fright (9-3-38) 93,701	Sept. 23,'38†	18

HEADLINERS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 3—Picketing for Love 83,603	June 3,'38	17

1938-39

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 1—Sea Melody (10-1-38) 93,601	Oct. 21,'38†	19
No. 2—Romancing Along 93,602	Dec. 30,'38†	21
No. 3—Swing Vacation 93,603	Feb. 24,'39†	19

EDGAR KENNEDY COMEDIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Beaux and Errors (10-8-38) 93,401	Oct. 7,'38†	18
Clean Sweep, A 93,402	Dec. 2,'38†	17
Fool Coverage (8-13-38) 83,406	July 15,'38	16
Kennedy's Castle 83,405	May 28,'38	17
Maid to Order 93,403	Jan. 27,'39†	18

MARCH OF TIME

1937-38

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 10 — Racketeers vs. Housewives — Friend of the People — England's Bankrupt Peers 83,110	May 13,'38	10
No. 11—Men of Medicine: 1938, 83,111	June 10,'38	17
No. 12—U. S. Coast Guard 83,112	July 8,'38	17
No. 13—Man at the Wheel — Threat to Gibraltar (8-6-38) 83,113	Aug. 15,'38	19

1938-39

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 1—Prelude to Conquest —Father Divine (9-3-38) 93,101	Sept. 2,'38†	2 rls.
No. 2—U. S. Fire Fighters —The British Dilemma (10-8-38) 93,102	Sept. 30,'38†	19
No. 3—Inside the Maginot Line (11-5-38) 93,102	Oct. 28,'38	20
No. 4—Uncle Sam the Good Neighbor (11-26-38)	Nov. 25,'38†	19
No. 5—The Refugee—Today and Tomorrow (12-24-38) 93,105	Dec. 23,'38†	18
No. 6—State of the Nation (1-28-39) 93,106

NU-ATLAS PRODUCTIONS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Cafe Rendezvous (12-3-38) 94,205	Dec. 23,'38†	10
Carnival Show 84,212	June 24,'38	10
Jan Peerce
Hockshop Blues (8-6-38) 84,213	July 15,'38	10
Brad Reynolds & Orch.
International Rhythm (7-2-38) 84,211	June 3,'38	10
Roy Smeek and His Aloha Islanders	May 13,'38	11
Reading', Ritin', and Rhythm 94,207	Feb. 17,'39†	10
Salt Shakers 84,210
J. C. Flippen	Apr. 1,'38	11
Skyline Revue 84,200
Paula Stone
Styles and Smiles (10-15-38) 94,202	Sept. 30,'38†	11
Virginia Verrill
Talent Auction 94,203	Oct. 28,'38†	10
Irene Beasley
Tropical Topics 94,206	Jan. 20,'39†	10
Rosita Ortega
Under a Gypsy Moon (9-3-38) 94,201	Sept. 2,'38†	10
J. Harold Murray
Venetian Moonlight 94,204	Nov. 25,'38	1 rl.
Mario Cozzi

PATHE NEWS

Released twice a week

PATHE PARADE

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 5—Ventriloquist's Dummy—ASCAP—Ballet School 84,605	Apr. 22,'38	11
No. 6—Count of Ten (7-16-38) 84,606	June 17,'38	10
No. 7—Expose of Spiritualism — Trip Thru Walt Disney Studios (7-23-38) 84,607	Aug. 12,'38	10

PATHE REVIEWS

Released once a month

PATHE TOPICS

Released seven times a year

RADIO FLASH COMEDIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Hectic Honeymoon 93,201	Nov. 4,'37†	17
Photografter, The 83,203	June 17,'38	15
Jack Rice
Plumb Crazy 93,202	Feb. 3,'39†	16

RADIO MUSICAL COMEDIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Twenty Girls and a Band (1-22-38) 83,502	Apr. 8,'38	18
Nick Stuart and Orch.

RAY WHITLEY COMEDIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Prairie Papos 93,502	Dec. 16,'38†	18
Western Welcome, A 93,501	Sept. 9,'38†	18

REELISMS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Dude Ranch (12-3-38) 94,603	Nov. 11,'38	9
Newsreel (12-31-38) 94,604	Dec. 10,'38†	10
Pilot Boat 94,605	Feb. 3,'39†	9
Trans-America 94,602	Oct. 14,'38†	11
Submarine Circus (10-8-38) 94,601	Sept. 16,'38†	10

RKO PATHE SPORTSCOPE

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Bird Dogs (11-19-38) 94,303	Nov. 4,'38	10
Bit and Bridle 84,306	May 13,'38	10
Blue Grass (12-17-38)		10
Bow Strings 94,306	Jan. 27,'39†	9
Brother Golfers (8-6-38) 84,309	July 15,'38	11
Fisherman's Paradise (10-8-38) 94,301	Sept. 9,'38†	9
Flying Feathers 84,308	June 24,'38	9
On the Wing 94,305	Dec. 30,'38†	10
Underwater (6-25-38) 84,307	June 3,'38	9

SHEILA BARRETT COMEDIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Week-End Guest 94,401	Oct. 14,'38†

SMART SET

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Buckaroo Broadcast, A (6-18-38) 83,203	Apr. 22,'38	18
Ray Whitley
Hunting Trouble (8-13-38) 83,303	Aug. 12,'38	10
Jed Prouty

WALT DISNEY CARTOONS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Brave Little Tailor (10-1-38) 94,101	Sept. 23,'38†	9
Donald's Golf Game 94,103	Nov. 4,'38	8
Donald's Lucky Day (10-1-38) 94,107	Jan. 13,'39†	8
Donald's Nephews 84,111	Apr. 15,'38	8
Farmyard Symphony (10-1-38) 94,102	Oct. 14,'38	8
Ferdinand the Bull (10-1-38) 94,104	Nov. 25,'38†	8
(Exploitation: Jan. 7,'39, p. 50; Jan. 28, '39, pp. 59, 60.)
Fox Hunt, The (6-18-38) 84,116	July 29,'38	8
Good Scouts (6-25-38) 84,115	July 8,'38	8
Goofy and Wilbur (10-1-38) 94,112	Apr. 28,'39†	8
Merbabies 94,105	Dec. 9,'38†	8
Mickey's Parrot (9-10-38) 84,118	Sept. 9,'38	8
Mickey's Trailer 84,112	May 6,'38	8
Moth and the Flame, The (3-9-38) 84,110	Apr. 1,'38	8
Mother Goose Goes Hollywood (10-38) 94,106	Dec. 23,'38†	7½
Polar Trappers 84,114	June 17,'38	8
Practical Pig, The (10-1-38) 94,109	Feb. 24,'39†
Society Dog Show (11-12-38) 94,108	Feb. 3,'39†	8
Ugly Duckling, The (10-1-38) 94,111	Apr. 7,'39†	8
Whalers, The (8-10-38) 84,117	Aug. 19,'38	8
Wynken, Blynken and Nod 84,113	May 27,'38	8

20TH CENTURY-FOX

ADVENTURES OF THE NEWSREEL CAMERAMAN

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Daily Diet of Danger, A	Jan. 6,'39†
Filming Big Thrills 9202	Oct. 28,'38†	1 rl.
Recording Modern Science 9201	Aug. 19,'38†	1 rl.

FASHIONS (In Color)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Fashion Forecasts (Autumn Styles) (10-15-38) 9601	Sept. 16,'38†	11
Fashion Forecasts (Winter Styles) (12-31-38) 9602	Nov. 11,'38†	10

LEW LEHR

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
What Every Boy Should Know 9401	Sept. 2,'38†	1 rl.
What Every Girl Should Know (10-22-38) 9402	Nov. 25,'38†	10

MAGIC CARPET SERIES

(Lowell Thomas)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Land of Contentment 9102	Oct. 14,'38†	1 rl.
Golden California 9101	Aug. 5,'38 †	1 rl.
Isle of Pleasure (11-19-38) 9103	Dec. 23,'38†	11
Viking Trail (12-31-38)		11

TERRY-TOONS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Chris Columbo 9501	Aug. 12,'38†	1 rl.
Glass Slipper, The (10-22-38) 9522	Oct. 7,'38†	7
Gandy Goose In Doomsday 9524	Dec. 16,'38†
Goose Flies High, The	Sept. 9,'38†	1 rl.
Housewife Herman (11-19-38) 9523	Nov. 18,'38†	6½
New Comer, The 9504	Oct. 21,'38†	1 rl.
Stranger Rides Again, The (12-3-38) 9505	Nov. 4,'38†	8
String Bean Jack 9521	Aug. 26,'38†	1 rl.
(In color)
Untitled 9507	Dec. 30,'38†
Village Blacksmith 9506	Dec. 2,'38†
Wolf's Side of the Story 9503	Sept. 23,'38†	1 rl.

ED THORGENSEN (Sports)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Shooting for Par 9302	Jan. 13,'39
Timber Toppers (11-12-38) 9301	Oct. 28,'38†	10

UNITED ARTISTS

WORLD WINDOWS

(Color)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Arabian Bazaar (12-31-38)		1 rl.
Eternal Fire, The (1-28-39)		1 rl.
Fox Hunting (1-21-39)		1 rl.
Jersusalem (1-14-39)		1 rl.
Petra (1-14-39)		1 rl.
Rome Symphony (12-31-38)		1 rl.
Ruins of Palymra
Wanderers of the Desert (1-7-39		1 rl.

UNIVERSAL

GOING PLACES WITH LOWELL THOMAS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 48 2379	Apr. 11,'38	9
No. 49 2380	Apr. 25,'38	9
No. 50 (4-30-38) 2381	May 9,'38	9
No. 51 (6-11-38) 2382	June 13,'38	10
No. 52. (6-25-38) 2383	June 27,'38	9
No. 53 3351	Aug. 22,'38†	9
No. 54 (11-19-38) 3352	Sept. 12,'38†	9½
No. 55 (12-3-38) 3353	Oct. 3,'38†	9
No. 56 (11-26-38) 3354	Nov. 14,'38†	10
No. 57 3355	Nov. 28,'38†	1 rl.
No. 58 3356	Dec. 26,'38†	1 rl.
No. 59 3357	Jan. 30,'39†	1 rl.
No. 60 3358	Feb. 20,'39†	1 rl.

LANTZ CARTUNES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Baby Kittens (12-3-38) 3245	Dec. 19,'38†	1 rl.
Cat and the Bell, The 3241	Oct. 3,'38†	7
Disobedient Mouse (12-3-38) 3244	Nov. 28,'38†	8½
I'm Just a Jitterbug (1-21-39) 3248	Jan. 23,'39†	7
Little Blue Blackbirds (12-10-38) 3246	Dec. 26,'38†	7
Magic Beans 3249	Feb. 13,'39†	1 rl.
Rabbit Hunt (11-19-38) 3242	Oct. 10,'38†	7½
Sailor Mouse, The (11-19-38) 3243	Nov. 7,'38†	7
Soup to Mutts 3247	Jan. 9,'39†	7

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title Rel. Date Min.

MENTONE MUSICAL COMEDIES

Beauty Shoppe (8-27-38)
3222 ....Sept. 28,'38†19½..
Imogene Coca
Down on the Barn
(2-26-38) 2167 ....Feb. 23,'38.17....
Billy Jones-Ernie Hare
Fits and Benefits 2173....July 27,'38.19....
York and King
High Jack N' the Show
(5-21-38) 2170 ....May 18,'38.17....
James Barton
Latin Hi-Hattin'
(4-30-38) 2169 ....Apr. 27,'38.17....
Dorothy Stone-
Chas. Collins
Music and Flowers
(5-21-38) 2171 ....June 15,'38.19....
Block and Sully
Music and Models
(12-3-38) 3225 ....Dec. 14,'38†18....
Jack Arthur
Nautical Knights (1-28-39)
3226 ....Jan. 11,'39†19....
Arthur-Morton Havel ...
Patio Serenade (11-12-38)
3224 ....Nov. 16,'38†17....
Tito Coral-Armida
Rhythm Cafe 3221..........Sept. 7,'38†20....
Virginia Verrill
Side Show Fakir 3223....Oct. 12,'38†20....
Clyde Hager-Charioteers
Somewhere in Paris
(3-5-38) 2168 ....Mar. 23,'38.17....
J. Harold Murray
Stars and Stripes (7-2-38)
2172 ....Feb. 15,'39.2 rls..
Ed. East-Ralph Dumke July 6,'38.17½..
Wild and Bully 3227......Feb. 15,'39.19....

OSWALD CARTOONS

Barnyard Romeo (8-20-38)
2291 ....Aug. 1,'38..7....
Big Cat and the Little Mousie, The (10-15-38)
2293 ....Aug. 15,'38†.7....
Cheese Nappers (7-2-38)
2288 ....July 4,'38..7....
Feed the Kitty 2281......Mar. 14,'38..7....
Ghost Town Frolics 2294..Sept. 5,'38..7....
Happy Scouts (7-2-38)
2395 ....June 20,'38..7....
Man Hunt (2-26-38) 2278.Feb. 7,'38..7....
Movie Phony News 2285...May 30,'38.......
Nellie, The Indian Chief's
Daughter (6-4-38) 2286.June 6,'38..7....
Nellie, the Sewing Machine
Girl (5-14-38) 2282.....Apr. 11,'38..7½..
Pixie Land 2295...........Sept. 12,'38..7....
Problem Child, The
(5-14-38) 2284..........May 16,'38..7....
Queen's Kittens 2292......Aug. 8,'38..7....
Silly Seals (8-27-38) 2290.July 25,'38..7....
Tail End (5-21-38) 2283..Apr. 25,'38..7....
Trade Mice 2280..........Feb. 28,'38..7....
Yokel Boy Makes Good
(3-12-38) 2279 ....Feb. 21,'38..7....
Voodoo In Harlem (7-9-38)
2289 ....July 18,'38..7....

STRANGER THAN FICTION SERIES

No. 50—Novelty 2394.....May 2,'38..9....
No. 51—Novelty (6-11-38)
2395 ....June 6,'38..9....
No. 52—Novelty (7-2-38)
2396 ....June 20,'38..9....
No. 53—Novelty 3364 ....Aug. 29,'38†.9....
No. 54—Novelty 3365 .....Sept. 19,'38†.9....
No. 55—Novelty (10-8-38)
3366 ....Oct. 10,'38†.9½..
No. 56—Novelty (12-3-38)
3367 ....Nov. 21,'38†.9....
No. 57—Novelty (12-17-38)
3368 ....Dec. 5,'38†.9....
No. 58—Novelty (1-28-39)
3369 ....Jan. 2,'39†.9½..
No. 59—Novelty 3370 .....Feb. 6,'39†.1 rl..
No. 60—Novelty 3371.....Mar. 6,'39†.1 rl..

VITAPHONE

Title Rel. Date Min.

BROADWAY BREVITIES

Forget-Me-Knots 3011.....May 7,'38..2 rls.
Bernice Claire
Steeks and Blondes 3023...May 21,'38..2 rls.
Gene Lockhart
Out Where the Stars Begin
3004 ....May 28,'38..2 rls.
Evelyn Thawl-Jeffrey Lynn

Title Rel. Date Min.
Prisoner of Swing 3012....June 11,'38..2 rls.
Hal LeRoy
Rise and Sing 3029......June 25,'38..2 rls.
Cross and Dunn
Rainbow's End (7-23-38)
3017 ....July 2,'38.22....
Eddie Peabody
My Pop 3024.............July 16,'38..2 rls.
Henry Armetta
Sons of the Plains
(7-23-38) 3006 ....July 30,'38.19....
Mauch Twins
Up In Lights 3018.........Aug. 13,'38..2 rls.
Pat Rooney
There Goes the Bride 3030.Aug. 27,'38..2 rls.
Fifi D'Orsay
Zero Girl 4009........... Sept. 3,'38†.2 rls.
Evelyn Chandler
Campus Cinderella 4001...Sept. 17,'38†18....
Johnnie Davis
Murder with Reservations
4010 ....Sept. 24,'38†.2 rls.
George Campo
Toyland Casino (10-22-38)
4011 ....Oct. 8,'38†22....
Two Shadows 4012.........Oct. 22,'38†.2 rls.
Knight Is Young, The
4013 ....Oct. 29,'38†.2 rls.
Hal LeRoy
Cleaning Up (10-29-38)
4014 .... Nov. 12,'38†20....
Cross and Dunn
Declaration of Independence
The (10-15-38) 4002..... Nov. 26,'38.19....
John Litel (color)
Star Dust (12-3-38) 4015.. Dec. 12,'38†22....
Benny Davis
Boarder Trouble 4016......Dec. 17,'38†.2 rls.
Joe and Asbestos
Swing Time In the Movies
(1-7-39) 4003 ....Jan. 7,'39†20....
Fritz Feld (color)
Hats and Dogs 4017......
Wini Shaw Dec. 31,'38†.2 rl..
Lincoln in the White House
(1-14-39) 4004 ....Feb. 11,'39†20....
Frank McGlynn (color)
Sophmore Living 4021.....Jan. 21,'39†.2 rls.
Harvest Moon Dancers

COLOR PARADE

Miracles of Sport 4601....Sept. 10,'38†10....
China Today (11-12-38)
4602 ....Oct. 1,'38†11....
Mechanix Illustrated, No. 1
(12-3-38) 4603 .... Nov. 5,'38†10....
Nature's Mimics 4604..... Dec. 3,'38..1 rl..
Mechanix Illustrated, No. 2
4605 ....Jan. 7,'39†.1 rl..

COLORTOUR ADVENTURE

(In Color)

Pearl of the East 3509....May 21,'38..1 rl..
Mechanix Illustrated
(7-23-38) 3511 ....June 4,'38.10....
Isles of Enchantment 3512.June 25,'38..1 rl..
Hermit Kingdom 3513....Aug. 27,'38..1 rl..
Mechanix Illustrated, No. 2
4005 .... Jan. 7,'39†.1 rl..

FLOYD GIBBONS' "YOUR TRUE ADVENTURE"

Wanderlust 3309 ....May 14,'38..1 rl..
Dreams Come True, A
3310 ....June 6,'38..1 rl..
Fighting Judge, The
(8-6-38) 3311 ....July 2,'38.13....
Night Intruder (7-30-38)
3312 ....July 23,'38.14....
Trapped Underground 3313.Aug. 20,'38..1 rl..
Identified 4301 ....Sept. 17,'38†12....
Defying Death (12-10-38)
4303 .... Oct. 15,'38†12....
Toils of the Law 4302..... Nov. 12,'38†.1 rl..
Treacherous Waters
(12-17-38) 4304 .... Dec. 10,'38†10....
The Human Bomb
(1-28-39) 4305..........Jan. 7,'39†12....

LOONEY TUNES

No. 52—Injun Trouble
3611 ....May 21,'38..1 rl..
No. 53—Porky the Fireman 3612 ....June 4,'38..1 rl..
No. 54—Porky's Party
3613 ....June 25,'38..1 rl..
No. 55—Porky's Spring
Planting (7-9-38) 3614..July 16,'38..7....
No. 56—Porky and Daffy
(7-30-38) 3615 .... Aug. 6,'38..7....
No. 57—Wholly Smoke
3616 ....Aug. 27,'38..1 rl..

Title Rel. Date Min.
No. 58—Porky In Wackyland 4801 ....Sept. 24,'38†.1 rl..
No. 59—Porky's Naughty
Nephew 4802 ....Oct. 15,'38†.1 rl..
No. 61—Daffy Doc, The
(12-3-38) 4804 ....Nov. 26,'38†.7....
No. 62—Porky The Gob
(12-31-38) 4805 .... Dec. 17,'38†.7....
No. 63—The Lone Stranger and Porky 4806.........Jan. 7,'39†.1 rl..
No. 64—It's an Ill Wind
4807 ....Jan. 28,'39†.1 rl..

MELODY MASTERS

Don Bestor and Orch.
3716 .... July 9,'38..1 rl..
Saturday Night Swing Club
3717 ....July 30,'38..1 rl..
Clyde McCoy and Orch.
3718 .... Aug. 20,'38..1 rl..
Larry Clinton and Orch.
4701 ....Sept. 3,'38†.1 rl..
Ray Kinney and Hawaiians
4702 .... Oct. 1,'38†......
Merle Kendricks and Orch.
(10-22-38) 4704 ....Nov. 12,'38†10....
Music with a Smile
(7-30-38) 4705 .... Dec. 3,'38†10....
Dave Apollon and Orch.
(12-17-38) 4706 .... Dec. 24,'38†11....
Clyde Lucas and Orch.
(1-21-39) 4707 ....Jan. 7,'39†10....
Blue Barron and Orch. Jan. 21,'39† 1 rl..
4708 ....

MERRIE MELODIES

(In Colors)

No. 58—Katnip Kollege
3414 ....June 11,'38..1 rl..
No. 59—Have You Got Any
Castles 3415 ....June 25,'38..1 rl..
No. 60—Love and Curses
(7-23-38) 3416 ....July 9,'38..7....
No. 61—Cinderella Meets
Fella (7-23-38) 3417....July 23,'38..7....
No. 62—The Major Lied
'Til Dawn 3418.........Aug. 13,'38..1 rl..
No. 63—A-Lad-In Bagdad
3419 ....1 rl..
No. 64—Cracked Ice 3420...............1 rl..
No. 65—A Feud There Was
4501 ....Sept. 24,'38†.7....
No. 66—Little Pancho
Vanilla (10-22-38) 4502. Oct. 8,'38†.7....
No. 67—Johnny Smith and Poker Huntas 4503 ..... Oct. 22,'38†.1 rl..
No. 68—You're An Education (12-3-38) 4504 .... Nov. 5,'38†.7....
No. 69—Night Watchman,
The (11-26-38) 4505.... Nov. 19,'38†.7....
No. 70—Daffy Duck in Hollywood 4506 .... Dec. 12,'38†.1 rl..
No. 71—Count Me Out
(12-31-38) 4507 .... Dec. 17,'38†.7....
No. 72—The Mice Will Play 4508 .... Dec. 31,'39†.1 rl..
No. 73—Dog Gone Modern
(1-21-39) 4509 ....Jan. 14,'39†.7....
No. 73—Ham-ateur Night
4510 ....Jan. 28,'39† 1rl..

PICTORIAL REVUES

No. 11—Plastics—Perfume
3811 ....July 9,'38..1 rl..
No. 12—Hollywood—Sculling—Furs 3812 ....Aug. 13,'38..1 rl..

TECHNICOLOR SPECIALS

Pow Wow 4401...........Oct. 1,'38†......
Immortal Brush (10-22-38)
4402 .... Nov. 19,'38†.9....

VITAPHONE VARIETIES

Swing Cat's Jamboree
(7-9-38) 3912 ....Aug. 6,'38..8....
Louis Prima and Orch.
The Great Library Misery
4901 ....Sept. 10,'38†11....
Table Manners 4902...... Oct. 15,'38†11....
Vaudeville Interlude 4903.. Nov. 19,'38†.1 rl..
Robbin' Good (12-3-38)
4904 .... Dec. 10,'38†10....
Luis Zingone
Ski Girl (1-28-39) 4905...Jan. 14,'39†10....

OTHER PRODUCT

Title Rel. Date Min.

A. B. F. D.

Legend of Norfolk, A (12-31-38) ....

DEVLIN

Ancient Cities of Southern France (8-13-38) ....Aug. 15,'38†10....

Title Rel. Date Min.
Old Towns of Normandy
Makassar (8-6-38) .... Aug. 15,'38†10....
Resorts and Quaint Towns of the Blue Coast
(5-21-38) .... July 15,'38†10½..
Rio de Janeiro (8-13-38).. Aug. 15,'38†10....
Venice (8-13-38) ....Aug. 15,'38†10....
Voyage to Cebu (7-2-38)..July 15,'38†.9....

G.P.O. FILM UNIT

North Sea (7-9-38)...............................

HOFFBERG

Trailing the Jaguar
(7-2-38) .... July 15,'38.28....

LENAUER

Datelines (6-18-38) ....8....
Frosty Frolics (12-24-38).............11....
Getting Your Money's
Worth (12-31-38) ....11....

REGAL

Youth Marches On
(9-24-38) .... Sept. 24,'38.20....

SACK

(with Negro Cast)

Brown Gravey ....July 30,'38†21....
Framing of the Shrew, The. July 30,'38†19....
Lady Fare, The...........July 30,'38†20....
Melancholy Dame, The....July 30,'38†19....
Music Hath Harms........July 30,'38†21....
Off In the Silly Night..... July 30,'38†20....
Old Black Joe............Sept. 15,'38†17....
On a Plantation............Sept. 1,'38†20....
Pickin' Cotton .... Oct. 1,'38†.8....
Road Back, The.......... Oct. 1,'38†19....
Slave Days ....Sept. 15,'38†.9....
Welcome Home ....Sept. 1,'38†10....

SANDERS FILMS

Midsummer In Sweden
(11-5-38) ....10....
Fishing in the Fiords
(11-12-38) ....10....
Dalecarlia, The Heart of
Sweden (11-19-38) ....10....

SCREEN MEMORIES

Memory Lingers On, The
(8-13-38) ....9....

WORLD

Andante et Rondo..............................
Ave Maria ....
Children's Corner ....
Jeune Fille Au Jardin.... ....
Les Berceuse ....
Song of Ceylon...................................
Valse Brillante ....

SERIALS

12 Episodes Each Unless Otherwise Specified

COLUMBIA

Title Rel Date Min.
Flying G Men............Jan. 28,'39†......
James Craig-Lorna Gray
Mandrake, the Magician... May 6,'39†......
Overland with Kit Carson. Aug. 12,'39†......
Bill Elliott
Spider's Web, The
(11-5-38) 9120 ....Oct. 22,'38†19....
Warren Hull-Iris Meredith (each)
(15 episodes)

REPUBLIC

Title Rel Date Min.
Dick Tracy Returns
(8-6-38) 7201 ....Aug. 20,'38.18....
Ralph Byrd-Lynn Roberts (each)
(15 episodes)
Hawk of the Wilderness
(12-10-38) 7301 .... Dec. 3,'38†.2 rls.
(each)
(1st episode 29)
H. Brix-J. Martin-Malo
Lone Ranger Rides Again. Feb. 25,'39†.2 rls.
Robert Livingston- (each)
Chief Thunder Cloud (1st episode-30 min.)
(15 episodes)

UNIVERSAL

Title Rel Date Min.
Buck Rogers 3881-92......Apr. 11,'39†......
Larry Crabbe
Red Barry (10-8-38)
3681-3793 ....Oct. 18,'38†20....
Buster Crabbe-Frances Robinson (each)
Scouts to the Rescue
(12-31-38) 3781-92 .....Jan. 17,'39†......
Jackie Cooper-Vandell Darr
(Exploitation: Jan. 14,'39, p. 65.)

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

the great national medium for showmen

Ten cents per word, money-order or check with copy. Count initials, box number and address. Minimum insertion, $1. Four insertions for the price of three. Contract rates on application. No borders or cuts. Forms close Mondays at 5 P.M. Publisher reserves the right to reject any copy. Film and trailer service advertising not accepted. Classified advertising not subject to agency commission. Address correspondence, copy and checks to MOTION PICTURE HERALD, Classified Dept., Rockefeller Center, New York City.

THEATRES

FOR SALE. OPERATING RIGHTS ON THREE theatres in Middletown, Connecticut. "Closed Town." Population and drawing power about 50,000. Internal corporate friction requires public sale on April 11th at Capitol Theatre, Main Street, Middletown, at 2 P.M. Appraisal value for Court—$93,000. Terms upon request. WILLIAM L. HADDEN, Receiver, 129 Church Street, New Haven, Conn.

THEATRE FOR LEASE, 650 SEATS, SUBSEquent run, city of 100,000, reasonable terms. Good opportunity for right man. BOX 1111, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

NEW GENERAL EQUIPMENT

IT'S TIME TO BUY YOUR THEATRE EQUIPment needs on easy time-payments. Plan open to reliable exhibitors. Write S. O. S. CINEMA SUPPLY CORP., New York.

DUO "SOUND MASTER" — THE GOLDEN voice of the Silver Screen. New low cost economy and junior models. If not at your dealers, write us. THE BALLANTYNE CO., 222 No. 16th St., Omaha, Nebr.

THEATRE EQUIPMENT—SUPPLIES—ACCESsories—repair parts. Savings 20% to 50%. Send for big free catalog. CONSOLIDATED THEATRE SUPPLY CORP., 1600-M Broadway, New York.

DUO "LIGHT MASTER" SUPER LOW-INtensity projection lamps. More light at no increase in operating cost. If not at your dealers, write us. THE BALLANTYNE CO., 222 No. 16th St., Omaha, Nebr.

STAGE CURTAINS MODERN. ATTRACTIVE for operating track sides and overhead, $25 and up. SCHELL SCENIC STUDIO, Columbus, O.

DUO "SOUND MASTER" SOUNDHEADS WITH the gyro-stabilizer. Amplifiers with copper oxide rectified DC exciter supply. Speakers. Two-way horn systems. If not at your dealers, write us. THE BALLANTYNE CO., 222 No. 16th St., Omaha, Nebr.

WALL TYPE BATTERY TELEPHONES, $1.00 each instrument; cradle type battery telephones, $4.75 pair; inter-communication systems, master station and one sub-station, $10.95; electric, aperture guillotine type, changeovers for Simplex front or rear shutter mechanisms, $24.95 pair. D'ARMAND SUPPLY CO., Grant-Grandview Ave., Portsmouth, O.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES

OPERATORS, EXPERIENCED, EVERY STATE, movie circuit work, car needed. NO. 519 STATE THEATRE BLDG., Pittsburgh, Pa.

USED GENERAL EQUIPMENT

SOME THEATRE CAN USE YOUR OLD EQUIPment. A little ad here will reach thousands of potential customers. Only ten cents a word to tell the world what you have to sell. Try it today. MOTION PICTURE HERALD, Rockefeller Center, New York.

TWO USED NATIONAL SOUND SYSTEM soundheads, model S-2, perfect condition. CAMERA EQUIPMENT CO., 1600 Broadway, New York City.

17,431 PEOPLE CAN SIT COMFORTABLY ON these used veneer, upholstered theatre seats. Top value, 75c up. Write S. O. S. CINEMA SUPPLY CORP., New York.

SOUND MOVIEOLA MODEL MT, $250. Simplex double bearing projector complete with Morelite reflecting lamp, $200. BOX 1110, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

FOR SALE. LIMITED NUMBER GENUINE DeVry portable sound projectors. 35mm. 2000 ft. and 15 watt amplifiers. Completely reconditioned and factory guaranteed. Quick disposal price. DEVRY CORPORATION, 1111 Armitage Avenue, Chicago, Ill.

MANY RECONDITIONED CHAIRS IN STOCK. Your opportunity to buy now. Extremely low prices. ALLIED SEATING CO., INC., Used Chair Dept., 36 West 13th Street, New York.

150 MARQUEE LETTERS FOR SALE. REAsonable. Twelve inches high. Metal with rounded glass letter all in good condition. PALACE THEATRE, Netcong, N. J.

PRINTING SERVICE

CAN SUPPLY LAYOUTS, ART WORK, ENgravings and arrange printing for direct mail list. Prices furnished upon request and based on type of service needed. BOX 1098A, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

PROGRAM WINDOW CARDS—14 x 22. THREE flashy colors, new designs, 50, $3.50; 100, $4.75. Samples. HAWKEYE SHOW PRINT, Webster City, Iowa.

POSITIONS WANTED

MANAGER, SEEKS POSITION: PROGRESSIVE circuit, independent houses. Experienced booking, advertising. Best references. BOX 1108, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

PROJECTIONIST, 18 YEARS' EXPERIENCE, any make equipment. Sober, dependable. BOX 1112, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

BOOKS

MOTION PICTURE SOUND ENGINEERING—547 pages; illustrated; covers every practical method and process in present-day sound engineering. Leading engineers explain every detail of apparatus and its arrangement, with diagrams, tables, charts and graphs. This manual comes straight from the workshops of the studios in Hollywood. It is indispenable to everyone working with sound equipment. $6.50 postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

THE 1938-39 EDITION OF THE INDUSTRY'S INternational reference book, "Motion Picture Almanac," edited by Terry Ramsaye, is now available. It has the most facts about the motion picture business ever published. It is indispensable to every executive in the industry. This issue contains more than 12,000 biographies of important film people. Send your order today with a check for $3.25 and your copy will be promptly mailed, postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

RICHARDSON'S BLUEBOOK OF PROJECTION—Revised Sixth edition. The revised edition includes 722 pages of up-to-the-minute text charts and data with detailed description of assembly, wiring, and functioning of all modern sound and projection apparatus. It is a practical "trouble shooter," cross indexed for immediate reference in any projection room emergency. ORDER TODAY! $6.25 postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

NEW 567 PAGE BOOK ON AIR CONDITIONING by Charles A. Fuller, authority on the subject, reviewed in Buyers Number, available for theatre owners contemplating engineering changes. Book is cloth bound with index and charts and covers every branch of the industry as well as codes and ordinances regulating installation. Order now at $4.00 a copy postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

FAME. AN AUDIT OF PERSONALITIES EDITED by Terry Ramsaye. The class annual of the screen, radio and stage. Recognized by executives and talent agents as the guide to box office champions. Send your order today with check or money order for $1.00. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

BOOKKEEPING SYSTEMS

THEATRE ACCOUNTING BY WILLIAM F. Morris, is still the best bookkeeping system for theatres. It not only guides you in making the proper entries, but provides sufficient blank pages for a complete record of your operations for each day of the year. Notable for its simplicity. Order now—$4 postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

TRAINING SCHOOL

LEARN MODERN THEATRE MANAGEMENT, advertising. Train for better theatre positions. Free information. THEATRE INSTITUTE, 315 Washington, Elmira, N. Y.

PRESS OF
C. J. O'BRIEN, INC.
NEW YORK

Typical Eastman
RELIABILITY

EASTMAN Plus-X for general studio work ... Super-XX for all difficult exposures ... Background-X for backgrounds and all-round exterior work.... All three of these new negative films have special features suited to their particular fields ... plus the typical Eastman reliability that has served the industry so well in the past. Eastman Kodak Company, Rochester, N. Y. (J. E. Brulatour, Inc., Distributors, Fort Lee, Chicago. Hollywood.)

EASTMAN Plus-X ...
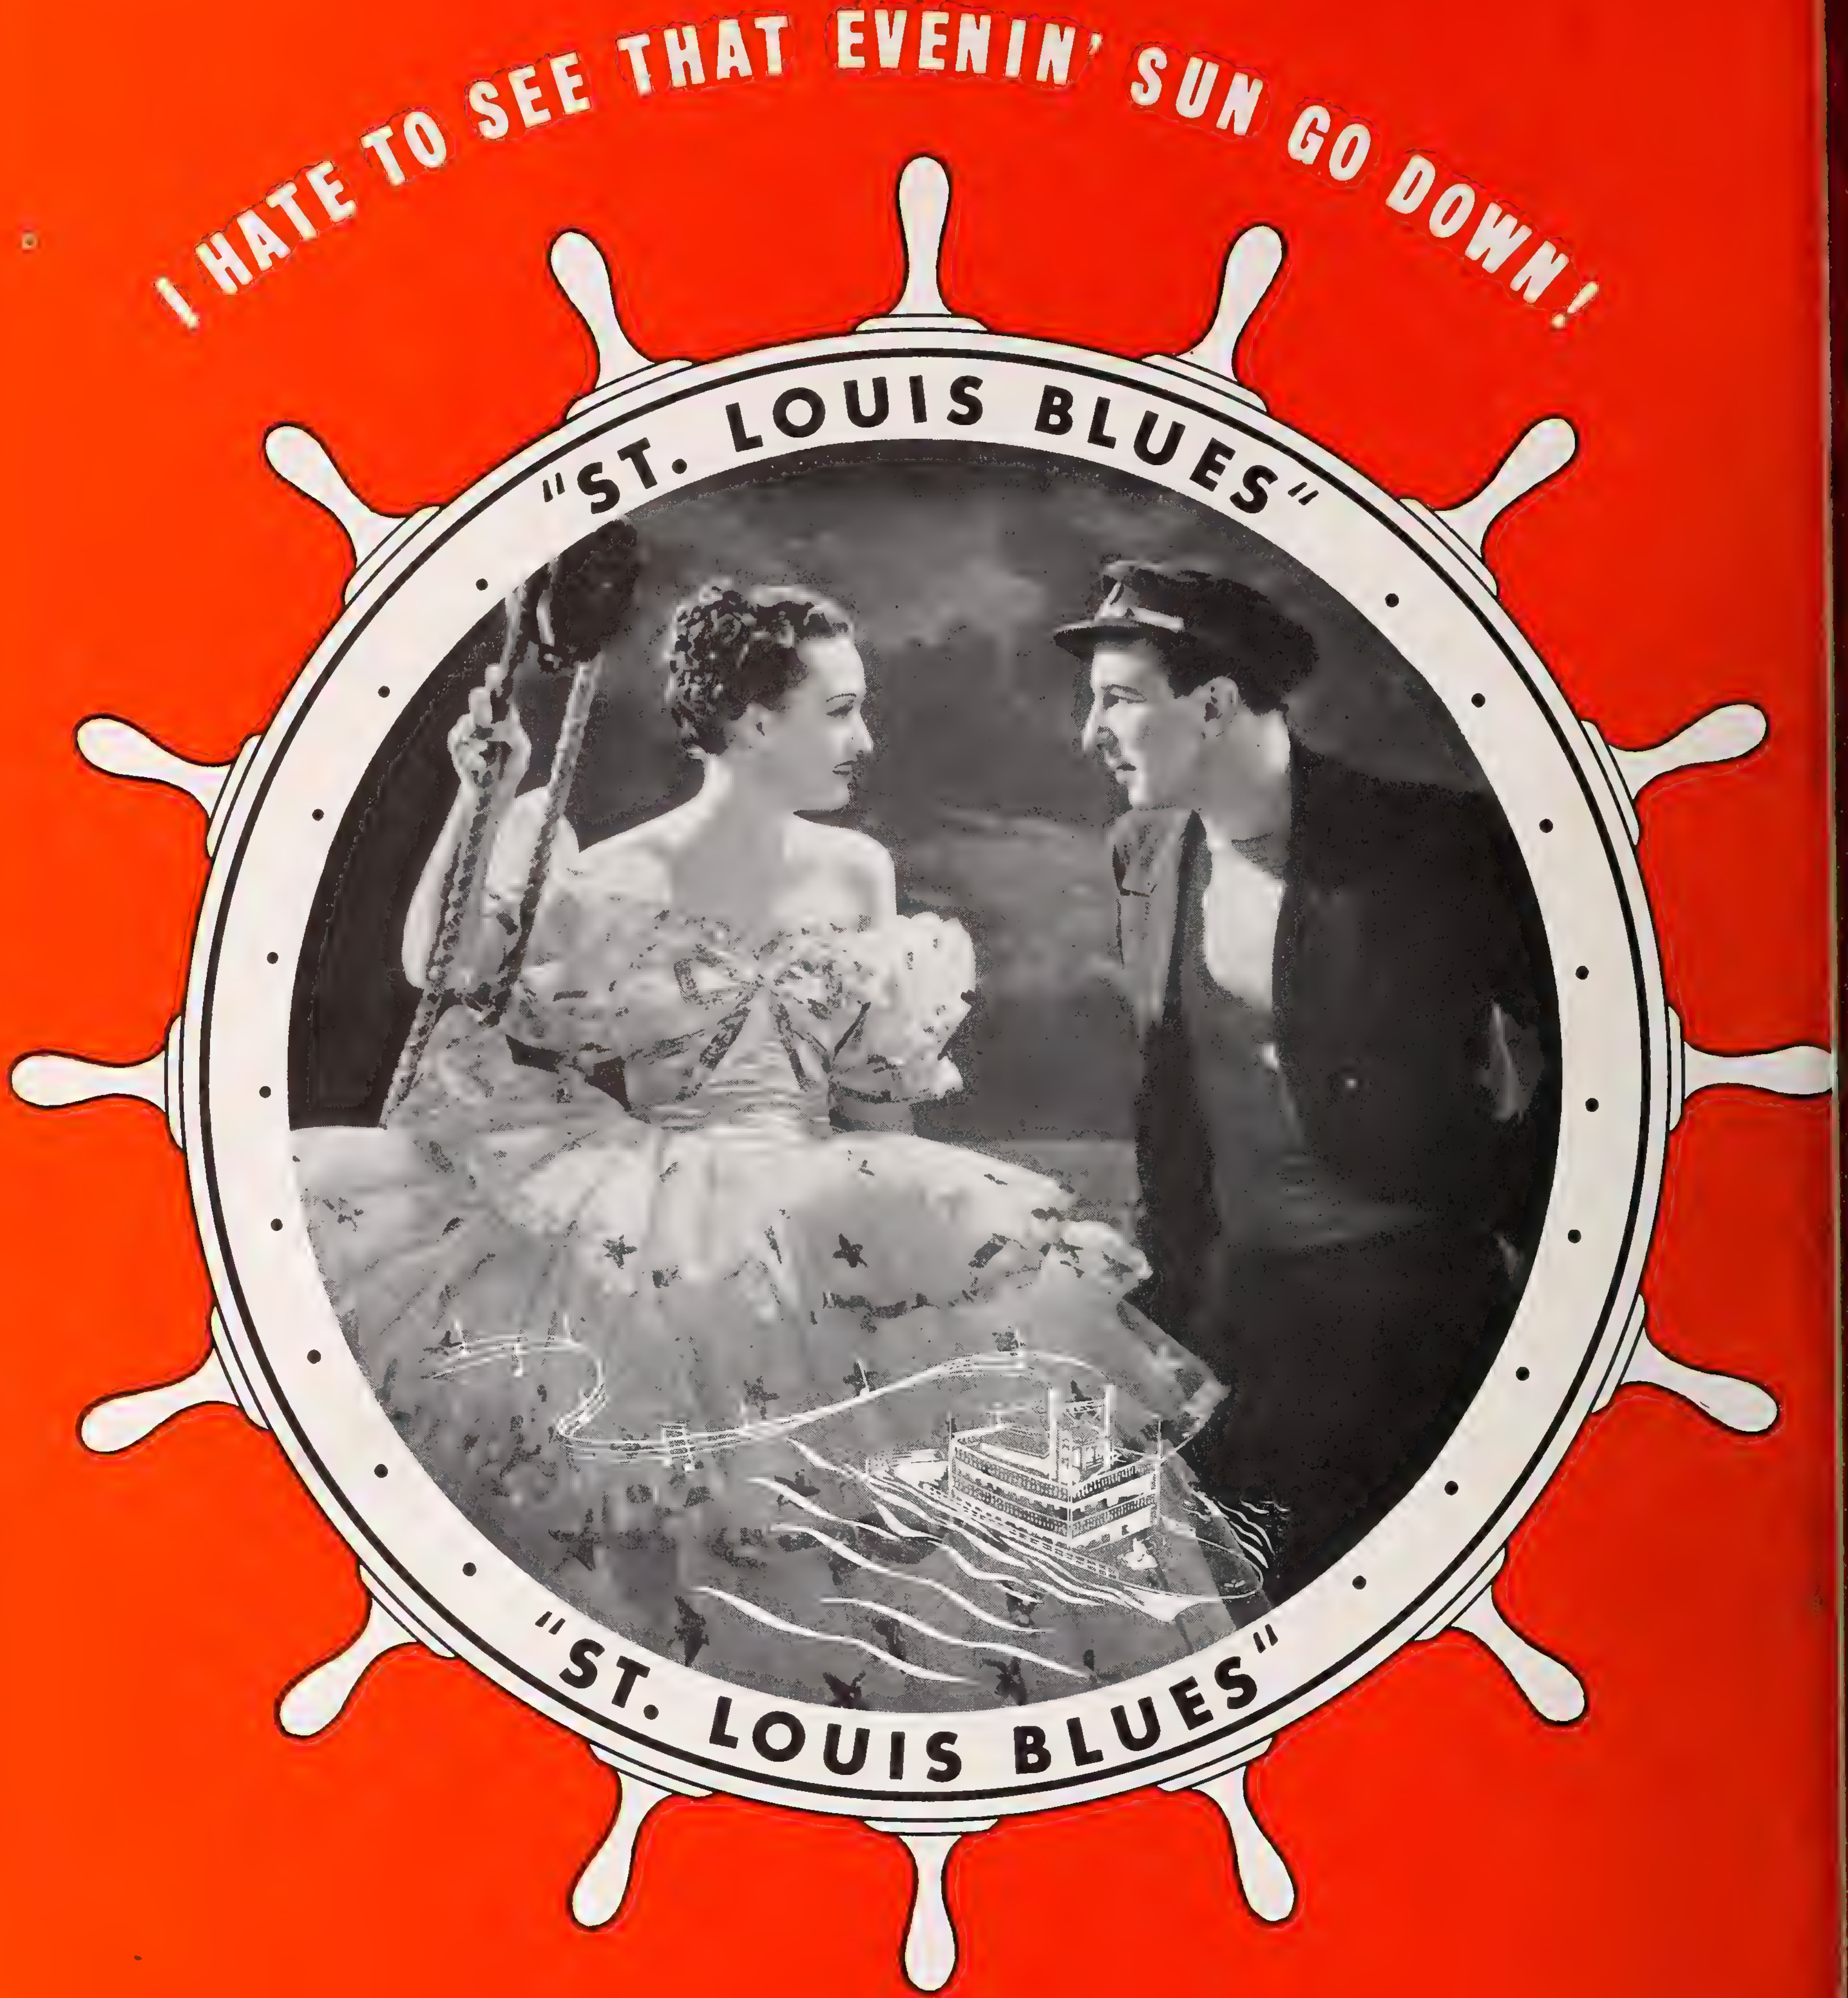
Super-XX ... Background-X



I HATE TO SEE THAT EVENIN' SUN GO DOWN!
"ST. LOUIS BLUES"
"ST. LOUIS BLUES"

Dorothy Lamour . . . that St. Louis woman, singing and swinging in Paramount's big showboat of entertainment, "ST. LOUIS BLUES" . . with Lloyd Nolan, romantic two-fisted river-man . . . Tito Guizar and his tropic rhythms...Jerome Cowan...Jessie Ralph...William Frawley...Mary (Punkins) Parker and her twinkling, dancing toes . . . Maxine Sullivan, queen of swing, singing "Loch Lomond" . . . Cliff Nazarro, radio's dean of double-talk . . . The King's Men . . . Matty Malneck and his Orchestra, brand new West Coast swing sensations. What a showboat . . . yes siree . . . and what a show!

Directed by Raoul Walsh · Screen play by John C. Moffitt and Malcolm Stuart Boylan · Additional dialogue by Virginia Van Upp · Based on an adaptation by Frederick Hazlitt Brennan of a story by Eleanore Griffin and William Rankin

MOTION PICTURE HERALD

Better Theatres

Front Treatments and Lighting the Marquee

FEBRUARY 4, 1939
Section Two

Why

DO YOU CARRY A NEW SUIT TO THE WINDOW?

It is because you can see it better, of course. In the stronger light you can see more clearly the details of pattern and construction. In daylight you see its true color.

This simple illustration explains the favorable reaction of patrons to High Intensity projection, now found in more than one third of the theaters in this country. This stronger, snow white light enables patrons to see all pictures more clearly and color features in more accurate hues than is possible with low intensity projection.

Simplified High Intensity projection gives two to three times as much light on the projection screen as low intensity. Yet it costs so little more that one extra admission per show will pay the difference. Ask your dealer's salesman to show you the book, "Yes—But What Will It Cost?"

SIMPLIFIED
High Intensity
PROJECTION
WITH "NATIONAL" "SUPREX" CARBONS
ECONOMICAL AND MODERN

NATIONAL CARBON COMPANY, INC.
Unit of Union Carbide UCC and Carbon Corporation
CARBON SALES DIVISION, CLEVELAND, OHIO
General Offices: 30 East 42nd Street, New York, N. Y.
BRANCH SALES OFFICES: NEW YORK PITTSBURGH CHICAGO SAN FRANCISCO

The words "National" and "Suprex" are trade-marks of National Carbon Company, Inc.

Every section of the nation is represented among the theatres listed below, whose alert proprietors ordered the revolutionary

AMERICAN Bodiform
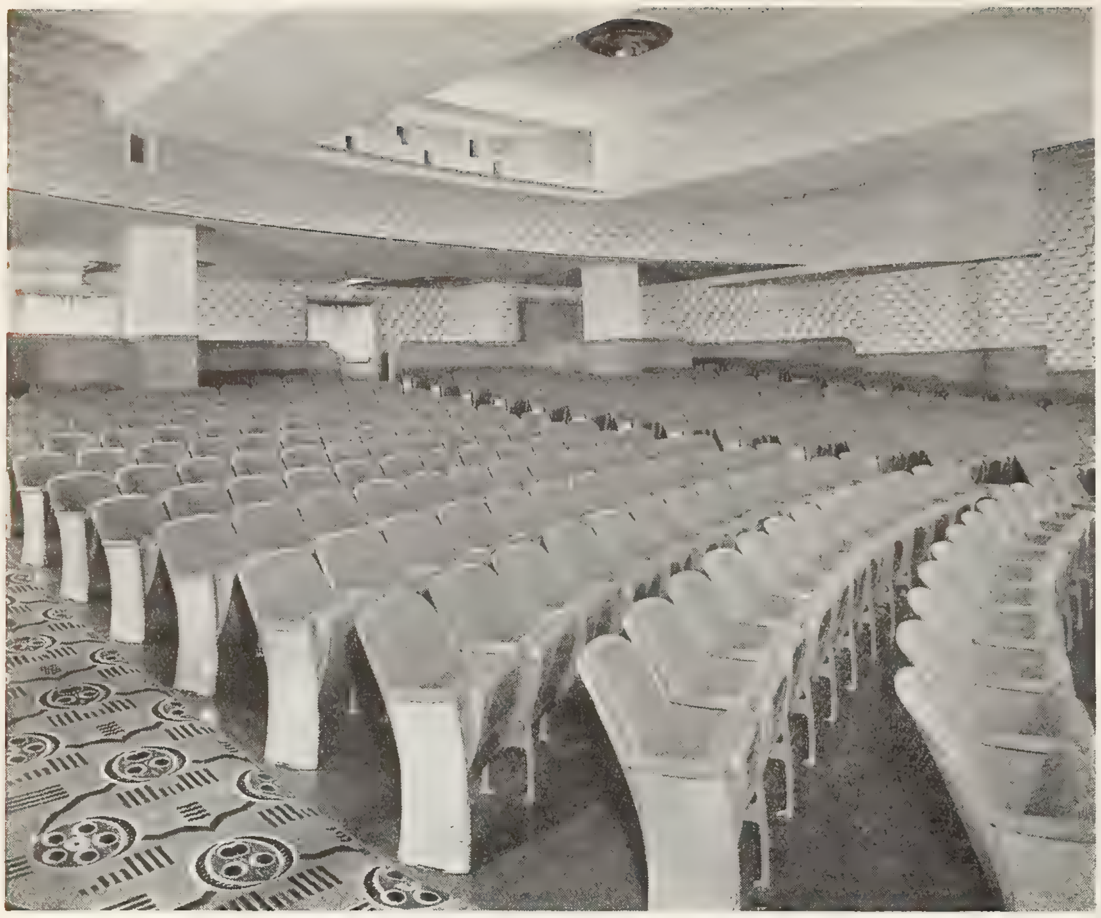
RESTFUL CHAIRS

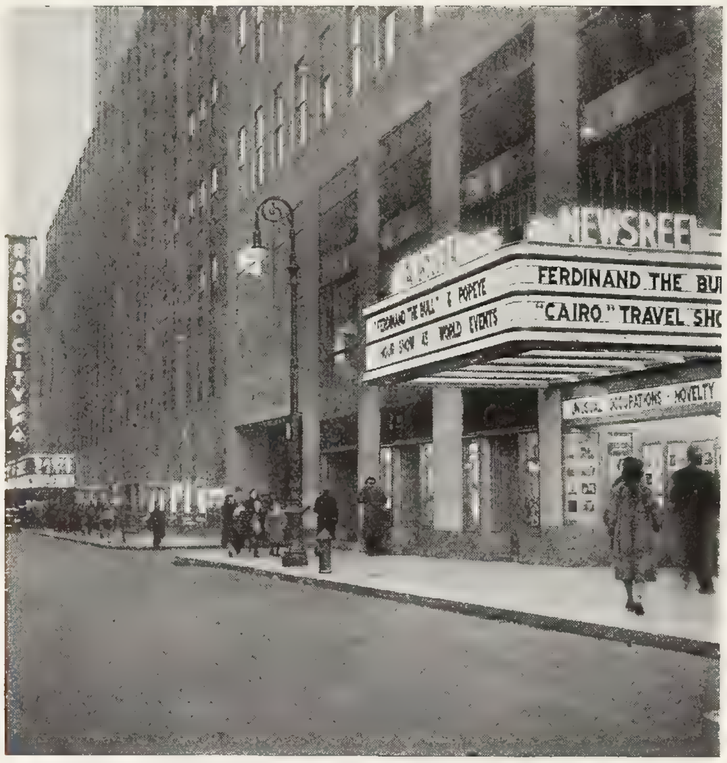
in 10 weeks after its first showing

FOUR STAR . . . Grand Rapids, Mich.
BROADWAY . . . Cape Girardeau, Mo.
ILLINOIS . . . Jacksonville, Illinois
GRAND . . . Crookston, Minnesota
LUX . . . Perham, Minnesota
RIALTO . . . Atlanta, Georgia
FOX . . . Sterling, Colorado
BATES . . . Attleboro, Massachusetts
LaREINA . . . Van Nuys, California
CENTER . . . Cadillac, Michigan
AVENUE . . . DuBois, Pennsylvania
NEWSREEL . . . New York, N. Y.
PLAZA . . . Dyersville, Iowa
STATE . . . Quincy, Illinois
SENATE . . . Detroit, Michigan
HINES . . . Portland, Indiana
VALENTINE . . . Defiance, Ohio
MADISON . . . Cincinnati, Ohio
FOREST . . . Cincinnati, Ohio
HOLLYWOOD . . . Sioux Falls, S. D.
MACK . . . Chester, Pennsylvania
ROXY . . . Fargo, North Dakota
STRAND . . . Shelbyville, Indiana
PARK . . . Indianapolis, Indiana
ALHAMBRA . . . Shelbyville, Indiana
MUNRO . . . Rolla, North Dakota
MADISON . . . Memphis, Tennessee
MARSHALL . . . Marshall, Michigan
MAIN STREET . . . Sauk Center, Minn.
JULIAR, Baraboo, Wisconsin
NILE . . . Bethlehem, Pennsylvania
LIBERTY . . . Lincoln, Nebraska
BLAKERS . . . Wildwood, New Jersey
COLONY . . . Portsmouth, Virginia
MERALTA . . . Los Angeles, California
STATE . . . Endicott, New York
STONEHURST . . . Upper Darby, Pa.

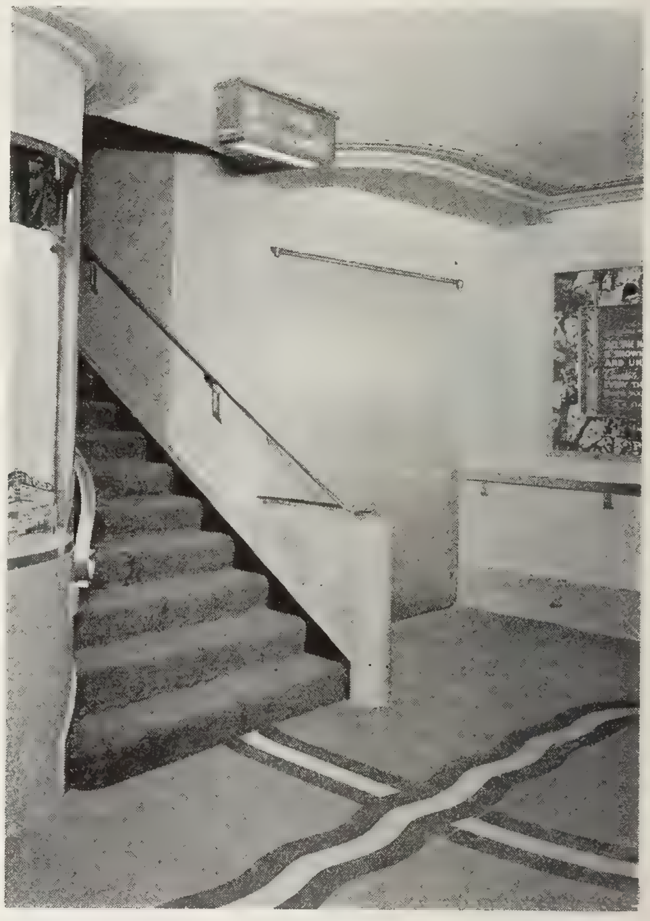
American Seating Company
GRAND RAPIDS, MICHIGAN
Pioneers and pacemakers in theatre, auditorium, school, church, stadium and transportation seating
Branch Offices and Distributors in Principal Cities



COSY INTIMACY ADJOINS POMP AND GRANDEUR



RADIO CITY
NEWSREEL
FERDINAND THE BU
"CAIRO" TRAVEL SHO
"FERDINAND THE BULL" & POPEYE
HOUR SHOW OF WORLD EVENTS
UNUSUAL OCCUPATIONS · NOVELTY



PLACED in the shadow of the gigantic Radio City Music Hall, Newsreel Theatres' third Manhattan holding provides an intimate 450-seat refuge for the busy midtown shopper. Stainless steel frames set off the two line Adler letter attraction on board. A third changeable letter line runs across the face of the theatre just above the box office. . . . The lobby (right) is floored with rubber matting into which traffic guide lines have been vulcanized. The waved guide line leads to the auditorium, from which exit is provided by the solid bronze doors at the right of the stairway. Since this picture was taken, the lobby walls were finished with Flexwood. The stairs lead to a lounge equipped with birch furniture specially designed to provide the resilience of tubular metal chairs. Beyond this is the women's lounge further described on Page 24. . . . The auditorium is carpeted in old rose; its walls are covered with flameproof green damask shading into several tones of rose at the ceiling. Chairs are American Bodiform, upholstered in turquoise. . . . The conditioning system delivers 400 cubic feet of fresh air per person per minute. . . . Projection is Simplex; sound equipment by RCA.

CONSTRUCTION • OPERATION

Better Theatres

MAINTENANCE • EQUIPMENT

VOLUME 134 FEBRUARY 4, 1939 NUMBER 6

Calls Theatre Lighting Primitive

THE LIGHTING of motion picture theatres, from the point of view of good vision, is still "primitive," according to Dr. Matthew Luckiesh of the General Electric Company, whose special field of study at Nela Park is "better vision," on which he has written an authoritative book. Addressing the Illuminating Engineers Society in New York January 17, he said that with the strain upon eyes and human seeing machines which the critical seeing tasks of modern civilization impose, "it would be ideal if our efforts at relaxation in motion picture theatres were not penalized by unnecessarily primitive lighting and seeing conditions."

Admitting that there was a time when primitive seeing conditions were justifiable in the theatre, Dr. Luckiesh pointed out that it is not long since home, school, office and factory had to tolerate inadequate lighting because nothing better was available.

But today, he declared, "we can have pictures on the screen bright enough to justify some initial steps in reducing the contrast between the screen and its dark surroundings.

"It is too early to worry about the ideal compromise and the ideal gradation of brightness from the edge of the screen outward in all directions. Our researches indicate that if the surroundings included in a solid angle of 60° have an average brightness of one-tenth that of the projected picture, great improvement in eye-sensitivity, eye-comfort and seeing comfort will be achieved."

Progressing beyond this minimum, Dr. Luckiesh said that other investigations, using blinking as a criterion of eye comfort indicated that the ideal might ultimately prove to be screen surroundings approximately as bright as the picture itself.

Theatre Building In 1938 Down 18%

MATCHING THE pace set by 1937 in some areas, and surpassing it in others, theatre construction during 1938 nevertheless could not wholly keep up with the previous year's record in the 37 states east of the Rocky Mountains, it is reported by the Dodge Corporation. The report covers both new construction and substantial remodeling.

The automobile area of Southern Michigan proved one of the brightest spots of the year's activity, with 47 construction jobs in contrast to 1937's figure of 34. Valuations and seating areas, however, do not show the same ratio, but in comparison with the figures just cited indicate a trend toward smaller and less elaborate houses. New construction valuations for 1938 totaled $1,284,000 as against $1,257,000 for the preceding year. Further, the 47 new and remodeled theatres of 1938 involved only 174,000 square feet of floor area, in contrast to the 194,000 square feet covered by the 34 theatres produced or rebuilt the year before.

The same trend, however, is not found in Texas or the Southeastern states, other bright points in the year's record. In those sections cost and floor area increased over 1937 figures very nearly in proportion to the increase in number of construction jobs undertaken.

The Michigan trend, on the other hand, prevailed in some regions of low activity, and is partly responsible for their poor showing. New England, for example, built or rebuilt 63 theatres in 1938, as against only 65 in 1937, but floor space involved dropped from 254,000 to 143,000 square feet, and construction valuations declined almost 25%, or from $2,082,000 to $1,599,000.

Over the 37 states as a whole, a trend toward the smaller theatre was plainly apparent, but many of the small houses appear to have been quite as elaborate as their larger counterparts. The drop in unit cost is by no means comparable to the decline in general in floor areas. Thus, while total construction was down only 18% as compared with 1937, construction valuations decreased 28%, and the reduction in floor space involved showed a 48% reduction.

The shift in the direction of the smaller house appears, from statistics compiled by BETTER THEATRES, to represent a style trend rather than preferential building in rural areas. Some relatively rural sections, as upstate New York, or the Dakotas and Minnesota, slumped materially, while some metropolitan regions, notably that of St. Louis, gave excellent account of themselves.

• • •

FEATURES OF THIS ISSUE

Page
Radio City Newsreel Theatre 4
New Front Treatments 6
Lighting the Marquee 9
Paramount Theatre, Miami 10
Lyric Theatre, Lancaster, Ohio 13
About People of the Theatre 16
Acoustics in Design 20
Carpeting 22
Foyer and Lounge Furniture 24
Ben Schlanger; C. C. Potwin 25
Air-Conditioning 32
Cleaning 34
Seating 36
Screen Deterioration 37
F. H. Richardson 40

Better Theatres is published by the Quigley Publishing Company, Inc., Rockefeller Center, New York, every fourth week as Section Two of Motion Picture Herald. Martin Quigley, publisher and editor-in-chief. George Schutz, editor. Colvin Brown, general manager. Ray Gallo, advertising manager. C. B. O'Neill, Western advertising manager, 624 S. Michigan Ave., Chicago. London Bureau: No. 4, Golden Square, W1. Consultants: J. T. Knight, Jr., physical operation; Ben Schlanger, architectural form; C. C. Potwin, acoustic design and treatment.

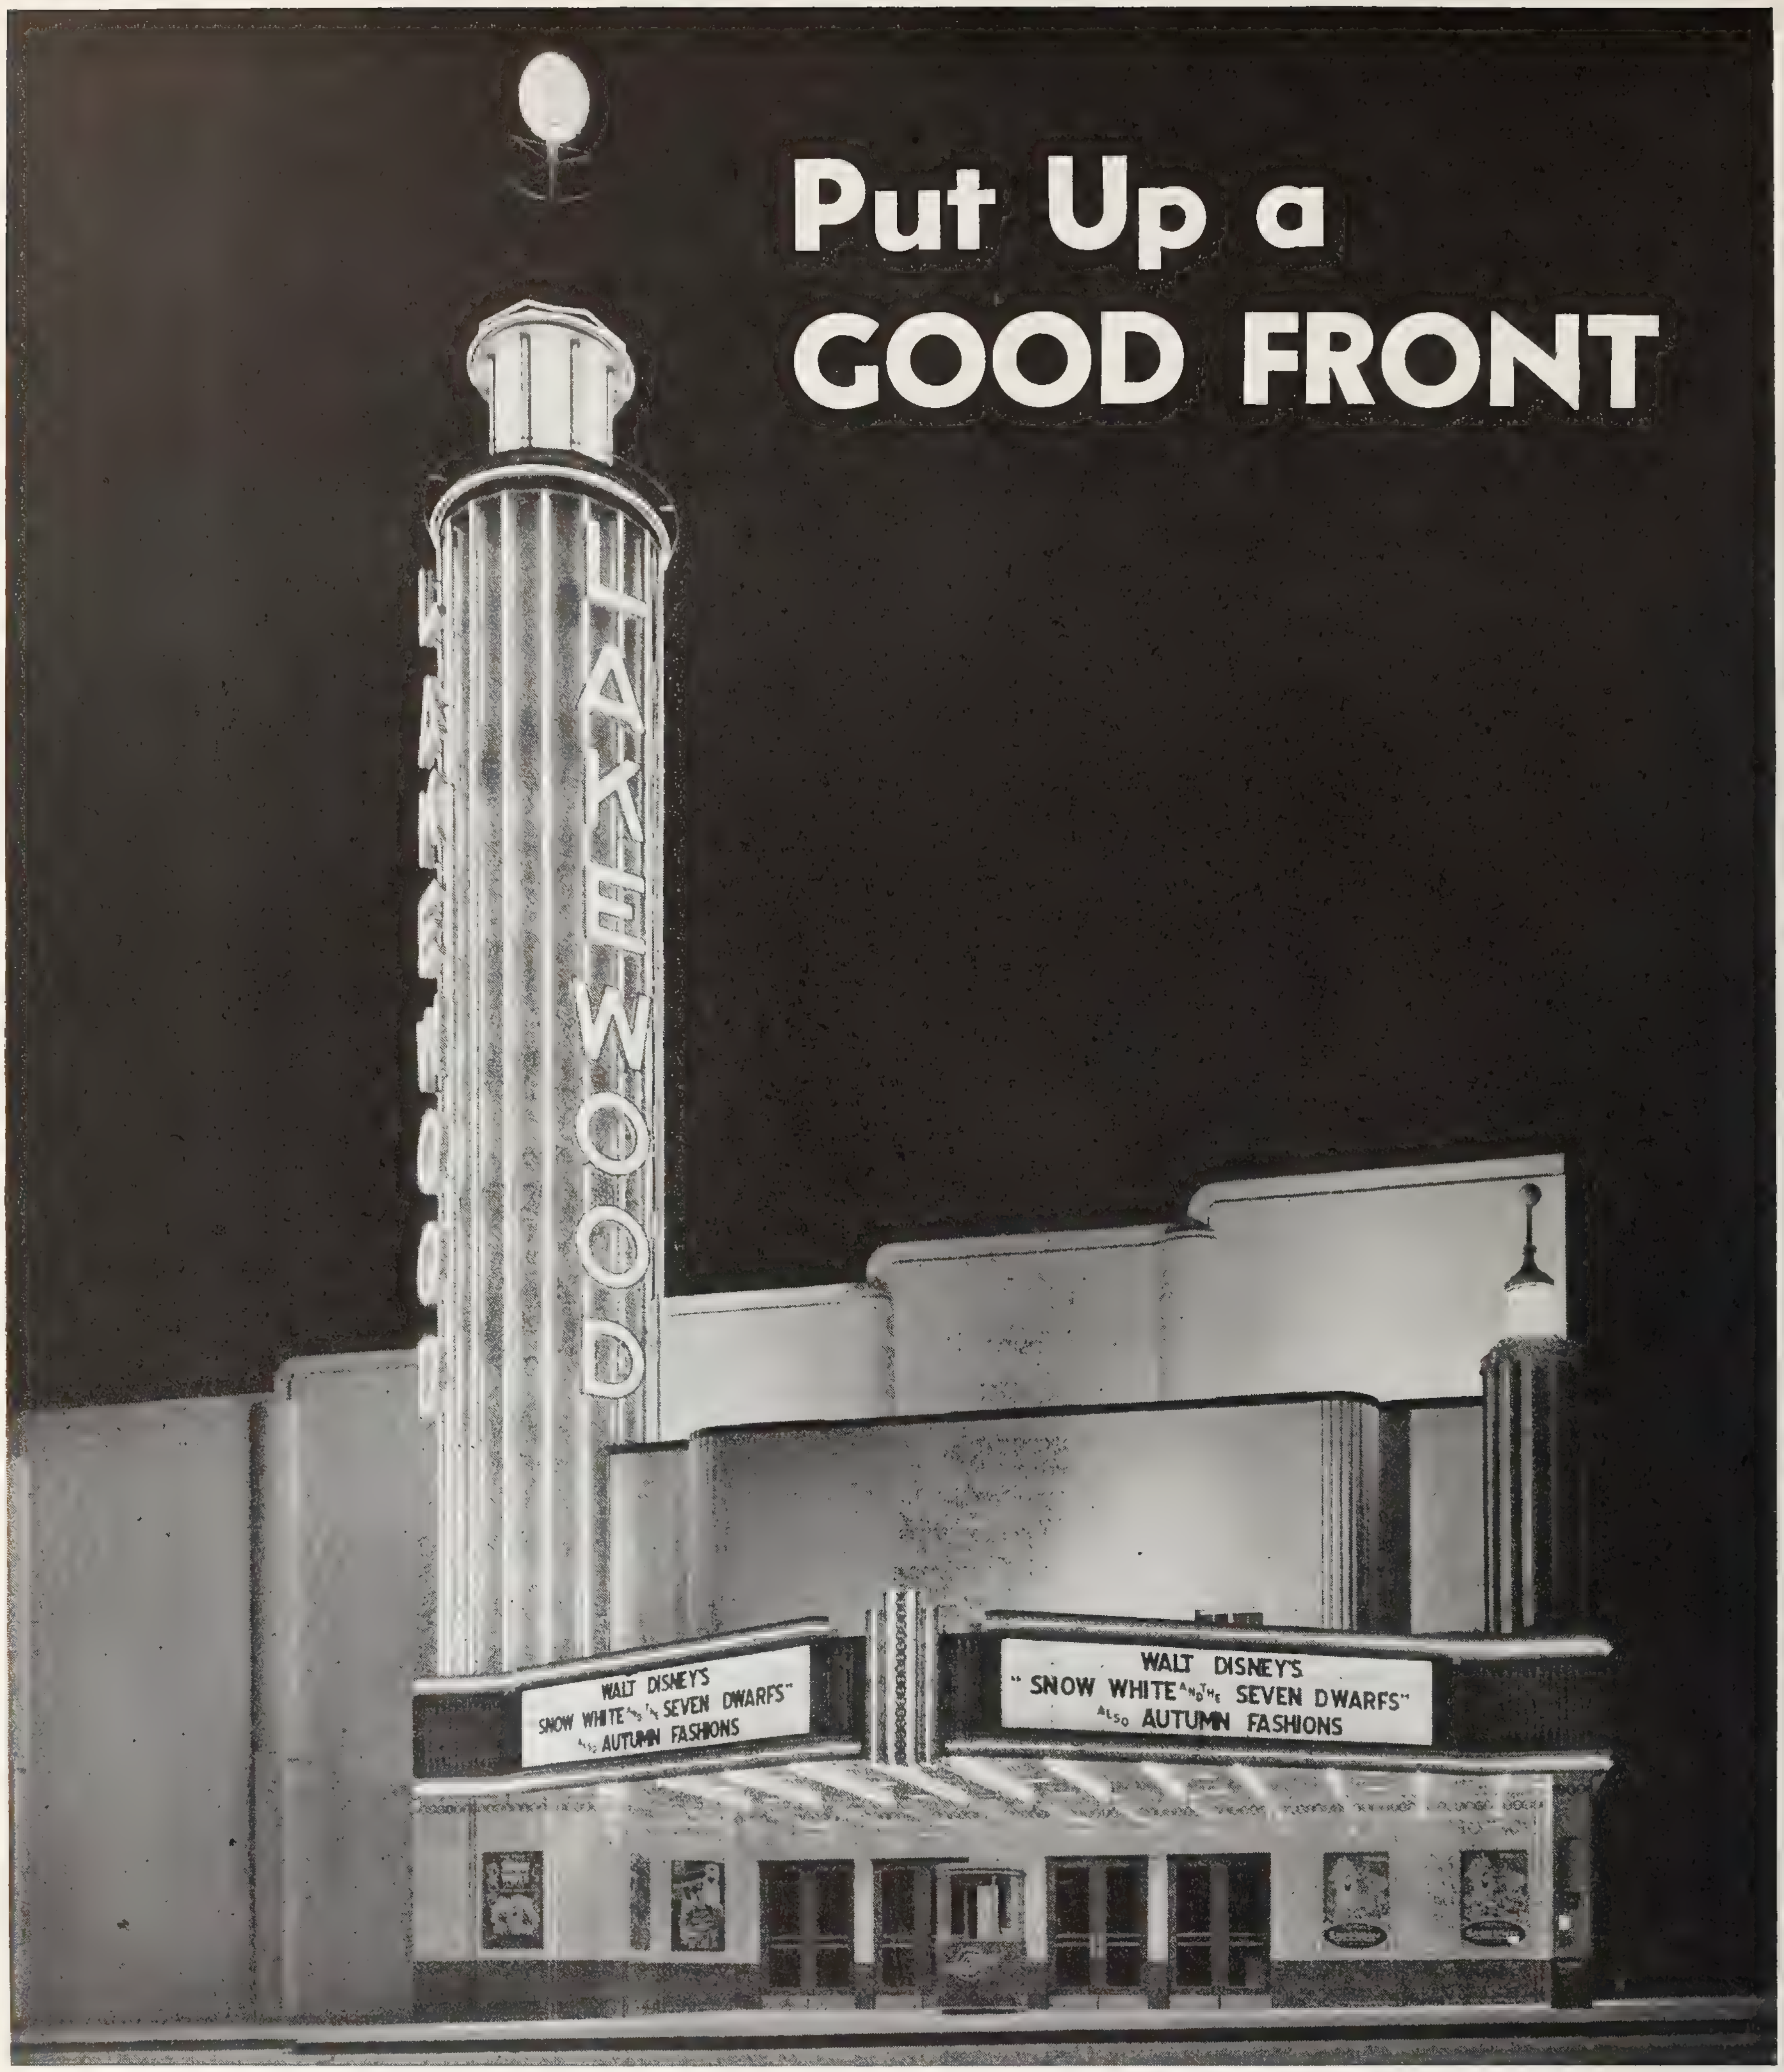
Canada Begins Year With 23 Projects

CANADIAN theatre building and remodeling got off to a fast start in 1939, with licenses actually applied for and issued to date covering 23 construction projects estimated to cost between one and a half and two million dollars. Out of this number of licenses, only five apply to remodeling or alteration work, the other 18 covering completely new construction.

An additional six theatres, for which construction licenses have not as yet been obtained, are at present on the planning boards.

Three of the licensed projects are in the city of Toronto, in which five new theatres, begun in 1938, at present under construction. Others are scattered across every portion of the Dominion from Montreal to Vancouver.

Put Up a GOOD FRONT



LAKEWOOD
LAKEWOOD
WALT DISNEY'S
SNOW WHITE AND THE SEVEN DWARFS
ALSO AUTUMN FASHIONS
WALT DISNEY'S
"SNOW WHITE AND THE SEVEN DWARFS"
ALSO AUTUMN FASHIONS

ARCHITECTURAL MASSES AS BACKGROUNDS FOR LIGHT

■ Porcelain enamel, flashed white opal glass, stucco and unlimited lighting compose the striking facade of Interstate Theatres' new Lakewood in Dallas, Texas. The entire building front below the marquee ceiling, the box office, the lobby walls and ceiling, and the two towers, are all Texlite porcelain enamel. White opal glass provides the windows of the beacon. The porcelain sphere that tops the large tower sparkles with more than 500 winking incandescents. White, red, orange and soft blue predominate in the lighting scheme.

Surveying in picture and text, the materials and methods with which the new conception of the theatre front, as an active promotional element of the theatre structure, is being realized in modern forms today

IN SELECTING the proper mtaerials for the exterior facing of the motion picture theatre there are two basic factors to be considered.

1. Attraction value.
2. Appearance by day; and by night.

In turn when these factors are considered the following charateristics of the materials are important: (a) light reflection, (b) color, (c) ability to keep clean, and (d) durability.

The attractiveness of any material is gauged by its color and its ability to reflect ortransmit light both artificial and natural in a pleasing manner. Most materials are available in a sufficient number of desirable colors, but too often a poor selection is made so far as the proper light reflection characteristics of the material is concerned.

The light reflection characteristics of exterior finish materials can be grouped generally into three classifications:

1. Highly diffusive (rough or abrasive surface).
2. Diffusive reflective (minute break up of surface each part being smooth).
3. Highly reflective (unbroken and perfectly smooth surface).

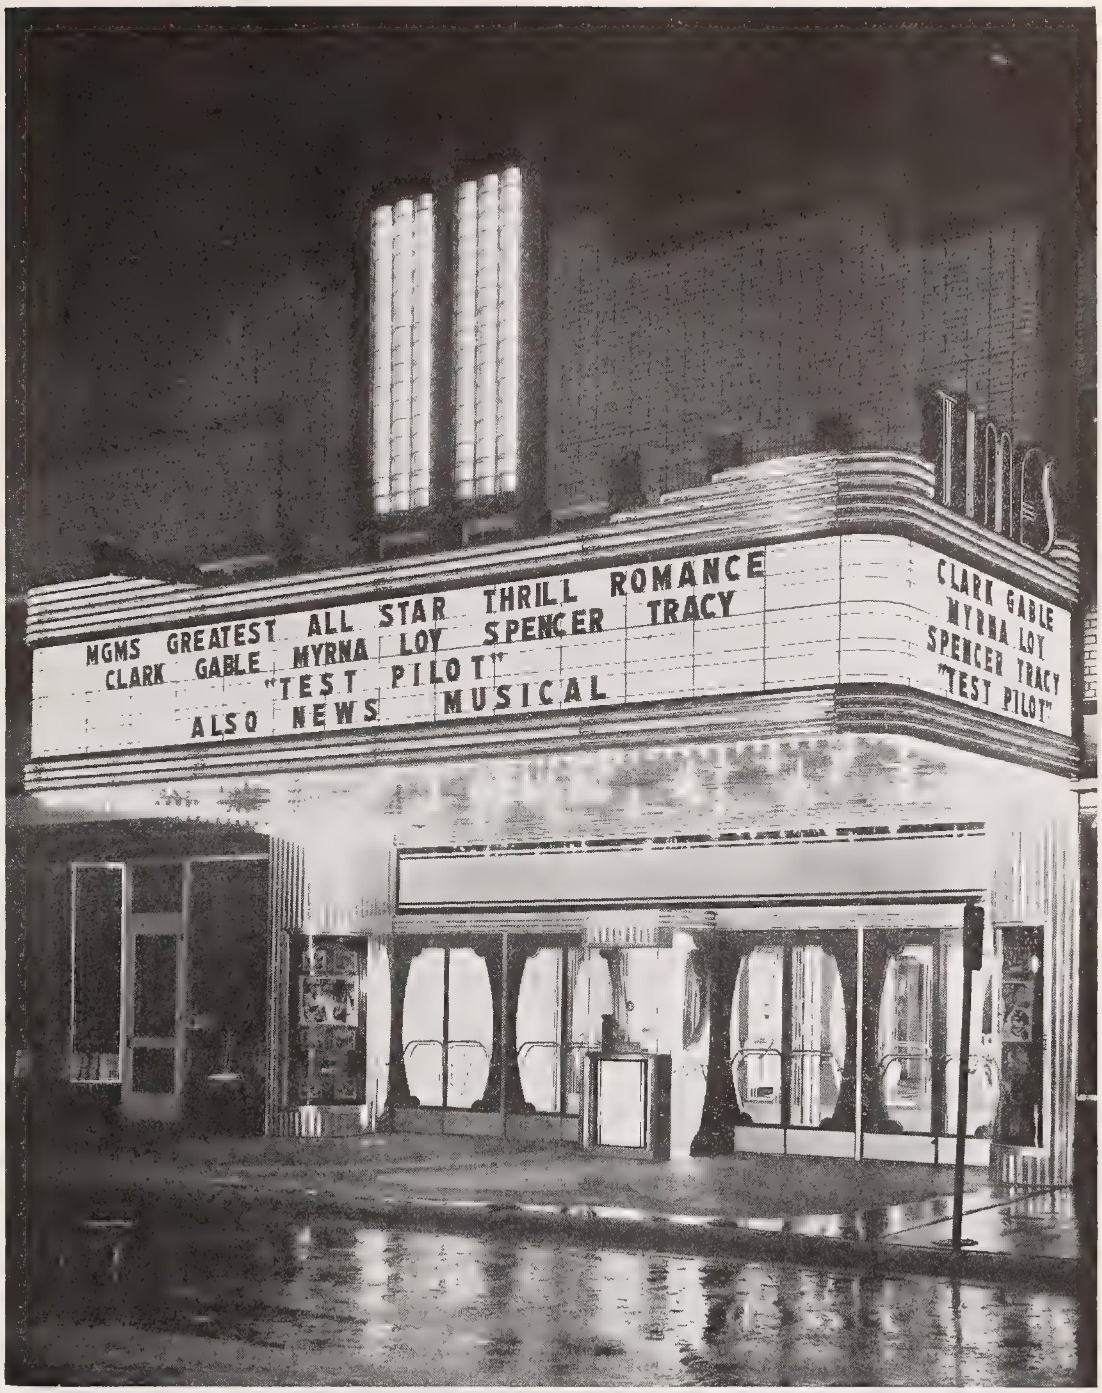
While highly reflective surfaces add to the liveliness and attract attention they are objectionable when they reflect images of their surroundings to an annoying degree and also reveal the least bit waviness which such materials usually have.

Diffusive reflective surfaces are desirable because they retain the advantages of the highly reflective surfaces but at the same time conceal any waviness that may exist and also sufficiently breakup optically the reflections of surrounding images. Since diffusive reflective surfaces are essentially smooth they will hold and gather a minimum of dust and dirt and will prove easy to keep clean. Diffusive reflective surfaces also permit better definition of the color of the material whereas highly reflective surfaces reveal spotty areas of bright glare where color is wiped out.

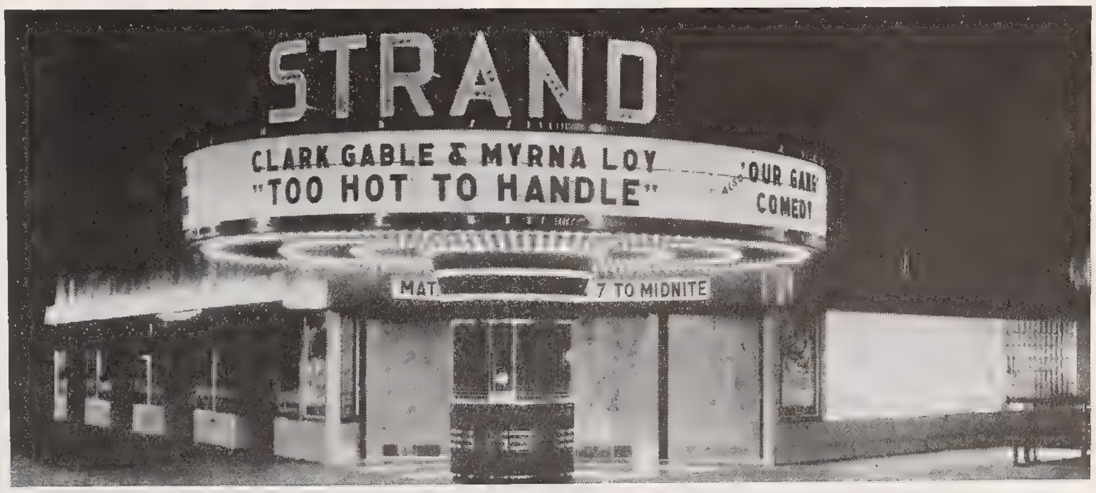
Highly diffusive surfaces such as stucco and limestone, etc., are difficult to keep clean and not very lively in appearance.

Architectural terra cotta, enamelled brick, porcelain enamel baked on steel and glass are some of the materials which can be made to have a proper diffusive reflective surface and also have desirable colors.

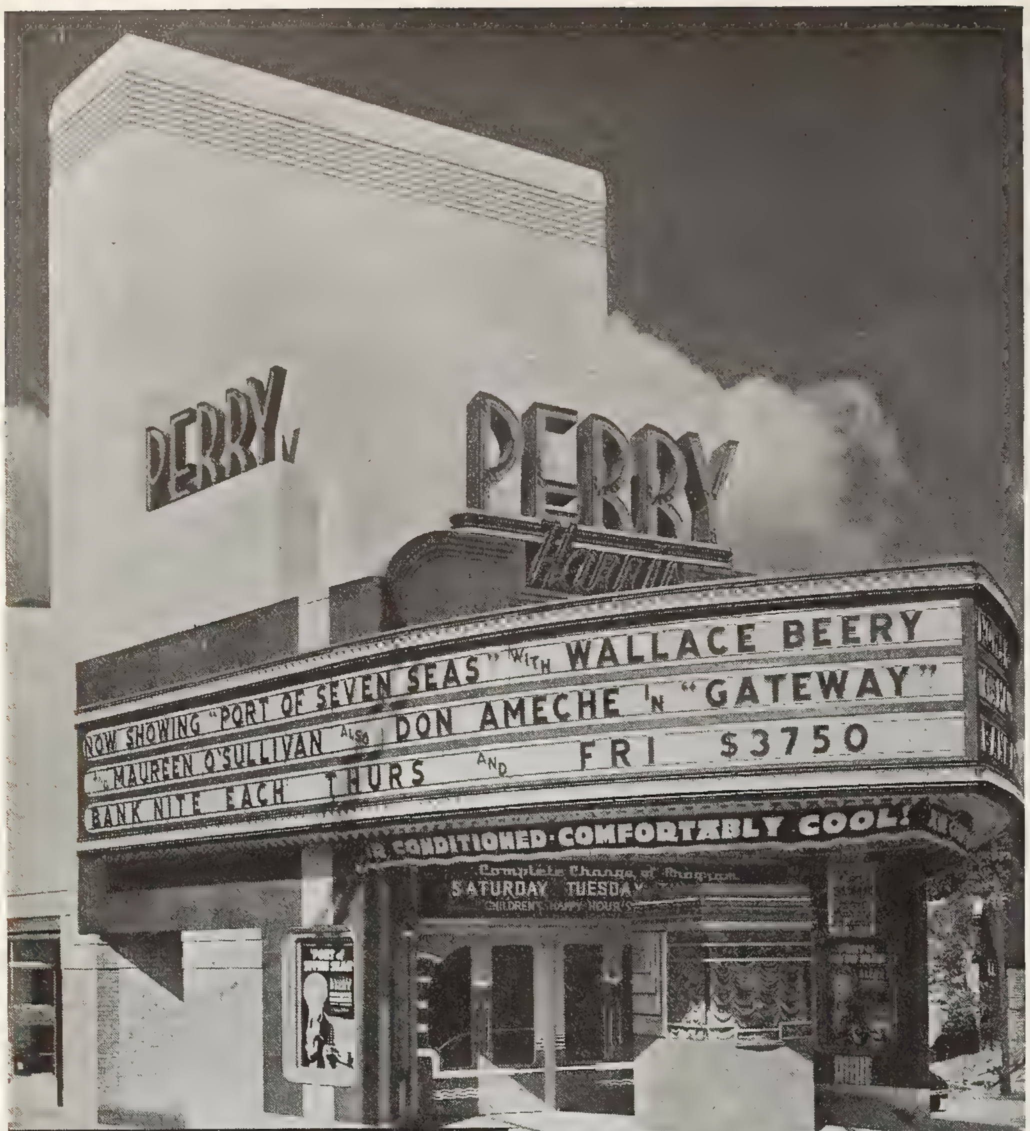


SPARKLE WITH GLASS BLOCKS AND METAL

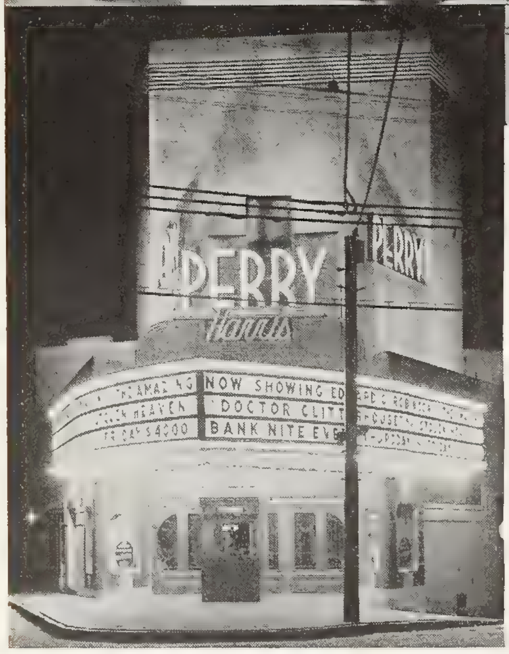
■ With illuminated Insulux glass blocks set in an eccentrically formed brick upper facade, and reflective metal surfaces at the entrance, the Times theatre in Rockford, Ill., achieves night-time prominence with economy in lamping.



■ Circular treatment of a corner location, exemplified in the Strand on the boardwalk at Ocean City, N. J. The Wagner letters may be extended throughout the circumference of the marquee.



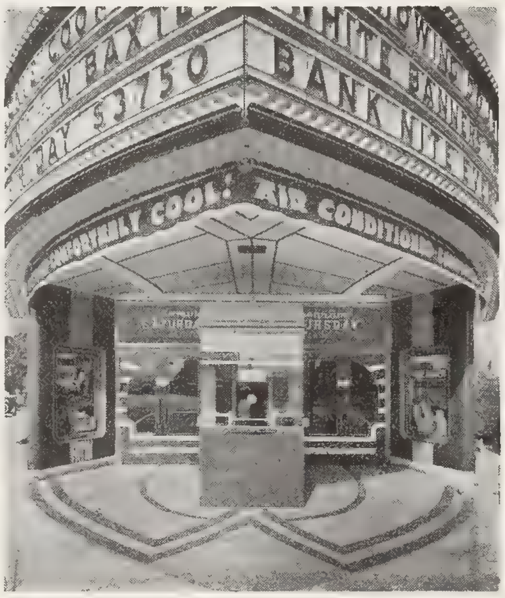
PERRY
PERRY
Harris
NOW SHOWING "PORT OF SEVEN SEAS" WITH WALLACE BEERY
MAUREEN O'SULLIVAN ALSO DON AMECHE IN "GATEWAY"
BANK NITE EACH THURS AND FRI $3750
AIR CONDITIONED-COMFORTABLY COOL!
Complete Change of Program
SATURDAY TUESDAY



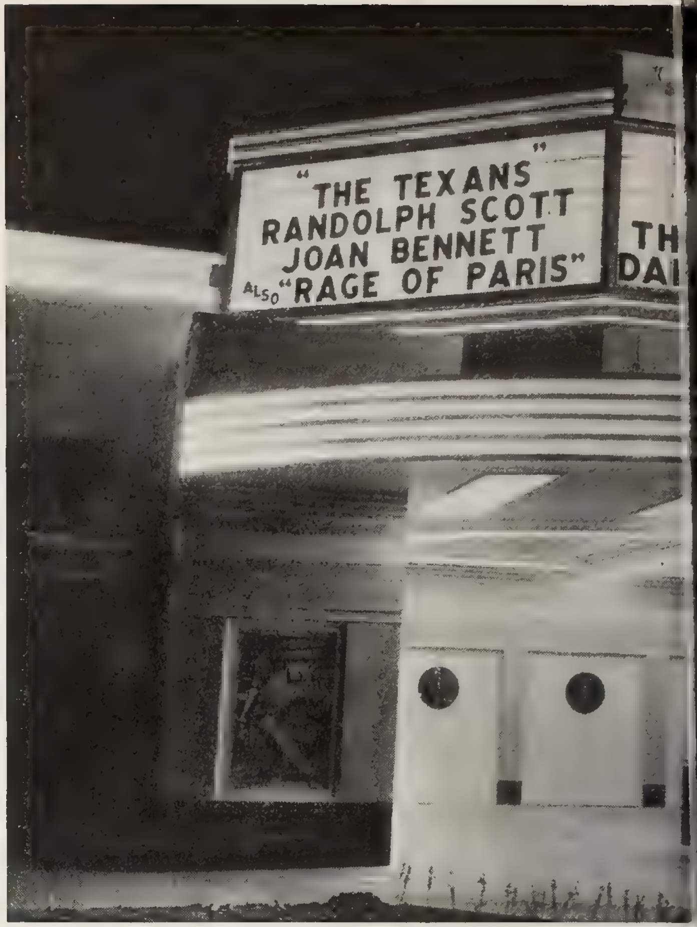
PERRY
PERRY
Harris
NOW SHOWING
DOCTOR CLIT
BANK NITE EV

SOLUTION FOR UNUSUAL SITE

■ Effective utilization of a triangular building plot is exemplified by the Harris Company's new Perry theatre, John Eberson, architect. The box office is set at the crossing of three Pittsburgh streets; the brilliant outdoor lighting and conspicuous attraction board are visible in three directions. The vestibule flooring reduplicates the triangular motive in four-color terrazzo. . . . Vestibule sides are brown porcelain enamel with ivory flutings; the doors red formica with aluminum and chrome fittings. The transite soffit, painted in six pastel colors, is lamped with yellow and green. . . Green and red neon are used in the conspicuous name signs. The base of the box office is reddish brown Pyrenees marble.

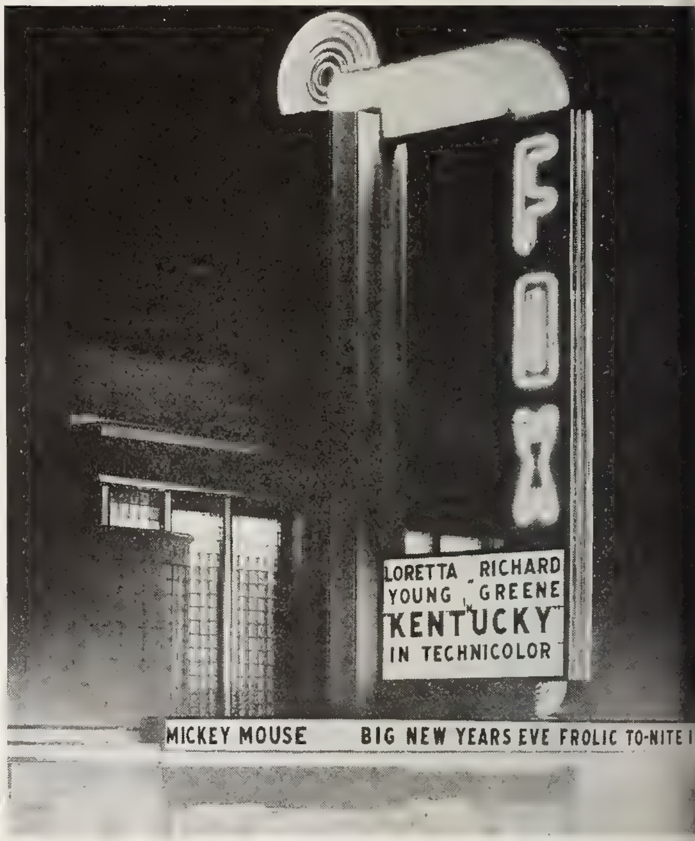


W BAXTER
$3750
BANK NITE
COMFORTABLY COOL! AIR CONDITIONED



"THE TEXANS"
RANDOLPH SCOTT
JOAN BENNETT
ALSO "RAGE OF PARIS"

LETTER BOARDS ABOVE MARQUEES



FOX
LORETTA RICHARD
YOUNG GREENE
KENTUCKY
IN TECHNICOLOR
MICKEY MOUSE
BIG NEW YEARS EVE FROLIC TO-NITE

■ Two Western theatres, the Fox of Sterling, Colorado, (below) and the Tower of Sacramento, California, feature Adler silhouette attraction boards above their marquees instead of in the usual location. Both boards are stainless steel, using letters up to 16". The Fox bows to convention so far as to carry a single changeable line on its fascia.

EXANS
AND OF PARIS
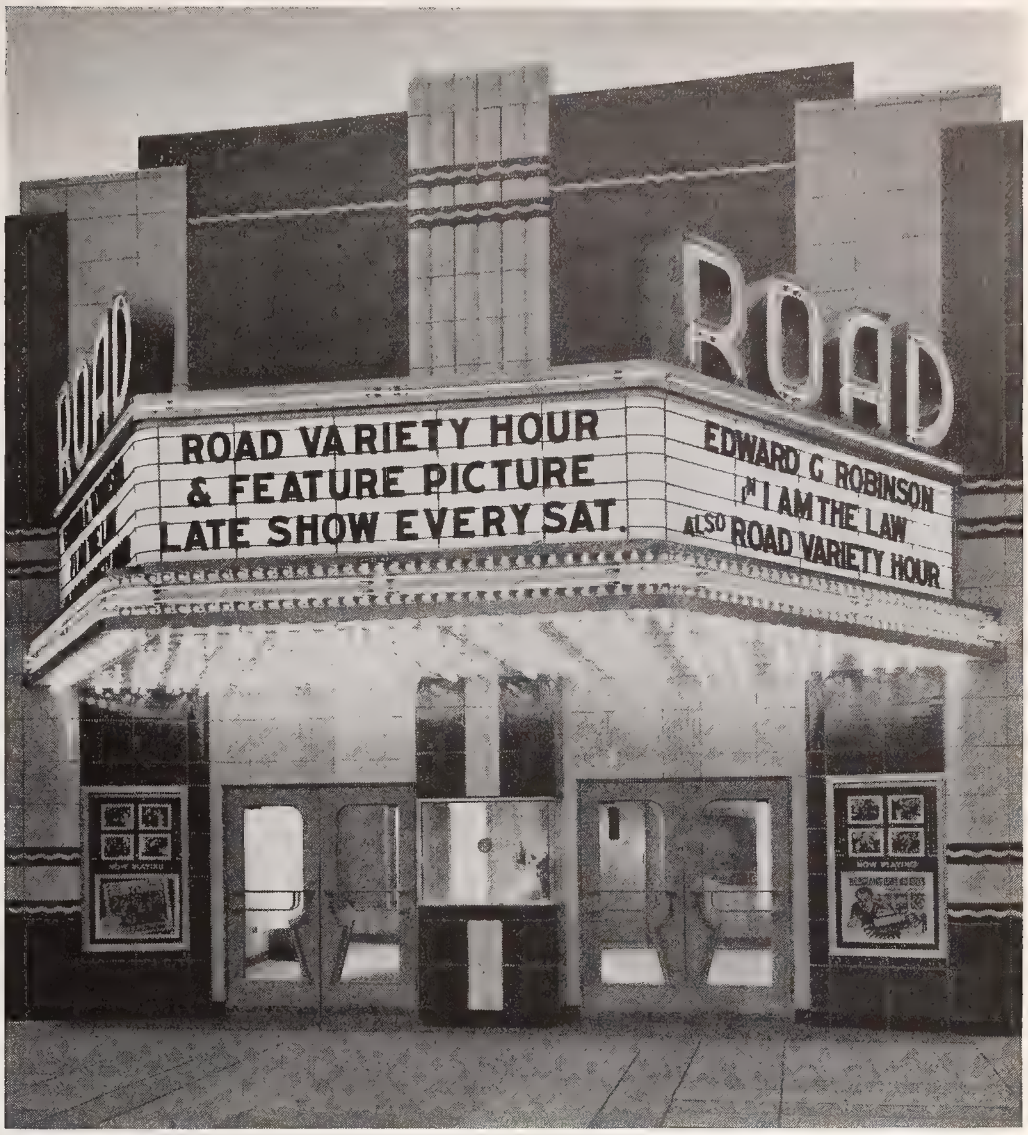
DARRIEUX
THE TEXANS
RANDOLPH SCOTT
JOAN BENNETT
RAGE OF PARIS

TERRA COTTA FACING IN MODERN LINES



■ The front above is of the Road theatre in Chicago, recently remodeled. The existing brickwork was stripped off and a facing applied in 2-inch and 4-inch terra cotta, in a field of cocoa brown and light yellow, and trim in black with a yellow stripe and in gray for beading. George Mitchell was the architect.

Lighting the Marquee

Describing devices available today for effective marquee illumination and how to apply them successfully with practical consideration of the economy factors involved

By FRANCIS M. FALGE

THEATRE MARQUEES, recently constructed or modernized, are characterized by a freshness of design that sets them off as effectively from earlier outmoded treatments as do present day cars from those of just a few years ago.

Much of this new vogue is in the improved application of lighting, to give the theatre a vivid night-time character and proved application of lighting, to give the theatre a vivid night-time character and that sparkle and brightness so important to interest and encourage people to partake of its entertainment. Name signs that twinkle and sparkle with starlike brightness, rows of lamps or reflectors providing colorful moving borders, changeable attraction letter signs with luminous letters, luminous backgrounds with silhouette letters, tell the story of present and coming attractions. Ample brightness beneath the marquee complete the impression that here is the way to pleasure.

What Shape Shall the Marquee Be?

The location of the theatre, whether within a block or at a corner, naturally plays its part in answering this question. Certain factors are also deserving of major attention:

1. The projecting sides of the marquee are more valuable as changeable letter space because of "down the street" viewing.
2. Because restrictions are often placed on the allowable projection distance, and because the outer part of the marquee is less desirable for changeable letter space, angling the sides in to form a trapezoidal shape adds to the valuable attraction letter space and this space also becomes more effective for viewing from the opposite side of the street.

Provisions for Attraction Boards

The next decision, which will normally have to be made concerns the attraction

(Continued on page 28)

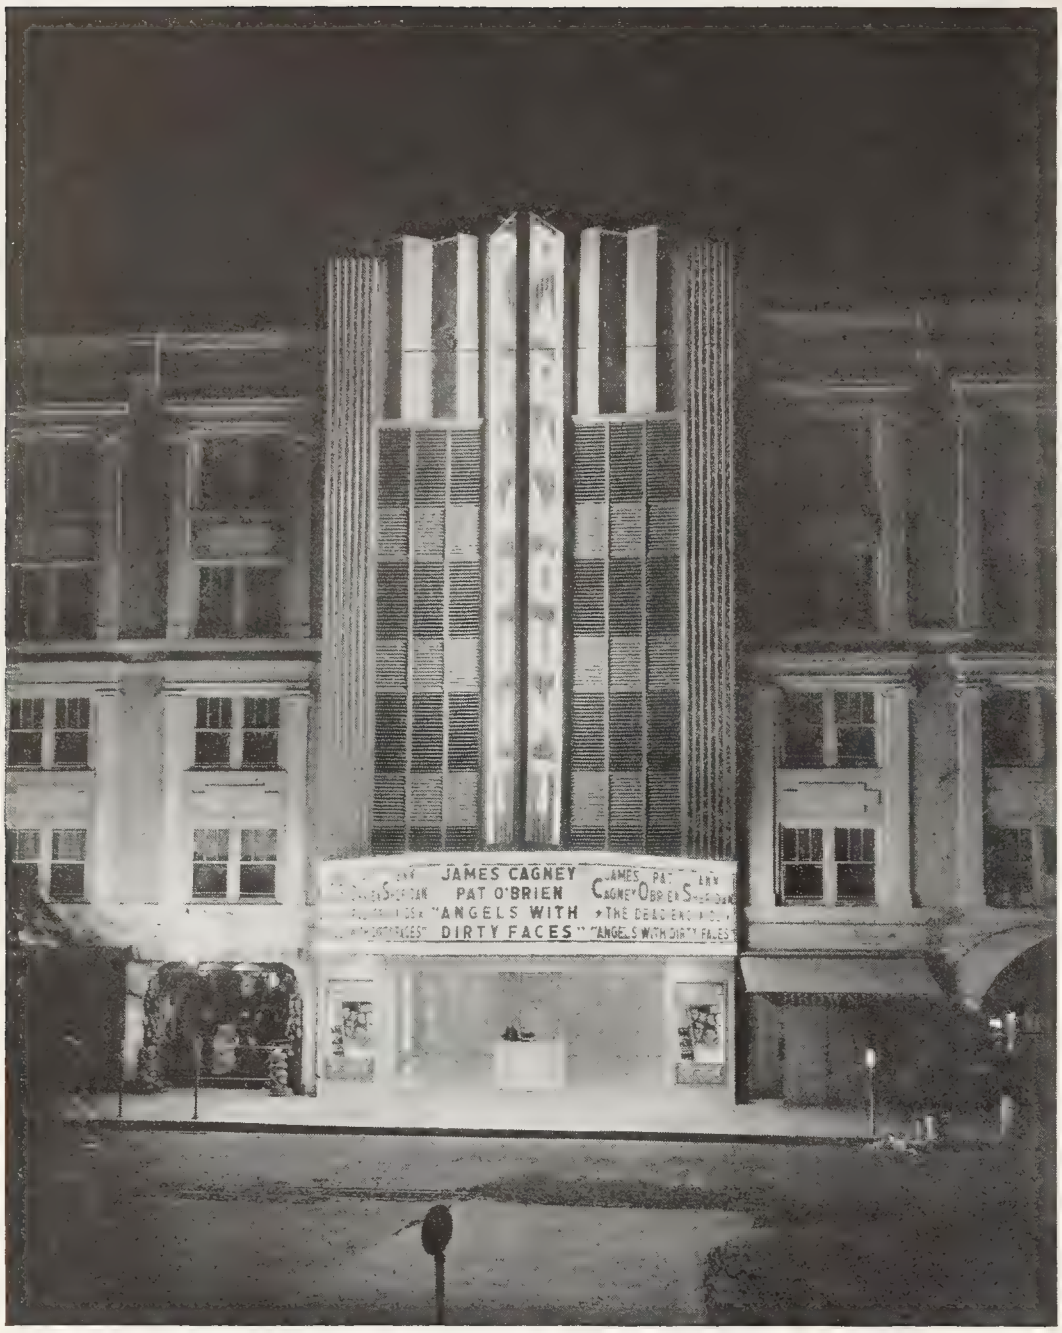
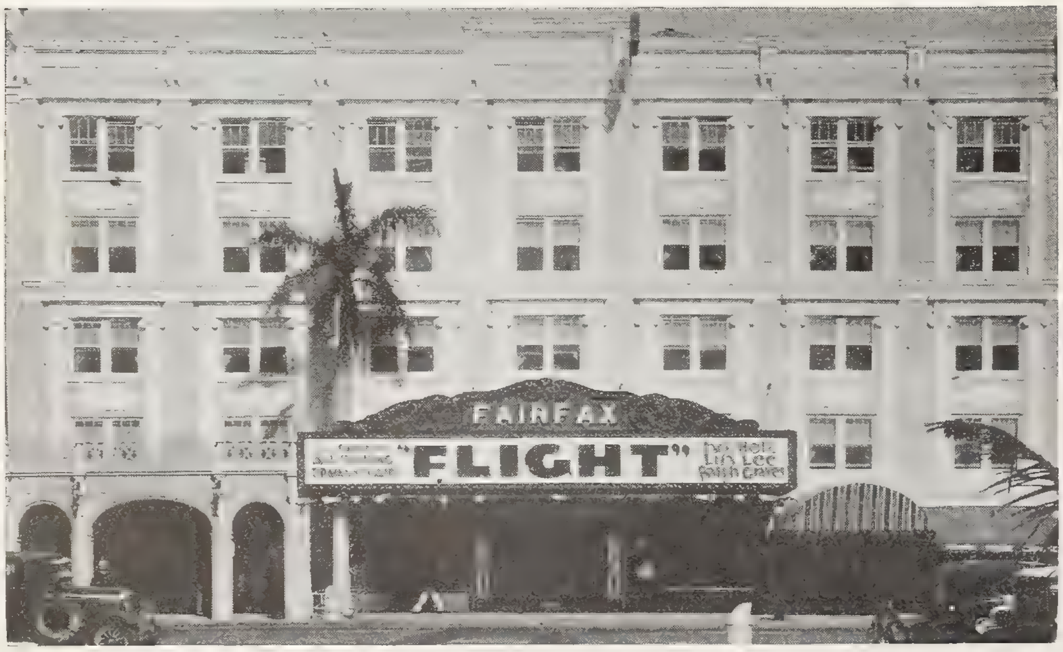
Modernizing a Theatre Obsolete in Style and Plan



THE FRONT BEFORE (below) AND AFTER REMODELING.

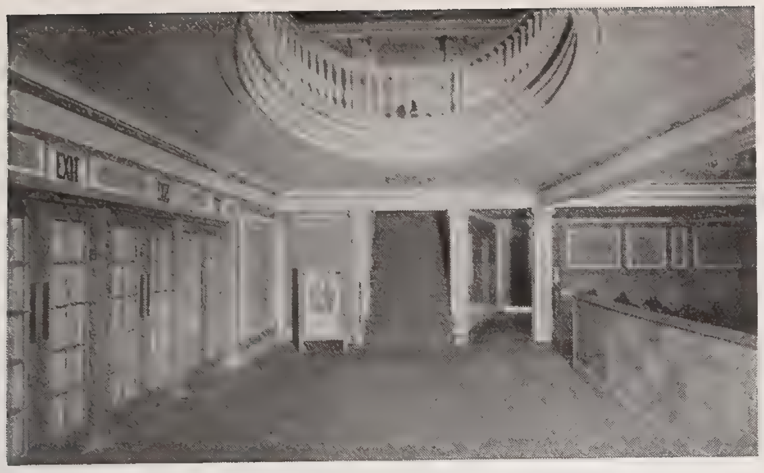


• Describing the reconstruction of the Paramount in Miami, Fla., remodeled completely at a reported cost of $73,500 on regular construction contracts, with new equipment costing $30,000 in addition. Located in downtown Miami, the theatre is owned and operated by Paramount Enterprises, Inc. Robert L. Weed, Miami, was the architect. Charles C. Burton of Paramount Theatre Service Corporation was consulting architect and engineer.

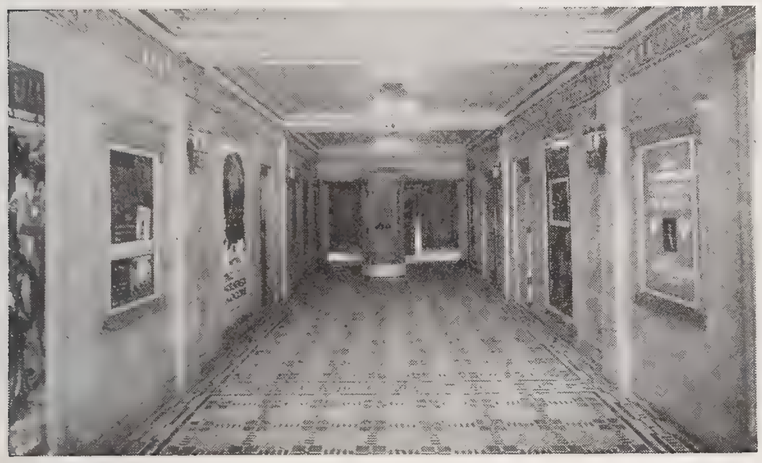
FRONT: To accentuate and render conspicuous the front of the theatre, as distinct from the hotel facade in which it was previously merged, reconstruction work was centered about the addition of a modernistic section, with vertical lines, to a classical hotel building featured by horizontal lines. Special architectural problems were involved in the necessity of tying the new front to the existing framework of the building, and in the desirability of retaining the use of hotel rooms located directly behind the new construction. The new section of the building facade is framed in vertical, fluted pilasters of stucco, which (in contrast to the pilasters of the hotel windows) have neither capital nor base. The space occupied by the windows is equipped with wooden jalousies (shutters) providing light and air to the rooms behind. Metal fluting is used above the jalousies. A vertical sign in pastel shades of vermilion, blue and white reaches from the marquee to the roof of the building. The channel letters are illuminated by fluorescent lamps and by colored incandescent lamps behind white opal glass.

The latter are on flasher circuits. Attraction boards, four lines high, are carried on three sides of the marquee. Wagner cove letters, 10 inches and 16 inches high, are used; these are painted vermilion. The soffit of the marquee is equipped with downlights of patented design, using fresnel lenses.

VESTIBULE: A feature of the new vestibule is extreme simplicity both of form and color, in strong contrast with the brilliant attraction boards, which are thus rendered more conspicuous. The floor carries a simple terrazzo pattern in blue, vermilion and honey. Walls and ceiling are plain plaster, the latter having a plaster light cove fitted with continuous lumiline tubing on three circuits. The doors to the lounge are of metal and ribbed glass.



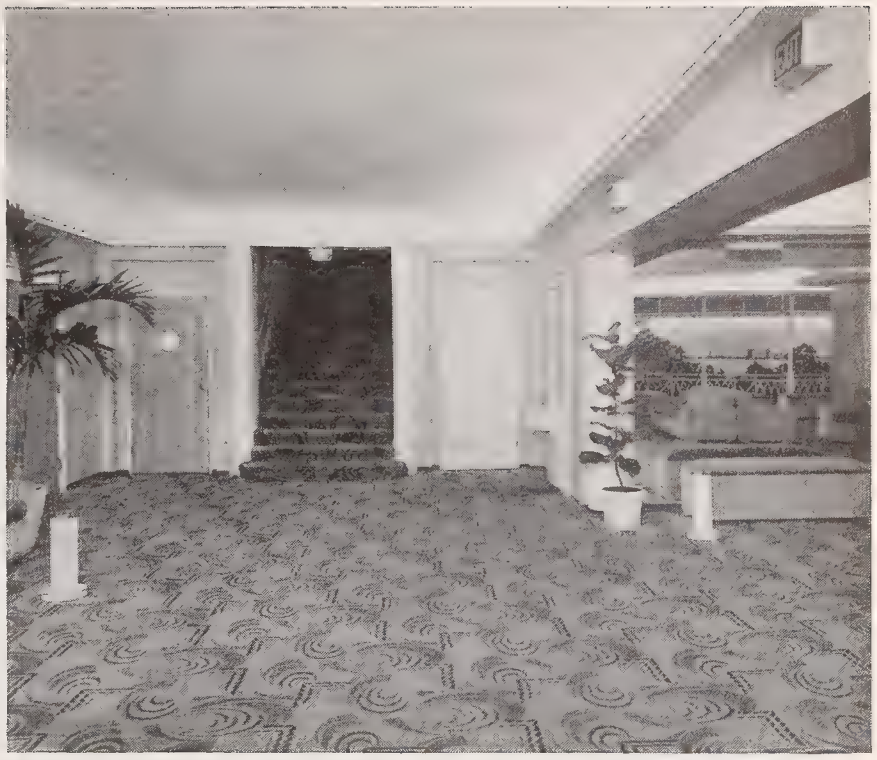
AREA AT REAR OF AUDITORIUM BEFORE REMODELING.



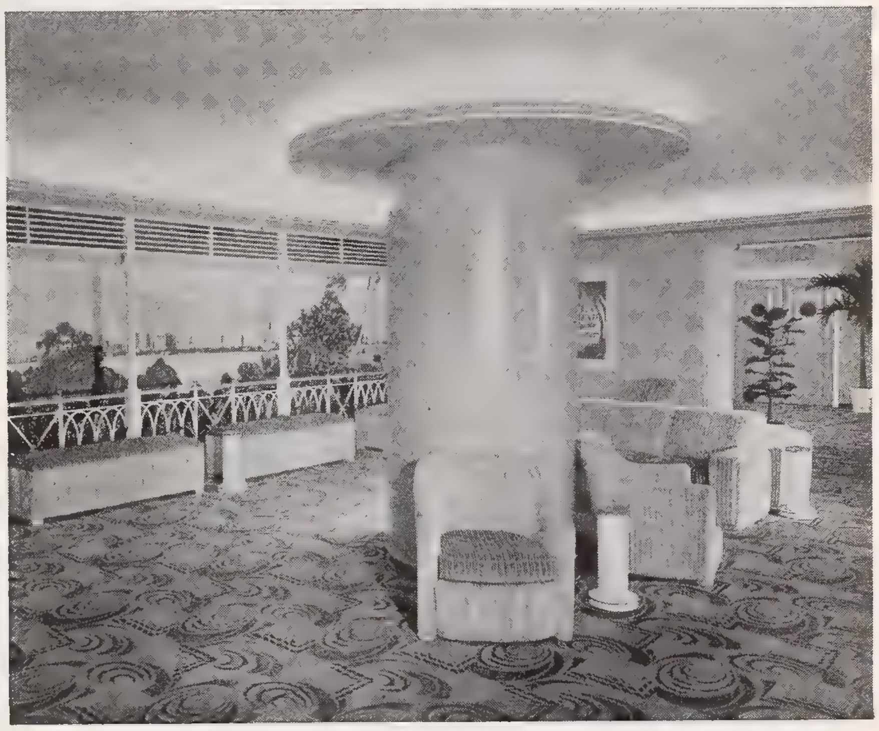
LOBBY BEFORE REMODELING.

LOBBY-FOYER AREAS: A long, tunnel-like and essentially gloomy lobby formerly afforded the approach to the theatre. This has been converted into a highly stimulating new lobby-lounge, treated to seem far larger than it really is. The old ceiling has been furred down, and refinished in white plaster. A photo-mural of the Miami skyline, a rail, and living plants, line one of the long walls, adding an allusion of looking out into distance. The opposite wall is lined with mirrors. An irregularly-shaped large column of the old construction was replastered into a round, ultra-modern support. This column, like those wall spaces not occupied by the photo-mural or by mirrors, is painted beige. The white ceiling has cove lighting. The floor is carpeted in vermilion, blue and honey over 3/8" Rubatex. The carpet continues into the foyer, which is essentially an enlarged continuation of this cheerful lobby. . . The new foyer is completely walled off from the auditorium, to which access is gained only through doors upholstered in vermilion top grain calf leather. Walls, ceiling and carpeted floor are continuations of the corresponding features of the lobby, except that the wall between the auditorium doors is ornamented with a mural painting in which mythological, historical and cinematographic themes are mingled. This mural was designed by the architect; the furniture and candy stand likewise are of special design. Carpeted stairs lead upward to the mezzanine foyer. The mezzanine foyer has been enlarged by closing in the well that formerly provided foyer ventilation, and equipped with fluted pilasters and telephone booth recesses. Cove lighting is used for its ceiling, which is blue. Its walls are beige, woodwork white.

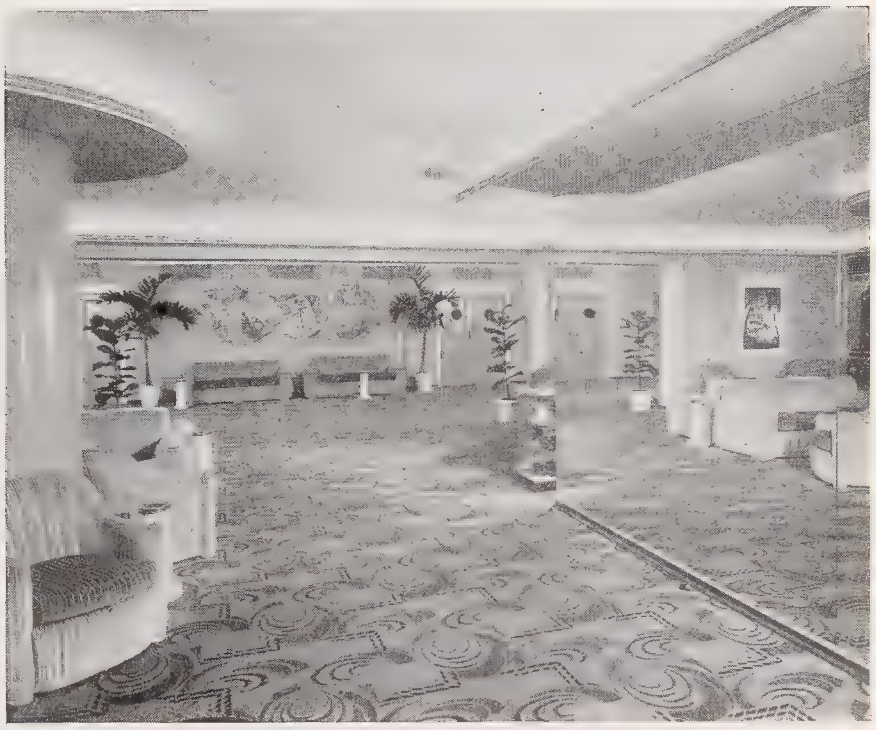
LOUNGES: The women's lounge is finished entirely in plaster. It is equipped with ceiling fixtures and with lumiline wall brackets for the dressing tables. Chairs and settees are constructed of wood, with exposed portions finished in ivory and vermilion. They are upholstered in pale yellow fabrics. The walls are peach; the ceiling white. . . The men's lounge has plaster walls and ceiling. Walls are painted blue, the ceiling white.

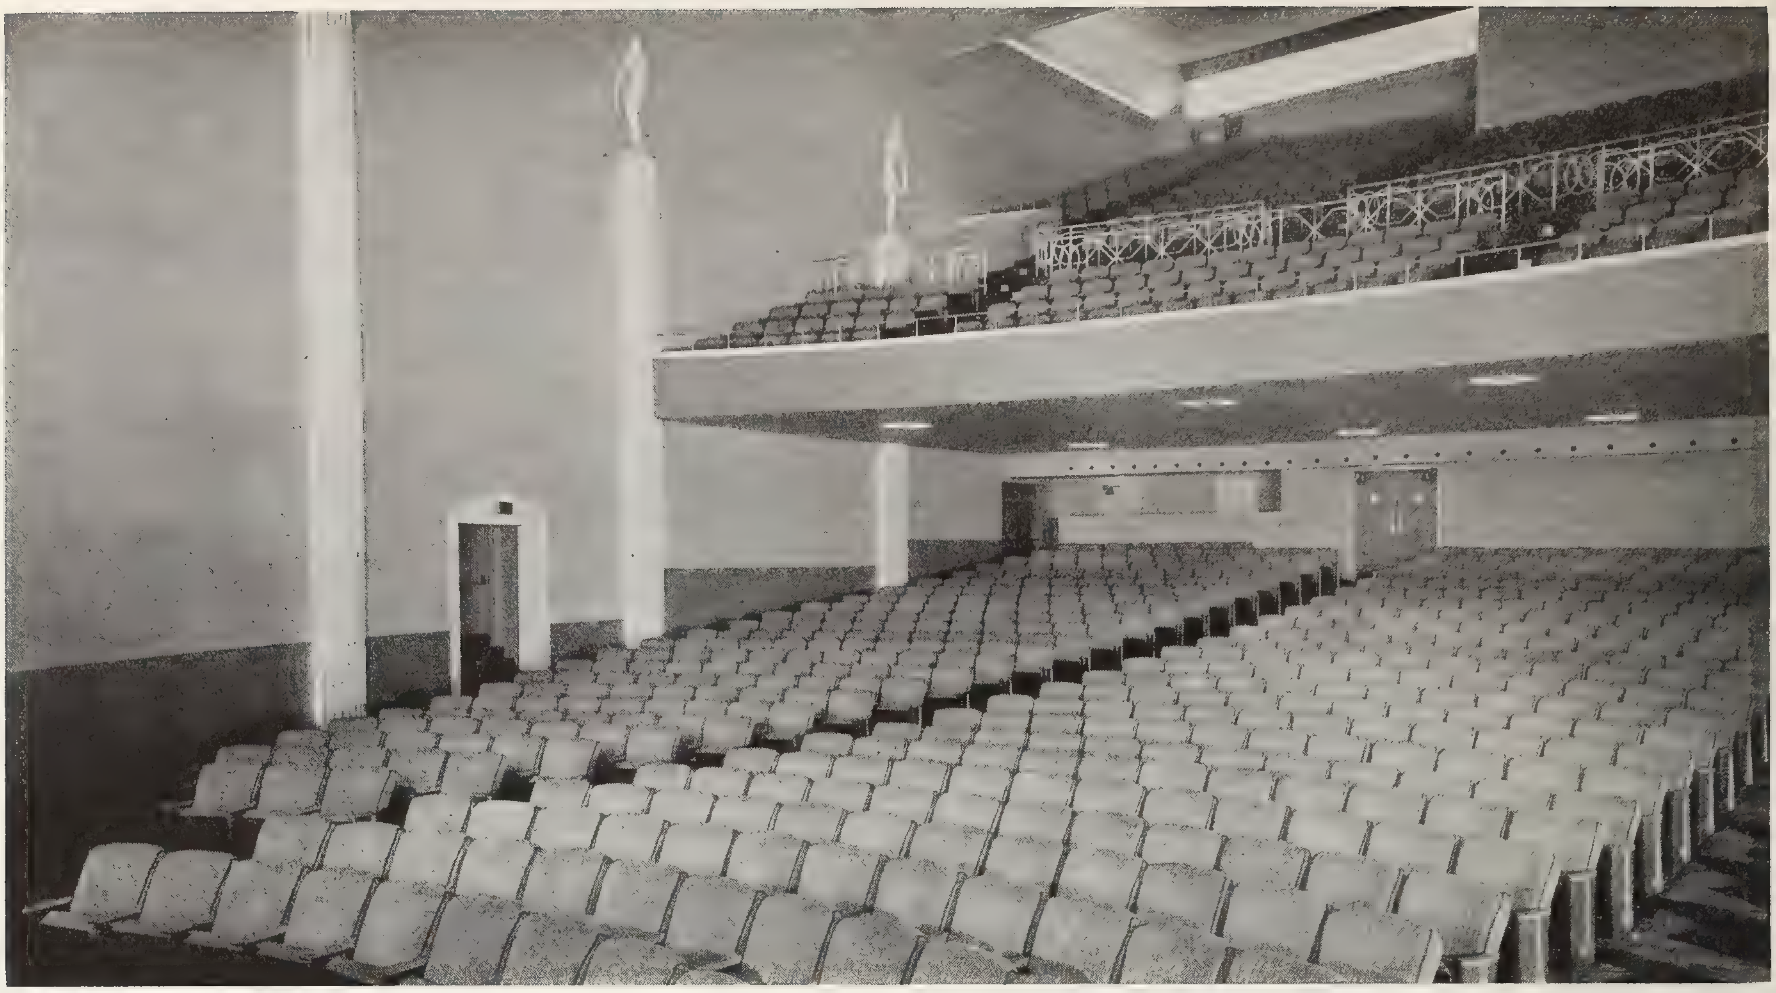


Above: AREA AT REAR OF AUDITORIUM AS REVISED

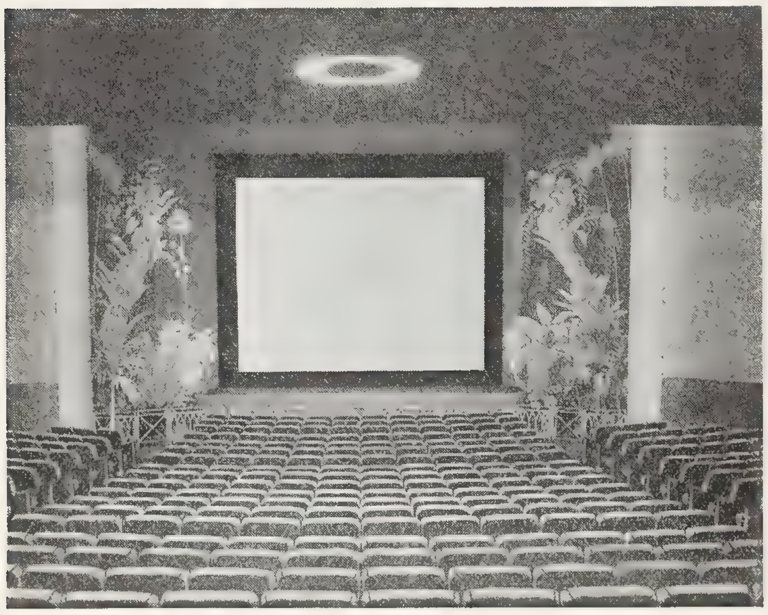


Above and below: LOBBY TREATED AS FOYER AREA

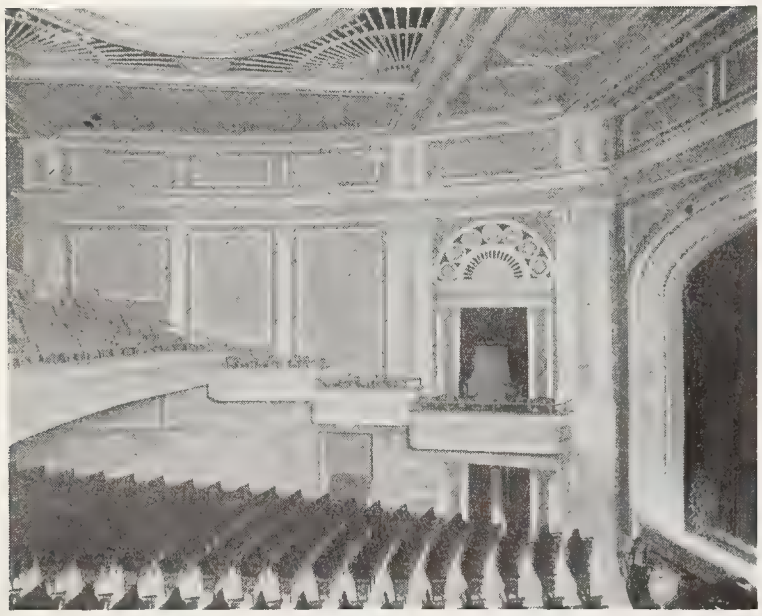




AUDITORIUM AFTER REMODELING



Below: AUDITORIUM BEFORE REMODELING



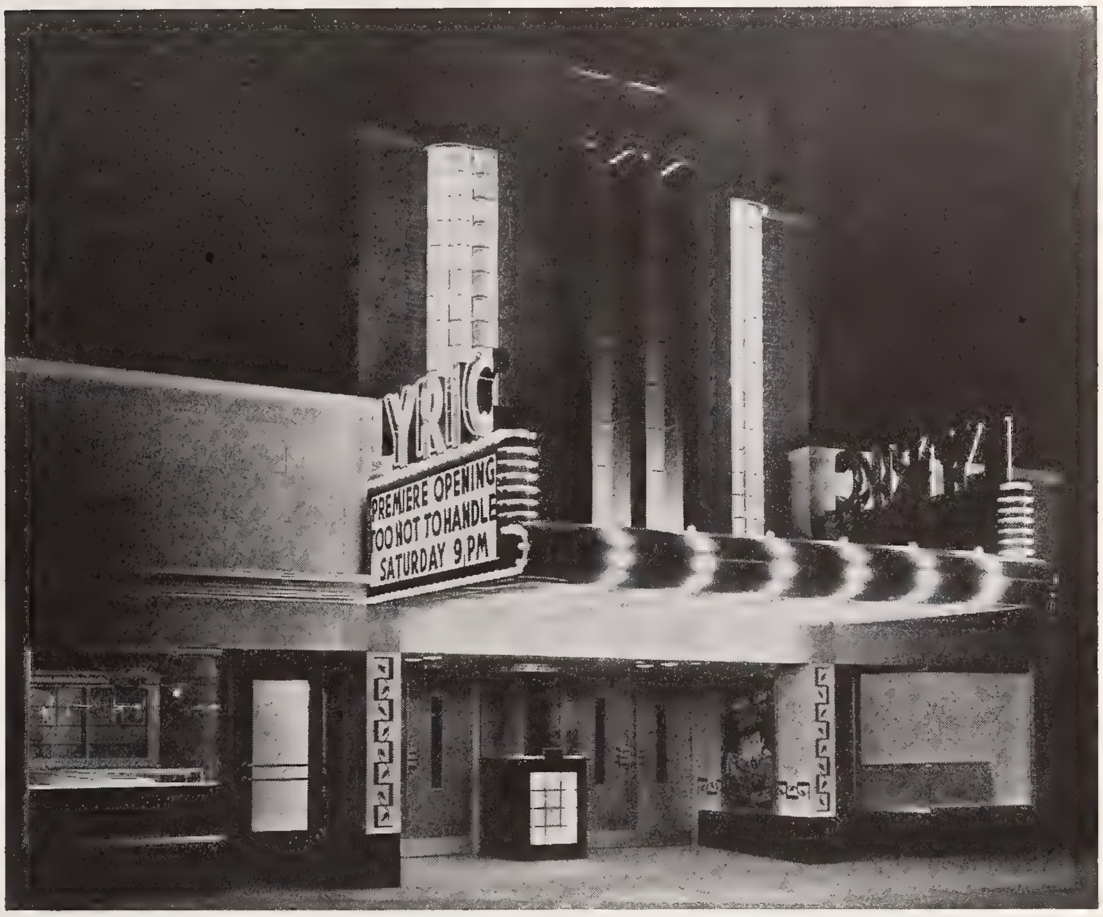
AUDITORIUM: In reconstructing, boxes, and ornamentation of every description, were removed from the old auditorium leaving only a shell which was then plastered over. The proscenium arch was replaced with a severely rectangular screen opening. Drapes are not used; formalized floral decorations ornament the front walls where they curve away from the screen. The backstage area, except for space devoted to the loud speakers, has been converted into work shops and into space for the art department. The wall separating these rooms from the auditorium is thoroughly sound-proofed. Side walls are pearl gray, with a vermilion dado. Fluted plaster pilasters topped with sculptured figures in low relief—contributing a classical effect—form the only ornamentation. The balcony parapet is of plain plaster, unornamented. The plaster ceiling is unbroken by lighting fixtures; concealed downlighting is used. The pilasters also conceal light sources, controlled by dimmers. Downlighting hidden in the ceiling produces light and shade hues of blue which illumine the sculptured figures that crown the pilaster ornaments.

The rear wall of the auditorium is equipped for concealed lighting at the main floor level and with a light cove at the rear of the balcony. This wall is treated with Acoustone-D for sound absorption. . . New chairs were installed throughout. The total seating capacity is 1,269, of which 503 are in the balcony. The distance from the screen to the front row of seats is 21 feet. A metal railing of classical design is interposed between the front seats and the screen platform. Seat spacing is 36 inches back to back; the majority of chairs are 21 inches wide. Chairs are upholstered in tan mohair and have red and white end standards. . . The balcony soffit light fixtures are integral with the anemostats, and mounted flush with the ceiling. . . The entire theatre is air-conditioned, the system employing the same distribution provisions and Carrier equipment installed in the old theatre.

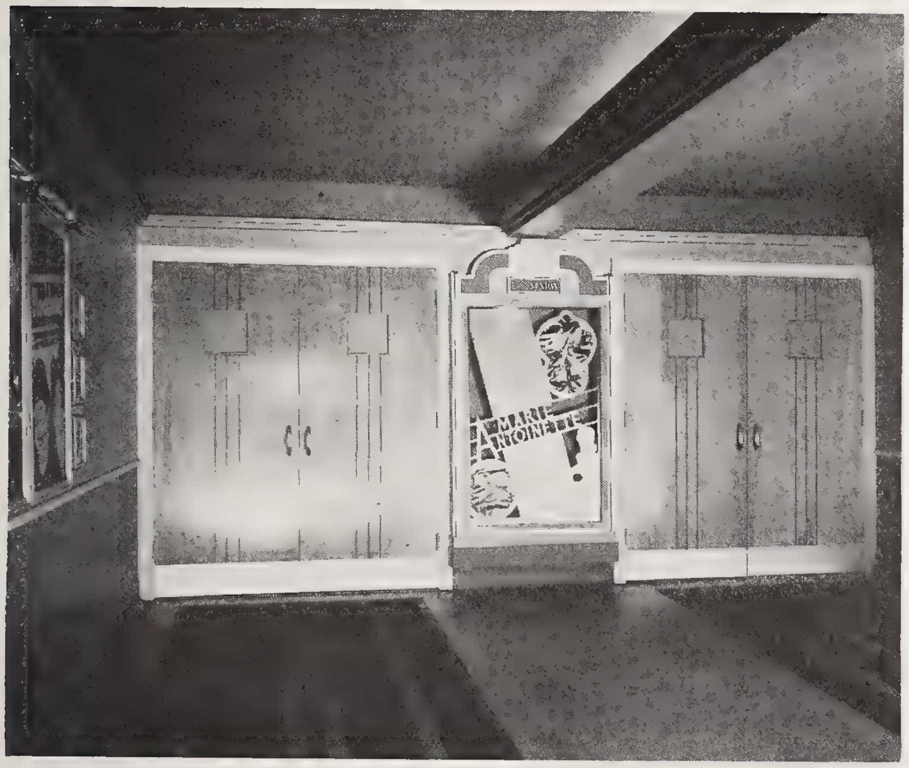
EQUIPMENT AND FURNISHINGS: Include marquee and signs by Flexlume Daniel Neon Company, Atlanta; Wagner attraction boards and letters; General Register ticket issuing machine, Brandt coin changer, Newman Brothers ticket chopper, Simplex E-7 projectors, Brenkert Enarc projection lamps, Forest magnesium copper sulphide rectifiers, Neumade rewinder and film cabinets, Basson & Stern changeovers, Simplex sound system, Bausch & Lomb Super-Cinephor projection lenses, lighting fixtures and equipment by Rambusch Decorating Company, Hub Electric Company and Ruby Lamp Company; switchboard by Royal Switchboard Company, auditorium chairs by American Seating Company, Alexander Smith Crestwood carpeting, and National Super-Service Company vacuum cleaners.

A 25-Year-Old Theatre Rebuilt at $94 a Seat

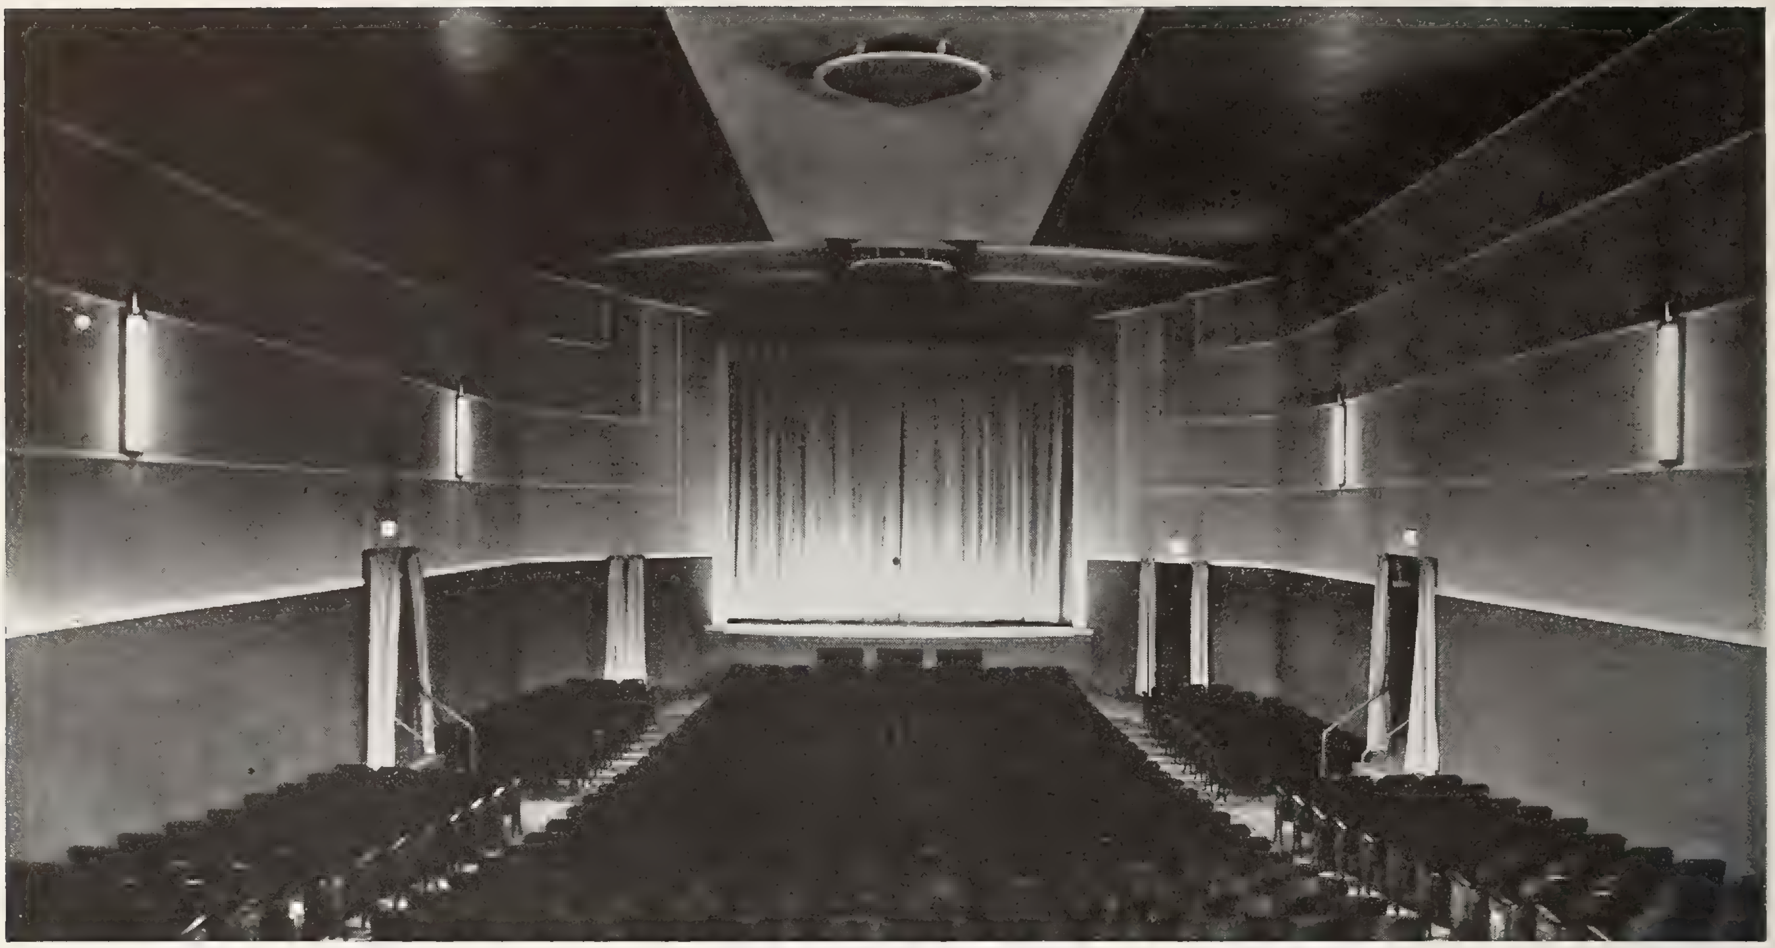
● Thoroughgoing modernization featuring vivid color schemes transforms Lancaster, Ohio's, 25-year-old Lyric. Hocking Theatre Company are the owners. Located in the business section of a thriving industrial city of 21,000 population, the Lyric also draws patronage from surrounding architectural territory. In addition to brick, steel, wood and concrete, black and ivory structural glass, terra cotta in three colors and pink Belgium glass brick were used in the reconstruction. The whole front of the building, totaling 44' x 85', is new. The auditorium has been enlarged by 40 feet. Its rear wall slants inward by about ten degrees to eliminate sound reflection. A one-floor, two-aisle seating plan provides 800 seats. F. & Y. Building Service of Columbus, Ohio, planned and carried out the reconstruction, at a cost of $75,000. An additional $15,000 was devoted to new equipment and furnishings.



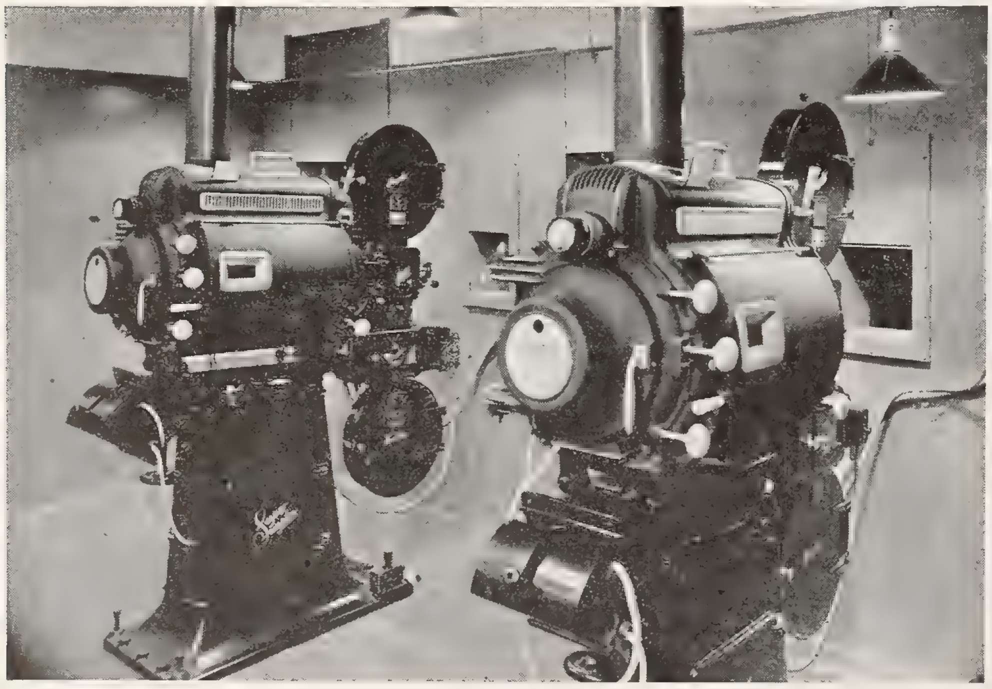
FRONT: The new Lyric theatre front features a curved tower effect above the marquee. The field of the tower is canary yellow terra cotta associated with three large, rust-colored terra cotta pylons. The purpose and effect are to add to the apparent height of the building. The rounded corners of the tower present a more startling appearance, and attract attention day or night. They are made of curved, pink, radium-cinder Belgium glass brick, illuminated from within by means of brilliant white lighting. All structural glass, terra cotta and Belgian glass brick were furnished by Business Boosters Equipment Co. of Columbus, O. The flat marquee, integral with the design of the front, is just below the outstanding tower. It is by Artkraft Sign Company of Lima, Ohio. It has streamline lighting and a three-line attraction board at each end. The name LYRIC is carried in white procelain letters outlined with neon. The ticket booth, just below the marquee, reproduces the tower effect with a panel of amber-colored Belgium glass brick also illuminated from within located just below the window. The window frame and speaking hole frame (as well as lobby door hardware) were supplied by the Cast Aluminum Push Bar Company of Columbus, Ohio. The vestibule is ornamented with black structural glass surmounted by ivory structural glass. The latter carries a continuous vine design, sand-blasted into it and inlaid with maroon-colored enamel. The vestibule ceiling is also glass. Lighting is provided by a series of concentric diffusers. The vestibule floor is bright-colored terrazo. Its doors are $2\frac{1}{4}''$ solid slab birch, having glass panels and aluminum push bars and kick plates. Lighted, polished aluminum attraction frames measuring 40" x 60" are set into the ivory structural glass at either side of the box office. Aside from these features, the front elevation of the theatre is further dressed by extensive use of torquoise blue terra cotta in contrast with granite-gray face brick.



LOBBY: Terrazzo in two colors, with Goodyear rubber mats colored to match, provides the flooring for the Lyric lobby. Walls are wainscotted in cadmium red with azure-cobalt blue above. The ceiling is finshed in three shades of alizarin crimson, and crossed longitudinally by a large lighting trough painted azure-cobalt blue. Double attraction boards, brilliantly lighted, are placed in each side wall. The doors leading to the foyer are natural birch, with aluminum hardware. Foyer lighting is by a continuation of the lobby trough.



AUDITORIUM: The auditorium walls of the Lyric are finished partly in velour of a delicate, flesh-colored tint, and partly in wainscotting of turquoise blue. The wainscotting is painted cement. Toward the front of the auditorium the velour is trimmed with wooden mouldings painted white. The ceiling is divided into three panels that run lengthwise with the auditorium. Of these, the center panel is finished in pale buff, while the outer ones have been painted ultramarine blue. The curtain, which is mechanically operated, is of egg-shell rippled rayon repp. The ceiling panels converge at the front of the auditorium, advancing in three circular "steps" towards the proscenium arch. These steps are plaster, and are painted in three shades of old rose. A special lighting fixture was designed for this auditorium. It tends to reproduce the striking feature of the outside tower, and of the special panel under the box office window, through the use of pink, radium-cinder curved glass brick, illuminated from within. The lamps used are standard 25-watt incandescents, set at about 4" spacing. In color, they alternate red, white and blue. They are controlled by dimmer rheostats. Acoustic control of sound quality is provided in some part by sloping the rear wall of the auditorium. It leans inward about 10 degrees all along its width. This forward slope begins at a height of roughly 8 feet above the floor. Sound reflected by this wall is thus thrown downward to be absorbed by the audience. Use of velour on the walls obviously provides further damping. Lastly, the long central panel of the ceiling is plastered in Sabinite, a sound-proofing material manufactured by the U. S. Gypsum Company. This was tinted buff color by spraying it with Texolite after it had ben laid down. To keep the house from sounding too "dead," on the other hand, the auditorium wainscotting was built of hard, smooth, painted plaster. The "steps" through which the ceiling meets the proscenium arch are likewise plaster, and painted plaster is used for both side panels of the ceiling. The auditorium floor is concrete. Existing chairs were retained in the older parts of the theatre, and the additional seating space provided by the new construction was supplied with new chairs specially made to match by Irwin Seating Company, and furnished through the Cincinnati branch of the National Theatre Supply Company. . . . The women's lounge is carpeted in light torquoise blue. Three of the walls are finished in ivory with a blue and yellow frieze; the fourth, in magenta, contains a full length mirror, with indirect lighting from above. Fixtures include glass shelves for cosmetic supplies, and ash trays.

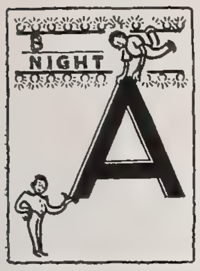


AIR SUPPLY: Complete air conditioning is provided for every part of the structure. There is no insulation, however, and the original cast-iron boiler and stoker are used for heating. The conditioning system is equipped with Aerofin coils for hot water heating and for cooling. The water supply is from a deep well, lifted by means of a centrifugal pump. Auditorium air diffusers, made of cast plaster and painted, were manufactured locally by a plaster contractor. The capacity of the sytem is approximately 20 cubic feet of air per person per minute.

PROJECTION: The projection room walls are built of 2" solid plaster on channel iron and metal lath. Ports are equipped with an automatic shutter system manufactured by J. T. Edwards Company of Columbus, O. Peerless Magnarc super high intensity lamps draw their current from a 65-138 ampere Magnarc Hertner Transverter. Throw is 125 feet to a Walker screen. The projector heads are Super Simplex, mounted on Super Simplex bases, equipped with Bausch and Lomb super cinephor lenses, and working at an angle of 4°. Sound is Simplex.

Tips on How To Satisfy All Patrons

By S. CHARLES LEE



ALL customers of motion picture theatres have different thoughts from time to time, of course, but at least when they start out for the theatre they usually make up their minds to wander, lost, in a sunny vale of Escapism. This is the general rule. But the theatre operator should understand that it does not apply to everyone.

Take a lawyer. (Neither do I, but this is just an example.) Now when a lawyer walks into a theatre, he does not have to be so very smart to find a reason to sue the average theatre owner for neglect of some kind.

In the first place, the average theatre operator neglects his wife; he sleeps all day and stays in his theatre all night. This is only petty neglect. (In the good old days of stage entertainment, neglect really was neglect.) If the lawyer cannot stir up any business between the operator and his wife, he will turn to more lucrative fields.

For instance, if there is a large hole in a carpet, there are attorneys who have clients with good-looking ankles who can conveniently trip over such an unguarded opening in the carpet and promptly sue for a year's rent. To build a theatre with uneven steps either going to the mezzanine or in the auditorium will gladden the heart of such an attorney because he does not have to have much more than a kindergarten education to prove to a jury that this was designed especially to trip his client into breaking her gongaroo.

There are other special classes of customers that the theatre operator should similarly try to please. Take bakers or restaurant owners. When they come into a freshly ventilated auditorium, their minds are distracted; therefore, be sure that your theatre is planned with the air intake facing towards the prevailing winds of the beanery next door, or, better still, have the air intake too close to the alley level and you will create a condition in which patrons can play "Guess the Odor."

There are many other special provisions which any architect or builder of sufficient inexperience can provide for you. But you'll have to give the sheriff a pass on "Bankruptcy Night."

Mr. Lee of Los Angeles, theatre architect and student of his fellow human beings.

"...Costs Far Below Expectations" writes Esterl Amusement Co.

Draws 10% More Patronage for Less than 1/3 cent per patron

Carrier Air Conditioning

REX
MARGARET SULLAVAN
JAMES STEWART "IN "SHOPWORN ANGEL"
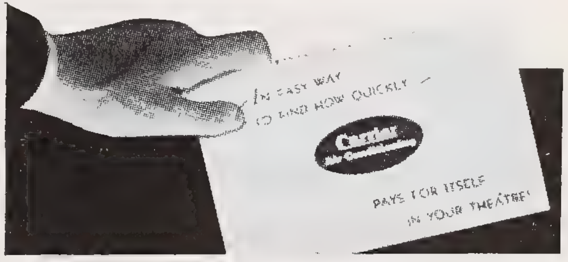
HAROLD LLOYD

1. PROFITABLE? And how! Primarily installed to attract summer tourist trade, the Carrier System in the Rex Theatre, Park Falls, Wisconsin, has increased patronage 10%—made matinees profitable—and decreased cleaning and re-decorating to a "very noticeable extent."

2. ECONOMICAL? The answer is "yes"! With a cost of less than 1/3c per customer for cool, clean, quiet comfort, Mr. Esterl writes, "Costs are far below expectations . . . it is evident our Carrier System operates at lower cost than any cheaper equipment on the market."

3. MATHEMATICAL! With the new Carrier Handbook for theatres, guesswork is a thing of the past. Right in your own office, you can estimate both the cost and the value of Carrier Air Conditioning in your own particular theatre—find the answers in actual dollars and cents. Write for your copy of the Carrier Theatre Handbook today—it's FREE!

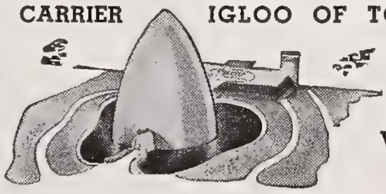


AN EASY WAY TO FIND HOW QUICKLY
Carrier Air Conditioning
PAYS FOR ITSELF IN YOUR THEATRE

Insure Next Summer's Profits—NOW!

• Yes, NOW! Now, while there's still plenty of time to make your plans carefully . . . to select the particular Carrier System best suited to your needs . . . to make sure your installation is ready to bring in more business when the first hot day arrives. Without the slightest obligation, your local Carrier representative will help you make these plans. And he'll bring you the helpful advice and experience of the entire Carrier organization—the organization that has devoted 37 years exclusively to the design, the manufacture and the installation of air conditioning equipment. No theatre is too small—such theatres as the 450 seat Mayfair in Miami are playing to "Full Houses" all summer with Carrier Air Conditioning. No theatre is too large—such theatres as Radio City Music Hall and the Paramount in New York have been profiting with Carrier for years! Insure your summer profits—by calling on Carrier, NOW!

CARRIER IGLOO OF TOMORROW



NEW YORK WORLD'S FAIR

Carrier Corporation, Syracuse, N. Y., Desk B12
(In Canada—Box 1050, Station C, Toronto)
Without obligation, send me free copy of Carrier Hand Book for Theatres, and other information on Carrier Air Conditioning for my Theatre.
Name..........
Theatre..........
City..........

. about PEOPLE of the THEATRE

NEWS OF THEIR ACTIVITIES REPORTED FROM ALL SECTIONS AND BRIEFLY TOLD

Granville MacPherson has disposed of his interests in the firm of MacPherson & Schelling, operating the Town Hall theatre at Quincy, Calif., to J. C. Lee.

William Ruffin has completed remodeling of his Palace at Newbern, Tenn. The house had been damaged by fire.

A. M. Stafuss has taken over the Cozy theatre in Ottawa, Kansas, from Lee Sproule.

Clyde Westbrook's Westco interests have taken over the Shelby theatre, Shelby, Miss. The house was formerly owned and operated by J. H. Stafford.

The Thompson theatre, which was destroyed by fire at an estimated loss of $20,000, is to be rebuilt, according to Glen Thompson, owner.

Harry Smith recently purchased the Holly at Cement, Okla., from Jack Weiss.

Under the direction of A. M. Bowles, district manager, boxed trees have been placed in front of the Warfield, St. Francis, and California theatres in San Francisco. This landscaped decoration is in line with a plan for a tree-lined thoroughfare for the Golden Gate City's Exposition year.

Fire recently damaged the building housing the Milton Theatre in Milton, Del. The blaze destroyed 25,000 feet of film and the projection equipment. The house belongs to Goodwill Motion Picture Theatre, Inc.

The Clabon theatre, formerly the Plaza, in New Orleans, La., has been reopened after being closed for remodeling that cost $10,000.

Morris Banovitz has installed a new box office, stage and draperies in his Plaisance theatre in Chicago, Ill. Guercia & Barthel handled the job.

The Normandy theatre in Normandy, Mo., has been taken over by Fred Wehrenberg and is to be operated in conjunction with the Studio theatre in Pine Lawn, Mo., which is also a Wehrenberg house. Until recently the Normandy had been operated by the Harris brothers under a management arrangement with Greenman Theatres, Inc., headed by Harry Greenman. The 699-seat house, which has been furnished with a new ventilating system and screen, will be under the managership of Victor Vacarezza.

The Surf theatre in Miami Beach, Fla., has been opened as the second unit of the Cameo circuit to be erected by Herman Weingarten. The new house seats 650.

Warren Pechner, who has been public relations director for the Paramount theatre, San Francisco, has been made manager of the Varsity in Palo Alto, Calif. In his new position, Mr. Pechner, at the age of 26, becomes one of the youngest executives in the Fox West Coast organization. He has been associated with the motion picture business for fourteen years, having begun as an office boy in the old Imperial theatre in San Francisco.

■ ■ ■

The Vogue theatre, operated by the Indiana-Illinois circuit, has been completely remodeled and will be reopened soon. The house has been redecorated at a cost of $75,000, under the supervision of Joe Goldberg.

Fire damaged the Star theatre in St. Louis, Mo. Christian Efthins, owner, estimates the loss at $5,000.

Ed Rowley, Jr., succeeds William Simms as head of the Robb & Rowley office in Memphis, Tenn. Mr. Simms moves to the company's offices in Dallas.

The Ritz, operated by Standard Theatres Corporation, in Oklahoma City., Okla., has been closed for remodeling. Renovations will include the installation of new seats and a ventilating system, according to Dinty Moore, general manager of the Standard circuit.

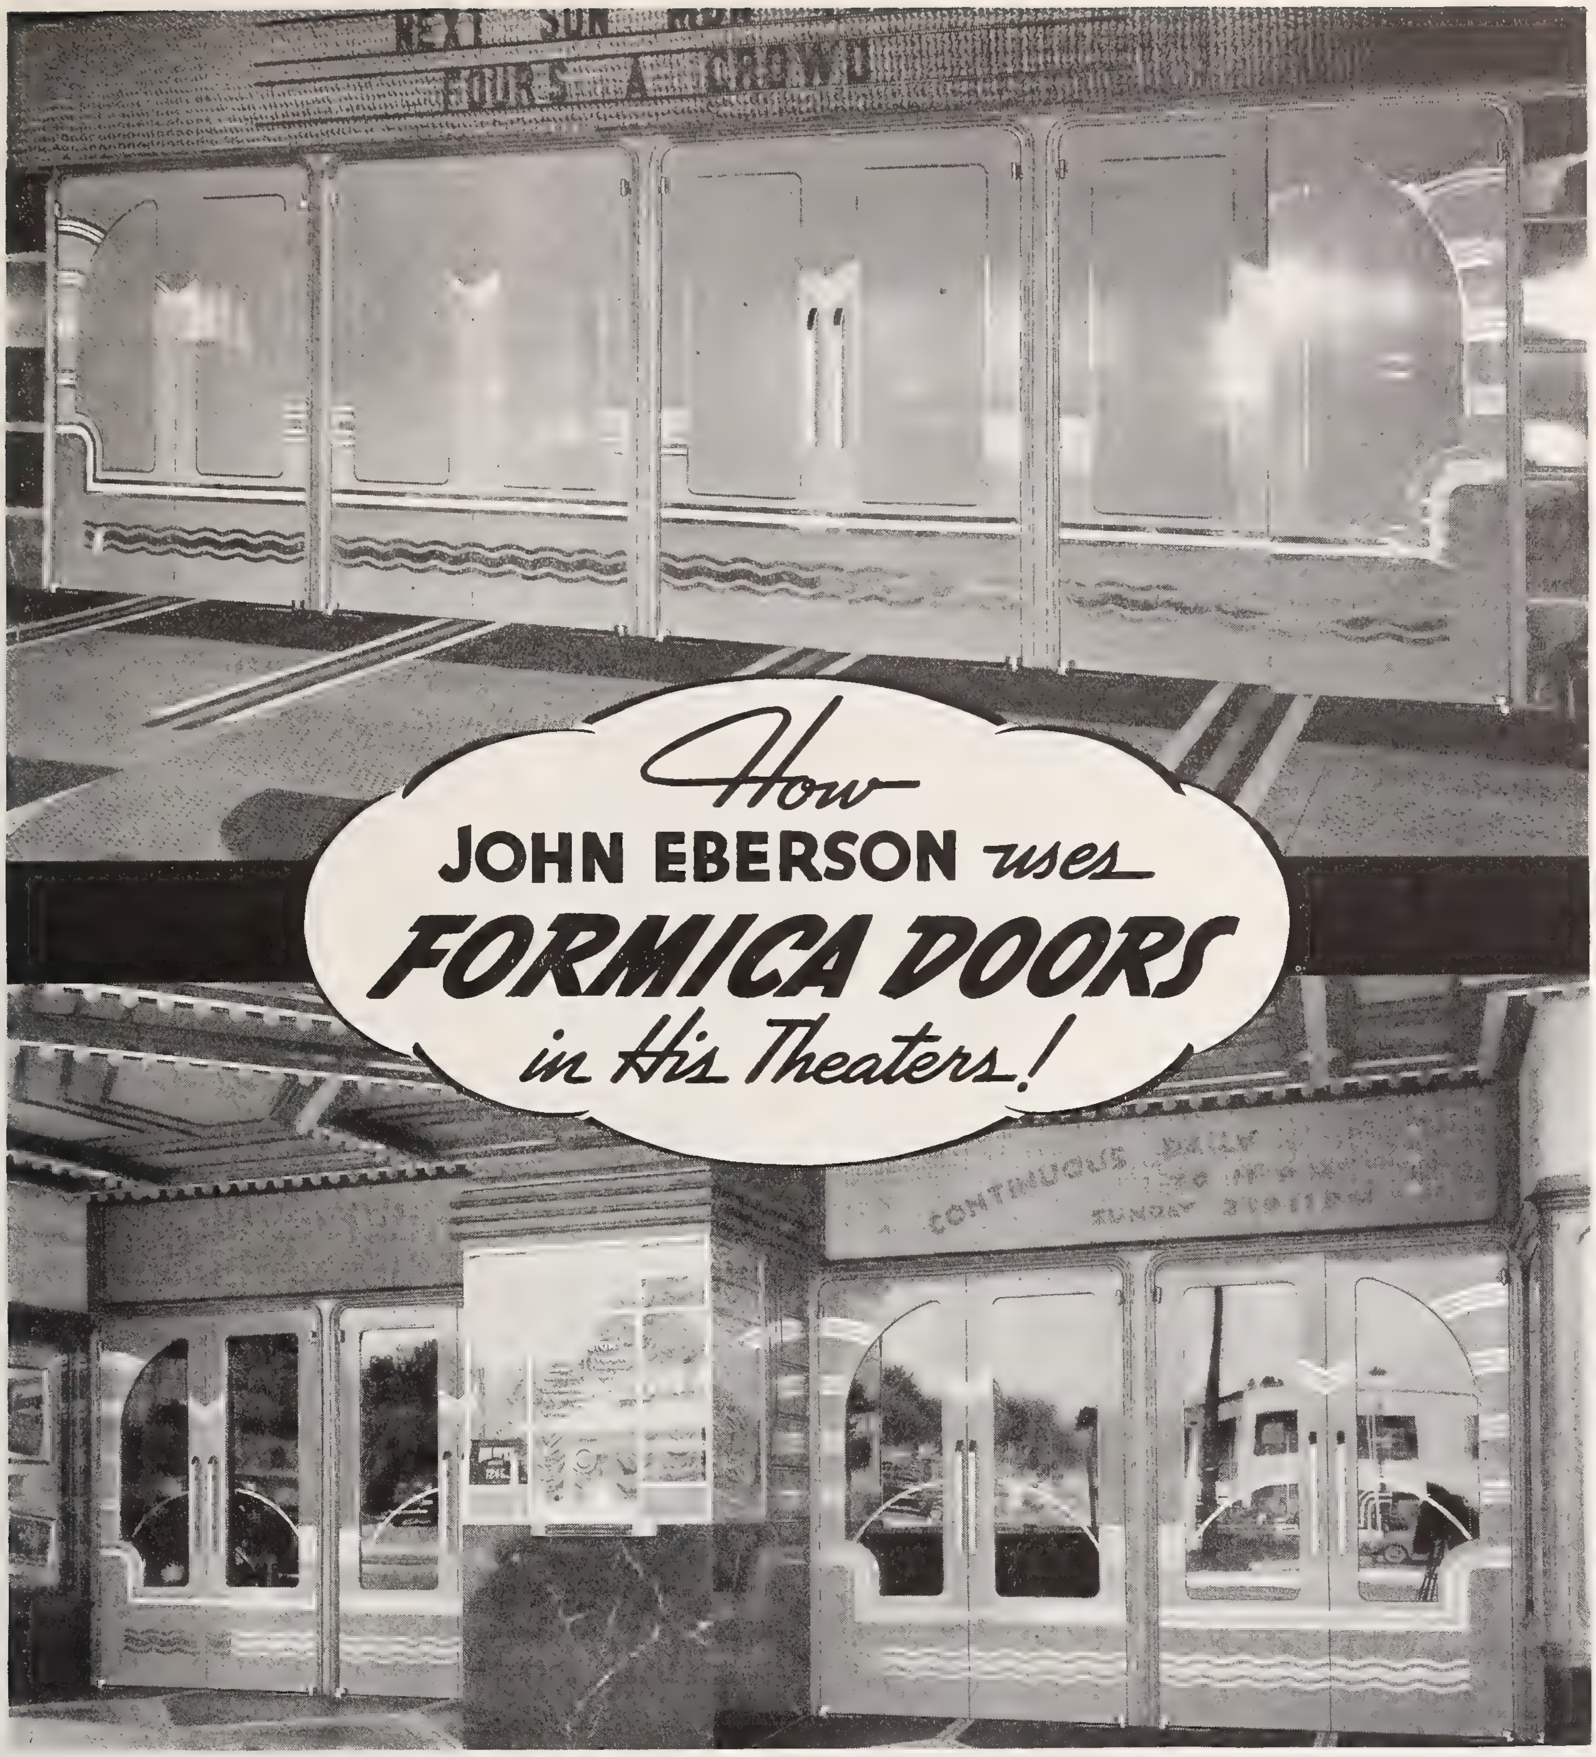
Orville Conrad has opened the Ritz theatre in Lincoln, Ark.

The New Ritz theatre, Hanford, Calif., has been taken over by Golden State and T. & D., Jr., Enterprises.

J. D. Henry of Hickman, Ky., is opening a new theatre in Union City, Tenn., to be called the Roxy. Mr. Henry is the former owner of the Ritz in Hickman.

The Riverview Theatre Company, which plans to erect a motion picture theatre in St. Louis, has been incorporated with an

Some of the foreign representatives of RCA who attended the export sales convention at the Camden headquarters in January. Harry L. Sommerer, RCA Photophone manager (second from right on second row) welcomed the delegates and introduced Van Ness Philip, RCA Photophone export manager (right end of second row), who presided. Other speakers were Max C. Batsel, chief photophone engineer, who explained the six new Photophone sound reproducing systems; Ovid Riso, export advertising manager; and David J. Finn, assistant advertising manager. Shown are (first row) C. D. Cushman, F. Leiva of Bogota; Ovid Riso; Miss J. M. Cargiulo, Philippine Islands; A. Bletterman of Panama Radio Corporation, Panama; N. M. Muscaro, export advertising department; F. B. McElmoyl, RCA advertising department; Charles Thaw, Photophone division; (second row) Harold Walker, chief engineer of Dominion Sound Equipments, Ltd., Canada; Lloyd W. Pearson, Dominion Sound Equipments sales manager; F. E. Peters, Dominion general manager; Mr. Sommerer; D. W. Lansing, Photophone Division, and Mr. Philip; (third row) J. L. McMurray, RCA Victor Company, Ltd., Canada; W. F. Garling, RCA Photophone, Ltd., London; E. Harris, sound engineer, Canadian Famous Players; Fernando Mier, National Theatre Supply Company of Cuba; Felipe Mier, Mexican motion picture producer and distributor of Photophone equipment in Mexico.



How JOHN EBERSON uses FORMICA DOORS in His Theaters!

PROBABLY no architectural office in America designs more theatres, or modernizes more theatres, than that of John Eberson, New York. And in most of the Eberson jobs for the past several years a very effective use has been made of Formica inlaid doors . . . They have a striking theatrical quality that adapts them perfectly in appearance to this use; they have durability; they are easily kept clean and attractive with a minimum of polishing; and best of all they are very moderate in price as good doors go . . . All types of color treatments are available and if you require something subdued and untheatrical, that is available, too. Let us send you our literature about doors.

FORMICA

THE FORMICA INSULATION COMPANY
4651 Spring Grove Avenue, Cincinnati, Ohio
FOR BUILDING PURPOSES

International Reseats
B & K State
Lake Theatre
Chicago

We are proud indeed to have the privilege of reseating B & K's great State-Lake Theatre, Chicago.

Thank you Balaban & Katz!

International Chairs FULFILL EVERY DESIRE Beauty Comfort
Mechanical EXCELLENCE
INTERNATIONAL BUILT MEANS TOP VALUE

International Seat Corp.
UNION CITY, INDIANA

authorized capital of $35,000. The incorporators were Nat Koplar and Elsie Probstein, both of University City, Mo., and Irwin J. Meyer of St. Louis.

The New Majestic in Green Forest, Ark., has been opened by Lester McCormick.

Robert Malek, Jr., has purchased the Uptown in Gladbrook, Ia., from Gene McLaughlin, who has bought the Dreamland in Bancroft, Ia., from P. A. Lonergan.

William Pereira, theatre architect of Chicago, has gone to the West Coast on a month's visit. While there Mr. Pereira plans to open offices and consider several theatre jobs pending on the Coast.

The Fillmore theatre, operated by Edwards Bros., at Fillmore, Calif., was recently damaged by fire.

Al Schulman, night club operator of New Orleans, La., has opened the new Best theatre in that city.

J. T. James has begun a modernization program on the New Theatre at Cotton Plant, Ark., which he recently took over from J. W. Crabtree.

A. F. Ramsey of Mansfield, Ohio, has reopened the Park theatre at Belleville, Ohio. Mr. Ramsey also operates the Attica in Attica, Ohio, while his son manages the Plymouth, Plymouth, Ohio.

M. D. Utterback, operator of the Rialto in Wellington, Kansas, recently installed 300 new Heywood-Wakefield chairs.

The Burbank Theatre Holding Company, Burbank, Calif., has been incorporated with a capital stock of $50,000, by A. F., Charles A. and Minnie Minor.

The State in East St. Louis, Mo., recently taken over by the Frisnia Amusement Company of Springfield, Ill., has been closed for repairs and improvements.

■ ■ ■

Frank R. Deakins, vice president of the RCA Manufacturing Company, who is in charge of all special apparatus sales, has returned from a month's trip to England, where he visited the studios and theatres using RCA Photophone equipment.

George Barber, owner of the Strand in Tuscola, Ill., has completely remodeled the stage of his house.

Ben and Vance Terry, who operate the Terry theatre in Woodward, Okla., are remodeling the house with the installation of new carpet, lighting fixtures and interior decorations.

Duffie J. Larson, veteran exhibitor of Hallock, Minn., has announced the sale of the Grand in that locality to Oscar Henriksen of the Strand theatre in Grafton, N. D., and Ray Walter of Minneapolis. The new owners plan to remodel.

The Community in Gardner, Kans., has been opened by Charles Reynolds. The house seats 400.

Maj. William M. Wood is operating the Wood, formerly the Lyric, in Excelsior Springs, Mo.

O. E. Dunbar has opened a new theatre in Boynton, Okla. The house seats 300.

The Finney Theatre Corporation of St. Louis, Mo., has been incorporated with 100 shares of no par value stock. Incorporators were E. L. Murphy of Webster Groves, Mo., James H. Arthur of St. Louis, and R. C. Wipfler of University City, Mo.

The American theatre in Guymon, Okla., has installed 400 new chairs from the Irwin Seating Company, supplied by the Oklahoma Theatre Supply Company, Oklahoma City. Funk Theatres, Inc., operate the house.

Russell Meyers, operator of the Delavan in Delavan, Wis., recently remodeled the stage of his theatre.

Harry L. Nace has acquired a controlling interest in the Lang theatre, Kingman, Ariz. The Lang Theatre Company has since been incorporated with a capital stock of $50,000.

Work has begun on the construction of a new Warner house in Chester, Pa. The new house has been designed by John Eberson, and building is being handled by the Golder Construction Company.

Herb Elisburg, former manager of the Woods theatre in Chicago, Ill., has been named supervisor of Essaness theatres in that city. Ed Nichodom succeeds Mr. Elisburg at the Woods.

Work is well under way in the construction of the new Sparks theatre in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. Building cost is reported as $70,000. Roy A. Benjamin of Jacksonville, Fla., is architect.

The Pic theatre in Hoquiam, Wash., has been taken over by R. H. Ownsby. The house is being remodeled.

C. C. Rhodes, who operates the Roxy in Warsaw, Mo., has taken over the theatre in Buffalo, Mo.

Mrs. Bertha Barrett, owner and operator of the Ritz in Madill, Okla., has installed new Super-Simplex projectors and a new National Acme rectifier.

The Illinois theatre in Jacksonville, Ill., is being completely remodeled. A new cooling system, auditorium chairs, projection apparatus, carpets, wiring and lighting system have been installed. RALPH BARTLETT, Jacksonville manager for Fox Midwest, has set the opening for March 1.

JOSEPH W. FAITH, operator of theatres in Terryville and Collinsville, Conn., has opened his new Empress, Unionville, Conn. The theatre seats 500.

The Star, Fox Midwest house at Benton, Ill., which has been closed since sound was introduced, is being remodeled and redecorated for an opening on March 2. The house has a seating capacity of 550.

■ ■ ■

The firm of C. W. & GEORGE L. RAPP, Chicago architects, is completing plans for the erection of underground connections between Loop theatres and the new Chicago subway. The B. & K. Chicago, Roosevelt, State-Lake and United Artists theatres will have direct connections with the new subway when it is completed in 1941. The connecting tubes will have their own box offices leading into the theatres.

OSCAR MONTGOMERY, who has been manager of the Criterion theatre in Spartanburg, S. C., has been transferred to Salisbury, N. C., as manager of the Victory. SEVERN ALLEN, assistant manager of the Broadway in Charlotte, N. C., replaces Mr. Montgomery at the Criterion.

Fox Midwest has reopened the Royal at Mt. Vernon, Ill. HOMER MARVEL is manager.

The Ritz theatre at Muskogee, Okla., Robb & Rowley house, was reopened recently after extensive remodeling made at a reported cost of $35,000. The lobby was expanded and a double box office installed. New chrome modern furniture was installed in the foyer and lounges.

Opening of a new motion picture theatre at High Point, N. C., being erected at a cost of more than $100,000, is scheduled for February, according to HUGO J. SMART. The new house is being erected on the site of the old Orpheum theatre.

M. A. LIGHTMAN, JR., is the new manager of the Paramount and Pastime theatres in Helena, Ark., succeeding HAL HOWARD, who has taken over Mr. Lightman's former duties as manager of the circuit's theatres in Hope, Ark.

The Schine circuit has taken over the 500-seat Washington, and the 300-seat Hollywood, in Maysville, Ky., which were operated by JACK FRISCH and SAM KAPLAN. With another holding in Maysville, the Russell, 700 capacity, the company now has a dominating hold in that locality. Mr. Frisch will be city manager for the circuit, and ED MAY, formerly manager of the Russell, goes to Middlesboro, Ky., in charge of the three units which were recently acquired by the Schine interests there.

Prices Substantially Reduced!

INSTALLATION SIMPLIFIED

The [illegible] acceptance of the Anemostat High Velocity Air Diffuser by the Industry has enabled us to make a substantial reduction in list prices and we gratefully acknowledge the cooperation of leading Architects, Engineers, Air Conditioning and Contracting Organizations who have been responsible for the installation of many thousands of Anemostats during the past year.

An entirely new method of assembly has been developed which simplifies the installation of the Anemostat and materially reduces the contractor's labor cost.

Complete information available upon request.

ANEMOSTAT CORPORATION OF AMERICA
10 EAST 39th STREET NEW YORK

ANEMOSTAT

"NO AIR CONDITIONING SYSTEM IS BETTER THAN ITS AIR DISTRIBUTION"

RECT-O-LITE
BETTER PROJECTION

For Bright, Clear Pictures

RECT-O-LITE Rectifiers produced steady, no-flicker arc. No heat-producing rheostats. No sound interference. Easy to install. Only 1 square foot floor space required. Economical. 1 YEAR GUARANTEE. Price, including Ammeter............ $80.00 (less bulbs)

Write for Descriptive Bulletin

RECT-O-LITE
A BETTER RECTIFIER

BALDOR ELEC. CO.
4367 DUNCAN AVE., ST. LOUIS, MO.

NEW, IMPROVED LOW INTENSITY RECT-O-LITE No. 30-S

Planning & Furnishing the Theatre

. . . a department of news and guidance on design • decoration construction methods carpeting • furniture

Co-Ordinating Acoustics and Architecture in the Design of The Motion Picture Theatre

By C. C. POTWIN and BEN SCHLANGER

• A condensation by the authors of a paper which they presented before the Fall 1938 Convention of the Society of Motion Picture Engineers, and which is now made available with its publication in the February issue of the Society's Journal.

A CRITICAL distinction of modern architecture from prior technique lies in a more candid evaluation of function. To be really modern or functional in architecture is to go straight to the purpose of a building, and to develop it in plan and structure according to an honest acceptance of that purpose, providing in the forms and devices that serve it a beauty that is inherent.

When the ideal of functional efficiency and proper aesthetic quality becomes our guide in designing a motion picture theatre, the precepts of sound, light and vision supply the basis for fundamental planning. Correct vision, without obstruction, has been provided in a number of new designs. Lighting in the auditorium is now being given more study. Air-conditioning, proper seating, and general arrangement and appointments, are also receiving much more consideration; however, practically no attention has been given in previous design to the relationship that exists between acoustics and the fundamental plan of the theatre. This does not mean that the acoustical problem has received no attention. It has often received thoughtful treatment, but more specifically from what might be termed a corrective rather than a constructive point of view.

The corrective approach has become common practice because (1) the preliminary basic form of auditoriums has not been planned for best acoustics; (2) the total cubic volume of the auditorium structure has not been held down so as to fall within desirable limits, as it might have been in many new designs; and (3) the past tendency to follow tradition in architectural design practice has usually made it mandatory to utilize corrective methods.

There is one other reason that should not be overlooked. At the time speech and music were added to films, sound absorbing devices were required for many existing structures having poor acoustical conditions. Perhaps from force of habit, reliance upon these devices has extended into the planning of new theatres. As a result, basic acoustical design has been overlooked as one of the sources of effective architecture.

Acoustical materials for the treatment of motion picture theatres are in no wise to be regarded as unnecessary; such materials are commonly required for new theatres having very large seating capacities, for existing theatres having fixed forms which produce objectionable sound reflections, and for both new and existing structures which have excessive cubic-foot volumes per seat.

It is proposed in this paper to show that more efficient and more economical theatre structures can be built when basic acoustical requirements are co-ordinated with the other primary functions of theatre planning.

Acoustical Requirements

Two fundamental factors which must be considered as the first step in the functional acoustic planning of a motion picture theatre are: (1) the preliminary outline of the auditorium, establishing its proportions of length, width and height; and (2) the volume, or cubical content, of the auditorium structure relative to the seating.

Ratios of Width to Length

The most efficient control of sound reflections and the best distribution of sound energy can usually be obtained in theatre auditoriums where the ratios of width to length fall within the limits of 1:1.4 and 1:2. When the length becomes greater than twice the width, difficulties arise from a multiplicity of sound reflections occurring between the side walls. When the ratio of width to length is less than 1:1.4, the resulting design becomes an unfavorable one from the standpoints of proper sound distribution and vision. This design also creates an unusually large rear wall, which is often a source of objectionable sound reflections.

Height of the Auditorium Ceiling

The limits of ratios recommended above for the floor plan are not meant to suggest that a strictly rectangular outline must be adopted. These ratios also apply to the average dimensions for the width and length of an irregular basic outline.

Establishing the ceiling height in its most practical and best acoustical relationship to the horizontal dimensions is the next element to be considered in fundamental planning. Ceiling height is very important because it affects both the proportions and the structural volume of the auditorium.

From an architectural viewpoint, the determination of ceiling height is governed by three factors: (1) sightline requirements; (2) light projection to the screen; and (3) the general appearance of the auditorium.

Acoustical Factors of Height

From the acoustical standpoint, two other important factors determine ceiling height. These are (1) the proper relationship of the ceiling height dimension to the horizontal proportions; and (2) the optimum cubic-foot volume per seat required for a given design.

A ceiling height ratio cannot be fixed which will be adaptable to all designs. The best ratio can only be established by a study of the horizontal dimensions and by a preliminary analysis of the cubic-foot volume requirements for the initial control of reverberation time.

Study of Theatre Seating 900

The study to follow will show the variations in proportions and structural volume introduced in the planning of a theatre auditorium seating 900 persons, and how they can be minimized.

From an acoustical standpoint, the structural volume of an auditorium seating 900 persons should lie between 120 and 130 cubic feet per seat. These limits are determined by (1) the optimum or best time of reverberation at different frequencies for reproduced sound, and (2) the fixed and variable sound absorption required to produce these times of reverberation.

Fixed absorption means that absorption provided by theatre chairs, carpeting and interior surfaces of standard furred construction, finished in an ordinary manner. The variable absorption is that quantity normally provided by the audience. Optimum reverberation times are usually based on an audience condition of two-thirds capacity.

Auditorium Seating Factor

The chairs constitute the major part of the fixed absorption for a theatre initially planned to be acoustically functional in design. To ensure that the variable absorption—that is, the audience—will not effect a major change in the reverberation time, these chairs should be of an efficient upholstered type, such as one having a leather-covered spring bottom and a fully padded mohair or tapestry-covered back. In the 20-inch width, this chair has a sound absorption value equivalent to more than two-thirds that of the average person. The use of such a chair has been assumed for the study.

Visual Requirements

From the standpoint of vision, the proportions and cubic foot volumes of auditoriums vary for three different reasons. These are:

1. The types of seating arrangement used in the horizontal dimension of the auditorium determined by the number of seats and aisles to be arranged across the width of the auditorium.

2. The type of seating arrangement employed in the vertical dimension such as (a) all seats on a single level; (b) a single level with the rear portion of the seating area somewhat elevated, with a cross-over separating the raised portion from the remainder, known as a stadium design; (c) a modified stadium design in which the raised portion of seats is placed high enough to cover the cross-over; and (d) use of upper levels of seating which partially overhang the seating area of the main auditorium floor below.

3. The inclination or inclinations of the floor for the main or orchestra level such as (a) a steep downward inclination toward the screen; (b) a modified downward inclination toward the screen; (c) a modified downward and then upward inclination toward the screen; and (d) only a slight downward and then upward inclination toward the screen.

Affect of Floor Slope

The degree of the inclination of the floor in all cases is affected by the manner in which the seats are placed behind each other. When these seats are arranged in a staggered fashion so that the center of any seat is always directly behind the dividing armblock of the preceding seat, the amount of inclination of the floor is reduced by almost one-half. Variations in floor inclination design directly affect the height and inclination of the upper level seating portions, the placing of the projection room, and thereby the total height of the auditorium.

The Importance of Getting "Technical"

BASICALLY, the discussion which begins in adjoining columns, of acoustic factors in theatre planning, illustrates the significance of matters "technical" to the business of Showbusiness. Here, as in efforts in other fields, we have technologies being applied to the purpose of getting more for the same money or less money. A way to do that is really what Messrs. Potwin and Schlanger are talking about.

As a result of their studies, they contend that acoustics should not be dealt with separately, but in conjunction with the rest of the planning, as a matter bearing upon the design of a theatre quite as fundamentally as vision, projection, traffic, safety and so on. Vision, projection and the other elements of the theatre planning problem are also being restudied. The purpose of all these studies is definitely the same—to get more for the same money or less money. And such matters "technical" are Showbusiness — and any kind of business.

●

In the course of this discussion, which is to be continued in the March 4th issue, specific application is made of the system of employing angular or broken-up walls or ceilings to control sound. This system was patented by the Bell Telephone Laboratories in 1932.

It is understood that for practical application to new or virtually new theatres, this system can be made to function most efficiently when properly co-ordinated with basic outline, cubic foot volume, and "fixed" sound absorption of the auditorium structure.

—George Schutz.

[With the concluding installment of this paper in the March 4th issue of BETTER THEATRES, the authors will present drawings in which they have sought to show why acoustical defects are introduced in planning new theatres, and how design may eliminate these defects, thereby also contributing to economy in construction and to creative architecture.—THE EDITOR.]

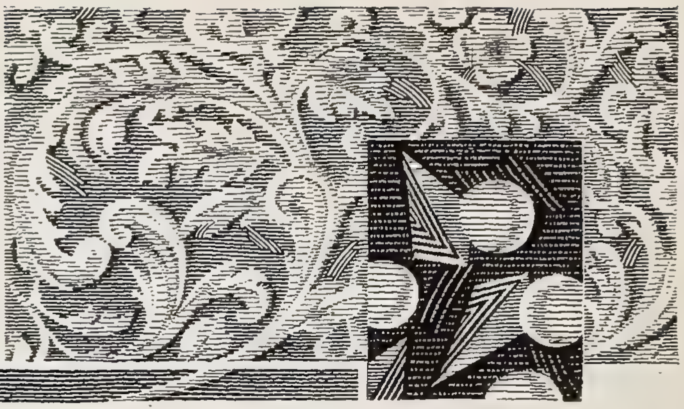
PERSONAL SERVICE ON PLANNING PROBLEMS: Inquiries from readers concerning the laying out and construction of theatres are invited. They are answered by mail as promptly as possible. Readers are asked to remember, however, that in some cases questions concerning a general plan may have to be referred to consultants in more than one field (as, for example, acoustics and air-conditioning), which is likely to require some time. It is further suggested that the problems be presented in the form of specific questions—this method permits a saving in time and also reduces the chances of misunderstanding.

CARPET Selection & maintenance

Foyer and lounge floors, and stairways, are always conspicuous—keep them well groomed.



Initial Considerations In the Selection of Carpet

• The first of a group of articles in these columns on first principles of theatre carpeting. Dealt with here are some of the practical problems of economical carpeting layout.

By NORMAN PATTERSON

IN PRELIMINARY contemplation of carpet needs for the new and old theatre a few suggestions will aid materially in making it possible for your theatre carpet dealer to give you his best assistance and advice. The long history of the carpet in the theatre is the best evidence of its fulfilling the function of a floor covering. In appearance, and in wear, it is yet to be successfully challenged and down through the years we have witnessed revolutionary changes in the employment of other materials, in the design and, now, even the function of theatres. The carpet alone has emerged unchanged except for the better in addition to the happy attribute of being the ideal floor surface for the acoustic problems of today.

Allocation of an arbitrary sum for your carpet requirements is a dangerous procedure. Whether it is too high or too low, you are only confining yourself and nobody else.

There is no set rule for determining costs and often mere knowledge of the sum total of the square footage to be covered has small bearing upon the price of the services and materials furnished. Certain patterns require more yardage than others for the same space. Widths of the carpet available also contribute to the ultimate determination of costs.

Availability of weave, of pattern, of width, limitations of layout and design, these are the major factors outside the all important selection of quality.

The quality of a rug should not merely be in keeping with the investment in the rest of the theatre. On the basis of showmanship alone, a cheap rug is a poor investment and a good carpet is always a good investment even in a poor theatre.

THE FOYER

The foyer floor is definitely a carpet floor and is an individual problem in layout and pattern in every instance. Aside from the necessity of achieving a harmonious balance with the rest of the theatre it should be borne in mind that the pattern is subordinated to the layout in order to obtain a maximum tailored effect, and the layout is submerged by the pattern to effect maximum continuity in design. This is distinctly the expert theatre carpet man's problem and should be treated so after grade, color and pattern have been selected and even then you are well repaid in accepting his suggestions in these matters for the foyer is the piece de resistance of the entire theatre floor area.

You can and should make advance preparation for the proper placement of rubber mat recesses at those places where extreme wear occur such as water fountain, rest room entrances, front and sides of candy concessions, in some instances at the foot of stairs and last but not least, in front of all doors used primarily for entrance into the foyer. Anticipating these needs will save you much money in carpet yardage and layout. The color and design of these mats should be determined after the carpet pattern has been selected and should be so treated as to render them inconspicuous against the carpet background.

THE LOUNGES

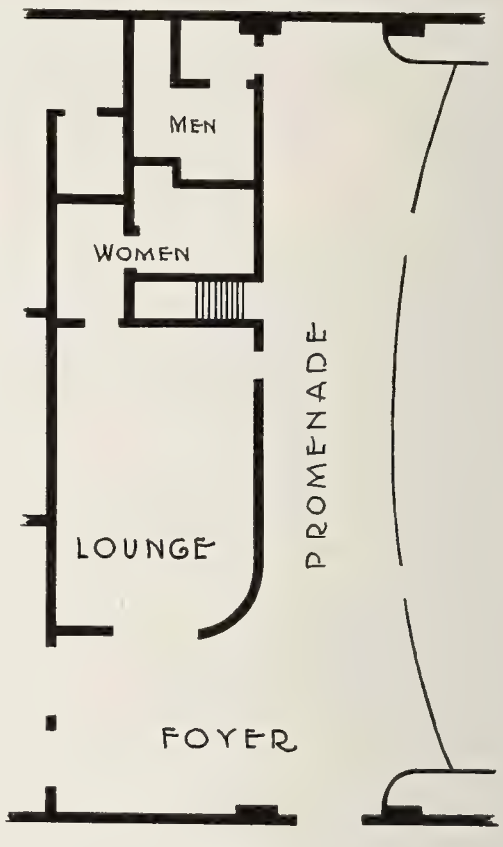


Figure 1

Where the lounge must be evolved from foyer space proper, and there is a partition between the foyer and auditorium, the lounge furniture can be grouped on a predetermined area covered with either rubber or asphalt tile which will save wear and tear and can be easily mopped as conditions warrant. Care should be taken to have the pile surface level with the height of the carpet tile and the use of a brass separating strip is necessary.

A judicious inclusion of another color carpet in the body of the main foyer covering can also be used to indicate the lounge.

In those instances where the lounge is set off from the foyer proper or where the creation of a definite lounge area is desired, it is not necessary to use a completely similar carpet coverage. A well defined difference helps to accentuate the function of the lounge.

Should the lounge offer a situation such as is shown on theatre plan Figure 1, utility can be combined with economy by arranging for a rubber tile or asphalt floor with provision in the center for a standard size rug to be sunk in a well provided therefor. In this particular instance the area involved is 15 feet wide by 22 feet long. By having tile 3 feet wide along each side and 3½ feet wide at each end, the furniture can be grouped at the sides and ends off the rug. Taking the area before the men's and ladies' rooms into consideration a major source of wear, friction and abuse conditions is eliminated, not to mention a considerable reduction in rug physical and maintenance investment.

THE AISLES

In the aisles, especially, attention should be given to traffic and wear hazards. Theatre carpeting is generally used throughout the house in either ¾ (27 inches) width or 4/4 (36 inches) width. For this reason, in new construction, provision should be made for keeping the aisle walk areas confined to carpet sizes that will insure a minimum of carpet waste and labor. Three-quarter (27 inches) carpet in single width should be avoided in aisle use as it is unsatisfactory as an aisle walk area even in the minimum 36 inches between seats aisle space. It is not only dangerous but the skimpy effect achieved nullifies the original intent of the investment.

In a 36-inch wide aisle, 4/4 (36 inches) carpet can be used as there is sufficient selvage attached to allow for turning under for fastening purposes. Where ¾ carpet is being used not less than 3′ 3″ of aisle area should be provided. This width is especially recommended because it can be made up from 1 and ½ widths of ¾ leaving 40½ inches to cover 39 inches and allowing 1½ inches for turning under for fastening purposes. The remaining half width from the cut ¾ piece can then be combined with another full ¾ width and the process is repeated in the next aisle. There are other economically practical dimensions and a brief phone call, consultation or letter to your carpet man will eliminate many layout difficulties that should and can be avoided.

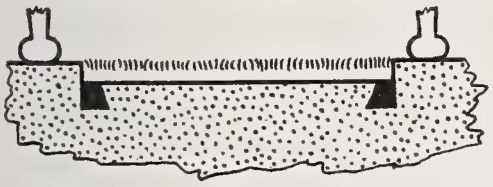

Figure 2

In new theatre construction, after the proper aisle walk area has been determined, provision should be made for a sinkage ⅜-inch deep in the pedetermined carpet width in the concrete aisleway. By sinking the carpet flush with the seat floor level, tripping over the carpet edge is eliminated and the increased safety factor contributes materially to reductions in insurance costs. In addition, the removal of the exposed carpet edge wear-factor is something every theatre owner can appreciate.

Another tried suggestion that will more than pay for itself in aiding the installation of the carpet and the permanency of the set is as follows: A wooden strip, trapezoidal in cross section, is embedded at the time of pouring, flush into the concrete. The strips to be run parallel and adjacent to the ⅜″ shoulder provided by the sinkage of the aisle as shown in Figure 2. The square cross sectioned wood strip occasionally used is unsatisfactory due to springing if warpage occurs. The trapezoid section with its broader base eliminates this problem. The desired shape can be easily obtained by sawing the wood strips from 2x4-inch stock. A diagonal cut as shown in Figure 3 will produce the desired results. Integration of the wood with the concrete eliminates drilling for plugs for fastening and is a further blessing when occasion demands that the carpet be stretched. If concrete is used for base flooring this method is recommended for use wherever practicable even where no sinkages or recesses are employed.

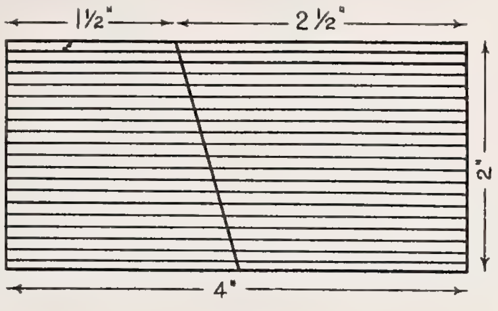

Figure 3

STAIRWAYS

Whenever possible, balcony aisle, mezzanine, or similar steps should also be sunk ⅜″ to receive carpet. It is on the stairs that additional problems are encountered. There are further complications due to the unusual tensions caused by peculiarities of attachment and traffic. The wood strip procedure for aisles is especially advisable here with the addition of another strip inserted flush with the face of the stair tread and laid snugly parallel to the riser.

It is manifestly unfair to your carpet supplier and his manufacturer to ask them to furnish you with a pattern dropped years ago. Reweaving of a pattern in small quantities is sometimes more expensive than replacing the whole layout. A word to your dealer and he will gladly determine the approximate additional yardage needed for reserve.

Should the theatre owner have a situation where just the foyer-auditorium walk area is worn and his pattern has been dropped and is not available from stock it is a good idea, in conjunction with the carpet house, to replace this worn area with a definitely contrasting carpet so laid out as to ostensibly serve the purpose of a functional walk area.

[The author has specialized in the floor covering problems of theatres and similar buildings. He is associated with the Greater New York Carpet House, New York City.]

Rubber Nosings For Reducing Stairway Hazards

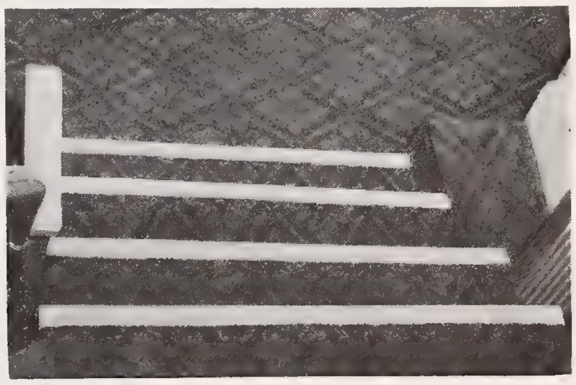
TO COMBAT wear of stairway carpeting and the hazard of stair accidents, rubber nosings are available in various colors. The installations illustrated here are in the Paramount theatre, New York, and were made by the Greater New York Carpet House.

On darkened stairways, especially balcony stairs, a light-colored rubber is selected, white, or yellow, or whatever tone will show up best in contrast with the carpet under the running illumination of the house.

Light-colored balcony nosings.

In well-lighted portions of the theatre, as in lobby stairways, the nosing is used for reduction of wear only, and the rubber may be chosen in a color harmonizing with the carpeting.

Each nosing is cemented to heavy gauge duck strips, these strips being of sufficient width to take care of one thread and one riser. Before installation, carpet is either sewn or stapled to the duck strip along the edge of the nosing. The duck is then tacked to the stairs.



Looking down, emphasizing hazard factor.

The nosing colors are not a surface application; the rubber metrix is pigmented. The nosings are readily cleanable with a damp cloth.

THEATRE ACCOUNTING

by WILLIAM F. MORRIS
(Certified Public Accountant)

●

A system devised expressly for keeping a correct tabulation of receipts and expenses.

All the information required by the Social Security Act can be easily and quickly obtained both weekly and for longer periods as the total is accumulated.

●

TELLS ALL THE FACTS ABOUT YOUR BUSINESS EACH WEEK

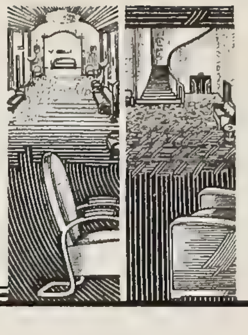
- Payroll data for Social Security Taxes.
- Profit at a glance—Daily or Weekly.
- All expenses deducted—including Rent, Taxes and Depreciation.
- Complete record of advance bookings.
- Itemized Schedule of All Assets and Equipment with Table of Depreciation Rates.
- Does not require a bookkeeper to handle it.

$4 ENOUGH FOR A FULL YEAR'S BOOKKEEPING

QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP
ROCKEFELLER CENTER NEW YORK

QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP
ROCKEFELLER CENTER - - - - NEW YORK
GENTLEMEN:
Please send me WILLIAM F. MORRIS' THEATRE ACCOUNTING. Enclosed find remittance of $4.00.
NAME ....
ADDRESS ....
CITY.................... STATE........

FURNITURE • for lounge & foyer

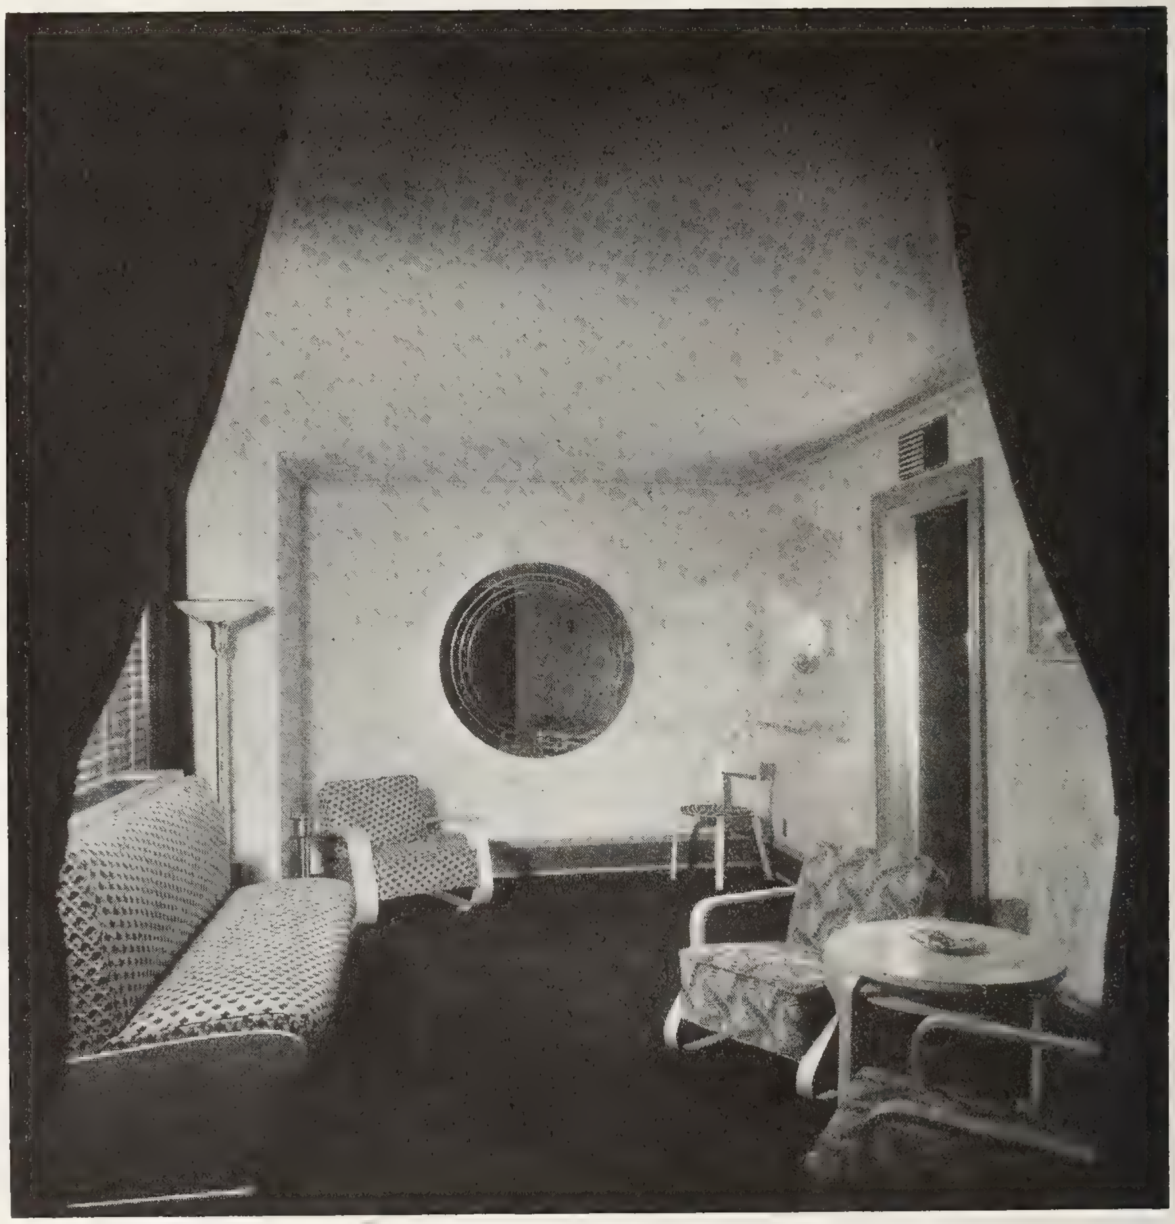


Combining Built-In and Single Pieces in Natural Woods

A HOME-LIKE warmth and informality characterize the lounge area of the intimately designed Radio City Newsreel theatre, recently opened up at 50th Street near New York's famed Music Hall. Designed by John Eberson, this little house has an unusual lounge arrangement on the second level, reached directly from the lobby. The stairway turns to take the patron into a narrow area above the lobby and rear of the auditorium. Though narrow, its length provides considerable lounge space in a compact, necessarily limited section of an office building.

This entire upper level is treated as a lounge, and all of it in the same basic pattern. Chairs and tables are of Swedish design and construction, all in natural maple. Against radiators, structurally acting as radiator chambers, settees have been built in, with the exposed wood parts also finished in natural maple.

Fabrics are of stitch tapestry material representing a mixture of rayon and cotton. Fabrics run to browns and blues, entering into a color scheme contributed to by red drapes adjoining Venetian blinds, jade green drapes elsewhere, neutrally papered walls and painted ceiling, and carpeting in gray, tan and dark blue.



Women's lounge of Radio City Newsreel theatre. (Photograph by Joseph W. Molitor)

by BEN SCHLANGER
Theatre Architect and Consultant

■ ■ ■

Theatre PLAN & FORM

DURING THE years in which theatre owners and managers were becoming convinced of the truth in the slogan "Better Projection Pays," a tremendous amount of money was being expended on unproductive—and now obsolete—architectural embellishment of theatres. In other words, the projection of the picture was being given more and more serious attention, while attention to what we may call the reception of the picture amounted to no more than the rudimentary requirements of placing a screen at one end of the auditorium, the projection room at the other, and as many seats as possible between. The attention given the auditorium was confined to ornamentation, while the real function of the auditorium—that of completing the exhibition process which merely begins in the projection room—was largely unrecognized.

Better "Reception" Pays, Too!

If most of the desire for "artistic effect" were concentrated on achieving both better projection and better reception, by the audience, of the projected picture, the function of the theatre would be better served.

Improved electro-mechanical equipment now available makes it possible for most, if not all, theatres to have better projection, and it does seem that exhibitors generally are now conscious of the need for such equipment. Good reception of the projected picture however, is not obtainable by the mere purchase of standard equipment, hence the difficulty of putting across the idea that "Better Reception Pays" too.

In a sense, of course, the auditorium is a mechanism which will provide for better reception of the picture, even though it cannot be purchased already assembled from a single responsible establishment ready for installation.

Engineering Is Basic

In the past the motion picture theatre builder has depended on the architect for the design according to which the auditorium mechanism would be produced. The extent to which the auditorium is vitally concerned with such matters as sound, light, vision, heat and comfort would indicate that actually the physicist and the engineer were intimately connected with the basis of an effective design. It is entirely possible that a motion picture auditorium design of the near future will be the product more nearly of laboratory research than of the artist and architectural draftsman working essentially in terms of materials.

To meet the new consciousness in practical theatre operation, of advancing technical standards in theatre planning, these columns have been estabilshed as regular features. Both Mr. Schlanger and Mr. Potwin are consultants on inquiries from readers seeking counsel on the planning of theatres.

Maximum Capacity In Limited Area

IT is not unusual to find readers submitting problems in which the remodeling of commercial buildings and the placing of a maximum number of seats in a very limited area are major considerations. Because of the physical limitations usually involved extremely careful planning is necessary both from the architectural and acoustical standpoints. Following is a typical problem of this type recently presented:

The owner of a two-story commercial building has approached me relative to remodeling it with the inclusion of a theatre. He plans to retain the second floor for apartments and, if possible, to utilize the first floor for the theatre. The present ceiling height of the first floor is 11 feet, 6 inches. An additional 6 feet, 6 inches can be gained by including the basement. I would like to have your advice as to what might possibly be done without using both the first and second floors for the theatre. The dimensions of the building are 36x90 feet. I would like to know the ideal ceiling height and the floor layout possibilities, bearing in mind that an ideal projection room is the first consideration, with additional facilities for a lobby, foyer, two rest rooms and a manager's office. Between 400 and 450 seats are desired, with approximately 30-inch spacing.

Allowing the ideal space for the projection room and the maximum possible space for the other necessary facilities, 370 seats can be placed on the single floor, spaced 30 inches back-to-back. A spacing of 32 inches is more desirable, reducing the capacity to 350.

The closest approach to an ideal ceiling height for this single floor layout would be approximately 16 feet, which would necessitate using the present basement space. In order to increase the seating capacity to 400 or 450, an upper level of seating would be required. This would involve utilizing a portion of second floor space also.

Should it be decided to adopt the single floor plan, using the second floor for apartments, careful consideration must also be given to sound isolation to prevent the excessive transmission of sound between the theatre and the apartments. —B.S. and C.C.P.

ACOUSTICS in Form & Decoration

■ ■ ■

by
C. C. POTWIN
Consultant in Acoustics

ACOUSTICS IS too often classified as an "extra" in the planning of new theatre structures. Observations indicate that in a number of recent design projects a specific amount of money has been set aside in the budget to allow for the purchase and installation of sound-absorbing materials. In one sense this is a desirable indication because it shows that acoustics is not being entirely neglected in the planning of new theatres. Yet in how many cases does the exhibitor or his architect first determine whether or not he must make this expenditure in order to achieve proper acoustical results? Does he consider the important part that the design of the auditorium must play fundamentally in controlling sound, or does he overlook the design problem entirely and think of acoustics solely in terms of "sound-deadening" materials? If he overlooks design, he is not only developing a less efficient plan but he is also leading away from, rather than toward, economy in construction.

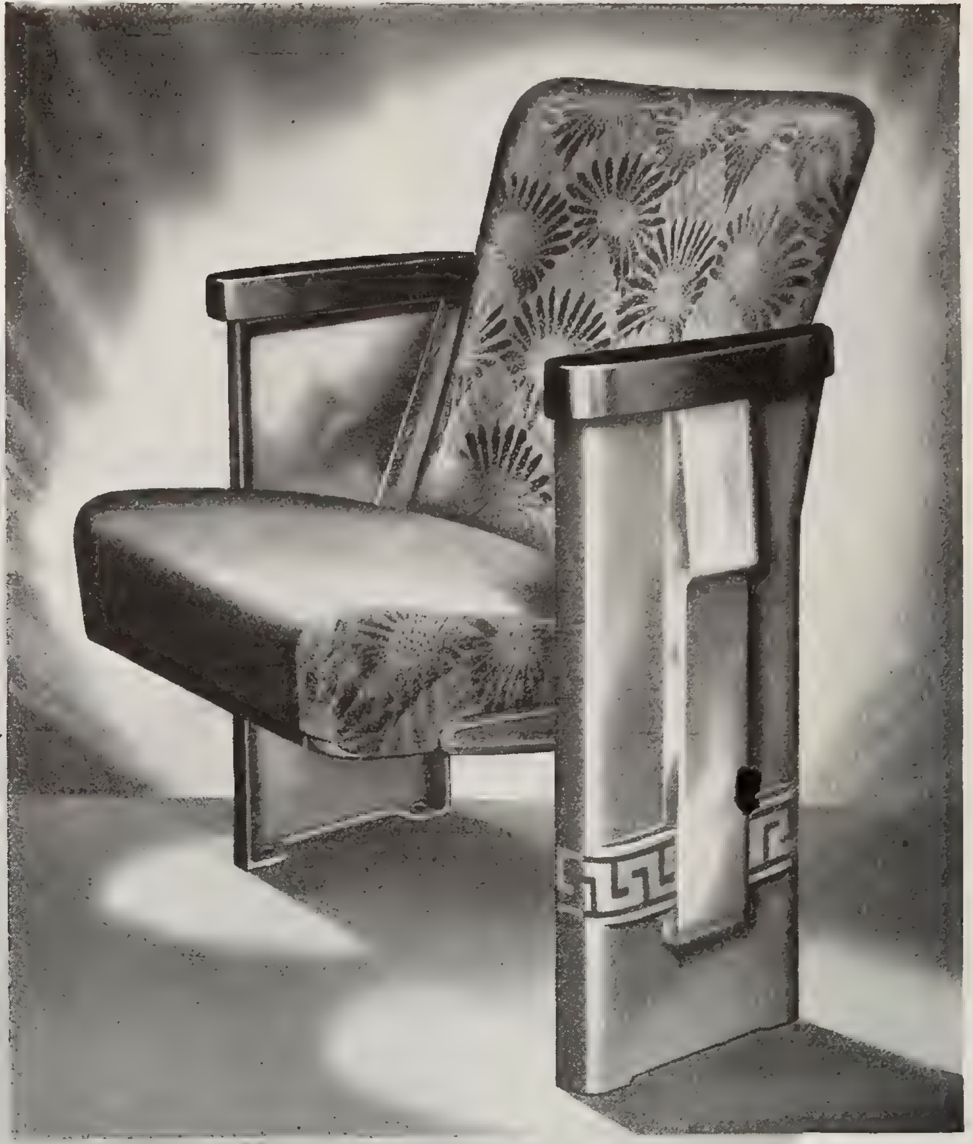
Acoustics and Auditorium Purpose

When we consider that the size and shape of the theatre auditorium are major factors contributing either to good or poor sound reception, does it not become axiomatic that acoustical design must form a basis for auditorium planning? If we classify acoustics as an extra or as something to be added to a pre-determined design, we cannot hope to achieve maximum efficiency or economy in providing for sound control.

Acoustical planning should begin at the time the original sketches of the theatre are drawn. Together with vision and projection it should form a basis for the determination and development of the complete auditorium design. When this planning is done correctly, the auditorium structure itself becomes our primary medium of acoustical control—not the "sound-deadening" materials. Such materials are used secondarily and then only to overcome unavoidable defects in structure, if such defects do present themselves in planning.

In considering the "eye-appeal" of the auditorium, experience has proved that designing for good acoustics offers a new source of effective architecture and pleasing decoration. Actually, it represents in every respect such a vital phase of the new technique in theatre planning that it should be a foremost consideration in the mind of the reader if he is contemplating the construction of a new theatre, or the extensive reconstruction of an old one.

NOW- at new LOW Prices!



to the right, one of the new O.C. 992 series of Heywood Chairs. This one has a swanky double-light aisle standard.

NOW you can get genuine Heywood engineered seats at prices that cost no more than ordinary run-of-the-mill chairs. Substantial price reductions have been made with absolutely no change whatever in construction or quality! You now buy these swanky, top-quality chairs at prices which make them the biggest value in theatre seating today! All the exclusive Heywood construction features are available. . . . Extra-Wear Back Panel . . . All Steel, protective Bottom Board . . . All Steel Hinge . . . Double-Light Aisle Standard . . . in short, all those things which make Heywood Chairs the absolute "tops" in Seating. Further, you are certain of reliable, dependable, nation-wide service. Ask your Heywood Sales Representative or write to your nearest Heywood Sales Office.

HEYWOOD-WAKEFIELD

Established 1826

GARDNER, MASSACHUSETTS

Originators of Streamline Theatre Seating

Equipment and Operation

a department of news & counsel dealing with management of the physical theatre and with its equipment in general, including . . .
LIGHTING • SEATING
AIR-CONDITIONING AND VENTILATION
• MAINTENANCE • MARQUEE & SIGNS

OBSERVATIONS

of the editor

THE THEATRE'S PART IN SELLING THE SCREEN AS A RECREATIONAL MEDIUM

IN making a few observations concerning television in the January issue, we referred to the normal competition of the home. Whenever something new comes along for people to do at home, operators of enterprises offering amusements outside the home are in general quick to point to it as competitive. But is it (except possibly at the beginning)? After the novelty is worn off, isn't the new pastime itself merely a part of the normal competition of the home, which has always been there and always will be?

During certain hours each week many people prefer to stay home to listen to the radio. But similarly there are times when they prefer to have a few friends in for bridge—or even lotto (wonder if anyone plays parcheesi anymore). In many a community Monday would be a better day for the theatre if it weren't for the weekly wash. And many a family has stayed home from the movies on Saturday night for no other reason than that the missus couldn't rouse the old man out of a good old-fashioned after-supper snooze on the sofa. The home has always been loaded with competition for the motion picture theatre, but the motion picture industry has grown bigger and bigger just the same. Last year the number of paid admissions to motion picture theatres in the United States alone was almost 35 times the population of the nation, including possessions, babes in arms and Charlie McCarthy.

■ ■ ■

The theatre does not need to have more than the normal regard for the home as a competitor, now or any other time. It is what people may choose to do when they feel like getting out of the house that the motion picture theatre must be alert to. When the wife says to the husband, "I've been in the house all day," the theatre has at least two potential customers.

Similarly, there's business for the theatre in immediate prospect when Ma meets the "girls" at Gumble's to look at hats (and aren't they terrible this year!). The shopping trip could be made to include a "movie."

But of course if conveniently accessible theatres are not attractive; if the general run of theatres have such standards that the movie-going habit is discouraged, these people are going to find other things to do.

There are a lot of things for people to do when the go-somewhere mood comes on. Many of them are as inexpensive as "the movies." Quite a few serve approximately the same immediate interests. It is highly important that the motion picture theatre maintain itself in a position of such prominence that it is certain to be among those recreational activities which get first consideration every time—with as much in its favor as possible.

■ ■ ■

One way to do this is obvious: Have Hollywood produce every year at least 104 pictures each having the ballyhoo possibilities of, say, "The Birth of a Nation," "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," "Cavalcade" and "Snow White."

Even were this possible, and it definitely is not, there is good reason to doubt that the immense audience required to make such pictures profitable could be maintained. People have a way of getting used to the best (who was the guy that said the best is merely something better than something worse?). Some of us can remember how wonderful the first gas lamps were. Now we're annoyed when we blow a fuse.

Regardless of the calibre of pictures, the theatre as a building, and as a mechanism both for reproducing the film and for creating the appeal of The Theatre as a recreational medium, is a tremendous factor in the showmen's scheme. The attractiveness of the exterior, the atmosphere of the interior, the effectiveness of the equipment and furnishings to give the best show possible under the most comfortable, sensuously satisfying conditions—these are as well worth their price as the picture.

And when one considers the limitations of the available story and star material, one realizes how often this significance of the theatre itself is greatly extended. There can be no standards of exhibition plant maintenance too high for the selling job to be done.

—George Schutz

Electricians

WRITE FOR CATALOG

It will come in very handy when you need flashers. Describes all types and sizes for lamps and neon.

SANGAMO FLASHERS

The flashers with heavy silver contacts and the famous induction disk motor—all built to stand the gaff of the long hours and heavy loads of theatre signs.

SANGAMO ELECTRIC CO.
FLASHER DIVISION
SPRINGFIELD ILLINOIS

ARGUSLITE

THE HOLDER FOR FLUORESCENT LAMPS

No RB ★ 24

Manufactured by
ARGUS, INC., 206 Film Bldg., Cleveland, Ohio
Sold by NATIONAL THEATRE SUPPLY COMPANY

ALUMINUM
REELS

GOLDBERG BROS.
DENVER, COLO.

Sold thru
THEATRE SUPPLY
DEALERS · Exclusively ·
ASK YOUR DEALER

GOLDBERG

Goldf

New Fresnel Spots
500-1000-1500-2000 Watts
Using 6", 8" and 10" Heat Resisting Fresnel Lenses
ALL DEALERS

LIGHT

FOR VISION DECORATION AND SELLING

" . . . light is a first tool of showmanship."

Lighting the Marquee

(Continued from page 9)

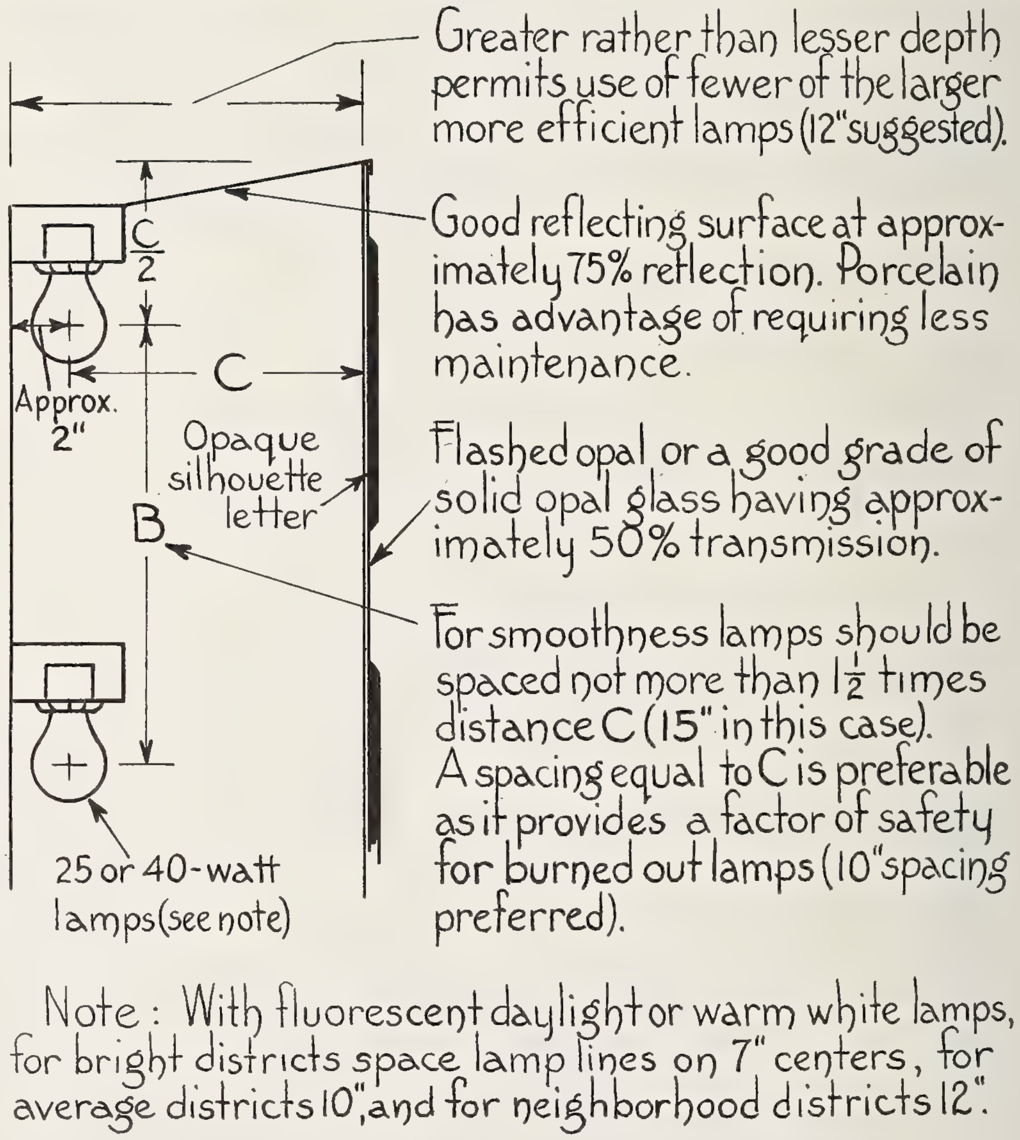
letter signs, which are of such great value in "bulletining" unmistakably the presentations to be found within.

Because the ends of the marquee are most valuable as changeable letter space, and because the length of these ends is usually limited, it is generally desirable to provide for three rows of changeable attraction letters. Standard types of changeable letters are available in both the luminous letter type or with luminous backgrounds and silhouette letters. Selection is largely a matter of personal preference. Some practical factors are important. The silhouette type features larger areas of luminous surface and in some cases more efficient diffusing glass which results in greater brightness for a given wattage of lamp.

Letters of either type are available in 8, 10, 12 and even 16 inches. Larger letters have the advantage of legibility at greater distances and they also command greater attention. Ten-inch letters are suited to most average locations. The silhouette type should have approximately 15-inch of luminous background, thus requiring a total height of approximately 45 inches from the three rows. This panel also permits the use of the new method permitting letters of various sizes to be used in the same panel, which is a very desirable feature.

The principal lighting requirement for attraction letter signs is uniformity of brightness and the elimination of spottiness. This makes for legibility and quick reading; spottiness causes variable irradia-



Greater rather than lesser depth permits use of fewer of the larger more efficient lamps (12" suggested).
Good reflecting surface at approximately 75% reflection. Porcelain has advantage of requiring less maintenance.
Flashed opal or a good grade of solid opal glass having approximately 50% transmission.
For smoothness lamps should be spaced not more than 1½ times distance C (15" in this case). A spacing equal to C is preferable as it provides a factor of safety for burned out lamps (10" spacing preferred).
C/2
C
Approx. 2"
Opaque silhouette letter
B
25 or 40-watt lamps (see note)
Note: With fluorescent daylight or warm white lamps, for bright districts space lamp lines on 7" centers, for average districts 10", and for neighborhood districts 12".

Lighting arrangement for a typical changeable attraction letter sign.

tion with resulting blurring and distorting of the letter outline. A suitable grade of diffusing glass should be used, either a good grade of flashed opal glass (a thin layer of opal on crystal glass) of approximately 50% transmission, or the highest grade of solid opal glass (often the ordinary grade of opal glass has a transmission of only 20% or 25%, thus requiring greater illumination for equal brightness).

The Advantages of Well-Designed Cavity

The size, shape and type of cavity housing the lamps is the most frequently misunderstood of any of the marquee lighting problems. For equal brightness, a poorly designed cavity will require several times as much wattage as a well-designed cavity. The principles which apply are as follows:

1. Select a depth of cavity of at least 12 inches, or deeper, rather than accepting the routine lesser depth. This requires fewer of the larger, more efficient types of lamps with consequently increased efficiency, and a reduced first cost, operating cost, and maintenance cost. The lamps should be placed so that filaments will be as close to the background (rather than to the glass surface) as practicable. This is usually 2 inches.
2. Provide an efficient (75% or 80%) reflecting surface for all parts of the cavity. Porcelain-enamel provides a high initial reflection value and one which is easily kept at a high value. Casein paint also provides a high reflection value and one that does not discolor with light, with lack of light, or with heat, although periodic repainting is necessary.

Determining Best Spacing of Lamps

Lamp spacing depends on the depth of cavity available. The principles to be considered are as follows:

1. In restricted cavities, lamps should be placed on their sides, thus permitting filaments to be located approximately 2 inches from the background.
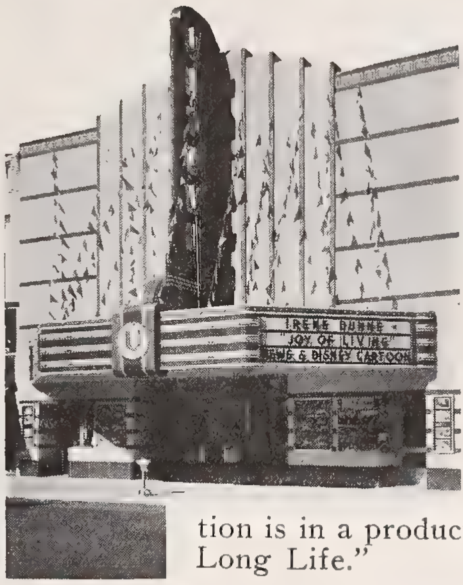
2. The lamps should be spaced so that their filaments are no farther apart than 1½ times the distance of the filament to the glass. For example, if the filaments of the lamps are 6 inches from the glass, the lamps may be spaced up to 9 inches apart. If the filaments are 10 inches from the glass (with a 12-inch cavity) the lamps may be spaced up to 15 inches apart. Staggering is unnecessary, providing these spacing ratios are followed.

Although the above recommendation is good practice, spacing the lamps on centers equal to the distance of filament to glass (in the latter case 10 inches rather than 15 inches) provides a desirable factor of safety by assuring smoothness of panel even though a few burned-out lamps are not immediately replaced. This 1 to 1 ratio is recommended.

With a 48-inch width of cavity, five rows of lamps can be used with a spacing of 9¾ inches, or four rows, with a spacing

ON DUTY 24 Hours a Day



A showman's selling job is not done just during the hours that the box office is open. It's a 24-hour job that is never completed. And the day of putting out a one-sheet and expecting to break records is gone forever.

Successful operators today know that an attractive sign, a modern front, and adequate poster frames are essential to the proper merchandising of the show at the point of sale.

These elements ALWAYS should have the appearance of newness. Naturally you cannot well afford constant or frequent replacement. The only solution is in a product by Artkraft, manufacturers of "Signs of Long Life."

Here are 8 contributing factors to this long life:

1. Artkraft Secret Process Galv-Weld Frame Construction makes possible pre-fabricated marquee and places all Artkraft sign construction at head of the procession. Prevents rust, the enemy of porcelain. Prevents vibration, enemy of tube life.
2. Neon tubing made under direct supervision of an electrochemical engineer, by precision methods. Inspected six times. 999/1000 perfect.
3. Exclusive genuine wet process insulators eliminate electrical shorts permanently.
4. Artkraft uses only genuine NEW Westinghouse or Acme Transformers, which are furthermore engineered and balanced to the specific requirements of each sign. Less than one replacement necessary out of 1,000. Some manufacturers have as high as 200 out of 1,000 even when using standard units, due to improper engineering. (Actual statistics which will be verified upon request.) Be sure the signs you buy do not have used, rebuilt or makeshift transformers.
5. Everlasting Porcelain Enamel—Guaranteed for 10 years against fading, chipping, cracking, crazing or peeling by reason of the elements.
6. Wired to highest specifications. Bear the Underwriter's label.
7. Entire construction is 999/1000 perfect as proven by actual average records made through customer research.
8. Artkraft Zephyr changeable letters easy to handle, attractive, rattle and rust-proof.

SIGNS OF LONG LIFE

ARTKRAFT Pre-Fabricated Marquees
. . . the greatest value ever offered theatremen. . . . Made in any style.

ARTKRAFT
HEAVY DIE CAST
EXTRUDED ALUMINUM
POSTER FRAMES
CONTINUOUS PIANO HINGE
ILLUMINATED
OR NON-ILLUMINATED

ARTKRAFT-CLIMAX REFLECTOR FLUSH BORDER CONSTRUCTION

Eliminates lamp breakage. Saves 80% in current. Easy to keep clean.

Immediately popular, the new Climax Sparkle-Lite Reflector No. 9 for soffit lighting is especially valuable in providing high illumination at side angles.

ARTKRAFT
PORCELAIN ENAMEL FRONTS

The STANDARD of COMPARISON
THE ARTKRAFT SIGN CO.
LIMA, OHIO

MAIL THIS COUPON TODAY!

THE ARTKRAFT SIGN CO.
LIMA, OHIO
Please send without obligation, catalog, prices, terms and details of Artkraft:
☐ Zephyr Pre-Fabricated Marquees
☐ Signs
☐ Porcelain Enamel Fronts
☐ Poster Frames
☐ Climax Reflectors
☐ Climax Reflector Flush Border Construction
WIDTH OF FRONT . ... FT. WIDTH OF SIDEWALK .... FT.
NAME.................................... STREET.............................
CITY...................................... THEATRE............................

INTERESTED in Lower Operating Cost?
Then INVESTIGATE The STABILARC
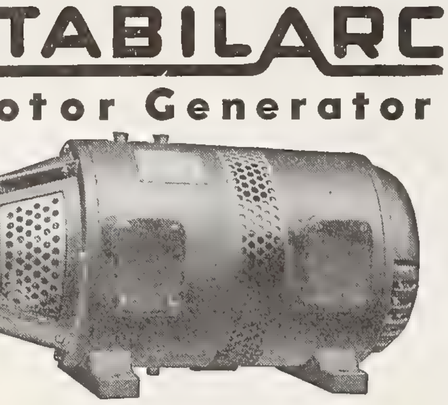
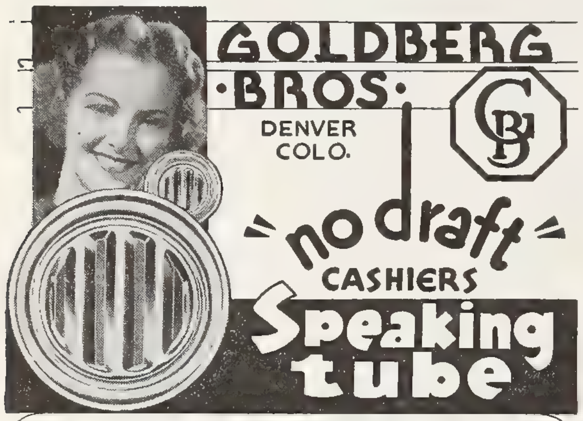
Motor Generator



42-60-80 VOLT MULTIPLE
35 VOLT UNITWIN
AUTOMATIC DEVICES CO.
1033 Linden St. Allentown, Pa.
Export Office, 220 W. 42nd St., New York City
Also Manufacturers of Allentown Steel
Curtain Tracks and Curtain Machines



GOLDBERG BROS. DENVER COLO.
GB
no draft CASHIERS Speaking tube
Sold thru
Theatre Supply Dealers Only
Price $6.00 anywhere in the United States

ADLER SILHOUETTE LETTERS and STAINLESS STEEL
SUPPORTING FRAMES
In All Sizes and Constructions
Protected by National Patent Corp.
ADLER SIGN LETTER COMPANY
2909 S. INDIANA AVE. CHICAGO

Goldé
500/1000 WATT STEREOPTICONS
Universal Socket Mounts
20% More Light with New Adjustable Reflector
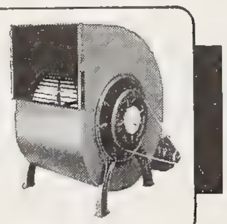
ALL DEALERS

REYNOLDS
Direct Shot BLOWERS
for economical cooling, ventilating, exhaust, or warm air circulation. Can also be used with washed air, refrigeration, and Reynolds cold water type cooling coil systems. Quiet. Vibrationless. 6 sizes. $47.50 up including variable speed control, belt and motor pulley.
REYNOLDS MFG. CO. 412 Prospect Ave., N.E.
Grand Rapids, Mich.



of 12 inches. Five rows are selected to retain the advantage mentioned above.

Light Levels and Lamp Size Selection

The brightness of the luminous background should be planned depending upon surrounding street illumination and the brightness of competing displays. Illuminating engineers have found that lamp sizes to provide the needed brightnesses are as follows:

Centers of large cities: 200 footlamberts—40 watts; average business district: 150 footlamberts—25 watts; neighborhood districts: 100 footlamberts—25 watts. (A footlambert is a unit of brightness representing one lumen per square foot, reflected or emitted; or foot-candles times the reflection or transmission factor.)

Substitution of Fluorescent Lamps

It is also possible to take advantage of the increased efficiencies and color variation obtainable from fluorescent lamps. Except in severely cold climates, the protection afforded by the enclosed cavity assures satisfactory operation.

The lamps should be placed along the lines of letters near the rear surface of the cavity. The 36-inch, 220-volt lamps are most satisfactory because they are lowest in cost due to the use of but one auxiliary and two sockets for 36 inches of length.

With the daylight or warm white lamps, the spacing of rows for brightnesses previously selected are as follows:

Centers of large cities: 7 inches; average business districts: 10 inches; neighborhood districts: 12 inches.

In this case, it is not necessary to go to as much depth as 12 inches. The desirable depth is equal to the spacing of the rows of lamps plus the extra 1½ to 2 inches required for the sockets.

Green lamps having twice the light output of the warm white or daylight lamps will provide twice the brightness, or half the number of lamps may be used providing the desirable spacing ratios are maintained. The gold, blue and pink lamps have approximately 66% the light output of the daylight and warm white so that approximately 33% more lamps must be used for equal brightness.

Modern Methods of Lighting Name Signs

It would be difficult to exhaust the possibilities of "name" signs in an article of this length, especially as this feature must be considered in relation to the entire theatre front. Several factors, however, should be remembered. It is often desirable that the name sign be of the vertical type, to provide a suitable size of letters to reach key traffic parts, to provide dominance, and perhaps even more important, to aid in providing a sizable luminous effect to impress people with the full importance of the theatre to be found within. This latter consideration is too often overlooked, with the result that at night the theatre front dwindles to a mere entrance.

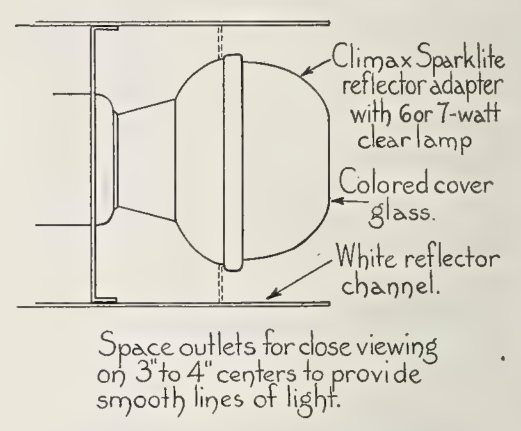
Many methods of illumination are available for name signs: (1) luminous glass letters, (2) silhouette letters, possibly using the "wedge" sign principle, and (3) exposed lamps. The exposed lamp is always effective because it provides high brightness and sparkle and motion where desired. Spacing the lamps on 3- or 4-inch centers assures pleasing smoothness. For motion use a 4-circuit flasher wired so as to produce a twinkling effect.

Lighting of Borders

Animation for the marquee is readily provided by low-wattage lamp borders on a 4-circuit "running" flasher. Here again, close spacing of lamps—3 or 4 inches—is desirable. "Climax" reflector adapters can also be used to advantage in these borders; they have the following advantages:

1. Collection of "backward" light ordinarily wasted and redirection of this light down the street.
2. Better initial color efficiency than with ordinary lamps because of the use of clear glass roundels.
3. Greater operating efficiency because of lesser blackening of clear lamps.
4. The use of low priced, long-life lamps available in 3-, 6- or 7-watt sizes.
5. Greater sparkle.

In new construction, it is of advantage to recess the reflectors so they will be flush with the sign surface. A low channel is an aid to confining the light.



Climax Sparklite reflector adapter with 6 or 7-watt clear lamp
Colored cover glass.
White reflector channel.
Space outlets for close viewing on 3" to 4" centers to provide smooth lines of light.

An arrangement to permit flush-mounting of reflector adapters, for marquee border designs of interest and sparkle.

Methods of Lighting The Marquee Soffit

The most obvious, the simplest, and often the best method of lighting beneath the marquee is to use low-wattage exposed lamps in the marquee soffit. The purpose they serve, logically, is to create a festive spirit by their sparkle and brightness.

Some systematic arrangement or geometric pattern of lamps is desirable. Such a pattern aims particularly to be pleasing, coupled perhaps with a motif directing attention to the entrance. An arrangement of symmetrical studding of regular inside-frosted lamps, combined with lines of light from lumiline lamps, is very effective.

The new fluorescent lamps have the added advantage of pleasing colors which can be arranged in desired combinations very readily. Maintenance is simplified and additional sparkle is obtained by using enameled metal backgrounds in white or light tints.

Other possibilities are the use of flush-mounted reflector units with silvered-bowl lamps for high-level lighting beneath the marquee, combined with lines of exposed lamps on 6-inch to 8-inch spacing to introduce brightness when viewed from down the street.

In some instances the entire soffit of the marquee has consisted of a large luminous glass panel; but often this does not present sufficient brightness unless combined with exposed lamps either as a soffit edging or by the abundant use of exposed lamps in the vertical sign and attraction sign borders.

Luminous elements, properly lamped for smoothness, or with fluorescent lamps, provide many other possibilities, as do also the polished corrugated metals [These devices were illustrated in the October, 1938, issue of Better Theatres]. The corrugated metal multiplies the reflections of lamps to provide many sparkling sources.

[The author has specialized for many years in theatre lighting and has frequently contributed to Better Theatres.]

Improvements Discussed

A two-day meeting of distributors and salesmen of the International Seat Corporation was held at the factory in Union City, Ind., January 23 and 24, to discuss new improvements in International auditorium seating. Meetings were presided over by C. C. Koontz, president, assisted by W. J. Fannin, vice-president, and E. J. Fitzmaurice, secretary. The following representatives and distributors were present:

John T. Beasley, Chicago; George W. Carr, Detroit; Elmer W. Foster, Minneapolis; P. F. Masucci, New York; J. E. Watson, Dallas; J. N. Gelman and J. Kuhn of the Midwest Theatre Supply Company, Cincinnati; F. L. France, West Middleton, Pa.; Arthur Marrone and Vincent Josack of the Superior Motion Picture Supply Company, Pittsburgh; C. P. Packard, Minneapolis Securities Corporation, Minneapolis; E. C. Leeves, Kansas City, and Ben Poblocki, Milwaukee.

Theatre Plants Described

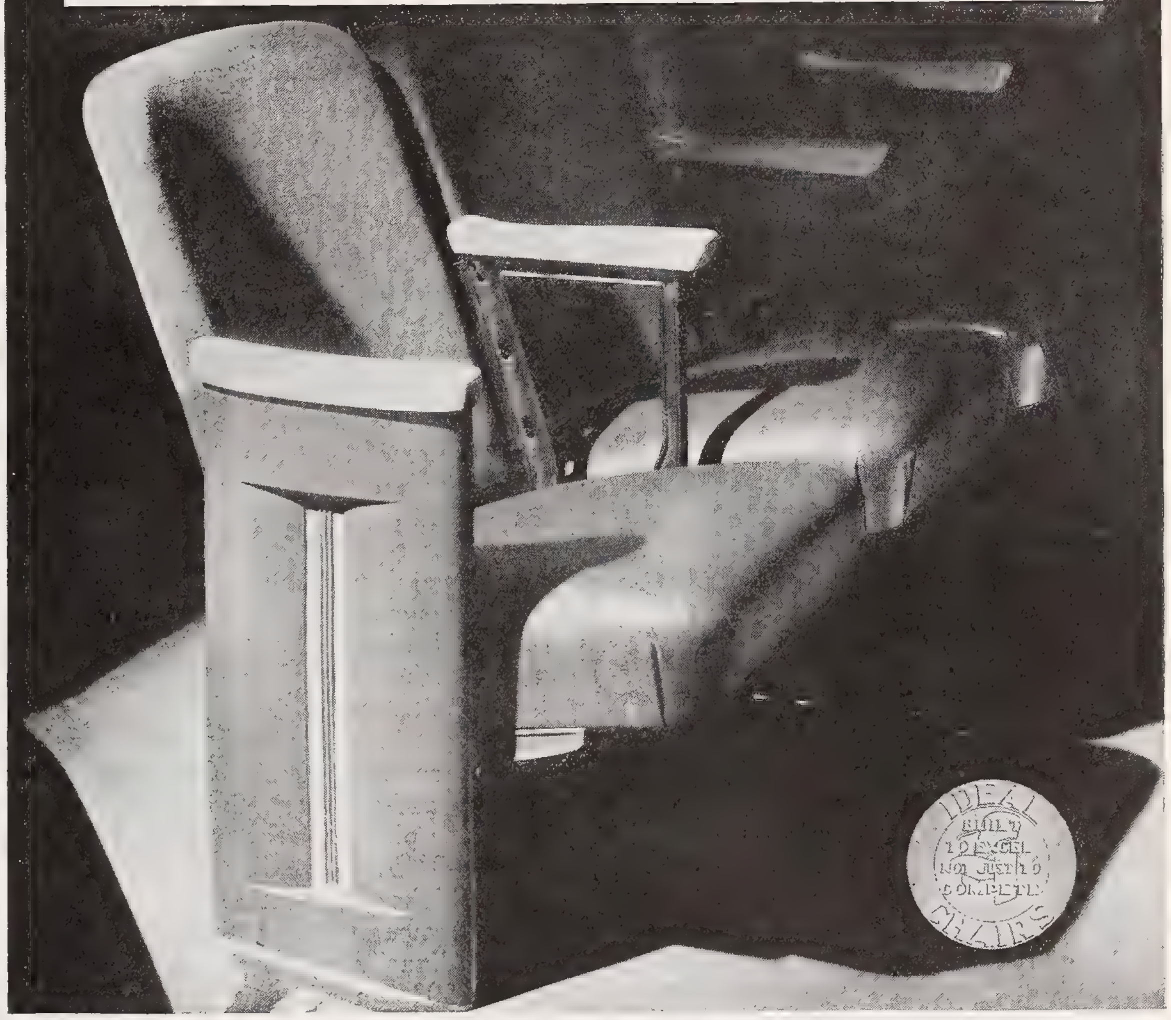
Central air-conditioning plants of the various types suited to theatres are included in the data and descriptions given in a catalog just issued by the Carrier Corporation on its air-conditioning equipment. Each type is described according to application, function, operation and installation. Office, store and home units are also dealt with. The catalog contains 16 pages, including covers, is printed on coated paper, and all of the equipment is illustrated in halftone.

Get IDEAL Chairs

- for comfort . . . style . . . correct posture. Competition today demands these essential box office supports, makes old fashioned chairs a menace to business.
- for the service which is assured by the use of quality materials throughout.
- for the value they represent . . . the popular prices which make them unsurpassed.

Write today for catalog and name of your nearest dealer.

IDEAL SEATING COMPANY, GRAND RAPIDS, MICH.
EXPORT OFFICE: 334 WEST 44TH STREET, NEW YORK CITY
Attention: J. E. Robin



They stay white

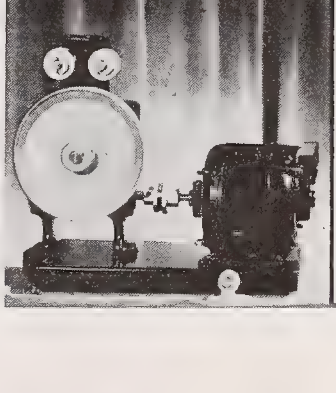
HURLEY
EVEN-LITE
Gradationally Perforated
SOUND SCREENS
HURLEY SCREEN CO.
Exclusive Sales Agents
HURLEY SCREEN DIVISION
BELLEVILLE NEW JERSEY

The OZONE-AIR Electric
CURTAIN CONTROL

Silent — Rubber Cushioned — Carbon Switch Contacts in switch box give positive contact without sticking. Rugged Simplicity assures years of trouble-free service—Perfect Performance Always!

Including Motor
$58.50

Ozone-Air Inc.
928 Cherry St.
Grand Rapids, Mich.



FS

QUALITY

REFLECTORS and CONDENSERS

FS Condensers are ground and highly polished to precision accuracy in curvature and focus. They will not discolor.
Available in extra-heat-resisting Pyrex Brand glass and also in regular glass.

FS Reflectors are accurately made for correct focus, individually tested before shipment, and protected by a heat-resisting refractory backing that is non-peeling. All FS quality optical goods are, of course, guaranteed to give satisfactory performance.

Reconditioning Service

See your dealer about the FS service on resilvering and repolishing reflectors and condensers.

Fish-Schurman Corporation
264 East 43rd Street - - New York, N. Y.

Fish-Schurman

A practical working tool for every projectionist

F. H. RICHARDSON'S BLUEBOOK OF PROJECTION

The sixth edition of F. H. Richardson's Bluebook is now in its second printing, for which it has been extensively revised. In addition to revisions in text, it contains a supplementary chapter devoted to developments which have become important in projection room technique and servicing methods since the first printing.

The revised edition includes 722 pages of up-to-the-minute text, charts and data with detailed description of assembly, wiring and functioning of all modern sound and projection apparatus. It is a practical "trouble shooter," cross indexed for immediate reference in any projection room emergency.

$6.25 Postpaid

QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP
ROCKEFELLER CENTER NEW YORK

Golde

ROTOCHROME
Six Color Automatic Baby Spots
SPOTLIGHTS
STREAMLITE SPOTS
SPECIAL DISPLAY SPOTS
ALL DEALERS

AIR-CONDITIONING & Ventilation

". . today the theatre must assure its public breathing comfort."

Condensation on Cold Water Lines

■ ■ ■

A THEATRE operator recently wrote that he was having considerable trouble due to condensation on a cold water line. He stated that the pipes had been covered twice within two years with an anti-sweat covering made of wool felt. The felt was rotting and had to be replaced. The temperature in the room was about 75° F. The pipe carried city water, which he called "quite cool."

Cold water lines are ordinarily insulated with either ice water thickness cork pipe covering, or one of the many grades of felt used for this purpose. Tar-lined wool felt is most frequently used, although there is considerable use of wool felt just wrapped around the pipe, and also of air cell covering made up of a type of corrugated paper. These are the cheapest commercial insulations. High grade cork covering is generally used where one wants a good lasting job. Cork usually costs more in the first place than any of the various felt types.

It might be well to point out that there is a sharp line of demarcation between sweating and frosting. Sweating can occur where the pipe temperatures are as high as 50° or 60° F. Sometimes the temperature is even higher, depending upon the humidity and temperature conditions in the room. It is ordinarily manifest upon lines from 40° to 50°, under what might be termed normal conditions. for this type of work the cheaper insulations are usually sufficient.

When the temperature of the line is that of "ice water," as, say temperature below 40° and above 35°, the line will almost invariably sweat, and it is here that cork finds its most usual application. Cork does not rot or warp. It does not move over to one side like felt and some of the cheaper insulating materials. When properly installed it does not even become moist. Regardless of the temperature of the cold pipe, whether it is 100° F. below zero, or even lower, and regardless of the room temperature, whether it is 75° F. or higher, and regardless of the humidity in the room, with properly insulated high grade cork there will be no sweating or frosting on the line. Of course, where the temperature is exceedingly low, commercial thicknesses are not sufficient; special insulation must then be designed. In fact, special insulation must be designed for all temperatures below minus 10° F.

15-Ton System Housed in Cabinet

A FIFTEEN-TON compact air-conditioning unit, suitable for small theatres of several hundred seats, has been brought out by the Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Company. Under certain conditions, several of the units can be used in combination for larger size theatres.

The new unit is designed to form a complete system in one cabinet.

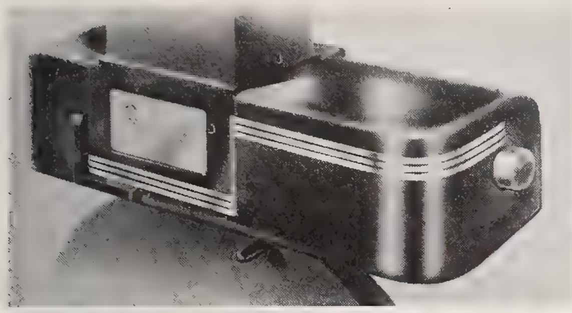
Eliminating the hazards of refrigeration-cycle installation, all that is necessary for operation are power, water and drain connections. Requiring a minimum of floor space, every unit can be carried through a 3-foot door opening.

The new unit employs the Westinghouse hermetically sealed compressor. Two switches permit flexibility of operation; one controls the entire cooling mechanism, and the other the blower motor so that air circulation may be provided when cooling is not necessary.

Emergency Devices Features of New Sound Equipment

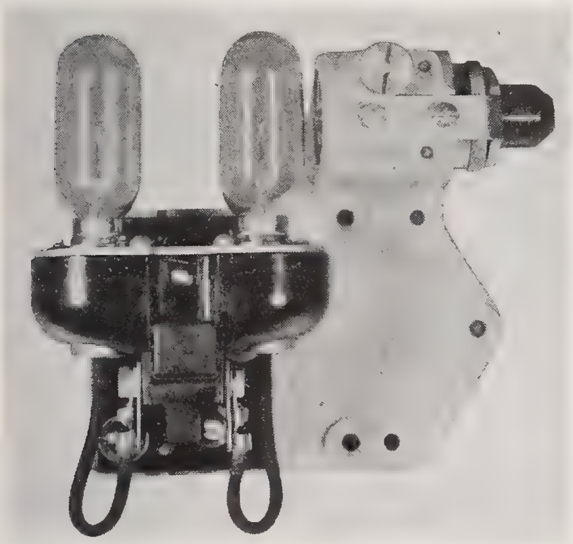
REVISED AMPLIFYING arrangements, and a novel soundhead design directed toward elimination of oil troubles and gear troubles, feature the line of six new sound systems recently announced by RCA. These systems range in power output from 8 watts to 120 watts, meeting the power requirements of theatres from 800 to 7,000 seats.

Functional styling has been built into the apparatus housings, providing a streamlined appearance intended to add to the pride projectionists will take in their equipment and therefore to the care and cleanliness with which it will be operated and maintained.



Streamlined soundhead housing

A feature of the larger equipments is the use of a new monitor amplifier designed with sufficient gain and power output to work directly from the photo-cell, and to supply the screen speakers in case of failure of the main system. The permanent wiring is arranged to allow switching the monitor amplifier over to such use in any emergency, providing what is essentially an inexpensive double-channel system. This monitor amplifier, coded as MI-9375, develops 105 db. gain, giving an output of 6 watts at 5% distortion. This is not intended to be enough power for good reproduction with proper emotional effect,



New prefocused exciter lamps

(Continued on page 35)

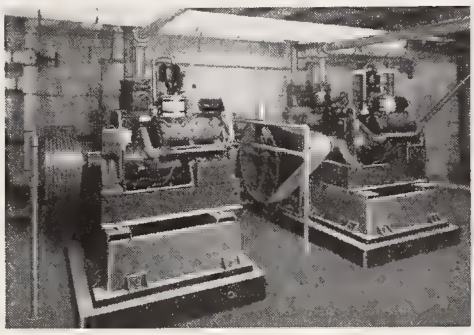
BAKER SYSTEM AIR CONDITIONING
PLUS FORD V-8 MOTOR

DOUBLE FEATURE BOX OFFICE SMASH IN DETROIT THEATRE

Detroit, Michigan—Here's a double feature that's really packing them in!

Recently the Beverly Theatre installed BAKER System Air Conditioning for the comfort of its summer patrons. In checking power costs, the Simplex Engineering Company of Detroit found that substantial savings could be realized by using Ford V-8 motors for power. Accordingly two V-8 85 engines were installed to operate the two 60 H.P. BAKER 4-cylinder compressors, with the result that the Beverly's power costs have been less than half as much as that of similar installations using other forms of power.

Thus is demonstrated again BAKER'S adaptability to special factors that mean extra economy, with no reduction in efficiency, for users of air conditioning equipment. Not every installation offers such dramatic savings as the one in Detroit, but in every instance, BAKER engineers study carefully the problems and possibilities of the particular installation involved. Then, from BAKER'S complete range of sizes, they can select just the right unit for maximum performance at minimum cost. Write for full details.



BEVERLY
ERROL FLYNN & J BLONDELL
"THE PERFECT SPECIMEN"
LEO CARRILLO - "THE BARRIER"

BAKER
ICE MACHINE COMPANY, INC.
1554 EVANS STREET, OMAHA, NEB.
Branch Factories: Fort Worth, Los Angeles, Seattle
Eastern Sales: New York Central Sales: Chicago
Sales and Service in All Principal Cities
AUTHORITY ON MECHANICAL COOLING FOR OVER 30 YEARS

-BLOWERS-
1,000 to 10,000 cu. ft. capacity can be used for Circulating Heated Air or for Cooling.
Prices start at $18.95
Taylor Air Conditioning Co.
804 Wealthy Street Grand Rapids, Michigan

Make ENLARGEMENTS NOW in less TIME
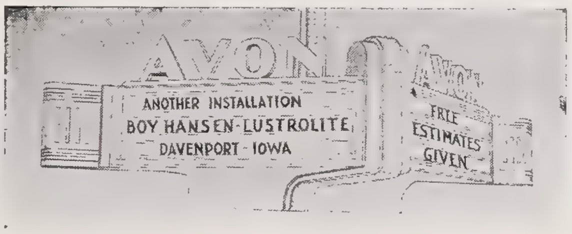
POSTOSCOPE projects image so you can easily make accurate enlargements (any size) in natural colors from sketches, photos, ads, etc. Quick. Easy. Anybody can do it. Write for complete details, FREE literature, special Liberal TRIAL OFFER.
F. D. KEES MFG. COMPANY
Box 102 Beatrice, Nebraska



THE SERVICE ORGANIZATION OF THE MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY
ALTEC
SERVICE CORPORATION
250 W. 57th Street
New York City

THE General CHAIR
"SOLD EVERYWHERE BY DEALERS SQUARE"

GENERAL
SEATING COMPANY
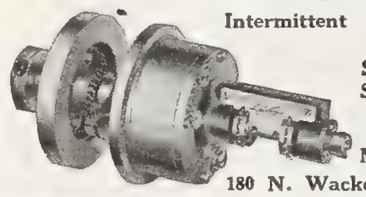
CHICAGO

AIR-CONDITIONING
By CHARLES A. FULLER
. . . written so the layman can understand it. 567 pages.
$4.00, postpaid
QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP
Rockefeller Center - - New York

Goldé
NEW SAND URNS
Distinctive in Design
Durable Baked Finishes
Chrome Trimmed
ALL DEALERS

NEW SEAT CATALOG
NOW READY---WRITE
Pictures and describes all types Peabody Theatre Seats. Attractive modern designs. Comfortable quality seats for every theatre need. Free Catalog sent on request.
Peabody Seating Co.
North Manchester, Ind.



Intermittent Movement and HARDENED
Star, Cam, and Sprocket Specialists Since 1908
La Vezzi Machine Works
180 N. Wacker Dr., Chicago

EVER HEARD OF BIG BUSINESS?
Be wise! Patronize Independent Manufacturers and Supply Dealers. We'll save you 20%. Equipment sold to theatres in all parts of the world. 100% satisfaction guaranteed. Write.
DOMINION THEATRE EQUIPMENT CO.
847 Davie Street Vancouver, Canada

CLEANING AIDS & METHODS

■ ■ ■ including DEODORIZATION AND SANITATION

The Cleaning of Asphalt Tile Floors

NEW AND different cleaning compounds should always be tested on a small scale before they are used on any flooring of the tile or asphalt type. The easiest test is to rub a hidden corner of the flooring with a white cloth that has been moistened with the cleaner. If the floor color shows on the cloth, that particular compound is not good for that particular floor.

If the wrong cleaning material is used a floor of composition material may be literally washed away or dissolved in the oils or solvents of the cleaning compound. How long the floor lasts under those circumstances will depend chiefly on how often it is washed. Harsh abrasives will in time scratch such a floor away.

Neutral soap and tepid soft water are the safest cleaners for such surfaces. If scrubbing machines are used, they should have soft brushes.

Plastic flooring is often waxed, but some floor waxes contain oils or volatile organic solvents which also tend to dissolve away the floor material. Waxes of that kind, in addition to being injurious, will not hold well. The water-emulsion waxes are safe and will cling.

Buffing, sweeping or dry mopping will keep them clean. Strictly neutral soap and tepid soft water may be used to scrub them at long intervals.

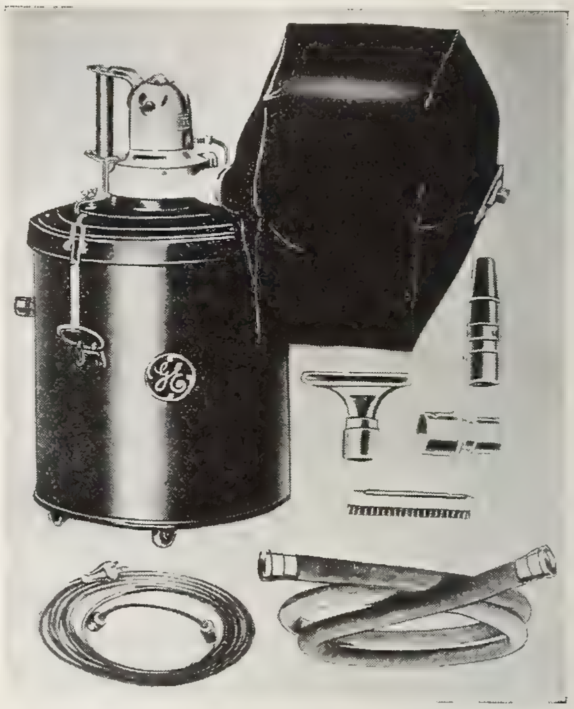
Compact Theatre Vacuum Cleaner

A NEW all-around vacuum cleaner of compact design has been brought out by General Electric with standard and special accessories adapting this unit to the cleaning of theatre floors, carpets, chairs, upholstery, drapes, walls and the projection screen. The metal container is equipped to separate light dust from hair pins, cigarette butts and other larger objects picked up by the nozzle.

The driving motor, of universal type for use with either a.c. or d.c., develops 5/8ths horsepower, which is used to create a vacuum rated at 35 inches water lift. The motor is of the sealed, permanently-lubricated type, air-cooled to prevent overheating. Its action can be reversed, to provide blowing power equal to the suction in intensity.

The container, with a capacity of 1¾ bushels, is fitted with a bag into which fine dust is drawn, while larger rubbish drops to the bottom of the metal can. Can and motor, weighing 50 lbs. all told, are mounted on ball bearing swivel casters. The motor can be detached from the tank, and carried by the operator with the help of a shoulder strap.

Portable accessories include a small dust bag and clamp, large and small cleaning nozzles and a liquid sprayer. Upholstery brushes and nozzles, extension cords and extension hose, are included as standard equipment.



Ozone Generator

A MACHINE for generating ozone, of simplified design, has been developed by the National Ozone Machine Company of Indianapolis. It is of electric discharge type.

A series of small electrical discharges, taking place within the ventilated metal container, convert the oxygen of the air into the highly active, ozone form, which rapidly attacks those air-borne traces of chemical impurities that cause objectionable odors of all kinds. Close and stuffy portions of the theatre, imperfectly ventilated toilets, and other unsanitary or unpleasant breathing conditions are effectively treated by ozone in sufficient quantities.

The new Ozonators, which are designed to produce this effect at lower cost than hitherto possible, are available in three self-contained models, ranging from 5,000 to 50,000 cubic feet capacity. It is claimed that they produce no electrical interference in such apparatus as radio or sound equipment.

Revised Photophone Sound Equipment

(Continued from page 33)

but it will provide audibility, even in a very large house, and will keep the audience seated and entertained until repairs can be made.

Repair work is facilitated by the physical design of the equipment. Rack panels unlock and hinge forward, making all wiring and practically all parts instantly accessible from the front of the rack.

Soundhead Design

The new soundhead, MI-9050, is equipped with a mounting plate that is grooved to collect oil drippings from the projector head, and channel them into a removable container, keeping the soundhead entirely clear of waste oil. This plate mounts on top of the soundhead, and the projector in turn mounts on the plate. The plate is adjustable to provide quick and easy mesh between drive gears, facilitating projector head replacements.

The entire sound drive, including the two sound sprockets, has been redesigned to constitute an integral, removable unit, in which all sound gears are completely enclosed and operate in an oil bath, with an external indicator to show when additional lubricant is needed. A new mechanical arrangement in the gear train, taking the projector drive from the holdback sprocket, provides steadier film motion.

The rotary stabilizer is also built as an independent unit, separately removable.

Pre-focussed exciter lamps are used with the new heads. Lamp replacements consequently do not require individual adjustment for focus. The optical system is designed for easy re-focussing in the projection room, and equipped with a positive lock mechanism to hold the focus.

Additional soundhead features include provision of a thoroughly shielded compartment in which the photo-cell socket transformer and connections are mounted, protecting them against both hum and oil; a light shield located between the film and the photo-cell to minimize possibility of sprocket-hole hum, and a flywheel and brake to provide slower starting and quicker stopping of the drive motor.

Amplification System

The new amplifiers are equipped with reverse feedback circuits to minimize distrotion. Frequency response of all amplifiers is rated at plus or minus 1 db from 30 to 10,000 cycles.

Amplifier power ratings are from 8 watts at 2% distortion for the smallest system, to 120 watts at 2% for the largest. The latter, however, being designed for Class AB operation, can provide up to 280 watts amplifier output, with, of course, some increase in distortion.

The RCA 5-watt system, PG-105, has been retained and added to the new line because of the acceptance it has found in theatres of 500 seats or less.

RUSSIALOID
REG. TRADE-MARK

Artificial Leather for Seating

Modern theatre designers and owners are specifying RUSSIALOID because it is smarter looking and wears better.

RUSSIALOID insures long and satisfactory service. Cleans easily. It comes in many fast colors and varied patterns.

Write us for samples.

THE PANTASOTE COMPANY, INC.
250 PARK AVENUE, at 46th Street, NEW YORK

TRANSVERTER TRUTHS

AVOID — premature old age.

When a Transverter will serve you for years and years with maintained efficiency . . . why consider equipment that requires nearly total replacement in only five years?

SIMPLIFIED High Intensity PROJECTION

Sold through The National Theatre Supply Co.; in Canada, General Theatre Supply Co.; or write us—

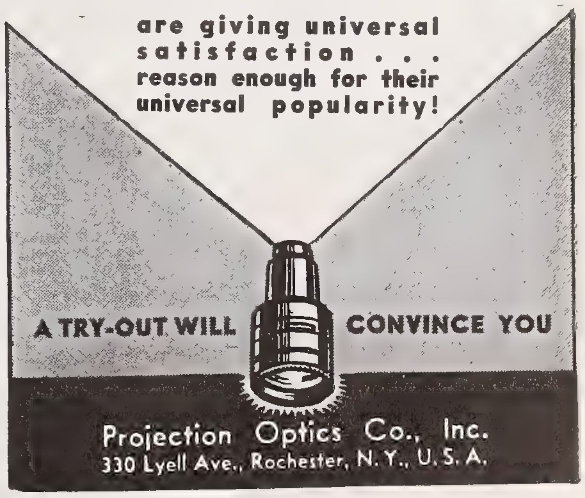
THE HERTNER ELECTRIC COMPANY
12690 ELMWOOD AVENUE CLEVELAND, OHIO, U. S. A.
EXCLUSIVE MANUFACTURERS OF THE TRANSVERTER

REMODELING SERVICE

Covering every phase of the theatre — its architecture and equipment. Merely write to

BETTER THEATRES
Rockefeller Center New York

SUPER-LITE LENSES
PRO-JEX SOUND UNITS



are giving universal satisfaction . . . reason enough for their universal popularity!
A TRY-OUT WILL CONVINCE YOU

Projection Optics Co., Inc.
330 Lyell Ave., Rochester, N. Y., U. S. A.

GARVER KURRENT CHANGERS

Assure steady current (15 to 30 amps.) at great saving. $82 up. Write for literature telling why some rectifiers are so much better than others.

Garver Electric Co.
Union City, Ind.

Guard Against Wobbly Swaying Theater Seats

Ask any good supply dealer to show you why the Supreme Expansion Bolt assures permanent seat anchorage for lasting safety and comfort—or write for free samples and prices.

The Chicago Expansion Bolt Co.
Room 602, 132 S. Clinton St., Chicago, Ill., U.S.A. disposal AT COST

12,000 GOOD USED
THEATRE CHAIRS

Recently acquired from Loew's Theatre Circuit.

Priced from 50c $1.50 chair actually worth $6.00!

Quick Buyers Opportunity! Act NOW!

EASTERN SEATING COMPANY, INC.
4910 Metropolitan Avenue Brooklyn, N. Y.

Goldé

New Automatic Changeover
With Steel Jacket Mercury Tube Foot Switch Fast—Simple—Noiseless
ALL DEALERS

BEST SLIDE PROJECTORS

- 1000 watt. Range 75-150 feet. With any focus lens 10 to 36 inches. $35.

500 watt "BESTEROPTICON." Range up to 75 ft. With any focus lens 10 to 30 in. $23.

At Your Dealers!

BEST DEVICES CO.
10516 Western Ave. Cleveland, Ohio

EVERYTHING for the CINEMA
Chairs, Curtains, Lighting, Etc., Etc.
Largest British Makers of Projectors.

KALEE LTD. 62/66 WARDOUR ST.
LONDON W. I.
Factories,
LEEDS & HIGH WYCOMBE

No U.S.A. replies please.

SEATING the auditorium

". . . no theatre can be better than its seating."

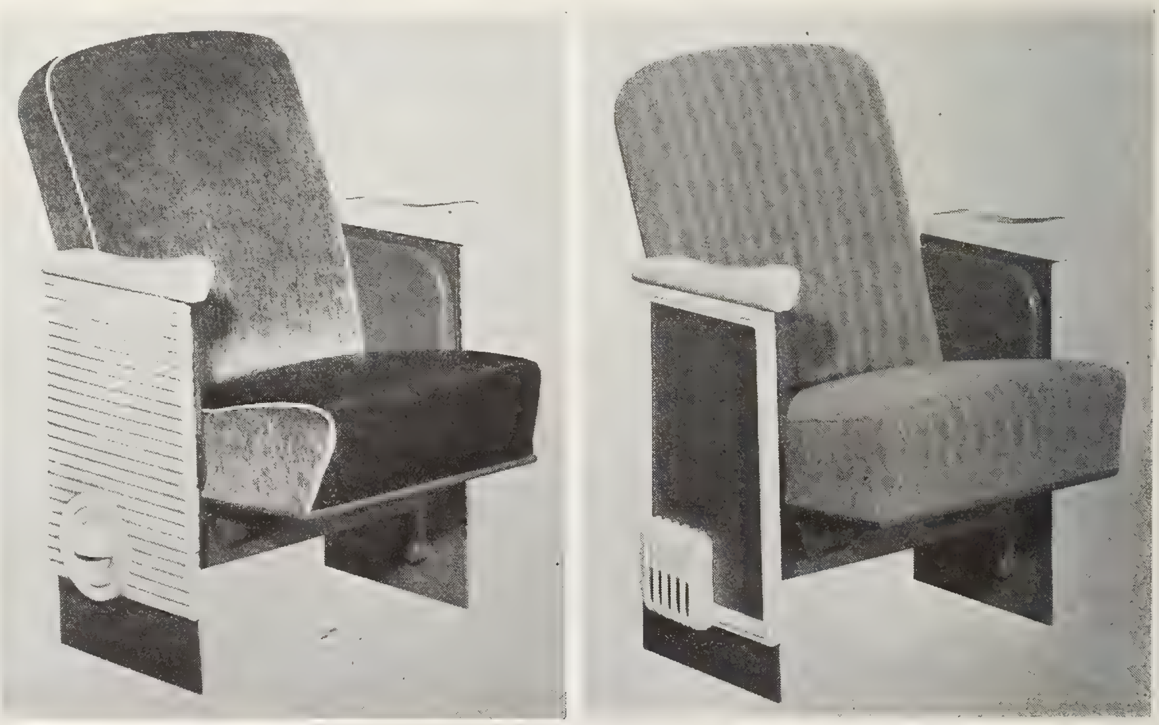
Retracting Seat Chairs

AUDIENCE ANNOYANCE resulting from patrons entering or leaving during the course of a show has presented exhibitors with a problem that has been much discussed ever since entertainment first became continuous. In recent years picture theatres have attempted to reduce the annoyance by sacrificing floor area in favor of greater spacing between rows of seats; in a fair number of houses today chairs are installed with 36" separation between rows. Retractable seats constitute one solution that has long been discussed. The current Kroehler retractable chair here illustrated is equipped with a seat that draws backward automatically when the occupant goes through the preliminary motions of rising. The patron finds that without actually standing up, but merely by preparing to do so, he has increased the passage room in front of himself by approximately six inches.

This action results from a principle of construction designed to cooperate with the necessary changes in human posture that take place in the act of standing. In that action a seated person allows his shoulders to come forward, and brings his feet back under himself. When the weight of the shoulders is removed from the back of the chair illustrated, a spring action causes the chair back to move forward, pursuing the shoulders. In so moving, the chair back leaves room under itself, into which the seat can slide. The installed spring cooperates with the natural changes of body pressure in the act of rising to withdraw the seat accordingly. The internal mechanical action takes place by means of two sets of levers in a fully enclosed, permanently lubricated construction. The spring action holds the seats permanently in retracted position when they are not occupied.

External metal parts of the Kroehler retractable chair, the seat plate, back plate and intermediate standards, are made of stamped steel, assembled by electric welding. End standards are supplied either in stamped steel or cast iron as preferred. Seats are of full spring construction, 6½" high, using burlap, sisal and cotton under the cover fabric. Choice of backs extends from the inserted panel type to the full spring variety.

In the installation recommendations of the manufacturer, 32-inch spacing is suggested, the retraction being said to provide effective spacing equivalent to 38-inch for passing. Since the seat retracts under the chair back, there is no appreciable intrusion into the space behind, leaving these chairs entirely suited also to stadium type floors. Mounting is effected by the usual two floor bolts per standard.



Kroehler chairs with retracting seats in two models of modern standard design. The seat retraction is by means of four compensating levers operating on bearings permanently lubricated by graphite-impregnated bushings, which are totally inclosed. Chairs with this mechanism are available in a variety of standard designs, spring-edge seat construction, padded inserted panel type backs, or spring backs, and with the usual choice of standard coloration and fabrics. Back plate, seat bottom, and all moving parts are of stamped steel.

Modern projection

PROJECTION
SOUND REPRODUCTION
THE SCREEN

What Dirty Screens Cost—and Why

• Deterioration of the screen is so gradual it commonly proceeds unnoticed. Then the box office is threatened. Or the amperage is hiked up. But does that really offer a solution?

By JOHN J. SEFING

ALTHOUGH THE screen is a vital factor in determining the degree to which any motion picture is effective—and with the pictorial values and dramatic detail got onto the film today, this is truer than it ever was—it is probably lost sight of more often than any other element. This is doubtless due to the fact that persons connected with the theatre, who see pictures projected on the same screen quite a good deal every day, are not able to note the gradual impairment of the screen image.

Unfortunately this vital part of a theatre's implements deteriorates faster than even fragile decoration or furnishings; it wears out sooner than almost any other well-made item of apparatus. Far from being a permanent fixture, it is a highly replaceable one that needs constant watching. No way has ever been found to prevent, or even to slow up materially, the process of screen disintegration. The best screens, made with the utmost care and knowledge, and incorporating the most satisfactory materials available, are not really useable, under good standards of exhibition, for more than about eighteen months, even with resurfacing. After that time, attempts to keep the screen in service result only in wasting electricity in a futile effort to maintain adequate illumination under impracticable conditions.

Moreover, screens deteriorate more rapidly than ever in theatres using modern sound equipment with the two-way horn systems having directional baffles placed close to the screen. The speakers act as powerful pumps and blowers, sucking dirt through the perforations, and forcing it back again, into both the apertures and fabric pores.

To offset deterioration as far as possible, sound screens today are made with painstaking care from specially selected materials. The cotton base is woven to order to assure uniformity. Three coatings are applied, the surface coating being closely packed and smoothed to eliminate all pores or small irregularities, presence of which would promote collection of dust and dirt. The perforations to allow passage of sound are made by automatic machinery which so spaces them as to avoid rows or lines of perforations that would appear to the audience as dark streaks across the film image on the screen.

How the Dirt Forms

The first step in the aging of a screen in use is the collection on its surface of a fine layer of dust. In about six months, traces of smoke or volatile grease, always present in the atmosphere, condense on the screen surface to form a very thin greasy film in which dust particles become imbedded. A film of this nature is a kind of non-drying paint, since it consists, like paint, of fine particles dispersed in an oily medium. At first adhering only to the surface, this coating slowly penetrates, while at the same time additional dust and grease deposit and thicken the "paint" layer. There is no effective way of removing this coating which does not also remove part or all of the reflecting surface. about two years of use in an average location, the screen has lost 50% of its reflecting power, and the theatres is either losing that much light (paying for it and not getting it), or else buys twice as much arc electricity as needed in an effort to maintain the original illumination. In most theatres, a compromise is struck in which the audience is given a partially dulled picture, while the theatre at the same time uses excess arc current, though never enough to overcome the acquired dullness of the screen surface.

Other Deterioration Factors

The new loudspeakers accentuate this process, since they produce more concentrated and more powerful beams of sound. Also, they are located closer to the screen than was sometimes the case in the past. Sound is only a motion of waves of air, and loudspeakers are quite literally pumps which suck air in and drive it out through the screen perforations. Increased quantities of dust, and of volatile grease or grease particles, move through the screen with the increase in the masses of air that are moved, and soiling proceeds just that much faster.

While foreign accumulations are the largest single factor in screen deterioration, they are not the only factor. The binder or surface material in which the original white, reflecting pigment is embedded, itself deteriorates chemically with age. This is a natural process accelerated by ultra-violet light from the arc. On aging, the binder tends to turn yellow, losing some of its reflecting power, and also loses some of its hold on the pigment, which then lumps up or "chalks."

BETTER PROJECTION PAYS

Otherwise satisfactory screen materials that will not act in this way have either not been found or else present off-setting disadvantages. Fully satisfactory ways of cleaning or resurfacing have not been found, except for temporary improvement. The screen as it exists at present remains inherently a highly perishable item of replaceable equipment.

On a recent visit to a theatre whose manager complained of excessive carbon consumption, the writer found the projection equipment in perfect order, except that 48 amperes were used with 7 x 12 and 6 x 9 suprex carbons, in place of the 40 amperes that had served when the screen was new. The projectionists had done the only thing they could do in response to complains of poor illumination. Lamphouses, reflectors and lenses were in good condition.

A light meter test showed that the screen, then eighteen months old, had lost 40% of its reflecting efficiency. The additional arc current, which made up for exactly half the difference (being only a 20% increase over the original 40 amperes) was costing the theatre $96 a year in increased power bills. There was further a "hidden" cost of $96 a year for power bought and lost at the screen, since even with the increased current, picture brightness was still down 20% from what it had been originally. Lastly, the increased carbon consumption (this was the original cause of the complaint) brought the total cost of an inefficient screen up to $211 a year. When these facts were laid before the management, a new screen was installed, and the arc current brought back to 40 amperes.

Another very recent experience of the writer was a visit to an elaborately redecorated and re-equipped theatre whose management had installed a reconditioned screen represented to be as good as a new one. In this case also the complaint was inefficiency of the lamp. A light-meter test showed that screen efficiency was down to 35% below normal (after only four months of use) and was therefore little better than that of a new screen after eighteen months service. In this case the manager was not impressed by light meter readings, the nature of which were not very clear to him, but he was readily convinced when a piece of cheap white tissue paper was pinned to the screen and showed up whiter than the theoretically "reflective" background. His reconditioned screen was wasting arc current at the rate of $116 a year.

When a screen is purchased, it is wise to provide a piece of the screen for keeping where it will not get dirty. This piece can then be compared from time to time with the installed screen and the degree of deterioration (not accurately, but perhaps sufficiently) determined. It is important that some check-up be made regularly, to make sure that the theatre management and projectionists are not missing defects in the image that their patrons are becoming aware of (at least by subconscious comparison with the picture projected in other theatres), and to make sure that the light sources are efficient. Such check-ups, the writer has found, have usually shown natural screen deterioration to be the culprit.

[The author, a mechanical engineer, has had extensive experience in the installation and maintenance of theatre equipment and furnishings. A part of his work has consisted in the investigation of faulty conditions for the purpose of recommending correction.]

Directionalism in Microphones

IN THE previous discussion [January 7th issue] we dealt with the characteristics of the "ribbon" microphone. We now turn our attention to the "diaphragm" or "pressure" type microphone. The pressure type microphone differs fundamentally from the ribbon type and consists of a movable membrane or diaphragm closed off on one side by a hollow case as illustrated in Figure 1. This type works something like a barometer instead of a cake of soap. When the sound pressure goes up at the outside surface, the diaphragm will move in. Because pressure on the outside, regardless of the direction from which it comes, causes the motion, the direction of the sound does not influence the action.

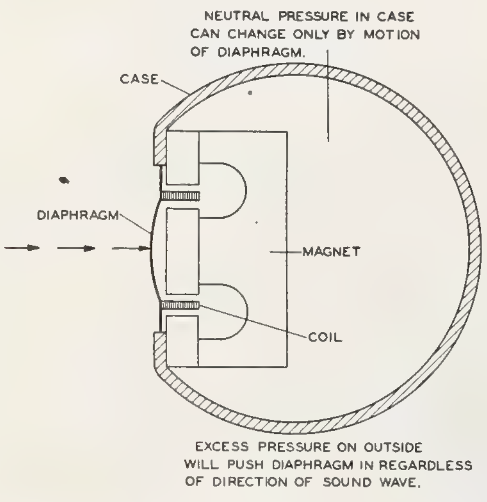
Suppose then that we connect a diaphraghm type microphone in series with a ribbon type but "pole" the wires so we buck the two. Effectively, we get no output at all. But since the ribbon reverses its direction of motion as the source is moved through the plane of zero response, the diaphragm microphone, which does not change, can no longer buck the other response loop but aids it. See Figure 2.

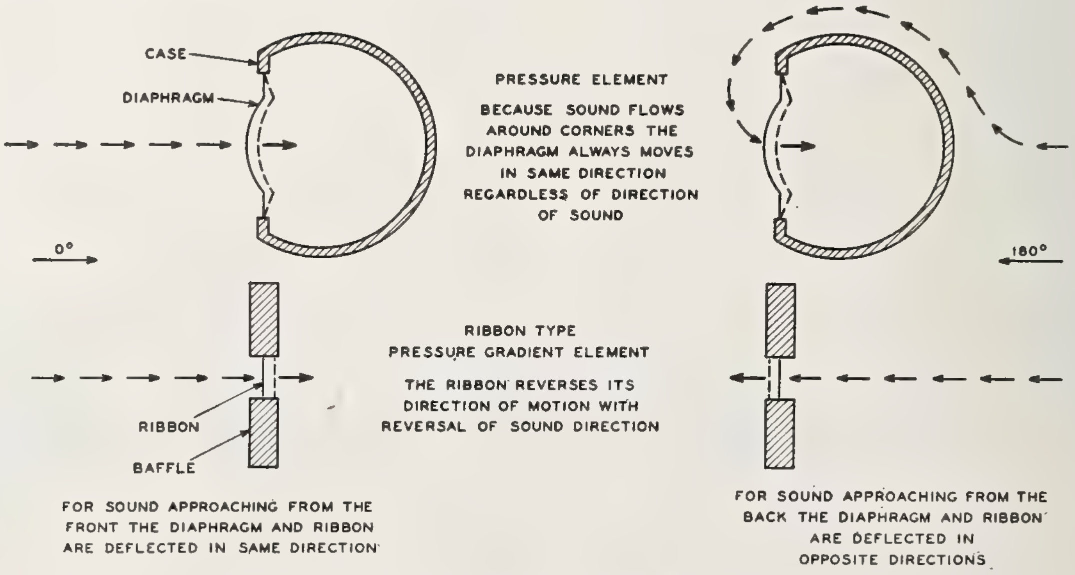
As to the choice of the particular kind of microphone to be selected for combination in our new unit there are several possibilities. As already pointed out the ribbon is the simplest of the pressure difference class and has been widely used for bi-directional work. The dynamic, on the other hand, has proved the most popular of the diaphragm types, because of its small size and relatively high efficiency. It appears logical then that a combination ribbon and dynamic structure should prove quite convenient.

Practically, the problems that beset an engineer in such a design are numerous, principally because neither type follows the simple assumptions made in the above explanation. In the first place, the physical size of the elements, for the sake of sufficient output level, is so large that the assumption that the dimensions are small compared with the wave length is not met. In the second place, the outputs are not the same over the whole frequency range so that cancellation of one response loop of the ribbon type cannot be achieved in sim-



NEUTRAL PRESSURE IN CASE CAN CHANGE ONLY BY MOTION OF DIAPHRAGM.
CASE
DIAPHRAGM
MAGNET
COIL
EXCESS PRESSURE ON OUTSIDE WILL PUSH DIAPHRAGM IN REGARDLESS OF DIRECTION OF SOUND WAVE.

Figure 1. Schematic representation of the principle of operation of a pressure microphone.



CASE
DIAPHRAGM
PRESSURE ELEMENT
BECAUSE SOUND FLOWS AROUND CORNERS THE DIAPHRAGM ALWAYS MOVES IN SAME DIRECTION REGARDLESS OF DIRECTION OF SOUND
0°
180°
RIBBON TYPE PRESSURE GRADIENT ELEMENT
THE RIBBON REVERSES ITS DIRECTION OF MOTION WITH REVERSAL OF SOUND DIRECTION RIBBON
BAFFLE
FOR SOUND APPROACHING FROM THE FRONT THE DIAPHRAGM AND RIBBON ARE DEFLECTED IN SAME DIRECTION
FOR SOUND APPROACHING FROM THE BACK THE DIAPHRAGM AND RIBBON ARE DEFLECTED IN OPPOSITE DIRECTIONS

Figure 2. Schematic representation of the principle of operation of the cardioid directional microphone.

ple fashion. The solutions of these problems are so tangled that space prevents the complete unravelling of the story. After all it is results that we are interested in so we will only glance at the highlights of the design problem.

A compact dynamic unit was already available in the form of the Western Electric 630A or 633A microphones. The problem of getting the diaphragm of the dynamic unit in close proximity to the ribbon so as to minimize any "out-of-step" differences caused by the distance of separation and at the same time prevent any distortion in either unit due to the presence of the other, was finally solved by the electro-mechanical structure shown in Figure 3. A special ribbon magnet structure was developed using a high efficiency permanent magnet steel, which permits a fairly open arrangement. The housing of the dynamic unit was reshaped and streamlined so that its presence does not seriously affect the operation of the ribbon. The result is the microphone shown in Fig. 4—a compact instrument smaller than the usual ribbon microphone of comparable efficiency. It may be noted that the size of the device is dictated largely by the ribbon element which, because of the wide air gap to accommodate the ribbon, requires heavy permanent magnets. Moreover the ribbon is susceptible to air current and must be surrounded by a cloth screen a few inches away, which reduces the flow of air through the instrument and yet has a negligible acoustical effect.

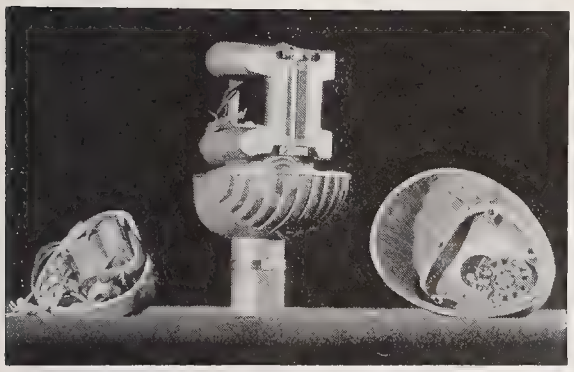

Figure 3. Sections of the cardioid microphone, showing coupling network assembly (left) for correcting and combining output characteristics of pressure and pressure-gradient elements to give smooth cardioid response; mechanical relationship between ribbon and diaphragm structures; and (right) rotary selector switch assembly for converting the microphone for use as mono-directional, bi-directional, or non-directional pickup. (Actually, parts from two microphones are included in the photograph to give different views.)

In spite of protective wind screens, ribbon microphones in the past have not been satisfactory under windy conditions because of the noise produced by the fluttering of the ribbon. Therefore this problem was also tackled in designing a new ribbon type element in order to provide an instrument without limitations of use. From the standpoint of wind noise, thicker ribbon material results in a stiffer ribbon and greater stability. Offhand, since it can be shown that as the ribbon is made thicker, the sensitivity falls away, it would seem that a thicker ribbon would result in too high a loss. But associated with the thicker ribbon is a reduction in its electrical resistance and practically this permits a higher step up ratio in the matching transformer between the ribbon and line impedance, which tends to offset the loss due to the heavier ribbon. A compromise was selected in the form of a ribbon ten to fifteen times as stiff as those normally employed in ribbon microphones and yet causing a loss of only one decibel.

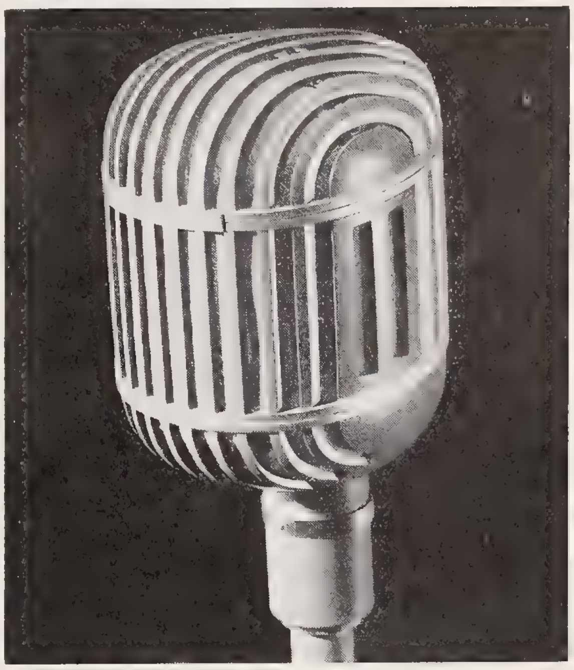

Figure. 4. The fully assembled cardioid directional microphone, shown on a normal mounting for general use. The wide-angle pickup makes tilting unnecessary. This is a rear view, which shows the three-way switch.

Such a thick ribbon, however, formed with corrugations over its whole length, a form commonly used for thinner ribbons, has a tendency to vibrate in sections much like a piano or violin string. This problem was solved by a unique ribbon form perfected by W. R. Harry of Bell Telephone Laboratories. The ribbon is given a cylindrical curvature over most of its length and is corrugated at each end so that the action is more like a bar with a spring at each end.

This stiff ribbon reduces wind noise to a level approximately 10 db lower than that encountered with usual ribbon microphones. This is of considerable importance, particularly when the new instrument is used for sound picture recording on location, since it permits the microphone to be used more freely outdoors where breezes are often unavoidable. Also there is less likelihood of damaging the ribbon by exposure to a sudden gust of wind, especially since mechanical steps are provided which prevent motion of the ribbon beyond the elastic limit of the material. This does not mean that the ruggedness of the dynamic type has been matched, but it does assure a wider field of application for a ribbon element than has been possible heretofore.

[The concluding article, in the March 4th issue, will discuss practical operating techniques in the use of the cardioid microphone.] guarantee all sound systems their highest efficiency and . . . flutter-free response at the projection source.

ABH sound heads

NEW features in all Syncrofilm Products. Write immediately for catalog giving technical data on ABH sound heads, DR sound heads, SP Professional Sound Projector, Model H Portable Sound Projector.

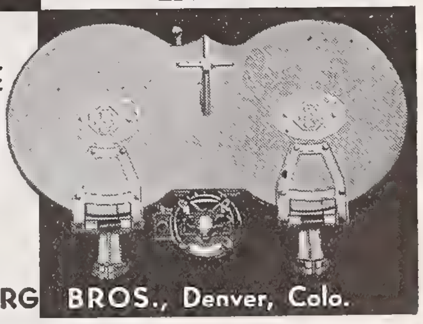
OUTSTANDING FEATURES of ABH

- Easy to install and operate
- Sold outright through recognized dealers
- Adaptable to push-pull recordings
- New optical system—Rotating film drum, ball-bearing film rollers, cushion starting, free from shock

Distributed by leading theatre supply dealers.

WEBER MACHINE CORPORATION
59 RUTTER STREET
ROCHESTER • NEW YORK

Syncrofilm
'A MARK OF QUALITY'



GOLDBERG
Safety AUTOMATIC FILM REWINDER
Sold thru THEATRE SUPPLY DEALERS
• Exclusively •
Ask your Dealer
GOLDBERG BROS., Denver, Colo.

Reads the Ads—they're NEWS

COMMENT ON PROJECTION AFFAIRS

and answers to inquiries . . . By F. H. RICHARDSON

THE ONE-MAN ROOM AND A WAY TO GET RID OF IT

CONTRARY TO many warnings, projectionists refused to remain beside the working projector constantly while it was in operation. Few if any unions took adequate steps either to induce or compel their members to do so. Very few locals seemed to realize what the logical outcome of failure in this respect certainly must be in the end. It was only natural that when managers went to the two-man room time after time and found both men away from the projector, the question arose: Why have two men? If a man beside the projector is not necessary all the time, why cannot one man use his spare time performing other tasks incident to the work of projection—threading the idle projector, rewinding, etc. Nor was such a conclusion in the least unreasonable, under the circumstances.

So at last exhibitors and managers, under stress of economic conditions, rebelled and in many instances succeeded in establishing one-man rooms. Today we have a large, constantly increasing number of one-man projection rooms.

But the fact is, the one-man projection room is far from representing the best condition. It does not represent even a really acceptable fair condition. Why? There are many reasons, some of which will be considered here.

First, it is highly questionable that the one-man room is, in the end, a "paying proposition." Maximum safety to both audience and property requires that a competent projectionist be stationed beside the working projector every moment it is in operation, alert and able to act instantly if something goes wrong. With a very highly inflammable substance moving past an intensely hot spot of light, the hazard factor without a man beside the projector seems to me substantially increased. The trained projectionist becomes accustomed to a certain rhythm of sound from a properly working projector. When those sounds suddenly change, his attention is attracted. At the start of trouble he hears rather than sees it.

Then there's the matter of operating economy. For example, there's an enormous loss of light (hence waste of electric power) due to excessive spot diameter, If the projectionist be stationed constantly at his post beside the working projector while it is in operation, he will be able, by frequent slight adjustments, to carry a spot of very much less diameter than would be possible, without risk of screen illumination discoloration, if he is absent from his post beside the projector from time to time; hence, the constant presence of the projectionist beside his projector should tend to reduce power bills materially.

With a spot 1.5-inch in diameter, only 57% of the total light is available to the aperture. If the spot diameter be increased to 2.25-inch, the light available to the aperture sinks to a mere 19% of the total. The spot is brightest at its center, true, but 81% of the area of a 2.25-inch diameter falls upon the cooling plate, and while its brightness per unit area decreases progressively toward the outer diameter, its area increases proportionately, so that the one very nearly compensates for the other (as Figure 41, page 126, of the Bluebook of Projection and accompanying tabulations show).

Nor does it appear logical, or as representing good practice, to permit anything to distract the attention of the man who is reproducing before paying audiences photoplays which have cost hundreds of thousands of dollars to produce. The reproducing system, for both image and sound, is complicated in construction and delicate in adjustments, and it just does not seem like sensible procedure if this system does not have the immediate and constant attention of a competent attendant. And so I might proceed at considerable length, pointing out other cogent reasons why the one-man room not only is hazardous and against the interests of good showmanship, but also may add its bit to operating costs.

Naturally the question arises: What should be done about it? The answer seeming rather obvious, though it will appear objectionable to some union men because it possibly would tend to lessen the number of expert projectionists employed. However, before remonstrating too vigorously, those men should consider the number already thrown out of employment by the one-man room.

During the progress of projection there are certain chores that must be performed, the doing of which requires the absence of the projectionist from the working projector. Trimming the idle projector lamp, rethreading the projectors, making emergency splices are a few of them. All these chores may be performed efficiently under the supervision of a competent projectionist by any intelligent man after a little training. Call it apprenticeship or what you will, the logical procedure, as I see it (except in those theatres which have more complicated equipment and are able to have two competent projectionists for all shows) to employ one thoroughly competent projectionist and a helper. That is one solution of the present muddled situation. The one-man room is an abomination.

Alex Defobis (farthest in background), chief projectionist of Ferd Midelburg's Logan and Midelburg theatres in Logan, W. Va., with his assistant at the Logan in the projection room of this new theatre. The equipment includes Simplex E-7 projectors on Simplex pedestals, Simplex sound system, Peerless Magnarc lamps supplied by a Hertner HI 65-130 motor-generator, Bausch & Lomb Super Cinephor lenses, Weaver changeovers, and Walker screen, supplied through the National Theatre Supply Company.

I have discussed this suggestion with two gentlemen well known to you all. Both occupy high and authoritative positions and are deeply interested in, and of course expertly conversant with projection affairs. Both approve of what I have said here. The comment of one of them is, "Certainly efficient operation of projection equipment using nitrate film requires that a man be in constant attendance at the projector." And of the other, "I read your article carefully. I can see in it nothing but the truth."

There'll be "raps," I know. That is why I have not named the men whose approval I cite. As for me—well, let's have your comment, even if you are agin it.

WORDING OF LICENSE EXAMINATION QUESTIONS

EVERY FEW days letters arrive from persons preparing to take an examination for projectionist license. Usually they contain questions purporting to be asked as part of the examination. The letters request correct answers, which request is always refused. To comply would obviously be to assist in defeat of the law. It would in effect be assisting the applicant for license to "stuff" instead of study for examination.

The other day one came, no matter from where, containing eleven questions that presumably would be part of the examination the correspondent was about to take for first-class projectionist license. Some of them were perfectly legitimate questions, well worded; some were legitimate, but so worded that the meaning was ambiguous. Others I regarded as questions unfit for such an examination. Here is one of the latter:

1. What is the ignition point of film?

I regard this question, as worded, improper, though in another form it is both proper and important. After considerable search in a rather complete library of technical and practical projection works I have myself been unable to unearth any authoritative statement that would enable me to answer that question. But why should I, or an applicant for projectionist license, be able to answer it? Had it been asked this way it would be both important and practical:

For what length of time may film remain stationary in the projector aperture before ignition takes place?

To this question it is reasonable to expect that the applicant for a projectionist's license should know the answer. A satisfactory answer to this question is as follows:

When a nitrocellulose motion picture film becomes stationary in the aperture of an average projector it will ignite within one or two seconds after such stoppage. The exact time of ignition, of course, will depend somewhat on the amount of light concentrated on the aperture area. The actual ignition time for a straight high-intensity arc is, as a matter of fact, somewhat less than for some types of light sources of less power.

FILM WOUND TAILS-UP ON WOODEN REELS

A PROJECTIONIST in New Zealand writes a friendly letter of considerable length, excerpts from which are as follows:

"Through reading your books and articles I feel I have known you for years. I have the third edition of your handbook, published in 1916; also the sixth edition of your Bluebook. I am anxious to procure all other editions. I asked a responsible organization for a recommendation of books suitable for projectionists. Of the five it recommended, four were yours. Can all editions be obtained?

"Quite recently it has become necessary that projectionists be licensed and it has become evident that the chief inspector is basing his examinations upon your sixth edition. The examinations call for written answers plus oral answers.

"Incidentally, I have followed arguments for and against films being shipped to theatres wound 'tails out'. Your conditions must differ from ours. For years our exchanges have shipped prints mounted on 2,000-foot wooden reels, wound tails out. We would not want it done in any other way. Such reels of course cannot be used on projectors, hence we are perforce obliged to rewind them upon theatre spools before use. Another requirement is that a report of mechanical condition of prints be made out and mailed to the exchange before the prints are used for projection.

"The wooden spools are of three-ply wood and quite strong. They cannot possibly bend out of shape, as metal ones will. After the last projection film must of course be rewound upon the shipping (wooden) reels, hence the exchanges always receive them heads out.

"Another item of possible interest to your readers: Evidently in your country all spools fit all projector magazine spindles. Over here, because many Continental-made projectors are used, we have two diameters of magazine spindle to contend with, hence each theatre must have spools to fit its own projectors. Moreover, some projector magazine spindles revolve clock-wise, and some the other way. It therefore is evident that we could not have either a standard spool or method of winding film."

I not infrequently receive requests for earlier editions of the Bluebook. However, they are entirely out of print and can no longer be obtained. I was myself unsuccessful in a recent attempt to duplicate my own collection of them.

The Favorite Everywhere

STRONG
UNCONDITIONALLY GUARANTEED
PROJECTION ARC LAMPS

Your Guide to Better Projection

For Sale by INDEPENDENT THEATRE SUPPLY DEALERS EVERYWHERE
Demonstration without obligation.

THE STRONG ELECTRIC CORPORATION
2501 LAGRANGE STREET • TOLEDO, OHIO
Export Office: Room 2002, 220 W. 42nd St. New York City

BETTER THEATRES CATALOG BUREAU

Detailed information concerning products listed will be sent to any theatre owner, manager, architect or projectionist. Fill in coupon below and mail. Readers will find many of the products listed are advertised in this issue.

A

Acoustic materials
Advertising novelties
Air filters
Air conditioning, complete
Air system control
Air washers
Amplifiers
Amplifier tubes
Architectural materials (specify purpose for which material is wanted)
Automatic curtain control

B

Batteries, storage
Blowers

C

Carbons
Carpets
Carpet cushion
Chairs, theatre
Change makers
Changeable letters
Changeovers
Cleaners, vacuum
Cleaning equipment, mechanical
Clocks, show-time
Color hoods
Cutout machines

D

Dimmers
Disinfectants
Drain pipe, cleaners

E

Effect machines
Electric signals and controls
Emergency lighting plants
Exciter lamps
Exploitation, mechanisms

F

Fans, ventilating
Film rewinders
Film splicing devices
Fire prevention devices, projector
Fire extinguishers
Flashers, electric sign
Flood lighting
Floor cleaners
Floor surfacing materials
Fountains
Frames, lobby display
Furniture, lobby and lounge

G

Grilles, ventilating

H

Hearing aids
Heating systems
Horns

L

Ladders, safety
Lamps, incandescent projection
Lamps, projection arc
Lenses
Lighting, emergency
Lighting, decorative Lifts—organ, orchestra

M

Marquees
Mats and runners
Microphones
Motor-generators
Motors (specify purpose)
Music stands

P

Paints, lacquers, etc.
Perfumers
Photo-electric cells
Portable projectors
Portable sound equipment
Projectors, motion picture
Public address systems

R

Rectifiers
Reflectors, projection arc
Reflector shields
Regulators, mazda
Reels
Rewinders, film
Rheostats

S

Safes, office
Screens
Screen masks and modifiers
Screen resurfacing service
Seat covers
Signs, directional
Signs, theatre name
Shutters, projection port
Soundheads
Speakers
Splicers, film
Stage lighting equipment
Stage rigging
Stereopticons
Switchboards

T

Tickets
Ticket choppers
Ticket issuing machines
Transformers

U

Uniforms
Upholstery fabrics

V

Vacuum cleaners
Vending machines
Ventilating systems

BETTER THEATRES 12-10-38
Rockefeller Center, New York
Gentlemen: I should like to receive reliable information on the following items:

(Refer to items by name, as listed above)

1. .... 6. ....
2. .... 7. ....
3. .... 8. ....
4. .... 9. ....
5. .... 10. ....

Remarks (or any items not listed above): ....

....

....

Name .... Theatre .... City ....

State .... Seating Capacity ....

Index to Advertisers

A
Adler Sign Letter Co. 30
Altec Service Corp. 33
American Seating Co. 3
Anemostat Corp. of America 19
Argus, Inc. 28
Artkraft Sign Co., The 29
Automatic Devices Co. 30

B
Baker Ice Machine Co. 33
Baldor Electric Co. 19
Best Devices Co. 36

C
Carrier Corp. 15
Chicago Expansion Bolt Co. 36

D
Dominion Theatre Equipment Co., Ltd. 34

E
Eastern Seating Co. 36

F
Fish-Schurman Corp. 32
Formica Insulation Co. 17

G
Garver Electric Co. 36
General Seating Co. 34
Goldberg Bros. 28-30-39
GoldE Mfg Co. 28-30-32-33-34-36

H
Hansen Lustrolite Co., Boy 33
Hertner Electric Co., The 35
Heywood-Wakefield Co. 26
Hurley Screen Co. 31

I
Ideal Seating Co. 31
International Projector Corp. Third Cover
International Seat Corp. 18

K
Kalee, Ltd 36
Kees Mfg. Co., F. D. 33

L
Lavezzi Machine Works 34

N
National Carbon Co., Inc. . . Second Cover

O
Ozone-Air, Inc. 31

P
Pantasote Co., Inc. 35
Peabody Seating Co. 34
Projection Optics Co., Inc. 35

R
RCA Mfg. Co., Inc. . . . . . . Fourth Cover
Reynolds Mfg. Co. 30

S
Sangamo Electric Co. 28
Strong Electric Corp., The 41

T
Taylor Air Conditioning Co. 33

U
Union Carbide & Carbon Corp. Second Cover

W
Weber Machine Corp. 39

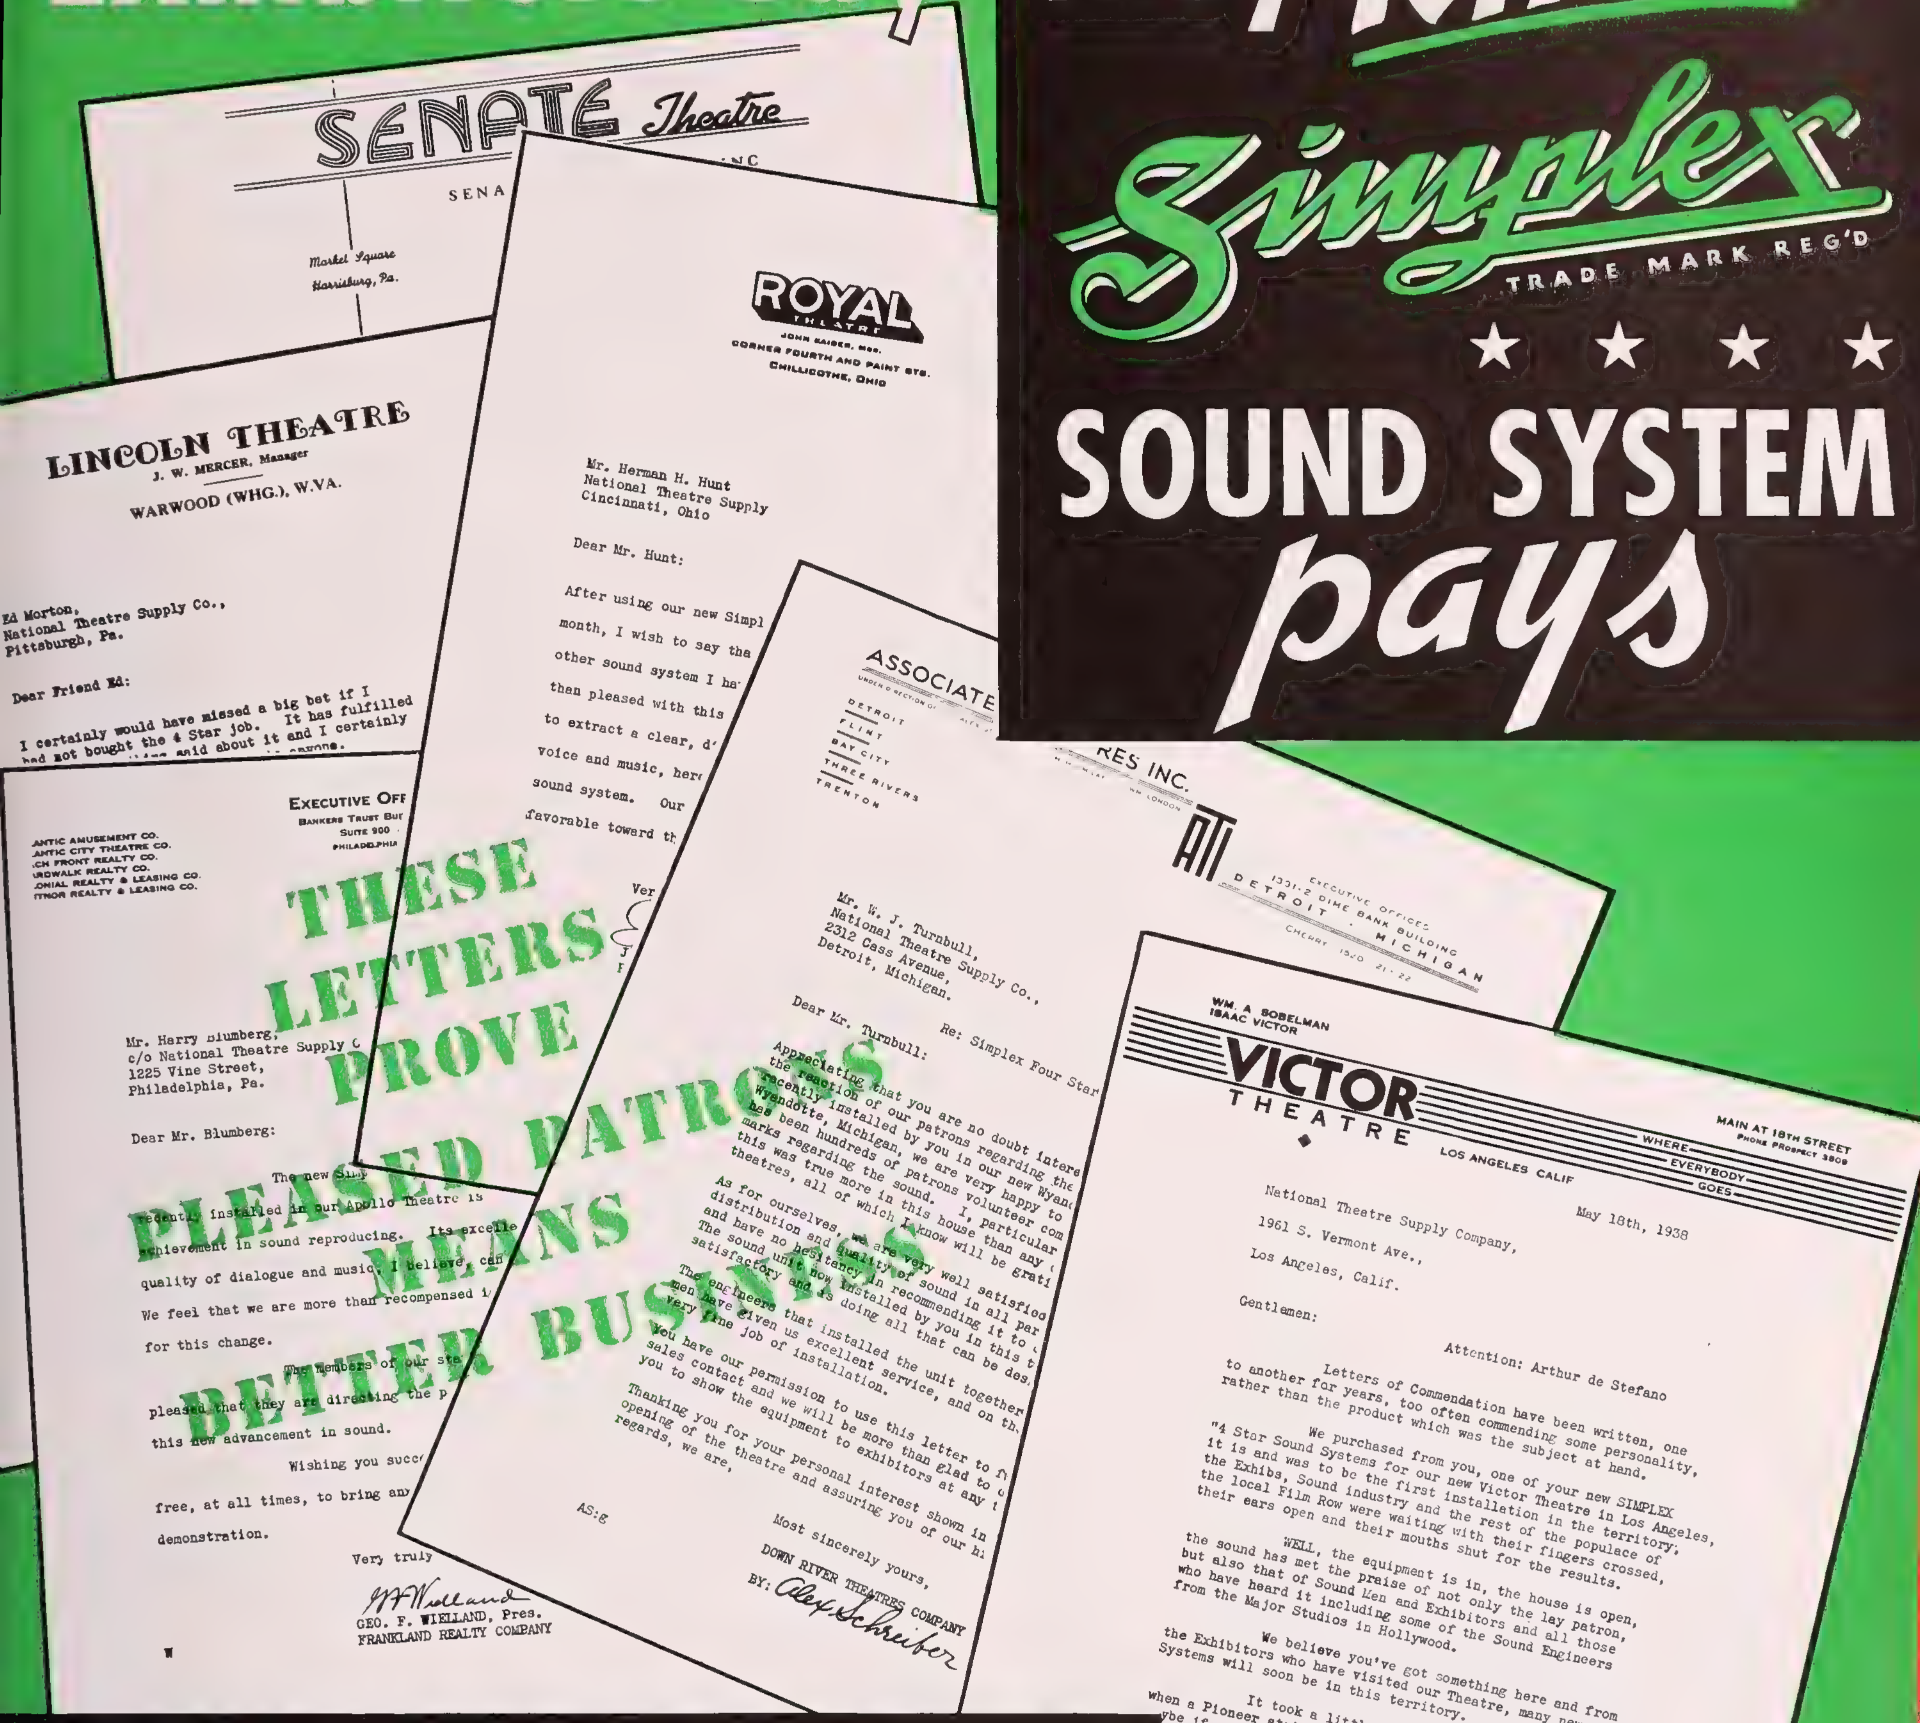
Exhibitors say they know

Simplex

TRADE MARK REG'D

★ ★ ★ ★

SOUND SYSTEM pays



SENATE Theatre

INC

SENA

Market Square
Harrisburg, Pa.

ROYAL
THEATRE
JOHN KAISER, MGR.
CORNER FOURTH AND PAINT STS.
CHILLICOTHE, OHIO

Mr. Herman H. Hunt
National Theatre Supply
Cincinnati, Ohio

Dear Mr. Hunt:

After using our new Simpl
month, I wish to say tha other sound system I ha than pleased with this to extract a clear, d voice and music, her sound system. Our favorable toward th

Ver

J
F

LINCOLN THEATRE
J. W. MERCER, Manager
WARWOOD (WHG.), W.VA.

Ed Morton,
National Theatre Supply Co.,
Pittsburgh, Pa.

Dear Friend Ed:

I certainly would have missed a big bet if I had not bought the 4 Star job. It has fulfilled … said about it and I certainly … anyone.

EXECUTIVE OFF
BANKERS TRUST BU
SUITE 900
PHILADELPHIA

ANTIC AMUSEMENT CO.
ANTIC CITY THEATRE CO.
CH FRONT REALTY CO.
RDWALK REALTY CO.
ONIAL REALTY & LEASING CO.
TNOR REALTY & LEASING CO.

Mr. Harry Blumberg,
c/o National Theatre Supply C
1225 Vine Street,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Mr. Blumberg:

The new Sim recently installed in our Apollo Theatre is achievement in sound reproducing. Its excelle quality of dialogue and music, I believe, can We feel that we are more than recompensed i for this change.

The members of our st pleased that they are directing the p this new advancement in sound.

Wishing you succ
free, at all times, to bring an demonstration.

Very truly

GFWielland
GEO. F. WIELLAND, Pres.
FRANKLAND REALTY COMPANY

ASSOCIATE
DETROIT FLINT BAY CITY
THREE RIVERS
TRENTON

RES INC.

ATI

EXECUTIVE OFFICES
1331-2 DIME BANK BUILDING
DETROIT, MICHIGAN
CHERRY 1520-21-22

Mr. W. J. Turnbull,
National Theatre Supply Co.,
2312 Cass Avenue,
Detroit, Michigan.

Re: Simplex Four Star

Dear Mr. Turnbull:

Appreciating that you are no doubt intere the reaction of our patrons regarding the recently installed by you in our new Wyan Wyandotte, Michigan, we are very happy to has been hundreds of patrons volunteer com marks regarding the sound. I, particular this was true more in this house than any theatres, all of which I know will be grati

As for ourselves, we are very well satisfied distribution and quality of sound in all par and have no hesitancy in recommending it to The sound unit now installed by you in this t satisfactory and is doing all that can be des

The engineers that installed the unit together men have given us excellent service, and on th very fine job of installation.

You have our permission to use this letter to f sales contact and we will be more than glad to you to show the equipment to exhibitors at any

Thanking you for your personal interest shown in opening of the theatre and assuring you of our hi regards, we are,

Most sincerely yours,

DOWN RIVER THEATRES COMPANY
BY: Alex Schreiber

AS:g

WM. A. SOBELMAN
ISAAC VICTOR

VICTOR THEATRE

MAIN AT 18TH STREET
PHONE PROSPECT 3809

WHERE EVERYBODY GOES

LOS ANGELES CALIF

National Theatre Supply Company,
1961 S. Vermont Ave.,
Los Angeles, Calif.

May 18th, 1938

Gentlemen:

Attention: Arthur de Stefano

Letters of Commendation have been written, one to another for years, too often commending some personality, rather than the product which was the subject at hand.

We purchased from you, one of your new SIMPLEX "4 Star Sound Systems for our new Victor Theatre in Los Angeles, it is and was to be the first installation in the territory; the Exhibs, Sound industry and the rest of the populace of the local Film Row were waiting with their fingers crossed, their ears open and their mouths shut for the results.

WELL, the equipment is in, the house is open, the sound has met the praise of not only the lay patron, but also that of Sound Men and Exhibitors and all those who have heard it including some of the Sound Engineers from the Major Studios in Hollywood.

We believe you've got something here and from the Exhibitors who have visited our Theatre, many new Simplex Systems will soon be in this territory.

It took a little guts on our part and naturally when a Pioneer strikes it he feels a sense of pride and ybe if you please just a touch of ego.

Just have anyone in the market come and hear the d in our Theatre and you can save the expense of a sman. However, we are not for unemployment so don't im off.

Sincerely yours,

VICTOR THEATRE
Isaac Victor

THESE LETTERS PROVE PLEASED PATRONS MEANS BETTER BUSINESS

PATRONS TELL OWNERS
OWNERS TELL US

They like Simplex Sound

Let us send you facsimile copies from theatre owners who tell us that Simplex Four Star Sound System, Reproducing Sound as Recorded by Hollywood, is a profitable investment.

MANUFACTURED BY INTERNATIONAL PROJECTOR CORPORATION

Simplex SOUND AND PROJECTION System

DISTRIBUTED BY NATIONAL THEATRE SUPPLY COMPANY

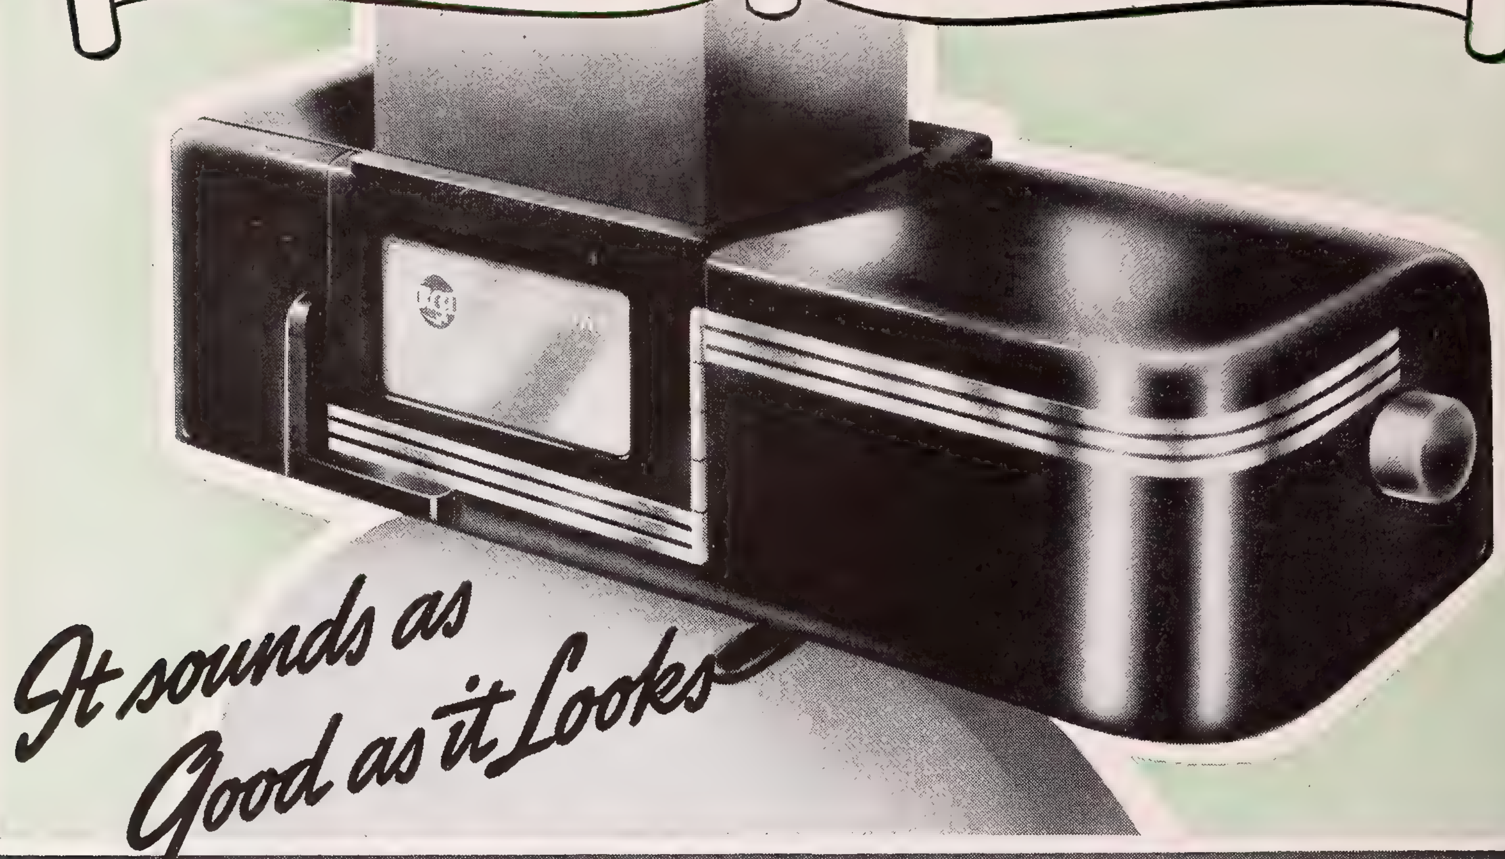
"It's Great!"

That's what you'll say when you see it!



NEW MAGIC VOICE OF THE SCREEN —WITH ROTARY STABILIZER

Plus Shock-Proof Drive!

Here's the finest movie sound in the world—created by RCA Photophone engineers for you! And you don't have to take our word for it—just ask anyone who's seen it—or, better yet, see it yourself!

It assures constant film speed by adding the ingenious new Shock-Proof Drive as a "partner" for the great Rotary Stabilizer. It offers new styling... new convenience...new protection...new added reserve power!

And that's not all! Look at the many other features at right! Add them all up and they mean sound such as you never before have been able to present to your audiences! The kind of sound that spells the biggest box-office ever! Get full details from your RCA Photophone representative!

New Magic Voice of the Screen—designed for theatres of every size—is the only movie sound equipment that offers all these features!

1 Push-pull adaptability
2 High frequency cellular speakers
3 Large size, low frequency speakers
4 Emergency stand-by
5 Tube testing meter
6 Pre-focused exciter lamps
7 Front wall volume control
8 Accessibility
9 Simplified inner apparatus oiling
10 Economical operation
11 Low cost maintenance—liberal service
12 Easy payment plan

RCA presents the Magic Key every Sunday, 2 to 3 p.m., E.S.T., on the NBC Blue Network

Better sound means better box office—and RCA tubes mean better sound

RCA Photophone's Service Organization has a low cost theatre service plan in which you'll be interested

Remember—more than 5,000 theatres from coast to coast use

RCA Photophone

MAGIC VOICE of the SCREEN

RCA Manufacturing Co., Inc., Camden, N. J.
A SERVICE OF THE RADIO CORPORATION OF AMERICA

FILE COPY
DO NOT REMOVE

MR. WILL HAYS,
28 W. 44TH ST.,
NEW YORK,
N. Y.

ON PICTURE
HERALD

Quigley Awards go to Illinois and Oklahoma managers for Outstanding Showmanship of year

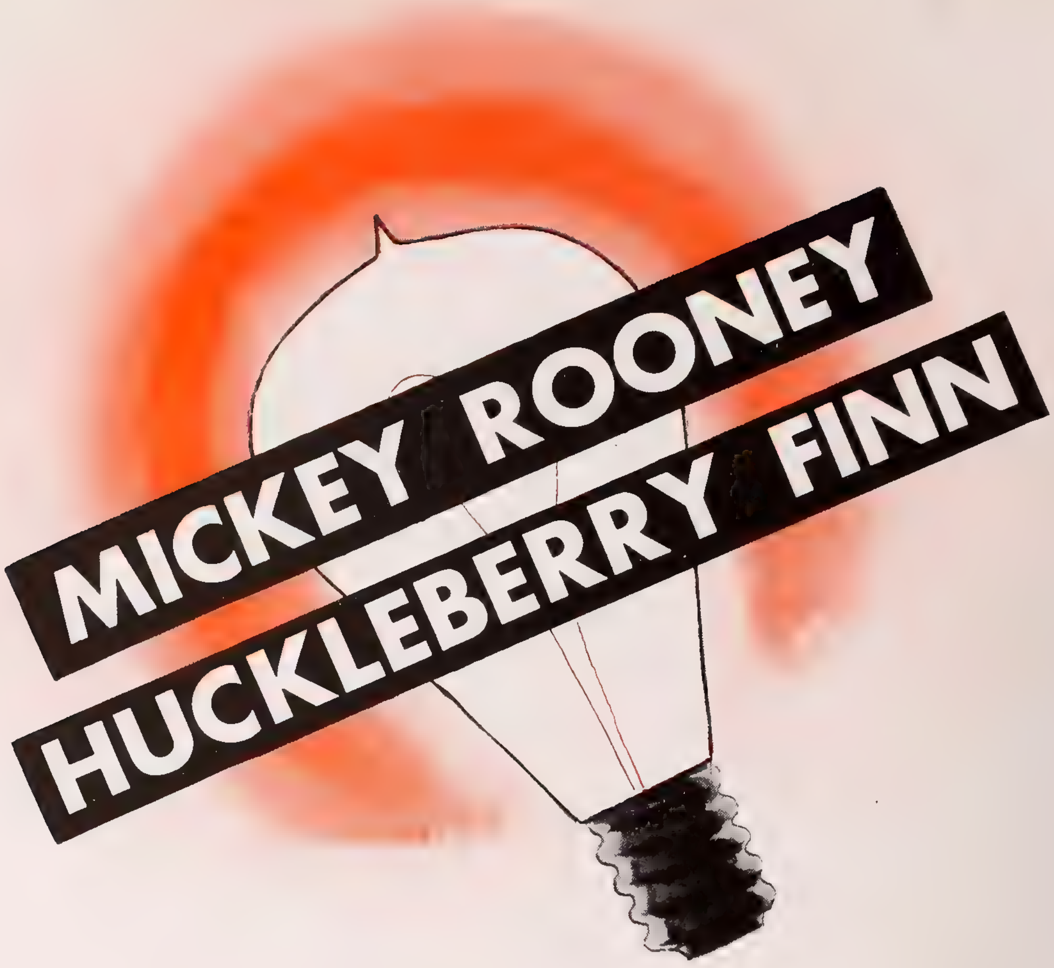
U. S., in circuit pact, calls "Divorcement" its big aim

World theatres increase by 5,719 in year

Hollywood crosses fingers on stars' radio shows

VOL. 134, NO. 6 FEBRUARY 11, 1939

[illegible]



it's going to look great in your electric lights . . .
because 75 MILLION READERS including all your customers will see it first in full page M-G-M ads in the national magazines:

Saturday Evening Post
Good Housekeeping
Scholastic Magazine
Boy's Life
American Boy
The Instructor
Junior Scholastic
American Magazine
Popular Mechanics
Open Road for Boys
Catholic Boy
Grade Teacher
Young America
Newsweek Life Liberty
Look
Collier's
Time
Parent's Magazine
Red Book

Look!...it's HUCKLEBERRY FINN

Mark Twain's
HUCKLEBERRY FINN
starring
MICKEY ROONEY
with WALTER CONNOLLY
A Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Picture

MICKEY ROONEY'S
"Huck Finn"
WILL LIVE LONG IN YOUR MEMORY

MARK TWAIN'S
Huckleberry Finn
starring
MICKEY ROONEY
with WALTER CONNOLLY
WILLIAM FRAWLEY REX INGRAM LYNNE CARVER JO ANN SAYERS
Screen Play by Hugo Butler Directed by Richard Thorpe Produced by Joseph L. Mankiewicz
A METRO GOLDWYN MAYER PICTURE

"Look... it's Huckleberry Finn"

Mark Twain's
Huckleberry Finn
starring
MICKEY ROONEY
with WALTER CONNOLLY

A glorious heritage of memories that belongs to every American

Mark Twain's
Huckleberry Finn
starring
MICKEY ROONEY
with WALTER CONNOLLY
WILLIAM FRAWLEY REX INGRAM LYNNE CARVER JO ANN SAYERS
Screen Play by Hugo Butler Directed by Richard Thorpe Produced by Joseph L. Mankiewicz
A METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER PICTURE

Here comes Huckleberry Finn...straight into your heart...

Huckleberry Finn
starring
MICKEY ROONEY
with WALTER CONNOLLY
WILLIAM FRAWLEY REX INGRAM
LYNNE CARVER JO ANN SAYERS
Screen Play by Hugo Butler Directed by Richard Thorpe
Produced by Joseph L. Mankiewicz
A METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER PICTURE

Just to give you an idea of the giant campaign. All are full page smashes!

New Product Featured In Week's News

'WINGS' TAKES THE AIR on the C. B. S. Kate Smith hour when nation hears George Brent made honorary Commander of the U. S. Naval Reserves by Comm. Lieut. Rolland Kaufman as reward for his spectacular work in 'Wings of the Navy', Warner Bros.' new standout success in wide pre-release this week.

RED BOOK'S PREVIEW SELECTION for the most important screen event of this season is release of Bette Davis in the role all 'rush' viewers report as her career's most brilliant, in 'Dark Victory'.°

HIS OWN DAWN PATROL aids Errol Flynn through hordes of early morning greeters upon arrival in New York after completion of Warners' Technicolor saga of America's frontier, 'Dodge City'.

THE BRIGHT LIGHT in stardom's sky, John Garfield, will be seen again shortly in 'Blackwell's Island',° the follow-up to his successful star debut in 'They Made Me a Criminal'.

'THE OKLAHOMA KID' takes Jimmy Cagney to the west's last badland, obviously a flourishing climate for an Angel with a dirty face. Credit Warners with another entry for their impressive current list.

ON THE DOTTED LINE for another long term with Warner Bros. goes the name of Wm. Keighley (at left) whose latest directorial deed, 'Yes, My Darling Daughter', this week brought high plaudits at press preview. Hal Wallis signs, seals and delivers the documentary evidence.

°A First National Picture

THE RAIN BEAT DOWN–AND THE CROWDS BEAT DOWN THE DOORS!

FRIDAY FEB. 17
THE SEASONS GREATEST

The N.Y. Strand Lines Started Here...

S OF NAVY
SHEEPSHEAD BAY

....And Continued with a Block-and-a-Hal

Ready! As

W

T

NOW PLAY

Georg

vertised! Warner Bros: Next Holdover Sensation!

INGS OF IE NAVY

TO BIGGEST GROSSES SINCE 'FOUR DAUGHTERS'!

ving start for the epic of America's Flying Fleet . . . with

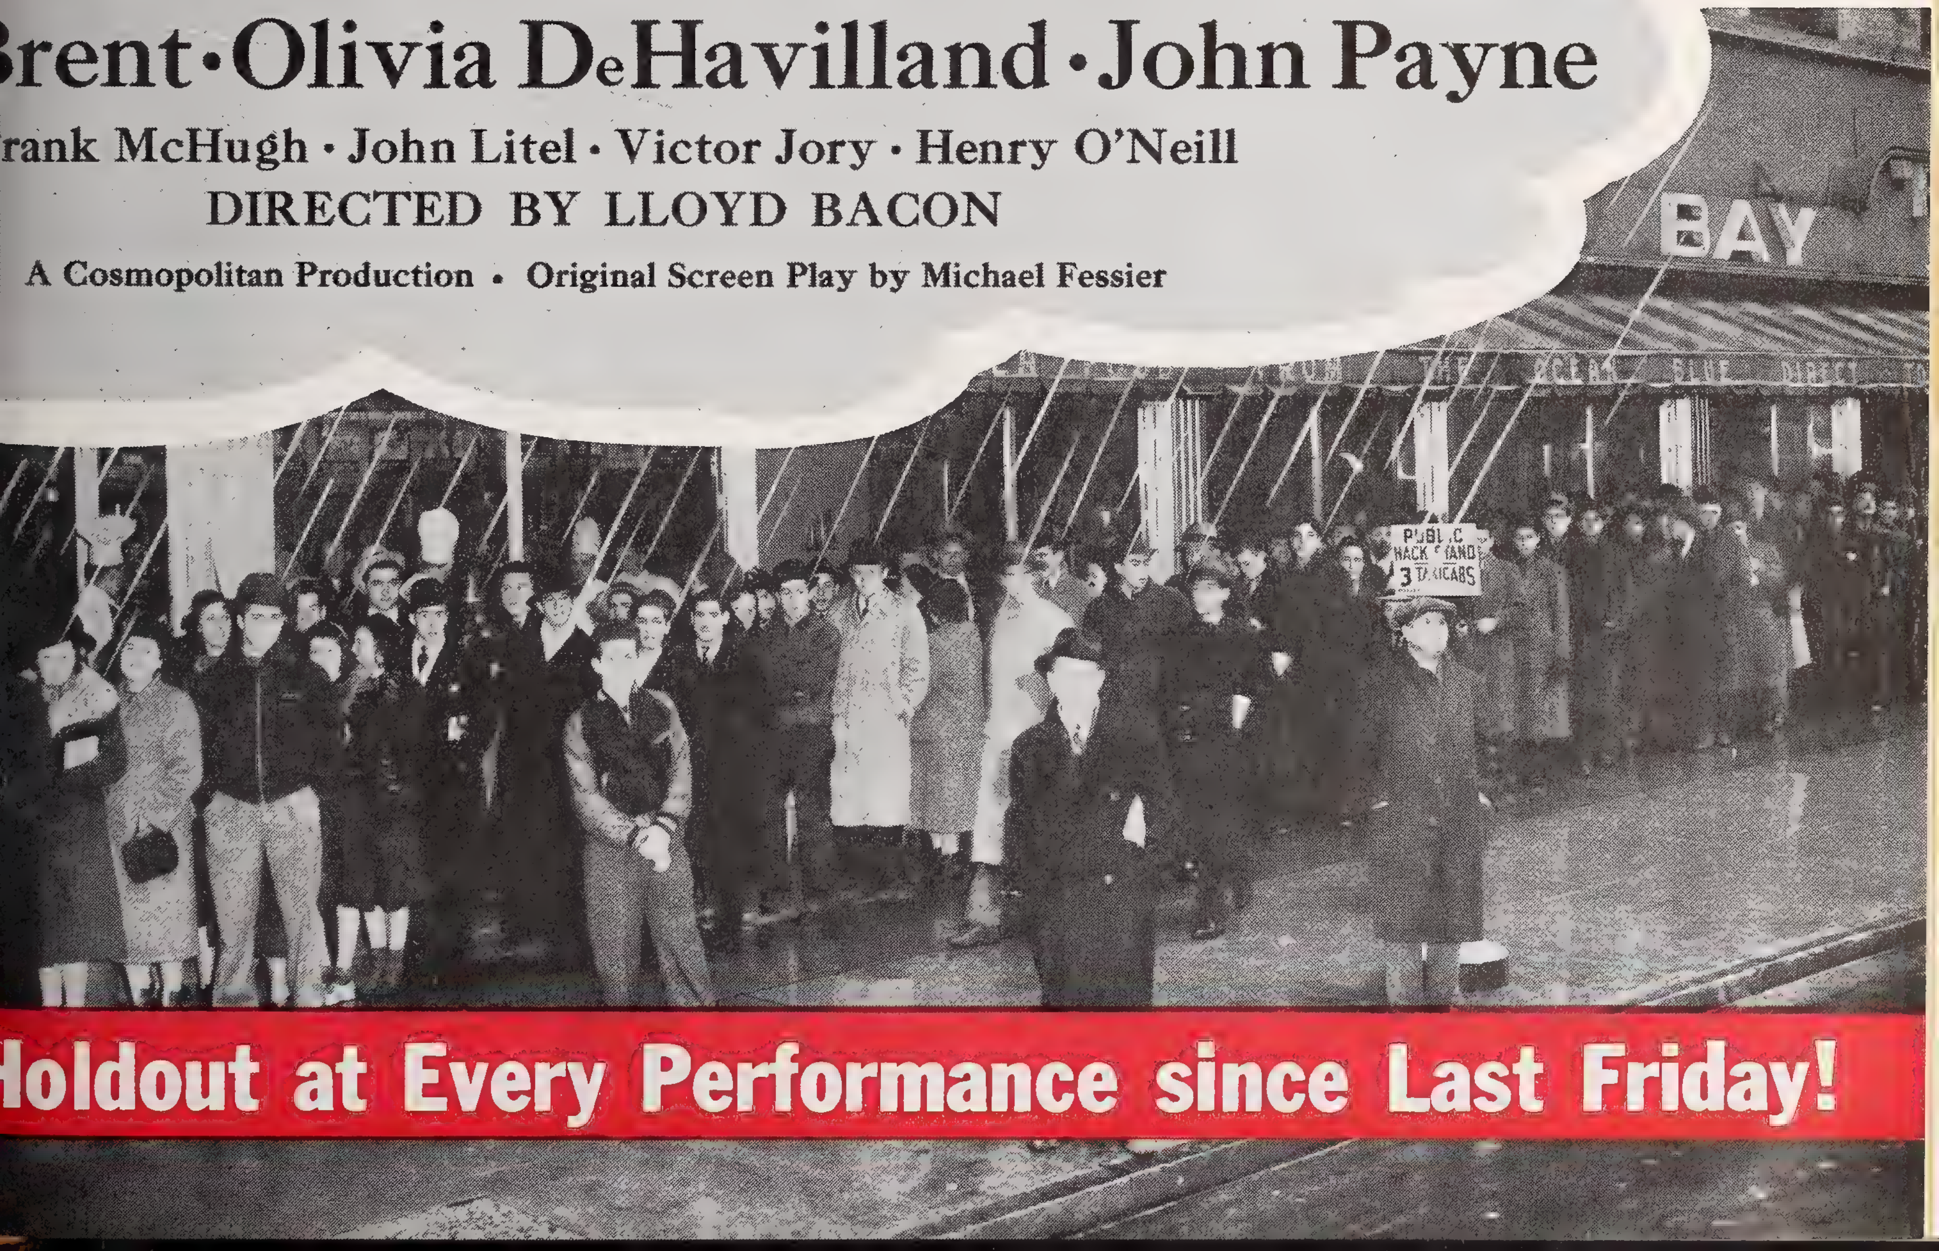
Brent · Olivia DeHavilland · John Payne rank McHugh · John Litel · Victor Jory · Henry O'Neill

DIRECTED BY LLOYD BACON

A Cosmopolitan Production · Original Screen Play by Michael Fessier



Holdout at Every Performance since Last Friday!

WHO SAID IT?

Certain characteristics of style appear in the reviews of every paper. The smart showman can detect them. Below are excerpts from reviews of The Hollywood Reporter, Daily Variety, Los Angeles Examiner, Los Angeles Times, after their critics had seen "THE THREE MUSKETEERS":

"A really funny picture. Another hit from 20th Century-Fox and Darryl F. Zanuck!"— — ?

"Novel treatment will find favor with theatregoers. Songs, dances and comedy sprinkled freely throughout."— — ?

"Swell! It's sure-fire entertainment that breeds word-of-mouth ticket selling. Heavy grosses in any territory!"— — ?

"Contains all the ingredients for boxoffice success. Will do much for Don Ameche and the Ritz trio."— — ?

DON AMECHE
THE RITZ BROTHERS
in
A Musical Comedy Version of
ALEXANDRE DUMAS'
THE THREE MUSKETEERS
with BINNIE BARNES
LIONEL ATWILL
GLORIA STUART
PAULINE MOORE
Joseph SCHILDKRAUT
John Carradine • John King
Miles Mander
Douglas Dumbrille
Directed by Allan Dwan
Associate Producer Raymond Griffith • Screen
Play by M. M. Musselman, William A. Drake and Sam Hellman • Special material by Sid Kuller and Roy Golden • Music and Lyrics by Samuel Pokrass and Walter Bullock
Darryl F. Zanuck In Charge of Production

See if you are an up-to-date showman and can tell which paper said which about—

"THE THREE MUSKETEERS"

20th CENTURY FOX
THE KEYSTONE OF YOUR FUTURE

MOTION PICTURE HERALD

MARTIN QUIGLEY, Editor-in-Chief and Publisher

Vol. 134, No. 6 February 11, 1939

FIRE CRACKERS

PURSUANT to its ancient custom of annually erecting a publicity occasion under the title of "the annual conference," the National Board of Review of Motion Pictures this year sought headlines by attack on the American industry's machinery of self-regulation and other social agencies.

The New York Times summarized the first volley:

"Immediate abolition of the Will Hays office, the motion picture production code, the Legion of Decency and all other censorship organizations 'would be a good thing' for the American cinema industry, Professor Sawyer Falk, director of the Civic University Theatre and dramatic activities at Syracuse University, told delegates. . . ."

In sequel came the annual board luncheon at which the keynoter was Mr. Langdon Post, member of the executive committee of the board. The New York Herald Tribune reported him as saying:

"The responsibility of the board . . . is to prove to the industry that it's handing a lot of 'drivel' to the public. . . . The board should attempt on a nation-wide scale to prove to the public that it really wants a better class film than it is getting. . . ."

The essence of Mr. Post's idea seems to be to have the board tend to everything, to dictate to both manufacturer and consumer and tell them both what they want. It would be too much to expect that he might know how presumptuous he is, but one might hope that he could get a glimmer of how funny his ambidextrous position is.

MEANWHILE down in the Greenwich Village environs of the National Board headquarters it is said there is a feeling that the speakers who were cocked and primed for the publicity fireworks and headline hunting had in a fashion been a bit too heavily charged. It seems it was not the intended strategy to take in quite so much territory.

That the firing seemed a bit abandoned is indicated by a paragraph in the New York Times story beginning "In a statement amplifying his views . . .", which is memento of the fact that the reporter decided to check-up and tack down the platform assertions.

It is of interest to observe that neither Professor Falk, nor other speakers, indicated in what manner existing regulations of the motion picture mechanism inhibited the possibility of productions of any intellectual status or quality whatever.

It is a curious position which says that decency must be dumb, that intelligent expression is not possible under the mores of decent America.

Meanwhile, such considerations are really not relevant, since the purpose of the board's program of utterances is an address at the growing problem of keeping the board in existence through more years of futility.

△ △ △

STARTING WITH POWER

EXHIBITORS are being considerably impressed by the announcement from Mr. Darryl Zanuck of the withdrawal from the air of Mr. Tyrone Power that radio may not be competing with the screen presentations of this glamourous young star. The move and the forthright announcement of it have so much of the approbation of the showmen of the box office that they will be found waiting, with eagerness, extensions of application of the policy in directions where there is much conspicuous opportunity for it. This is, the showmen feel, a notable beginning.

△ △ △

"SETTING BOGUS"

IF you were a reasonably successful first-run exhibitor in France there would be a government checker in the box office tonight, and every night, and at the close of business he would take from 27 to 30 percent of the gross ticket sale as tax, leaving a neat and formal receipt.

Exhibition is an intricate operation in France. There is, for instance, that curious procedure by which the theatre opens at 1:45 o'clock, while the show does not go on until 2 P.M. That is to give time to get rid of the legally required presentation of a vaudeville act, so-called, or a concert, so-called. And that, interestingly enough, costs the exhibitor nothing but the time. The law requires that the cinemas present either vaudeville or music for a minimum of 45 minutes a day. The theatre is however, permitted to deduct from the daily receipt taxes the total sum paid for the act or musicians. That puts the cost on the government, to the total sum of many million francs a year—reminiscent somewhat of the process by which our own WPA writes books no one will read and builds roads from nowhere to nowhere.

Since no one wants to hear the music or see the acts, in the picture houses, they are presented in a manner not to interfere with the show. The British used to run domestic quota pictures that way, too.

THE origin of the French theatre law concerned had its entertaining aspects. It seems that in the parliament, a year ago, there was a deadlock at the closing session with the Leftists making demand for two special enactments, one requiring that cinema theatres employ idle musicians on the theory that sound recording on film had made them idle, the other that business men be permitted to put their wives on payrolls on equal terms as the law permitted the employment of mistresses. In the compromises that brought the session to an end the wife measure was lost and cinema-musician employment won.

Just incidentally the result of the enactment was not to spread employment or wages among the musicians, as there was no mandatory provision for that. The consequence is that the cinemas have their required 45 minutes filled handily by orchestras from vaudeville houses, cafes or other conveniently adjacent institutions.

But if all this made-work and its consequent contradictions seems to be just something funny from overseas, consider the fact that in the big American newspaper offices there has been for several decades a practise based on union requirement for the complete composition, proof reading and lock up of advertising received in plate or matrix form. Commonly this is done days or weeks after the advertising has appeared. The composing room parlance calls it "setting bogus."

—Terry Ramsaye

This Week

Still in the Making

The "revised" program of the large companies for self-regulation of distribution and exhibition is still in the making. Lawyers for the companies are continuing with the rewriting of the original draft to clarify its legal language and to include additional concessions requested by exhibitor groups.

With the return this week of S. R. Kent, Twentieth Century-Fox president, and William R. Rodgers, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer sales manager, to New York, from vacations, the distributors' key negotiators now stand ready to carry the pact from the lawyers to the committees of the MPTOA and various independent state exhibitor organizations for final conferences. No dates, however, have been set for meetings.

Allied States' version of a plan of self-regulation was received in New York Wednesday by William F. Rodgers, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer general sales manager, as the chairman of the distributors' trade practice negotiating committee.

The proposals first will be studied by the majors' attorneys, who probably will report their recommendations to their distributors' committee next week. No procedure beyond that immediate likelihood has been set.

Immediately after submission of the plan Mr. Myers undertook to change the arbitration clause at the request of distributor attorneys.

Significant developments elsewhere this week touched importantly on the subject of distribution-exhibition practices. In Washington, the Department of Justice announced an agreement with major defendants on the companies' circuit activities pending trial of the U. S. trust suit, but assistant attorney general Thurman Arnold tied a bombshell to the announcement in a statement that the Government definitely seeks to divorce exhibition from production-distribution.

Kansas this week got a legislative proposal to outlaw distributors from theatre operation—another "divorcement" bill.

In Congress, Senator Burton Wheeler appointed a committee to steer the Neely anti-block booking bill.

See page 15.

Silver and Bronze

A committee of judges including executives of circuits and distributing companies known for accomplishment in the field of advertising and exploitation, this week selected the winners of the 1938 Quigley Grand Awards. John Burhorn, manager of the Gayety theatre, Chicago, a unit of the Indiana-Illinois circuit, was voted the Silver Plaque and the Bronze Award went to George Limerick, city manager of the Griffith Amusement Company in Enid, Okla., and former manager of the Yale theatre, Cleburne, Texas.

Story on page 14; pictures, 12 and 13.

Congress and Radio

Establishment of the new federal radio control agency urged by President Roosevelt within the next fiscal year was indicated in Congress this week when the House Appropriations Committee decided to make no provisions for the present Federal Communications Commission.

In New York the American Federation of Radio Artists and the committee for the advertising agencies reached a closed shop agreement ending the dispute which for a time threatened to result in a strike of radio talent.

Both developments are reported on page 18.

Earhart Film

Gabriel Pascal, British producer of Bernard Shaw's "Pygmalion," said this week in New York that he will make a film in Hollywood next season on the life of Amelia Earhart, woman flier who was lost at sea. Mr. Pascal is working on the script with George Palmer Putnam, husband of Miss Earhart; and has engaged Leopold Stowkowski to do the music. Mr. Pascal sails Friday to confer with Shaw in England on the script of "Doctor's Dilemma," MGM release on which work will start late this month in Hollywood.

MOTION PICTURE HERALD

Published every Thursday by Quigley Publishing Company, Rockefeller Center, New York City. Telephone Circle 7-3100. Cable address "Quigpubco, New York." Martin Quigley, Editor-in-Chief and Publisher; Colvin Brown, Vice-President and General Manager; Terry Ramsaye, Editor; Ernest A. Rovelstad, Managing Editor; James P. Cunningham, News Editor; Chicago Bureau, 624 South Michigan Avenue, C. B. O'Neill, manager; Hollywood Bureau, Postal Union Life Building, Boone Mancall, manager, William R. Weaver, editor; Toronto Bureau, Ste. 811, 21 Dunas Sq., Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Allister Grosart, representative. Montreal Bureau, Press Bureau, Windsor Street Station, Montreal, Canada. Colin R. Haworth, representative. London Bureau, 4, Golden Square, London W 1, Hope Williams, manager; cable Quigpubco London; Berlin Bureau, Berlin-Tempelhof, Kaiserin-Augustastrasse 28, Joachim K. Rutenberg, representative; Paris Bureau, 21, Rue de Berri, Paris 8, France, Pierre Autre, representative, cable Autre-Lacifral-8 Paris; Rome Bureau, 54 Via Della Mercede, Rome, Italy, Joseph D. Ravotto, representative; cable Ravotto-Stampestera, Rome. Melbourne Bureau, Regent Theatre, 191 Collins St., Melbourne, Australia, Cliff Holt, representative; Sydney Bureau, 17, Archbold Rd., Roseville, Sydney, N.S.W., Australia. Lin Endean, representative. Mexico City Bureau, Apartado 269, Mexico City, James Lockhart, representative; Budapest Bureau, Szamos-utca 7, Budapest 1, Hungary, Endre Hevesi, representative; Buenos Aires Bureau, Avellaneda 3949, Buenos Aires, Argentina, Natalio Bruski, representative; Tokyo Bureau, 880 Sasazuka, Ichikawa-shi Chiba-Ken, Japan, Hiromu Tominaga, representative; Rio de Janeiro Bureau, Caixa Postal 3358, Río de Janeiro, Brazil, L. S. Marinho, representative; India Bureau, Post Box 147 Bunder Road, Karachi, India; Uruguay, P. O. Box 664, Montevideo, Uruguay, Paul Bodo, representative, cable Argus Montevideo; Amsterdam Bureau, 87 Waalstraat, Amsterdam Z., Holland, Philip de Schaap, representative; Vienna Bureau, Neustiftgasse 54, Vienna, VII, John Lorant, representative; Prague Bureau, Uhelny trh 2, Prague 1, Czechoslovakia. Harry Knopf, representative. Copenhagen Bureau, Rosengaarden 14, Copenhagen, Denmark, Kris Winther, representative. Member Audit Bureau of Circulations. All contents copyright 1939 by Quigley Publishing Company. Address all correspondence to the New York Office. Other Quigley Publications: Better Theatres, Motion Picture Daily, Teatro al Día, International Motion Picture Almanac and Fame.

Move for Dismissal

Following the taking of depositions on both sides this week defense attorneys in the suit filed by independent theatre owners in Chicago against Balaban & Katx and distributing companies planned to move for dismissal of the suit before Federal Judge James Wilkerson on Friday. The move will be based on the claim that no special damages have been shown by the plaintiffs. A secondary move, it was indicated, would attempt to force the independents to present their books for examination. The taking of depositions opened with testimony given by Abe J. Kaufman, booker for B & K who was ordered to appear by the court over defense objections. He defined the clearance arrangements in use in the Chicago territory. Other depositions were set forth by Clyde Eckhardt, 20th Century-Fox branch manager, and Jack Osserman, RKO branch manager.

A second suit filed by the federal Government against B & K and the major distributors, will open February 15th before Federal Judge Woodward when a defense motion that the Government be made to file a bill of particulars will be argued.

British Independents

Independent exhibitors in Great Britain not only are finding their voice changing into a booming basso but they're beginning to sound forth together in what may become their own glee club. Up to the present they were singing rounds, with one lone voice taking up at a time, more or less. But now the London and Home Counties Branch of the Cinematograph Exhibitors Association has instructed its executive to consider the formation of a subcommittee of non-circuit members, and the Scottish branch has discussed organization of a separate section within the Association.

These and other developments are discussed by Aubrey Flanagan in his article on page 26.

Paramount Changes

Barney Balaban is now president of Paramount Theatre Service Corporation, as well as president of Paramount Pictures, under a realignment of the corporate structure of Paramount and its subsidiaries. Y. Frank Freeman, who late last year was placed in charge of studio activities, had headed the Theatres Service company. J. J. Unger, eastern division manager, and Charles Reagan, western division manager, were promoted to the board of directors of Paramount Pictures Distributing Corporation, succeeding Mr. Freeman and Walter Cokell. Van Alen Hollemon, secretary of Paramount Theatres Service Corporation, has been succeeded by Edith Schaffer.

Favor Arbitration

The annual midwinter convention of the Motion Picture Theatre Owners of Virginia, held this week at the Hotel Shoreham, in Washington, D. C., resulted in the adoption of a resolution favoring arbitration as a means of settling industry disputes, following an address by Harry Brandt, president of the Independent Theatre Owners of New York, reelection of all officers, and a protest against appearance of stars on the air.

Mr. Brandt declared depression was caused by "poor pictures"; that the trade practice program now being formulated should include restrictions against discrimination, and against the deliverance of "B" pictures where "A" pictures were promised. He said that the major companies were now convinced that arbitration was the best policy, and declared the legislative program advocated by Allied States Association was "too expensive."

Speakers, other than Mr. Brandt, were Morton G. Thalheimer; Colonel Robert T. Barton; president William Crockett; Representative Jennings Randolph, of West Virginia.

The officers reelected were William Crockett, president; Benjamin T. Pitts, vice-president; Harold Wood, secretary; Sam Bendheim, Jr., treasurer. The new directors are F. B. Stover, Ellison Loth, Leonard Gordon.

Studios Answer NLRB

The major studios named in the National Labor Relations Board's complaint as violators of the Wagner Act, charging failure to bargain collectively with the Screen Writers Guild, on Tuesday, entered a denial of the charges. They requested that the allegation of coercion and intimidation of Guild members be stricken from the complaint and demanded a full bill of particulars. The answers were handed to Bernard Alpert, special NLRB attorney, who next Monday will open a hearing on the complaints issued last week by the national board in Washington. In the answers the studios challenge the constitutionality of the Wagner Act's provision that the NLRB has authority to decide what units are appropriate for collective bargaining.

Production Cost

The Bureau of Census, reporting its biennial survey of industry income, indicates that for 1937 motion picture production costs, 90 per cent of which centered in Hollywood, totalled $197,741,358, a new post depression high. The expenditure covered 83 companies. The figure compares with $151,864,842 spent in 1935.

The statistics are analyzed on page 20.

Reelect Schenck

Joseph Schenck, chairman of the board of Twentieth Century-Fox, was reelected president of the Association of Motion Picture Producers Monday night. Frederick W. Beetson was reelected executive vice-president and secretary, and Jack Warner and Edgar Mannix were named first and second vice-presidents, respectively. Mr. Mannix, Samuel Goldwyn and Y. Frank Freeman were added to the board of directors.

Mr. Schenck named an executive committee, consisting of himself, Jack Warner, Mr. Goldwyn, Mr. Freeman, Mr. Mannix and Harry Cohn, presumably to act as a steering committee in handling negotiations with the talent groups.

Will H. Hays addressed the meeting.

Films and Progress

Walter Wanger will join Professor William Lyons Phelps of Yale University, Reinhold Niebuhr, professor of Applied Christianity at Union Theological Seminary, and Dr. Harlow Shapley, astronomer at Mount Wilson Observatory, in speaking on February 16th at America's Town Hall, which recently awarded him honorary mention for his essay contribution of "What Is America's Greatest Need?" The topic will be, "Has Twentieth Century Civilization Improved Mankind?" Mr. Wanger will speak on the part the motion picture industry has played. The talks will be broadcast over the NBC Blue network.

FOR READY REFERENCE

Editorial Page 7
This Week in Pictures Page 10
Managers' Round Table Page 57
Release Chart Page 65
Asides and Interludes Page 46
Showmen's Reviews Page 35
The Hollywood Scene Page 24
In the Courts Page 44
In the Newsreels Page 44
Short Subjects on Broadway Page 30
What the Picture Did for Me Page 51
Deaths of the Week Page 33
The Cutting Room Page 30
Productions in Work Page 55

Discussion

Ever a topic of ready discussion at exhibitor meetings or in Hollywood where two networks have built million dollar studios to house screen talent, the problem of star appearances on radio programs received fresh impetus in street corner and office conversation in Hollywood and elsewhere in the industry with the announcement, made with written reasons, by Darryl Zanuck that Tyrone Power would be withdrawn from the Woodbury Soap broadcasting show. The sum total of the discussion was as indecisive as it has been for the last several years but exhibitor comment remained firm along the lines it has consistently maintained—that star appearances are serious and unfair competition.

William R. Weaver reports on the Hollywood attitude on page 17.

Question in Commons

Oliver Stanley, president of the British Board of Trade, questioned in the House of Commons on charges that malice motivated the recent demand for an investigation of Gaumont British affairs, admitted he had received representations from a director of the company charging malice but said he had not deemed it necessary to publish the list of shareholders who had applied for the inquiry. He emphasized the importance of safeguarding the right of minority shareholders to apply for an inquiry without fear of disclosure of their identities. The Board of Trade last week and appointed an investigator to conduct the inquiry.

Seek "American Way"

Broadway heard this week that RKO was negotiating with Sam H. Harris and Max Gordon, producers of "The American Way," for film rights to the play, written by George S. Kaufman and Moss Hart, which is playing at the Center theatre in Rockefeller Center.

The reports even mentioned a possible price of $225,000 for filming rights. Warners is another of several large companies reputedly interested, the price mentioned there being around $225,000.

Decorations

Two foreign nations, Belgium and the Dominican Republic, wish to decorate James Roosevelt, eldest son of the President and vice-president of Samuel Goldwyn Productions, it was disclosed by Claude Swanson, Secretary of the Navy, when he asked Congress on Monday to authorize Mr. Roosevelt, who is a lieutenant colonel in the Marine Corps Reserve, to accept decorations.

This Week In Pictures

EXECUTIVES of the Harvey Amusement Company of California, Rotus and Rodda Harvey, left and right above, visit George Hayes of the cast of Republic's "Man of Conquest" on location near Stockton, Cal. In the foreground are Rotus and Rodda, twin sons of the Rodda Harveys.

ALSO in the exhibitor-goes-to-Hollywood classification is the picture below of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Seider of New York with Pat O'Brien (in costume), Mrs. William Scully and James Cagney on the Warner Brothers lot at Burbank. Mr. Seider is president of Prudential Playhouses.

By Staff Photographer

BRANCH sales offices are being established to handle the 15 French and 5 English features to be imported by Tri-National Films headed by John E. Otterson, left.

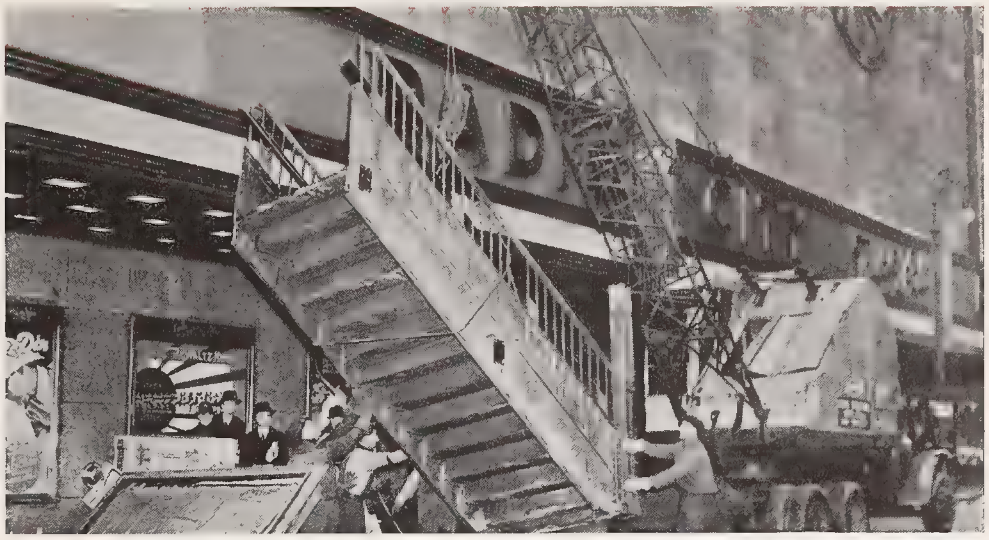
LEAVING New York for Hollywood where he will confer with George Schaefer, Ned Depinet and Pandro Berman on plans for Anna Neagle's first American-made picture, Herbert Wilcox, right, has a final word with S. Barret McCormick, RKO director of advertising and publicity.

JOHN P. NICK, head of the Moving Picture Machine Operators Union No. 143 in St. Louis, visits the offices of Roy McKittrick, Missouri attorney general, to assure him that he and his associates were making no threats against union members who have filed suit to oust him from control, and that "nobody would be hurt". Fifteen union members made charges.

By Metropolitan

WADE W. WILLMAN, exchange manager of Loew's, Inc., in Indianapolis, is host to executives and theatre managers of the Theatrical Managers circuit at the Lincoln hotel. Left to right around the rim: Wayne R. Harman, Bill McCarrell, Melvin B. Grundy, managers; D. S. McLeod, Ralph Ripps, Jerome A. Adams, H. A. Wagner, F. B. Gauker and Harold Marshall, of the exchange; Marc J. Wolf, circuit general manager; Mr. Willman; Sam Gardner, Loew's; and A. R. Blocher, Don Ballard, Marvin Merrill, Dud C. Doughty, Ray Brenner, Rex Young, Leonard S. Sowar, Ray Howard and Frank A. Millspaugh, of the circuit.

CUSTOMARY preliminaries at the bar precede a sea-food dinner given for the press in the Ambassador hotel, Los Angeles, in connection with the preview of the new Bobby Breen picture, "Fisherman's Wharf". Left to right, Sol Lesser of Principal, George Schaefer of RKO and Leo Carrillo.



By Cosmo-Sileo

THE MARQUEE of Radio City Music Hall, partly hidden since its construction, is revealed in its originally planned sweep as the stairway to the 60-year-old Sixth Avenue Elevated station at 50th Street is removed, giving potential box-office customers and Sixth Avenue loiterers an unobstructed view of the Music Hall facade.

LEFT, Sawyer Falk, professor at Syracuse University, addressing the National Board of Review advocated elimination of the MPPDA and the Production Code in the interests of a "free" screen. See page 48.

AT a London reception following Paramount's preview for the press of "Stolen Life", Adolph Zukor, on a goodwill tour of foreign territories, converses with Dr. Paul Czinner, director, and Michael Redgrave, star.

By Staff Photographer

NEWLY elected officers and the members of the New York Motion Picture Associates hear Edward Golden, vice-president of Monogram, at a meeting and installation in the Astor hotel. Jack Ellis, reelected president of the group, is at the left and Harold Rodner of Warner Brothers at the right.

By Cosmo-Sileo

WALTER WANGER, right, United Artists producer, arrives in New York on the 20th Century Limited en route to Dartmouth College to make location shots for "Winter Carnival".

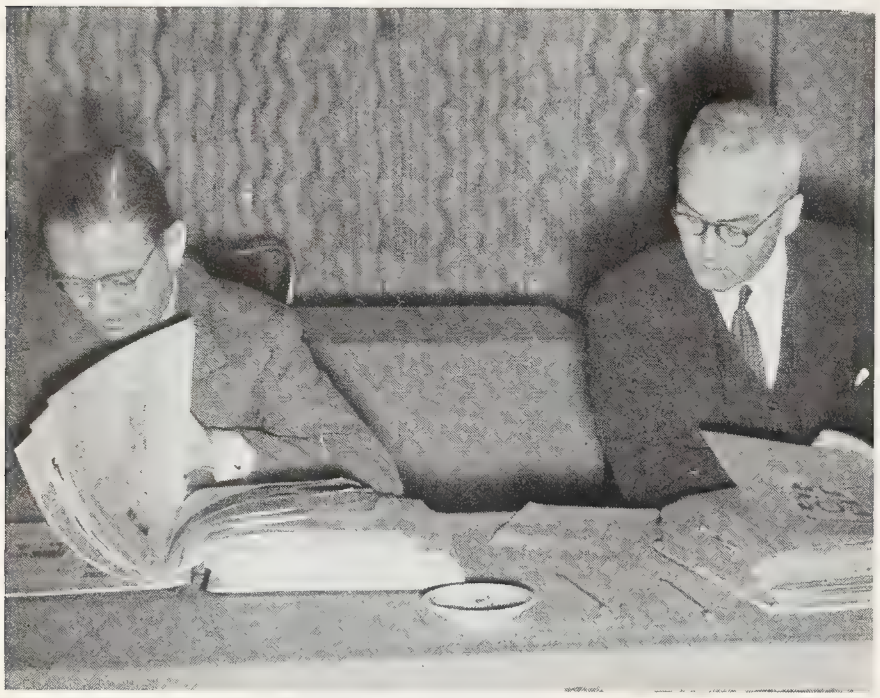
MEXICAN soldiers under Santa Ana scale the walls of the Alamo in one of two battle scenes which mark high points in Republic's dramatization of the life of Sam Houston, "Man of Conquest". The film, a year in the making, is the most ambitious in the company's career.

Blue Ribbon Jury Picks Winners of Quigley Awards

A COMMITTEE of judges, including executives of distributing companies and theatre circuits, experts all in the arts and crafts of motion picture advertising and exploitation, on Tuesday selected the winners of the 1938 Quigley Grand Awards: John Burhorn of the Gayety theatre, Chicago, for the Silver, and George Limerick of Enid, Okla., for the Bronze. The pictures on these pages were taken as the judging proceeded at the Astor Hotel.

(All pictures by staff photographer)

Merlin Hall Aylesworth, executive of the Scripps-Howard newspapers, guest speaker at the luncheon which followed the judging, with Martin Quigley.



Dan Michalove, left above, of National Theatres Amusement Company and Charles E. McCarthy of Twentieth Century-Fox, intent on their selections.

Ed Fay of Fay Theatres, Rhode Island, in a conversational moment with Terry Ramsaye, editor of MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

Gordon S. White, GN, and S. Barret McCormick, RKO.

George W. Weeks, Monogram Pictures.

Harry Goldberg, Warner Brothers.

Harry Mandel, RKO Radio Pictures

Maurice A. Bergman, Columbia Pictures.

Silas F. Seadler, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

Alec Moss, Paramount Pictures.

Leon D. Netter, Paramount Pictures.

Al Adams, Republic Pictures.

A-Mike Vogel, Round Table chairman.

Morris Kinzler, acting for Harry Arthur of Fanchon & Marco, and Alex Manta of the Indiana-Illinois circuit of which the Silver Award winner's theatre is a unit.

Mr. Quigley with Herman Wobber, general sales manager for Twentieth Century-Fox.

Lynn Farnol of United Artists watches Oscar Doob meditate on a selection. At right is Frank J. McCarthy of Universal Pictures.

Below, John J. O'Connor, head of RKO theatres, and Arthur L. Mayer, operator of the Rialto theatre, New York.

QUIGLEY GRAND AWARD WINNERS FOR 1938 ARE CHOSEN BY EXECUTIVES

John Burhorn Wins Silver Plaque, George Limerick the Bronze; Aylesworth Addresses Judges at Luncheon

Illinois and Oklahoma showmen were accorded the highest honors for exploitation of motion pictures in the past year, the 1938 Quigley Grand Awards, when the last of the 29 judges—advertising, publicity and exploitation directors and other executives of distributing companies and circuits—had handed down his verdict on the roomful of competing campaigns on Tuesday in New York City's Hotel Astor.

Martin Quigley, publisher and editor-in-chief of QUIGLEY PUBLICATIONS, and A-Mike Vogel, chairman of MOTION PICTURE HERALD'S Managers' Round Table, were hosts to the showmanship specialists at the judging and at the luncheon.

Merlin Hall Aylesworth, notable for his activities in three fields, radio, screen and newspaper, and now publisher of the New York World-Telegram, addressed the luncheon guests on salesmanship, showmanship and phases of democracy.

Burhorn and Limerick Win

The Silver Grand Award Plaque was voted to John Burhorn, manager of the Gayety Theatre, South Chicago, a unit in the Indiana-Illinois circuit. In the 1938 competitions, Mr. Burhorn won the Class "E" Silver Plaque in the first, third and fourth quarters. In the second quarter he was awarded the Citation of Merit. The Gayety is a last-run situation.

The Bronze Grand Award went to George Limerick, city manager of the Griffith Amusement Co., Enid, Oklahoma. Mr. Limerick's Awards record in 1938 included the Silver Plaque in Class "D" for the first quarter, plus the added Citation of Merit for the best entry in that quarter regardless of classification, while serving as manager at the Yale Theatre, Cleburne, Texas, also a Griffith unit. In his present post, Mr. Limerick was further awarded a First Mention in the third quarter and the Citation of Merit in the fourth quarter.

Second Time for Circuits

This is the second time in the history of the Awards that the Indiana-Illinois and Griffith Amusement Circuits have been represented in the Grand Awards. In 1936 Lew Chatham, city manager in Norman, Okla., won the Silver Grand Award, and Sid Holland, city manager of the Elkhart Amusement Company in Elkhart, Ind., received the Bronze Plaque.

JOHN BURHORN

GEORGE LIMERICK

Introduced by Mr. Quigley as "a man recognized, not only in the United States, but abroad, as "one of the greatest salesmen in the world," Mr. Aylesworth acknowledged the tribute by saying that, of all his varied careers, that in which he had the "greatest fun" was the motion picture industry, and that he felt "at home" among those present. Throughout he used the pronoun "we" in referring to the film industry.

Mr. Aylesworth expressed his convictions on the functions of the newspaper motion picture critic, and the part that the industry should play in facing current problems.

"I don't believe it is the job of the motion picture critic to tell what he thinks," Mr. Aylesworth asserted. "As a matter of fact, I don't think much of the average newspaper motion picture critic, and they know it. I don't like the critic who puts in a trick sentence at the end of a review of a fine pic-

(Continued on page 60, column 1)

These Judges Officiated

The Judges in the Quigley Awards, alphabetically listed, and the companies with which they are affiliated, are as follows:

Al Adams, Republic Pictures
Maurice A. Bergman, Columbia Pictures
Harry Buckley, United Artists
Oscar A. Doob, Loew's Theatres
Lynn Farnol, United Artists
Ed Fay, Fay Theatres
Harry Goldberg, Warner Bros. Theatres
Monroe Greenthal, United Artists
John LeRoy Johnston, Walter Wanger Co.
Morris Kinzler for Harry Arthur, Fanchon & Marco
Irving Lesser, Roxy Theatre
Louis Lifton, Monogram Pictures
Charles E. McCarthy, Twentieth Century-Fox
Frank J. McCarthy, Universal Pictures
S. Barret McCormick, RKO Radio Pictures
Harry Mandel, RKO Radio Pictures
Alex Manta, Indiana-Illinois Theatres
Arthur L. Mayer, Rialto Theatre
Dan Michalove, National Theatres Amusement Co.
Alec Moss, Paramount Pictures
Leon D. Netter, Paramount Pictures
John J. O'Connor, RKO Radio Pictures
Louis Pollock, Universal Pictures
Si Seadler, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Pictures
Milton Silver, National Screen Service
George C. Walsh, Netco Theatres
George W. Weeks, Monogram Pictures
Gordon S. White, Grand National Pictures
Herman Wobber, Twentieth Century-Fox

U. S., DISCLOSING CIRCUIT PACT, SAYS "DIVORCEMENT" IS ITS CHIEF AIM

Defendants in Trust Suit Agree to Inform Government of Any New Activity in Theatre Acquisitions

Absolute divorcement of production and distribution from exhibition is the primary ambition of the United States Government in the prosecution of its suit against the motion picture business in the socalled "New York case."

Announcement of an "agreement" with the major distributor-circuits concerning any further theatre expansion pending adjudication of the suit was announced in Washington last Saturday by Thurman W. Arnold, assistant United States attorney general in charge of the film case.

Agree to Inform Department

As expected, the circuit defendants, Paramount, Loew's, Warners, Twentieth Century-Fox and RKO, did not accede to the original demand of the Department for an absolute status quo agreement on circuit operations, but they did agree to inform the Department regularly of any new activity, the Department maintaining the right to at any time seek a federal court injunction against the theatre activities of any one or all of the companies "if the Department feels that the public interest so requires."

At the same time the five circuits presented to the public press a lengthy statement in explanation of their position, defining a "readiness to cooperate."

"Divorcement" the Objective

Announcement of the agreement, however, was over-shadowed somewhat by the public statement made by Mr. Arnold informing all concerned and any others that, regardless of any other intention, the Government is seeking primarily to divorce production and distribution from exhibition, "so that those who control the making and booking of motion pictures will not also control the theatres in which they are shown.

"The view of the Department of Justice on this matter is that control of exhibition by the producers and distributors is in violation of the anti-trust laws," he continued, warning that "any decree of the courts which may be rendered will be binding upon the defendants in their operations throughout the United States as well as in the New York area."

Injunction Move Dropped

Original plans of the Department to seek a preliminary injunction against further theatre acquisitions by distributor-circuit defendants have been dropped as a result of this week's agreement.

The agreement, which Mr. Arnold explained was reached only after numerous conferences between Department and producer representatives, provides that:

"Each of the producer-exhibitor defendants will notify the Department of Justice immediately of any legally binding commitment, whether preliminary or final, for the acquisition by it of any additional theatre or theatres, and if in any case the transaction is concluded by a final commitment only without any preliminary commitment having been entered into, each producer-exhibitor defendant will notify the Department of Justice of such transactions by telegraph without delay.

"Each of the producer-exhibitor defendants will also report to the Department of Justice on or before the tenth day of each month the changes in its theatre positions, if any, that have occurred during the preceding month; which shall include (a) theatres contracted to be built, or building; (b) theatres lost or disposed of; (c) theatres acquired; (d) interests in theatres acquired, stating the nature and extent of such interests.

"If after receipt of these reports, or any of them, the Department of Justice feels that the public interest so requires, it will of course be free to petition the court for a preliminary injunction, which the defendants will be equally free to oppose."

It was explained by Mr. Arnold that the Defendants, further, agree that the procedure for reporting upon acquisitions shall cover and include the activities of subsidiary and affiliated interests of the five producer-exhibitor defendants, except in the case of subsidiary or affiliated interests in which the defendants do not have the controlling interest and third parties are in control. With respect to such companies, however, the defendants have agreed to request that they be notified immediately of any commitments for acquisitions, and the information thus acquired will be relayed to the Department.

"The defendants engaged in the exhibition branch of the industry have represented to the Department of Justice that they are not now pursuing theatre expansion programs and that they do not intend to do so pending the final determination of the case upon its merits," the Assistant Attorney General said.

However, ——

However, he revealed, that while the Department will not, "for the present," apply for a temporary injunction, "this conclusion will in no way prevent the United States from applying to the court for temporary injunction either with respect to any particular local situation involving an independent exhibitor or for an injunction binding upon the defendants everywhere in the United States, if it should appear at any time that the public interest or the protection of the interests of independent exhibitors so requires, or that the defendants or any of them have breached their commitments to the department."

"The Department," he said, "is proceeding with the case on the merits, looking toward its trial and final decision. The foregoing undertaking of the producer-exhibitors is believed to afford the Department appropriate opportunity, in the meanwhile, to protect the interests of independent exhibitors and of the public."

—

Defendants Cite Their Position

The counsel for the five distributor-circuit defendants—Simpson, Thacher and Bartlett, for Paramount; J. Robert Rubin, for Loew's; R. W. Perkins, Warner Brothers; Dwight, Harris, Koegel and Casey, via Richard E. Dwight, for Twentieth Century-Fox and National Theatres, and Donovan, Leisure, Newton and Lumbard—on Saturday night released to the press the following letter, sent earlier to Mr. Arnold, setting forth the "understanding reached between the defendant companies and the Department of Justice":

"Confirming our conference of November 16th, relative to your request that we stipulate to a temporary injunction with respect to theatre holdings until a determination of the above entitled suit on its merits, we wish to restate our position that while it is impossible for us to consent to an injunction, we have a counter-suggestion which we believe fully meets the purpose you seek.

"We have already submitted to you a separate memorandum for each of the producer-exhibitor defendants showing its theatre situation in each of the past four or five years, from which you will observe that the theatre situation of each of these defendants differs from the others. Before submitting our proposal we shall also

(Continued on following page)

Arnold Says Either Accept a "Referee", Or Get "Positive Government Control"

The Economic Society of New York last Thursday posed the question: "How Far Should Government Control Business," and at its 127th annual dinner at the Hotel Astor that evening it heard some rather definite answers, from at least one guest speaker—Thurman W. Arnold, Assistant Attorney General of the United States, in charge of the motion picture case, who, in the same week, publicly stated in Washington that the Government definitely intends to disintegrate the film business. (See adjoining column.)

"The conception of business affected by a public interest," he declared "gives us room in our system for government regulated monopoly."

Competition requires a referee, he added, and business should accept "an independent judiciary as such a referee to preserve competition rather than to drift into combinations which in the long run can only end in positive government control." Without a referee "men who form gangs" are bound to win in competition.

"The preventive enforcement of the anti-trust laws," he continued, "lies in criminal prosecution" (The Department now has pending a criminal suit against the major film companies in Chicago). He added: The Department will not suggest consent decrees, but "will submit to the Court any plan voluntarily offered by defendants in an anti-trust proceeding which furthers efficiency or orderly marketing conditions, or which may be necessary to avoid extreme economic dislocation, to obtain a decision on its legality. . . . Consent decrees are only a means of terminating a litigated proceeding in an economic way."

COMPANIES PLEAD CHANGING STATUS

(Continued from preceding page)

try to summarize certain of the reasons which we think would satisfy you of the impracticability of consenting to an injunction.

"Your suggestion was evidently based upon the assumption that the several producer-exhibitor defendants are presently engaged in a policy of expending their theatre holdings. This, however, is not the fact. During the past four or five years some of the defendants have decreased their theatre holdings, others have increased them. None of those defendants is now engaged in or contemplates expansion.

"Even though there is no present or contemplated policy of expansion on the part of any defendant, we have been asked to consent to an injunction restraining pendente lite the acquisition of additional theatres. We feel that we cannot consent to such an injunction which could be granted only on a showing that the present theatre holdings of the defendants are maintained and operated in violation of the Sherman Anti-Trust Law. This is the fundamental question raised in the present suit. The determination of this question will involve the presentation of extensive factual material together with the consideration of numerous legal questions. Determination of these matters requires a full hearing that can be obtained only at a trial on the merits. In view of this we obviously could not consent in a preliminary way to that which we would oppose when the issue is presented for final determination by a trial.

Cites Situations

"In our conferences you have stated that the purpose of the preliminary injunction is to maintain the status quo. Such an injunction, however, would not preserve but would destroy the status quo to the great injury and detriment of these defendants.

"The following typical situations will serve to illustrate why this would be so:

"A great many of the theatres of each of these defendants are operated under leases. A large number of such leases will expire during the ensuing year, and a large number will expire annually thereafter. Under the proposed preliminary injunction, the defendants presumably can renew such leases. It is obvious, however, that in such event, the landlords knowing that their tenants could acquire no other theatres would be in a position to dictate their own renewal terms. The defendants would, therefore, be required to choose between accepting whatever is demanded or giving up their theatres in these situations.

Changing Conditions

"Under the injunction sought, these defendants could not effect changes in their present theatre holdings, to meet changing conditions within particular localities. New centers of population are growing up which do not contain any theatres. Changes in residential and other neighborhoods, opening of new thoroughfares, limitations on downtown parking, etc., are constantly shifting the localities to which the public will go for entertainment. These conditions require corresponding changes in theatre locations. A business catering to public patronage and involving the changing ideas of comfort and convenience of a large number of people must be alert either to anticipate these changes or to meet them swiftly when they come.

"In view of these conditions, the proposed temporary injunction would not preserve the status quo but would tie the hands of the defendants in the management of their present theatre holdings and would prevent them from acquiring substitute theatres to take the place of those which prudent business judgment obligates them to relinquish. Moreover, the proposed injunction would deprive the people in such communities of competition between these defendants and rapidly expanding theatre circuits not named as defendants and also would forbid competition among the defendants themselves in the acquisition of theatres.

Point a Distinction

"You have suggested that if the defendants are not expanding their theatre holdings, they will not be harmed by consenting to a preliminary injunction restraining them from acquiring additional theatre interests. We must, however, ask you to recognize the distinction that exists between a policy of expansion as such, and the acquisition by the defendants of theatres, other than those which they presently operate, to meet the necessities of new and varying business and economic situations.

"Each of these defendants may in the future as in the past find it necessary to acquire theatres not in furtherance of any plan of expansion but solely with the object of making necessary adjustments to meet changes in conditions.

"The Government's petition contemplates that, following a trial of the issues, certain defendants will be divested of their production and distribution facilities, and that certain other defendants will be divested of their theatre circuits. After such divorcement the theatre circuits in question are not to be restrained from adding to or otherwise changing their theatre holdings in any way. The proposed temporary injunction therefore would suspend the normal competitive operation of these circuits pending the determination of whether production and exhibition facilities may or may not be divorced. The effect of such an interlocutory injunction would be to prohibit each of these circuits acquiring theatres necessary in its current operation while leaving its competitors other than these defendants entirely free.

Counter-Proposal

"We believe it will be apparent to you that in the absence of any program of theatre expansion by the defendants it would be most unfair to subject them to the consequences of the proposed injunction. This is particularly true since we are presently engaged, with your approval, in exploring with other motion picture producers and exhibitors the problems of the industry for the purpose of seeking a basis for a possible solution which we intend to submit to you.

"Pending these discussions and the trial of this action, it seems to us that your purpose in protecting the interests of the public can be accomplished without placing unnecessary and unfair limitations on the freedom of action of the defendants by the following procedure:

"1. Each of the producer-exhibitor defendants will notify the Department of Justice immediately of any commitment for the acquisition by it of any additional theatre or theatres.

"2. Each of the producer-exhibitor defendants will also report to the Department of Justice on or before the tenth day of each month the changes in its theatre positions if any that have occurred during the preceding month; which shall include;

"(a) Theatres contracted to be built, or building;

"(b) Theatres lost or disposed of;

"(c) Theatres acquired;

"(d) Interests in theatres acquired, stating the nature and extent of such interests.

"3. If after receipt of these reports, or any of them, the Department of Justice feels that the public interest so requires, it will of course be free to petition the court for a preliminary injunction, which the defendants will be equally free to oppose.

"Under such a plan the Department of Justice will be currently advised of the entire situation and may at any time obtain any preliminary relief which in the light of all the circumstances the court deems proper to award.

"We trust that, in view of the facts we have set forth and of our readiness to cooperate with you in the manner we have stated, you will conclude that the procedure we have outlined will give full protection to both sides pending the trial of the action."

The letter was signed by the lawyers for the five circuits, as named above.

Kansas Is Third To Get Divorcement Bill, Senate Gets Block Booking "Steerers"

Representative M. Williamson on Monday introduced in the Kansas House a bill to prohibit production or distribution companies from owning or operating theatres.

Patterned after the North Dakota divorcement law,, enacted last year but not enforced pending a decision in the U. S. Supreme Court, the Kansas measure provides for a fine of $10,000 and one year's imprisonment for violation. Forty Kansas theatres would be affected, all owned or operated by Fox Midwest (Twentieth Century-Fox). Paramount likewise is the single operator in the North Dakota case.

A theatre divorcement bill was introduced in Nebraska last month.

Paving the way for hearings on the Neely anti-block-booking bill, Senator Burton K. Wheeler, of Montana, chairman of the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee, this week appointed a subcommittee to "steer" the measure. Dates for public hearings will be set in a few days.

On the committee will be leaders of the Senate. Senator Ellison D. (Cotton Ed) Smith, South Carolina, is chairman, with Majority Floor Leader Alben W. Barkley, Kentucky, as ranking Democratic member. Senator Matthew M. Neely, West Virginia, author of the bill, is third member, and the minority is represented by Senators Wallace H. White, Jr., Maine, ranking Republican member on the full committee, and Charles W. Tobey of New Hampshire, a newcomer to the Senate.

HOLLYWOOD STILL UNDECIDED OVER EFFECT OF STARS' AIR APPEARANCES

But Exhibitors Hold to Argument That Film Players' Radio Shows Hurt Box Office, Particularly Sundays

by WILLIAM R. WEAVER
Hollywood Editor

Long a topic of indecisive discussion in the town where NBC and CBS have raised impressive million-dollar broadcasting temples within the year, film star participation in radio leaped into front rank importance among Hollywood problems of the day when Darryl Zanuck, production general of Twentieth Century-Fox, announced he had ordered Tyrone Power, one of his biggest actors, out of the Woodbury Soap radio program and released to the press some written reasons why, not the least of which was his "heeding the protests and advice of exhibitors about the excessive appearances of film stars on radio shows."

Pertinent Opinions

Now, one week later, the subject has begun to display striking kinship with that older conversational favorite, the weather, of which Mark Twain is alleged to have said, "Everybody complains, but nobody ever does anything about it." Nevertheless, a reportorial canvass of studio executives netted a number of quotable opinions pertinent to the problem, a larger number of unquotable ones equally so.

Said George Schaefer, president of RKO-Radio, which has a cooperative part in Jesse L. Lasky's "Gateway to Hollywood" airshow and has a relationship to NBC through RCA, "There is no doubt in my mind that the continued appearance of motion picture stars on important radio programs has definitely hurt theatre attendance. In many instances motion picture personalities have suffered by their participation in radio activities, due chiefly to the fact that their material has not been as good as it should have been."

Judicious Move, Says Roach

Hal Roach, United Artists producer, who occasionally allows his contract players to accept what is called a "guest spot" on a standard air program and is known to have refused offers up to $17,500 a week for use of his studio as point of origin for a major program, said, "While radio is a valuable medium of publicity, and a means for the development of personalities, I feel that the movement for the curtailment of pictures names' appearances on the air is a very judicious one. The box office alone is the consideration that should guide every one of Hollywood's policies.

"Repeated appearances on regularly scheduled programs constitute competition destructive to the box office. The wise use of occasional radio shows for build-up and exploitation purposes is still sound business."

From Twentieth Century-Fox, flooded with queries as to whether Don Ameche would be withdrawn from the Chase & Sanborn (Charlie McCarthy program), reply to which has been that Mr. Ameche's radio commitments predate his film contract, was forthcoming no amplification of the Zanuck statement anent the Power recall.

From Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, source of the Maxwell House Coffee Hour, no comment was to be had.

TALK OF ENTENTE FOR RADIO, FILMS

The existence of private discussions between top-notchers of radio and motion pictures pointing to a possible tangible pact to promote "friendlier relations" between the two professions came to light unexpectedly last Thursday at an informal radio luncheon presided over by Major Lenox R. Lohr, president of National Broadcasting Company in New York.

Mr. Lohr disclosed that the recent trip to Hollywood by Niles Trammell, NBC executive vice-president, was to confer with film production heads regarding such a pact. Mr. Trammell was sent to the coast by Mr. Lohr following a visit paid the latter by Will Hays, president of the Motion Picture Producers and distributors of America.

Mr. Hays, the NBC president related, visited Radio City several months ago, and in the general discussion that followed related specific matters on the air that had distressed producer members of his organization.

"No comment" was, likewise, the response of Paramount, whose Bing Crosby has a 10-year radio contract with Kraft Cheese and whose Jack Benny, Dorothy Lamour, Bob Burns and Bob Hope are obligated for weekly air stints.

Nor did Warner Brothers, Universal, Monogram, Republic, Selznick-International or Samuel Goldwyn choose to go on record for publication.

"Courageous," Says Exhibitor

Albert Galston, exhibitor-president of the Independent Theatre Owners of Southern California and Arizona, said, "I think Mr. Zanuck has made a most daring and courageous move in forbidding Tyrone Power to do any further broadcasting. I hope that other producers will follow suit." Then, disclosing for the first time that withdrawal of film stars from radio is called for in the platform presented for his organization at the trade practice conferences in New York, he added, "We are unalterably opposed to having motion picture stars on radio programs during hours in which the programs will compete with the box office."

Other exhibitor comment appeared in the local press. The Los Angeles Times quoted Spyros Skouras, president of Fox National Theatres, as saying, "It stands to reason that motion picture fans will not spend their money to hear and see their favorites in late pictures when they can sit at home in front of their radios and be entertained by them free of charge. The Sunday motion picture business has been all but destroyed by radio programs featuring big names of the industry. Last Sunday there were 18 of these topnotch film names on the air."

Harry Brandt, New York exhibitor leader, telegraphed to Mr. Zanuck, commending the Power intervention.

The record is clear on exhibitor feelings, they, in organization and otherwise, having voiced opposition ever since film stars started guest appearances, virtually every state organization and both national Allied and MPTOA groups resolving frequently against the socalled "unfair competition."

So much for vocal Hollywood opinion on the matter of film star participation in radio. No less definite in their views are most of those who chose to utter them off-the-record. There is general agreement that Sunday radio has got out of hand, and frequently mentioned as the bale of hay that broke the camel's back is Kellogg's Circle, new on the Sabbath air with Ronald Colman, Cary Grant, Carole Lombard and the Marx Brothers as a permanent program cast welcoming equally high-priced guest talent each week. A favorite remark of studio executives is that most westerns are made for less than the weekly overhead of this program.

There is less agreement as to what should or can be done. Relatively few studio contracts stipulatedly empower employers to estop an employee from picking up $5,000 a week for a radio chore on his day off. Negotiation of new contracts is conducted largely through agents, and few of these 10 per cent participants in client earnings from all sources are disposed to see eye to eye with exhibitors on film star broadcasts.

Additionally, there is a form of studio contract under which a star gets a fixed stipend as payment in full for services rendered and under which an employer subletting said services to a radio advertiser at whatever price he may offer is at liberty to retain that portion of it which house managers checking the ticket receipts call overage. Notable in this corner of the picture is a tenor of great and growing popularity on two regularly scheduled weekly broadcasts who has appeared in exactly one motion picture for his contract employer in the last two years and in no other film.

Theories

One school of thought holds that the current seemingly limitless fund of radio advertiser money for film personalities will dwindle in proportion to the readiness with which it is being taken, thereby touching off a pocketbook retreat of talent from microphone. Other theorists venture to predict that the stars who give of themselves too freely on the air are quite likely to discover they have given all and have nothing left to give the screen that the public cares to buy, thus accomplishing their own retirement and making marquee room for new cinema personalities. Then there is the television bloc, firm in the vaguely predicated conviction that television will do away with invisible radio and somehow bring the public back to the motion picture theatre. Least excited about it all are the stalwart subscribers to the motto, "There's nothing the matter with the business that a good picture won't cure."

One fact emerges as incontestable. Mr. Zanuck's statement, whatever its motive, brought the problem of film star radio activity to the foreground of Hollywood attention. This, and the Power retirement, are tangibles. There hadn't been any until now.

Charles Boyer replaces Tyrone Power in the Jergens-Woodbury "Hollywood Playhouse" NBC radio series following Power's farewell appearance on the program last Sunday.

Niles Trammel, executive vice-president of National Broadcasting, returning to New York from the coast, said he could find no Hollywood studio executive who had any objection to film stars appearing on the air.

CONGRESS HALTS FCC APPROPRIATION; NETWORKS SIGN FOR "CLOSED SHOP"

Change of Federal Policy and New Administrative Agency by July 1st Indicated; Appropriation Waits

Complete change of federal policy in the regulation of radio and communications and an entirely new administrative agency for such regulation now appears a certainty by July 1st.

The House of Representatives appropriations committee this week decided to make no provision for operating funds for the Federal Communications Commission for the 1940 fiscal year, further indicating creation of a new commission.

At Odds Over Telephone Probe

At the same time, publication of hearings before the House committee disclosed that some committee members and the FCC itself are at odds over the usefulness, as a basis for a fair and unbiased report to Congress, of the FCC's $1,500,000 investigation of American Telephone Company, which delved deeply into Telephone's wide ramifications, including those in motion pictures and motion picture patents. Nevertheless, the FCC will submit the report.

Appropriation of funds for operation of the Commission after June 30, next, will depend upon the action taken by Congress toward reorganizing the FCC, as recommended last month by President Roosevelt. This was disclosed Tuesday with submission to the House of the Independent Offices Appropriation Bill, from which the FCC fund, which normally would be included, had been eliminated.

Testimony of hearings by the House subcommittee showed that members of the commission were questioned not only regarding their money needs, but also regarding their activities and difficulties in enforcing the Communications Act.

$2,038,175 Estimated Cost

The report showed that $2,038,175 had been estimated as the cost of operating the Commission during the fiscal year beginning July 1, next, compared with $1,745,000 appropriated for the current year, all of the increase to be for salaries and expenses.

The committee made public the record of its hearings, disclosing that the Communications Commission originally sought an appropriation of $2,400,000, which was reduced by the Bureau of the Budget to $2,000,000.

The record showed also that FCC Chairman Frank R. McNinch and Commissioner Paul A. Walker, the last-named in charge of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company investigation, were questioned at length regarding their activities and policies.

Questioning of Mr. McNinch was directed at the matters which have been the subject of newspaper stories, such as last summer's "purge" of FCC personnel, the present radio "monopoly" investigation, the reorganization of administrative procedure and radio censorship.

The FCC chairman made it clear to the House committee that while the FCC has no powers of radio censorship and seeks none, it believes the radio broadcasters should adopt some "definite standard" of program.

The present "monopoly" investigation of chain broadcasting, the commissioner declared, is not truly a monopoly probe because, he said, he has never been able to find a good definition of monopoly in radio. It will, however, he explained, develop some information regarding hidden ownership of stations.

PROPERTY TAX ON ERPI EQUIPMENT

Ohio theatres having Erpi sound reproducers last week received a notice from Electrical Research Products to the effect that they were not to include such sound equipment in their 1938 personal property tax return as they had in previous years. According to P. J. Wood, secretary of the Ohio Independent Theatre Owners, this is due to the fact that the Ohio Tax Commission insists that the tax on this equipment be paid by Erpi, which, in turn, will seek reimbursement from the theatre user in accordance with the terms of the contract between Erpi and the theatre.

On License Fees

Imposition of license fees or taxes on radio licensees "is perhaps primarily a matter for the taxing department, the Treasury Department, rather than this commission," the chairman said, "but I am not certain but this commission may propose, possibly through the Treasury Department, some measure that would look in the direction of a contribution on their part."

Commissioner Walker, interrogated at length regarding the telephone investigation, proved less responsive.

Much of the questioning revolved around the charge of the Telephone company that it was not permitted to cross-examine FCC witnesses or put witnesses of its own on the stand. Mr. Walker declared first the company was given an opportunity to present witnesses, then explained that the $1,500,000 appropriated by Congress for the inquiry was exhausted and the Commission had no money, and finally admitted that the Telephone company generally was not allowed to cross examine. Pinned down to a yes or no answer, he said the record of the hearings probably would not stand up under court challenge.

No additional funds are being asked by the FCC for the Telephone investigation. Furthermore, Mr. McNinch told the House subcommittee that under the FCC's present setup and budget it could not effectively regulate the telephone industry.

Charges Monopoly

"The evidence has indicated on its face the existence of a virtual monopoly in the hands of the Columbia, Mutual and National Broadcasting companies, a monopoly which may be fairly said to have been fostered by the Government itself," said Representative R. B. Wigglesworth (Rep., Mass.)

New radio legislation will be introduced in Congress in a week or 10 days, it was indicated Monday by Senator B. K. Wheeler (Mont.), chairman of the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee, who, with Senator Wallace White (Maine), last week conferred with Chairman McNinch.

Senator Wheeler himself is expecting to write the legislation.

Differences of opinion indicate the legislation may not be enacted before next year.

Radio Artists' Federation Wins Code, Recognition and New Wages and Hours from Advertisers' Committee

Radio networks broadcasting started this week under its first completely "closed shop" for talent, the American Federation of Radio Artists, last Thursday night, after a 36-hour session in New York, winning complete capitulation from the Committee for Radio Advertisers on a code of employment, recognition of the AFRA, and new wages-and-hours demands.

Strike Averted

The negotiators thereby averted a strike that would have virtually tied up all sponsored radio programs, Hollywood film and Broadway stage and other talent unions having agreed not to appear on sponsored programs which would be affected by the strike threatened by the radio artists.

Radio talent appearing on sustaining, or non-sponsored programs, had already been working on an agreement effected independently with the networks.

The agreement culminates negotiations which have extended over a year. The union walked out of the conference several weeks ago when the agencies refused its demands. A strike was voted by locals. The sponsors hastily stepped in and a committee of agencies was formed, empowered to negotiate for 70 per cent of commercial radio advertising.

The AFRA won most of its demands. Advertising men admitted that the agreed minimum came considerably closer to the AFRA demand for $185 a week for 15 minute programs five days a week than to the overall $50 a week minimum offered by the agencies.

Evade Sole Bargaining Issue

The agencies, it was said, evaded the question of recognizing the union as sole bargaining agent by passing the responsibility to the broadcasting companies. In return the union guarantees to keep its ranks open to all entertainers entering the radio field.

The major scales follow: Actors: 15 minute programs, $15 fee and $10 for rebroadcast; 16 minutes to 30 minutes, $25 and $12.50; 31 to 60 minutes, $35 and $17.50 for rebroadcasts. Rehearsal payments are $6 per hour first four hours; $3 per hour thereafter. Actors on five times a week script programs are guaranteed a minimum of $105 weekly; $100 weekly for four programs a week; $80 for three programs per week. With repeat broadcasts the guaranteed minimum became $140, $125 and $100, respectively.

Singers (soloists): 15 minutes or less, $40, rebroadcast fee $15; 16 to 30 minutes; $50, rebroadcast, $17.50; 31 to 45 minutes, $60, rebroadcast, $20; 46 to 60 minutes, $70, rebroadcast, $22.50. Rehearsal fees are $5 per hour.

Announcers: 15 minutes or less, $15, rebroadcast, $10; 16 to 30 minutes; $25, rebroadcast, $12.50; 31 to 60 minutes, $35, rebroadcast, $17.50. Guarantees are given for announcers working on steady assignments as follows; five times a week, weekly minimum of $75, and $37.50 for rebroadcasts; six times per week, $85 and $42.50 for rebroadcasts.

The National Association of Broadcasters made a last minute effort to stay the signing of the agreement because of apprehension that network affiliated stations would be involved.

Russell Birdwell officially severed his relations with Selznick International this week and opened temporary offices at the Beverly Hills Hotel to handle publicity accounts. On February 15th he will move to permanent offices at 200 South Beverly Drive in Beverly Hills, Cal.

Are you prepared for Radio's greatest crowd-attracting feud....

HOLLYWOOD SPENT $197,741,358 IN PRODUCTION IN '37, U.S. REPORTS

Increase of $36,000,000 Over 1935 in Expenditures Is Reported by Census Bureau; Employment Rise Also Shown by FRANCIS L. BURT in Washington

Motion picture production in the United States—90 per cent of U. S. filming is in Hollywood—hit a new high post-depression level of cost in 1937 with 83 companies expending $197,741,358 in the year, as compared with 161,864,842 spent by 129 companies in 1935, and $119,343,866 reported by 92 companies in 1933, it was disclosed this week by the United States Census Bureau, Washington, in reporting on its biennial survey of the industry.

In alternate years, the Census Bureau reports on gross income of industry, last week disclosing that gross income of corporations engaged in film production in 1936 totaled $320,789,000, compared with $213,759,000 in 1935. (See page 49, February 4th issue of MOTION PICTURE HERALD.)

Net Profit Estimated

Estimating an average of $179,803,100 for 1936 production costs—based on the Bureau's 1937 and 1935 production costs mentioned above—the 1936 net profit could be computed at $140,985,900 on the 1936 gross profit of $320,789,000.

The Bureau's report indicated many new trends in the production branch, in addition to the sharp contraction of producing establishments, showing that employment increased from an average of 19,037 persons in 1933 to 34,624 in 1937, with payrolls almost doubling, from $71,343,941 to $139,588,664; that there was a great increase in the production of short subjects—less than 3,000 feet in length; that producers were testing out color and that industrial pictures were becoming a factor.

Total negative film costs in 1937 were $131,755,154, all but $5,700,000 of which was for theatrical films; compared with $118,673,338 in 1935, of which $110,974,791 was expended on 1,094 theatrical films, and $82,279,869 in 1933, of which $77,535,515 went into 1,059 theatricals.

3,942 Cost $126,039,177 Total

In its 1937 report, the bureau, for the first time, gives a breakdown of theatrical production, showing that there was a total of 3,942 films produced during the year at a cost of $126,039,177, of which 1,099 were full-length features, 12 of them in color, costing $8,777,149, and 1,087 in black-and-white, costing $112,043,405; and 2,843 short subjects of less than 3,000 feet in length, 92 in color costing $1,194,095, and 2,751 in black-and-white costing $4,024,528.

The total cost of nontheatrical films produced in the year was placed by the Bureau at $5,715,977 compared with $7,698,547 in 1935, the loss being due to a sharp contraction in "other" films, the character of which was not revealed. A breakdown of this production showed that $4,539,515 was expended on advertising films and news rels, against $4,939,964 in 1935; $320,680 on educational and other films, against $324,282 on educationals and $2,434,301 on others in 1935, and $855,782 on industrials, on which no figures are available for earlier years.

At the close of the year, it was shown, the producers had spent $33,074,784 on productions not yet finished, compared with $15,683,826 similarly spent in 1935.

Under the heading of "laboratory work," the bureau reported the cost of positive films in 1937 as $8,218,421 compared with $6,046,071 in 1935 and $8,624,761 in 1933, and receipts for work done for others of $15,317,921 compared with $15,089,496 in 1935 and $11,835,057 in 1933.

Other items shown were receipts for other work done: $3,467,947 in 1937 against $1,818,139 in 1935 and $1,520,021 in 1933, and receipts for use of studio facilities: $5,907,131 against $4,553,972 in 1935 and $1,501,701 in 1933.

In a summary of the industry, the bureau showed that the total employment included 15,845 salaried officers and employees, compared with 12,675 in 1935 (the 1933 figure is not comparable) and an average of 18,779 wage earners, compared with 14,917 in 1935 and 10,777 in 1933. The payroll totals included $104,324,328 for salaried officials and employees in 1937 against $79,743,183 in 1935, and $35,264,336 for wage earners against $24,696,405 in 1935 and $18,395,489 in 1933.

Other items going into the expense total were: cost of studio supplies, containers for films, fuel and energy, $35,574,879 against $29,541,118 in 1935 and $26,153,298 in 1933; cost of contract work, $7,012,657 against $5,144,976 in 1935 and $4,027,663 in 1933, and other expenses, $15,585,158 against $22,749,160 in 1935.

An analysis of the distribution of the industry discloses that only 35 of the 83 establishments reporting for 1937 were in California, but that they had 30,405 of the total of 34,624 persons employed and accounted for $171,943,349 of the $197,741,358 spent by the industry as a whole. California also accounted for 40 of the 46 establishments going out of business between 1935 and 1937.

All of the California studios were in the industrial area of Los Angeles, 24 of them within the city limits and 11 outside the city but within the county. Employment was practically evenly divided between the two groups, with the city studios reporting 15,345 persons and the others 15,060.

The second state in importance was New York, with 21 studios, a loss of three from 1935, giving employment to 2,883 persons and reporting total expenditures of $16,377,532; and Illinois was third, with seven establishments, a loss of one, giving employment to 156 persons.

Find 610 Tons of Government Film; Call Most of It Not Worth Keeping

The extent of the United States Government's film-making operations was revealed this week in testimony of R. D. W. Connor, head of the National Archives, before a House appropriations subcommittee, in Washington, which disclosed that so far 610 tons of film have been found in the offices of Federal agencies.

In the District of Columbia alone—where most Government film is stored—Mr. Connor told the committee, a WPA research group found 17,700,000 running feet of motion picture film. It also found approximately 3,000,000 still-picture negatives and 5,000 sound recordings. The motion picture film alone is equal to Hollywood's total output for six years—producing the usual 500 features annually of an average 6,000 feet length.

Most of the film material of the Government, it was indicated, has not been found suitable for preservation in the National Archives, which so far has acquired only 384,000 feet of film, some of which represents donations from private sources.

The small proportion of "worth-while" film is due to the fact that much of the Government's picture-making activities are concerned with mapping, improvement of agricultural methods and like subjects, while the Archives is concerned primarily with securing film showing history in the making.

A number of pictures of this type have already been acquired, Mr. Connor reported, including one of the funeral of President McKinley, several made during Theodore Roosevelt's Administration, and others dealing with the construction of the Panama Canal and with Admiral Byrd's several expeditions. From some source unnamed, the Archives also secured a picture of the destruction of the Hindenburg at Lakewood, N. J.—probably from a newsreel company.

At present, the Archivist told the committee, he is concerned with the preservation of the films secured, most of which are on nitrate base. While such film has a life expectancy of probably 25 years or more, the more desirable record can be secured on acetate base film, and the Archives office is desirous of securing equipment with which it can copy pictures. Such equipment would cost about $275,000, he said.

De Luxe Laboratories has obtained a Government contract for printing WPA films, calling for an expenditure up to $10,000 during 1939. This is a renewal of a contract held by De Luxe last year, when the Government ordered about $3,000 worth of printing. The bulk of the work, including production, is handled by Pathe News.

....when it reaches your screen?

Majors Forced Out, Says Hays

American motion picture companies have no course except to submit to the Italian film decree, which has forced them to cease business in Italy, Will H. Hays, president of the MPPDA, said in a statement this week officially making known the position of the U. S. majors under the Italian law which established a governmental distribution monopoly on all films in Italy.

"The American motion picture companies have taken the final steps necessary to submit to the Italian Royal Decree which forces them to abandon entirely all their business in Italy as of December 31, 1938," he said.

"That decree arbitrarily rendered null and void all present American distribution contracts in Italy, although some of such contracts had several years of unexpired term.

"The decree set up a government monopoly for the distribution of all imported motion pictures and by regulations pursuant thereto required all imported motion pictures, regardless of existing distribution contracts, to be distributed by such monopoly on a flat rate and under terms determined solely by such Italian authorities.

"The decree further provided that there should be no exception to its provisions except on agreement by several ministries. Such agreements have not been obtainable, so that the American companies had no choice except entirely to cease distribution in Italy. This all American companies have done."

Declaring that the withdrawal of American distributors from the Italian market does not involve the Governments of the United States and Italy, State Department officials in Washington this week said, however, that the Department has been watching the situation very closely.

Union Depositions Taken; N. Y. Exchange Picketed

In their suit to oust John P. "Big" Nick, head of the St. Louis theatrical unions, Clyde Weston, business agent of Local 143, and George Browne, president of the International Alliance of Theatrical and Stage Employees, fifteen members of the Motion Picture Operators' Union are giving their depositions behind closed doors, at the request of William Dillon, attorney for the defendants.

Operators' Local 306 posted a picket line in front of the Twentieth Century-Fox home office, charging dismissal of four men. The company claimed that only two were dropped and that the union had agreed to the dismissal.

The federal district court in Kansas City dismissed the petition for an injunction to prevent picketing of the Sun theatre, on grounds of lack of jurisdiction.

The truck drivers' strike in Denver, which had tied up film delivery service, has been settled. New officers of the Denver film employees union include Lee Cronk, Paramount, president; Ellsworth Hays, Twentieth Century-Fox, vice-president; Elmer Finch, RKO, treasurer; Elsie Wickstrom, National Screen, recording secretary; Max Gilbert, Columbia, business agent, and Paul Gundy, Warners, sergeant-at-arms.

10 Films Classified By Decency Legion

Of 10 pictures reviewed and classified by the National Legion of Decency in its listing for the current week five were approved for general patronage, three were found unobjectionable for adults and two were cited as objectionable in part. The pictures and their classification follow.

Class A-1, Unobjectionable for General Patronage: "Hell's House" (Reissue), "Mr. Moto Takes a Vacation," "Ranger's Round-Up," "Torchy Blane in Chinatown," "Silver on the Sage." Class A-2, Unobjectionable for Adults: "Gambling Ship," "Honolulu," "Made for Each Other." Class B, Objectionable in Part: "Sunset Murder Case," "Tail Spin."

Warners Launch Wilmington House

The new $660,000 Warner theatre in Wilmington, Del., the largest and costliest motion picture house to be constructed in the Philadelphia-Baltimore area since the Mastbaum was built in Philadelphia in 1926, was opened at gala ceremonies attended by Gov. Richard C. McMullen, Mayor Walter W. Bacon and city and state officials on Wednesday evening. Powers Gouraud, Philadelphia radio announcer of WCAU, was master of ceremonies.

The 1,800-seat ultra-modern picture palace was constructed by the Old Time Petroleum Company of Wilmington and leased to the Warner company for 20 years. There are now six theatres in the city under Warner direction.

Thousands thronged the theatre for the opening show at 6 p.m. which preceded the official opening ceremonies at 8:45 o'clock and the private showing. Floodlights from adjoining buildings were played on the theatre and gave the thoroughfore the appearance of Hollywood premieres.

The Journal-Every Evening and Morning News greeted the opening with special sections.

Presentation of the colors at the official opening was made by the color guard of the Bugle and Drum Corps of Delaware Post, No. 1, American Legion, in the theatre and at the gala program.

Film Notables Sponsor Motion Picture Ball

The first annual motion picture ball under the auspices of the Film Division of the Theatre Arts Committee will be held Friday night at the Hotel Roosevelt, New York. Among the sponsors are Howard Dietz, advertising and publicity director, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer; Lynn Farnol, United Artists advertising and publicity head; Louis Nizer, film attorney; Fredric March, Florence Eldridge, Dashiell Hammett, Sam Jaffe, Dorothy Parker, Franchot Tone, Frances Farmer, Katherine Locke, Lillian Hellman, and Howard Barnes, motion picture critic of the Herald Tribune.

The entertainment will feature a Committee variety show, with Hiram Sherman master of ceremonies. The money raised will be used for the aid of refugees in Spain and China, and to fight the proposed cuts in the WPA Theatre Project.

Three New Tax Bills Proposed

More tax troubles for exhibitors threaten in New York and North Dakota, as three state bills, two in New York and one in North Dakota, come up before the legislatures. The low rent housing bill sponsored by Senator Frederic Coudert and Assemblyman Abbot Low Moffat, now before the New York State legislature, calls for an excise tax on theatre tickets to raise funds for the proposal. The rate of taxation would be one cent on tickets costing 50 cents; two cents on tickets costing between 51 cents and $1.00; five cents on tickets costing between $1.00 and $2.00, and 10 cents on tickets costing over $2.00.

The probability of a two per cent sales tax in New York State appears as a likely compromise in Governor Lehman's tax plans. Opponents of the planned new taxes of $1.00 per $1,000 on assessed realty value and one-fifth of one per cent on business turnover are in favor of the sales tax, which, it is estimated, would yield between $100,000,000 and $120,000,000 annually. Owners of theatre property have not committed themselves on the real estate tax. Public hearings will be held February 22nd.

North Dakota legislators, seeking new sources of revenue, have discussed a proposal to levy a flat tax on theatre admissions; five cents on tickets selling for 11 to 50 cents; 10 cents on admissions from 51 cents to $1.00, and 15 cents on those over $1.00. Theatre owners have countered with a proposal to double the present sales tax rate, bringing it to four per cent.

IATSE Settles Studio Disputes

At a meeting in Hollywood Monday of business agents of virtually every union engaged in motion picture production and presided over by Aubrey Blair, Screen Actors' Guild executive, it was announced that the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees by arbitration had settled differences with machinists', carpenters' and plasterers' international locals.

Business representatives of the unions renewed the pledge to settle differences amicably, and with Mr. Blair acting as arbiter in jurisdiction disputes. Both he and other union executives said the studio utility emplayees' argument with the IATSE would in all probability be settled in a few days.

The move to adjust differences followed closely recent return of complete autonomy by International to IATSE Locals 37, 659, 695 and 683.

"Gunga Din" Records

RKO's "Gunga Din" went into its third week at the Music Hall Thursday, having played to approximately 310,000 admissions in its first two weeks.

The company reported holdovers in Los Angeles, Boston, Washington, Chicago, Denver, San Francisco, New Orleans, St. Louis, Baltimore, Philedalphia, Houston and El Paso, in addition to the Music Hall in New York, and new all time box office records in Hollywood and Los Angeles.

You'll have to use your exits for extra entrances!

THE HOLLYWOOD SCENE

Richard Greene

One year ago Richard Greene was just another young British actor who had signed a Hollywood contract. Today he holds a record for spectacular dashes from obscurity to screen fame.

From a long line of British footlight celebrities (his mother still plays bit parts on the London stage) this Plymouth, England, lad never set the "tight little Isle's" theatre-world afire with his histrionic accomplishments. Nonetheless, in a show or two and a picture here and there, he attracted a measure of attention.

January 17, 1938, he embarked for America with one of those indeterminate contracts that said he would be working for Twentieth Century-Fox for the next seven years. He was given a secondary role in "Four Men and a Prayer." Four months later that picture was a May Box Office Champion. "Dick" Greene was on his way. Followed starring roles with Sonja Henie in "My Lucky Star," with Nancy Kelly, likewise a newcomer, in "Submarine Patrol," and with Loretta Young in "Kentucky."

Hollywood, so accustomed to speed that everything looks like a blue blur, couldn't see Richard Greene very well. But Darryl F. Zanuck, whom nobody ever found asleep at the switch when a neat showmanship trick was to be turned, could. He assigned his discovery to Shirley Temple's next picture, "The Little Princess," announced that he would have top roles in "The Hound of the Baskervilles" and "Stanley and Livingstone."

Meanwhile the New York Daily News and 50 newspapers were conducting a picture-player popularity poll (see MOTION PICTURE HERALD, February 4). Exactly a year from the day he landed in Hollywood, Richard Greene found, along with Loretta Young, that he had been named Number Five.

Differing from the common concept of things English, Mr. Greene came "crashing through."

RICHARD GREENE, a year ago unknown to American audiences, is playing opposite Shirley Temple in the little Champion's new Twentieth Century-Fox production, "The Little Princess".

Production Normal

Ten pictures started the first week in February and eight were completed, but the most important item is that Warners Bros. began work on "Confessions of a Nazi Spy." While many more are to be added, Edward G. Robinson, George Raft, Francis Lederer, Paul Lukas and Dorothy Tree are the featured personnel. The company also started "Each Dawn I Die," in which James Cagney will be starred.

Two pictures also started at 20th Century-Fox. The big one, considering budget and scope of production, "Stanley and Livingstone," will feature Spencer Tracy, Richard Greene, Nancy Kelly, Cedric Hardwicke, Walter Brennan and Henry Hull. Cast for "Charlie Chan in Reno" are Sidney Toler, Sen Yung, Phyllis Brooks, Ricardo Cortez, Kane Richmond and Slim Summerville.

Universal likewise gave two productions the starting signal. George Murphy, Dorothea Kent, El Brendel, Grant Richards, John Wray and Stanley Hughes are the top names in "Risky Business." "Murder in the Surgery" will present Bruce Cabot, Helen Mack, Constance Worth, Joan Woodbury, Addison Richards and Mabel Todd in the leading roles.

Charles Starrett and Iris Meredith are again teamed in Columbia's "Prairie Night."

At Paramount Bob Hope, Shirley Ross and Gene Krupa and his orchestra began work on "Some Like It Hot." Lee Tracy returned to the Hollywood scene for the leading role in RKO-Radio's "What's a Fixer For?" in which Peggy Shannon, Virginia Weidler, Peggy Carroll, Dorothy Lovett, Dick Clark and Irene Franklin also will be seen.

Monogram started "Trigger Smith."

Active shooting wound up on three productions at Columbia. "The Lady and the Mob" will present Fay Bainter, Ida Lupino, Lee Bowman, Warren Hymer, Henry Armetta, Olaf Hytten, Joe Sawyer and Harold Huber in the principal parts. Dolores Costello, Michael Whalen, Virginia Weidler, Don Beddo, Charles Halton and Erville Alderson will be seen in "Outside These Walls." The Larry Darmour production, "The First Ranger" will star Bill Elliott with Veda Ann Borg, Charles Whittaker, Jack LaRue and Jack Ingram.

Monogram finished "The Mystery of Mr. Wong." Boris Karloff is the star. Dorothy Tree and Grant Withers head the support cast.

At RKO-Radio "They Made Her a Spy" was finished. It will present Sally Eilers, Allan Lane, Frank M. Thomas, Fritz Lieber, Larry Blake, Charles Halton, Theodore Von Eltz, Pierre Watkin and Addison Richards.

In Republic's "Rough Rider Patrol" Roy Rogers, Mary Hart, Raymond Hatton, Eddie Acuff, Guy Usher and Dorothy Sebastian are the principals.

"Hero for a Day," Warner Bros., features Charley Grapewin with Jane Bryan, Henry O'Neill, Elizabeth Risdon, Dicke Jones, John Russell, Fred Taylor and James McCallion.

Independent Production

Economists, and dreamers too, have long maintained that a soundly conceived plan of independent production within major studio organization would prove a solution of the problem of ever-rising production costs. The cooperative deal which Lester Cowen, W. C. Fields and Edgar Bergen have set with Universal for the making of "You Can't Cheat an Honest Man" appears to be one such practical solution.

The plan, devised by Cowen, approved by Fields and Bergen and snapped up by J. Cheever Cowdin, Nate Blumberg and Cliff Work, is this: Universal puts up a fixed budget to make the picture; Cowen, Fields and Bergen put up their executive and artistic abilities. The salaries of the director, George Marshall, and of the supporting cast, the technical and mechanical crews, as well as all incidental production expenses, are paid out of the budget. Payday for Cowen, Fields and Bergen comes when the released picture shows a profit.

Universal provides the money. Any costs in excess of the set figure must be assumed by the cooperating trio. In return, the company gets the services of its partners for an indefinite period. In other words, no matter how long or short a time it takes the Cowan-Fields-Bergen trio to make the picture, it won't cost Universal any more. If there is a saving, that will be beneficial to both parties; any overtime costs will be charged to the trio.

Called the most advantageous item in the setup is the elimination of producer and star salaries, which, as a general rule, are 50 percent of the cost of any picture. This saving, automatically, is applied to improving production.

The New Universal presents

W. C. FIELDS

in

"You Can't Cheat An Honest Man"

with

Edgar BERGEN · Charlie McCARTHY

and "MORTIMER" · CONSTANCE MOORE · MARY FORBES

THURSTON HALL · PRINCESS BABA

Original story by Charles Bogle

Directed by GEORGE MARSHALL

Produced by LESTER COWAN

RELEASED FEB. 17TH

INDEPENDENTS RAISING A UNITED VOICE IN BRITISH EXHIBITOR FIELD

Move for Separate Subcommittee in Home Counties Matched by Scottish Discussion of Separate Section

by AUBREY FLANAGAN
in London

The independent revolt within the British Cinematograph Exhibitors' Association is rumbling to a crescendo. The independent exhibitors seem to feel that neither Fuehrer Adolph Hitler nor Il Duce Benito Mussolini is as great a menace to their peace as the major picture house circuits of Great Britain itself.

Gaining United Voice

Scattered and disorganized unrest in various exhibitor centers of the country is gaining more coherent and united voice, and is giving place increasingly to open rebellion and the birth of a movement towards the formation of independent groups within the local branches. Most significant of recent moves has been instruction by the London and Home Counties Branch to its executive to consider the formation of a subcommittee of non-circuit members with powers to cooperate with exhibitors not on the committee, with the idea of giving the independents an exclusive debating ground and platform.

The Scottish branch of the Cinematograph Exhibitors' Association, while not actually formally so resolving, have discussed vigorously and frankly the desirability of forming a separate section in the association to represent the independents. Leeds, Sheffield and other areas have seen the standard of revolt raised, and there is every indication that hardly a CEA branch but will, in the near future, consider following London's example in a bid to safeguard independent interests against what they call circuit domination of the association. Efforts are likely to be made even to amend the CEA constitution.

Revolt in the Council

Earlier this month the revolt came to a visible head in the General Council itself, with the vexed problem of two supers in one program as the crux of the argument. Forcibly, and without waiting for counter argument, the new committee, which had been formed to succeed the negotiating committee, whose admission of failure marked last month's meeting, threw the cat among the pigeons by demanding that the officers of the association accompany them in a deputation to the circuits, asking them that they put an end to the matter. As an argumentative bludgeon they threatened otherwise to go to the Kinematograph Renters Society and suggest the joint establishment of a new grading regime, asserting that they had already a list of pictures, past and future, in the super category.

Exclusively independent, too, are to be both the representation and the viewpoint of the CEA committee formed to examine the Quota Act, with a special reference to the shortage of product. Less ostentatiously, but with no less significance, was formed at the same General Council meeting a committee to examine the whole position of the independents in the face of mergers, actual or potential, of the caliber of that scheduled between Gaumont British and Odeon.

In the exhibitors' view, the situation at present is complicated predominantly by the shortage of product for which the Films Act can be held only partly responsible, and by the continued building of new cinemas, in itself almost exclusively an exhibitor problem, even though the circuits be called mainly guilty. It is clear that the real effect of redundancy is being experienced most bitterly as a result of the shortage of product, both English and American. In a few months, it is claimed, there will not be sufficient films to supply the existing number of picture houses. Birmingham is quoted as an example; five cinemas were built there in the past year, the city of 1,002,413 now having cinema seating for 117,000.

ACTION ON QUOTA CHANGE THIS WEEK

The Board of Trade definitely will present to the Films Council this week amendments to the Films Act to adjust the multiple quota provision, as was predicted last week.

Under the restrictions of this clause, the production of outstanding product by American companies in Great Britain is handicapped because inferior product must be added, the distributors say, to meet footage requirements.

The further threat has been raised that the forthcoming year may see a bid on the part of certain independents to amend the constitution of the CEA, and it is not unlikely that this will be attempted. A minor sensation arose at the last General Council meeting following the attempt of one circuit to exploit the rule permitting "responsible officers" to represent theatres on the association, by flooding the membership with minor officials and lesser executives. After two hours' discussion it was decided to instruct the CEA solicitor to tighten up this clause to prevent such interpretations in the future.

One Vote to a Group

Any attempts to amend the constitution, as foreshadowed by the Yorkshire Independent standard bearer, John Xavier Prendergast, probably would aim at obtaining greater representation of independent groups by limiting votes to one for each group, instead of one for each theatre as at present.

It is claimed by partisans of the Prendergast school of thought that, while the circuits control only one-third of public patronage, and the independents are doing two-thirds of the business, the circuits control three-thirds of the CEA policy.

There is, nevertheless, a strong body of opinion within the CEA that the constitution is sufficiently wide and elastic for righting the situation within the association itself.

Two Supers Still Argued

A lengthy discussion on this very point marked the London Branch meeting at which a decision was taken in favor of an independent subcommittee within the branch. Both the annual report of the branch and a special statement by the retiring chairman, Tommy France, emphasized that the question of two supers in one program was still their greatest problem, regretted also the inability of the association to find means of preventing overbuilding. In spite of this the independents' revolt, led by L. C. Pierpoint, was proved strictly constitutional, and insistence was agreed upon that any subcimmittee should function within the association rather than against it. As Cecil Mathes said, it is agreed that the independents have a majority, but they do not hold together. Alternatively, to quote Mr. Prendergast, the independents constitute the collateral security for the circuits.

Exports and Imports

Exports of exposed positive film for December last was 2,282,251 feet ($75,970) as against 1,826,722 feet ($51,115) in December, 1937, and 2,044,510 feet ($53,525) in 1936.

Footage exported for the whole of 1938 was 24,842,780 feet ($812,245), a slight increase over the 22,676,394 feet ($646,875) of 1937 and 22,390,532 feet ($584,870) of 1936.

Imports of blank film for December showed a considerable drop, 2,562,293 feet ($40,350) in 1938, 5,756,027 feet ($89,050) in 1937 and 7,572,373 feet ($132,890) in 1936.

Footage of blank film imported for the year was 66,853,283 feet ($1,081,380) in 1938, against 70,446,785 feet ($1,285,115) in 1937 and 70,843,229 feet ($1,366,640) in 1936.

Footage of exposed film for December were slightly above last year, being 1,641,566 feet ($75,585), against 1,469,079 feet ($59,865) in 1937 and 1,895,520 feet ($74,265) in 1936.

Footage for the complete year was very slightly less at 20,343,073 feet ($816,620) against 21,950,773 feet ($860,465) in 1937 and 23,338,743 feet ($951,620) in 1936.

Re-exports of films in December were 638,411 feet ($32,570) against 892,605 feet ($32,640) in 1937 and 730,021 feet ($27,295) in 1936.

For the year, footage was 7,701,266 feet ($280,340) against 7,618,579 feet ($260,180) in 1937 and 9,846,512 feet ($328,060) in 1936.

UA Foreign Gross Called Best Ever

United Artists in 1938 had the greatest foreign gross receipts in its history, Murray Silverstone, operating head of the company, said in Hollywood this week, after presiding at a series of stockholders' meetings at which a new and lower distribution charge system was set up. Mr. Silverstone left the coast on Tuesday for his headquarters in New York, after talking with John Hay Whitney of Selznick International concerning a possible deal for continued release of Selznick product.

The UA executive also took part in discussions between Hal Roach and the Security First National Bank of Los Angeles which resulted in a financing plan for the producer's program which it is estimated will cost $5,000,000. Roach is directing "Captain Fury," which will be followed by "Water Gypsies," "The Housekeeper's Daughter," "Roadshow" and a film with Margaret Sullavan.

In spite of restrictions of foreign markets to American films, Mr. Silverstone said that 50 per cent of the company's revenue came from abroad.

Mr. Silverstone, after a conference with Charles Chaplin, announced that the story is completed for Chaplin's next feature, "The Dictators," and that the film will lead off the fall season for United Artists.

BRITON'S BLAME QUOTA FOR SCARCE JOBS AND FEW FILMS, SAYS ECKMAN

More Voluntary Production Is What Is Needed, Declares Loew's Executive on Visit to America

by SAM ECKMAN
Chief Executive for Loew's
In England

British film interests are seriously worried by the decline in British production and the unemployment among British studio workers, and are blaming the Quota Act.

This is understandable. By forcing American motion picture companies to produce pictures in Great Britain the Quota Act has undoubtedly placed the purely British producing companies in a very difficult position.

The quantity and quality of the pictures that the American companies are required to produce with British labor has, in effect, compelled the American companies to absorb many of the best British actors and technicians for their quota productions.

No Choice

Since the production of quality pictures for quota purposes is compulsory, the American companies have no choice in the matter. The purely British producing companies are consequently deprived of the best British talent or forced to bid against the American companies for it.

As the quota productions are of high quality in almost every instance, they also absorb a greater proportion of British screen time to the exclusion of other British product.

Leading British producers are fully aware of this situation and are protesting openly against the harmful effects of the Quota Act.

Liability, Says Woolf

C. M. Woolf, of General Film Distributors (in London), stated at a recent press conference that the Quota Act is definitely a liability from the standpoint of the British industry and that permanence and prosperity can come only through the voluntary production of worthwhile British pictures.

Referring to the demand of film labor groups for an increase in the quota as a means of relieving unemployment in the industry, Mr. Woolf said:

"I would rather see the studios half full than the cinemas half empty."

Another leading British producer, Herbert Wilcox, only recently made the following public statement:

"I think the Quota Act has killed the industry and the sooner it is abolished the better. Six good British films will do more for the resuscitation of the trade than ten Quota Acts."

Artificial Support: Capt. Horton

Captain Richard Norton, of the Pinewood-Denham studio group, who has previously been one of the principal supporters of the Quota Act, has now come to the conclusion that "it will never be possible to build a British film business with artificial support."

In a recent press statement he is quoted as saying:

"Quota is an artificial method of making the American people spend some money on British labor. En route it fosters a few names—but even if these are fostered they cannot be absorbed in production unless there is an industry to absorb them. As it is, the British industry is finding talent but the conditions existing result in this talent being dissipated. There will never be a film industry until it is tackled in the same way as only a few tackle it here, which is to make films with a view to making money."

Cosmo-Sileo

Sam Eckman, Jr., with Mrs. Eckman, arrived in New York last Thursday from London for a vacation. He has been associated with Loew-MGM and one of its predecessors, Goldwyn Pictures, since 1917, and has been in charge in England since 1927. He served as president of the British Kinematograph Renters' Society (film distributors in England) for three years, from 1931 to 1934. His remarks on this page were prepared by him on shipboard as the S.S. Normandie steamed into New York harbor.

Kenneth Nyman, President of the Cinematograph Exhibitors Association, whose organization has always opposed any suggestion of reducing the so-called "renters' quota," is quoted in the trade press as saying:

"British film production needs not so much Films Acts or artificial quotas as a substantial market outside the United Kingdom."

The Cinema, one of the leading British trade papers, has embarked on an editorial campaign designed to free the British film industry from the shackles of the Quota Act and enable it to stand on its own feet.

These statements are not made lightly. They point to a definite and growing conviction among the leaders of the British film industry that the present Quota Act, or any other Act designed to subject British production to foreign domination, is a grave mistake in itself and a serious injustice to those who are attempting to build a self-sustaining British film industry on a sound and permanent basis.

Despite this fact, some of the British film labor groups are now agitating for an increase in the quota as a remedy for unemployment. Their sincerity cannot be questioned and the grave situation in which thousands of their members find themselves is a fact that is recognized and regretted by everyone concerned.

Says Groups Are Mistaken

But these groups are mistaken in believing that an increase in the quota will end unemployment among the rank and file of British film workers. The contrary is true. Even if the quota were to be raised to the highest point permissible under the law it would give employment only to a relatively few additional workers, chiefly in the higher salaried categories, and in the long run would inevitably hamper still further the revival of voluntary British production on a broad scale.

What is needed to relieve the present unemployment is not more quota production but more voluntary production. The problem can never be solved through the imposition of a progressively increasing quota on foreign films since such procedure defeats its own object. It can only be solved through the revival of the British film producing industry itself, that is, through the revival of voluntary British production on a permanent and self-sustaining basis.

Statistics indicate that whereas in 1937 some 125 British pictures were produced voluntarily by British companies, quite outside the quota, not more than 30 such pictures were produced in 1938.

There is the crux of the whole matter. When this situation is corrected the unemployment problem will solve itself and—what is equally important from the British standpoint—the way will at last be open for Great Britain to achieve the broader aspects of policy that led the Government to concern itself with film legislation in the first place.

Fortunately, as indicated above, the leading figures of the British film industry and many prominent persons outside the industry now realize where the real trouble lies, which is a long step toward improving the situation.

Berman Urges U. S. Film Accord with British

Collaboration and not competition between the United States and England in production is the solution to the British quota problems, in the opinion of A. C. Berman, who was in charge of the Selznick International office in London until it was closed last month.

Mr. Berman arrived Wednesday in New York from London and plans to leave for the coast in about two weeks.

He pointed out that it has been proved that English studios can turn out a high percentage of good films. Of approximately 65 films made in England last year, about 10 were successes, while of some 500-600 made in the U. S. in a year, only about 20 are real hits, he declared.

Mr. Berman said that there is talk of a higher quota against American companies, and that this could be circumvented by closer cooperation between the industries of the two countries.

U. S. LISTS 92,816 THEATRES IN WORLD

The United States Government reports the existence of 92,816 film theatres, both sound and silent, throughout the world, an increase of 5,719 over the 89,097 reported in 1937 but 2,563 less than the all-time high of 1936, the wide fluctuation being attributed to a 4,000 increase in European theatres.

Compiled by Nathan D. Golden, of the Motion Picture Division of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, the report cites 63,043 theatres in Europe, 16,228 in the United States, 6,201 in the Far East, 5,239 in Central and Latin America, 1,224 in Canada, 881 in the Near East and Africa.

The 92,816 sound and silent theatres in the 90 countries surveyed at the end of 1938 follows:

SOUND, SILENT THEATRES IN WORLD

	Grand Totals
Territory	1938	1937	1936	1935	1934	1933
Europe	63,043	59,187	66,876	60,150	39,547	29,693
United States	16,228	17,000	16,258	15,378	10,143*	19,000
Far East	6,201	5,834	5,244	5,185	4,718	4,639
Latin-America	5,239	5,174	5,292	5,044	5,002	5,270
Canada	1,224	1,089	1,033	905	823	1,100
Africa, Near East	881	813	676	637	689	645
TOTALS	92,816	89,097	95,379	87,299	60,918	60,347

---

*Based upon Bureau of Census trade survey in December, 1934; the survey was later admitted to be incomplete, thus explaining the wide discrepancy between the 1934 and 1935 totals.

EUROPE

Country	1938	1937	1936	1935	1934	1933
Russia	30,000	26,000	34,990*	29,691†	9,987*	2,000
Germany	6,500	5,395	5,273	4,782	5,100	5,100
England	5,300	5,000	4,950	5,070	4,897	4,672
France	4,600	4,500	4,100	4,000	4,000	3,900
Italy	4,049	4,900	4,800	4,221	3,794	2,500
Spain	3,500	3,500	3,500	3,450	3,252	2,600
Sweden	1,907	1,783	1,641	1,581	843	1,100
Czechoslovakia	1,305	1,847	1,833	1,833	1,955	2,024
Belgium	1,100	1,000	800	790	750	650
Austria	....	779	765	779	850	850
Poland	769	741	693	498	728	759
Hungary	524	420	410	400	380	633
Denmark	370	358	352	344	340	350
Yugoslavia	383	349	318	336	319	338
Rumania	372	325	350	301	380	350
Switzerland	354	354	334	340	320	310
Netherlands	333	297	305	305	308	255
Finland	285	265	220	242	232	220
Norway	247	250	240	225	241	220
Portugal	215	210	210	210	250	250
Irish Free State	200	190	190	181	....	....
Greece	170	150	153	142	122	100
Turkey	120	121	121	110	100	80
Latvia	100	100	98	86	107	107
Bulgaria	111	100	94	94	128	145
Lithuania	73	69	64	63	60	80
Estonia	62	58	58	62	94	93
Luxemburg	30	30	....	....	....	....
Danzig Free City	24	22	....	....	....	....
East Canary Islands	22	60	....	....	....	....
Albania	18	14	16	14	10	10
TOTALS	63,043	59,095	66,876	60,150	39,547	30,623

---

*Includes all halls, converted churches and other local places of exhibition.

†This figure includes, urban, rural theatres, both those equipped with stationary and portable projectors where motion pictures are shown.

THE FAR EAST

Country	1938	1937	1936	1935	1934	1933
Japan	1,749	1,717	1,016	1,634	1,600	1,699
Australia	1,371	1,541	1,420	1,334	1,050	1,050
India	1,025	900	670	675	675	685
New Zealand	721	424	410	435	366	335
China	275	300	300	300	276	238
Philippines	258	235	211	313	273	300
Neth. India	170	154	198	248	192	180
Siam	80	123	123	77	68	68
British Malaya	97	123	122	57	58	45
Straits Settlements	....*	....	....	....	48	....
French Indo-China	110	100	100	40	40	40
Chosen	60	56	45	43	43	....
Ceylon	19	19	18	18	18	18
Fiji Island Society Islands	11	11	11	11	11	11
TOTALS	5,946	5,703	5,244	5,185	4,718	4,639

---

*Figures not available.

Excluding 131 theatres for Burma; Formosa, 41; Manchuria, 36; Hong Kong, 28; Rarafuto, 17; French Oceania, 1, and Afghanistan, 1.

CENTRAL AND LATIN AMERICA

Country	1938	1937	1936	1935	1934	1933
Argentina	1,021	1,021	1,425	1,493	1,604	1,634
Brazil	1,450	1,246	1,370	1,351	1,200	1,125
Mexico	823	1,115	835	701	701	701
Cuba	375	375	350	300	225	400
Colombia	276	250	210	200	170	385
Chile	243	233	180	171	243	215
Peru	205	201	200	141	110	100
Uruguay	150	128	128	137	137	127
Venezuela	147	111	111	88	134	134
Puerto Rico	121	96	100	100	127	112
Panama	51	51	47	44	38	33
Costa Rica	40	39	37	35	29	27
Ecuador	37	34	34	31	29	22
Guatemala	34	34	31	32	28	28
El Salvador	34	31	29	30	36	47
Dominican Republic	28	22	23	21	36	20
Honduras	27	23	29	29	14	18
Trinidad	27	23	19	17	....	....
Nicaragua	24	25	25	24	22	21
British Guiana	23	23	23	5	5	5
Bolivia	20	19	19	24	23	25
French West Indies	19	15	15	15	....	....
Jamaica	17	15	15	14	14	14
Paraguay	15	14	6	11	9	9
Bermudas	9	9	8	9	9	9
Netherlands West Indies	9	7	6	5	4	4
Haiti	7	7	8	7	7	7
Bahamas	3	3	5	4	4	4
Barbados	3	3	5	3	....	....
British Honduras	1	1	1	2	2	2
TOTALS	5,239	5,157	5,292	5,044	5,002	5,270

AFRICA AND NEAR EAST

Country	1938	1937	1936	1935	1934	1933
South Africa	300	275	300	300	350	291
Algeria	165	166	130	130	130	150
Egypt	118	101	102	90	89	89
Syria	40	39	24	24	26	20
Palestine & Trans-Jordan	43	35	29	27	22	25
Tunisia	37	32	27	30	....	....
Iran	35	35	30	30	30	30
Iraq	20	17	7	4	4	4
East Africa	16	13	11	13	19	17
West Africa	9	15	12	12	12	12
Madagascar	4	4	4	4	4	4
TOTALS	777*	732	676	637	689	645

---

*Excluding 62 theatres in French Morocco, 21 in Spanish Morocco and 11 in Nigeria, not listed in previous years.

SAYS 66,253 HOUSES ARE WIRED

Europe, according to the Department of Commerce reports, continues to lead all the world in advancing the position of sound films, installing sound in nearly 3,000 houses in 1938, increasing its wired places from 34,819 in 1937 to 37,578, much more than half of the total sound-equipped theatres of the world.

The world's sound theatres, geographically and by countries, at the end of 1937, compare with the listing for the five previous years as follows:

SOUND THEATRES IN WORLD

	Grand Totals
Territory	1938	1937	1936	1935	1934	1933
Europe	37,578	34,819	29,207	27,956	23,460	20,934
United States	16,228	17,000	16,258	15,378*	10,143	15,000
Far East	5,796	4,869	4,387	3,712	3,362	2,539
Latin-America	4,571	4,355	4,068	3,338	2,783	2,208
Canada	1,224	1,089	1,033	833	710	710
Africa, Near East	856	764	610	480	411	432
TOTALS	66,253	62,895	55,563	51,697	40,869	41,823

*Based upon Bureau of Census trade survey in December, 1934; the survey was later admitted to be incomplete, thus explaining the wide discrepancy between the 1934 and 1935 totals.

SOUND THEATRES IN EUROPE

Country	1938	1937	1936	1935	1934	1933
Russia	8,000*	6,337*	2,285*	3,000†	1,800*	2,000
Germany	6,450	5,395	5,271	4,780	4,489	4,000
England	5,300	5,000	4,950	4,712	4,608	4,414
Italy	3,800	3,600	2,800	2,724	2,095	1,079
France	3,750	3,700	3,900	3,300	2,900	2,550
Sweden	1,907	1,783	1,641	1,581	843	750
Spain	1,600	1,600	1,600	1,550	1,333	1,500
Czechoslovakia	1,245	1,608	1,348	1,343	1,025	818
Belgium	950	800	740	725	650	400
Poland	743	703	659	467	428	353
Hungary	483	420	385	362	315	267
Denmark	370	348	352	312	325	303
Switzerland	354	354	328	330	310	302
Rumania	354	293	350	298	300	350
Yugoslavia	330	301	263	246	174	184
Netherlands	297	297	297	291	252	240
Finland	285	265	210	214	120	120
Norway	247	250	240	205	204	175
Irish Free State	200	190	190	160	....	....
Portugal	185	185	186	170	168	107
Greece	170	145	140	112	107	100
Turkey	120	100	93	85	60	52
Bulgaria	110	97	89	89	88	109
Latvia	100	100	98	86	107	87
Lithuania	73	63	44	43	44	53
Estonia	62	58	58	54	58	44
Austria	....	706	692	706	650	570
Danzig Free City	24	22	....	....	....	....
Albania	18	14	14	11	7	7
TOTALS	37,578	34,612	29,207	27,956	23,460	20,934

*Includes all halls, converted churches and other local places of exhibition.

†This figure includes urban, rural theatres, both those equipped with stationary and portable projectors where motion pictures are shown.

Excluding 42 theatres for Canary Islands and 23 for Danzig Free State, not listed in previous years.

SOUND THEATRES IN FAR EAST

Country	1938	1937	1936	1935	1934	1933
Japan	1,574	1,353	1,237	827	877	450
Australia	1,371	1,541	1,420	1,334	999	999
India	1,025	600	600	500	506	340
New Zealand	721	424	610	435	366	324
China	250	250	183	178	157	120
Philippine Islands	230	213	148	121	127	105
Netherland Indies	160	154	172	192	172	131
French Indo-China	85	50	50	18	18	18
British Malaya	83	97	96	57	50	36
Siam	60	22	22	10	12	12
Chosen	50	46	29	24	24	....
Ceylon	19	18	14	10	9	7
Fiji & Society Islands	3	3	3	3	3	3
TOTALS	5,796*	4,475	4,387	3,712	3,362	2,539

*Excluding 50 theatres for Burma; Formosa, 41; Manchuria, 29; Hong Kong, 28; Rarafuto, 15; French Oceania, 1; Afghanistan, 1.

SOUND THEATRES IN LATIN AND CENTRAL AMERICA

Country	1938	1937	1936	1935	1934	1933
Brazil	1,250	1,084	1,170	906	800	525
Argentina	1,021	1,021	1,000	1,000	600	542
Mexico	437	543	402	200	350	265
Cuba	375	375	300	225	150	131
Colombia	256	230	150	120	120	60
Peru	201	201	180	122	85	77
Chile	200	192	159	150	148	160
Uruguay	150	124	124	122	118	110
Venezuela	147	111	111	85	75	44
Puerto Rico	121	96	100	100	93	87
Panama	51	51	47	44	36	25
Costa Rica	40	39	36	35	26	26
Ecuador	37	34	34	31	27	22
Guatemala	30	28	23	17	16	12
El Salvador	30	27	27	24	24	11
Dominican Republic	28	22	23	21	13	14
Trinidad	27	23	19	17	....	....
Honduras	27	23	29	29	14	18
Nicaragua	24	25	25	23	15	14
British Guiana	23	23	23	2	2	2
Bolivia	20	19	19	19	20	19
French West Indies	19	15	15	....	....	....
Jamaica	17	15	15	14	14	8
Bermudas	9	9	8	9	9	9
Haiti	7	7	6	5	5	3
Netherland West Indies	9	7	6	5	2	2
Paraguay	8	4	6	5	5	6
Bahamas	3	3	5	4	4	4
Barbados	3	3	3	3	....	....
British Honduras	1	1	1	1	1	1
TOTALS	4,571	4,341	4,068	3,338	2,783	2,208

SOUND THEATRES IN AFRICA AND NEAR EAST

Country	1938	1937	1936	1935	1934	1933
South Africa	300	275	250	200	200	195
Algeria	160	131	130	60	60	95
Egypt	118	101	102	90	72	72
Palestine & Trans-Jordan	43	35	29	27	22	16
Syria	40	39	24	24	23	20
Tunisia	34	27	24	27	....	....
Iran	32	32	25	25	....	....
Iraq	20	17	6	6	6	6
East Africa	16	13	11	12	13	13
West Africa	3	10	7	7	7	7
Madagascar	2	2	2	2	2	2
Persia	....	....	....	....	6	6
TOTALS	856*	764	610	480	411	432

*Excluding 62 theatres for French Morocco; Spanish Morocco, 21, and Nigeria, 5.

IN THE CUTTING ROOM

Spirit of Culver

(Universal)

Inspirational Story

In a sense the story to be told is the same that was the basis of "Tom Brown of Culver," which Universal produced about seven years ago. The general background is the boys' military school at Culver, Ind. Its central character is a boy whom the American Legion is putting through school as part repayment of the debt American World War soldiers owe his father who, it is believed, died heroically in action. The boy goes only because the scholarship means free board and room. He is not amenable to discipline and makes his school mates enemies until, becoming familiar with the school's traditions, he realizes he has been a first class heel. He solves his first problem, but encounters a more fearsome one when his supposedly dead father returns. He hasn't known of the incident, but his father reveals his identity. Then both attempt to flee the school and its surroundings, only to be overtaken by officers and classmates who have a letter from the War Department clearing the boy's father of duplicity. On graduation day the boy is a hero.

The principal players in the cast, old and young, are artists of proved caliber. The hero, Jackie Cooper, has recently been in "That Certain Age," "Gangster's Boy" and "White Banners." From his first appearance in "David Copperfield" down to "Listen, Darling," Freddie Bartholomew always has given a good account of himself. Andy Devine is in "Stage Coach." Henry Hull will be remembered for his work as "Father Flanagan's" financier in "Boys Town." Heading the support are Jackie Moran, featured in "Valiant is the Word for Carrie," "Adventures of Tom Sawyer" and "Mad About Music," also Tim Holt, Gene Reynolds, Pierre Watkin and Kathryn Kane.

Joseph Santley is directing.

Release date: To be determined.

The Hardys Ride High

(MGM)

Domestic Comedy

With the "Judge Hardy" series enjoying an enviable reputation, it would seem that all that would be required to exploit this picture would be to announce that "The Hardys Ride High" is a "Judge Hardy" picture, and to place the names of Lewis Stone, Mickey Rooney, Fay Holden, Cecilia Parker, Sara Haden and Ann Rutherford in every place where the public would expect, or not expect, to see them. To be given prominence also would be Virginia Grey, Don Castle, William Orr, Minor Watson, Ann Moriss and Halliwell Hobbes, for they also have important parts in the story.

Thematically—the written script makes for comedy, romance, pseudo-melodrama, action, excitement and spectacle—the story is being fashioned to the design that has given the series such unusual popularity. It has a topical novelty in that it tells the history of a grand illusion that blew up. The family learns that it will inherit a $2,000,000 estate. Immediately, all but the Judge and his wife lose their heads and go wild.

George Seitz, who has directed all the pictures in the series, is again in charge.

Release date: To be determined.

SHORT PRODUCT PLAYING BROADWAY

Week of February 4

CAPITOL	Great Heart, The	MGM
	Mice Will Play The	Vitaphone
CRITERION	Screen Snapshots, No. 5	Columbia
	Double Diving	MGM
	Once Over Lightly	MGM
PARAMOUNT	Hold Your Breath	Paramount
	Unusual Occupations, No. 4	Paramount
	On with the New	Paramount
RIALTO	Ski Rhythm	Columbia
	Flat Foot Stooges	Columbia
RIVOLI	Night Watchman, The	Vitaphone
	Busse Rhythm	Paramount
ROXY	Shooting for Par	20th Cent.-Fox
	Owl and the Pussycat	20th Cent.-Fox
STRAND	Lincoln in the White House	Vitaphone
	Small Town Idol	Vitaphone
	Ham-ateur Night	Vitaphone

Sergeant Madden

(MGM)

Law and Crime Duel

In "Sergeant Madden" will be a "cops and robbers" story with many new twists. Its central character will be a New York policeman and the general background is the New York police department. Many scenes were filmed at the New York Police Academy and the methods of training rooky officers is illustrated as well as the actual work of a regular policeman.

Wallace Beery, as the Sergeant, has been given one of the most powerful and sympathy-winning roles that has been his lot in a long time. The supporting cast also has players in whom public and exhibitors should be interested, among them Alan Curtis, discovered in "Mannequin"; Fay Holden, the mother in the "Judge Hardy" series; Tom Brown, Lorraine Johnson, last in "Arizona Legion"; George O'Brien, Marc Lawrence, David Gorcey, Ben Welden, Marian Martin, Horace MacMahon and Etta MacDaniels.

"Sergeant Madden" is being produced by J. Walter Ruben, who directed Beery in "Bad Man of Brimstone," "Good Old Soak" and "Old Hutch." It is being directed by Josef von Sternberg, discoverer of Marlene Dietrich and director whose credits include "Crime and Punishment," "Morocco," "Shanghai Express" and many others.

Release date: March 17, 1939.

You Can't Cheat an Honest Man

(Universal)

Comedy

Acknowledging the showmanship value of the Edgar Bergen-Charlie McCarthy combination, as well as that of W. C. Fields, the principals in "You Can't Cheat an Honest Man," which Lester Cowen is producing in collaboration with Universal, probably the most unusual of the many unusual features in the film is the fact that Charlie has been made a human character. While he will be manipulated by Bergen, he never will be carried around. He will ride a bucking bronco pony, will carry on a feud with Fields reminiscent of those squabbles in which Baby LeRoy was a participant, will have a love affair.

The story revolves about a circus owner upon whom evil days have fallen. Between evading the sheriff, doubling for his temperamental performers, trying to promote finances, and bring a semblance of order into his daughter's romantic life, W. C. Fields' part promises to be one hilarious misadventure after another.

With the title and the leading trio to carry the main exploitation, and the picturesque circus life backgrounds to serve as a sustaining asset, further name value is represented by Constance Moore, one of the studio's most promising younger players, Thurston Hall, John Arledge, Mary Forbes, Charles Coleman, Edward Brophy, Arthur Hohl, Grady Sutton and Ivan Lebedeff. Among the unusual characters which the picture will present are Princess Baba, exotic daughter of the white Rajah of Sarawak, hypnotic animal tamer Blacaman and Bergen's new dummy, Mortimer.

The production is based on an original story by Charles Bogle, which is another name for W. C. Fields. It is being directed by George Marshall, whose latest credits are "Hold That Co-Ed" and "The Battle of Broadway."

Release date: February 17, 1939.

They Made Her a Spy

(RKO Radio)

Topical Melodrama

Practically all the action of "They Made Her a Spy" will take place in Washington, D. C. In theme, with the necessary love interest included, the story will trace the efforts of a resourceful girl to avenge her murdered brother and serve her nation by risking her life in the secret service. The background is intrigue and spying in the nation's capital. Production detail will reveal the unusual facets of spying and counterspying.

The original story, by Lionel Houser and George Bricker, was transcribed to the screen by Michael Kanin and Jo Pagano. It is being directed by Jack Hively.

The heroine is Sally Eilers, whose latest films are "Tarnished Angel" and "Condemned Women." The leading man, Allan Lane, was featured in "Pacific Liner" and "Twelve Crowded Hours." The supporting cast includes Fritz Lieber, Frank M. Thomas, Theodore Von Eltz, Addison Richards, Larry Blake, Louis J. Heydt, Charles Halton and Pierre Watkin.

Release date: To be determined.

SMART! . . . GAY! . . . HILARIOUS! . . .

Destined to be the bright spot of 1939!

WIFE, HUSBAND and FRIEND

Loretta hits the high notes— for high comedy!

And does Warner get even with her!

Both Warner and Loretta have one . . . to make the fun unrestrained!

SOCKO! Loretta lets Warner have it! And it's catch-as-catch-can from there!

From the showmen of 20th Century-Fox comes one of the gayest romances ever to brighten an audience's life . . . or an exhibitor's box-office! Peopled with first-flight personalities in the true 20th hit-manner! LORETTA YOUNG, livelier than in "Love is News", lovelier than in "Kentucky"! WARNER BAXTER, more dashing and debonair than in "Wife, Doctor and Nurse"! BINNIE BARNES, breezier than in "Three Blind Mice"! CESAR ROMERO, happier than in "Happy Landing"! GEORGE BARBIER! . . . J. EDWARD BROMBERG! . . . EUGENE PALLETTE! . . . HELEN WESTLEY! That's talent! Plus delirious gayety! Sparkling wit! Alluring music! Slam-bang comedy! BOXOFFICE TO THE LAST LAUGH!

He wears the pants . when he can get them

HOT OFF THE WIRE!

"Wife, Husband and Friend" sneak-previewed at Huntington Park last night before a gleefully howling crowd. This picture a sure-fire boxoffice sensation. Due to be one of outstanding successes of year, far eclipsing "Wife, Doctor and Nurse."

Loretta Warner
YOUNG · BAXTER
in
WIFE, HUSBAND and FRIEND

with BINNIE BARNES · CESAR ROMERO
GEORGE BARBIER · J. EDWARD BROMBERG
EUGENE PALLETTE · HELEN WESTLEY
Directed by GREGORY RATOFF
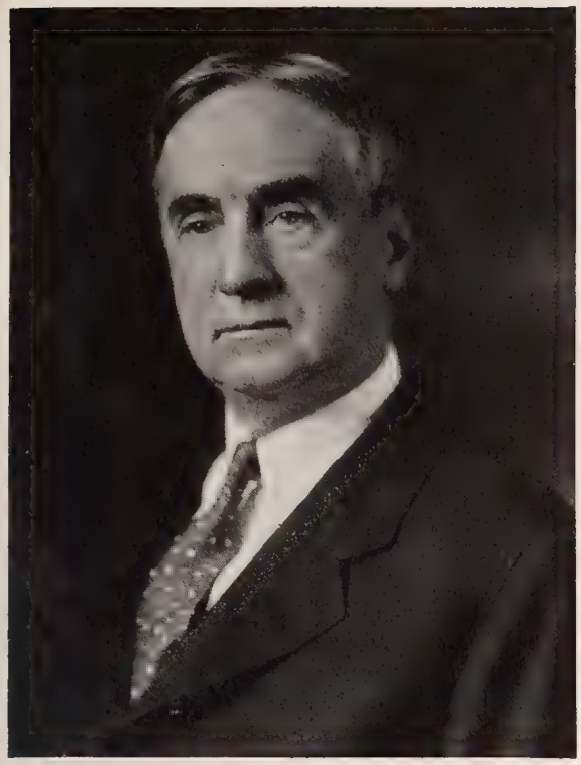
Associate Producer and Screen Play by Nunnally Johnson
Based on the novel by James M. Cain · Music and Lyrics "Drink
From the Cup of Tomorrow" by Samuel Pokrass and Walter Bullock
"Arlesiana" Music by Samuel Pokrass · Lyrics by Armando Hauser
DARRYL F. ZANUCK In Charge of Production

20th CENTURY FOX
THE KEYSTONE OF YOUR FUTURE

The funniest climax ever filmed!

3,000 AT COMERFORD FUNERAL IN SCRANTON



M. E. COMERFORD

Circuit Executive Started in Mines; First Venture in Show Field Was with a Circus

Funeral services were held Monday in Scranton, Pa., for Michael E. Comerford, circuit operator and exhibitor organization leader, who died in his 72nd year in Jackson Memorial Hospital, Miami, last Wednesday. Death was attributed to a heart ailment and pneumonia.

More than 3,000 crowded St. Peter's Cathedral in Scranton for the funeral. Bishop William J. Hafey, head of the Scranton Diocese, pontificated at the solemn requiem mass at which a nephew of Mr. Comerford, the Reverend Paul J. Carey, Wilkes-Barre, was the deacon. The body was taken to the Comerford Mausoleum at St. Vincent's Cemetery in Plymouth, Pa.

Among those attending the services were Ambrose O'Connell, second assistant postmaster general; Carl E. Milliken, executive secretary of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America; Tom Connors and Ted O'Shea, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer executives; Judge Larkin, Rome, N. Y.; Michael Killatt, Oneida, N. Y.; Joe Miller, Buffalo; William "Dinty" Moore, New York; F. J. A. McCarthy, F. F. Murray and Al Herman, Universal; George Swartz, Philadelphia;

Also Jules Levy, RKO general sales manager; Harvey Day, Educational-International; Edward Fay, Providence; Eddie Dowling, New York; William Cadoret, Rochester; Leon Netter, Paramount executive; D. M. Olmstead, New York, and J. R. Grainger, Republic president.

There were no honorary pallbearers. Six nephews of Mr. Comerford served as active pallbearers.

Started in Mines

Mr. Comerford was born in Hecksherville, Schuylkill County, Pa., in 1867, and attended public school in Plymouth. He worked in mines and at other occupations in his home town and later became a traveling salesman for a food supply house. His first venture into show business was with a circus, of which he became manager. He entered the theatre field soon after the development of Thomas A. Edison's device and had one of the first theatres in Philadeldelphia and later in Baltimore.

He then opened theatres in Scranton and Wilkes-Barre and gradually extended these enterprises through the anthracite coal fields. He became identified with the Binghamton, N. Y., Theatres and later with the E. M. Fay Theatres in New England.

Reacquired Properties

Mr. Comerford was president of one of the first exhibitor organizations, which was founded in Pennsylvania about 25 years ago. The activities of the association later were merged with the present Pennsylvania organizations and the Motion Picture Theatre Owners of America. He was one of the founders of the MPTOA and for years was a national director. He was elected first vice-president of the MPTOA at the 1932 convention in Washington, D. C.

Paramount acquired an interest in his theatre operations in 1928 but failed to complete payments on the properties and they were reacquired by Mr. Comerford in 1933. Paramount, however, retains a minor residual interest in some of the Comerford operations from the portion of the payments which were completed.

In addition to his theatre operations, Mr. Comerford founded and headed Amalgamated Vaudeville Agency, Inc., which held a prominent place in the variety world during vaudeville's heyday, booking many houses throughout the east in addition to his own.

Mr. Comerford also was associated financially with Eddie Dowling in the production of several pictures.

He was a civic leader in Scranton and a director of the city's Chamber of Commerce, and was active in charitable, fraternal and organizational work. He was a leader of the Old Age Pension movement in Pennsylvania and was the donor of a theatre for the Warm Springs, Ga., Foundation for infantile paralysis sufferers.

The circuit has been under the direction of Frank Comerford Walker, a nephew, since Mr. Comerford retired a few years ago.

Lawrence Underwood Dies

Lawrenece Underwood, 68, stage and screen actor, writer and director, died in Hollywood February 2nd. He is survived by his wife, Maude Underwood.

Mrs. Rachel Silverman

Mrs. Rachel Ganz Silverman, widow of Louis Silverman and mother of the late Sime Silverman, founder and former owner of Variety, theatrical magazine, died in New York February 2nd. She was 94.

Roland Hennessy

Roland Burke Hennessy, 69, retired publisher and editor, died at his home in Larchment, N. Y., February 1st. He was the founder and until his retirement last year president, treasurer and a director of the Hennessy Radio Publications Corporation which publishes Radio World. Mr. Hennessy was at one time dramatic critic of the New York Morning Telegraph.

Mrs. Anna F. Samuels

Mrs. Anna F. Samuels, wife of Irving Samuels, who is president of the Automatic Devices Company of Allentown, Pa., died in Miami Beach January 27th. The funeral was held in Allentown on January 30th.

Roy Byford

Roy Byford, 66, British actor, who for the last 10 years had been a member of the Shakespeare Company, died in London January 31st. He toured the United States and Canada with the company in 1928-'29 and again in 1931-'32.

Postpone Quiz Date One Week

Motion Pictures' Greatest Year, Inc., this week announced that the date for the announcement of the winners in the Movie Quiz contest has been postponed one week to February 27th because of the large number of entrants being considered by the judges. National Screen Service has prepared another trailer with the new date, which is available in their exchanges.

A total of 2,152,000 entries was received in the $250,000 contest, according to a report made by Radio and Publications Contest, Inc., to compaign headquarters.

Next Tuesday the exhibitors campaign entries will be judged by a committee after a luncheon at the Hotel Astor in New York.

The winner of the first award of $50,000 may be brought to New York for the presentation, with newsreels covering the event.

Loew's 12 Week Net Above 1937

Loew's, Inc., and its subsidiaries, which include Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, report for 12 weeks ended November 24th, 1938, a net profit of $2,979,943 after depreciation, federal income taxes, preferred dividends, and a deduction of $500,000 for a reserve for contingencies.

Consolidated statement for the 12 weeks compares as follows:

	12 wks ended Nov. 24, '38	12 wks ended Nov. 25, '37
*Operating profit	$4,938,934	$4,368,850
Depreciation and taxes	1,458,991	1,451,441
Reserves for contg.	500,000	......
Net profit	$2,979,943	$2,917,409

*After subsidiary preferred dividends.

The new earnings equal $1.74 a share on 1,599,053 shares of common stock, compared to $1.69 a share for the 12 weeks ended November 25th, 1937.

NOMINATIONS MADE FOR ACADEMY AWARDS

Mervyn LeRoy Chairman for Annual Dinner February 23 at the Hollywood Biltmore Hotel

The second step leading to Hollywood's own selection of the year's best professional production, artistic and technical achievements was taken at one o'clock last Sunday afternoon when the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences announced the titles of pictures and the names of persons who have been nominated for the Academy's annual balloting. The final selections and presentation of the awards to those selected will highlight the 11th annual Academy banquet, to be held on February 23rd at the Hollywood Biltmore hotel.

Final Ballots Mailed

Nominating ballots were all returnable last Friday, whereupon the final ballots were mailed, returnable February 20th. Price, Waterhouse and Company, auditors, will count them.

The Academy has named Mervyn LeRoy chairman of the banquet committee, along with Basil Rathbone, Robert Riskin, Howard Estabrook, J. LeRoy Johnston and Donald Gledhill.

Class A members of the Screen Actors Guild nominated five players for the best performance by an actor; five players for the best performance by an actress; five for the best performance by a supporting actor, and five for the best performance by a supporting actress.

All directors fulfilling the minimum qualifications for senior membership in the Screen Directors Guild cast their ballots for the five nominees for the award on best direction.

Those writers who fulfilled the qualifications for membership in the Screen Writers Guild were invited to participate in the selection of five finalists for the award on the best written screen play, as well as five finalists for the trophy marking the best original motion picture story.

Actors, writers and directors together with all members of the Academy, cast ballots for the nomination of 10 productions for the statuette on production achievements.

On Awards Committee

Representing the Academy on the awards committee are Frank Capra, president of the Academy of Screen Directors Guild; W. S. Van Dyke and Estabrook. Screen Actors Guild is represented by Gene Lockhart, Charles Trowbridge and Reginald Denny; the Screen Writers Guild by Frances Goodrich, Albert Hackett and Sheridan Gibney, and the Screen Directors Guild by John Cromwell, Clarence Brown and George Marshall.

Darryl F. Zanuck, Jack L. Warner and Louis B. Mayer represent the producer branch of the Academy, and Cedric Gibbons, Nathan Levinson and Joseph Valentine the technicians' branch. Alternates are Walter Kingsford, Anatole Litvak, Henry Hathaway, George Oppenheimer, Gilbert Gabriel, Melville Baker, Pandro Berman, William LeBaron, Hunt Stromberg, Hans Dreier and Vernon Walker.

Virtually every phase of production activity is included in the awards to be given.

The Nominations

The nominations follow:

Best Picture—"Alexander's Ragtime Band," 20th Century-Fox; "Boys Town," MGM; "The Citadel," MGM; "Four Daughters," Warner; "Grand Illusion," World; "Jezebel," Warner; "Pygmalion," MGM; "Adventures of Robin Hood," Warner; "Test Pilot," MGM, and "You Can't Take It With You," Columbia.

Best Actor—Charles Boyer in "Algiers"; James Cagney, "Angels With Dirty Faces"; Robert Donat, "The Citadel"; Leslie Howard, "Pygmalion"; Spencer Tracy, "Boys Town.'

Best Actress—Fay Bainter in "White Banners"; Bette Davis, "Jezebel"; Wendy Hiller, "Pygmalion"; Norma Shearer, "Marie Antoinette"; Margaret Sullavan, "Three Comrades."

Best Supporting Actor—Walter Brennan in "Kentucky"; John Garfield, "Four Daughters"; Gene Lockhart, "Algiers"; Robert Morley, "Marie Antoinette"; Basil Rathbone, "If I Were King."

Best Supporting Actress—Fay Bainter in "Jezebel"; Beulah Bondi, "Of Human Hearts"; Spring Byington, "You Can't Take It With You"; Billie Burke, "Merrily We Live"; Miliza Korjus, "The Great Waltz."

Best Director—Michael Curtiz for "Angels With Dirty Faces"; Norman Taurog, "Boys Town;" King Vidor, "The Citadel"; Michael Curtiz (again), "Four Daughters"; Frank Capra, "You Can't Take It With You."

Best Screen Play—John Meehan and Dore Schary for "Boys Town"; Ian Dalrymple, Frank Wead and Elizabeth Hill, "The Citadel"; Julius J. Epstein and Lenore Coffee, "Four Daughters" George Bernard Shaw, screen play and dialogue, and W. P. Lipscomb, Cecil Lewis and Ian Dalrymple, adaptation, "Pygmalion"; Robert Riskin, "You Can't Take It With You."

Best Original Story—(Six nominations because of tie) Irving Berlin for "Alexander's Ragtime Band"; Rowland Brown, "Angels With Dirty Faces"; John Howard Lawson, "Blockade"; Dore Schary and Eleanore Griffin, "Boys Town"; Marcella Burke and Frederick Kohner, "Mad About Music"; Frank Wead, "Test Pilot."

Sound Recording—"Army Girl," Republic; "The Cowboy and the Lady," United Artists; "Four Daughters," Warner; "If I Were King," Paramount; "Merrily We Live," Hal Roach; "Suez," 20th Century-Fox; "Sweethearts," MGM; "That Certain Age," Universal; "Vivacious Lady," RKO; "You Can't Take It With You," Columbia.

Art Directors—"Adventures of Robin Hood," Warner; "Alexander's Ragtime Band," 20th Century-Fox; "Algiers," UA; "Carefree," RKO; "Goldwyn Follies," UA; "Holiday," Columbia; "If I Were King," Paramount; "Mad About Music," Universal; "Marie Antoinette," MGM; "Merrily We Live," Hal Roach.

Cinematography—"Army Girl," Republic; "Algiers," UA; "The Buccaneer," Paramount; "The Great Waltz," MGM; "Jezebel," Warner; "Mad About Music," Universal; "Merrily We Live," Hal Roach; "Suez," 20th Century-Fox; "Vivacious Lady," RKO; "You Can't Take It With You," Columbia; "The Young in Heart," Selznick-UA.

Irving G. Thalberg Memorial—Samuel Goldwyn, Joseph Pasternak, David O. Selznick, Hunt Stromberg, Hal B. Wallis, Walter Wanger, Darryl F. Zanuck.

EISENSTEIN WINS SOVIET FILM AWARD

Sergei Eisenstein, director of "Alexander Nevsky" and other Soviet films, was awarded the Order of Lenin in Moscow this week along with 138 other directors, actors, scenarists cameramen and technicians who received decorations.

The actors included S. Mezhinsky, who portrayed Professor Mamlock in the anti-Nazi film of the same name, and M. Gelovany, who portrayed Joseph Stalin in three pictures.

At the same time decorations were announced for more than 300 executives, engineers, geologists, miners, truck drivers and others credited with overfulfilling the program of Dalstroy mines in the Far East.

Sergei Eisenstein, who returned to Soviet favor two years ago after a "purge," is best known in the United States because of his direction of "Potemkin," "Ten Days That Shook the World," and "Thunder Over Mexico"—all subjects of "little art theatre" circulation here. For years he has been a teacher of theory and practice of motion picture direction, in this country and in Europe, principally in Russia.

Confirmation Set For RKO Plan

An order providing for confirmation of the federal district court of the RKO reorganization plan was sent to creditors of the company on Wednesday.

The U. S. circuit court of appeals ruled Monday that H. Cassell and Co., members of the New York Stock Exchange and holders of $217,000 face amount of RKO debentures, had the right to appeal to it under the Chandler Act, on the reorganization plan. Nathan Rosenberg, of Kommel and Rosenberg, counsel for Cassell, applied for leave to appeal. The application was denied, the court holding that an appeal could be taken by any RKO creditor as a matter of course without special leave being given. Cassell and Co. is attacking the court's approval of the reorganization on the grounds that it changes the status of debenture holders to that of preferred stockholders, thus depriving them of secured bonds without adequate compensation.

Federal Judge William Bondy has signed an order empowering the Irving Trust Company, as trustee in receivership for RKO, to engage Price, Waterhouse and Co. to audit RKO accounts and prepare a consolidated statement and detailed report for 1938.

Gala Premieres For "Stagecoach"

"Streamlined roadshows" is what United Artists calls the elaborate openings arranged for "Stagecoach." The Loew theatres in Atlanta, Providence, Dayton and Cleveland will close March 2nd and reopen with special performances that night, the regular runs to start the next day. There will also be a gala opening March 3rd at the Buffalo Great Lakes.

SHOWMEN'S REVIEWS

This department deals with new product from the point of view of the exhibitor who is to purvey it to his own public

Stagecoach

(United Artists-Wanger)

Frontier Episode

Jingling, jangling across the magnificently hazardous vastness to which its namesake trundled a vital civilization, "Stagecoach" is a picture showmen can advertise as the "Covered Wagon" of today's screen.

It is John Ford at his best with a story big enough for half a dozen pictures and a cast that lives every inch of it, a solid and soundly satisfying demonstration of the virtue inherent in the entertainment-for-entertainment's-sake policy of film production.

Nine persons are traveling on the stagecoach through Indian infested territory in Arizona, oblivious to impending danger from Geronimo, worst of the renegade tribesmen.

One is the town drunkard, a doctor. Another is a woman of ill repute, an outcast. One is a gambler, whose past is a mystery and whose gallantry toward good women is unquestioned. The other woman, an expectant mother, is hurrying to be with her soldier husband.

On the floor of the crowded coach sits the Ringo Kid, outlaw being returned to the prison from which he escaped to seek revenge against perjurers who sent him there.

In the corner sits a banker, mouthing sentences of respectability yet clutching a carpet bag heavy with $50,000 in stolen money.

Slightest of all is a timid whisky drummer.

In the front seat are the marshal, guarding the lives of all in event of an Indian or robber attack, and is returning the outlaw to prison, and the driver, whose only thoughts are of his unhappy domestic life.

Such are the story elementals of Walter Wanger's "Stagecoach."

Gripping in universal appeal, spectacular in photographic beauty, its portrayals etched finely with the quality of a Currier and Ives print, and telling a substantial story of the old West, "Stagecoach" presents a wealth of exploitation material and unusual entertainment.

Playing the principal roles are Claire Trevor, as the shady woman; John Wayne, as the Ringo Kid; Andy Devine, as the driver; John Carradine as the gambler; Thomas Mitchell, as the dipsomaniac doctor; George Bancroft, as the marshal; Louise Platt, as the army officer's wife; Donald Meek, as the whisky salesman; and Berton Churchill as the embezzling doctor. Forty-three other actors share screen credit.

The picture reunites the team of John Ford, director, and Dudley Nichols, writer. The story is from "Stage to Lordsburg," by Ernest Haycox, whose writings of frontier life are widely read. Ford and Nichols, both of whom are noted for "putting punch" into film stories, work out an exciting series of episodes.

The stagecoach gets through to its destination, after one of the most sustained fight scenes ever filmed.

Previewed at the Westwood Village Theatre, Westwood, Cal., to an audience which showed great enthusiasm. Lobby talk after the filming was unanimous that "Stagecoach" was a great story and that the performances were excellent. —V. K.

Produced by Walter Wanger for United Artists release. A John Ford production. Screenplay and dialogue by Dudley Nichols. From a story, "Stage to Lordsburg," by Ernest Haycox. Directed by John Ford. Photographed by Bert Glennon. Special Photography by Ray Binger. Art director, Alexander Toluboff. Associate, Waird B. Ihnen. Editorial supervision, Otho Lovering. Film editing, Dorothy Spencer and Walter Reynolds. Musical direction, Boris Morros. Musical score, adapted from 17 American folk tunes of the early '80's, by Richard Hageman, Frank Harling, John Leipold and Leo Shuken. Wardrobe by Walter Plunkett. Production manager, Daniel Keefe. Running time, when seen in Westwood, 97 minutes. P. C. Certificate No. 5029. Release date, to be determined. General audience classification.

CAST

Dallas	Claire Trevor
Ringo Kid	John Wayne
Buck	Andy Devine
Hatfield	John Carradine
Doc Boone	Thomas Mitchell
Curly Wilcox	George Bancroft
Lucy Mallory	Louise Platt
Mr. Peacock	Donald Meek
Mr. Gatewood	Berton Churchill
Cavalry lieutenant	Tim Holt
Chris	Chris Martin
Yakeema	Elvira Rios
Sgt. Billy Picket	Francis Ford
Mrs. Pickett	Marga Ann Daighton
Nancy	Florence Lake
Capt. Sickle	Walter McGrail
Express agent	Paul McVey
Mrs. Gatewood	Brenda Fowler
Indian scout	Chief Big Tree
Cavalry scout	Yakima Canutt
Indian leader	Chief White Horse
Cavalry captain	Bryant Washburn
Lordsburg sheriff	Duke Lee
Luke Plummer	Tom Tyler
Ike Plummer	Joe Rickson
Capt. Whitney	Cornelius Keefe
Telegrapher	Harry Tenbrook
Boone's landlady	Nora Cecil
Bartender	Jack Pennock
Sheriff	Lou Mason
Lucy's baby (2½ days old)	Mary Kathleen Walker
Billy Pickett, Jr.	Kent Odell
Cavalry sergeant	William Hopper
Saloonkeeper	Ed Brady
Hank Plummer	Vester Pegg

Also Buddy Roosevelt, Bill Cody, Jr., Steve Clemente, Theodore Lorch, Helen Gibson, Fritzi Brunette, Leonard Trainor, Chris Phillips, Tex Driscoll, Teddy Billings, John Eckert, Al Lee, Jack Mohr, Patsy Doyle, Winnie Browne, Margaret Smith.

King of the Turf

(United Artists-Small)

Race Track Melodrama

Directed by Alfred E. Green from an original screenplay by George Bruce, this melodrama of the race track is based on an attractive idea and winds up contrary to tradition, with the right horse winning the race and yet unhappily as endings are commonly classified. Adolphe Menjou and Roger Daniel carry the interest throughout, with Dolores Costello and Alan Dinehart leading the support.

The central idea has to do with what are known in breeding circles as bloodlines and, in the human parallel, as breeding. Menjou plays a once famous stable owner, now a drunken bum, and Daniel an honest jockey who is attracted to him and influences him to attempt a comeback. They acquire an unmanageable colt of championship bloodlines, train him for racing and rise to wealth and fame. Then the man discovers that the boy is his son, who has run away from his remarried mother. In order to break the boy's attachment to him the man makes a crooked bargain with a gambling ring and orders the boy to lose the big race. In the stretch the boy's breeding outweighs his instructions and he wins. The picture closes with the father publicly slapping his son, a final gesture that accomplishes the deception necessary to send the boy back to his mother.

Although the story gets pretty sketchy in midpicture and the action becomes confused and jerky in spots, the basic idea holds it together, and the ending is perhaps the more powerful because of early weakness. Saratoga, Santa Anita and Pimlico are among the race tracks mentioned in the dialogue, and the final sequence was filmed at Hollywood Park.

Previewed at the Alexander theatre, Glendale, Cal., where a turf-conscious preview audience displayed evident liking for the race track sequences, shifted a little uneasily during the connective stretches.—WILLIAM R. WEAVER.

Produced and distributed by United Artists. Producer, Edward Small. Director, Alfred E. Green. Assistant director, Edgar Anderson. Original screen play, George Bruce. Photographer, Robert Planck, A.S.C. Art director, John DuCasse Schultze. Film editor, Grant Whytock. Musical director, Frank Tours. Production manager, Joseph H. Nadel. Sound engineer, Earl C. Sitar. Second unit director, Cullen Tate. Technical director, Paul E. MacPherson. Montage sequences, Howard Anderson. Wardrobe, William Bridgehouse. P. C. A. Certificate No. 4994. Running time, 88 minutes. Release date, February 17, 1939. General audience classification.

CAST

Jim Mason	Adolphe Menjou
Goldie	Roger Daniel
Mrs. Barnes	Dolores Costello
Mr. Barnes	Walter Abel
Grimes	Alan Dinehart
Arnold	William Demarest
Santelli	Harold Huber
Murphy	George McKay
Carr	Lee M. Moore
Bartender	Oscar O'Shea
First Tout	Cliff Nazarro
Second Tout	George Chandler
Taylor	Milburn Stone
Policeman	Charles McAvoy
Interne	William Bakewell
Coffee Pot Proprietor	Harry Semels
Taxi Driver	Donald Kerr
Pony Man	Tommy Quinn
Pawn Broker	Barlowe Borland
First Trainer	Charles Sherlock
Second Trainer	Eddie Chandler
Auctioneer	Tom Hanlon
Groom	Snowflake

Huckleberry Finn

(MGM)

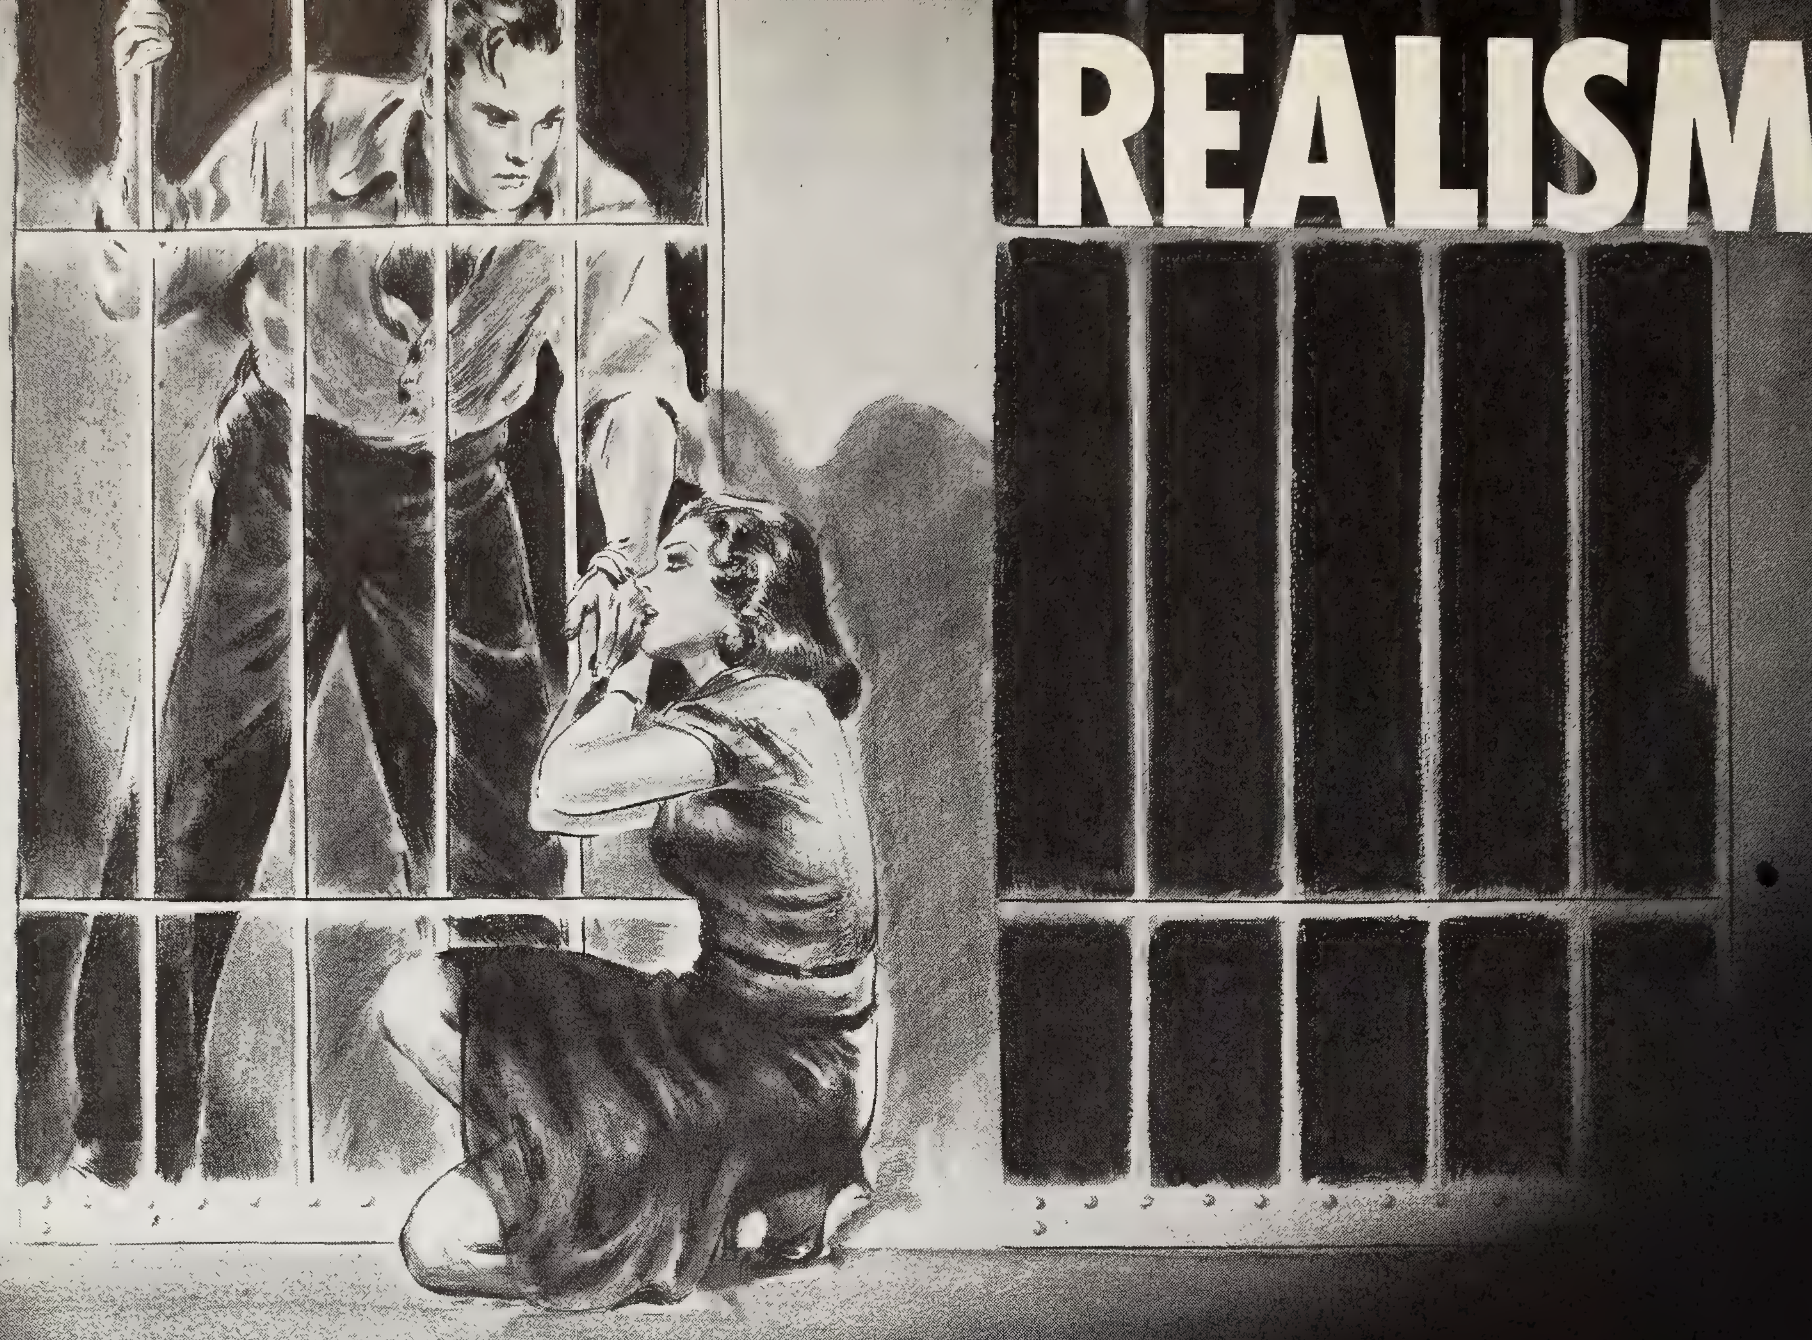
Mississippi River Adventure

Brains need not be unduly cudgeled in the process of constructing convincing showmanship campaigns whereby "Huckleberry Finn" may be sold to the largest audience possible. Everything needed by anyone is provided in the picture.

Two great names are available immediately. Mark Twain is enshrined in the memory of millions old and young. Many of those millions, by their patronage of his pictures, in-

(Continued on page 38)

REALISM .



LET US

MAUREEN O'SULLIVAN · HENRY FONDA · RALPH BELLAMY

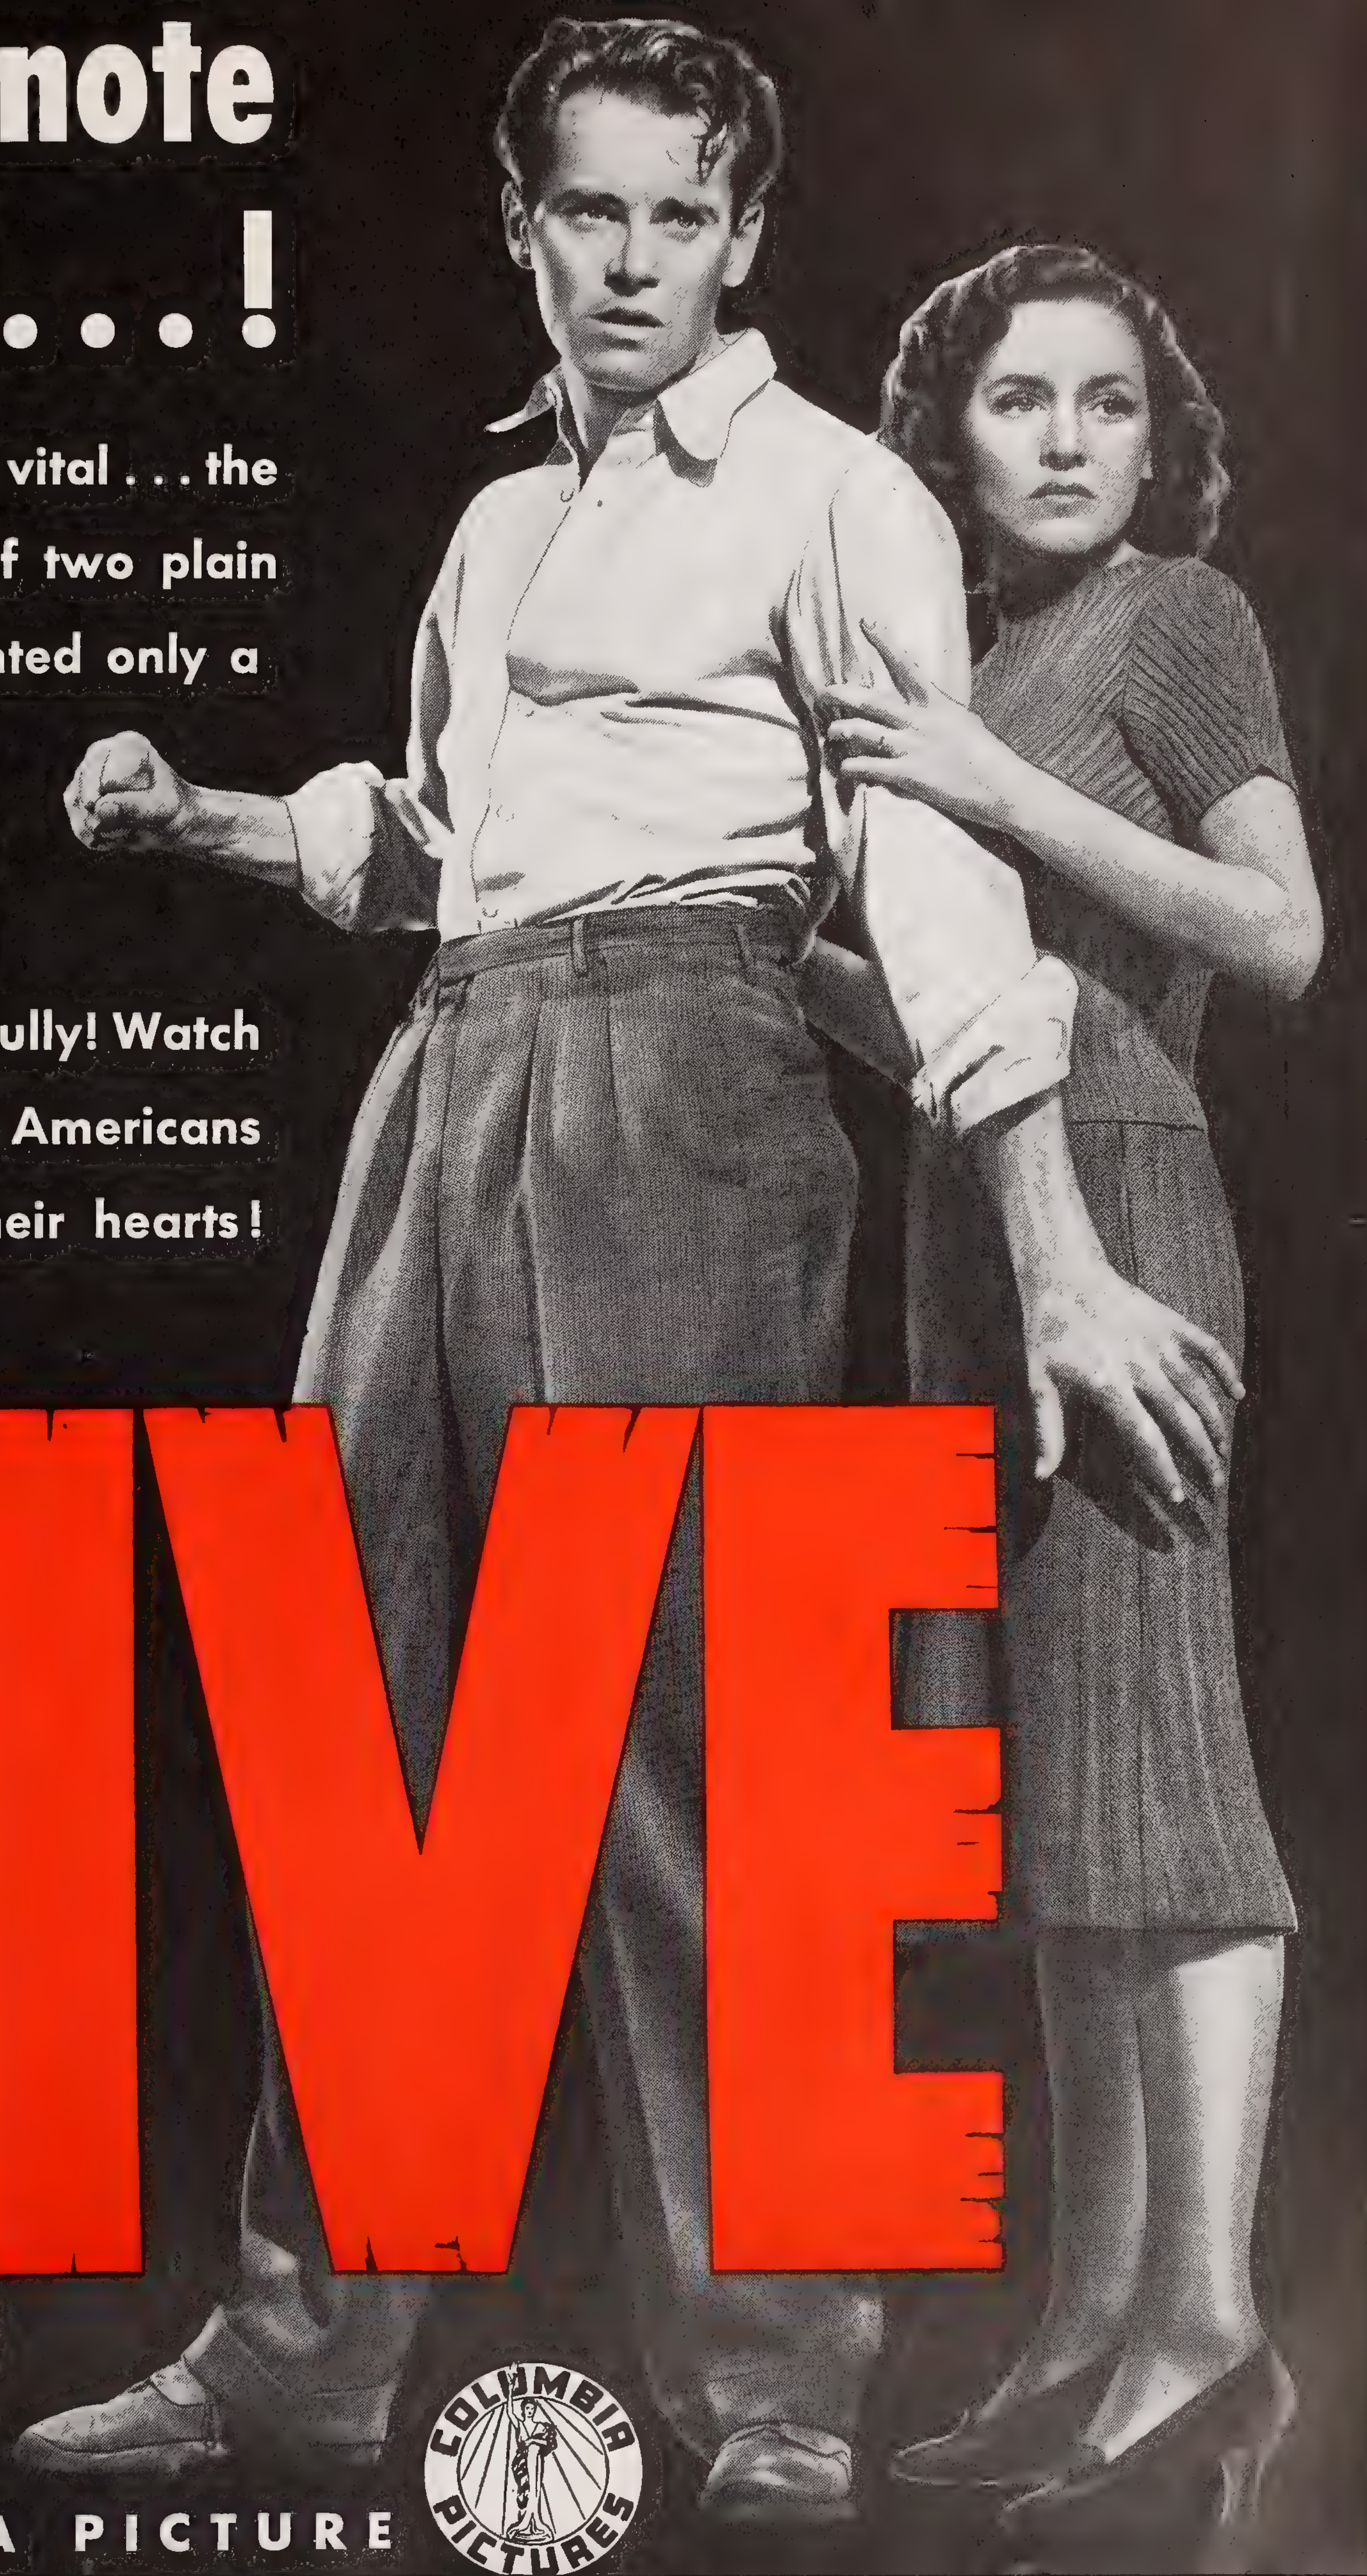
ALAN BAXTER · STANLEY RIDGES · HENRY KOLKER

The keynote of 1939 . . . !

Sincere . . . stirring . . . vital . . . the dramatic love story of two plain honest kids who wanted only a chance to live their lives, but who found all the world arrayed against them unmercifully! Watch millions of everyday Americans take these two to their hearts!



LIVE

Screen play by ANTHONY VEILLER and ALLEN RIVKIN. Based upon a story by Joseph F. Dinneen.
Directed by JOHN BRAHM
Produced by William Perlberg

A COLUMBIA PICTURE

(Continued from page 35)

spired exhibitors to vote Mickey Rooney one of the industry's leading box office draws. Naturally many of them will be eager to see Rooney in his first starring vehicle.

This segment of the public, readers and theatre goers, constitutes the picture's first market. Suggestions as to how to reach and impress that potenial audience need no explanation. The picture's sustaining market is the mass of regular or irregular patrons who attend theatres only when a good, either specialized or all-audience show is available. Judging by preview audience reaction "Huckleberry Finn" is that kind of attraction.

There is no boy-meets-girl love stuff in "Huckleberry Finn," nor is there anything that savors of the drawing room. There is nothing sophisticated about it. It is fiction but it is human interest fiction, the kind that gives pleasure to and entertains ordinary people.

Humor and pathos are its main ingredients. Hokum comedy contrasts with threatened tragedy. It has its moments of heartbreak and heartache. It provides lots of laughs and smiles. Its spectacle is adventurous life along the banks of the Mississippi and the fury of a mob that cries for an innocent Negro's life.

In theme character the production follows the letter and spirit of the Twain story faithfully. No attempt at modernization has been made. It has Huck running away because he failed to be promoted and because his father threatened Widow Douglas and Miss Watson. It has the loveable scamp floating down the river and meeting up with slave Jim, who is seeking freedom. The meeting with the King and the Duke is reenacted. Huck plays Juliet to the King's Romeo. Then Huck helps Mary Jane and Susan from being swindled out of their inheritance by the pseudo noblemen. But Huck is believed dead and Jim his murderer. Jim makes his break for safety but when Huck is bitten by a rattlesnake, Jim, who saved his life, is captured. Then it is Huck who, at the moment that the maddened mob is threatening to lynch Jim, arrives home to prove he is alive. Jim is freed from slavery, and Huck makes promises he knows he will not keep.

Rooney creates an admirable "Huckleberry." His legions of admirers will not be disappointed. Rex Ingram is outstanding as "Jim." The comedy contributed by Walter Connolly and William Frawley is the kind all appreciate.

Previewed at the Village theatre, Westwood, Cal., the professional group, which knew what it was going to see, as well as the paying customers who did not until the title and credits flashed on the screen, expected a lot. The attention paid the picture during its running time, the occasional bursts of applause and the salvo at the finish indicated general satisfaction with what had been seen. It may be expected that a similar feeling will prevail when "Huckleberry Finn" is shown to regular audiences.—GUS MCCARTHY.

Produced and distributed by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. Producer, Joseph L. Mankiewics. Director, Richard Thorpe. Screen play, Hugo Butler. Photographer, John Seits. Art director, Cedric Gibbons. Musical score, Franz Waxman. Costumer, Valles. P. C. Certificate No. 5021. Running time when seen in Westwood, 90 minutes. Release date, February 10, 1939. General audience classification.

CAST

Huckleberry Finn	Mickey Rooney
The King	Walter Connelly
The Duke	William Frawley
Widow Douglas	Elizabeth Risdon
Captain Brandy	Minor Watson
Heiresses	Lynne Carver, Jo Ann Sayers
Jim	Rex Ingram
Mr. Finn	Victor Killan
Miss Watson	Clara Blandick

Silver on the Sage

(Paramount-Sherman)

Western

"Silver on the Sage," latest of Harry Sherman's Hopalong Cassidy stories, follows the pattern of the contents of previous vehicles for William Boyd, again declared in MOTION PICTURE HERALD's poll of Money Making Stars to be Number Two Western hero. With Boyd in this are his two inseparable "Saddle Pals," George Hayes and Russell Hayden, both of whom have helped lift the Cassidy series to its present high standing with exhibitor and customer.

This offering, from the Clarence E. Mulford story, concerns the trio's efforts to trace a herd of cattle stolen from them and to bring the rustler gang to justice. They succeed on both scores, but not without personal danger to them and the humorous efforts of "Windy" to prove he is a really bad man.

Supporting the trio are Stanley Ridges, Frederick Burton, Ruth Rogers, Jack Rockwell, Roy Barcroft, Ed Cassidy, Sherry Tanzey, Jim Corey, Wen Wright and Bruce Mitchell.

Maurice Geraghty wrote the screenplay which was directed by Lesley Selander. J. D. Trop was associated producer.

Previewed at the United Artists theatre in Inglewood, Cal., to a packed house which gave it a rousing reception.—V. K.

Produced and distributed by Paramount. Producer, Harry Sherman. Associate producer, J. D. Trop. Director, Lesley Selander. Screen play, Maurice Geraghty. Based on an original by Clarence E. Mulford. Photographer, Russell Harlan, A.S.C. P. C. A. Certificate No. 4911. Running time, 65 minutes. Release date, March 31, 1939. General audience classification.

CAST

Hopalong Cassidy	William Boyd
Windy	George Hayes
Lucky	Russell Hayden
Brennan Talbot	Stanley Ridges
Hamilton	Frederick Burton
Ethel	Ruth Rogers
Marshal	Jack Rockwell
Ewing	Roy Barcroft
Pierce	Ed Cassidy
Martin	Sherry Tanzey
Baker	Jim Corey

Forged Passport

(Republic)

Melodrama

A formula story of the United States Immigration Service is Republic's "Forged Passport," which has Paul Kelly and June Lang in the featured roles. The action centers upon a border station near San Diego.

In the supporting cast are Lyle Talbot, Billy Gilbert, Cliff Nazarro, Maurice Murphy, Christian Rub, John Hamilton, Dewey Robinson, Bruce MacFarlane, Ivan Miller and Frank Puglia.

"Frazer," one of the immigration service inspectors, loses his job through a series of incidents which cost the life of a fellow worker. Through ingenious means, he manages to unmask the murderer, and paves the way for his own happiness and that of his fiancee, and as well as the reopening of the cafe of "Nick," his unwilling partner in solving the mystery.

John H. Auer produced and directed the screenplay by Franklin Coen and Lee Loeb. It was adapted from an original story by Loeb and James Webb.

Previewed at the Forum Theatre, Los Angeles, to an audience which indicated its ability to outguess the writers in unfolding the story.—V. K.

Produced and distributed by Republic. Associate producer and director, John H. Auer. Screenplay by Franklin Coen and Lee Loeb. Original story by James Webb and Lee Loeb. Production manager, Al Wilson. Photographed by Al Wilson. Supervising editor, Murray Seldeen. Edited by Edward Mann. Art director, John Victor Mackay. Musical director, Cy Feuer. Costumes by Irene Saltern. Running time, when seen in Los Angeles, 64 minutes. Release date, to be determined. General audience classification.

CAST

Dan Frazer	Paul Kelly
Helene	June Lang
Jack Scott	Lyle Talbot
Nick Mendoza	Billy Gilbert
Shakespeare	Cliff Nazarro
"Kansas" Roy Nelson	Maurice Murphy
Mr. Nelson	Christian Rub
Harry Rogers	John Hamilton
Riley	Dewey Robinson
Buck	Bruce MacFarlane
Capt. Ellis	Ivan Miller
Chief Miguel	Frank Puglia

The Three Musketeers

(Twentieth Century-Fox)

Dumas a la Zanuck

Motion picture companies have presented Dumas' "The Three Musketeers" several times on the screen, but never like this. The new version is described on the credit sheets as "a musical comedy version" of the classic, and the resultant hilarity is what might have been expected when the news came that the Ritz Brothers would occupy the roles of the three musketeers. According to the preview audience reactions, the idea is a huge success. Fearing an unfavorable reception of too flagrant burlesque, Darryl F. Zanuck and his associate producer, Raymond Griffith, devised the story premise of placing the Ritz brothers in the musketeer parts through the ruse of their stealing the clothes of the real soldiers when the latter have had too much wine.

Don Ameche has the role of "D'Artagnan," and others in the cast are Binnie Barnes, Lionel Atwill, Gloria Stuart, Pauline Moore, Joseph Schildkraut, John Carradine, Miles Mander, Douglas Dumbrille, John King, Russell Hicks, Gregory Gaye.

Allan Dwan directed the picture, the screenplay of which was written by M. M. Musselman, William A. Drake and Sam Hellman. Sid Kuller and Ray Golden contributed special material.

Previewed at the Alexander Theatre, Glendale, Cal., to an audience which shrieked with laughter.—V. K.

Produced and distributed by 20th Century-Fox. Directed by Allan Dwan. Associate producer, Raymond Griffith. Screenplay by M. M. Musselman, William A. Drake and Sam Hellman. Special material by Sid Kuller and Ray Golden. Music and Lyrics, "Song of the Musketeers," "My Lady," and "Voila," by Samuel Pokrass and Walter Bullock. Photographed by Peverell Marley. Art direction, Bernard Herzbrun and David Hall. Edited by Jack Dennis. Costumes by Royer. Musical direction, David Buttolph. P. C. A. Certificate No. 4766. Running time, when seen in Glendale, 72 minutes. Release date, Feb. 17, 1939. General audience classification.

CAST

D'Artagnan	Don Ameche
Three Lackeys	Ritz Brothers
Milady De Winter	Binne Barnes
De Rochefort	Lionel Atwill
Queen	Gloria Stuart
Lady Constance	Pauline Moore
King	Josephine Schildkraut
Naveau	John Carradine
Cardinal Richelieu	Miles Mander
Athos	Douglas Dumbrille
Aramis	John King
Porthos	Russell Hicks
Vitray	Gregory Gaye
Duke of Buckingham	Lester Matthews
Landlord	Egon Brecher
Bailiff	Moroni Olsen
Captain Fageon	Georges Renavent
Ship Captain	Montague Shaw
Guards	Jean Parry and Fredrik Vogeding

The Adventures of Jane Arden

(Warner Bros.)

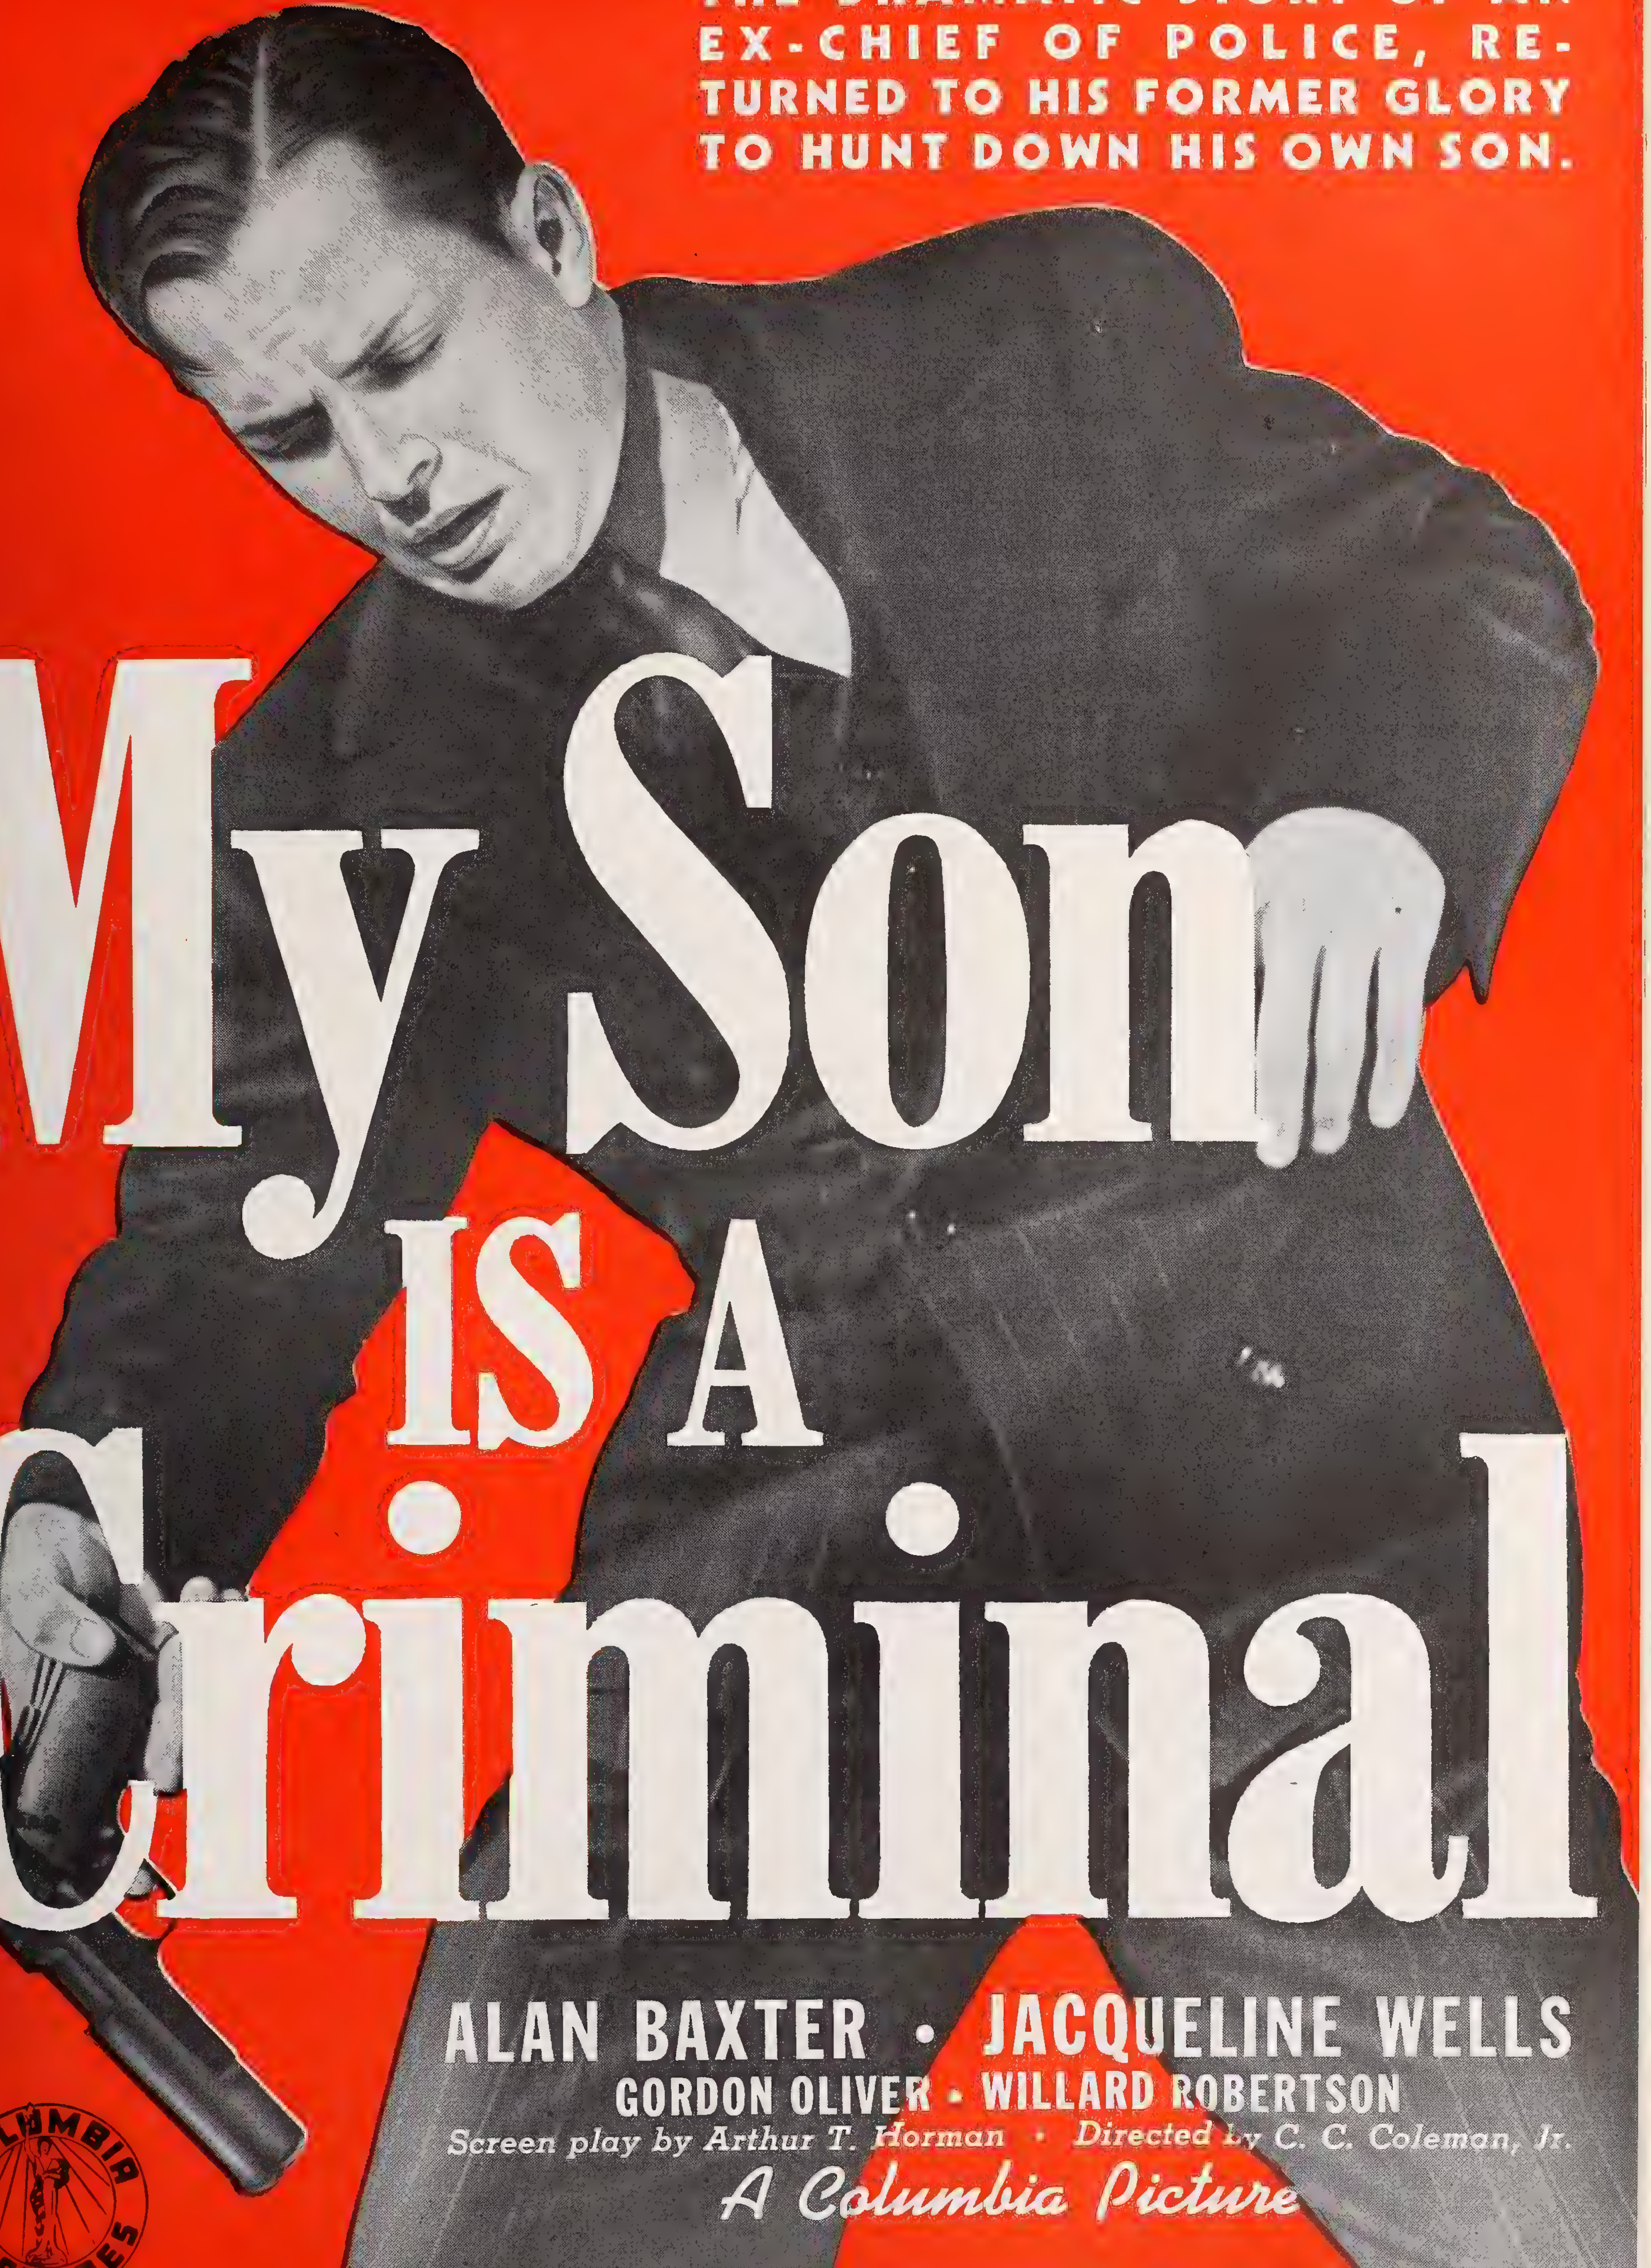
Action Melodrama

"The Adventures of Jane Arden" is the first issue of a new picture series. The same substance as is the strength of the cartoon is the backbone of the motion picture melodramatic thrill action. Economically produced, staged against attractive backgrounds of New York, aboard ship and in Bermuda, the story is pitched to an attention holding key, moves speedily, and provides much to stimulate and hold general audience interest.

Rosella Towne, presented in the title role, handles her assignment capably. It is noticeable several times, particularly at the climax, that the producing company has ideas to feature her more in the same character. On the screen in all save a few sequences, she is the center of goings on which also involve William Gargan,

(Continued on page 40)

THE DRAMATIC STORY OF AN EX-CHIEF OF POLICE, RETURNED TO HIS FORMER GLORY TO HUNT DOWN HIS OWN SON.



My Son IS A Criminal

ALAN BAXTER • JACQUELINE WELLS

GORDON OLIVER • WILLARD ROBERTSON

Screen play by Arthur T. Horman • Directed by C. C. Coleman, Jr.

A Columbia Picture

(Continued from page 38)

James Stephenson, Pierre Watkins, Peggy Shannon and Dennie Moore.

Using situations and circumstances which are old dependables, the story commences like a formula newspaper yarn. But when the girl reporter, "Jane," convinces herself she has clues that will lead to a solution of a baffling murder and break up a jewel smuggling ring, things begin to pop the way they do in the daily cartoon release. There's suspenseful and amusing entertainment in the way "Jane" works herself into a trap set by the supposedly respectable jeweler, "Thayer." There is more of the same when she allies herself with "Thayer" and his cohorts, "Vanders" and "Lola Martin." The melodramatic turn comes when "Thayer" discovers his new tool's identity and informs "Vanders," who is with her aboard ship. While "Lola" becomes jealous, "Vanders" and "Jane" play cat and mouse with each other.

Meanwhile good old fashioned ten-twenty-thirty cent melodrama is resorted to as the editor-boss "Towers," is kidnaped. He escapes and the news reaches "Jane," "Vanders" and "Teenie" in Bermuda. The rush which "Towers" makes to rescue his employee keynotes the rushing action that is the spirit of the finale, with a horse and carriage chase over rural roads which winds up with "Vander's" death. This is thrill action of high caliber. Though the smuggling ring is broken up, everyone, even the audience, had forgotten that the adventurous girl had set out to solve a murder case. That she did so is assumed, however, as the finale has the now romantically inclined editor, "Towers," assigning "Jane" to another job.

For exploitation purposes certain values associate themselves with the players featured. The principal showmanship factor, however, is the widely distributed cartoon. Tieups with newspapers publishing it should be obtainable. In any event, "The Adventures of Jane Arden" is popular stuff which delivers a full measure of thrills and no small amount of laughs.

Previewed at the Warner Downtown Theatre, Hollywood. The audience, which had been looking at "They Made Me a Criminal," seemed to enjoy the picture in a manner such as would the average audience which does not take its entertainment too seriously.—GUS MCCARTHY.

Produced and distributed by Warner Brothers. Associate executive in charge of production, Hal B. Wallis. Asociate producer, Mark Hellinger. Director, Terry Morse. Assistant director, Lester Guthrie. Screen play, Vincent Sherman, Lawrence Kimble, Charles Curran. Based on comic strip created by Monte Barrett and Russell E. Ross. Dialogue director, Ted Thomas. Cameraman, L. William O'Connell. Art director, Max Parker. Film editor, Harold McLernon. Sound engineer, Charles Lang. Gowns by Milo Anderson. Unit manager, Lee Hugunin. P. C. A. Certificate No. 4837. Release date, March 4, 1939. General audience classification.

CAST

Jane Arden	Rosella Towne
Ed Towers	William Gargan
Dr. George Vanders	James Stephenson
Marvin Piermont	Benny Rubin
Teenie Moore	Dennie Moore
Lola Martin	Peggy Shannon
Bill Clifton	Edgar Edwards
Prisoner	Hobart Cavanaugh
Albert Thayer	Pierre Watkin
Martha Blanton	Maris Wrixon
Reporter	John Ridgely
Thug	Joe Devlin
Thug	Raymond Bailey
Frenchman	Georges Renavent
Italian	Eddie Conrad
Irishman	Robert Homans

Cafe Society

(Paramount)

Comedy-Drama

So much has been written about cafe society in the public prints the last two or three years, and so few members of the vast cinema public commonly come into first hand contact with it, that a showman proffering a picture about it to his customers might reasonably expect large numbers of them to drop in more or less automatically. But the title is only the starting point in the advertising campaign he can put behind this remarkably well managed treatment of the subject. The names Madeleine Carroll, Fred MacMurray and Shirley Ross are valuable and fitting marquee material, and a showman given to the explicit type of exploitation may proceed confidently in notifying his public that the picture is an accurate and stimulating presentation of the subject, not an attack upon or defense of it.

The story, an original screen play by Virginia Van Upp, is about a wealthy young woman, seven years out and still unwed, who marries a ship news reporter by way of winning a wager with a society columnist who says she isn't news any more.

The incidents involved in the working out of the story are lively, funny and well staged. Some of the characters will seem to many who consider themselves informed to represent certain comtemporary personalities well known along 52nd Street in New York City. It isn't necessary to be in the know to find them amusing, understandable persons doing usual and unusual things logically. There is no lecturing for or against cafe society, although society is variously defined in several incidental speeches.

The film is a Jeff Lazarus production and a polished work in every respect. Edward H. Griffith's direction is highly effective. The single song, by Burton Lane and Frank Loesser and sung by Miss Ross, is of hit stature.

Previewed at the Paramount theatre, Los Angeles, where it generated laughter in such generous measure as to drown out whole sections of dialogue.—W. R. W.

Produced and distributed by Paramount. Associate producer, Jeff Lazarus. Directed by Edward H. Griffith. Story and screen play by Virginia Van Upp. Photographed by Ted Tetzlaff. Song by Burton Lane and Frank Loesser. P. C. A. Certificate No. 4829. Release date, March 3, 1939. Running time, when seen in Los Angeles, 82 minutes. General audience classification.

CAST

Christopher West	Madeleine Carroll
Chick O'Bannon	Fred MacMurray
Bells Browne	Shirley Ross
Ald Christopher West	Claude Gillingwater
Mrs. DeWitt	Jessie Ralph
Sonny DeWitt	Allyn Joslyn
Bartender	Paul Hurst
Don Jose Monterico	Don Alvarado
Bobo Brainard	Cupid Ainsworth
Southern Girl	Mary Parker
Random	Robert Emmett Keane
Maid	Hilda Plowright

Yes, My Darling Daughter

(Warner Brothers)

Sophisticated Comedy

The stage play from which this picture is quite directly derived had a considerable run on Broadway and the newspaper and magazine critics devoted much widely circulated space to discussion of it. It would appear, therefore, that a substantial portion of the population knows in advance that it depicts the unconventional attitudes and reactions of the several members of an extremely modern household to the not essentially modern plannings of two young persons anent a pre-nuptial weekend sojourn sans surveillance. Showmen dependent upon family attendance and desirous of similarly informing patrons who have not read about the play may find useful the following line, quoted from the programs supplied to press folk attending the Hollywood preview: "Mark Reed's daring stage hit reaches the screen unmarred by the translation, improved by ambitious motion picture staging." If space is tight, the first five words will convey the information most showmen will want family audiences to know in advance.

The production is extremely well done. The seven principals turn in polished and well matched performances, the distribution of emphasis being such as to give each of them plenty of opportunity. William Keighley, directing for associate producer Benjamin Glazer, has kept the action flowing swiftly, and Casey Robinson's screen play is adroitly wrought.

Dialogue and incidents are, as the above mentioned Broadway critics have made rather well known, unconventional. The likewise above-mentioned preview program carried the following synopsis of the play:

"The story opens with a race between the train bearing 'Titus Jaywood' (Roland Young) and a car driven by 'Ellen Murray' (Priscilla Lane), who meets 'Jaywood' at the station. He likes 'Ellen,' her boy-friend, 'Douglas Hall,' (Jeffrey Lynn), and even her banker father, 'Lewis Murray' (Ian Hunter), whom he meets fleetingly as the banker is off for a yachting trip. But 'Granny' (May Robson) embarrasses him by shrewdly suspecting him of having written love poems about her 'liberal' novel-writing daughter long ago.

"In order to be alone with 'Douglas' for two days before he leaves for Belgium, 'Ellen' plans an auto-cottage week-end with him. She tells no one about it, but all find out. So when she comes downstairs from packing, presumably to visit a girl friend, she faces her mother (Fay Bainter), 'Granny,' 'Aunt Connie' (Genevieve Tobin) and 'Jaywood.' It's an emotional scene, but finally her mother, with faith in her daughter, gives 'Ellen' her half-hearted blessing and the youngsters leave. When the father returns and finds out, he's furious and starts out on a shotgun-wedding hunt. 'Connie' and 'Jaywood' start out in another car to warn the young pair, but they all get arrested for various reasons—'Granny's' work. She wants the youngsters to have their chance.

"Meanwhile the pair, alone at last and embarrassed by it, decide it would be more daring and sophisticated if he slept on the porch, she inside. They're vastly relieved by the solution.

"Next day they all meet at the 'Murray' house. 'Mr. Murray' starts bawling 'Douglas' out. He in turn is angered that all knew of the plan. He tells them how indignant at them he is, that he is through with them. He leaves, on his way to Belgium.

"'Granny' tells 'Ellen' she got her husband with a sixshooter, so 'Ellen' gets a marriage license and is waiting in the cabin of 'Doug's' boat when he arrives. The captain agrees to marry them. And what is he going to do about it? He does it—kisses her more soundly than ever before. They rush to the porthole to wave goodbye to the family and 'Jaywood.' From 'Connie's' grip on 'Jaywood's' arm, he seems destined to be her fourth husband."

Naturally, it is not a picture for children.

Previewed at the Warner theatre, Hollywood, to an adult audience which seemed to relish it.—W. R. W.

Produced and distributed by Warner Brothers. Associate producer, Benjamin Glazer. Directed by William Keighley. Sceen play by Casey Robinson. Play by Mark Reed. Photographed by Charles Rosher. Film editor, Ralph Dawson. P. C. A. Certificate No. 4840. Release date, February 25, 1939. Running time, 82 minutes. Adult audience classification.

CAST

Ellen Murray	Priscilla Lane
Douglas Hall	Jeffrey Lynn
Titus Jaywood	Roland Young
Ann Murray	Fay Bainter
Granny Whitman	May Robson
Connie Nevins	Genevieve Tobin
Lewis Murray	Ian Hunter
Sergeant Murphy	Robert Homans
Police Officer	Edward Gargan
Angus Dibble	Spencer Charters
Martha	Lottie Williams

Home on the Prairie

(Republic)

Western

Another of the Gene Autry western melodramas, the feature has much to recommend it to followers of the cowboy star, though the story is on the weak side for an Autry production and the action is rather confined to several fist fights. The cowboy star sings several songs in his competent manner and his side-kick, Smiley Burnette, contributes the comedy. Other players are June Storey, George Cleveland, Jack Hulhall and Walter Miller.

"Gene" is in charge of a small inspection camp of the "State Animal and Agricultural Commission," with "Frog" his deputy. It is his duty to inspect cattle before they are shipped to the slaughtering houses. "Belknap," a rancher, and "Shelby," a cattle broker, discover that part of "Belknap's" herd has "hoof and mouth" disease. Fearing a quarantine, they attempt to transport the cattle by truck. "Gene" stops them.

The state veterinary arrives. Through a trick engineered by "Shepby" and "Belknap" cattle are given a clean bill of health while the herd belonging to "Wheeler," to whom "Gene" has lent money, is quarantined. "Gene" is jailed on a charge of interfering with the veterinary, but escapes in time to balk the culprits and clear "Wheeler."

Previewed in the projection room in New York.—P. C. M., Jr.

Produced and distributed by Republic. Associate producer, Harry Grey. Directed by Jack Townley. Original screen play by Charles Arthur Powell, Paul Franklin. Production manager, Al Wilson. Photography by Reg Lanning. Film editor, Lester Orlebeck. Musical supervisor, Raoul Kraushaar. P. C. A. Certificate No. 4986. Running time, 58 minutes. Release date, February 3, 1939. General audience classification.

CAST

Gene	Gene Autry
Frog	Smiley Burnette
Martha	June Storey
Wheeler	George Cleveland
Dr. Sommers	Jack Mulhall
Belknap	Walter Miller
Shelby	Gordon Hart
Sheriff	Hal Price
Prof. Wentworth	Earle Hodgins
Carter	Ethan Laidlaw
Tom Ross	John Beach
Wilson	Jack Ingram
Madden	Bob Woodward

and Sherven Brothers Rodeoliers

Torchy Blane in Chinatown

(Warner Brothers)

Comedy, Mystery

The series vogue has a way of perpetuating its characters so that they seem like old friends. Two boys in their teens, shopping for film fare although it was a Friday morning and the schools were in session, happened along at the Palace theatre as this reviewer arrived. The Palace bill won out because one of the boys had seen previous "Torchy Blane" films.

The friendly rivalry of "Torchy," girl newspaper reporter, and "Steve McBride," a detective, is continued in the same vein as in previous releases, though the story borders on the weak side. The setting is anything but Chinatown, but the mystery concerns Oriental heirlooms and Oriental lore. The comedy is handled by Glenda Farrell as "Torchy" and by Tom Kennedy as "Gahagan," "Steve's" shadow. Barton MacLane plays "Steve."

Reviewed at the Palace theatre, New York. An afternoon audience appeared to be enjoying "Torchy's" latest adventures.—P. C. M., Jr.

Produced and distributed by Warner Brothers. Directed by William Beaudine. Story by Murray Leinster and Will Jenkins. Screen play by George Brickner and based on the characters created by Frederick Nebel. ` Photography by Warren Lynch. Editor, Frederick Richards. P. C. A. Certificate No. 4700. Running time, 58 minutes. Release date, February 4, 1939. General audience classification.

CAST

Torchy Blane	Glenda Farrell
Steve McBride	Barton MacLane
Gahagan	Tom Kennedy
Baldwin	Henry O'Neill
Condon	Patric Knowles
Mansfield	James Stephenson
Staunton	Richard Bond

Convict's Code

(Monogram-Crescent)

Melodrama

"Convict's Code" is straight melodrama with some rather grim comedy and an unusual love interest situation. Economically produced, nevertheless intelligently written and directed to be complete within itself, the picture features Robert Kent, Sidney Blackmer and Anne Nagel, and in support Victor Kilian, Norman Willis, Maude Eburne, Ben Alexander, Pat Flaherty, Carelton Young, Howard Hickman, Joan Barclay and Harry Strang.

"Tyler," framed into a jail sentence but out on restricted parole, is determined to avenge himself. He is employed by "Warren," who, though "Tyler" doesn't know it, was the man behind the plot that jailed him. Then he falls in love with "Warren's" sister, "Julie."

He participates in a loft robbery to learn his persecutor's identity. He unearths the secret, but avenging himself upon "Warren" would mean unhappiness for "Julie."

The picture seems to have the entertainment substance that will satisfy patrons of the market for which it is designed. It does not offer any great cast names but it has story and production quality to hold the interest of ordinary folk.

Previewed in the General Service Studio projection room in Hollywood.—G.M.

Distributed by Monogram. Produced by E. B. Derr. Directed by Lambert Hillyer. Original screen play by John W. Krafft. Edward Stein assistant director. Russell Schoengarth film editor. Photographed by Arthur Martinelli. P. C. A. certificate number 4912. Running time, 65 minutes. Release date, February 4, 1939. General audience classification.

CAST

Dave Tyler	Robert Kent
Julie Warren	Anne Nagel
Gregory Warren	Sidney Blackmer
Bennett	Victor Kilian
Russell	Norman Willis
Mrs. Magruder	Maud Eburne
Jeff Palmer	Ben Alexander
Sniffy	Pat Flaherty
Pete Jennings	Carleton Young
Warden	Howard Hickman
Elaine	Joan Barclay
Tom Lynch	Harry Strang

Homicide Bureau

(Columbia)

Crime Melodrama

"Homicide Bureau" deals with a nefarious "protective association" in the scrap iron industry, a band of gangsters who force the dealers to sell their metal to foreign powers for munitions. Outside of that approach to a social and economic problem of the day, the film is a typical crime melodrama concerned primarily with the problem worked out by the police homicide department and its tough and impetuous ace detective, in exposing the association.

Action is the keynote from the opening sequence, the killing of a man in a telephone booth, to a gun battle between the gangsters and police on the deck of the boat carrying the contraband arms. The film is practically devoid of romance. The girl in the case is introduced with a flourish as a police laboratory expert but her subsequent appearances are brief and of small importance.

The film is directed by C. C. Coleman, Jr., from a screen play by Earle Snell. The cast is headed by Bruce Cabot, with Rita Hayworth. Marc Lawrence, Richard Fiske, Moroni Olsen and Gene Morgan in support.

Reviewed at the Rialto theatre, New York, where a predominantly male audience, which is the usual situation here, watched the goings-on, intently, if silently.—P. C. M., Jr.

Produced aind distributed by Columbia. Directed by C. C. Coleman, Jr. Story and screen play by Earle Snell. Photography by Benjamin Kline. Film editor, James Sweeney. P. C. A. Certificate No. 4628. Running time, 59 minutes. Release date, January 5, 1939. General audience classification.

CAST

Jim Logan	Bruce Cabot
J. G. Bliss	Rita Hayworth
Chuck Brown	Marc Lawrence
Hank	Richard Fiske
Captain Haines	Moroni Olsen
Briggs	Norman Willis
Blake	Gene Morgan
Thurston	Robert Paige
Jamison	Lee Prather
Specks	Eddie Featherston
Police Commissioner	Stanley Andrews

Buck Rogers

(Universal)

Cartoon Serial

The epic pen point personage, "Buck Rogers," steps entertainingly from his widely syndicated newspaper panel into a serial script as thrilling and as fantastic as the original cartoon. In the screen variation, the doughty "Buck" and his faithful band of nimble confederates are in combat with a character of unique villainy. "Buck" and his pal, "Buddy," crash in their dirigible and because of a strange persevering gas remain in a state of suspended animation for 500 years. Then they learn that the world has gone to pieces under the domination of a super-racketeer, "Killer Kane." "Buck" attempts to break the mobster by enlisting the assistance of the people from the planet Saturn. In the three first episodes shown, it must be said that the enterprising Mr. Rogers seems to have bargained for more than he can handle. One of his air ships blows up in mid-air, another is crushed between granite gates and he is paralyzed by the rays of a strange gun. The action and the strange characters and contraptions should appeal to the imaginations of the juvenile and action seeking trade. Buster Crabbe has the title role and is assisted by Jackie Moran, Constance Moore, Jack Mulhall and Montague Shaw. Release date, April 11, 1939. Running time, 12 chapters, approximately 21 minutes each.

Paramount Pictorial, P8-7

(Paramount)

Pictorial

A well chosen collection of interesting items is detailed in this newest number from the Pictorial grouping. The initial sequence is devoted to a visit to a Mexican Sunday rodeo with interesting and humorous results. Next is the life story of the gorgeously feathered creatures living in America, with appeal to nature lovers and school classes. The final topic is the intricate construction necessary for the manufacture of the musical instrument known as an accordion.—Running time, nine minutes.

Screen Snapshots (Series 18, No. 4)

(Columbia)

Celebrities

More than two score motion picture personages appear briefly in this subject, pegged to football. The subject builds gradually, from the football potentialities of Dick Foran's young son and John Mack Brown's slightly older boy to the professional game played by former college stars. Between come Mickey Rooney's team and a demonstration by Joe E. Brown and his two sons, one of whom is a college varsity player. The other celebrities appear as spectators. Running time, 10 minutes.

Going Places (No. 58)

(Universal)

Interesting

Windmills, both large and small, from the ancient days to the present, are described in picture and dialogue. Graham McNamee introduces Thomas Broughton, of Barnstable, on Cape Cod, who has a prosperous business manufacturing mindmills as weather indicator novelties. The second part of the reel takes the audience to Corsica, birthplace of Napoleon and humble abode of the ancient industries of fishing, farming and goat herding. Corsica still stands quaint and serene after the rise and fall of many empires.—Running time 9½ minutes.

Annual "Movie Party" To Show Amateur Films

The tenth annual "movie party," at which there will be showings of amateur films, will be held April 14th at the Barbizon Plaza Theatre in New York. Started in 1929 by Mr. and Mrs. Duncan McD. Little, to show amateur films, the annual screenings have grown until now films are first submitted to a jury which selects those to be shown.

Over 300 invitations have been sent out for this year's showing, going to 32 states and 20 countries abroad.

THIRD

RADIO CITY

New All-Time Record i

NEW YORK . . Second weekend bigger than firs weekend . . First five days indicat gross within few dollars of first week! . .

HOLDOVER

LOS ANGELES . . New all-time money record set fo Hillstreet and Pantages Theatre

Third week . .

HOLDOVER!

BOSTON . . Absolutely the biggest money-getter o record for straight picture policy! . .

HOLDOVER!

WASHINGTON . . Tremendous opening and following days! . .

HOLDOVER!

CHICAGO . . Biggest opening with one exception . playing without big stage names! . .

HOLDOVER!

DENVER . . Doing the kind of business you dream about .

HOLDOVER!

SAN FRANCISCO . . Biggest RKO opening in a year.

HOLDOVER!

WEEK

MUSIC HALL!

Hollywood-Los Angeles!

NEW ORLEANS . . Opening and business booming!..
HOLDOVER!

ST. LOUIS . . Biggest opening gross of any RKO picture ever to play the house! . .
HOLDOVER!

BALTIMORE . . All-time record for any RKO picture!..
HOLDOVER!

PHILADELPHIA . . Terrific business . . biggest since "Top Hat" with one exception!..
HOLDOVER!

HOUSTON . . Majestic Theatre, biggest RKO opening since "Top Hat!" . .
HOLDOVER!

EL PASO . . Plaza Theatre . . Ahead of "Top Hat" opening days! . .
HOLDOVER!

GUNGA DIN

YOU BET RKO RADIO IS GOING PLACES

Name Officers in Paramount Case

Officers of Paramount, both past and present, have been served in the past week in a suit by two stockholders, Frank Jablow and Sam Acker, owning 300 shares each, purchased in 1937, and in which they charge acts of mismanagement going back to 1926. Their counsel, Pollock and Nemerov, were attorneys of record in a recent stockholders action against Loew's.

The stockholder action alleges losses in excess of $25,000,000 were incurred by the company as a result of license agreements entered into with Electrical Research Products, Inc., and from mismanagement of the company during its reorganization and since. The action has not been filed in New York supreme court yet and according to attorneys for the plaintiffs, the suit may not be filed for a month or more.

In its present form the complaint names 31 individual defendants, many of whom are either deceased, no longer associated with the company or no longer residents of New York. Paramount Pictures, Inc., Paramount Service Corporation, ERPI, Western Electric and American Telephone and Telegraph are corporate defendants.

Judge Reserves Decision In Conspiracy Action

New York supreme court Justice Samuel I. Rosenman this week reserved decision on the application of John D. Tippett and Eugene T. Tippett to dismiss a $270,000 damage suit brought by Universal Pictures Company, Inc., against them.

The Universal complaint alleges that Mr. Laemmle entered into a "fraudulent plan and conspiracy" with the defendants on May 28, 1927, when he contracted to purchase Universal's raw stock from the defendants' company for a period of five years. Under the agreement, it is charged, 50 per cent of the commissions received by the defendants was paid to Mr. Laemmle's brother-in-law, Maurice Fleckles, and "inured to the benefit" of Mr. Laemmle.

Paramount Sued by Walter Wanger

A suit for $80,403 against Paramount Productions, Inc., was revealed in New York supreme court this week when Walter Wanger Productions, Inc., the plaintiff, filed application for an order directing Barney Balaban, president of Paramount, Walter B. Cokell, treasurer, Austin C. Keough, secretary and Fred Mohrthardt, controller, to testify before trial.

The plaintiff claims the money is due under contracts made in 1935, whereby it produced nine motion pictures for Paramount for 25 per cent of the net profits. The complaint states that improper charges were set up by Paramount in figuring the profits and at least $80,403 is still due.

Seattle Fox-Ritz Brothers Tiff

The Three Ritz Brothers having promised the 20th Century Fox studios in Hollywood that they will resume work in "The Gorilla," the company has dropped its $150,000 damage suit against them.

Uphold Suit Dismissal

The New York appellate division this week upheld the dismissal of a suit for plagiarism brought by William Lavarre against Warner Brothers. Supreme Court Justice Timothy A. Leary dismissed the suit after a jury trial in January of last year. Mr. Lavarre asked $50,000.

IN NEWSREELS

MOVIETONE NEWS—No. 42, Vol. 21.—Country participates in President's charity balls....Record snowfall in Chicago....Baron Hiranuma takes office as Japan Premier....Treasure for philatelists....Train young aviators at Pomona....Fashions....Test super-clipper....Lew Lehr....Tennis....Hockey....Golf.

MOVIETONE NEWS—No. 43, Vol. 21.—Thousands killed in Chilean earthquake....Fall of Barcelona....Floods in the Ohio Valley....Army bomber carries Red Cross supplies to Chile....Boston dog show....New train put in service....Quadruplets born in Houston....Princess Anne christened....Millrose track meet....Ice skating races....Crew trains....Ski-jumping....Lew Lehr.

NEWS OF THE DAY—No. 240, Vol. 10.—Record blizzard paralyzes Chicago....Millions dance to aid paralysis fund....Super-clipper inaugurates new era in air travel....Coyote tracked down by posse in blimp....Paris fashions....Jockeys rival each other's string of victories.

NEWS OF THE DAY—No. 241, Vol. 10.—The fall of Barcelona....Earthquake disaster in Chile....Ohio River overflows....Cavalry troop performs....Track records topple in Millrose games....Reidar Andersen wins national ski jump.

PARAMOUNT NEWS—No. 53.—38 die as blizzard sweeps northeast....National amateur boxing championships....Rush air-clippers to span both oceans....San Francisco welcomes super-clipper.

PARAMOUNT NEWS—No. 54.—Ohio Valley inundated ....National Board of Review meets....Batista visits Mexico....Windsor Castle scene of wedding....Chile rushes rehabilitation work after earthquake.... Quadruplets born in Texas....TVA pays $80,000 ending utilities war....Oarsmen train....Wes Ferrell wins baseball players' golf title....Millrose track meet.

RKO PATHE NEWS—No. 57, Vol. 10.—Nation honors President's birthday....Record blizzard paralyzes Chicago....Inventor demonstrates process for making glass invisible....Harrison wins Crosby golf open....World's largest transport plane....Government opens war on rabbits....Fights mark Bruin hockey victory.

RKO PATHE NEWS—No. 58, Vol. 10.—Barcelona falls to rebels....Chile devastated by earthquake....Quadruplets born in Texas....Ski stars leap for national titles....Wedding pageant of Royal Italian bride....Hotel servants employ roller skates....Records fall at Millrose games.

UNIVERSAL NEWSREEL—No. 742, Vol. 11.—Largest passenger plane ready....Many dead in mid-west storm....Birthday balls aid sick fund....King Boreas crowned in fete....Batista starts goodwill trip....Pet crow taught manners....New "scarecrow" fashions seen....Olympic diving stars shine....Ducks race in Seattle derby.

UNIVERSAL NEWSREEL—No. 743, Vol. 11.—Earthquake in Chile....Army stages winter games....Blast wrecks cement plant....Floral Valentines new fad....Launch two destroyers....Wedding held in royal chapel....Dog show....Mexicans hail Batista....Quadruplet girls are born....Crew trains....Ski jumping....Millrose games.

"Cinema Arts" May Reappear

Cinema Arts, the magazine which appeared in the summer of 1937, dedicated to the "upper classes" of the motion picture public, and which failed after three issues, is understood to be due for a revival. Captain Thomas Martyn, former publisher of Newsweek, has bought the title and subscription list, and upon the securing of approximately $300,000 in backing, is expected to reissue the magazine under a similar title, with similar format, and aimed at the same audience. The original Cinema Arts was promoted by Albert Griffith-Grey.

The new magazine is expected to have Captain Martyn as president and general manager; and Kathryn Dougherty, a former editor of Photoplay, as publisher.

Ask Suit Be Dropped

Columbia Pictures Corporation has filed a motion in the United States district court in New York seeking dismissal of the $500,000 infringement suit brought by Milton Spitz, copyright owner of "U-Spot-It," against Motion Pictures Greatest Year, Inc., the major companies, and several other defendants. The complaint states that the Movie Quiz is an infringement of plaintiff's contest idea, and Columbia contends that it fails to state a cause of action and that the plaintiff's game is a lottery. Federal Judge William Bondy will hear argument on the motion February 17th.

Universal Sets Eight Week Drive

Universal divisional managers will head a play date drive opening February 26th and running for eight weeks to April 22nd. The drive will be in honor of F. J. A. McCarthy, eastern division manager, and William J. Heineman, western division manager. Prizes have been made available for the three winning offices in the east and the three winning offices in the west.

This is the first drive ever held by Universal to honor it division managers. Mr. McCarthy has been eastern division manager for seven years. Mr. Heineman has held the position of division manager for one year.

The McCarthy-Heineman drive was originated by A. J. O'Keefe, Universal west coast district manager and Harry D. Graham, Universal southern district manager.

James J. Jordan has been appointed western captain of the drive by Nate Blumberg, company president, and Tom Murray eastern drive captain.

During the drive Universal will release "The Son of Frankenstein," "You Can't Cheat an Honest Man," with W. C. Fields, Edgar Bergen and "Charlie McCarthy"; Deanna Durbin's "Three Smart Girls Grow Up," Bing Crosby in "East Side of Heaven" and others.

Wilcox Returns for RKO Conferences

Herbert Wilcox, British producer releasing through RKO Radio, arrived this week from London to set details for production under his cooperative arrangement with RKO. Mr. Wilcox will confer with George J. Schaefer, Ned E. Depinet and Pandro S. Berman on Anna Neagle's first American film under the RKO management. Miss Neagle is due in March to start on her American picture.

Mr. Wilcox said that his next picture will be based on the life of Lord Kitchener.

Reserve Acme Decision

New York supreme court Justice Ferdinand A. Pecora this week reserved decision on an application of James F. Reilly, as executive secretary of the League of New York Theatres, for an order directing Michael Atlas and Walter Friedman, doing business as the Acme Theatre Ticket Office, to file a detailed statement of their complaint. They seek to restrain enforcement of the Code for the sale of New York theatre tickets.

Dismiss NVA Action

A libel suit for $250,000 damages brought by National Variety Artists, Inc., against the American Federation of Actors has been dismissed by New York supreme court justice Samuel I. Rosenman on the ground that the complaint failed to state a cause of action. The suit was based on a letter written to Sally Rand, dancer, when she requested permission to appear at an NVA benefit.

Name Two Trustees

Milton C. Weisman and Kenneth Stenrich have been appointed trustees under the plan for the liquidation of Fox Theatres Corporation in an order of Circuit Judge Martin T. Manton, filed in the U. S. district court in New York this week. Mr. Weisman, as receiver, is directed to file a final accounting of the company's financial situation within 60 days.

THE LONE RANGER

Rides Again

15 THRILLING CHAPTERS

A FIERY HORSE, A CLOUD OF DUST AND A HEARTY

Hi-Yo, Silver!

with BOB LIVINGSTON as "The Lone Ranger," unmasked at last!
TONTO, played by Chief Thunder-Cloud · SILVER, played by Silver Chief
DUNCAN RENALDO · JINX FALKEN · RALPH DUNN · J. FARRELL MacDONALD
Based on the radio serial "The Lone Ranger" by FRAN STRIKER
Directed by William Witney, John English

Republic

NO SCREEN CHARACTER ENJOYS AS MUCH PUBLICITY AS "THE LONE RANGER". "THE LONE RANGER" IS BROADCAST THREE TIMES A WEEK ON A NATION-WIDE, COAST-TO-COAST HOOK-UP. "THE LONE RANGER" ALSO APPEARS AS A CARTOON STRIP IN LEADING NEWSPAPERS THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY.

ASIDES and INTERLUDES

By JAMES P. CUNNINGHAM

There's another chapter to our story of January 21st about our A-Mike Vogel sending to Hal (Walt Disney) Horne one of his favorite corn cob pipes which Mike gets by the gross from Missouri. Seems that Mr. Horne, totally inexperienced in the pipe art, sent out for a plate of hot melted butter, smeared it on the outside of the corn cob and started munching away, only to find that no kernels were there. He complained vociferously. Whereupon Mr. Vogel made special arrangements with his corn cob pipe makers in Missouri to make up some corn cob pipes with the corn on the cob.

From Horne on the cob to Horne on the corn on the cob. That's the title of the beautiful scene that took place in Horne's Rockefeller Center office when Vogel's new corn on the cob gift arrived this week.

"Immediately on its receipt," wrote back Hal Horne, "after I realized it wasn't a set of revolving false teeth, I filled it with tobacco, opened the window wide, settled down to a nice comfortable smoke and started puffing away. All of a sudden," he continued, "a flock of pigeons swooped through the window and started pecking away at the corn kernels on the pipe, covering me with feathers. One of them even went so far as to sit on my noise in an attempt to hatch it. Mike, it would have done your heart good to see all the chaos and confusion. It reminded me of what used to happen at an Associated Motion Picture Advertisers' meeting when one of the boys asked the treasurer to report.

"Be that as it may, pigeons or no pigeons, I learned that you CAN have your pipe and eat it.

"But I am afraid to write to you any further as I can see you are a man undaunted. Who knows what you will send me next? My secretary, who always remarked that she liked a man who smoked a pipe, changed her mind today—but not the pigeons—HERE THEY COME BACK, MIKE—so will have to close—the window."

▽

Headline on RKO press statement:

PRESIDENT'S BIRTHDAY AND BLIZZARD SCENES IN NEW RKO PATHE NEWS

▽

Mrs. Franklin Roosevelt's press interview the other morning covered an unusually wide range of subjects, merrily mixing quotes on the how and why she never has time for a facial, "though I have often wished for one," to her opposition to "the constant playing" of "The Star Spangled Banner" in public places. She's fearful that "it may become a bore instead of a representation of certain high memories." Warner Brothers and other exhibitors have the National Anthem played every day in their theatres.

▽

Accession of a Walt Disney original pen-and-ink sketch from "Snow White" by the Metropolitan Museum of Art indicates that those staid old curators are finally learning that not all good artists are dead artists, that an art museum is a living thing for living people, in which today's genius stands on equal and timeless footing with that of the past. A little Dwarf named Dopey shall lead them.

From "The International Musician," publication of the American Federation of Musicians, we learn that "chocolate bars" made out of coal tar are being sold in Berlin confectionery stores and theatre candy stands. Just another effort of the Nazis to provide substitutes for scarce natural products. The bars look like soap but are said to taste like chocolate, although no attempt is made to color them brown.

▽

The burlesquing of the German drive to find substitutes for raw materials, even in motion pictures, reached a new high when a jokester in Berlin sent out bills anonymously—very anonymously—asking payment for a suit of clothes made of wood fabric. The bill, as relayed from Berlin by United Press, reads as follows:

"Woodman & Co.,
"245 Forest Ave.

"Bill for Theophilus Bleat.

"1. Suit material chopped down	50 marks
"2. Branches trimmed off	10 marks
"3. Material planks stained	10 marks
"4. Jacket sawed and nailed	35 marks
"5. Lapels screwed on and hinged	25 marks
"6. Collar polished	7 marks
"7. Trousers stained and furbished	38 marks
"8. Buttonholes bored	10 marks
"9. Pockets chiseled out	10 marks
"10. Wages for mounting	5 marks

"(Reforestation 10 per cent extra. If suit sprouts in Spring, please cut off shoots and keep them for patches.)"

▽

Russell Birdwell, resigning as David Selznick's press agent, started his own praise-agenting business this week by announcing right off the bat that Miss Norma Shearer, one of his clients, had sent to the national infantile paralysis campaign a check for $15,000, her anticipated receipts from three radio broadcasts she is scheduled to make this year. Not only that, "Norma has pledged that every penny she will receive for every radio appearance this year and all other years to come, will be turned over to the Foundation."

▽

A quick glance at the newspaper advertisements of the Royal theatre down in Tampa, Florida, would move one to think they were going to get something hot off the bat, for the bold-face letters of the ads stuck out:

VIVIEN LEIGH
SCARLETT O'HARA
"GONE WITH THE WIND"

However, if the reader didn't hurry off to the theatre before giving the ad very careful reading through a magnifying glass, he'd find on close inspection that there were some additional lines of mighty small type, as follows:

"Dark Journey" with
VIVIEN LEIGH
The Star Selected for SCARLETT O'HARA
in
"GONE WITH THE WIND"

▽

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer announces a feature motion picture based on the life of the late Thomas Alva Edison, with Mickey Rooney playing Edison as a youngster. How Mr. Edison would have been delighted.

David Oliver Selznick is now making REAL progress on the casting of "Gone with the Wind." He has signed "Butterfly" McQueen, of Harlem, to become the personal negro maid of Scarlett O'Hara (Vivian Leigh).

Butterfly's is really a meteoric rise to fame. Only two years ago she was packing underwear in a Harlem factory.

P. S.: For the benefit of Southern exhibitor customers, Mr. Selznick has hoisted the battle flag of the Confederacy beneath the Stars and Stripes on the tall flag pole in front of the studio in Hollywood where he is now filming "Gone with the Wind."

▽

Scientists announce the "ultramicroscope" for filming infinitesimal matter. They'll easily top Walt Disney, by showing seven billion dwarfs on a pinhead.

▽

Cal Tinney, syndicate writer in Washington, dashed off a little note to Jimmy (Sam Goldwyn's) Roosevelt, in Hollywood, hoping "you are happy out there, but if I know anything about the inside workings of a movie studio, you are still in politics."

▽

New York State theatre owners have been watching with interest the lines of various moves to legislate a state lottery. It might have some bearing on the legal position of certain theatre chance games. Because of that we hereby report on the latest action pointing in that direction, the proposal by Senator Phelps Phelps to establish a giant lottery, "the more gianter, the better, a sort of glorified Wall Street—only you will have more of a chance to win."

▽

The lengthy name of the New York advertising firm of Batten, Barton, Durstine and Osborn has frequently been the butt of good-humored jokes in the advertising field. This week the National Broadcasting Company furnished a new one. In a release sent to newspapers to announce the renewal of the March of Time program, NBC called the agency "Batter, Barter, Durstine and Osborne."

▽

The management of the Golden Gate International Exposition in San Francisco announces that it will present outstanding features of world's fairs of the past several years, in a little number entitled, "Thieves of Bagdad."

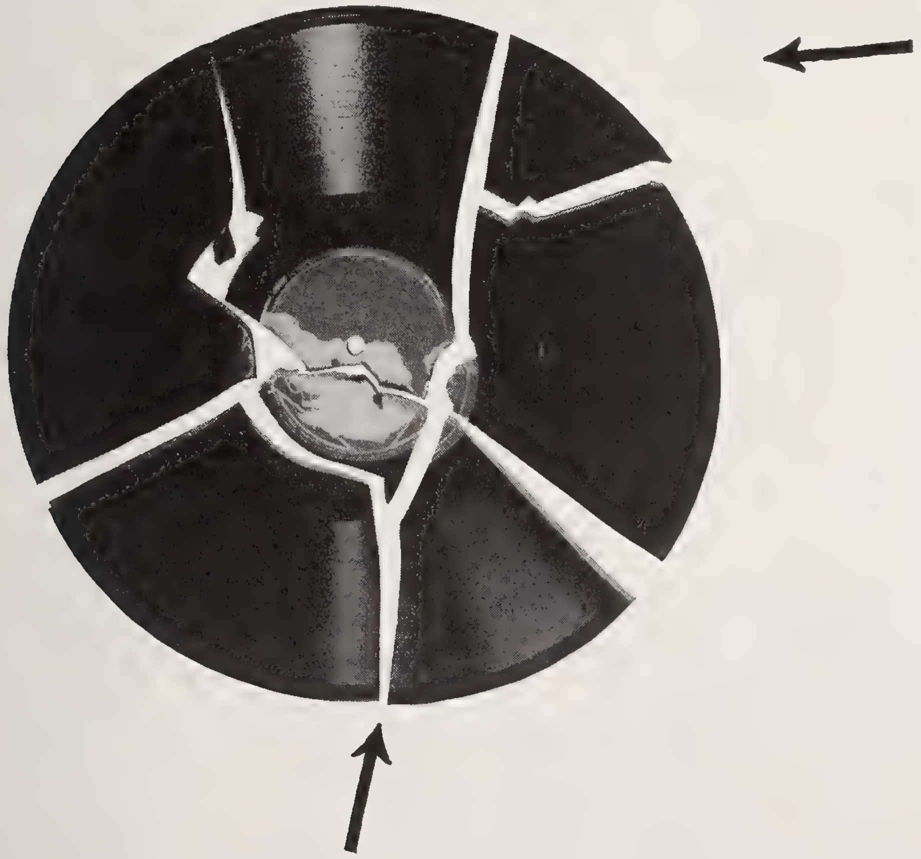
▽

Back in the winter of 1911, Frank Maffey retired at age 59 from what he had figured was a lifetime spent as a saloon keeper, in Cincinnati. Last week, at 87, he rounded out another 28 straight-running years as uniformed doorman at the Royal, Cincinnati downtown theatre. He took that job, after giving up the old, to keep from "rusting," claiming now to be the oldest gent in the country holding a uniformed doorman's job, both in point of age and length of continuous service. And he says he's not through yet.

▽

St. John Ervine, London theatre critic, in the London Era: "We may wake up one of these days to discover that we died before our birth, that next Tuesday is really last Thursday."

IT'S FUN TO BREAK RECORDS!



"IDIOT'S DELIGHT"

did it at the Sheridan, Miami. Broke every mark in the history of the house!

AND at the 6000-seat Capitol, N. Y., it's the best since "Maytime," 2 years ago.
(looks like four big weeks here)

AND a bonanza everywhere, holding over, delighting the fans!
(another friendly hit from M-G-M, the friendly company)

AND TURN THE PAGE FOR MORE GOOD NEWS!

ALL PRAISE TO:

NORMA SHEARER as the shady lady from Omaha, CLARK GABLE as the devil-may-care song and dance man in CLARENCE BROWN's production with Edward ARNOLD • Chas. COBURN • Joseph SCHILDKRAUT

Screen Play by Robert E. Sherwood • Produced by Hunt Stromberg
Based on the Theatre Guild Stage Hit and Pulitzer Prize Play.

Board of Review Speakers Attack Industry's Code

The National Board of Review at its annual conference this year extended its platform speeches against motion picture censorship by law to an attack upon all forms of regulation of motion picture standards, including the motion picture industry's own voluntarily adopted Production Code Administration, and called for the abolition of the Code Administration, and the Legion of Decency as well as the organization of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America.

Television Demonstrated

Assembling club women, educators, critics of the films and others in the Salle Moderne of New York's Hotel Pennsylvania, the three-day conference started off there last Thursday morning, and then transferred to New York City's radio station WNYC, in the Municipal Building for two addresses and a demonstration of television by Stanton Griffis, chairman of the board of Paramount Pictures, and Allen B. Dumont, of the Allen B. Dumont Laboratories, Paramount's television affiliate.

The conference got most of its newspaper headline attention from the remarks of Professor Sawyer Falk, director of the Civic University Theatre and dramatic activities at Syracuse University, who said that the immediate "abolition of the Will Hays office, the motion picture Production Code, the Legion of Decency and all other censorship organizations would be a good thing."

He added that he was not interested in promoting the growth of salacious films, but observed that motion pictures should portray what he termed "the facts of life," pointing out that such pictures could be "limited" in cost and aimed at a "limited" audience.

He said he "would rather take a chance on sullying the great American mind rather than stultifying it."

Other speakers attacked the motion picture industry as presently constituted, among them Langdon Post, a member of the National Board's executive committee, and chairman of the board of the American Federation of Housing Authorities.

Mr. Post's idea was that the public should only receive the films "it really wants," and that some force should "influence" the industry into making such films.

Mr. Post mentioned the "growing censorship of bigotry and prejudice, which is insidiously sweeping the world."

Dudley Nichols, screen writer (" . . . one-third of a nation . . . "), scored producers for their "timidity." Mr. Nichols said that the public was tired of films.

Harold Hendee, research director for RKO Pictures, deplored "trashy" films, but blamed the public taste.

Dietz Defends Industry

Howard Dietz, MGM's director of advertising and publicity, was the only industry spokesman to defend it. At the conference luncheon on Saturday, he took issue with those who declare that producers under-rate their audience mental level.

"With regard to other charges, movies have been accused of boycotting the thought of contemporary events. Critics have pointed to the difficulties encountered by the film 'Blockade.' Regardless of the issues, the facts remain that a producer made 'Blockade' and it was not the film producers who interfered with it. Criticism of this kind should be directed solely against those who are responsible, not against Hollywood.

"Yet the position of the film with regard to broad, topical questions must be examined carefully."

Other speakers included Dr. Russell Potter, associate director of Columbia University Extension; Marian Robertson, eastern talent scout for RKO; Ladislaus Czettel, costume designer; David Mendoza, film musical director; Iris Barry, Museum of Modern Art Film Library; Franchot Tone, actor, etc. There were no producers, distributors or exhibitions of motion pictures present, other than Mr. Dietz and Louis de Rochemont, of March of Time.

NEW COMPLAINTS AGAINST BURLESQUE

Paul Moss, New York City license commisoner, held a meeting at his office to deal with many new complaints against burlesque shows from clergymen and others, as reported by the New York World - Telegram, against burlesque shows. Allowed to reopen last July under a promise of reformed shows, the houses have failed to live up to the new order of things, it is claimed. John F. X. Masterson, Brooklyn attorney, was chairman of the committee named to supervise the activities of the burlesque houses.

Seven theatres are named in complaints, principally from the Reverend Joseph A. McCaffrey, chaplain of the Police Department and pastor of the Church of the Holy Cross, and James W. Danahy, vice-president and managing director of the West Side Association of Commerce.

Atlantic SMPE Meets Feb. 15th

The Atlantic Coast Section of the Society of Motion Picture Engineers will hold a meeting under the direction of the newly elected board of managers on February 15th. A dinner will be held at the Hotel Pennsylvania, after which a paper will be read and a demonstration given by Clinton P. Verber, research associate of the department of Biophotography of Rutgers University, at the Hotel McAlpin. The subject of Mr. Verber's paper is "The Time Telescope.

Guizar Film Set

Tito Guizar's next Spanish feature to be produced for Paramount release will be "The Prodigal Returns," based on an original story by Dana Wilma, according to producer Dario Faralla. Mortimer Braus has been signed to prepare the screen play. Production is scheduled to start about the middle of January.

"Snow White" To Leave

"Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," Walt Disney's feature cartoon, will be withdrawn April 29th, RKO announced this week. The film will be recirculated next fall.

Due to the success of the series of Warner Brothers patriotic shorts, Gordon Hollingshead has been promoted to feature producer by Bryan Foy. His first two assignments will be "Hero for a Day" and "Blind Spot." He will continue on shorts.

Morris Calls Warner Sessions In South America

Sam E. Morris, vice-president of Warner Brothers, in charge of foreign sales, has instructed Karl Macdonald, supervisor for Latin America, who recently arrived in Buenos Aires, to hold two South American sales conventions.

First in Buenos Aires

The first of these conventions begins immediately in Buenos Aires. All Warner managers and salesmen from Rosario, Santa Fe, Cordoba, Mendoza and Bahia Blanca have been called, as well as N. Bertolini, manager for Uruguay at Montevideo, and I. Rosenfeld, manager for Chile with headquarters in Santiago.

Harry Novak, general manager for Argentina and supervisor for Uruguay, Chile and Paraguay, will assist Mr. Macdonald in discussion of sales policies and 1939-40 product. Mr. Macdonald took with him prints of "Angels with Dirty Faces," "Dawn Patrol" and "Wings of the Navy."

Following the Argentine convention, Mr. Macdonald will go to Chile, where the Warner office in Concepcion was demolished in the recent earthquake with loss of all prints.

Rio de Janeiro Meeting

The second convention will take place at Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, March 6 to 8, with managers from Sao Paulo, Porto Alegre, Recife, Est. Sao Paulo, Bello Horizonte, Betucatu, Minas Garaes and Sao Salvador. Arthur Abeles, general manager for Brazil, will be charge, and Mr. Macdonald will attend.

Other Latin American territories, under the supervision of Peter Colli, will be visited by him in company with Mr. Macdonald. Mr. Colli, now in Trinidad, will shortly go to Puerto Rico, Panama, Peru, Ecuador and Mexico.

Mr. Colli advised that the annual "Morris Month Drive" for Cuba and Trinidad will be held in May, with dates for other territorial drives to be announced after his visits. This year Warners' foreign department has discontinued the May drive throughout all foreign territory, and has announced that each country can select its own period.

Mr. Macdonald is to return to New York about May 1st.

Jack Warner, Jr., Arrives

Jack Warner, Jr. arrived in New York this week and will work at the home office in the distribution, exhibition and publicity departments to learn these phases of the business. He was accompanied by Gradwell Sears, distribution head, and Mort Blumenstock, in charge of publicity and advertising in the east, who attended studio conferences on the coast.

Deneau Promoted by Circuit

Sidney Deneau, booker for the Albany district of the Fabian circuit, has been promoted to assistant to Simon H. Fabian. He will become buyer and booker for the circuit in the metropolitan area and New Jersey. Joe Shure, manager of the State, Schenectady, succeeds Mr. Deneau. Louis Rosenthal, cashier at the State becomes manager of the Strand, Albany; Phil Rapp, manager of the Strand, becomes manager of the Plaza, Albany, and Guy Graves, manager of the Plaza, becomes manager of the State.

HIP!

HIP!

HOORAY!

"HONOLULU!"

A new movement is sweeping the country and it's oh so nice!

It's a movement in the right direction—to the box-office!

First engagements of "Honolulu" are great. Everywhere!

Honolulu" talks a showman's language, down-to-earth entertainment, lively with music, gags and gals. (It even beat a 5-year record in Honolulu itself!)

M-G-M presents "HONOLULU" starring ELEANOR POWELL, ROBERT YOUNG, GEORGE BURNS & GRACIE ALLEN. Original story and screen play by Herbert Fields and Frank Partos. Music and lyrics by Harry Warren & Gus Kahn. Directed by Edward Buzzell. Produced by Jack Cummings.

QUESTION: "Why are the waves wild on the beach at Waikiki?"
ANSWER: "M-G-M's 'Honolulu'."

THE BIGGEST MONEY-MAKING STARS of 1938

The Winners

Shirley Temple	First
Clark Gable	Second
[illegible]	Third
Mickey Rooney	Fourth
[illegible]	[illegible]
Robert Taylor	Sixth
Myrna Loy	Seventh
Jane Withers	Eighth
Alice Faye	Ninth
[illegible]rone Power	Tenth

from Motion Picture Hera

THE FACE AMERICA LOVES!

When Mickey grins, the world laughs with him! When Mickey cries, audiences sob out loud! When Mickey is in a picture —movie fans rush to see it!

MONOGRAM
PICTURES
PRESENTS
RALPH BELLAMY IN "LITTLE PAL"
(former title "THE HEALER")
WITH
Mickey ROONEY
KAREN MORLEY • JUDITH ALLEN
Available NOW at your MONOGRAM EXCHANGE

WHAT THE PICTURE DID FOR ME

Columbia

HEADIN' EAST: Buck Jones, Ruth Coleman—Dear Columbia, this is a very good picture, indeed, of its type, but definitely not for Mr. Jones. Can't you keep him in his boots and saddles? Running time, 62 minutes.—C. E. Collier, Globe Theatre, Drew, Miss. General patronage.

PHANTOM GOLD: Jack Luden, Beth Marion—An average western and the actors go through their roles with about as much ambition as a junior class. Very mechanical and only good enough to run as the second half of a weekend double bill.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kansas. Small town patronage.

SOUTH OF ARIZONA: Charles Starrett, Iris Meredith—A good picture that did a lot better than average business so there is not much to complain about. Book it, let them know you have it and you'll do business. We ran it midweek, but will rank with your best Sunday pictures.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kansas. Small town patronage.

THERE'S ALWAYS A WOMAN: Joan Blondell, Melvyn Douglas, Mary Astor, Frances Drake—Old but good. Even the rural folks eat it up. Looking forward for "There's That Woman Again." Thanks, Columbia. Running time, 80 minutes..—C. H. Collier, Globe Theatre, Drew, Miss. General patronage.

THERE'S ALWAYS A WOMAN: Melvyn Douglas, Joan Blondell, Mary Astor, Frances Drake—A comedy which should do well in most situations. Played it as Sunday midnight but adverse weather conditions proved disastrous to the box office.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

THERE'S THAT WOMAN AGAIN: Melvyn Douglas, Virginia Bruce, Margaret Lindsay—Here's a picture that will satisfy all. Plenty of laughs and entertainment from beginning to end. Play this one on any date and you can't go wrong. Played January 12.—Pierce C. O'Donnell, Gayety Theatre, Van Buren, Maine. Small town patronage.

First National

ADVENTURES OF ROBIN HOOD, THE: Errol Flynn, Olivia de Havilland, Claude Rains, Basil Rathbone, Ian Hunter—A gorgeous production that didn't do business due to cold wave and blocked roads.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

ANGELS WITH DIRTY FACES: James Cagney, Pat O'Brien, Ann Sheridan, Humphrey Bogart, "Dead End Kids"—Personally, am glad to see Cagney back on the screen. Think he did a wonderful job of acting in this picture. Pat O'Brien and Ann Sheridan helped to make it a great drawing card. Let's don't forget the "Dead End Kids" for their fine performance. Don't miss it. Running time, 95 minutes. Played January 29-31.—Lester Booth, Stark Theatre, Toulon, Ill. Rural and small town patronage.

BROADWAY MUSKETEERS: Margaret Lindsay, Marie Wilson, Ann Sheridan, John Litel, Janet Chapman—Nice little program feature to average business. Played January 22.—B. Hollenbeck, Rose Theatre, Sumas, Wash. Small town patronage.

BROTHER RAT: Wayne Morris, Priscilla Lane, Jane Bryan—This picture was marred by the very evident reaching for laughs and those sequences were too dragged out for the good of the picture. It has its moments but the audience reaction was as I stated above.—A. E. Hancock, Columbia Theatre, Columbia City, Ind. General patronage.

BROTHER RAT: Wayne Morris, Priscilla Lane, Jane Bryan—A swell story that really kept our patrons laughing during the run of the feature. It seems that the uniform still gets them and while we didn't do any outstanding business, the picture did enough to show some profit. Play it.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kansas. Small town patronage.

FOUR DAUGHTERS: John Garfield, Lane Sisters, Gale Page, Jeffrey Lynn, Claude Rains, May Robson—A corker picture which I advertised as the first time on giving my personal endorsement to any picture since becoming manager of the State Theatre. I recommend this one unreservedly for man, woman and children alike. It's a swell picture, splendid acting, and she will do terrific business for you even in a third run house, if you advertise it right. Running time, 90 minutes. Played January 17-18.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

IN this, the exhibitors' own department, the theatremen of the nation serve one another with information on the box-office performance of product for their mutual benefit. It is a service of the exhibitor for the exhibitor. Address all communications to—

What the Picture Did for Me
MOTION PICTURE HERALD
Rockefeller Center, New York

GIRLS ON PROBATION: Ronald Reagan, Jane Bryan—Played this on double bill but can stand on single bill any time. Warner Bros. are coming out with good stuff this year for a change. "Girls on Probation" is a swell little picture that pleased all. Running time, 60 minutes. Played January 13-14.—Pierce C. O'Donnell, Gayety Theatre, Van Buren, Maine. Small town patronage.

MYSTERY HOUSE: Dick Purcell, Ann Sheridan—Used this on a double and was satisfied. Good for weekends. Played January 20-21.—George Khattar, Casino Theatre, Whitney Pier, Sydney, Nova Scotia, Canada. General patronage.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer

BOYS TOWN: Spencer Tracy, Mickey Rooney, Henry Hall—Although it is more than two months since I played this, I haven't sent in any reports in that time, so will give this little report now. We have less than a half dozen Catholic families in town but by getting the support of two or three neighboring town priests we put this over and set a new house record for gross business, a record that will probably stand for some time. A grand entertainment.—L. V. Bergtold, Westby Theatre, Westby, Wis. General patronage.

CHASER, THE: Dennis O'Keefe, Ann Morriss, Lewis Stone—This picture pleased most that came to see it. Lewis Stone seems out of place in this kind of role after seeing him in the Judge Hardy series. Lost money on this picture. Running time, 75 minutes. Played January 14-15.—O. W. Chapek, Annex Theatre, Anamoose, N. D. Rural and small town patronage.

CHRISTMAS CAROL, A: Reginald Owen, Terry Kilburn, Gene Lockhart, Kathleen Lockhart, Lynne Carver, Ann Rutherford—Very good. If you get them in, they will certainly enjoy this one. Played double bill with "Spring Madness" and everybody satisfied.—C. H. Sartorius, Capitol Theatre, Hartley, Iowa. General patronage.

CITADEL, THE: Robert Donat, Rosalind Russell—For us an outstanding production. Acting superb. Story well told. Would appreciate more of that kind. Running time, 112 minutes. Played January 11-12.—M. W. Mattecheck, Lark Theatre, McMinnville, Ore. Local patronage.

CITADEL, THE: Robert Donat, Rosalind Russell—A beautifully treated story which will draw only the better class in small towns and has no appeal for any others. Unless the literary clubs and high schools are well publicized, there isn't much hope for this, though it may do better now that it has won the award. Running time, 110 minutes. Played January 4-5.—Bob Cox, Park Theatre, Dexter, Maine. Small town and rural patronage.

CITADEL, THE: Robert Donat, Rosalind Russell—This is entertainment the majority will enjoy. Running time, 112 minutes.—C. H. Collier, Globe Theatre, Drew, Miss. General patronage.

CITADEL, THE: Richard Donat, Rosalind Russell—Everyone seeing this picture was highly pleased. A good story with actors capable of putting the picture over. We should have more pictures of that type. Everyone raved at Robert Donat's acting. This boy certainly can act. This picture will probably take the prize for 1939. Running time, 110 minutes. Played January 22-23.—Pierce C. O'Donnell, Gayety Theatre, Van Buren, Maine. Small town patronage.

DRAMATIC SCHOOL: Luise Rainer, Paulette Goddard, Alan Marshal, Ann Rutherford, Lana Turner—This was a split ticket. They that support pictures such as "The Great Waltz" and "Marie Antoinette" went for it in a big way, but the rank and file not so good. Luise Rainer is over-emoting and she did in this one. We had that criticism even from those that liked the picture. After all, she is no Garbo and for the good of her future she should be restrained.—A. E. Hancock, Columbia Theatre, Columbia City, Ind. General patronage.

EVERYBODY SING: Judy Garland, Allan Jones, Fanny Brice, Billie Burke—A picture that I did not care for but was well liked by all that saw it. I lost money on this picture. Running time, 91 minutes. Played December 23-25.—O. W. Chapek, Annex Theatre, Anamoose, N. D. Rural and small town patronage.

GREAT WALTZ, THE: Luise Rainer, Fernand Gravet, Milizia Korjus—Grand entertainment. In my estimation, very outstanding. Would be better drawing power in next picture. Several like this during the year would be fine. Running time, 104 minutes. Played January 18-19.—M. W. Mattecheck, Lark Theatre, McMinnville, Ore. Local patronage.

LOVE FINDS ANDY HARDY: Mickey Rooney, Lewis Stone, Judy Garland, Cecilia Parker, Fay Holden, Ann Rutherford, Lana Turner—Best yet. Pleased 100 per cent. This city of 75,000 has seven theatres. We play last run. Metro still leads the parade. Running time, 90 minutes. Played January 3-5.—Frank W. Linehan, Rialto Theatre, New Britain, Conn. General patronage.

OF HUMAN HEARTS: Walter Huston, James Stewart, Beulah Bondi—Make no mistake on this one. It is real small town entertainment. Didn't make film rental due to cold wave.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

PARADISE FOR TWO: Frank Morgan, Robert Young, Florence Rice, Mary Astor—Very good. Frank Morgan well liked. Still have to get a poor one from Metro. Running time, 74 minutes. Played January 21-22.—O. W. Chapek, Annex Theatre, Anamoose, N. D. Rural and small town patronage.

SHINING HOUR, THE: Joan Crawford, Melvyn Douglas, Margaret Sullavan, Robert Young, Fay Bainter—Another wonderful picture that was no draw for us. The story seems good enough but the entire sequence must have been left on the cutting room floor. Leo can do better than this and has in the past. One of his poorest. Running time, 75 minutes.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

SHINING HOUR, THE: Joan Crawford, Margaret Sullavan, Melvyn Douglas, Robert Young, Fay Bainter—Due to the imposing list of names in the cast, we drew a pretty fair crowd on this but, oh, the remarks I heard and the looks I got as the customers filed out. Played January 17.—B. Hollenbeck, Rose Theatre, Sumas, Wash. Small town patronage.

SHOPWORN ANGEL: James Stewart, Margaret Sullavan, Walter Pidgeon, Alan Curtis—Good picture and should click in any spot. Played December 16-18.—O. W. Chapek, Annex Theatre, Anamoose, N. D. Rural and small town patronage.

SPRING MADNESS: Lew Ayres, Maureen O'Sullivan, Burgess Meredith—Played double bill with "A Christmas Carol" and everybody satisfied.—C. H. Sartorius, Capitol Theatre, Hartley, Iowa. General patronage.

SPRING MADNESS: Lew Ayres, Maureen O'Sullivan, Burgess Meredith—The man who wrote "Much Ado About Nothing" must have seen "Spring Madness." Running time, 67 minutes. Played January 25-26.—Lester Booth, Stark Theatre, Toulon, Ill. Rural and small town patronage..

STABLEMATES: Wallace Beery, Mickey Rooney—Did a nice business but hardly what we expected to do as this combination can't be beat and should draw capacity anywhere. Needless to say the picture is tops.—L. V. Bergtold, Westby Theatre, Westby, Wis. General patronage.

STABLEMATES: Mickey Rooney, Wallace Beery—I can understand why everyone praises Mickey Rooney after seeing this picture. Wallace Beery being with him make it A-1 show. This picture can be played at any spot. Don't be afraid to push it. Running time, 90 minutes. Played January 22-23.—Lester Booth, Stark Theatre, Toulon, Ill. Rural and small town patronage.

(Continued on following page)

(Continued from preceding page)

STAND UP AND FIGHT: Wallace Beery, Robert Taylor, Florence Rice, Barton MacLane, Helen Broderick—Riproaring action picture that will please. The uglier Wallace Beery can look the deeper he enters the hearts of our patrons. The picture lacks feminine appeal and the press book insists on playing up the action. I disagree! Running time, 97 minutes. Played January 25-29.—Peter Panagos, Sipe and Indiana Theatres, Kokomo, Ind. General patronage.

STAND UP AND FIGHT: Wallace Beery, Robert Taylor, Florence Rice, Helen Broderick, Barton MacLane—Maybe we ran it too hot but it was a good picture and it did average business. Beery draws but Taylor hasn't won the men over. With the date we had, thought maybe it would do plenty of business.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kansas. Small town patronage.

SWEETHEARTS: Jeanette MacDonald, Nelson Eddy, Florence Rice, Frank Morgan, Mischa Auer—Sweetheart of an entertainment, sweetheart of a story, sweetheart of colors, sweetheart at the box office. Be sure and take your sweetheart when you go to see it. Running time, 110 minutes.—W. E. McPhee, Strand Theatre, Old Town, Maine. General patronage.

TOO HOT TO HANDLE: Clark Gable, Myrna Loy, Walter Pidgeon, Walter Connolly, Leo Carrillo—Played the Sunday before Christmas and did not do half the business this should have done. Is a big picture in every way and looks like one that cost a heap to produce. May not please quite everyone but not one to pass up by any means.—L. V. Bergtold, Westby Theatre, Westby, Wis. General patronage.

VACATION FROM LOVE: Dennis O'Keefe, Florence Rice—OK. Satisfied and did a nice business. Played January 10.—B. Hollenbeck, Rose Theatre, Sumas, Wash. Small town patronage.

YELLOW JACK: Robert Montgomery, Virginia Bruce, Henry Hull, Lewis Stone, Charles Coburn—Very good. Did a lot of business. Personally, I didn't care for Montgomery's idea of the Irish brogue. Played January 15-16.—Frank W. Linehan, Rialto Theatre, New Britain, Conn. General patronage.

YOUNG DR. KILDARE: Lionel Barrymore, Lew Ayres, Lynne Carver, Jo Ann Sayers—A very entertaining program picture. Should please anywhere. Running time, 80 minutes.—C. H. Collier, Globe Theatre, Drew, Miss. General patronage.

YOUNG DR. KILDARE: Lew Ayres, Lionel Barrymore, Jo Ann Sayers, Lynne Carver—The first surprise picture of 1939 for us. Most everyone fell hard for this little show and comments were more numerous than on any show we have run for months. They are anxiously waiting for the next in this series. Under no circumstances pass this one, as it will come as close to pleasing 100 per cent as anything you will get.—L. V. Bergtold, Westby Theatre, Westby, Wis. General patronage.

YOUNG DR. KILDARE: Lew Ayres, Lionel Barrymore, Lynne Carver, Jo Ann Sayers—Play this by all means, if you haven't already. It marks the advent of a real starring duo; unless I miss my guess their next one will break records. In fact, my audiences applauded the announcement that there would be more in the series. Barrymore starts where he left off in "You Can't Take It with You." Need any more be said? Running time, 81 minutes. Played January 11-12.—Bob Cox, Park Theatre, Dexter, Me. Small town and rural patronage.

Monogram

LAND OF FIGHTING MEN: Jack Randall—OK as westerns go.—C. E. Fismer, Lyric Theatre, Hamilton, Ohio. Family patronage.

RANGER'S CODE (reissue): Bob Steele—Good business due to fact this was old enough to be as good as a first-run picture for us.—C. E. Fismer, Lyric Theatre, Hamilton, Ohio. Family patronage.

WEST OF RAINBOW'S END: Tim McCoy, Nora Lane—Poor excuse for a western. People don't want acting in a western. They want action.—C. E. Fismer, Lyric Theatre, Hamilton, Ohio. Family patronage.

Paramount

ARKANSAS TRAVELER, THE: Bob Burns, Fay Bainter, Irvin S. Cobb, Jean Parker, John Beal—Best picture and best draw from Paramount since "Wells Fargo." A few more like this and Paramount would get back close to the top. This was our Box Office Champion for January. This was the perfect part for Burns.—L. V. Bergtold, Westby Theatre, Westby, Wis. General patronage.

ARKANSAS TRAVELER, THE: Bob Burns, Fay Bainter, Irvin S. Cobb, Jean Parker, John Beal—A good picture but in the wrong allocation. Don't expect too much. Running time, 80 minutes.—C. H. Collier, Globe Theatre, Drew, Miss. General patronage.

ARTISTS AND MODELS ABROAD: Jack Benny, Joan Bennett, Mary Boland, Yacht Club Boys—Maybe I'm in a cynical mood tonight but I think that this was an awful turkey. They weren't fooling when they panned this on Benny's broadcasts. I even had patrons walk out on it. Some of them even threatened to stop eating Jello! No fooling, it is terrible, and you won't miss much by not playing it. Running time, 90 minutes. Played January 18-19. —Bob Cox, Park Theatre, Dexter, Maine. Small town and rural patronage.

FIVE MORE REPORTERS FROM FIVE STATES

That the cooperation of exhibitors in contributing to "What the Picture Did for Me" knows no geographical boundaries is evidenced again this week with the addition of five reporters from as many states, as follows:

FRANK LINEHAN, Rialto Theatre, New Britain, Connecticut

MARIE HRACHOVEC, White River Theatre, White River, South Dakota

ALYCE CORNELL, Galewood Theatre, Grand Rapids, Michigan

PIERCE C. O'DONNELL, Gayety Theatre, Van Buren, Maine

C. H. SARTORIUS, Capitol Theatre, Hartley, Iowa

The three last-named have reported before to the department but in no case more recently than two years ago.

BLUEBEARD'S EIGHTH WIFE: Claudette Colbert, Gary Cooper, David Niven, Edward Everett Horton, Elizabeth Patterson—Vivacious Colbert and inimitable Cooper form a perfect team for this hilarious picture. The combined acting ability of this pair turn what might have been a slapstick affair into a very interesting comedy. Just naughty enough to be nice, the picture was given very popular approval here and should prove likewise with any adult audience. Edward Everett Horton, David Niven and Elizabeth Patterson ably assist Claudette and Gary in putting the picture across with a bang. Play it and give the grownups a treat. Running time, 84 minutes. Played January 28.—J. A. Reynolds, Director of Recreation, Prison Theatre, State Prison, Trenton, N. J. Prison patronage.

BREAKING THE ICE: Bob Hope, Shirley Ross, Charles Butterworth—No particular draw but those that came liked it. Hope did a lot better in this than in "Give Me a Sailor," and if he keeps on may get to be quite a popular star.—L. V. Bergtold, Westby Theatre, Westby, Wis. General patronage.

CAMPUS CONFESSIONS: Betty Grable, Eleanore Whitney, Hank Luisetti—Much ado about nothing. Why, oh, why, do we have to play pictures like that. Patron that came in, walked out on it. Running time, 64 minutes.—Frank W. Linehan, Rialto Theatre, New Britain, Conn. General patronage.

FRONTIERSMAN, THE: William Boyd, Russell Hayden, George Hayes—Here is a swell western. Lots of action and comedy. It's a small town natural. Running time, 72 minutes. Played January 27-28.—Lester Booth, Stark Theatre, Toulon, Ill. Rural and small town patronage.

GIVE ME A SAILOR: Martha Raye, Bob Hope, Betty Grable, Jack Whiting—Terrible. Should be a lesson to Paramount. Played January 10-12.—Frank W. Linehan, Rialto Theatre, New Britain, Conn. General patronage.

IF I WERE KING: Ronald Colman, Frances Dee, Basil Rathbone, Ellen Drew—Very fine. Good story and acting excellent. Pleased 98 per cent. Drawing power liimted but great entertainmnt, nevertheless. Running time, 100 minutes. Played January 15-17.—M. W. Mattecheck, Lark Theatre, McMinnville, Ore. Local patronage.

MEN WITH WINGS: Fred MacMurray, Ray Milland, Louise Campbell. Andy Divine—Here's another to go to town on. Plug it to the skies and you won't be sorry. But, do your business on the first day! For some reason, it dies on the second day. It has everything to play with except stars, and that seems to be what they want. MacMurray tries hard and Milland makes a very acceptable substitute for Tyrone Power. In fact, he even looks like him. Running time, 105 minutes. Played January 16-17.—Bob Cox, Park Theatre, Dexter, Maine. Small town and rural patronage.

MYSTERIOUS RIDER: Russell Hayden, Weldon Heyburn, Charlotte Fields—A very good Zane Grey outdoor picture which seems to have taken very good with all who saw it. Average business. Running time, 73 minutes. Played January 1.—A. T. Mullen, Park Theatre, Pelican Rapids, Minn. Small town and rural patronage.

PARIS HONEYMOON: Bing Crosby, Franciska Gaal, Shirley Ross, Edward Everett Horton, Akim Tamiroff—Nice little B picture. Pleased all but not strong enough for extended runs. Running time, 83 minutes.—W. E. McPhee, Strand Theatre, Old Town, Maine. General patronage.

RIDE A CROOKED MILE: Akim Tamiroff, Frances Farmer, Leif Erikson—An entertaining little B picture. Running time, 70 minutes.—W. E. McPhee, Strand Theatre, Old Town, Maine. General patronage.

SING, YOU SINNERS: Bing Crosby, Fred MacMurray, Donald O'Connor, Ellen Drew, Elizabeth Patterson—Played midweek to a fair average gross but would have done a lot more on a Sunday change. Picture is very good and will please everyone. Paramount looks a lot better this year.—L. V. Bergtold, Westby Theatre, Westby, Wis. General patronage.

SONS OF THE LEGION: Donald O'Connor, Billy Lee, Lynne Overman, Elizabeth Patterson, William Frawley—A dandy show for Legionnaires and their boys. In fact, good entertainment for anyone. This is about the best program picture Paramount has turned out in several moons.—L. V. Bergtold, Westby Theatre, Westby, Wis. General patronage.

SPAWN OF THE NORTH: George Raft, Dorothy Lamour, Henry Fonda, John Barrymore, Akim Tamiroff, Lynne Overman, Louise Platt—A very entertaining picture. It's truly different.—C. H. Collier, Globe Theatre, Drew, Miss. General patronage .

SPAWN OF THE NORTH: George Raft, Henry Fonda, Dorothy Lamour, John Barrymore, Akim Tamiroff, Lynne Overman, Louise Platt—We had this for our Christmas day program. A picture of action, terrific suspense and an all around "he man" show. Everybody praised it, even the women. Women can stand anything a man can and more, and no one fainted at either showing, but we heard plenty of sighs, deep and full of regret, when the iceberg swept down and carried our splendid hero with it. Both Fonda and Lamour did good acting but, oh, Dorothy, stay where you are at your best (in jungle pictures). No one looks or acts those parts as well, but in other roles, well, her best points just don't show up at all. Anyone in the profession can and does show up better. "Spawn of the North," "The Buccaneer," "Souls at Sea" and "Ebbtide" were all fine sea pictures. Men in the rough, people like them always.—Marie Hrachovec, White River Theatre, White River, S. D. General patronage.

SWING, YOU SINNERS: Bing Crosby, Fred MacMurray, Donald O'Connor, Ellen Drew, Elizabeth Patterson—Very good. Played January 8-9.—Frank W. Linehan, Rialto Theatre, New Britain, Conn. General patronage.

TEXANS, THE: Randolph Scott, Joan Bennett, May Robson, Walter Brennan—Well, it made us the best net of any film we showed in the last twelve months and we played "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs", too. So, Paramount, we look to you for more like it. Did heaps better for us than "The Plainsman" or "Wells Fargo". Can't account for it but that's the story and the figures don't lie. This locality goes for good westerns and if your community likes them, give them "The Texans", if you have not done so. May Robson can't be equalled in her roles. Here's hoping she lives many years yet and stays with the profession she has chosen. If she didn't speak a word, her eyes would be enough to do it all. The two leads were great, Scott and Bennett. —Marie Hrachovec, White River Theatre, White River, S. D. General patronage.

TEXAS TRAIL: William Boyd, George Hayes—This is not the best Hopalong Cassidy series, but under the prevailing weather conditions feel we enjoyed average business.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

THANKS FOR THE MEMORY: Bob Hope, Shirley Ross, Charles Butterworth—Just another program picture that did less than average business. However, Charles Butterworth is up to his usual standard. Running Time 78 minutes. Played January 18.—A. T. Mullen, Park Theatre, Pelican Rapids, Minn. Small town and rural patronage.

TOUCHDOWN ARMY: Mary Carlisle, John Howard—Not a bad picture. Makes a good companion feature but I think John Public is getting tired of the army and navy productions. Running time, 68 minutes. Played January 20-21.—Frank W. Linehan, Rialto Theatre, New Britain, Conn. General patronage.

WELLS FARGO: Joel McCrea, Bob Burns, Frances Dee, Ralph Morgan, Bernard Siegel—An excellent story, backed by a swell cast and dandy acting, makes this story of the Wells Fargo Express Company corking entertainment. Our hats off to Frank Lloyd, master-minder of masterpieces ("Cavalcade" and "Mutiny on the Bounty"). The acting of Joel McCrea, Frances Dee and Ralph Morgan, ably assisted by comedians "Bob" Burns and big "Ugh" Pawnee (portrayed by Bernard Siegel), left little to be desired. It is a picture everyone will like, and as for lovers of good old American history, well, they'll surely rave about it. Running time, 115 minutes. Played January 21.—J. A. Reynolds, Director of Recreation, Prison Theatre, State Prison, Trenton, N. J. Prison patronage.

YOU AND ME: Sylvia Sidney, George Raft, Harry Carey, Barton MacLane—All did a good job of acting their parts. We did not do so well at all financially. The reason was that title, "You and Me". Sounds like a romantic bit of mushy nonsense (as people told me) and such a splendid show. All who did go to see it were delighted with it. A really worthy story and moral. I've thought the title all to blame for the box office disappointment. I would say "Paroled" would be a better title. At least, that title would suggest something to patrons of the nature of the story. That picture deserves a wide publicity and booking by exhibitors. Trailers would do the trick partly. Better try changing the name though, Paramount.—Marie Hrachovec, White River Theatre, White River, S. D. General patronage.

Republic

COME ON, COWBOYS: Three Mesquiters (Robert Livingston, Ray Corrigan, Max Terhune), Maxine Doyle—The Mesquiteers bring 'em in and please 'em. Running time 58 minutes.—C. H. Collier, Globe Theatre, Drew, Miss. General patronage.

HEART OF THE ROCKIES: Bob Livingston, Ray Corrigan, Max Terhune, Lynn Roberts—Our first from the Three Mesquiteers and sure proud of these stars. This drew big houses account of rainy weather, and the picture was nothing to be ashamed of. Give us more of them. Running time 56 minutes. Played January 6-7.—George Khattar, Casino Theatre, Whitney Pier, Sydney, Nova Scotia, Canada. General patronage.

LADIES IN DISTRESS: Alison Skipworth, Polly Moran, Bob Livingston, Max Terhune—Swell picture for best half of double bill. Bob Livingston and Max Terhune extra draw for us.—C. E. Fismer, Lyric Theatre, Hamilton, Ohio. Family patronage.

MAN FROM MUSIC MOUNTAIN: Gene Autry, Smiley Burnette, Carol Hughes—Two years Autry set a house record for us. Since that time his pictures are the only ones that come close to the top mark, and this was no exception.—C. E. Fismer, Lyric Theatre, Hamilton, Ohio. Family patronage.

PRAIRIE MOON: Gene Autry, Shirley Deane, Smiley Burnette—Same report as "Man from Music Mountain". Goody, goody—C. E. Fismer, Lyric Theatre, Hamilton, Ohio. Family patronage.

RKO Radio

AFFAIRS OF ANNABEL, THE: Jack Oakie, Lucille Ball, Ruth Donnelly—No good for any part of a bill. Boring in the extreme. 65 minutes of headache. Running time, 68 minutes. Played January 20-21.—M. W. Mattecheck., Lark Theatre, McMinnville, Ore. Local patronage.

ANNABEL TAKES A TOUR: Lucille Ball, Jack Oakie, Ruth Donnelly—Terrible. I could make better pictures than this one. One of the poorest I have run and wouldn't recommend any one to run it.—C. H. Sartorius, Capitol Theatre, Hartley, Iowa. General patronage.

BREAKING THE ICE: Bobby Breen, Charles Ruggles, Dolores Costello, Irene Dare—I made the mistake of using this on a double bill. Picture is good enough for any change and shouldn't be wasted on your double feature nights. The best Breen show to date.—L. V. Bergtold, Westby Theatre, Westby, Wis. General patronage.

BRINGING UP BABY: Katharine Hepburn, Cary Grant, May Robson, Charles Ruggles—Grant was bogged down in an all-talking Hepburn supposed to be comedy. Many walkouts and no business. Played January 1-3.—Alyce Cornell, Galewood Theatre, Grand Rapids, Mich. Neighborhood patronage.

CAREFREE: Ginger Rogers, Fred Astaire, Ralph Bellamy—This team means absolutely nothing at our box office. The story alone would kill our biggest bet and this team is already dead. Where, pray, do they get these stories? Played January 29-31.—Alyce Cornell, Galewood Theatre, Grand Rapids, Mich. Neighborhood patronage.

CAREFREE: Fred Astaire, Ginger Rogers, Ralph Bellamy—Did a fair business. Dancing! That is what Astaire and Rogers better stick to. Too bad they ever tried dramatic roles. The world is so full of good ones now and not many dance like this pair. Why in the world did they try going into the other? It has hurt their box office value, at least temporarily. Our former Astaire and Rogers pictures did bring in a better crowd. Well, the next may do what we hope for. It is difficult, of course, to create a good enough story for their pictures. It's the same old romantic setting in every one. Maybe they shouldn't fall in love next time. I'm sure they are tired of the sameness of their stories and pictures, too, and so is the public.—Marie Hrachovec, White River Theatre, White River, S. D. General patronage.

I'M FROM THE CITY: Joe Penner, Kay Sutton—A fair Penner picture. He should have seen the rattlesnakes. The audience yelled at this stunt. Running time 65 minutes.—C. H. Collier, Globe Theatre, Drew, Miss. General patronage.

LAW WEST OF TOMBSTONE: Harry Carey, Jean Rouverol, Tim Holt, Evelyn Brent—Horse opera and a bad one at that. Poorly done, poor story and poor business.—W. E. McPhee, Strand Theatre, Old Town, Maine. General patronage.

MAN TO REMEMBER, A: Anne Shirley, Edward Ellis, Lee Bowman—Here is a picture that has been given a lot of ballyhoo by picture critics. With all their raving, it still did not do business. Some who saw it thought it excellent but, generally, it did not seem to take. The climax has considerable feeling but it's the same old story, you must have the stars to get them in. Running time, 80 minutes. Played January 11-13.—A. T. Mullen, Park Theatre, Pelican Rapids, Minn. Small town and rural patronage.

MOTHER CAREY'S CHICKENS: Fay Bainter, Anne Shirley, Ruby Keeler, James Ellison, Ralph Morgan, Frank Albertson—Just about the best show RKO turned out in their 1937-38 product. We should have a lot more pictures of this type. An ideal small town picture.—L. V. Bergtold, Westby Theatre, Westby, Wis. General patronage.

ROOM SERVICE: Marx Brothers, Lucille Ball, Ann Miller, Frank Albertson—Nary a laugh. Poorest comedy we have had. Many disappointed customers. Played January 29-31.—Alyce Cornell, Galewood Theatre, Grand Rapids, Mich. Neighborhood patronage.

WISE GIRL: Miriam Hopkins, Ray Milland—Good snappy entertainment. Enjoyed by the majority. Played January 11-12.—Alyce Cornell, Galewood Theatre, Grand Rapids, Mich. Neighborhood patronage.

Twentieth Century-Fox

ALEXANDER'S RAGTIME BAND: Alice Faye, Tyrone Power, Don Ameche, Jack Haley, Ethel Merman—Very good. Played to good business. Pleased 100%. Played December 25-26.—Frank W. Linehan, Rialto Theatre, New Britain, Conn. General patronage.

ALWAYS IN TROUBLE: Jane Withers, Robert Kellard, Jean Rogers—Fox should be ashamed of themselves to make this. A good way to ruin a box office star.—C. H. Sartorius, Capitol Theatre, Hartley, Iowa. General patronage.

DOWN ON THE FARM: Jed Prouty, Spring Byington, Louise Fazenda—This latest of the Jones Family series is certainly one of the very best. Made to order for the small town patronage.—L. V. Bergtold, Westby Theatre, Westby, Wis. General patronage.

FIVE OF A KIND: Dionne Quintuplets, Jean Hersholt, Claire Trevor, Joan Davis, Slim Summerville—Pleased on account of novelty. Would have been better if quints had been about a year older, when they could perhaps sing and talk. Running time, 84 minutes. Played January 13-14.—M. W. Mattecheck, Lark Theatre, McMinnville, Ore. Local patronage.

HEIDI: Shirley Temple, Jean Hersholt, Arthur Treacher, Helen Westley—We considered this one of Shirley's best pictures and very appropriate for the Holiday season. Pleased 100%. Miss Temple very popular with our patrons. Running time, 88 minutes. Played December 23-24.—J. P. Johnson, Sons of Norway Theatre, Ambrose, N. D. Small town and rural patronage.

KEEP SMILING: Jane Withers, Gloria Stuart, Helen Westley, Henry Wilcoxon—A pretty fair picture but Jane Withers has made a lot better ones. Didn't do much business. Played January 20.—B. Hollenbeck, Rose Theatre, Sumas, Wash. Small town patronage.

KENTUCKY: Loretta Young, Richard Greene, Walter Brennan—Beautiful in colors, beautiful in production, beautiful in story, beautiful at the box office. You'll have a beautiful day when you play it. Running time, 95 minutes.—W. E. McPhee, Strand Theatre, Old Town, Maine. General patronage.

MY LUCKY STAR: Sonja Henie, Richard Greene, Joan Davis, Cesar Romero, Buddy Ebsen—Very good. Played January 13.—B. Hollenbeck, Rose Theatre, Sumas, Wash. Small town patronage.

MYSTERIOUS MR. MOTO: Peter Lorre, Mary Maguire—This makes a great picture for either Saturday or double features. There is just enough mystery for the kids and just enough acting for the oldsters. Nobody in the picture kills themselves trying to act but they do manage to look mysterious. Running time, 62 minutes. Played January 13-14.—Bob Cox, Park Theatre, Dexter, Maine. Small town and rural patronage.

ONE MILE FROM HEAVEN: Claire Trevor, Sally Blane, Bill Robinson, Douglas Fowley—Freak draw on this for us. Played to two good houses both nights, as second feature ("Troopship") was excellent chaser and provided us with seats.—C. E. Fismer, Lyric Theatre, Hamilton, Ohio. Family patronage.

ROAD DEMON: Henry Arthur, Joan Valerie—Leave it in the can. Not even exciting. Smashups seen many times before in newsreels. A straight imposition not worthy of this company. Running time, 70 minutes. Played January 20-21.— M. W. Mattecheck, Lark Theatre, McMinnville, Ore. Local patronage.

THANKS FOR EVERYTHING: Jack Oakie, Jack Haley, Adolphe Menjou, Arleen Whelan, Tony Martin—Here's one that Mr. Zanuck failed on and miserably. It just didn't jell and it didn't draw enough to pay for the film. We put it on our best nights and that was a sad mistake. Wasn't worth half the price and we lost plenty of dough on it. Was a swell advertisement for the "Sante Fe Railroad", "Time Magazine", "Detective Story" and "20th Century-Fox Pictures". —Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kansas. Small town patronage.

THANKS FOR EVERYTHING: Jack Haley, Jack Oakie, Adolphe Menjou, Arleen Whelan, Tony Martin—Fairly good musical comedy which failed to draw. Played January 23-24.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

THIN ICE: Sonja Henie, Tyrone Power, Joan Davis, Arthur Treacher—A wonderful picture. Drew better than expected. Miss Henie very popular with our audience. Running time, 78 minutes. Played September 30.—J. P. Johnson, Sons of Norway Theatrs, Ambrose, N. D. Small town and rural patronage.

United Artists

BLOCKADE: Henry Fonda, Leo Carrillo, Madeleine Carroll, John Halliday—Just the kind the public won't miss. Get on the sunny side of life, Mr. Wanger. Running time, 84 minutes.—C. H. Collier, Globe Theatre, Drew, Miss. General patronage.

COWBOY AND THE LADY, THE: Gary Cooper, Merle Oberon, David Niven, Walter Brennan, Thomas Mitchell, Patsy Kelly—Very good. Just what they want. Good story, good comedy relief. Sufficient action and intelligently made.—C. H. Sartorius, Capitol Theatre, Hartley, Iowa. General patronage.

(Continued on following page)

TELEGRAMS
are feature length stories in short subject form
WESTERN UNION
R. B. WHITE PRESIDENT
NEWCOMB CARLTON CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD
J. C. WILLEVER FIRST VICE-PRESIDENT
CLASS OF SERVICE DESIRED
DOMESTIC CABLE TELEGRAM ORDINARY DAY LETTER URGENT RATE
SERIAL DEFERRED NIGHT MESSAGE
NIGHT LETTER
NIGHT LETTER
SPECIAL SERVICE
SHIP RADIOGRAM ACCOUNTING INFORMATION TIME FILED
TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 14, IS VALENTINE'S DAY. NOW IS THE TIME TO SEND VALENTINE TELEGRAMS TO A SELECTED LIST FOR THAT MID-WEEK SHOW. CALL THE WESTERN UNION MANAGER FOR SPECIAL QUANTITY DISCOUNTS ON LOCAL NIGHT LETTERS. COST IS SURPRISINGLY LOW AND RESULTS GRATIFYING.
WESTERN UNION
Everywhere

(Continued from preceding page)

DEAD END: Sylvia Sidney, Joel McCrea, Humphrey Bogart, Wendy Barrie, "Dead End Kids"—Did extra well on this. If picture receives enough favorable comment on its early run in this town, we do business regardless of the age.—C. E. Fismer, Lyric Theatre, Hamilton, Ohio. Family patronage.

I MET MY LOVE AGAIN: Joan Bennett, Henry Fonda, Dame May Whitty, Alan Marshal, Louise Platt—Not the kind of picture that draws for us but pleased those who did come.—C. E. Fismer, Lyric Theatre, Hamilton, Ohio. Family patronage.

PRISONER OF ZENDA, THE: Ronald Colman, Madeleine Carroll, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., Mary Astor, Raymond Massey—Just fair business on account of weather but attracted quite a few new faces for us, no doubt people who had missed it at the bigger houses. The nice part of business like this is that we usually make a few regular customers.—C. E. Fismer, Lyric Theatre, Hamilton, Ohio. Family patronage.

THERE GOES MY HEART: Fredric March, Virginia Bruce, Patsy Kelly, Alan Mowbray, Nancy Carroll, Eugene Pallette—A screwball comedy. A treat to see Mr. March in such a part. Running time, 84 minutes.—C. H. Collier, Globe Theatre, Drew, Miss. General patronage.

TRADE WINDS: Fredric Marsh, Joan Bennett, Ralph Bellamy, Ann Sothern—Good. Interesting and seemed to satisfy. Below average business but was cold, so hard to judge. Joan looks swell as a brunette.—C. H. Sartorius, Capitol Theatre, Hartley, Iowa. General patronage.

TROOPSHIP: Leslie Banks, Flora Robson, Sebastian Shaw, Patricia Hilliard—This picture presents two big questions. Why did they make it? And why did we play it? Only good point was fact that it chased enough people on the second show that we were able to accomodate everyone without a holdout. —C. E. Fismer, Lyric Theatre, Hamilton, Ohio. Family patronage.

Universal

BLACK DOLL, THE: Donald Woods, Nan Grey—Played on a double bill and pleased. Don't think it will draw as a single. Played January 6-7.—George Khattar, Casino Theatre, Whitney Pier, Nova Scotia, Canada. General patronage.

GIRL WITH IDEAS, A: Wendy Barrie, Walter Pidgeon, Kent Taylor, Dorothea Kent—Played on a double bill and pleased. Good as such; stars are no draw here. Taylor is a great actor and can't see why Universal won't give him better roles.—George Khattar, Casino Theatre, Whitney Pier, Sydney, Nova Scotia, Canada. General patronage.

SEA SPOILERS: John Wayne, Nan Grey, William Bakewell—Used as bait on double show to attract our crowd. Fishing good.—C. E. Fismer, Lyric Theatre, Hamilton, Ohio. Family patronage.

STORM, THE: Charles Bickford, Andy Devine, Frank Jenks, Barton MacLane, Preston Foster, Tom Brown, Nan Grey—Everything that was possible so far as calamity at sea was concerned happened in this disconnected picture. Lots of action but not so hot at the box office. Running time, 78 minutes.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

TROUBLE AT MIDNIGHT: Noah Beery, Jr., Larry Blake, Catherine Hughes—Played this on a double and just passed. Positively will not stand alone. Played 13-14.—George Khattar, Casino Theatre, Whitney Pier, Sydney, Nova Scotia, Canada. General patronage.

YOUTH TAKES A FLING: Joel McCrea, Andrea Leeds, Dorothea Kent, Frank Jenks—A little comedy that was very amateurish in all respects. McCrea was at his worst. Absolutely no draw for us. Running time, 78 minutes.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

Warner Brothers

BOY MEETS GIRL: James Cagney, Pat O'Brien, Marie Wilson, Ralph Bellamy—Well, here it is, the biggest disappointment in years with such a large cast and Warner had to go out and spend money to do it. Before playing this feature we knew it was poor but couldn't believe it could be so bad. Played it on a double. Can it. Played January 4-5.—George Khattar, Casino Theatre, Whitney Pier, Sydney, Nova Scotia, Canada. General patronage.

DAWN PATROL: Errol Flynn, Basil Rathbone, David Niven, Donald Crisp—You'd better get up at dawn and play this. It's the same natural that it was before. Mr. Rathbone gives Brother Lionel Barrymore another performance to top and it will take some topping. Flynn stops being pretty (I'm jealous) and turns in a fine job of mugging. Easily four bells at the B. O. Running time, 103 minutes. Played January 23-24.—Bob Cox, Park Theatre, Dexter, Maine. Small town and rural patronage.

DAWN PATROL: Errol Flynn, Basil Rathbone, David Niven, Donald Crisp—Drew well to most folks. It's all aviation, not a woman in the cast, hard boiled war front pictures and action. That's all. Running time, 96 minutes.—W. E. McPhee, Strand Theatre, Old Town, Maine. General patronage.

RACKET BUSTERS: George Brent, Gloria Dickson, Humphrey Bogart, Walter Abel—We traded this for one of this year's and glad we did. The picture has an excellent cast and some fast action coupled up with a good story. Our patrons were well pleased and while the paying customers all went to the basketball game on Friday we previewed it to enough that they talked up some business for Saturday.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kansas. Small town patronage.

Miscellaneous

WONDERS OF THE LITTLE FLOWER: Marie Aldona—Here is a religious picture that is entirely different than any other film of its kind. There is a modern story woven in and at the same time you have the life of Saint Theresa. The dialogue is French with English sub-titles. Every exhibitor would do well to play this picture during the Lenten season. The sound is very good. Picture is available at Specialty Pictures, 14 Piedmont St., Boston.—Pierce C. O'Donnell, Gayety Theatre, Van Buren, Maine. Small town patronage.

Short Features

Columbia

COMMUNITY SING: A little exercise to the Adam's apple in our theatre doesn't do any harm.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

COMMUNITY SING: No. 7—Good but not as good as those with Donald Grayson.—C. E. Fismer, Lyric Theatre, Hamilton, Ohio. Family patronage.

HEALTHY, WEALTHY AND DUMB: Broadway Comedies—The Stooges usually are good for some laughs and this one gets plenty of them. Play it.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kansas. Small town patronage.

KRAZY'S RACE OF TIME: Krazy Kat Cartoons—A very good filler.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

POOR ELMER: Color Rhapsodies—Excellent cartoon in color.—C. E. Fismer, Lyric Theatre, Hamilton, Ohio. Family patronage.

VOICE OF EXPERIENCE: Gives nice diversified entertainment with a message to your audience. —Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer

BILLY ROSE'S CASA MANANA REVUE: Musical Comedies—Very good musical. Let's have more like it. Running time, 20 minutes.—O. W. Chapek, Annex Theatre. Anamoose, N. D. Rural and small town patronage.

MAGICIAN'S DAUGHTER, THE: Musical Comedies—Good musical in which the trick shots take top honors. Frank Albertson very good. How come he is out of features? Don't companies look at their own shorts?—C. E. Fismer, Lyric Theatre, Hamilton. Ohio,

OUR GANG FOLLIES OF 1938: Our Gang—Seemed to please. Running time, 20 minutes.—O. W. Chapek, Annex Theatre, Anamoose, N. D. Rural and small town patronage.

PENNY'S PICNIC: Pete Smith Specialties, Prudence Penny—One reel in color showing Prudence cooking a picnic dinner. Will please the ladies; others, doubtful.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

THINK IT OVER: Crime Doesn't Pay Series—Excellent, as are all of this series. Deals with arson racket. Running time, 18 minutes.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

Paramount

DATE TO SKATE, A: Popeye the Sailor—Good Popeye cartoon.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

HALL'S HOLIDAY: George Hall and His Orchestra, Dolly Dawn—An added attraction for any program where orchestra music is liked. Excellent recording of swell songs by George Hall's orchestra, with torrid lilting by "Dainty Dolly" Dawn, who can really put a number over. Running time, 10 minutes.—J. A. Reynolds, Director of Recreation, Prison Theatre, State Prison, Trenton, N. J. Prison patronage.

HUNTING THRILLS: Grantland Rice Sportlights—A very interesting short, which is exciting, showing two men in a small canoe ocean fishing.—A. T. Mullen, Park Theatre, Pelican Rapids, Minn. Small town and rural patronage.

JEEP, THE: Popeye the Sailor—Not very good.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kansas. Small town patronage.

POPULAR SCIENCE: No. 1—A variety of subjects for any playhouse, all nicely done in color. Most appealing was the one of Marsh Field, California, showing the activities of future U. S. Air Corps pilots. Running time, 10 minutes.—J. A. Reynolds, Director of Recreation, Prison Theatre, State Prison, Trenton, N. J. Prison patronage.

RKO Radio

RADIO HOOKUP, A: Nu-Atlas Productions—A very good single musical.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

Twentieth Century-Fox

ATHLETIC ODDITIES: Adventures of the Newsreel Cameraman—Interesting.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kansas. Small town patronage.

FASHION FORECASTS: Fashions—Nice color and some pretty clothes. Women like to see them but a bore to the men. Nothing missed if you pass them.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kansas. Small town patronage.

FASHION FORECASTS (Winter Styles): Fashions —The ladies like these and the boys will look at the bathing beauties, but without the color they would come up minus.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kansas. Small town patronage.

STRANGER RIDES AGAIN, THE: Terry-Toons—A good cartoon.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kansas. Small town patronage.

VILLAGE BLACKSMITH: Terry-Toons—A good cartoon but these look amateurish alongside of the other companies.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kansas. Small town patronage.

WHAT EVERY INVENTOR SHOULD KNOW: Lew Lehr—Some liked it and some said it was silly.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

Universal

CAT AND THE BELL, THE: Lantz Cartunes—A very good black and white cartoon with the old story of the cat and the bell with variations. Excellent. Running time, six minutes.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

GOING PLACES WITH LOWELL THOMAS: No. 55—Two topics, New York and the chinchilla farm in California, and both are good. Running time, eight minutes.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

STARS AND STRIPES: Ed East, Ralph Dunke—Another excellent Mentone Musical. This company has something in this series of vaudeville acts set to a small plot. Running time, 17 minutes.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

Vitaphone

ALL AMERICAN DRAWBACK: Edgar Bergen, "Charlie McCarthy"—With "McCarthy" and Bergen on the Chase and Sanborn program, this is plus entertainment. Play them. Running time, 10 minutes. —George Khattar, Casino Theatre, Whitney Pier, Sydney, Nova Scotia, Canada. General patronage.

MIKE RILEY AND HIS ORCHESTRA: Melody Masters—One of the best musical reels in a long time. Running time, 10 minutes.—George Khattar, Casino Theatre, Whitney Pier, Sydney, Nova Scotia, Canada. General patronage.

MY LITTLE BUCKAROO: Merrie Melodies—Another laugh riot from Vitaphone. We can't get enough of these. Running time, eight minutes.—George Khattar, Casino Theatre, Whitney Pier, Sydney, Nova Scotia, Canada. General patronage.

SWING TIME IN THE MOVIES: Broadway Brevities—This is the best two-reeler of its kind that ever hit our screen in a long while. Running time, 20 minutes.—Pierce C. O'Donnell, Gayety Theatre, Van Buren, Maine. Small town patronage.

TOYLAND CASINO: Broadway Brevities—Some very talented children sing and dance in this two-reeler, which has special settings and costuming. Pleased all.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

Serials

Columbia

GREAT ADVENTURE OF WILD BILL HICKOK: Bill Elliott—Gentlemen, here is a serial. If you play serials, play this and top any business you have ever done. Since starting this one (now on chapter 13), our Sunday business has varied but a few dollars regardless of weather or feature attraction.—C. E. Fismer, Lyric Theatre, Hamilton, Ohio. Family patronage.

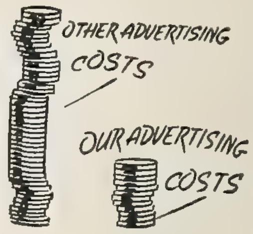
Republic

LONE RANGER, THE: Lee Powell, Herman Brix —Now playing chapter five and must say this serial is tops and the best we've played in years. You get as much action in each episode as you would get in a full six-reel western. Running time, 20 minutes.—George Khattar, Casino Theatre, Whitney Pier, Sydney, Nova Scotia, Canada. General patronage.

PRODUCTIONS IN WORK

TITLE	WRITER AND DIRECTOR	CAST	STAGE OF PRODUCTION
COLUMBIA
"Plane No. 4"	Director: Howard Hawks.	Jean Arthur, Cary Grant, Richard Barthelmass, Thomas Mitchell, Sig Rumann, Rita Hayworth.	Shooting
"Prairie Nights"	Director: C. C. Coleman, Jr.	Charles Starrett, Iris Meredith, Sons of the Pioneers, Dick Curtis.	Shooting
METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER
"Sergeant Madden"	Director: Joseph Von Sternberg.	Wallace Beery, Alan Curtis, John Brown, Laraine Johnson, Marian Martin.	Editing
"Tarzan in Exile"	From the story by Edgar Rice Burroughs. Director: Richard Thorpe.	Johnny Weismuller, Maureen O'Sullivan, Ritz Inescourt, Henry Wilcoxon, Henry Stephenson.	Shooting
"The Hardys Ride High"	Screen play, Agnes Christine Johnston, Kay Van Ripper. William Ludwig. Director: George Seitz.	Mickey Rooney, Lewis Stone, Fay Holden, Cecilia Parker, Ann Rutherford, Sarah Haden.	Editing
"Lucky Night"	Director: Norman Taurog.	Robert Taylor, Myrna Loy, Douglas Fowley.	Shooting
MONOGRAM
"Trigger Smith"	Original screen play, Robert Emmett. Director: Alan James.	Jack Randall, Frank Yacanelli, Joyce Bryant, Warner Richmond.	Shooting
PARAMOUNT
"Some Like It Hot"	Director: George Archainbaud.	Gene Krupa and his Orchestra, Shirley Ross, Bop Hope, Una Merkel, Bernard Nedell.	Shooting
"Invitation to Happiness"	Producing director: Wesley Ruggles.	Irene Dunne, Fred MacMurray, Donald O'Connor, Charlie Ruggles.	Shooting
"Beau Geste"	Producing director: William A. Wellman.	Cary Cooper, Ray Milland, Robert Preston, Brian Donlevy, J. Carroll Naish, Donald O'Connor.	Shooting
"Gracie Allen Murder Case"	From the novel by S. S. Van Dine. Director: Alfred E. Green.	Havilland, Thomas Mitchell, Barbara O'Neil. Ann Judith Barrett.	Shooting
REPUBLIC
"Mexicali Rose"	Director: George Sherman.	Gene Autry, Smiley Burnette, Luana Walters, William Royle, LeRoy Mason, Roy Barcroft, Noah Beery.	Shooting
RKO RADIO
"What's a Fixer For"	Screen play, Paul Yawitz, Bert Granet. Director: Lew Landers.	Lee Tracy, Peggy Shannon, Virginia Weidler, Peggy Carroll.	Shooting
TWENTIETH CENT.-FOX
"The Hound of the Baskervilles"	From the novel by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle. Director: Sidney Lanfield.	Richard Greene, Basil Rathbone, Anita Louise, Nigel Bruce, Lionel Atwill, John Carradine, Beryl Mercer, Barlow Borland.	Shooting
"Alexander Graham Bell"	Director: Irvin Cummings.	Don Ameche, Henry Fonda, Loretta Young, Polly Ann Young, Sally Blane, Georgianna Young.	Shooting
"Rose of Washington Square"	Director: Roy Del Ruth.	Tyrone Power, Alice Faye, Al Jolson, Marie Wilson, Douglas Fowley, Hobart Cavanaugh, Moroni Olsen, E. E. Clive.	Shooting
"Susannah of the Mounties"	Director: Walter Lang.	Shirley Temple, Randolph Scott, Moroni Olsen, J. Farrell MacDonald, Martin Goodrider.	Shooting
"News Is Made at Night"	Director: Alfred Werker.	Preston Foster, Lynn Bari, George Barbier, Eddie Collins, Russell Gleason, Minor Watson, Paul Harvey.	Shooting
"Stanley and Livingstone"	Director: Henry King.	Spencer Tracy, Richard Greene, Nancy Kelly, Walter Brennan, Charles Coburn, Henry Hull, Sir Cedric Hardwicke, Henry Travers, Hasson Said.	Shooting
"Charlie Chan in Reno"	Director: Norman Foster.	Sidney Toler, Sen Yung, Phyllis Brooks, Ricardo Cortez, Kane Richmond, Slim Summerville, Pauline Moore, Robert Lowery, Kay Linaker, Louise Henry, Iris Wong.	Shooting
UNITED ARTISTS
"Wuthering Heights" (Samuel Goldwyn)	From the novel by Emily Bronte. Screen play, Charles McArthur, Ben Hecht. Director: William Wyler.	Merle Oberon, Lawrence Olivier, David Niven, Flora Robson, Hugh Williams, Geraldine Fitzgerald.	Editing
"Captain Fury" (Hal Roach)	Director: Hal Roach.	Brian Aherne, Victor McLaglen, Paul Lukas, John Carradine, June Lang, George Zucco, John Warburton.	Shooting
"Gone with the Wind" (David O. Selznick)	From the novel by Margaret Mitchell. Screen play, Sidney Howard, Oliver H. P. Garrett. Director: George Cukor.	Vivien Leigh, Clark Gable, Leslie Howard, Olivia de Havilland, Thomas Mitchell, Barbara O'Neil, Ann Rutherford, Evelyn Keyes, Laura Hope Crews, Fred Crane, George Bessolo, Rand Brooks, Harry Davenport, Virginia Howell, Robert Gleckner, Jane Darwell, Marcella Martin, Mary Young, Georgiana Young, Ben Carter, Hattie McDaniels, Oscar Polk, Butterfly McQueen.	Shooting
UNIVERSAL
"Risky Business'	Original story, William Anthony McGuire. Screen play, Charles Grayson. Director: Arthur Lubin.	George Murphy, Dorothea Kent, Grant Richards, Walter Byron, El Brendel, James Lucas, James Farley.	Shooting
"Murder in the Surgery"	Original story, James G. Edwards, M.D. Screen play, Alex Gotlieb. Director: Otis Garrett.	Bruce Cabot, Helen Mack, Constance Worth, Thomas Jackson, Tom Dugan, Mabel Todd.	Shooting
"Spirit of Culver"	Original screen play, Whitney Bolton, Nathaniel West. Director: Joseph Santley.	Jackie Cooper, Freddie Bartholmew, Andy Devine, Henry Hull, Jackie Moran.	Editing
"East Side of Heaven"	Director: David Butler.	Bing Crosby, Joan Blondell, Mischa Auer, Irene Hervey, Jerome Cowan, Jane Goude.	Shooting
WARNER BROTHERS-FIRST NATIONAL
"Confessions of a Nazi Spy"	Director: Anatole Litvak.	Edward G. Robinson, Francis Lederer.	Shooting
"Each Dawn I Die"	From the novel by Jerome Odlum. Director: William Keighley.	James Cagney, Jane Bryan, George Raft, George Bancroft, Maxie Rosenbloom.	Shooting
"Nancy Drew, Trouble Shooter"	Director: William Clemens.	Bonita Granville, Frankie Thomas, John Litel, Renie Riano, Willie Best, Erville Alderforn, John Gallaudet.	Shooting
"The Roaring Road"	Director: Lloyd Bacon.	Pat O'Brien, John Payne, Ann Sheridan, Gale Page.	Shooting
"Hell's Kitchen"	Director: E. A. Dupont.	Margaret Lindsay, "Dead End" Kids, Ronald Reagan, Stanley Fields.	Shooting

More for your money more people see it more people read it more people are SOLD by it and costs less



OTHER ADVERTISING COSTS
OUR ADVERTISING COSTS

than any other form of theatre advertising because it reaches a 100% audience at every show Sell your pictures the smart way with Pre-vue Trailers by NATIONAL Screen SERVICE

Prize Baby of the Industry!

MANAGERS' ROUND TABLE

An international association of showmen meeting weekly in MOTION PICTURE HERALD for mutual aid and progress

A-MIKE VOGEL, Chairman and Editor
GERTRUDE MERRIAM, Associate Editor

NOTHING TO WORRY ABOUT

Some time back, a Round Tabler wrote sounding a note of indignation as had to do with the intentions of a metropolitan circuit advertising for college men to train as theatre managers. The squawk gave us the opportunity to wisecrack a little. We said that, as far as we were concerned, a college man was as good as any other, with everything else equal.

However, it appears that the university man who has not set his course after graduation now has the opportunity to "major" in theatre management, according to the announcement last week from Syracuse University. The College of Business Administration in that school, in cooperation with the Schine Theatres, now offers a course in management. All phases of operation will be covered for which no regular academic credits are to be allowed. Evidently a new source of manpower has been discovered.

The industry should welcome this flattering recognition of showbusiness as a career. Any fears that the non-college theatreman may have that he will be displaced by the man with a degree should immediately be dispelled. University graduates who become successful showmen can do nothing less than strengthen the prestige of every manager's position.

▽ ▽ ▽

THEY LEND A STRONG HAND

Showmanship, of course, is not confined to any one type of picture. Your keen theatreman can usually spot the money angle, whatever the attraction. In the final count-up, however, it appears that those features that lean to fast action and movement while the tale unfolds allow the showman quite a bit more of latitude in fastening his exploitations where they will do the most boxoffice good.

While there are "alarms and excursions" regarding the this and the that of the industry, the man in the theatre has one vital concern—his coming attractions and what to do to line up the greatest number of ticket-buyers at the cashier's window. That's the most important part of his job. In fact, that is the job. Anything extra in exploitation possibilities he may seize upon, therefore, allows him to adjust his gun-sights to cover a wider boxoffice target.

Thus, while much may be said about product, current and coming up, theatremen should be doing a bit of hand-rubbing regarding the percentage of gold-to-the-ton of ticket-selling material in many of the releases to hand for the edification of the cash customers. And while this observer makes no claim to covering the entire field of obvious exploitation targets, offhand, the following rate with your Chairman as releases worthy of going to town.

Currently the list may include: "Gunga Din", "They Made Me a Criminal", "Stand Up and Fight", "Idiot's Delight", "Wings of the Navy", "The Lone Ranger", "Union Pacific", "Stage Coach", "The Lady Vanishes", "Tailspin", "Persons in Hiding", "Jesse James", among others.

Action pictures do not always necessarily indicate top-flight exploitation. But for the most part, moving pictures (i.e., pictures that move) give the man in the field a better opportunity to speed up his campaigning accordingly.

▽ ▽ ▽

MEMBER MAKES GOOD POINT

Comes a letter from a member for a long stretch in a spot where advertising was relegated to the dog-house and for which, he says, the grosses suffered. Now more happily situated in a new job, the Round Tabler, given every opportunity to display his talents, speaks as follows:

"Whoever said anything about exploitation being a thing of the past ought to be put into a position where some first-hand information could be gotten. Many executives, from their offices in far off places who look to the ad budget as the first thing to cut in any economy wave ought to spend some time with the manager when the theatreman is out working on a campaign. I'm sure he'd change his attitude. Figures can prove anything, and to the executive out to save money exploitation should be the last thing out. Showbusiness was built on advertising."

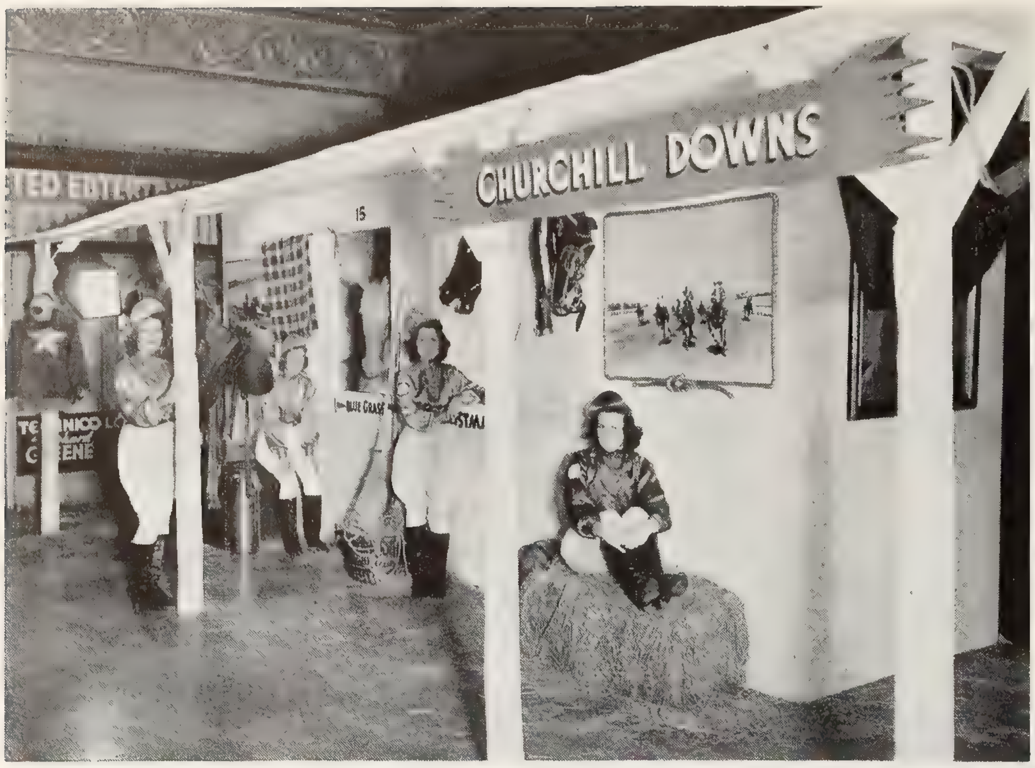
There is a heaping mouthful in what the theatreman opines. It has been our observation that advertising and exploitation flourish best in those situations where the bossmen are in close touch with the aims and efforts of their managers.

▽ ▽ ▽

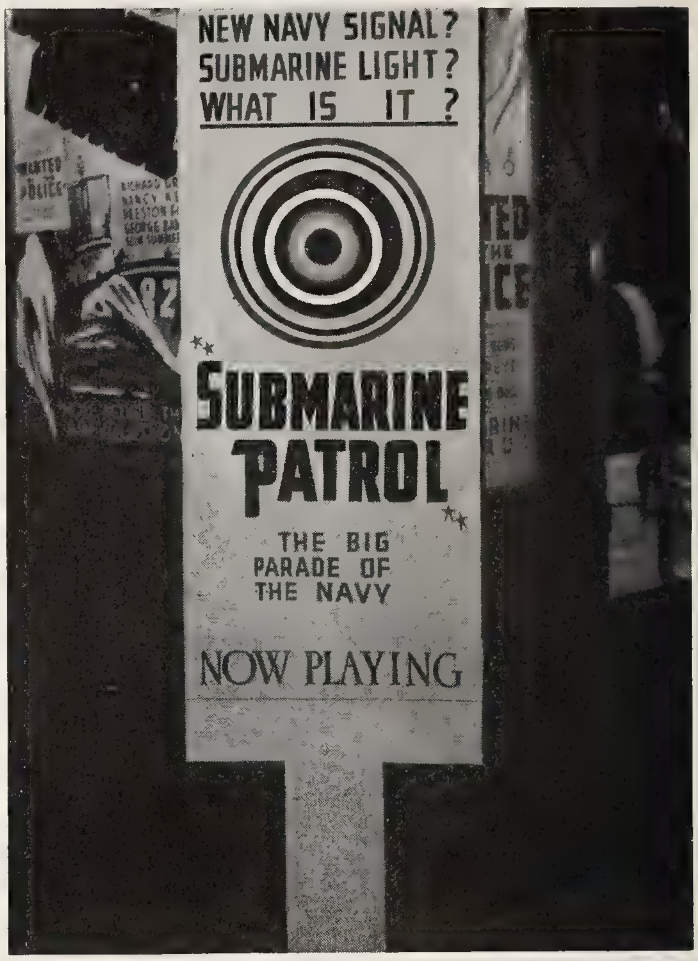
The 1938 Judging Committee, in session on Tuesday, voted the Quigley Silver Grand Award to John Burhorn, the "Bronze" to George Limerick. Story in news section, this issue.

A-Mike Vogel

Round Table In Pictures



Above is atmospheric lobby on "Kentucky" conceived by Evert R. Cummings, Tri-States district chief, and put into effect by Bill Miskell of the Orpheum, Omaha. Photo shows the right half of the lobby with replica of the Churchill Downs paddock and usherettes as jockeys. Display was routed around to other Tri-States houses, writes ad man Ted Emerson.

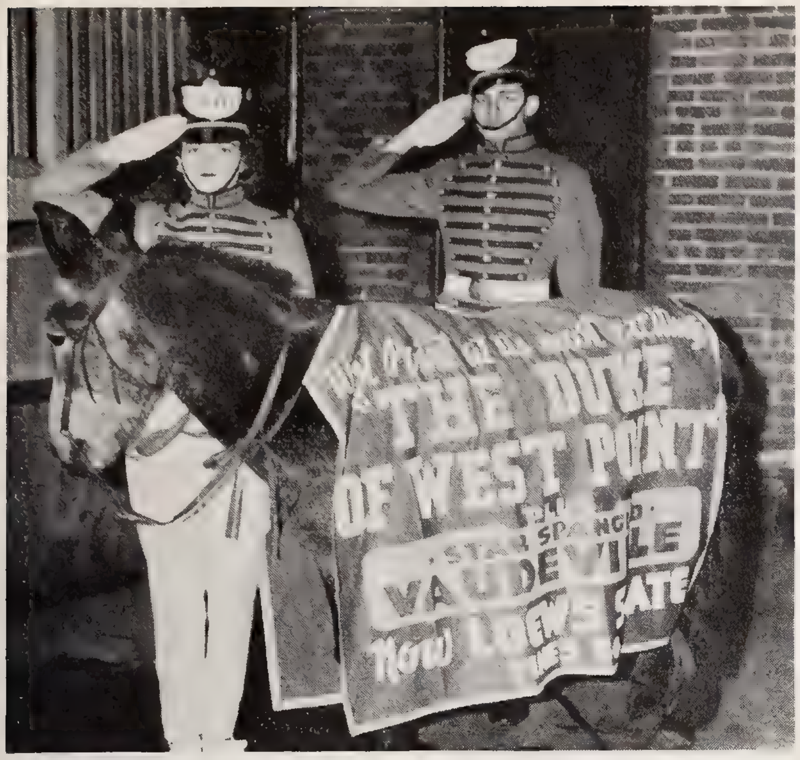


Use of a theatre front to determine crowd-stopping possibilities of a new electrical gadget was employed some weeks back in Springfield, Mass., with the Paramount Theatre front the laboratory. Manager Harry Storin tied the idea in immediately on "Submarine Patrol", reporting sufficient attention from passersby to have made the experiment mutually worthwhile.

Given official sanction by the Acting Mayor of Hartford, Conn., was the start of the "Jesse James" courier journey sponsored by Harry F. Shaw, division manager, on behalf of the picture at Loew's Theatres in Hartford, New Haven and Bridgeport. The stunt, described in detail on a following page, was given a send-off in Hartford by Shaw, His Honor, Manager Jack Simons and Division Publicist Lou Brown.

Now Showing
DAWN PATROL
MIDWEST

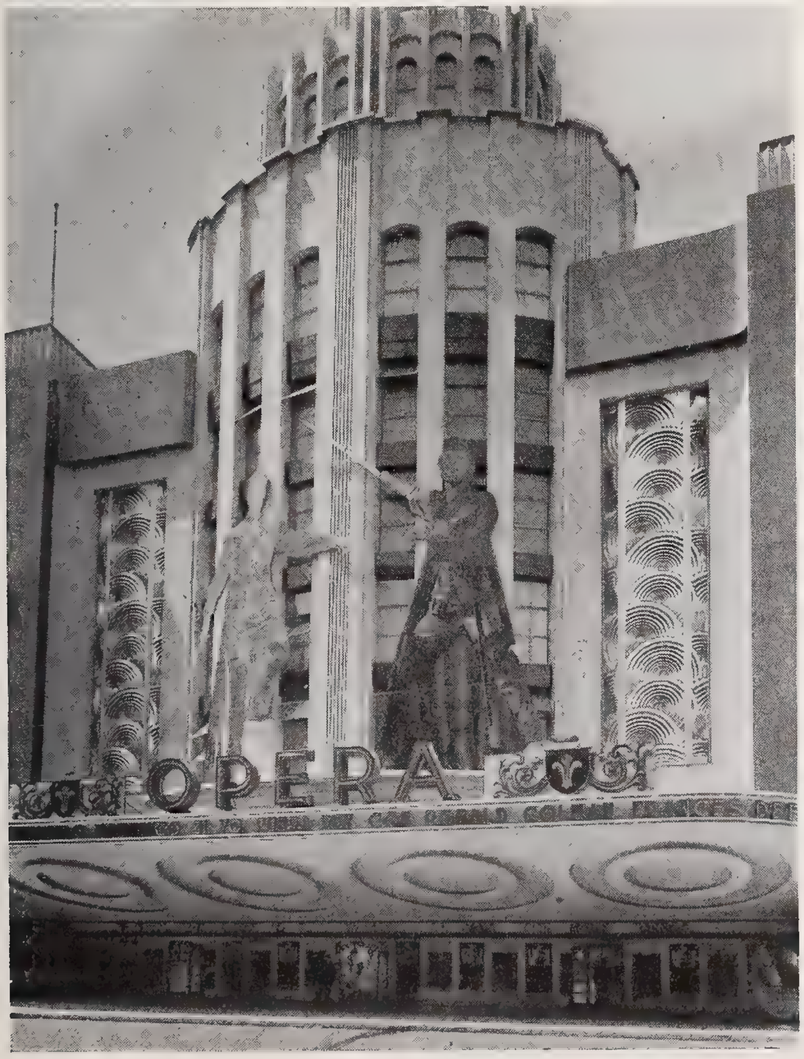
It took an act of the City Council to do so, but E. A. ("Pat") Patchen, Midwest Theatre, Oklahoma City, Okla., for "Dawn Patrol" received permission to plant silk bannerettes on light poles along entire main street for an entire week ahead of opening. Doug George, circuit ad head, reports this tieup as a first time in the history of the city.

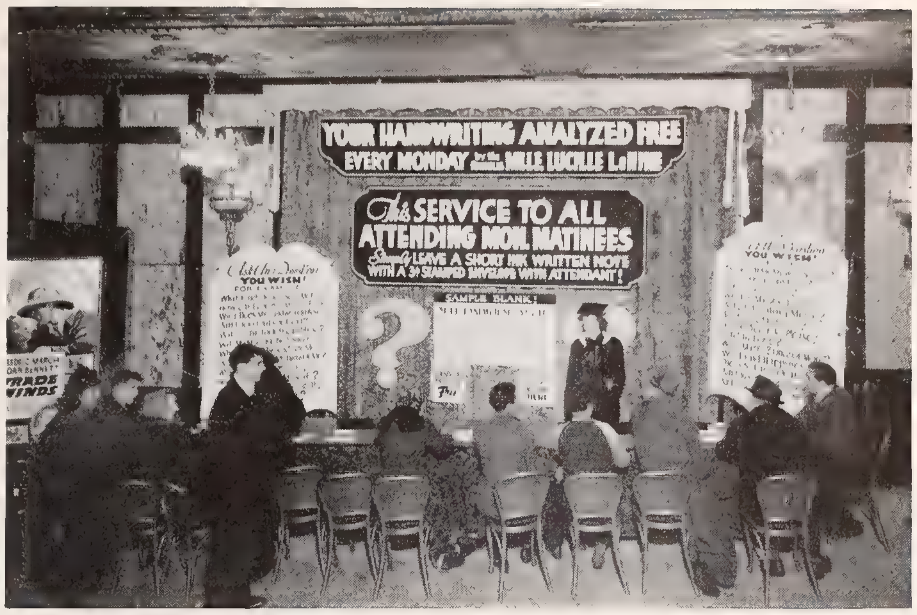


THE DUKE OF WEST POINT
STAR SPANGLED VAUDEVILLE
Now LOEW'S STATE

Boy and girl cadet leading an army mule were used to ballyhoo "Duke of West Point" dates for the Loew theatres in the metropolitan district. Stunt was handled by Carl Fishman and George Sharf of Oscar Doob's home office publicity department.

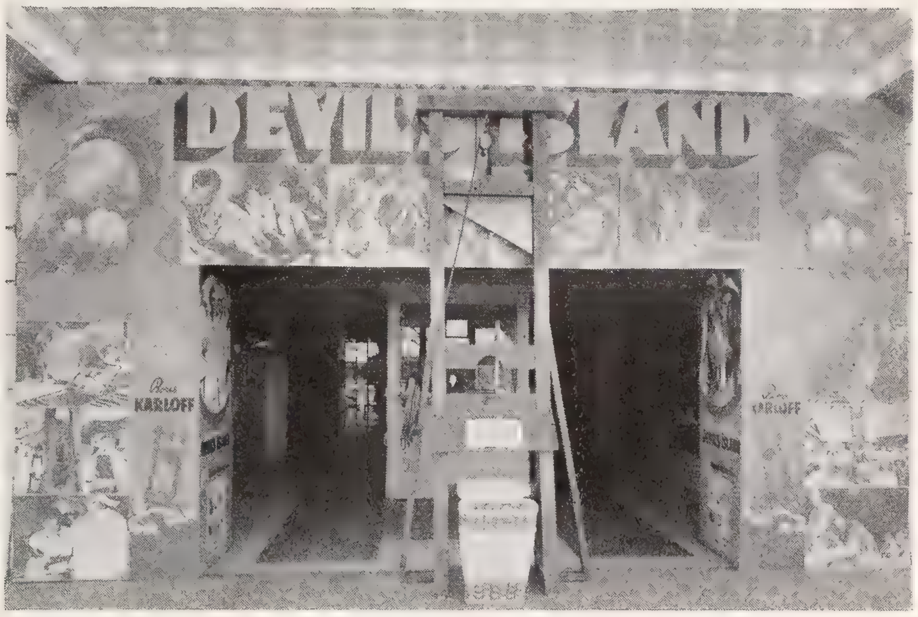
Below is front of the exterior of the Opera Cinema in Buenos Aires, showing giant cutouts atop marquee to exploit opening engagement of "If I Were King". Figures measuring approximately 30 feet in height could be seen from a distance of blocks. Idea arranged by Guillermo Fox, publicity head of Paramount in the Argentine.





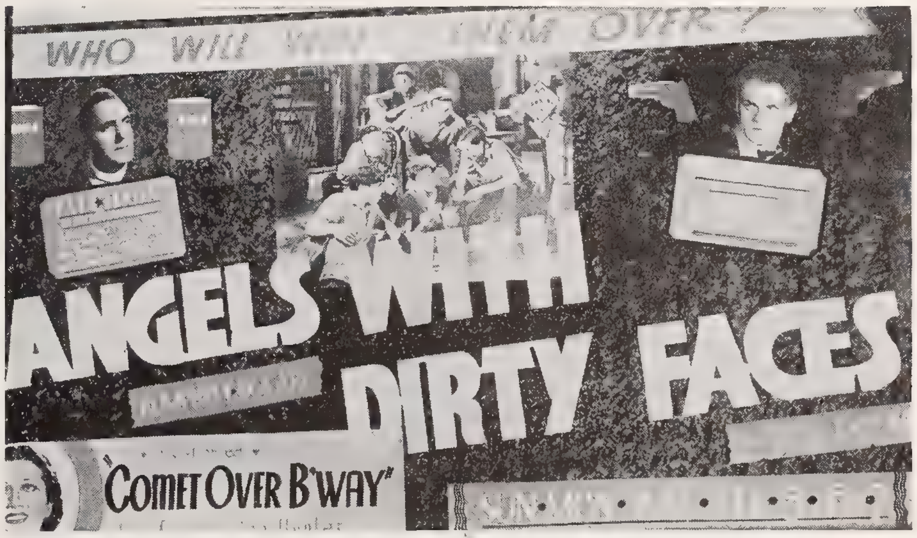
YOUR HANDWRITING ANALYZED FREE
EVERY MONDAY
This SERVICE TO ALL ATTENDING MON. MATINEES
Simply LEAVE A SHORT INK WRITTEN NOTE WITH A 3¢ STAMPED ENVELOPE WITH ATTENDANT!
SAMPLE BLANK
YOU WISH

As a divertissement for his Monday afternoon patrons, Les Pollock, Loew's, Rochester, has set up a free handwriting analysis booth in his lobby. Patrons merely leave with attendant specimens of handwriting, together with stamped self-addressed envelope. Pollock says he plans to run the gag four weeks and is already swamped with responses.



DEVIL'S ISLAND
Boris KARLOFF
KARLOFF

Made out of 4 x 4 lumber and a piece of steel properly sharpened and furbished was the guillotine constructed by Pierre Boulogne, at the Norva, Norfolk, Va., to exploit "Devil's Island". Before using out front, the guillotine was toured through the city.



WHO WILL ... THEM OVER?
ANGELS WITH DIRTY FACES
COMET OVER B'WAY

Eye-compelling was the lobby setpiece conceived by Ed Siegal of Leff's Freeman Theatre, Bronx, New York City, for the opening of "Angels". Set against red plush background, blowup scene still of the "Dead End" kids and cutouts of O'Brien and Cagney were planted.

Congratulations—

The membership will rise in unanimous acclaim as the spotlight is turned upon the 1938 Quigley Grand Awards winners, John Burhorn and George Limerick, who received the majority vote of the Judging Committee.

To Burhorn goes the Silver Grand Awards Plaque in honor of his great job of work during the entire year as manager of the last-run Gayety Theatre, in South Chicago, a unit of the Indiana-Illinois circuit. In a Class "E" situation, John scored in every Quarter, taking down three Silver Plaques and a Citation of Merit.

To Limerick was voted the Bronze Grand Award on his entries at the Yale Theatre, in Cleburne, Texas, and as City Manager for Griffiths theatres in Enid, Oklahoma. In the first Quarter, George took down the Silver Plaque and added Citation of Merit in Class "D", a First Mention in the third Quarter and the Citation of Merit in the fourth.

Detailed story and photos of the Grand Awards Judging with complete listing of the Committee will be found in the news section of this issue.

Preliminary arrangements for the presentation of the Awards and entertainment of the winners are now in work. Further announcements will be made in following issues on what is planned for the ceremonies and where to be held in May.

Aylesworth Is Quigley Awards Luncheon Speaker

(Continued from page 14)

ture, and in that way kills the picture in two lines.

"I don't believe that is proper in newspaper critics, and I don't believe it is proper on the radio. I will fight that thing as long as it exists, and I don't want you men to worry too much about it.

"I don't think that any newspapers, really, have any inclination not to give the space to which this industry is entitled, first, because what this industry does is news; secondly, because you men support the newspapers."

"Not as Alert" as Radio

The newspapers, Mr. Aylesworth thought, had lost out "a bit"; it was partly the depression, and more the fact, he said, that "newspapers lost to radio because they were not as alert."

He drew somewhat of a parallel by asking why the motion picture industry had had a "bad year" last year, and answering that perhaps it was double features, or the fatigue with which the public viewed motion pictures.

He concluded, he said, that double features were indicative of an American characteristic; the attraction of Americans for fads, which move in cycles. The remedy, regardless of the evils, he summed up, thus:

"We have got to watch all these changes. We have got to keep our eyes open. We have got to move when others move. We have got to keep pace with the American people, with whatever they do."

Attacks Propaganda in Films

On the relation of the newspaper, the radio, and especially the motion picture, to current problems, Mr. Aylesworth placed himself on the side of those deprecating the insistence of minority groups on the right to propagandize through the screen.

"Don't editorialize against anybody," he warned. "Don't come out to make motion pictures which try to save the world. It's not your job, and I sometimes think it's not the newspaper's job. They do too much of it.

"I don't think it is the job of the newspaper to 'save democracy.' I do think they can do more of it than the movies because their job is to deal with the news, not with showmanship. As for the radio, that presents both sides."

Entertainment First

"Keep on entertaining the public," he admonished. "Get the finest stories and the best talent. Don't you worry; people are not getting tired of sound or color pictures."

"But if you do not do this," he warned, "you will lose the great job that you have now; that greatest of all jobs, the entertainment of a great people."

Mr. Aylesworth, referring to Mr. Quigley's editorial stand, repeatedly expressed, against the intrusion of topical currents on a screen designed primarily to help the individual "escape," through fine entertainment, praised the publisher's "fine job and lasting work in the industry, during a very difficult period."

Introduced by Mr. Quigley, A-Mike Vogel outlined the changes in procedure for the 1939 Quigley Grand Awards, remarking that "the time was ripe for such a change, and it is ripe for 100 per cent showmanship."

Also introduced by Mr. Quigley was Alex Manta, president of Indiana-Illinois theatres.

Terry Ramsaye, editor of MOTION PICTURE HERALD, attended the judging and the luncheon.

The New Awards Procedure

For 1939 a new policy was inaugurated for the Awards in which entries are to be judged on the basis of single ideas and promotions, and not on entire campaigns over the three-month periods as previously. The quarterly periods are retained for the regular judging, but, in addition, the competitions are broken down to fortnight periods. At the end of each fortnight, the three best ideas received by the Round Table during that time will be chosen and the theatremen submitting them will be appointed "Fortnighters."

At the end of the regular three-month quarters, entries of those who have won the Fortnight title during that quarter will be judged for the Quigley Awards and the designation of "Quartermaster," who will in turn be considered for the 1939 Grand Awards.

Theatremen who compete consistently in the fortnight periods but do not win a fortnight appointment will be given special consideration in the quarterly awards. In addition, classifications as obtained last year are eliminated.

The finalists considered in the annual judging won their places for consistency of boxoffice effort during 1938, when the Awards were offered for the quality of work over three-month periods, rather than on individual campaigns judged each month, as in former years. These periods were divided into quarters, from January 1 through March 31; April 1-June 30; July 1-September 30, and from October 1 through December 31st.

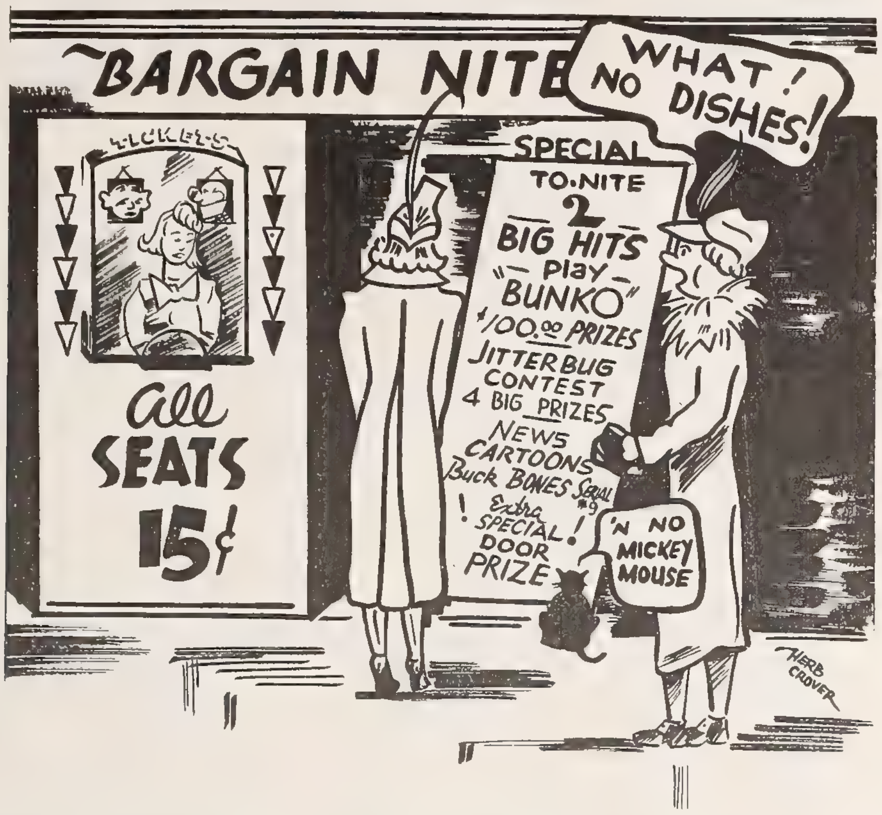
Entrants competed in five classifications, according to population and situation. Class "A" included cities of 250,000 and over; Class "B", 100,000 to 250,000; Class "C", 25,000 to 100,000; Class "D", up to 25,000, and Class "E", all subsequent-run situations, regardless of the size of the community.

In each quarter, Silver Plaques were voted by special judging committees to the best entries in each classification, and Citation of Merit Sheepskin Certificates to the next best in each class. A Special Citation of Merit was awarded to the entry selected as the best from among the Plaque winners in each quarter regardless of classification. In addition, First and Honorable Sheepskin Certificates were awarded for entries deemed worthy of recognition.

Started in 1934

The Quigley Awards were inaugurated in 1934, when a Silver Plaque was offered monthly for the best campaign on any single picture submitted to Managers' Round Table. The winners were selected by a committe of three judges representing ranking executives in distribution and advertising. A new committee was appointed each month. Theatremen who received the monthly plaques competed for the Grand Awards, which were voted to Bill Hendricks, then manager of the Warner, Memphis, and now at Warners' Downtown, Los Angeles, and to Morris Rosenthal, manager, Loew's Majestic, Bridgeport, Conn. The presentation of the Grand Awards was made in Washington by Vice-President John N. Garner before a group of Senators and Congressmen from the states represented by the winners.

SHOWMEN'S LOBBY LAFFS



This cartoon from the brush of Herb Crover, Reade's Mayfair, Asbury Park, N. J.

Mayor Proclaims Week For "Wings of Navy"

World premiere of "Wings of the Navy" at the Saenger Theatre, Pensacola, Fla., brought forth a proclamation from Mayor Conner Hagler, who designated a special "Wings of the Navy" week, with local merchants tying in to make the premiere a gala celebration.

Interstate radio hookup was made, hitting stations in Memphis, New Orleans, Birmingham and Montgomery, speakers including Capt. Aubrey W. Fitch, Commandant of the Pensacola Naval Station where many of the scenes from the picture were shot, the Mayor and Miss Sexton, designated as "Miss Wings of the Navy." Papers covered the event with stories, art and editorial comment.

M-G-M "SHORTSTORY" ANNOUNCES PRIZES

Now under way is the contest sponsored by "Shortstory", M-G-M short subjects house organ, in which prizes are offered theatremen for best execution of any one exploitation idea that has appeared in the magazine on any given short. Contestants may select any short of current or past M-G-M release, provided it has appeared in a previous issue.

First prize is a trip to the studios via American Airlines or to the New York World's Fair; second prize, a trip to Bermuda. Entries, plus the usual "evidence", must be received by "Shortstory", 1540 Broadway, New York, no later than midnight of March 1st. Judges are Howard Dietz Si Seadler, Howard Strickling, Oscar A. Doob and Herb Morgan, editor.

Coast-to-Coast Air Flights Top "Tail Spin" Advance

The two groups of prominent women flyers who toured the country by plane in behalf of "Tail Spin" arrived in New York to attend the preview of the picture in the grand ballroom of the Waldorf Astoria.

The nationwide air exploitation on the picture started from Los Angeles on January 28th, one flight traversing the northern route and the other the southern. Two flyers, junior Twentieth Century-Fox stars and publicity men, were in each unit, in all 18 key cities being covered. Advance campaigns were put on at each stop and a print of the picture delivered to the theatres.

Four-City Ballyhoo Aids "Jesse James"

To signalize what was termed the east coast premiere of "Jesse James" in the Poli-New England division, Loew-men in that sector working with Harry F. Shaw, division chief, dispatched a special courier to make the journey from Hartford to New York via horseback, stopping off at designated spots. The courier dressed as "Jesse" carried greetings from the various mayors to 20th Century-Fox for the selection of Loew houses in Hartford, New Haven and Bridgeport for the premieres.

The journey started in front of the Poli, in Hartford, where Shaw, in company with Manager Jack Simons and division publicist, Lou Brown, watched the acting mayor of the city turn over the scroll of greeting to the courier. The latter with horse bannered, then proceeded to New Haven to be welcomed there by the mayor who signed the scroll and Manager Bob Russell, of the Poli. The next stop was at Bridgeport, where the mayor awaited with Matt Saunders, of the Poli. The next day, the courier arrived at the New York Roxy, to be greeted by Irving Lesser, managing director, who received the greetings for 20th Century. Incidentally, that company thought so much of the stunt that Charles E. McCarthy, ordered a Movietone sound crew to film the proceedings. Newspapers in all stops carried stories and photos of the event which also was publicised via radio. Despite the wintry weather, Shaw reports large turnouts all along the line.

Value of the stunt in Hartford was doubled with a stage coach stunt for the local date, the coach bearing the film being "held up" in the business section of the city. After "James" had made the getaway with the print, shouting newsboys circulated papers imprinted in red: "Extra. Jesse James captured at Loew's Poli."

The LITTLE FLOWER of JESUS
SAINT THERESE of LISIEUX

A GREAT PICTURE FOR THE LENTEN SEASON

SOMETHING DIFFERENT—
THE GREATEST STORY
EVER PRODUCED

ALL HAVE READ HER BIOGRAPHY
NOW SHOW THEM HER LIFE STORY ON THE SCREEN

THE ONLY AUTHENTIC
ENGLISH TALKING PICTURE
OF THE ENTIRE LIFE OF SAINT THERESE OF THE CHILD JESUS

TESTIMONIALS

"A fine and beautiful piece of work."—Jean Cardinal Verdier, Paris

"For those communities in which Cloistered and Monastery have been shown with success, this production should do equally as well . . . a deeply beautiful and reverent offering. . . ." —Showmen's Trade Review

". . . THERE IS MORE UNITY HERE THAN IN EITHER 'CLOISTERED' OR 'MONASTERY' . . ." Commonweal

SUNRAY FILMS, INC., 220 West 42nd St., New York

ADDITIONAL AWARDS ENDORSEMENTS

LIGE BRIEN

Manager, Prince
Ambridge, Penna.

There is a two-fold value in your awards to myself and to the industry. First, an award being in a sense a theatre necessity; the second worth is working for the reward of self enjoyment. The first effort that of working for the necessity of the Theatre's grosses finally blends in with the second, that of enjoyment. Without the second effort, the first would be worthless, dull; so I write of the value of awards as being singular.

I find working on campaigns gives extra joy and fun; it is an avenue of escape from the constant little troubles that spring up around the theatre. The business of working for enjoyment, and then receiving a compliment, that of receiving a Quigley Award is great!

CARTER H. ENGLISH

Manager, Majestic
Centerville, Ia.

You're right! This idea of awards for any single idea or promotion will increase your entries many times over.

Being located in a small town with a very moderate budget, I know that it has been impossible for me to lay out a complete campaign that would be suitable for the previous Quigley Awards. One just can't do it on a small advertising budget.

Now, with your present set-up, I can get one hot idea that might even be a 'no-cost' stunt and shoot it in to you for competition in the Awards.

GUS W. CARLSON

Manager, Palace
Superior, Wis.

Your change in procedure in this year's judging for Awards is a step in the right direction.

Every picture deserves to be sold properly with no selling bets overlooked, and I think the Managers' Round Table Club has helped along this line. Although that should be "all in a day's work" with the managers, the spirit of competition in trying for the Quigley Awards, winning international recognition in this field, should be that extra incentive and at the same time bring the maximum results at the boxoffice.

LYLE HARDING

Manager, Sheridan Square
Pittsburgh, Pa.

Mailed my campaign book for this last quarter just a few minutes ago, and sincerely hope you did not think I had lost interest and would not compete, in what to me, is the finest incentive to a theatre man, to keep awake and abreast of our fast moving industry.

However, I wish to say that I hate to think what would have happened to the old box-office, without the effort expended on these campaigns. To me, my Awards have brought not only recognition by promotion, but also in a monetary way which I feel would never have been reached without them.

FINDS NEW POLICY EQUAL FOR ALL

I have just received your advice regarding the change for the 1939 Quigley Awards. It's a great idea.

I have always thought the Quigley Awards an outstanding opportunity for men to obtain recognition that they deserved but I think that the new suggestion of submitting single ideas or promotions one that will give every manager an opportunity to participate.

The new idea, too, will give more ammunition to the readers and I think generally will serve as a factor in helping sell our business.—L. I. BEARG, District Manager, Famous Players-Canadian Corp., Vancouver, B. C.

JIMMIE REDMOND

Advertising and Publicity Manager
Bonham, Fairbury, Neb.

To me the Quigley Awards have always been an excellent guide to theatre advertising. Every week I can pick up our MOTION PICTURE HERALD, knowing that I can find new ideas, new selling angles, and different means of ballyhoo that can be used on some coming picture. Perhaps, some theatre man has put on a fine campaign on a picture we have already played, but his ideas can be used on some other picture that we have not played.

I know that through the effort of getting a Quigley Award that our well planned campaigns have increased our grosses at the box office without any great increase in our advertising expense. It is really surprising what a fine campaign can be made on a picture without any added costs if one plans his campaigns well in advance and taking advantage of the other fellow's ideas that have been submitted to the HERALD for publication.

In all, the Quigley Awards have helped us in every way, grosses, better campaigns, and much more experience as a showman. May the Awards continue.

BERT LEIGHTON

Manager, Grand Lancaster, Penna.

Winning an award or even receiving an honorable mention, stimulates a manager or publicity man to more and greater campaigns, these naturally reflect in better grosses at the box-office.

Every member of our profession regardless of the size town he is in, or type theatre he manages, has the opportunity through competing for the Quigley Awards of not only establishing himself with his brother manager but with his superiors and the heads of all the great organizations in our business.

In my opinion your method of issuing Awards is a fair one from every standpoint.

PETE EGAN

Manager, Palace
Calgary, Alberta, Can.

Regarding the Quigley Awards, I beg to advise that this sort of competition, to my mind, is the best that any manager could have, due to the fact that: first—it gives you competition with fellow managers and spruces you up to the point that you know you must do something really exceptional to get anywhere in this competition. Second—I am sure that it increases the value of the theatre manager, due to the fact that he is on his toes at all times trying to figure out new ideas that will not only attract the public, but will also bring grosses to his theatre and company.

Third—another thing it certainly makes the manager dig deep down in his treasure chest for new ideas, and I am sure some of the fronts and the exploitation that has been done through this Quigley competition, must certainly have added great receipts to pictures, played in the different theatres.

Fourth, and finally—to mind the Quigley Award, summed up, is a real incentive to every manager to go out and do his best, and at the same time, is successful in this competition he receives an honor that means very much to himself and certainly pleases his organization.

J. A. SANDERS

Manager, Chief
Gallup, N. Mex.

I have been interested in the Quigley Awards for two years and the passing of time brings an ever growing incentive to accomplish bigger and better things in the exploitation field.

The Quigley Awards make it possible for us to become better acquainted with the managers throughout the country and keeps us posted as to what is really happening in the industry at large. They have instilled in me a deeper appreciation for my profession. The awards make it possible for showmen everywhere to do big things on a less expensive scale; therefore, they are enabled to stimulate better grosses.

The competitive angle probably has the most direct appeal to theatremen, as the Awards encourage them to further the purposes of showmanship, both for benefit to the individual and benefit to the industry.

I am very proud of the sheepskins I have—two "First Mentions" and two "Honorable Mentions," and I am working harder than ever before, and I trust that some time I will be the proud and lucky winner of a silver plaque and a trip.

TED DE GRAZIA

Manager, Lyric
Bisbee, Ariz.

"The value of the awards to me is that they act as a stimulant to better work. However conscientious a man may be, there is no denying that the awards are an added incentive, providing, as they do, recognition of his extra efforts. The awards' value to the industry at large is plain—more alert managers, fatter grosses."

SHOWMEN ACCLAIM SETUP FOR 1939

W. CLYDE SMITH

City Manager, Malco Theatres
Hot Springs, Ark.

There is no denying the definite value and worth of the Quigley Awards Competitions both as a box office stimulant and the builder of personal prestige for the Manager. Everybody who has ever competed for these Awards will agree with me that it is a great experience and thrill to win. It is unsurpassed as a personal achievement to a showman. I have been fortunate enough to win a Plaque and numerous Mentions and I am confident that this has helped my prestige immensely.

Hot Springs is a resort and numbers of showmen come here from all parts of the country and most all of them call on me stating that they know me through Quigley Award Competitions and Round Table Activities. I have had several advancements with my company and I want to give great credit to Quigley Awards.

I really like the new system for 1939 and you can be expecting material from me from time to time.

BILL JOHNSON

Manager, Opera House
Millinocket, Maine

Your new plan sounds good to me. Faster, more flexible, and generally more interesting than the older way. I'm all for it!

THOR HAUSCHILD

Manager, Paramount
Marion, Ind.

Since the inception of the Awards plan, I, and many others like me, have been more conscious of what we were doing, planning our campaigns more carefully, seeing to full coverage without duplication and waste.

An Award is a goal toward which to work. More awards is a higher goal. All of us like to hear recognition of our efforts. But the Awards fill a bigger place than satisfaction to our vanities. Through the Award system, one's ability and industry are exploited, brought to light and often serve to inspire the means to our individual good fortune.

I am very happy to read the new set-up for 1939. Single ideas and promotions gives the fellow who is hampered by a limited budget an even break. It is my opinion that you'll see a lot of new faces in the list of winners for 1939.

MARLOWE CONNER

Manager, Rhodes
Chicago, Ill.

Most of us have two reasons for working. First, to promote the welfare of the theatre we are working with, and second, to promote ourselves to greater and more lucrative fields of endeavor. Each of these overlap and assist the other. Awards provide an incentive to encourage both.

SEES MUCH BENEFIT IN NEW PROCEDURE

I believe the new plan for the 1939 competition will be of more benefit to a larger number of exhibitors in a shorter period of time. Whereas the exhibitor in the smaller towns may have felt it was useless to submit individual ideas, displays, announcements, stunts, ballyhoos, promotions, ads or series of ads, his single good idea is on a par with any other exhibitor's idea, whether large or small, and has the same chance in the judging.

The new plan for the 1939 Competition should open a field of ideas for promotion, yet untouched, which should be of inestimable benefit to every exhibitor. It should be success in high gear.—E. R. HARDWICK, Manager, Lyceum, Mesa, Plains Theatres, Clovis, New Mexico.

JOHN NEWKIRK

Manager, Granada
Cleveland, Ohio

I was very happy to hear that you will continue the Quigley Awards during 1939, and that the rules have been modified so that every theatre manager will have an equal chance, regardless of what type situation he has.

Last year I was fortunate enough to merit Honorable Mention with one of my entries, and I felt as proud as though I won the silver plaque. With the new 1939 Competition set-up you can expect plenty of entries from me, and I have a premonition that one of them will click.

Here's hoping the new year will be a big and better year for Quigley Awards, and that more new faces and names will be "discovered" through its competitions.

TED KIRKMEYER

Manager, Rio
Helena, Mont.

Your plans for the 1939 Awards seem very advisable. Your Round Table and Quigley Awards are undoubtedly one of the greatest stimulators for the showman today.

I wish you continued success for your 1939 Quigley Awards.

CHUCK SHANNON

Manager, Belmar
Pittsburgh, Penna.

With nine Quigley Awards—two Bronze Plaques, two First Mentions and five Honorable Mentions, adorning the walls of my office; it is little wonder I point to them with pride as marks of recognition, brought about by the competitive spirit of Showmanship, that is established through the medium of the Quigley Awards. And in a greater sense of the word, responsible for my position as manager of a theatre to-day.

GUY MARTIN

Manager, Colfax
South Bend, Ind.

I, as a Plaque winner, am a firm believer in the exploitation of our moving pictures—and I consider the Quigley Award a grand incentive to "urge one on." It adds zest to the purpose, and the man seeking recognition not only for his picture and theatre but —it might also be termed—gratification to his ego. And—aren't we all? But whatever it might be, I have never known a carefully planned exploitation to fail in its purpose. It is needful and helpful!

Beyond all doubt, I think that every manager should make an effort to win a Quigley Award, and—whether it develops into Plaque, First Mention, or Honorable Mention, much of this depending greatly upon one's limitations, yet the gesture alone demonstrates one's keen interest in his theatre as any individual Quigley Award means work and concentration of thought.

I am indeed very happy to note that the manner of judging for 1939 has been changed and I would say that it sounds more like Mike Vogel. I do feel that the quarterly judging does keep a quantity of good material out of your office which under the new set-up you are bound to receive.

EWELL BINGHAM

Manager, Howard
Taylor, Texas

I consider the Quigley Awards one of the greatest assets that a showman could have. While a real showman should not need an award dangled in his face to make him exert his utmost to do the job well, there is no doubt but that they help greatly in getting a man to give a little something extra. I have won several Honorable Awards but I still have hopes of winning a first or second and with that idea in mind, I will give just a little more that I might.

What use is a great mind if someone does not know about it and through the pages of Managers' Round Table we all have a chance to share, to get knowledge, ideas, etc., that we would never get if we did not know what our fellow showmen were doing.

You share a great part and get some man a break that perhaps he never would receive by calling attention of his efforts to his superiors.

LOUIE CHARNINSKY

Manager, Capitol
Dallas, Texas

I think the Quigley Awards are the greatest thing in show business. Not only because I have won several of them, but because it has made me work all the harder to put over motion pictures to the theatre-going public.

As you know, I am manager of both the Capitol and Rialto Theatres in Dallas and I firmly believe that my efforts in selling pictures at both houses have led me to be appointed Good-will Ambassador for the Interstate Circuit, making good-will trips to towns in the surrounding territory.

• personalities

WILLIAM T. POWELL

district manager for Western Massachusetts Theatres, with headquarters at the Victory, Holyoke, has been promoted to the post of Assistant Division Manager of the circuit under Harry Smith and will be located at the home office in Springfield.

▽

HARRY HUNTER

manager of the Anderson Theatre, Biloxi, Miss., has been transferred to the Paramount-Richards, Inc. office in New Orleans, and CLAYTON HAUSCHILD of Pensacola has moved over to the management of the Anderson.

▽

ED MAY

manager of the Russell, Maysville, Ky., has been put in charge of the three units recently acquired by the Schines in Middlesboro, Ky.

▽

KENNETH ROCKWELL

manager of the RKO Albee, Providence, has been transferred to the circuit's Colonial in New York City. HARRY McDONALD, at the RKO Keith, Boston, succeeds Rockwell.

▽

OSCAR MONTGOMERY

manager of the Criterion Theatre, Spartanburg, S. C., has been transferred to Salisbury, N. C., as manager of the Victory. SEVERN ALLEN, assistant at the Broadway in Charlotte, succeeds Montgomery.

▽

M. A. LIGHTMAN, JR.

has become manager of the Paramount and Pastime Theatres in Helena, Ark., succeeding HAL HOWARD. The latter has taken over Lightman's former duties as manager of the chain's theatres in Hope.

▽

ROBERT JAMES

assistant manager at the Granada Theatre, Minneapolis, has been transferred to the Loring in the same capacity. Other Minnesota Amusement Co. changes include DAVE GOULD, treasurer at the State, promoted to assistant at the Granada; C. L. TAYLOR becomes treasurer-assistant at the State and GEORGE MARCH chief usher at the State, succeeds T. KJELLAND as assistant manager at the Nokomis, the latter having resigned.

▽

THOMAS BAIRD

has been promoted by L. H. Walters, manager of the Cleveland National Theatre Supply office, from office manager to salesman covering the western half of the Cleveland territory, succeeding M. H. FRITCHLE, resigned. JOHN WATTS has been promoted from bookkeeper to office manager and D. T. COUMEIG has been appointed bookkeeper.

▽

GLEN THOMPSON

has purchased the Atoka and New Theatres in Atoka, Okla., from EARL BARRETT.

▽

JOSEPH W. FIATH

has opened the Town Hall, Collinsville, Conn., after renovation.

▽

CHARLES REYNOLDS

former Columbia salesman, has opened the Community Theatre in Gardner, Kansas.

Birthday Greetings

K. L. Adams
Alvah Barber
James T. Barnett
W. L. ("Woody") Barritt
W. Spencer Bentley
Bernard N. Bisbee
John A. Cherry
Arlo R. Clausen
Moon Corker
Calvin ("Doc") Council
Harry E. Creasey
Achilles Damiani
Dave Davidson
Charles Dearth
J. H. Diller
Thomas P. Dowd
John Ewing
Raymond C. Fahrenholz
Harry E. Finley
Albert Garfield
Stanley Gartside
Nat Goldberg
Harold Grott
Arthur B. Hahn
Merrill F. Hanna
Paul H. Harrell
G. Otto Hartsoe
George Heliotes
I. M. Hirshblond
Homer R. Hisey
Chris G. Holmes
Charles N. Hurley
Anton Janssen
George W. Jinks
F. H. Jones
Jules Koenig
H. O. Larson
Alvin K. Lavender
W. J. ("Bill") Lindeman
Norman M. Linz
J. Ellison Loth
J. Roger MacGuigan
Shelby McCallum
Robert T. Marhenke
Charles V. Martina
Bill Nash
Joseph D. Nevison
Henry E. Newberry
David Newell
William V. Novak
Clarence J. Olbrich
Ed Penn
Dominick Reds
N. J. Reed
Frank Reid
Thomas R. Reilly
John J. Revels
G. W. Sampson
J. L. Shasteen
Philip Sigel
Isser Singerman
Theodore L. Smalley
Edward Spengeman
Charles L. Stephenson
William H. Turner
Ken Veach
Dick Walsh
William Weiss
Ernst Williams
A. Milam Wilson
William C. Wittenberg
Herman D. Wood
T. S. Yeoh
Rudy L. E. Zalowitz

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

MANAGERS' ROUND TABLE

Rockefeller Center, N. Y.

Name.....................................

Position.....................................

Theatre.....................................

Address.....................................

City.....................................

State.....................................

Circuit.....................................

Absolutely No Dues or Fees!

BERT WILD

Warner manager in Erie, Pa., has been transferred to Butler, where he will manage the Butler Theatre.

▽

M. R. BLAIR

has been named president of the newly formed Cedar Amusements, Inc., of Des Moines.

▽

HOMER MARVEL

is manager of the reopened Royal Theatre, Mt. Vernon, Ill.

▽

C. C. RHODES

who runs the Roxy, Warsaw, Mo., has taken over the house at Buffalo, Mo.

▽

DICK CROSBY

has been named manager of the New Embassy, San Francisco, Cal.

▽

JOHN NOLAN

former manager of the Savoy, Manhattan, has been appointed manager of the Broadway in Yonkers, replacing AL SIMMONS, resigned. JOHN GUTTERIDGE replaces Nolan.

▽

ROBERT G. HESSELDENZ

of the Bair Circuit has joined the Dudley Williston circuit as assistant to Williston, who operates houses in Louisville.

▽

WARREN PECHNER

publicity manager at the Paramount, San Francisco, has been named manager of the Variety in Palo Alto. AL DUNN succeeds Pechner.

▽

ROBERT SELIG

former district manager for Gaumont British in Denver, is managing the Hiawatha, succeeding RALPH BATSCHELET. AL YOHE, publicity director, is now directing the Webber, succeeding HARRY LANE.

▽

MAUREY ASHMANN

has been appointed by Stanley Kolbert to supervise theatres of the Strasberg Interboro Circuit. Ashmann had been in charge of the Five-Boro Bronx division.

▽

J. ADOLPH MEISE

is the new manager of the Paramount, Greenville, Miss., succeeding JIM WEST, resigned.

▽

MILLARD LEE

is the new manager of the Delta and Rex Theatres at Opelousas, La., replacing P. R. PUISSEGUR.

▽

STERLING WAY

has been promoted to city manager for Fox, in Laramie, Wyo. Other Fox Intermountain Theatre changes include JACK COPELAND, former manager of the Paramount in Denver, who has succeeded Way as manager of the Aladdin, Denver. HAROLD RICE of Laramie, was brought to Denver to assume position vacated by Copeland.

▽

DONALD PALMQUIST

assistant manager of the Loring Theatre, Minneapolis, has been transferred to the same position at the Uptown in St. Paul.

THE RELEASE CHART

INDEX

On this and the following page appears an alphabetical index to the titles of all features listed in this week's Release Chart, with additional information for the exhibitor.

Following the title is information regarding the classification of the subject matter of the feature. A comedy is denoted by the abbreviation Com.; Melodrama by Mel.; Comedy-Melodrama by Com-Mel.; Musical by Mus.; Musical Comedy by Mus-Com.; Western by West. If the production is made in color, the letter "C" appears in parentheses after the classification. Thus: Com-Mel (C) denotes a Comedy-Melodrama in Color.

At the extreme right of the line containing the title of the production is the name of the distributor.

A

Abused Confidence, Mel.............Col
Adventure in Sahara, Mel..........Col
Adventure of Giacomo Casanova, Mel ....Amerital
Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, The, Com-Mel ....MGM
Adventures of Jane Arden, Mel.....WB
Affairs of Annabel, Com..........RKO
Alexander Graham Bell, Mel.....20-Fox
Alexander's Ragtime Band, Mus. 20th-Fox
Alf's Button Afloat, Com.......Foreign
Algiers, Mel..........................UA
Always in Trouble, Com.............GB
Always Goodbye, Mel..........20th-Fox
Amazing Dr. Clitterhouse, Mel.....FN
Ambush, Mel.......................Para
Angels With Dirty Faces, Mel......FN
Annabel Takes a Tour, Com.......RKO
Annie Laurie, Mel..............Foreign
Arkansas Traveler, Com............Para
Arrest Bulldog Drummond, Mel...Para
Arizona Bracelets, West...........Para
Arizona Legion, West..............RKO
Arizona Wildcat, Com..........20th-Fox
Army Girl, Mel.....................Rep
Artists and Models Abroad, Com. Para
Avocate d'Amour, Com-Mel.....Foreign

B

Back Door to Heaven, Mel..........Para
Ballerina, Mel....................Foreign
Barefoot Boy, Mel.................Mono
Battle of City Hall, Mel............WB
Beachcomber, The Mel.............Para
Beau Geste, Mel.....................Para
Beauty for the Asking, Com......RKO
Big Fella, Mus...................Foreign
Billy the Kid Returns, West.......Rep
Black Bandit, West................Univ
Blackwell's Island, Mel.............WB
Blockheads, Com. ....MGM
"Blondie," Com. ....Col
Blondie Meets the Boss, Com........Col
Booloo, Mel. ....Para
Border G-Man, West...............RKO
Boy Meets Girl, Com...............WB
Boy's Reformatory, Mel............Mono
Boy Slaves, Mel....................RKO
Boy Trouble, Mel ....Para
Boys Town, Mel....................MGM
Breaking the Ice, Mus............RKO
Broadway Musketeers, Mel...........FN
Broadway Serenade, Mus.........MGM
Bronze Buckaroo, Mel...........St. Rts.
Brother Orchid, Mel................WB
Brother Rat, Com...................FN
Burn 'Em Up O'Connor, Com-Mel. MGM
Bulldog Drummond in Africa, Mel..Para
Bulldog Drummond's Secret Police, Mel ....Para

C

Cabira, Mel......................Foreign
Cafe Society, Mel...................Para
California Frontier, West............Col
Campus Confessions, Com...........Para
Captain Fury, Mel..................UA
Captain Scorpiob, Com...........Foreign
Carefree, Mus-Com................RKO
Carnival in Flanders, Com-Mel. Foreign
Charlie Chan in Honolulu, Mel..20th-Fox
Charlie Chan in Reno, Mel......20th-Fox
Chalked Out, Mel....................FN
Chaser, The, Com-Mel............MGM
Christmas Carol, Com-Mel.......MGM
Cipher Bureau, Mel..................GN
Citadel, The, Mel...................MGM
City Streets, Mel.....................Col
College Girl, Mel................Foreign
Code of the Cactus, West........St. Rts.
Code of the Fearless, West......St. Rts.
Code of the Streets, Mel...........Univ
College Girl, Mel.................Henka
Colorado Trail, The, West...........Col
Comet Over Broadway, Mel.........WB
Convicted, Mel.......................Col
Convict's Code, Mel...............Mono
Convicts at Large, Mel..........St. Rts.
Come On, Leathernecks, Mel.......Rep
Come On, Rangers, West.........Rep
Confessions of a Nazi Spy, Mel....WB
Cowboy and the Lady, Com.........UA
Cowboy from Brooklyn, Mus.......WB
Crashing Through, West............GN
rashing Through Danger, Mel..St. Rts.
Crime Over London, Mel...........GB
Crime Ring, Mel.................RKO
Crime Takes a Holiday, Mel.........Col.
Crossroads, Mel.................Foreign
Crowd Roars, The, Com-Mel.....MGM

D

Dangerous Cargo, Mel.........20th-Fox
Danger on the Air, Mel............Univ
Dark Eyes, Mel................Foreign
Dark Rapture, Mel.................Univ
Dark Sands, Mel.................Foreign
Dark Victory, Mel..................WB
David Copperfield, Mel............MGM
Dawn Patrol, Mel...................WB
Delinquent Parents, Mel.........St. Rts.
Deperate Adventure, Com-Mel.....Rep
Devil's Island, Mel.................WB
Disbarred, Mel.....................Para
Divorce of Lady X, Com. (C)......UA
Dock on the Havel, Mel.........Foreign
Dodge City, Mel. ....WB
Down in "Arkansaw," Mus........Rep
Down on the Farm, Com......20th-Fox
Dramatic School, Mel. ....MGM
Drifting Westward, West.........Mono.
Dr. Kildare's Mistake, Mel........MGM
Drums, Mel. (C) ....UA
Duke of West Point, Mel...........UA
Duke Steps Out, Mel............St. Rts.
Durango Valley Raiders, West......Rep.
Dybbuk, The, Mel...............Foreign

E

Each Dawn I Die, Mel.............WB
East Side of Heaven, Mus-Com....Univ
Edge of the World, Mel.........Foreign
Empire of the West, West..........GN
Empty World, Mel..................GB
Evergreen, Mus. ....GB
Everybody's Baby, Com........20th-Fox
Exile Express, Mel. ....GN
Exposed, Mel. ....Univ

F

Fast and Loose, Mel..............MGM
Fast Company, Com-Mel.........MGM
Federal Man Hunt, Mel............Rep
Federal Offense, Mel..............Para.
Female Fugitive, Mel.............Mono
Feud of the Range, West.......St. Rts.
Fighting Thoroughbreds, West......Rep
First Offenders, Mel.................Col
First Ranger, The, West............Col
Fisherman's Wharf, Mus..........RKO
Five of a Kind, Mel............20th-Fox
$5,000.00 Reward, Mel.................Rep
Flight at Midnight, Mel...........Rep
Flight Into Darkness, Mel.......Foreign
Flight to Fame, Mel.................Col
Flirting with Fate, Com-Mel.......MGM
Flying Irishman, Mel.............RKO
Foggy Quay, Mel...............Foreign
Forged Passport, Mel..............Rep.
40 Little Mothers, Mel...........Foreign
Four Daughters, Mel.................FN
Four Feathers, Mel.................UA
Four Girls in White, Mel.........MGM
Four's A Crowd, Com.............WB
Freshman Year, Com-Mel.........Univ
Frog, The, Mel......................GB
Frontiersman, West.................Para
Frontiers of '49, West................Col
Frontier Scout, West................GN
Fugitives for a Night, Com.......RKO

G

Gambler and the Lady, The........Para
Gambling Ship, Mel...............Univ
Gang, The Mel..................St. Rts.
Gang Bullets, Mel.................Mono
Gang Smashers, Mel............St. Rts.
Gangster's Boy, Mel..............Mono
Garden of the Moon, Mus-Com......FN
Gateway, Mel. 20th-Fox
Ghost Town Riders, West.........Univ.
Girl Downstairs, The, Com-Mel..MGM
Girl Must Live, Com................GB
Girl Refuge, The, Mel..........Foreign
Girls on Probation, Mel.............FN
Girls' School, Mel...................Col.
Give Me a Sailor, Com.............Para
Gladiator, The, Com.................Col
Glory of the Faith, Mel.........Foreign
Going Places, Com-Mel.............FN
Gold Is Where You Find It, Mel. (C) FN
Gold Mine in the Sky, West........Rep
Gone Harlem, Mel..............St. Rts.
Gone with the Wind, Mel............UA
Goodbye, Mr. Chips, Com-Mel....MGM
Gracie Allen Murder Case, Com-Mel, Para
Grand Illusion, Mel..... Foreign (World)
Grand Jury's Secrets, Mel.........Para
Great Man Votes, Com............RKO
Great Waltz, The, Mus..........MGM
Guilty Trails, West.................Univ
Gunga Din, Mel.....................RKO
Gun Packer, West...................Mono
Gunsmoke Trail, West.............Mono

H

Hard to Get, Com-Mel.............WB
Hardys Ride High, Com-Mel......MGM
Harlem Rides the Range, West..St. Rts.
Hatred, Mel.......................Foreign
Having Wonderful Time, Com.....RKO
Heart of the North, Mel. (C)......WB
Heart of Paris, Mel.............Foreign
Hell Bound, Mel................St. Rts.
Hell's Kitchen, Mel.................WB
Heritage of the Desert, Mel.......Para
Hero for a Day, Mel.................WB
Heroes of the Hills, West..........Rep
Hey! Hey! U. S. A., Com.....Foreign
His Exciting Night, Com..........Univ
Hold That Co-ed, Com.........20th-Fox
Hold That Kiss, Com..............MGM
Home on the Prairie, West.........Rep
Homicide Bureau, Mel..............Col
Honolulu, Mus-Com...............MGM
Hotel Imperial, Mel................Para.
Hound of the Baskervilles, Mel...20-Fox

I

I Am a Criminal, Mel.............Mono
I Am the Law, Mel..................Col
Ice Follies of 1939, Com-Mel........MGM
I Demand Payment, Mel.........St. Rts.
Idiot's Delight, Com-Mel.........MGM
If I Were King, Mel...............Para
Illegal Traffic, Mel.................Para
I'll Give a Million, Mel.........20th-Fox
I Married a Spy, Mel................GN
I'm From Missouri, Com...........Para
I'm From the City, Com...........RKO
In Early Arizona, West.............Col
In Old Mexico, West...............Para
In Old Montana, West..........St. Rts.
Inside Story, Mel..............20th-Fox
International Crime, Mel...........GN
Invitation to Happiness, Com-Mel..Para
I Stand Accused, Mel...............Rep
I Take This Woman, Com-Mel....MGM
It's in the Air, Mel.............Foreign
It's Spring Again, Com..............UA
Itto, Mel.........................Foreign
Ive Got a Horse, Mel...........Foreign
I Was Made a Convict, Mel.........Rep

J

Jesse James, Mel. (C)..........20th-Fox
Jones Family in Hollywood, Mel. 20th-Fox
Josette, Com. 20th-Fox
Juarez, Mel..........................WB
Just Around the Corner, Mus-Com. 20th-Fox
Juvenile Court, Mel..................Col.

K

Keep Smiling, Com.............20th-Fox
Kentucky, Mel. (C).............20th-Fox
Kentucky Moonshine, Com.....20th-Fox
Kid from Kokomo, The, Mel........WB
Kid from Texas, Mel..............MGM
Kipnapped, Mel. 20th-Fox
King Kong, Mel....................RKO
King of Chinatown, Mel...........Para
King of Alcatraz, Mel..............Para
King of the Turf, Mel...............UA
King of the Underworld, Mel.......WB
Knight and the Lady, Mel...........WB
Knights of the Plains, West.....St. Rts.
Kreutzer Sonata, Mel............Foreign

L

Lady and the Mob, The, Mel........Col
Lady Objects, The, Mel.............Col
Lady Vanishes, Mel..................GB
Land of Fighting Men, West......Mono
Last Express, Mel...................Univ
Last Frontier, The, Mel............UA
Last Warning, The, West.........Univ
La Vierge Folle, Mel............Foreign
Lawless Valley, West..............RKO
Law of the Texan, West.............Col
Law West of Tombstone, West....RKO
Let Freedom Ring, Mus...........MGM
Letter of Introduction, Com-Mel..Univ
Let Us Live, Mel.....................Col
Liebe Im ¾ Takt, Com.........Foreign
Lightning Carson Rides Again, West Victory
Listen, Darling, Mel................MGM
Little Adventuress, The, Mel.........Col
Little Flower of Jesus, Mel.....Foreign
Little Miss Broadway, Mus...20th-Fox
Little Princess, The, Com. (C).20th-Fox

(Continued on following page)

[THE RELEASE CHART--INDEX CONT'D]

(Continued from preceding page)

Little Miss Thoroughbred, Mel.....WB
Little Orphan Annie, Mel.........Para
Little Tough Guy, Mel............Univ
Little Tough Guys in Society, Mel..Univ
Little Women, Mel.................RKO
Lone Star Pioneers, West..........Col
Lone Wolf Spy Hunt, Mel..........Col
Long Shot, The, Mel.................GN
Love Affair, Mel...................RKO
Love Finds Andy Hardy, Com-Mel MGM
Lucky Night, Com.................MGM

M

Made for Each Other, Com-Mel.....UA
Mad Miss Manton, Com...........RKO
Maiden Voyage, Com-Mel.........MGM
Mamele, Com ....Foreign
Man About Town, Com............Para.
Man from Music Mountain, West..Rep
Man from Texas, West............Mono
Man in the Iron Mask, Mel..........UA
Man's Country, West..............Mono
Man of Conquest, Mel................Rep
Man to Remember, Mel............RKO
Man with 100 Faces, Mel...........GB
Marie Antoinette, Mel.............MGM
Marseillaise, Mel.................Foreign
Marusia, Mus.....................Foreign
Meet the Girls, Mel............20th-Fox
Meet the Mayor, Com..........St. Rts.
Men Are Such Fools, Com-Mel.....WB
Men With Wings, Mel. (C).......Para
Mexicali Kid, West................Mono
Mexicali Rose, West.................Rep
Midnight, Mel........................Para
Mis Dos Amores, Mus..............Para
Missing Guest, The, Mel..........Univ.
Mr. Chump, Com.....................WB
Mr. Doodle Kicks Off, Com.......RKO
Mr. Moto in Terror Island, Mel.20th-Fox
Mr. Moto's Last Warning, Mel.20th-Fox
Mr. Moto Takes a Chance, Mel.20th-Fox
Mr. Moto Takes a Vacation, Mel. 20th-Fox
Mr. Wong, Detective, Mel.........Mono
Mother Carey's Chickens, Com....RKO
Mounted Police, No. 1, Mel..........Col
Murder in the Surgery, Mel.......Univ
My Bill, Mel...........................FN
My Lucky Star, Mus-Com.....20th-Fox
My Song of Love, Mel..........Foreign
My Son Is a Criminal, Mel..........Col
Mysterious Miss X, Mel............Rep
Mysterious Mr. Moto, Mel.....20th-Fox
Mysterious Rider, Mel..............Para
Mystery of Mr. Wong, The, Mel..Mono

N

Nancy Drew, Detective, Mel........WB
Nancy Drew, Reporter, Mel........WB
Nancy Drew, Trouble Shooter, Mel..WB
Navy Secrets, Mel..................Mono
Never Say Die, Com................Para
Newsboy's Home, Mel.............Univ
News Is Made at Night, Mel...20th-Fox
Next Time I Marry, Com...........RKO
Night Hawk, Mel.....................Rep.
Night in Ghost Town, A, West....RKO
Night on the Danube, Com-Mel..Foreign
Night Spot Hostess, Mel...........Para
90 Degrees South, Mel...........Foreign
North of Shanghai, Mel.............Col
Numbered Woman, Mel...........Mono

O

Off the Record, Com-Mel...........WB
Oklahoma Kid, Mel.................WB
Old Bones of the River, Com....Foreign
One Third of a Nation, Mel........Para
One Wild Night, Mel...........20th-Fox
On Trial, Mel.........................WB
Orage, Mel........................Foreign
Orphans of the Street, Mel.........Rep
Outside These Walls, Mel............Col
Outlaw's Paradise, West.........St. Rts.
Out West with the Hardys, Com-Mel. MGM
Overland Express, West............Col
Overland Stage Raiders, West.......Rep
Overland with Kit Carson, West....Col
Over the Moon, Mel. (C)...........UA

P

Pacific Liner, Mel...................RKO
Painted Desert, West..............RKO
Pals of the Saddle, West............Rep
Panama Cipher, Mel..................GN
Panamint's Bad Man, West.....20th-Fox
Pardon Our Nerve, Mel.........20th-Fox
Paris Honeymoon, Mus-Com.......Para
Paroled from the Big House, Mel. St. Rts.
Passport Husband, Com........20th-Fox
Pecks Bad Boy at the Circus, Com RKO
Peg of Old Drury, Mel..........Foreign
Penny Paradise, Mel............Foreign
Penrod's Double Trouble, Mel........FN
Personal Secretary, Mel.........Univ
Persons in Hiding, Mel............Para
Phantom Gold, West..................Col
Phantom Ranger, The, West.....Mono
Phantom Stage, West..............Univ
Picardy Max, Mel....................RKO
Pioneer Trail, West...................Col
Pirates of the Skies, Mel..........Univ
Plane No. 4, Mel.......................Col
Policy Man, Mel.................St. Rts.
Port of Hate, Mel................St. Rts.
Port of Seven Seas, Mel..........MGM
Prairie Justice, West...............Univ
Prairie Nights, West..................Col
Pride of The Navy, Mel..............Rep
Pride of the West, West............Para
Prison Break, Mel...................Univ
Prison Nurse, Mel....................Rep
Prison Train, Mel...............St. Rts.
Prison Without Bars, Mel...........UA
Professor Beware, Com.............Para
Professor Steps Out, The, Com-Mel. WB
Pygmalion, Com-Mel..............MGM

R

Racket Busters, Mel.................WB
Radio Troubadour, Mus.............Para
Rage of Paris, Com.................Univ.
Rebellious Daughters, Mel.......St. Rts.
Red River Range, West..............Rep
Reformatory, Mel.....................Col
Refugiados en Madrid, Mel......Foreign
Religious Racketeer, Mel........St. Rts.
Renegade Ranger, The, West......RKO
Restless Age, The Mel...............UA
Renfrew on the Great White Trail, West. ....GN
Return of the Frog, Mel.........Foreign
Rhythm of the Saddle, West.........Rep
Rich Man, Poor Girl, Com-Mel....MGM
Ride a Crooked Mile, Mel..........Para
Ride 'Em Cowgirl, West.............GN
Riders of the Rio Grande, West..Mono
Rio Grande, West....................Col
Risky Business, Mel................Univ
Road Demon, Mel..............20th-Fox
Road to Reno, Com.................Univ
Roaring Road, The, Mel.............WB
Rollin' Plains, West...................GN
Rolling Westward, West...........Mono
Romance of the Redwoods, Mel.....Col
Room No. 111, Mel..............Foreign
Room Service, Com.................RKO
Rose of Tralee, Mel.............Foreign
Rose of Washington Square, Mus-Com, 20th-Fox
Rothschild, Mel..................St. Rts.
Rough Riders Round-up, West......Rep
Rough Riding Rhythm, West....St. Rts.
Royal Divorce, Mel..................Para

S

Sabotage, Mel.........................Col
Sacrifice d'Honneur, Mel.........Foreign
Safety in Numbers, Com.......20th-Fox
Saint Strikes Back, Mel............RKO
St. Martin's Lane, Mel.........Foreign
St. Louis Blues, Mel................Para
Sante Fe Stampede, West...........Rep
Say It in French, Com.............Para
Scandal House, Mel.............St. Rts.
Secret Service of the Air, Mel.......FN
Secrets of a Nurse, Mel............Univ
Secrets of an Actress, Mel..........FN
Sergeant Madden, Mel.............MGM
Service De Luxe, Com.............Univ
Shadows Over Shanghai, Mel.......GN
Sharpshooters, Mel.............20th-Fox
Shine On Harvest Moon, West.....Rep
Shining Hour, The, Mel...........MGM
Shopworn Angel, Com-Mel.........MGM
Silver on the Sage, Mel.............Para
Sing, You, Sinners, Mus...........Para
Singing Blacksmith, Com-Mel. Foreign
Singing Cowgirl, The, West.........GN
Sin of Lena Rivers, Mel.........St. Rts.
Sisters, The, Mel......................WB
Six Gun Rhyhm, Wes...............GN
Six Gun Trail, West............St. Rts.
Six Shootin' Sheriff, West..........GN
Sixty Glorious Years, Mel (C)....RKO
Sky Giant, Mel.......................RKO
Sky Pirate, Mel......................Mono
Slalom, Mel.........................Foreign
Slums of New York, Mel........Foreign
Smashing the Money Ring, Mel...WB
Smashing the Rackets, Mel.......RKO
Smashing the Spy Ring, Mel........Col
Society Smugglers, Mel............Univ
Some Like It Hot, Mus............Para
Song of the Buckaroo, West......Mono
Son of Frankenstein, Mel.........Univ.
Sons of the Legion, Mel............Para
So This Is London, Com.........Foreign
South of Arizona, West.............Col
South Riding, Mel....................UA
Spawn of the North, Mel...........Para
Speed to Burn, Mel............20th-Fox
Spirit of Culver, Mel...............Univ
Spring Madness, Com-Mel........MGM
Stablemates, Com-Mel............MGM
Stagecoach, Mel.......................UA
Stand Up and Fight, Com-Mel....MGM
Stanley and Livingstone, Mel..20th-Fox
Starlight Over Texas, West.......Mono
Star Reporter, Mel..................Mono
Stolen Life, Mel......................Para
Storm, The, Mel.....................Univ
Storm Over Bengal, Mel............Rep
Story of a Cheat, Mel..........Foreign
Story of Vernon and Irene Castle, The, Mus. ....RKO
Straight, Place and Show, Com.20th-Fox
Strange Boarders, Mel..............GB
Strange Case of Dr. Meade, Mel.....Col
Strange Faces, Com-Mel...........Univ
Street of Missing Men, Mel.........Rep
Street Without a Name, Mel....Foreign
Streets of New York, Mel.........Mono
Student Nurse, Mel..................FN
Submarine Patrol, Mel..........20th-Fox
Sudden Money, Com-Mel...........Para
Suez, Mel. 20th-Fox
Sundown on the Prairie, West.....Mono
Sunset Strip Case, Mel..............GN
Sunset Trail, West.................Para
Susannah of the Mounties, Com-Mel, 20th-Fox
Sweepstake Winner, Com...........WB
Sweethearts, Mus. (C) ....MGM
Sweetheart of Sigma Chi, Mus...Mono
Swing, Sister, Swing, Mus.........Univ
Swing That Cheer, Mel............Univ
Swiss Miss, Com..................MGM

T

Tail Spin, Mel..................20th-Fox
Tarnished Angel, Mel...............RKO
Tarzan in Exile, Mel.............MGM
Tenth Avenue Kid, Mel............Rep
Terror of Tiny Town, Mel...........Col
Texans, The, Mel...................Para
Texas Stampede, West...............Col
Texas Wildcats, West...........St. Rts.
Thanks for Everything, Mus-Com. 20th-Fox
Thanks for the Memory, Com.....Para
That Certain Age, Mus-Com.......Univ
There Goes My Heart, Com.........UA
There's That Woman Again, Com..Col
The Drive by Night, Mel........Foreign
They Made Her a Spy, Mel........RKO
They Made Me a Criminal, Mel.....WB
This Man Is News, Mel...........Para
39 Steps, Mel.........................GB
Three Blind Mice, Mel.........20th-Fox
Three Loves Has Nancy, Com-Mel.MGM
Three Musketeers, Mus-Com...20th-Fox
Three on a Weekend, Mel...........GB
3 Smart Girls Grow Up, Mus-Com Univ
Three Texas Steers, West...........Rep
Thundering West, The, West.......Col
Time Out for Murder, Mel.....20th-Fox
Titans of the Deep, Mel............GN
T-Kied Koff, Mel...............Foreign
Tom Sawyer, Detective, Mel.......Para
Too Hot to Handle, Com-Mel.....MGM
Topa Topa, Mel..................St. Rts.
Topper Takes a Trip, Com..........UA
Torchy Blane Runs for Mayor, Mel..WB
Torchy Gets Her Man, Mel.........WB
Torchy Blane in Chinatown, Mel...WB
To the Rescue, West.................GN
Touchdown Army, Com.............Para
Tough Kid, Mel.....................Mono
Trade Winds, Com-Mel.............UA
Treasure Island, Mel..............MGM
Trigger Pals, West..................GN
Trigger Smith, West...............Mono
Tropic Holiday, Mus................Para
12 Crowded Hours, Mel.............RKO
Two Gun Justice, West............Mono
Two Gun Troubador, West.....St. Rts.

U

Undercover Agent, Mel............Univ
Under the Big Top, Mel...........Mono
Union Pacific, Mel....................Para
Up the River, Mel..............20th-Fox
Utah Trail, The, West...............GN

V

Vacation from Love, Com........MGM
Valley of the Giants, Mel. (C)......WB
Volga Boatman, Mel............Foreign

W

Wanted by Scotland Yard, Mel...Mono
Wanted by the Police, Mel........Mono
Ware Case, Mel..................Foreign
Water Rustlers, West................GN
We Are Not Alone, Mel............WB
Wedad, Mel. ....Foreign
We're Going to Be Rich, Mus-Com. 20th-Fox
Western Jamboree, West...........Rep
West of Cheyenne, West.............Col
West of the Sante Fe, West.........Col
What's a Fixer For, Mel..........RKO
When the Husband Travels, Mus-Com, Foreign
Where the Buffalo Roam, West....Mon
While New York Sleeps, Mel...20th-Fox
Whispering Enemies, Mel............Col
White Banners, Mel.................WB
Wife, Husband and Friend, Com. 20th-Fox
Wild Horse Canyon, West........Mono
Wings of the Navy, Mel............WB
Winner Take All, Mus-Com......20-Fox
Witch Night, Mel................Foreign
Wizard of Oz, Mus. (C)..........MGM
Wolf Call, Mel.......................Mono
Woman Doctor, Mel.................Rep
Women in the Wind, Mel...........WB
Wuthering Heights, Mel.............UA

Y

Yellow Sands, Mel.........Assoc British
Yes, Madam? Com...............Foreign
Yes, My Darling Daughter, Com...WB
You Can't Cheat an Honest Man..Univ
You Can't Take It With You, Com. Col
Young Dr. Kildare, Com-Mel......MGM
Young Fugitives, Mel..............Univ
Young in Heart, Com-Mel...........UA

Z

Zaza, Mel............................Para

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

THE CHART

Productions are listed according to the names of distributors in order that the exhibitor may have a short-cut towards such information as he may need, as well as information on pictures that are coming. Features now in work or completed for release later than the date of this issue are listed under "Coming Attractions." Letter in parentheses after title denotes audience classification of production: (A) Adult, (G) General. Numerals following audience classification are production numbers. Dagger symbol indicates picture is of the 1938-39 season. Asterisk (*) after title of feature denotes first appearance of picture in Release Chart.

NOTE: The totals for running time are the official figures announced by the home offices of the distributing companies.

When a production is reviewed in Hollywood, the running time is as officially given by the West Coast studio of the company at the time of the review, and this fact is denoted by an asterisk (*) immediately preceding the number. As soon as the home office has established the running time for national release, any change from the studio figure is made and the asterisk is removed.

Running times are subject to change according to local conditions. State or city censorship deletions may cause variations from the announced and published figures; repairs to the film may be another reason.

COLUMBIA

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Adventure in Sahara (G)	Paul Kelly-Lorna Gray	Nov. 15,'38†	58	Dec. 24,'38
Blondie (G)	Penny Singleton - Arthur Lake - Larry Simms-D. Mummert	Nov. 30,'38†	72	Nov. 5,'38
California Frontier	Buck Jones-Carmen Bailey	Dec. 15,'38†	54
City Streets	Edith Fellows-Leo Carrillo	July 1,'38	68
Colorado Trail, The	Chas. Starrett-Iris Meredith	Sept. 8,'38	55
Convicted (G)	Chas. Quigley-Rita Hayworth	Aug. 18,'38	58	Sept. 3,'38
Crime Takes a Holiday (G)	Jack Holt - Marcia Ralston - Douglas Dumbrille	Oct. 5,'38†	59	May 7,'38
Flight to Fame	Chas. Farrell-Jacqueline Wells	Oct. 12,'38†	57
Frontiers of '49	Bill Elliott-Luana De Alcaniz	Jan. 19,'39†	54
(See "California Cavalcade," "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 19,'38.)
Girls' School (G)	Anne Shirley-Nan Grey-Ralph Bellamy-Noah Beery, Jr.	Sept. 30,'38	73	Sept. 24,'38
Gladiator, The (G)	Joe E. Brown-June Travis	Aug. 15,'38	72	Aug. 13,'38
Homicide Bureau	Bruce Cabot-Rita Hayworth	Jan. 5,'39†	59
I Am the Law (G)	Edw. G. Robinson-Wendy Barrie-Barbara O'Neil-John Beal	Sept. 2,'38	83	Aug. 27,'38
In Early Arizona	Bill Elliott-Dorothy Gulliver	Nov. 2,'38†	53
Juvenile Court (G)	P. Kelly-R. Hayworth-F. Darro	Sept. 15,'38	61	Sept. 24,'38
Lady Objects, The	L. Ross-G. Stuart-J. Marsh	Sept. 9,'38	61
Law of the Texan	Buck Jones-Dorothy Fay	Oct. 24,'38†	54
Little Adventuress, The (G)	Edith Fellows-Robt. Paige	Oct. 24,'38†	62	Nov. 19,'38
Lone Wolf Spy Hunt (G)	Warren William - Ida Lupino - Virginia Weidler	Jan. 27,'39†	71	Jan. 28,'39
North of Shanghai	Betty Furness-James Craig	Feb. 10,'39†	59
(See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 12,'38.)
Phantom Gold	Jack Luden-Beth Marion	Aug. 31,'38	56
Pioneer Trail	Jack Luden-Joan Barclay	July 15,'38	55
Reformatory (G)	Jack Holt-Charlotte Wynters	July 21,'38	61	June 18,'38
(Exploitation: Aug. 27,'38, p. 77.)
Rio Grande	Charles Starrett-Ann Doran	Dec. 8,'38†	59
Smashing the Spy Ring	Fay Wray-Ralph Bellamy	Dec. 29,'38†	62
(See "International Spy," "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 3,'38; exploration: Jan. 28,'39, p. 60.)
South of Arizona	Chas. Starrett-Iris Meredith	July 28,'38	56
Strange Case of Dr. Meade	J. Holt-B. Roberts-N. Beery, Jr.	Dec. 15,'38†	67	Oct. 29,'38
Terror of Tiny Town, The (G)	Billy Curtis	Dec. 1,'39†	63	July 23,'38
Texas Stampede	Chas. Starrett-Iris Meredith	Feb. 9,'39†
There's That Woman Again (G)	Melvyn Douglas-Virginia Bruce-Margaret Lindsay	Dec. 24,'38†	74	Dec. 17,'38
Thundering West, The	Chas. Starrett - Iris Meredith - Sons of the Pioneers	Jan. 12,'39†	57
West of Santa Fe	Chas. Starrett-Iris Meredith	Oct. 3,'38†	57
You Can't Take It With You (G)	Jean Arthur - Jas. Stewart - L. Barrymore-A. Miller-S. Byington-E. Arnold-M. Auer	Sept. 29,'38†	127	Aug. 27,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 24,'38, p. 64; Oct. 15,'38, p. 51; Oct. 29,'38, p. 58; Dec. 10,'38, p. 64.) Dec. 24,'38, p. 54.)

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Blondie Meets the Boss	P. Singleton-A. Lake-L. Simms	Mar. 8,'39†
First Offenders	W. Abel-B. Roberts-J. Downs	Apr. 12,'39†
First Ranger, The	Bill Elliott-Veda Ann Borg
Lady and the Mob, The	F. Bainter-I. Lupino-L. Bowman	Apr. 3,'39†
Let Us Live	Henry Fonda - Maureen O'Sullivan - Ralph Bellamy	Feb. 28,'39†
Lone Star Pioneers	Bill Elliott-Dorothy Gulliver	Mar. 16,'39†	56
Mounted Police, No. 1	Chas. Starrett-Linda Winters	Mar. 23,'39†
My Son Is a Criminal	Alan Baxter-Jacqueline Wells	Feb. 22,'39†
Outside These Walls	D. Costello - M. Whalen - V. Weidler
Plane No. 4	Jean Arthur-Cary Grant	Apr. 30,'39†
	Richard Barthelmess - Thos- Mitchell
Prairie Nights*	Charles Starrett-Iris Meredith
Romance of the Redwoods	Jean Arthur - Cary Grant -	Mar. 2,'39†
Sabotage	Jack Holt-Katherine DeMille
Whispering Enemies (G)	Jack Holt-Dolores Costello	Mar. 24,'39†	63	Jan. 7,'39

FIRST NATIONAL

(See Warner Brothers)

GB PICTURES

(Distributed in part by 20th Century-Fox)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Always in Trouble (G) 8012	Jessie Matthews-Michael Redgrave-Noel Madison	Dec. 1,'38†	79	Dec. 17,'38
(Reviewed under the title, "Climbing High.")
Crashing Through 327	James Newill	Jan. 20,'39†
Evergreen (reissue) (G) 8005	Jessie Matthews-Barry Mackey	July 15,'38†	81	June 23,'34
Exile Express 301	Anna Sten-Alan Marshall-Jerome Cowan-Jed Prouty	Jan. 20,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," (Dec. 10,'38.)
Frog, The 8011	Noah Beery-Gordon Harker	Nov. 15,'38†	78
Lady Vanishes, The (A)	Margaret Lockwood-Paul Lukas-Michael Redgrave-Dame May Whitty	Nov. 1,'38†	78	Sept. 3,'38
Man With 100 Faces (G) 8008	Lilli Palmer-Noel Madison	Oct. 1,'38†	72	Nov. 12,'38
Ride 'Em Cowgirl WI-2	Dorothy Page	Jan. 20,'39†
Strange Boarders (A) 8006	Tom Walls-Renee Saint Cyr	Aug. 1,'38†	73	Nov. 26,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 28,'39, p. 58.)
Thirty-Nine Steps, The (re-issue) (G) 8009	Robt. Donat-Madeleine Carroll	Sept. 15,'38†	81	July 6,'35
Three on a Weekend (G) 8004	John Lodge-Margaret Lockwood	July 1,'38†	72	Mar. 26,'38
(Reviewed under the title, "Bank Holiday.")

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Empty World	Nova Pilbeam
Girl Must Live, A	Lilli Palmer-Marget Lockwood

GRAND NATIONAL

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Cipher Bureau (G) 312	Leon Ames-Joan Woodbury	Nov. 4,'38†	70	Oct. 22,'38
Exile Express*	Anna Sten-Alan Marshall	Jan. 20,'39†
Frontier Scout (G) 325	George Houston-Beth Marion	Oct. 21,'38†	*62	Sept. 17,'38
High Command 227	Lionel Atwill-Lucy Mannheim	July 15,'38	59
I Married a Spy 225	Neil Hamilton-Brigitte Horney	July 1,'38	59
Long Shot, The (G) 313	Marsha Hunt-Gordon Jones	Jan. 6,'39†	69	Dec. 31,'38
Renfrew of the Great White Trail 228	James Newill-Terry Walker	July 22,'38	59
Ride 'Em Cowgirl (G) WI-2	Dorothy Page	Jan. 20,'39†	52	Jan. 21,'39
Rollin' Plains 226	Tex Ritter-Harriet Spencer	July 8,'38	57
Shadows Over Shanghai (G) 311	James Dunn-Ralph Morgan	Oct. 14,'38†	65	Sept. 17,'38
Sunset Murder Case 345	Sally Rand	Nov. 11,'38†	57
Titans of the Deep (G) 326	Dr. Wm. Beebe	Oct. 28,'38†	48	Nov. 19,'38
To the Rescue 328	James Newill	Feb. 10,'39†
Trigger Pals (G) WI-13	Art Jarrett, Lee Powell-Al St. John	Jan. 13,'39†	55	Jan. 21,'39
Utah Trail, The 229	Tex Ritter-Adele Pearce	Aug. 12,'38
(See "In the Cutting Room," July 2,'38.)
Water Rustlers WI-1	Dave O'Brien-Dorothy Page	Jan. 6,'39†	54

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Empire of the West	George Houston
Panama Cipher	Leon Ames-Charlotte Winters
Singing Cowgirl	Dorothy Page
Six Gun Rhythm	Tex Fletcher- Joan Barclay

METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, The 923	Mickey Rooney - Walter Connolly - Lynne Carver - Rex Ingram	Feb. 10,'39†
Blockheads (G) 844	Laurel & Hardy-Patricia Ellis-Billy Gilbert	Aug. 19,'38	57	Aug. 20,'38
Boys Town (G) 902	S. Tracy-M. Rooney-H. Hull	Sept. 9,'38†	93	Sept. 10,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 1,'38, pp. 55, 56; Oct. 22,'37, p. 64; Nov. 5,'38, p. 53; Nov. 12,'38, p. 68; Nov. 19,'38, pp. 92, 93; Dec. 3,'38, p. 50; Dec. 17,'38, pp. 74, 76; Dec. 24,'38, p. 57.)
Burn 'Em Up O'Connor (G) (919)	Dennis O'Keefe-Cecilia Parker-Harry Carey-Nat Pendleton	Jan. 13,'39†	70	Jan. 14,'39
Chaser, The (G) 842	D. O'Keefe-A. Morriss-L. Stone	July 29,'38	75	July 30,'38
Christmas Carol, A (G) 917	Terry Kilburn-Reginald Owen-Lynne Carver-Ann Rutherford	Dec. 16,'38†	69	Dec. 17,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 7,'39, p. 53; Jan. 21,'39, p. 54.)

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Citadel, The (A) 909	Robert Donat-Rosalind Russell	Oct. 28,'38†	112	Oct. 29,'38
(Exploitation: Nov. 12,'38, p. 66; Dec. 10,'38, p. 62.)
Crowd Roars, The (G) 846	Robert Taylor - M. O'Sullivan - Frank Morgan-Lionel Stander	Aug. 5,'38	92	Aug. 6,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 3,'38, p. 60; Sept. 10,'38, pp. 102, 105; Sept. 17,'38, p. 62; Oct. 1,'38, p. 53; Oct. 15,'38, p. 54; Nov. 5,'38, p. 51.)
Dramatic School (G) 915	Luise Rainer-Paulette Goddard-Alan Marshal - Ann Rutherford - Lana Turner	Dec. 9,'38†	80	Dec. 10,'38
Fast Company (G) 839	Melvyn Douglas-Florence Rice-Claire Dodd-Nat Pendleton	July 8,'38	74	July 2,'38
Flirting with Fate (G) 914	Joe E. Brown-Leo Carrillo	Dec. 2,'38†	70	Dec. 3,'38
Four Girls in White (G) 921	Florence Rice-Kent Taylor-Ann Rutherford	Jan. 27,'39†	73	Feb. 4,'39
Girl Downstairs, The (G) 916	Franchot Tone-Franciska Gaal-R. Gardner-W. Connolly	Dec. 23,'38†	77	Dec. 24,'38
Great Waltz, The (G) 908	Luise Rainer-Fernand Gravet-Miliza Korjus	Nov. 4,'38†	104	Nov. 5,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 1,'38, p. 57; Nov. 12,'38, p. 69; Nov. 19,'38, p. 94; Dec. 17,'38, pp. 72, 74; Dec. 24,'38, pp. 55, 56; Dec. 31,'38, p. 66; Jan. 7,'39, p. 50.)
Honolulu (G) 922	Eleanor Powell-Robert Young-Burns and Allen	Feb. 3,'39†	83	Feb. 4,'39
Idiot's Delight (A) 920	Norma Shearer - Clark Gable - Edw. Arnold-Burgess Meredith	Jan. 27,'39†	109	Jan. 28,'39
Listen, Darling (G) 904	F. Bartholomew-Judy Garland-Mary Astor-Walter Pidgeon	Oct. 21,'38†	75	Oct. 22,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 3,'38, p. 61; Sept. 10,'38, p. 102; Sept. 17,'38, p. 61.)
Love Finds Andy Hardy (G) 641	Mickey Rooney - Judy Garland-Lewis Stone-Cecilia Parker	July 22,'38	91	July 16,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 3,'38, p. 59; Jan. 21,'39, p. 53.)
Marie Antoinette (A) 845	Norma Shearer - Tyrone Power - J. Barrymore - Robt. Morley - Anita Louise-Gladys George	Aug. 26,'38	157	July 16,'38
(See production article, Mar. 26,'38, p. 16; exploitation: Sept. 10,'38, p. 98; Oct. 8,'38, p. 60; Oct. 22,'38, p. 66; Nov. 5,'38, p. 53.)
Out West with the Hardys (G) 913	Lewis Stone - Mickey Rooney - Cecilia Parker-Fay Holden	Nov. 25,'38†	85	Nov. 26,'38
Port of Seven Seas (A) 829	Wallace Beery-M. O'Sullivan-Frank Morgan-John Beal	July 7,'38	81	Apr. 9,'38
Rich Man, Poor Girl (G) 843	Robert Young - Ruth Hussey - Guy Kibbee-Lew Ayres	Aug. 12,'38	72	Aug. 13,'38
Shining Hour, The (A) 912	Joan Crawford-Margaret Sullavan - Melvyn Douglas - Robert Young-Fay Bainter	Nov. 18,'38†	76	Nov. 19,'38
Shopworn Angel (G) 835	Margaret Sullavan-Jas. Stewart-Walter Pidgeon-Alan Curtis	July 15,'38	85	July 9,'38
Spring Madness (G) 911	Lew Ayres - Burgess Meredith - Maureen O'Sullivan	Nov. 11,'38†	67	Nov. 12,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 17,'38, pp. 72, 74; Jan. 7,'39, p. 52.)
Stablemates (G) 906	Wallace Beery-Mickey Rooney	Oct. 7,'38†	89	Oct. 8,'38
(Exploitation: Nov. 26,'38, p. 47.)
Stand Up and Fight (G) 918	Robt. Taylor - Wallace Beery - Florence Rice - Helen Broderick - Barton MacLane	Jan. 6,'39†	97	Jan. 7, 39
(Exploitation: Jan. 21,'39, p. 52; Jan. 28,'39, p. 60; Feb. 4,'39, p. 85.)
Sweethearts (G) 910	Jeanette MacDonald - Nelson Eddy - Florence Rice - Frank Morgan - Mischa Auer	Dec. 30,'38†	114	Dec. 24,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 31,'38, p. 66; Jan. 21,'39, p. 54; Feb. 4,'39, pp. 82, 85.)
Three Loves Has Nancy (A) 901	Janet Gaynor - R. Montgomery - Franchot Tone	Sept. 2,'38†	69	Sept. 3,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 1,'38, p. 53.)
Too Hot to Handle (G) 953	Clark Gable - Myrna Loy - Walter Pidgeon-Leo Carrillo	Sept. 10,'38†	105	Sept. 17,'38
(Exploitation: Nov. 12,'38, p. 66; Nov. 19,'38, p. 93; Dec. 3,'38, p. 48; Dec. 10,'38, p. 63; Jan. 21,'39, p. 53.)
Vacation from Love (G) 905	Dennis O'Keefe-Florence Rice	Sept. 30,'38†	65	Oct. 8,'38
Young Dr. Kildare (G) 907	Lew Ayres-Lionel Barrymore	Oct. 14,'38†	81	Oct. 15,'38

Coming Attractions

(See "Huckleberry Finn," "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 24,'38.)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Broadway Serenade	Jeanette MacDonald-Lew Ayres-Ian Hunter	Mar. 24,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
David Copperfield (reissue) (G) 533	F. Bartholomew-W. C. Fields-Maureen O'Sullivan - Lionel Barrymore-Madge Evans		33	Jan. 19,'35
Dr. Kildare's Mistake*	Lionel Barrymore-Lew Ayres	Apr. 7,'39†
Fast and Loose 924	Robt. Montgomery-R. Russell	Feb. 17,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 28,'39.)
Goodbye, Mr. Chips	Robert Donat-Greer Garson
Hardys Ride High, The	M. Rooney-L. Stone-F. Holden-C. Parker-A. Rutherford	Apr. 28,'39†
Ice Follies of 1939	Original Ice Follies Cast—Joan Crawford-James Stewart-Lew Ayres	Mar. 3,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 24,'38.)
I Take This Woman	Spencer Tracy - Hedy LaMarr - Walter Pidgeon	Apr. 7,'39†
Kid from Texas, The	Dennis O'Keefe-Ruth Hussey	Mar. 31,'39†
Let Freedom Ring	N. Eddy - V. Bruce - L. Barrymore-E. Arnold-G. Kibbee-V. McLaglen	Fab. 24,'39†
(See "Song of the West," "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 14,'39.)
Lucky Night	Robert Taylor-Myrna Loy	Apr. 14,'39†
Maiden Voyage*	Robert Young-Billie Burke
Pygmalion (A)	Leslie Howard-Wendy Hiller		87	Sept. 10,'38
Sergeant Madden	Wallace Beery-Marian Martin-Alan Curtis-Laraine Johnson	Mar. 10,'39†
Tarzan in Exile	J. Weismuller-M. O'Sullivan
Treasure Island (reissue) (G) 403	Wallace Beery-J. Cooper		103	July 14,'34
Wizard of Oz	Judy Garland - Frank Morgan - R. Bolger-B. Lahr-B. Burke
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 3,'38.)

MONOGRAM

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Barefoot Boy (G) 3810	Jackie Moran-Claire Windsor-Marcia Mae Jones-R. Morgan	Aug. 3,'38†	63	Sept. 3,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 29,'38, p. 57.)
Convict's Code 3822	R. Kent-A. Nagel-S. Blackmer	Jan. 18,'39†
(See "Paroled to Exile," "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
Drifting Westward 3853	Jack Randall-Edna Duran	Jan. 25,'39†
Gang Bullets (G) 3818	Anne Nagel-Robert Kent	Nov. 16,'38†	63	Dec. 10,'38
Gangster's Boy (G) 3801	Jackie Cooper	Nov. 16,'38†	80	Nov. 12,'38
Gun Packer 3851	Jack Randall	Nov. 9,'38†	49
I Am a Criminal (G) 3812	John Carroll-Mary Kornman	Dec. 7,'38†	73	Dec. 10,'38
Man's Country 3742	Jack Randall	July 6,'38	55
(See "In the Cutting Room," June 4,'38.)
Mexicali Kid (G) 3741	Jack Randall	Sept. 14,'38	51	Sept. 10,'38
Mr. Wong, Detective (G) 3804	Boris Karloff-Evelyn Brent	Oct. 5,'38†	69	Oct. 1,'38
Navy Secrets	Fay Wray-Grant Withers	Feb. 1,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 7,'39.)
Song of the Buckaroo (G) 3861	Tex Ritter-Jinx Falkenberg	Dec. 7,'38†	56	Jan. 14,'39
Starlight Over Texas (G) 3859	Tex Ritter-Carmen LaRoux	Sept. 7,'38†	56	Sept. 24,'38
Sundown on the Prairie 3862	Tex Ritter	Feb. 8,'39†
Sweetheart of Sigma Chi (re-issue) (G) 3827	Mary Carlisle - Betty Grable - Larry Crabbe-Leif Erikson	Oct. 10,'38†	65	Oct. 14,'38
Tough Kid (G) 3819	F. Darro-D. Purcell-J. Allen	Dec. 28,'38†	59	Jan. 7,'39
Under the Big Top (G) 3811	M. Main-A. Nagel-J. La Rue	Aug. 31,'38†	63	Sept. 17,'38
Wanted by Police (G) 3817	F. Darro-E. Knapp-R. Kent	Sept. 21,'38†	59	Sept. 24,'38
Where the Buffalo Roam (G) 3860	Tex Ritter-Dorothy Short	Oct. 12,'38†	62	Oct. 29,'38
Wild Horse Canyon (G) 3852	Jack Randall-Dorothy Short	Dec. 21,'38†	50	Jan. 7,'39

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Boy's Reformatory	Frankie Darro	Apr. 5,'39†
Man from Texas 3864	Tex Ritter	Apr. 19,'39†
Mystery of Mr. Wong, The	Boris Karloff-Dorothy Tree	Mar. 1,'39†
Riders of the Rio Grande 3855	Jack Randall	Apr. 30,'39†
Rolling Westward 3863	Tex Ritter	Mar. 1,'39†
Sky Pirate	John Trent-Marjorie Reynolds	Mar. 8,'39†
Star Reporter	Warren Hull-Marsha Hunt	Feb. 22,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 28,'39.)
Streets of New York	Jackie Cooper	Mar. 29,'39†
Trigger Smith 3854	Jack Randall	Mar. 15,'39†
Undercover Agent		Mar. 22,'39†
Wanted by Scotland Yard*	James Stevenson-Betty Lynne	Apr. 16,'39†
Wolf Call	Movita-John Carroll	Apr. 12,'39†

PARAMOUNT

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Ambush (G)	Gladys Swarthout-Lloyd Nolan	Jan. 20,'39†	*65	Jan. 21,'39
Arkansas Traveler (G) 3806	B. Burns-J. Parker-F. Bainter-Irvin S. Cobb-J. Beal	Oct. 14,'38†	83	Oct. 8,'38
(Exploitation: Aug. 27,'38, p. 79; Sept. 10,'38, p. 105; Oct. 15,'38, p. 54.)
Arrest Bulldog Drummond (G)	John Howard-Heather Angel	Nov. 25,'38†	60	Jan. 21,'39
Artists and Models Abroad (G)	Jack Benny-Joan Bennett-Yacht Club Boys-Mary Boland	Dec. 30,'38†	90	Oct. 29,'38
Booloo (G) 3745	Colin Tapley-Suratna Asmaka	July 2,'38	61	July 23,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 10,'38, p. 99; Nov. 12,'38, p. 69.)
Bulldog Drummond in Africa (G) 3747	J. Howard - H. Angel - H. B. Warner	Aug. 5,'38	60	July 30,'38
Campus Confessions (G) 3802	Hank Luisetti - Betty Grable - Eleanore Whitney	Sept. 23,'38†	65	Sept. 17,'38
Disbarred (G) 3818	Gail Patrick - Otto Kruger - Robert Preston	Jan. 1,'39†	60	Jan. 14,'39
Frontiersman (G) 3856	Wm. Boyd-R. Hayden-G. Hayes	Dec. 16,'38†	74	Nov. 26,'38
Give Me a Sailor (G) 3749	Martha Raye-Bob Hope-Betty Grable-Jack Whiting	Aug. 19,'38	80	July 30,'38
(Exploitation: July 9,'38, p. 46; Oct. 15,'38, p. 51; Oct. 29,'38, p. 57.)
If I Were King (A)	Ronald Colman - Frances Dee - Basil Rathbone-Ellen Drew	Nov. 11,'38†	100	Sept. 17,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 17,'38, p. 73; Jan. 14,'39, p. 65.)
Illegal Traffic (G) 3809	J. Carroll Naish-Mary Carlisle	Nov. 4,'38†	67	Nov. 5,'38
In Old Mexico (G) 3855	William Boyd-George Hayes	Sept. 9,'38†	62	Aug. 6,'38
King of Alcatraz (A) 3804	Lloyd Nolan - Gail Patrick - J. Carroll Naish	Sept. 30,'38†	58	Oct. 1,'38
Little Orphan Annie (G) 3814	Ann Gillis - Robert Kent - June Travis	Dec. 2,'38†	58	Dec. 3,'38
Men With Wings (G)	Fred MacMurray-Ray Milland-Louise Campbell-Andy Devine	Oct. '38†specl	105	Oct. 29,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 29,'38, p. 56; Nov. 26,'38, p. 49; Dec. 10,'38, p. 62; Dec. 31,'38, pp. 64, 66; Feb. 4,'39, p. 84.)
Mysterious Rider (G) 3807	Russell Hayden - Weldon Heyburn - Charlotte Fields	Oct. 21,'38†	90	Sept. 24,'38
Paris Honeymoon (G) 3821	Bing Crosby - Franciska Gaal - E. E. Horton-Shirley Ross-Akim Tamiroff	Jan. 27,'39†	85	Dec. 17,'38

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Persons in Hiding (G)	L. Overman-Patricia Morrison	Feb. 10,'39†	*60	Jan. 28,'39
Pride of the West (G) 3854	William Boyd-Charlotte Fields	July 8,'38	55	June 25,'38
Professor Beware (G) 3746	Harold Lloyd - Phyllis Welch - R. Walburn - L. Stander	July 29,'38	87	July 16,'38
(See production article, Feb. 19,'38, p. 16; Sept. 17,'38, p. 63.)
Ride a Crooked Mile (G) 3815	Akim Tamiroff-Frances Farmer-Leif Erikson	Dec. 9,'38†	78	Dec. 3,'38
St. Louis Blues (G)	L. Nolan-D. Lamour-T. Guizar	Feb. 3,'39†	*90	Jan. 28,'39
Say It in French (G)	Olympe Bradna-Ray Milland	Nov. 25,'38†	70	Nov. 26,'38
Sing, You Sinners (G) 3801	Bing Crosby-Fred MacMurray-Ellen Drew-Donald O'Connor	Sept. 2,'38†	88	Aug. 13,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 7,'39, p. 53.)
Sons of the Legion (G) 3803	Donald O'Connor - Billy Lee - Lynne Overman-Eliz. Patterson-William Frawley	Sept. 16,'38†	60	Sept. 17,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 24,'38, p. 65.)
Spawn of the North (G) 3750	George Raft - Dorothy Lamour - H. Fonda - A. Tamiroff - J. Barrymore - Louise Platt	Aug. 26,'38	110	Aug. 20,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 15,'38, p. 50; Nov. 12,'38, p. 65.)
Texans, The (G) 3748	Randolph Scott - Joan Bennett - M. Robson - W. Brennan - R. Cummings	Aug. 12,'38	90	July 23,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 3,'38, pp. 59, 60; Set. 17,'38, p. 64.)
Thanks for the Memory (G)	B. Hope-S. Ross-C. Butterworth	Nov. 18,'38†	75	Nov. 12,'38
Tom Sawyer, Detective (G) 3811	Donald O'Connor - Robt. Kent - June Travis	Dec. 23,'38†	68	Dec. 24,'38
Touchdown Army (G) 3805	Mary Carlisle-John Howard	Oct. 7,'38†	70	Sept. 24,'38
Tropic Holiday (G) 3744	Dorothy Lamour-Ray Milland-Bob Burns-Martha Raye	July 1,'38	75	June 25,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 24,'38, p. 64; Nov. 5,'38, p. 53; Dec. 24,'38, p. 57.)
Zaza (A) 3819	C. Colbert-H. Marshall-B. Lahr	Jan. 13,'39†	86	Jan. 7,'39

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Arizona Bracelets	W. Boyd-R. Hayden-G. Hayes
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
Back Door to Heaven	Patricia Ellis-Wallace Ford	Apr. 14,'39†
Beachcomber, The (A)	Chas. Laughton-Elsa Lanchester	Mar. 10,'39†	88	Nov. 26,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 14,'39, p. 65.)
Beau Geste	Gary Cooper - Ray Milland - Robert Preston-Brian Donlevy-Donald O'Connor
Boy Trouble	Charles Ruggles-Mary Boland	Feb. 17,'39†	*70	Feb. 4,'39
Bulldog Drummond's Secret Police	John Howard-Heather Angel	Apr. 21,'39†
Cafe Society	Fred MacMurray - Madeleine Carroll - Shirley Ross	Mar. 3,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 24,'38.)
Federal Offense	L. Nolan-J. C. Naish-H. Angel
(See "In the Cutting Room," Feb. 4,'39.)
Gambler and the Lady, The	George Raft-Ellen Drew-Hugh Herbert-Zasu Pitts	May 12,'39†
Gracie Allen Murder Case*	Gracie Allen-Warren William-Kent Taylor-Ellen Drew
Grand Jury's Secrets	John Howard-Gail Patrick
Heritage of the Desert	Evelyn Venable-Donald Woods
Hotel Imperial	Isa Miranda-Ray Milland	Mar. 24,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
I'm from Missouri	Bob Burns-Gladys George	Apr. 7,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
Invitation to Happiness	Irene Dunne-Fred MacMurray-Donald O'Connor-C. Ruggles
King of Chinatown	Anna May Wong-Lloyd Nolan	Mar. 17,'39†
Man About Town	J. Benny-D. Lamour-E. Arnold	May 26,'39†
Midnight	Claudette Colbert-Don Ameche-Francis Lederer - John Barrymore - Mary Astor	May 19,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 28,'39.)
Never Say Die	Bob Hope-Martha Raye	Apr. 21,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
Night Spot Hostess	Buck Jones-Helen Twelvetrees	May 6,'39†
(See "Me and My Gal," "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
One Third of a Nation	Sylvia Sidney-Leif Erikson	Feb. 24,'39†
Silver on the Sage	Wm. Boyd-Geo. Hayes	Mar. 31,'39†
Some Like It Hot*	Gene Krupa & Orch.-Shirley Ross-Bob Hope-Una Merkel
Stolen Life	Elizabeth Bergner	May 5,'39†
Sudden Money	B. Lee-M. Rambeau-C. Ruggles	Mar. 31,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
Sunset Trail (G) 3857	Wm. Boyd-R. Hayden-G. Hayes	Feb. 24,'39†	68	Oct. 22,'38
Union Pacific	Joel McCrea-Barbara Stanwyck-Akim Tamiroff-Robt. Preston	Apr. 28,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 17,'38.)

REPUBLIC

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Army Girl (G) 7002	Preston Foster - Madge Evans - Neil Hamilton-Ruth Donnelly	July 15,'38	88	July 16,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 7,'39, p. 52.)
Billy the Kid Returns 851	Roy Rogers - Mary Hart - Smiley Burnette	Sept. 4,'38†	56	Sept. 24,'38
Come On, Leathernecks (G) 7024	Richard Cromwell-Marsha Hunt-Bruce MacFarlane	Aug. 8,'38	65	Aug. 27,'38
Come on Rangers! (G) 818	Roy Rogers-Mary Hart	Nov. 25,'38†	57	Nov. 26,'38
Desperate Adventure, A (G) 7013	Ramon Novarro - Margt. Tallichet-Marian Marsh-E. Blore	Aug. 15,'38	65	July 30,'38
Down in "Arkansaw" (G) 805	Ralph Byrd - Weaver Bros. - Elviry - Pinky Tomlin	Oct. 8,'38†	66	Oct. 1,'38
Durango Valley Raiders 7128	Bob Steele-Louise Stanley	Aug. 22,'38	55
Federal Man Hunt (G) 820	Robt. Livingston-June Travis	Dec. 26,'38†	64	Jan. 14,'38
Fighting Thoroughbreds (G) 821	R. Byrd-M. Carlisle-R. Allen	Jan. 6,'39†	65	Jan. 21,'39
Gold Mine in the Sky (G) 7103	Gene Autry - Carol Hughes - Smiley Burnette	July 4,'38	60	July 16,'38
Heroes of the Hills (G) 7118	Three Mesquiteers-P. Lawson	Aug. 1,'38	56	Aug. 6,'38
Higgins Family, The (G) 7014	Gleasons, James-Lucille-Russell	Aug. 29,'38	64	Sept. 10,'38
Home on the Prairie 842	Gene Autry-Smiley Burnette	Feb. 3,'39†	58
(See "Ridin' the Range," "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 7,'39.)
I Stand Accused (G) 806	R. Cummings - H. Mack - L. Talbot - T. Beck	Oct. 29,'38†	63	Oct. 22,'38
Man from Music Mountain (G) 7104	Gene Autry - Smiley Burnette - Carol Hughes	Aug. 15,'38	58	Aug. 13,'38
Mysterious Miss X (G) 809	M. Whalen-M. Hart-C. Chandler	Jan. 10,'39†	65	Jan. 14,'39
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 24,'38.)
Night Hawk, The (G) 817	Robt. Livingston-June Travis-Robert Armstrong	Oct. 1,'38†	63	Sept. 24,'38
Orphans of the Street (G) 819	Robt. Livingston-June Storey-Tommy Ryan	Dec. 5,'38†	64	Dec. 17,'38
Overland Stage Raiders (G) 862	Three Mesquiteers-Louise Brooks	Sept. 20,'38†	55	Oct. 1,'38
Pals of the Saddle (G) 861	Three Mesquiteers - Doreen McKay	Aug. 28,'38†	55	Sept. 24,'38
Prairie Moon 7107	Gene Autry - Shirley Deane - Smiley Burnette	Oct. 7,'38	58
Pride of the Navy (G) 822	J. Dunn-R. Hudson-G. Oliver	Jan. 23,'39†	65	Jan. 21,'39
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
Red River Range 864	3 Mesquiteers - Lorna Gray - Polly Moran	Dec. 22,'38†	56
(See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 19,'38.)
Rhythm of the Saddle (G) 7108	Gene Autry-Smiley Burnette	Nov. 5,'38†	58	Nov. 12,'38
Santa Fe Stampede (G) 863	Three Mesquiteers-June Martel	Nov. 18,'38†	56	Dec. 10,'38
Shine On Harvest Moon 852	Roy Rogers-Mary Hart	Dec. 23,'38†	57
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 3,'38.)
Storm Over Bengal (G) 807	Patric Knowles - Richard Cromwell-Rochelle Hudson	Nov. 14,'38†	65	Nov. 12,'38
Tenth Avenue Kid (G) 7025	Bruce Cabot-Beverly Roberts	Aug. 22,'38	65	Sept. 3,'38
Western Jamboree (G) 841	Gene Autry - Smiley Burnette - Jean Rouverol	Dec. 2,'38†	56	Dec. 24,'38
Woman Doctor (G) 808	Frieda Inescort-Henry Wilcoxon-Claire Dodd-Sybil Jason	Feb. 6,'39†	65	Feb. 4,'39

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
$5,000.00 Reward	Gleasons, Jas., Lucille, Russell
Flight at Midnight	Col. Roscoe Turner
Forged Passport	P. Kelly-L. Talbot-J. Lang	Feb. 15,'39†
I Was a Convict	Barton MacLane-Beverly Roberts
Mexicali Rose	Gene Autry-Smiley Burnette
Man of Conquest	Richard Dix-Gail Patrick-Edward Ellis-Max Terhune
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 28,'39.)
Rough Riders Round-up	Roy Rogers-Mary Hart
Street of Missing Men	Charles Bickford
Three Texas Steers	Three Mesquiteers

RKO RADIO

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Affairs of Annabel, The (G) 902	Jack Oakie-L. Ball-R. Donnelly	Sept. 9,'38†	68	July 16,'38
Annabel Takes a Tour (G) 908	Jack Oakie-L. Ball-R. Donnelly	Nov. 11,'38†	67	Oct. 22,'38
Arizona Legion (G)	George O'Brien-Laraine Johnson	Jan. 20,'39†	58	Jan. 14,'39
Border G-Man (G) 882	George O'Brien-Ray Whitley	June 24,'38	60	June 18,'38
Boy Slaves 911 (G)	Anne Shirley-Roger Daniel	Feb. 10,'39†	72	Jan. 14,'39
(See "Pure in Mind," "In the Cutting Room," Oct. 29,'38.)
Breaking the Ice (G) 845	Bobby Breen - Irene Dare - D. Costello - Chas. Ruggles	Aug. 26,'38	82	Aug. 27,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 29,'38, p. 58.)
Carefree 837 (G)	Fred Astaire - Ginger Rogers - Ralph Bellamy	Sept. 2,'38	83	Sept. 3,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 17,'38, p. 60; Oct. 1,'38, p. 54; Oct. 8,'38, pp. 62, 64.)
Crime Ring (G) 836	Allan Lane-Frances Mercer	July 8,'38	70	July 30,'38
Fisherman's Wharf (G)	B. Breen-H. Armetta-L. Carrillo	Feb. 3,'39†	*70	Jan. 28,'39
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 10,'38.)
Fugitives for a Night (G) 903	F. Albertson-E. Lynn-A. Ames	Sept. 23,'38†	63	Aug. 27,'38
Great Man Votes, The (G) 913	John Barrymore - Katharine Alexander - Peter Holden - Virginia Weidler	Jan. 13,'39†	72	Jan. 14,'39
Having Wonderful Time (A) 819	Ginger Rogers - D. Fairbanks, Jr.-Lucille Ball-Peg. Conklin	July 1,'38	70	June 18,'38
(Exploitation: July 23,'38, p. 67; Aug. 6,'38, p. 77; Sept. 3,'38, p. 63; Sept. 17,'38, p. 63; Sept. 24,'38, p. 65; Oct. 1,'38, p. 53; Oct. 15,'38, p. 54; Nov. 12,'38, p. 68; Nov. 26,'38, p. 49; Dec. 17,'38, p. 74.)
I'm from the City (G) 834	Joe Penner-Kay Sutton	Aug. 5,'38	66	July 30,'38
Lawless Valley (G) 981	George O'Brien-Kay Sutton	Nov. 4,'38†	59	Nov. 5,'38
Law West of Tombstone, The (G) 909	Jean Rouverol-Harry Carey-Tim Holt-Evelyn Brent	Nov. 18,'38†	73	Nov. 19,'38
(See "In the Cutting Room," Oct. 8,'38.)
Little Women (re-issue) 871	K. Hepburn - Joan Bennett - P. Lukas-F. Dee-J. Parker	July 8,'38	107	Nov. 11,'33

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Mad Miss Manton (G) 906	Barbara Stanwyck-Henry Fonda-Frances Mercer - Whitney Bourne	Oct. 21,'38†	80	Oct. 15,'38
(Exploitation: Nov. 12,'38, p. 64.)
Man to Remember, A (G) 905	Anne Shirley-Lee Bowman-Edward Ellis	Oct. 14,'38†	79	Oct. 1,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 10,'38, p. 64.)
Mother Carey's Chickens (G) 833	Ruby Keeler - Anne Shirley - J. Ellison-F. Bainter-R. Morgan	July 15,'38	82	July 30,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 3,'38, p. 59.)
Mr. Doodle Kicks Off (G) 904	J. Penner-J. Travis-R. Lane	Oct. 7,'38†	76	Sept. 24,'38
Next Time I Marry (G) 910	Lucille Ball-James Ellison	Dec. 9,'38†	65	Dec. 10,'38
Pacific Liner (G) 914	Victor McLaglen-Chester Morris-Wendy Barrie	Jan. 6,'39†	75	Dec. 31,'38
Painted Desert (G) 883	George O'Brien-Ray Whitley	Aug. 12,'38	59	Aug. 6,'38
Peck's Bad Boy with the Circus (G) 948	Tommy Kelly-Ann Gillis-Edgar Kennedy-Spanky MacFarland	Nov. 25,'38†	68	Nov. 26,'38
Renegade Ranger, The 884	George O'Brien-Rita Hayworth-Ray Whitley	Sept. 16,'38	59
(See "In the Cutting Room," Aug. 20,'38.)
Room Service (G) 901	Marx Brothers - Ann Miller - Lucille Ball-F. Albertson	Sept. 30,'38†	78	Sept. 10,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 8,'38, p. 64; Oct. 22,'38, p. 66; Nov. 5,'38, p. 50; Nov. 26,'38, p. 48; Dec. 3,'38, p. 50; Dec. 10,'38, p. 63.)
Sky Giant (G) 835	Richard Dix - Chester Morris - Joan Fontaine	July 29,'38	80	July 23,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 17,'38, pp. 61, 62.)
Smashing the Rackets (G) 832	C. Morris-F. Mercer-R. Johnson	Aug. 19,'38	69	Aug. 20,'38
Tarnished Angel (G) 907	S. Eilers-A. Miller-L. Bowman	Oct. 28,'38†	68	Oct. 29,'38

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Beauty for the Asking (G)	L. Ball-D. Woods-P. Knowles	Feb. 24,'39†	68	Jan. 28,'39
Flying Irishman, The	Douglas Corrigan-Paul Kelly-Robert Armstrong	Mar. 17,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 24,'38.)
Gunga Din (G) 912	Cary Grant - Victor McLaglen - D. Fairbanks, Jr.-J. Fontaine	Feb. 17,'39†	*135	Jan. 28,'39
Knight in Ghost Town, A	G. O'Brien-R. Keith-R. Whitley
Love Affair	I. Dunne-C. Boyer-L. Bowman	Feb. 17,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 5,'38.)
Picardy Max	James Ellison-Helen Wood	Mar. 31,'39†
Saint Strikes Back, The	George Sanders-Wendy Barrie	Mar. 10,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 14,'39.)
Sixty Glorious Years (G)	Anna Neagle-Anton Walbrook-C. Aubrey Smith		95	Oct. 29,'38
Story of Vernon and Irene Castle, The	Fred Astaire - Ginger Rogers - Edna Mae Oliver - Walter Brennan	Apr. 7,'39†
(See "The Romantic Vernon Castle," "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 17,'38.)
They Made Her a Spy	Sally Eilers-Allan Lane
Twelve Crowded Hours	Richard Dix-Lucille Ball	Mar. 3,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
What's a Fixer For*	Lee Tracy-Peggy Shannon

TWENTIETH CENTURY-FOX

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Alexander's Ragtime Band (G) 903	T. Power-A. Faye-D. Ameche	Aug. 19,'38†	106	May 28,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 3,'38, p. 60; Sept. 10,'38, p. 99; Oct. 1,'38, p. 52; Oct. 8,'38, p. 64; Nov. 12,'38, p. 69; Nov. 19,'38, p. 92; Nov. 26,'38, p. 47; Jan. 7,'39, p. 52.)
Always Goodbye (A) 852	Barbara Stanwyck-H. Marshall-Binnie Barnes-Ian Hunter	July 1,'38	75	July 2,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 29,'38, p. 56.)
Always in Trouble (G) 914	J. Withers-R. Kellard-J. Rogers	Oct. 28,'38†	69	Aug. 20,'38
Arizona Wildcat, The (G) 929	Jane Withers - Leo Carrillo - Pauline Moore - H. Wilcoxon	Feb. 3,'39†	69	Nov. 19,'38
Charlie Chan in Honolulu (G) 928	Sidney Toler-Phyllis Brooks	Jan. 20,'39†	68	Dec. 24,'38
Down on the Farm (G) 920	Jed Prouty - Spring Byington - Louise Fazenda	Dec. 16,'38†	61	Oct. 15,'38
Five of a Kind (G) 919	Dionne Quintuplets-J. Hersholt-Claire Trevor - Joan Davis - Slim Summerville	Oct. 14,'38†	85	Oct. 15,'38
(Exploitation: Nov. 5,'38, p. 51; Jan. 7,'39, p. 53.)
Gateway (G) 901	Don Ameche - Arleen Whelan - L. Talbot-G. Ratoff-B. Barnes	Aug. 5,'38†	74	Aug. 6,'38
Hold That Co-ed (G) 907	J. Barrymore-Marjorie Weaver-Geo. Murphy-Jack Haley	Sept. 16,'38†	80	Sept. 17,'38
I'll Give a Million (G) 855	Warner Baxter-Marjorie Weaver-Jean Hersholt-Peter Lorre	July 22,'38	75	July 16,'38
Jesse James (G) 921	Tyrone Power - Henry Fonda - Nancy Kelly-Randolph Scott	Jan. 27,'39†	*105	Jan. 14,'39
(Exploitation: Jan. 14,'39, p. 63; Jan. 21,'39; pp. 52, 54; Feb. 4,'39, p. 83.)
Just Around the Corner (G) 915	Shirley Temple - Joan Davis - Chas. Farrell-Armanda Duff-Bert Lahr-Bill Robinson	Nov. 11,'38†	71	Nov. 5,'38
Keep Smiling (G) 902	Jane Withers - Gloria Stuart - H. Wilcoxon-Helen Westley	Aug. 12,'38†	77	June 11,'38
Kentucky (G) 923	Loretta Young-Richard Greene-Walter Brennan	Dec. 30,'38†	96	Dec. 24,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 17,'38, p. 75; Jan. 7,'39, p. 53.)
Little Miss Broadway (G) 856	Shirley Temple-Jimmy Durante-George Murphy - Edna Mae Oliver	July 29,'38	71	July 9,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 17,'38, p. 62.)
Meet the Girls 910	J. Lang-L. Barl-R. Allen	Oct. 7,'38†	66
My Lucky Star (G) 905	Sonja Henie - Richard Greene - J. Davis-C. Romero-B. Ebsen	Sept. 2,'38†	84	Sept. 3,'38
(Exploitation: Feb. 4,'39, p. 83.)
Mysterious Mr. Moto (G) 912	Peter Lorre-Mary Maguire	Oct. 21,'38†	63	June 4,'38
Panamint's Bad Man 853	Smith Ballew-Evelyn Daw	July 8,'38	60
Passport Husband (G) 854	S. Erwin-P. Moore-J. Woodbury	July 8,'38	67	July 2,'38
Road Demon (G) 918	Henry Arthur-Joan Valerie	Dec. 2,'38†	70	Aug. 27,'38
Safety in Numbers (G) 906	J. Prouty-S. Byington-S. Deane	Sept. 9,'38†	58	Aug. 13,'38
Sharpshooters (G) 916	Brian Donlevy-Lynn Barl	Nov. 18,'38†	64	Sept. 24,'38
Smiling Along (G) 933	Gracie Fields-Mary Maguire-Roger Livesay	Jan. 20,'39†	92	Oct. 22,'38
Speed to Burn (G) 904	Lynn Barl-Michael Whalen	Aug. 26,'38†	62	June 11,'38
Straight Place and Show (G) 911	Ritz Bros. - Ethel Merman - Richard Arlen-Phyllis Brooks	Sept. 30,'38†	68	Oct. 1,'38
Submarine Patrol (G) 909	Richard Greene-Nancy Kelly-Preston Foster-Geo. Bancroft	Nov. 25,'38†	95	Nov. 5,'38
(Exploitation: Nov. 5,'38, p. 52.)
Suez (G) 913	Loretta Young-Tyrone Power-Annabella	Oct. 28,'38†	104	Oct. 22,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 17,'38, p. 73; Jan. 7,'39, p. 50; Jan. 21,'39, p. 52.)
Tail Spin (G) 925	A. Faye - C. Bennett - Nancy Kelly-J. Davis-Chas. Farrell	Feb. 10,'39†	*80	Feb. 4,'39
Thank You, Mr. Moto (G) 831	Peter Lorre-Jayne Regan	Dec. 24,'37	67	Nov. 27,'37
Thanks for Everything (G) 917	J. Haley-A. Menjou-A. Whelan-J. Oakie - T. Martin	Dec. 23,'38†	73	Dec. 10,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 17,'38, p. 75.)
Time Out for Murder (G) 908	Gloria Stuart-Michael Whalen	Sept. 23,'38†	60	July 2,'38
Up the River (G) 924	Preston Foster-Phyllis Brooks-Tony Martin-Arthur Treacher	Dec. 9,'38†	77	Nov. 5,'38
We're Going to Be Rich (G) 857	Gracie Fields-Victor McLaglen-Brian Donlevy	July 8,'38	78	July 16,'38
While New York Sleeps (G) 922	Michael Whalen-Joan Woodbury	Jan. 6,'39†	61	Aug. 27,'38

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Alexander Graham Bell	Don Ameche - Henry Fonda - Loretta Young-Young Sisters	Apr. 14,'39†
Charlie Chan in Reno	S. Toler-P. Brooks-R. Cortez
Chasing Danger (G)	Preston Foster - Lynn Barl	May 5,'39†	*60	Jan. 14,'39
Everybody's Baby (A) 931	J. Prouty-S. Byington-S. Deane	Mar. 24,'39†	62	Nov. 26,'38
Hound of the Baskervilles	Richard Greene-Basil Rathbone-Anita Louise-Nigel Bruce	Mar. 31,'39†
Inside Story (G) 934	Michael Whalen-Jean Rogers	Mar. 10,'39†	*60	Oct. 22,'38
Jones Family in Hollywood	Jed Prouty-Spring Byington
Little Princess, The 932	Shirley Temple-Richard Greene-Anita Louise - Ian Hunter - Cesar Romero-Arthur Treacher	Mar. 17,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 28,'39.)
Mr. Moto in Danger Island	P. Lorre-J. Hersholt-A. Duff	Apr. 7,'39†
Mr. Moto's Last Warning 926	Peter Lorre - Geo. Sanders - R. Cortez-Virginia Field	Feb. 24,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 24,'38.)
Mr. Moto Takes a Vacation (G)	Peter Lorre - Virginia Field - John King-Joseph Schildkraut		68	Nov. 19,'38
News Is Made at Night	Preston Foster-Lynn Barl
Pardon Our Nerve (G) 931	Michael Whalen-Lynn Barl	Feb. 24,'39†	68	Nov. 19,'38
Rose of Washington Square	Tyrone Power - Alice Faye - Al Jolson - Marie Wilson
Stanley and Livingstone	S. Tracy-R. Greene-N. Kelly-W. Brennan - C. Coburn - H. Hull-Sir C. Hardwicke
Susannah of the Mounties*	Shirley Temple-Randolph Scott
Three Musketeers, The 927	Ritz Bros.-D. Ameche-G. Stuart-Binnie Barnes	Feb. 17,'39†	74
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
Wife, Husband and Friend 930	Loretta Young-Warner Baxter-Binnie Barnes-George Barbier	Mar. 3,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 14,'39.)
Winner Take All	Tony Martin-Gloria Stuart-Slim Summerville-Henry Armetta	Apr. 21,'39†

UNITED ARTISTS

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Algiers (A)	Charles Boyer - Sigrid Gurie - Hedy Lamarr - Joe. Calleia - Alan Hale - Gene Lockhart	Aug. 5,'38†	96	July 2,'38
(Exploitation: July 23,'38, p. 66; Aug. 6,'38, pp. 75, 78; Sept. 17,'38, p. 63; Oct. 15,'38, p. 54; Nov. 12,'38, pp. 67, 69.)
Cowboy and the Lady, The (G)	Gary Cooper - Merle Oberon - David Niven-Walter Brennan-Thomas Mitchell-Patsy Kelly	Nov. 17,'38†	90	Nov. 12,'38
(Explitation: Dec. 24,'38, p. 54; Jan. 28,'39, p. 59.)
Drums (G)	Raymond Massey - Sabu - Roger Liversey - Valerie Hobson	Sept. 30,'38†	96	Apr. 30,'38
(Reviewed under the title, "The Drum"; exploitation: Nov. 5,'38, p. 50; Nov. 19,'38, p. 94; Nov. 26,'38; p. 46; Dec. 3,'38, pp. 48, 49; Dec. 10,'38, p. 63; Dec. 24,'38, p. 54; Jan. 7,'39, p. 53; Jan. 14,'38, p. 64.)
Duke of West Point (G)	L. Hayward - J. Fontaine - R. Carlson	Dec. 29,'38†	109	Dec. 17,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 14,'38, p. 64; Feb. 4,'39, pp. 82, 84.)
Made for Each Other (G)	Carole Lombard-James Stewart-Lucile Watson-Charles Coburn	Feb. 10,'39†	*84	Feb. 4,'39
South Riding (A)	Ralph Richardson-Edna Best	July 1,'38	90	Jan. 22,'38

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
There Goes My Heart (G)	Fredric March-Virginia Bruce-Patsy Kelly-Alan Mowbray-Nancy Carroll-Eugene Pallette	Oct. 14,'38†	84	Oct. 1,'38
(Exploitation: Nov. 19,'38, p. 94; Nov. 26,'38, p. 49.)
Topper Takes a Trip (G)	Constance Bennett-Roland Young-Billie Burke-Alan Mowbray	Jan. 12,'39†	80	Dec. 31,'38
(Exploitation: Feb. 4,'39, p. 82.)
Trade Winds (G)	Fredric March-Joan Bennett-Ralph Bellamy-Ann Sothern	Dec. 22,'38†	95	Dec. 24,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 21,'39, p. 54.)
Young in Heart, The (G)	Janet Gaynor-D. Fairbanks, Jr.-P. Goddard-B. Burke-R. Young	Oct. 27,'38†	90	Nov. 5,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 17,'38, p. 73; Jan. 7,'39, p. 51; Jan. 14,'39, p. 65.)

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Captain Fury	Brian Aherne-Victor McLaglen-Paul Lukas-June Lang
Four Feathers*	John Clements-June Duprez-C. Aubrey Smith-Ralph Richardson	Apr. 7,'39†
Gone with the Wind	Vivien Leigh-Clark Gable-Leslie Howard-Olivia de Havilland
It's Spring Again	Oliver Hardy-Harry Langdon-Billie Burke-Alice Brady-James Ellison-J. Lang-J. Parker
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 14,'39.)
King of the Turf	A. Menjou-D. Daniel-D. Costello	Feb. 17,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 14,'39.)
Last Frontier, The	Gary Cooper-Andrea Leeds
Man in the Iron Mask	Louis Hayward
Over the Moon	Merle Oberon-Rex Harrison-Louis Borell
Prison Without Bars	Corrine Luchaire-Edna Best
Restless Age, The	Jascha Heifetz-Sigrid Gurie
Stagecoach	Claire Trevor-Andy Devine-John Wayne-George Bancroft	Mar. 3,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
Wuthering Heights	Merle Oberon-Lawrence Olivier-Flora Robson-David Niven
(See "In the Cutting Room," Feb. 4,'39.)

UNIVERSAL

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Black Bandit 3051	Bob Baker-Marjorie Reynolds	Sept. 16,'38†	57
Danger on the Air (G) 2032	D. Woods-N. Grey-W. Lundigan	July 1,'38	66	July 2,'38
Dark Rapture (G) 3041	Mr. and Mrs. Armand Denis	Aug. 26,'38	80	Oct. 15,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 29,'38, p. 57.)
Exposed (G) 3032	Glenda Farrell-Otto Kruger-Herbert Mundin	Nov. 4,'38†	63	Nov. 26,'38
Freshman Year (G) 3025	Dixie Dunbar-Ernest Truex-Wm. Lundigan-C. Moore	Sept. 2,'38†	68	Dec. 24,'38
Gambling Ship (G) 3023	Robert Wilcox-Helen Mack	Jan. 20,'39†	62	Aug. 20,'38
Ghost Town Riders 3054	Bob Baker-Fay Shannon	Dec. 16,'38†	54
Guilty Trail 3052	Bob Baker-Marjorie Reynolds	Oct. 21,'38†	57
His Exciting Night (G) 3036	Chas. Ruggles-Ona Munson	Nov. 11,'38†	61	Dec. 10,'38
Last Express, The (G) 3028	K. Taylor-Dorothea Kent	Oct. 28,'38†	63	Oct. 1,'38
(See "In the Cutting Room," Sept. 24,'38.)
Last Warning, The (G) 3027.. (G) 3011	P. Foster-F. Jenks-F. Robinson	Jan. 6,'39†	63	Dec. 10,'38
Letter of Introduction (G) 2003	E. Bergen-"Charlie McCarthy"-Andrea Leeds-Adolphe Menjou	Aug. 5,'38	103	Aug. 6,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 10,'38, pp. 103, 105; Nov. 5,'38, p. 50.)
Little Tough Guys (A) 2008	"Dead End" Kids-R. Wilcox-Helen Parrish	July 22,'38	67	July 10,'37
(Exploitation: Nov. 12,'38, p. 66.)
Little Tough Guys in Society (G) 3011	Mary Boland-Edw. E. Horton-Mischa Auer-Helen Parrish	Nov. 25,'38†	73	Nov. 26,'38
Mars Attacks the World (G) 3042	Larry Crabbe-Jean Rogers	Nov. 18,'38†	68	Nov. 19,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 10,'38, p. 62.)
Missing Guest, The (G) 2031	P. Kelly-C. Moore-W. Lundigan	Aug. 12,'38	68	Aug. 20,'38
Newsboys Home 3015	Jackie Cooper-Wendy Barrie-Edmund Lowe-"Little Tough Guys"	Dec. 23,'38†	73
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 17,'38.)
Personal Secretary 3034	W. Gargan-J. Hodges-A. Devine	Sept. 9,'38†	62
Phantom Stage, The 3056	Bob Baker-Marjorie Reynolds	Feb. 10,'39†	57
Pirates of the Skies 3033	Kent Taylor-Rochelle Hudson	Feb. 3,'39†	61
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 3,'38.)
Prairie Justice 3053	Bob Baker-Dorothy Southworth	Nov. 4,'38†	57
Prison Break (G) 2028	Barton MacLane-Glenda Farrell-Constance Moore-Robt. Wilcox	July 15,'38	72	July 23,'38
Rage of Paris, The (G) 2005	D. Darrieux-D. Fairbanks, Jr.-Mischa Auer-H. Broderick	July 1,'38	78	June 18,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 17,'38, p. 64.)
Road to Reno (G) 3017	Hope Hampton-R. Scott-Helen Broderick-Glenda Farrell-Alan Marshall	Sept. 23,'38†	69	Sept. 3,'38
Secrets of a Nurse (G) 3022	E. Lowe-D. Foran-H. Mack	Dec. 9,'38†	75	Nov. 19,'38
Service De Luxe (G) 3013	C. Bennett-V. Price-C. Ruggles-M. Auer-H. Broderick-J. Hodges	Oct. 21,'38†	86	Oct. 29,'38
Son of Frankenstein, The (G) 3004	Basil Rathbone-Boris Karloff-Bela Lugosi-Josephine Hutchinson	Jan. 13,'39†	94	Jan. 21,'39
Storm, The (G) 3016	Chas. Bickord-B. MacLane-P. Foster-Tom Brown-Nan Grey	Oct. 28,'38†	78	Nov. 5,'38
Strange Faces 3035	D. Kent-F. Jenks-A. Devine	Dec. 2,'38†	65	Nov. 12,'38
Swing, Sister, Swing (G) 3021	Ken Murray-Ernest Truex-Kathryn Kane-Johnny Downs	Dec. 16,'38†	67	Dec. 17,'38
Swing That Cheer (G) 3026	T. Brown-A. Devine-C. Moore	Oct. 14,'38†	63	Nov. 19,'38
That Certain Age (G) 2007	Deanna Durbin-Jackie Cooper-Melvyn Douglas-Irene Rich-John Halliday	Oct. 7,'38	101	Oct. 8,'38
(Exploitation: Nov. 19,'38, p. 94; Dec. 17,'38, p. 74.)
Youth Takes a Fling (G) 3012	Joel McCrea-Andrea Leeds-Dorothea Kent-Frank Jenks	Sept. 30,'38†	79	Oct. 1,'38

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Code of the Streets (G)	Frankie Thomas-Harry Carey-"Little Tough Guys"	May 26,'39†	*71	Feb. 4,'39
East Side of Heaven	B. Crosley-J. Blondell-M. Auer	Apr. 7,'39†
Murder in the Surgery*	B. Cabot-H. Mack-C. Worth
Risky Business*	George Murphy-Dorothea Kent
Society Smugglers	Preston Foster-Irene Hervey	Feb. 24,'39†
Spirit of Culver	Jackie Cooper-F. Bartholomew-A. Devine-H. Hull-J. Moran
Three Smart Girls Grow Up	D. Durbin-N. Grey-H. Parrish-C. Winninger-R. Cummings-..William Lundigan	Mar. 10,'39†
You Can't Cheat an Honest Man	W. C. Fields-Edgar Bergen-"Charlie McCarthy"-Frank Jenks	Feb. 17,'39†

WARNER BROTHERS-FIRST NATIONAL

First National Pictures

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Amazing Dr. Clitterhouse, The (A) 262	Edw. G. Robinson-C. Trevor-Humphrey Bogart-A. Jenkins	July 30,'38	87	June 25,'38
(Exploitation: July 30,'38, p. 80; Oct. 1,'38, p. 57; Oct. 15,'38, p. 51; Nov. 5,'38, p. 54; Dec. 24,'38, p. 58.)
Angels with Dirty Faces (A) 351	James Cagney-Pat O'Brien-Ann Sheridan-"Crime School Kids"-Humphrey Bogart	Nov. 26,'38†	97	Oct. 29,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 24,'38, p. 56; Jan. 7,'39, p. 52; Feb. 4,'39, p. 82.)
Broadway Musketeers (G) 368	Margt. Lindsay-M. Wilson-A. Sheridan-John Litel-Janet Chapman	Oct. 8,'38†	62	Sept. 3,'38
Brother Rat (G) 355	W. Morris-P. Lane-J. Bryan	Oct. 29,'38†	89	Oct. 15,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 14,'39, pp. 64, 65, 66; Jan. 28,'39, p. 60.)
Comet Over Broadway (G) 370	Kay Francis-Ian Hunter	Dec. 3,'38	69	Dec. 17,'38
Four Daughters (G) 352	Lane Sisters-Jeffrey Lynn-G. Page-C. Rains-J. Garfield	Sept. 24,'38†	90	Aug. 13,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 24,'38, p. 64; Oct. 15,'38, p. 54; Nov. 12,'38, p. 64; Nov. 26,'38, 46; Dec. 10,'38, p. 64; Dec. 17,'38, p. 76; Jan. 7,'39, p. 54; Jan. 21,'39; p. 53.)
Garden of the Moon (G) 358	Pat. O'Brien-Margaret Lindsay-John Payne-Johnnie Davis	Oct. 1,'38	94	July 30,'38
(Exploitation: Nov. 12,'38, p. 67.)
Girls On Probation (G) 369	Ronald Reagan-Jane Bryan	Oct. 22,'38†	63	Oct. 29,'38
Going Places (G) 359	D. Powell-A. Louise-A. Jenkins	Dec. 31,'38†	84	Dec. 24,'38
My Bill (G) 260	Kay Francis-John Litel-Anita Louise-Bonita Granville	July 9,'38	60	June 18,'38
Penrod's Double Trouble (G) 276	Billy and Bobby Mauch	July 23,'38	60	Apr. 2,'38
Secrets of an Actress (G) 365	Kay Francis-George Brent	Sept. 10,'38†	70	Oct. 18,'38

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
(See "Crime Is a Racket," Oct. 22,'38.)
Secret Service of the Air	R. Reagan-I. Rhodes-J. Litel
Student Nurse	Marie Wilson-Marg't Lindsay-Rosella Towne
You Can't Get Away with Murder (G)	Humphrey Bogart-Gale Page		*80	Jan. 21,'39

Warner Brothers

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Boy Meets Girl (A) 213	James Cagney-Pat O'Brien-Marie Wilson	Aug. 27,'38	86	July 23,'38
(Exploitation: July 9,'38, p. 46; Sept. 10,'38, p. 102; Nov. 5,'38, p. 52.)
Cowboy from Brooklyn (G) 217	Pat O'Brien-Dick Powell-Priscilla Lane-Dick Foran	July 16,'38	77	June 11,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 3,'83, p. 58; Sept. 17,'38, pp. 60, 63.)
Dawn Patrol (G)	Errol Flynn-David Niven-Donald Crisp-Basil Rathbone	Dec. 24,'38†	103	Dec. 17,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 31,'38, p. 66; Jan. 14,'39, p. 64.)
Devil's Island (G)	Boris Karloff-Nedda Harrigan	Jan. 7,'39†	62	Jan. 7,'39
Four's a Crowd (G) 306	E. Flynn-O. de Havilland-R. Russell-P. Knowles	Sept. 3,'38	91	July 16,'38
Hard to Get (G) 310	Dick Powell-O. de Havilland-C. Winninger-Allen Jenkins	Nov. 5,'38†	79	Nov. 12,'38
Heart of the North (G) 362	D. Foran-Gale Page—G. Dickson-J. Chapman-A. Jenkins	Dec. 10,'38†	85	Dec. 17,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 21,'39, p. 53; Feb. 4,'39, pp. 83, 84.)
King of the Underworld (A) 317	Kay Francis-Humphrey Bogart	Jan. 14,'39†	69	Jan. 14,'39
	son-J. Chapman-A. Jenkins	Dec. 10,'38†	85	Dec. 17,'38
Little Miss Thoroughbred (G) 219	Ann Sheridan-John Litel-F. McHugh-Janet Chapman	June 4,'38	63	May 7,'38

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Men Are Such Fools (G) 215	Wayne Morris-Priscilla Lane-Humphrey Bogart-H. Herbert	July 16,'38	69	Apr. 23,'38
Mr. Chump 227	Johnnie Davis-Lola Lane	Aug. 6,'38	60
(See "In the Cutting Room," Apr. 9,'38.)
Nancy Drew, Detective 319	Bonita Granville-John Litel	Nov. 19,'38†	65
(See "In the Cutting Room," Oct. 22,'38.)
Off the Record (G) 314	Pat O'Brien-Joan Blondell	Jan. 21,'39†	71	Jan. 28,'39
Racket Busters (G) 205	George Brent - Gloria Dickson - H. Bogart-Walter Abel	July 16,'38	71	Aug. 20,'38
Sisters, The (A) 302	B. Davis-E. Flynn-A. Louise-J. Bryan-D. Foran-I. Hunter	Oct. 15,'38†	99	Oct. 8,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 8,'38, p. 62; Oct. 22,'38, p. 66.)
They Made Me a Criminal (G) 307	John Garfield-Ann Sheridan.... "Crime School Kids"-C. Rains	Jan. 28,'39†	92	Jan. 7,'39
Torchy Blane in Chinatown	Glenda Farrell-Barton MacLane	Feb. 4,'39†	58
Torchy Gets Her Man (G) 318	Glenda Farrell-Barton MacLane	Nov. 12,'38†	62	Oct. 15,'38
Valley of the Giants (G) 305	Wayne Morris - Claire Trevor - John Litel-Chas. Bickford	Sept. 17,'38†	79	Sept. 17,'38
White Banners (A) 208	Claude Rains - Fay Bainter - Jackie Cooper-B. Granville	June 25,'38	92	May 28,'38
(Exploitation: July 16,'38, p. 86; Sept. 10,'38, p. 103; Oct. 15,'38, p. 54; Nov. 5,'38, p. 52; Dec. 3,'38, p. 50.)
Wings of the Navy (G)	George Brent-O. de Havilland-John Payne-F. McHugh	Feb. 11,'39†	*90	Jan. 21,'39
(Exploitation: Jan. 14,'39, p. 64; Feb. 4,'39, p. 85.)

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Adventures of Jane Arden, The	Rosella Towne-William Gargan
Battle of City Hall
Blackwell's Island	J. Garfield-R. Lane-D. Purcell
(See "In the Cutting Room," Aug. 13,'38.)
Brother Orchid	Edw. G. Robinson-Wayne Morris-Gale Page
Confessions of a Nazi Spy	Edw. G. Robinson - Francis Lederer
Dark Victory	Bette Davis - George Brent - Geraldine Fitzgerald - Ronald Reagan-Humphrey Bogart
(See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 12,'38.)
Dodge City	Errol Flynn-Olivia de Havilland Ann Sheridan - Bruce Cabot - A. Hale-F. McHugh-V. Jory
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
Each Dawn I Die	James Cagney - Jane Bryan - George Raft-George Bancroft
Hell's Kitchen	Marg't Lindsay-Ronald Reagoan-"Crime School Kids"
Hero for a Day	Jane Bryan-Henry O'Neil
Juarez	Paul Muni - Bette Davis - B. Aherne-C. Rains-J. Garfield
(See "In the Cutting Room," Feb. 4,'39.)
Kid from Kokomo, The	Wayne Morris - Pat O'Brien - Joan Blondell-May Robson
Knight and the Lady, The	Bette Davis-Errol Flynn
Nancy Drew, Reporter (G)	Bonita Granville-John Litel	Feb. 18,'39†	*67	Feb. 4,'39
Nancy Drew, Trouble Shooter*	B. Granville-F. Thomas-J. Litel
Oklahoma Kid	J. Cagney-H. Bogart-R. Lane
(See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 12,'38.)
On Trial	John Litel-Margaret Lindsay
(See "In the Cutting Room," Feb. 4,'39.)
Professor Steps Out, The	Dick Powell-Gale Page-Ronald Reagan-Ann Sheridan
("In the Cutting Room," Jan. 7,'39.)
Roaring Road, The	Pat O'Brien-Wayne Morris.... Ann Sheridan-Gale Page
Smashing the Money Ring	R. Reagan-R. Towne-J. Litel
Sweepstakes Winner	M. Wilson-J. Davis-A. Jenkins
Torchy Blane Runs for Mayor	Glenda Farrell-Barton MacLane
We Are Not Alone	Miriam Hopkins
Women in the Wind (G)	K. Francis-W. Gargan-V. Jory	Apr. 15,'39†	*65	Feb. 4,'39
Yes, My Darling Daughter	Jeffrey Lynn - P. Lane - Fay Bainter-M. Robson-R. Young	Feb. 25,'39†
("In the Cutting Room," Jan. 7,'39; exploitation: Jan. 14,'39, p. 64.)

STATE RIGHTS

Title	Star	Producer	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Bronze Buckaroo, The	Negro Cast	Sack	Jan. 1,'39
Code of the Fearless (G)	Fred Scott	Spectrum	Jan. 5,'39	56	Jan. 21,'39
Convicts at Large	Ralph Forbes	Record	Dec. 15,'38
Crashing Through Danger	Ray Walker	Excelsior	Sept. 15,'38	60
Delinquent Parents	Doris Weston	Progressive	July 15,'38
Duke Is Tops, The	Negro Cast	Popkin	Sept. 1,'38
Feud on the Range	Bob Steele	Webb	Jan. 15,'39
Gang, The	Gina Malo	Record	Dec. 1,'38	55
Gang Smashers	Negro Cast	Popkin	Jan. 1,'39
Gone Harlem	Negro Cast	Sack	Aug. 15,'38
Harlem Rides the Range	Negro Cast	Sack	Feb. 1,'39
Hell Bound (A) (reissue)	Leo Carrillo	Sack	Nov. 15,'38		Feb. 7,'31
I Demand Payment	Jack La Rue	Imperial	Nov. 15,'38	59
In Old Montana	Fred Scott	Spectrum	Feb. 5,'39
Lightning Carson Rides Again	Tim McCoy	Victory	Oct. 10,'38	59
Meet the Mayor	Frank Fay	Judel	Sept. 15,'38	60
Paroled from the Big House	Jean Carmen	J. D. Kay Prods.	Aug. 15,'38	57
Policy Man	Negro Cast	Sack	July 1,'38	61
Port of Hate	Stock Cast	Webb	Jan. 15,'39
Rebellious Daughters	Verna Hillie	Progressive	July 1,'38
Rough Riding Rhythm	Kermit Maynard	Ambassador	June 15,'38	57
Scandal House	Adrienne Ames	Progressive	July 1,'38
Sin of Lena Rivers, The (A) (reissue)	Charlotte Henry	Sack	Dec. 1,'38	67	May 28,'32
(Reviewed under the title, "Lena Rivers.")
Six-Gun Trail	Tim McCoy	Victory	Nov. 25,'38†	59
Slums of New York (reissue)	Mickey Rooney	Freuler	July 15,'38	61

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Producer	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Code of the Cactus	Tim McCoy	Victory	Feb. 25,'39
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 14,'39.)
Headleys at Home, The	Evelyn Venable	Standard		59	Nov. 12,'38
Outlaws of Paradise	Tim McCoy	Victory
Prison Train (A)	Fred Keating	Equity		64	Oct. 22,'38
Religious Racketeer (G)	Robert Fiske	Fanchon Royer		9 rls.	Apr. 23,'38
Texas Wildcats	Tim McCoy	Victory	Apr. 10,'39
Topa Topa (G)	Helen Hughes	Pennant		*65	Apr. 16,'38
Two Gun Troubador	Fred Scott	Spectrum	Mar. 5,'39

OTHER PRODUCT (FOREIGN)

Title	Star	Dist'r	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Abused Confidence (A)	Danielle Darrieux	Columbia	Nov. 30,'38	87	Dec. 10,'38
Adventure of Giacomo Casanova (G)	Nerio Bernardi	Amerital	Dec. 1,'38	70	Dec. 10,'38
Alf's Button Afloat (G)	Bud Flanagan	General Film		89	July 23,'38
Annie Laurie	Will Fyffe	World	April 15,'39
Avocate d'Amour (G)	Danielle Darrieux	Regal	Sept. 7,'38	88	Sept. 24,'38
Ballerina (G)	Janine Charrat	Mayer-Burstyn	Dec. 3,'38	80	Dec. 3,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 28,'39, p. 60.)
Big Fella (G)	Paul Robeson	Brecher		73	July 10,'37
Cabiria		Brodie	Feb. 3,'39	85
Captain Scorpiob	Ecunomou	Brodie	Apr. '39	85
Carnival in Flanders (A)	Francoise Rosay	Tri Nat'l Films	Sept. 22,'36	93	Oct. 8,'36
(Reviewed under the title, "La Kermesse Heroique.")
College Girl (G)	Ellen Schwanneke	Henka Film	Sept. 9,'38	90	Sept. 24,'38
Crossroads (A)	Charles Vanel	Tri-National		80	Dec. 31,'38
Dark Sands (G)	Paul Robeson	Record	Aug. 1,'38	75	July 30,'38
Edge of the World, The (A)	Finlay Currie	Pax		75	Aug. 14,'37
Flight Into Darkness (A)	Annabella	Frank Kassler	Oct. 15,'38	81	Nov. 5,'38
Foggy Quay, The (A)	Jean Gabin	Films Victoria		90	Sept. 8,'38
40 Little Mothers (A)	Lucien Baroux	National	Dec. 23,'38	94	Dec. 31,'38
Gaunt Stranger, The (A)	Wilfred Lawson	A. B. F. D.		72	Nov. 19,'38
Girl Refugee, The	Sophia Vebo	Brodie	Sept. 25,'38	110
Glory of the Faith, The (G)	Gabriel Farguette	French	Nov. 24,'38	75	Dec. 3,'38
Grand Illusion (A)	Jean Gabin	World		96	July 3,'37
(Reviewed under the title, "La Grande Illusion"; exploitation: Dec. 17,'38, p. 73; Jan. 28,'39, p. 59.)
Hatred	Harry Baur	World	Feb. 15,'39
Heart of Paris (A)	Raimu	Tri-National	Jan. 12,'39	85	Jan. 14,'39
Hey! Hey! U. S. A. (G)	Will Hay	G.F.D.		92	Oct. 22,'38
Irish and Proud of It (G)	Richard Hayward	Guaranteed	Oct. 29,'38	73	Nov. 19,'38
Ihr Leibhauser (G)	Magda Schneider	Casino		80	Nov. 12,'38
Itto	Native Cast	World	Feb. 30,'39
It's In the Air (G)	George Formby	A. B. F. D.		87	Oct. 8,'38
I've Got a Horse (G)	Sandy Powell	British Lion		76	Sept. 3,'38
Kreutzer Sonata (A)	Gaby Morley	Foreign Cinema Arts	Feb. 1,'39	87	Jan. 7,'39
La Vierge Folle (A)	Juliette Faber	Walch	Dec. 28,'38	80	Jan. 21,'39
Liebe im ⅜ Takt (G)	Leo Slezak	Casino	Sept. 23,'38	98	Oct. 8,'38
Little Flower of Jesus (G)	Simone Bourday	Sunray	Oct. 21,'38	75	Apr. 30,'38
Mamele	Molly Picon	Sphinx	Jan. '39	102
Marseillaise	Pierre Renoir	World	Mar. 30,'39
Marusia (G)	S. Melnyk	Ukrafilm	Dec. 8,'38	105	Dec. 31,'38
Mis Dos Amores (G)	Tito Guizar	Paramount		80	Aug. 20,'38
My Song of Love	Tito Schipa	World
Night on the Danube, A (G)	Leo Slezak	Casino		*85	Dec. 3,'38
Ninety Degrees South	Scott Expedition	World	July 1,'39
Old Bones of the River (G)	Will Hay	G.F.D.		90	Jan. 21,'39
Orage (A)	Charles Boyer	Tri Nat'l Films	Dec. 10,'38	105	Feb. 12,'38
Peg of Old Drury (A)	Anna Neagle - Sir Cedric Hardwicke	Tri Nat'l Films		75	Sept. 28,'35
Penny Paradise (G)	Edmund Gwen	A.T.P.		72	Sept. 24,'38
Radio Troubadour, The (G)	Tito Guizar	Paramount		*60	Dec. 3,'38
Return of the Frog (A)	Gordon Harker	British Lion		*75	Dec. 31,'38
Rose of Tralee (G)	Baby Binkie Stuart	Dublin Films	Oct. 15,'38	71	Nov. 12,'38
Rothschild	Harry Baur	Regal	Oct. 11,'38	78	Oct. 22,'38
Royal Divorce, A (A)	Ruth Chatterton	Paramount		85	Oct. 15,'38
Sacrifice d'Honneur (A)	Annabella	Tri-Nat'l.	Nov. 30,'38	75	Dec. 10,'38
St. Martin's Lane (G)	Chas. Laughton	Assoc. British		85	July 9,'38
Singing Blacksmith (A)	Moishe Oysher	New Star	Nov. 1,'38	100	Nov. 17,'38
Slalom (G)	Hella Hartwich	World	Mar. 1,'39	66	Jan. 23,'37
So This Is London* (A)	Alfred Drayton	20th Cent-Fox		85	Feb. 4,'39
Story of a Cheat, The (A)	Sascha Guitry	Gallic Films	Sept. 26,'38	83	Oct. 15,'38
Street Without a Name	Pola Illery	World	Mar. 15,'39
They Drive by Night (A)	Emlyn Williams	First National		84	Jan. 28,'39
This Man Is News (A)	Barry Barnes	Paramount		77	Oct. 1,'38
T-Kies Koff	Jewish Film	Foreign Cinema Arts	May 15,'38	102
Ware Case, The (A)	Clive Brook	A.B.F.D.		78	Dec. 31,'38
Wedad (A)	Egyptian Cast	Egyptian Film Co.		110	Nov. 26,'38
When the Husband Travels	M. Phillipides	Brodie	Mar. '39	95
Witch Night	Gosta Ekman	World
Yes, Madam? (G)	Bobby Howes	Assoc. British		79	Dec. 31,'38

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

SHORT FILMS

[Numbers immediately following title designate date reviewed; for example, (8-6-38) August 6, 1938. Numerals following review dates are production numbers.]

COLUMBIA

BROADWAY COMEDIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Boom Goes the Groom 9431	Mar. 24,'39†	2 rls.
Ducking They Did Go, A 9406	Apr. 7,'39†	2 rls.
Flat Foot Stooges (2-4-39) 8403 (3 Stooges)	Dec. 5,'38†	15½
Halfway to Hollywood 8436 Johnny Arthur-Tom Kennedy	July 1,'38	17½
Home on the Rage (12-17-38) 9426 Andy Clyde	Dec. 9,'38†	17
Many Sappy Returns 9421 Charley Chase	Aug. 19,'38†	18
Mutiny on the Body 9429 Smith & Dale	Feb. 10,'39†	17½
Mutts to You (1-14-39) 9402 (3 Stooges)	Oct. 14,'38†	18
Nag in the Bag (12-24-38) 9425 Smith & Dale	Nov. 11,'38†	17
Nightshirt Bandit (10-28-38) 8424 Charlie Chase	Oct. 28,'38†	17
Not Guilty Enough (10-29-38) 9423 Andy Clyde	Sept. 30,'38†	20
Pie a la Maid 9427 Charley Chase	Dec. 23,'38†	18
Sap Takes a Wrap, The 9430	Mar. 10,'39†	15½
Sue My Lawyer (10-15-38) 9422 Harry Langdon	Sept. 16,'38†	17
Swing, You Swingers 9428 Andy Clyde	Jan. 29,'39†	19½
Three Little Sew and Sews 9404 (3 Stooges)	Jan. 6,'39†	16
Three Missing Links (6-25-38) 8408 (3 Stooges)	July 29,'38	17½
Violent is the Word for Curly (9-10-38) 9401 (3 Stooges)	Sept. 2,'38†	18
We Want Our Mummy 9405	Feb. 24,'39†	2 rls.

COLOR RHAPSODIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Animal Cracker Circus (10-8-38) 9502	Sept. 23,'38†	7
Frog Pond, The (10-15-38) 8512	Aug. 12,'38	6½
Gorilla Hunt, The 9507	Feb. 24,'39†	1 rl.
Hollywood Graduation (9-10-38) 9501	Aug. 26,'38†	7
Horse on the Merry-Go Round, The (3-26-38) 8505	Sept. 17,'38†	8
Kangaroo Kid 9505	Dec. 23,'38†	7½
Little Match Girl (reissue) (11-27-37) 8502	Dec. 16,'38	8½
Little Moth's Big Flame (12-31-38) 9503	Nov. 3,'38†	8
Midnight Frolics	Nov. 24,'38†	7
Peaceful Neighbors 9506	Jan. 26,'39†	8
Poor Little Butterfly (7-23-38) 8510	July 4,'38	7½
Poor Elmer 8511	July 22,'38	7½

COLUMBIA TOURS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Bermuda—Isle of Paradise 9551	Nov. 4,'38†	10½
Big Town Commuters (New York) 9553	Feb. 3,'39†	1 rl.
Provincial Quebec (12-31-38) 9552	Dec. 15,'38†	11

COMMUNITY SING

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 10 (6-18-38) 8660 (Patriotic Songs)	July 4,'38	10
No. 11 (10-15-38) 8661 (Songs of Yesteryear)	Aug. 26,'38	10
No. 12 8862 (Scotch Songs)	Sept. 15,'38	10

(New Series)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 1 (10-15-38) (College Songs) 9651	Oct. 1,'38	10
No. 2 (South Seas) (11-12-38) 9652	Nov. 4,'38†	10
No. 3 9653 (Seasons Idea)	Dec. 2,'38†	11
No. 4 9654 (Girls' Names)	Dec. 30,'38†	10½
No. 5 (9655 (Friendship Songs)	Jan. 27,'39†	10
No. 6 9656 (Moon Songs)	Feb. 24,'39†	1 rl.
No. 7 9657	Mar. 24,'39†	1 rl.

KRAZY KAT CARTOONS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
25. Krazy's Travel Squawks (6-25-38) 8706	July 4,'38	6½
26. Gym Jams (10-8-38) 9701	Sept. 9,'38†	6½
27. Hot Dogs On Ice 9702	Oct. 21,'38†	6
28. Lone Mounties, The 9703	Dec. 10,'38†	7
29. Krazy's Bear Tale 9704	Jan. 27,'39†	1 rl.

MUSIC HALL VANITIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Night in a Music Hall, A 9961

PICTUREGRAPH

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 1 9951	Feb. 10,'39†

SCRAPPY CARTOONS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
City Slicker (7-23-38) 8758	July 8,'38	6
Early Bird (10-1-38) 9751	Sept. 16,'38†	5
Happy Birthday 9752	Oct. 7,'38†	6
Scrappy's Added Attraction 9753	Jan. 13,'39†	1 rl.

SCREEN SNAPSHOTS

(New Series)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 1 9851	Sept. 16,'38†	10
No. 2 9852	Oct. 14,'38†	10
No. 3 9853	Nov. 20,'38†	10
No. 4 9854	Dec. 15,'38	10
No. 5 9585	Jan. 10,'39†	1 rl.
No. 6 9586	Feb. 17,'39†	1 rl.

SPECIAL

SPORT THRILLS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Athletic Youth 8811	July 29,'38	1 rl.
Demons of the Deep (9-24-38) 8812	Aug. 19,'38	9
Fistic Fun (7-30-38) 8810	July 1,'38	9½
Football Giants (10-8-38) 9801	Sept. 28,'38†	10
Get Ready Navy 9804	Feb. 24,'39†	1 rl.
King Vulture (1-21-38) 9803	Jan. 6,'39†	10½
Ski Rhythm (12-24-38) 9802	Nov. 4,'38†	10
Sportlaughs 9804	Jan. 27,'39†	1 rl.

WASHINGTON PARADE

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 1 (1-7-39) 9901 (Harry Newman)	Nov. 18,'38†	10
No. 2 9902 (Inside the White House)	Jan. 27,'39†	1 rl.
No. 3 9903	Mar. 3,'39†	1 rl.

EDUCATIONAL

[Distributed through Grand National]

SONG AND COMEDY HITS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Cavalcade of Stuff, No. 1 EI-2	Jan. 6,'39†	9
Cavalcade of Stuff, No. 2 EI-2	Jan. 20,'39†	9

TREASURE CHEST

(Color Cartoons)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Baby Checkers EI-14
Monkey Business EI-15

[Distributed through Twentieth Century-Fox]

TERRY-TOONS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Eliza Runs Again 8526	July 29,'38	6½
Milk for Baby 8524	July 8,'38	6½
Mrs. O'Leary's Cow 8525	July 22,'38	6½

TREASURE CHEST

(color cartoons)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
We Live In Two Worlds (8-20-38) 8609	July 22,'38	11

MGM

CAPTAIN AND THE KIDS

(In Sepia)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Buried Treasure W-689	Sept. 17,'38	8
Captain's Christmas, The (12-24-38) W-692	Dec. 17,'38†	8
Honduras Hurricane (12-3-38) W-691	Oct. 15,'38†	9
Old Smokey W-688	Sept. 3,'38	7
Petunia Natural Park W-693 (color)	Jan. 14,'39	9
Pygmy Hunt, The W-687	Aug. 6,'38	8
What a Lion! W-686	July 16,'38	9
Winning Ticket, The W-690	Oct. 1,'38	9

CARTOONS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Mama's New Hat W-882	Feb. 11,'39†
Seal Siknners W-881 (sepia)	Jan. 28,'39†	8

CRIME DOESN'T PAY

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 18—They're Always Caught (10-8-38) P-615	Sept. 3,'38	22
No. 19—Think It Over (11-19-38) P-616	Sept. 24,'38	20
No. 20—The Wrong Way Out (1-21-39) P-811	Dec. 24,'38†	17

FITZPATRICK TRAVEL TALKS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Ancient Egypt T-856	Jan. 21,'39†	9
Cairo, City of Contrast (10-22-38) T-851	Sept. 10,'38†	9
Imperial Delphi T-857	Feb. 18,'39†	1 rl.
Jaipur, The Pink City (12-31-38) T-853	Oct. 29,'38†	8
Madeira—Isle of Romance (12-3-38) T-851	Oct. 1,'38†	8
Paris On Parade (8-20-38) T-662	July 9,'38	9
Singapore and Jahore T-855 (2-4-39)	Aug. 31,'38†	9
Sydney, Pride of Australia T-854 (2-4-39)	Dec. 3,'38†	9

HISTORICAL MYSTERIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Bravest of the Brave, The (8-27-38) H-728	Aug. 6,'38	11
Man on the Rock, The (10-8-38) H-729	Sept. 3,'38	11
Nostradamus (10-22-38) H-730	Sept. 24,'38	11
Strange Glory (8-6-38) H-727 Frank McGlynn	July 2,'38	11

MGM MINIATURES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
City of Little Men, The (11-12-38) M-871	Aug. 20,'38†	11
Great Heart, The (2-4-39) M-875	Dec. 31,'38†	11
Ice Antics M-876	Feb. 11,'39†	1 rl.
Streamline Swing (11-12-38) M-872 (In sepia)	Sept. 10,'38†	9
Miracle of Salt Lake (12-31-38) M-874	Nov. 12,'38†	11
They Live Again M-873 Shephard-Struwick-Mary Howard	Oct. 22,'38†	10
Tracking the Sleeping Death (8-27-38) M-680 Gilbert Emery-Doris Lloy	July 9,'38	10

MUSICAL COMEDIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Dream of Love, A R-803	Jan. 28,'39†	17
It's In the Stars (8-27-38) R-606 Eleanor Lynn-Johnny Downes	July 30,'38	10
Magician's Daughter, The (8-20-38) R-605 Eleanor Lynn-Frank Albertson	July 16,'38	18
Men of Steel (1-28-39) R-801 Doris Weston	Dec. 17,'38†	21
Once Over Lightly (2-4-39) R-802 Dixie Dunbar-Johnny Downs	Dec. 17,'38†	19

OUR GANG

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Aladdin's Lantern (10-15-38) C-931	Sept. 17,'38†	10
Alfalfa's Aunt (2-4-39) C-935	Jan. 7,'39†	11
Football Romeo (1-21-38) C-933	Nov. 12,'38†	10
Little Ranger, The (8-27-38) C-741	Aug. 6,'38	11
Men in Fright (11-19-38) C-392	Oct. 15,'38†	11
Party Fever (10-15-38) C-742	Aug. 27,'38	10
Practical Jokers C-934	Dec. 17,'38†	9
Tiny Troubles C-936		1 rl.

PASSING PARADE

(Sepia)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 1—K-921 (11-12-38)	Oct. 15,'38†	10
No. 2—K-922 (New Roadways)	Jan. 28,'39†	10
No. 3—K-923 (Story of Alfred Nobel)

PETE SMITH SPECIALTIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Anaesthesia (8-6-38) S-711	July 9,'38	10
Double Diving (1-28-39) S-904 (sepia)	Jan. 14,'39†	8
Fellow the Arrow (8-20-38) S-712	July 30,'38	10
Football Thrills of 1937 (10-1-38) S-714	Sept. 10,'38	10
Fistcuffs (10-1-38)	Aug. 27,'38	10
Grid Rules (11-19-38) S-715	Oct. 15,'38	9
Heroes at Leisure S-905	Feb. 11,'39†	10
Hot on Ice (12-1-38) S-901	Oct. 22,'38†	10
Man's Greatest Friend (12-31-38) S-902	Nov. 19,'38†	10
Penny's Picnic (1-14-39) S-903 (color)	Dec. 17,'38†	10

ROBERT BENCHLEY

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Courtship of a Newt, The (8-27-38) F-757	July 23,'38	8
Hour for Luch, An F-955
How to Raise a Baby (8-20-38) F-756	July 2,'38	9
How to Read (10-15-38) F-758	Aug. 27,'38	9
How to Sublet (2-4-39) F-954		8
How to Watch Football (11-19-38) F-951	Oct. 8,'38†	9
Mental Poise (2-4-39) F-953	Dec. 10,'38†	7
Opening Day (12-10-38) F-952	Nov. 12,'38†	9

PARAMOUNT

BETTY BOOP CARTOONS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Buzzy Boop T7-12	July 22,'38	1 rl.
Buzzy Boop at the Concert (10-8-38) T8-2	Sept. 16,'38†	7
My Friend the Monkey T8-6	Jan. 27,'39†	1 rl.
On With the New (12-17-38) T8-3	Dec. 2,'38†	7
Pudgy in Thrills and Chills (2-4-39) T8-5	Dec. 23,'38†	7
Pudgy the Watchman (G) (8-20-38) T8-1	Aug. 12,'38†	1 rl.
Sally Swing (10-22-38)	Oct. 14,'38†	7
So Does an Antomobile T8-7	Feb. 17,'39†	1 rl.

COLOR CLASSICS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
All's Fair at the Fair (9-3-38) C8-1	Aug. 26,'38	7
Always Kickin' C8-3	Jan. 27,'39†	1 rl.
Playful Polar Bears (11-12-38) C8-2	Oct. 28,'38†	8
Small Fry C8-4	Mar. 17,'39†	1 rl.

COLOR CRUISES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Costa Rica (12-10-38) K8-3	Dec. 2,'38†	10
Guatemala (8-27-38) K8-1	Aug. 12,'38†	10
Land of Inca Memories (2-4-39) K8-4	Jan. 27,'39†	10
Mexico (10-15-38) K8-2	Oct. 7,'38†	10
Republic of Panama K8-5	Mar. 24,'39†	1 rl.

HEADLINERS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Busse Rhythm (10-22-38) A8-3 Henry Busse and Orch.	Oct. 7,'38†	10
Champagne Music of Lawrence Welk A8-8	Mar. 3,'39†	1 rl.
Hal Kemp and His Orch. A8-5	Dec. 2,'38†	1 rl.
Lights! Action! Lucas! (9-10-38) A8-2 Clyde Lucas and Orch.	Sept. 2,'38†	10
Moments of Charm (8-13-38) (A8-1 P. Spitalny & Girl Orch.	Aug. 5,'38†	10
Music Through the Years A8-7	Feb. 3,'39†	1 rl.
Orrin Tucker and Orch. A8-4	Nov. 4,'38†	1 rl.
Song Is Born, A (12-24-38) A8-6 Larry Clinton and Orch.	Jan. 6,'39†	10
Queens of the Air (7-23-38) A7-14 Vincent Lopez	July 8,'38	11

PARAGRAPHICS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Mildewed Melodrama (10-15-38) V8-2	Sept. 9,'38†	11
Oh Say, Can You Ski (2-4-39) V8-5	Dec. 16,'38†	10

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Raising Canines (11-5-38)	Nov. 11,'38†	10
Rube Goldberg's Travelgab (10-15-38) V8-3	Oct. 14,'38†	9
Schubert's Unfinished Symphony (11-26-38) V8-6	Jan. 13,'39†	10
Silver Millions V7-13	July 15,'38	10
Tannhauser (6-4-38) V8-1	Aug. 12,'38†	16
That's Africa V8-7	Feb. 10,'39†	1 rl.
PARAMOUNT PICTORIAL
No. 12 — Gigantic Farming — Steaming Scenery — Nobody's Pal (7-9-38) P7-12	July 1,'38	1 rl.
(New Series)
No. 1—P8-1 (8-20-38)	Aug. 5,'38†	10
No. 2—P8-2 (9-3-38)	Sept. 2,'38†	10
No. 3—P8-3 (9-24-38)	Oct. 7,'38†	10
No. 4—P8-4	Nov. 4,'38†	1 rl.
No. 5—P8-5 (12-3-38)	Dec. 9,'38†	1 rl.
No. 6—P8-6	Jan. 6,'39†	1 rl.
No. 7—P8-7	Feb. 3,'39†	1 rl.
No. 8—P8-8	Mar. 3,'39†	1 rl.
POPEYE THE SAILOR
Bulldozing the Bull (8-28-38) E8-1	Aug. 19,'38†	7
Cops Is Always Right (1-21-39) E8-5	Dec. 30,'38†	7
Customers Wanted E8-6	Jan. 27,'39†	1 rl.
Date to Skate, A (12-3-38) E8-4	Nov. 18,'38†	7
Goonland E8-3	Oct. 21,'38†	1 rl.
Jeep, The E7-12	July 15,'38	7
Leave Well Enough Alone	Feb. 24,'39†	1 rl.
Mutiny Ain't Nice (10-15-38) E8-2	Sept. 2,'38†	7
Plumbing Is a Pipe (6-11-38) E7-11	June 17,'38	7
Wotta Nite Mare E8-8	Mar. 24,'39†	1 rl.
PARAMOUNT SOUND NEWS
Two Editions Weekly
POPULAR SCIENCE
(In Color)
No. 6 J7-6	July 8,'38	1 rl.
(New Series)
No. 1 (10-15-38) J8-1	Sept. 2,'38†	10
No. 2 J8-2	Nov. 4,'38†	1 rl.
No. 3 J8-3	Jan. 6,'39†	1 rl.
No. 4 J8-4	Mar. 10,'39†	1 rl.
SCREEN SONGS
Beside a Moonlit Stream SC7-6	July 29,'38	1 rl.
GRANTLAND RICE SPORTLIGHTS
No. 51—Strike! (6-25-38) R7-12	June 17,'38	10
No. 52—Horseshoes R7-13	July 15,'38	1 rl.
No. 53—A Sporting Test (8-13-38) R8-1	Aug. 5,'38†	10
No. 54—Hunting Thrills (8-27-38) R8-2	Sept. 2,'38†	10
No.55—Racing Pigeons (10-15-38) R8-3	Sept. 30,'38†	10
No. 56—Champion Air-hoppers (11-12-38) R8-4	Oct. 28,'38†	10
No. 57—Super Athletes (11-19-38) R8-5	Nov. 25,'38†	1 rl.
No. 58—Frolicking Frogs R8-6	Dec. 23,'38†	1 rl.
No. 59—Two Boys and a Dog (12-31-38) R8-7	Jan. 20,'39†	10
No. 60—Hold Your Breath R8-7	Feb. 17,'39†	1 rl.
UNUSUAL OCCUPATIONS
(In Color)
No. 5 L7-5	Apr. 15,'38	10
No. 6 (6-8-38) L7-6	June 10,'38	10
(New Series)
No. 1 (8-27-38) L8-1	Aug. 5,'38†	10
No. 2 (10-22-38) L8-2	Oct. 7,'38†	11
No. 3 (2-4-39) L8-3	Dec. 2,'38†	11
No. 4 (1-28-39) L8-4	Feb. 3,'39†	10

RKO RADIO

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
LEON ERROL COMEDIES
Berth Quake 83,705	May 6,'38	16
Crime Rave 93,703	Jan. 13,'39†	18
Home Boner 93,704	Mar. 10,'39†	20
Jitters, The (6-25-38) 83,706	July 1,'38	19
Major Difficulties 93,702	Nov. 18,'38†	19
Stage Fright (9-3-38) 93,701	Sept. 23,'38†	18
HEADLINERS
No. 3—Picketing for Love 83,603	June 3,'38	17
No. 1—Sea Melody (10-1-38) 93,601	Oct. 21,'38†	19
1938-39
No. 2—Romancing Along 93,602	Dec. 30,'38†	21
No. 3—Swing Vacation 93,603	Feb. 24,'39†	19
EDGAR KENNEDY COMEDIES
Beaux and Errors (10-8-38) 93,401	Oct. 7,'38†	18
Clean Sweep, A 93,402	Dec. 2,'38†	17
Fool Coverage (8-13-38) 83,406	July 15,'38	16
Kennedy's Castle 83,405	May 28,'38	17
Maid to Order 93,403	Jan. 27,'39†	18
MARCH OF TIME
1937-38
No. 10 — Racketeers vs. Housewives — Friend of the People — England's Bankrupt Peers 83,110	May 13,'38	10
No. 11—Men of Medicine: 1938, 83,111	June 10,'38	17
No. 12—U. S. Coast Guard 83,112	July 8,'38	17
No. 13—Man at the Wheel — Threat to Gibraltar (8-6-38) 83,113	Aug. 15,'38	19
1938-39
No. 1—Prelude to Conquest —Father Divine (9-3-38) 93,101	Sept. 2,'38†	2 rls.
No. 2—U. S. Fire Fighters —The British Dilemma (10-8-38) 93,102	Sept. 30,'38†	19
No. 3—Inside the Maginot Line (11-5-38) 93,102	Oct. 28,'38	20
No. 4—Uncle Sam the Good Neighbor (11-26-38)	Nov. 25,'38†	19
No. 5—The Refugee—Today and Tomorrow (12-24-38) 93,105	Dec. 23,'38†	18
No. 6—State of the Nation (1-28-39) 93,106	Jan. 20,'39†	18
NU-ATLAS PRODUCTIONS
Cafe Rendezvous (12-3-38) 94,205	Dec. 23,'38†	10
Carnival Show 84,212 Jan Peerce	June 24,'38	10
Hockshop Blues (8-6-38) 84,213 Brad Reynolds & Orch.	July 15,'38	10
International Rhythm (7-2-38) 84,211 Roy Smeek and His Aloha Islanders	June 3,'38 May 13,'38	10 11
Reading', Ritin', and Rhythm 94,207	Feb. 17,'39†	10
Salt Shakers 84,210 J. C. Flippen	Apr. 1,'38	11
Skyline Revue 84,200 Paula Stone
Styles and Smiles (10-15-38) 94,202 Virginia Verrill	Sept. 30,'38†	11
Talent Auction 94,203 Irene Beasley	Oct. 28,'38†	10
Tropical Topics 94,206 Rosita Ortega	Jan. 20,'39†	10
Under a Gypsy Moon (9-3-38) 94,201 J. Harold Murray	Sept. 2,'38†	10
Venetian Moonlight 94,204 Mario Cozzi	Nov. 25,'38	1 rl.
PATHE NEWS
Released twice a week
PATHE PARADE
No. 5—Ventriloquist's Dummy—ASCAP—Ballet School 84,605	Apr. 22,'38	11
No. 6—Count of Ten (7-16-38) 84,606	June 17,'38	10
No. 7—Expose of Spiritualism — Trip Thru Walt Disney Studios (7-23-38) 84,607	Aug. 12,'38	10
PATHE REVIEWS
Released once a month
PATHE TOPICS
Released seven times a year
RADIO FLASH COMEDIES
Hectic Honeymoon 93,201	Nov. 4,'37†	17
Photografter, The 83,203 Jack Rice	June 17,'38	15
Plumb Crazy 93,202	Feb. 3,'39†	16
RADIO MUSICAL COMEDIES
Twenty Girls and a Band (1-22-38) 83,502 Nick Stuart and Orch.	Apr. 8,'38	18
RAY WHITLEY COMEDIES
Prairie Papos 93,502	Dec. 16,'38†	18
Western Welcome, A 93,501	Sept. 9,'38†	18
REELISMS
Dude Ranch (12-3-38) 94,603	Nov. 11,'38	9
Newsreel (12-31-38) 94,604	Dec. 9,'38†	10
Pilot Boat 94,605	Jan. 20,'39†	9
Trans-America 94,602	Oct. 14,'38†	11
Submarine Circus (10-8-38) 94,601	Sept. 16,'38†	10
RKO PATHE SPORTSCOPE
Bird Dogs (11-19-38) 94,303	Nov. 4,'38	10
Bit and Bridle 84,306	May 13,'38	10
Blue Grass (12-17-38)	Dec. 2,'38†	10
Bow Strings 94,306	Jan. 27,'39†	9
Brother Golfers (8-6-38) 84,309	July 15,'38	11
Fisherman's Paradise (10-8-38) 94,301	Sept. 9,'38†	9
Flying Feathers 84,308	June 24,'38	9
On the Wing 94,305	Dec. 30,'38†	10
Underwater (6-25-38) 84,307	June 3,'38	9
SMART SET
Buckaroo Broadcast, A (6-18-38) 83,203 Ray Whitley	Apr. 22,'38	18
Hunting Trouble (8-13-38) 83,303 Jed Prouty	Aug. 12,'38	10
WALT DISNEY CARTOONS
Brave Little Tailor (10-1-38) 94,101	Sept. 23,'38†	9
Donald's Golf Game 94,103	Nov. 4,'38	8
Donald's Lucky Day (10-1-38) 94,107	Jan. 13,'39†	8
Donald's Nephews 84,111	Apr. 15,'38	8
Farmyard Symphony (10-1-38) 94,102	Oct. 14,'38	8
Ferdinand the Bull (10-1-38) 94,104 (Exploitation: Jan. 7,'39, p. 50; Jan. 28, '39, pp. 59, 60.)	Nov. 25,'38†	8
Fox Hunt, The (6-18-38) 84,116	July 29,'38	8
Good Scouts (6-25-38) 84,115	July 8,'38	8
Goofy and Wilbur (10-1-38) 94,112	Apr. 28,'39†	8
Merbabies 94,105	Dec. 9,'38†	8
Mickey's Parrot (9-10-38) 84,118	Sept. 9,'38	8
Mickey's Trailer 84,112	May 6,'38	8
Moth and the Flame, The (3-9-38) 84,110	Apr. 1,'38	8
Mother Goose Goes Hollywood (10-38) 94,106	Dec. 23,'38†	7½
Polar Trappers 84,114	June 17,'38	8
Practical Pig, The (10-1-38) 94,109	Feb. 24,'39†
Society Dog Show (11-12-38) 94,108	Feb. 3,'39†	8
Ugly Duckling, The (10-1-38) 94,111	Apr. 7,'39†	8
Whalers, The (8-10-38) 84,117	Aug. 19,'38	8
Wynken, Blynken and Nod 84,113	May 27,'38	8

20TH CENTURY-FOX

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
ADVENTURES OF THE NEWSREEL CAMERAMAN
Athletic Oddities 9204	Nov. 11,'38	1 rl.
Daily Diet of Danger, A	Dec. 9,'38†	1 rl.
Filming Big Thrills 9202	Sept. 30,'38†	1 rl.
Recording Modern Science 9201	Aug. 19,'38†	1 rl.
FASHIONS (In Color)
Fashion Forecasts (Autumn Styles) (10-15-38) 9601	Sept. 16,'38†	11
Fashion Forecasts (Winter Styles) (12-31-38) 9602	Dec. 23,'38†	10
Fashion Forecasts, No. 3 9603	Mar. 31,'39†	1 rl.
LEW LEHR
What Every Boy Should Know 9401	Sept. 2,'38†	1 rl.
What Every Girl Should Know (10-22-38) 9402	Nov. 25,'38†	10
What Every Inventor Should Know 9403	Jan. 20,'39†	1 rl.
MAGIC CARPET SERIES
(Lowell Thomas)
Good Neighbors 9106	Apr. 28,'39†	1 rl.
Land of Contentment 9102	Oct. 14,'38†	1 rl.
Golden California 9101	Aug. 5,'38 †	1 rl.
Isle of Pleasure (11-19-38) 9103	Feb. 3,'39†	11
Mystic Siam 9105	Mar. 17,'39†	1 rl.
Viking Trail (12-31-38) 9104	Feb. 17,'39†	11
TERRY-TOONS
Chris Columbo 9501	Aug. 12,'38†	1 rl.
Frozen Feet 9509	Feb. 24,'39†	1 rl.
Gandy Goose in G Man Jitters 9510	Mar. 10,'39†	1 rl.
Gandy the Goose in the Frame Up 9507	Dec. 30,'38†	1 rl.
Gandy Goose In Doomsday 9524	Dec. 16,'38†	1 rl.
Glass Slipper, The (10-22-38) 9522	Oct. 7,'38†	7
Goose Flies High, The 9502	Sept. 9,'38†	1 rl.
Housewife Herman (11-19-38) 9523	Nov. 18,'38†	6½
New Comer, The 9504	Oct. 21,'38†	1 rl.
Nutty Network, The 9527 (in color)	Mar. 24,'39†	1 rl.
One Gun Gary in Nick of Time 9508	Jan. 27,'39†	1 rl.
Owl and the Pussycat, The 9525 (in color)	Jan. 13,'39†	1 rl.
Stranger Rides Again, The (12-3-38) 9505	Nov. 4,'38†	8
String Bean Jack 9521 (In color)	Aug. 26,'38†	1 rl.
Three Bears, The 9526 (in color)	Feb. 10,'39†	1 rl.
Untitled 9507	Dec. 30,'38†
Village Blacksmith 9506	Dec. 2,'38†
Wolf's Side of the Story 9503	Sept. 23,'38†	1 rl.
ED THORGENSEN (Sports)
Hunting Dogs 9303	Mar. 2,'39†	1 rl.
Inside BaseBall 9304	Apr. 14,'39†	1 rl.
Shooting for Par 9302	Jan. 13,'39	1 rl.
Timber Toppers (11-12-38) 9301	Oct. 28,'38†	10

UNITED ARTISTS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
WORLD WINDOWS
(Color)
Arabian Bazaar (12-31-38)		1 rl.
Eternal Fire, The (1-28-39)		1 rl.
Fox Hunting (1-21-39)		1 rl.
Jersusalem (1-14-39)		1 rl.
Petra (1-14-39)		1 rl.
Rome Symphony (12-31-38)		1 rl.
Ruins of Palymra
Wanderers of the Desert (1-7-39		1 rl.

UNIVERSAL

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
GOING PLACES WITH LOWELL THOMAS
No. 48 2379	Apr. 11,'38	9
No. 49 2380	Apr. 25,'38	9
No. 50 (4-30-38) 2381	May 9,'38	9
No. 51 (6-11-38) 2382	June 13,'38	10
No. 52. (6-25-38) 2383	June 27,'38	9
No. 53 3351	Aug. 22,'38†	9
No. 54 (11-19-38) 3352	Sept. 12,'38†	9½
No. 55 (12-3-38) 3353	Oct. 3,'38†	9
No. 56 (11-26-38) 3354	Nov. 14,'38†	10
No. 57 3355	Nov. 28,'38†	1 rl.
No. 58 3356	Dec. 26,'38†	1 rl.
No. 59 3357	Jan. 30,'39†	1 rl.
No. 60 3358	Feb. 20,'39†	1 rl.
LANTZ CARTUNES
Baby Kittens (12-3-38) 3245	Dec. 19,'38†	1 rl.
Cat and the Bell, The 3241	Oct. 3,'38†	7
Disobedient Mouse (12-3-38) 3244	Nov. 28,'38†	8½
I'm Just a Jitterbug (1-21-39) 3248	Jan. 23,'39†	7
Little Blue Blackbirds (12-10-38) 3246	Dec. 26,'38†	7
Magic Beans 3249	Feb. 13,'39†	1 rl.
Rabbit Hunt (11-19-38) 3242	Oct. 10,'38†	7½
Sailor Mouse, The (11-19-38) 3243	Nov. 7,'38†	7
Soup to Mutts (2-4-39) 3247	Jan. 9,'39†	7
MENTONE MUSICAL COMEDIES
Bank Notes 3228	Mar. 15,'39†	19
Beauty Shoppe (8-27-38) 3222 Imogene Coca	Sept. 28,'38†	19½

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Down on the Barn (2-26-38) 2167 Billy Jones-Ernie Hare	Feb. 23,'38	17
Fits and Benefits 2173 York and King	July 27,'38	19
High Jack N' the Show (5-21-38) 2170 James Barton	May 18,'38	17
Latin Hi-Hattin' (4-30-38) 2169 Dorothy Stone-Chas. Collins	Apr. 27,'38	17
Music and Flowers (5-21-38) 2171 Block and Sully	June 15,'38	19
Music and Models (12-3-38) 3225 Jack Arthur	Dec. 14,'38†	18
Nautical Knights (1-28-39) 3226 Arthur-Morton Havel ...	Jan. 11,'39†	19
Patio Serenade (11-12-38) 3224 Tito Coral-Armida	Nov. 16,'38†	17
Rhythm Cafe 3221 Virginia Verrill	Sept. 7,'38†	20
Side Show Fakir 3223 Clyde Hager-Charloteers	Oct. 12,'38†	20
Somewhere in Paris (3-5-38) 2168 J. Harold Murray	Mar. 23,'38	17
Stars and Stripes (7-2-38) 2172	Feb. 15,'39	2 rls.
Ed. East-Ralph Dumke	July 6,'38	17½
Wild and Bully 3227 J. Harold Murray	Feb. 15,'39	19

OSWALD CARTOONS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Barnyard Romeo (8-20-38) 2291	Aug. 1,'38	7
Big Cat and the Little Mousie, The (10-15-38) 2293	Aug. 15,'38†	7
Cheese Nappers (7-2-38) 2288	July 4,'38	7
Feed the Kitty 2281	Mar. 14,'38	7
Ghost Town Frolics 2294	Sept. 5,'38	7
Happy Scouts (7-2-38) 2395	June 20,'38	7
Man Hunt (2-26-38) 2278	Feb. 7,'38	7
Movie Phony News 2285	May 30,'38
Nellie, The Indian Chief's Daughter (6-4-38) 2286	June 6,'38	7
Nellie, the Sewing Machine Girl (5-14-38) 2282	Apr. 11,'38	7½
Pixie Land 2295	Sept. 12,'38	7
Problem Child, The (5-14-38) 2284	May 16,'38	7
Queen's Kittens 2292	Aug. 8,'38	7
Silly Seals (8-27-38) 2290	July 25,'38	7
Tail End (5-21-38) 2283	Apr. 25,'38	7
Trade Mice 2280	Feb. 28,'38	7
Yokel Boy Makes Good (3-12-38) 2279	Feb. 21,'38	7
Voodoo in Harlem (7-9-38) 2289	July 18,'38	7

STRANGER THAN FICTION SERIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 50—Novelty 2394	May 2,'38	9
No. 51—Novelty (6-11-38) 2395	June 6,'38	9
No. 52—Novelty (7-2-38) 2396	June 20,'38	9
No. 53—Novelty 3364	Aug. 29,'38†	9
No. 54—Novelty 3365	Sept. 19,'38†	9
No. 55—Novelty (10-8-38) 3366	Oct. 10,'38†	9½
No. 56—Novelty (12-3-38) 3367	Nov. 21,'38†	9
No. 57—Novelty (12-17-38) 3368	Dec. 5,'38†	9
No. 58—Novelty (1-28-39) 3369	Jan. 2,'39†	9½
No. 59—Novelty 3370	Feb. 6,'39†	1 rl.
No. 60—Novelty 3371	Mar. 6,'39†	1 rl.

VITAPHONE

BROADWAY BREVITIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Forget-Me-Knots 3011 Bernice Claire	May 7,'38	2 rls.
Steaks and Blondes 3023 Gene Lockhart	May 21,'38	2 rls.
Out Where the Stars Begin 3004 Evelyn Thawl-Jeffrey Lynn	May 28,'38	2 rls.
Prisoner of Swing 3012 Hal LeRoy	June 11,'38	2 rls.
Rise and Sing 3029 Cross and Dunn	June 25,'38	2 rls.
Rainbow's End (7-23-38) 3017 Eddie Peabody	July 2,'38	22
My Pop 3024 Henry Armetta	July 16,'38	2 rls.
Sons of the Plains (7-23-38) 3006 Mauch Twins	July 30,'38	19
Up in Lights 3018 Pat Rooney	Aug. 13,'38	2 rls.
There Goes the Bride 3030 Fifi D'Orsay	Aug. 27,'38	2 rls.
Zero Girl 4009 Evelyn Chandler	Sept. 3,'38†	2 rls.
Campus Cinderella 4001 Johnnie Davis	Sept. 17,'38†	18
Murder with Reservations 4010 George Campo	Sept. 24,'38†	2 rls.
Toyland Casino (10-22-38) 4011	Oct. 8,'38†	22
Two Shadows 4012	Oct. 22,'38†	2 rls.
Knight Is Young, The 4013 Hal LeRoy	Oct. 29,'38†	2 rls.
Cleaning Up (10-29-38) 4014 Cross and Dunn	Nov. 12,'38†	20
Declaration of Independence The (10-15-38) 4002 John Litel (color)	Nov. 26,'38	19
Star Dust (12-3-38) 4015 Benny Davis	Dec. 12,'38†	22
Boarder Trouble 4016 Joe and Asbestos	Dec. 17,'38†	2 rls.
Swing Time in the Movies (1-7-39) 4003 Fritz Feld (color)	Jan. 7,'39†	20
Hats and Dogs 4017 Wini Shaw	Dec. 31,'38†	2 rl.
Lincoln in the White House (1-14-39) 4004 Frank McGlynn (color)	Feb. 11,'39†	20
Sophmore Swing (2-4-39) (2-4-39) Harvest Moon Dancers	Jan. 21,'39†	20

COLOR PARADE

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Miracles of Sport 4601	Sept. 10,'38†	10
China Today (11-12-38) 4602	Oct. 1,'38†	11
Mechanix Illustrated, No. 1 (12-3-38) 4603	Nov. 5,'38†	10
Nature's Mimics (2-4-39) 4604	Dec. 3,'38†	10

COLORTOUR ADVENTURE

(In Color)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Pearl of the East 3509	May 21,'38	1 rl.
Mechanix Illustrated (7-23-38) 3511	June 4,'38	10
Isles of Enchantment 3512	June 25,'38	1 rl.
Hermit Kingdom 3513	Aug. 27,'38	1 rl.

FLOYD GIBBONS' "YOUR TRUE ADVENTURE"

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Wanderlust 3309	May 14,'38	1 rl.
Dreams Come True, A 3310	June 6,'38	1 rl.
Fighting Judge, The (8-6-38) 3311	July 2,'38	13
Night Intruder (7-30-38) 3312	July 23,'38	14
Trapped Underground 3313	Aug. 20,'38	1 rl.
Identified 4301	Sept. 17,'38†	12
Defying Death (12-10-38) 4303	Oct. 15,'38†	12
Toils of the Law 4302	Nov. 12,'38†	1 rl.
Treacherous Waters (12-17-38) 4304	Dec. 10,'38†	10
The Human Bomb (1-28-39) 4305	Jan. 7,'39†	12

LOONEY TUNES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 52—Injun Trouble 3611	May 21,'38	1 rl.
No. 53—Porky the Fireman 3612	June 4,'38	1 rl.
No. 54—Porky's Party 3613	June 25,'38	1 rl.
No. 55—Porky's Spring Planting (7-9-38) 3614	July 16,'38	7
No. 56—Porky and Daffy (7-30-38) 3615	Aug. 6,'38	7
No. 57—Wholly Smoke 3616	Aug. 27,'38	1 rl.
No. 58—Porky in Wackyland 4801	Sept. 24,'38†	1 rl.
No. 59—Porky's Naughty Nephew 4802	Oct. 15,'38†	1 rl.
No. 62—Porky The Gob (12-31-38) 4805	Dec. 17,'38†	7
No. 63—The Lone Stranger and Porky 4806	Jan. 7,'39†	1 rl.
No. 64—It's an Ill Wind 4807	Jan. 28,'39†	1 rl.

MELODY MASTERS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Don Bestor and Orch. 3716	July 9,'38	1 rl.
Saturday Night Swing Club 3717	July 30,'38	1 rl.
Clyde McCoy and Orch. 3718	Aug. 20,'38	1 rl.
Larry Clinton and Orch. 4701	Sept. 3,'38†	1 rl.
Ray Kinney and Hawaiians 4702	Oct. 1,'38†
Merle Kendricks and Orch. (10-22-38) 4704	Nov. 12,'38†	10
Music with a Smile (7-30-38) 4705	Dec. 3,'38†	10
Dave Apollon and Orch. (12-17-38) 4706	Dec. 24,'38†	11
Clyde Lucas and Orch. (1-21-39) 4707	Jan. 7,'39†	10
Blue Barron and Orch. 4708	Jan. 21,'39†	1 rl.

MERRIE MELODIES

(In Colors)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 58—Katnip Kollege 3414	June 11,'38	1 rl.
No. 59—Have You Got Any Castles 3415	June 25,'38	1 rl.
No. 60—Love and Curses (7-23-38) 3416	July 9,'38	7
No. 61—Cinderella Meets Fella (7-23-38) 3417	July 23,'38	7
No. 62—The Major Lied 'Til Dawn 3418	Aug. 13,'38	1 rl.
No. 63—A-Lad-In Bagdag 3419		1 rl.
No. 64—Cracked Ice 3420		1 rl.
No. 65—A Feud There Was 4501	Sept. 24,'38†	7
No. 66—Little Pancho Vanilla (10-22-38) 4502	Oct. 8,'38†	7
No. 67—Johnny Smith and Poker Huntas 4503	Oct. 22,'38†	1 rl.
No. 68—You're An Education (12-3-38) 4504	Nov. 5,'38†	7
No. 69—Night Watchman, The (11-26-38) 4505	Nov. 19,'38†	7
No. 70—Daffy Duck in Hollywood 4506	Dec. 12,'38†	1 rl.
No. 71——Count Me Out (12-31-38) 4507	Dec. 17,'38†	7
No. 72—The Mice Will Play 4508	Dec. 31,'39†	1 rl.
No. 73—Dog Gone Modern (1-21-39) 4509	Jan. 14,'39†	7
No. 73—Ham-ateur Night 4510	Jan. 28,'39†	1 rl.

PICTORIAL REVUES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 11—Plastics—Perfume 3811	July 9,'38	1 rl.
No. 12—Hollywood—Sculling—Furs 3812	Aug. 13,'38	1 rl.

TECHNICOLOR SPECIALS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Pow Wow 4401	Oct. 1,'38†
Immortal Brush (10-22-38) 4402	Nov. 19,'38†	9

VITAPHONE VARIETIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Swing Cat's Jamboree (7-9-38) 3912 Louis Prima and Orch.	Aug. 6,'38	8
The Great Library Misery 4901	Sept. 10,'38†	11
Table Manners 4902	Oct. 15,'38†	11
Vaudeville Interlude 4903	Nov. 19,'38†	1 rl.
Robbin' Good (12-3-38) 4904 Luis Zingone	Dec. 10,'38†	10
Ski Girl (1-28-39) 4905	Jan. 14,'39†	10

OTHER PRODUCT

A. B. F. D.

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Legend of Norfolk, A (12-31-38)

DEVLIN

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Ancient Cities of Southern France (8-13-38)	Aug. 15,'38†	10
No. 61—Daffy Doc, The (12-3-38) 4804	Nov. 26,'38†	7
Old Towns of Normandy Makassar (8-6-38)	Aug. 15,'38†	10
Resorts and Quaint Towns of the Blue Coast (5-21-38)	July 15,'38†	10½
Rio de Janeiro (8-13-38)	Aug. 15,'38†	10
Venice (8-13-38)	Aug. 15,'38†	10
Voyage to Cebu (7-2-38)	July 15,'38†	9

G.P.O. FILM UNIT

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
North Sea (7-9-38)

HOFFBERG

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Trailing the Jaguar (7-2-38)	July 15,'38	28

LENAUER

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Datelines (6-18-38)		8
Frosty Frolics (12-24-38)		11
Getting Your Money's Worth (12-31-38)		11

REGAL

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Youth Marches On (9-24-38)	Sept. 24,'38	20

SACK

(with Negro Cast)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Brown Gravey	July 30,'38†	21
Framing of the Shrew, The	July 30,'38†	19
Lady Fare, The	July 30,'38†	20
Melancholy Dame, The	July 30,'38†	19
Music Hath Harms	July 30,'38†	21
Off in the Silly Night	July 30,'38†	20
Old Black Joe	Sept. 15,'38†	17
On a Plantation	Sept. 1,'38†	20
Pickin' Cotton	Oct. 1,'38†	8
Road Back, The	Oct. 1,'38†	19
Slave Days	Sept. 15,'38†	9
Welcome Home	Sept. 1,'38†	10

SANDERS FILMS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Midsummer in Sweden (11-5-38)		10
Fishing in the Fiords (11-12-38)		10
Dalecarlia, The Heart of Sweden (11-19-38)		10

SCREEN MEMORIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Memory Lingers On, The (8-13-38)		9

WORLD

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Andante et Rondo
Ave Maria
Children's Corner
Jeune Fille Au Jardin
Les Berceuse
Song of Ceylon
Valse Brillante

SERIALS

12 Episodes Each Unless Otherwise Specified

COLUMBIA

Title	Rel Date	Min.
Flying G Men James Craig-Lorna Gray	Jan. 28,'39†
Mandrake, the Magician	May 6,'39†
Overland with Kit Carson Bill Elliott	Aug. 12,'39†
Spider's Web, The (11-5-38) 9120 Warren Hull-Iris Meredith (15 episodes)	Oct. 22,'38†	19 (each)

REPUBLIC

Title	Rel Date	Min.
Dick Tracy Returns (8-6-38) 7201 Ralph Byrd-Lynn Roberts (15 episodes)	Aug. 20,'38	18 (each)
Hawk of the Wilderness (12-10-38) 7301 H. Brix-J. Martin-Malo	Dec. 3,'38†	2 rls. (each) (1st episode 29)
Lone Ranger Rides Again Robert Livingston-Chief Thunder Cloud (15 episodes)	Feb. 25,'39†	2 rls. (each) (1st episode-30 min.)

UNIVERSAL

Title	Rel Date	Min.
Buck Rogers 3881-92 Larry Crabbe	Apr. 11,'39†
Red Barry (10-8-38) 3681-3793 Buster Crabbe-Frances Robinson	Oct. 18,'38†	20 (each)
Scouts to the Rescue (12-31-38) 3781-92 Jackie Cooper-Vandell Darr (Exploitation: Jan. 14,'39, p. 65.)	Jan. 17,'39†

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

the great national medium for showmen

Ten cents per word, money-order or check with copy. Count initials, box number and address. Minimum insertion, $1. Four insertions for the price of three. Contract rates on application. No borders or cuts. Forms close Mondays at 5 P.M. Publisher reserves the right to reject any copy. Film and trailer service advertising not accepted. Classified advertising not subject to agency commission. Address correspondence, copy and checks to MOTION PICTURE HERALD, Classified Dept., Rockefeller Center, New York City.

THEATRES

FOR SALE. OPERATING RIGHTS ON THREE theatres in Middletown, Connecticut. "Closed Town." Population and drawing power about 50,000. Internal corporate friction requires public sale on April 11th at Capitol Theatre, Main Street, Middletown, at 2 P.M. Appraisal value for Court—$93,000. Terms upon request. WILLIAM L. HADDEN, Receiver, 129 Church Street, New Haven, Conn.

THEATRE FOR LEASE, 650 SEATS, SUBSEQUENT run, city of 100,000, reasonable terms. Good opportunity for right man. BOX 1111, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

MOTION PICTURE THEATRE WANTED. TOWN 2500 to 5000 population. BOX 1113, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

NEW GENERAL EQUIPMENT

THEATRE EQUIPMENT—SUPPLIES—ACCESSORIES—repair parts. Savings 20% to 50%. Send for big free catalog. CONSOLIDATED THEATRE SUPPLY CORP., 1600-M Broadway, New York.

STAGE CURTAINS MODERN, ATTRACTIVE for operating track sides and overhead, $25 and up. SCHELL SCENIC STUDIO, Columbus, O.

EASY TIME-PAYMENTS ON THEATRE EQUIPMENT at S.O.S. Send for free catalog and buy now! Plan open to reliable exhibitors. Write S. O. S. CINEMA SUPPLY CORP., New York.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY

OPERATORS, EXPERIENCED, EVERY STATE, movie circuit work, car needed. NO. 519 STATE THEATRE BLDG., Pittsburgh, Pa.

TRAINING SCHOOL

LEARN MODERN THEATRE MANAGEMENT, advertising. Train for better theatre positions. Free information. THEATRE INSTITUTE, 315 Washington, Elmira, N. Y.

USED GENERAL EQUIPMENT

SOME THEATRE CAN USE YOUR OLD EQUIPMENT. A little ad here will reach thousands of potential customers. Only ten cents a word to tell the world what you have to sell. Try it today. MOTION PICTURE HERALD, Rockefeller Center, New York.

TWO USED NATIONAL SOUND SYSTEM soundheads, model S-2, perfect condition. CAMERA EQUIPMENT CO., 1600 Broadway, New York City.

MANY RECONDITIONED CHAIRS IN STOCK. Your opportunity to buy now. Extremely low prices. ALLIED SEATING CO., INC., Used Chair Dept., 36 West 13th Street, New York.

500 GOOD VENEER CHAIRS FOR SALE AT 50c each. Also upholstered seats at bargain prices. BEN B. POBLOCKI & SONS CO., 2159 S. Kinnickinnic Ave., Milwaukee, Wis.

HERE ARE SEATS YOU CAN'T BEAT! 16,743 veneer, upholstered theatre chairs, good used condition from 75c. Write S.O.S. CINEMA SUPPLY CORP., New York.

PRINTING SERVICE

CAN SUPPLY LAYOUTS, ART WORK, ENgravings and arrange printing for direct mail list. Prices furnished upon request and based on type of service needed. BOX 1098A, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

PROGRAM WINDOW CARDS—14 x 22, THREE flashy colors, new designs, 50, $3.50; 100, $4.75. Samples. HAWKEYE SHOW PRINT, Webster City, Iowa.

POSITIONS WANTED

MANAGER, SEEKS POSITION: PROGRESSIVE circuit, independent houses. Experienced booking, advertising. Best references. BOX 1108, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

PROJECTIONIST, 15 YEARS, DESIRES CHANGE small city anywhere, dependable, married, references. PROJECTIONIST, 4008 Clarendon, Chicago, Ill.

PROJECTIONIST, 10 YEARS' EXPERIENCE, references. BOX 1114, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

HELP WANTED

PROJECTIONIST AND LOBBY DISPLAY MAN. State age, married, salary. Small town, steady work. OCOTILLO THEATRE, Artesia, N. M.

BOOKS

MOTION PICTURE SOUND ENGINEERING—547 pages; illustrated; covers every practical method and process in present-day sound engineering. Leading engineers explain every detail of apparatus and its arrangement, with diagrams, tables, charts and graphs. This manual comes straight from the workshops of the studios in Hollywood. It is indispensable to everyone working with sound equipment. $6.50 postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

THE 1938-39 EDITION OF THE INDUSTRY'S INternational reference book, "Motion Picture Almanac," edited by Terry Ramsaye, is now available. It has the most facts about the motion picture business ever published. It is indispensable to every executive in the industry. This issue contains more than 12,000 biographies of important film people. Send your order today with a check for $3.25 and your copy will be promptly mailed, postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

RICHARDSON'S BLUEBOOK OF PROJECTION—Revised Sixth edition. The revised edition includes 722 pages of up-to-the-minute text charts and data with detailed description of assembly, wiring, and functioning of all modern sound and projection apparatus. It is a practical "trouble shooter," cross indexed for immediate reference in any projection room emergency. ORDER TODAY! $6.25 postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

NEW 567 PAGE BOOK ON AIR CONDITIONING by Charles A. Fuller, authority on the subject, reviewed in Buyers Number, available for theatre owners contemplating engineering changes. Book is cloth bound with index and charts and covers every branch of the industry as well as codes and ordinances regulating installation. Order now at $4.00 a copy postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

FAME. AN AUDIT OF PERSONALITIES EDITED by Terry Ramsaye. The class annual of the screen, radio and stage. Recognized by executives and talent agents as the guide to box office champions. Send your order today with check or money order for $1.00. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

$1.99 BUYS THIS PAIR OF ACES! RICHARDson's 5th edition (not the latest) "Bluebook of Projection," and Sloane's "Motion Picture Projection." S.O.S. CINEMA SUPPLY CORP., New York.

BOOKKEEPING SYSTEM

THEATRE ACCOUNTING BY WILLIAM F. Morris, is still the best bookkeeping system for theatres. It not only guides you in making the proper entries, but provides sufficient blank pages for a complete record of your operations for each day of the year. Notable for its simplicity. Order now—$4 postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

PRESS OF
C. J. O'BRIEN, INC.
NEW YORK

Typical Eastman
RELIABILITY

EASTMAN Plus-X for general studio work ... Super-XX for all difficult exposures ... Background-X for backgrounds and all-round exterior work.... All three of these new negative films have special features suited to their particular fields ... plus the typical Eastman reliability that has served the industry so well in the past. Eastman Kodak Company, Rochester, N. Y. (J. E. Brulatour, Inc., Distributors, Fort Lee, Chicago. Hollywood.)

EASTMAN Plus-X ...
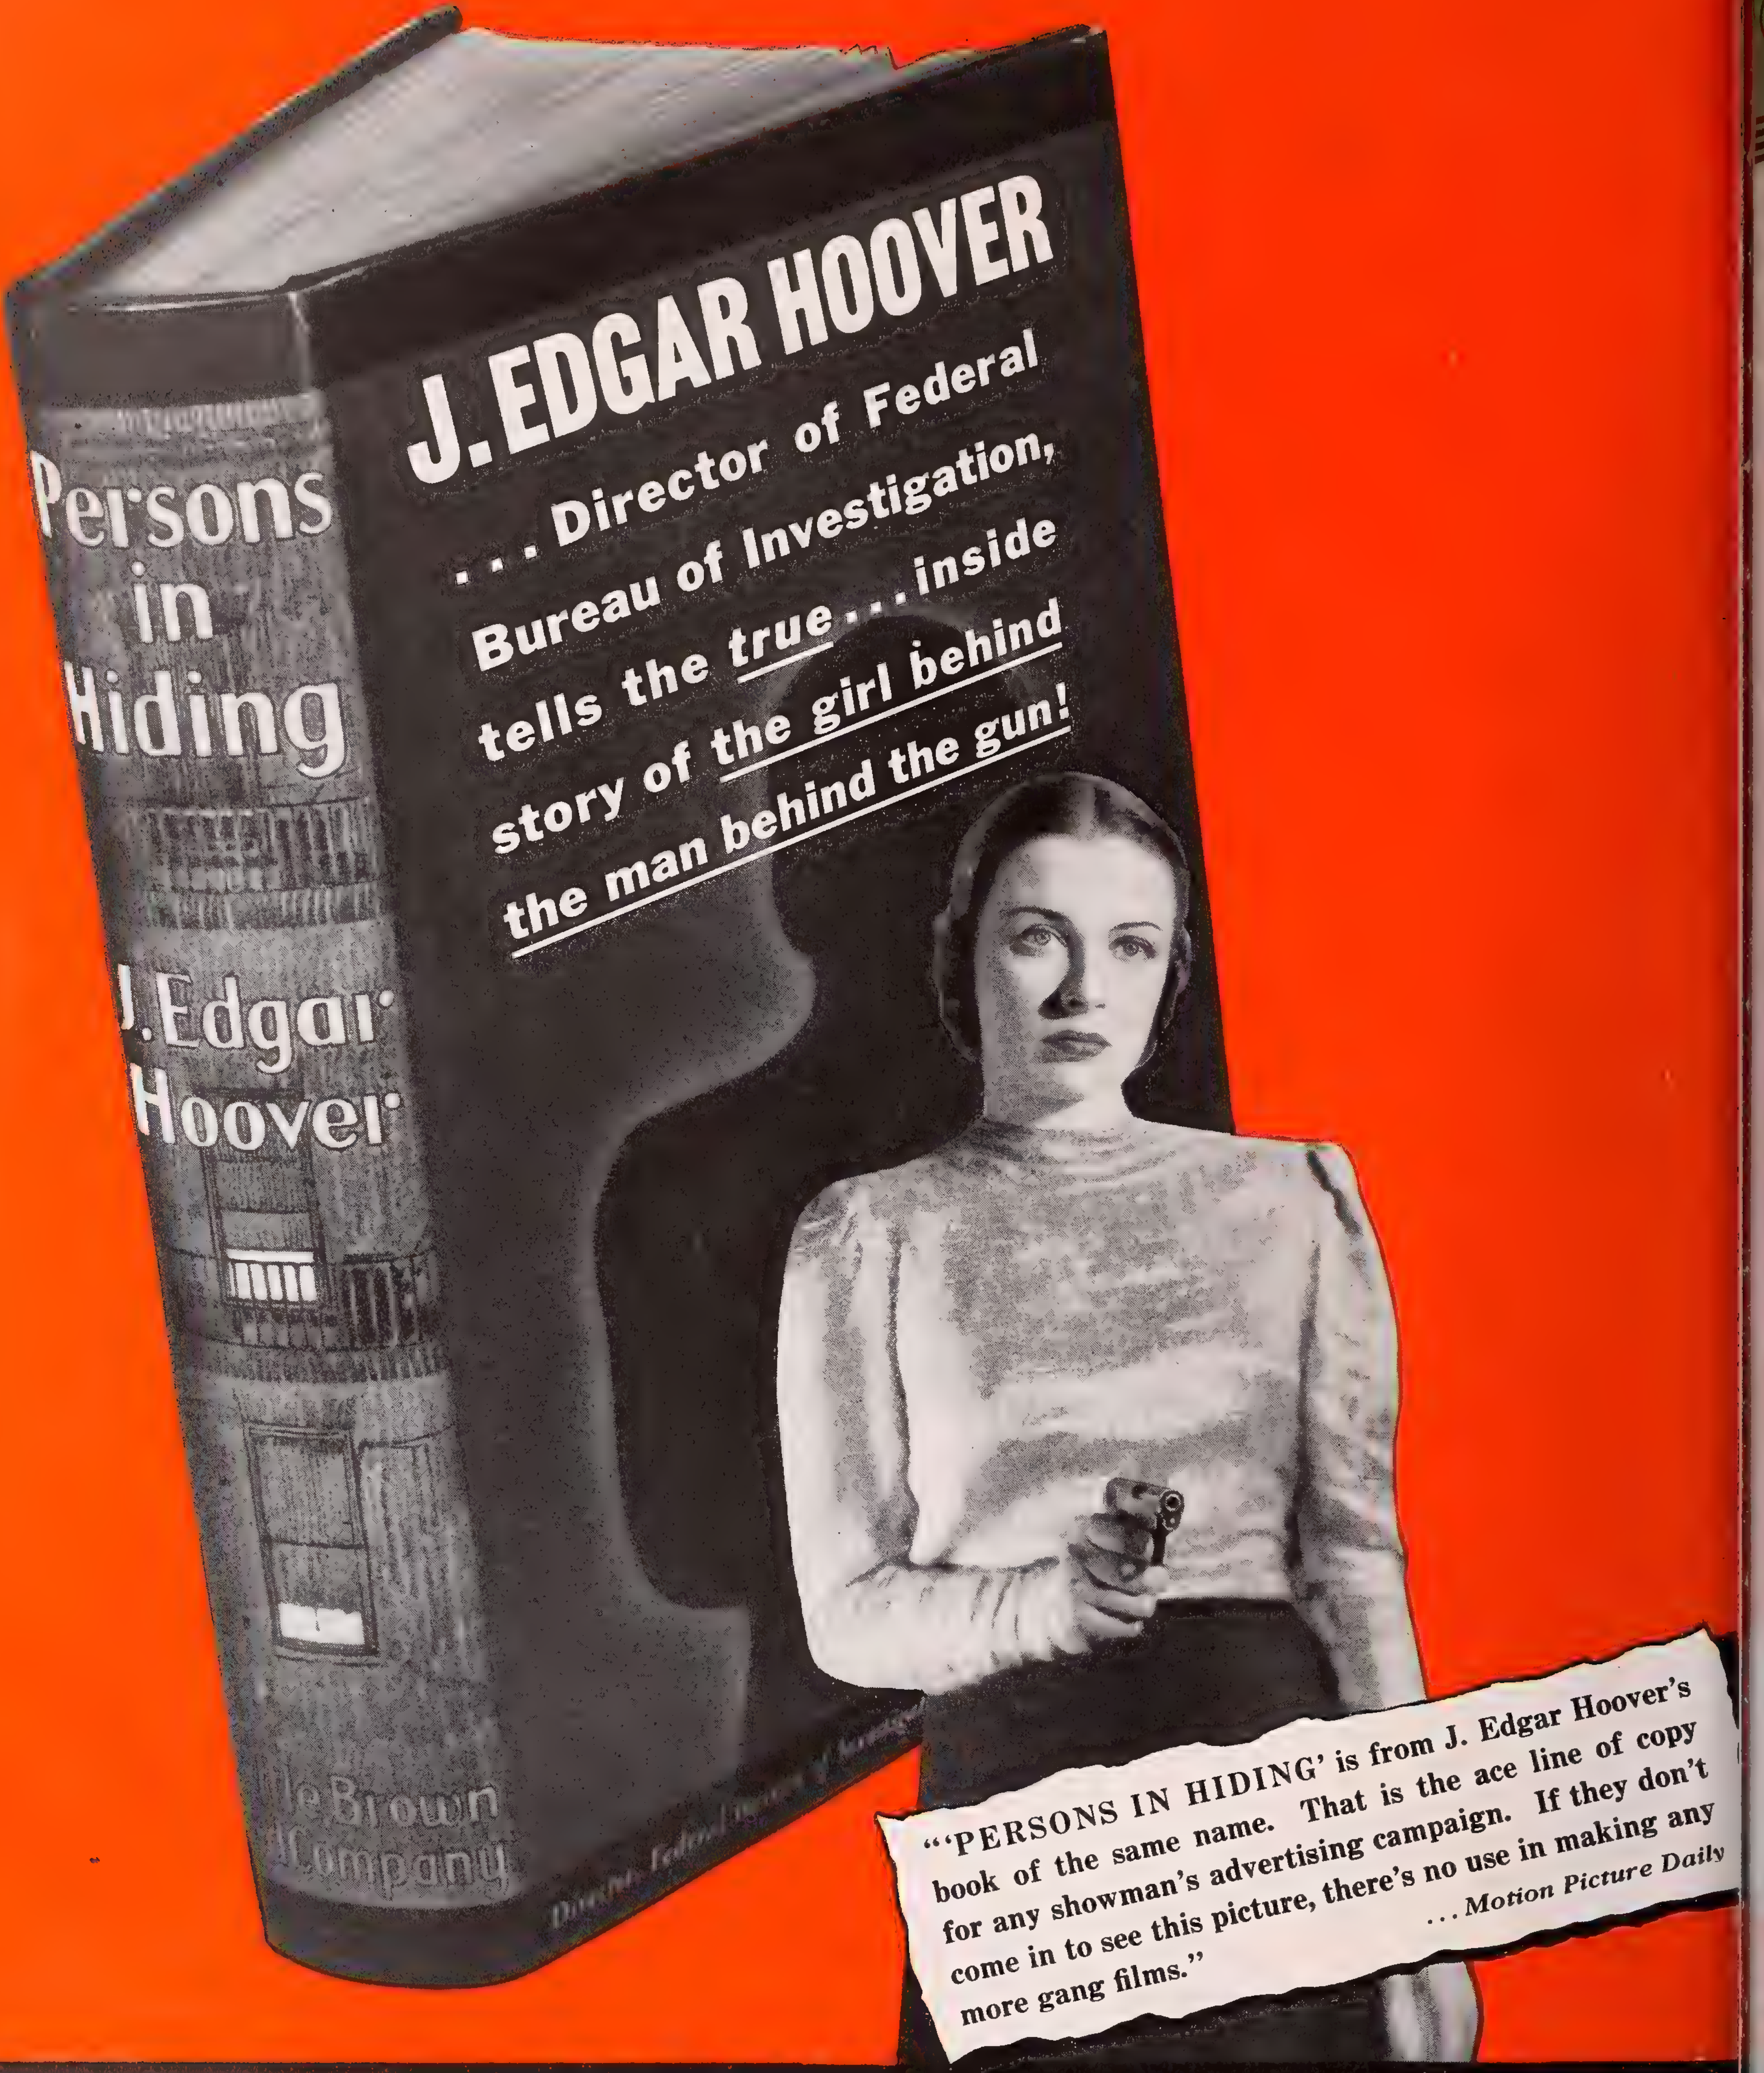
Super-XX ... Background-X



Persons in Hiding
J. Edgar Hoover
Little Brown and Company
Director Federal Bureau of Investigation
J. EDGAR HOOVER
. . . Director of Federal Bureau of Investigation, tells the true . . . inside story of the girl behind the man behind the gun!

"'PERSONS IN HIDING' is from J. Edgar Hoover's book of the same name. That is the ace line of copy for any showman's advertising campaign. If they don't come in to see this picture, there's no use in making any more gang films."
. . . Motion Picture Daily

Adapted from J. EDGAR HOOVER'S

"PERSONS IN HIDING"

LYNNE OVERMAN · PATRICIA MORISON · J. CARROL NAISH · JUDITH BARRETT

A Paramount Picture . Directed by LOUIS KING . Screen Play by William R. Lipman and Horace McCoy

MR. WILL HAYS,
28 W. 44TH ST.,
NEW YORK,
N. Y.

ON PICTURE HERALD

Progress and Problems

The wider angle of the screen materials of tomorrow

by TERRY RAMSAYE

(See Page Seven)

Supreme Court Rules Control of Admissions and Double Features Is Illegal

North Dakota Legislature Votes Repeal of Theatre - Divorcement Law

COMPLETE TEXT OF ALLIED STATES TRADE PRACTICE PROGRAM

MGM Withdrawing Its Stars from Radio Program

VOL. 134, NO. 7 FEBRUARY 18, 1939

Entered as second-class matter, January 12, 1931, at the Post Office at New York, N. Y., under the act of March 3, 1879. Published weekly by Quigley Publishing Co., Inc., at 1270 Sixth Avenue, Rockefeller Center, New York. Subscription prices: $5.00 a year in the Americas, $10.00 a year Foreign. Single copies, 25 cents.

All contents copyright 1939 by Quigley Publishing Company.

A man with a long white beard is writing a new chapter in motion picture history!

he masses don't mind standing in line!
PYGMALION
LAST SHOWING • FEATURE
25¢

"PYGMALION" SENSATION!

RASH SOCIETY!

8 out of 9 new York critics...call this wise and witty romance of a street girl who became a society beauty in ninety days ...one of the "10 Best Pictures of the Year!"

BEFORE

AFTER

Any girl can do it. You need a man and a trunkful of clothes!

CHEERS!
"Not merely good, but practically perfect!" says Time Magazine.
•
"One of the swellest pictures ever made!"
—Damon Runyon
•
"Don't miss it!"
—Louella Parsons

LESLIE HOWARD
in BERNARD SHAW'S
"PYGMALION"
with Wendy HILLER & Wilfrid LAWSON • Marie LOHR • Scott SUNDERLAND
Screen Play and Dialogue by Bernard Shaw • Music by Arthur Honegger Directed by Anthony Asquith and Leslie Howard • Produced by GABRIEL PASCAL

THEATRE

More than $150,000 in quarters and half-dollars from delighted movie fans in 11 amazing weeks at the Astor, and no let-up in sight!

'PYGMALION" IS A PROVEN SUCCESS NATIONWIDE and is coming to you soon from M-G-M!

he success of this down-to-earth comedy romance is phenomenal. Its progress has been watched with keenest interest y the entire industry. The mass audience appeal revealed by the Astor crowds was further emphasized by the cross-ection of the public in all subsequent test engagements. Literally, its biggest business comes from the masses. It is in s 7th week at the Four Star Theatre, Los Angeles, and still packing them in. Dayton was chosen next as a typical merican city and it beat "Good Earth", "Marie Antoinette", "Captains Courageous" and other big shows and was ELD OVER FOR 2nd GREAT WEEK! Miami and Miami Beach followed to prove equally successful and now its riumph has spread to Chicago, Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Kansas City and Houston. Watch these and other ities as M-G-M's showmanship surprise hit continues on its record-breaking career.

WARNER BR GROWS GRE

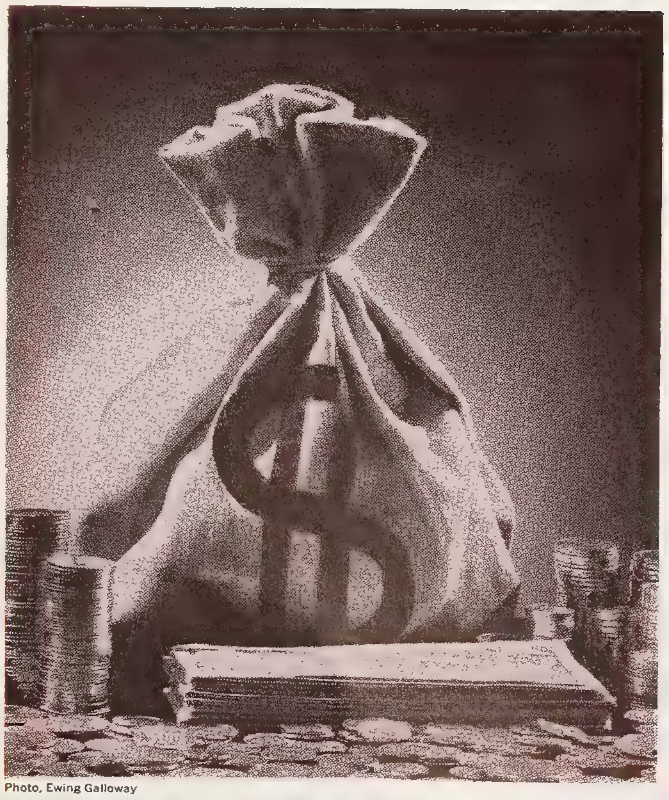
WINGS OF THE NAVY
OKLAHOMA KID
DARK VICTORY
YES, MY DARLING DAUGHTE
YOU CAN'T GET AWAY WITH MURDER
BLACKWELL'S ISLAND



Photo, Ewing Galloway

..And Indust

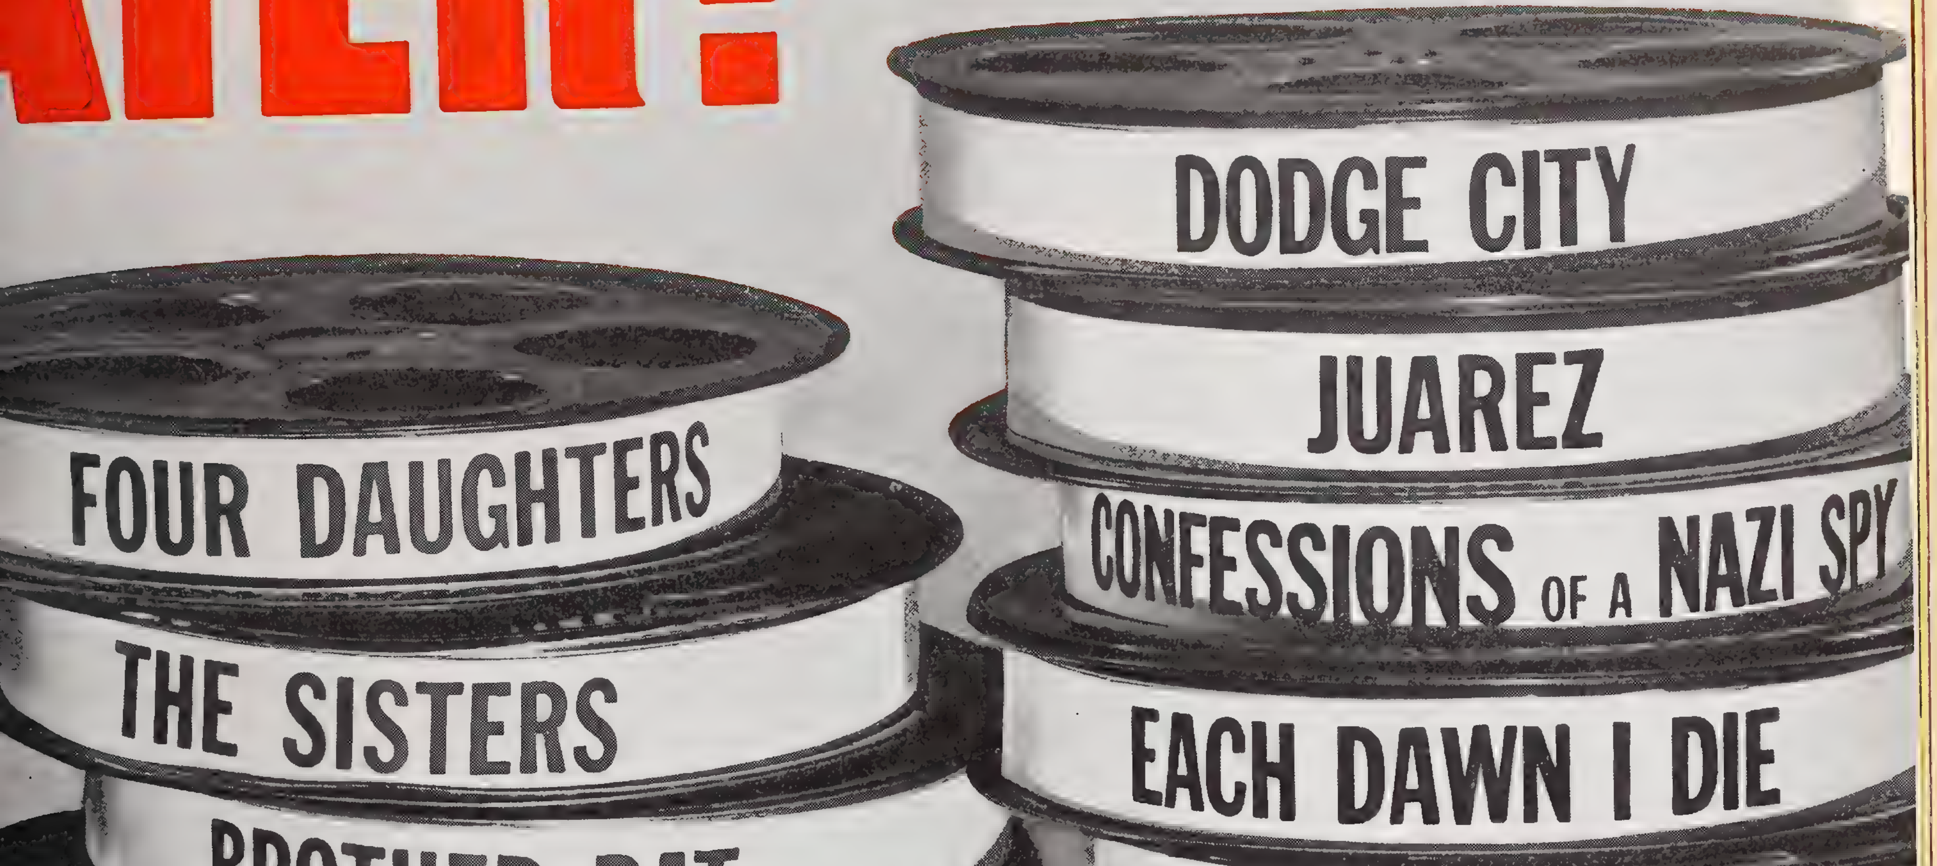
OS.' SUCCESS ATER!



DODGE CITY
JUAREZ
CONFESSIONS OF A NAZI SPY
EACH DAWN I DIE
HELL'S KITCHEN
AMERICAN FAMILY SONS OF LIBERTY
KID FROM KOKOMO
FOUR DAUGHTERS
THE SISTERS
BROTHER RAT
ANGELS WITH DIRTY FACES
DAWN PATROL
DEVIL'S ISLAND
THEY MADE ME A CRIMI

Profits Pile Higher!

THE FUNNIEST PICTURE YOU WILL PLAY THIS YEAR IS....

"WIFE,

(Loretta Young on a romp!)

HUSBAND

(Warner Baxter in playful mood!)

AND FRIEND!"

(Trying every angle to make it a triangle!)

YES, we said FUNNIEST! And with that title and this cast, it will also be one of the most profitable!

Loretta
YOUNG · Warner BAXTER
in
WIFE, HUSBAND and FRIEND
with
BINNIE BARNES · CESAR ROMERO
GEORGE BARBIER · J. Edward BROMBERG
EUGENE PALLETTE · HELEN WESTLEY
Directed by Gregory Ratoff
Associate Producer (and Screen Play by) Nunnally Johnson
Based on the novel by James M. Cain
Music and Lyrics "Drink From the Cup of Tomorrow" by Samuel Pokrass and Walter Bullock · "Arlesiana" Music by Samuel Pokrass · Lyrics by Armando Hauser
A 20th Century-Fox Picture
Darryl F. Zanuck In Charge of Production

20th CENTURY FOX
THE KEYSTONE OF YOUR FUTURE

MOTION PICTURE HERALD

MARTIN QUIGLEY, Editor-in-Chief and Publisher

Vol. 134, No. 7 February 18, 1939

PROGRESS AND PROBLEMS

The wider angle of the screen material of tomorrow

by TERRY RAMSAYE

PRESSURES toward a change in the character of the offerings of the theatre screen are many, insistent, often vociferous. These pressures vary in nature from the extreme duplicity of disguised revolutionary propagandists to the honest demand for a broader service of civilization by the art—and all degrees between.

There are evidences that important developments are in progress.

It is certain that before long the screen will be dealing with new materials.

With the application of reasonable intelligence, reasonable precaution against extravagant swings of the pendulum of trend, the developments to come can be on the broad average constructive.

An experimental period is ahead.

This is proper, inevitable. In this era of social and political flux it is not remotely possible for the motion picture amusement screen to remain static.

It is to be hoped, desired, that this time, in the business of going somewhere, the institution of the organized screen shall be sufficiently well advised and discreet not to go overboard in the headlong fashion that has made so much of its history spectacular. It has had to be bailed out of its follies too often.

The problems of public relations that have often painfully occupied the attention of the leaders of the industry before, and up to now, will be found to be trivial and inconsiderable in comparison with those that are ahead, and inescapable.

Those problems will run through all of the operations of the industry, too. As the screen tends more and more to integrate its expressions with the issues and problems of the day the job of production or show making and the job of exhibition or show retailing will be found to be developing complexities many times multiplied.

Leadership will be put to new tests, and not a few will be finding themselves under responsibilities that they did not know existed—even while asking for them.

The adventure will involve losses, which will have to be charged to development expense. The industry is used to that. It can survive most anything as long as there is a box office.

— — —

LONG ago, and often since, it has been observed on this page that the policy of seeking to make all the pictures to please everybody in the world all the time involves handicaps of an inhibitive nature. Long ago and often it has been pointed out that classification and stratification of productions, theatres, and audiences is inevitable, desirable. It was pointed out, too, considerably before the rising pundits of Hollywood mentioned the subject, that inflated costly pretentiousness of "Super A" production had no more basic merit than presenting two Little Evas, two Uncle Toms and an acre of bloodhounds.

You might turn back in these pages to more than half a decade ago to a piece entitled "Too Damned Big," being a discussion of what happened to the dinosaur and other inflated institutions.

The policy of bigger and bigger, but more of the same, larger than life and gaudier than history, is of course in the nature of doing and following the obvious. It is perhaps a bit more obviously spectacular in the motion picture business than elsewhere. But there are other examples of the same sort of commercial and creative inertia. You will be remembering that once Mr. Henry Ford said that the customers could have a car of any color they wanted "just so it was black." And you will remember too that he kept on making the celebrated and excellent "Model T" until it could not be sold any more. Then, most expensively he had to shut down until a new car was designed. Mr. Ford enjoys the well earned reputation of being one of the world's greatest industrialists. But he was not forehanded enough to have a flock of new models on the shelf waiting the day of change. Neither is the motion picture industry, which has been traveling the same sort of route.

The waning of the foreign market, from Berlin to Baghdad, and rising tides of consciousness at home, tend to bring an equivalent state of consumer non-acceptance for the screen.

A consequence, among the many manifestations, is a tendency, in view of the dwindling of the appeals and profits of internationalism, to turn to an acute, maybe too acute, nationalism.

There's a wise old saying: "Easy does it."

— — —

AS one of the attendant symptoms of the process of change is a considerable casting about for reasons and alibis. Here and there are endeavours to indicate that anybody or everybody is to blame for what the motion pictures are not, except the persons who make them. That is natural enough, in fact too natural and too obvious.

Diversely, if not widely, one hears, ever emanating from regions of special discomfiture, that there is a not too accurately identified source of pressure against progress, a reactionary endeavour at the prolongation of the status quo against the springs of social development. It usually adds up to a charge that the motion picture industry is ruled by a "censorship" and pointing at the Production Code and its administration.

Conveniently, and rather too comprehensively, the whole of the allegedly inhibitory influences are called "the Hays office." This creates confusion.

[Continued on following page, column 1]

Progress and Problems

[Continued from preceding page]

"The Hays office" in its motion picture production ministrations exercises several divergent functions, some of them as remote from our concerns here as labour relations and legislative problems. But the two functions, most divergent, and most confused, are those bearing separately on discreet commercial conduct on the domestic and world map, and most separately those special problems of adjustment to the mores of civilization that pertain to the Production Code, which is not a commercial document.

Confusion, especially available to those who desire to attain confusion, can be increased by the inevitable fact that quite often the Production Code administration may in the same breath, and naturally enough, offer advice which pertains to moral considerations and concomitantly other expediencies. Because Joseph I. Breen, code administrator, is working for the motion picture industry, because his organization is a subdivision of the trade association of the industry, it is inevitable that many external and internal problems should present themselves together. That does not mean that they are not two kinds of problems.

A reasonably clear-eyed examination of what some persons tend to charge as the inhibitive influences of the Code will disclose them as the consequences of commercial decisions bearing on issues that have no relevancy to the Code.

Particularly in the public press, but also from persons in Hollywood who should be accurately informed, or more conscientiously accurate of expression, it has been indicated very often for instance that inhibitive influences to be checked against "censorship" — meaning self-regulation — have prevented the making of such projected productions as film versions of "Forty Days of Musa Dagh" and "It Can't Happen Here." Others could be named.

The fact, obvious to all save those seeking to confuse issues, is that whatever was decided about those specific pictures and others of the ilk was a matter of sheer commercial decision. No one in a position to be informed of the basic issues could ever maintain that the slightest argument could be made that problems impinging on the Production Code were involved.

* * *

The murmurings are intermittent and diffuse, but issues tend to crystalize out into terms of personalities. So it has come that for the time Mr. Walter Wanger has stepped to the fore as an exponent of a demand for a special order of latitude on the screen to take it into realms of controversy, and that he has elected to address most pointedly his charges of suppressive influence at Mr. Martin Quigley.

That, one would gather, is a consequence of the fact that Mr. Quigley fathered and brought into acceptance the Production Code, which was adopted, empowered and applied by the organized industry at a time and for reasons that seemed to it practical, cogent, necessary and desirable.

Mr. Wanger's expression and Mr. Quigley's responses to those expressions have had attention in Motion Picture Herald and presently will be having more.

More immediately germane to the particular considerations of this outgiving of today, it is to be observed that there is not to be discovered anywhere in the Code any provision of production practise which is calculated to prevent any producer from making any picture that he desires to make—and with approval in the event it is not subversive of common decency.

It is contended that pictures of the new order "progressive, socially conscious, constructive, and vital nature," to use just a few of the pleas, can be made, should be made, must be made—and that they can be made with decency.

However, it must be set down for the exhibitor, that when pictures of social and political opinion, pictures pertaining to causes and movements, are made, that the theatre must be the final judge in behalf of each particular audience of the acceptability of the product.

If the screen is to purvey controversial materials it can only invite, not command exhibition.

Shopping for entertainment has complicated showmanship aplenty. When shopping for opinion is added the complications will be vastly multiplied.

A more exciting screen is in prospect. Production will have to go to work with a new intelligence. Selling will have to sell the product on a new order of content. Exhibition will have to be more selective, more adroit, more responsive.

The buying power of the box office will continue to ordain success.

* * *

A MOST probable consequence may be that once again the commercial evolutions of the art and industry will solve issues in litigation before the processes of adjudication can operate. It is to be remembered that the problems created by the Motion Picture Patents Company and its General Film Company, for example, were commercially decided and the real war won at least two years before the court decision was had. That can happen again by processes tending toward a product that will not fit existing distribution methods.

This

Legislative and Judicial

While distribution executives and their committee on trade practices were studying newly drafted proposals published by Allied States Association, two developments, one judicial, one legislative, brought sharp attention and wide speculation from the industry. The United States Supreme Court on Monday, upholding a previous decision by a Texas district court, ruled that it is unlawful for distributors to insert any restrictive provisions in their film license agreements with subsequent run exhibitors at the behest of affiliated or prior run circuit operators. The distributors' plea that the license clauses regulating admission prices and barring double feature billing were lawful under the copyright laws, was rejected. In North Dakota the state legislature passed a bill to repeal the theatre divorcement legislation approved in that state last year. If signed by the governor the repeal measure would make unnecessary the test case filed by Paramount in the Supreme Court. The measure was to be sent to Governor John Moses for his approval or veto on Friday.

The full text of Allied's trade practice proposals appear on pages 54, 55 and 56 and commentary on and repercussions from this and other developments are in stories starting on pages 12 and 15.

Sponsored Film Control

Without any formal announcement, the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America has placed in effect restrictions on the showing of advertising and sponsored pictures in theatres of the five member distributor-circuit companies—Loew's, Paramount, RKO, 20th Century and Warners.

Hereafter any advertising film running 200 feet or more in length must be submitted before exhibition, to the MPPDA's Advertising Advisory Council, the division which passes on all advertising matter of the majors, which will determine whether the advertising in the subject meets the standards of the Council. If it does, the film will be given a seal, and attached thereto will be the words: "This Is An Advertisement."

All member companies have agreed not to show any films without the seal, and that goes for their circuit affiliates and partners, too.

This action, according to the MPPDA, does not mean that the organization either approves or disapproves of advertising films on the screen, but the very branding of the subject would seem likely to have a deterring effect.

For one thing, the seal may be expected to prevent any deception through the type of sponsored films which pose as entertainment and carry subtle advertising.

Week

Censorship

A bill providing for a board of censors to pass on all motion pictures in Oklahoma has been drawn by the Oklahoma attorney general's office for Charles Flanagan, representative from Walters in the state legislature. "We should do something to keep our children from seeing a lot of gangster and sex pictures," he explained. The bill would set up a board of censors composed of three ministers and two educators, appointed by the governor, and provide a $1,000 fine for showing a picture without its approval.

The Warner Brothers film "Yes, My Darling Daughter" has been refused an exhibition permit in the state of New York. Warners is appealing the decision.

For further details of the New York action and of other censorship developments see page 37.

No "Horse Opera"

Plans for the production of a stage show that would be "a cavalcade of motion pictures" in burlesque, have been dropped by the Federal Theatre Group in Chicago. The recent resignation of John McGee as regional director is responsible for the action, those now in charge say. The production, tentatively called "Horse Opera," was an original story by Emmett Lavery and Mr. McGee.

MOTION PICTURE HERALD

Published every Thursday by Quigley Publishing Company, Rockefeller Center, New York City. Telephone Circle 7-3100. Cable address "Quigpubco, New York." Martin Quigley, Editor-in-Chief and Publisher; Colvin Brown, Vice-President and General Manager; Terry Ramsaye, Editor; Ernest A. Rovelstad, Managing Editor; James P. Cunningham, News Editor; Chicago Bureau, 624 South Michigan Avenue, C. B. O'Neill, manager; Hollywood Bureau, Postal Union Life Building, Boone Mancall, manager, William R. Weaver, editor; Toronto Bureau, Ste. 811, 21 Dunas Sq., Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Allister Grosart, representative. Montreal Bureau, Press Bureau, Windsor Street Station, Montreal, Canada. Colin R. Haworth, representative. London Bureau, 4, Golden Square, London W I, Hope Williams, manager; cable Quigpubco London; Berlin Bureau, Berlin-Tempelhof, Kaiserin-Augustastrasse 28, Joachim K. Rutenberg, representative; Paris Bureau, 21, Rue de Berri, Paris 8, France, Pierre Autre, representative, cable Autre-Lacifral-8 Paris; Rome Bureau, 54 Via Della Mercede, Rome, Italy, Joseph D. Ravotto, representative; cable Ravotto-Stampestera, Rome. Melbourne Bureau, Regent Theatre, 191 Collins St., Melbourne, Australia, Cliff Holt, representative; Sydney Bureau, 17, Archbold Rd., Roseville, Sydney, N.S.W., Australia. Lin Endean, representative. Mexico City Bureau, Apartado 269, Mexico City, James Lockhart, representative; Budapest Bureau, Szamos-utca 7, Budapest I, Hungary, Endre Hevesi, representative; Buenos Aires Bureau, Avellaneda 3949, Buenos Aires, Argentina, Natalio Bruski, representative; Tokyo Bureau, 880 Sasazuka, Ichikawa-shi Chiba-Ken, Japan, Hiromu Tominaga, representative; Rio de Janeiro Bureau, Caixa Postal 3358, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, L. S. Marinho, representative; India Bureau, Post Box 147 Bunder Road, Karachi, India; Uruguay, P. O. Box 664, Montevideo, Uruguay, Paul Bodo, representative, cable Argus Montevideo; Amsterdam Bureau, 87 Waalstraat, Amsterdam Z., Holland, Philip de Schaap, representative; Vienna Bureau, Neustiftgasse 54, Vienna, VII, John Lorant, representative; Prague Bureau, Uhelny trh 2, Prague I, Czechoslovakia. Harry Knopf, representative. Copenhagen Bureau, Rosengaarden 14, Copenhagen, Denmark, Kris Winther, representative. Member Audit Bureau of Circulations. All contents copyright 1939 by Quigley Publishing Company. Address all correspondence to the New York Office. Other Quigley Publications: Better Theatres, Motion Picture Daily, Teatro al Día, International Motion Picture Almanac and Fame.

"One Big Union"

The "one big union" plan for actors appeared this week closer to reality, following conferences in New York between executive secretaries of the four unions comprising the Associated Actors and Artistes of America. Divergent opinions came from Ralph Whitehead, of the American Federation of Actors, and Kenneth Thomson, of the Screen Actors Guild.

Other events on the actor union front were the agreement last week in New York terminating the preferential dues agreement between the Screen Actors Guild and the Actor's Equity; the return of Mr. Thomson to the coast to iron out the dispute between the Artists Managers Guild and the Actors Guild, over the licensing of agents; the voting of an investigation by the AAAA into the management of the AFA; the voting by the same AAAA to exclude nonperformers from membership; the indicated intention of the Actors Guild to pare its membership, the while seeking a solution of the problem of "extras"; the indication by executives of the American Federation of Radio Artists that, having won their battle against the advertising agencies which control sponsored programs, they will act moderately.

Both stories appear on page 27.

Goldberg Sails

After partly revealing his production plans for the 1939-40 season, which include one feature on the refugee problem, Jesse Goldberg, independent Hollywood producer, is to sail Saturday from New York for London, on the Aquitania. Mr. Goldberg will stay four weeks in London, two in Paris, and may visit Prague. He takes with him four of his feature productions, and six shorts, expecting to close distribution deals for them.

Mr. Goldberg's "refugee" picture will be entitled, "I Am a Refugee." He will start work on the coast in June. On the new season program, there will be five other such "sociological" dramas; six "Horatio Alger boy stories"; and six "Northwest Mounted Police dramas."

More "Wind" Trouble

Director George Cukor has departed from the "Gone With the Wind" scene, the result of a "friendly disagreement" with producer David O. Selznick. Victor Fleming was borrowed immediately from Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer to replace Mr. Cukor.

The cause of the disagreement was said to lie in the treatment of various scenes. Sideline reports have it that Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, which will distribute the picture, according to the United Press, wanted one of its own directors on the job.

Pius XI

With the passing of Pope Pius XI, the 261st pontiff, it is to be recorded that he was the first head of the Church to take official cognizance of the motion picture. That came with his issuance of his Encyclical Letter of July 2, 1936, from Rome on Motion Pictures under the title of "Vigilant Care."

This document brought into particular attention the motion picture as an art and medium of communication alongside the art of the printed word, in a continuity of consideration that began in the fifth century and resulted in the codification known as "The Index," in 1557, modernized by Leo XIII in 1897, when the screen was but a year old.

It is to be remembered that the encyclical of Pius XI, addressing the Bishops of the United States, remarked that they "will be able to insist with justice that the industry in your country has recognized and accepted its responsibility before society. . . ."

France-Germany

At a time when Italy, the other Rome-Berlin axis partner, is having difficulty with France, comes conclusion of a film agreement between France and Germany. Under the agreement, effective till June 30 of this year, and retroactive to Jan. 1, 1939, French producers may withdraw money from Germany, unless the trade balance is unfavorable to Germany. Other provisions call for the free interchange of films of all nature; encouragement to be extended by authorities of each country to those films approved by the censors; financial statements to be issued on May 1, covering the first half of the agreement time; monthly statements to be issued by each country detailing pictures censored, and the reasons why.

The agreement is reported on page 35.

FOR READY REFERENCE

Editorial	Page 7
This Week in Pictures	Page 10
Managers' Round Table	Page 67
Release Chart	Page 75
Asides and Interludes	Page 47
Showmen's Reviews	Page 42
The Hollywood Scene	Page 41
In the Courts	Page 38
In the Newsreels	Page 38
Short Subjects on Broadway	Page 41
What the Picture Did for Me	Page 59
Deaths of the Week	Page 38
The Cutting Room	Page 18

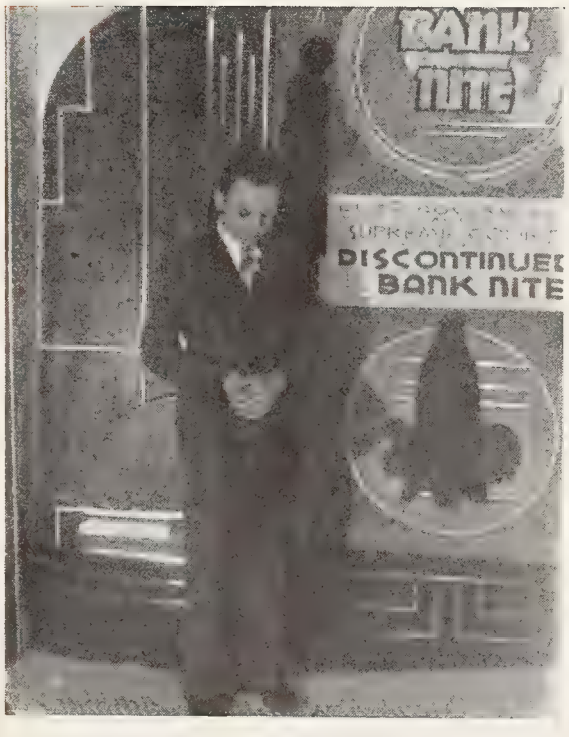
This Week In Pictures

FIRST ticket for the new Warner theatre in Wilmington, Del., is sold to Mayor J. H. Bacon of that city by Joseph H. Bernhard, right above, general manager of the Warner circuit.

IN SPITE of advertisements featuring Florida bathing beauties, Hollywood remains the favorite winter resort for exhibitors. Above, Frank Rubel of Pioneer Theatres, Des Moines, with Mrs. Rubel, Mrs. Frank Helm and Ann Sheridan on the set of "Roaring Road", and left, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rinzler, of Brooklyn, with Pat O'Brien.

J. KENFIELD MORLEY, left, new president of Advitagraph Corporation, manufacturer of continuous motion picture projectors. Mr. Morley formerly was promotion manager of Bell & Howell.

DRESSED for a canter, Councillor H. P. E. Mears, above, of Bournemouth, England, candidate for a vice-presidency of the Cinematograph Exhibitors Association.



MOURNING is displayed by Charles Kirkconnell, left, of the Athens and Dreka theatres, Deland, Fla., to signal the passing of Bank Night.

JOSEPH SCHINE, right above, of the New York circuit of Schine, Inc., meets Dave Fleischer, director of the Fleischer studios in Miami, Fla., where "Gulliver's Travels", feature-length cartoon, is in production.

By Harris & Ewing

ASSISTING at the opening of a new night club in Washington, Harry Hopkins, Secretary of Commerce; Errol Flynn, Warner Brothers star who remained in the capital for a vacation after attending the President's Ball, and Mrs. John Hay Whitney.

PHILIP L. THOMSON, above, president of the Audit Bureau of Circulations and director of public relations for Western Electric, this week received the annual advertising award gold medal for "distinguished services to advertising".

T. K. STEVENSON, right, president of Electrical Research Products, Inc., sailed this week to survey the British and European market.

STAGE and night club representatives are guests at the weekly luncheon of the Associated Motion Picture Advertisers at the Astor hotel, New York. At the speakers' table below are Jean Rodney, production director of "Outward Bound"; Paul Lazarus, Jr., vice-president; Billy Rose, night club entrepreneur; Elias E. Sugarman, editor of Billboard, and Molly Picon.

By Staff Photographer

ARRIVING in New York to continue conferences begun in the west, Charles Einfeld of Warner Brothers, right, with Mrs. Einfeld.

By Cosmo-Sileo

SAILING for Europe after conferences in New York, Ben Miggins, continental manager for Twentieth Century-Fox, and F. L. Harley, manager for England, left and right below, receive a bon voyage from W. J. Hutchinson, center, foreign distribution executive.

By Cosmo-Sileo

By Drucker-Hilbert

THE GOLDEN JUBILEE of the founding of the motion picture industry by Thomas A. Edison and the 92nd anniversary of his birth is marked by the Edison Pioneers at their annual luncheon meeting at the Astor hotel, New York. Guests above are Mrs. Nina Edison Hughes; James Burke, president of the Pioneers; Charles Edison, and Terry Ramsaye, editor of MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

U. S. SUPREME COURT RULES MAJORS CANNOT CONTROL ADMISSIONS OR DUALS

Admission prices cannot be controlled or double bills prohibited at subsequent run theatres when such restrictions are by the concerted action of distributors or by the collusion of distributors with prior runs.

The United States Supreme Court, in a most sweeping decision, and its first affecting present-day motion picture distribution-exhibition practice, ruled on Monday that it is unlawful for distributors to insert any restrictive provisions in their film license agreements with subsequent runs at the behest of affiliated or prior runs.

Such collusion is not only in violation of the Federal Sherman anti-trust act, the court held, but the distributor's contention that these operations had been lawful under the protection of the United States copyright laws was rejected.

The potential effect on the entire distribution-exhibition system is considered to be extraordinarily disturbing, immediately posing the question of the extent to which distributors can legally enter into a license agreement with one exhibitor which affects the operations of another. Some believe that the very structure of clearance is threatened.

Affirming the verdict of the United States District Court at Dallas, the Supreme Court held Columbia Pictures, Loew's, Paramount Pictures, RKO Radio, Twentieth Century-Fox, United Artists, Universal and Warner-Vitagraph, and Interstate Circuit, Inc., and Texas Consolidated Theatres, Inc., to have violated the anti-trust laws by agreeing that the distributors incorporate in their contracts with Texas subsequent run accounts provisions setting minimum admissions of 25 cents and banning double bills. Interstate operates 42 theatres and Texas Consolidated 66—both circuits conducted by Karl Hoblitzelle and Robert J. O'Donnell.

The court held that the contracts in question between the distributors and circuits had the effect of suppressing competition and maintaining oppressive prices, and that the result was beneficial to the circuits and the distributors but injurious alike to the circuits' subsequent run competitors and to the public.

The consequence of the price restriction, though more oppressive, is comparable with the effect of resale price maintenance agreements, which have been held to be unreasonable restraints in violation of the Sherman Act," the majority opinion stated.

The opinion of the highest tribunal in the land, a five-to-three verdict, with Justices Roberts, McReynolds and Butler dissenting (new Justice Felix Frankfurter did not participate in the case)—was the final chapter in the United States Government's long-drawn-out Texas monopoly case which, last year, the Supreme Court returned to the Dallas District Court because of its failure to state findings of fact and conclusions of law as required by the rules.

It was the first instance where the U. S. Department of Justice prosecuted the major companies to the conclusion of a Supreme Court decision.

Although this case has not direct connection with the anti-trust suit brought by the the Department of Justice against the producer-distributors in New York, now pending, the ruling this week could be a basis for argument by the Government in presenting its more sweeping anti-trust action.

And, while the decision applies only to Texas,

(Continued on opposite page, column 1)

No. Dakota Votes to Repeal "Divorce" Law; Myers Charges "Lobbying"

The North Dakota legislature voted last weekend to repeal the state "divorcement" law which prohibits producers or distributors from operating or having any interest in theatres. The repealer is now before Governor John Moses for signature. The House voted 84 to 7, the Senate 42 to 5.

At first the Governor was expected to sign the repeal immediately, but "repercussions," promised and otherwise, appeared to have interfered. For one, Allied threatened "repercussions," and independent exhibitors in the territory were understood to be preparing an open appeal to the Governor to veto. From Washington came word that the Department of Justice was interested in the why and wherefore of the legislators' sudden move, probably in view of the Department's planned prosecution of the majors in its own "divorcement" suit. In Bismarck, N. D., Oscar Hagen, Speaker of the House, branded the suddenness of the repeal action as "peculiar." Further developments of importance appear imminent.

In Washington, Department of Justice officials vigorously condemned the action of the state legislature but said there appeared to be nothing the Federal Government could do in the matter. "It looks very funny to us and we do not like it at all," it was said officially at the Department.

First of its kind ever to be placed on the statute books of any state, the North Dakota law was awaiting enforcement pending a test in the United States Supreme Court, where arguments on its constitutionality were to be reviewed within a month.

Sponsored by Allied States Association as one line of attack in its campaign against so-called distributor-circuit "aggressions", outcome of the law in the Supreme Court was expected to determine Allied's procedure on divorcement for other states. Allied's general counsel, Abram F. Myers, warned that "there may be repercussions," but he did not disclose whether the repeal, if enacted, would have a restraining effect on Allied's future state legislative "divorcement" plans. However, he did warn that unless "a more cooperative attitude" is adopted by the majors, his organization will abandon completely the present negotiations for a trade practice program. (See page 15.)

Coming wholly unexpectedly—with all sides in the industry awaiting the U. S. Supreme Court decision — the Dakota legislators' move was accomplished both swiftly and without official explanation. Reasons for it, however, were advanced in other quarters.

Mr. Myers charged openly that "the coup is a tribute to the effectiveness of the producers' lobby".

"That they should want to repeal the

(Continued on opposite page, column 2)

WIDE EFFECT ON PROCEDURE SEEN

(Continued from opposite page, bottom of column 3)

those District Courts in which some 20-odd anti-trust suits have been filed by independents against the majors could be guided in deciding similar issues involving contractual restrictions on independents where it is proven they were made at the behest of prior or affiliated runs.

Legal and executive spokesmen for the majors in New York, just receiving copies of the decision, were, for the most part, without comment on the definite effect of the Supreme Court decision. But Robert W. Perkins, general counsel of Warners, and Louis Frohlich, Columbia attorney, both expressed the opinion that the case need not necessarily have any effect on the pending New York Government suit.

While admitting that the decision has wide potential ramifications, some lawyers held out the lone hope that the Supreme Court might be induced to consider new arguments, a possibility resting entirely on the Court's willingness to grant that new points of law not presented at the original hearing had been discovered later.

A distributor spokesman said Wednesday that the majors' lawyers were aggrieved during the original hearing because they felt that the Government took up most of the time allotted the arguments, and that they did not have sufficient time to present all of their legal points.

Some distributor attorneys feel that an effort to obtain a rehearing is especially advisable in view of the emphatic tone of the court's dissenting opinion, which held that the majority ruling was "unjustified."

An attorney for one of the three major companies which is without circuit properties, charged that "the ultimate blame" in such cases as this one rests on the distributor-circuits, which, he said, "try to stifle all exhibition competition."

In one official distribution quarter the decision was viewed with no little trepidation because of the threatening upsets to distributor-exhibitor practice and in exhibitor operation.

It was said that eventually the decision will upset protection of prior runs over subsequents, especially in the dozen or more territories where protection-and-clearance schedules are based on admissions charged, such as in Kansas City, San Francisco, Chicago, St. Louis, Omaha and elsewhere—it being assumed that distributors and affiliated or prior-runs will no longer be able to restrict subsequents because of the subsequents' admission.

Price Structure Threatened

The same source, one of the most authoritative on distribution-exhibition procedure, pointed out that the very structure of admission scales of first runs and so-called "downtown" or "de luxe" houses will be threatened wherever a subsequent run exhibitor decides to undersell. "The subsequents could charge as little as a penny for admission to two of the biggest pictures of a decade."

Waxing even more pessimistic, the distributor spokesman predicted that within a year the present 50-cent average for downtown first run houses will be as low as 25 cents.

"Distributors, after all these years, have arrived at no solution for meeting the demands of the better-paying and bigger-buying prior runs other than contract restrictions on subsequents, and now the nation's highest court rules that such contractual restrictions are forbidden."

The basic legal status of the Perelman action in Philadelphia, where majors were made defendants by independent interests headed by the Perelmans on an issue involving contractual prohibition of double bills, is apparently the same as in the Texas action. The Perelman issue now is somewhere between the Circuit Court of Appeals and the United States Supreme Court.

The Department of Justice Dallas action reached the Supreme Court at Washington quicker because a Government suit on appeal is routed direct to the Washington tribunal rather than through the Circuit Appellate Division.

Turning his attention from the promulgation of a set of trade practices as Allied desires them, from the sponsorship of anti-block booking bills in Congress and theatre "divorcement" laws in state legislatures, and an interest in pending Federal Court anti-trust actions—all aimed at the majors—Abram F. Myers, general counsel of Allied, said at his headquarters in Washington Tuesday that, "The decision in the Texas case may prove to be the deadliest blow ever delivered to the affiliated (distributor) circuits, since it holds unlawful—regardless of proof of conspiracy between distributors—any restrictive provisions inserted in license agreements with independent subsequent runs at the behest of the first runs.

"Allied has long contended that such restrictions were unlawful in and of themselves, whether or not a conspiracy among the distributors to impose them could be proved," he added.

"The Supreme Court decision on the Interstate case was not a surprise to most of the court observers in this industry, and, without going fully into the language of the decision, it would seem to show a fairly comprehensive understanding of our industry by the high tribunal," wired Ed Kuykendall, president of the MPTOA, from his home in Mississippi.

Colonel H. A. Cole, president of Allied of Texas, which originally interested the Government in the suit, said that his members were "fully gratified" at the outcome.

"While my information is not complete at this time," he added, "it is believed that each individual contract between circuits and any one distributor is illegal"—presumably because of "restrictions" on subsequents. "The ramifications of that principle of law, if established, when applied to certain practices in our industry, notably clearance, should cause some thought among industry leaders."

Ruling Called Significant

From the Department of Justice at Washington, where the New York and Chicago trust suits against majors are now being prepared, Solicitor General Robert H. Jackson, commenting on Monday's Supreme Court ruling, said the decision "upholding the application of the anti-trust laws to agreements affecting copyrighted and, by inference, patented articles, is one of the most significant to the enforcement of the anti-trust laws ever handed down."

He explained that he believed the ruling might open the way toward application of anti-trust laws to numerous copyrighted and patented articles previously held by the Supreme Court to be legal monopolies, subject to complete control of the copyright or patent holders.

For nearly a year the Justice Department has been directing the attention of the Supreme Court to alleged encouragement of monopoly through various applications of the patent laws. The Administration's joint monopoly investiga-

(Continued on following page)

"Repercussions" on Divorcement

(Continued from preceding page, column 3)

law is an admission that, if the case involving the law were heard by the United States Supreme Court, it would be upheld," he said. "There is such a thing as overdoing matters."

Official distribution quarters in New York heard that the North Dakota legislators' action was an outgrowth of North Dakota politics, explaining that, after the new Governor, John Moses, a Democrat, defeated William A. Langer, Independent, and took office last January 1st, he immediately set out to eliminate all vestiges of the Langer administration, legislatively and otherwise, including the theatre divorcement bill.

When the Supreme Court at Washington agreed, on January 30th, to review the appeal of Paramount—representing all distributor-circuits in a test of the law's constitutionality—the general feeling was that a decision could have far-reaching effect on the U. S. Government's anti-trust and divorcement suit in New York against the large companies.

Paramount challenged the constitutionality on the grounds that its circuit operations in North Dakota are not conducted as unfair competition, that they do not constitute a monopoly, that the law deprives the company of property without due process of law, and denies it the equal protection of the law. Paramount alone was involved in this instance, being the only distributor to have theatre interests in the state, through the 17 Friedl-Ludwig houses—probably a $2,000,000 investment.

The state contended that the question involved was one of state rights. A lower federal court had ruled that there was no evil proved in the ownership of theatres by producers or distributors, but held that the state had the right to legislate.

Nebraska, Missouri and Kansas have theatre divorcement bills pending, both introduced during the present session, and talk of a divorcement bill has been heard in Olkahoma, Arkansas, Illinois, Massachusetts, Minnesota and in Indiana.

Last week, Thurman Arnold, of the Department of Justice, said in Washington that absolute divorcement of production-distribution from exhibition is the primary ambition of the United States Government in the prosecution of its suit against the majors in New York.

UNDUE RESTRAINT USED, COURT SAYS

(Continued from preceding page)

tion committee recently conducted an extensive study of the relation between patents and monopoly as a basis for possible legislative recommendations.

Delivering the Supreme Court's majority opinion Monday, Associate Justice Stone held that the Government had sufficiently proved its contentions that the distributors acted sufficiently in concert to have engaged in conspiracy.

On the other hand, it was contended by Associate Justice Roberts in his minority opinion, that the majority, by so holding, "goes far beyond anything this court has ever decided."

Reviewing the events leading up to the incorporation of the controversial provisions in the distributors' contracts, Justice Stone held that "as is usual in cases of alleged unlawful agreements to restrain commerce, the Government is without the aid of direct testimony that the distributors entered into any agreement with each other to impose the restrictions upon subsequent run exhibitors. In order to establish agreement it is compelled to rely on inferences drawn from the course of conduct of the alleged conspirators."

The "inferences" drawn by the trial court, he declared, were proper, and "in the view we take of the legal effect of the cooperative action of the distributor appellants in carrying into effect the restrictions imposed upon subsequent run theatres in the four Texas cities involved and of the legal effect of the separate agreements for the imposition of those restrictions entered into between Interstate and each of the distributors, it is unncessary to discuss in great detail the evidence concerning this aspect of the case."

Sees "No Explanation"

Each distributor, he said, was aware that the others were asked to and did impose the restrictions on admissions and double bills and, Justice Stone pointed out, there was risk that "without agreement diversity of action would follow."

"We are unable to find in the record any persuasive explanation, other than agreed concert of action, of the singular unanimity of action on the part of the distributors by which the proposals were carried into effect as written in four Texas cities but not in a fifth or in the Rio Grande Valley," he commented.

"It taxes credulity to believe that the several distributors would, in the circumstances, have accepted and put into operation with substantial unanimity such far-reaching changes in their business methods without some understanding that all were to join, and we reject as beyond the range of probability that it was the result of mere chance."

Further, the opinion pointed out, the distributors relied upon the testimony of local agents that they had acted independently of the other distributors and had no agreement, when they could have offered the testimony "of any officer or agents of a distributor who knew, or was in a position to know, whether in fact an agreement had been reached among them for concerted action." The failure to call such witnesses, it was held, is "persuasive that their testimony, if given, would have been unfavorable to appellants."

"It is elementary that an unlawful conspiracy may be and often is formed without simultaneous action or agreement on the part of the conspirators," Justice Stone declared. "Acceptance by competitors, without previous agreement, of an invitation to participate in a plan, the necessary consequence of which, if carried out, is restraint of interstate commerce, is sufficient to establish an unlawful conspiracy under the Sherman Act."

B. & K. HEARINGS OFF UNTIL MARCH

The hearing on all pending motions in the Chicago independents' suit against Balaban & Katz and the majors, charging violation of the federal anti-trust laws, has been postponed by Federal Judge James Wilkerson to March 7th, when the majors are expected to move for dismissal.

The Government's Chicago suit against the majors will have a hearing Friday before Federal Judge Woodward, who will rule on the majors' petition for a bill of particulars.

In dealing with the copyright phase of the case, the court laid down the doctrine that copyright owners and patentees do not enjoy the same privileges, holding that "because a patentee has power to control the price at which his licensee may sell the patented article, it does not follow that the owner of a copyright can dictate that other pictures may not be shown with the licensed film or the admission price which shall be paid for an entertainment which includes features other than the particular picture licensed.

"Granted that each distributor, in the protection of his own copyright monopoly, was free to impose the present restrictions upon his licensees," the opinion declared, "we are nevertheless of the opinion that they were not free to use their copyrights as implements for restraining commerce in order to protect Interstate's motion picture theatre monopoly by suppressing competition with it.

"Undue Restraint" Cited

"The case is not one of the mere restriction of competition between the first showing of a copyrighted film by Interstate and a subsequent showing of the same film by a licensee of the copyright owner," Justice Stone commented.

"The contract, when applied to the situation existing in the four Texas cities, had a more extensive effect. . . . The patent effect of the contract was to impose an undue restraint both as to the admission price and the character of the exhibition upon competing theatre businesses habitually exhibiting the competitive pictures of different copyright owners. . . .

"A contract between a copyright owner and one who has no copyright, restraining the competitive distribution of the copyrighted articles in the open market in order to protect the latter from the competition, can no more be valid than a like agreement between two copyright owners or patentees. In either case if the contract is effective, as it was here, competition is suppressed and the possibility of its resumption precluded by force of the contract. An agreement illegal because it suppresses competition is not any less so because the competitive article is copyrighted. The fact that the restraint is made easier or more effective by making the copyright subservient to the contract does not relieve it of illegality."

All told, the court held, the restrictions imposed on the subsequent-run exhibitors were "harsh and arbitrary," and there was no testimony that the exhibitors received benefits which offset the disadvantages under which they were placed and "the effect was a drastic suppression of competition and an oppressive price maintenance of benefit to Interstate and the distributors but injurious alike to Interstate's subsequent-run competitors and to the public.

"The benefit, at such a cost does not justify the restraint," Justice Stone said. "It does not appear that the competition at which they were aimed was unfair or abnormal. The consequence of the price restriction, though more oppressive, is comparable with the effect of resale price maintenance agreements, which have been held to be unreasonable restraints in violation of the Sherman Act.

"We think the conclusion is unavoidable that the conspiracy and each contract between Interstate and the distributors by which those consequences were effected are violations of the Sherman Act and that the District Court rightfully enjoined enforcement and renewal of these agreements, as well as of the conspiracy among the distributors."

Assailing the stand taken by the majority, Justice Roberts held that not only had the Government failed to prove conspiracy but that the distributors were granted the right by the copyright laws to protect their investment by fixing the conditions under which their copyrighted material could be used.

Minority Opinion Quoted

Interstate is the largest first-run exhibitor in Texas, it was pointed out, and pays the highest license fees. Accordingly, Justice Roberts contended, the distributors "naturally hope to protect themselves and their licensees from the destruction of the good will and drawing power of these feature films in their first runs. In an effort to accomplish this, by requiring minimum admission charges and prohibiting double billing in subsequent runs of feature pictures, they may, of course, narrow the opportunity of second run houses to obtain feature pictures."

On the other hand, he continued, the distributors might have granted exclusive licenses to Interstate, which would not have constituted conspiracy.

"I am of opinion that the restrictions in the licenses of second run exhibitors were not unreasonable restraints of commerce under the Sherman Act," he said. "There is no contention that the action of the distributor defendants discourage competition between them either for the business of Interstate or for that of subsequent run licensees. The restrictions upon the latter were not intended to increase license fees paid by them or those paid by Interstate; they were imposed to prevent destruction of the good will which made possible the continued exhibition of first run features pictures and to avoid decrease of the revenue from those pictures then and theretofore enjoyed under licenses to Interstate and other first run feature exhibitors.

Admission Clause Defended

"It is settled that the distributor defendants could lawfully stipulate with their licensees, whether first run or subsequent run, as to the admission price to be paid by patrons and that, so to do, would not be a violation of the Sherman Act. But it is said that if, in order to protect its earnings from first run licenses by enabling its licensees to pay the demanded consideration, the distributor agrees to restrict in anywise the exhibition of the same feature by a subsequent run exhibitor he has violated the anti-trust law. In the nature of things this cannot be true. * * *

"The Government stresses the fact that each of the exhibitors must have acted with knowledge that some or all of the others would grant or had granted Interstate's demand," he concluded. "But such knowledge was merely notice to each of them that if it was successfully to compete for the first run business in important Texas cities it must meet the terms of competing distributors or lose the business of Interstate."

ALLIED SUBMITS TRADE PROGRAM; THEN WARNS IT MAY WITHDRAW

Threatens About-Face Following North Dakota Legislators' Vote to Repeal State's Theatre "Divorcement" Law

Complete text of Allied States Association's draft of its proposals to the distributors for the revision of trade practices appears in this issue, starting on page 54.

Charging the major companies with attempting to disorganize independent exhibitor forces by creating new issues to draw attention from the long-pending trade practice program, Allied States Association this week issued a sharp warning to the majors that unless a "more cooperative" attitude is adopted, Allied will consider abandoning self-regulation negotiations entirely and engage vigorously in a drive for legislative restrictions against the majors.

Follows North Dakota Action

Allied's views were made public Tuesday by Abram F. Myers, general counsel, in Washington, simultaneously with the release of Allied's version of a program, copies of which were sent to counsel for the distributors in New York last week, as written by Mr. Myers.

Apparently intent on proceeding with negotiations when it submitted its program, Allied later threatened a complete about-face when, over the weekend, North Dakota legislators voted to repeal the Allied-sponsored theatre "divorcement" law in that state. Disturbed by this most unexpected action—coming as all sides were awaiting a U. S. Supreme Court test on the law's constitutionality—Mr. Myers charged openly that it was a "coup" accomplished through the "effectiveness of the producers' lobby." (The North Dakota divorcement action is reported on page 12.)

Mr. Myers declared that "the efforts to repeal the North Dakota theatre divorcement law and other activities behind our backs while engaged in the trade program negotiations make us wonder whether we had better not cage the dove of peace and renew the fight," because, "we are not well enough manned to cover both fronts, and it will have to be one or the other."

More Developments

Other developments of the week presented possibilities of further interruptions to trade pact negotiations, Broadway hearing whispered reports that the majors themselves might consider other arrangements in view of the United States Supreme Court's sweeping decision of Monday holding unlawful any contractual restrictions placed on subsequent run exhibitors by majors at the behest of prior runs. (See page 12.)

Mr. Myers' draft of what Allied desires in a trade program, as he submitted it to the majors' lawyers, shows that the organization still is openly opposed to a number of the proposals made by the distributors in their original draft, which the majors' attorneys have been revising to conform to the suggestions of the Motion Picture Theatre Owners of America and some state exhibitor organizations.

Calls Concessions Insufficient

"The distributors made it plain that their draft contained the maximum concessions that they would yield, and those only (a) Revisions of language to express more clearly the intent of their proposals and (b) that the principles and mechanics of arbitration were open for discussion," Mr. Myers explained.

"As regards Proposal No. V (Runs and Existing Customers) the way was left open for suggestions which might affect in some degree the substance of the distributors' draft. By invitation of the general counsel for the several distributors, the general counsel of Allied has prepared a draft, within the limitations thus imposed.

"The way not being open to make Proposal No. II (Trade Announcement) effective without enlarging the substance of the distributors' draft, Allied suggests that it be omitted. The proposal makes no change in the existing practice and the distributor representatives freely admitted that under it their announcements would be no more binding than they now are. It will not increase the confidence of the exhibitors or the public in the proposals to incorporate a meaningless provision purporting to deal with so controverted an issue as blind selling."

On Non-Theatricals

Allied also suggested the elimination of proposal No. IX, dealing with non-theatrical competition, because it casts on the exhibitor the onus of initiating an arbitration proceeding to cut off a particular non-theatrical account and because it is felt the specific enumeration of exceptions is calculated to promote rather than discourage non-theatricals.

"Revisions of Proposal No. V (Runs and Exchange Customers) presented a difficult problem and the results should be carefully scrutinized," Mr. Myers declared. "Allied committeemen protested that the conditions imposed by the distributors destroyed the provision. The distributors replied, in effect, that 'the intent was there' and that they would welcome suggestions for better expressing it. The difficulty was in clarifying the language so as to give effect to the declared purpose without incidentally affecting the substance of the proposal. Whether or not the revision goes beyond the intendment of the distributors will be determined in the discussions.

"Proposal No. XIII (Coercing Contracts) has been reinstated in the form originally proposed by Allied in the belief that this is the only form thus far devised that offers any effective relief from a serious abuse."

The virtues of the proposed revision of the substantive proposals, he asserted, are that the proposals are more briefly and simply stated, the conditions imposed by the distributors to the rights conferred are set out so that the exhibitors cannot help seeing them, and terms familiar to the exhibitors have been substituted for the more technical terms.

"The distributors' draft contained no definite statement of the principles or details of the mechanics of arbitration," Mr. Myers said in touching upon what is probably a major feature of the negotiations. "It being our understanding that the door was open for suggestions on all phases of arbitration, the author of the draft has exercised a wide latitude in this connection. These features were not gone into during the discussions.

"These proposals have been submitted by invitation, merely as a basis for discussion, are binding on no one and does not embody all of the proposals made by Allied during the negotiations," he concluded.

Theatre Campaign Winners Chosen

Fifteen winners in the competition among theatre managers for the best exploitation campaigns in connection with the Motion Picture's Greatest Year drive were announced Wednesday at a luncheon attended by advertising representatives from all major companies and trade publication representatives, at the Hotel Astor, New York.

Competition for the awards was divided into three classifications with identical prizes awarded the first five winners in each group. The groupings were: situations of 100,000 population over; situations of 15,000 to 100,000 population, and situations of less than 15,000 population.

The cash prizes for each classification were: First, $500; second, $100; third, $50; fourth, $25, and fifth, $25.

The winners in group one were: First, E. V. Dinerman, RKO Theatres, Cincinnati; second, Wally Caldwell, Loew's Valentine, Toledo; third, William O'Donnell, representative Interstate Circuit, San Antonio; fourth, Messrs. Stallman, Glase Peters and Keaney, Promotion Committee, Reading; fifth, Charles Taylor, Buffalo Theatres, Buffalo.

Winners in the second grouping were: First, Loew's Poli Theatre, Bridgeport; second, Frank Shaffer, Harrisonburg Theatre, Harrisonburg, Va.; third, George F. Sharp, Fox Wilson Theatre, Fresno, Cal.; fourth, J. David Jones, Kerasotes Theatre, Springfield, Ill.; fifth, R. E. England, Virginia Theatre, Charleston, W. Va.

Third group winners were: First, S. E. Schwahn, Granada Theatre, Lawrence, Kan.; second, Alvin Sloan, Washington, N. J.; third, Robert E. Bryant, Capitol Theatre, Rock Hill, S. C.; fourth, Henry A. Brownlee, Ritz & New Theatres, Russellville, Ark.; fifth, Hollis Wood, Brawley Theatre, Brawley, Cal.

Wins Injunction In Clearance Case

A temporary injunction to an independent theatre operator, restraining Twentieth Century-Fox from discriminating against it in favor of neighboring theatre of a large circuit operator, was granted last week by Peter Daly, New York supreme court justice, in Queens country.

Justice Daly ruled in favor of Jupo Amusements, Inc., operator of the Polk theatre, Jackson Heights, restraining the major company from giving clearance to Harry Brandt's Colony theatre. Trial was set for March 6th.

Frank Moscato, a principal in the operating company for the Polk, charged that his contract with 20th Century-Fox calls for the release of pictures to the Polk, with "no protection." The contract, he asserted, says, "as available." This was lived up to, Mr. Moscato said, for the first 16 pictures, which he played before, after and some day-and-date with Mr. Brandt's theatre. Then, he charged, the distributing company started giving clearance to the Colony.

MGM FOLLOWS ZANUCK OFF THE AIR; FCC REORGANIZATION BILL IS FILED

Wheeler Measure Calls for Three-Man Commission; New Research Unit Would Handle Complaints

Congress this week took definite heed of President Roosevelt's demand of three weeks ago to reorganize the Federal Communications Commission for "a more satisfactory" department. Senator Burton K. Wheeler (Dem., Mont.), moved for reorganization of the FCC, a change of its title, reduction of the number of commissioners from seven to three and otherwise to "clean house." Senator Wheeler is chairman of the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee.

Confers with McNinch

Introduction of the measure followed conferences between the Senator and FCC Chairman Frank R. McNinch. To a considerable extent the new bill embodies the views of Chairman McNinch, but in many Congressional quarters a three-man board is considered too small.

The FCC reorganization bill does not attempt to modify the Communications Act of 1934, it being explained by Senator Wheeler that, later in the session, he will introduce additional legislation.

Under the legislation just prepared, all powers of the FCC would be transferred to the new commission, the three members of which would be appointed by the President for initial terms of two, four and six years, appointments thereafter being for six-year terms. The President would designate the chairman, as at present, and the salary of members would be $10,000 a year, also as at present.

The entire board would be required to participate in the making of final decisions in contested cases involving the taking of testimony at public hearings.

On Temporary Basis

All the present FCC employees—not Commissioners—would be transferred to the new board, but on a temporary basis for the first 60 days which might be continued to a period of not more than four months, enabling the new commissioners to release any and all employees whom they did not desire to retain. Employees are placed under the Civil Service Act with the exception of attorneys and certain other key positions.

Several new positions would be created, among them those of administrative assistant for broadcasting and chief of a new department of research and information.

The proposed department of research and information would have many duties, among them the analysis of listener responses.

FCC Turns to Mutual In Probe of Radio

Taking up the last of the three national radio networks to be examined in its investigation of monopoly in broadcasting, the Federal Communications Commission committee last week explored the growth and activities of Mutual Broadcasting System.

NBC and CBS have acquired a practical monopoly of chain broadcasting in many of the principal U. S. markets, the committee was told by Fred Weber, general manager of Mutual, who testified that MBS expansion is being severely retarded by its inability to secure assured outlets in important cities.

Because it cannot guarantee advertisers adequate coverage during the best evening hours, he said, several important sponsors who originally used Mutual have abandoned it for other networks.

ENFORCE RADIO CODE WON BY STRIKE THREAT

The American Federation of Radio Artists' code of practices, hours, and wages went into effect at 12:01 A.M., Sunday morning, with more than 50 major advertising agencies booking talent for sponsored air programs. It marked radio's first completely "closed shop".

Mutual was founded in 1934 when Station WGN, which had been affiliated, first with NBC and later with Columbia, found itself in need of network programs and learned that Station WOR was in the same position, it was explained by E. M. Antrim, secretary and treasurer. With two other stations which had programs all four were willing to take the net was started, growing steadily and reaching coast-to-coast status in December, 1936. At the present time, MBS provides programs for 110 stations.

The company, which is a non-profit organization paying no dividends and using any surplus for improvement of service, was financed by $5,000 contributed equally by WGN and WOR—and pays 4 per cent interest on the money—which between them own all of the 15 shares of stock that comprises Mutual's sole issue of securities, Mr. Antrim said.

Three classes of membership are provided in the system, he continued. The only "member" stations are WGN and WOR, which underwrite expenses, four of the regional networks are "participating" members, contributing $3,775 a month for service and bearing their own wire line charges, and the other stations are "affiliated," paying 3½ per cent of the station net after agency commissions.

On its part, Mutual provides sustaining programs and adheres to the stations' rate cards. Unlike the other national chains, it operates no artists bureau or engineering staff.

Broader Market for French Films, Says Umansky, Sailing

A. Umansky, well known Paris theatre operator, who has been in America for the last six weeks studying American exhibition conditions and possible outlets for French pictures, sailed on the S. S. Paris Saturday.

He said his survey of industry conditions in the principal cities of the east has convinced him that there is a much broader market in this country for French pictures than has yet been explored. The reception which he found had been given by the American exhibitor and public to "Grand Illusion" and "Heart of Paris" and other French productions leads him to believe that foreign pictures, French pictures in particular, please a sector of the American public more than many American pictures.

Mr. Umansky expects to return to New York within the next few months with definite plans for French picture distribution.

Metro's Business Is with Exhibitors, Says Rodgers as Company Determines to Withdraw Stars July 1st

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer this week formally announced that on July 1st it will discontinue participation in nationwide sponsored air programs, "in deference to the wishes of theatre owners" who protest against the excessive air appearances of film stars, particularly. The company was the second to act in three weeks, following the move of Darryl Zanuck, 20th Century-Fox producer, withdrawing that company's star, Tyrone Power.

"Accedes to Customers"

MGM's official pronouncement said its stars would be removed from the weekly Thursday night radio program, "Good News," sponsored by the Maxwell House Coffee concern.

"Although this radio presentation had reached top position in national popularity," the statement read, "Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer accedes to the opinion of its customers that the appearance of film stars on the air is in direct competition to theatre attendance."

William F. Rodgers, general sales manager of MGM commented that "since our business is with exhibitors, MGM in fairness to them, is taking this step to discourage radio participation by stars." He added that the company had had hundreds of messages of thanks from exhibitors.

The "Good News" program, for which MGM is reputedly receiving $25,000 per week to advertise coffee, regularly features Robert Young, Fannie Brice, and Frank Morgan. Other MGM stars who have been appearing are Norma Shearer, Clark Gable, Joan Crawford, Margaret Sullavan, James Stewart, Wallace Beery, Robert Taylor, Jeanette MacDonald, Lionel Barrymore and Myrna Loy.

While MGM originally set March 30th for the withdrawal, the date was extended to July 1st to allow time for General Foods to revise the show.

Mr. Zanuck was reported this week studying methods of readjusting existing players' contracts, to restrict their air appearances.

Myers Congratulates Zanuck

Mr. Zanuck also has received many favorable communications from exhibitors. Abram F. Myers, general counsel and chairman of Allied States Association, telegraphed that "gross receipts on Sunday sometimes equal from 60 to 80 per cent of the gross for the week and when an exhibitor paying 40 per cent for a picture on that day plays in opposition to the same star on the radio, he can scarcely make his expenses."

One hundred Allied owners in Illinois wired appreciations Wednesday to Mr. Zanuck. New Jersey Allied also voted approval.

A New York newspaper radio columnist pointed out the retirement of Ronald Colman from the air, mentioning however, that Mr. Colman did so of his own volition, not being under contract to any movie studio at present. Mr. Colman had appeared on the Sunday evening "Circle" program, over Station WEAF.

John Royal, NBC vice-president, viewing the current agitation against appearances of screen players on the air, said "radio will be found at the same old stand doing business in the same old way" following the withdrawal of the last motion picture player.

COLUMBIA SIGNS

FRANK LLOYD

Distinguished Director of "Cavalcade," "Mutiny On The Bounty," "Wells Fargo," "If I Were King"...

TO PRODUCE AND DIRECT

"THE TREE OF LIBERTY"

Mighty patriotic novel by Elizabeth Page. Vivid and intensely dramatic story of America's beginning...her struggle for independence and the early years of THESE UNITED STATES.

IN THE CUTTING ROOM

Tarzan

(Tentative Title)

(MGM)

Jungle Adventure

This will be the first Tarzan picture from MGM in about two years. In the meantime, one was made and released by Sol Lesser. As in all the MGM Tarzans, Johnny Weissmuller and Maureen O'Sullivan will play the leading roles. Miss O'Sullivan has been seen lately in "A Yank at Oxford," "The Crowd Roars" and "Spring Madness." This is the last time she will be seen as the jungle-man's companion, in fact, the story calls for her to die. That MGM plans to carry on the Tarzan pictures, nevertheless, is seen in the creating of a Tarzan, Jr., role, a child of civilization, who becomes Tarzan's ward. This role has been assigned to five-year-old Johnny Sheffield, who makes his screen debut but was the youthful sensation of the recently revived stage play, "On Borrowed Time."

The "Tarzan" story is an action adventure thriller. The child, survivor of a plane crash, is cared for by Tarzan and his civilization-bred wife. The boy, heir to an estate, is sought by one party that he may claim his inheritance and by another that wishes to put him out of the way. Tarzan wants to keep him. His wife wishes to return him to civilization. She is unsuccessful and is killed. Both parties become lost, and Tarzan keeps the lad.

Among the most exciting thrill episodes will be Tarzan's rescue of the boy from a rhinoceros, the charge of the jungle man's elephants against the headhunters' village, and the melodramatic situation when the safari arrives to take the boy away. Comedy will be provided by the antics of Tarzan's chimpanzee, Cheete, and the antics of the beast's ten ape stooges.

Additional name value is represented by Ian Hunter, Frieda Inescourt, Henry Wilcoxon and Henry Stephenson.

The new Tarzan is being made by the same producer-director combination that was responsible for "Tarzan Escapes," Sam Zimbalist and Richard Thorpe. Since that release Zimbalist has produced "Navy Blue and Gold" and "The Crowd Roars," while Thorpe has directed "Double Wedding," "The Crowd Roars" and "Huckleberry Finn."

Release date: To be determined.

Society Smugglers

(Universal)

Crime Story

Name value in "Society Smugglers" will be represented by Preston Foster, Irene Hervey, Fred Keating, Walter Woolf King, Frank Jenks, Regis Toomey, Francis Robinson and Raymond Parker. With the exception of Miss Hervey and Toomey, all the players have been seen in several recent Universal pictures. Foster has been the detective star of the latest "Crime Club" productions.

The story has to do with the smuggling of gems from abroad. Basically, it is a mystery melodrama, but with considerable comedy and conflicting love interest. Smart smugglers have been giving the Customs and Treasury departments much trouble. A feminine employee of the department is planted in the suspected organization's office. She gets evidence, but in doing so she is led into romantic situations that arouse the jealousy of her boy friend superior.

Arthur T. Horman prepared the original screen play which Joe May is directing.

Release date: Feb. 24, 1939.

CITY SPENDING $27,500 FOR "PACIFIC" PREMIERE

Omaha has appropriated $27,500 as the city's share of the cost of a gala three-day celebration, highlighted by the world premiere there of Cecil B. DeMille's "Union Pacific." The picture will be released April 28th.

For three days the city will revert to the horse and buggy days of 1869 when Omaha was the starting point for the crews of Irish construction men who were pushing westward with the building of the Union Pacific Railroad. Merchants' retail associations will provide sunbonnets, beaver hats and other wearing apparel patterned after those worn by Barbara Stanwyck, Joel McCrea and other members of the cast of the Paramount film.

Detailed plans for the opening and celebration are being worked out by Cliff Lewis, studio advertising director; Ford E. Hovey, chairman of the Greater Omaha Association; Evert Cummings, district manager of Tri-States Theatres, and E. C. Schmidt, public relations director of Union Pacific Railroad, with the cooperation of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce.

Mexicali Rose

(Republic)

Action Adventure

While this picture will have an action adventure background, it will not be a typical Gene Autry western picture. From chasing cattle rustlers, the number one western star turns to the pursuit of fake oil promoters, with the customary thrill and excitement.

When Gene and Smiley Burnette, cast as entertainers on an oil company radio program, become aware they are partners to a fraud, they quit and set out to expose the fakers. Then come melodrama, romance and comedy. Other names values are Luana Walters, William Royle, Leroy Mason, Burt Caruth, Wally Albright and Henry Otho.

The title, also the name of a well known Mexican ballad which will be sung by Autry several times, has exploitation importance.

The picture is being directed by George Herman, who has made several of Autry's most popular pictures.

Release date: To be determined.

Man About Town

(Paramount)

Comedy-Romance

Breezy comedy in dialogue, situations and characterizations, a story of mixed-up romance and music will be the entertainment substance of "Man about Town." The major locale is England, but all that happens is typically American. Jack Benny tangles with titled London society and society comes off second best. With his colored stooge, "Rochester," acting as Cupid, the irrepressible Benny moves from one hilarious escapade to another to attract Dorothy Lamour's attention.

Benny is very much in the public eye at the moment. Top flight radio performer, his latest picture, "Artists and Models Abroad," is being played in a great many theatres. The supporting cast also is important. Dorothy Lamour is in "St. Louis Blues." Edward Arnold is in "Idiot's Delight," and Eddie Anderson (Rochester) has been in several pictures lately as well as being prominent on the Jello program, as is Phil Harris. Other players listed are Binnie Barnes, featured in several 20th Century-Fox films, Monte Wooley, Herbert Evans, Clifford Severn and Cyril Thornton.

The picture, based on an original screen play by Morrie Ryskind, is an Arthur Hornblow production being directed by Mark Sandrich.

Release date: May 26, 1939 (tentative).

Picardy Max

(RKO Radio)

Dog Story

"Picardy Max" is a dog, and the part is played by Ace, grandson of the famous canine actor, Strongheart, and remembered for his appearances in "Blind Alibi," "Two in Revolt" and "A Dog of Flanders." He is the hero, though, of course, human beings do the things that permit him to become a hero.

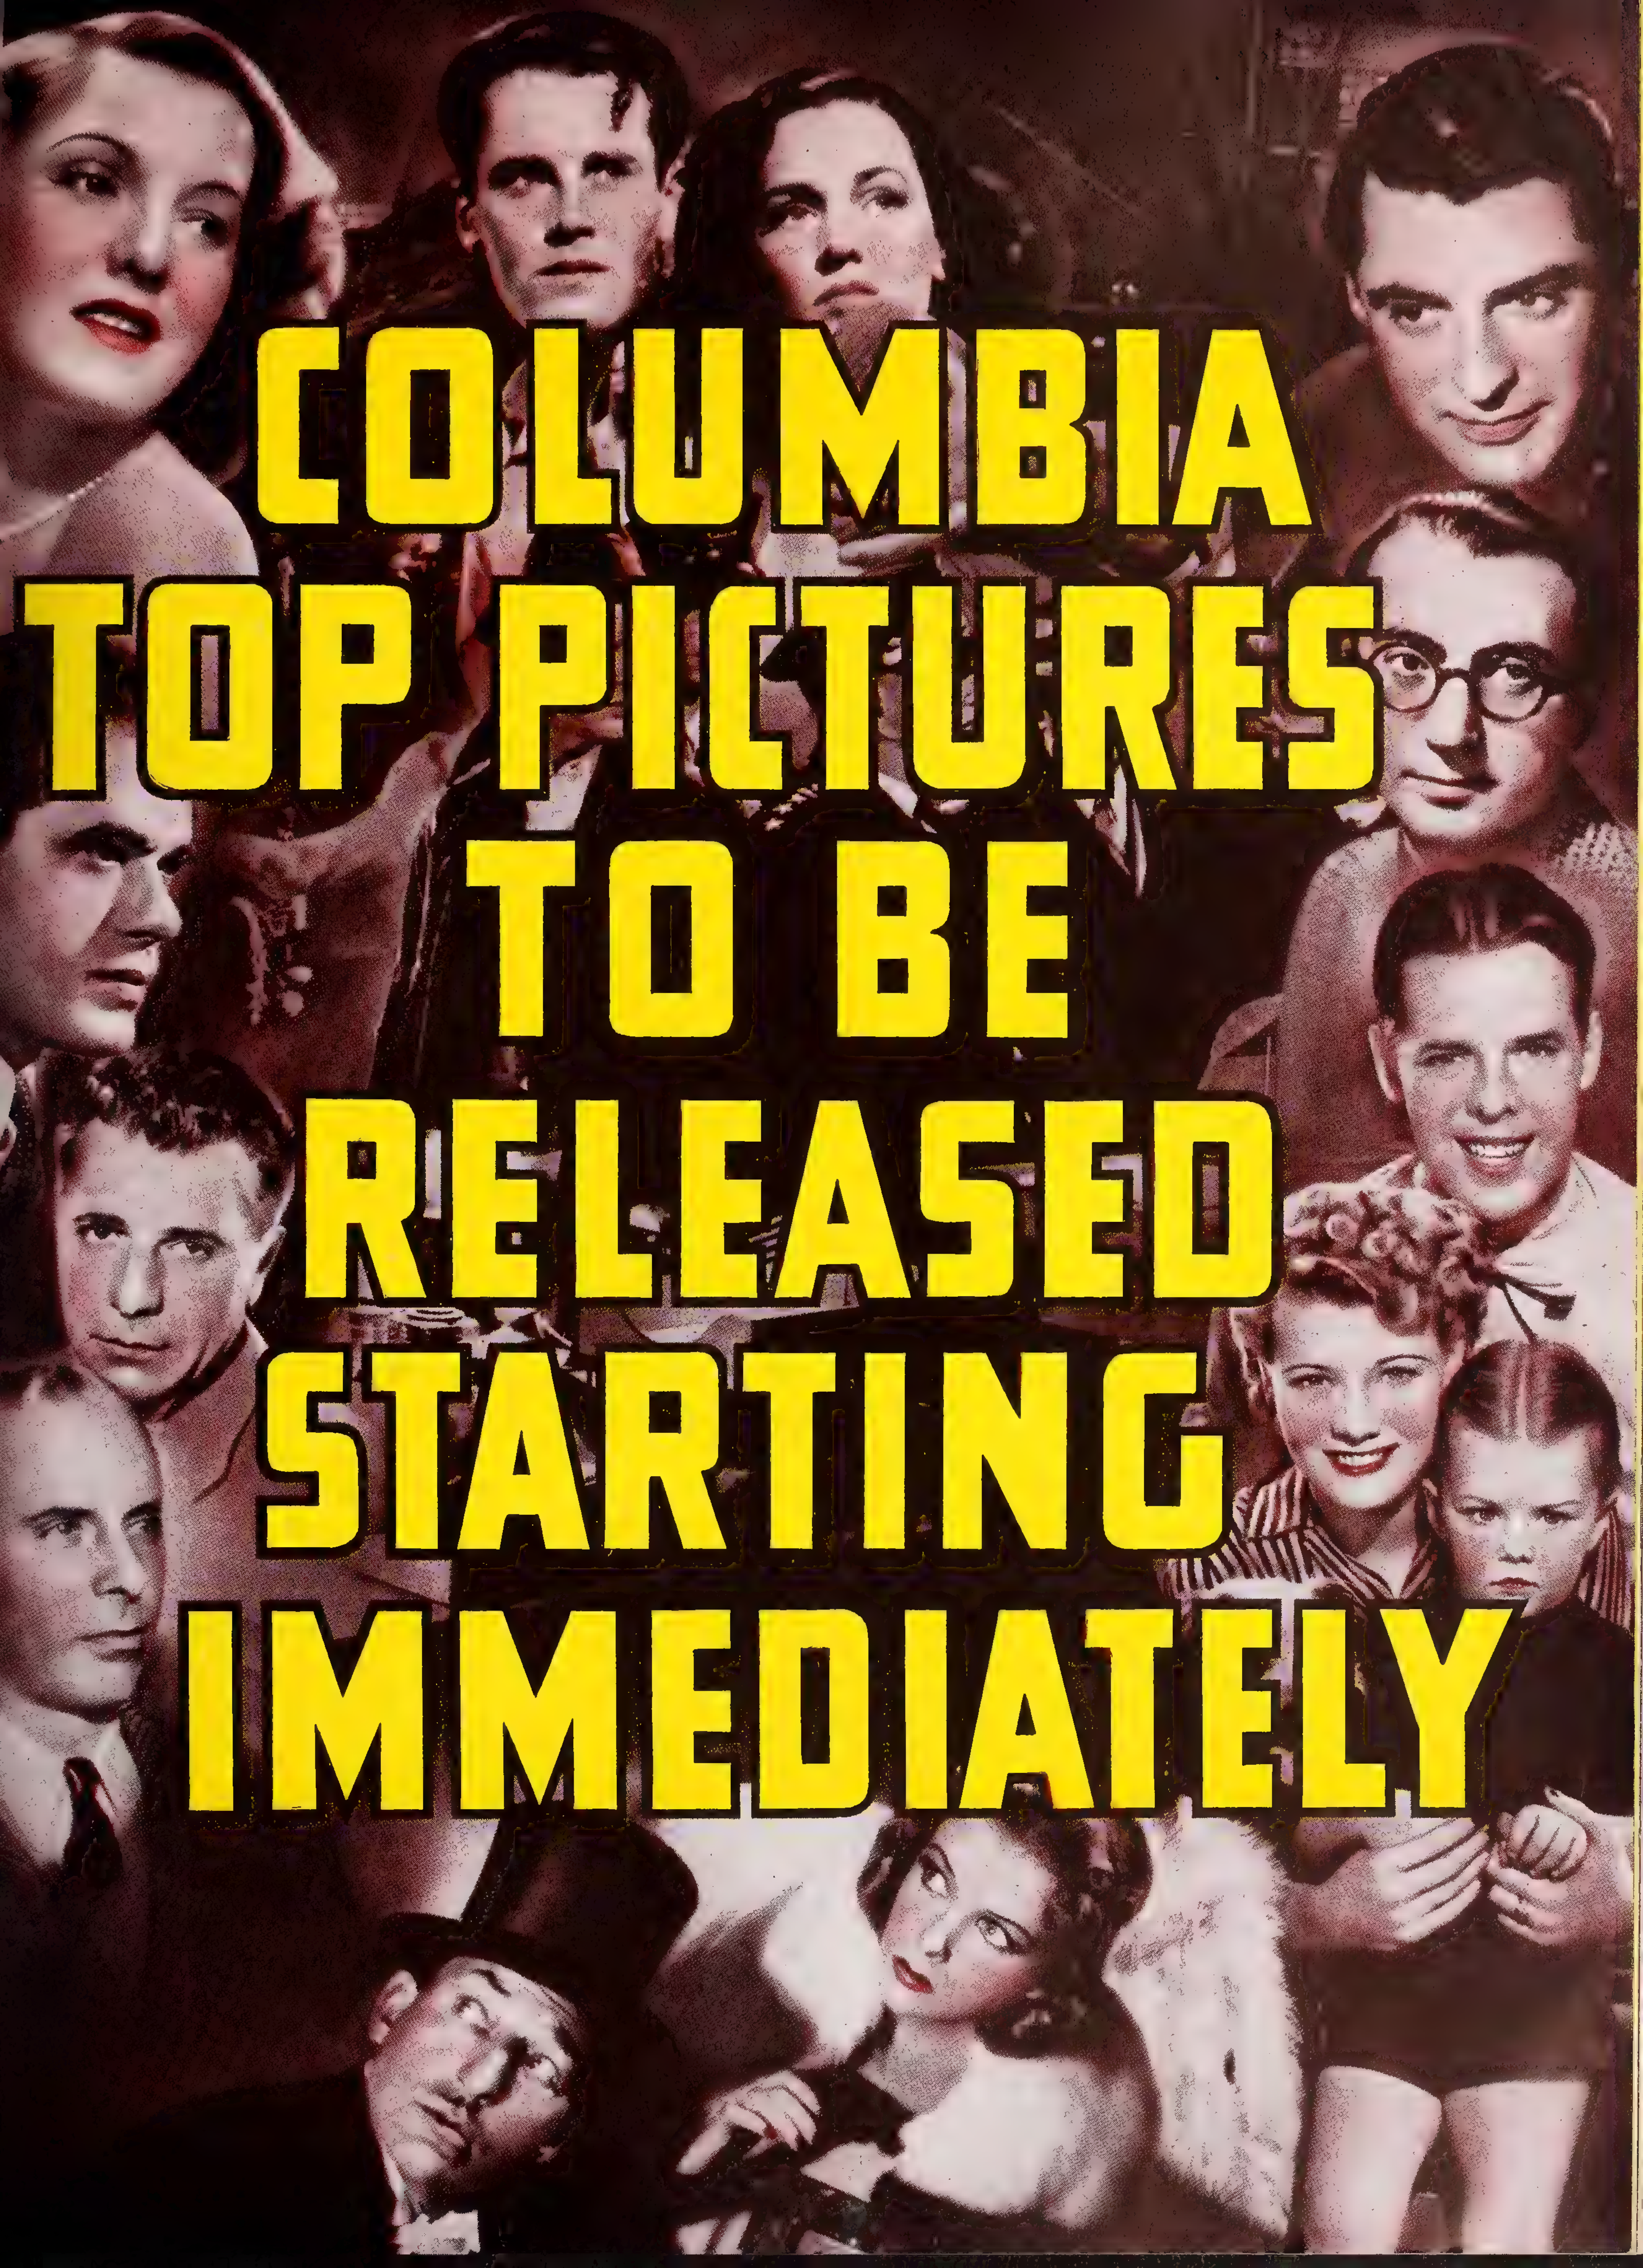
Because the woman whom he married is forced to divorce him by her influential family, the man vows revenge. Coming into possession of a dog which has been ordered destroyed by those who wrecked his professional and romantic career, the man trains the dog to become a trailer. There is no competition, but when a man is found dead with his throat lacerated, the dog is accused of murder. His master defends him and wins. Meanwhile the ex-wife is kidnapped, but the dog captures the kidnapers.

James Ellison will be seen as the dog's master. June Clayworth will be the woman he was forced to divorce and Helen Wood the woman who opens the doors to new romance and happiness. Supporting players include Robert Kent, Robert Warwick, Leonard Penn, John Wray, Brandon Tynan, Earl Hodgins and Harlan Briggs.

Release date: To be determined.

Disney Signs Stokowski

Walt Disney has signed Leopold Stokowski, conductor of the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra, to a long term contract, to direct and record music for a forthcoming Disney full length concert feature. Deems Taylor, music commentator, will be the technical advisor and narrator.



COLUMBIA
TOP PICTURES TO BE RELEASED
STARTING
IMMEDIATELY

Realism SINCERE . . . STIRRING . . . VITAL!

The magnificent drama of two plain, honest kids who wanted only to live and love, but who found the eyes of a brutal world turned upon them accusingly! Millions of plain, honest Americans will weep . . . and laugh . . . with them—and love them!

LET US LIVE

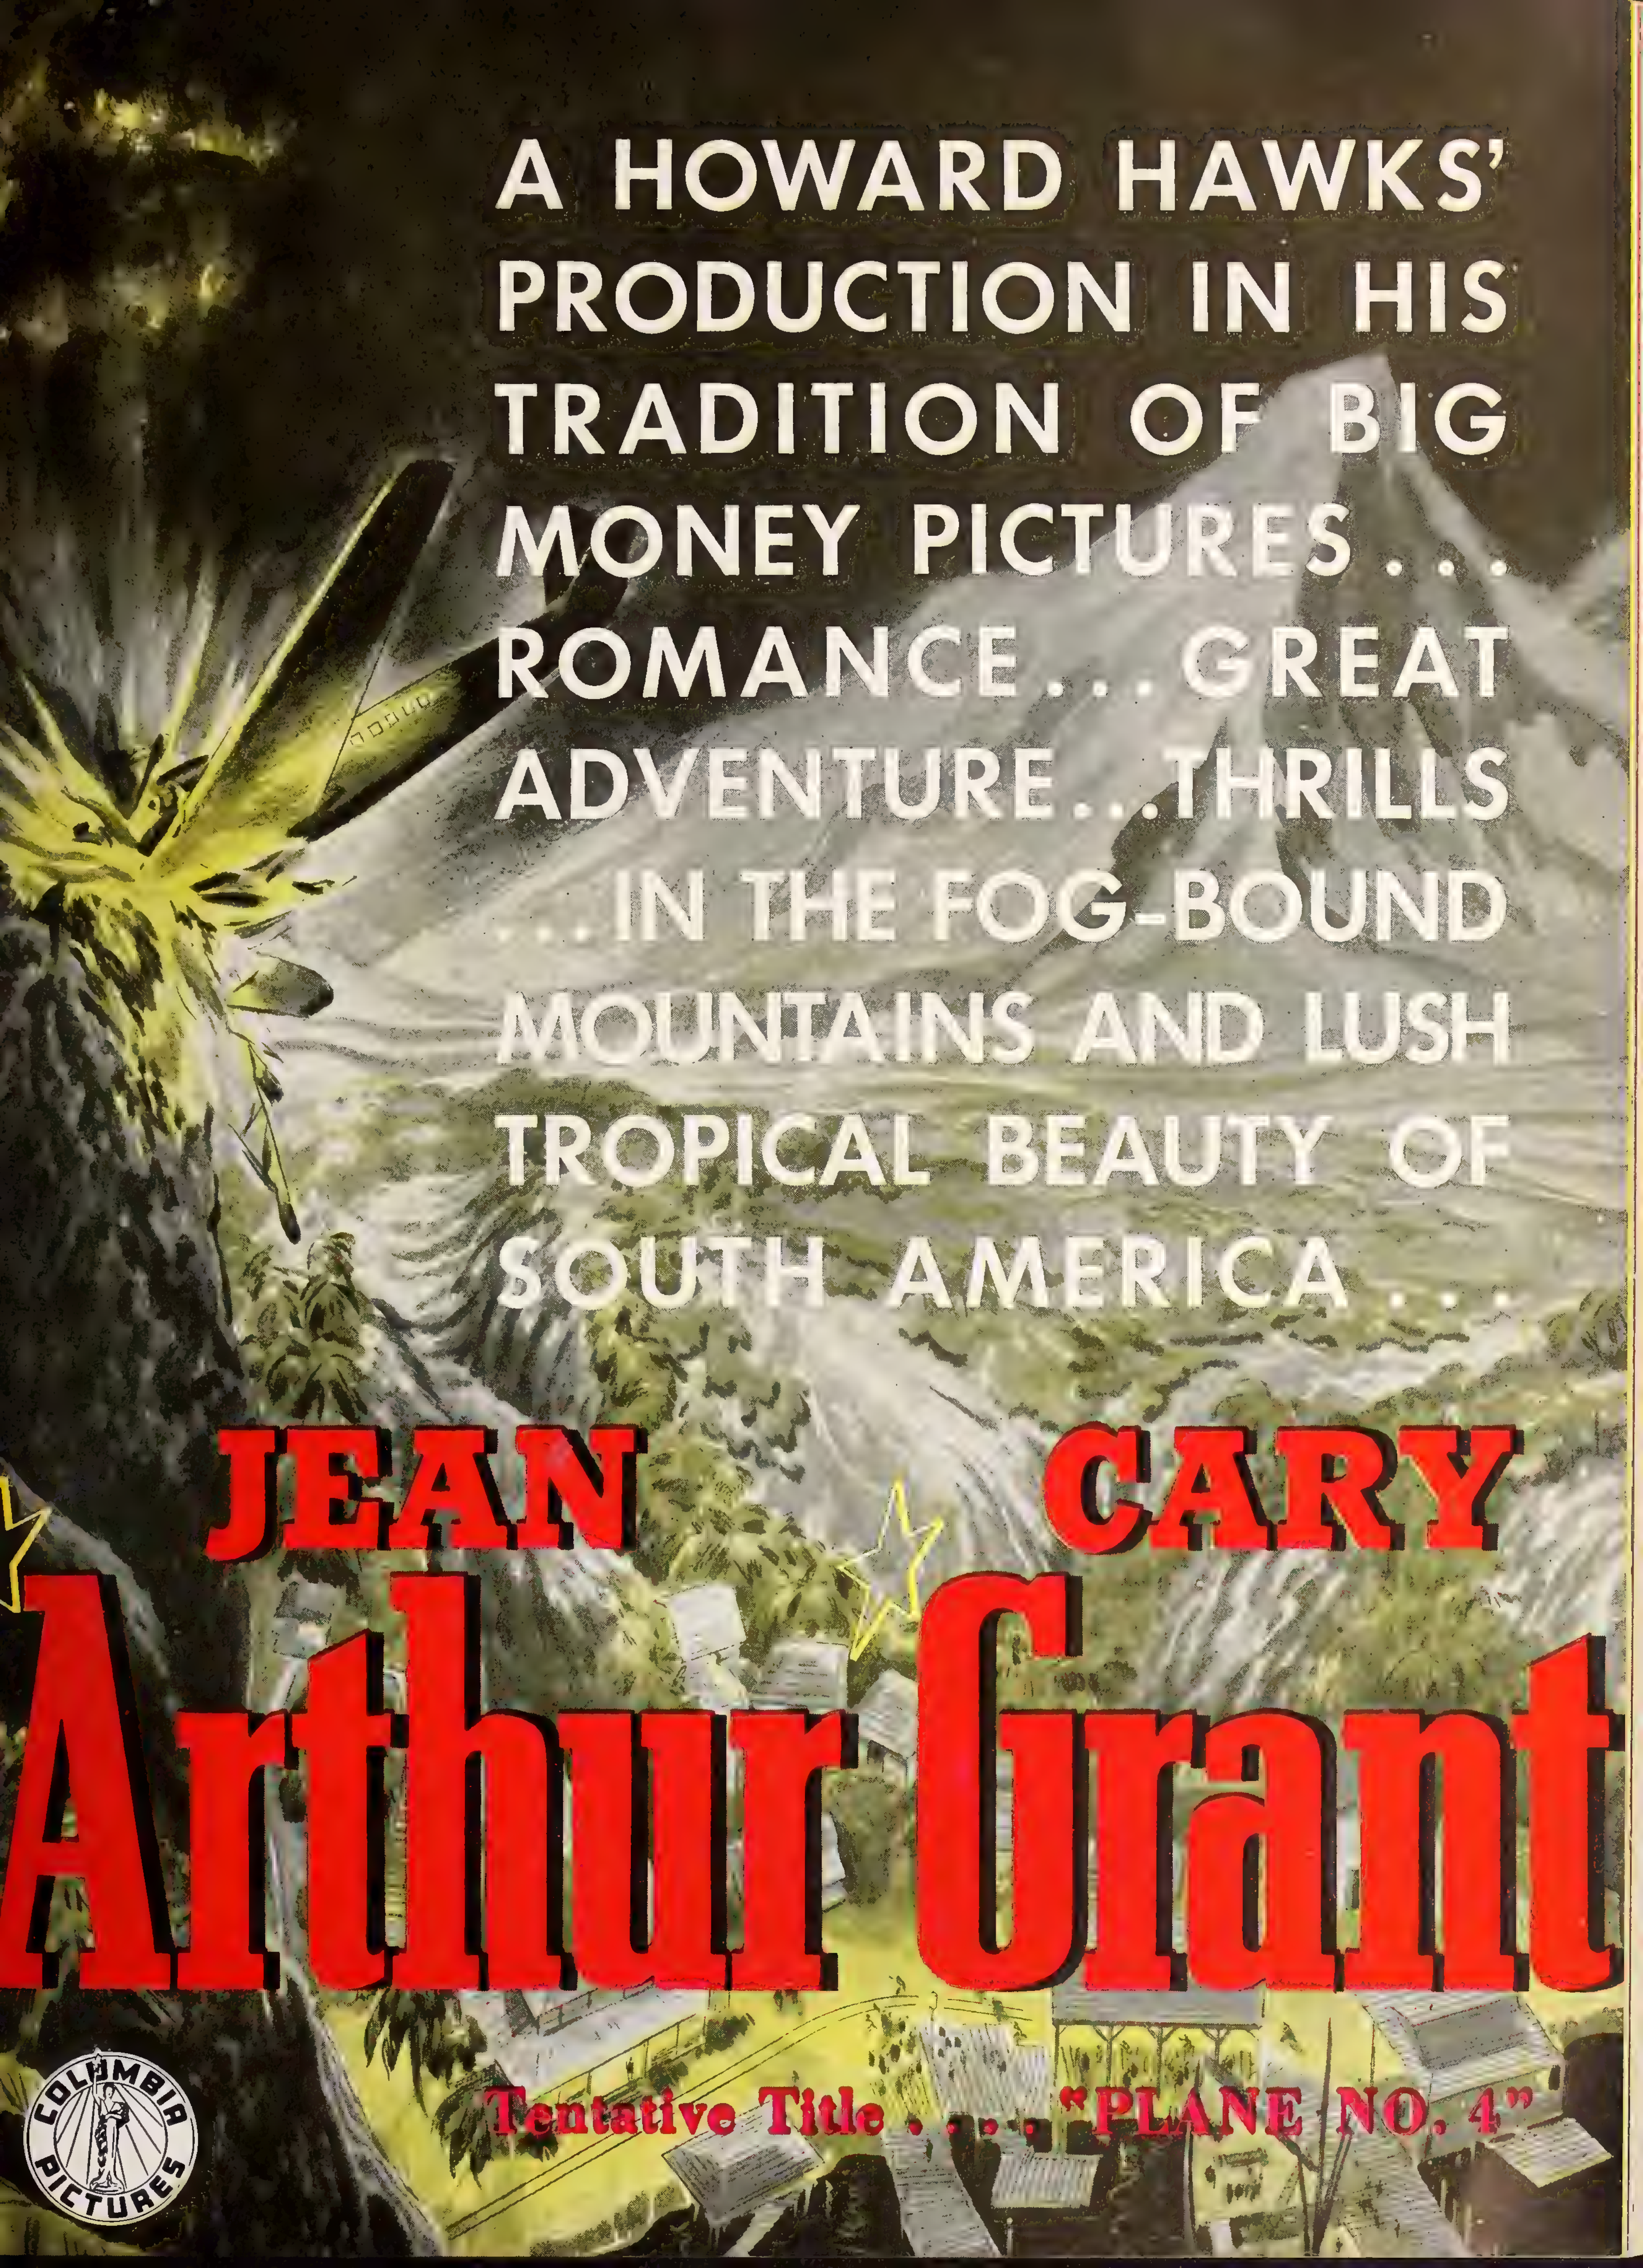
MAUREEN O'SULLIVAN · HENRY FONDA · RALPH BELLAMY

ALAN BAXTER · STANLEY RIDGES · HENRY KOLKER

Screen play by ANTHONY VEILLER and ALLEN RIVKIN

Based upon a story by JOSEPH F. DINNEEN • Produced by William Perlberg

Directed by JOHN BRAHM • A COLUMBIA PICTURE



A HOWARD HAWKS' PRODUCTION IN HIS TRADITION OF BIG MONEY PICTURES . . . ROMANCE . . . GREAT ADVENTURE . . . THRILLS . . . IN THE FOG-BOUND MOUNTAINS AND LUSH TROPICAL BEAUTY OF SOUTH AMERICA . . .

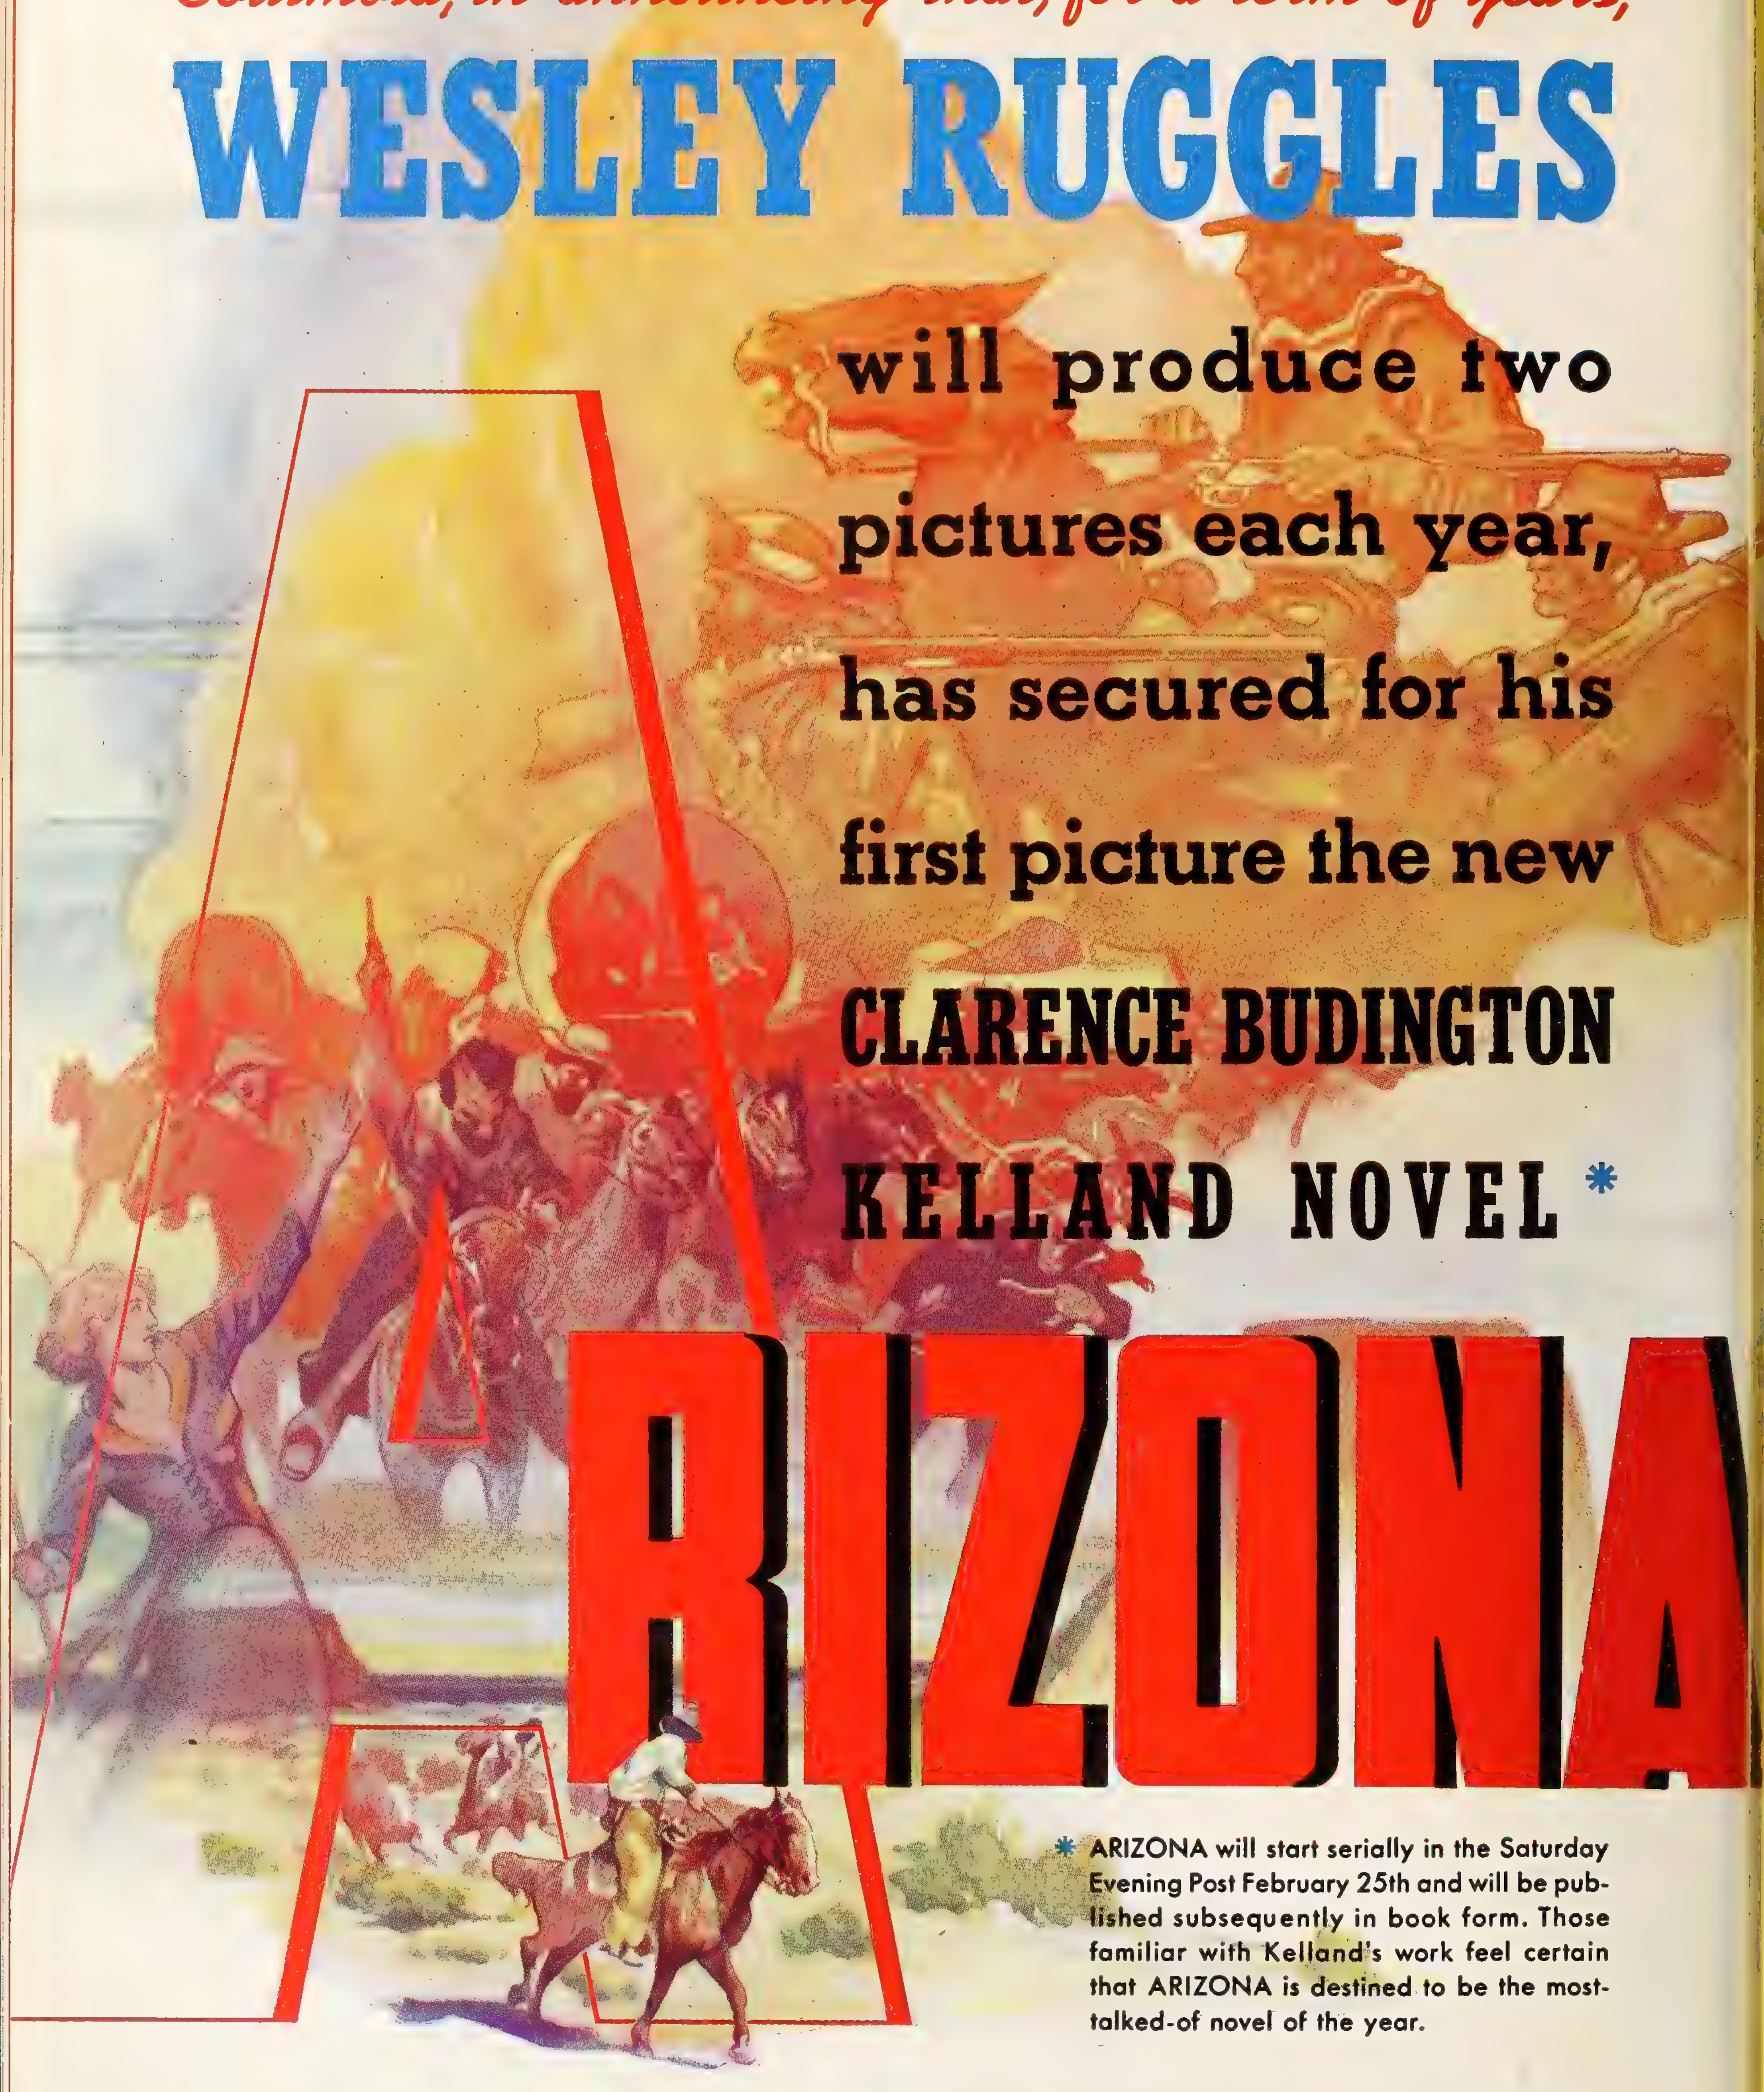
JEAN Arthur CARY Grant

COLUMBIA PICTURES

Tentative Title . . . . "PLANE NO. 4"

Columbia, in announcing that, for a term of years,

WESLEY RUGGLES



will produce two pictures each year, has secured for his first picture the new CLARENCE BUDINGTON KELLAND NOVEL *

ARIZONA

* ARIZONA will start serially in the Saturday Evening Post February 25th and will be published subsequently in book form. Those familiar with Kelland's work feel certain that ARIZONA is destined to be the most-talked-of novel of the year.

A STIRRING EPIC-SWEEPING PICTURE
SURPASSING IN SCOPE RUGGLES' OWN GREAT "CIMARRON"

ONE OF THE TRULY GREAT STAGE SUCCESSES OF RECENT YEARS!

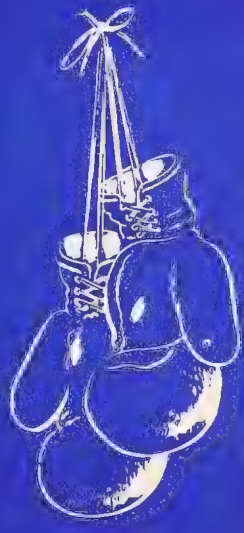
GOLDEN

BOY



A Rouben Mamoulian
Production
Based Upon The Noted Group Theatre Play
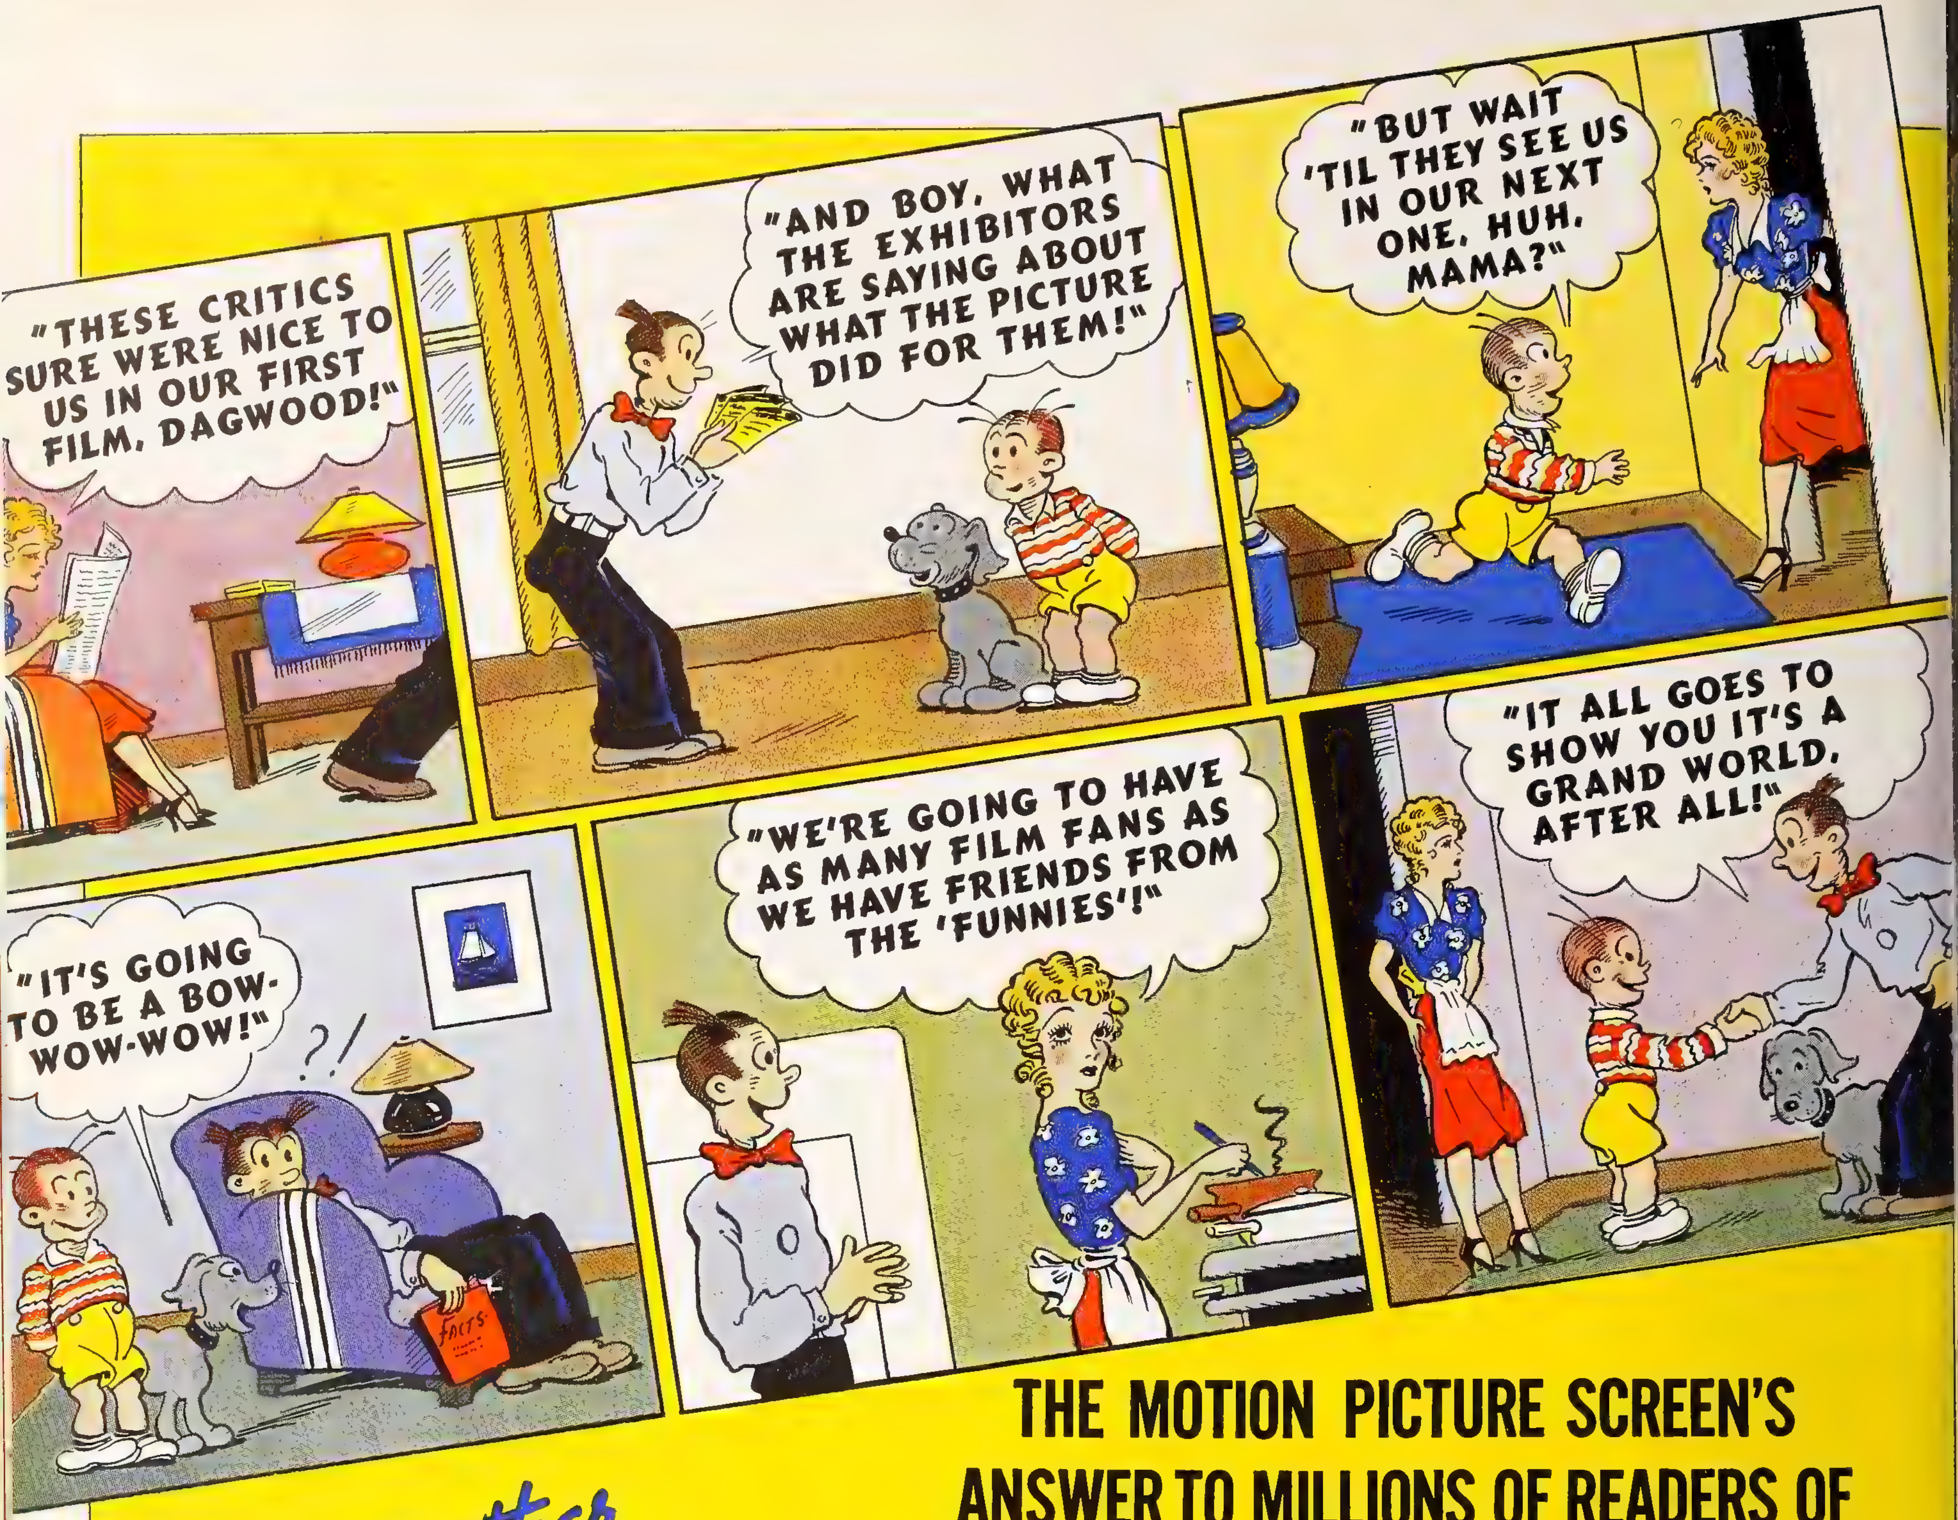
by Clifford Odets

COLUMBIA PICTURES



"THESE CRITICS SURE WERE NICE TO US IN OUR FIRST FILM, DAGWOOD!"
"AND BOY, WHAT THE EXHIBITORS ARE SAYING ABOUT WHAT THE PICTURE DID FOR THEM!"
"BUT WAIT 'TIL THEY SEE US IN OUR NEXT ONE, HUH, MAMA?"
"IT'S GOING TO BE A BOW-WOW-WOW!"
?!
FACTS
"WE'RE GOING TO HAVE AS MANY FILM FANS AS WE HAVE FRIENDS FROM THE 'FUNNIES'!"
"IT ALL GOES TO SHOW YOU IT'S A GRAND WORLD, AFTER ALL!"

THE MOTION PICTURE SCREEN'S ANSWER TO MILLIONS OF READERS OF THE GREAT "BLONDIE" COMIC STRIP!

The Further Adventures of the Bumsteads!

BLONDIE MEETS THE BOSS

Based upon the Comic Strip created by CHIC YOUNG

with

SKINNAY ENNIS AND HIS BAND

Screen play by Richard Flournoy · Directed by FRANK R. STRAYER

A Columbia Picture

BLONDIE as portrayed by PENNY SINGLETON

DAGWOOD as portrayed by ARTHUR LAKE

BABY DUMPLING as portrayed by LARRY SIMMS

DAISY as portrayed by HERSELF

YOU have asked for this kind of a picture . . . A unique comedy-drama inspired by real showmanship! A story punctuated by laughs and action built on the grand idea of a society matron who mops up a mob! She finds out about machine guns only to turn them to her purpose!

THE LADY AND THE MOB

FAY BAINTER · IDA LUPINO · LEE BOWMAN · HENRY ARMETTA

A Columbia Picture

THE MOST IMPORTANT NEWS OF THE YEAR!

FRANK CAPRA'S

MR. SMITH GOES TO WASHINGTON

Screen play by Sidney Buchman

COLUMBIA PICTURES

Sold exclusive from any Columbia group

PRINTED IN U.S.A.

"ONE BIG UNION" IDEA SPLITS ACTORS; GUILD POSITION IN MANAGERS' FIGHT

"Casuals" Must Be Dropped from Actors' Guild So Professionals Can Earn Living, Says Kenneth Thomson

Formation of "one big union" for all actors "cannot be stopped, because all events are moving in that direction," according to Kenneth Thomson, executive secretary of the Screen Actors Guild, in New York this week from Hollywood for conferences with officers of other actors' unions. Mr. Thomson also outlined the situation in which the Guild finds itself in its battle to license actors' managers, on the coast, and the Guild's efforts to limit its membership to a "properly professional" class of performers.

Equity Agreement Terminated

Coincident with Mr. Thomson's statements this week, there was terminated the agreement between the Actors Guild and the Actors Equity, which had provided for payment by the Guild to Actors Equity of a portion of the dues of those members who belonged also to Equity. The move was believed caused by the desire of the Guild to limit its membership, thus reducing its income. Such reduction necessitates retention by the guild of all moneys collected from members, and consequent elimination of payments to equity.

Opposition to the "big union" plan, Mr. Thomson said, "is based, apparently, on the desire of some of the organizations to preserve their authority. In any case the plan needs a lot of thought."

Mr. Thomson "hoped" that the other unions, the American Federation of Radio Actors, the American Guild of Musical Artists, the Actors Equity, all would establish west coast headquarters in the Hollywood Professional Building where the Screen Actors Guild has its offices.

The Guild membership does not favor "one big union," but the need of it is clear, he said, particularly to save members' money by "cleaning up" the jurisdictional problem .

"I don't think people are going to continue to walk around with four cards in their pockets, merely in order to earn a living," Mr. Thomson declared, citing also the difficulty of preserving loyalty to the separate organization.

Pays Half of Each Union's Dues

The Guild has standard "interchangeability" card agreements with the actors and radio actors' federations and the musical artists' field hoped that a similar pact with Actors Equity would be effected this year. The screen actor pays into each union approximately half of its dues. This arrangement, Mr. Thomson said, "is by no means perfect; but is the best we have been able to devise so far."

Representatives of the actors' union met Wednesday, and will continue meeting, on "card interchangeability."

Mr. Thomson indicated that the inability of its "Class B" members (extras and dancers) to earn a living was a problem immediately concerning the Screen Actors Guild, a problem which, he said, "cannot be solved by raising the daily wage of these people, but only by raising the yearly wage."

There are now about 8,500 Guild members—"too many," he commented. The majority are "Class B."

BY STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER

KENNETH THOMSON

BY STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER

RALPH WHITEHEAD

"Casuals," those who play extra parts occasionally, "should be eliminated," Mr. Thomson said. "Professionals must be permitted to earn their living without this type of competition."

A "standing committee" considering this problem, in Hollywood, consists of Lou Anger, representing the producers; Murray Kinnell, for the Guild, and Stewart McKee, a Los Angeles business man. The committee hopes to enlist the services of a Department of Labor official, and possibly an economist and sociologist.

The eventual aim, Mr. Thomson indicated, is to pare the membership to about 4,500. This would assure enough members to satisfy the producers, if they should require extras for mob scenes.

The termination of the contract between the Guild and Actors Equity becomes effective November 1st. Arthur Byron, president of Equity, declared the action was taken "in an amiable atmosphere," and that the appointment of a

(Continued on following page, column 1)

Ralph Whitehead of Actors' Federation Likes Idea of a Combined Union, but Doubts That It Will Work

Executives of the actors' unions affiliated with the Associated Actors and Artistes of America, are discussing the advisability of combining the separate organizations into one "large union" in order to save costs and increase strength.

Whitehead Doubts Workability

Ralph Whitehead, executive secretary of the American Federation of Actors, said this week that the converstations are only in the preliminary stage, and that he and his organization "seriously doubt" the wisdom of the plan, though he favors the principle.

Regardless, all AFA representatives will meet in New York in mid-April to discuss the plan.

"I have found that there isn't enough saved to make it attractive to the individual members of the various unions," said Mr. Whitehead. "I am not able to see that the plan reduces the cost of the administration and 'policing' of the territories. The initiation fee would be quite high, and the dues would be proportionately high."

"The most complex part," he said, "is the regulation of the migration of the members from one jurisdiction and territory to another, and the policing."

Radio and dramatic actors are in definite studios and plays, but AFA members are in myriad types of engagements, and necessarily harder to locate," he said, "calling for a more extensive staff."

Functions "On Its Own"

The AFA, Mr. Whitehead pointed out, is independent and sturdy and always has functioned "on its own."

"We have never borrowed one penny from anyone," he added.

The plan, as generally described, would provide for an administrative staff under one roof; a "clearing house" for all actors' unions; universal union cards, whereby the actor would pay the dues of his own union, which would apply, with an additional cost to be determined, to other unions he enters.

"We have been talking about an administrative staff in each city to handle the work of all unions," Mr. Whitehead said.

He protested the ruling of the AAAA that all who are not directly performers were barred from membership. He pointed out that circus, carnival and fair employees in the AFA were governed by their own boards; that the AFA had been given the right to organize these workers, by the American Federation of Labor, in 1936.

The San Francisco Golden Gate Exposition, he said, has recognized the AFA as the bargaining agent for non-performing workers in the AFA jurisdiction, and that negotiations were proceeding with officials of the New York World's Fair.

Seek Seattle Vaudeville

Seattle stage employees and film operators are holding conferences with representatives of their industries from other parts of the Pacific Northwest to devise ways and means of bringing more stage entertainment to the sector.

Thomson Sees 'One Big Union'

(Continued from preceding page, column 2)

committee by the parent organization, the Associated Actors and Artistes of America, to work out a standard contract on card interchangeability, has "made unnecessary" the preferential agreements between individual unions.

It is estimated that the action will cost Equity about $12,000 annually, or about 15 per cent of its income. The Guild has been paying Equity over $18 for each Guild member whose dues were $30 or more, and $15 for other Equity members of the Guild. These payments continue until May 1st, then are to be gradually reduced until elimination by November 1st.

Agency Licensing Issue

Awaiting the return this week to the coast of Mr. Thomson and the Guild attorney, Lawrence Beilenson, is settlement of the agreement between the Artists Managers Guild and the Actors Guild, providing for the licensing of Hollywood agents. A disputed point is the length of contract. The Actors Guild wants only one year pacts. The agents want more time to exploit newcomers.

A clause for restriction, to 10 per cent or less, of all commissions for radio, television and the screen is subject to revision. There are also provisions for arbitration of disputes and the initial licensing of all agents at present in business.

A motive in the decision of the Managers' Guild to come to terms with the Actors Guild was the drafting of a California bill by the screen actors to take arbitration of disputes involving private employment agencies from the State Labor Commission. The managers had counted upon the commission for help.

Out of the victory of the American Federation of Radio Actors over the American Association of Advertising Agencies are expected, because of the higher salaries for actors, a reduction in the number of daytime commercial programs, substitution of music for acting scripts, elimination of the dramatized commercial announcement, restriction of acting opportunities because of the added rehearsal costs. Sentiment at union headquarters favors lenience towards those who have signed contracts, to erase the impression that the Actors' Federation is a group of "radicals."

Start New Course

The Rand School of Social Science, New York, last week started a new course, "Propaganda Analysis and Public Opinion," which aims to help in the detection and analysis of the propaganda and arguments that mould public opinion and affect democracy for weal or for woe." On March 6th Howard Dietz, director of advertising and publicity for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, will speak on "Motion Picture Propaganda."

Joseph Plottel, branch manager for Warner Brothers in Vancouver, B. C., has been promoted to a similar post in the company's offices in Toronto, succeeding Harry Paynter, resigned. I. Coval, salesman in Winnipeg, has been promoted to replace Mr. Plottel as branch manager in Vancouver.

The 10th annual banquet and ball of the Warner Club will be held in the Grand Ballroom of New York's Waldorf Astoria Hotel on Saturday, March 11th.

Elsa Maxwell has signed a contract with Twentieth Century-Fox, her first picture to be "Elsa Maxwell's Hotel for Women."

WHITEHEAD'S REGIME UNDER INVESTIGATION

Under vocal and written prodding by Ralph Whitehead, executive secretary of the American Federation of Actors, on Saturday, the Associated Actors and Artistes of America, actor's parent union organization, voted in New York to "investigate" complaints of mismanagement of the AFA.

Mr. Whitehead had written to the executive secretaries of the individual unions comprising the AAAA, demanding a public investigation, and refutation of charges in the actors' trade press, which included assertions that the Federation council was a "rubber stamp" for Mr. Whitehead and that members had no voice in direction of their own union. Mr. Whitehead said he wanted "to show a clean slate, or get out."

Embraced in the membership of the AFA are vaudeville and night club performers, and circus, fair, carnival and rodeo performers and allied laborers, under their own divisions.

Order Theatres Auction

The sale at public auction of the Capitol, Palace and Middlesex theatres in Middleton, Conn., on April 11th, has been ordered by the superior court of Middlesex County. The sale will be conducted by William L. Hadden, receiver. Arthur Lockwood, member of the board of the Motion Picture Theatre Owners of America, has been identified with the operation of the houses in a partnership.

Cinematone Leases Studio

Cinematone Corporation, headed by Dr. Gordon Keith Woodward and W. P. Falkenburg, has taken a three year lease on Associated Cinema Studios, Hollywood. The company will make its own phonograph and radio transcriptions, and produce a series of short subjects, besides renting space to independent units.

Loew's Promotes Five

Five members of Loew's Philadelphia exchange staff have been promoted. Harry Bache has been made booker, Paul Farrow succeeding him as poster clerk. Samuel Sculli succeeds Mr. Farrow as night shipper. William Fogarty has been made assistant day shipper and James Cassidy weekend relief shipper. Gerard Hirsch, student salesman, has been sent to New Orleans as salesman.

Boris Morros sailed this week for Paris to confer with Leon Siritzki, his associate in a new company which plans to distribute French films in this country. Mr. Morros intends to select a number of films, including several for remake in Hollywood.

In place of the annual Loew's stockholders meeting, a special meeting has been set for February 28th, with stockholders of record February 7th entitled to vote. The present board of directors is up for re-election, with no changes anticipated.

Postpone Hearings Against Producers

The hearing of complaints against major studios charged with violating the Wagner Act in refusing to bargain collectively with the Screen Writers Guild, which was to have started Monday in Los Angeles, has been postponed to February 20th.

The major studios have entered denials to the charges, submitting them to Bernard Alpert, National Labor Relations Board attorney, who is on the coast from Washington, D. C., to hold the hearings.

The defendants also question the constitutionality of the provision on the authority of the NLRB.

Meanwhile negotiations are under way toward a compromise under which the minority faction in the International Alliance of Theatrical and Stage Employees headed by Jeff Kibre would withdraw charges of company unionism against officers of the IATSE and producers in the NLRB proceedings.

Renew Stagehands Pact; Suit Is Withdrawn

Major circuits in New York have signed contract renewals with the Stagehands Union, Local 1, International Alliance of Theatrical and Stage Employees. Contracts will run until February, 1940.

The suit brought by the Independent Theatre Owners Association of New York on behalf of Newsreel Theatres, Inc., to compel Local 306, the projectionists' union, to arbitrate under the 1937 contract, has been withdrawn from the New York supreme court. The dispute was settled a month ago by a new contract between the union and Newsreel Theatres.

The New Rialto theatre, Wilmington, Del., was picketed this week by members of Local 473, IATSE, and the projectionists' union. The action followed the walkout of four union projectionists who charged the management refused to negotiate a new agreement.

Local 306, New York projectionists' union, this week settled its dispute with Twentieth Century-Fox. Details of the settlement were not made known.

Hyndman Heads Atlantic SMPE

D. E. Hyndman was elected chairman of the Atlantic Coast section of the Society of Motion Picture Engineers at a meeting at the Hotel Pennsylvania in New York this week. Other officers elected were George Friedl, Jr., past chairman; P. J. Larson, secretary-treasurer; H. Griffin, governor for two years, and R. O. Strock, governor for one year.

The Schine Circuit has renewed sound service contracts with Altec Service Corporation for the coming year, covering 105 theatres. J. G. Selmser negotiated the deal for Schine, and Bert Sanford and A. J. Rademacher for Altec.

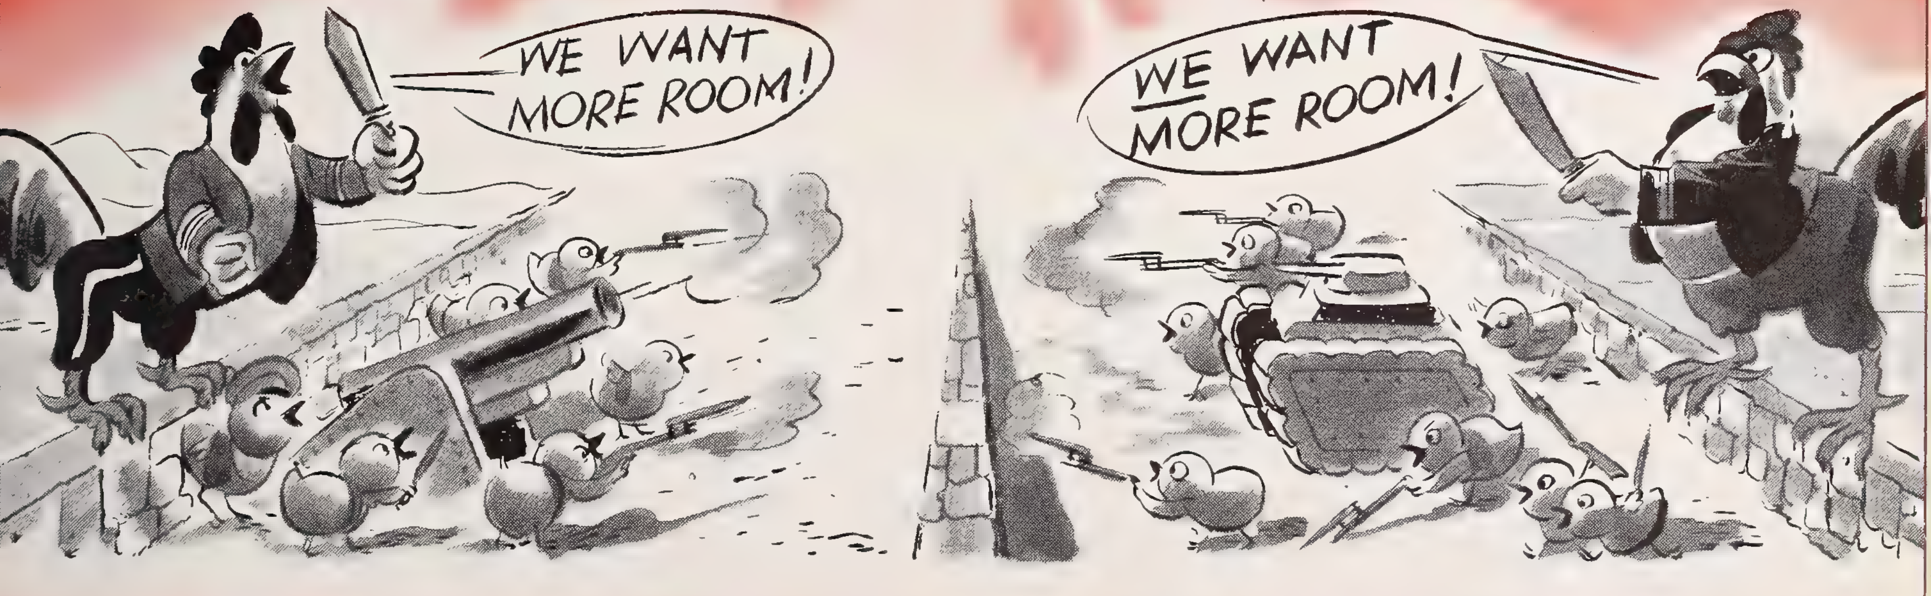
J. A. Ball, a vice-president and director of research of Technicolor, who recently returned from a leave of absence of several months, has resigned, effective March 1st.

OPENING IN 100 THEATRES DAY AND DATE HEADED BY RADIO CITY MUSIC HALL!

The Timeliest Short of All!

"PEACEFUL NEIGHBORS"

A COLUMBIA COLOR RHAPSODY



WE WANT MORE ROOM!
WE WANT MORE ROOM!

MPORTANT ENOUGH TO BE DATED WELL IN ADVANCE FOR THE FEB. 16th RELEASE DATE

Akron, Ohio	Palace
Albany, N. Y.	Palace
Alexandria, La.	Paramount
Allentown, Pa.	Rialto
Atlanta, Ga.	Rialto
Atlantic City, N. J.	Stanley
Beaumont, Texas	Liberty
Berkeley, Calif.	Berkeley
Binghamton, N. Y.	Riviera
Birmingham, Ala.	Empire
Bloomington, Ind.	Princess
Boise, Idaho	Rialto
Bremerton, Wash.	Tower
Buffalo, N. Y.	Lafayette
Chicago, Ill.	United Artists
Chickasha, Okla.	Washita
Cincinnati, Ohio	Palace
Cleveland, Ohio	Palace
Corpus Christi, Texas	Ritz
Dallas, Texas	Palace
Dayton, Ohio	Keith's
Denver, Colo.	Denver
Des Moines, Iowa	Des Moines
Des Moines, Iowa	Roosevelt
Detroit, Mich.	Fox
Easton, Pa.	Boyd
Elmira, N. Y.	Colonial
El Paso, Texas	Ellany
Enid, Okla.	Aztec
Fresno, Calif.	Warners
Ft. Worth, Texas	Hollywood
Galveston, Texas	Queen
Gulfport, Miss.	Paramount
Hamilton, Ohio	Paramount
Harrisburg, Pa.	State
Hartford, Conn.	Loew's
Hot Springs, Ark.	Paramount
Houston, Texas	Majestic
Ithaca, N. Y.	State
Jackson, Miss.	Paramount
Johnstown, Pa.	Embassy
Kansas City, Mo.	Esquire
Kansas City, Mo.	Uptown
Kenosha, Wisc.	Kenosha
Klamath Falls, Calif.	Pelican
Long Beach, Calif.	State
Los Angeles, Calif.	Hillstreet
Los Angeles (Hollywood)	Pantages
Madison, Wisc.	Capitol
Manchester, N. H.	State
Memphis, Tenn.	Malco
Meridian, Miss.	Temple
Miami, Fla.	Miami
Miami Beach, Fla.	Lincoln
Middletown, Ohio	Paramount
Modesto, Calif.	State
Morgantown, W. Va.	Metropolitan
Muncie, Ind.	Rivoli
New Castle, Ind.	Castel
New Orleans, La.	Saenger
Niagara Falls, N. Y.	Cataract
Oakland, Calif.	Franklin
Okla. City, Okla.	State
Oshkosh, Wisc.	Oshkosh
Ottumwa, Iowa	Capitol
Phoenix, Ariz.	Orpheum
Pittsburgh, Pa.	Harris Alvin
Pittsfield, Mass.	Union Square
Providence, R. I.	Strand
Racine, Wisc.	Rialto
Raleigh, N. C.	Ambassador
Reading, Pa.	Embassy
Richmond, Va.	Byrd
St. Louis, Mo.	Fox Theatres
Salem, Ore.	Grand
Salt Lake City, Utah	Paramount
San Antonio, Texas	Aztec
San Diego, Calif.	Spreckles
San Jose, Calif.	California
San Francisco, Calif.	Orpheum
Schenectady, N. Y.	Proctors
Scranton, Pa.	Capitol
Sheboygan, Wisc.	Rex
Shreveport, La.	Strand
Spokane, Wash.	Fox
Springfield, Mass.	Bijou
Stamford, Conn.	Palace
Tacoma, Wash.	Rialto
Terre Haute, Ind.	Orpheum
Toledo, Ohio	Rivoli
Troy, N. Y.	Troy
Tulsa, Okla.	Ritz
Washington, D. C.	Trans-Lux
Waterloo, Iowa	Orpheum
Wheeling, W. Va.	Virginia
Wheeling, W. Va.	Capitol
Wilkes-Barre, Pa.	Capitol
Wilmington, Del.	Aldine
Winston-Salem, N. C.	Carolina
Youngstown, Ohio	Palace

Edison Pioneers Remember Chief

The ninety-second anniversary of the birth of Thomas A. Edison and the fiftieth year since his contribution of the invention of the motion picture were commemorated last Saturday, February 11, at the annual luncheon gathering of The Edison Pioneers. (Picture on page 11.)

The function was held at the Hotel Astor. Among the speakers was Terry Ramsaye, editor of MOTION PICTURE HERALD, long an acquaintance of Mr. Edison, who in a speech interlarded with anecdotes set forth the special significances of the inventor's work on the telephone and the motion picture as parts of his broader pattern of service to the whole of the nation's industrial and social development.

In addition to the luncheon, the occasion was marked by a celebration at the Edison Tower, in Menlo Park, New Jersey, and by the unveiling of a portrait of Mr. Edison in the offices of Mayor Ovid Bianchi, at Orange, N. J.

Among other speakers at the luncheon were Walter S. Mallory, the only living member of a group of Edison employees who saw the first motion picture; James Burke, president of the Pioneers, who was toastmaster and read telegrams from Governor A. Harry Moore of New Jersey; Henry Ford, and Will H. Hays, president of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America.

Among those at the luncheon were Mrs. Nina Edison Hughes, Mr. Edison's widow; Mr. Edison's son, Charles Edison, Assistant Secretary of the Navy; J. Parker Hickman, Mr. Edison's oldest employee; Chester M. Withington, of Norwalk, Connecticut, chairman of the luncheon committee.

George E. Stringfellow, vice-president of Thomas A. Edison, Inc., spoke over the Blue Network of the National Broadcasting Company.

ERPI Reduces Capital By $4,000,000

Electrical Research Products, Inc., which formerly manufactured and serviced theatre sound reproduction equipment but last year sold the manufacturing rights to the Simplex and Motiograph projection companies and assigned servicing rights to the Altec Service Company, owned by Western Electric, has reduced its capital from $5,000,000 to $1,000,000, according to a certificate of reduction issued at Dover, Delaware, by Secretary of State Josiah Marvek, Jr.

The reduction of $4,000,000 is effected so that the capital represented by 750,000 shares, no par value, is reduced to $1,000,000 by retransferring from capital to surplus that amount, which had been transferred from surplus to capital by resolution of the directors adopted Feb. 13, 1929.

"Lady Vanishes" Setting Record

"The Lady Vanishes," the English film directed by Alfred Hitchcock, is being held at the Globe theatre, New York, until March 1st, when it will have completed a run of 9½ weeks. This will be a record for the house.

SAYS FILMS DON'T DEPICT U. S. LIFE

Mrs. William Dick Sporborg, who attended the recent Pan-American Conference at Lima, Peru, as an unofficial observer for the National Conference on the Cause and Cure of War, said this week that she had found that American films shown in Peru were not calculated to present a picture of normal life in the United States.

Mrs. Sporborg, who addressed the annual winter conference of the Westchester Federation of Women in White Plains, N. Y., said that as chairman of the East Coast Motion Picture Preview Committee she had written to Will Hays, president of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, on the matter.

Residents of Lima, she said, had asked her whether it was true, as they judged from pictures, that glamour and sex were the motivating forces in her country.

The Lima conference, itself, she said, was "a tremendous victory."

American Films Ahead in India

American films get the bulk of the playing time in India's 1,000 theatres, Herbert H. Cooper, Calcutta film importer, said this week in New York, on his arrival to negotiate business deals. American product is more popular than English or Indian, he said.

Mr. Cooper said that India has a well developed film industry, with several studios in Bombay and Calcutta turning out native films, which usually are heavy melodramas, often with a religious theme. It is not unusual for domestic films to run 20 to 40 weeks at a theatre, but their distribution is limited, he said. Mr. Cooper said the film industry there is prosperous but is an undeveloped market for independent distributors.

Mr. Cooper heads the Herbert Cooper Enterprises and Commercial Film Ads in Calcutta. He is conferring with his New York representative, S. R. Kunkis, and is seeking independent product for the Indian market.

Propose National Film Board for Canada

A national film board to review Government film activities is proposed in the report of John Grierson, British official sent there to study ways of advertising Canada in motion pictures.

The board would consist of nine members with a salaried commissioner at its head. It would be advisory and its first function would be to survey the film situation and outline plans for films for use both home and abroad. It is understood that films will be made to illustrate development of Canadian activities. Government film distribution would be centralized.

20th-Fox Budget To Be Increased

Twentieth-Century Fox will spend more for its 1939-40 product than it has ever spent in its history; not alone because of the increased markets and higher quality pictures, but because of increased labor costs resultant from last year's labor agreements, new taxes facing the production industry, purchases of finer, and hence more expensive stories; and other factors, according to Herman Wobber, director of distribution for 20th-Century Fox. Mr. Wobber and Sidney R. Kent, president, spoke at the company's two day conference, Wednesday and Thursday, in New York's Park Central Hotel. Other speakers were Charles A. McCarthy, director of advertising, and Truman Talley, producer of short subjects and Movietone News. It was announced that from 48 to 52 features are planned.

European Losses Cited

Mr. Kent dwelt upon the company's future plans, and more especially on the increased responsibility of the district managers to stimulate sales, in order to make up the deficit resulting, and "liable to progressively result," from developments in Europe, which have been strangling foreign revenue.

One of the important announcements at the meeting was the completion of a producing and releasing arrangement between Twentieth Century-Fox and Cosmopolitan Productions, Inc. By the terms of this contract, Fox will produce and release from four to six Cosmopolitan Productions yearly, each of these carrying the Cosmopolitan credit.

Warner Brothers have been distributing Cosmopolitan pictures for years; and prior to this arrangement, MGM had handled the releases.

The new contract stipulates that Cosmopolitan place at Twentieth Century-Fox's disposal its many story properties. The first three pictures to be released will be "The Hound of the Baskervilles," by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle; "The Life of Alexander Graham Bell"; and "Lawyer of the West." All three are on Mr. Zanuck's 1939 production schedule.

The Fox-Cosmopolitan contract was signed by Sidney Kent, Darryl Zanuck, Joseph M. Schenck, and William Goetz, for 20th Century-Fox, and by Edgar Hatrick, vice-president of Cosmopolitan Productions.

The following persons were present at the two day convention from the home office: Truman H. Talley, Felix A. Jenkins, Charles E. McCarthy; Division Managers William J. Kupper, William Sussman and William C. Gehring; William J. Clark, short subjects sales manager; Martin Moskowitz, assistant to Wobber; Jack Bloom, contract manager, and Roger Ferri, Clarence A. Hill, Edwin H. Collins, Theodore Shaw and Sam Epstein.

The foreign department was represented by Walter J. Hutchinson, director of foreign distribution; Irving Maas, service manager and assistant to Hutchinson, and Leslie F. Whelan.

District managers from the field included Tom H. Bailey, Boston; Edgar Moss, Philadelphia; G. A. Roberts, Cleveland; Harry G. Ballance, Atlanta; Ward E. Scott, Kansas City; F. A. Levy, Minneapolis, and James P. O'Loghlin, Toronto.

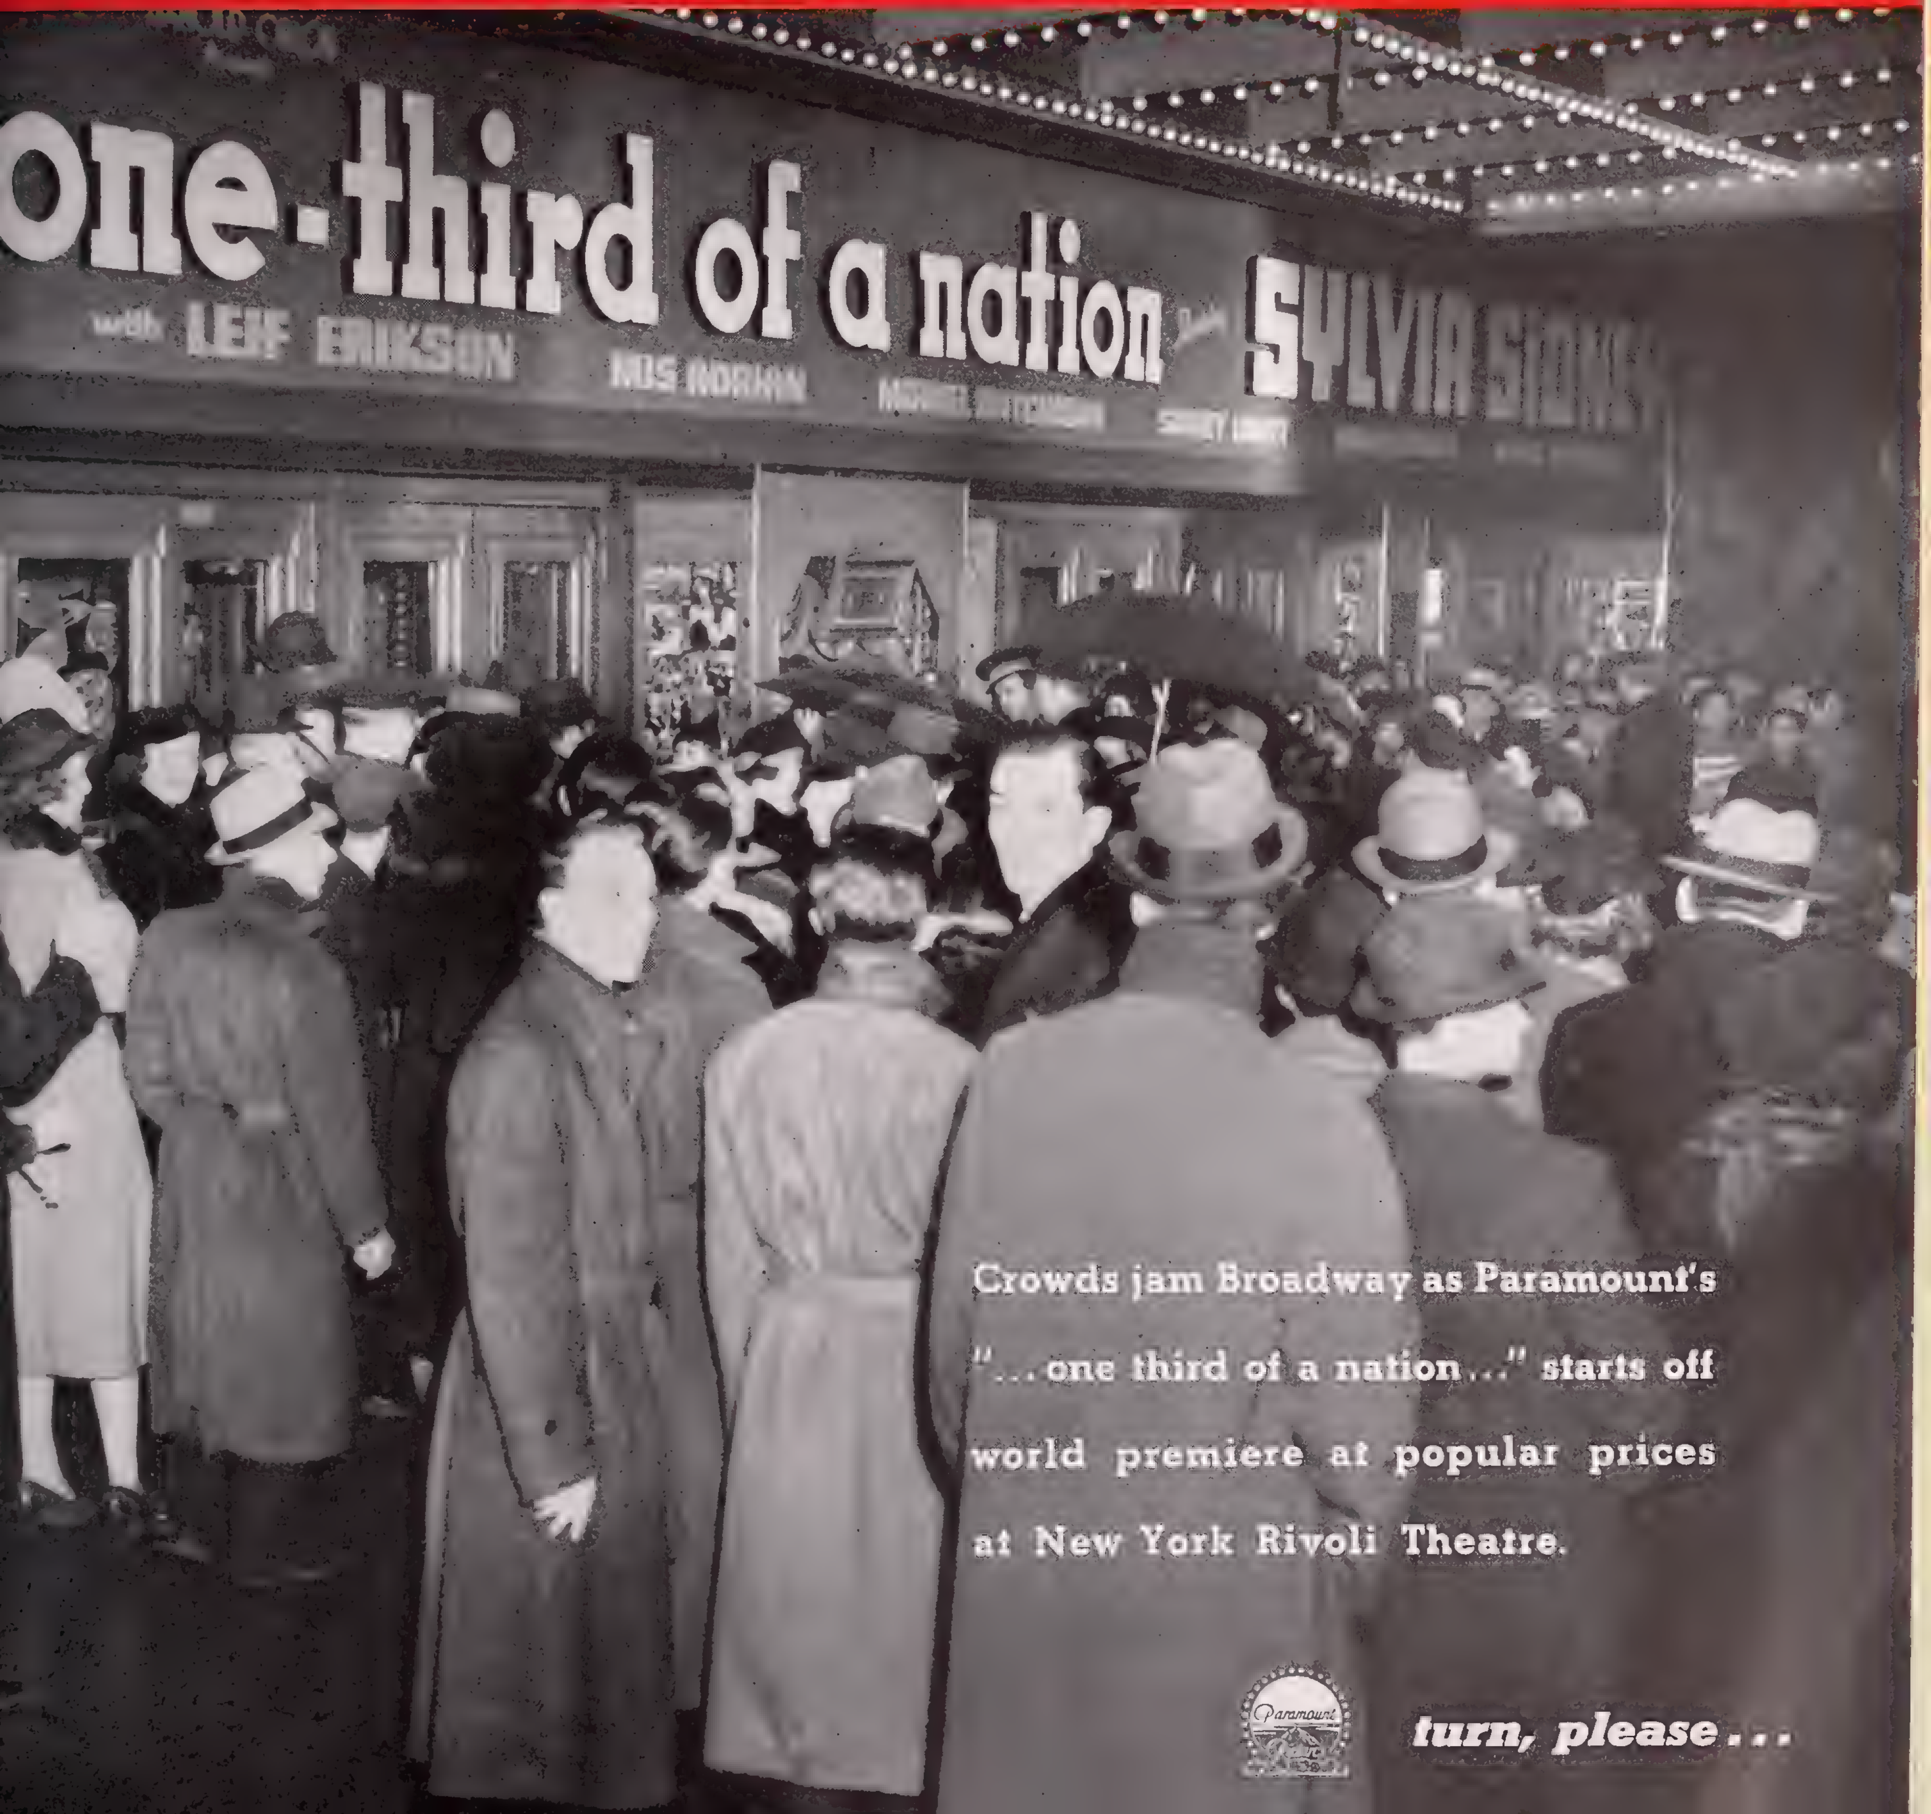
Branch Managers Harry H. Buxbaum of New York and Clyde W. Eckhardt of Chicago attended.

The Schine circuit this week acquired three of the Fenyvessy theatres in Rochester, N. Y., for a sum estimated between $600,000 and $700,000. The deal gives the Schines 10 neighborhood theatres in Rochester.

Paramount's

"...one-third of a nation"

is BOX OFFICE!



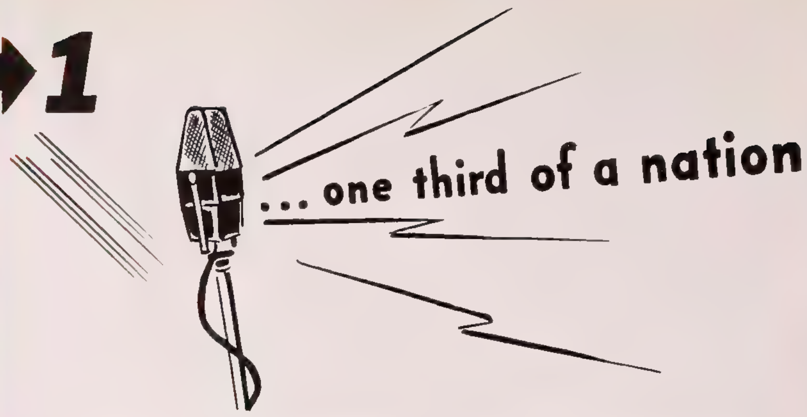
one-third of a nation
with LEIF ERIKSON
SYLVIA

Crowds jam Broadway as Paramount's "...one third of a nation..." starts off world premiere at popular prices at New York Rivoli Theatre.

turn, please . . .

9 selling reasons why "...one-third of a nation" is a great box-office bet for you!

1



... one third of a nation

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT originated phrase that echoed and re-echoed over entire nation . . . and gave industry best-known, best-sold picture title in recent years!

4

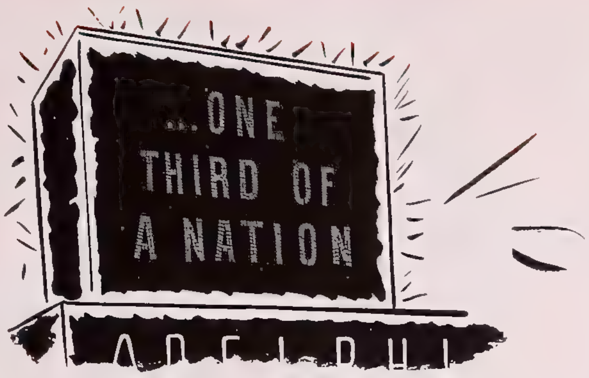
SYLVIA SIDNEY, star who won millions of fans with unforgettable screen portraits, delivers most impressive characterization — a dramatic firebrand, fighting for life and love!

7

STREET SCENE
DEAD END
FURY

AND NOW—"...one-third of a nation". . . captures the dramatic feeling of these three pictures, capitalizing on the elements that soared them to box-office greatness . . . with the star of all three!

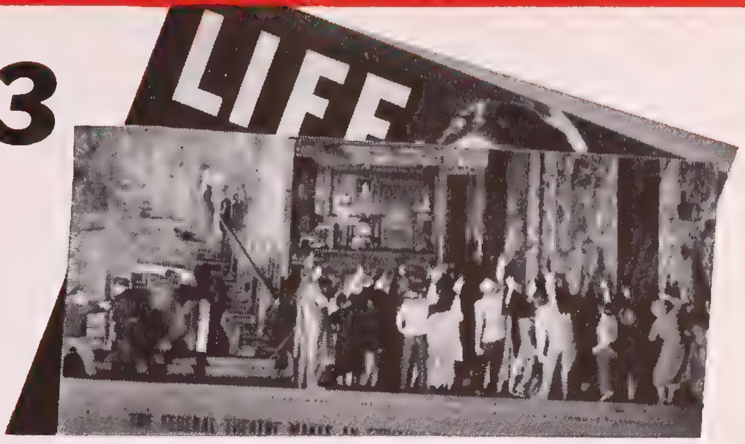
2



...ONE THIRD OF A NATION
ADELPHI

AS A PLAY presented by Federal Theatre, won laurels of critics, attracting record crowds and reams of publicity!

3



LIFE MAGAZINE devoted three full pages to ". . . one-third of a nation". Other important national publications right now keeping public interest fanned to fever pitch!

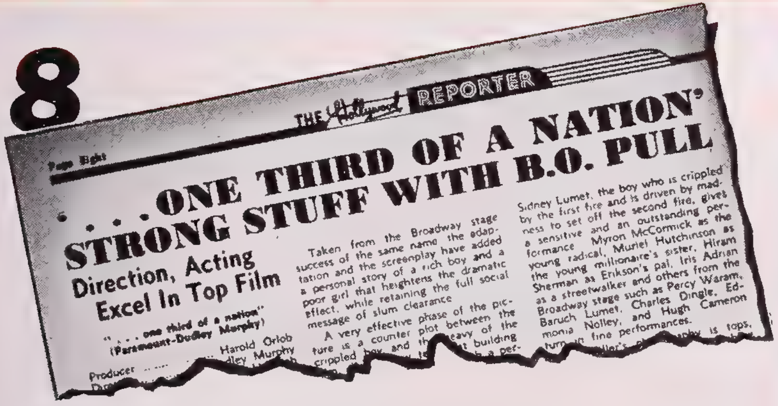
5

DRAMA! Real and true, scraped from the shadows . . . teeming with the full-blooded excitement of its seething, turbulent background!

6

SPECTACLE! Huge tenement fire . . . tenants fighting for lives while flames scorch heavens. Actually filmed on streets of New York!

8



THE Hollywood REPORTER

Page Eight

". . . ONE THIRD OF A NATION' STRONG STUFF WITH B.O. PULL

Direction, Acting Excel In Top Film

". . . one third of a nation"
(Paramount-Dudley Murphy)
Producer ... Harold Orlob

Taken from the Broadway stage success of the same name the adaptation and the screenplay have added a personal story of a rich boy and a poor girl that heightens the dramatic effect, while retaining the full social message of slum clearance.

A very effective phase of the picture is a counter plot between the crippled boy and the heavy of the Sidney Lumet, the boy who is crippled by the first fire and is driven by madness to set off the second fire, gives a sensitive and an outstanding performance. Myron McCormick as the young radical, Muriel Hutchinson as the young millionaire's sister, Hiram Sherman as Erikson's pal, Iris Adrian as a streetwalker and others from the Broadway stage such as Percy Waram, Baruch Lumet, Charles Dingle, Edmonia Nolley, and Hugh Cameron turn in fine performances.

TRADE PRESS CRITICS praise Paramount for combining daring and novel theme with solid entertainment values to make "one-third of a nation" surefire boxoffice.

9

LAST BUT FAR FROM LEAST read the rave reviews of that hard-boiled picture jury, the New York critics, who attended world premiere at Broadway's Rivoli Theatre.

See next page . . .

"Paramount's

'...one-third of a nation'

an eloquent and frequently stirring film. You should not miss seeing it."

—N. Y. Herald Tribune

"One of the rare occasions on which the movies have turned their attention to controversial, contemporary problems affecting the welfare and happiness of a considerable portion of the population."

—N. Y. Sun

"A first rate melodrama that rings with truth. Miss Sidney surpasses herself."

—N. Y. Daily Mirror

"A distinct milestone in the progress of the movies. Something to be viewed."

—N. Y. Telegraph

"A real screen triumph."

—Brooklyn Eagle

"The film is a bitter and biting two-fisted indictment of an unforgivable situation which exists in this country today... the acting is in every way remarkable."

—N. Y. World-Telegram

Harold Orlob presents Sylvia Sidney
in
"...one-third of a nation"
with Leif Erikson • A Dudley Murphy Production
Screen Play by Oliver H. P. Garrett • A Paramount Release

NAZIS PERMIT MONEY WITHDRAWALS IN A NEW FILM PACT WITH FRANCE

Renewal of Treaty Provides for Currency Shipments Provided Trade Balance Is Not Unfavorable to Reich

While France and Italy are exchanging unfriendly compliments, even challenges threatening the peace of the world over political and military opinions, Germany, Italy's strongest ally, has made a new and friendlier agreement with France covering the exchange of motion pictures.

It is, in effect, a renewal of an existing reciprocal film treaty between the two, extending that pact to June 30, 1939, with several changes.

Pressed for Product

Germany has been hard pressed for film product, her alliances with Italy and Japan not being sufficiently productive to make up for the loss of product occasioned by bans against other countries, principally the United States.

Outstanding in interest in the new French-Nazi film treaty, from the viewpoint of American film companies, which find it practically impossible to obtain money from Germany, is the provision which permits the French to withdraw currency from Germany, providing the trade balance is not unfavorable to the Reich.

Article Three, the provision authorizing this, says, "As no restriction on the exportation of capital exists in France, and as the present agreement has been established on the basis of reciprocity, the German Government agrees, not only to transfer authorizations, but also to place the actual exchange, in sufficient quantity, at the disposal of firms having to pay French producers the sums derived from the sale, the exploitation of the rental of any film mentioned in Article 2 (ed. note: provides that French films in the French or German languages, may be introduced in Germany, "whatever their nature and meterage"), as well as firms having to pay the salaries and indemnities of French actors having collaborated in Germany in the production of films mentioned in Article 1 (ed. note: provides for the introduction into France of French or German language films made in Germany, "whatever their nature").

Other Provisions

Articles One, Two and Three are practically identical with the same article numbers in the Franco-German agreement of May 12, 1936.

Article Three goes on to provide that in case the costs of imported films, and the payments by German to French firms, beginning January 1, this year, exceed by 50,000 marks the same sums paid by French firms to German firms and for the cost of importation, during the same period, the German Government "reserves the right to limit the importation of other French films until that amount has been reduced to 25,000 marks by an increased importation of German films into France, or by any other measures to be taken eventually in agreement with the French Government.

"As long as the reciprocal payments do not show a balance in favor of Germany," the article continues, "or that this balance is covered by payments to French actors, there does not exist for the German Government any obligation to operate the transfer of emoluments. . . . In case, however, that an examination of the reciprocal payments establishes that the payments effected by France to Germany, exceeds the payments effected by Germany to France, and in case that this surplus exceeds 20 per cent, the German Government will carry in its account to the profit of Germany the surplus of these 20 per cent by adding it to the amount which, in the framework of German legislation on exchange, is reserved to the payment of French merchandise imported into Germany, in conformity with Article Three of the Franco-German agreements of July 10, 1937."

PARIS THEATRES DISCONTINUE ADS

Paris exhibitors this week stopped all advertising in newspapers and on posters, with neon and other luminous types of outdoor displays as a retaliation measure against the new Government taxes. The action followed the failure of an investigation by financial experts on the tax situation as affecting Paris theatres to bring about a satisfactory result.

The Government expressed itself unwilling to reduce the present tax schedule, over which the exhibitors recently closed all theatres for several days. New municipal taxes have been collected in Paris for the past week, and are being made retroactive to January 1st. The exhibitors decided to halt all advertising and to boycott Government and Cabinet Ministers in the newsreels in an effort to get relief from the tax burden.

It is considered of little use for exhibitors there to close again, since the Government has promised, if necessary, to reopen both the Gaumont and Pathe theatre circuits, which, being in bankruptcy, are under Government control. The Government also threatened to expel all foreign exhibitors and producers.

Free Interchange

Articles One and Two presumably provide for the very free interchange of films from either country, "regardless of their nature." The two articles are identical in wordage, one providing for films from France to Germany, the other from Germany to France. Expanding on the wording of the first sentence, which says, among other things, "freely introduced," the articles stipulate as follows:

"In all the limit within which German (or French) legislation authorizes the showing of foreign films, and without any limitation of quantity other than that which may be eventually fixed concerning the proportion of foreign films in relation to German (or French) films shown in the cinemas of the same State, the French (or German) films may be freely shown in Germany (or France) and will benefit therein, from the commercial point of view, by all of the advantages reserved to German (or French) films."

The two articles further state that the above provisions do not provide obstacles to the rights of censorship, "nor to the application of the laws or regulations concerning the cinema industry and the showing of films, notably to those to which are subjected the films spoken or sung in a foreign language, and the dubbed films.

"It is understood, however, that French (or German) films will not be subject in Germany (or France) of any restriction which is not indistinctly applicable to all other films of foreign origin."

Statement of Payments

Article Four stipulates that the two governmenth on May 1, 1939, should communicate to each other a statement of the payments effected by each country up to March 31, 1939.

Article Five provides for the rational identification of actor nationality; those of either country who are members of either of the Reich Film Chamber and live in France only temporarily, or who are habitual residents of France and live in Germany only temporarily.

Article Six. This provides for a statement on the 25th of each month, by each government, naming the films of either country subjected to censorship during the preceding month.

Article Seven. This assures the film producers of each country that their films, once having passed the censorship of the country into which they are being imported, will be helped by the authorities. Regarding exceptions, the article states:

"It is understood that if, despite these assurances, the police authorities of either State are obliged to interrupt, in one or several localities, the showing of one of these films, the Government responsible for this prohibition will inform the embassy of the other state by indicating the reasons. . . ."

Article Eight says that the agreement is valid until June 30, 1939.

Nova in Mexico

Fortunio Bona Nova is in Mexico City lining up talent for the first of two Spanish language films he is to make for United Artists. The pictures will be made in Hollywood, to be released in the Latin American market in the season starting next spring. Bona Nova is well known as an actor and singer. He appeared in the Paramount picture, "Tropic Holiday."

Imperial Office in New Haven

Harry Segal of Imperial Pictures, Boston, has taken office space in the film building in New Haven and has appointed Charles W. Leach, formerly with GB, as representative.

Clinton F. Ivins, former vice-president of Pathescope Company of America, has joined Audio Productions, Inc., in an executive capacity. The appointment was made by Frank K. Speidell, president.

Warner Brothers has elevated Crane Wilbur to feature director and his first assignment will be "Hero for a Day," in which Charles Grapewin will play a leading role.

Hal Roach has signed Harry Langdon to a new long-term contract. The comedian co-stars with Oliver Hardy in Hal Roach's "It's Spring Again."

U.S. COMPANIES 'HASTY' SAYS PROF. LEBEDINSKY

American Concerns "May Have Locked Door Behind Them," Says Professor Lebedinsky

The American film companies were "too hasty" in withdrawing from Italy, and it was their desire rather than the Italian government's to end distribution of American films in Italy, according to Professor Anatole Lebedinsky, First Secretary of the Italian Institute of Cultural Relations, Rome, now in New York. The Institute was formed in July at the bidding of Foreign Minister Galeazzo Ciano, son-in-law of Premier Benito Mussolini.

"No, your American companies 'walked out,' so to speak," Professor Lebedinsky declared. "And they may, in effect, have locked the door behind them. They were too hasty." On this the companies are in complete disagreement.

What Italy Wanted

He explained that the crux of the matter was that four of the American distributors—Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, Paramount, Warners and Twentieth Century-Fox—had refused to accede to the governmental decree that they terminate their own individual selling in the country, but instead, sell direct to the government, for flat sums stipulated in advance, under contract, in the same manner as the four other large companies operated, United Artists, Columbia, RKO and Universal.

Mr. Lebedinsky said that, despite prevailing opinion in the United States, the legal status of the contracts for supplying films made by the four last-named companies still is undetermined in Italy. (The MPPDA in New York said this week that attorneys for these four are continuing meetings on the matter.) Meanwhile, to all intent and purpose, the entire eight have withdrawn from the market.

For "Cultural Congresses"

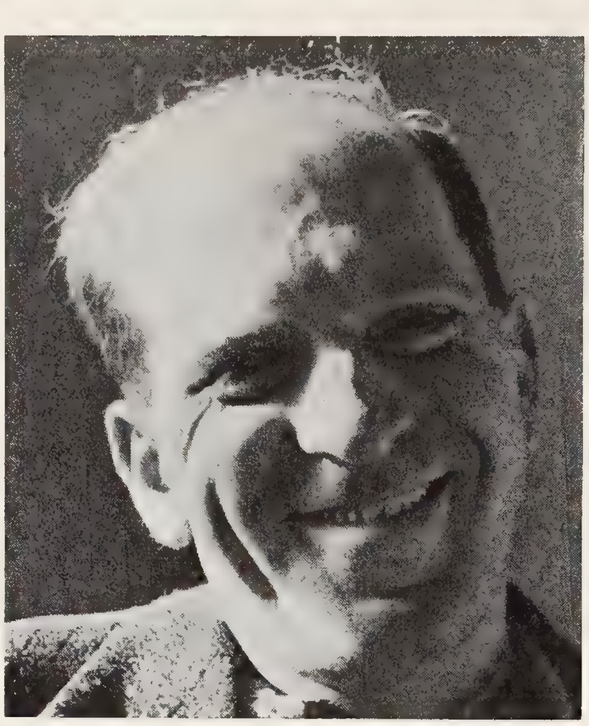
The Professor is here on a six months' leave to study how the film industry will be represented in the New York World's Fair, and to "contact" the various congresses of a cultural nature which will meet in New York during the Fair. This is being done because Rome will hold a World's Fair in 1942.

The ground already is being prepared for the Italian Fair, he added.

Professor Lebedinsky said that "of course" withdrawal of American films is resulting in a film shortage. He is a director of the "Quirinetta" Theatre in Rome, which, he said, is the only theatre permitted to show foreign film in their original state, without dubbing. The theatre is patronized by the diplomats, nobility and tourists.

"Producers Too Satisfied"

"The Italian people want films with some 'background'; they especially favor some of the French films. Many American films, with great money spent on them, are box-office flops in Italy. For one thing, your actors are too old, and the stories contain too much 'love'. I have been in the film business in Europe for 15 years, and I can tell you that your American film producers have become too satisfied, or, shall I say, too fat. They are not willing to risk new departures; they are too ready to depend on what they have acquired."



BY STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER

PROFESSOR ANATOLE LEBEDINSKY

Professor Lebedinsky was born in Switzerland, went to Russia in 1921, where his sister and mother were living. He was connected for a while with the American Relief Mission there, and then went into film work, operating theatres, editing films, teaching on films at the Moscow State Film Institute.

To Italy in 1934

In 1934 he went to Italy, and joined the International Institute of Educative Cinematography, in the Villa Torlonia, Premier Mussolini's residence. This institute was an offshoot of the League of Nations cultural activity, but expenses were paid by the Italian Government, at Mussolini's direction, Italy at the time still being a League member. Professor Lebedinsky was a secretary.

The Institute had been established in 1929. Difficulties between Italy and the League resulted in the reduction of the number of languages in which Intercine was published, so that in 1937 it was published only in Italian and French, all foreigners on the staff were gradually dismissed, when the Institute closed on Jan. 1, 1938.

While with the Institute, Professor Lebedinsky was instrumental in forming, in 1935, in Rome, the "Centro-Sperimentale," where actors, directors and technicians are being trained for the Italian film industry. At this center the Professor lectured on Soviet films and the theories of their directors. The Center, under the supervision of the Ministry of Cultural Propaganda, took as its basis Eisenstein's similar work in Russia, in training persons for film work.

In July, 1938, at the instigation of Count Ciano, there was formed in Rome the Institute of Cultural Relations with Foreign Countries. Mr. Lebedinsky became First Secretary. The new institute is at the same address as the old. The Professor's duties are to cooperate with all congresses of a cultural nature in other countries.

After his studies in the United States Mr. Lebedinsky plans to visit South America.

Two current Paramount releases, "St. Louis Blues" and "The Beachcomber," are running from 25 to 75 per cent above average weekly business in 10 key city situations, according to the Paramount home office.

Theatre Building Declined in '38

A total of 751 theatre construction projects, including new theatres and substantial remodeling, is reported for 1938 in the 37 states east of the Rocky Mountains. In 1937 the total was 884.

The value of theatre projects covered by the analysis is $20,996,000, compared with $27,227,000 the year before. Floor area involved dropped from 4,043,000 square feet in 1937 to 2,719,000 square feet last year.

The figures are from the Dodge Reports Division of the F. W. Dodge Corporation.

The year opened with theatre building contracts valued at $1,187,000. In February there was an upswing to $2,369,000, followed by a drop in March which was maintained without change in April. A decrease in May was followed by an increase in June to $2,881,900. At the close of the half year, 1938 and 1937 contracts totals stood at $12,086,000 and $14,509,000, respectively.

The second half started with a sharp drop, which continued in August and deepened in September to $1,266,000. October and November showed little change and December was almost at the September total.

Metropolitan New York and Northern New Jersey showed $2,520,000 in contracts for 1938, against $2,754,000 for 1937. The number of projects was 45, against 61. The floor area concerned dropped from 289,000 square feet to 269,000 square feet.

Ohio Asked to Abolish Censors

Representative Wilford B. Bixler of Akron has introduced a bill in the Ohio legislature to abolish the censor board, following closely on the bill introduced by Representative Harry J. Dworkin of Cleveland to curb the power of the censors, prohibit censorship actuated by political influence and divorce activities of the censor board from state government jurisdiction. Indications at the state capital were that Bixler's bill would not be likely to receive consideration, whereas the Dworkin bill might be enacted into law. It is understood that both bills are a direct result of the banning of the Soviet film, "Professor Mamlock," by the censors. The film has now been released "with certain deletions" following a barrage of protests.

Paramount To Redeem Debentures

Paramount Pictures, Inc., last week sent out a redemption notice to holders of the company's 20-year six per cent sinking fund debentures, which are due Jan. 1, 1955, that as provided in the indenture dated as of Jan. 1, 1935, between Paramount and City Bank Farmers Trust Company, as trustee, the company has elected to redeem on February 20th the $5,000,000 principal amount of the debentures.

Bell & Howell, manufacturers of motion picture equipment, have issued the "Filmosound Film Library Book," which provides a single film source adequate to meet the most diversified demands of educational institutions, industry, homes, and communities," according to the company.

Highlights of Film Statistics Assembled by U.S. Department

Culling its information from leaders in the industry, from trade organizations and the motion picture press, and much of it from the International Motion Picture Almanac, Uncle Sam's Motion Picture Division of the Department of Commerce this week published a statistical picture of the business. The highlights follow:

World Film Industry Capital Investment — $2,650,000,000.
United States Capital Investment—$2,050,000,000; Theatres, $1,880,000,000; Studios, $112,000,000; Distribution, $20,000,000.
Cost of Studio Expansion in 1938—$4,000,000.
Annual Expenditure for Insurance in U. S. — $30,000,000 (Theatres, 90%; Production-Distribution, 10%).
Annual Taxes Paid to U. S. Government — $100,000,000.
Annual Taxes Paid to State and Local Governments—$250,000,000.
Approximate World Theatre Attendance, Weekly—230,000,000.
Average Weekly Attendance in U. S. — 1922, 40,000,000; 1925, 48,000,000; 1928, 65,000,000; 1931, 75,000,000; 1934, 70,000,000; 1938, 85,000,000.
Average Theatre Admissions in U. S. — 1929, 20 cents; 1931, 20 cents; 1935, 20 cents; 1938, 23 cents.
Total Gross Theatre Receipts in U. S. — 1929, $1,100,000,000; 1931, $800,000,000; 1935, $750,000,000; 1938, $942,000,000.
Average Attendance per Theatre—500.
Average Daily Attendance in U. S.—12,142,000.
75 to 85 per cent of all adult admissions are purchased between 7:30 p. m. and 8:30 p. m.
Annual Cost of Theatre Equipment and Supplies (New and Replacements)—$25,000,000.
Average U. S. Seating Capacity—650.
65 per cent of admission is retained by theatres, 35 per cent (average) go to production-distribution.
Annual Theatre Expenses—$250,000,000 for payroll and management; $150,000,000 for real estate, rent, insurance, taxes, and depreciation; $80,000,000 for local advertising and publicity; $50,000,000 for light and heat; $50,000,000 for interest and dividends; $40,000,000 for "other taxes and insurance"; $30,000,000 for miscellaneous and extra attractions, including acts, music, prizes, contests, etc.
Of $350,000,000 accruing annually from film rentals, $250,000,000 goes to studios for production; $100,000,000 to distributors for selling costs, prints, servicing, advertising.
Average Daily Film Rental per Theatre—$25.
Last-Run Average Film Rental—$5 to $25.
Downtown "DeLuxe" Average Film Rental—$5,000 to $25,000 weekly.
Total Capacity of U. S. Theatres—10,924,484.
Expenditure in Theatre Construction—1929, $163,559,000; 1932, $17,500,000; 1936, $46,275,000; 1938, $19,717,000.
Approximate Hollywood Payroll—$2,090,000 weekly, $129,000,000 annually.
Average Negative Cost per Feature—$275,000.
Average Number of Shooting Days—22.
Average Annual Advertising Expenditure, $77,000,000: Newspapers and Magazines, $63,000,000; Billboards, $8,000,000; Accessories, $6,000,000.

Allied to Sponsor Patriotic Trailers

Allied States Association is sponsoring the production of a series of patriotic trailers, which will be available to members of Allied through the regional units. Each will feature an outstanding living American, a message or excerpt from a public speech by the person involved, and the flag.

Production will be by National Screen Service. The first, on President Roosevelt, is in production. The trailer will feature an excerpt from the President's message to Congress, emphasizing personal freedom and religious liberty and the Bill of Rights. The running time of each subject will not exceed three minutes.

National Screen also has in production a series of patriotic trailers for general distribution. The third, on the Bill of Rights, is being made.

Newsreel House Tries 16 mm.

A 16 mm. sound color film was shown this week until Thursday, at the Newsreel Theatre, in the Rockefeller Center Radio City, in New York City. It was "On the Ice," released by Sound Masters, Inc. Three more from the same source to appear are "Rockefeller Center," "Speed Demons," 'New York in Color."

"The Woman I Love," RKO Radio picture, has been banned in Italy because of its "friendly atmosphere toward France." The film is said to glorify the French Air Force during the World War.

Monogram Making French Versions

Sound tracks in French are being recorded in Paris of certain of Monogram's films on both current and last year's programs. Among the pictures being dubbed are "Atlantic Flight," "Gangster's Boy," "Under the Big Top," "Rose of the Rio Grande," "Federal Bullets" and "Hoosier Schoolboy."

Norton V. Ritchey, foreign manager, said that due to quota restrictions it is becoming increasingly difficult to get import permits for American films, but he expects these dubbed versions will do good business in Belgium, Switzerland and the Near East territories as well as in France.

Palmer on Commerce Board

Joseph M. Schenck, president of the Association of Motion Picture Producers, has named Kyle D. Palmer, association executive and former newspaperman, as film industry representative on the board of directors of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.

Twentieth Century-Fox is constructing new branch buildings in Chicago, Milwaukee and Seattle. They will be opened in the spring or early summer. The Chicago building will be in the new film district. The company also contemplates erecting branch buildings in Albany, Cincinnati and Indianapolis. The Los Angeles and Detroit exchanges are to be air conditioned this spring.

Warners Appeal New York Ban on ‘Darling Daughter

The New York Board of Censors, Irwin Esmond, director, last Friday refused an exhibition permit in the state for Warner Brothers' version of "Yes, My Darling Daughter," adapted from the Mark Reed play that was produced on Broadway in 1937. Warners appealed immediately and a decision is due on February 24th in Albany.

Warners' appeal argued that dialogue modifications would eliminate the objection to the picture. The brief submitted by the Censor Board cited the film for encouraging trial marriages.

The Regents of the State Board of Education, of which the censorship board is also a part, rules on all appeals. Regents members Gordon Knox Bell, G. J. Ryan and Susan Brandies are handling the "Daughters" case. Miss Brandeis is the daughter of Louis Brandeis, who resigned Monday from the United States Supreme Court to aid Jewish refugees.

First Barred in Full

"Yes, My Darling Daughter" is the first feature picture bearing a production code seal (No. 4840) of the industry's own Production Code Administration to be rejected completely by a city or state board of censorship. The picture was scheduled to have its first public showing at Warners' Broadway Strand, New York, Friday morning, and Warners scheduled "Off the Record" instead.

S. Charles Einfeld, Warner advertising-publicity director, arriving in New York Monday from California, said that, "The company feels there is nothing whatsoever of bad taste in the picture. It definitely is not in the same taste as the Broadway play." He added that his company received word of the banning with "quite some surprise."

State Censor Esmond, in Albany last week-end, reiterated his belief that "Yes, My Darling Daughter" comes within the prohibitions of Section 1082 of the N. Y. Education Law, which governs censoring. This section bans pictures classified as "obscene, indecent, immoral, inhuman, sacrilegious, or which is of such a character that its exhibition would tend to corrupt morals or incite to crime."

Procedure on appeals in the last 15 months has been for Regents Brandeis, Bell and Ryan to screen the picture and then listen to arguments both by appellate and for the Education Department. The sub-committee then reports to the Board of Regents. The film is scheduled for screening next Wednesday.

Charles A. Brind, Jr., law director of the Department of Education, will argue the case for Director Esmond and his department.

Cases on which the Regents Board has upheld Mr. Esmond in the past year include "The Birth of a Baby," "Human Wreckage," "Marijuana" and "Remous," none of them having a Production Code Seal, all of them distributed by companies not belonging to the organized industry, and all dealing with "sex" or "hygiene" subjects.

When the Regents Board rejects an appeal, the case may then be taken to the State Courts. "Human Wreckage" and "The Birth of a Baby" are still to be considered by the Appellate Division.

Virginia's State Censor Board on Tuesday passed "Yes, My Darling Daughter" without eliminations.

IN COURTS

Deny Disney Dismissal

New York Supreme Court Justice Bernard Shientag this week denied the application of Walt Disney Productions, Ltd., to dismiss a $300,000 damage suit brought against it and RCA Manufacturing Company by Adriana Caselotti, the voice of Snow White in "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs."

Settle Du-Art Suit

A suit for $1,000,000 damages brought by Du-Art Film Laboratories, Inc., and Arthur Gottlieb against Consolidated Film Industries, Inc., has been settled before Federal Judge Harold P. Burke in New York. The terms of settlement were not revealed. The complaint had alleged that Universal had been induced to breach its contract with Du-Art and Mr. Gottlieb.

Affirm Select Writ

A denial of an injunction against Select Attractions, Inc., Leo Malchin and Charles Swarzza, to restrain exhibition of the picture, "The Glory of Faith," has been affirmed by the appellate division of the New York supreme court.

Deny Star Dismissal

Samuel I. Rosenman, New York supreme court justice, has denied an application of Mogull Brothers, Inc. and Charles and Leo Mogull, to dismiss the complaint of Star Safety Film, Inc., which seeks $17,000 damages, charging the defendants with receiving and converting 3,000,000 feet of film allegedly stolen from the plaintiff.

Wins Tax Appeal

The Southern Amusement Company, Inc., Lake Charles, La., does not owe $2,124.22 in income tax deficiencies claimed by the government for 1935, it has been ruled by Charles P. Smith, member of the tax appeal board. The company, operator of 10 film theatres in Louisiana, held that it was entitled to deduction of three per cent for depreciation of theatre buildings in figuring income on which tax was due. Government attorneys held the company was entitled to only two per cent deduction for depreciations.

Grant Collins Appeal

Federal Judge William Bondy this week granted leave to Dolores Lacy Collins, as administratrix of Jimmy Collins, to appeal to the circuit court of appeals from an order of Judge Alfred C. Coxe, which dismissed the first count of a complaint against Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Pictures Corporation, MGM Distributing Corporation, Loews', Inc. and Culver Export Corporation. The suit charges infringement of a book, "Test Pilot," in the film of the same name, and asks for $1,000,000 damages.

Order Tully Data

Federal Judge Murray Hulbert this week directed Jim Tully to file a detailed statement of his complaint against Paramount Pictures, Inc., Odessco Productions, Inc., and William K. Howard. Mr. Tully seeks $50,000, charging wrongful use of his name to promote the film "Home Town."

Lewis Operates 55th St. Playhouse

Operation of the 55th Street Playhouse, one of the oldest foreign film houses in New York, has been taken over by Martin J. Lewis, manager of the Fifth Avenue Playhouse and the Thalia, and his partner, Hans Rosenwald.

IN NEWSREELS

MOVIETONE NEWS—No. 44, Vol. 21—Refugees flee Spain....Ortiz presents diplomas to Argentina cadets ....Government feeds stranded elks....Forest fire in Australia....Shoe styles....Skating....Swimming.. Golf....Diving....Lew Lehr.

MOVIETONE NEWS—No. 45, Vol. 21—World mourns Pope Pius XI....Tanker goes aground and sinks off Block Island....Mussolini decorates relatives of slain soldiers....Army plane crashes....King Farouk in Nile ceremony....Ambassador Kennedy sails....Eduard Benes arrives here....Cardinal O'Connell.... Cardinal Mundelein....Skating fashions....Sports.

NEWS OF THE DAY—No. 242, Vol. 9—First 1939 crop of air pilots for Army....Mrs. Perkins questioned by judicial committee....Spanish refugees swarm into France....Italian king's daughter weds ....Spring hat styles....Patty Berg retains Miami golf crown....Skating....Aquatic act at Coral Gables.

NEWS OF THE DAY—No. 243, Vol. 9.—Mourn Pope Pius....Tanker burns at sea....Heavy mountain snows trap motorists....Former Czech chief in America....U. S. cardinals sail for Rome....Justice Brandeis retires....Society....Dartmouth stages gala winter carnival.

PARAMOUNT NEWS—No. 55—Spanish refugees.... Kaiser celebrates 80th birthday....Monkeys cured of pneumonia....Sales of Valentine cards boom in London....Former boxers now work in restaurant.... Russian prince in Florida....Lily Pons....Fight story.

PARAMOUNT NEWS—No. 56—Pope Pius XI dies at 81....American cardinals sail for papal election.... Snow drifts in Oregon....Tanker sinks off Block Island....New Army plane crashes....Floods in East Anglia, England....Hannes Schneider arrives here to head ski school....Dartmouth holds winter sports carnival.

RKO PATHE NEWS—No. 59, Vol. 10—Brush fires in Australia....Plane sales to France stirs Congress ....Argentine military cadets graduate....Spanish refugees cross French border....Secretary Perkins denies any laxity in failure to deport Harry Bridges ....Skating.

RKO PATHE NEWS—No. 60, Vol. 10.—World mourns death of Pope Pius....Mayor greets former Czech president....Avalanche in Utah buries houses.... Ship canal in defense spotlight....Dartmouth holds winter carnival....Science defies law of gravity.... Basketball.

UNIVERSAL NEWSREEL—No. 744, Vol. 11—Refugees flee Spanish war....Hold Tampa pageant ....Army planes fly over mountains....Army fledglings get wings....Senators at odds on plane deal with France....Argentine cadets graduated.... Aquatic stars shine in meet....Skating....Greyhounds race at night.

UNIVERSAL NEWSREEL—No. 745, Vol. 11.—Pope Pius dead....Cardinals sail to elect Pope....Mystery speed plane crashes....Former Czech leader in U. S. ....Three die in western avalanche....Brazil envoy here....Hat styles....Fire threatens wrecked tanker ....Quintuplet lion cubs born....Ice skating.

National Decency Legion Classifies Nine Films

Of nine films reviewed and classified by the National League of Decency in its listing for the current week four were approved for general patronage, four were found unobjectionable for adults, and one was found objectionable in part. The films and their classification follow:

Class A-1, Unobjectionable for General patronage: "Adventures of Huckleberry Finn," "Famijen Andersson," "Homicide Bureau," "Texas Stampede." Class A-2, Unobjectionable for Adults: "Beauty for the Asking," "Code of the Streets," "Off the Record," "You Can't Get Away with Murder." Class B, Objectionable in Part: "School for Husbands."

New Theatre Site

A new motion picture theatre and dance hall will be erected by the New York Life Insurance Company on the south east corner of Broadway and 43rd Street, New York, a corner which has been the site of many a motion picture headquarters in the past quarter century. The site was formerly occupied by the George M. Cohan Theatre and the Fitzgerald Building, which are now being razed. The site is assessed at $3,000,000.

OBITUARIES

Robert Hage Dies

Robert Hage, former member of the editorial staff of Motion Picture Daily and, earlier, of Motion Picture News, died February 9th at Bogota, N. J. He was an editorial employee of a Bergen, N. J., newspaper at the time of his death. He had been employed by Chicago newspapers and the New York Sun. He had been a publicity man for the old First National Pictures and for Universal for a time.

Jacob Hartman

Jacob Hartman, who was contact man for Universal in New York some years ago, died February 6th in New York. He was 80 years old and the oldest member of the Motion Picture Associates.

Helene Odilon

Helene Odilon, 75, former Viennese actress, who toured the United States at the turn of the century, died February 9th at Baden-bei-Wien, Germany.

Anderson Handling Pathe News Distribution

Richard Anderson, long a branch and district manager for various companies, formerly sales manager of Hearst International Newsreel, and from 1932 until recently the head of Universal Newsreel Department, has been appointed to manage the physical distribution of RKO Pathe News. Mr. Anderson is working in association with Harry Michalson, short subject sales manager, and Sid Kramer, manager of the print and negative department.

Mr. Anderson is a native of Georgia. His film career includes posts as booker and branch manager of the General Film Company, in Atlanta; handling of sales for the first 30-episode serial, "Diamond from the Sky," in eight southern states; branch managership for Pathe, in Atlanta; branch managerships for Pathe and Universal in Charlotte; editorship of the "Pathe Sun" in New York; sales managership of the International Newsreel; district managership for Columbia Pictures; editorship of a house organ, "Carry On," for Warner Brothers, and head of the newsreel department of Universal Pictures.

Rubin Heads College Drive

J. Robert Rubin, vice-president and general counsel of Loew's, Inc., and an alumnus of Syracuse University, has been named general chairman of the 1939 Syracuse University Alumni Fund drive, with the announced goal $50,000.

Dual Premiere for "Oklahoma"

The Warner Brothers film "Oklahoma City," starring James Cagney, will have simultaneous world premieres in Oklahoma City and Tulsa March 3rd. The picture is scheduled for national release on March 11th.

Ernest Laemmle, former director and producer, is assisting in the handling of writers in Hollywood, for Paul Kohner's agency there.

THIS IS MY FIRST SIGNED ADVERTISEMENT

In a very short time the motion picture audiences of the world will have an opportunity to view Miss Shirley Temple in her first Technicolor production, "THE LITTLE PRINCESS." I believe that it is the finest motion picture with which I have ever been associated. For four consecutive years, picture audiences have voted Shirley Temple the most popular star. Frequently I have been asked the reason for this popularity which is so amazingly uniform in every country where motion pictures are shown. After you have seen "THE LITTLE PRINCESS" I am confident you not only will agree with me that the reason lies in the truly great artistry of its star, but that in this picture—little Miss Temple's finest by far—you will have seen one of the most important films turned out by the motion picture industry.

Sincerely,

DARRYL F. ZANUCK
Vice-President in Charge of Production
Twentieth Century-Fox Film Corporation

This statement will appear as an advertisement in the leading newspapers of America.

READ IT AGAIN!

The statement on the previous page, by the man who produced "Alexander's Ragtime Band", "Kentucky", "In Old Chicago" and "Jesse James" for 20th Century-Fox, is the surest guarantee of picture greatness this industry can offer!

SHIRLEY TEMPLE IN THE LITTLE PRINCESS

with

RICHARD GREENE
ANITA LOUISE
IAN HUNTER • CESAR ROMERO
ARTHUR TREACHER • MARY NASH
SYBIL JASON • MILES MANDER
MARCIA MAE JONES

Directed by Walter Lang
Associate Producer Gene Markey • Screen Play by Ethel Hill and Walter Ferris • Based on the novel by Frances Hodgson Burnett
Darryl F. Zanuck in Charge of Production

A GREAT CLASSIC
COMES TO LIFE IN GLORIOUS
TECHNICOLOR!

20th CENTURY FOX
THE KEYSTONE
OF YOUR FUTURE

Printed in U. S. A.

THE HOLLYWOOD SCENE

Parallels

With but few exceptions, art and commerce come into a more harmonious agreement than is usual when the annual list of Box Office Champion pictures and the nominees for the awards of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences are compared. Exhibitors make the Box Office Champions. Hollywood's artists (they're all artists, from executive down to laborer) decide who shall receive the honors.

Of the ten nominations for the most outstanding picture of the year, seven were Champions: "Alexander's Ragtime Band," "Boys Town," "The Citadel," "Four Daughters," "The Adventures of Robin Hood," "Test Pilot" and "You Can't Take It With You."

Exhibitors who name the ten money making stars of the year and the artists who nominated the ten best actors and actresses, five of each, were at complete loggerheads. The exhibitors said that Spencer Tracy was the fifth best drawing card. The artists allowed that he, for "Boys Town," was the only one of the famous ten who turned in a good enough performance to be considered a candidate for the actor's statuette. Charles Boyer, who was in "Algiers," and James Cagney, who starred in "Angels with Dirty Faces," are among Tracy's competitors for the trophy, and both the pictures were Champions.

On the distaff side, Norma Shearer and Margaret Sullavan, who were in the Box Office Champions, "Marie Antoinette" and "Three Comrades," respectively, are nominees for the best performance by an actress.

Four of the five nominees for the best performance by an actor in a supporting role were in Champions. There are John Garfield in "Four Daughters," Gene Lockhart in "Algiers," Robert Morley in "Marie Antoinette," and Basil Rathbone in "If I Were King."

Of the candidates for best performance by an actress in a supporting role, the only nominee who was in a Champion picture is Spring Byington, who was featured in "You Can't Take It With You."

All five nominees for best directing achievement directed Box Office Champions. Michael Curtiz made "Angels with Dirty Faces" and "Four Daughters," Norman Taurog did "Boys Town." King Vidor is credited with "The Citadel," Frank Capra with "You Can't Take It with You."

Practically the same parallel is carried through in the list of Champions and the names submitted for the best written screen play. John Meehan and Dore Schary wrote "Boys Town." Ian Dalrymple, Frank Wead and Elizabeth Hill did "The Citadel." The screen play of "Four Daughters" was written by Julius J. Epstein and Lenore Coffee. Robert Riskin did "You Can't Take It with You." The other nominees are the writers of "Pygmalion," including one G. B. Shaw, and the box office returns on that film aren't all in yet.

In all but one case, nominees for the best original motion picture story were Box Office Champions. They are "Alexander's Ragtime Band," Irving Berlin; "Angels with Dirty Faces," Rowland Brown; "Boys Town," Dore Schary and Eleanore Griffin; "Mad about Music," Marcella Burke and Frederick Kohner, and "Test Pilot," Frank Wead. "Blockade," John Howard Lawson, is the exception.

Nine of the eleven nominations for best achievement in art direction were Champions. They are "Robin Hood," "Tom Sawyer," "Alexander's Ragtime Band," "Algiers," "Goldwyn Follies," "Holiday," "If I Were King," "Mad about Music" and "Marie Antoinette."

SHORT PRODUCT PLAYING BROADWAY

Week of February 11

CAPITOL
Great Heart, The	MGM
Mice Will Play, The	Vitaphone
CRITERION
Petunia Natural Park	MGM
King Vulture	Columbia
MUSIC HALL
March of Time, The, No. 7	RKO Radio
PARAMOUNT
Customers Wanted	Paramount
RIALTO
Mickey's Trailer	RKO Radio
Newsreel	RKO Radio
RIVOLI
Brave Little Tailor	RKO Radio
ROXY
Viking Trail	20th Cent.-Fox
Gandy the Goose in the Frame Up	20th Cent.-Fox

Four Champions are included in the five pictures submitted for the best achievement in film editing, "Robin Hood," "Ragtime Band," "Test Pilot" and "You Can't Take It with You." For best achievement in sound recording, all but two of the ten pictures named were Champions. Likewise all the nominations for best cinematography, but two, were Box Office Champions.

Whichever producer wins the Irving Thalberg Memorial Award will have been the producer of a Box Office Champion.

Pictures

The number of pictures started and finished in the past week doesn't add up to any impressive total. Only five went into work. Only six were completed.

MGM started four of the new pictures. Two of them are remakes of old stories and at the moment are carrying their original titles. "Penthouse" will feature Walter Pidgeon, Virginia Bruce and Herbert Mundin. "Within the Law," last made by the company under the title "Paid," with Joan Crawford starred, this time will be a vehicle for Ruth Hussey, Rita Johnson, Paul Kelly and Lynne Carver. The other two have, as far as themes go, brand new stories. In "Maiden Voyage" Robert Young, Annabella and Walter Connolly are the top liners. Dennis O'Keefe, Florence Rice, Buddy Ebsen, Anthony Allen and Jessie Ralph are the principals in "The Kid from Texas."

"American Family," a follow-up story to "Four Daughters," started at Warners. Practically the same cast featured in the first picture will be employed, as the three Lane sisters, Gale Page, John Garfield, Jeffrey Lynn, May Robson, Claude Rains and Dick Foran are included. Fay Bainter and Frank McHugh are notable additions.

Universal Finishes Two

Universal completed two pictures. One of these, "The Spirit of Culver," is in a way a remake of "Tom Brown of Culver." The present version will present Jackie Cooper, Freddie Bartholomew, Andy Devine, Henry Hull, Tim Holt, Gene Reynolds, Jackie Moran, Kathryn Kane and Pierre Watkin. "Society Smugglers," formerly titled "Key Woman," will feature Preston Foster and Irene Hervey with Fred Keating, Walter Woolf King, Frank Jenks, Regis Toomey, Francis Robinson and Raymond Parker.

At Twentieth Century-Fox, "Hound of the Baskervilles" moved from the stages into the editing and music scoring departments. Rapidly rising Richard Greene, Basil Rathbone, Wendy Barry, Lionel Atwill, Nigel Bruce, John Carradine, Ralph Forbes, Beryl Mercer, E. E. Clive, Morton Lowry and Barlow Borland compose the cast.

Warner Bros. completed "Juarez," one of the most ambitious productions this company ever attempted. For name value it will offer Paul Muni, Bette Davis, Brian Aherne, Claude Rains, John Garfield, Donald Crisp, Gilbert Roland, Joseph Calleia, Montague Love, Harry Davenport, Henry O'Neill, Gale Sondergaard, Pedro De Cordoba, John Miljan, Hugh Sothern, Robert Warwick, Georgie Caine, Egon Brecher and Harry Worth.

Autry Film Completed

Republic finished "Mexicali Rose." Gene Autry is the star, with Smiley Burnette, Noah Beery, Luana Walters, William Royle, Leroy Mason, Burr Carruth, Wally Albright and Henry Otho.

MGM completed "The Hardys Ride High." The regular cast of Mickey Rooney, Lewis Stone, Fay Holden, Cecilia Parker, and Ann Rutherford was supplemented by Virginia Grey, Don Castle, William Orr, Minor Watson, Ann Morriss and Halliwell Hobbes.

Probings

Labor wars and "taxi" wars were "hot stuff" also back in sixteenth and seventeenth century France. James Whale dug up the information in preparation for "The Man in the Iron Mask."

The "taxis" were only sedan chairs carried by two men, but they were operated in much the same way that the taxi rental business is carried on now. A monopolistic organization controlled all sedan chairs and boosted transportation rates. Thence came horsedrawn two-wheeled vehicles.

Then the sedan chair carriers carried on gang warfare against anyone riding in a wagon. The wagon gang retaliated, until a compromise was reached. In this decision brouettes, or "wheelbarrows," as they were called, were allowed for use if they were pulled by men instead of horses.

SHOWMEN'S REVIEWS

This department deals with new product from the point of view of the exhibitor who is to purvey it to his own public

You Can't Cheat An Honest Man

(Universal)

Comedy Under the Big Top

The W. C. Fields of this roaring comedy is the Fields of the unforgettable Follies, rakish, rowdy and unpredictably funny. The Edgar Bergen who shares the picture with him is the debonair Bergen of the Chase and Sanborn Coffee Hour plus visibility and a romantic interest. Charlie McCarthy is a funnier Charlie than on the air or in the same company's "A Letter of Introduction," and Mortimer Snerd, making his second screen appearance as Charlie's brother under the bark, has more lines to speak, including some of the best in the picture. Showmen promising their customers a peak load of laughs can count these as four aces, pat.

Produced by Lester Cowan and directed by George Marshall with never a thought save for humorous effect, the film presents Fields as a shoe string Barnum whose circus is pursued by as fine a collection of sheriffs as ever attached a center pole. Fields sets a terrific pace for himself in an early sequence staged in and around the ticket wagon, maintains it through a dozen others on and off the circus grounds, then tops these with a society-crashing episode which is sheer Sennett brought up to date and made vocal. He is as funny in these as in his best stage days, funnier than he's ever been since.

Bergen and his boys have substantially less footage than Fields in which to run up their score, but it is secondary only in length of lens exposure. His first appearance, in a side show bit with McCarthy, is a whirlwind sequence. Later episodes deal with the rescue of Charlie from a crocodile's innard, the sawing of the young man in half, some rough and tumble interludes with Fields and, finally, a parachute escape from a runaway balloon. Charlie carries more of the Bergen comedy than Mortimer, but Mortimer has some of the best moments. Bergen accepts his romantic responsibilities lightly.

The screen play, from a story by Charles Bogle, who is Fields by this or any other name, is credited to George Marion, Jr., Richard Mack and Everett Freeman. It is composed chiefly of gags made to order for the comedians. The background idea concerns a circus owner's daughter who loves the show's ventriloquist but agrees to marry a young millionaire because she thinks her father needs money. He does, but she marries the ventriloquist, after all.

Constructed for laugh purposes and aimed, alternately, at mind and midriff, the film is howlingly funny, and clean.

Previewed at the Universal studio to press representatives who laughed themselves into tears.—WILLIAM R. WEAVER.

Produced and distributed by Universal. Producer. Lester Cowan. Director, George Marshall. Assistant director, Vernon Keays. Original story by Charles Bogle. Photographer, Milton Krasner. Art director, Jack Otterson. Film editor, Otto Ludwig. Sound recorder, Robert Pritchard. P.C.A. Certificate No. 5101. Running time, when seen in Hollywood, 75 minutes. Release date, February 17, 1937. General audience classification.

CAST

Larson E. Whipsnade	W. C. Fields
Edgar Bergen	Edgar Bergen
Charlie McCarthy	Charlie McCarthy
Mortimer	Mortimer Snerd
Vicky Whipsnade	Constance Moore
Mrs. Bel-Goodie	Mary Forbes
Mr. Bel-Goodie	Thurston Hall
Princess Baba	Princess Baba
Phineas Whipsnade	John Arledge
Butler	Charles Coleman
Corbett	Edward Brophy
Burr	Arthur Hohl
Blacaman	Blacaman
Cheerful	Eddie Anderson
Chester	Grady Sutton
Deputy Sheriff	Ferris Taylor
Roger Bel-Goodie	James Bush
Ronnie	Ivan Lebedeff

Let Freedom Ring

(MGM)

Americanism

Here is a surprise package. Not much was heard of "Let Freedom Ring" while it was in production. MGM must have been keeping it under cover. Lots will be heard of it after its first releases and during subsequent runs. First, last and always it is entertainment, the kind of entertainment that kept the backwoods theatres going during many a lean year. It's also the kind that every once in a while hands those at theatres on the bright light streets a real treat. Then again, without appearing to be so, it is propaganda, idealistic propaganda, for Americanism that is being preached in high places and low today.

Basically it is a hokum story with an emotional punch in almost every sequence. Whether those punches are the result of melodrama, love interest, thrill action or are inspired by music, they undoubtedly will exert the same effect on general audiences as they did on the preview crowd. In the case of the latter, it had the gathering enthusiastic all the way through and up on its feet cheering at the end. It was an adult audience that indulged in this display of spontaneity. When there is a goodly proportion of youngsters in the house the enthusiasm should be greater.

Ruthless railroad building representatives are robbing the settlers of their lands, right and left. Comes the people's white hope, who sees the odds are terrifically against the unorganized majority in favor of the organized minority. Turning renegade, becoming a spineless bootlicker, he worms his way into the confidence of the robber baron and is forced to sing for the Wall Street Croesus. His music runs all the way from Irish ballads to folk songs to "America."

Realizing that the only way he can beat intrenched greed is through the power of an untrammeled press, he steals a printing press, publishes a paper and brings the first messages of Americanism to the heterogeneous gang of immigrant railroad builders. In the finale, when it is sink or swim, he delivers a rip snorting Fourth of July oration, and as the girl who spurned him leads in singing "America," the bruiser he beat rallies to his aid in driving the interlopers off the lands of the pioneers who made America.

The production is whoop and holler stuff, brimful of exploitation material. The title is the tip-off as to what can be done. On top of what can be done with the production itself there is name value to accommodate the most varied requirements. First there's Nelson Eddy to talk about. Then there are Virginia Bruce, Victor McLaglen, Lionel Barrymore, Edward Arnold, Guy Kibbee, H. B. Warner, Charles Butterworth, Raymond Walburn and George Hayes. All have parts into which they can sink their teeth and none takes a small bite.

Previewed at the Village theatre, Westwood, Cal. The audience literally ate up the show. Interest picked up at once and there were no dull moments.—GUS MCCARTHY.

Produced and distributed by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. Producer, Harry Rapf. Director, Jack Conway. Original story and screen play, Ben Hecht. Songs: "Dusty Road" by Otis and Leon René, "Love Secrenade," Riccardo Drigo, Bob Wright, Chet Forrest. Musical director, Arthur Lange. Orchestral arrangements, Leonid Raab. Recording director, Douglas Shearer. Art director, Cedric Gibbons. Associate, Daniel B. Cathcart. Set decorator, Edwin B. Willis. Women's costumes by Dolly Tree. Men's costumes by Valles. Make-up created by Jack Dawn. Photographer, Sidney Wagner, A.S.C. Montage effects, John Hoffman. Film editor, Frederick Y. Smith. P.C.A Certificate No. 5064. Running time, 85 minutes. Release date, February 24, 1939. General audience classification.

CAST

Steve Logan	Nelson Eddy
Maggie Adams	Virginia Bruce
Chris Mulligan	Victor McLaglen
Thomas Logan	Lionel Barrymore
Jim Knox	Edward Arnold
David Bronson	Guy Kibbee
"The Mackerel"	Charles Butterworth
Rutledge	H. B. Warner
Underwood	Raymond Walburn
"Bumper" Jackson	Dick Rich
Gagan	Trevor Bardette
"Pop" Wilkie	George F. Hayes
Ned Wilkie	Louis Jean Heydt
"Ma" Logan	Sarah Padden
"Curly"	Eddie Dunn
Sheriff Hicks	C. E. Anderson

Let Us Live

(Columbia)

Melodrama

Here is set forth again, suspensefully, the predicament of the innocent man convicted of murder on circumstantial evidence, supported by mistaken eye-witness identification, and saved at the eleventh hour by new evidence unearthed by his sweetheart. This time, however, dialogue is such as to make the film, at no cost to melodramatic effect, an outspoken commentary on the judiciary system, law enforcement and the attitude of established officialdom toward "Little People." Maureen O'Sullivan, Henry Fonda, Ralph Bellamy and Alan Baxter, the four principals, play their parts competently and speak the significance-laden lines forcefully.

Anthony Veiller and Allen Rivkin, who wrote the screen play from a story by Joseph F. Dinneen, exercized the long arm of coincidence freely in creating tight situations. The man who is to be mistakenly identified as a murderer seen by nine eye-witnesses happens to have been present at the place whence the real murderer stole the death gun just before he stole it. Later on, a stray bullet from the gun lodges in an apple which the wrongfully convicted man's sweetheart happens to take to him at the penitentiary. Nevertheless, a certain degree of realism is attained by director John Brahm's highlighting of detail, and so earnest are the speeches indicting official red tape and tapesters as to make it appear for a time as if the innocent man will die in the chair to clinch the point. He doesn't quite, but he stalks out of the picture an embittered and unforgiving person.

The scene is an unidentified city large enough to support 120 taxicabs yet supplied with police force, prosecutors, and so on, of metropolitan proportions and technique. It is shown that the machinery of the law works swiftly to convict a man but has no provision for checking up on new evidence which may prove him innocent. Miss O'Sullivan and Fonda enunciate this point repeatedly, and Bellamy, cast as a police officer, finds it necessary to resign his commission in order to find time to help prove the condemned man innocent. The story goes pretty strongly editorial-page before it gets itself told.

Sociological import aside, the film is standard melodrama generating considerable tension and containing no incidental material unsuitable for family consumption.

Previewed at the Pantages theatre in Hollywood to a general audience plainly affected by the suspenseful ending.—W. R. W.

Produced and distributed by Columbia. Producer, William Perlberg. Director, John Brahm. Assistant director, William Mull. Original, Joseph F. Dinneen. Screen play, Anthony Veiller. Photographer, Henry Freulich, A.S.C. Film editor, Al Clark. Sound engineer, George Cooper. P.C.A. Certificate No. 4424. Running time, 65 minutes. Release date, February 28, 1939. General audience classification.

CAST

Brick	Henry Fonda
Mary	Maureen O'Sullivan
Lieut. Everett	Ralph Bellamy
Joe Linden	Alan Baxter
Police Chief	Henry Kolker
District Attorney	Stanley Ridges
Burke	Philip Trent
Walsh	George Douglas
Taylor	Peter Lynn
Jimmy Dugan	Martin Spellman

Wife, Husband and Friend

(20th Century-Fox)

Triangular Comedy Plus Songs

A comedy with music designed to please persons who don't like music, or musicians, is properly advertiseable as something new under the sun. This picture is properly advertiseable, also, as the one in which Warner Baxter snaps back into top acting form and the one in which Binnie Barnes fulfills the critical predictions made about her in recent months. There is nothing the matter with Miss Young's performance either.

The screen play by associate producer Nunally Johnson, from a novel by James M. Cain, is fast, frothy and fit. It presents the successive dilemmas of a wealthy gentleman, allergic to fine music, whose wife sets out to get herself a career in voice. His first attempt to cope with the situation consists of financing a concert on the theory that one will be enough. It isn't. But it attracts a famous soprano who is attracted to him and who, discovering that he is not only personable but likewise possessor of an unsuspected baritone voice, persuades him to become a famous singer in his own right on the theory that this will cure his wife of her aspirations. The precise character of the singer's interest in the husband is only passingly indicated during the amusing complications before husband and wife decide to abandon music as a field of artistic achievement.

Although the humor is of the mental kind most of the way, it is not too finely spun for general comprehension and there are two or three downright slapstick sequences. No attempt is made to suggest that the three principals do the singing attributed to them, nor that they don't, and the musical content is incidental to the story in all cases.

Gregory Ratoff's direction is without doubt the best he has done since joining the Twentieth Century-Fox organization, and supporting performances by George Barbier, Helen Westley and Eugene Pallette, add much to the gloss finish of the production.

Previewed at Grauman's Chinese theatre, Hollywood, where it kept everybody present in excellent spirits from start to finish.—W. R. W.

Produced and distributed by Twentieth Century-Fox. Associate producer (and screen play) by Nunnally Johnson. From the novel by James M. Cain. Directed by Gregory Ratoff. Music by Samuel Pokrass, Walter Bullock and Armando Hauser. Photographed by Ernest Palmer. Film editor, Walter Thompson. P. C. A. certificate number 4862. Release date, March 3, 1939. Running time, 75 minutes. General audience classification.

CAST

Doris Borland	Loretta Young
Leonard Borland	Warner Baxter
Cecil Carver	Binnie Barnes
Hugo	Cesar Romero
Major Blair	George Barbier
Rossi	J. Edward Bromberg
Mike Craig	Eugene Pallette
Mrs. Blair	Helen Westley
Secretary	Ruth Terry
Sally Bostwick	Alice Armand
Miss Carver's Secretary	Iva Stewart
Mrs. Price	Dorothy Dearing
Mrs. Spalding	Helen Ericson
Nancy Sprague	Kay Griffiths
Wilkins	Harry Rosenthal
Butler	Edward Cooper
Mrs. Craig	Rene Riano
Hertz	Lawrence Grant
Jaffe	Charles Williams
Concert Manager	Howard Hickman
Doctor	George Irving
Hotel Manager	Harry Hayden

Twelve Crowded Hours

(RKO-Radio)

Crime Melodrama

There is a riot of action and suspense in RKO's "Twelve Crowded Hours," which brings Richard Dix to the screen as a nervy crime reporter in a city established as New York. It is crime melodrama, exciting and unfolded with a minimum of waste effort. Its plot concerns the fight of a reporter to aid the paroled convict brother of the girl he loves and at the same time uncover a gang of policy racketeers.

Supporting Dix are Lucille Ball, Allan Lane, Donald MacBride, Cyrus W. Kendall, John Arledge, Granville Bates, Bradley Page, Dorothy Lee, Addison Richards, Murray Alper, John Gallaudet and Joseph de Stephani.

The entire cast delivers believable performances, but the standout was a portrayal of the gang leader by Kendall. He brings to the screen a new face in the menace business.

Credit for the script, which pushes the story through to a climax without dallying, goes to John Twist, who adapted a tale by Garrett Fort and Peter Ruric. Lew Landers turns in a directorial achievement the greatest strength of which is crispness. Robert Sisk was associate producer under Lee Marcus.

The picture opens with a montage sequence which establishes the fact that it is night time in New York. Among the figures is that of a girl dressed in a black satin skirt, black lace stockings and black shoes, leaving her rooming house. The thread of the story begins when "Nick" attempts to make peace with "Paula," whose brother "Dave" was sent to prison. Following a series of escapades, in which four men are murdered, "Nick" finds out who did the killings but is captured by "Costain," racket leader, who plots to kill him and "Paula." However, "Nick," with the aid of a young assistant, "Red," defeats the plan and the gang leader goes to death with three of his accomplices. The film ends with a montage showing daybreak twelve hours later.

Members of the audience snickered when the same woman who was in the earlier shots returned home more languidly this time, apparently confirming their suspicions as to her occupation.

Previewed at the Alexander theatre in Glendale, Cal., to a mixed audience reaction. Several started to applaud the return of the woman mentioned above and who was never identified. Also noticed was a situation in which the gangster, upon being cautioned not to tell his girl friend anything of the plot, replied, "Why worry? My girl and I don't waste much time talking."—V. K.

Produced and distributed by RKO-Radio. Producer, Robert Sisk. Director, Lew Landers. Original story Garrett Fort and Peter Ruric. Screen play, John Twist. Musical director, Rob Webb. Photographer, Nicholas Musuraca. Special effects, Vernon L. Walker. Art director, Van Nest Polglase. Associate, Albert D'Agostino. Gowns, Renie. Sound recorder, Hugh McDowell, Jr. Film editor, Harry Marker. P.C.A. Certificate No. 4915. Running time, 65 minutes. Release date, March 3, 1939. Adult audience classification.

CAST

Nick Green	Richard Dix
Paula Sanders	Lucille Ball
"Red"	John Arledge
Lew Costain	Cy Kendall
Joe Keller	Donald MacBride
James McEween	Granville Bates
Dave	Allan Lane
Allen	Murray Alper
Berquist	Addison Richards
Rovitch	Joseph De Stefani
Thelma	Dorothy Lee
Tom Miller	Bradley Page
Jerry Miller	Anthony Warde
Jimmy	John Gallaudet
Copy Boy	Lee Van Atta
Doorkeeper	Emory Parnell
Bartender	Edgar Dearing
Police Driver	Dick Clarke
Professor Busby	Jack Rice
Red Cap	Roy Turner
Patrolman	Stanley Blystone
Nick's Driver	Al Herman
Mrs. Rovitch	Greta Meyer
French Waiter	George Davis
Cigarette Girl	Dorothy Lovett
Hat Check Girl	Eleanor Hansen
Head Waiter	Bruce Sidney
Prop. Pool Hall	Eddie Cobb

Six Gun Rhythm

(Grand National - Arcadia)

Formula Western

A Saturday afternoon crowd of youngsters did not get very interested in "Six Gun Rhythm." Although the boys and girls welcomed the preview announcement as they would ice cream, even the youngest didn't see anything that he hadn't seen several times before.

The show has one bit of novelty; football players aid their former pal in the chase and battle finale.

Because his father, who was in league with rustlers, has disappeared, and the brother of the girl he loves is suspected of murder, the singing buckaroo, "Tex," sets out to wipe the stains of dishonor from both family escutcheons. Of course, he has a comedy pal. Naturally, the girl doesn't look upon him with any great degree of affection at first and the rustlers have the whip hand. Then the hero, with the aid of his football mates, saves the girl, proves her brother is not the killer, breaks up the rustling gang, polishes up family reputations and wins the girl.

Previewed at the Oriental theatre, Hollywood. The kids did considerable whooping and hollering with and at the picture.—G. M.

Distributed by Grand National. Produced by Arcadia Productions. Produced and directed by Sam Newfield. Screen play by Fred Myton. Story by Ted Richmond. Chuck Wasserman, assistant director. Bob Crandall, film editor. Music and lyrics by Johnny Lange and Lew Porter. Photographed by Art Reed. P. C. A. certificate not recorded as of February 13. Runnning time, 55 minutes. Release date: To be determined. General audience classfication.

CAST

Tex	Tex Fletcher
Jean Harper	Joan Barclay
Spud Donovan	Ralph Peters
Jim Davis	Reed Howes
Bart	Walter Shumway
Pete	Slim Hacker
Jake	Carl Mathews
Mike	Art Davis
Lem Baker	Bob Fraser
Butch	Jack McHugh
Slim	Sherry Tansey
Pat	Kit Guard
Don Harper	Bud McTaggert
Sheriff	Ted Adams

"...one-third of a nation..."

(Paramount)

Propaganda Picture

The screen version of ". . . one third of a nation," directed and adapted by Dudley Murphy, from the Federal Theatre's stage study of slum conditions, may be regarded as an example of what the proponents of films with a partisan appeal and purpose would consider the

(Continued on page 48)

MPPDA CITES PICTURES' ADVANCE IN TEN LINES

Decency Not Incompatible with High Amusement Values, Says Community Service Report

Ten developments marking motion picture progress in the last year were pointed out this week by the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, Cited were the industry's self-regulation, community cooperation, quality and size of audiences, box office reactions to finer pictures, relations with schools, universities, libraries, churches and social workers, plus "a finer technique in photography, color and music," and "the sweep of interest in American pictures."

Going to 18,000 Reviewers

The report on the screen's progress was made by the MPPDA through its Community Service Department, of which Mrs. Thomas G. Winter, in Hollywood, is chairman. It is going forward to 18,000 individuals reviewing, rating or otherwise studying pictures regularly for social, educational, religious and civic organizations having a combined membership of 53,922,934 in the United States.

On "progress in self-regulation," the report points out, "This is the only medium of expression that is exercising self-control," adding: "The accusation that pictures are 'too clean' and therefore dull is absurd." It is conceded that "picture-makers are bombarded by all kinds of special interests, national prejudices, etc., which hamper them, but decency is not incompatible with high amusement values."

In "community cooperation," it is said, local committees and councils numbering probably 6,000 have sprung up to guard their home-town conditions, build up audiences for fine type pictures and discourage poor ones. Representatives of ten great national women's organizations are being shown studio products in advance views, and their estimates of these pictures are going to many thousands of organizations, libraries and schools every week."

"Finer" Pictures Wanted

On the "quality and size of audiences," the report estimates, "Picture audiences are now over 80,000,000 a week in the United States, and 250,000,000 are seeing American films over the world. Meanwhile pictures have steadily drawn into theatres audiences of more exacting taste and thus made possible the exhibition of better type cinema."

Pointing out the continued "box office reaction to finer pictures," it is said that "in 1937 the 30 pictures that paid best were all of a high type. The same thing seems true in 1938. This is a demonstration of the onward march. The box office is the acid test."

Film Appreciation Courses

"Thousands of schools are now teaching motion picture appreciation," continues the report in discussing "improved relations with schools and universities."

"There are enough pictures that meet standards of history, social problems or art to warrant their inclusion in curricula. Similarly the universities are introducing courses some of them very complete, others in the trial stages. The pressure of children's interest in pictures and the response of the studios in quality production made this possible."

The report continues:

"Libraries over the country have discovered that the choice of books is largely influenced by current pictures. It has therefore become necessary to supply library magazine weeklies with information as to what books, plays or important periods are to be filmed in order that they may get the books before the demand comes upon them. Also, at their own request, libraries in 1,500 towns and cities are supplied with selected lists. These are in poster form or may be clipped and mounted on cards.

Radio and General Public Interest

"In addition to the widespread motion picture 'gossip' that goes over the radio, our department is sending weekly advance information about interesting studio happenings to some hundreds of local broadcasters. Newspapers and magazines are filled with motion picture anecdotes, personal gossip, general discussion and estimates, some of them useful, some not so good, but all showing the immense public interest and therefore potential power of the cinema.

Churches and Social Workers

"Individual churches and church organizations are taking even greater interest in the cinema, some in helping its general standards, some in publicizing particular pictures in church bulletins. Social workers are throwing their recommendations behind pictures that help the public to understand problems of health, of bad juvenile surroundings.

"Finer Technique"

"Steadily the studio technicians push towards greater excellence in photography, beauty of color, lovelier scenic art and finer reproduction of music. They are pushing into the realm of art—all the arts that are used in pictures. The public outlined above is contributing to this push by its support and admiration.

Coming Pictures

"The awakening of the United States to a far keener appreciation of the meaning and the privileges of democracy, meets a response in the studios. Many of the coming pictures deal with the development, the picturesqueness, the valor and striking stories of our country. Series of shorts from several studios are portraying great events in our history. The social problems of today, particularly as they affect young life, are being played up. Stories of 'plain folk' and ordinary family life are meeting cordial response.

"Americanism, as it was and is, and we hope it will be, is the major theme of coming pictures, retold in infinite variety and colorful drama.

Bush Succeeds Lachmann At 20th Century-Fox

Rodney Bush, in charge of national cooperative advertising for Twentieth Century-Fox, has been appointed special exploitation representative by Charles E. McCarthy, director of advertising and publicity. He succeeds Marc Lachmann, resigned. William Chambliss, who has been assistant to Mr. Lachmann, continues under Mr. Bush.

Alfred Cohn Leaves 20th-Fox

Alfred A. Cohn, who joined the Twentieth Century-Fox studio staff a year ago, has resigned to accept a post with another studio, shortly to be announced.

RKO Board Will Be Nominated This Week; Expect 15

Anticipated this week was the submission to Federal Judge William Bondy of a directorate for the newly organized RKO, under the plan proposed by the Atlas Corporation in New York Federal district court. Judge Bondy has approved the plan, with minor changes, and will sign the confirmation order, presumably by February 27, when the next hearing is scheduled.

Colonel Hamilton C. Rickaby, counsel for Atlas, had been scheduled to submit the directorship list last Friday but explained that "last minute changes" had necessitated a delay.

The "last minute" changes referred to are presumably the addition to the board of members from Time, Inc., a large RKO creditor, and from the independent stockholders' committee.

Additionally expected on the board is representation for the company, besides Atlas, that does the underwriting of $1,500,000 for the newly organized company. This is expected to mean a total membership of 13 to 15, instead of 11.

Agreed upon by observers as probable members, the newly contemplated additions are: George J. Schaefer and Ned Depinet, of RKO, as president and vice-president, respectively; James G. Harbord and Lunsford P. Yandell, of RCA; W. G. Van Schmus and Dr. Beardsley Ruml, of Rockefeller Center; Floyd Odlum, Peter J. Rathvon, and Walter Peterson, of the Atlas Corporation; Fred Ehrman of Lehman Brothers, and L. Lawrence Green, an attorney representing the unsecured creditors.

Charles L. Stillman, treasurer of Time, Inc., is mentioned as a possible representative for that firm, and Hugh Robertson has been regarded as a possible replacement for Dr. Ruml.

Warners Radio Cooperative Advertising in Michigan

For the Michigan premieres of Warner Brothers' "Wings of the Navy," starting February 24 and in theatres of the United Detroit Theatres and the Butterfield circuit, Warner Brothers will conduct a cooperative radio program.

The plan provides for a half-hour program, with a cast of more than 60 dramatic players, musicians and specialty artists, in a part-preview of the picture.

The air shows will be during the noon hours of February 19, 24 and 26.

Markowitz Goes to Atlanta

Joe Markowitz, office manager of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer at the Kansas City exchange, has been transferred to the company's Atlanta exchange as salesman.

Warner Brothers has given Geraldine Fitzgerald an extension of her contract. She will have the feminine lead opposite Pat O'Brien and Frank McHugh in "Three Cheers for the Irish."

KORDA DOES IT AGAIN

Merle Oberon

A KORDA DISCOVERY . . first brought to you in "Henry VIII" . . then quickly a great box-office name in such films as "Dark Angel", "These Three" and "Cowboy and the Lady".

Robert Donat

A KORDA DISCOVERY . .
Advanced to marquee prestige in "The Count of Monte Cristo" . . today hailed for his work in "The Citadel".

Vivien Leigh

A KORDA DISCOVERY . . first featured in "Dark Journey", "Fire over England" and "Storm in a Teacup". Selected by David O. Selznick to play Scarlett O'Hara in "Gone With The Wind".

Sabu . . .

A KORDA DISCOVERY . . first acclaimed in "Elephant Boy" and "Drums". Now preparing to co-star in "The Thief of Bagdad".

Charles Laughton

A KORDA DISCOVERY . . always remembered for his first great role as "Henry VIII" leading to his famous portrayals in "The Barretts of Wimpole Street", "Mutiny on the Bounty" and "Rembrandt".

AND . .

NOW

Alexander Korda's

FLAMING NEW DISCOVERY...

CORINNE LUCHAIRE

"Hauntingly lovely", says Photoplay. "She runs the gamut from bitter incorrigibility to convincing heartbreak", reports Screenland. "Promises a stunning career", predicts Stage Magazine. Korda stars her in an electrifying story...

PRISON WITHOUT BARS

with
EDNA BEST · BARRY BARNES
Directed by BRIAN DESMOND HURST
Released thru UNITED ARTISTS

PLUS

A TRIPLE CHARGE OF DYNAMITE

in the brittle, brilliant performances of Mary Morris, Lorraine Clewes and Sally Wisher as the tough girls who walk alone. All of them KORDA DISCOVERIES!

ASIDES and INTERLUDES

By JAMES P. CUNNINGHAM

If you want to know how to keep that waistline down, ask Jose Schorr, publicity writer at Columbia Pictures' home office in New York. From Columbia press agentry to expert on dietics is, admittedly, a big jump, but Jose negotiated it while assisting Dr. William Engel, Hollywood movie dietician, in the writing of "Sensible Dieting," a merry little volume on the art of eating. Alfred A. Knopf, New York, will publish it next week.

Jose, by the way, is the brother of Hortense Schorr, Columbia press agent; Dr. Engel is the brother of Joe Engel, well known in film distribution, and Alfred Knopf is the brother of Edwin Knopf, who resigned only last week as story editor of MGM on the coast.

Long a writer of humor for the popular magazines, Jose has written himself into magazines all the way from the "true confessions" pulp type to Esquire and Fortune. This, however, is his first venture in the book field, and it starts off auspiciouslv by advancing the theory that, "We are what we eat," offering as proof the story about the dusky old Queen of Hawaii who turned to her hostess, the staid old Queen Victoria of England, and asked: "Do you know, your Majesty, that I am related to you."

"But, how?" cried Victoria, jolted by the information.

"By a most pronounced relationship," explained the dusky Hawaiian Queen. "My grandfather helped to eat your Captain Cook."

▽

Whenever "Slicker," RKO's acting seal, travels around Hollywood they send along a cortege consisting of two trainers, a seal double, a truck driver, an SPCA officer and his owner.

▽

With the showing the other day of Warner Brothers' "Wings of the Navy," at Washington, some eagle-eyed Army officers in the Capital got to wondering how come Army bombing planes are used in a motion picture about naval aviation.

Those very same Army planes seen skirting around the skies in the Navy film were the subject of much heated argument between the two services. Seems that the "flying fortresses" were being put through their first tests by the Army and they flew them some distance out to sea, whereupon the Navy became very stuffy and had them ordered back to shore on the grounds that they were encroaching upon Navy "territory."

▽

Milton Silver, of National Screen Service, New York, attended a little party the other evening where a fellow was holding forth on the latest news from Naziland. They were discussing the troubles which American businessmen, including those in the motion picture, are having in Germany and someone told how General Motors, in order to get some financial remuneration from their operations over there, are bringing to the U. S. a lot of harmonicas in lieu of money.

"That," piped up Silver, "accounts for those squeaks in the new Chevrolets."

▽

Again the Association of Merchant Tailors has named America's "best dressed men, and again they have neglected to mention Motion Picture Daily's own sartorially-perfect James Allen Cron.

PROFESSOR Ralph H. McKee's search for a good five-cent cigar, with emphasis on the good rather than the five cents, has led him to develop a chemical process which he claims will keep motion picture film from becoming brittle through loss of moisture.

Dr. McKee, professor of chemical engineering at Columbia University, already has patented his "pliable humidifying sheet material" and has assigned his rights to the Humikan Products, Inc., Rockefeller Center, New York.

By the use of the "humidifying sheets," according to the Columbia professor, the exact humidity to keep the film in good condition is maintained.

It was some four or five years ago, he stated, that the search for a good cigar began.

"When I got to thinking about the need for a good cigar, I found out that no matter how good it may be when it leaves its birthplace, it may soon cease to be good if too much steam heat dries out its moisture or too much humidity in the air makes it too damp."

Dr. McKee also learned that the moisture content of the perfect cigar to suit the American taste should be about 70 per cent.

"So I set to work to find a salt that would give 70 per cent humidity when in contact with the atmosphere and I found the most practicable one in common borax," he explained.

"I soaked a porous heavyweight paper in a solution of the salt, dried out the excess moisture and left the salt in the paper. When I put a piece of this paper in an envelope inside a cigar box, I found that however often the box was opened and whatever the temperature outside, the cigars maintained a constant humidity. The salt works both ways. When the humidity is too low it gives out moisture; when too high, it absorbs it."

Dr. McKee was turning his attention to keeping packages of cigarets in good condition when a friend complained that moisture was ruining many of his photographic accessories. It was because of this that Dr. McKee said he discovered that the "air-conditioning for goods" could be used in film cans.

During the world war Dr. McKee was director of the Ordnance School of Explosives and patented new kinds of dynamite. He has been associated with developing new kinds of cellulose-producing trees, an artificial fat for diabetes sufferers, a dried meat and fish process, a diamond making process and artificial wood.

His latest discovery, Dr. McKee expects, will be on view at the New York World's Fair.

▽

Exploiting RKO's "Gunga Din" at the Orpheum theatre in New Orleans, Gar Moore, press agent, lined up contestants at a prominent downtown bar and had them recite Kipling's famous poem while imbibing drinks, free on the theatre. Judges decided the best emoted performance while the speakers were well imbibed with grog.

▽

We'll wager that the cartoon business in Hollywood will soon be having a brand new college professor standing around in the vicinity of its employment windows. Dr. Robert Durant Field, a professor in the Harvard Fine Arts Department, has been dismissed. He's the "prof" who last year found that Walt Disney's Mickey Mouse was art; his espousal of little Mickey leading to a Harvard honorary master's degree for Disney.

Police Chief E. A. Garner of Sarasota, Florida, is a veritable William R. Ferguson, Leo the Lion's best showman at MGM.

Chief Garner recently installed a modern, two-way radio system to provide added police protection for Sarasota's 10,000 inhabitants. The town's budgeting had already been closed, so he decided to finance the purchase "on his own." He raised all but $400 of the necessary $2,400 through a series of public shows, benefit games, motor boat raffle, baseball and whatnot. He then arranged with the Radio Company for immediate installation of the equipment, with the understanding that the balance would be paid within a short time.

To get money for the final payment, Chief Garner decided on a wedding in a lion's cage. He got the lion and the cage all right, from the nearby winter quarters of the Ringling Circus. But his policemen now are out hunting people to put in it for the wedding, certain that enough Sarasotians will pay admission fees to the affair to bring him the necessary $400.

Chief Garner has designated H. M. Leighley, RCA police radio sales engineer from Daytona Beach to act as best man. As the man who sold the new radio system, Mr. Leighley had not bargained for an invitation to receive such a dubious honor. He says that, though he has never met lions socially in his work, he sees no way of getting around the invitation. After all, there is that matter of a $400 balance due.

▽

H. I. Phillips hears they are thinking of putting Kate Smith in that Rockefeller Center Theatre show and calling it "The American Weigh."

▽

Russell Birdwell, Hollywood movie press agent, has cause to rejoice. The radio broadcasters' ban on "I Ring Doorbells," song by Lou Forbes and W. W. Ferguson, inspired by Mr. Birdwell's book of the same title, has been lifted. Objection was made by National Broadcasting Company to such lyrics, written in headline style, as "Chorus girl takes millionaire, gun moll sticks up petting pair," "Mae West models rigid hip," "Gypsy Rose forgets to strip."

Substituted for these to gain NBC approval were, "Night club fan gets breath of air," "Tarzan trips in tree-top skip" and "Woman flier circles globe."

Messrs. Forbes and Ferguson and Birdwell can now go ringing doorbells on the air to their hearts' content.

▽

Latest daily press attention given to Warner Brothers' "Confessions Of a Nazi Spy," now in production, concerns the walkout from Warners' studio of one Horace Brown, an extra wearing a Nazi uniform, with swastika arm-band, who refused to obey Director Anatole Litvak's instructions to salute a character representing Adolph Hitler. "Not even in make-believe" would Horace raise his arm to the make-believe Hitler.

▽

It looked like a piece of real business when a gentleman telephoned our information department the other morning to inquire where he could purchase—outright and in a hurry—"at least 50 short subjects on operations." The "operations" turned out to be surgical.

SHOWMEN'S REVIEWS OF PRODUCT

(Continued from page 43)

well made propaganda production. The everyday picture patron, who regulates his screen shopping on entertainment value, may consider this scenario sermon well intentioned, if rather muddled, socialized propaganda but lacking in widespread popular appeal.

After a preview showing of the film on the West Coast, during the screening of which many of the puzzled audience left before the finale, Gus McCarthy wrote: "This production seeks to put across a vital message. It also seeks to be melodramatic entertainment. It succeeds in neither objective."

Titled and thematically based on a sentence from one of President Roosevelt's speeches, the story tells of "Peter Cortlandt," socialite owner of rickety tenement fire traps, who is supported by "Mary Rogers" and her brother, "Joey," permanently crippled from a previous blaze, in an effort to rebuild the property into decent and safe dwellings. When family opposition from his sister-snob and his business manager threaten a court suit, the boy "Joey" fires the house and is burned to death. The lad's action spurs the wealthy realtor to begin demolition of the tenement holdings. According to the story's solution, it would seem that the best way to meet the slum problem is to have a bevy of young women from the Ghetto meet up with an equal number of plutocratic playboys, who are as socially minded and as generous as "Cortlandt" is drawn to be.

With the exception of Slyvia Sidney and Leif Erikson, the cast is composed for the most part of theatre performers, reading their lines in the style and intonation of their stage experience.

Previewed at a trade showing in New York. —JOSEPH F. COUGHLIN.

Producer, Harold Orlob. Distributed by Paramount Pictures. Director, Dudley Murphy. Author of stage play, Arthur Arent. Adapter, Dudley Murphy. Screen play, Oliver H. P. Garrett. Cameraman, William Miller. Assistant director, Saul Harrison. Art director, Walter Keller. Film editor, Duncan Mansfield. P.C.A. Certificate No. 02340. Running time, when seen in New York, 76 minutes. Release date, February 24, 1939. Adult audience classification.

Navy Secrets

(Monogram)

Timely Melodrama

Exhibitors alert to interests of the day have here a picture about which they can write ad copy fashioned directly after the headlines in the morning newspaper. A story about spies and their detection, told plainly and realistically, the film lays no claim to paralleling specific contemporary incident but paints a commanding picture of espionage operations such as newsprint readers have been taught to believe proceed steadily in this and other nations in peacetime as in war.

There is no whoopla or flagwaving. The hero, played by Grant Withers, does his chores for the secret service in businesslike fashion. The heroine, played by Fay Wray, serves her country without screaming about it. The place could be any seaport, the spies could be any nation's spies, and the time could be, doubtlessly is, now. The anti-American plotters are brought to justice without being made to seem fantastically clever or incongruously stupid at any time. It is a distinctly practical bit of film fiction.

The screen play by Harvey Gates, from a Cosmopolitan story by Steve Fisher, is a snug piece of composition. It disposes at once of a sailor in pay of foreign agents and introduces, without identifying him as such, an F.B.I. man posing as the traitorous seaman's buddy, intent on delivering an envelope from the traitor to an unnamed person ashore. He meets his buddy's supposed girl friend, who has seemed to be cooperating with him in the sale of naval information, and the two fall in love despite their mutual suspicion. The F. B. I. man makes his way through a series of seeming blunders to the spy leader, is captured, escapes, finally bringing the spies to justice. The romantic requirement is satisfied when the girl turns out to be a government operator also.

Direction by Howard Bretherton is smooth, steady and free of furbelows. Supervised by William T. Lackey for Scott R. Dunlap, Monogram production chief, the film takes espionage out of the realm of phantasy, strips it of glossy tradition and sets it before the audience as a plain and essentially inglorious institution. This makes the picture, somehow, a more potent treatment than gaudier predecessors in the same channel.

Previewed at the Monogram studio, Hollywood.—W. R. W.

Produced and distributed by Monogram. Supervised by William T. Lackey. Directed by Howard Bretherton. Screen play by Harvey Gates. Story by Steve Fisher. Photographed by Harry Neuman. Film editor, Russell Schoengarth. P. C. A. certificate No. 4885. Release date, Feb. 8, 1939. Running time, when seen in Hollywood, 62 minutes. General audience classification.

CAST

Steve	Grant Withers
Carol	Fay Wray
Nick	Dewey Robinson
Benje	Andre Cheron
Peter Droit	Robert Frazer
Jimmy	Craig Reynolds
Slavins	George Sorrell
Cronje	Wm. von Brincken
Daly	Joseph Crehan
Drunk	Arthur Housman

Fast and Loose

(MGM)

Comedy Melodrama

Not very often does a picture combine so completely so many different kinds of entertainment for variegated audiences as does "Fast and Loose." Less rarely does one contain so much ready-to-use showmanship value in cast, story and production detail.

From one viewpoint "Fast and Loose" is a comedy melodrama daubed with that tint of hokum that interests the masses. From another it's a smart, semi-sophisticated affair, the kind of picture that delights the smart set. It contains all the thrills and melodrama of the oldtime dime novels, all the comedy of the oldtime comic supplements, both blended to make a slick and suave attraction. Kneaded into it is a line of husband-wife love interest that overcomes wifely jealousy.

With a new pair of stars and an entirely new supporting cast featured, "Fast and Loose" is a continuation of the "Fast Company" idea, but improves it in every way. "Joel" and "Garda Sloane" are in the rare book business, which isn't doing very well, and so when the opportunity arises for him to indulge in his detective sideline, he is more than willing. Quickly he is involved in the forgery of a priceless manuscript that precipitates a family scandal and eventually leads to murder, but he solves it.

Entertainment that amuses, "Fast and Loose" also is a showman's show. For primary name value it has Robert Montgomery and Rosalind Russell in roles which they handle to the queen's taste. The supporting troupe, each of whom has a turn at being a principal, with facile ease speak the lines and go through the situations created for them by Harry Kurnitz, as directed by Edwin L. Marin.

As for exploitation possibilities, there are the who's-the-killer-and-why idea and the sustaining comedy and romance, name value and quality of production detail.

Previewed in the Village theatre, Westwood, Cal. When the audience wasn't holding its sides from laughter it was sitting on chair edges in tense suspense.—G. M.

Produced and distributed by MGM. Produced by Frederick Stephani. Directed by Edwin L. Marin. Original screen play by Harry Kurnitz. Elmo Veron, film editor. Photographed by George Folsey. P. C. A. certificate number 5023. Running time, 75 minutes. Release date: February 17, 1939. General audience classification.

CAST

Joel Sloane	Robert Montgomery
Garda Sloane	Rosalind Russell
Vincent Charlton	Reginald Owen
Nicholas Torrent	Ralph Morgan
Christopher Oates	Etienne Girardot
Dave Hilliard	Alan Dinehart
Christina Torrent	Jo Ann Sayers
Bobby Neville	Joan Marsh
Phil Sergeant	Anthony Allan
Gerald Torrent	Tom Collins
"Lucky" Nolan	Sidney Blackmer
Forbes	Donald Douglas
Wilkes	Ian Wolfe
Mrs. Torrent	Mary Forbes
Craddock	Leonard Carey

Stolen Life

(Orion-Paramount)

Emotional Melodrama

Here is what British production seldom is able to offer, an essentially star film. Elizabeth Bergner's following on both sides of the Atlantic may not be in the same category as that of Shirley Temple or George Formby, but it is a following, and most of the potential audiences for "Stolen Life" will be drawn by personal strands and the prospects of brilliant acting. That being so, they will get full esthetic and commercial satisfaction, for the star probably has not registered more effectively than in this dual role drama. The psychological nature of the theme and the predominant concern with feminine emotions and reactions suggest a mainly feminine appeal, but the sensitivity of the treatment, withal its funereal tempo, the intense dramatic element, and the high polish with which the production has been made, obviously will help to establish a repute for the film, one of Paramount's major quota acquisitions, with the more discerning audience.

The picture has a characteristically psychological flavor. It is the story of twin sisters, one of whom loves the explorer married by her more flirtatious sister and who seeks to palm herself off as the latter, drowned at sea. It is obviously a trespass on the grounds of narrative plausibility, but actually the sensibility of Czinner's handling of the situation, and the sympathy of Miss Bergner's portrayol, more than cover up the dramatic frailties. Indeed the final passages of the film, when the poseuse finds herself saddled with the weight of her dead sister's illicit loves, and faces the unspoken confusion of the wondering husband, are probably the most telling in a neatly contrived film.

The setting moves from Switzerland to London, and from Brittany to the English countryside, with a flash or two of Tibet, and Athens, and a Paramount British News sequence. The Breton scenes, thanks to one or two capable French actors and a lashing storm sequence, are unusually effective. The whole film has sheen.

The public for such films as this is obviously the more discerning and adult public. It has superlative production quality.

Shown to a trade and press audience, the film, though generally criticized on the grounds of slowness, especially its opening, was received

(Continued on page 50)

Another In EDWARD SMALL'S Royal Family Of Hits!

1. COUNT of Monte Cristo
2. DUKE of West Point
3. KING of the Turf

THE Film DAILY

THRILLING RACE - TRACK MELLER WITH STRONG EMOTIONAL PUNCH IN A FATHER-SON THEME.

A highly emotionalized story of the race-track, with high voltage hoke content, but good hoke that makes for swell audience reaction. Adolphe Menjou is the down-and-out who was once a great race-track figure controlling a famous stable. A crooked race framed on him resulting in the death of his favorite jockey and horse sent him to the dogs and drink. When the play opens, he is stealing a ride on a horse-car through the friendly gesture of Roger Daniel, who is stable boy for a racing outfit. The result of the friendship throws the two together. They acquire a skittish horse with a couple of dollars, and with the skillful training of the old master, the boy riding, they eventually work up to a sizable bankroll by taking several minor races. Then into the business of the crooked bookie-gambler ring, with the gang trying to get the old timer and the boy to play along with them. Meanwhile it is disclosed that the kid has run away from a nice home in the East, and the audience is let in on the fact that Menjou is the boy's father, the youngster having been born after the mother left the hopelessly drunken race track celeb. Here the sentimental and emotional material is worked up, with the struggle between the mother and father for possession of the youngster, the mother feeling that the boy's life will be ruined if he stays in the race game. Finally the father is sold that she is right. He makes himself out a cheap gambler and a crooked racing owner in the eyes of the youth on purpose to kill his love for the track and horses. He frames the big race with the gambling crowd, with their great colt to lose when it was rated a sure winner with the public, and gets the boy to promise to throw the race. But the youngster's love for the horse won't let him pull him in, and he goes through to win in a driving finish. The ending is different, with the youngster going back to his home and believing that his "boss" was just another crooked gambler, never knowing it was his own dad making the big sacrifice. Pure sentimental hoke, but effective. Fine performance by Menjou. The youngster, Roger Daniel, is great. Dolores Costello charming as of old as the mother. Director Alfred E. Green got all the thrill and sentimental values out of it.

MOTION PICTURE
DAILY

New York Previews

"King of the Turf"

(Small-United Artists)

Here is a picture that will appeal to all, whether they are interested in horse racing or not. Adolphe Menjou, as Jim Mason the trainer who drank himself from the top of the heap to the gutter, makes it an all 'round picture, ably abetted by Roger Daniel, a 14-year-old, who will be heard from unless all signs fail. As Goldie, a runaway who loved horses more than his home in Westchester, Daniel brings Mason back on top, after a series of exciting episodes centering around the Gold Cup, which Goldie wins with Red Gold, Mason's "two-buck" horse.

Although racing is the theme, there is a deeper note, which, less ably handled than it was by the adept Menjou, would have been almost a sermon to runaway boys. It gives the other side of the picture, which the boy, seeing only the glory of his great adventure, does not see. Dolores Costello, stalwart trouper that she is, helps Menjou mightily in keeping the story from sermonizing too strongly while putting over the wise advice to runaway boys or prospective runaways.

Although the "big race," in which Goldie wins for Mason, is the highlight of the picture and is packed with all the thrills that have filled so many real classics of the turf, the really great scene is one between Menjou and Daniel. In it Menjou, simulating drunkenness, tries to make Goldie go back to his mother by pretending to enter into a double cross with a bunch of track gamblers. Menjou, in his quiet way, puts it over while Daniel reaches real heights for a boy of 14. So smoothly do the two work together, however, and so gripping the scene that there is no question of stealing it.

"King of the Turf" should be box-office, without question.

EDWARD SMALL presents
ADOLPHE MENJOU
in

KING OF THE TURF

with
DOLORES COSTELLO · ROGER DANIEL · WALTER ABEL
ALAN DINEHART · HAROLD HUBER · WILLIAM DEMAREST
Screenplay by GEORGE BRUCE · Directed by ALFRED E. GREEN

RELEASED THRU UNITED ARTISTS

(Continued from page 48)

with the respect, and gratification, accorded caviar or classical music, as the tops for Bergner, and an asset to Paramount's output.—Aubrey Flanagan.

An Orion production. Distributed by Paramount. Produced and directed by Paul Czinner. Associate producer, Anthony Havelock-Allan. Assistant director, J. Rix. Adapted from the novel of K. J. Benes by Margaret Kennedy. Photography, Phillip Tannura. Art director, John Bryan. Editor, Frederick Wilson. Music, William Walton. Costumes, Joe Strassner. Western Electric recording. Running time, 92 minutes. Adult audience classification.

CAST

Sylvina Martina	Elizabeth Bergner
Alan McKenzie	Michael Redgrave
Thomas E. Lawrence	Wilfred Lawson
Aunt Helen	Mable Terry Lewis
Morgan	Richard Ainley
Garrett	Kenneth Buckley
Old Pauliac	Danielle Mendaille
The Doctor	Pierre Jouvenet
The Nurse	Stella Arbenina
Maturin	Kaye Seeley
Demangeon	Ernest Ferney
The Clerk	Cot D'Ordan
Eileen, Sylvina's maid	Dorice Fordred
The Cook	Annie Esmond
Karal Anderson	Clement McCallin
Professor Bardesley	Oliver Johnston

School for Husbands

(J. H. Hoffberg)

Farce Comedy

This is an amiable British farce comedy subtitled "A Comedy for Wives." Adult fare, the picture concerns two married couples, close friends, and a dashing bachelor who is a bit of a novelist on contemporary manners. One of the wives imagines herself in love with the novelist while the other pretends to be infatuated with him in an attempt to discourage her friend. The husbands are in the dark as to how to cope with the situation, until the novelist points out a possible solution.

The novelist is played by Rex Harrison, who had important roles in "The Citadel" and "Storm in a Teacup." The wives are played by Diana Churchill and June Clyde. The husbands, the Milquetoast type, are Romney Brent and Henry Kendall.

It is for the most part conversational, which rather limits its appeal to a special clientele. It is sophisticated comedy, although the ending has both couples happily reunited.

The picture was seen at the Little Carnegie theatre in New York, which specializes in foreign films and in revivals of old favorites. The film was heartily appreciated by an afternoon audience which chuckled in evident enjoyment of the situations and dialogue.—Paul C. Mooney, Jr.

Distributed by J. H. Hoffberg, New York. A Richard Wainwright Production. From the play by Frederick Jackson. Directed by Andrew Marton. Running time, 70 minutes. Release date, February 6, 1939. Adult audience classification.

CAST

Leonard Drummond	Rex Harrison
Diana Cheswick	June Clyde
Morgan Cheswick	Romney Brent
Marion Carter	Diana Churchill
Geoffrey Carter	Henry Kendall

Trapped in the Sky

(Columbia-Darmour)

Spy Hunt

Today's news events are this picture's showmanship material. Headlines will continue to generate public interest in the subject treated. The story and production take topical advantage of timely happenings.

Here's what happens. A radically new type of fighting plane, of great military value, has been offered the government. Electrically powered by remote control, it is noiseless. The first test flight ends in a crash. "Major Roston" suspects sabotage. He also suspects that foreign agencies are responsible for it.

So discharged from the army that he appears to be in disgrace and vengeful, his first two contacts with possible suspects are shattered when "Carol Rayder" and "Dure" are mysteriously slain, but their deaths lead him to a new trail. From them, "Fornay" and "Mann," he discovers that a mighty effort is being made to disprove the new plane's value, but he also learns they are agents for a government that wants it. He also comes to suspect who the sabotager is. Another plane has been built under the strictest of military secrecy. "Roston" lures its inventor, "Fielding," into the machine. In the air, as death threatens, he forces a confession.

There is no love interest and no comedy. It will be noted also that the secret of the sabotager's identity has been concealed until the final few moments, heightening the suspense. This treatment, skillfully worked into the theme by the author, Eric Taylor, and screenplay writers Taylor and Gordon Rigby, and accentuated in production detail by director Lewis D. Collins, takes the picture out of the realm of formula.

Previewed at the Talisman Studio projection room, Hollywood.— G. M.

Distributed by Columbia. Produced by Larry Darmour. Directed by Lewis D. Collins. Original story by Eric Taylor. Screen play by Eric Taylor and Gordon Rigby. Carl Hiecke, assistant director. Dwight Caldwell, film editor. Photographed by James S. Brown. P. C. A. certificate number 5074. Running time, 60 minutes, when seen in Hollywood. Release date: Not determined. General audience classification.

CAST

Major Roston	Jack Holt
William Fornay	C. Henry Gordon
Colonel Whalen	Ralph Morgan
Carol Rayder	Katherine De Mille
General Moody	Paul Everton
Jules Mann	Sidney Blackmer
Joseph Dure	Ivan Lebedeff
Lt. Gray	Regis Toomey
Fielding	Holmes Herbert

The Saint Strikes Back

(RKO Radio)

Comedy Melodrama

The writings of Leslie Charteris, particularly the "Saint" stories, are among the most widely read of current detective fiction. He has written more than 20 novels, and scores of magazine stories, based on this peculiar character, "Simon Templar," society figure also called "The Saint."

The fictional character is presented by RKO for the second time in "The Saint Strikes Back," a comedy melodrama which builds excitingly to a smashing finish. George Sanders succeeds Louis Hayward as "The Saint," a mysterious figure who floats between society and the underworld in a crusade against crime.

Supporting Sanders are Wendy Barrie, Jonathan Hale, Jerome Cowan, Neil Hamilton, Barry Fitzgerald, Robert Elliott, Russell Hopton, Edward Gargan, Robert Strange, Gilbert Emery, James Burke and Nella Walker.

Credit for crisp direction goes to John Farrow, and for the screenplay, which held the preview audience thoroughly, goes to John Farrow. Robert Sisk produced, under general supervision of Lee Marcus.

"The Saint" this time goes to San Francisco to help a pretty girl whose father was discharged in disgrace from the police department. After several murders, and great danger to himself, "The Saint" vindicates the father, since deceased, returns the girl to respectability, and defeats the real criminals.

Previewed at the Alexander theatre, Glendale, Cal., to an enthusiastic audience.—V. K.

Produced and distributed by RKO. Produced by Robert Sisk. Directed by John Farrow. Production executive, Lee Marcus. Screenplay by John Twist. From a novel, "Angels of Doom," by Leslie Charteris. Musical director, Roy Webb. Photographed by Frank Redman. Art direction, Van Nest Polglase. Associate, Albert D'Agostino. Gowns by Renie. Edited by Jack Hively. P. C. A. certificate No. 4964. Running time, when seen in Glendale, 64 minutes. Release date, March 10, 1939. General audience classification.

CAST

Simon Templar	George Sanders
Val Travers	Wendy Barrie
Inspector Fernack	Jonathan Hale
Cullis	Jerome Cowan
Allan Breck	Neil Hamilton
Zipper Dyson	Barry Fitzgerald
Webster	Robert Elliott
Harry Donnell	Russell Hopton
Pinky Budd	Edward Gargan
Commissioner	Robert Strange
Martin Eastman	Gilbert Emery
Secretary	James Burke
Mrs. Fernack	Nella Walker

What a Man!

(Phoenix - British Lion)

Local Comedy

The local humorous and frank unsophistication of story and treatment, though its director has a reputation among the intelligensia, indicate immediately that the appeal of this Yorkshire comedy vehicle for the droll Sydney Howard is aimed directly at the least mature of patrons. Indeed, the lowest common denominator of comedy entertainment would seem to be the test, disarming the critic of his more surgical weapons.

Howard, with his pantomimic and provincially pawky humors, is cast as a local photographer and scoutmaster running for the Mayor's chain of office. There is slapstick, with the camera tripod and falls of chimney soot, staircase tumbles and wet tar. Howard is incidentally suspected of embezzling the slate club money, but comes out, with banner flying and brass bands braying, to end up as Mayor.

Howard has a following here, as is fitting for a comedian who has the very essence of clowning at his command, but here it seems localized, though there are one or two passages, such a Chinese vase-breaking episode, that should draw laughter.

Supporting Howard is the generously moulded Vera Pearce, as his better half.

Technically the film strikes the high standard for which the Beaconsfield Studios are noted, particularly in Ernest Palmer's camera work.

Seen "cold" in a London preview theatre.—Aubrey Flanagan.

A Phoenix Film. Distributed by British Lion. Produced by Hugh Percival. Directed by Edmond Greville. Screen play, Basil Mason. Photography, Ernest Palmer. Art director, Norman G. Arnold. Editor, Ray Pitt. General audience classification. Running time, 74 minutes.

CAST

Samuel Pennyfeather	Sydney Howard
Emily Pennyfeather	Vera Pearce
The Mayor	Ivor Barnard
Daisy Pennyfeather	Jennie Laird
Sergeant Bull	H. F. Maltby
Lord Bromwich	Robert Adair
Harold Bull	John Singer
Mr. Simpkins	Frank Cochrane
Mr. Slocombe	Alfred Wellesley
Walter Wakeling	Frederick Bradshaw

With a Smile

(Malmar)

French Musical Comedy

In a play written by Louis Verneuill, Maurice Chevalier of France returns to the American screen. Produced by Pathe Cinema Productions and distributed by Malmar, the musical comedy is sparkling entertainment, with ample opportunity for Chevalier to use the mimicry that made him so well liked in this country. With superimposed English titles by Herman G. Weinberg, the dialogue is fast and witty.

"Victor Larnois" arrives penniless in Paris and makes the acquaintance of "Gisele," a chorus girl. "Victor" obtains the job as doorman at the theatre, and rises to a partnership in the show with "M. Villary." With the help of "Gisele," whom he has married, "Victor" tricks "Villary" into selling out to him.

To gain social prestige "Victor" turns to the director of the Opera in Paris and by chance unearths a scandal in which the director's wife was implicated many years earlier. For his silence "Victor" gets the position of manager of the opera. "Villary" has become a panhandler. "Victor" gives him the job as his secretary, and all are content.

Marie Glory, Andre Lefaur and Paule Andral lead the support in a swiftly paced picture.

Reviewed at the Fifth Avenue Playhouse in

(Continued on page 52)

My Next Production

BERNARD SHAW'S

"DOCTOR'S DILEMMA"

Gabriel Pascal

Distributed by
METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER

Current Clean-Up
"PYGMALION"

(Continued from page 50)

New York, where the audience gave hearty applause.—GEORGE SPIRES.

Produced by Pathe Cinema Productions and distributed by Malmar. Directed by Maurice Tourneur. From the play "Avec le Sourire" by Louis Verneuill. Original music and songs by Marcel Lattes and Borel Clerc. Photography by Thirad and Nee. Sets and design by Carre and Cartigny. Release date, February 4, 1939. Running time, 79 minutes. General audience classification.

CAST

Victor Larnois	Maurice Chevalier
Gisele	Marie Glory
M. Villlary	Andre Lefaur
Mme. Vallary	Paule Andral
Pascaud	Marcel Vallee
Superintendent of Opera	Marcel Simon
The Cashier	Milly Mathis

The Nine Million

(Warner Brothers)

The Refugee Problem

The acute social problem of refugees, a problem of long standing and the subject of increased interest since the recent Germany action, is the subject here of a plea for tolerance. The handling of the material is in the form of compilation of newsreel shots, both old and current, principally devoted to showing refugees on the march and also including scenes of bombings and ruins and of homeless people. It is essentially a documentary-type compilation. It is a bitter indictment of "man's inhumanity to man" and in its ending makes a case for America and the tolerance of the New World. In the concluding scenes a group of "refugees" arriving in New York harbor aboard a liner sing "My New Homeland," written expressly for the film by Irving Caesar and Leo Edwards. The dialogue is by Burnett Hershey and narrated by Dwight Weist. A sepia tint enlivens the subject. Running time, nine minutes.

The March of Time, Vol. 5, No. 7

(RKO Radio)

Boy Scouts and Mexico

Concurrent with the twenty-ninth anniversary of the Boy Scouts, March of Time has devoted a portion of the latest issue to their special training in handicraft and first aid, showing their usefulness in times of stress and disaster. England and France, seeing in the movement a strengthening of a democracy, are behind Boy Scout advancement in their countries. The second section of this issue deals with the confiscation of property in Mexico under the rule of President Lazaro Cardenas, whose program to help the lower classes has brought construction of new highways and the expenditure of one-fifth of the budget on education. To pay for these improvements Mexico has levied taxes on its oil industry, 90 per cent British and American owned. The oil companies' reprisals, the motion picture points out, have caused oil production to drop nearly one-half, with a grave effect on finances of Mexico. . Running time, 19 minutes.

My Friend the Monkey

(Paramount)

Betty Boop

Pudgy the Pup now is forced to share the affections of Betty Boop with a frisky monkey. Betty adopts the simian cutup as a means of social education for Pudgy. When the pup has run his monkey rival off the scene, Betty pops in with the announcement of permanent adoption of the intruder and poor Pudgy passes out.—Running time, seven minutes.

Wild and Bully

(Universal)

Mentone Musical Comedy

A potpourri of entertainment ranging from a cowboy band to a Broadway blues singer, with a male novelty tap dancer, a family of trick skaters and a group of men singers billed in between, this Mentone Musical Comedy offers a grade of talent that runs from the exceptional to the mediocre. Highlights of the vaudeville turn are the dancing and rope skipping of Bob Parker and the roller skating of the Carter clan. Texas Jim Lewis and his Lone Star Cowboys offer some wide open spaces orchestrations. Lillian Carmen chants in a White Stem moan about the gypsy in her soul. Master of ceremonies is J. Harold Murray of "Rio Rita" repute, who also sings.—Running time, 19 minutes.

They Live Again

(MGM)

The Story of Insulin

An entertaining and educational Leo, Jr.'s Miniature describes the discovery of insulin. The film traces the careers of Fred Banting and Charles Best, Canadian doctors, and co-discoverers of the serum. Their roles are portrayed by Emmet Vogan, who studied under Dr. Banting at Toronto University, and Rowland Varno, former pre-medical student. It was directed by Fred Zinneman and is narrated by John Nesbitt. Running time, 10 minutes.

A Night in a Music Hall

(Columbia)

Variety Program

This is a vaudeville type subject featuring a Fanchon and Marco troupe. Pinky Tomlin is master of ceremonies and sings his latest composition, "If It Wasn't for the Moon." Others are Natalia Kelly, comedienne and mimic; Betty Atkinson, acrobatic dancer; Estelle Preston, The Fanchonettes, The Majorettes and Ben Black's Hollywood Orchestra. Running time, 10½ minutes.

Hold Your Breath

(Paramount)

Grantland Rice Sportlight

This one-reel submarine sport short is certain to hold the interest as well as the breath of any audience. Photographed in and under the crystal clear waters of Silver Springs, Fla., the miniature offers a sub surface track meet. The talent paraded across the sandy stage vies in spring races, relay races, shot put exhibitions, high jump contests, hurdle heats, parallel bar exhibitions and a tug-of-war. There is even a briny deep gallery of spectators and a liquid press section. Photography matches the swimmers' art.—Running time, 10 minutes.

Happy Birthday

(Columbia)

Cartoon

Scrappy is the surprised youngster at a birthday party his little friends have arranged. An uninvited brat crashes the party and proceeds to disrupt the affair. The other youngsters leave in a huff, but the interloper stays on to contribute her final gesture, sabotaging the birthday cake. Running time, six minutes.

Customers Wanted

(Paramount)

Popeye

Concerned with the rivalry of those perennial enemies, Popeye and Bluto, this latest sailor man sally has funny gags, amusing situations and some clever drawings. The spinach fanatic and his rival run opposite sideshow concessions. Wimpy is the spieler. A penny peep show contraption is cleverly utilized to demonstrate the contrasting feats of virility of the respective rivals. The high point of laughter will be reached at the finale when Wimpv commercializes the battle that is raging between Popeye and Bluto for what looks to be like an above average gross.

Peaceful Neighbors

(Columbia)

Scrappy Cartoon

Two families of hens go to war over the farm yard boundary lines. Peace-loving doves who have watched the development of the feud decide to end the conflict. They substitute bonbons for bombs, perfume for gas and flowers for bullets. Each side believes the bombardment to be a peace gesture from the enemy and the ruse succeeds. It is an entertaining cartoon with humorous touches that should please all.—Running time, 8 minutes.

Practical Jokers

(MGM)

Our Gang Revenge

The fate of the neighborhood bully from now on may receive a considerable turn for the worse if the kiddie followers of Our Gang adventures put into serious practice the hint offered in this juvenile number on how to handle the corner roughneck. When Alfalfa, Spanky and company are invited to Butch's birthday party, the boys decide to teach the street's practical joker with his own type of humor. The lads plant a large sized firecracker in the festive cake and plan to watch the fun fly. But Alfalfa is designated to be the bearer of the cake and Spanky, Porky and Buckwheat are commissioned to form an accompanying delegation for the gift bearer. The sequence wherein Alfalfa must sing an agonized ditty while the cake in his hands is being prepared for explosion makes one of the funniest portions to be found in any of the Gang productions.—Running time, nine minutes.

Community Sing (No. 5)

(Columbia)

Sons of the Pioneers

The fifth number of the third Community Sing series features the excellent singing of the Sons of the Pioneers, with Stanley Brown as master of ceremonies. The songs are "Me and My Shadow," "That Old Gang of Mine," "Oh, How I Miss You Tonight," "Oh, What a Pal Was Mary," "Dear Old Pal of Mine," and "Gee, but It's Great to Meet a Friend from Your Home Town."

Flying G-Men

(Columbia)

Serial

The title of this latest Columbia serial appropriately indicates what follows cinematically. The story concerns foreign spies, a phase of international activity much in the news of late, and is especially concerned with the spy scare as it revolves around aviation. Ruthlessly a spy ring goes about stealing aviation plans. Sabotage frequently is employed. Four flying G-Men are assigned. One becomes the Black Falcon, his identity to be withheld until the last chapter. Around him and his exploits the plot is developed. The first chapter augurs well, with plenty of action. Aerial maneuvers and sky battles vie with fights and intrigue on land. The cast includes Robert Paige, Richard Fiske, James Craig, Lorna Gray and Sammy McKim. The chapter play was directed by Ray Taylor and James W. Horne from a screen play by Robert E. Kent, Basil Dickey and Sherman Lowe. Running time, first chapter, three reels.

Washington Parade (No. 2)

(Columbia)

White House Tour

The camera takes us inside the presidential mansion into some of the most famous rooms in history, the East Room, where great receptions are held, the Blue Room, the Red Room, the Green Room, the Oval Room and the executive offices. Finally are given scenes from one of the President's press conferences, climaxing an interesting short subject.—Running time, 10 minutes.

WARNED TO FILE TAX RETURNS ON TIME

Taxpayers in the motion picture industry this week were warned by the Treasury Department at Washington that extensions of time in which to file income returns for 1938, due March 15, will be granted only in "extremely meritorious" cases, and only upon a showing that filing within the prescribed time will be physically impossible. The department's general warning was directed especially to attorneys and accountants.

The best reasons for failure to file individual returns in time, the department suggested, will be illness of the taxpayer or unavoidable absence from the United States. No reasons were suggested for corporations, but they were warned that mere inability of attorneys or accountants to prepare returns in time will not be accepted.

All requests for extensions must state the reasons why more time is desired, and must be supported by affidavits. In the case of corporations, requests must be filed by an officer of the company and will not be accepted from attorneys or accountants.

Warner Brothers and Telecast In Deal

Telecast Corporation of America, formed to act as national distributors of transcribed air shows, has contracted to serve Warner Brothers. The initial Warner transcription series is "Adventures of Uncle Jimmy," now in production.

Under deals now in negotiation, other producers along with Warners will distribute through Telecast. Telecast Corporation itself will not indulge in production except on a financing basis with outside producers in return for distribution rights.

Opening Cleveland Office

Lee Goldberg, head of Big Feature Rights, will open a Cleveland office March 1st to handle distribution of his independent product in northern Ohio. Carl Scheuch, formerly of Monogram, and Bernard Rubin, from the Morris Liberman Company, will be in charge of the office.

Rosener Forms Sales Company

Herbert Rosener, operator of eight foreign language theatres on the Pacific Coast and in Kansas City and Cleveland, has organized Prestige Pictures to handle distribution of independently produced foreign films on the west coast. Headquarters are in San Francisco. The first release is "Moonlight Sonata."

Canadian Exchange Opened

Colonial Pictures, Ltd., have begun operations in Toronto as a new independent exchange under the direction of B. W. Silver as managing director, with Mike Goodman in charge of the exploitation department. Other branches in the Dominion are planned.

50-CITY ROADSHOW NOT COMPETITION, SAYS GE

But Film Will Be "Lifted" Later to Show in Theatres, Says General Electric Executive

General Electric spokesmen in New York this week described as "groundless" any exhibitor fears that the GE "road show," so called, to be booked into 50 large cities and purportedly for showing only to its distributors and their clients, constitutes competition to motion picture theatres.

When General Electric embarked upon a similar "film-caravan" plan in 1937, with a feature motion picture entitled "From Now On," there were loud exhibitor protests, though the company claimed it was arranging shows in the forenoons.

The company, which says that hotel and other auditoriums will be used, is suggesting to its distributors that they invite their guests for luncheons, and arrange the showings immediately afterwards.

Motion Picture and Playlet

The new road show, entitled "Get Over Into the Clover," is divided into two units, east and west, and is a combination of merchandising talk, a motion picture carrying the title of the show, and a playlet with professional actors. With the shows are traveling the actors, motion picture projectionists, advance publicity agents, business managers, stage crews and sets. The eastern unit opened in New Orleans Wednesday, and the western unit is to open Friday, in St. Louis.

GE Paying Bill

"Our shows will be paid for by the company only," said a General Electric official. "Our appliance and merchandising departments, in Cleveland and Bridgeport, take care of everything. The local distributor just issues the invitations. The company also chooses the sites, and the shows and the scenery are designed for hotel ballrooms.

"The shows are only for the distributors and their dealers, and local utility people."

The executive said that 2,500 to 3,000 are expected at each showing.

"Lifting" Film for Theatres

"Each distributor has several hundred dealers," he explained. "And then there are several hundred small 'variety' stores, and department store representatives.

"The general public would be pretty bored with the advertising in these shows."

However, he added that "the picture itself will probably be 'lifted' and used, after the present shows end their tours, in regular motion picture theatres, as an institutional piece."

The picture, produced by the Tri-State Production Company of Cleveland, was filmed in practically every GE manufacturing plant. The director was Ray Culley, the narrator Alois Havrilla. Principals are GE executives, factory workers, and technicians. The theme is "the portrait of a corporation."

The stage show was produced under the joint direction of A. L. Scaife and Roy Johnson, advertising and sales promotion managers. Carl Robbins, of the Cleveland division, wrote the play, integrating the talks, acting and picture.

Seven Actors in Each Troupe

There are seven professional actors in each troupe, hired on Actors' Equity contracts.

The complete schedule for "Get Over Into Clover" follows:

Eastern unit: New Orleans, February 8; Memphis, February 10; Little Rock, February 13; Birmingham, February 16; St. Petersburg, February 13; Nashville, February 17; Atlanta, February 20; Columbia, February 23; Raleigh, February 24; Richmond, February 27; Charleston, March 1; Cincinnati, March 3; Louisville, March 6; Indianapolis, March 7; Columbus, March 8; Pittsburgh, March 10; Washington, March 13; Baltimore, March 14; Philadelphia, March 15; Williamsport, March 17; Lancaster, March 20; Allentown, March 22; Newark, March 23; New York, March 24; Hartford, March 27; Providence, March 28; Boston, March 29; Schenectady, March 31; Syracuse, April 3, and Buffalo, April 4.

Western unit: St. Louis, February 10; Kansas City, February 13; Houston, February 16; San Antonio, February 17; Los Angeles, February 20; Fresno, February 23; San Francisco, February 27; Portland, March 2; Seattle, March 3; Salt Lake City, March 8; Denver, March 10; Omaha, March 13; Rock Island, March 17; St. Paul, March 20; Milwaukee, March 22; Chicago, March 23; South Bend, March 24; Detroit, March 27; Toledo, March 28, and Cleveland, March 29.

W. I. Wilt is advance publicity agent of the eastern group, G. R. LaWall of the western unit.

Recorded Music Unit to Go Ahead Despite Union Tilt

With the decision of Kenneth O'Brien, New York, supreme court justice, granting an injunction to Opera on Tour, Inc., against the American Federation of Musicians and the International Alliance of Stage and Theatrical Employees, due to be signed this week, sponsors of "Vode-Vision," a similar project using live talent and recorded music, were planning to go ahead with their own project.

Judge O'Brien's decision forbids the two unions from interfering with the business of the opera company.

Judge O'Brien ruled that the AFM had no legitimate labor dispute with the company; that the IATSE had no right to order its members not to work for the company, not being a direct party to any dispute.

Forecasting the reversal of Judge O'Brien's decision in the appellate division of New York State, Henry A. Friedman, attorney for the unions, planned to go ahead with an appeal.

At the offices of "Vode-Vision," 1560 Broadway, New York City, it was said that, after conferences this week and last, with their own attorneys, and with Kadel, Sheils, and Weiss, attorneys for the opera company, "Vode-Vision" would proceed with its plans.

"Vode-Vision" stopped production of further units, after a tour with one unit in the middle of last year, in Pennsylvania cities.

At the offices of "Vode-Vision" this week it was declared that "if Weber (Joseph Weber, president of the AFM) continues to forbid his musicians to supply music to us, he's in contempt of court."

The Associacion Mexicana de Productores de Peliculas (Association of Mexican Motion Picture Producers) has elected Manuel Rivas president. The former president, Juan Pezet, was elected to the post of secretary and general manager. Salvador Bueno was named treasurer.

TEXT OF ALLIED PLAN

A commentary on the accompanying text of Allied's trade practice proposals together with news reports on other developments in that field appears on page 15.

PREAMBLE

The signatories hereto, being distributors of motion pictures, in order to promote a more harmonious relationship and to improve competitive conditions in the motion picture industry, and after consultation with representatives of the several organized groups of motion picture exhibitors, hereby severally bind themselves to the observance of the principles, policies and practices set forth herein in the licensing and distribution of motion pictures in continental U. S.

I. CANCELLATION PRIVILEGE

(1) Cancellation as a matter of right. Whenever an exhibitor contracts for all of the feature motion pictures offered by a distributor at any one time, the exhibitor shall have the right to exclude therefrom, without payment of the film rentals therefor, not to exceed 20 per cent of the total number if the film rentals for all average not more than $100 per picture, 15 per cent if the film rentals average in excess of $100 and not in excess of $250 per picture, and 10 per cent if the film rentals average in excess of $250 per picture.

In determining the number of pictures that may be excluded under the foregoing percentages, fractions of one-half or more shall be counted as one and fractions of less than one-half shall not be counted.

Westerns produced in groups or series and connected by a common star or continued story, reissues, and foreigns (except those produced abroad in the English language by an American producer or distributor, or a subsidiary thereof) shall not be counted in determining the number of features offered or licensed or the number which may be excluded. For the purpose of this paragraph, westerns produced as aforesaid, re-issues, and foreigns (except as aforesaid) shall be deemed to be separate groups, and if licensed on the same agreement as other features, shall be separately listed. Each such group shall be subject to exclusion by the exhibitor on the same basis and subject to the same terms and conditions as herein set forth.

In computing the average film rental per picture for the purpose of determining the extent of the exhibitor's cancellation right, the film rentals of pictures to be played in whole or in part on a percentage of the gross receipts of exhibition shall be determined as provided in the margin.[1]

The exercise by any exhibitor of the cancellation privilege herein granted shall be subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. As to each picture which the exhibitor may choose to exclude, he shall give the distributor written notice of such exclusion within 10 days after the mailing by the distributor of the first notice of the availability of that picture.

2. The exhibitor shall not at the time of giving such written notice be in material default under the license agreement.

3. The exclusions shall be exercised proportionately among the several price brackets provided for in the license agreement as outlined in the margin[2]; but any number of exclusions, up to the total allowed, may be made out of the lowest price bracket.

4. If any exhibitor having the right to do so fails to eliminate one or more pictures from the upper brackets, he shall, for each such picture, have the right to eliminate one picture from the lowest bracket; except that if at the time he chooses to make such elimination there are no unplayed available pictures in the lowest price bracket, he may exercise such right in the next lowest bracket.

5. Upon the exclusion of any feature motion picture under this provision the license therefor and all rights thereunder shall terminate and revert to the distributor and shall be charged against the number of exclusions to which the exhibitor may be entitled whether or not a new license agreement for the exhibition thereof is subsequently entered into by the exhibitor.

6. All disputes growing out of the exercise or attempted exercise by exhibitors of the privilege herein granted shall be submitted to arbitration.

(2) Cancellation for cause. An exhibitor shall have the right, in addition to the exclusion privilege provided for above, to exclude from any license agreement any picture which may be locally offensive on moral, religious, or racial grounds, provided he gives the distributor written notice, within 14 days after the conclusion of its first exhibition in the exchange territory out of which the exhibitor is served, of his desire to exclude such picture, specifying the reasons therefor. In the event of a dispute as to whether or not a picture is in fact locally offensive, it shall be submitted to arbitration.

II. TRADE ANNOUNCEMENT.

(No change—elimination recommended)

Each distributor shall make general trade announcement at or prior to the beginning of each of its seasons, containing such information as it may be practicable to give of all motion pictures completely or actually in production then intended for release during such season, it being understood that the completion of such pictures actually in production and the making of such other pictures which it is intended to produce are subject to the hazards and uncertainties of the business and they may not be completed or produced, as planned.

III. EXHIBITOR'S LIMITED PLAYING TIME

Whenever an exhibitor is unable to contract for the total number of pictures offered by a distributor because his playing time is so preempted by prior commitments that he can not, without altering the operating policy of his theatre, reasonably use that many additional pictures, the distributor will then offer to the exhibitor such lesser number as may be agreed upon, or, lacking such agreement, such number as may be determined by arbitration to be the maximum number of pictures that can reasonably be used by the exhibitor; provided, that the distributor shall have the right at any time before an agreement with such exhibitor has been approved to solicit a contract from or to license all or any of its pictures to any other exhibitor.

IV. PREFERRED PLAYING TIME.

(1) Flat rentals and guarantees.. A distributor will not exercise the right which it may have under a license agreement to designate feature pictures for preferred playing time in respect of any picture for which the film rental is either a fixed sum or is to be computed in whole or in part upon a percentage of the gross receipts of exhibition with a fixed minimum sum guaranteed.

(2) Unsuitable pictures. If a distributor shall exercise the right which it may have under a license agreement to designate straight percentage pictures for preferred playing time in respect of any picture deemed by the exhibitor to be unsuitable for such playing time, and the exhibitor shall give the distributor written notice of his objections thereto and the reasons therefor within seven days after the mailing of notice of such designation, the question of suitability shall be determined by agreement between the distributor and exhibitor, or, lacking such agreement, by arbitration. If the picture is determined to be unsuitable for preferred time, the distributor may, at its option, either (a) designate the picture to be played upon the same rental terms on other days of the week or (b) then or thereafter substitute another picture to be played on preferred time on the terms designated for the picture objected to, and in the latter case the film rental for the picture originally designated shall be such as may be designated by the distributor within its right under the license agreement. Nothing in this provision shall decrease or increase the number of pictures to be exhibited in each bracket as provided in the agreement.

V. RUNS AND EXISTING CUSTOMERS

(1) Run guaranteed. To relieve against so-called "exclusive selling" an exhibitor will be able to obtain from a distributor a run of its pictures in any situation, the run to be designated by the distributor, provided (a) that the distributor and exhibitor can mutually agree upon terms (the terms asked not to be substantially disproportionate to those asked in comparable situations), (b) that the exhibitor's theatre is not of an obsolete character, (c) is in good condition and (d) operates under a policy that is not destructive or (e) which will not substantially affect the distributor's revenue from other runs in the situation, and further provided (f) that the exhibitor is of good reputation as a theatre operator, and (g) is financially responsible. Any dispute arising out of an application by an exhibitor for a run of pictures under this provision shall be submitted to arbitration.

(2) Protecting existing customer. To relieve against so-called "selling away to a chain" a distributor will not license its product away from an existing customer to a new or another exhibitor for the sole reason that the new or other exhibitor is a customer or prospective customer of the distributor at other theatres in the same or other situations (that is, that the new or other exhibitor is a circuit, a buying combine, a booking combine or a co-operative), provided (a) that the existing customer has substantially performed his previous license agreements with the distributor, (b) that he maintains and operates his theatre in a modern manner, and (c) is financially responsible. Any dispute arising out of the licensing away or threatened licensing away of product contrary to this provision shall be submitted to arbitration.

VI. SHORT SUBJECTS, NEWSREELS, ETC.

No exhibitor shall be required as a condition of licensing feature motion pictures to license short subjects, newsreels, trailers, serials, reissues, westerns and foreigns (the westerns and foreigns being as defined in Proposal I, section (1)).

VII. SCORE CHARGES

In respect of license agreements commencing with the current (1938-1939) season, score charges, if any, for flat rental pictures will be added to and consolidated with the film rental. Commencing with the 1939-1940 season there will be no separate score charge in respect of pictures on either a flat rental or percentage basis.

VIII. ALLOCATION OF PICTURES

Under license agreements authorizing a distributor to allocate pictures to particular price brackets, the distributor, on giving notice of the availability of each such picture, and in no case later than 14 days after its national release, shall notify the exhibitor of the price allocation thereof; provided, however, that this shall not apply to first-runs in the cities which the distributor may designate as "key cities."

IX. NON-THEATRICAL COMPETITION

(No change—elimination recommended)

Feature pictures will not be licensed to a non-theatrical account if such non-theatrical account shall have been determined by arbitration to constitute unfair competition to a regularly operated motion picture theatre, provided, however, nothing herein contained shall be interpreted to prohibit the licensing of motion pictures for exhibition at Army Posts or Government Camps or on board ships of the United States Navy or ships engaged in carrying passengers to foreign or domestic ports or at religious institutions which charge no admissions and where attendance is confined to members of such institutions or in institutions housing "shut-ins" such as prisons, hospitals, orphanages and the like, or the licensing of feature pictures of educational character at educational institutions which charge no admissions and where attendance is confined to members of such institutions.

X. FORM OF LICENSE AGREEMENT

Each distributor will undertake in consultation with representatives of the organized exhibitor groups to revise its form of license agreement so far as necessary to conform to these fair trade practices and to simplify the same.

XI. SELECTIVE CONTRACTS

Whenever an exhibitor has the right to select a certain number of pictures out of a larger number, such exhibitor shall exercise that right by notice in writing in respect of each picture within 21 days after the date of mailing of the notice of availability of such picture. Upon the exhibitor's failure to give such written notice within said period, each picture in respect of which notice is not given shall be deemed to have been selected by the exhibitor. This provision shall be included in every selective contract.

XII. PLAYING PICTURES IN THE ORDER OF RELEASE

If under any license agreement the exhibitor is obligated to play pictures in the order of release, the distributor will not withhold pictures from the exhibitor for breach of that obligation if the failure of the exhibitor to show the prior pictures was due to the failure of the distributor to make the same available. Any dispute arising out of this provision shall be submitted to arbitration.

XIII. COERCING CONTRACTS.

(As originally proposed by Allied.)

No distributor nor the branch manager, salesman or other representative of a distributor shall threaten, coerce or intimidate any exhibitor to enter into a license agreement, or to pay higher film rentals or submit to more onerous terms or conditions, or attempt to do so, by any statement, intimation or overt act evidencing an intention to build or acquire, or to promote the building or opening by any other person, of a motion picture theatre to be operated in competition with such exhibitor. The facts relating to any alleged violation of this provision may, on application of either the exhibitor or distributor, be ascertained and reported by an arbitration board, but this shall not bar any other remedy that the exhibitor may have.

XIV. BOX OFFICE STATEMENTS

(It is our understanding from articles in the trade press that this provision has been abandoned by the distributors. If those accounts were erroneous and the distributors propose to retain the provision, the writer suggests striking out the last sentence and inserting, in lieu thereof, "The facts relating to any alleged violation of this provision may, on application of either the distributor or the exhibitor, be ascertained

---

[1] (a) Average the film rentals of all the distributor's feature motion pictures of the preceding motion picture season exhibited for the same run in such situation upon a percentage basis at the exhibitor's theatre (s).

(b) If none of the distributor's feature motion pictures were exhibited for the same run in such situation upon a percentage basis at such theatre(s) during said period, then the average film rental shall be determined by agreement at the time of the making of the license agreement.

[2] Example: If the agreement licenses 48 pictures and the highest price bracket includes eight pictures, the next highest bracket includes 12 pictures, the next highest bracket includes 16 pictures and the lowest bracket contains the remaining 12 pictures, and if the exhibitor has the right to exclude a total of 10 per cent (five pictures), then not more than one picture may be eliminated from the highest bracket, not more than one from the next highest bracket, not more than two from the next highest bracket and the remaining one picture from the lowest price bracket, or all or any part may be eliminated from the lowest price bracket.

ARBITRATION MACHINERY PROPOSED and reported by an arbitration board, but this shall not bar any other remedy that the distributor may have.")

XV. PRINCIPLES OF ARBITRATION

(1) Declaration of policy. It will be the policy of each distributor, whenever the exhibitors concerned therein are willing to do so, to submit to arbitration boards as hereinafter provided for, for the determination of issues and the making of awards, or for the ascertainment and reporting of facts, as the case may be. all controversies which may arise between it and its exhibitor customers or prospective customers out of the foregoing commitments numbered I. (1) "Cancellation as a matter of right," I. (2) "Cancellation for cause"; III. "Exhibitor's limited playing time"; IV (2) "Unsuitable pictures on preferred playing time"; V. (1) "Runs guaranteed"; V. (2) "Protecting existing customers"; IX. "Non-theatrical competition"[3]; XIII. "Coercing contracts," and XIV. "Box office statements"[4]; also, all controversies concerning the performance by either party of any subsisting contract between a distributor and an exhibitor.

In addition, the distributors will encourage, foster and promote the settlement of controversies between exhibitors of the same class, or between exhibitors of different classes, involving (a) complaints of alleged unfair or unreasonable zoning or clearance, and (b) complaints of unfair competition in violation of any code of fair competition which may be formulated and adopted in any film delivery territory and which is legal and responsive to local conditions and needs.

The theatre-owning distributors, each for itself, hereby pledges the full co-operation in this movement of its own theatres and will undertake to obtain, so far as possible, the co-operation of its affiliated theatres. Each distributor will also seek the co-operation of its larger customers, whether affiliated or not. All organized exhibitor groups in ratifying this national code of fair trade practices will specifically approve the arbitration system herein provided for and will urge their members and other exhibitors operating theatres in their respective territories to subscribe to the same.

(2) Balanced boards. A fundamental principle of the arbitration system herein provided for is that each controversy shall be determined, and each inquiry conducted, by a board that is evenly balanced as between the economic divisions of the industry (as distinguished from trade divisions) to which the respective parties belong, with each party at liberty to choose his representative or representatives from a panel of available arbitrators representing the economic division to which he belongs, and with authority in the arbitrators chosen by the respective parties to appoint a disinterested arbitrator or arbitrators when demanded by either party or when deemed by the arbitrators chosen to be necessary or desirable.

For the purposes of this provision a distributor and an "affiliated theatre" (i.e. a theatre owned, operated or booked by a distributor or any subsidiary thereof, or in which the distributor has any interest through stock-ownership or otherwise), shall be considered to belong to the same economic division and shall not be entitled to duplicate representation in a controversy involving an independent exhibitor. Thus, if a controversy involves an application by an independent exhibitor for a run under No. V. (1) and it is opposed by an affiliated theatre, or if it involves a complaint by an independent theatre of alleged selling away to an affiliated theatre in violation of V. (2), and the board consists of four, the distributor may choose one arbitrator, the affiliated theatre may choose one arbitrator and the independent exhibitor may choose two arbitrators.

In a case where more than two parties demand representation on the board on the ground that while two or more may belong to the same economic division their interests in the controversy are nevertheless antagonistic, each party may choose one arbitrator and, on the demand of any party, a sufficient number of disinterested arbitrators shall be added so that the vote of any representative arbitrator plus the combined votes of the disinterested arbitrators shall constitute the balance of power. Thus, if in the examples cited in the preceding paragraph the theatre opposing the granting of a run or to which product has been sold away from the complainant, belonged to an independent circuit instead of an affiliated circuit, and the independent circuit demanded representation on the board, the distributor, the independent circuit and the complaining exhibitor would each be entitled to name one arbitrator, and, upon demand of any party, the board would be augmented by two disinterested arbitrators.

Obviously, this mathematical progression can not be pursued to a point where the boards become too unwieldy . It is believed that all controversies except cases involving clearance and zoning can be accommodated by boards containing not more than five representative members and a total membership of nine. This, therefore, is established as the point beyond which individual representation can not go. In controversies affecting a large number of individuals, such as those involving zoning and clearance, effort should be made to obtain the participation of all through group representation rather than by individual representation.

PTA AGAIN OPPOSES BLOCK BOOKING

The Parent-Teachers Association, long active with Allied States in Congressional campaigns for federal legislation outlawing "compulsory" block and blind selling, reiterated its stand this week at a meeting of the New York State PTA Congress in Syracuse.

Mrs. Carl R. Brister, of Auburn, president, told delegates to the annual board meeting that they again would be asked to support legislation similar to last year's Neely-Pettengill bill, the PTA believing that the elimination of block selling would eliminate pictures considered "harmful in their effects upon children," an allegation which the organized film industry has denied.

The distributors prefer not to participate in controversies involving clearance and zoning beyond being heard in regard to any proposal which might affect their revenues as distributors.[5] The economic divisions in cases of this kind, therefore, will not be as between distributor and exhibitor, or affiliated theatre and independent exhibitor, but between runs. The principle of balanced representation, whether by groups or individuals, will be observed with the balance of power resting with the disinterested members of the board.

(3) Binding awards. The forms of consent or agreement to arbitrate shall conform to the practice and law in the jurisdiction in which they are to operate. In jurisdictions where arbitration agreements are effective only as to existing controversies, the general agreements shall provide that the subscribers will execute a separate agreement as to each controversy when and if it arises. All agreements, whether general or special, shall bind the parties not only to arbitrate all controversies affecting them of the kinds enumerated herein, but also shall bind them to abide by and perform any awards that may be entered against them. In some jurisdictions the awards will be enforceable in the courts, in other jurisdictions they may not be. In all cases the parties by their agreement to arbitrate will pledge their good faith to abide by and perform any award that may be entered against them.[6]

4. Pre-trial or conciliation. Provision shall be made in the panels for a limited number of men, balanced as between the several economic divisions, who, being readily available, shall constitute a standing committee whose good offices may be invoked, at the option of the complainant, for the adjustment of controversies (particularly those calling for speedy determination) by means of conciliation. This procedure shall not, however, be a substitute for the formal arbitration proceeding whenever the latter is demanded by either party; nor shall resort to the informal conciliation method preclude any party from thereafter demanding arbitration.

XVI. ARBITRATION MACHINERY AND PROCEDURE

(1) Location of Boards. An Arbitration Board shall be established in each film delivery territory.

(2) Organization of Boards and creation of panels. Promptly after the ratification of this code of fair competition by the exhibitor association or associations in any film delivery territory, a committee to be known as the Joint Committee on Arbitration, consisting of representative distributors and exhibitors (each trade division naming its own representatives), shall be formed. It shall be the duty of this Joint Committee to provide for the establishment of an Arbitration Board for the territory, and, in this connection—

(a) To receive from the distributors, affiliated exhibitors and independent exhibitors, agreements, in proper form, to arbitrate controversies as herein provided and to provide for the safe-keeping thereof;

(b) To provide for the creation of a general panel and a neutral panel of persons available and willing to serve as arbitrators;

(c) To arrange for a convenient place for the Arbitration Board to sit, preferably at exhibitor headquarters or in one of the exchanges, and without expense;

(d) Publish from time to time a list of the distributors and exhibitors in the territory who have agreed to arbitrate controversies arising under this code.

(3) Composition of the panels. The general panel shall consist of 20 persons of whom the distributors shall name ten and the exhibitor association functioning in the particular territory shall name the other ten. In any territory where there are two or more exhibitor associations, each may appoint a panel of ten. The members of the general panel may be affiliated with distributor or exhibitor interests, but their connections shall be fully disclosed and they shall be classified according to their affliations. Major distributors and so-called independent distributors, first-run and subsequent-run city exhibitors and small town exhibitors, all shall be represented on the panel.

The neutral panel shall consist of from ten to 15 members to be proposed by the Joint Committee on Arbitration, subject to ratification by the distributors and the exhibitor association or associations in each territory. These members shall not also be members of the general panel and shall not be in any manner associated with exhibitor or distributor interests, but, so far as possible, they shall have an understanding of the motion picture business. It shall not be a bar that a particular member, at the time of his selection, has had no previous experience in the business.

Vacancies occurring by reason of illness, resignation, disqualification, disability or death, shall be filled in the same manner as is provided for the original appointments.

Each party to an arbitration proceeding may designate as his arbitrator or arbitrators any member or members of this panel or anyone else he desires outside of the panel.

Each person upon being named a member of either a general or a neutral panel shall subscribe to an oath, in substantially the following form, which shall be filed with the Joint Committee on Arbitration, viz:

I................................, having been duly appointed a member of the.................. panel of arbitrators for the...................film delivery territory, solemnly swear that I will perform my duties diligently and uprightly and that I will decide the controversies brought before me in accordance with the spirit and intent of the provisions of the Code of Fair Competition involved therein, without fear or favor.

If general arbitrators are chosen outside the panel, they too shall take the oath.

(4) Proceedings, how initiated. To initiate an arbitration proceeding under this Code, the complainant (having previously signed a general arbitration agreement) shall send by registered mail to the respondent or respondents (who must have signed such an agreement), a statement of claim, which shall set forth, in non-technical language, the following:

(a) Name and address of the complainant, the name of his exchange or theatre, and the number and date of his agreement to arbitrate.

(b) Brief statement of the complaint or claim, giving the date of the contract, if any, involved, and/or the number and title of the Code provision on which the proceeding is based.

(c) A demand for arbitration and the name or names of the arbitrators chosen by the complainant.

In cases involving a single respondent, the complainant may name either one or two arbitrators, and the respondent can name an equal number. In cases involving more than one respondent, each party shall name only one, as provided in XV. (2). A copy of the statement of claim shall be sent to the Joint Committee on Arbitration for filing.

(5) The reply. The respondent or respondents shall reply within six days (exclusive of Sunday) by registered mail, setting forth in simple language any explanation of or defense to the complaint or claim. And if the proceeding is to be contested, the arbitrators chosen by the respondent or respondents shall be named. This reply shall also give the date and number of each respondent's argreement to arbitrate and a copy shall be sent to the Joint Committee. Where there is more than one respondent, joint or separate replies may be tendered.

(6) Hearing. The arbitrators, when named, shall designate one of their own number to preside, and the presiding arbitrator shall arrange for a hearing at the earliest convenience of the other arbitrators and the respective parties. Failing to obtain an agreement, the presiding arbitrator will fix a date not later than ten days after the last date on which a reply to the complaint could be filed.

At least three days before the hearing any party desiring that a neutral arbitrator (or arbitrators) shall sit during the hearing shall so notify the presiding arbitrator. In the absence of such notification the representative arbitrators may, at their option, hear the case with or without a neutral member or members, calling in an umpire only in case they find themselves evenly divided as to the award to be made.

Neutral arbitrators shall be designated from the neutral panel, and not otherwise, by the representative arbitrators and not by the parties. If the representative arbitrators are unable to agree upon the neutral

(Continued on following page, column 1)

---

[3] If retained.

[4] If retained.

[5] So stated in the conferences.

[6] It should be explained that generally speaking arbitration awards may be vacated (a) where procured by corruption, fraud or undue means; (b) where the arbitrators did not allow a fair hearing, and (c) where the arbitrators exceeded their powers.

FIX ARBITRATION FEES

(Continued from preceding page)

arbitrator or arbitrators to be designated, then they shall be chosen by lot.

No arbitrator whether representative or neutral shall be chosen to act as an arbitrator in any dispute in which he has a direct or indirect personal or financial interest. The parties may, however, waive their right to object to any arbitrator on the ground of interest.

At the hearings—

(a) The parties may represent themselves or be represented by another.

(b) Witnesses shall testify under oath.

(c) Each party shall have the right to question the witnesses of the other party or parties.

(d) The arbitrators may require any party to produce whatever records and documents they may deem necessary.

(e) Arbitrators shall be the judges of the relevancy of the testimony or evidence offered, but the technical rules of evidence shall not be applied and the board may inquire into the good faith of any claim or defense offered.

(f) Stenographic records of testimony will not be taken unless either or both parties so request and provide funds for the same in which case the stenographer shall be selected by the Arbitration Board, or, if designated by either or both parties, approved by the Board.

(7) Awards. If an award is in favor of an exhibitor complainant under commitments Nos. I. (1) and I. (2) it shall direct that the complainant be allowed to cancel the picture or pictures in question; if such an award is made under commitment No. III. it shall specify the maximum number of pictures that the complainant can absorb and direct that he be allowed to license not to exceed that number of pictures; if under No. IV. (2) it shall direct that the complainant be relieved of the requirement of playing the picture in question on preferred time, leaving it to the distributor to follow either of the alternatives provided in the commitment; if under No. V. (1) it shall direct that the complainant be granted a run to be designated by the distributor on terms not substantially disproportionate to those demanded in comparable situations; if under V. (2) it shall direct that the product be not sold away from, but that it be sold to, the complainant; and if under IX, it shall direct that the non-theatrical account be no longer served.

In controversies involving clearance or zoning, the award, if in favor of the complainant, shall recite that the clearance in question has been found to be unreasonable and shall prescribe fair and reasonable clearance to be observed by the parties.

In proceedings involving the performance by either party of a license agreement, the award shall be for specific performance, or for relief in the nature of an injunction, except when provisions are involved which prescribe monetary damages for breach or failure to perform.

In proceedings under commitments Nos. XIII and XIV[7] there shall be no award, but the Board shall make a report setting forth the material facts and finding specifically that coercive steps were or were not taken, or that the box office statements were or were not falsified, as the case may be.

In all cases in which the decision is in favor of the respondent or respondents, the award shall provide merely that "the complaint is dismissed for lack of merit."

Arbitration Boards shall have no power to award counsel fees or costs in favor of one party as against the other.

(8) Costs of arbitration machinery. Upon the filing of a claim the complaining party shall pay to the Joint Committee on Arbitration a filing fee in such amount as that Committee may by general rule establish, bearing in mind the expenses to be met, but wihch shall not be less than $5.00. These fees are to cover the cost of—

(a) Compensation of the neutral arbitrators whenever necessary. (No compensation shall be paid the arbitrators on the general panel.)

(b) Expenses incurred upon the initiative of the Arbitration Board.

(c) Expenses of the Joint Committee and other administrative expense.

(d) Expense of a secretary if one shall be deemed necessary by the Joint Committee.

In disputes involving principles affecting all branches of the industry, the Arbitration Board (or the Joint Committee) may, of its own motion, apportion the costs among all the distributors and the exhibitor associations.

(9) Waiving oral hearing. If the parties to any controversy agree in writing to waive oral hearing, the complainant shall first submit his sworn claim, supported by excerpts from books of account and other relevant evidence, together with argument to the Board and to the respondent; the respondent shall then file with the Board and submit to the complainant his sworn statement of defense and argument. Both parties may then submit in writing and under oath such further evidence as they see fit within five days, after which the Board will consider the file and enter an award.

XVII. EFFECTIVE DATE

This Code of Fair Competition shall become effective with the license agreements for the product to be released during the 1939-1940 season and shall remain in effect thereafter unless or until modified or abrogated with the consent of the national exhibitor groups ratifying the same; provided, however, that the provisions of the Code shall not be deemed to apply to or affect so-called franchise agreements covering products for seasons prior to the 1939-1940 season.

---

[7] If retained.

WOOD WARNS ON LABOR LAWS

Theatremen in Ohio would be deprived of court protection in cases of violence or vandalism arising from labor disputes, and court injunctions would be seriously delayed in such eventualities if recently introduced Ohio legislation is enacted into laws, it is pointed out by P. J. Wood, secretary of the Independent Theatre Owners of Ohio.

Attention also is directed to a bill to appropriate $100,000 from the state treasury for initial financing of a new governmental branch to promote unionism and another to create a three-man labor relations board, to be appointed by the governor for six-year terms, to insure the right of the worker to self-regulation and collective bargaining through representatives he himself selects.

Still another legislative measure seeks to maintain a 44-hour week with $11 minimum wage initially, which would progress automatically to a 40-hour maximum week and a $16 minimum wage, with creation of special wage boards which may impose higher standards for specific classes.

Loew's Admission Prices Revised at Nine Houses

Revised admission scales effective at nine Loew houses in Brooklyn and Manhattan this weekend, have been made known by C. C. Moskowitz, in charge of circuit operations for the New York area. RKO neighborhood houses will institute similar revisions.

The changes are designed to meet comparable levels at de luxe first run theatres in those zones. The cuts are five cents in all instances but four, which are 10 cents.

Bowles Wins Circuit Prize

Arch Bowles, manager of the northern California division of National Theatres, has received first award in the circuit's third national drive. Rick Ricketson of Denver accepted the second award for his Rocky Mountain division, and third place went to the southern California division, headed by Charles Skouras. Spyros Skouras, head of National, made the presentations at a two-day meeting of division managers in Los Angeles this week.

Bills Pending In Legislatures

Three new proposals to amend New York's labor law by establishing state control and regulation of fee-charging agencies are in the legislature at Albany, with one exempting theatrical employment agencies outright. All three would set up the bonding and licensing of the agencies. The regulation of fee-charging employment agencies was asked by Governor Herbert Lehman in his address to the legislature when it convened in January.

A proposal has been introduced to tax theatres in New York controlled by circuits of three or more houses at a rate of $50 to $1,000 each. Although the bill refers only to the licensing of stores, Section eight defines stores to include theatres. The scale of license fees would start with $50 each for "stores" in excess of two and not more than five, and extend to $100 each for six to 10, $250 each for 11 to 25, and $1,000 each for 26 or more.

Other legislative interest in Albany centered upon a bill that vending machines be taxed annually in July, penny machines assessed $5, nickel coin machines (including theatre candy or apple machines) $25, and coin venders of 10 cents, $50.

The League of New York Theatres will sponsor a bill in Albany legalizing the sale of liquor in theatres, presumably including motion pictures. The bill will specify an annual license fee of $150.

Of the $20,000,000 collected in 1938 by the State of Missouri under the two per cent sales tax, $385,140 was paid on entertainment admissions. Of this amount $303,086 was paid by theatres. On this basis all theatres did $15,150,000 gross business in the state in 1938.

Directors of the Kansas-Missouri Theatres Association have voted to withhold the presentation of bills inimical to the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers until the supreme court acts on the Washington State bill. The bills have been prepared.

A bill has been introduced in the Nebraska Legislature which seeks to impose a 25 cent per square foot annual tax of advertising space on billboards. There are about 8,000 paint and poster boards in Nebraska.

An anti-standing room bill directed at motion picture theatres and other public amusement places has been introduced into the Missouri Legislature.

A proclamation has been issued for the opening of the 1939 session of the Ontario Legislature on March 8th, when, it is expected, a battle will get under way on the proposed restoration of the amusement tax on admissions to theatres and sports events in the province which have been tax free since June, 1937.

A bill has been introduced in the Tennessee Legislature to permit operation of motion picture theatres on Sunday when authorized by majority vote of legislative council.

The Vermont House of Representatives has passed and sent to the Senate a measure to legalize motion picture showings, baseball, lectures and concerts on Sunday under local option.

"Illusion" in Sixth Month

On Tuesday "Grand Illusion" began the sixth month of its engagement at the Filmarte theatre, New York. The picture, which is distributed by World Pictures, will continue there indefinitely.

Desch with Grand National

Douglas Desch, formerly branch manager for GB in Kansas City, has joined Grand National there as head booker, city salesman and office manager.

IN THE BRITISH STUDIOS

by AUBREY FLANAGAN

in London

Personnel

The personnel of the new organisation D. & P. Studios, Limited, parent body controlling the destinies of the Denham and Pinewood studios, is as follows:

Directors: E. Ronald Crammond; E. H. George, W.S.; Sir Connop Guthrie, Bart. K.B.E.; E. H. Liver, F.I.A.; Capt. the Hon. R. Norton; J. Arthur Rank, D.L.; J.P.; Spencer M. Reis; P. C. Stapleton. Executive directors: Capt. the Hon. R. Norton; E. H. George, W.S.; P. C. Stapleton. Executive assistant: Commander L. G. E. Robinson. Secretary: H. Harrison. Assistant secretary: M. L. Axworthy. Chief accountant: T. B. Stalker. Studio operation: H. G. Coward; L. B. Thornburn. Chief sound engineers: L. Murray; A. W. Watkins. Office managers: F. Hauser; J. R. Young. Construction managers: L. Gerhold; W. Searle. Make-up: Guy Pearce. Trick department: Lawrence Butler. Matt shot department: Percy Day. Still department: S. Woods. Film library: R. Bennett. Music rights department: J. Bloomfield; F. Lewis. Publicity: L. Cardew.

At Elstree

Three films are in production at the Elstree Studios of Associated British, one of them a Mayflower Production, the other two bearing the Associated British mark and entitled "Black Eyes" and "At the Villa Rose."

Production has been concluded on the Jack Buchanan comedy thriller, "The Gang's All Here," directed by Thornton Freeland.

Held up twice, "Black Eyes" is in its last days of shooting with Mary Maguire leading woman and Otto Kruger in the role of a head waiter.

Production is underway on "At the Villa Rose," screen adaptation of the A. E. W. Mason mystery thriller. Herbert Brenon is directing.

Two Ealing Films

One Brighton studio which is currently registering 100 per cent activity, is at Ealing, where two films are in production under Michael Balcon. One of these is the boxing racket film, "There Ain't No Justice," the other an Edgar Wallace subject, "The Four Just Men."

Pen Tennyson, 26-year-old British director, achieves his first assignment with "There Ain't No Justice," having as his principals Jimmy Hanley, Phyllis Stanley, Jill Furse and Nan Hopkins. Richard Ainsley, young English actor, is to play a one-day role, while Edward Chapman, Mary Clare, Gus McNaughton, Edward Rigby and Bombardier Billy Wells, former heavyweight champion of England, further swell the cast. Assisting Balcon in production is Sergei Nolbandov.

Directing the Edgar Wallace subject is Walter Forde, who recently has added Francis Sullivan to the "Four Just Men," the other three being played by Hugh Sinclair, Griffith Jones and Frank Lawton. Anna Lee appears.

Immediately one or another of these two is finished production will start on Robert Stevenson's "A Young Man's Fancy," preparations for which were completed some days ago.

Charles Laughton as the Squire in the Pommer-Laughton production, "Jamaica Inn," is captured by the smugglers, including, in this picture, Emlyn Williams, Leslie Banks, Robert Newton and Wylie Watson. The film is being directed by Alfred Hitchcock.

Tragedian in Film

Tod Slaughter, leading British tragedian of the older school of heavy drama, and creator of the stage roles of "Sweeney Tod" and the murdered of "Maria Marten in the Red Barn," is busy at Beaconsfield in a new subject, "The Face at the Window." Produced by George King, who also is directing the picture, the film is taken from Brooke Warren's stage play. Leading roles in support have been given to John Warwick and Majorie Taylor.

Music for Korda

With the shooting of final sequences and probably the reshooting of others soon, work again has been revived on the extended production of Alexander Korda's "Over the Moon."

Engaged in writing the music for it is Muir Mathieson, Korda's musical director.

Among the bands collaborating on the score are the London Symphony Orchestra and Sydney Lipton's dance band.

Hay Drives Bus

For comedy purposes in his new Gainsborough film "Ask a Policeman," British comedian Will Hay has had to drive a London Transport omnibus round Brooklands, leading motor race track in Britain. The bus he drove is a Number 9, which normally operates between Liverpool Street and Barnes. The sequence called upon Hay, while driving the bus, to become involved with fifteen cars racing one hundred miles an hour on the track. Realism was lent to the sequence by the fact that Brooklands also has an aerodome in constant use, with takings off and landings, and by the added fact that a railway runs parallel with the longest leg of the course. British speed kings collaborated.

Itemized

A series of films designed to represent the lives of the animal young of England's woods and countryside is planned by Gaumont British Instructional, producers of documentary and science pictures. They will go into production in the spring and will include, among other subjects, squirrels, badgers, stoats, foxes and doormice.

* * *

Leslie Banks, Vivien Leigh and Lee Tracy appear under the direction of Anthony Asquith in a new short film in Dufacolor at the Rock Studios, Elstree, entitled "Blind Dogs."

* * *

Laurence Ilivier has been asked to present an open air version of "Hamlet" at the San Francisco World's Fair and Vivien Leigh to play Orphelia.

* * *

Basil Radford and Naunton Wayne, traveling Englishmen of "The Lady Vanishes," are to renew their team work in a new stage production in London.

* * *

Planned for production at the Associated British Studios, Elstree, is a series of films written around the Richard Crompton character, "William." Walter Mycroft is searching for a boy to play the title role.

BRITISH EXHIBITORS SEE VICTORY IN FIGHT FOR 'NON-FLAM' CONTROL

CEA's Hand Strengthened by Peaceful Settlement of Seat Regulation Dispute; Stonehaven Committee's Influence

by AUBREY FLANAGAN
in London

Like its senior brother the Films Council, and though not representative of any trade interests, the Home Office Advisory Committee on the films act, colloquially known as the Stonehaven Committee, has already given indication that it means business. Its meetings are infrequent, but they would not seem to be unproductive. Most obviously is this apparent in the serious way in which they have tackled the question of "non-flam" film and legislation affecting it.

Measure of Control Seen

It is as yet early to forecast the ultimate results of the committee's deliberations on "non-flam," but trade opinion here is confident that a measure of control is a likely result of the Stonehaven Committee's examination of the problem. Any control which may be imminent would not, however, interfere seriously with civil or personal liberties. It would be control rather than restriction. The exhibitors, manufacturers and other interested bodies have presented their evidence to the Committee, on the lines already outlined in MOTION PICTURE HERALD, and an early pronouncement upon the subject can be expected from the Home Office.

As with the Quota Act in its early stages, the problem has been notable in producing strange bedfellows. Making common cause with the manufacturers—thinly disguised under the comprehensive label Sub-Standard Cinematograph Association—labour and left political interests here have plumped unequivocally and comprehensively against any control whatsoever. With them under the same banner march various church interests and one or two educationists. On the other hand, arguing the case in favour of control, the Cinematograph Exhibitors Association finds itself linked with, surprisingly, the National Morality Council, conglomerate body of reformers, uplifters and religionists. The CEA president, Kenneth Nyman, finds himself, for once, in company with His Grace the Lord Bishop of London, chairman of the PMC.

Safety and Competition

The CEA's case in favour of some control of "non-flam" film shows is, of course, based equally upon considerations of public safety and illegitimate competition and it is believed that their pleadings have been accepted as persuasive by the committee's exclusively non-trade members. Especially the considerations of safety are known to have been considered convincing.

It is not unlikely that the recent amicable settlement of the London seat price dispute will have a happy effect upon their case facing the Committee. Representatives of the London County Council with whom they have recently made peace over the management rules, and peace without rancour or resentment, indubitably will take a friendly view of trade needs and suggestions in the matter, especially as it is likely to widen their sphere of control.

So far as the Council is concerned it must find itself in somewhat of a predicament, vis a vis the determined and vociferous opposition to control of the National Council of Civil Liberties, who have also pleaded against an extension of the legislative net. The National Council of Civil Liberties is a mildly left-center body of political partisans associated through its personnel with labour and radical elements, who, of course, have a majority on the London County Council.

MEXICAN "PICTURE WEEK" IS PLANNED

Mexican producers, with the anticipated help of the government, are preparing a "national picture week", during which only Mexican-made pictures would be shown. The producers assert that the Mexican public thus would become better acquainted with the fact that Mexico, too, has a motion picture industry.

American films dominate the Mexican exhibition mart.

More Censorship Asked

The not least disturbing feature of the Committee's recent deliberations has been the report, of course unconfirmed officially, that the secretary, of the British Board of Film Censors, the trade's own body, has asked for more censorship rather than less in regard to "non-flam" shows. Exhibitors, however, are not concerned with an extension of censorship, of which they have recently had a surfeit, but purely with some regimentation of these shows.

The Stonehaven Committee, however, although it set out immediately on Sir Samuel Hoare's suggestion to tackle the "non-flam" situation, is not going to confine its sessions purely to this matter. Having disposed of their first problem they will set out to consider the other relevant problems raised by the 1909 Act. These of course include licensing details of every kind, such as Sunday shows, redundancy, television, seat prices, censorship, etc.,—enough to keep them occupied until further notice. Indubitably, they will not be above accepting a lead from the All In Conference of Licensing bodies periodically summoned by the London County Council. First of these was held last month, when 13 councils joined conferential forces. They will meet again after Easter. These conferences are non-legislative, but the exchange of views made possible, and the representative character of the assembly, plus the fact that members of this licensing pool are also members of the consulting committee, indicate not only that any recommendations they may make will have a solid backing, but that they will carry force in Whitehall.

Amicable Settlement

The CEA settlement of the London seat price dispute has been an amicable one, and relations between the Council and the CEA are back on their old harmonious basis. The exhibitors protest that they were not against the seat price rule as a rule, but purely against an inflexible interpretation. They felt it would have the effect of removing from them their essential right of refusal and acceptance of admission, the right of the provider to decide on his own customers. They are assured that this right will not be questioned or removed.

There is, however, little doubt that whatever the constitutional rights of the exhibitor be in this situation, he would here have been fighting, on the public field, a losing battle. The London County Council, voted to power by an immense working class vote, are essentially a Labour body and had a formidable political weapon in their hand on the claim that they were protecting the man in the street against exploitation. Whether constitutionally right or wrong, against such a persuasive political argument, the London CEA would have lost either way.

Meanwhile, as already foreshadowed, other areas are either extending or considering the extension of their control of cinemas in a like direction. In all corners of the country, and even in comparatively remote Douglas, Isle of Man, the shadow of a local seat price rule has loomed over the local exhibitor. Not all CEA areas are on such friendly terms with their licensing authorities as is London, and an amicable settlement does not necessarily follow in every district. British exhibitors for 1939 are likely thus to find themselves wearing more than one local headache.

Income Tax Revision

Recent efforts of the Associated Actors and Artists of America to obtain revision of income tax laws, have focussed much attention among British artists and organisations here. The public pleadings of Madeleine Carroll, on her recent visit, against the fact that actors are expected to pay income tax on both sides of the Atlantic have added savour to the situation.

Little change, however, it would now appear, is likely to be forthcoming in the English law as it affects the actor's income tax. Despite Frank Gillmore's belief that the idea of averging an actor's income over a three year period has been adopted in Britain, this is not so, nor is it likely to be.

The only concession made to taxpayers is the levying of a tax on the previous year's income. This applies to actors as well as other professional workers. The fact that an artist's income is variable, or that one year's income may have to do for two years, including twelve months of unemployment, is not considered relevant by British revenue authorities.

Previous to 1928 the averaging principle was approved for actors by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, but according to J. C. Wilson, leading British accountant and financial spokesman for British actors Equity, it was found too cumbersome and abandoned.

He agreed that naturally the uncertainties of employment in the acting profession these days made the present system difficult for the tax payer, but there would seem to be no alternative.

The Board of Trade has intimated that the statement of the CEA relative to the quota provisions of the Films Act, is inadequate. The board has asked for a new statement, to indicate more specifically the exhibitor organization's attitude.

The CEA is threatening strong opposition to producer and employee demands for increases in the quota percentages.

Canada Waiving Duty On King Newsreels

The Dominion Government will waive the imposition of duty on sound trucks and sound recording equipment of selected newsreel companies from the United States preceding and at the time of the Canadian tour by the King and Queen of the British Empire. This concession will bring a saving of about $12,000 in customs payments on the motor vehicle and equipment of a newsreel unit.

WHAT THE PICTURE DID FOR ME

IN this, the exhibitors' own department, the theatremen of the nation serve one another with information on the box-office performance of product for their mutual benefit. It is a service of the exhibitor for the exhibitor. Address all communications to—

What the Picture Did for Me
MOTION PICTURE HERALD
Rockefeller Center, New York

Ambassador

ROUGH RIDING RHYTHM: Kermit Maynard—Lay off this picture; it won't draw flies. Played December 2-4.—A. N. Breezley, New Grand Theatre, Littleton, Col. Suburban and rural patronage.

Columbia

BLONDIE: Penny Singleton, Arthur Lake, Larry Simms—Exceptionally good business and a dandy little picture. Believe the next one will have a big business waiting.—Harold Smith, Dreamland Theatre, Carson, Iowa. Rural patronage.

BLONDIE: Penny Singleton, Arthur Lake, Larry Simms—Boy, this was a pip. What this country has always needed is a good family series picture and Columbia sure did "deliver the goods" when she came out with "Blondie." This one will have them rolling in the aisles from start to finish and they will come back for more. A-1 entertainment and business was terrific here on it. Running time, 72 minutes. Played January 26-27.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

BLONDIE: Penny Singleton, Arthur Lake, Larry Simms—A peach of a comedy that has them all roaring. Hope the balance of the series is as good. Great with a capital "G." Will stand alone in any spot for a short run. Running time, 69 minutes.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

FRONTIERS OF '49: Bill Elliott, Luana De Alcaniz—Average western that pleased. This Bill Elliott should make good in time, here anyway. Blocked roads made less than average business. Running time, 55 minutes.—A. E. Eliasen, Rialto Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

GLADIATOR, THE: Joe E. Brown, June Travis—Just a fair show. Nothing to get excited about. Nobody raved about it; a few kicks. No business. Running time, 60 minutes. Played January 25-26.—Ray S. Hanson, Fox Theatre, Fertile, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

I AM THE LAW: Edward G. Robinson, Wendy Barrie, Barbara O'Neil—Here is a picture that deserves extra advertising. Pack them in and make new customers. We had a commercial tieup with a large manufacturer from a neighborhood city in conjunction with their rural dealers, doing double business on the second night. Everyone spoke highly of this picture and made it a point to tell you so. Columbia has got something in this picture. Although Columbia may not make the most big pictures they are a great friend to us small town exhibitors. Always willing to adjust their mistakes and big enough to admit them. Running time, 83 minutes.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ont., Canada. General patronage.

LAW OF THE TEXAN: Buck Jones, Dorothy Fay—Fair action picture played to fair crowd. Running time, 54 minutes.—A. E. Eliasen, Rialto Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

LITTLE ADVENTURESS, THE: Edith Fellows, Robert Paige—Too much for the slight shoulders of Miss Fellows to carry the load. No picture and no cast. The racing scenes give enough action to get by. Play dual, if you must play same. A washout. Running time, 62 minutes.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

OLD WYOMING TRAIL, THE: Charles Starrett, Barbara Weeks—Very good western and Starrett is well liked. Running time, 56 minutes. Played January 13-14.—George Khattar, Casino Theatre, Whitney Pier, Sydney, Nova Scotia, Canada. General patronage.

REFORMATORY: Jack Holt, Charlotte Wynters—Very good and should be a sure bet in any house. Play it. Advertised it on the line of the 'Dead End Kid" pictures and drew. Running time, 61 minutes. Played January 11-12.—George Khattar, Casino Theatre, Whitney Pier, Sydney, Nova Scotia, Canada. General patronage.

RIO GRANDE: Charles Starrett, Ann Doran—The first Starrett we have run and can say that there is plenty of action for the western fans. Starrett does not try to sing but has an excellent singing cast with him that makes a swell picture. Running time, 59 minutes.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

SOUTH OF ARIZONA: Charles Starrett, Iris Meredith—Played this with "Tarnished Angel" and the women liked this better than the other. Western very good but it takes more than this to get them in. Running time, 60 minutes. Played January 20-21.—Ray S. Hanson, Fox Theatre, Fertile, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

THERE'S THAT WOMAN AGAIN: Melvyn Douglas, Virginia Bruce, Margaret Lindsay—A very good mystery comedy but do not expect another "There's Always a Woman," as it falls way short of that one. Miss Bruce is not the comedienne that Blondell is. Pleased all who came. Running time, 70 minutes.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU: Jean Arthur, James Stewart, Lionel Barrymore, Mischa Auer, Edward Arnold, Spring Byington, Ann Miller—It's the tops in all pictures this year. I don't believe anyone was disappointed in this picture. Crowd on Sunday and Monday was above average. Plenty of good comedy and also some sad parts in the picture. Don't miss it. Played January 15-17.—M. D. Buxton, Garden Theatre, McCracken, Kansas. Small town patronage.

YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU: Jean Arthur, James Stewart, Lionel Barrymore, Edward Arnold, Spring Byington, Mischa Auer, Ann Miller—One of the finest of current comedies, probably tops them all. Lionel Barrymore, Jean Arthur and James Steware are outstanding. Capra even tops his previous laurels. The new little girl, Ann Miller, is exceptionally good as a comedienne. Let's see more of her. I would say it pleased my audience 100 per cent. Business up with "Boy's Town." Running time, 127 minutes. Played January 9-11.—Keith McCallum, Granada Theatre, Oxford, Neb. Town and rural patronage.

First National

ADVENTURES OF ROBIN HOOD, THE: Errol Flynn, Olivia de Havilland, Claude Rains, Basil Rathbone, Ian Hunter—Really and truly an outstanding picture. Warners can be mighty proud of this one. Played January 9-10.—George Khattar, Casino Theatre, Whitney Pier, Sydney, Nova Scotia, Canada. General patronage.

BROADWAY MUSKETEERS: Margaret Lindsay, Marie Wilson, Ann Sheridan, John Litel, Janet Chapman—Very good, full of action. Margaret Lindsay and Ann Sheridan both very good. So far Warner hasn't made a poor picture this season. I hope they keep the good work up.—P. G. Held, New Strand Theatre, Griswold, Iowa. General patronage.

BROTHER RAT: Wayne Morris, Priscilla Lane, Jane Bryan—A snappy picture and did excellent business. Played January 29-30.—Marshall Rooks, Texas Theatre, Troup, Texas. Small town patronage.

GARDEN OF THE MOON: Pat O'Brien, Margaret Lindsay, John Payne, Johnnie Davis—Had many pleasant remarks on John Payne. Glad to see Margaret Lindsay get the roles she deserves, as she is a very clever actress. Picture pleased most who saw it. Pat O'Brien gives his usual fine whirlwind performance. Played January 22-23.—A. B. Jeffries, Piedmont Theatre, Piedmont, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

GARDEN OF THE MOON: Pat O'Brien, Margaret Lindsay, John Payne, Johnnie Davis—A pretty fair musical. Pat O'Brien really goes to town in this one. The role seemed to fit him perfectly. Running time, 93 minutes. Played January 25-26.—M. D. Buxton, Garden Theatre, McCracken, Kansas. Small town patronage.

GARDEN OF THE MOON: Pat O'Brien, Margaret Lindsay, John Payne, Johnnie Davis—Everyone found this very entertaining but it did not do any more than our average Saturday night's business. Running time, 94 minutes. Played February 20-21.—Frank E. Rider, Chateau Theatre, Wauneta, Neb. Small town patronage.

GARDEN OF THE MOON, THE: Pat O'Brien, Margaret Lindsay, John Payne, Johnnie Davis—Our folks liked this plenty. John Payne clicked okay. Moderate gross. Played January 4-5.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

GOING PLACES: Dick Powell, Anita Louise, Allen Jenkins—Very good picture which has an abundance of comedy and pleased all. However, business was below average; why, I don't know. Played February 1-2.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

GOLD IS WHERE YOU FIND IT: George Brent, Olivia de Havilland, Claude Rains, Margaret Lindsay—This picture was a decided hit with our patrons and pleased 100%. Nice story and swell acting by the stars. Heard many favorable comments on this one. Runing time. 97 minutes—J. P. Johnson, Sons of Norway Theatre, Ambrose, N. D. Small town and rural patronage.

PENROD'S DOUBLE TROUBLE: Billy and Bobby Mauch, Gene Lockart, Kathleen Lockhart, Dick Purcell—For double bills and right up our alley. Give us more like this. You can't beat such pictures as "The Case of the Stuttering Bishop", "The Case of the Black Cat", "Mystery House" and other features from Warners for double bills. Running time, 60 minutes. Played January 20-21.—George Khattar, Casino Theatre, Whitney Pier, Sydney, Nova Scotia, Canada. General patronage.

PERFECT SPECIMEN, THE: Errol Flynn, Joan Blondell, Hugh Herbert, Edward Everett Horton, May Robson, Dick Foran—A decided hit with our patrons. Perfect acting and a pleasing story. Good for any day in the week. Running time, 97 minutes. Played October 22.—J. P. Johnson, Sons of Norway Theatre, Ambrose, N. D. Small town and rural patronage.

SECRETS OF AN ACTRESS: Kay Francis, George Brent—The . . . It's . . ., Mr. well, you can read betwen the lines and you know what I want to say. 'Nuff said. Running time, 70 minutes. Played January 24-25.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

Gaumont British

KING SOLOMON'S MINES: Paul Robeson, Sir Cedric Hardwicke, Roland Young, John Loder, Anna Lee—Surprisingly good. Suspense and action that had them on the edge of their seats. A little hard to understand during first 25 minutes due to English and (worse) Scotch accents. Photography outstanding. Too bad it wasn't in sepia. It would have fitted this picture much better than it fits some that do have it. Paul Robeson's voice was really something to listen to. Remember "Show Boat?" Played December 16-17.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Rural and small town patronage.

Grand National

SUNSET MURDER CASE: Sally Rand—Lay off. Very amateurish and just no good. My people never did get the hang of the story. Running time, 57 minutes. Played January 11-12.—Frank E. Rider, Chateau Theatre, Wauneta, Neb. Small town patronage.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer

CHASER, THE: Dennis O'Keefe, Ann Morriss, Lewis Stone—A fair picture that pleased almost everybody. It doesn't seem quite right to have Lewis Stone playing the part of a drunken doctor. Played January 6-7.—M. D. Buxton, Garden Theatre, McCracken, Kansas. Small town patronage.

CHASER, THE: Dennis O'Keefe. Ann Morriss,

(Continued on following page)

TRUE STORIES FROM ALTEC FILES

NAT M. WILLIAMS,
General Manager of the Interstate Enterprises,
Thomasville, Ga.

Survey Prevents Serious Blaze in Theatre in South

THOMASVILLE, GA.—"Not satisfied with making his regular inspections of the sound equipment in our theatres, our Altec inspector, L. W. McClung, took it upon himself to make all our people 'fire-extinguisher conscious.' He personally made a survey of extinguishers in the Rose, Mode and Ritz in Thomasville, the Pine in Pelham, Ga., the Ilex, in Quitman, Ga., and the Shaw and Roxy in Quincy, Fla.," said Nat. M. Williams, General Manager, Interstate Enterprises.

"Within less than a week after McClung made his survey, we had a fire in the Shaw Theatre, at Quincy, Fla. The fire was put under control with a minor loss, but if McClung hadn't made that survey, it could have resulted in a serious property loss, to say nothing of the possibility of panic among the patrons.

"What the Altec man did wasn't part of his work, but such extra and unsolicited service certainly makes for an exhibitor's peace of mind."

• • • •

The regular inspections of an Altec Service inspector guard your theatre against emergency breakdowns. Without obligation, let the Altec inspector in your locality explain the advantages of an Altec Service Agreement. Write to—

ALTEC
SERVICE CORPORATION

250 West 57th Street, New York City

THE SERVICE ORGANIZATION OF THE MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY

(Continued from preceding page)

Lewis Stone—A very good little picture but no B. O. appeal. Played January 19-21.—A. M. Breezley, New Grand Theatre, Littleton, Col. Suburban and rural patronage.

CHRISTMAS CAROL, A: Reginald Owen, Terry Kilbury, Gene Lockhart, Kathleen Lockhart, Lynne Carver, Ann Rutherford—A Christmas "Dirge" would have been a much more appropriate title for this picture in my theatre. Good cast, good sound, good photography but B-A-D at the box office. Did not make film rental, much less other expenses. Personally, I thought it a wonderful picture but could not enjoy it for wondering how I would pay my bills, while my dog, Michael, from his place of vantage in the lobby, eyed me reproachfully, thinking of the boneless days to come. Everyone who came was enthusiastic in their praise but very few came. Hope I have learned, at long last, that I cannot run this type of picture and eat. Running time, 69 minutes. Played January 20-22.—Gladys E. McArdle, Owl Theatre, Lebanon, Kansas. Small town patronage.

CITADEL THE: Robert Donat, Rosalind Russell—Don't know why the critics called this the best picture of 1938, but it is certainly the best English picture we have ever played and measured well up to Hollywood's best. A good story convincingly played. Played January 22-24.—R. B. Ripple, Bijou Theatre, Pierre, S. D. General patronage.

CROWD ROARS, THE: Robert Taylor, Maureen O'Sullivan, Frank Morgan, Edward Arnold, Lionel Stander—Very good, was well liked by all. Frank Morgan very well liked. Fighting was also very good. Running time, 92 minutes. Played January 27-28.—O. W. Chapek, Annex Theatre, Anamoose, N. D. Rural and small town patronage.

CROWD ROARS, THE: Robert Taylor, Maureen O'Sullivan, Frank Morgan, Edward Arnold, Lionel Stander—What crowd? We had none to roar. Played January 29-February 1.—A. M. Breezley, New Grand Theatre, Littleton, Col. Suburban and rural patronage.

FAST COMPANY: Melvyn Douglas, Florence Rice, Claire Dodd—A very fine mystery comedy. We played this on a Sunday midnight. Did not do well due to the adverse weather conditions. Make no mistake, this picture will satisfy most any audience. Running time, 74 minutes.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ont., Canada. General patronage.

GREAT WALTZ, THE: Luise Rainer, Fernand Gravet, Milizia Korjus—A really fine picture but absolutely no box office draw for us. Grossed lowest Sunday-Monday dates we have ever had. As usual, the few customers who saw it thought that Miss Rainer overacted. I do not know, as I am no dramatic critic, but I do know that we lost plenty on it. Played January 29-30.—A. B. Jefferis, Piedmont Theatre, Piedmont, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

LORD JEFF: Freddie Bartholomew, Mickey Rooney—A very light picture and all that held it up was Mickey Rooney's name. I would certainly hate to depend on pictures of this kind for box office results. Running time, 85 minutes. Played January 1-4.—A. N. Breezley, New Grand Theatre, Littleton, Col. Suburban and rural patronage.

LORD JEFF: Mickey Rooney, Freddie Bartholomew, Charles Coburn, Gale Sondergaard, Herbert Mundin—This picture got by and that is about all. Running time, 85 minutes. Played February 4-5.—O. W. Chapek, Annex Theatre, Anamoose, N. D. Rural and small town patronage.

LORD JEFF: Freddie Bartholomew, Mickey Rooney, Charles Coburn, Gale Sondergaard, Herbert Mundin—A good picture that pleased almost everybody. Freddie Bartholomew was at his best. Mickey Rooney wasn't as good as he is in the Hardy series. Running time, 85 minutes. Played January 18-19.—M. D. Buxton, Garden Theatre, McCracken, Kansas. Small town patronage.

LOVE FINDS ANDY HARDY: Mickey Rooney, Judy Garland, Lewis Stone, Cecilia Parker, Fay Holden, Ann Rutherford, Lana Turner—A grand show. Pleased 100 per cent. Failed to draw as I expected. Played January 29-30.—Ray S. Hanson, Fox Theatre, Fertile, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

OUT WEST WITH THE HARDYS: Lewis Stone, Mickey Rooney, Cecilia Parker, Fay Holden, Virginia Weidler—The best of the Hardys to date, with little Virginia stealing all honors. She and Rooney are tops in all respects and should be played together again. Good for long runs in most places. Running time, 85 minutes.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

OUT WEST WITH THE HARDYS: Mickey Rooney, Lewis Stone, Cecilia Parker, Fay Holden, Virginia Weidler—One swell picture and business very good.—L. G. Tewksbury, Opera House, Stonington, Maine. Small town patronage.

SHINING HOUR, THE: Joan Crawford, Robert Young, Melvyn Douglas, Margaret Sullavan, Fay Bainter—Excellent production. Gave entire satisfaction to small attendance. Crawford does not draw them for us anymore.—L. G. Tewksbury, Opera House, Stonington, Maine. Small town patronage.

SHINING HOUR, THE: Joan Crawford, Margaret Sullavan, Melvyn Douglas, Robert Young, Fay Bainter—Every player refuses to carry Crawford along and reads lines to her like a wooden Indian. Even the orchestra plays a dead tempo in a dance scene, which is about as gay as a case of chilblains. A great cast gives a poor performance of a deadly story. Played January 29-31.—R. B. Ripple, Bijou Theatre, Pierre, S. D. General patronage.

SHINING HOUR, THE: Joan Crawford, Margaret Sullavan, Melvyn Douglas, Robert Young, Fay Bainter—This was a very good picture but even with the extra star names this picture did not draw at all. Business very poor.—Harold Smith, Dreamland Theatre, Carson, Iowa. Rural patronage.

SHOPWORN ANGEL: Margaret Sullavan, James Stewart—This picture was really shopworn by the time I played it. A good picture but no B. O. punch. Running time, 85 minutes. Played January 15-18.—A. N. Breezley, New Grand Theatre, Littleton, Col. Suburban and rural patronage.

SPRING MADNESS: Lew Ayres, Maureen O'Sullivan, Burgess Meredith—Clever little comedy. Many favorable comments. Played on double bill. Will not stand alone. Played February 1-2.—N. E. Frank, Wayand Theatre, Wayland, Mich. Small town patronage.

STABLEMATES: Mickey Rooney, Wallace Beery—Mickey Rooney does it again; another sure fire box office hit for any man's theatre. Give it your best playing time. Wallace Beery finally gets back to par after "Port of Seven Seas." Pleased everyone. Running time, 90 minutes. Played January 1-2.—Keith McCallum, Granada Theatre, Oxford, Neb. Town and rural patronage.

STABLEMATES: Wallace Beery, Mickey Rooney, Margaret Hamilton—A small town natural. Good story, good cast, good horse race, good audience reaction. Wallace Beery and Mickey Rooney are a grand team while Margaret Hamilton is tops in a comedy role. Hope she gets bigger and better parts. Don't be afraid to tell 'em this is a good one. Running time, 89 minutes. Played January 27-29.—Gladys E. McArdle, Owl Theatre, Lebanon, Kansas. Small town patronage.

STABLEMATES: Wallace Beery, Mickey Rooney—Very good; drew well; pleased everyone including me. That's as much as any and more than most pictures can do. A natural for a small town. Played December 25-26.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Rural and small town patronage.

STAND UP AND FIGHT: Robert Taylor, Wallace Beery, Florence Rice, Barton MacLane, Helen Broderick—A natural for small town. Played it on Sunday to extra business. Wallace Beery is always welcome to my patrons. Played January 29-31.—N. E. Frank, Wayland Theatre, Wayland, Mich. Small town patronage.

STAND UP AND FIGHT: Robert Taylor, Wallace Beery, Barton MacLane, Florence Rice, Helen Broderick—A great picture and why shouldn't it be. Wallace Beery never was in a poor picture in his life. You've seen him in rags and you've seen him in dress suit but always great, the world's greatest star in a great picture. Running time, 95 minutes.—W. E. McPhee, Strand Theatre, Old Town, Maine. General patronage.

SWEETHEARTS: Jeanette MacDonald, Nelson Eddy, Florence Rice, Frank Morgan, Mischa Auer—Beautiful production. Enjoyed by just an average attendance. Played January 21-23.—N. E. Frank, Wayland Theatre, Wayland, Mich. Small town patronage.

THREE LOVES HAS NANCY: Robert Montgomery, Janet Gaynor, Franchot Tone—A little silly but, all in all, good entertainment. Did about average business. Running time, 67 minutes. Played January 29-30.—Horn and Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Neb. Small town patronage.

THREE LOVES HAS NANCY: Janet Gaynor, Robert Montgomery, Franchot Tone—A fairly good little picture that is fast moving and quite enjoyable. A few suggestive scenes but on the whole it passed OK. Nothing really to it but it was good entertainment. Running time, 65 minutes. Played January 26-27.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

TOO HOT TO HANDLE: Clark Gable, Myrna Loy, Walter Pidgeon, Leo Carrillo, Walter Connolly—Except for one thing, this would have been as good as "Test Pilot," that one thing being Spencer Tracy. That amounts to quite a lot, too. Very exciting, good for any days, with Gable, Loy, Pidgeon and Connolly turning in first rate performances. Above average business. Played December 18-19.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Rural and small town patronage.

TREASURE ISLAND (reissue): Wallace Beery, Jackie Cooper—As good as anything released today. Photography and sound good. As is to be expected, both Beery and Cooper turn in topnotch performances. Everyone was well pleased and there were quite a few present to enjoy it. Played December 23-24.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Rural and small town patronage.

VACATION FROM LOVE: Dennis O'Keefe, Florence Rice—A good picture for bargain night. Entertaining but not big.—Harland Smith, Dreamland Theatre, Carson, Iowa. Rural patronage.

YOUNG DR. KILDARE: Lew Ayres, Lionel Barrymore, Lynne Carver, Jo Ann Sayers—A very good picture. This deserves your best playing time. Lew Ayres becoming quite popular with my patrons.—Harold Smith, Dreamland Theatre, Carson, Iowa. Rural patronage.

YOU'RE ONLY YOUNG ONCE: Lewis Stone, Mickey Rooney, Cecilia Parker, Fay Holden, Ann Rutherford—Of course, this is a natural for any small town (or large), being the best of the first three. Went back and picked up every one of these and played them in order, which was the wise thing to do because each one mentions previous ones. Mickey Rooney was much more natural in this than in "Judge Hardy's Children" or "Love Finds Andy Hardy," due, no doubt, to the fact that he hadn't yet discovered how popular or how valuable he was to Metro. This is, if for no other reason than that, equally as good as "Love Finds Andy Hardy." Played December 20.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre Cabool, Mo. Rural and small town patronage.

Miscellaneous

WRAPOS: Stanislawa, Angel Engelouna—Packed houses raved about this picture. Any theatre that has Polish patronage should play this feature. Running time, 90 minutes. Played February 1-2.—Frank W. Linehan, Rialto Theatre, New Britain, Conn. Polish patronage.

Paramount

ARKANSAS TRAVELER, THE: Bob Burns, Fay Bainter, Irvin S. Cobb, Jean Parker, John Beal—Undoubtedly Bob Burns' finest picture. Give it your best playing time. It's a real down to earth story that is sure fire for small towns. Business swell. Running time, 83 minutes. Played December 30-31.—Keith McCallum, Granada Theatre, Oxford, Neb. Town and rural patronage.

ARKANSAS TRAVELER, THE: Bob Burns, Fay Bainter, Irvin S. Cobb, Jean Parker, John Beal—Here is a real picture for Bob Burns. Pictures of the type are needed. Drew exceptionally good and pleased.—Harold Smith, Dreamland Theatre, Carson, Iowa. Rural patronage.

ARKANSAS TRAVELER, THE: Bob Burns, Fay Bainter, Irvin S. Cobb, Jean Parker, John Beal—Very good. Box office okay. Played January 1-2.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

ARKANSAS TRAVELER, THE: Bob Burns, Jean Parker, Fay Bainter, Irvin S. Cobb, John Beal—A down to earth picture which every one enjoyed. We are in need of a lot more of this type of picture and they don't have to spend a fortune to produce them either. If the producers would make more of these and less of those silly kind we would be sitting on top of the world. Running time, 83 minutes. Played January 28-29.—H. M. Gerber, Roxy Theatre, Hazelton, N. D. Small town and rural patronage.

ARTISTS AND MODELS ABROAD: Jack Benny, Joan Bennett, Mary Boland, Yacht Club Boys—A box office flop. Even the Benny fans failed him in this picture. Played February 1-2.—Marshall Rooks, Texas Theatre, Troup, Texas. Small town patronage.

BAR 20 JUSTICE: William Boyd, Russell Hayden—Only fair western. These used to be the best westerns we played. They'll have to improve considerably. Played December 23-24.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Rural and small town patronage.

IF I WERE KING: Ronald Colman, Frances Dee, Basil Rathbone, Ellen Drew—A swell picture that I thoroughly enjoyed, but the way my patrons stayed away, you'd think we were quarantined. Didn't please 30% of my patrons. Played on Wednesday and Thursday, December 28-29.—Keith McCallum, Granada Theatre, Oxford, Neb. Town and rural patronage.

KING OF ALCATRAZ: Lloyd Nolan, Mary Carlisle, J. Carroll Naish—It's a good second-run picture with the same old plot just rehashed a bit. Naish his usually good self. I publish my own weekly paper here. You might get some idea from it. It's yours for a stamp to pay postage. I call it the "Observer" and mix theatre news with local news and ads. Running time, 57 minutes. Played January 22-23.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

KING OF ALCATRAZ: J. Carrol Naish, Lloyd Nolan, Gail Patrick—Better than average crime story. Used on double bill. Played February 1-2.—N. E. Frank, Wayland Theatre, Wayland, Mich. Small town patronage.

MEN WITH WINGS: Fred MacMurray, Ray Milland, Louise Campbell, Andy Devine—This is a very good picture but does not warrant the terms the company asks.—Harold Smith, Dreamland Theatre, Carson, Iowa. Rural patronage.

MYSTERIOUS RIDER: Russell Hayden, Weldon Heyburn, Charlotte Fields—The least attractive Zane Grey picture we've ever run. The cast was not very interesting. It did okay, however. Played January 10.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

PARTNERS OF THE PLAINS: William Boyd, Russell Hayden, Gwen Gaze—A very poor western. One of the worst I ever saw. Many of the western fans were disappointed. Running time, 65 minutes. Played January 6-7.—M. D. Buxton, Garden Theatre, McCracken, Kansas. Small town patronage.

PRIDE OF THE WEST: William Boyd, George Hayes, Charlotte Fields—Yes sir, Cassidy and Windy can always be depended upon to bring in enough money to help pay last week's film rentals. It takes a few of these pictures to help pay for some of the duds that all the producers hand us, especially the so called "specials." Played January 27-28.—A. B. Jefferis, Piedmont Theatre, Piedmont, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

PRISON FARM: Lloyd Nolan, Shirley Ross—Heavy drama but satisfied on Bargain Night to good business due to Lloyd Nolan's popularity here. Everybody pleased. Played October 25.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

PROFESSOR BEWARE: Harold Lloyd, Phyllis Welch, Lionel Stander, Raymond Walburn—Fair picture which pleased on midweek date. Business only fair. Afraid Harold Lloyd is about washed up. He is showing his age. Played November 2-3.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

RIDE A CROOKED MILE: Akim Tamiroff, Frances Farmer, Leif Erikson—As nice a program feature as we've ever played. More for the men but the ladies will enjoy it also. Fine work by the whole cast and especially Tamiroff. Very bad weather made travel impossible here so very few were fortunate enough to see this. Running time, 77 minutes. —A. E. Eliasen, Rialto Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

SIGN OF THE CROSS, THE (reissue): Claudette Colbert, Charles Laughton, Fredric March, Elissa Landi—An excellent picture, although very old. One of the first real hits to come out as an all-talkie. The cast turn in a splendid performance. I think this one could be brought back to the tune of very good business in the neighborhood houses. Why not give it a try? Running time, 126 minutes. Played January 22-23.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

SING, YOU SINNERS: Bing Crosby, Fred MacMurray, Donald O'Connor, Ellen Drew, Elizabeth Patterson—Excellent small town comedy-drama. Without a doubt the best thing Crosby has ever done. Many favorable comments and good business. One of the best pictures played in months. Suitable for all classes of trade. Many laughable situations and music of smash caliber. Good for an extra day or two. Played October 23-24.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

SONS OF THE LEGION: Donald O'Connor, Billy Lee, Lynne Overman, Elizabeth Patterson, William Frawley—Okay picture if you don't mind its lack of box office appeal. It looks like a forerunner of the new flag waving pictures and as such merits a playdate. Americanism is worth a plug any day. Played January 6-7.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacock, N. H. General patronage.

SPAWN OF THE NORTH: George Raft, Henry Fonda, Dorothy Lamour, Akim Tamiroff, John Barrymore, Lynne Overman, Louise Platt—Smashing good drama with enough light spots to balance up nicely. Without a doubt, Dorothy Lamour's finest role. A bit rough in spots for Sunday. Some of the girls couldn't take it. Slicker, the seal, was very good and drew a laugh every time he appeared. Played December 11-12.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Rural and small town patronage.

SPAWN OF THE NORTH: George Raft, Henry Fonda, Dorothy Lamour, Akim Tamiroff, John Barrymore, Lynne Overman, Louise Platt—If this had been in color, what a show it would have been. Pleased 100%. No business. Played January 22-23.—Ray S. Hanson, Fox Theatre, Fertile, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

THANKS FOR THE MEMORY: Bob Hope, Shirley Ross, Charles Butterworth—A good light domestic comedy. Business was also light. What a pity! This team is good. Played January 11-12.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

THANKS FOR THE MEMORY: Bob Hope, Shirley Ross, Charles Butterworth—Pretty thin to stand alone. Just a lot of drinking and foolishness, which was to pass for comedy. Did not go over here and those who saw it did not like it. Running time, 75 minutes. Played January 14-15.—H. M. Gerber, Roxy Theatre, Hazelton, N. D. Small town and rural patronage.

TOUCHDOWN ARMY: Mary Carlisle, John Howard—Very good program picture that pleased on Friday and Saturday. Running time, 68 minutes.—P. G. Held, New Strand Theatre, Griswold, Iowa. General patronage.

ZAZA: Claudette Colbert, Herbert Marshall, Bert Lahr—I heard about this one and when an exhibitor near me played it one night and pulled it I decided to pass it up. He said it was poison.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

ZAZA: Claudette Colbert, Herbert Marshall, Bert Lahr—I'm not talking. Running time, 85 minutes.—A. E. Eliasen, Rialto Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

Republic

ARMY GIRL: Madge Evans, Preston Foster, Neil Hamilton, Ruth Donnelly—Nice little picture. Patrons seem to like it. Running time, 88 minutes. Played February 3.—Frank W. Linehan, Rialto Theatre, New Britain, Conn. General patronage.

BOOTS AND SADDLES: Gene Autry, Smiley Burnette, Judith Allen—At the risk of getting murdered by fellow exhibs, I am forced to report that in my town these babies are getting weaker per each issue, "Springtime in the Rockies" being the only good one in the last four or five. If it wasn't for Smiley Burnette, these pics would flop so hard there wouldn't even be a thud. Or maybe I'm all wet. They say "Old Barn Dance," "Gold Mine in the Sky" are much better. They may be. We'll see. Played December 16-17.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

GOLD MINE IN THE SKY: Gene Autry, Smiley Burnette, Carol Hughes—Another good picture from Republic, the Reliable. To us Burnette is the whole show. An excellent Autry that drew only average. Running time, 59 minutes.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

MAN FROM MUSIC MOUNTAIN: Gene Autry, Smiley Burnette, Carol Hughes, Polly Jenkins and Her Plowboys—Definitely not as good a picture as "The Old Barn Dance." We had several walkouts on it. Gene Autry alone won't be enough for our patrons. He needs story and casting support. They nearly forgot to include the talented troupe, Polly Jenkins and her Plowboys, after giving them billing. They are good and could have helped entertain if they'd been given any footage at all. The way this story worked out, so far as we can see, all concerned would have been just as well off if Autry had kept out of their town. True the crooks sold them a supposedly worked out mine but after all was said and done "thar still was gold in them thar hills." Played January 13-14.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

TENTH AVENUE KID: Bruce Cabot, Beverly Roberts, Tommy Ryan—A fair picture that did so-so business, not so good, not too bad. Played January 3.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

RKO Radio

CAREFREE: Fred Astaire, Ginger Rogers, Ralph Bellamy—Not so hot. People don't seem to go for Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers very much any more. Running time, 83 minutes. Played January 20-21.—M. D. Buxton, Garden Theatre, McCracken, Kansas. Small town patronage.

CAREFREE: Fred Astaire, Ginger Rogers, Ralph Bellamy—Got by nicely on a Sunday but it isn't up to the standard previously set by these two. Fair musical numbers. Played November 6-7.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

LAWLESS VALLEY: George O'Brien, Kay Sutton—Good western. Running time, 61 minutes.—P. G. Held, New Strand Theatre, Griswold, Iowa. General patronage.

LITTLE WOMEN (reissue): Katharine Hepburn, Joan Bennett, Paul Lukas, Frances Dee, Jean Parker—Pleased the ladies and many went out of their way to say so. Does some extra business. The print I had was poor. Played January 24.—Ray S. Hanson, Fox Theatre, Fertile, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

MR. DOODLE KICKS OFF: Joe Penner, June Travis, Richard Lane—By far the best picture Penner has made since he was with Paramount. He never will top "College Rhythm." Remember it? Pleased 100% of a packed house at both shows. Played November 8.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

ROOM SERVICE: Marx Brothers, Lucille Ball, Ann Miller, Frank Albertson—This may have been a good play but as material for the Marx Bros. type of comedy it falls flat. They were caged in by the one room locale and seemed suppressed. Whoever thought it a good idea to omit their musical numbers was sure not awake to the keynote of their talents. Business was 'way off. Played January 6-7.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

ROOM SERVICE: Marx Brothers, Lucille Ball, Ann Miller, Frank Albertson—This was our first Marx Brothers picture and also the last. I never felt so ashamed of anything in my life as I did of this picture. I not only hid when the show was over but I was ashamed to show myself for a week afterwards. I cannot find words to describe it but to say it was lousy is an insult to a louse. Running time, 78 minutes. Played January 21-22.—H. M. Gerber, Roxy Theatre, Hazelton, N. D. Small town and rural patronage.

ROOM SERVICE: Marx Brothers, Lucille Ball, Ann Miller, Frank Albertson—Good enough screwball comedy for midweek but this certainly can't be compared to some of the Marx Brothers previous efforts such as "A Day at the Races." Mild reaction. Fair business. Played October 30-31.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

(Continued on following page)

(Continued from preceding page)

SKY GIANT: Richard Dix, Chester Morris, Joan Fontaine—Good action picture with enough comedy and thrills to please most any audience. A little hokum on the windup, still ok. Some good flying shots. Played October 28-29.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

SMASHING THE RACKETS: Chester Morris, Frances Mercer, Rita Johnson—Direction slow, picture carries no punch and picture did worst business in weeks. Played February 2-4.—A. N. Breezley, New Grand Theatre, Littleton, Col. Suburban and rural patronage.

TARNISHED ANGEL: Sally Eilers, Ann Miller, Lew Bowman—Double feature stuff. No draw; no entertainment. Running time, 60 minutes. Played January 20-21.—Ray S. Hanson, Fox Theatre, Fertile, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

TARNISHED ANGEL: Sally Eilers, Ann Miller, Lee Bowman—Pleased fifty-fifty. Personally liked it. —L. G. Tewksbury, Opera House, Stonington, Maine. Small town patronage.

Twentieth Century-Fox

ALEXANDER'S RAGTIME BAND: Tyrone Power, Alice Faye, Don Ameche, Jack Haley, Ethel Merman —Believe it or not I lost money running this picture but no wonder, it was bled to death before I got it. Played January 22-25.—A. N. Breezley, New Grand Theatre, Littleton, Col. Suburban and rural patronage.

ALWAYS IN TROUBLE: Jane Withers, Robert Kellard, Jean Rogers—About the typical Withers picture. Seemed to draw extra business but hardly think this pleased as well as most of her former pictures. She's getting pretty big and chubby for the type story they are giving her. Running time, 69 minutes Played January 25-26.—Horn and Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Neb. Small town patronage.

ARIZONA WILDCAT: Jane Withers, Leo Carrillo, Pauline Moore, Henry Wilcoxon—Best yet from Jane. Has a western background so I played it on Friday and Saturday and did above average business on it. Played February 3-4.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

BARONESS AND THE BUTLER, THE: William Powell, Annabella—The only thing that bolstered this picture was Powell. I cannot recommend it. Played January 5-7.—A. N. Breezley, New Grand Theatre, Littleton, Col. Suburban and rural patronage.

CHARLIE CHAN IN HONOLULU: Sidney Toler, Phyllis Brooks—Very good feature. Received many fine compliments on Mr. Toler's performance as Chan. He will be as good or better than the late W. Oland. Drew an appreciative audience. Running time, 65 minutes.—A. E. Eliasen, Rialto Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

DOWN ON THE FARM: Jed Prouty, Spring Byington, Louise Fazenda—The best of all the Jones Family hits. Louise Fazenda makes an added improvement to an able cast. Played to above average business. Sure fire hit for small towns. Running time, 60 minutes.—Keith McCallum, Granada Theatre, Oxford, Neb. Town and rural patronage.

FIVE OF A KIND: Dionne Quintuplets, Jean Hersholt, Claire Trevor, Joan Davis, Slim Summerville—Very poor. Drew well but patrons walked out in middle of feature. Played January 27-28.—Frank W. Linehan, Rialto Theatre, New Britain, Conn. General patronage.

FIVE OF A KIND: Dionne Quintuplets, Jean Hersholt, Claire Trevor, Joan Davis, Slim Summerville—While this did a good business, it did not please generally.—Harold Smith, Dreamland Theatre, Carson, Iowa. Rural patronage.

GATEWAY: Don Ameche, Arleen Whelan, Lyle Talbot, Gregory Ratoff, Binnie Barnes—Average picture which did average business on Bargain Night to average audience reaction. Arleen Whelan very good. Don Ameche always good. Played November 1.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

GATEWAY: Don Ameche, Arleen Whelan, Lyle Talbot, Gregory Ratoff, Binnie Barnes—Fair enough for a weekend program but nothing special. The bit actors in it are good. For the stars it is just another picture.—R. B. Hipple, Bijou Theatre, Pierre, S. D. General patronage.

HOLD THAT CO-ED: John Barrymore, Marjorie Weaver, George Murphy, Jack Haley, Joan Davis—Don't miss it if you haven't already played it. It would have done better during football season but did fairly well now. Joan Davis was plenty good. I laughed until I had tears in my eyes. Running time, 80 minutes. Played January 22-23.—M. D. Buxton, Garden Theatre, McCracken, Kansas. Small town patronage.

HOLD THAT CO-ED: John Barrymore, Marjorie Weaver, George Murphy, Jack Haley, Joan Davis—Lynne Overman would have been the perfect casting job in this spot, replacing John Barrymore. However, it's good, having done a first rate job of holding up a mid-week date to good business. National Screen Service trailer showed a scene which never did show up in the feature, namely, Joan Davis's 'All-American Swing" number. At least, it wasn't in my print. George Murphy good. Played December 14-15.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Rural and small town patronage.

JUST AROUND THE CORNER: Shirley Temple, Joan Davis, Charles Farrell, Armanda Duff, Bill Robinson, Bert Lahr—Two days run and would have done fair business on the third day. A good picture but could have been better. Played January 18-19.—Marshall Rooks, Texas Theatre, Troup, Texas. Small town patronage.

JUST AROUND THE CORNER: Shirley Temple, Joan Davis, Charles Farrell, Armanda Duff, Bill Robinson, Bert Lahr—I thought this quite a bit better than her previous pictures. Business was good but she has lost a lot of her popularity.—Harold Smith, Dreamland Theatre, Carson, Iowa. Rural patronage.

JUST AROUND THE CORNER: Shirley Temple, Joan Davis, Charles Farrell, Armanda Duff, Bill Robinson, Bert Lahr—Most of you may realize by now this is not a big picture but certainly not the least of Shirley's pictures. Most anyone will enjoy it, we're sure. Charlie Farrell plays her father nicely, and many were glad to see him again. The gross was satisfactory. Played January 8-9.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

JUST AROUND THE CORNER: Shirley Temple, Joan Davis, Charles Farrell, Armanda Duff, Bert Lahr, Bill Robinson—Shirley's newest hit again brings out the kids from 6 to 60. However, it's the same old song and dance stuff with everybody happy as the picture ends. Better than average. Running time, 70 minutes.—Keith McCallum, Granada Theatre, Oxford, Neb. Town and rural patronage.

KEEP SMILING: Jane Withers, Gloria Stuart, Henry Wilcoxon, Helen Westley—Jane always a sure fire hit on Saturday. Business above average. Played January 26-28.—A. N. Breezley, New Grand Theatre, Littleton, Col. Suburban and rural patronage.

KEEP SMILING: Jane Withers, Gloria Stuart, Henry Wilcoxon, Helen Westley—Not as good as previous Jane Withers pictures but pleased an above average Bargain Night crowd 100%. Played December 6.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Rural and small town patronage.

KENTUCKY: Loretta Young, Richard Greene, Walter Brennan—Very good picture in the best color we have seen. Has action, romance and comedy. Pleased all and did good business. Played January 25-26.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

KENTUCKY: Loretta Young, Richard Greene, Walter Brennan—A natural if there ever was one. The picture has everything. Walter Brennan's performance is one of the most outstanding to hit any screen for a long time. Our biggest problem is to keep our patrons patient till we play it second run, at which time we can call our shot—SRO. Running time, 96 minutes. Played January 8-10.—Peter Panagos, Sipe and Indiana Theatres, Kokomo, Ind. General patronage.

KENTUCKY: Loretta Young, Robert Greene, Walter Brennan—Very good picture and all in the best color we have had. Beautiful horses and a good race on the finish, which pleased all. Did above average business. Played January 25-26.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

MEET THE GIRLS: June Lang, Lynn Bari, Robert Allen—Get your patrons "punch drunk" before they go in and they'll eat it up. Running time, 65 minutes.—C. H. Collier, Globe Theatre, Drew, Miss. General patronage.

MEET THE GIRLS: June Lang, Lynn Bari, Robert Allen—Would have been all right as a two-reel comedy. If you haven't played this one, don't. Played January 8-9.—Frank W. Linehan, Rialto Theatre, New Britain, Conn. General patronage.

MY LUCKY STAR: Sonja Henie, Richard Greene, Joan Davis, Cesar Romero, Buddy Ebsen—A swell picture. Enjoyed by all. Sonja Henie skates better in this picture than any other she has made. Joan Davis and Buddy Ebsen furnished plenty of comedy. Running time, 84 minutes. Played January 8-10.—M. D. Buxton, Garden Theatre, McCracken, Kansas. Small town patronage.

MY LUCKY STAR: Sonja Henie, Richard Greene, Joan Davis, Cesar Romero, Buddy Ebsen—Good picture and good business but neither as good as before. Richard Greene was terribly miscast. He needs to associate with the "Dead End Kids" for a while and learn how to talk good old lowdown American. His speech is understandable but irritating in spite of a good speaking voice. Played November 20-21.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

RAWHIDE: Smith Ballew, Evelyn Knapp, Lou Gehrig—Played this with "Speed to Burn." A few more of these and I'm on W.P.A. Running time, 54 minutes. Played January 27-28.—Ray S. Hanson, Fox Theatre, Fertile, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

ROAD DEMON: Henry Armetta, Bill Robinson, Henry Arthur, Joan Valerie—Better than average action picture which pleased all. Has some thrilling automobile races and crashes. Played January 27-28. —E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

ROAD DEMON: Henry Arthur, Joan Valerie—This picture has no stars but it has plenty of action and pleased the kids on Friday-Saturday. The auto races are very thrilling and I think they are from newsreels from the Memorial Day races at Indianapolis Speedway. Played January 27-28.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

SAFETY IN NUMBERS: Jed Prouty, Shirley Deane, Spring Byington—The usual Jones Family yarn, with average weekend business. Played January 19-21.—A. N. Breezley, New Grand Theatre, Littleton, Col. Suburban and rural patronage.

SAFETY IN NUMBERS: Jed Prouty, Spring Byington, Shirley Deane—A very good Jones Family picture. This series is quite popular with my patrons. —Harold Smith, Dreamland Theatre, Carson, Iowa. Rural patronage.

SHARPSHOOTERS: Brian Donlevy, Lynn Bari—Another reason why they stay home. Oh for that twenty per cent cancellation, what a boom that will be. The exhibitor will get out from under these weak sisters and we will all be to the good, exhibitor, producer and public. A. E. Hancock, Columbia Theatre, Columbia City, Ind. General patronage.

SLAVE SHIP: Wallace Beery, Warner Baxter, Mickey Rooney, Elizabeth Allan—A wonderful performance by Beery and Baxter. Story a little rough in spots but pleased 100%. Running time, 92 minutes. Played October 28-29.—J. P. Johnson, Sons of Norway Theatre, Ambrose, N. D. Small town and rural patronage.

SPEED TO BURN: Lynn Bari, Michael Whalen—A fair show; nothing to rave about. OK for double feature. Running time, 60 minutes. Played January 27-28.—Ray S. Hanson, Fox Theatre, Fertile, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

SPEED TO BURN: Michael Whalen, Lynn Bari—This proved a good draw and a good picture. Pictures of this type are good in the small towns.—Harold Smith, Dreamland Theatre, Carson, Iowa. Rural patronage.

STRAIGHT PLACE AND SHOW: Ritz Brothers, Richard Arlen, Phyllis Brooks, Ethel Merman—Very poor. Ritz Brothers sure are poison at the box office. Played February 2.—Frank W. Linehan, Rialto Theatre, New Britain, Conn. General patronage.

STRAIGHT, PLACE AND SHOW: Ritz Brothers, Richard Arlen, Phyllis Brooks, Ethel Merman—The Ritz Bros. in this situation are washed up. The picture not so hot. Running time, 75 minutes.—C. H. Collier, Globe Theatre, Drew, Miss. General patronage.

STRAIGHT, PLACE AND SHOW: Ritz Brothers, Richard Arlen, Phyllis Brooks, Ethel Merman—The reviews on their next one have got to be good or it's no play with us. Dropped considerably in box office receipts and so many patrons told us we need not look for them. Running time, 65 minutes. Played January 27-28.—Horn and Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Neb. Small town patronage.

SUBMARINE PATROL: Richard Greene, Nancy Kelly, Preston Foster, George Bancroft—Everyone enjoyed it. Held up the three days to more than our average business. It has the drawing power and will do extra business. A better weekend picture. Running time, 95 minutes. Played February 2-4.—Frank E. Rider, Chateau Theatre, Wauneta, Neb. Small town patronage.

SUEZ: Tyrone Power, Loretta Young, Annabella—A good production but not outstanding. Good entertainment and well liked by all. Running time, 108 minutes. Played January 8-10.—M. W. Mattecheck, Lark Theatre, McMinnville, Ore. Local patronage.

SUEZ: Tyrone Power, Loretta Young, Annabella—Undoubtedly Fox spent a lot of money on this one, but failed to register with my patrons. Business average or possibly a little above on Sunday. Monday and Tuesday not so hot. Annabella stole the show in my opinion. Pleased about 50%. Running time, 104 minutes. Played December 18-20.—Keith McCallum, Granada Theatre, Oxford, Neb. Town and rural patronage.

THANKS FOR EVERYTHING: Jack Haley, Jack Oakie, Adolphe Menjou, Arleen Whelan, Tony Martin—Pretty good musical comedy which failed to draw. Played January 23-24.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

WHILE NEW YORK SLEEPS: Michael Whalen, Joan Woodbury—Just a little action picture which was tailored for the duals and which failed to please. Played January 31.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

United Artists

ACTION FOR SLANDER: Clive Brook, Ann Todd —As much as we admire Great Britain and think she is a great nation, we cannot speak for her picture productions. Didn't make film rental. Running time, 80 minutes.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ont., Canada. General patronage.

ALGIERS: Charles Boyer, Hedy Lamarr, Sigrid Gurie, Joseph Calleia, Alan Hale, Gene Lockhart—For the first time Charles Boyer has a role which is suited to him perfectly, and believe it or not we could understand almost everything he said. He certainly turned in a magnificent performance in this one, as did Hedy Lamarr. Swell picture which everyone liked. That is, those who saw it. There were a few. Played October 26-27.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

COUNT OF MONTE CRISTO, THE (reissue): Robert Donat, Elissa Landi—Engrossing drama from the famous Dumas novel. Worth playing but a little too long for a double feature. Played with "Sky Giant," which was also fairly long. Sold right it should do at least average business. Played October 28-29.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

COWBOY AND THE LADY, THE: Gary Cooper, Merle Oberon, David Niven, Thomas Mitchell, Walter Brennan, Patsy Kelly—Here's one that's a natural if you go out and sell it. Will please any audience. Give it your best playing time. It's different and fun.—Keith McCallum, Granada Theatre, Oxford, Neb. Town and rural patronage.

NOTHING SACRED: Fredric March, Carole Lombard, Charles Winninger, Walter Connolly—A corker picture, all in color with plenty of pep, vim and vigor to it. Kind of old, though. This is the type of picture, however, that will do good business on return engagements. March and Lombard, more power to you both. Running time, 74 minutes. Played January 28.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

YOUNG IN HEART, THE: Janet Gaynor, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., Paulette Goddard, Billie Burke, Roland Young—Most of the patrons' remarks were complimentary. Personally, I thought the picture moved along a little too slowly. Did average business. Played January 6.—B. Hollenbeck, Rose Theatre, Sumas, Wash. Small town patronage.

YOUNG IN HEART, THE: Janet Gaynor, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., Paulette Goddard, Billie Burke, Roland Young—A very well made picture, good acting, but pleased about 60%. Way below average on Sunday night. Just did not draw. Running time, 90 minutes. Played January 22-23.—Frank E. Rider, Chateau Theatre, Wauneta, Neb. Small town patronage.

YOUNG IN HEART, THE: Janet Gaynor, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., Paulette Goddard, Billie Burke, Roland Young—Played this one Christmas. Proved to be a swell show that everyone liked. Business swell but might have been due to Christmas. Doug and Billie Burke steal the show. Running time, 90 minutes.—Keith McCallum, Granada Theatre, Oxford, Neb. Town and rural patronage.

Universal

ADVENTURE'S END: John Wayne, Diana Gibson—A good all-around "B" picture that is a bit different. It's a sea picture and glorifies John Wayne as the stowaway (or could we call him that) who falls in love with the Captain's daughter, saves the ship from a mutinous crew and what not. It's a bit unusual and good entertainment for those looking for a real thriller. Running time, 63 minutes. Played January 28.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

DRACULA (reissue): Bela Lugosi, Helen Chandler; FRANKENSTEIN (reissue): Boris Karloff, John Boles, Mae Clarke—They say it broke records; I sure would have liked to have seen some of them. Played January 12-14.—A. N. Breezley, New Grand Theatre, Littleton, Col. Suburban and rural patronage.

HIS EXCITING NIGHT: Charles Ruggles, Stepin Fetchit, Ona Munson—Universal certainly does not give us much in this little comedy. Hardly a laugh in the show. If you must play it, a dual. Running time, 61 minutes.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

LITTLE TOUGH GUYS IN SOCIETY: Mary Boland, Mischa Auer, Edward Everett Horton, "Dead End Kids"—Here is a picture that will knock them over in the aisles. Lots of laughs and slapstick. Much better than "Little Tough Guy." One of the finest comedies we have played. Do not miss this one. Running time, 73 minutes.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

ROAD TO RENO, THE: Hope Hampton, Randolph Scott, Helen Broderick, Glenda Farrell, Alan Marshall—This could have been a big picture but it isn't. It is a good story reasonably well played and produced on an inexpensive scale.—R. B. Hipple, Bijou Theatre, Pierre, S. D. General patronage.

SERVICE DE LUXE: Constance Bennett, Vincent Price, Charles Ruggles, Mischa Auer, Helen Broderick, Joy Hodges—Pretty good program picture that did not mean a thing at the box office. Universal pictures just aren't clicking for us. Running time, 90 minutes.—P. G. Held, New Strand Theatre, Griswold, Iowa. General patronage.

THAT CERTAIN AGE: Deanna Durbin, Melvyn Douglas, Jackie Cooper, John Halliday, Irene Rich, Nancy Carroll—Very good picture to a very good business.—Harold Smith, Dreamland Theatre, Carson, Iowa. Rural patronage.

YOU'RE A SWEETHEART: Alice Faye, George Murphy, Charles Winninger, Ken Murray—A swell class "A" picture. Only drawback, as in most of the pictures that we play, is that they are too old. Faye splendid in her part and Murphy tops in his. One sweet little musical that went places about a year and a half ago. They seem to go places the second time, I should say third time, and maybe they'll do the same thing for you, Mr. Theatre Manager. Running time, 94 minutes. Played January 24-25.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

YOUTH TAKES A FLING: Joel McCrea, Andrea Leeds, Dorothea Kent, Frank Jenks—Entertaining little picture but no business.—Harold Smith, Dreamland Theatre, Carson, Iowa. Rural patronage.

Victory

RAW TIMBER: Tom Keene—Don't play this one! Played January 29-February 1.—A. N. Breezley, New Grand Theatre, Littleton, Col. Suburban and rural patronage.

Warner Brothers

CONFESSION: Kay Francis, Ian Hunter, Basil Rathbone, Jane Bryan—Advertised no children admitted and received many comments from the oldsters. We can safely say we made money on the "Confession." Frankly we'd seen the picture months before play date and knew what angle to work on. Running time, 86 minutes.—George Khattar, Casino Theatre, Witney Pier, Sydney, Nova Scotia, Canada. General patronage.

COWBOY FROM BROOKLYN: Pat O'Brien, Dick Powell, Priscilla Lane—Here is a real dash of entertainment that suited everyone from the western fans to the intelligentsia. Business better than Gene Autry, or Roy Rogers. Give us more of this type, Warners. Running time, 77 minutes.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ont., Canada. General patronage.

COWBOY FROM BROOKLYN: Pat O'Brien, Dick Powell, Priscilla Lane, Dick Foran—Here is one for your box office to enjoy; by all means play it. The kind of picture they need to put Powell in and can safely say this is just what the doctor ordered. Give us more in this line. Running time, 77 minutes. Played January 25-26.—George Khattar, Casino Theatre, Whitney Pier, Sydney, Nova Scotia, Canada. General patronage.

DAWN PATROL: Errol Flynn, Basil Rathbone, David Niven, Donald Crisp—Swell action picture which pleased all and did extra business. Played January 29.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

DEVIL'S ISLAND: Boris Karloff, Nedda Harrigan—Very good. Interesting from start to finish and not as horrible as I expected.—C. H. Sartorius, Capitol Theatre, Hartley, Iowa. General patronage.

FOUR'S A CROWD: Errol Flynn, Rosalind Russell, Olivia de Havilland, Patric Knowles—Nothing with a big "N". Everyone walked out. Running time, 91 minutes.—W. E. McPhee, Strand Theatre, Old Town, Maine. General patronage.

FOUR'S A CROWD: Errol Flynn, Olivia de Havilland, Rosalind Russell, Patric Knowles—This was a pleasing picture with fair box office value. Story didn't amount to a lot but there was good entertainment and a fair crowd. Played January 25-26.—A. B. Jefferis, Piedmont Theatre, Piedmont, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

FOUR'S A CROWD: Errol Flynn, Olivia de Havilland, Rosalind Russell, Patric Knowles, Walter Connolly—Played fairly old, didn't bring in any extra business. Rather a crazy comedy but pleased everyone. Walter Connolly, Rosalind Russell stole the show. Believe it to be Flynn's poorest. Running time, 91 minutes. Played January 6-7.—Keith McCallum, Granada Theatre, Oxford, Neb. Town and rural patronage.

FOUR'S A CROWD: Errol Flynn, Olivia de Havilland, Rosalind Russell, Patric Knowles—Very good comedy, clever dialogue, enough laughable situations to keep the audience in a very good humor throughout the entire length of it. Business a little off on this, though. Maybe the picture didn't draw or it could have been the weather. Played December 7-8.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Rural and small town patronage.

GOD'S COUNTRY AND THE WOMAN: George Brent, Beverly Roberts, Alan Hale, Barton MacLane—Played this a little late. However, it drew a good business for us and pleased 100%. A popular story by a popular author. An excellent picture for small town patronage. Running time, 85 minutes. Played November 18-19.—J. P. Johnson, Sons of Norway Theatre, Ambrose, N. D. Small town and rural patronage.

GOLD IS WHERE YOU FIND IT: George Brent, Olivia de Havilland, Claude Rains, Tim Holt, Margaret Lindsay, John Litel—A pleasing production. Beautiful color aided tremendously in making this historical picture of California grand entertainment in spite of Mr. Charles Lee Hyde, Grand Theatre, Pierre, S. D., who reported to the Motion Picture Herald upon the "dumbness" of Hollywood for permitting the use of the ticker tape ahead of the telephone. Perhaps Mr. Hyde would be interested to know that the telephone did not come into use until 1875, whereas the type-printing telegraph instrument was patented by David Edward Hughes (professor of music and natural philosophy at the college of Bardstown, Ky., 1850-54) in 1855. Olivia de Havilland, George Brent, and Tim Holt ably assisted by a competent cast, deserve heaps of praise for their character portrayals. Particularly impressive was the acting of Claude Rains who did an excellent job as Mr. Ferris, stern yet gentlemanly wheat farmer. It's a nice story for all, clean and thrilling through the last inch of film. Running time, 90 minutes. Played February 4.—J. A. Reynolds, Director of Recreation, Prison Theatre, State Prison, Trenton, N. J. Prison patronage.

(Reports continued on following page)

WANT FILMS "Johnny-on-the-Spot"?

Films shot A. M., screened P. M. many miles away? Easy! Just ship them by AIR EXPRESS—3-mile-a-minute service with day and night deliveries. Smart exhibitors jump box-office receipts with newsreels flown "hot from the spot." Low cost, high returns. Direct super-speed service to 232 key cities in United States and Canada. Fast air-rail connections to off-airline points. Also to Latin America, Hawaii and Far East. FREE booklet, "How to Profit with Air Express" tells how you can use Air Express for bigger profits. Write Dept. 8, Air Express Division, Railway Express Agency, 230 Park Avenue, New York, N. Y.

AIR EXPRESS

(Continued from preceding page)

HARD TO GET: Dick Powell, Olivia de Havilland, Charles Winninger, Allen Jenkins—Just an average program picture. Everyone found it interesting and entertaining but it is not a big picture. Below average drawing power for Dick Powell. Running time, 79 minutes. Played January 29-30.—Frank E. Ridder, Chateau Theatre, Wauneta, Neb. Small town patronage.

HARD TO GET: Dick Powell, Olivia de Havilland, Charles Winninger, Allen Jenkins—No, positively no. Wouldn't please in any spot and pleased no one in this neck of the woods. Running time, 78 minutes.—W. E. McPhee, Strand Theatre, Old Town, Maine. General patronage.

HEART OF THE NORTH: Dick Foran, Gale Page, Gloria Dickson, Janet Chapman, Allen Jenkins—This is a western in beautiful color with Mounties instead of cowboys. Just the ticket for my patronage and how they eat it up. The photography outdoes "Valley of the Giants" and there is just as much action. Absence of names in the cast make the Mounties the best selling point and how they draw, and the man gets the right girl at the end. Running time, 85 minutes. Played January 25-26.—Bob Cox, Park Theatre, Dexter, Maine. Small town and rural patronage.

HEART OF THE NORTH: Dick Foran, Gale Page, Gloria Dickson, Janet Chapman, Allen Jenkins—There was plenty of red-blooded action in this and it turned into a regular shoot 'em up but my patrons ate it up and the picture did the best Friday and Saturday business for a long time. The color and scenery are beautiful, and if you can get a good date on this picture, play it.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kansas. Small town patronage.

HEART OF THE NORTH: Dick Foran, Gale Page, Gloria Dickson, Janet Chapman, Allen Jenkins—Very good action picture in beautiful color which pleased all and did above average business. Almost as good as "Valley of the Giants." Played January 22.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

HEART OF THE NORTH: Dick Foran, Gale Page, Gloria Dickson, Janet Chapman, Allen Jenkins—A humdinger. Big enough for any spot and any run. Pleased 100% and doing business everywhere. Running time, 67 minutes.—W. E. McPhee, Strand Theatre, Old Town, Maine. General patronage.

HEART OF THE NORTH: Dick Foran, Gale Page, Gloria Dickson, Janet Chapman, Allen Jenkins—Fine action picture in good color. Pleased all. Just the thing for small town patronage. Played January 22.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

HOLLYWOOD HOTEL: Dick Powell, Lola Lane, Ted Healy, Johnnie Davis, Frances Langford—Another musical that was a big flop at the box office. This is the last for us. Although you get your money's worth, the patrons just won't appreciate it. Give us more in the line of "The Singing Marine" and "The Cowboy from Brooklyn", which are money makers and wows. Running time, 109 minutes. Played January 18-19.—George Khattar, Casino Theatre, Whitney Pier, Sydney, Nova Scotia. General patronage.

LIFE OF EMILE ZOLA, THE: Paul Muni, Gale Sondergaard, Joseph Schildkraut—Story based on the famous Dreyfus case in France. Us old-timers can well remember reading the news articles regarding this case. Pleased 100% and drew in a large number of old-timers that do not attend our show regularly. Paul Muni at his best. Running time, 116 minutes. Played November 4-5.—J. P. Johnson, Sons of Norway Theatre, Ambrose, N. D. Small town and rural patronage.

NANCY DREW, DETECTIVE: Bonita Granville, John Litel, Frankie Thomas—Nice program picture.—P. G. Held, New Strand Theatre, Griswold, Iowa. General patronage.

SISTERS, THE: Bette Davis, Errol Flynn, Anita Louise, Jane Bryan, Dick Foran, Ian Hunter—Really a dandy picture from Warners. This company has given us consistent product this year. No, we haven't made any big money on any of their pictures but on the other hand the product has been average business getter and we would rather have a consistent business with a smaller profit than be rich one week and broke the next. Played February 1-2.—A. B. Jefferis, Piedmont Theatre, Piedmont, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

SISTERS, THE: Bette Davis, Errol Flynn, Anita Louise, Jane Bryan, Dick Foran, Ian Hunter—Good picture. Not strong enough for extended runs. Good Sunday goods. Running time, 100 minutes.—W. E. McPhee, Strand Theatre, Old Town, Maine. General patronage.

SISTERS, THE: Bette Davis, Errol Flynn, Anita Louise, Jane Bryan, Dick Foran, Ian Hunter—A swell show. Good story and fine acting makes this an out of the ordinary attraction. Running time, 99 minutes. Played January 22-23.—Horn and Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Neb. Small town patronage.

THAT CERTAIN WOMAN: Bette Davis, Henry Fonda, Ian Hunter, Anita Louise—One of the better pictures and the action fans stayed away, so can only report this as only a fair draw but good entertainment. Played January 23-24.—George Khattar, Casino Theatre, Whitney Pier, Sydney, Nova Scotia, Canada. General patronage.

VALLEY OF THE GIANTS: Wayne Morris, Claire Trevor, John Litel, Charles Bickford, Alan Hale—One of the finest outdoor pictures we have ever played with the emphasis on action. However, the color balances this up nicely; in fact, this is about the best color yet to hit this screen. Wayne Morris turns in a great job but Alan Hale steals the show. Played December 4-5.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

Short Features

Columbia

BIG SQUIRT, THE: Broadway Comedies—Chase still packs in a lot of laughs, especially his one-man band. If your audience likes comedy here it is. Running time, 17 minutes.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ont., Canada. General patronage.

EARLY BIRD: Scrappy Cartoons—A fair black and white cartoon that got by nicely. Running time, seven minutes.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

FOOTBALL FLASHES: World of Sport—For football fans OK. Running time, 10 minutes.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ont., Canada. General patronage.

HOLLYWOOD GRADUATION: Color Rhapsodies—We imagine the best of this cartoon was left on the cutting room floor. The stars cannot take a ribbing. After it has been cut there was nothing left to show the audience. Running time, four minutes.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

KING VULTURE: Special Sport Thrills—Entertaining and instructive. Running time, 10½ minutes.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ont., Canada. General patronage.

LET'S GO: Color Rhapsodies—Another Columbia treat. Running time, 7 minutes.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ont., Canada. General patronage.

MUTTS TO YOU: Three Stooges—The poorest we have run this season. Not enough slapstick to suit. Running time, 17 minutes.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

MUTTS TO YOU: Three Stooges—A silly, foolish comedy that the adults can't stand but what the kiddies eat right up. Running time, 18 minutes.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

TIME OUT FOR TROUBLE: Charley Chase—An unusually good two-real comedy. Had the audience in a continual uproar. Running time, 18 minutes.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

WEE WEE MONSIEUR: 3 Stooges—These screwballs, as ridiculous as they are, seem to get you with their pranks. Running time, 18 minutes.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury,. Ont., Canada. General patronage.

Educational

DATES AND NUTS: Two-reel Comedies—One of the best of these two-reel comedies. Running time, 20 minutes.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

MONEY ON YOUR LIFE: Charles Kemper, Danny Kaye—Very good slapstick two-reel comedy. Running time, 18 minutes.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer

ALADDIN'S LANTERN: Our Gang—A laugh riot. Several told me it was worth the price of admission to hear Alfalfa sing "I'll Take You Home Kathleen." Running time, one reel.—Gladys E. McArdle, Owl Theatre, Lebanon, Kansas. Small town patronage.

BILLY ROSE'S CASA MANANA REVUE: Musical Comedies—Only fair, we thought. Some of the numbers were good. Running time, 21 minutes.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

BRAVEST OF THE BRAVE: Historical Mysteries—Another like "The Man on the Rock" and equally as good. Extremely popular with my audience. They stay to see them twice. If you are not playing this series, try this one. They cause more comment and general "argyfication" than anything I have ever run across. Running time, 10 minutes.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

CAIRO, CITY OF CONTRAST: FitzPatrick Travel Talks—All too short for this absorbing travel talk. Jimmy FitzPatrick is still the tops of all travel shorts. Running time, nine minutes.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

CAPTAIN'S CHRISTMAS, THE: Captain and the Kids—Not so hot. The idea soured.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

CITY OF LITTLE MEN, THE: MGM Miniatures—Played just before "Boys Town," this was a swell plug for the picture. Also very entertaining in itself. The resemblance in appearance and manner between Spencer Tracy and the real Father Flanagan is striking. Tracy surely was perfectly cast here. Running time, 11 minutes.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

CITY OF LITTLE MEN, THE: MGM Miniatures—A very good short. A good advertisement for "Boys Town." Running time, nine minutes.—M. D. Buxton, Garden Theatre, McCracken, Kansas. Small town patronage.

CRIMINAL IS BORN, A: Crime Doesn't Pay Series—Excellent subject. Played on Monday and Tuesday and the following weekend police solved a local killing involving local boys and the newspaper accounts read like a review of the short, so close did the facts match the fiction.—C. E. Fismer, Lyric Theatre, Hamilton, Ohio. Family patronage.

DAY AT THE BEACH, A; PYGMY HUNT, THE; WHAT A LION!: Captain and the Kids—All very good cartoons.—C. E. Fismer, Lyric Theatre, Hamilton, Ohio. Family patronage.

FOLLOW THE ARROW: Pete Smith Specialities—One of the best. The William Tell act had them holding their breath, and no wonder.—C. E. Fismer, Lyric Theatre, Hamilton, Ohio. Family patronage.

FOLLOW THE ARROW: Pete Smith Specialties—Best Pete Smith we ever played and that's saying something. The audience was in turn amazed, thrilled and chilled by this one. They were in a cold sweat before it was over. Running time, 11 minutes.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

GRID RULES: Pete Smith Specialties—Okay.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

HONDURAS HURRICANE: Captain and the Kids—Poor.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

HOT ON ICE: Pete Smith Specialties—Pete Smith's idea of a hockey game and all of the fine points. Interesting enough to some, but hockey is still shinny out here.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kansas. Small town patronage.

HOT ON ICE: Pete Smith Specialties—This short may be all right where there is a great amount of ice sports, but for an average small town in the corn belt this short is out of place. No audience interest. Running time, nine minutes.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

HOW TO WATCH FOOTBALL: Robert Benchley—We used this Benchley subject because we figured it would be good on account of the nature of the story. It was good but we still believe he is 'way over the heads of the usual small town patrons.—Horn and Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Neb. Small town patronage.

IT'S IN THE STARS: Johnny Downs, Eleanor Lynn—Smash musical comedy. Don't pass this one up. If you boost it, it could outdraw your feature and please more, too. Running time, 20 minutes.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

IT'S IN THE STARS: Musical Comedies—Fair musical with a very snappy dance climax.—C. E. Fismer, Lyric Theatre, Hamilton, Ohio. Family patronage.

JAIPUR, THE PINK CITY: FitzPatrick Travel Talks—James FitzPatrick is my favorite movie star for he never makes a poor one. Running time, one reel.—Gladys E. McArdle, Owl Theatre, Lebanon, Kansas. Small town patronage.

LAND OF THE INCAS: FitzPatrick Travel Talks—As usual these shorts are very good. Running time, 10 minutes.—O. W. Chapek, Annex Theatre, Anamoose, N. D. Rural and small town patronage.

LITTLE RANGER, THE: Our Gang—One of the poorest excuses for a short subject that I have seen.—A. N. Beezley, New Grand Theatre, Littleton, Col. Suburban and rural patronage.

MAGICIAN'S DAUGHTER, THE: Eleanor Lynn, Frank Albertson—Very good musical comedy. Some spots were outstanding. Well worth playing. Running time, 20 minutes.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

MAN ON THE ROCK, THE: Historical Mysteries—Unusual in theme, this aroused a lot of comment and speculation among my patrons and I must confess on my part too. Before this was over the audience was on the edge of their seats watching it. Never before have I seen anything like it. Shall certainly play all of this series. Running time, 10 minutes.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

MAN ON THE ROCK, THE: Historical Mysteries —An excellent short. Worth a spot on any program. —Harold Smith, Dreamland Theatre, Carson, Iowa. Rural patronage.

WRONG WAY OUT, THE: Crime Doesn't Pay Series—These series are very good. Have not had a poor one yet.—Harold Smith, Dreamland Theatre, Carson, Iowa. Rural patronage.

Miscellaneous

NEW DAY, A: Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, Gilbert Emery—Quite interesting. Merits a place in your program to help promote civic health for better health in your locality the better the chances for business. Advertising accessories are good and free.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

Paramount

DATE TO SKATE, A: Popeye the Sailor—Average Popeye comedy.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

GOONLAND: Popeye the Sailor—Better than average. Paramount does not seem to be giving their Popeye cartoons the attention they deserve. Maybe they have run out of ideas or the public is tired of spinach.—A. B. Jefferis, Piedmont Theatre, Piedmont, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

MOMENTS OF CHARM: Phil Spitalny and His All Girl Orchestra—One of the finest orchestra shorts ever brought to the screen. Variations in the musical scores used add zest to this. Color eliminating the usually drab two-tone effect makes this short one of beauty. Only regret is that it was 10 minutes rather than 20. An added treat for your patrons. Running time, 10 minutes.—J. A. Reynolds, Director of Recreation, Prison Theatre, State Prison, Trenton, N. J. Prison patronage.

MOMENTS OF CHARM: Phil Spitalny and His All Girl Orchestra—This is one of the best shorts I have played. Done in color and very pleasing to watch.—A. T. Mullen, Park Theatre, Pelican Rapids, Minn. Small town and rural patronage.

PARAMOUNT NEWS: We consider it the best newsreel we have ever shown in our humble theatre. —A. B. Jefferis, Piedmont Theatre, Piedmont, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

PARAMOUNT PICTORIAL: No. 11—Just a filler. —Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kansas. Small town patronage.

PLUMBING IS A PIPE: Popeye the Sailor—The usual Popeye short. Will bring laughs from those who are the one-eye sailor's fans. Running time, seven minutes.—J. A. Reynolds, Director of Recreation, Prison Theatre, State Prison, Trenton, N. J. Prison patronage.

RAISING CANINES: Paragraphics—Entertaining.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

RED, WHITE AND BLUE CHAMPIONS: Grantland Rice Sportlights—Very interesting. Will be enjoyed by all. Fine shots of what should be America's future aquatic champions. Running time, 10 minutes. —J. A. Reynolds, Director of Recreation, Prison Theatre, State Prison, Trenton, N. J. Prison patronage.

SPORTING TEST, A: Grantland Rice Sportlights—Very good indeed for this type of picture. Your sport fans particularly will go for this style of film, so play it up to them and advertise it on the sport page. Running time, 10 minutes.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

UNUSUAL OCCUPATIONS, NO. 2—"Charlie McCarthy," Edgar Bergen—Here is a color reel which will please. Part of it shows "Charlie McCarthy" and Edgar Bergen at home, and the gags they pull make it as good as a one-reel comedy.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

UNUSUAL OCCUPATIONS: No. 6—Reginald Denny's miniature airplanes very interesting and the color was good, but these subjects are too high for us.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kansas. Small town patronage.

RKO Radio

BRAVE LITTLE TAILOR: Walt Disney Cartoons —Just fair. Not as good as I expected.—Harold Smith, Dreamland Theatre, Carson, Iowa. Rural patronage.

BRAVE LITTLE TAILOR: Walt Disney Cartoon—Another fine Disney cartoon.—A. N. Beezley, New Grand Theatre, Littleton, Col. Suburban and rural patronage.

FIVE NEW REPORTERS FROM FIVE STATES

From five states come this week's new contributors to "What the Picture Did for Me". They are:

A. N. Beezley, New Grand Theatre, Littleton, Colorado
Keith McCallum, Granada Theatre, Oxford, Nebraska
Marshall Rooks, Texas Theatre, Troup, Texas
N. E. Frank, Wayland Theatre, Wayland, Michigan
Harold Smith, Dreamland Theatre, Carson, Iowa

Exhibitors Smith and Frank have been earlier reporters to the department, but in both instances more than a year ago.

STYLES AND SMILES: Nu-Atlas Productions—Fair. Running time, eight minutes.—P. G. Held, New Strand Theatre, Griswold, Iowa. General patronage.

WESTERN WELCOME, A: Ray Whitley Comedies —Very well received on a Saturday. It is good. However, be sure and put it where western fans will see it. They are the ones who will appreciate it. Running time, 18 minutes.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

WESTERN WELCOME, A: Ray Whitley Comedies —Very good. Worth anyone's playing time. Western locale, of course.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

Twentieth Century-Fox

GANDY THE GOOSE IN THE FRAME UP: Terry-Toons—Average black and white comedy.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

GANDY THE GOOSE IN THE FRAME UP: Terry-Toons—Fairly good cartoon.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

MOVIETONE NEWS: This News seems to have the edge on all other News.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

MOVIETONE NEWS:—Very good. Fox Movietone the best news on the market.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ont., Canada. General patronage.

MOVIETONE NEWS: No. 36—O.K. Running time, nine minutes.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

SHOOTING FOR PAR: Ed Thorgersen—Plenty of gold with the big shots doing their stuff.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kansas. Small town patronage.

WHAT EVERY BOY SHOULD KNOW: Lew Lehr—Here is a weak one if there ever was one. And I do mean here is one. (Pink butterfly to Jimmie Fidler.) Running time, 10 minutes.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

WHAT EVERY INVENTOR SHOULD KNOW: Lew Lehr—Average comedy. Some liked it; some didn't.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

United Artists

ETERNAL FIRE, THE: World Windows—Exceptionally fine color photography. Subject: Pompeii and Mt. Vesuvius. Very good the way it is but I believe the use of a narrator would be an asset to the remainder of the series. Running time, nine minutes. —R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

ETERNAL FIRE, THE: World Windows—Not so good. I hope their next one will be better. Running time, nine minutes.—P. G. Held, New Strand Theatre, Griswold, Iowa. General patronage.

Universal

FITS AND BENEFITS: Mentone Musical Comedies —Average musical.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

MUSIC AND MODELS: Mentone Musical Comedies—A glorified style show set to music with some poor vaudeville acts that are not up the usual standard. Not as good as some. Running time, 20 minutes.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

STRANGER THAN FICTION: No. 54—This series so far has been excellent with us. Well diversified and educational. Very good audience reaction. Running time, seven minutes.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

Vitaphone

CHINA TODAY: Color Parade—The photography in this one was not nearly up to the usual Vitaphone color subjects. We could not bring it into clear focus at all.—Horn and Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Neb. Small town patronage.

CLEANING UP: Cross and Dunn—It's a shame a lot of good talent goes to waste in this short merely because of the higgledy-piggledy continuity. Surely Hollywood can do better than this. Even the old Keystone comedies had some sequence to them. Cross and Dunn not nearly as good as usual. The nimble footed dancing of Ray and Grace McDonald and the tumbling of the bank janitor were the best parts of the picture. Miss McDonald looks like a comer. Running time, 20 minutes.—J. A. Reynolds, Director of Recreation, Prison Theatre, State Prison, Trenton, N. J. Prison patronage.

DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE: John Litel —A good two-reel short in color telling about and showing the Declaration of Independence. Running time, 19 minutes.—M. D. Buxton, Garden Theatre, McCracken, Kansas. Small town patronage.

OUT WHERE THE STARS BEGIN: Jeffrey Lynn, Evelyn Thawl—Another of this fine series. However, this one isn't as good as the others. Still worth playing. Running time, 21 minutes.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

PORKY IN WACKYLAND: Looney Tunes—Average cartoon.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

ROMANCE ROAD: Broadway Brevities—This fine color featurette has more real entertainment in it than many, many full length headaches. By all means pick this one up. All of this series is good but this one much more so. Running itme, 21 minutes.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

RUBINOFF AND HIS VIOLIN: Melody Masters—A fine Melody Master with Rubinoff, his violin and his orchestra. Pleased. Running time, 10 minutes.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

TOYLAND CASINO: Broadway Brevities—Good two-reel musical show with children singing and dancing. Pleased all.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

VITAPHONE CAPERS: Vitaphone Varieties—Several acts which hark back to the "vodvil" days. Not bad but I've seen much better. Running time, 10 minutes.—J. A. Reynolds, Director of Recreation, Prison Theatre, State Prison, Trenton, N. J. Prison patronage.

ZERO GIRL: Broadway Brevities—A fair short. Use your own judgment. Running time, 18 minutes.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

Serials

Columbia

SECRET OF TREASURE ISLAND: Don Terry, Gwen Gaze—I believe we are enjoying a nice following on this picture.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

SPIDER'S WEB, THE: Warren Hull, Iris Meredith—With this serial on Friday-Saturday and "Great Adventure of Wild Bill Hickok" on Sunday, our weekend worries are nil. Columbia has given us three hits in a row in serials, "Secret of Treasure Island," "Wild Bill," and "The Spider," for which many, many thanks.—C. E. Fismer, Lyric Theatre, Hamilton, Ohio. Family patronage.

Republic

HAWK OF THE WILDERNESS: Herman Brix, Malo—Just started this new serial and it looks very good.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

Universal

FLAMING FRONTIERS: Johnny Mack Brown—Am on the sixth chapter and it is holding up good.—Harold Smith, Dreamland Theatre, Carson, Iowa. Rural patronage.

Jenkins, Home, Sees Tieup Between Snow and Receipts

Leaves Kissing of Oranges to Sun and Blondes to Hollywood

by J. C. JENKINS

in Omaha

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:

It may be of interest to your readers to learn that I have returned to the "White Spot" from an extended vacation out in the land of the "sunkissed oranges," where I left the kissing of the oranges to the sun and the blondes and brunettes to the boys in Holywood.

I got in here Saturday night just ahead of a cold wave from Medicine Hat, and you can take it from me, Sedrick, it is cold, 10 below zero, but Nebraska and Iowa are covered with a blanket of snow which has brought cheer to our farming element and makes the outlook more promising for the coming year than any time during the winter.

Saturday night the Variety Club held a basket social where the baskets were sold at auction, and I understand that one basket was bid in by one of the boys for 10 dollars under the assumption that it belonged to a certain brunette, but it turned out to be his wife's. This was not only a disappointment but a waste of money. He could have gotten his supper at home for 50 cents. But, anyhow, a fine time was had, and I understand that the receipts were even more than anticipated.

Sam Epstein, of the Epstein chain of theatres, put six dollars in one of the slot machines and got two washers and a pearl button. Sam says the washers belonged to Ted Mendelhall of Paramount and the button to Mrs. Walter Green of the Fepco Advertising Co., but Walter says that's a mistake, as they run to safety pins around his house. The moral to all this is, if you want to have a good time when in Omaha, go up to the Variety Club.

H. A. Van Housen, of the Western Theatre Supply Co., advises me that he recently completed re-furnishing a theatre at Windom, and is soon to refurnish the theatre at Worthington, Minnesota, for Henry Hower. I know Henry and Van pretty well, and when these two boys don't finish a job up right it's a pretty good idea for the rest of the boys to leave it alone.

Bob Ballantyne, of the Scott-Ballantyne Theatre Equipment Co., has moved his stock to a new room across the street from his old location. Bob is one of these kind of fellows who don't stop for anything. He jumped in his car Monday and headed for Sioux City, Iowa, right in the face of that blizzard from Valley City, North Dakota.

Bob don't stop for anything, and that's probably why the Scott-Ballantyne Company is shipping theatre equipment all over the world.

This cold wave drove Joe Smith in from the territory where he had been selling Universal service, and when it drives Joe in you may know it is cold.

When I got to the Loyal Hotel I was advised of the death of my good friend, Charlie Sartorius, of the Capitol theatre at Hartley, Iowa, who passed away a few days ago. This was indeed a shock which will be felt by his thousands of friends all over this country.

J. C. JENKINS

R. W. Brown of the Proenix theatre at Neola, Iowa, and H. V. Mullen of the Gem theatre at Glenwood, Iowa, were in town and both were sober, just as they always are, but they brought their appetites with them, as evidenced by the amount of T bone steak they stowed away at Himy Novinsky's cafe. Himy, you know, used to feed the boys Fox service, but now he is feeding them corned beef and cabbage at his cafe. I like the place because my credit is good there.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dethlef of the Crystal theatre at Manning, Iowa, came in to visit their daughter, who is a graduate nurse. My visiting with them was too short, but very pleasant. Fred says that his business has plenty of room to improve without crowding.

While I was in California, Major Hewitt, of Sherman Oaks, Cal., who is a brother of my good friend Joe Hewitt of the Lincoln theatre at Robinson, Illinois, came over where I was living and drove me around all day and showed me many places of interest, including many of the stars' homes and the place where they made "Good Earth" and many other pictures, and I will always be indebted to him for his kindness.

I have been on vacation now for four or five months and the doctors have fed me everything from stove polish to cleanser, but when they changed the prescription to floor varnish I kicked over the traces. We have an open season on pheasants and ducks; why not doctors?

I must stop now and take another dose of something, the Lord only knows what it is.

Expect Universal To Show Profit

While Universal Pictures' profit for the first quarter of the current year, comprising the period from November 1, 1938, to February 1, of this year, was not definitely known this week, it is expected to be favorable, and to contrast with a loss of almost $400,000 for the similar period last year. This anticipated earning is expected to follow Universal's profit of $200,000 for the last quarter of 1938, ended November 1st.

The company's financial statement will be issued shortly. Observers say it will show a loss of about $550,000 for the 12 months which ended November 1, compared with a loss of about $1,200,000 for the same period of 1937.

Dividends Declared

The Eastman Kodak Company last week declared its regular quarterly dividend of $1.50 on the common stock, payable on April 1.

The board of directors of the Roxy Theatre, New York City, last week declared a quarterly dividend of 37½ cents per share on the outstanding preferred stock, payable March 1, to stockholders of record at the close of business on February 15.

The United Artists Theatre Circuit, Inc., last week declared a regular quarterly dividend of $12.50 per share on the five per cent preferred stock, payable March 15th, to stockholders on record March 1st.

The board of directors, at the same session, re-elected all officers, these being Joseph M. Schenck, chairman of the board and president; Lee Shubert and Dennis F. O'Brien, vice-presidents; William Phillips, vice-president and treasurer; Bertram S. Nayfack, secretary; A. M. Georger, comptroller.

Hearings Open in British Patents Suit

Hearings opened on Tuesday before Judge John P. Nields in district court in Wilmington in the case in which British Acoustics, wholly owned subsidiary of Gaumont British, is seeking a perpetual injunction and damages against Radio Corporation of America and Electrical Research Products, Inc.

The plaintiff seeks to restrain RCA and ERPI from use of a device for feeding film through a projector at constant speed, the mechanism for which, it is stated, was patented in 1926 and 1935.

"Snow White" Wins Poll

"Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," the Walt Disney production; Bette Davis in "Jezebel," and Spencer Tracy in "Boys Town" were the winners in the 1938 Critics of America Poll of the Minneapolis Journal. Critics from all 48 states, 1,021 in all, cast ballots.

Motion Pictures' Greatest Year, Inc., announced this week that there will be no charge to exhibitors, who participated in the "Motion Pictures' Greatest Year" campaign, for delivery of lists of winners February 27th. So far as is known, no charge was expected.

Si Seadler, advertising manager for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, was scheduled to leave New York City for the coast on Friday, for a three week stay.

MANAGERS' ROUND TABLE

An international association of showmen meeting weekly in MOTION PICTURE HERALD for mutual aid and progress

A-MIKE VOGEL, Chairman and Editor
GERTRUDE MERRIAM, Associate Editor

SIMPLICITY

Theatremen who find themselves with an unusually worthy attraction to sell often go wide of the mark in print to tell patrons how very good it is. A manager comes away from a screening uplifted by what he has seen. He knows just how the picture hits him and will talk about it in simple understandable terms. But when he sits down to compose an ad, the lad is stymied. The result is usually another one of those "Colossal" things and, even if it is—well, the cash customers have heard that one before. True enough, there are not too many pictures over which your manager can come to a boil in print, but when the unusual does turn up it's the smart operator who discards the outworn extravagances of picture copy to tell it as he sees it.

Thus, we are impressed with the open-letter ad of Carl Engstrom, illustrated elsewhere in this issue. In "A Man to Remember" Engstrom realized he had something of worth to sell which was not to be sold in the traditional adjectival manner. So he sat down and wrote from the heart, in simple, unadorned language. The ad proved the highlight of his campaign.

* * *

In another instance, recourse to simplicity in verbiage to sell "Boys Town" proved successful for the date at the Liberty in Mullan, Idaho. It was a multigraphed herald addressed to patrons by Manager Bob Hutchins. Quality of the copy in the short, four-paragraphed selling talk is indicated by this quote:

"This picture is not just a Hollywood production, propaganda, nor a sermon; it is the truth. It will hurt some that see it. To every father and mother whose life is wrapped up in the lives of their children, it will bring a better and closer relationship.

We want every person that expects a family, every couple planning a home, every single person and every boy and girl, to see this picture. It is too wonderful to try and explain with mere words."

Hutchins reports: "This herald must have worked, as it was the only exploitation we used and it broke all-time records."

* * *

Some will argue immediately that the attraction was strong enough on its own to bring 'em in. But it can be argued as quickly that the pulling power of the simple message had somewhat to do with cracking an all-time top, a far from usual occurrence, whatever the answer.

An ability to write sincerely in simple terms is not the very difficult thing we are given to imagine. On those occasions when direct-from-the-heart copy is in order, the man who discards the trappings and doubtful tinsel of multi-syllables and writes as he knows best stands a better chance of making his message jell.

THEY CONTINUE TO GO UP

The announcement of Harry Black's promotion to an executive post in the Fabian circuit home office is of sufficient importance to rejoice with the Round Tabler and other leading members who were stepped-up in recent months to bigger jobs. It was not so long ago that Frank V. Harpster went from Warner Ohio Theatres city manager in Mansfield to district manager, Bill Dworski to Harpster's vacated post, and now Bill Powell from district chief to assistant division manager with Western Massachusetts Theatres.

On behalf of the membership, your Chairman of course is pleased to congratulate these likely lads on the good news. In addition, we might point out that their promotions add weight to the opinion that the man with the talent who shows it long enough must go up. Theatre business has never seen the day when there was enough dependable manpower to go around.

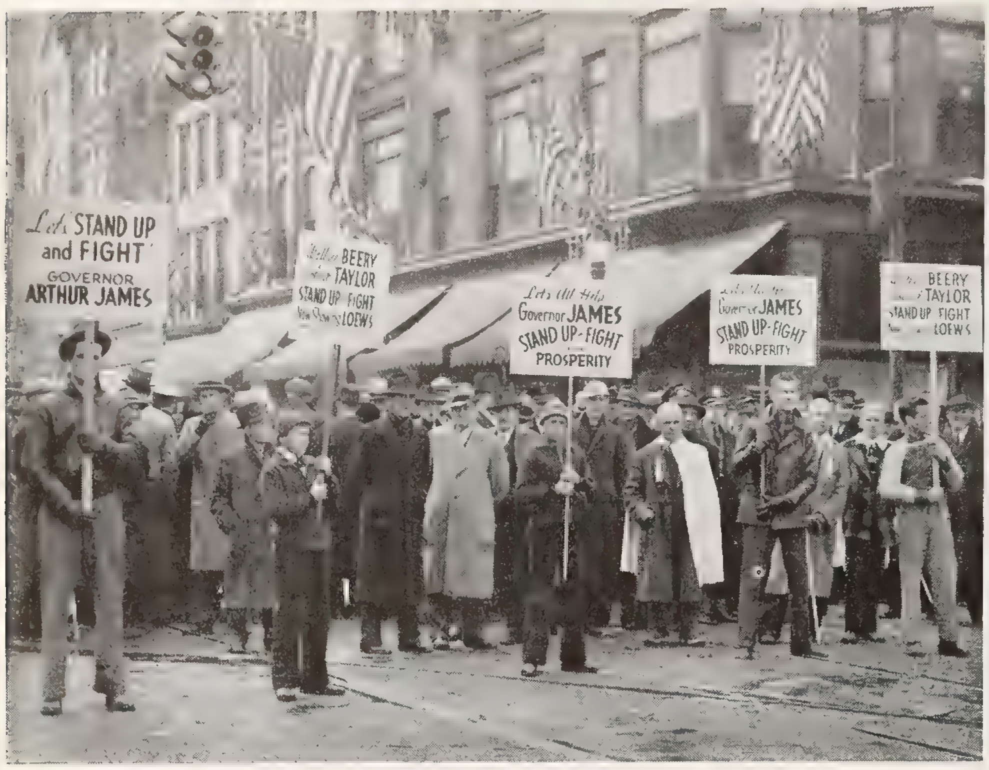
HOW TO KEEP 'EM ON THEIR TOES

Executives looking about for prize ideas to keep managers scratching dust might study the unique plan in effect for the Tri-States theatres' current drive. According to "Tristaco Broadcaster", circuit organ edited ably by Dorothy Day, wife of the winner is to receive a complete outfit of Easter clothing.

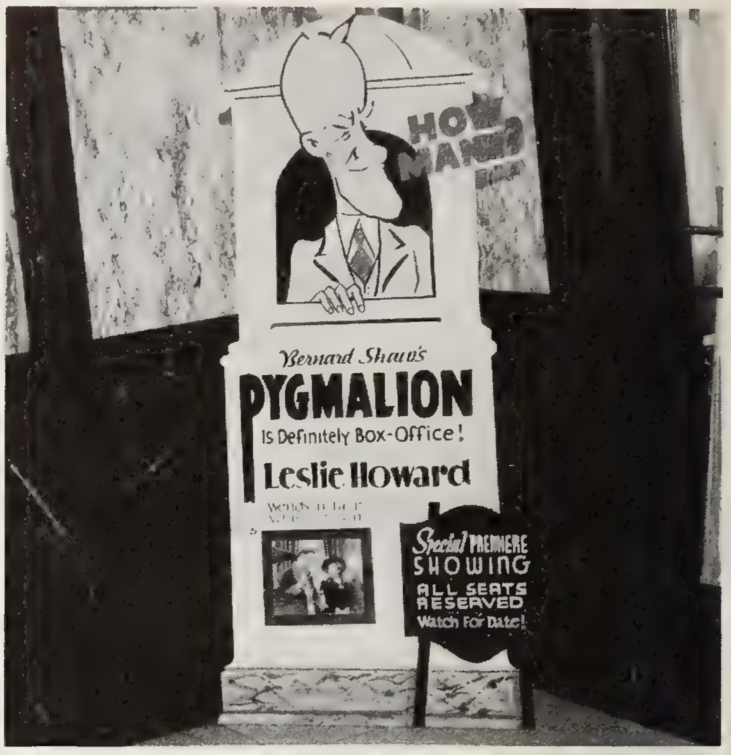
Women being women, it's a cinch the idea ranks among the more novel ways of keeping men on their toes. It will be a brave lad, indeed, who dares come home without the bacon.

A-Mike Vogel

Round Table in Pictures

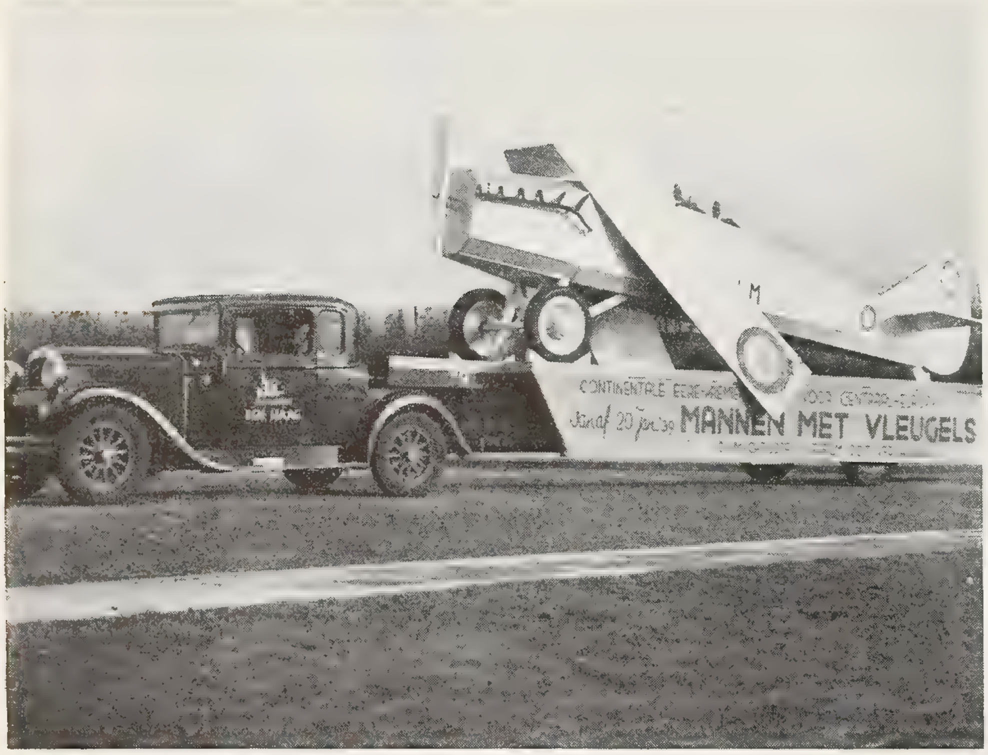


Let's STAND UP and FIGHT
GOVERNOR ARTHUR JAMES
BEERY TAYLOR STAND UP FIGHT LOEWS
Let's All Help Governor JAMES STAND UP-FIGHT PROSPERITY
Governor JAMES STAND UP-FIGHT PROSPERITY
BEERY TAYLOR STAND UP FIGHT LOEWS



HOW MANY?
Bernard Shaw's
PYGMALION
Is Definitely Box-Office!
Leslie Howard
Special PREMIERE SHOWING
ALL SEATS RESERVED
Watch For Date!

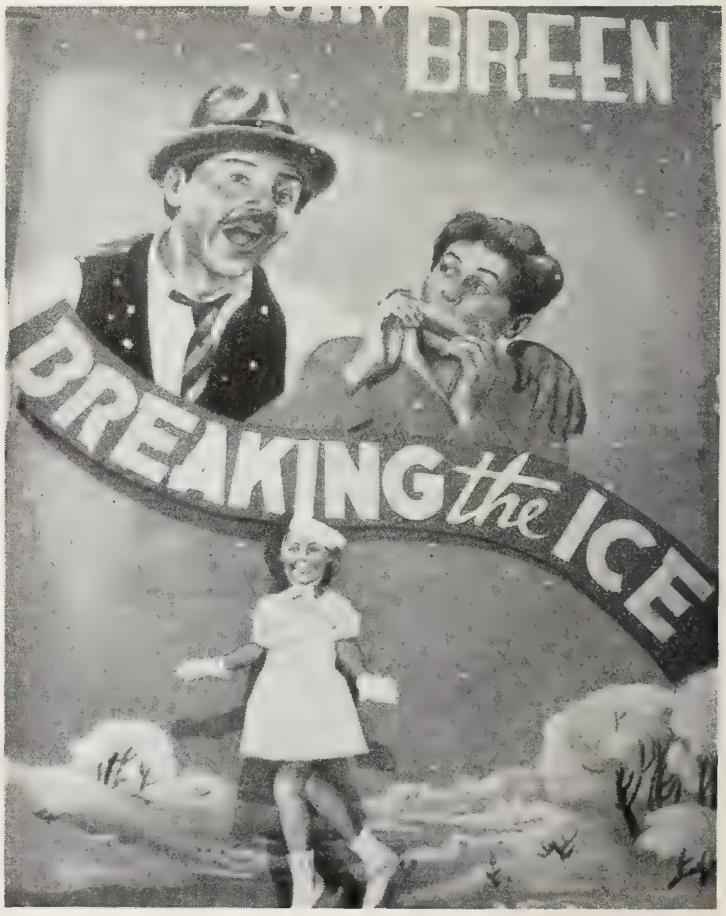
Above, left, shows how Sam Gilman, Loew's, Harrisburg, Pa., crashed the Governor's Inauguration Day Parade, recently, and managed to get his plug in for "Stand Up and Fight". Boys with tiein banners mingled with the crowds. . . . Above is Les Pollock's ingenious lobby setpiece used in advance of "Pygmalion" opening at Loew's, Rochester, N. Y. Caricature cutout of Shaw was placed at window with the "How many?" sign alongside. Pollock sold the attraction by having a special premiere showing at which all seats were reserved.



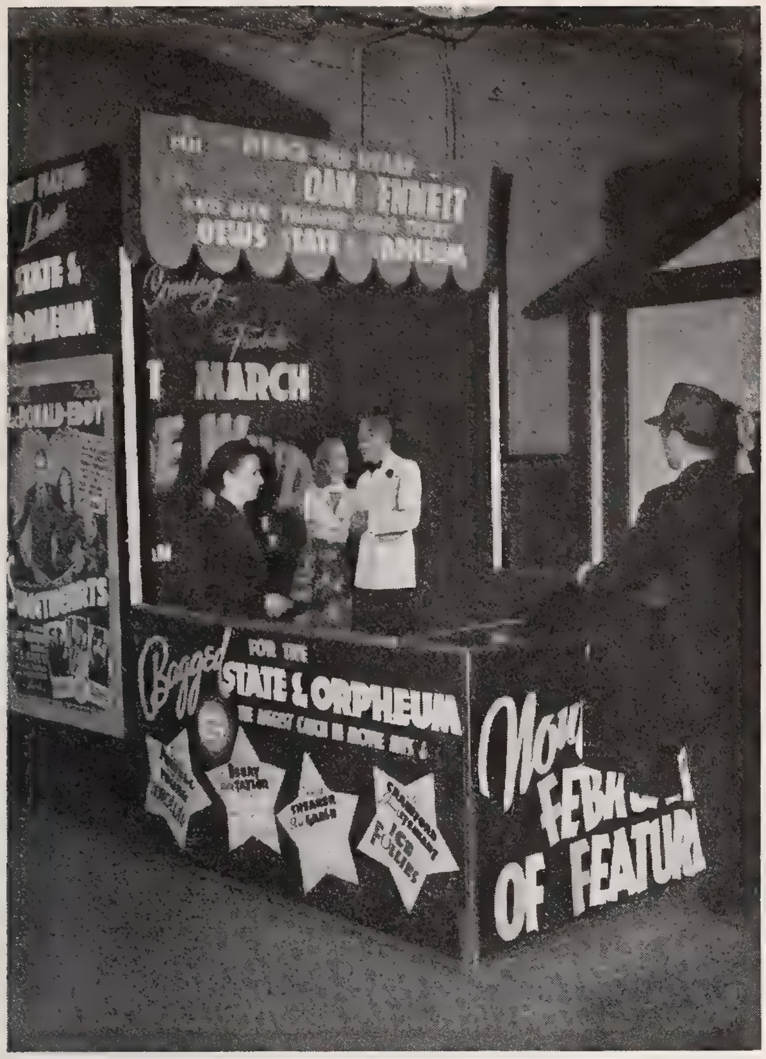
MANNEN MET VLEUGELS

Life-size airplane mounted on truck which toured the streets of Amsterdam, Holland, was part of the exploitation campaign arranged for opening of "Men with Wings" at the Metropole Palace. Foreign ambassadors, ministers of war and aviation, in addition to other prominents, were invited to the opening. Campaign was put on by C. A. H. van der Linden, Paramount publicity manager.

Photo at right shows what theatremen in Hong Kong do with their displays plugging forthcoming attractions. Reproduced here is Terry Leung's animated setpiece for "Breaking the Ice" engagement at the Queen's Theatre. Concealed motors motivated the figures, harmonica in Bobby Breen's mouth moving from side to side; hands and feet of little girl ice skater also provided animation. Entire display was set against snow scene background.



BREEN
BREAKING the ICE

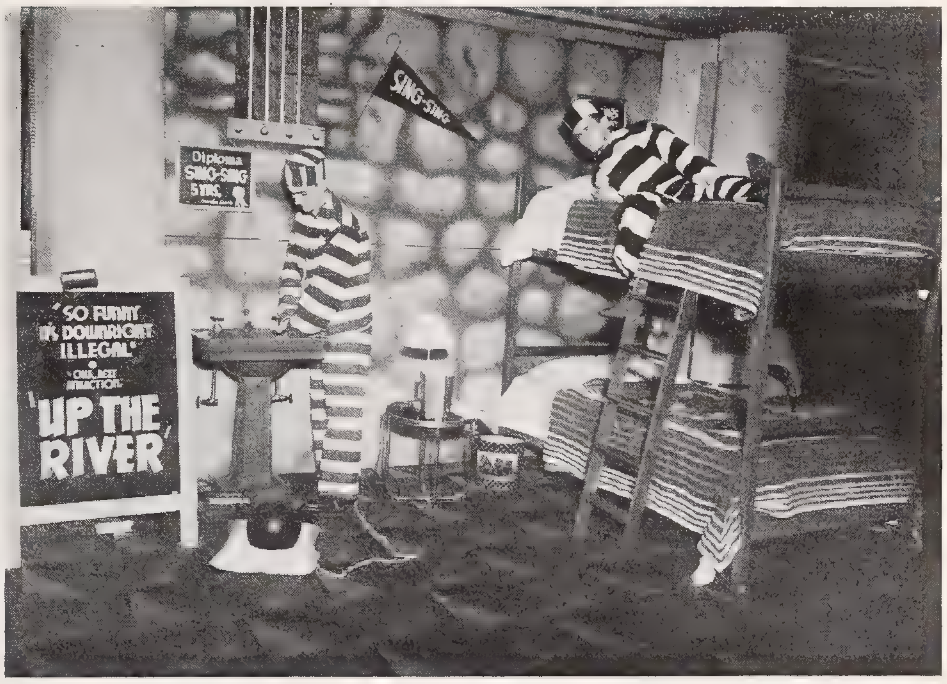


BENNETT
MARCH
STATE & ORPHEUM
SWEETHEARTS
Bagged FOR THE STATE & ORPHEUM
Now FEBRU
OF FEATURE
ICE FOLLIES

Arranged by H. M. Addison, division head, and carried through by Joe DiPesa, publicist, Loew's Theatres, Boston, was tieup with the State Conservation authorities who permitted a first-time motion picture display at the annual New England Sportsmen's Show. Erected in conspicuous location was booth in which were cutouts of Joan Bennett and Fredric March as they appeared in "Trade Winds". Onlookers were supplied with darts, and guest tickets went to those who succeeded in "piercing the heart" of Miss Bennett. Booth was designed and constructed by Walter Kessler, assistant at the Orpheum.

TAIL SPIN
TAIL SPIN
TAIL SPIN

Climax of Twentieth Century-Fox's recent air tour on behalf of "Tail Spin" was delivery by company starlets of picture print to Irving Lesser, managing director, New York Roxy. Local program included preview and testimonial dinner in honor of "Ninety-niners' Club", women's flying organization. Surrounding Mr. Lesser in the usual order are Helen Ericson, Lillian Porter, Joan Valerie, Dorothy Dearing.



SING-SING
Diploma SING-SING 5 YRS.
"SO FUNNY IT'S DOWNRIGHT ILLEGAL" UP THE RIVER

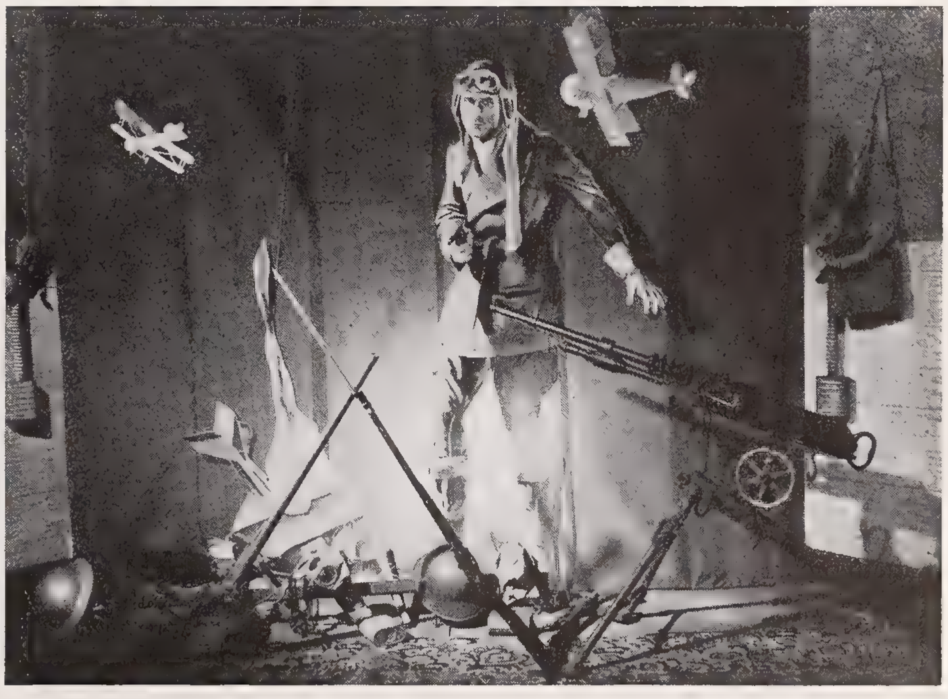
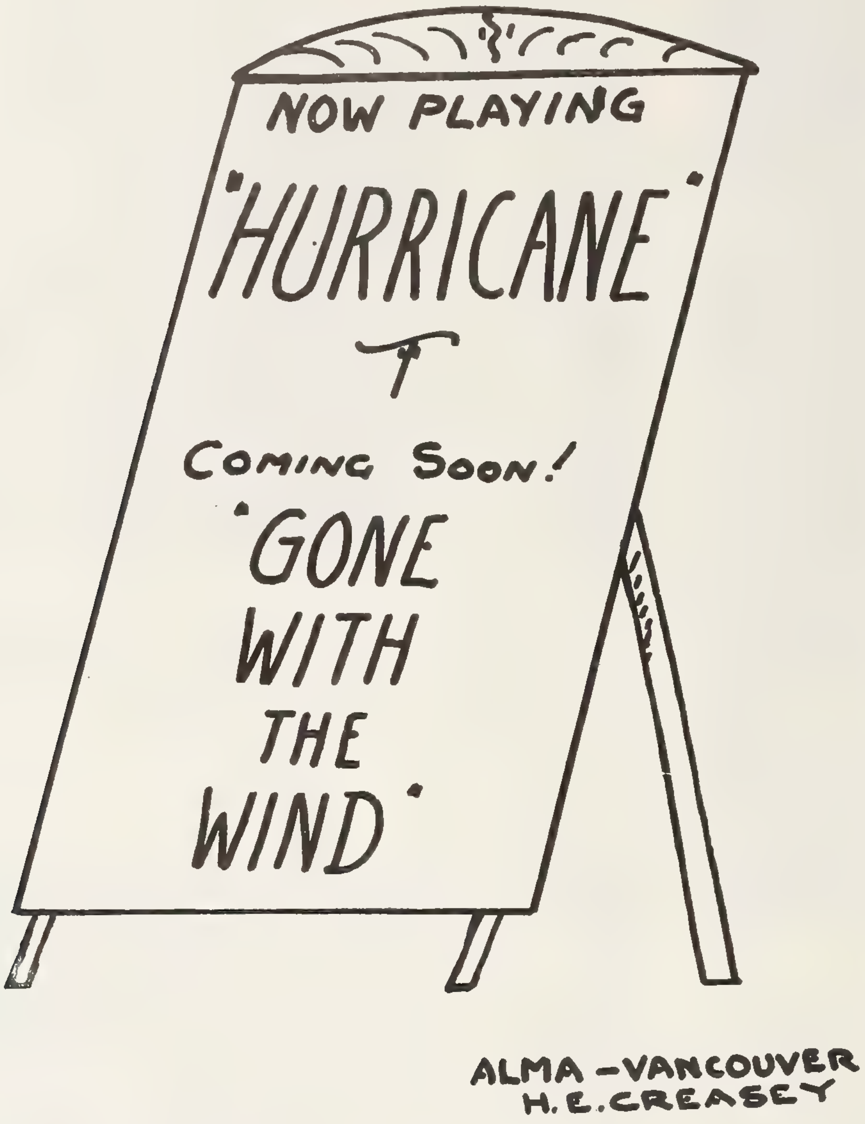
Atmospheric, indeed, was the unique piece of ballyhoo reported by John Gordon, advertising director, Chakeres Theatres, Springfield, Ohio, for "Up the River". Complete prison cell effect was reproduced, ushers dressed in striped uniforms with the usual ball and chain. Display was created by Al Freeman, manager of the Majestic.



Louie Fishkin, Alba, Brooklyn, exploited "Dawn Patrol", as shown to right. Scrim background with blue lights behind gave entire display a dawn effect. Errol Flynn and planes were cut out from six-sheet; machine gun, rifles, gas masks and helmets were loaned by the American Legion. Red lights behind the burning plane gave flame effect.

SHOWMEN'S LOBBY LAFFS



Maryland Senators Guests of Loewmen

Complete coverage was obtained on "Stand Up and Fight" when it opened at Loew's Capitol, Washington. Publicist Ray Bell arranged Maryland night, at which were present all members of the Senate and House from that state, leaders of Maryland State Society and other state dignitaries.

Week preceding showing there was an interesting lobby display of electrically propelled models of famous B & O locomotives, including several replicas of model used in film. Bell arranged for several publicity pictures of these displays, using stage stars for illustrative purposes. Washington Daily News ran seven-day review contest in which top award was trip to New York to two persons.

B & O. personnel in the Washington area was completely covered by special bulletins issuing from the Baltimore home office of the railroad. Local ticket offices and Union station were adequately placarded.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Arranges "Sweetheart" Section

Newark's police commissioner issued a special permit to Manager William Phillips of Loew's State to allow a special "sweetheart section" in the theatre during the showing of the MacDonald-Eddy picture. Slant was duly publicized by Phillips and proved highly successful with the youngsters in the vicinity.

Novel Contest Arranged By Marhenke and Cohen

Robert Marhenke, Broadway, and Walter Cohen, Leader, Baltimore, Md., employed a novel treatment of their combined programs. It is their intention that any handbill isn't worth the paper it is written on unless something of extra value is included, and so "Count-o" was their answer.

Idea is to merely count the "o's" throughout the program. Correct answers are awarded guest tickets to both theatres. As a result, the boys claim that the program is read from cover to cover and the amount of responses are increasing each week. "Count-o" was publicized by trailers on both screens, lobby signs, radio spots, neighborhood newspapers and weekly programs.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Schools Cooperate On "Copperfield"

For the return engagement of "David Copperfield" at the Inwood Theatre, Forest Hills, L. I., Manager Al Simon distributed passes to school principals for award to best pupil of the week. Libraries were contacted for special display of the books, librarians urging students to attend showing.

On opening chapter of his serial, "Spider's Web," Al distributed heralds at schools at break. Several bore lucky numbers, which were listed on lobby easel, passes going to holders of corresponding numbers.

Builds Kid Show With Free Rides

Unique free bus transportation slant has been worked out by Manager William Gallagher, Warner's Parker, Darby, Pa., through cooperation of leading merchants, each of whom contributes a dollar weekly to defray expense of running busses to the theatre in connection with Saturday afternoon kid matinees.

With each purchase of one dollar or over, merchants distribute tickets entitling juvenile passenger to the free ride. Transportation company which conducts several regular routes in the vicinity of the theatre is tied in to supply bannered busses with motorcycle police escort to pick up the children at specified spots to arrive in time for the matinee show. Busses cover six different towns each week.

Theatre representatives who accompany busses, direct drivers to designated stops and check mileage. After arriving at theatre, busses lay over until after show to make the return trips, mileage of which is also checked, as is duration of lay-over periods. This information is used in paying transportation company, which receives flat rate of 40 cents per mile plus 55 cents per hour for lay-overs.

Special trailer with merchants' credit is run, advising at what stores and other points busses will stop. Announcements are run in Gallagher's house program and special display frame out front also plugs the service. Merchants distribute heralds building up the tiein.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

"Peg Maleon" Is Chosen For Dayton Premiere

Top exploitation for the midwest premiere of "Pygmalion" at Loew's, Dayton, Ohio, was transformation of local girl into a "lady," following the story of the picture. Stunt was sponsored by popular local columnist and girl given the name of "Peg Maleon" received new clothes, beauty treatments, diction lessons, etc., after which she appeared at the opening to receive the congratulations of Mayor Charles J. Brennan.

Other exploitation slants included radio program devoted to Shaw and the merit of the picture, man-on-the-street broadcast and one in lobby with visiting critics going on the air to relay their opinions. Entire campaign was put on under the supervision of Manager Marty Burnett who was assisted by J. E. Watson, MGM territorial exploiteer.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Contacts Alumni on "Rat"

Numerous activities were engaged in for "Brother Rat" by R. J. Hailey, RKO Orpheum, Kansas City, Mo., including distribution of "Rat" buttons to children two weeks in advance of opening. Through tieup effected with chain drugstore, imprinted paper doilies were used. Numerous window displays were promoted and alumnae of V.M.I. were contacted by direct mail. City junior police patrol and bugle corps paraded to the theatre and gave 30 minute drill out front prior to attending opening to which local prominents were invited.

Stars In Person At 'Navy' Opening

Elaborate premiere was staged last week at San Diego for Warner Bros.' "Wings of the Navy", which world premiered simultaneously in five spots. The other situations were Pensacola, New York, Washington, and on board the U. S. S. Lexington, engaged in maneuvers in the Atlantic.

At the New Spreckels in San Diego, a contingent of executives and stars headed by Hal Wallis, attended the premiere accompanied by Priscilla Lane, Rosemary Lane, Henry O'Neill, Jane Wyman, Johnnie Davis, Jeffrey Lynn and Jerry Colonna.

The premiere program opened with a party at the U. S. Grant Hotel. The Warner party was afterwards escorted to the New Spreckels Theatre in a torchlight procession arranged by Mayor Percy Benbough of San Diego. The arrival at the theatre was broadcast throughout the west over the Warner Bros. chain of radio stations, program originating from station KFSD.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Unique Window Display Exploits "Sweethearts"

Effective window display was promoted by Ed Fitzpatrick, Poli's, Waterbury, Conn. for "Sweethearts" featuring life size cutout of Nelson Eddy at piano and placed in front of microphone in center of display was cutout of Jeanette MacDonald supposedly singing into it. A phonograph discreetly hidden played hit tunes from the picture.

Leading camera dealer cooperated with a "sweethearts" snapshot contest, photos were later displayed in theatre lobby, camera and guest tickets to winners. Haberdasher featured a full window of formal attire with standee of Nelson in center, women's specialty shop doing the same on MacDonald.

For "Stand Up and Fight", Fitzpatrick unearthed a vehicle resembling a stagecoach which properly bannered was used for street bally. With the aid of reporters from the Waterbury Democrat, a man was contacted who recalled the old stagecoach days and brought him to opening. After the performance he was interviewed over station WBRY in a 15 minute program with ensuing picture and theatre plugs.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Model Airplane Contest Exploits "Dawn Patrol"

Promoted by Bill Harwell, Ohio Theatre, Canton for "Dawn Patrol" was a trophy from local jeweler as part of his model airplane contest to exploit "Dawn Patrol", various other merchants were promoted for prizes to runnersup. As planes were submitted, they were planted around lobby with proper credits. Several days ahead of opening, lad concealed atop building with megaphone called out at regular intervals "hear ye, hear ye, The Dawn Patrol is coming".

On "They Made Me a Criminal", Harwell sent government postcards to entire mailing list, personally endorsing the picture and emphasizing John Garfield's previous performance in "Four Daughters".

Eight Entries Listed For First "Fortnighters"

Due to the unprecedented (and unexpected) number of outstanding entries received for the first two-week preliminary period in the 1939 Quigley Awards, it was decided to increase the number of Fortnighter appointments in this period to eight entries, as here listed. Appointments will continue to be made in accordance with the quality of entries received and not confined to an arbitrary number, as originally announced.

MILT HARRIS

Publicity Director, Loew's Cleveland Theatres

Tieup: Western Union and Postal to advertise and make reservations for reserved seat premiere of "Pygmalion" at Loew's State.

▽

LOU S. HART

Manager, Schine's Hippodrome, Gloversville, N. Y.

Window Display: Mirror reducing stunt on "Terror of Tiny Town" adapted from Kris Kringle idea.

▽

BOB RUSSELL, MATT SAUNDERS

Managers, Loe's Poli, New Haven, Bridgeport

Three-City Tieup: With Jack Simons, of Hartford, and Lou Brown, division publicity head, arranged for tour of horseman-courier on "Jesse James" from Hartford and New York City.

(See HERALD, Feb. 11, page 61)

▽

RALPH E. PHILLIPS

Manager, State, Sioux Falls, S. D.

Newspaper Ads: Series of institutional displays on consistent quality of entertainment. Also credited is Ralph Stitt, publicist.

E. M. SCOTT, JR.

Manager, L&J Grand, Columbus, Ga.

Publicity: Planted unusual page-one campaign on booking of "Jesse James" before national release date, on two days' notice of visit to home town of Nunnally Johnson, writer and producer of picture for 20th Century-Fox.

▽

SID SCOTT

Manager, F P-C Capitol, Sudbury, Canada

Stage Act: Arranged quick booking for appearance of largest wolf in captivity, on way to New York and Boston Sportsmen shows, to capacity business.

▽

JACK A. SIMONS

Manager, Loew's Poli, Hartford

Street Stunt: Pulled special stage-coach "holdup" in business section on "Jesse James," for front page news stories and other unusual publicity in local press.

(See HERALD, Feb. 11, page 61)

▽

M. C. BURNETT

Manager, Loew's, Dayton, Ohio

Promotion: Through cooperation of local women's page editor and promotion manager local girl was changed from "waif to lady" along the lines of the picture. Tieins and publicity were unusual.

(See story on opposite page.)

In the above listing, entries already written up in Managers' Round Table are designated thusly with date of issue and page number. Entries not yet publicized will be detailed in forthcoming issues with added identification of Fortnighter appointments.

Creasey Prescribes

Heralds in the form of doctor's prescription blanks were distributed by Harry E. Creasey, Alma, Vancouver, B. C. to exploit "Love Finds Andy Hardy". Copy called "for four drams of laughs, three of chuckles, five ounces of mirth and ten grains of romance. Planted in the Western News was an Andy Hardy jingle contest, guest tickets going to winners. Local dance hall spotted displays around, restaurant featured a "Mickey Rooney" sandwich and small envelopes with picture plug and stick of gum enclosed were distributed, copy on outside reading "By gum, it's good".

Now Available
"JUBILEE"
POPE PIUS EPIC
Full sound, six-reel feature, late Pontiff's life from birthplace to Vatican. English dialogue except that Pontiff speaks in Latin and Italian which is later translated. Catholic Legion endorsement. Never-before-shown rituals, processions, appearances, Sistine Choir.
Wire — Write — Phone
KING COLE FILM SERVICE
203 East 26th Street New York City
LExington 2-9850

MORE AWARDS EXPRESSIONS

E. C. PEARLSTEIN

Publicist, Warner's Hippodrome
Cleveland, Ohio

I have always admired the competitive spirit engendered by the Quigley Awards and agreed that "such awards should allow the fullest expression for quickest recognition" for activities of showmen everywhere. After all, just as a dramatic performer develops in the glow of the public's praise, so a showman is encouraged to do better work through fair recognition. Accordingly, in examining the basis on which 1939 Quigley Awards will be made, I should like to make a few additional comments.

If I remember correctly, the basis on which you made 1938 awards was predicated on the expression of a great truth, perseverance, coupled with ability. The average of weekly campaigns for the quarter and the year determined the final ratings. Previous to that year, awards were made on the basis of the best individual campaigns presented during the year. This plan was displaced by the method outlined above for 1938, which seems to be more logical.

Now you revert to awards based on individual ideas. It doesn't seem to encourage consistent selling every week in the year, which in the long run, is the real test in any business. It's not the horse out in front during the early periods that always wins.

JAMES C. KEEFE

Manager, Ritz
Clarksburg, W. Va.

I believe the Quigley Awards are the greatest motive force ever originated in the show business to inspire industry and initiative in a theatre manager.

It is inherent in every American to enjoy a contest, a fight, a competition in which he may match his wits and skill with others. When you enter a Quigley Awards competition you are not picking your spots. You are matching your talents, your ideas with those of successful showmen in all these United States throughout the world.

To be one of those fortunate enough to win recognition for your efforts from the group of eminently prominent, successful leaders who judge these competitions is a thrill which beggars description.

CHARLES SCHLAIFER

Manager, United Artists
San Francisco, Cal.

Without doubt the Quigley Award plays an important part in the exerted showmanship of the exhibitor directed at the only answer to everyone's efforts in this business, the Box-Office! And I feel that the new plan of making the awards is even better in acquiring and pointing for definite ticket selling results.

FRANCIS GOOCH

Manager, Uptown
Bath, Me.

I have received at least one award in each of my years in show business and you may be sure I will keep trying this year.

Omaha Premiere Set for "Pacific"

For three days the city of Omaha will revert to the horse and buggy days of 1869 in connection with the world-premiere of "Union Pacific" at the Omaha, Orpheum and Paramount Theatres for simultaneous showings. Detailed plans are being worked out by Cliff Lewis, studio advertising director; Ford E. Hovey, chairman of Greater Omaha Association; Evert Cummings, district manager and Ted Emerson, advertising head of Tri-States Theatres and E. C. Schmidt, public relations director of Union Pacific Railroad with the cooperation of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce.

Scores of business establishments on the main business streets have agreed to build false fronts copied from sets used in the film. Among the events planned for the three day celebration are an historical show and parade in which Cecil DeMille and other Hollywood celebrities brought to Omaha for the premiere will take part. A pioneer ball, costume affair will be held and the Union Pacific will hold a banquet for more than 5000 as a tribute to Union Pacific oldtimers.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

"No Tickee, No Jobee," Says Heldman's Boss

When Lloyd Heldman, Burns Theatre, Newport, Vermont, recently received a letter from his home office stating that they were conducting a manager's contest with a cash award as the main prize, he cooked up a stunt to enlist his patrons' support.

First step was to contact his boss, asking for a letter to the effect that he was calling Burns' bluff that he could run the theatre for four weeks on his own at a profit, at the end of which time he would either prove his worth or be asked to resign. On receipt of the ultimatum, Lloyd scurried over to the editor of the Newport Daily Express, explained his plight, with the result that stories were run in the paper enlisting the support of the Burns patronage to save the manager his job by attending the theatre.

Under the heading of "Theatre manager on the spot for the next four weeks," readers were urged to rally to Heldman's support.

Among the stunts put on to garner extra dividends at the box office were a popularity contest, a free bread matinee through tieup arranged with local baker and last but not least, a "free maid bureau." The latter is arranged by inviting patrons who would wish to attend an evening show but are unable to do so because they have no one to "mind the baby" to call the theatre for a maid. In exchange for the services of caring for the youngsters, Heldman offers high school girls guest tickets to the theatre.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Issues Tabloid for "News"

Issued by Manager L. J. Harris, Paramount, Leeds, England, was a special tabloid gotten out for "This Man Is News" and distributed to the public week ahead of opening. Premiere was held to which local prominents were invited, street cards bannered, numerous window displays secured and newspapers were generous.

DISPLAY ADS ON NEXT PAGE

1. The collossus-like figure of Tyrone Power topping this two-column full was Charley Pincus' angle to sell the western premiere of "Jesse James" at the Centre, Salt Lake City. Copy was held to a minimum with reverse panel below depended upon to carry through.

▽

2. Selling both attractions on the same bill without sluffing off the second feature was the aim of Georges Hirsch, owner and operator of the Apollo, Paris, in this 90 on 2 col. Pictures were Warners' "White Banners" and "Cocoanut Grove."

▽

3. Combining a plug for the local community chest drive and the coming attraction, this 55 on 2 col. was promoted by Doug George for the Criterion, Oklahoma City, to publicize Dinty Moore's offer of the solo show for a charitably inclined patron.

▽

4. Reaction to recent gangster pictures shown in Kansas City inspired Jerry Zigmond to sell "They Made Me a Criminal" in the manner indicated. Easily read copy, and not to much of it, sold the date as a fitting one for the entire family.

▽

5 and 7. Every possible angle of appeal was included in the advertising campaign on "Sweethearts" at the Omaha, Omaha, by Ted Emerson and art head Lou Kozal. The 90 lines on 2 col. uses a cartoon boy-and-girl angle with fitting balloon copy. The 65 lines on one column was used early in the run to point out the draw of the picture as against other recent top-attractor dates.

▽

6. Realizing that "A Man to Remember" could not be sold in the conventional manner, though knowing it could be "sold," Carl Engstrom, for his date at the New Ulm, Minn., employed his rarely used personal letter slant in four-column copy, and successfully. Unique touch was the reading time atop copy.

▽

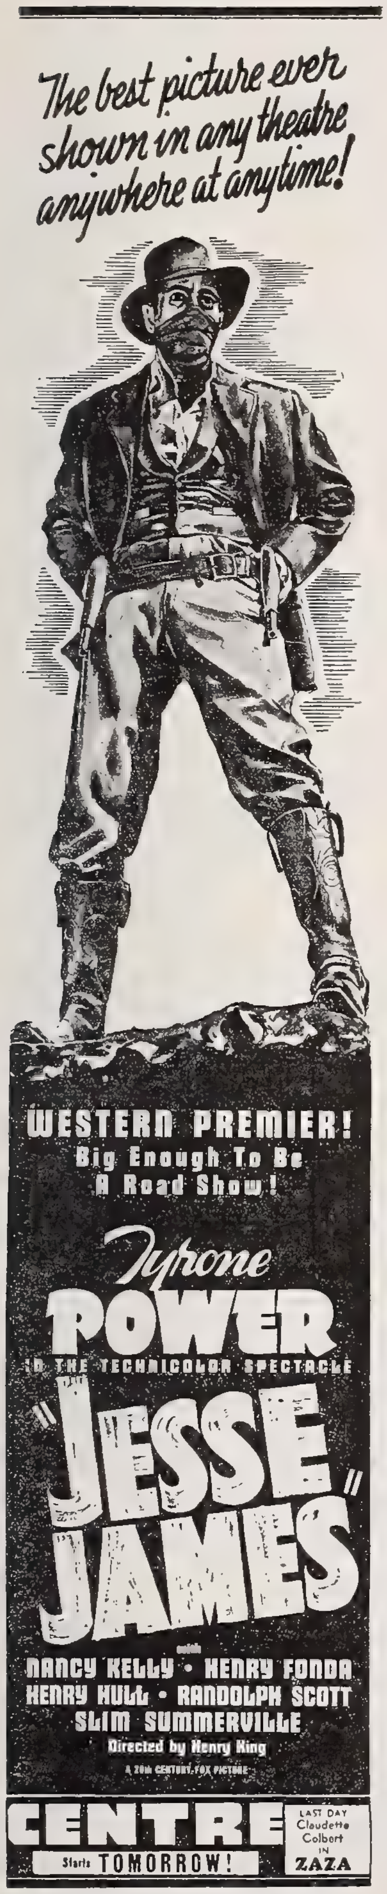
8. In the newspaper drive for "Sixty Glorious Years" at the Odeon, London, one of the novel approaches was this 65 lines on one col. to carry some of the critical praises. These were alternated in perpendicular panels bordering the title. Campaign was handled by Bob Graham under Herbert Wilcox.

▽

9. To further the definite thought that the coming program at the Fox, St. Louis, was a four-feature program, and not the usual double plus short, Lee Kaufman, local Fanchon & Marco ad head, set up this unusual ad, selling all units with equal force. Size, 185 lines on 3 col.

REPRESENTATIVE NEWSPAPER ADS

1



The best picture ever shown in any theatre anywhere at anytime!

WESTERN PREMIER!
Big Enough To Be A Road Show!

Tyrone POWER IN THE TECHNICOLOR SPECTACLE
"JESSE JAMES"
with
NANCY KELLY • HENRY FONDA
HENRY HULL • RANDOLPH SCOTT
SLIM SUMMERVILLE
Directed by Henry King
A 20th CENTURY-FOX PICTURE

CENTRE
Starts TOMORROW!

LAST DAY
Claudette
Colbert
IN ZAZA

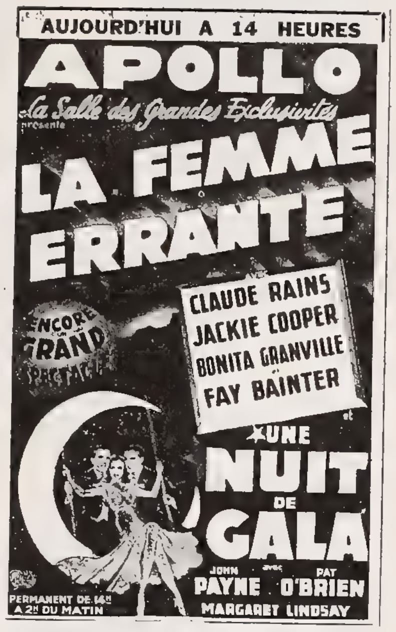
2



AUJOURD'HUI A 14 HEURES
APOLLO
La Salle des Grandes Exclusivités présente
LA FEMME ERRANTE
CLAUDE RAINS
JACKIE COOPER
BONITA GRANVILLE
FAY BAINTER

et UNE NUIT DE GALA
JOHN PAYNE avec PAT O'BRIEN
MARGARET LINDSAY
PERMANENT DE 14h
A 2h DU MATIN

3

$125

FOR ONE SEAT TO SEE THE BIGGEST DOUBLE FEATURE THIS YEAR!
"KING OF ALCATRAZ"
and
"TOUCHDOWN ARMY"

We believe some place in Oklahoma City there is a man who wishes to see these two excellent features, with one guest in private. FRIDAY MORNING from 9 00 to 11 15 A M

THE ENTIRE AMOUNT WILL BE CONTRIBUTED TO THE COMMUNITY FUND!

Call 7-6750—Manager's Office—For Further Information

4

Don't Let the Title Fool You!
This Is NOT a Gangster Picture!
"THEY MADE ME A CRIMINAL"

● Is a down-to-earth story of real people, filled with Laughter, Human Interest and Genuine Suspense . . . Every Mother, Father, Sister, Brother or Sweetheart will enjoy it with equal delight! Heralded by the nation's leading critics as the year's most unusual picture!

THE CAPABLE CAST INCLUDES:
JOHN GARFIELD THE DEAD END KIDS MAY ROBSON CLAUDE RAINS and GLORIA DICKSON

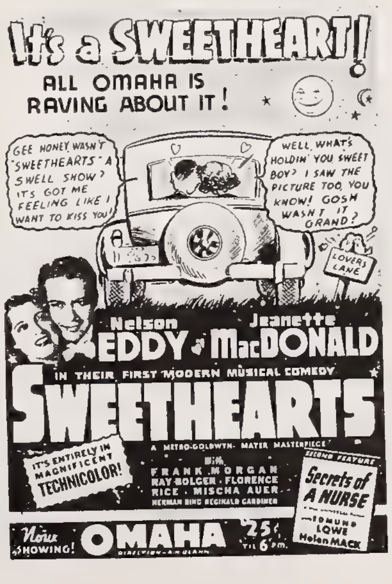
NEWMAN THEATRE

5



It's a SWEETHEART!
ALL OMAHA IS RAVING ABOUT IT!
GEE HONEY WASN'T "SWEETHEARTS" A SWELL SHOW? IT'S GOT ME FEELING LIKE I WANT TO KISS YOU!
WELL, WHAT'S HOLDIN' YOU SWEET BOY? I SAW THE PICTURE TOO, YOU KNOW! GOSH WASN'T IT GRAND?
LOVERS LANE

Nelson EDDY • Jeanette MacDONALD
IN THEIR FIRST MODERN MUSICAL COMEDY
SWEETHEARTS
A METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER MASTERPIECE
IT'S ENTIRELY IN MAGNIFICENT TECHNICOLOR!
with
FRANK MORGAN
RAY BOLGER • FLORENCE RICE • MISCHA AUER
HERMAN BING REGINALD GARDINER
SECOND FEATURE
Secrets of A NURSE
EDMUND LOWE
Helen MACK
Now SHOWING! OMAHA 25¢ TIL 6 p.m.

6

It will take you just two minutes and 13 seconds to read this

OPEN LETTER TO NEW ULM

And it will tell you where an unusual happiness awaits you

Dear Fellow Townspeople:—

It has been my good fortune to bring you many splendid motion pictures. After hearing your kind words of praise of an especially good movie, I have often wondered if I could match it with a movie equally good

But I have no such fears now.

I have just seen "A Man To Remember." And I can't recall when I ever witnessed a screen production nearly so enchanting.

If ever a person can be completely infused with sheer delight—and be so wrapped up in the performance before him as to be totally lost to things around him—that's just what happened to me when I watched "A Man To Remember."

I didn't want the picture to end. I didn't want to leave my seat; and I sat there for several minutes reliving the story in my mind and heart.

It shall be your privilege to experience this feeling of supreme enjoyment too. "A Man To Remember" will be shown at the New Ulm Theatre for two days, Wednesday and Thursday.

Come expecting to be royally entertained. You will be!

Sincerely,

Carl Engstrom Manager

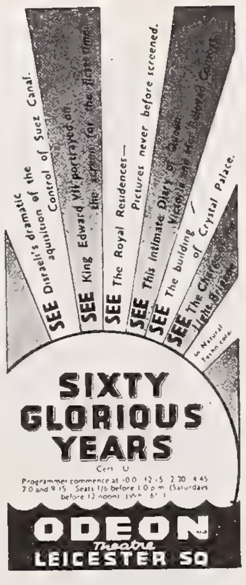
7

FIRST TWO DAYS "TEST PILOT" 13,746 Persons
FIRST TWO DAYS BOYS TOWN 15,203 Persons
FIRST TWO DAYS!
"SWEETHEARTS" 15,897 Persons
We'll say it's a SWEETHEART!
Now SHOWING TO HAPPY RECORD BREAKING CROWDS...
IN GLORIOUS TECHNICOLOR
Nelson EDDY • Jeanette MacDONALD
in
"SWEETHEARTS"
Second Feature "Secrets of A NURSE"
EDMUND LOWE
HELEN MACK
DICK FORAN
FRANK MORGAN
RAY BOLGER
FLORENCE RICE
MISCHA AUER
HERMAN BING
Now OMAHA 25¢ til 6

8

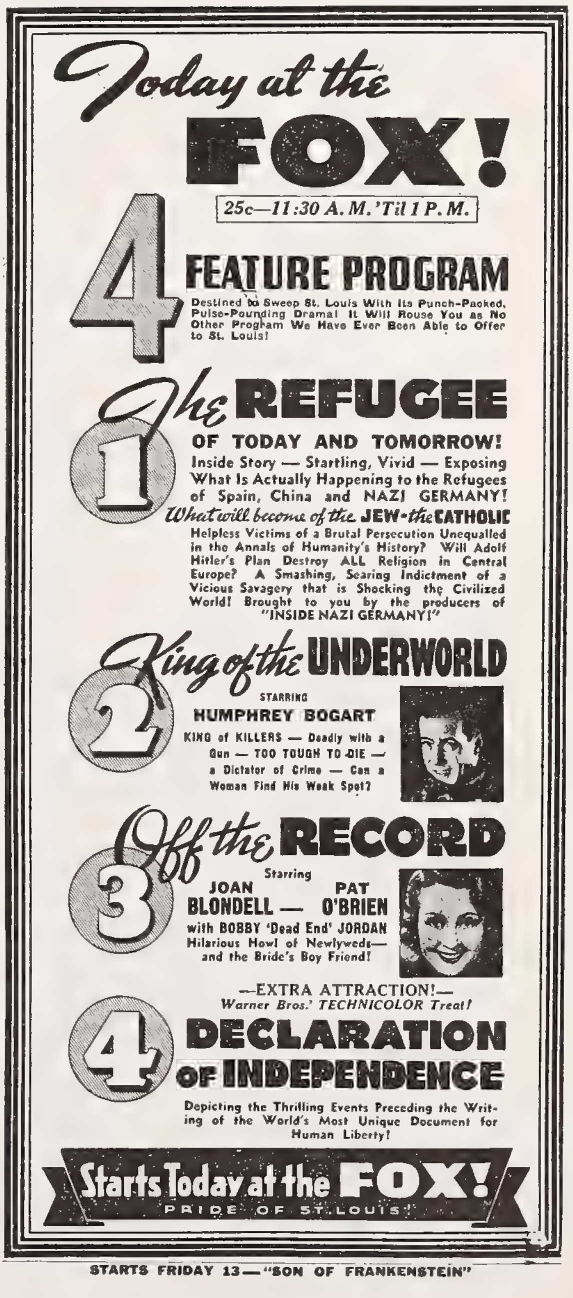


SEE Disraeli's dramatic aquisition of the Control of Suez Canal.
SEE King Edward VII portrayed on the screen for the first time.
SEE The Royal Residences—Pictures never before screened.
SEE This intimate Diary of Queen [illegible]
SEE The building of Crystal Palace.
SEE The Charge [illegible]
In Natural Technicolor

SIXTY GLORIOUS YEARS
Cert U
Programmes commence at 10.0 12.15 2.30 4.45 7.0 and 9.15 Seats 1/6 before 1.0 p.m. (Saturdays before 12 noon) [illegible]

ODEON Theatre LEICESTER SQ

9



Today at the FOX!
25c—11:30 A. M. 'Til 1 P. M.

4 FEATURE PROGRAM
Destined to Sweep St. Louis With Its Punch-Packed, Pulse-Pounding Drama! It Will Rouse You as No Other Program We Have Ever Been Able to Offer to St. Louis!

1 The REFUGEE
OF TODAY AND TOMORROW!
Inside Story — Startling, Vivid — Exposing What Is Actually Happening to the Refugees of Spain, China and NAZI GERMANY!
What will become of the JEW-the CATHOLIC
Helpless Victims of a Brutal Persecution Unequalled in the Annals of Humanity's History? Will Adolf Hitler's Plan Destroy ALL Religion in Central Europe? A Smashing, Searing Indictment of a Vicious Savagery that is Shocking the Civilized World! Brought to you by the producers of "INSIDE NAZI GERMANY!"

2 King of the UNDERWORLD
STARRING
HUMPHREY BOGART
KING of KILLERS — Deadly with a Gun — TOO TOUGH TO DIE — a Dictator of Crime — Can a Woman Find His Weak Spot?

3 Off the RECORD
Starring
JOAN BLONDELL — PAT O'BRIEN with BOBBY 'Dead End' JORDAN
Hilarious Howl of Newlyweds—and the Bride's Boy Friend!

—EXTRA ATTRACTION!—
Warner Bros.' TECHNICOLOR Treat!

4 DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE
Depicting the Thrilling Events Preceding the Writing of the World's Most Unique Document for Human Liberty!

Starts Today at the FOX!
PRIDE OF ST. LOUIS!

STARTS FRIDAY 13—"SON OF FRANKENSTEIN"

• personalities

HARRY BLACK
manager of the Fabian Proctor in Troy, N. Y., has been promoted to a post in the home office. IRVING L. LINER has succeeded him and OSCAR PERRIN succeeds Liner at the Harmanus Bleeker. The latter has been promoted from the assistant manager's post at the Grand.

▽

WALTER FLECK
is now managing the Broad Theatre in Newark, N. J.

▽

M. D. HOWE
is the manager of the Portland Theatre, Los Angeles, Cal.

▽

E. D. HARRIS
has succeeded JOHN CARROLL, resigned, as manager of the Fox Glendale, Glendale, Cal.

▽

PAT McGEE
of Boston has been appointed manager of the Eckel Theatre, Syracuse, succeeding WILLIAM FREEMAN who moves to the RKO Strand.

▽

HIRAM M. MEEKS
former assistant city manager for the Malco Theatres in Hot Springs, Ark., is now city manager for the circuit in Fulton, Ky.

▽

FRANK MYERS
of the Highland Theatre staff, Akron, Ohio, has been promoted to manager of the new Mount Union Theatre at Alliance. LEONARD CURRY replaces Myers at the Highland.

▽

ED HART
is now managing the Devon Theatre in the Bronx, N. Y.

▽

PAUL BLAUFOX
is out in Maplewood, N. J., as managing director of the Maplewood Theatre, playing stock.

▽

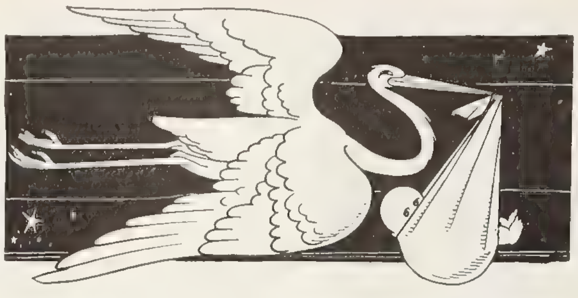
WALT JANCKE
has moved from the Rex, Brighton, Colo. to the Granada, Monte Vista Colo. replacing FRANK BROWN, resigned. RALPH HAMILTON will manage the Gem, Golden, Colo. CARL SMITH goes from the Gem to the Rex; RAY LOUNSBURY, assistant has been made manager of the Pioneer, Lamar, Colo. succeeding HARRY MOORE, who went to Salida, Colo.

▽

JIMMIE ADAMS
recently connected with Paramount News has been named manager of the Warner Theatre in Oklahoma City, by Byron F. Moore, general manager of Standard Theatres.

▽

DAVE GARVIN
assistant manager of the Carolina Theatre, Spartanburg, S. C. has been transferred to High Point, N. C. as skipper of the Carolina in that city. BILL BLACKWELL, assistant manager of the State, Spartanburg, replaces Garvin.



BARBARA ANN to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Miskell on January 17th, weight six pounds 11 ounces. Daddy manages the Orpheum, Omaha, Neb.

▽

WILLIAM BRYAN
formerly manager of the Manos Theatres in Vandergrift, Pa. has been made manager of the new Manos in Elkins, West Va.; ERNIE DOCK manager of the theatres in Latrobe, Pa. replaces Bryan; RICHARD McCOOL has been transferred from Blairsville, Pa. to Latrobe and his assistant in Blairsville, JOHN WARD has been promoted to manager of the Blairsville houses.

▽

RICHARD WARFIELD
treasurer of the Fox Theatre, San Francisco, has been appointed manager of the Warfield in the same city.

Birthday Greetings

Sam J. Aaron
David W. Bayne
Walter Bennett
C. J. Bolender
Mrs. Gerald Brownfield
Cecil L. Brusegard
Claude D. Burrows
Mrs. I. C. Byersley
John Capano
Frestle F. Chenoweth
J. C. Combs
William G. Cooke, Jr.
Charles C. Coolbroth
Joseph W. Crocket
Laurin J. Derenzy
Ben A. Dyer
Boydell J. Edwards
J. B. Edwards
James A. Field
Fred R. Fisher
Malcolm Gilbert
H. T. Grissom, Jr.
Ben Gross
Basil R. Hall
Russell Hardwick
Milton S. Harris
Lou S. Hart
Raymond M. Hay
George A. Hodge
Earl M. Holden
Russell Hupp
Russell N. Hurt
Jack Kleinman
Albert Knopp
Dan E. Krendel
Martin S. Lane
George E. Langness
Herr Lauman
Harold C. Lee
W. A. Lee
Jerry Lynch
John F. MacKenzie
Charles Martin
Ralph G. Maser
Joe Miklos
Walter W. Murphy
Marshall Nakamura
Bill Nelson
T. W. North
F. Mallory Pittman
Gerald S. Raines
Paul D. Rainsberger
Truman Riley
George T. Rybica
Israel Schancupp
Fletcher L. Shea
John D. Shultz
Lloyd E. Sinclair
Alfred L. Singer
Mark Solomon
M. J. Stockwell
Bernie Stone
Larry Stone
George F. Strandt
Ted Stump
Milton Swanson
Morris Swartz
William E. Tinkler
Harry Wade
Thomas Wall
Leon Webb
Rodney White
Herman G. Wilson
Warren Wood

NELSON SMITH
has been made manager of the Home Theatre, Washington, D. C., while EARL HEATWOLE, assistant manager at the Tivoli has been appointed to Smith's former post as assistant at the Metropolitan. Other Warner changes there include: RAYMOND-BURCH, from assistant manager of the Ambassador to assistant of the Tivoli. JAMES THOMPSON from assistant of the Calvert to assistant of the Ambassador. GEORGE PAGE from student manager of the Takoma to assistant at the Calvert and EUGENE WILSON from chief of service of the Tivoli to student manager of the Takoma.

▽

FERDE NESSEL
formerly at the Jefferson in Goshen, Ind., is now managing the State in Anderson, Ind.

▽

HENRY PLUDE
manager of the Tri States Garden, in Des Moines, has been promoted to house manager under Hal Sheridan of the Paramount in Cadar Rapids, Ia. BOB LEONARD, formerly manager of the Uptown, will go to the Garden and E. L. PETERSON, assistant manager of the Paramount, will manage the Uptown.

▽

THOMAS McKNIGHT
former manager of the Bayview, Toronto, has been transferred to the Granada, Hamilton. G. BEAVES of Peterboro has been named manager of the Granada in St. Thomas.

▽

DAVE GARVIN
assistant manager of the Carolina, Spartanburg, S. C., has been transferred to High Point, N. C., as manager of the Carolina. BILL BLACKWELL, assistant at the State, Spartanburg, succeeds Garvin.

▽

WALTER JANCKE
manager of the Rex in Brighton, Colo., has been transferred to the Granada in Monte Vista, succeeding FRANK BROWN, resigned. Other Atlas Theatres changes announced by Dave Davis include RAY LOUNSBURY, assistant, promoted to manager of the Pioneer. CARL SMITH from the Gem, Golden, to the Rex, Brighton. RALPH HAMILTON goes into the Gem in Golden; DICK JANCKE from the Jewel, Denver, to Salida, and GEORGE SANDSTROM, recently at the Egyptian, Denver, goes to the Santa Fe in Denver, succeeding JACK KRAMER, resigned.

▽

LEWIS S. BLACK
manager of the Aldine Theatre, Philadelphia, and his assistant, LEONARD HOWARD, have been promoted to the Warner Theatre there. Other Warner changes include RICHARD V. KIRSH, manager, and BAYARD BARNES, assistant of the Queen, have been transferred to the Aldine, while SIDNEY MUNTER, manager and office assistant FRANK YOUNG have been moved to the Queen.

▽

BILL GRANT
has been named assistant manager of the Fox Waldo, Kansas City, Mo.

THE RELEASE CHART

INDEX

On this and the following page appears an alphabetical index to the titles of all features listed in this week's Release Chart, with additional information for the exhibitor.

Following the title is information regarding the classification of the subject matter of the feature. A comedy is denoted by the abbreviation Com.; Melodrama by Mel.; Comedy-Melodrama by Com-Mel.; Musical by Mus.; Musical Comedy by Mus-Com.; Western by West. If the production is made in color, the letter "C" appears in parentheses after the classification. Thus: Com-Mel (C) denotes a Comedy-Melodrama in Color.

At the extreme right of the line containing the title of the production is the name of the distributor.

A

Abused Confidence, Mel..............Col
Adventure in Sahara, Mel..........Col
Adventure of Giacomo Casanova, Mel ....Amerital
Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, The, Com-Mel ....MGM
Adventures of Jane Arden, Mel.....WB
Affairs of Annabel, Com...........RKO
Alexander Graham Bell, Mel.....20-Fox
Alexander's Ragtime Band, Mus. 20th-Fox
Alf's Button Afloat, Com.......Foreign
Algiers, Mel...........................UA
Always in Trouble, Com..............GB
Always Goodbye, Mel...........20th-Fox
Amazing Dr. Clitterhouse, Mel.....FN
Ambush, Mel.........................Para
American Family, Mel..............WB
Angels With Dirty Faces, Mel......FN
Annabel Takes a Tour, Com.......RKO
Annie Laurie, Mel...............Foreign
Arkansas Traveler, Com............Para
Arrest Bulldog Drummond, Mel...Para
Arizona Bracelets, West...........Para
Arizona Legion, West..............RKO
Arizona Wildcat, Com..........20th-Fox
Army Girl, Mel......................Rep
Artists and Models Abroad, Com. Para
Avocate d'Amour, Com-Mel.....Foreign

B

Back Door to Heaven, Mel..........Para
Ballerina, Mel.....................Foreign
Barefoot Boy, Mel..................Mono
Battle of City Hall, Mel............WB
Beachcomber, The Mel.............Para
Beau Geste, Mel.....................Para
Beauty for the Asking, Com......RKO
Big Fella, Mus....................Foreign
Billy the Kid Returns, West.......Rep
Black Bandit, West................Univ
Blackwell's Island, Mel.............WB
Blockheads, Com. ....MGM
"Blondie," Com. ....Col
Blondie Meets the Boss, Com........Col
Booloo, Mel. ....Para
Border G-Man, West...............RKO
Boy Meets Girl, Com................WB
Boy's Reformatory, Mel............Mono
Boy Slaves, Mel.....................RKO
Boy Trouble, Mel ....Para
Boys Town, Mel....................MGM
Breaking the Ice, Mus............RKO
Broadway Musketeers, Mel...........FN
Broadway Serenade, Mus.........MGM
Bronze Buckaroo, Mel...........St. Rts.
Brother Orchid, Mel.................WB
Brother Rat, Com....................FN
Burn 'Em Up O'Connor, Com-Mel. MGM
Bulldog Drummond in Africa, Mel..Para
Bulldog Drummond's Secret Police, Mel ....Para

C

Cabira, Mel.......................Foreign
Cafe Society, Mel...................Para
California Frontier, West............Col
Campus Confessions, Com...........Para
Captain Fury, Mel...................UA
Captain Scorpiob, Com...........Foreign
Carefree, Mus-Com..................RKO
Carnival in Flanders, Com-Mel. Foreign
Charlie Chan in Honolulu, Mel..20th-Fox
Charlie Chan in Reno, Mel......20th-Fox
Chalked Out, Mel....................FN
Chaser, The, Com-Mel............MGM
Christmas Carol, Com-Mel.......MGM
Cipher Bureau, Mel..................GN
Citadel, The, Mel..................MGM
City Streets, Mel.....................Col
College Girl, Mel................Foreign
Code of the Cactus, West........St. Rts.
Code of the Fearless, West......St. Rts.
Code of the Streets, Mel...........Univ
College Girl, Mel..................Henka
Colorado Trail, The, West..........Col
Comet Over Broadway, Mel.........WB
Convicted, Mel.......................Col
Convict's Code, Mel...............Mono
Convicts at Large, Mel..........St. Rts.
Come On, Leathernecks, Mel.......Rep
Come On, Rangers, West..........Rep
Confessions of a Nazi Spy, Mel....WB
Cowboy and the Lady, Com.........UA
Cowboy from Brooklyn, Mus.......WB
Crashing Through, West.............GN
rashing Through Danger, Mel..St. Rts.
Crime Over London, Mel...........GB
Crime Ring, Mel...................RKO
Crime Takes a Holiday, Mel.........Col.
Crossroads, Mel.................Foreign
Crowd Roars, The, Com-Mel......MGM

D

Dangerous Cargo, Mel........20th-Fox
Danger on the Air, Mel............Univ
Dark Eyes, Mel.................Foreign
Dark Rapture, Mel.................Univ
Dark Sands, Mel.................Foreign
Dark Victory, Mel...................WB
David Copperfield, Mel............MGM
Dawn Patrol, Mel....................WB
Delinquent Parents, Mel.........St. Rts.
Deperate Adventure, Com-Mel.....Rep
Devil's Island, Mel..................WB
Disbarred, Mel......................Para
Divorce of Lady X, Com. (C)......UA
Dock on the Havel, Mel.........Foreign
Dodge City, Mel. ....WB
Down in "Arkansaw," Mus........Rep
Down on the Farm, Com......20th-Fox
Dramatic School, Mel. ....MGM
Drifting Westward, West.........Mono.
Dr. Kildare's Mistake, Mel........MGM
Drums, Mel. (C) ....UA
Duke of West Point, Mel..........UA
Duke Steps Out, Mel............St. Rts.
Durango Valley Raiders, West......Rep.
Dybbuk, The, Mel................Foreign

E

Each Dawn I Die, Mel.............WB
East Side of Heaven, Mus-Com....Univ
Edge of the World, Mel..........Foreign
Empire of the West, West..........GN
Empty World, Mel...................GB
Evergreen, Mus. ....GB
Everybody's Baby, Com........20th-Fox
Exile Express, Mel. ....GN
Exposed, Mel. ....Univ

F

Fast and Loose, Mel..............MGM
Fast Company, Com-Mel.........MGM
Federal Man Hunt, Mel............Rep
Federal Offense, Mel..............Para.
Female Fugitive, Mel.............Mono
Feud of the Range, West.......St. Rts.
Fighting Thoroughbreds, West......Rep
First Offenders, Mel..................Col
First Ranger, The, West............Col
Fisherman's Wharf, Mus..........RKO
Five of a Kind, Mel............20th-Fox
Flight at Midnight, Mel............Rep
Flight Into Darkness, Mel.......Foreign
Flight to Fame, Mel.................Col
Flirting with Fate, Com-Mel.......MGM
Flying Irishman, Mel.............RKO
Foggy Quay, Mel................Foreign
Forged Passport, Mel...............Rep.
40 Little Mothers, Mel...........Foreign
Four Daughters, Mel.................FN
Four Feathers, Mel..................UA
Four Girls in White, Mel.........MGM
Four's A Crowd, Com..............WB
Freshman Year, Com-Mel.........Univ
Frog, The, Mel.......................GB
Frontiersman, West.................Para
Frontiers of '49, West...............Col
Frontier Scout, West.................GN
Fugitives for a Night, Com.......RKO

G

Gambling Ship, Mel................Univ
Gang, The Mel....................St. Rts.
Gang Bullets, Mel..................Mono
Gang Smashers, Mel............St. Rts.
Gangster's Boy, Mel...............Mono
Garden of the Moon, Mus-Com......FN
Gateway, Mel. 20th-Fox
Ghost Town Riders, West.........Univ.
Girl Downstairs, The, Com-Mel..MGM
Girl Must Live, Com.................GB
Girl Refuge, The, Mel...........Foreign
Girls on Probation, Mel.............FN
Girls' School, Mel....................Col.
Give Me a Sailor, Com..............Para
Gladiator, The, Com..................Col
Glory of the Faith, Mel.........Foreign
Going Places, Com-Mel..............FN
Gold Is Where You Find It, Mel. (C) FN
Gold Mine in the Sky, West........Rep
Gone Harlem, Mel...............St. Rts.
Goodbye, Mr. Chips, Com-Mel....MGM
Gracie Allen Murder Case, Com-Mel, Para
Grand Illusion, Mel..... Foreign (World)
Grand Jury's Secrets, Mel.........Para
Great Man Votes, Com............RKO
Great Waltz, The, Mus...........MGM
Guilty Trails, West.................Univ
Gunga Din, Mel.....................RKO
Gun Packer, West..................Mono
Gunsmoke Trail, West..............Mono

H

Hard to Get, Com-Mel..............WB
Hardys Ride High, Com-Mel......MGM
Harlem Rides the Range, West..St. Rts.
Hatred, Mel.......................Foreign
Having Wonderful Time, Com.....RKO
Heart of the North, Mel. (C)......WB
Heart of Paris, Mel..............Foreign
Hell Bound, Mel..................St. Rts.
Hell's Kitchen, Mel..................WB
Heritage of the Desert, Mel.......Para
Hero for a Day, Mel.................WB
Heroes of the Hills, West...........Rep
Hey! Hey! U. S. A., Com.....Foreign
His Exciting Night, Com...........Univ
Hold That Co-ed, Com.........20th-Fox
Hold That Kiss, Com..............MGM
Home on the Prairie, West.........Rep
Homicide Bureau, Mel..............Col
Honolulu, Mus-Com...............MGM
Hotel Imperial, Mel.................Para.
Hound of the Baskervilles, Mel...20-Fox

I

I Am a Criminal, Mel..............Mono
I Am the Law, Mel...................Col
Ice Follies of 1939, Com-Mel........MGM
I Demand Payment, Mel.........St. Rts.
Idiot's Delight, Com-Mel..........MGM
If I Were King, Mel................Para
Illegal Traffic, Mel..................Para
I'll Give a Million, Mel.........20th-Fox
I Married a Spy, Mel................GN
I'm From Missouri, Com...........Para
I'm From the City, Com...........RKO
In Early Arizona, West.............Col
In Old Mexico, West...............Para
In Old Montana, West..........St. Rts.
Inside Story, Mel...............20th-Fox
International Crime, Mel............GN
Invitation to Happiness, Com-Mel..Para
I Stand Accused, Mel................Rep
I Take This Woman, Com-Mel....MGM
It's in the Air, Mel.............Foreign
It's Spring Again, Com..............UA
Itto, Mel.........................Foreign
Ive Got a Horse, Mel............Foreign
I Was Made a Convict, Mel.........Rep

J

Jesse James, Mel. (C)..........20th-Fox
Jones Family in Hollywood, Mel. 20th-Fox
Josette, Com. 20th-Fox
Juarez, Mel...........................WB
Just Around the Corner, Mus-Com. 20th-Fox
Juvenile Court, Mel.................Col.

K

Keep Smiling, Com.............20th-Fox
Kentucky, Mel. (C)............20th-Fox
Kentucky Moonshine, Com.....20th-Fox
Kid from Kokomo, The, Mel........WB
Kid from Texas, Mel..............MGM
Kipnapped, Mel. 20th-Fox
King Kong, Mel....................RKO
King of Chinatown, Mel...........Para
King of Alcatraz, Mel..............Para
King of the Turf, Mel...............UA
King of the Underworld, Mel.......WB
Knight and the Lady, Mel...........WB
Knights of the Plains, West.....St. Rts.
Kreutzer Sonata, Mel............Foreign

L

Lady and the Mob, The, Mel........Col
Lady's from Kentucky, The........Para
Lady Objects, The, Mel.............Col
Lady Vanishes, Mel.................GB
Land of Fighting Men, West......Mono
Last Express, Mel...................Univ
Last Frontier, The, Mel............UA
Last Warning, The, West.........Univ
La Vierge Folle, Mel............Foreign
Lawless Valley, West..............RKO
Law of the Texan, West.............Col
Law West of Tombstone, West....RKO
Let Freedom Ring, Mus...........MGM
Letter of Introduction, Com-Mel..Univ
Let Us Live, Mel.....................Col
Liebe Im ¾ Takt, Com.........Foreign
Lightning Carson Rides Again, West Victory
Listen, Darling, Mel...............MGM
Little Adventuress, The, Mel.........Col
Little Flower of Jesus, Mel.....Foreign
Little Miss Broadway, Mus...20th-Fox
Little Princess, The, Com. (C).20th-Fox
Little Miss Thoroughbred, Mel.....WB

(Continued on following page)

[THE RELEASE CHART--INDEX CONT'D]

(Continued from preceding page)
Little Orphan Annie, Mel.........Para
Little Tough Guy, Mel............Univ
Little Tough Guys in Society, Mel..Univ
Little Women, Mel................RKO
Lone Star Pioneers, West..........Col
Lone Wolf Spy Hunt, Mel...........Col
Long Shot, The, Mel...............GN
Love Affair, Mel..................RKO
Love Finds Andy Hardy, Com-Mel MGM
Lucky Night, Com.................MGM
M
Made for Each Other, Mel..........UA
Mad Miss Manton, Com..........RKO
Maiden Voyage, Com-Mel.........MGM
Mamele, Com ....Foreign
Man About Town, Com...........Para.
Man from Music Mountain, West..Rep
Man from Texas, West...........Mono
Man in the Iron Mask, Mel.........UA
Man's Country, West..............Mono
Man of Conquest, Mel...............Rep
Man to Remember, Mel...........RKO
Man with 100 Faces, Mel...........GB
Marie Antoinette, Mel............MGM
Marseillaise, Mel................Foreign
Marusia, Mus.....................Foreign
Meet the Girls, Mel............20th-Fox
Meet the Mayor, Com...........St. Rts.
Men Are Such Fools, Com-Mel.....WB
Men With Wings, Mel. (C).......Para
Mexicali Kid, West...............Mono
Mexicali Rose, West................Rep
Midnight, Mel......................Para
Mis Dos Amores, Mus.............Para
Missing Guest, The, Mel..........Univ.
Mr. Chump, Com...................WB
Mr. Doodle Kicks Off, Com.......RKO
Mr. Moto in Terror Island, Mel.20th-Fox
Mr. Moto's Last Warning, Mel.20th-Fox
Mr. Moto Takes a Chance, Mel.20th-Fox
Mr. Moto Takes a Vacation, Mel. 20th-Fox
Mr. Wong, Detective, Mel.........Mono
Mother Carey's Chickens, Com....RKO
Mounted Police, No. 1, Mel.........Col
Murder in the Surgery, Mel.......Univ
My Bill, Mel.........................FN
My Lucky Star, Mus-Com.....20th-Fox
My Song of Love, Mel..........Foreign
My Son Is a Criminal, Mel.........Col
Mysterious Miss X, Mel..........Rep
Mysterious Mr. Moto, Mel.....20th-Fox
Mysterious Rider, Mel.............Para
Mystery of Mr. Wong, The, Mel..Mono
My Wife's Relatives, Com-Mel......Rep
N
Nancy Drew, Detective, Mel........WB
Nancy Drew, Reporter, Mel........WB
Nancy Drew, Trouble Shooter, Mel..WB
Naughty But Nice, Com-Mel.......WB
Navy Secrets, Mel..................Mono
Never Say Die, Com...............Para
Newsboy's Home, Mel............Univ
News Is Made at Night, Mel...20th-Fox
Next Time I Marry, Com..........RKO
Night Hawk, Mel....................Rep.
Night in Ghost Town, A, West....RKO
Night on the Danube, Com-Mel..Foreign
Night Spot Hostess, Mel...........Para
90 Degrees South, Mel..........Foreign
North of Shanghai, Mel.............Col
Numbered Woman, Mel...........Mono
O
Off the Record, Com-Mel...........WB
Oklahoma Kid, Mel................WB
Old Bones of the River, Com....Foreign
Old Maid, The, Mel.................WB
One Third of a Nation, Mel.......Para
One Wild Night, Mel..........20th-Fox
On Trial, Mel......................WB
Orage, Mel........................Foreign
Orphans of the Street, Mel.........Rep
Outside These Walls, Mel...........Col
Outlaw's Paradise, West.........St. Rts.
Out West with the Hardys, Com-Mel. MGM
Overland Express, West............Col
Overland Stage Raiders, West.......Rep
Overland with Kit Carson, West....Col
Over the Moon, Mel. (C)..........UA
P
Pacific Liner, Mel..................RKO
Painted Desert, West..............RKO
Pals of the Saddle, West...........Rep
Panama Cipher, Mel.................GN
Panamint's Bad Man, West.....20th-Fox
Pardon Our Nerve, Mel.........20th-Fox
Paris Honeymoon, Mus-Com.......Para
Paroled from the Big House, Mel. St. Rts.
Passport Husband, Com........20th-Fox
Pecks Bad Boy at the Circus, Com RKO
Peg of Old Drury, Mel..........Foreign
Penny Paradise, Mel............Foreign
Penrod's Double Trouble, Mel........FN
Penthouse, Mel. ....MGM
Personal Secretary, Mel.........Univ
Persons in Hiding, Mel............Para
Phantom Gold, West.................Col
Phantom Ranger, The, West.....Mono
Phantom Stage, West..............Univ
Picardy Max, Mel.................RKO
Pioneer Trail, West...................Col
Pirates of the Skies, Mel.........Univ
Plane No. 4, Mel......................Col
Policy Man, Mel................St. Rts.
Port of Hate, Mel..............St. Rts.
Port of Seven Seas, Mel..........MGM
Prairie Justice, West..............Univ
Prairie Nights, West................Col
Pride of The Navy, Mel............Rep
Pride of the West, West...........Para
Prison Break, Mel...................Univ
Prison Nurse, Mel....................Rep
Prison Train, Mel...............St. Rts.
Prison Without Bars, Mel...........UA
Professor Beware, Com............Para
Pygmalion, Com-Mel..............MGM
R
Racket Busters, Mel................WB
Radio Troubadour, Mus............Para
Rage of Paris, Com................Univ.
Rebellious Daughters, Mel......St. Rts.
Red River Range, West.............Rep
Reformatory, Mel.....................Col
Refugiados en Madrid, Mel......Foreign
Religious Racketeer, Mel.........St. Rts.
Renegade Ranger, The, West......RKO
Restless Age, The Mel..............UA
Renfrew on the Great White Trail, West. ...GN
Return of the Frog, Mel.........Foreign
Rhythm of the Saddle, West.........Rep
Rich Man, Poor Girl, Com-Mel...MGM
Ride a Crooked Mile, Mel..........Para
Ride 'Em Cowgirl, West............GN
Riders of the Rio Grande, West..Mono
Rio Grande, West..................Col
Risky Business, Mel...............Univ
Road Demon, Mel..............20th-Fox
Road to Reno, Com................Univ
Roaring Road, The, Mel............WB
Rollin' Plains, West.................GN
Rolling Westward, West...........Mono
Romance of the Redwoods, Mel.....Col
Room No. 111, Mel..............Foreign
Room Service, Com................RKO
Rose of Tralee, Mel.............Foreign
Rose of Washington Square, Mus-Com, 20th-Fox
Rothschild, Mel..................St. Rts.
Rough Riders Round-up, West......Rep
Rough Riding Rhythm, West....St. Rts.
Royal Divorce, Mel..................Para
S
Sacrifice d'Honneur, Mel........Foreign
Safety in Numbers, Com.......20th-Fox
Saint Strikes Back, Mel...........RKO
St. Martin's Lane, Mel.........Foreign
St. Louis Blues, Mel..............Para
Sante Fe Stampede, West...........Rep
Say It in French, Com............Para
Scandal House, Mel.............St. Rts.
Secret Service of the Air, Mel.......FN
Secrets of a Nurse, Mel...........Univ
Secrets of an Actress, Mel.........FN
Sergeant Madden, Mel............MGM
Service De Luxe, Com............Univ
Shadows Over Shanghai, Mel.......GN
Sharpshooters, Mel.............20th-Fox
Shine On Harvest Moon, West.....Rep
Shining Hour, The, Mel..........MGM
Shopworn Angel, Com-Mel.........MGM
Silver on the Sage, Mel............Para
Sing, You, Sinners, Mus...........Para
Singing Blacksmith, Com-Mel. Foreign
Singing Cowgirl, The, West.........GN
Sin of Lena Rivers, Mel.........St. Rts.
Sisters, The, Mel.....................WB
Six Gun Rhyhm, Wes..............GN
Six Gun Trail, West...........St. Rts.
Six Shootin' Sheriff, West.........GN
Sixty Glorious Years, Mel (C)....RKO
Sky Giant, Mel.....................RKO
Sky Pirate, Mel....................Mono
Slalom, Mel.......................Foreign
Slums of New York, Mel.......Foreign
Smashing the Money Ring, Mel...WB
Smashing the Rackets, Mel.......RKO
Smashing the Spy Ring, Mel........Col
Society Smugglers, Mel...........Univ
Some Like It Hot, Mus............Para
Song of the Buckaroo, West......Mono
Son of Frankenstein, Mel.........Univ.
Sons of the Legion, Mel...........Para
So This Is London, Com.........Foreign
South of Arizona, West..............Col
South Riding, Mel....................UA
Spawn of the North, Mel...........Para
Speed to Burn, Mel............20th-Fox
Spirit of Culver, Mel...............Univ
Spring Madness, Com-Mel........MGM
Stablemates, Com-Mel............MGM
Stagecoach, Mel.......................UA
Stand Up and Fight, Com-Mel....MGM
Stanley and Livingstone, Mel..20th-Fox
Starlight Over Texas, West.......Mono
Star Reporter, Mel.................Mono
Stolen Life, Mel.....................Para
Storm, The, Mel....................Univ
Storm Over Bengal, Mel.............Rep
Story of a Cheat, Mel...........Foreign
Story of Vernon and Irene Castle, The, Mus. ...RKO
Straight, Place and Show, Com.20th-Fox
Strange Boarders, Mel..............GB
Strange Case of Dr. Meade, Mel.....Col
Strange Faces, Com-Mel...........Univ
Street of Missing Men, Mel.........Rep
Street Without a Name, Mel....Foreign
Streets of New York, Mel.........Mono
Student Nurse, Mel..................FN
Submarine Patrol, Mel.........20th-Fox
Sudden Money, Com-Mel...........Para
Suez, Mel. 20th-Fox
Sundown on the Prairie, West.....Mono
Sunset Strip Case, Mel..............GN
Sunset Trail, West..................Para
Susannah of the Mounties, Com-Mel, 20th-Fox
Sweepstake Winner, Com............WB
Sweethearts, Mus. (C) ....MGM
Sweetheart of Sigma Chi, Mus...Mono
Swing, Sister, Swing, Mus.........Univ
Swing That Cheer, Mel...........Univ
Swiss Miss, Com..................MGM
T
Tail Spin, Mel..................20th-Fox
Tarnished Angel, Mel..............RKO
Tarzan in Exile, Mel.............MGM
Tenth Avenue Kid, Mel............Rep
Terror of Tiny Town, Mel...........Col
Texans, The, Mel...................Para
Texas Stampede, West...............Col
Texas Wildcats, West...........St. Rts.
Thanks for Everything, Mus-Com. 20th-Fox
Thanks for the Memory, Com.....Para
That Certain Age, Mus-Com......Univ
There Goes My Heart, Com.........UA
There's That Woman Again, Com..Col
The Drive by Night, Mel........Foreign
They Made Her a Spy, Mel........RKO
They Made Me a Criminal, Mel.....WB
This Man Is News, Mel.............Para
39 Steps, Mel.........................GB
Three Blind Mice, Mel....... 20th-Fox
Three Loves Has Nancy, Com-Mel.MGM
Three Musketeers, Mus-Com...20th-Fox
Three on a Weekend, Mel...........GB
3 Smart Girls Grow Up, Mus-Com Univ
Three Texas Steers, West...........Rep
Thundering West, The, West.......Col
Time Out for Murder, Mel.....20th-Fox
Titans of the Deep, Mel............GN
T-Kied Koff, Mel...............Foreign
Tom Sawyer, Detective, Mel.......Para
Too Hot to Handle, Com-Mel.....MGM
Topa Topa, Mel.................St. Rts.
Topper Takes a Trip, Com..........UA
Torchy Blane Runs for Mayor, Mel..WB
Torchy Gets Her Man, Mel........WB
Torchy Blane in Chinatown, Mel...WB
To the Rescue, West.................GN
Touchdown Army, Com............Para
Tough Kid, Mel.....................Mono
Trade Winds, Com-Mel..............UA
Trapped in the Sky, Mel.............Col
Treasure Island, Mel..............MGM
Trigger Pals, West..................GN
Trigger Smith, West..............Mono
Tropic Holiday, Mus...............Para
Trouble in Sundown, West.........RKO
12 Crowded Hours, Mel............RKO
Two Gun Justice, West...........Mono
Two Gun Troubador, West.....St. Rts.
U
Undercover Agent, Mel............Univ
Under the Big Top, Mel..........Mono
Union Pacific, Mel..................Para
Up the River, Mel..............20th-Fox
Utah Trail, The, West...............GN
V
Vacation from Love, Com........MGM
Valley of the Giants, Mel. (C)......WB
Volga Boatman, Mel...........Foreign
W
Wanted by Scotland Yard, Mel...Mono
Wanted by the Police, Mel........Mono
Ware Case, Mel.................Foreign
Water Rustlers, West................GN
We Are Not Alone, Mel............WB
Wedad, Mel. ....Foreign
We're Going to Be Rich, Mus-Com. 20th-Fox
Western Jamboree, West...........Rep
West of Cheyenne, West............Col
West of the Sante Fe, West.........Col
What's a Fixer For, Mel..........RKO
When the Husband Travels, Mus-Com, Foreign
Where the Buffalo Roam, West....Mono
While New York Sleeps, Mel..20th-Fox
Whispering Enemies, Mel...........Col
White Banners, Mel.................WB
Wife, Husband and Friend, Com. 20th-Fox
Wild Horse Canyon, West........Mono
Wings of the Navy, Mel...........WB
Winner Take All, Mus-Com......20-Fox
Witch Night, Mel...............Foreign
Within the Law, Mel..............MGM
Wizard of Oz, Mus. (C).........MGM
Wolf Call, Mel......................Mono
Woman Doctor, Mel.................Rep
Women in the Wind, Mel...........WB
Wuthering Heights, Mel............UA
Y
Yellow Sands, Mel.........Assoc British
Yes, Madam? Com..............Foreign
Yes, My Darling Daughter, Com...WB
You Can't Cheat an Honest Man..Univ
You Can't Take It With You, Com Col
Young Dr. Kildare, Com-Mel......MGM
Young Fugitives, Mel..............Univ
Young in Heart, Com-Mel...........UA
Z
Zaza, Mel..........................Para

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

THE CHART

Productions are listed according to the names of distributors in order that the exhibitor may have a short-cut towards such information as he may need, as well as information on pictures that are coming. Features now in work or completed for release later than the date of this issue are listed under "Coming Attractions." Letter in parentheses after title denotes audience classification of production: (A) Adult, (G) General. Numerals following audience classification are production numbers. Dagger symbol indicates picture is of the 1938-39 season. Asterisk (*) after title of feature denotes first appearance of picture in Release Chart.

NOTE: The totals for running time are the official figures announced by the home offices of the distributing companies.

When a production is reviewed in Hollywood, the running time is as officially given by the West Coast studio of the company at the time of the review, and this fact is denoted by an asterisk (*) immediately preceding the number. As soon as the home office has established the running time for national release, any change from the studio figure is made and the asterisk is removed.

Running times are subject to change according to local conditions. State or city censorship deletions may cause variations from the announced and published figures; repairs to the film may be another reason.

COLUMBIA

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Adventure in Sahara (G)	Paul Kelly-Lorna Gray	Nov. 15,'38†	58	Dec. 24,'38
Blondie (G)	Penny Singleton - Arthur Lake - Larry Simms-D. Mummert	Nov. 30,'38†	72	Nov. 5,'38
California Frontier	Buck Jones-Carmen Bailey	Dec. 15,'38†	54
City Streets	Edith Fellows-Leo Carrillo	July 1,'38	68
Colorado Trail, The	Chas. Starrett-Iris Meredith	Sept. 8,'38	55
Convicted (G)	Chas. Quigley-Rita Hayworth	Aug. 18,'38	58	Sept. 3,'38
Crime Takes a Holiday (G)	Jack Holt - Marcia Ralston - Douglas Dumbrille	Oct. 5,'38†	59	May 7,'38
Flight to Fame	Chas. Farrell-Jacqueline Wells	Oct. 12,'38†	57
Frontiers of '49	Bill Elliott-Luana De Alcaniz	Jan. 19,'39†	54
(See "California Cavalcade," "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 19,'38.)
Girls' School (G)	Anne Shirley-Nan Grey-Ralph Bellamy-Noah Beery, Jr.	Sept. 30,'38	73	Sept. 24,'38
Gladiator, The (G)	Joe E. Brown-June Travis	Aug. 15,'38	72	Aug. 13,'38
Homicide Bureau (G)	Bruce Cabot-Rita Hayworth	Jan. 5,'39†	59	Feb. 11,'39
I Am the Law (G)	Edw. G. Robinson-Wendy Barrie-Barbara O'Neil-John Beal	Sept. 2,'38	83	Aug. 27,'38
In Early Arizona	Bill Elliott-Dorothy Gulliver	Nov. 2,'38†	53
Juvenile Court (G)	P. Kelly-R. Hayworth-F. Darro	Sept. 15,'38	61	Sept. 24,'38
Lady Objects, The	L. Ross-G. Stuart-J. Marsh	Sept. 9,'38	61
Law of the Texan	Buck Jones-Dorothy Fay	Oct. 24,'38†	54
Little Adventuress, The (G)	Edith Fellows-Robt. Paige	Oct. 24,'38†	62	Nov. 19,'38
Lone Wolf Spy Hunt (G)	Warren William - Ida Lupino - Virginia Weidler	Jan. 27,'39†	71	Jan. 28,'39
North of Shanghai	Betty Furness-James Craig	Feb. 10,'39†	59
(See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 12,'38.)
Phantom Gold	Jack Luden-Beth Marion	Aug. 31,'38	56
Pioneer Trail	Jack Luden-Joan Barclay	July 15,'38	55
Reformatory (G)	Jack Holt-Charlotte Wynters	July 21,'38	61	June 18,'38
(Exploitation: Aug. 27,'38, p. 77.)
Rio Grande	Charles Starrett-Ann Doran	Dec. 8,'38†	59
Smashing the Spy Ring	Fay Wray-Ralph Bellamy	Dec. 29,'38†	62
(See "International Spy," "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 3,'38; exploitation: Jan. 28,'39, p. 60.)
South of Arizona	Chas. Starrett-Iris Meredith	July 28,'38	56
Strange Case of Dr. Meade	J. Holt-B. Roberts-N. Beery, Jr.	Dec. 15,'38†	67	Oct. 29,'38
Terror of Tiny Town, The (G)	Billy Curtis	Dec. 1,'39†	63	July 23,'38
Texas Stampede	Chas. Starrett-Iris Meredith	Feb. 9,'39†
There's That Woman Again (G)	Melvyn Douglas-Virginia Bruce-Margaret Lindsay	Dec. 24,'38†	74	Dec. 17,'38
Thundering West, The	Chas. Starrett - Iris Meredith - Sons of the Pioneers	Jan. 12,'39†	57
West of Santa Fe	Chas. Starrett-Iris Meredith	Oct. 3,'38†	57
You Can't Take It With You (G)	Jean Arthur - Jas. Stewart - L. Barrymore-A. Miller-S. Byington-E. Arnold-M. Auer	Sept. 29,'38†	127	Aug. 27,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 24,'38, p. 64; Oct. 15,'38, p. 51; Oct. 29,'38, p. 58; Dec. 10,'38, p. 64.) Dec. 24,'38, p. 54.)

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Blondie Meets the Boss	P. Singleton-A. Lake-L. Simms	Mar. 8,'39†
First Offenders	W. Abel-B. Roberts-J. Downs	Apr. 12,'39†
First Ranger, The	Bill Elliott-Veda Ann Borg
Lady and the Mob, The	F. Bainter-I. Lupino-L. Bowman	Apr. 3,'39†
Let Us Live	Henry Fonda - Maureen O'Sullivan - Ralph Bellamy	Feb. 28,'39†
Lone Star Pioneers	Bill Elliott-Dorothy Gulliver	Mar. 16,'39†	56
Mounted Police	Chas. Starrett-Linda Winters	Mar. 23,'39†
My Son Is a Criminal	Alan Baxter-Jacqueline Wells	Feb. 22,'39†
Outside These Walls	D. Costello - M. Whalen - V. Weidler
Plane No. 4	Jean Arthur-Cary Grant	Apr. 30,'39†
	Richard Barthelmess - Thos-Mitchell
Prairie Nights	Charles Starrett-Iris Meredith
Romance of the Redwoods	Jean Arthur - Cary Grant -	Mar. 2,'39†
Trapped in the Sky	Jack Holt-Katherine DeMille
Whispering Enemies (G)	Jack Holt-Dolores Costello	Mar. 24,'39†	63	Jan. 7,'39

FIRST NATIONAL

(See Warner Brothers)

GB PICTURES

(Distributed in part by 20th Century-Fox)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Always in Trouble (G) 8012	Jessie Matthews-Michael Redgrave-Noel Madison	Dec. 1,'38†	79	Dec. 17,'38
(Reviewed under the title, "Climbing High.")
Crashing Through 327	James Newill	Jan. 20,'39†
Evergreen (reissue) (G) 8005	Jessie Matthews-Barry Mackey	July 15,'38†	81	June 23,'34
Exile Express 301	Anna Sten-Alan Marshall-Jerome Cowan-Jed Prouty	Jan. 20,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," (Dec. 10,'38.)
Frog, The 8011	Noah Beery-Gordon Harker	Nov. 15,'38†	78
Lady Vanishes, The (A)	Margaret Lockwood-Paul Lukas-Michael Redgrave-Dame May Whitty	Nov. 1,'38†	78	Sept. 3,'38
Man With 100 Faces (G) 8008	Lilli Palmer-Noel Madison	Oct. 1,'38†	72	Nov. 12,'38
Ride 'Em Cowgirl WI-2	Dorothy Page	Jan. 20,'39†
Strange Boarders (A) 8006	Tom Walls-Renee Saint Cyr	Aug. 1,'38†	73	Nov. 26,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 28,'39, p. 58.)
Thirty-Nine Steps, The (re-issue) (G) 8009	Robt. Donat-Madeleine Carroll	Sept. 15,'38†	81	July 6,'35
Three on a Weekend (G) 8004	John Lodge-Margaret Lockwood	July 1,'38†	72	Mar. 26,'38
(Reviewed under the title, "Bank Holiday.")

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Empty World	Nova Pilbeam
Girl Must Live, A	Lilli Palmer-Marget Lockwood

GRAND NATIONAL

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Cipher Bureau (G) 312	Leon Ames-Joan Woodbury	Nov. 4,'38†	70	Oct. 22,'38
Exile Express	Anna Sten-Alan Marshall	Jan. 20,'39†
Frontier Scout (G) 325	George Houston-Beth Marion	Oct. 21,'38†	*62	Sept. 17,'38
High Command 227	Lionel Atwill-Lucy Mannheim	July 15,'38	59
I Married a Spy 225	Neil Hamilton-Brigitte Horney	July 1,'38	59
Long Shot, The (G) 313	Marsha Hunt-Gordon Jones	Jan. 6,'39†	69	Dec. 31,'38
Renfrew of the Great White Trail 228	James Newill-Terry Walker	July 22,'38	59
Ride 'Em Cowgirl (G) WI-2	Dorothy Page	Jan. 20,'39†	52	Jan. 21,'39
Rollin' Plains 226	Tex Ritter-Harriet Spencer	July 8,'38	57
Shadows Over Shanghai (G) 311	James Dunn-Ralph Morgan	Oct. 14,'38†	65	Sept. 17,'38
Sunset Murder Case 345	Sally Rand	Nov. 11,'38†	57
Titans of the Deep (G) 326	Dr. Wm. Beebe	Oct. 28,'38†	48	Nov. 19,'38
To the Rescue 328	James Newill	Feb. 10,'39†
Trigger Pals (G) WI-13	Art Jarrett, Lee Powell-Al St. John	Jan. 13,'39†	55	Jan. 21,'39
Utah Trail, The 229	Tex Ritter-Adele Pearce	Aug. 12,'38
(See "In the Cutting Room," July 2,'38.)
Water Rustlers WI-1	Dave O'Brien-Dorothy Page	Jan. 6,'39†	54

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Empire of the West	George Houston
Panama Cipher	Leon Ames-Charlotte Winters
Singing Cowgirl	Dorothy Page
Six Gun Rhythm	Tex Fletcher- Joan Barclay

METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, The (G) 923	Mickey Rooney - Walter Connolly - Lynne Carver - Rex Ingram	Feb. 10,'39†	92	Feb. 11,'39
Blockheads (G) 844	Laurel & Hardy-Patricia Ellis-Billy Gilbert	Aug. 19,'38	57	Aug. 20,'38
Boys Town (G) 902	S. Tracy-M. Rooney-H. Hull	Sept. 9,'38†	93	Sept. 10,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 1,'38, pp. 55, 56; Oct. 22,'37, p. 64; Nov. 5,'38, p. 53; Nov. 12,'38, p. 68; Nov. 19,'38, pp. 92, 93; Dec. 3,'38, p. 50; Dec. 17,'38, pp. 74, 76; Dec. 24,'38, p. 57.)
Burn 'Em Up O'Connor (G) (919)	Dennis O'Keefe-Cecilia Parker-Harry Carey-Nat Pendleton	Jan. 13,'39†	70	Jan. 14,'39
Chaser, The (G) 842	D. O'Keefe-A. Morriss-L. Stone	July 29,'38	75	July 30,'38
Christmas Carol, A (G) 917	Terry Kilburn-Reginald Owen-Lynne Carver-Ann Rutherford	Dec. 16,'38†	69	Dec. 17,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 7,'39, p. 53; Jan. 21,'39, p. 54.)

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Citadel, The (A) 909	Robert Donat-Rosalind Russell	Oct. 28,'38†	112	Oct. 29,'38
(Exploitation: Nov. 12,'38, p. 66; Dec. 10,'38, p. 62.)
Crowd Roars, The (G) 846	Robert Taylor - M. O'Sullivan - Frank Morgan-Lionel Stander	Aug. 5,'38	92	Aug. 6,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 3,'38, p. 60; Sept. 10,'38, pp. 102, 105; Sept. 17,'38, p. 62; Oct. 1,'38, p. 53; Oct. 15,'38, p. 54; Nov. 5,'38, p. 51.)
ramatic School (G) 915	Luise Rainer-Paulette Goddard-Alan Marshal - Ann Rutherford - Lana Turner	Dec. 9,'38†	80	Dec. 10,'38
Fast and Loose 924	Robt. Montgomery-R. Russell	Feb. 17,'39†	79
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 28,'39.)
ast Company (G) 839	Melvyn Douglas-Florence Rice-Claire Dodd-Nat Pendleton	July 8,'38	74	July 2,'38
irting with Fate (G) 914	Joe E. Brown-Leo Carrillo	Dec. 2,'38†	70	Dec. 3,'38
Four Girls in White (G) 921	Florence Rice-Kent Taylor-Ann Rutherford	Jan. 27,'39†	73	Feb. 4,'39
Girl Downstairs, The (G) 916	Franchot Tone-Franciska Gaal-R. Gardner-W. Connolly	Dec. 23,'38†	77	Dec. 24,'38
Great Waltz, The (G) 908	Luise Rainer-Fernand Gravet-Miliza Korjus	Nov. 4,'38†	104	Nov. 5,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 1,'38, p. 57; Nov. 12,'38, p. 69; Nov. 19,'38, p. 94; Dec. 17,'38, pp. 72, 74; Dec. 24,'38, pp. 55, 56; Dec. 31,'38, p. 66; Jan. 7,'39, p. 50.)
Honolulu (G) 922	Eleanor Powell-Robert Young-Burns and Allen	Feb. 3,'39†	83	Feb. 4,'39
ot's Delight (A) 920	Norma Shearer - Clark Gable - Edw. Arnold-Burgess Meredith	Jan. 27,'39†	109	Jan. 28,'39
isten, Darling (G) 904	F. Bartholomew-Judy Garland-Mary Astor-Walter Pidgeon	Oct. 21,'38†	75	Oct. 22,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 3,'38, p. 61; Sept. 10,'38, p. 102; Sept. 17,'38, p. 61.)
ove Finds Andy Hardy (G) 841	Mickey Rooney - Judy Garland-Lewis Stone-Cecilia Parker	July 22,'38	91	July 16,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 3,'38, p. 59; Jan. 21,'39, p. 53.)
arie Antoinette (A) 845	Norma Shearer - Tyrone Power - J. Barrymore - Robt. Morley - Anita Louise-Gladys George	Aug. 26,'38	157	July 16,'38
(See production article, Mar. 26,'38, p. 16; exploitation: Sept. 10,'38, p. 98; Oct. 8,'38, p. 60; Oct. 22,'38, p. 66; Nov. 5,'38, p. 53.)
ut West with the Hardys (G) 913	Lewis Stone - Mickey Rooney - Cecilia Parker-Fay Holden	Nov. 25,'38†	85	Nov. 26,'38
ort of Seven Seas (A) 829	Wallace Beery-M. O'Sullivan-Frank Morgan-John Beal	July 7,'38	81	Apr. 9,'38
Rich Man, Poor Girl (G) 843	Robert Young - Ruth Hussey - Guy Kibbee-Lew Ayres	Aug. 12,'38	72	Aug. 13,'38
Shining Hour, The (A) 912	Joan Crawford-Margaret Sullavan - Melvyn Douglas - Robert Young-Fay Bainter	Nov. 18,'38†	76	Nov. 19,'38
Shopworn Angel (G) 835	Margaret Sullavan-Jas. Stewart-Walter Pidgeon-Alan Curtis	July 15,'38	85	July 9,'38
Spring Madness (G) 911	Lew Ayres - Burgess Meredith - Maureen O'Sullivan	Nov. 11,'38†	67	Nov. 12,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 17,'38, pp. 72, 74; Jan. 7,'39, p. 52.)
Stablemates (G) 906	Wallace Beery-Mickey Rooney	Oct. 7,'38†	89	Oct. 8,'38
(Exploitation: Nov. 26,'38, p. 47.)
Stand Up and Fight (G) 918	Robt. Taylor - Wallace Beery - Florence Rice - Helen Broderick - Barton MacLane	Jan. 6,'39†	97	Jan. 7, 39
(Exploitation: Jan. 21,'39, p. 52; Jan. 28,'39, p. 60; Feb. 4,'39, p. 85.)
Sweethearts (G) 910	Jeanette MacDonald - Nelson Eddy - Florence Rice - Frank Morgan - Mischa Auer	Dec. 30,'38†	114	Dec. 24,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 31,'38, p. 66; Jan. 21,'39, p. 54; Feb. 4,'39, pp. 82, 85.)
Three Loves Has Nancy (A) 901	Janet Gaynor - R. Montgomery - Franchot Tone	Sept. 2,'38†	69	Sept. 3,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 1,'38, p. 53.)
oo Hot to Handle (G) 893	Clark Gable - Myrna Loy - Walter Pidgeon-Leo Carrillo	Sept. 10,'38†	106	Sept. 17,'38
(Exploitation: Nov. 12,'38, p. 66; Nov. 19,'38, p. 93; Dec. 3,'38, p. 48; Dec. 10,'38, p. 63; Jan. 21,'39, p. 53.)
Vacation from Love (G) 905	Dennis O'Keefe-Florence Rice	Sept. 30,'38†	55	Oct. 8,'38
Young Dr. Kildare (G) 907	Lew Ayres-Lionel Barrymore	Oct. 14,'38†	81	Oct. 15,'38

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Broadway Serenade	Jeanette MacDonald-Lew Ayres-Ian Hunter	Mar. 24,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
David Copperfield (reissue) (G) 533	F. Bartholomew-W. C. Fields-Maureen O'Sullivan - Lionel Barrymore-Madge Evans		33	Jan. 19,'35
Dr. Kildare's Mistake	Lionel Barrymore-Lew Ayres	Apr. 7,'39†
Goodbye, Mr. Chips	Robert Donat-Greer Garson
Hardys Ride High, The	M. Rooney-L. Stone-F. Holden-C. Parker-A. Rutherford	Apr. 28,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Feb. 11,'39.)
Ice Follies of 1939	Original Ice Follies Cast—Joan Crawford-James Stewart-Lew Ayres	Mar. 3,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 24,'38.)
I Take This Woman	Spencer Tracy - Hedy LaMarr - Walter Pidgeon	Apr. 7,'39†
Kid from Texas, The	Denis O'Keefe-Florence Rice	Mar. 31,'39†
Let Freedom Ring 926	N. Eddy - V. Bruce - L. Barrymore-E. Arnold-G. Kibbee-V. McLaglen	Fab. 24,'39†
(See "Song of the West," "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 14,'39.)
Lucky Night	Robert Taylor-Myrna Loy	Apr. 14,'39†
Maiden Voyage	R. Young-Annabella-W. Connolly	Apr. 2,'39†

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Penthouse*	W. Pidgeon-V. Bruce-L. Carrillo
Pygmalion (A)	Leslie Howard-Wendy Hiller		87	Sept. 10,'38
Sergeant Madden	Wallace Beery-Marian Martin-Alan Curtis-Laraine Johnson	Mar. 10,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Feb. 11,'39.)
Tarzan in Exile	J. Weismuller-M. O'Sullivan
Treasure Island (reissue) (G) 403	Wallace Beery-J. Cooper		103	July 14,'34
Within the Law*	Ruth Hussey-Paul Kelly-John King-Lynne Carver	Mar. 17,'39†
Wizard of Oz	Judy Garland - Frank Morgan - R. Bolger-B. Lahr-B. Burke
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 3,'38.)

MONOGRAM

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Barefoot Boy (G) 3810	Jackie Moran-Claire Windsor-Marcia Mae Jones-R. Morgan	Aug. 3,'38†	63	Sept. 3,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 29,'38, p. 57.)
Convict's Code (G) 3822	R. Kent-A. Nagel-S. Blackmer	Jan. 18,'39†	*65	Feb. 11,'39
Drifting Westward 3853	Jack Randall-Edna Duran	Jan. 25,'39†
Gang Bullets (G) 3818	Anne Nagel-Robert Kent	Nov. 16,'38†	63	Dec. 10,'38
Gangster's Boy (G) 3801	Jackie Cooper	Nov. 16,'38†	80	Nov. 12,'38
Gun Packer 3851	Jack Randall	Nov. 9,'38†	49
I Am a Criminal (G) 3812	John Carroll-Mary Kornman	Dec. 7,'38†	73	Dec. 10,'38
Man's Country 3742	Jack Randall	July 6,'38	55
(See "In the Cutting Room," June 4,'38.)
Mexicali Kid (G) 3741	Jack Randall	Sept. 14,'38	51	Sept. 10,'38
Mr. Wong, Detective (G) 3804	Boris Karloff-Evelyn Brent	Oct. 5,'38†	69	Oct. 1,'38
Navy Secrets	Fay Wray-Grant Withers	Feb. 8,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 7,'39.)
Song of the Buckaroo (G) 3861	Tex Ritter-Jinx Falkenberg	Dec. 7,'38†	56	Jan. 14,'39
Starlight Over Texas (G) 3859	Tex Ritter-Carmen LaRoux	Sept. 7,'38†	56	Sept. 24,'38
Sundown on the Prairie 3862	Tex Ritter	Feb. 8,'39†
Sweetheart of Sigma Chi (re-issue) (G) 3827	Mary Carlisle - Betty Grable - Larry Crabbe-Leif Erikson	Oct. 10,'38†	65	Oct. 14,'38
Tough Kid (G) 3819	F. Darro-D. Purcell-J. Allen	Dec. 28,'38†	59	Jan. 7,'39
Under the Big Top (G) 3811	M. Main-A. Nagel-J. La Rue	Aug. 31,'38†	63	Sept. 17,'38
Wanted by Police (G) 3817	F. Darro-E. Knapp-R. Kent	Sept. 21,'38†	59	Sept. 24,'38
Where the Buffalo Roam (G) 3860	Tex Ritter-Dorothy Short	Oct. 12,'38†	62	Oct. 29,'38
Wild Horse Canyon (G) 3852	Jack Randall-Dorothy Short	Dec. 21,'38†	50	Jan. 7,'39

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Boy's Reformatory	Frankie Darro	Apr. 5,'39†
Man from Texas 3864	Tex Ritter	Apr. 19,'39†
Mystery of Mr. Wong, The	Boris Karloff-Dorothy Tree	Mar. 1,'39†
Riders of the Rio Grande 3855	Jack Randall	Apr. 30,'39†
Rolling Westward 3863	Tex Ritter	Mar. 1,'39†
Sky Pirate	John Trent-Marjorie Reynolds	Mar. 8,'39†
Star Reporter	Warren Hull-Marsha Hunt	Feb. 22,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 28,'39.)
Streets of New York	Jackie Cooper	Mar. 29,'39†
Trigger Smith 3854	Jack Randall	Mar. 15,'39†
Undercover Agent		Mar. 22,'39†
Wanted by Scotland Yard*	James Stevenson-Betty Lynne	Apr. 16,'39†
Wolf Call	Movita-John Carroll	Apr. 12,'39†

PARAMOUNT

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Ambush (G)	Gladys Swarthout-Lloyd Nolan	Jan. 20,'39†	*65	Jan. 21,'39
Arkansas Traveler (G) 3806	B. Burns-J. Parker-F. Bainter-Irvin S. Cobb-J. Beal	Oct. 14,'38†	83	Oct. 8,'38
(Exploitation: Aug. 27,'38, p. 79; Sept. 10,'38, p. 105; Oct. 15,'38, p. 54.)
Arrest Bulldog Drummond (G)	John Howard-Heather Angel	Nov. 25,'38†	60	Jan. 21,'39
Artists and Models Abroad (G)	Jack Benny-Joan Bennett-Yacht Club Boys-Mary Boland	Dec. 30,'38†	90	Oct. 29,'38
Booloo (G) 3745	Colin Tapley-Suratna Asmaka	July 2,'38	61	July 23,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 10,'38, p. 99; Nov. 12,'38, p. 69.)
Boy Trouble	Charles Ruggles-Mary Boland	Feb. 17,'39†	*70	Feb. 4,'39
Bulldog Drummond in Africa (G) 3747	J. Howard - H. Angel - H. B. Warner	Aug. 5,'38	60	July 30,'38
Campus Confessions (G) 3802	Hank Luisetti - Betty Grable - Eleanore Whitney	Sept. 23,'38†	65	Sept. 17,'38
Disbarred (G) 3818	Gail Patrick - Otto Kruger - Robert Preston	Jan. 1,'39†	60	Jan. 14,'39
Frontiersman (G) 3856	Wm. Boyd-R. Hayden-G. Hayes	Dec. 16,'38†	74	Nov. 26,'38
Give Me a Sailor (G) 3749	Martha Raye-Bob Hope-Betty Grable-Jack Whiting	Aug. 19,'38	80	July 30,'38
(Exploitation: July 9,'38, p. 46; Oct. 15,'38, p. 51; Oct. 29,'38, p. 57.)
If I Were King (A)	Ronald Colman - Frances Dee - Basil Rathbone-Ellen Drew	Nov. 11,'38†	100	Sept. 17,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 17,'38, p. 73; Jan. 14,'39, p. 65.)
Illegal Traffic (G) 3809	J. Carroll Naish-Mary Carlisle	Nov. 4,'38†	67	Nov. 5,'38
In Old Mexico (G) 3855	William Boyd-George Hayes	Sept. 9,'38†	62	Aug. 6,'38
King of Alcatraz (A) 3804	Lloyd Nolan - Gail Patrick - J. Carroll Naish	Sept. 30,'38†	58	Oct. 1,'38
Little Orphan Annie (G) 3814	Ann Gillis - Robert Kent - June Travis	Dec. 2,'38†	58	Dec. 3,'38
Men With Wings (G)	Fred MacMurray-Ray Milland-Louise Campbell-Andy Devine	Oct. '38†specl.	105	Oct. 29,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 29,'38, p. 56; Nov. 26,'38, p. 49; Dec. 10,'38, p. 62; Dec. 31,'38, pp. 64, 66; Feb. 4,'39, p. 84.)
Mysterious Rider (G) 3807	Russell Hayden - Weldon Heyburn - Charlotte Fields	Oct. 21,'38†	90	Sept. 24,'38

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Paris Honeymoon (G) 3821	Bing Crosby - Franciska Gaal - E. E. Horton-Shirley Ross-Akim Tamiroff	Jan. 27,'39†	85	Dec. 17,'38
Persons in Hiding (G)	L. Overman-Patricia Morrison	Feb. 10,'39†	*60	Jan. 28,'39
Pride of the West (G) 3854	William Boyd-Charlotte Fields	July 8,'38	55	June 25,'38
Professor Beware (G) 3746	Harold Lloyd - Phyllis Welch - R. Walburn - L. Stander	July 29,'38	87	July 16,'38
'See production article, Feb. 19,'38, p. 16; Sept. 17,'38, p. 63.)
Ride a Crooked Mile (G) 3815	Akim Tamiroff-Frances Farmer-Leif Erikson	Dec. 9,'38†	78	Dec. 3,'38
St. Louis Blues (G)	L. Nolan-D. Lamour-T. Guizar	Feb. 3,'39†	*90	Jan. 28,'39
Say It in French (G)	Olympe Bradna-Ray Milland	Nov. 25,'38†	70	Nov. 26,'38
Sing, You Sinners (G) 3801	Bing Crosby-Fred MacMurray-Ellen Drew-Donald O'Connor	Sept. 2,'38†	88	Aug. 13,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 7,'39, p. 53.)
Sons of the Legion (G) 3803	Donald O'Connor - Billy Lee - Lynne Overman-Eliz. Patterson-William Frawley	Sept. 16,'38†	60	Sept. 17,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 24,'38, p. 65.)
Spawn of the North (G) 3750	George Raft - Dorothy Lamour - H. Fonda - A. Tamiroff - J. Barrymore - Louise Platt	Aug. 26,'38	110	Aug. 20,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 15,'38, p. 50; Nov. 12,'38, p. 65.)
Texans, The (G) 3748	Randolph Scott - Joan Bennett - M. Robson - W. Brennan - R. Cummings	Aug. 12,'38	90	July 23,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 3,'38, pp. 59, 60; Set. 17,'38, p. 64.)
Thanks for the Memory (G)	B. Hope-S. Ross-C. Butterworth	Nov. 18,'38†	75	Nov. 12,'38
Tom Sawyer, Detective (G) 3811	Donald O'Connor - Robt. Kent - June Travis	Dec. 23,'38†	68	Dec. 24,'38
Touchdown Army (G) 3805	Mary Carlisle-John Howard	Oct. 7,'38†	70	Sept. 24,'38
Tropic Holiday (G) 3744	Dorothy Lamour-Ray Milland-Bob Burns-Martha Raye	July 1,'38	75	June 25,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 24,'38, p. 64; Nov. 5,'38, p. 53; Dec. 24,'38, p. 57.)
Zaza (A) 3819	C. Colbert-H. Marshall-B. Lahr	Jan. 13,'39†	86	Jan. 7,'39

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Arizona Bracelets	W. Boyd-R. Hayden-G. Hayes
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
Back Door to Heaven	Patricia Ellis-Wallace Ford	Apr. 14,'39†
Beachcomber, The (A)	Chas. Laughton-Elsa Lanchester	Mar. 10,'39†	88	Nov. 26,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 14,'39, p. 65.)
Beau Geste	Gary Cooper - Ray Milland - Robert Preston-Brian Donlevy-Donald O'Connor
Bulldog Drummond's Secret Police	John Howard-Heather Angel	Apr. 21,'39†
Cafe Society (G)	Fred MacMurray - Madeleine Carroll - Shirley Ross	Mar. 3,'39†	*82	Feb. 11,'39
Federal Offense	L. Nolan-J. C. Naish-H. Angel
(See "In the Cutting Room," Feb. 4,'39.)
Gracie Allen Murder Case*	Gracie Allen-Warren William-Kent Taylor-Ellen Drew
Grand Jury's Secrets	John Howard-Gail Patrick
Heritage of the Desert	Evelyn Venable-Donald Woods
Hotel Imperial	Isa Miranda-Ray Milland	Mar. 24,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
I'm from Missouri	Bob Burns-Gladys George	Apr. 7,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
Invitation to Happiness	Irene Dunne-Fred MacMurray-Donald O'Connor-C. Ruggles
King of Chinatown	Anna May Wong-Lloyd Nolan	Mar. 17,'39†
Lady's from Kentucky, The	George Raft-Ellen Drew-Hugh Herbert-Zasu Pitts	May 12,'39†
Man About Town	J. Benny-D. Lamour-E. Arnold	May 26,'39†
Midnight	Claudette Colbert-Don Ameche-Francis Lederer - John Barrymore - Mary Astor	May 19,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 28,'39.)
Never Say Die	Bob Hope-Martha Raye	Apr. 21,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
Night Spot Hostess	Buck Jones-Helen Twelvetrees	May 26,'39†
(See "Me and My Gal," "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
One Third of a Nation	Sylvia Sidney-Leif Erikson	Feb. 24,'39†
Silver on the Sage (G)	Wm. Boyd-Geo. Hayes	Mar. 31,'39†	*65	Feb. 11,'39
Some Like It Hot	Gene Krupa & Orch.-Shirley Ross-Bob Hope-Una Merkel
Stolen Life	Elizabeth Bergner	May 5,'39†
Sudden Money	B. Lee-M. Rambeau-C. Ruggles	Mar. 31,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
Sunset Trail (G) 3857	Wm. Boyd-R. Hayden-G. Hayes	Feb. 24,'39†	68	Oct. 22,'38
Union Pacific	Joel McCrea-Barbara Stanwyck-Akim Tamiroff-Robt. Preston	Apr. 28,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 17,'38.)

REPUBLIC

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Army Girl (G) 7002	Preston Foster - Madge Evans - Neil Hamilton-Ruth Donnelly	July 15,'38	88	July 16,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 7,'39, p. 52.)
Billy the Kid Returns 851	Roy Rogers - Mary Hart - Smiley Burnette	Sept. 4,'38†	56	Sept. 24,'38
Come On, Leathernecks (G) 7024	Richard Cromwell-Marsha Hunt-Bruce MacFarlane	Aug. 8,'38	65	Aug. 27,'38
Come on Rangers! (G) 818	Roy Rogers-Mary Hart	Nov. 25,'38†	57	Nov. 26,'38
Desperate Adventure, A (G) 7013	Ramon Novarro - Margt. Tallichet-Marian Marsh-E. Blore	Aug. 15,'38	65	July 30,'38
Down in "Arkansaw" (G) 805	Ralph Byrd - Weaver Bros. - Elviry - Pinky Tomlin	Oct. 8,'38†	66	Oct. 1,'38
Durango Valley Raiders 7128	Bob Steele-Louise Stanley	Aug. 22,'38	55
Federal Man Hunt (G) 820	Robt. Livingston-June Travis	Dec. 26,'38†	64	Jan. 14,'38
Fighting Thoroughbreds (G) 821	R. Byrd-M. Carlisle-R. Allen	Jan. 6,'39†	65	Jan. 21,'39
Forged Passport (G)	P. Kelly-L. Talbot-J. Lang	Feb. 15,'39†	*64	Feb. 11,'39
Gold Mine in the Sky (G) 7103	Gene Autry - Carol Hughes - Smiley Burnette	July 4,'38	60	July 16,'38
Heroes of the Hills (G) 7118	Three Mesquiteers-P. Lawson	Aug. 1,'38	56	Aug. 6,'38
Higgins Family, The (G) 7014	Gleasons, James-Lucille-Russell	Aug. 29,'38	64	Sept. 10,'38
Home on the Prairie (G) 842	Gene Autry-Smiley Burnette	Feb. 3,'39†	58	Feb. 11,'39
I Stand Accused (G) 806	R. Cummings - H. Mack - L. Talbot - T. Beck	Oct. 29,'38†	63	Oct. 22,'38
Man from Music Mountain (G) 7104	Gene Autry - Smiley Burnette - Carol Hughes	Aug. 15,'38	58	Aug. 13,'38
Mysterious Miss X (G) 809	M. Whalen-M. Hart-C. Chandler	Jan. 10,'39†	65	Jan. 14,'39
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 24,'38.)
Night Hawk, The (G) 817	Robt. Livingston-June Travis-Robert Armstrong	Oct. 1,'38†	63	Sept. 24,'38
Orphans of the Street (G) 819	Robt. Livingston-June Storey-Tommy Ryan	Dec. 5,'38†	64	Dec. 17,'38
Overland Stage Raiders (G) 862	Three Mesquiteers-Louise Brooks	Sept. 20,'38†	55	Oct. 1,'38
Pals of the Saddle (G) 861	Three Mesquiteers - Doreen McKay	Aug. 28,'38†	55	Sept. 24,'38
Prairie Moon 7107	Gene Autry - Shirley Deane - Smiley Burnette	Oct. 7,'38	58
Pride of the Navy (G) 822	J. Dunn-R. Hudson-G. Oliver	Jan. 23,'39†	65	Jan. 21,'39
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
Red River Range 864	3 Mesquiteers - Lorna Gray - Polly Moran	Dec. 22,'38†	56
(See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 19,'38.)
Rhythm of the Saddle (G) 7108	Gene Autry-Smiley Burnette	Nov. 5,'38†	58	Nov. 12,'38
Santa Fe Stampede (G) 863	Three Mesquiteers-June Martel	Nov. 18,'38†	56	Dec. 10,'38
Shine On Harvest Moon 852	Roy Rogers-Mary Hart	Dec. 23,'38†	57
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 3,'38.)
Storm Over Bengal (G) 807	Patric Knowles - Richard Cromwell-Rochelle Hudson	Nov. 14,'38†	65	Nov. 12,'38
Tenth Avenue Kid (G) 7025	Bruce Cabot-Beverly Roberts	Aug. 22,'38	65	Sept. 3,'38
Western Jamboree (G) 841	Gene Autry - Smiley Burnette - Jean Rouverol	Dec. 2,'38†	56	Dec. 24,'38
Woman Doctor (G) 808	Frieda Inescort-Henry Wilcoxon-Claire Dodd-Sybil Jason	Feb. 6,'39†	65	Feb. 4,'39

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Flight at Midnight	Col. Roscoe Turner
I Was a Convict	Barton MacLane-Beverly Roberts
Man of Conquest	Richard Dix-Gail Patrick-Edward Ellis-Max Terhune
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 28,'39.)
Mexicali Rose	Gene Autry-Smiley Burnette
My Wife's Relative	Gleasons, Jas., Lucille, Russell
Rough Riders Round-up	Roy Rogers-Mary Hart
Street of Missing Men	Charles Bickford
Three Texas Steers	Three Mesquiteers

RKO RADIO

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Affairs of Annabel, The (G) 902	Jack Oakie-L. Ball-R. Donnelly	Sept. 9,'38†	68	July 16,'38
Annabel Takes a Tour (G) 908	Jack Oakie-L. Ball-R. Donnelly	Nov. 11,'38†	67	Oct. 22,'38
Arizona Legion (G)	George O'Brien-Laraine Johnson	Jan. 20,'39†	58	Jan. 14,'39
Border G-Man (G) 882	George O'Brien-Ray Whitley	June 24,'38	60	June 18,'38
Boy Slaves 911 (G)	Anne Shirley-Roger Daniel	Feb. 10,'39†	72	Jan. 14,'39
(See "Pure in Mind," "In the Cutting Room," Oct. 29,'38.)
Breaking the Ice (G) 845	Bobby Breen - Irene Dare - D. Costello - Chas. Ruggles	Aug. 26,'38	82	Aug. 27,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 29,'38, p. 58.)
Carefree 837 (G)	Fred Astaire - Ginger Rogers - Ralph Bellamy	Sept. 2,'38	83	Sept. 3,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 17,'38, p. 60; Oct. 1,'38, p. 54; Oct. 8,'38, pp. 62, 64.)
Crime Ring (G) 836	Allan Lane-Frances Mercer	July 8,'38	70	July 30,'38
Fisherman's Wharf (G)	B. Breen-H. Armetta-L. Carrillo	Feb. 3,'39†	*70	Jan. 28,'39
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 10,'38.)
Fugitives for a Night (G) 903	F. Albertson-E. Lynn-A. Ames	Sept. 23,'38†	63	Aug. 27,'38
Great Man Votes, The (G) 913	John Barrymore - Katharine Alexander - Peter Holden - Virginia Weidler	Jan. 13,'39†	72	Jan. 14,'39
Gunga Din (G) 912	Cary Grant - Victor McLaglen - D. Fairbanks, Jr.-J. Fontaine	Feb. 17,'39†	*135	Jan. 28,'39
Having Wonderful Time (A) 819	Ginger Rogers - D. Fairbanks, Jr.-Lucille Ball-Peg. Conklin	July 1,'38	70	June 18,'38
(Exploitation: July 23,'38, p. 67; Aug. 6,'38, p. 77; Sept. 3,'38, p. 63; Sept. 17,'38, p. 63; Sept. 24,'38, p. 65; Oct. 1,'38, p. 53; Oct. 15,'38, p. 54; Nov. 12,'38, p. 68; Nov. 26,'38, p. 49; Dec. 17,'38, p. 74.)
I'm from the City (G) 834	Joe Penner-Kay Sutton	Aug. 5,'38	66	July 30,'38
Lawless Valley (G) 981	George O'Brien-Kay Sutton	Nov. 4,'38†	59	Nov. 5,'38
Law West of Tombstone, The (G) 909	Jean Rouverol-Harry Carey-Tim Holt-Evelyn Brent	Nov. 18,'38†	73	Nov. 19,'38
(See "In the Cutting Room," Oct. 8,'38.)
Little Women (re-issue) 871	K. Hepburn - Joan Bennett - P. Lukas-F. Dee-J. Parker	July 8,'38	107	Nov. 11,'33

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Mad Miss Manton (G) 906	Barbara Stanwyck-Henry Fonda-Frances Mercer - Whitney Bourne	Oct. 21,'38†	80	Oct. 15,'38
(Exploitation: Nov. 12,'38, p. 64.)
Man to Remember, A (G) 905	Anne Shirley-Lee Bowman-Edward Ellis	Oct. 14,'38†	79	Oct. 1,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 10,'38, p. 64.)
Mother Carey's Chickens (G) 833	Ruby Keeler - Anne Shirley - J. Ellison-F. Bainter-R. Morgan	July 15,'38	82	July 30,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 3,'38, p. 59.)
Mr. Doodle Kicks Off (G) 904	J. Penner-J. Travis-R. Lane	Oct. 7,'38†	76	Sept. 24,'38
Next Time I Marry (G) 910	Lucille Ball-James Ellison	Dec. 9,'38†	65	Dec. 10,'38
Pacific Liner (G) 914	Victor McLaglen-Chester Morris-Wendy Barrie	Jan. 6,'39†	75	Dec. 31,'38
Painted Desert (G) 883	George O'Brien-Ray Whitley	Aug. 12,'38	59	Aug. 6,'38
Peck's Bad Boy with the Circus (G) 948	Tommy Kelly-Ann Gillis-Edgar Kennedy-Spanky MacFarland	Nov. 25,'38†	68	Nov. 26,'38
Renegade Ranger, The 884	George O'Brien-Rita Hayworth-Ray Whitley	Sept. 16,'38	59
(See "In the Cutting Room," Aug. 20,'38.)
Room Service (G) 901	Marx Brothers - Ann Miller - Lucille Ball-F. Albertson	Sept. 30,'38†	78	Sept. 10,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 8,'38, p. 64; Oct. 22,'38, p. 66; Nov. 5,'38, p. 50; Nov. 26,'38, p. 48; Dec. 3,'38, p. 50; Dec. 10,'38, p. 63.)
Sky Giant (G) 835	Richard Dix - Chester Morris - Joan Fontaine	July 29,'38	80	July 23,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 17,'38, pp. 61, 62.)
Smashing the Rackets (G) 832	C. Morris-F. Mercer-R. Johnson	Aug. 19,'38	69	Aug. 20,'38
Tarnished Angel (G) 907	S. Eilers-A. Miller-L. Bowman	Oct. 28,'38†	68	Oct. 29,'38

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Beauty for the Asking (G)	L. Ball-D. Woods-P. Knowles	Feb. 24,'39†	68	Jan. 28,'39
Flying Irishman, The	Douglas Corrigan-Paul Kelly-Robert Armstrong	Mar. 17,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 24,'38.)
Love Affair	I. Dunne-C. Boyer-L. Bowman
(See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 5,'38.)
Picardy Max	James Ellison-Helen Wood	Mar. 31,'39†
Saint Strikes Back, The	George Sanders-Wendy Barrie	Mar. 10,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 14,'39.)
Sixty Glorious Years (G)	Anna Neagle-Anton Walbrook-C. Aubrey Smith		95	Oct. 29,'38
Story of Vernon and Irene Castle, The	Fred Astaire - Ginger Rogers - Edna Mae Oliver - Walter Brennan	Apr. 7,'39†
(See "The Romantic Vernon Castle," "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 17,'38.)
They Made Her a Spy	Sally Eilers-Allan Lane
(See "In the Cutting Room," Feb. 11,'39.)
Trouble in Sundown	G. O'Brien-R. Keith-R. Whitley	Mar. 24,'39†
Twelve Crowded Hours	Richard Dix-Lucille Ball	Mar. 3,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
What's a Fixer For	Lee Tracy-Peggy Shannon

TWENTIETH CENTURY-FOX

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Alexander's Ragtime Band (G) 903	T. Power-A. Faye-D. Ameche	Aug. 19,'38†	106	May 28,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 3,'38, p. 60; Sept. 10,'38, p. 99; Oct. 1,'38, p. 52; Oct. 8,'38, p. 64; Nov. 12,'38, p. 69; Nov. 19,'38, p. 92; Nov. 26,'38, p. 47; Jan. 7,'39, p. 52.)
Always Goodbye (A) 852	Barbara Stanwyck-H. Marshall-Binnie Barnes-Ian Hunter	July 1,'38	75	July 2,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 29,'38, p. 56.)
Always in Trouble (G) 914	J. Withers-R. Kellard-J. Rogers	Oct. 28,'38†	69	Aug. 20,'38
Arizona Wildcat, The (G) 929	Jane Withers - Leo Carrillo - Pauline Moore - H. Wilcoxon	Feb. 3,'39†	69	Nov. 19,'38
Charlie Chan in Honolulu (G) 928	Sidney Toler-Phyllis Brooks	Jan. 20,'39†	68	Dec. 24,'38
Down on the Farm (G) 920	Jed Prouty - Spring Byington - Louise Fazenda	Dec. 16,'38†	61	Oct. 15,'38
Five of a Kind (G) 919	Dionne Quintuplets-J. Hersholt-Claire Trevor - Joan Davis - Slim Summerville	Oct. 14,'38†	85	Oct. 15,'38
(Exploitation: Nov. 5,'38, p. 51; Jan. 7,'39, p. 53.)
Gateway (G) 901	Don Ameche - Arleen Whelan - L. Talbot-G. Ratoff-B. Barnes	Aug. 5,'38†	74	Aug. 6,'38
Hold That Co-ed (G) 907	J. Barrymore-Marjorie Weaver-Geo. Murphy-Jack Haley	Sept. 16,'38†	80	Sept. 17,'38
I'll Give a Million (G) 855	Warner Baxter-Marjorie Weaver-Jean Hersholt-Peter Lorre	July 22,'38	75	July 16,'38
Jesse James (G) 921	Tyrone Power - Henry Fonda - Nancy Kelly-Randolph Scott	Jan. 27,'39†	*105	Jan. 14,'39
(Exploitation: Jan. 14,'39, p. 63; Jan. 21,'39, pp. 52, 54; Feb. 4,'39, p. 83; Feb. 11,'39, pp. 58, 61.)
Just Around the Corner (G) 915	Shirley Temple - Joan Davis - Chas. Farrell-Armanda Duff-Bert Lahr-Bill Robinson	Nov. 11,'38†	71	Nov. 5,'38
Keep Smiling (G) 902	Jane Withers - Gloria Stuart - H. Wilcoxon-Helen Westley	Aug. 12,'38†	77	June 11,'38
Kentucky (G) 923	Loretta Young-Richard Greene-Walter Brennan	Dec. 30,'38†	96	Dec. 24,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 17,'38, p. 75; Jan. 7,'39, p. 53; Feb. 11,'39, p. 58.)
Little Miss Broadway (G) 856	Shirley Temple-Jimmy Durante-George Murphy - Edna Mae Oliver	July 29,'38	71	July 9,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 17,'38, p. 62.)
Meet the Girls 910	J. Lang-L. Bari-R. Allen	Oct. 7,'38†	66
My Lucky Star (G) 905	Sonja Henie - Richard Greene - J. Davis-C. Romero-B. Ebsen	Sept. 2,'38†	84	Sept. 3,'38
(Exploitation: Feb. 4,'39, p. 83.)
Mysterious Mr. Moto (G) 912	Peter Lorre-Mary Maguire	Oct. 21,'38†	63	June 4,'38
Panamint's Bad Man 853	Smith Ballew-Evelyn Daw	July 8,'38	60
Passport Husband (G) 854	S. Erwin-P. Moore-J. Woodbury	July 8,'38	67	July 2,'38
Road Demon (G) 918	Henry Arthur-Joan Valerie	Dec. 2,'38†	70	Aug. 27,'38
Safety in Numbers (G) 906	J. Prouty-S. Byington-S. Deane	Sept. 9,'38†	58	Aug. 13,'38
Sharpshooters (G) 916	Brian Donlevy-Lynn Bari	Nov. 18,'38†	64	Sept. 24,'38
Smiling Along (G) 933	Gracie Fields-Mary Maguire-Roger Livesay	Jan. 20,'39†	92	Oct. 22,'38
Speed to Burn (G) 904	Lynn Bari-Michael Whalen	Aug. 26,'38†	62	June 11,'38
Straight Place and Show (G) 911	Ritz Bros. - Ethel Merman - Richard Arlen-Phyllis Brooks	Sept. 30,'38†	68	Oct. 1,'38
Submarine Patrol (G) 909	Richard Greene-Nancy Kelly-Preston Foster-Geo. Bancroft	Nov. 25,'38†	95	Nov. 5,'38
(Exploitation: Nov. 5,'38, p. 52; Feb. 11,'39, p. 58.)
Suez (G) 913	Loretta Young-Tyrone Power-Annabella	Oct. 28,'38†	104	Oct. 22,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 17,'38, p. 73; Jan. 7,'39, p. 50; Jan. 21,'39, p. 52.)
Tail Spin (G) 925	A. Faye - C. Bennett - Nancy Kelly-J. Davis-Chas. Farrell	Feb. 10,'39†	*80	Feb. 4,'39
Thank You, Mr. Moto (G) 831	Peter Lorre-Jayne Regan	Dec. 24,'37	67	Nov. 27,'37
Thanks for Everything (G) 917	J. Haley-A. Menjou-A. Whelan-J. Oakie - T. Martin	Dec. 23,'38†	73	Dec. 10,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 17,'38, p. 75.)
Three Musketeers, The (G) 927	Ritz Bros.-D. Ameche-G. Stuart-Binnie Barnes	Feb. 17,'39†	74	Feb. 11,'39
Time Out for Murder (G) 908	Gloria Stuart-Michael Whalen	Sept. 23,'38†	60	July 2,'38
Up the River (G) 924	Preston Foster-Phyllis Brooks-Tony Martin-Arthur Treacher	Dec. 9,'38†	77	Nov. 5,'38
We're Going to Be Rich (G) 857	Gracie Fields-Victor McLaglen-Brian Donlevy	July 8,'38	78	July 16,'38
While New York Sleeps (G) 922	Michael Whalen-Joan Woodbury	Jan. 6,'39†	61	Aug. 27,'38

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Alexander Graham Bell	Don Ameche - Henry Fonda - Loretta Young-Young Sisters	Apr. 14,'39†
Charlie Chan in Reno	S. Toler-P. Brooks-R. Cortez
Chasing Danger (G)	Preston Foster - Lynn Bari	May 5,'39†	*60	Jan. 14,'39
Everybody's Baby (A) 931	J. Prouty-S. Byington-S. Deane	Mar. 24,'39†	62	Nov. 26,'38
Hound of the Baskervilles	Richard Greene-Basil Rathbone-Anita Louise-Nigel Bruce	Mar. 31,'39†
Inside Story (G) 934	Michael Whalen-Jean Rogers	Mar. 10,'39†	*60	Oct. 22,'38
Jones Family in Hollywood	Jed Prouty-Spring Byington
Little Princess, The 932	Shirley Temple-Richard Greene-Anita Louise - Ian Hunter - Cesar Romero-Arthur Treacher	Mar. 17,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 28,'39.)
Mr. Moto in Danger Island	P. Lorre-J. Hersholt-A. Duff	Apr. 7,'39†
Mr. Moto's Last Warning 926	Peter Lorre - Geo. Sanders - R. Cortez-Virginia Field	Feb. 24,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 24,'38.)
Mr. Moto Takes a Vacation (G)	Peter Lorre - Virginia Field - John King-Joseph Schildkraut		68	Nov. 19,'38
News Is Made at Night	Preston Foster-Lynn Bari
Pardon Our Nerve (G) 931	Michael Whalen-Lynn Bari	Feb. 24,'39†	68	Nov. 19,'38
Rose of Washington Square	Tyrone Power - Alice Faye - Al Jolson - Marie Wilson
Stanley and Livingstone	S. Tracy-R. Greene-N. Kelly-W. Brennan - C. Coburn - H. Hull-Sir C. Hardwicke
Susannah of the Mountain	Shirley Temple-Randolph Scott
Wife, Husband and Friend 930	Loretta Young-Warner Baxter-Binnie Barnes-George Barbier	Mar. 3,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 14,'39.)
Winner Take All	Tony Martin-Gloria Stuart-Slim Summerville-Henry Armetta	Apr. 21,'39†

UNITED ARTISTS

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Algiers (A)	Charles Boyer - Sigrid Gurie - Hedy Lamarr - Joe. Calleia - Alan Hale - Gene Lockhart	Aug. 5,'38†	96	July 2,'38
(Exploitation: July 23,'38, p. 66; Aug. 6,'38, pp. 75, 78; Sept. 17,'38, p. 63; Oct. 15,'58, p. 54; Nov. 12,'38, pp. 67, 69.)
Cowboy and the Lady, The (G)	Gary Cooper - Merle Oberon - David Niven-Walter Brennan-Thomas Mitchell-Patsy Kelly	Nov. 17,'38†	90	Nov. 12,'38
(Explitation: Dec. 24,'38, p. 54; Jan. 28,'39, p. 59.)
Drums (G)	Raymond Massey - Sabu - Roger Liversey - Valerie Hobson	Sept. 30,'38†	96	Apr. 30,'38
(Reviewed under the title, "The Drum"; exploitation: Nov. 5,'38, p. 50; Nov. 19,'38, p. 94; Nov. 26,'38; p. 46; Dec. 3,'38, pp. 48, 49; Dec. 10,'38, p. 63; Dec. 24,'38, p. 54; Jan. 7,'39, p. 53; Jan. 14,'38, p. 64.)
Duke of West Point (G)	L. Hayward - J. Fontaine - R. Carlson	Dec. 29,'38†	109	Dec. 17,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 14,'38, p. 64; Feb. 4,'39, pp. 82, 84; Feb. 11,'39, p. 59.)
King of the Turf (G)	A. Menjou-D. Daniel-D. Costello	Feb. 17,'39†	88	Feb. 11,'39
Made for Each Other (G)	Carole Lombard-James Stewart-Lucile Watson-Charles Coburn	Feb. 10,'39†	*84	Feb. 4,'39
South Riding (A)	Ralph Richardson-Edna Best	July 1,'38	90	Jan. 22,'38

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
There Goes My Heart (G)	Fredric March-Virginia Bruce-Patsy Kelly - Alan Mowbray-Nancy Carroll-Eugene Pallette	Oct. 14,'38†	84	Oct. 1,'38
(Exploitation: Nov. 19,'38, p. 94; Nov. 26,'38, p. 49.)
Topper Takes a Trip (G)	Constance Bennett-Roland Young-Billie Burke-Alan Mowbray	Jan. 12,'39†	80	Dec. 31,'38
(Exploitation: Feb. 4,'39, p. 82.)
Trade Winds (G)	Fredric March - Joan Bennett - Ralph Bellamy-Ann Sothern	Dec. 22,'38†	95	Dec. 24,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 21,'39, p. 54.)
Young in Heart, The (G)	Janet Gaynor-D. Fairbanks, Jr.-P. Goddard-B. Burke-R. Young	Oct. 27,'38†	90	Nov. 5,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 17,'38, p. 73; Jan. 7,'39, p. 51; Jan. 14,'39, p. 65.)

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Captain Fury	Brian Aherne-Victor McLaglen-Paul Lukas-June Lang
Four Feathers	John Clements - June Duprez - C. Aubrey Smith-Ralph Richardson	Apr. 7,'39†
It's Spring Again	Oliver Hardy - Harry Langdon - Billie Burke - Alice Brady - James Ellison - J. Lang - J. Parker
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 14,'39.)
Last Frontier, The	Gary Cooper-Andrea Leeds
Man in the Iron Mask	Louis Hayward-Joan Bennett
Over the Moon	Merle Oberon - Rex Harrison - Louis Borell
Prison Without Bars	Corrine Luchaire-Edna Best
Restless Age, The	Jascha Heifetz-Sigrid Gurie
Stagecoach (G)	Claire Trevor - Andy Devine - John Wayne-George Bancroft	Mar. 3,'39†	96	Feb. 11,'39
Wuthering Heights	Merle Oberon-Lawrence Olivier-Flora Robson-David Niven
(See "In the Cutting Room," Feb. 4,'39.)

UNIVERSAL

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Black Bandit 3051	Bob Baker-Marjorie Reynolds	Sept. 16,'38†	57
Danger on the Air (G) 2032	D. Woods-N. Grey-W. Lundigan	July 1,'38	66	July 2,'38
Dark Rapture (G) 3041	Mr. and Mrs. Armand Denis	Aug. 26,'38	80	Oct. 15,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 29,'38, p. 57.)
Exposed (G) 3032	Glenda Farrell - Otto Kruger - Herbert Mundin	Nov. 4,'38†	63	Nov. 26,'38
Freshman Year (G) 3025	Dixie Dunbar - Ernest Truex - Wm. Lundigan-C. Moore	Sept. 2,'38†	68	Dec. 24,'38
Gambling Ship (G) 3023	Robert Wilcox-Helen Mack	Jan. 20,'39†	62	Aug. 20,'38
Ghost Town Riders 3054	Bob Baker-Fay Shannon	Dec. 16,'38†	54
Guilty Trail 3052	Bob Baker-Marjorie Reynolds	Oct. 21,'38†	57
His Exciting Night (G) 3036	Chas. Ruggles-Ona Munson	Nov. 11,'38†	61	Dec. 10,'38
Last Express, The (G) 3028	K. Taylor-Dorothea Kent	Oct. 28,'38†	63	Oct. 1,'38
(See "In the Cutting Room," Sept. 24,'38.)
Last Warning, The (G) 3027.. (G) 3011	P. Foster-F. Jenks-F. Robinson	Jan. 6,'39†	63	Dec. 10,'38
Letter of Introduction (G) 2003	E. Bergen-"Charlie McCarthy"-Andrea Leeds-Adolphe Menjou	Aug. 5,'38	103	Aug. 6,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 10,'38, pp. 103, 105; Nov. 5,'38, p. 50.)
Little Tough Guys (A) 2008	"Dead End" Kids-R. Wilcox-Helen Parrish	July 22,'38	67	July 10,'37
(Exploitation: Nov. 12,'38, p. 66.)
Little Tough Guys in Society (G) 3011	Mary Boland-Edw. E. Horton-Mischa Auer-Helen Parrish	Nov. 25,'38†	73	Nov. 26,'38
Mars Attacks the World (G) 3042	Larry Crabbe-Jean Rogers	Nov. 18,'38†	68	Nov. 19,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 10,'38, p. 62.)
Missing Guest, The (G) 2031	P. Kelly-C. Moore-W. Lundigan	Aug. 12,'38	68	Aug. 20,'38
Newsboys Home 3015	Jackie Cooper - Wendy Barrie - Edmund Lowe - "Little Tough Guys"	Dec. 23,'38†	73
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 17,'38.)
Personal Secretary 3034	W. Gargan-J. Hodges-A. Devine	Sept. 9,'38†	62
Phantom Stage, The 3056	Bob Baker-Marjorie Reynolds	Feb. 10,'39†	57
Pirates of the Skies 3033	Kent Taylor-Rochelle Hudson	Feb. 3,'39†	61
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 3,'38.)
Prairie Justice 3053	Bob Baker-Dorothy Southworth	Nov. 4,'38†	57
Prison Break (G) 2028	Barton MacLane-Glenda Farrell-Constance Moore-Robt. Wilcox	July 15,'38	72	July 23,'38
Rage of Paris, The (G) 2005	D. Darrieux-D. Fairbanks, Jr.-Mischa Auer-H. Broderick	July 1,'38	78	June 18,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 17,'38, p. 64.)
Road to Reno (G) 3017	Hope Hampton - R. Scott - Helen Broderick - Glenda Farrell - Alan Marshall	Sept. 23,'38†	69	Sept. 3,'38
Secrets of a Nurse (G) 3022	E. Lowe-D. Foran-H. Mack	Dec. 9,'38†	75	Nov. 19,'38
Service De Luxe (G) 3013	C. Bennett-V. Price-C. Ruggles-M. Auer - H. Broderick - J. Hodges	Oct. 21,'38†	86	Oct. 29,'38
Son of Frankenstein, The (G) 3004	Basil Rathbone - Boris Karloff-Bela Lugosi-Josephine Hutchinson	Jan. 13,'39†	94	Jan. 21,'39
Storm, The (G) 3016	Chas. Bickord-B. MacLane-P. Foster-Tom Brown-Nan Grey	Oct. 28,'38†	78	Nov. 5,'38
Strange Faces 3035	D. Kent-F. Jenks-A. Devine	Dec. 2,'38†	65	Nov. 12,'38
Swing, Sister, Swing (G) 3021	Ken Murray - Ernest Truex - Kathryn Kane-Johnny Downs	Dec. 16,'38†	67	Dec. 17,'38
Swing That Cheer (G) 3026	T. Brown-A. Devine-C. Moore	Oct. 14,'38†	63	Nov. 19,'38
That Certain Age (G) 2007	Deanna Durbin-Jackie Cooper-Melvyn Douglas-Irene Rich-John Halliday	Oct. 7,'38	101	Oct. 8,'38
(Exploitation: Nov. 19,'38, p. 94; Dec. 17,'38, p. 74.)
You Can't Cheat an Honest Man	W. C. Fields-Edgar Bergen-"Charlie McCarthy" - Frank Jenks	Feb. 17,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Feb. 11,'39.)
Youth Takes a Fling (G) 3012	Joel McCrea - Andrea Leeds - Dorothea Kent-Frank Jenks	Sept. 30,'38†	79	Oct. 1,'38

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Code of the Streets (G)	Frankie Thomas-Harry Carey-"Little Tough Guys"	May 26,'39†	*71	Feb. 4,'39
East Side of Heaven	B. Crosley-J. Blondell-M. Auer	Apr. 7,'39†
Murder in the Surgery	B. Cabot-H. Mack-C. Worth
Risky Business	George Murphy-Dorothea Kent
Society Smugglers	Preston Foster-Irene Hervey	Feb. 24,'39†
Spirit of Culver	Jackie Cooper-F. Bartholomew-A. Devine-H. Hull-J. Moran
(See "In the Cutting Room," Feb. 11,'39.)
Three Smart Girls Grow Up	D. Durbin-N. Grey-H. Parrish-C. Winninger-R. Cummings-William Lundigan	Mar. 10,'39†

WARNER BROTHERS-FIRST NATIONAL

First National Pictures

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Amazing Dr. Clitterhouse, The (A) 262	Edw. G. Robinson - C. Trevor - Humphrey Bogart-A. Jenkins	July 30,'38	87	June 25,'38
(Exploitation: July 30,'38, p. 80; Oct. 1,'38, p. 57; Oct. 15,'38, p. 51; Nov. 5,'38, p. 54; Dec. 24,'38, p. 58.)
Angels with Dirty Faces (A) 351	James Cagney - Pat O'Brien - Ann Sheridan-"Crime School Kids"-Humphrey Bogart	Nov. 26,'38†	97	Oct. 29,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 24,'38, p. 56; Jan. 7,'39, p. 52; Feb. 4,'39, p. 82.)
Broadway Musketeers (G) 368	Margt. Lindsay - M. Wilson - A. Sheridan - John Litel - Janet Chapman	Oct. 8,'38†	62	Sept. 3,'38
Brother Rat (G) 355	W. Morris-P. Lane-J. Bryan	Oct. 29,'38†	89	Oct. 15,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 14,'39, pp. 64, 65, 66; Jan. 28,'39, p. 60.)
Comet Over Broadway (G) 370	Kay Francis-Ian Hunter	Dec. 3,'38	69	Dec. 17,'38
Four Daughters (G) 352	Lane Sisters - Jeffrey Lynn - G. Page-C. Rains-J. Garfield	Sept. 24,'38†	90	Aug. 13,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 24,'38, p. 64; Oct. 15,'38, p. 54; Nov. 12,'38, p. 64; Nov. 26,'38, 46; Dec. 10,'38, p. 64; Dec. 17,'38, p. 76; Jan. 7,'39, p. 54; Jan. 21,'39; p. 53.)
Garden of the Moon (G) 358	Pat. O'Brien-Margaret Lindsay-John Payne-Johnnie Davis	Oct. 1,'38	94	July 30,'38
(Exploitation: Nov. 12,'38, p. 67.)
Girls On Probation (G) 369	Ronald Reagan-Jane Bryan	Oct. 22,'38†	63	Oct. 29,'38
Going Places (G) 359	D. Powell-A. Louise-A. Jenkins	Dec. 31,'38†	84	Dec. 24,'38
My Bill (G) 260	Kay Francis-John Litel-Anita Louise-Bonita Granville	July 9,'38	60	June 18,'38
Penrod's Double Trouble (G) 276	Billy and Bobby Mauch	July 23,'38	60	Apr. 2,'38
Secrets of an Actress (G) 365	Kay Francis-George Brent	Sept. 10,'38†	70	Oct. 18,'38

Coming Attractions

(See "Crime Is a Racket," Oct. 22,'38.)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Secret Service of the Air	R. Reagan-I. Rhodes-J. Litel
Student Nurse	Marie Wilson-Marg't Lindsay-Rosella Towne
You Can't Get Away with Murder (G)	Humphrey Bogart-Gale Page		*80	Jan. 21,'39

Warner Brothers

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Boy Meets Girl (A) 213	James Cagney - Pat O'Brien - Marie Wilson	Aug. 27,'38	86	July 23,'38
(Exploitation: July 9,'38, p. 46; Sept. 10,'38, p. 102; Nov. 5,'38, p. 52.)
Cowboy from Brooklyn (G) 217	Pat O'Brien - Dick Powell - Priscilla Lane-Dick Foran	July 16,'38	77	June 11,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 3,'83, p. 58; Sept. 17,'38, pp. 60, 63.)
Dawn Patrol (G)	Errol Flynn - David Niven - Donald Crisp-Basil Rathbone	Dec. 24,'38†	103	Dec. 17,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 31,'38, p. 66; JJan. 14,'39, p. 64; Feb. 11,'39, p. 58.)
Devil's Island (G)	Boris Karloff-Nedda Harrigan	Jan. 7,'39†	62	Jan. 7,'39
(Exploitation: Feb. 11,'39, p. 59.)
Four's a Crowd (G) 306	E. Flynn - O. de Havilland - R. Russell-P. Knowles	Sept. 3,'38	91	July 16,'38
Hard to Get (G) 310	Dick Powell-O. de Havilland-C. Winninger-Allen Jenkins	Nov. 5,'38†	79	Nov. 12,'38
Heart of the North (G) 362	D. Foran-Gale Page—G. Dickson-J. Chapman-A. Jenkins	Dec. 10,'38†	85	Dec. 17,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 21,'39, p. 53; Feb. 4,'39, pp. 83, 84.)
King of the Underworld (A) 317	Kay Francis-Humphrey Bogart	Jan. 14,'39†	69	Jan. 14,'39
	son-J. Chapman-A. Jenkins	Dec. 10,'38†	85	Dec. 17,'38
Little Miss Thoroughbred (G) 219	Ann Sheridan - John Litel - F. McHugh-Janet Chapman	June 4,'38	63	May 7,'38
Men Are Such Fools (G) 215	Wayne Morris-Priscilla Lane-Humphrey Bogart-H. Herbert	July 16,'38	69	Apr. 23,'38

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Mr. Chump 227	Johnnie Davis-Lola Lane	Aug. 6,'38	60
(See "In the Cutting Room," Apr. 9,'38.)
Nancy Drew, Detective 319	Bonita Granville-John Litel	Nov. 19,'38†	65
(See "In the Cutting Room," Oct. 22,'38.)
Nancy Drew, Reporter (G)	Bonita Granville-John Litel	Feb. 18,'39†	68	Feb. 4,'39
Off the Record (G) 314	Pat O'Brien-Joan Blondell	Jan. 21,'39†	71	Jan. 28,'39
Racket Busters (G) 205	George Brent - Gloria Dickson - H. Bogart-Walter Abel	July 16,'38	71	Aug. 20,'38
Sisters, The (A) 302	B. Davis-E. Flynn-A. Louise-J. Bryan-D. Foran-I. Hunter	Oct. 15,'38†	99	Oct. 8,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 8,'38, p. 62; Oct. 22,'38, p. 66.)
They Made Me a Criminal (G) 307	John Garfield-Ann Sheridan.... "Crime School Kids"-C. Rains	Jan. 28,'39†	92	Jan. 7,'39
Torchy Blane in Chinatown (G)	Glenda Farrell-Barton MacLane	Feb. 4,'39†	58	Feb. 11,'39
Torchy Gets Her Man (G)	Glenda Farrell-Barton MacLane	Nov. 12,'38†	62	Oct. 15,'38
Valley of the Giants (G) 305	Wayne Morris - Claire Trevor - John Litel-Chas. Bickford	Sept. 17,'38†	79	Sept. 17,'38
White Banners (A) 208	Claude Rains - Fay Bainter - Jackie Cooper-B. Granville	June 25,'38	92	May 28,'38
(Exploitation: July 16,'38, p. 86; Sept. 10,'38, p. 103; Oct. 15,'38, p. 54; Nov. 5,'38, p. 52; Dec. 3,'38, p. 50.)
Wings of the Navy (G)	George Brent-O. de Havilland-John Payne-F. McHugh	Feb. 11,'39†	*90	Jan. 21,'39
(Exploitation: Jan. 14,'39, p. 64; Feb. 4,'39, p. 85; Feb. 11,'39, p. 61.)

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Adventures of Jane Arden, The (G)	Rosella Towne-William Gargan	Mar. 4,'39		Feb. 11,'39
American Family*	Lane Sisters-John Garfield
Battle of City Hall
Blackwell's Island	J. Garfield-R. Lane-D. Purcell
(See "In the Cutting Room," Aug. 13,'38.)
Brother Orchid	Edw. G. Robinson-Wayne Morris-Gale Page
Confessions of a Nazi Spy	Edw. G. Robinson - Francis Lederer
Dark Victory	Bette Davis - George Brent - Geraldine Fitzgerald - Ronald Reagan-Humphrey Bogart	Apr. 8,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 12,'38.)
Dodge City	Errol Flynn-Olivia de Havilland Ann Sheridan - Bruce Cabot - A. Hale-F. McHugh-V. Jory
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
Each Dawn I Die	James Cagney - Jane Bryan - George Raft-George Bancroft
Hell's Kitchen	Marg't Lindsay-Ronald Reagoan-"Crime School Kids"
Hero for a Day	Jane Bryan-Henry O'Neil
Juarez	Paul Muni - Bette Davis - B. Aherne-C. Rains-J. Garfield
(See "In the Cutting Room," Feb. 4,'39.)
Kid from Kokomo, The	Wayne Morris - Pat O'Brien - Joan Blondell-May Robson
Knight and the Lady, The	Bette Davis-Errol Flynn
Nancy Drew, Trouble Shooter*	B. Granville-F. Thomas-J. Litel
Naughty But Nice	Dick Powell-Gale Page-Ronald Reagan-Ann Sheridan
(See "The Professor Steps Out," "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 7,'39.)
Oklahoma Kid	J. Cagney-H. Bogart-R. Lane
(See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 12,'38.)
Old Maide, The*	Bette Davis-Miriam Hopkins
On Trial	John Litel-Margaret Lindsay
(See "In the Cutting Room," Feb. 4,'39.)
Roaring Road, The	Pat O'Brien - John Payne - Ann Sheridan-Gale Page
Smashing the Money Ring	R. Reagan-R. Towne-J. Litel
Sweepstakes Winner	M. Wilson-J. Davis-A. Jenkins
Torchy Blane Runs for Mayor	Glenda Farrell-Barton MacLane
We Are Not Alone	Miriam Hopkins
Women in the Wind (G)	K. Francis-W. Gargan-V. Jory	Apr. 15,'39†	*65	Feb. 4,'39
Yes, My Darling Daughter (A)	Jeffrey Lynn - P. Lane - Fay Bainter-M. Robson-R. Young	Feb. 25,'39†	*82	Feb. 11,'39
(Exploitation: Jan. 14,'39, p. 64.)

STATE RIGHTS

Title	Star	Producer	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Bronze Buckaroo, The	Negro Cast	Sack	Jan. 1,'39
Code of the Fearless (G)	Fred Scott	Spectrum	Jan. 5,'39	56	Jan. 21,'39
Convicts at Large	Ralph Forbes	Record	Dec. 15,'38
Crashing Through Danger	Ray Walker	Excelsior	Sept. 15,'38	60
Delinquent Parents	Doris Weston	Progressive	July 15,'38
Duke is Tops, The	Negro Cast	Popkin	Sept. 1,'38
Feud on the Range	Bob Steele	Webb	Jan. 15,'39
Gang, The	Gina Malo	Record	Dec. 1,'38	55
Gang Smashers	Negro Cast	Popkin	Jan. 1,'39
Gone Harlem	Negro Cast	Sack	Aug. 15,'38
Harlem Rides the Range	Negro Cast	Sack	Feb. 1,'39
Hell Bound (A) (reissue)	Leo Carrillo	Sack	Nov. 15,'38		Feb. 7,'31
I Demand Payment	Jack La Rue	Imperial	Nov. 15,'38	59
In Old Montana	Fred Scott	Spectrum	Feb. 5,'39
Lightning Carson Rides Again	Tim McCoy	Victory	Oct. 10,'38	59
Meet the Mayor	Frank Fay	Judel	Sept. 15,'38	60
Paroled from the Big House	Jean Carmen	J. D. Kay Prods.	Aug. 15,'38	57
Policy Man	Negro Cast	Sack	July 1,'38	61
Port of Hate	Stock Cast	Webb	Jan. 15,'39
Rebellious Daughters	Verna Hillie	Progressive	July 1,'38
Rough Riding Rhythm	Kermit Maynard	Ambassador	June 15,'38	57
Scandal House	Adrienne Ames	Progressive	July 1,'38
Sin of Lena Rivers, The (A) (reissue)	Charlotte Henry	Sack	Dec. 1,'38	67	May 28,'32
(Reviewed under the title, "Lena Rivers.")
Six-Gun Trail	Tim McCoy	Victory	Nov. 25,'38†	59
Slums of New York (reissue)	Mickey Rooney	Freuler	July 15,'38	61

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Producer	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Code of the Cactus	Tim McCoy	Victory	Feb. 25,'39
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 14,'39.)
Headleys at Home, The	Evelyn Venable	Standard		59	Nov. 12,'38
Outlaws of Paradise	Tim McCoy	Victory
Prison Train (A)	Fred Keating	Equity		64	Oct. 22,'38
Religious Racketeer (G)	Robert Fiske	Fanchon Royer		9 rls.	Apr. 23,'38
Texas Wildcats	Tim McCoy	Victory	Apr. 10,'39
Topa Topa (G)	Helen Hughes	Pennant		*65	Apr. 16,'38
Two Gun Troubador	Fred Scott	Spectrum	Mar. 5,'39

OTHER PRODUCT (FOREIGN)

Title	Star	Dist'r	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Abused Confidence (A)	Danielle Darrieux	Columbia	Nov. 30,'38	87	Dec. 10,'38
Adventure of Giacomo Casanova (G)	Nerio Bernardi	Amerital	Dec. 1,'38	70	Dec. 10,'38
Alf's Button Afloat (G)	Bud Flanagan	General Film		89	July 23,'38
Annie Laurie	Will Fyffe	World	April 15,'39
Avocate d'Amour (G)	Danielle Darrieux	Regal	Sept. 7,'38	88	Sept. 24,'38
Ballerina (G)	Janine Charrat	Mayer-Burstyn	Dec. 3,'38	80	Dec. 3,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 28,'39, p. 60.)
Big Fella (G)	Paul Robeson	Brecher		73	July 10,'37
Cabiria		Brodie	Feb. 3,'39	85
Captain Scorpiob	Ecunomou	Brodie	Apr. '39	85
Carnival in Flanders (A)	Francoise Rosay	Tri Nat'l Films	Sept. 22,'36	93	Oct. 8,'36
(Reviewed under the title, "La Kermesse Heroique.")
College Girl (G)	Ellen Schwanneke	Henka Film	Sept. 9,'38	90	Sept. 24,'38
Crossroads (A)	Charles Vanel	Tri-National		80	Dec. 31,'38
Dark Sands (G)	Paul Robeson	Record	Aug. 1,'38	75	July 30,'38
Edge of the World, The (A)	Finlay Currie	Pax		75	Aug. 14,'37
Flight Into Darkness (A)	Annabella	Frank Kassler	Oct. 15,'38	81	Nov. 5,'38
Foggy Quay, The (A)	Jean Gabin	Films Victoria		90	Sept. 8,'38
40 Little Mothers (A)	Lucien Baroux	National	Dec. 23,'38	94	Dec. 31,'38
Gaunt Stranger, The (A)	Wilfred Lawson	A. B. F. D.		72	Nov. 19,'38
Girl Refugee, The	Sophia Vebo	Brodie	Sept. 25,'38	110
Glory of the Faith, The (G)	Gabriel Farguette	French	Nov. 24,'38	75	Dec. 3,'38
Grand Illusion (A)	Jean Gabin	World		96	July 3,'37
(Reviewed under the title, "La Grande Illusion"; exploitation: Dec. 17,'38, p. 73; Jan. 28,'39, p. 59.)
Hatred	Harry Baur	World	Feb. 15,'39
Heart of Paris (A)	Raimu	Tri-National	Jan. 12,'39	85	Jan. 14,'39
Hey! Hey! U. S. A. (G)	Will Hay	G.F.D.		92	Oct. 22,'38
Irish and Proud of It (G)	Richard Hayward	Guaranteed	Oct. 29,'38	73	Nov. 19,'38
Ihr Leibhauser (G)	Magda Schneider	Casino		80	Nov. 12,'38
Itto	Native Cast	World	Feb. 30,'39
It's in the Air (G)	George Formby	A. B. F. D.		87	Oct. 8,'38
I've Got a Horse (G)	Sandy Powell	British Lion		76	Sept. 3,'38
Kreutzer Sonata (A)	Gaby Morley	Foreign Cinema Arts	Feb. 1,'39	87	Jan. 7,'39
La Vierge Folle (A)	Juliette Faber	Walch	Dec. 28,'38	80	Jan. 21,'39
Liebe im ⅜ Takt (G)	Leo Slezak	Casino	Sept. 23,'38	96	Oct. 8,'38
Little Flower of Jesus (G)	Simone Bourday	Sunray	Oct. 21,'38	75	Apr. 30,'38
Mamele	Molly Picon	Sphinx	Jan. '39	102
Marseillaise	Pierre Renoir	World	Mar. 30,'39
Marusia (G)	S. Melnyk	Ukrafilm	Dec. 8,'38	105	Dec. 31,'38
Mis Dos Amores (G)	Tito Guizar	Paramount		80	Aug. 20,'38
My Song of Love	Tito Schipa	World
Night on the Danube, A (G)	Leo Slezak	Casino		*85	Dec. 3,'38
Ninety Degrees South	Scott Expedition	World	July 1,'39
Old Bones of the River (G)	Will Hay	G.F.D.		90	Jan. 21,'39
Orage (A)	Charles Boyer	Tri Nat'l Films	Dec. 10,'38	105	Feb. 12,'38
Peg of Old Drury (A)	Anna Neagle - Sir Cedric Hardwicke	Tri Nat'l Films		75	Sept. 28,'35
Penny Paradise (G)	Edmund Gwen	A.T.P.		72	Sept. 24,'38
Radio Troubadour, The (G)	Tito Guizar	Paramount		*60	Dec. 3,'38
Return of the Frog (A)	Gordon Harker	British Lion		*75	Dec. 31,'38
Rose of Tralee (G)	Baby Binkie Stuart	Dublin Films	Oct. 15,'38	71	Nov. 12,'38
Rothschild	Harry Baur	Regal	Oct. 11,'38	78	Oct. 22,'38
Royal Divorce, A (A)	Ruth Chatterton	Paramount		85	Oct. 15,'38
Sacrifice d'Honneur (A)	Annabella	Tri-Nat'l.	Nov. 30,'38	75	Dec. 10,'38
St. Martin's Lane (G)	Chas. Laughton	Assoc. British		85	July 9,'38
Singing Blacksmith (A)	Moishe Oysher	New Star	Nov. 1,'38	100	Nov. 17,'38
Slalom (G)	Hella Hartwich	World	Mar. 1,'39	66	Jan. 23,'37
So This Is London* (A)	Alfred Drayton	20th Cent-Fox		85	Feb. 4,'39
Story of a Cheat, The (A)	Sascha Guitry	Gallic Films	Sept. 26,'38	83	Oct. 15,'38
Street Without a Name	Pola Illery	World	Mar. 15,'39
They Drive by Night (A)	Emlyn Williams	First National		84	Jan. 28,'39
This Man is News (A)	Barry Barnes	Paramount		77	Oct. 1,'38
T-Kies Koff	Jewish Film	Foreign Cinema Arts	May 15,'38	102
Ware Case, The (A)	Clive Brook	A.B.F.D.		78	Dec. 31,'38
Wedad (A)	Egyptian Cast	Egyptian Film Co.		110	Nov. 26,'38
When the Husband Travels	M. Phillipides	Brodie	Mar. '39	95
Witch Night	Gosta Ekman	World
Yes, Madam? (G)	Bobby Howes	Assoc. British		79	Dec. 31,'38

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

SHORT FILMS

[Numbers immediately following title designate date reviewed; for example, (8-6-38) August 6, 1938. Numerals following review dates are production numbers.]

COLUMBIA

BROADWAY COMEDIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Boom Goes the Groom 9431	Mar. 24,'39†	2 rls.
Ducking They Did Go, A 9406	Apr. 7,'39†	2 rls.
Flat Foot Stooges (2-4-39) 8403 (3 Stooges)	Dec. 5,'38†	15½
Halfway to Hollywood 8436 Johnny Arthur-Tom Kennedy	July 1,'38	17½
Home on the Rage (12-17-38) 9426 Andy Clyde	Dec. 9,'38†	17
Many Sappy Returns 9421 Charley Chase	Aug. 19,'38†	18
Mutiny on the Body 9429 Smith & Dale	Feb. 10,'39†	17½
Mutts to You (1-14-39) 9402 (3 Stooges)	Oct. 14,'38†	18
Nag in the Bag (12-24-38) 9425 Smith & Dale	Nov. 11,'38†	17
Nightshirt Bandit (10-28-38) 8424 Charlie Chase	Oct. 28,'38†	17
Not Guilty Enough (10-29-38) 9423 Andy Clyde	Sept. 30,'38†	20
Pie a la Maid 9427 Charley Chase	Dec. 23,'38†	18
Sap Takes a Wrap, The 9430	Mar. 10,'39†	15½
Star Is Shown, A 9432	Apr. 21,'39†	2 rls.
Sue My Lawyer (10-15-38) 9422 Harry Langdon	Sept. 16,'38†	17
Swing, You Swingers 9428 Andy Clyde	Jan. 29,'39†	19½
Three Little Sew and Sews 9404 (3 Stooges)	Jan. 6,'39†	16
Three Missing Links (6-25-38) 8408 (3 Stooges)	July 29,'38	17½
Violent is the Word for Curly (9-10-38) 9401 (3 Stooges)	Sept. 2,'38†	18
We Want Our Mummy 9405	Feb. 24,'39†	2 rls.
Yes, We Have No. Bananza 9407 (3 Stooges)	May 19,'39†	2 rls.

COLOR RHAPSODIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Animal Cracker Circus (10-8-38) 9502	Sept. 23,'38†	7
Frog Pond, The (10-15-38) 8512	Aug. 12,'38	6½
Gorilla Hunt, The 9507	Feb. 24,'39†	1 rl.
Happy Tots 9508	Mar. 31,'39†	1 rl.
Hollywood Graduation (9-10-38) 9501	Aug. 26,'38†	7
Horse on the Merry-Go Round, The (3-26-38) 8505	Sept. 17,'38†	8
Kangaroo Kid 9505	Dec. 23,'38†	7½
Little Match Girl (re-issue) (11-27-37) 8502	Dec. 16,'38	8½
Little Moth's Big Flame (12-31-38) 9503	Nov. 3,'38†	8
Midnight Frolics	Nov. 24,'38†	7
Peaceful Neighbors 9506	Jan. 26,'39†	8
Poor Little Butterfly (7-23-38) 8510	July 4,'38	7½
Poor Elmer 8511	July 22,'38	7½

COLUMBIA TOURS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Bermuda—Isle of Paradise 9551	Nov. 4,'38†	10½
Big Town Commuters (New York) 9553	Feb. 3,'39†	9
Provincial Quebec (12-31-38) 9552	Dec. 15,'38†	11

COMMUNITY SING

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 10 (6-18-38) 8660 (Patriotic Songs)	July 4,'38	10
No. 11 (10-15-38) 8661 (Songs of Yesteryear)	Aug. 26,'38	10
No. 12 8862 (Scotch Songs)	Sept. 15,'38	10
(New Series)
No. 1 (10-15-38) (College Songs) 9651	Oct. 1,'38	10
No. 2 (South Seas) (11-12-38) 9652	Nov. 4,'38†	10
No. 3 9653 (Seasons Idea)	Dec. 2,'38†	11
No. 4 9654 (Girls' Names)	Dec. 30,'38†	10½
No. 5 (9655 (Friendship Songs)	Jan. 27,'39†	10
No. 6 9656 (Moon Songs)	Feb. 24,'39†	10½
No. 7 9657	Mar. 24,'39†	1 rl.
No. 8 9658	Apr. 21,'39†	1 rl.

KRAZY KAT CARTOONS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
25. Krazy's Travel Squawks (6-25-38) 8706	July 4,'38	6½
26. Gym Jams (10-8-38) 9701	Sept. 9,'38†	6½
27. Hot Dogs On Ice 9702	Oct. 21,'38†	6
28. Lone Mounties, The 9703	Dec. 10,'38†	7
29. Krazy's Bear Tale 9704	Feb. 17,'39†	1 rl.
30 Golf Chumps 9705	Apr. 6,'39†	1 rl.

MUSIC HALL VANITIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Night in a Music Hall, A 9961	Jan. 20,'39†	10½
Night at the Troc 9962	Mar. 2,'39†

PICTUREGRAPH

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 1 9951	Feb. 10,'39†

SCRAPPY CARTOONS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
City Slicker (7-23-38) 8758	July 8,'38	6
Early Bird (10-1-38) 9751	Sept. 16,'38†	5
Happy Birthday 9752	Oct. 7,'38†	6
Scrappy's Added Attraction 9753	Jan. 13,'39†	6½
Scrappy's Sideshow 9754	Mar. 3,'39†	1 rl.

SCREEN SNAPSHOTS

(New Series)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 1 9851	Sept. 16,'38†	10
No. 2 9852	Oct. 14,'38†	10
No. 3 9853	Nov. 20,'38†	10
No. 4 (2-4-39)	Dec. 15,'38	10
No. 5 9855	Jan. 10,'39†	9
No. 6 9856	Feb. 17,'39†	10½
No. 7 9857	Mar. 17,'39†	1 rl.

SPECIAL SPORT THRILLS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Athletic Youth 8811	July 29,'38	1 rl.
Demons of the Deep (9-24-38) 8812	Aug. 19,'38	9
Fistic Fun (7-30-38) 8810	July 1,'38	9½
Football Giants (10-8-38) 9801	Sept. 28,'38†	10
Get Ready Navy 9804	Feb. 24,'39†	1 rl.
King Vulture (1-21-38) 9803	Jan. 6,'39†	10½
Navy Champions 9805	Mar. 17,'39†	1 rl.
Odd Sports 9804	Feb. 10,'39†	1 rl.
Ski Rhythm (12-24-38) 9802	Nov. 4,'38†	10

WASHINGTON PARADE

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 1 (1-7-39) 9901 (Harry Newman)	Nov. 18,'38†	10
No. 2 9902 (Inside the White House)	Feb. 21,'39†	11
No. 3 9903	Apr. 4,'39†	1 rl.

EDUCATIONAL

[Distributed through Grand National]

SONG AND COMEDY HITS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Cavalcade of Stuff, No. 1 El-1	Jan. 6,'39†	9
Cavalcade of Stuff, No. 2 El-2	Jan. 20,'39†	9

TREASURE CHEST

(Color Cartoons)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Baby Checkers El-14
Monkey Business El-15

[Distributed through Twentieth Century-Fox]

TERRY-TOONS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Eliza Runs Again 8526	July 29,'38	6½
Milk for Baby 8524	July 8,'38	6½
Mrs. O'Leary's Cow 8525	July 22,'38	6½

TREASURE CHEST

(color cartoons)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
We Live In Two Worlds (8-20-38) 8609	July 22,'38	11

MGM

CAPTAIN AND THE KIDS

(In Sepia)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Buried Treasure W-689	Sept. 17,'38	8
Captain's Christmas, The (12-24-38) W-692	Dec. 17,'38†	8
Honduras Hurricane (12-3-38) W-691	Oct. 15,'38†	9
Old Smokey W-688	Sept. 3,'38	7
Petunia Natural Park W-693 (color)	Jan. 14,'39	9
Pygmy Hunt, The W-687	Aug. 6,'38	8
What a Lion! W-686	July 16,'38	9
Winning Ticket, The W-690	Oct. 1,'38	9

CARTOONS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Mama's New Hat W-882	Feb. 11,'39†	9
Seal Siknners W-881 (sepia)	Jan. 28,'39†	8

CRIME DOESN'T PAY

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 18—They're Always Caught (10-8-38) P-615	Sept. 3,'38	22
No. 19—Think It Over (11-19-38) P-616	Sept. 24,'38	20
No. 20—The Wrong Way Out (1-21-39) P-811	Dec. 24,'38†	17

FITZPATRICK TRAVEL TALKS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Ancient Egypt T-856	Jan. 21,'39†	9
Cairo, City of Contrast (10-22-38) T-851	Sept. 10,'38†	9
Imperial Delphi T-857	Feb. 18,'39†	8
Jaipur, The Pink City (12-31-38) T-853	Oct. 29,'38†	8
Java Journey T-858	Mar. 18,'39†	1 rl.
Madeira—Isle of Romance (12-3-38) T-851	Oct. 1,'38†	8
Paris On Parade (8-20-38) T-662	July 9,'38	9
Singapore and Jahore T-855 (2-4-39)	Aug. 31,'38†	9
Sydney, Pride of Australia T-854 (2-4-39)	Dec. 3,'38†	9

HISTORICAL MYSTERIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Bravest of the Brave, The (8-27-38) H-728	Aug. 6,'38	11
Man on the Rock, The (10-8-38) H-729	Sept. 3,'38	11
Nostradamus (10-22-38) H-730	Sept. 24,'38	11
Strange Glory (8-6-38) H-727 Frank McGlynn	July 2,'38	11

MGM MINIATURES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
City of Little Men, The (11-12-38) M-871	Aug. 20,'38†	11
Great Heart, The (2-4-39) M-875	Dec. 31,'38†	11
Ice Antics M-876	Feb. 11,'39†	9
Streamline Swing (11-12-38) M-872 (In sepia)	Sept. 10,'38†	9
Miracle of Salt Lake (12-31-38) M-874	Nov. 12,'38†	11
They Live Again M-873 Shephard-Struwick-Mary Howard	Oct. 22,'38†	10
Tracking the Sleeping Death (8-27-38) M-680 Gilbert Emery-Doris Lloy	July 9,'38	10

MUSICAL COMEDIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Dream of Love, A R-803	Jan. 28,'39†	17
It's In the Stars (8-27-38) R-606 Eleanor Lynn-Johnny Downes	July 30,'38	10
Magician's Daughter, The (8-20-38) R-605 Eleanor Lynn-Frank Albertson	July 16,'38	18
Men of Steel (1-28-39) R-801 Doris Weston	Dec. 17,'38†	21
Once Over Lightly (2-4-39) R-802 Dixie Dunbar-Johnny Downs	Dec. 17,'38†	19

OUR GANG

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Aladdin's Lantern (10-15-38) C-931	Sept. 17,'38†	10
Alfalfa's Aunt (2-4-39) C-935	Jan. 7,'39†	11
Football Romeo (1-21-38) C-933	Nov. 12,'38†	10
Little Ranger, The (8-27-38) C-741	Aug. 6,'38	11
Men in Fright (11-19-38) C-392	Oct. 15,'38†	11
Party Fever (10-15-38) C-742	Aug. 27,'38	10
Practical Jokers C-934	Dec. 17,'38†	9
Tiny Troubles C-936	Feb. 18,'39†	10

PASSING PARADE

(Sepia)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 1—K-921 (11-12-38)	Oct. 15,'38†	10
No. 2—K-922 (New Roadways)	Jan. 28,'39†	10
No. 3—K-923 (Story of Alfred Nobel)	Feb. 18,'39†	11
Raising Canines (11-5-38)	Nov. 11,'38†	10
Rube Goldberg's Travelgab (10-15-38) V8-3	Oct. 14,'38†	9
Schubert's Unfinished Symphony (11-26-38) V8-6	Jan. 13,'39†	10
Silver Millions V7-13	July 15,'38	10
Tannhauser (6-4-38) V8-1	Aug. 12,'38†	16
That's Africa V8-7	Feb. 10,'39†	1 rl.

PETE SMITH SPECIALTIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Anaesthesia (8-6-38) S-711	July 9,'38	10
Double Diving (1-28-39) S-904 (sepia)	Jan. 14,'39†	8
Follow the Arrow (8-20-38) S-712	July 30,'38	10
Football Thrills of 1937 (10-1-38) S-714	Sept. 10,'38	10
Fistcuffs (10-1-38)	Aug. 27,'38	10
Grid Rules (11-19-38) S-715	Oct. 15,'38	9
Heroes at Leisure S-905	Feb. 11,'39†	10
Hot on Ice (12-1-38) S-901	Oct. 22,'38†	10
Man's Greatest Friend (12-31-38) S-902	Nov. 19,'38†	10
Penny's Picnic (1-14-39) S-903 (color)	Dec. 17,'38†	10

ROBERT BENCHLEY

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Courtship of a Newt, The (8-27-38) F-757	July 23,'38	8
Hour for Luch, An F-955
How to Raise a Baby (8-20-38) F-756	July 2,'38	9
How to Read (10-15-38) F-758	Aug. 27,'38	9
How to Sublet (2-4-39) F-954		8
How to Watch Football (11-19-38) F-951	Oct. 8,'38†	9
Mental Poise (2-4-39) F-953	Dec. 10,'38†	7
Opening Day (12-10-38) F-952	Nov. 12,'38†	9

PARAMOUNT

BETTY BOOP CARTOONS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Buzzy Boop T7-12	July 22,'38	1 rl.
Buzzy Boop at the Concert (10-8-38) T8-2	Sept. 16,'38†	7
My Friend the Monkey T8-6	Jan. 27,'39†	1 rl.
On With the New (12-17-38) T8-3	Dec. 2,'38†	7
Pudgy in Thrills and Chills (2-4-39) T8-5	Dec. 23,'38†	7
Pudgy the Watchman (G) (8-20-38) T8-1	Aug. 12,'38†	1 rl.
Sally Swing (10-22-38)	Oct. 14,'38†	7
So Does an Antomobile T8-7	Feb. 17,'39†	1 rl.

COLOR CLASSICS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
All's Fair at the Fair (9-3-38) C8-1	Aug. 26,'38	7
Always Kickin' C8-3	Jan. 27,'39†	1 rl.
Playful Polar Bears (11-12-38) C8-2	Oct. 28,'38†	8
Small Fry C8-4	Mar. 17,'39†	1 rl.

COLOR CRUISES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Costa Rica (12-10-38) K8-3	Dec. 2,'38†	10
Guatemala (8-27-38) K8-1	Aug. 12,'38†	10
Land of Inca Memories (2-4-39) K8-4	Jan. 27,'39†	10
Mexico (10-15-38) K8-2	Oct. 7,'38†	10
Republic of Panama K8-5	Mar. 24,'39†	1 rl.

HEADLINERS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Busse Rhythm (10-22-38) A8-3 Henry Busse and Orch.	Oct. 7,'38†	10
Champagne Music of Lawrence Welk A8-8	Mar. 3,'39†	1 rl.
Hal Kemp and His Orch. A8-5	Dec. 2,'38†	1 rl.
Lights! Action! Lucas!

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title Rel. Date Min.

(9-10-38) A8-2 ....Sept. 2,'38†10....
Clyde Lucas and Orch.
Moments of Charm (8-13-38) (A8-I ....Aug. 5,'38†10....
P. Spitalny & Girl Orch.
Music Through the Years A8-7 ....Feb. 3,'39†.I rl..
Orrin Tucker and Orch. A8-4 ....Nov. 4,'38†.I rl..
Song Is Born, A (12-24-38) A8-6 ....Jan. 6,'39†10....
Larry Clinton and Orch.
Queens of the Air (7-23-38) A7-14 ....July 8,'38.II....
Vincent Lopez

PARAGRAPHICS

Mildewed Melodrama (10-15-38) V8-2 ....Sept. 9,'38†II....
Oh Say, Can You Ski (2-4-39) V8-5..........Dec. 16,'38†10....

PARAMOUNT PICTORIAL

No. 12 — Gigantic Farming — Steaming Scenery — Nobody's Pal (7-9-38) P7-12 ....July 1,'38..I rl..

(New Series)

No. I—(8-20-38) P8-I.....Aug. 5,'38†10....
No. 2—(9-3-38) P8-2......Sept. 2,'38†10....
No. 3—(9-24-38) P8-3.....Oct. 7,'38†10....
No. 4—P8-4 ....Nov. 4,'38†.I rl..
No. 5—(12-3-38) P8-5.....Dec. 9,'38†.I rl..
No. 6—P8-6 ....Jan. 6,'39†.I rl..
No. 7—(2-11-39) P8-7.....Feb. 3,'39†.I rl..
No. 8—P8-8 ....Mar. 3,'39†.I rl..

POPEYE THE SAILOR

Bulldozing the Bull (8-28-38) E8-I ....Aug. 19,'38†.7....
Cops Is Always Right (1-21-39) E8-5 ....Dec. 30,'38†.7....
Customers Wanted E8-6...Jan. 27,'39†.I rl..
Date to Skate, A (12-3-38) E8-4 ....Nov. 18,'38†.7....
Goonland E8-3 ....Oct. 21,'38†.I rl..
Jeep, The E7-12..........July 15,'38..7....
Leave Well Enough Alone. Feb. 24,'39† I rl..
Mutiny Ain't Nice (10-15-38) E8-2 ....Sept. 2,'38†.7....
Wotta Nite Mare E8-8....Mar. 24,'39†.I rl..

PARAMOUNT SOUND NEWS

Two Editions Weekly

POPULAR SCIENCE

(In Color)
(New Series)

No. I (10-15-38) J8-1....Sept. 2,'38†10....
No. 2 J8-2 ....Nov. 4,'38†.I rl..
No. 3 J8-3 ....Jan. 6,'39†.I rl..
No. 4 J8-4 ....Mar. 10,'39†.I rl..

SCREEN SONGS

Beside a Moonlit Stream SC7-6 ....July 29,'38..I rl..

GRANTLAND RICE SPORTLIGHTS

No. 52—Horseshoes R7-13..July 15,'38..I rl..
No. 53—A Sporting Test (8-13-38) R8-I ....Aug. 5,'38†10....
No. 54—Hunting Thrills (8-27-38) R8-2 ....Sept. 2,'38†10....
No.55—Racing Pigeons (10-15-38) R8-3 .... Sept. 30,'38†10....
No. 56—Champion Air-hoppers (11-12-38) R8-4. Oct. 28,'38†10....
No. 57—Super Athletes (11-19-38) R8-5 ......Nov. 25,'38†.I rl..
No. 58—Frolicking Frogs R8-6 ....Dec. 23,'38†.I rl..
No. 59—Two Boys and a Dog (12-31-38) R8-7...Jan. 20,'39†10....
No. 60—Hold Your Breath R8-7 ....Feb. 17,'39†.I rl..

UNUSUAL OCCUPATIONS

(In Color)
(New Series)

No. I (8-27-38) L8-I.....Aug. 5,'38†10....
No. 2 (10-22-38) L8-2....Oct. 7,'38†II....
No. 3 (2-4-39) L8-3......Dec. 2,'38†II....
No. 4 (1-28-39) L8-4.....Feb. 3,'39†10....

RKO RADIO

Title Rel. Date Min.

LEON ERROL COMEDIES

Crime Rave 93,703........Jan. 13,'39†18....
Home Boner 93,704........Mar. 10,'39†20....
Jitters, The (6-25-38) 83,706 ....July 1,'38.19....
Major Difficulties 93,702..Nov. 18,'38†19....
Stage Fright (9-3-38) 93,701 ....Sept. 23,'38†18....

Title Rel. Date Min.

HEADLINERS

No. 3—Picketing for Love 83,603 ....June 3,'38.17....
No. I—Sea Melody (10-1-38) 93,601 ....Oct. 21,'38†19....

1938-39

No. 2—Romancing Along 93,602 ....Dec. 30,'38†21....
No. 3—Swing Vacation 93,603 ....Feb. 24,'39†19....

EDGAR KENNEDY COMEDIES

Beaux and Errors (10-8-38) 93,401 ....Oct. 7,'38†18....
Clean Sweep, A 93,402....Dec. 2,'38†17....
Fool Coverage (8-13-38) 83,406 ....July 15,'38.16....
Kennedy's Castle 83,405...May 28,'38.17....
Maid to Order 93,403.....Jan. 27,'39†18....

MARCH OF TIME

1937-38

No. II—Men of Medicine: 1938, 83,III ....June 10,'38.17....
No. 12—U. S. Coast Guard 83,112 ....July 8,'38.17....
No. 13—Man at the Wheel — Threat to Gibraltar (8-6-38) 83,113........Aug. 15,'38.19....

1938-39

No. I—Prelude to Conquest —Father Divine (9-3-38) 93,101 ....Sept. 2,'38†.2 rls.
No. 2—U. S. Fire Fighters —The British Dilemma (10-8-38) 93,102 .... Sept. 30,'38†19....
No. 3—Inside the Maginot Line (11-5-38) 93,102... Oct. 28,'38.20....
No. 4—Uncle Sam the Good Neighbor (11-26-38).... Nov. 25,'38†19....
No. 5—The Refugee—Today and Tomorrow (12-24-38) 93,105 ....Dec. 23,'38†18....
No. 6—State of the Nation (1-28-39) 93,106........Jan. 20,'39†18....
No. 7—Young America — Mexico's New Crisis 93107 ....Feb. 17,'39†.2 rls.

NU-ATLAS PRODUCTIONS

Cafe Rendezvous (12-3-38) 94,205 ....Dec. 23,'38†10....
Carnival Show 84,212.....June 24,'38.10....
Jan Peerce
Hockshop Blues (8-6-38) 84,213 ....July 15,'38.10....
Brad Reynolds & Orch.
International Rhythm (7-2-38) 84,211 ....June 3,'38.10....
Roy Smeek and His Aloha Islanders
Reading', Ritin', and Rhythm 94,207..........Feb. 17,'39†10....
Lucky Nilinder and Orch.
Styles and Smiles (10-15-38) 94,202 ...... Sept. 30,'38†II....
Virginia Verrill
Talent Auction 94,203.....Oct. 28,'38†10....
Irene Beasley
Tropical Topics 94,206.....Jan. 20,'39†10....
Rosita Ortega
Under a Gypsy Moon (9-3-38) 94,201 ....Sept. 2,'38†10....
J. Harold Murray
Venetian Moonlight 94,204. Nov. 25,'38..I rl..
Mario Cozzi

PATHE NEWS

Released twice a week

PATHE PARADE

No. 6—Count of Ten (7-16-38) 84,606 ....June 17,'38.10....
No. 7—Expose of Spiritualism — Trip Thru Walt Disney Studios (7-23-38) 84,607 ....Aug. 12,'38.10....

PATHE REVIEWS

Released once a month

PATHE TOPICS

Released seven times a year

RADIO FLASH COMEDIES

Hectic Honeymoon 93,201..Nov. 4,'37†17....
Photografter, The 83,203..June 17,'38.15....
Jack Rice
Plumb Crazy 93,202.......Feb. 3,'39†16....

RAY WHITLEY COMEDIES

Prairie Papas 93,502......Dec. 16,'38†18....
Western Welcome, A 93,501 ....Sept. 9,'38†18....

REELISMS

Dude Ranch (12-3-38) 94,603 ....Nov. 11,'38..9....

Title Rel. Date Min.

Gold 94,606 ....Feb. 10,'39†.I rl..
Newsreel (12-31-38) 94,604. Dec. 9,'38†10....
Pilot Boat 94,605.........Jan. 20,'39†.9....
Trans-America 94,602......Oct. 14,'38†II....
Submarine Circus (10-8-38) 94,601 ....Sept. 16,'38†10....

RKO PATHE SPORTSCOPE

Bird Dogs (11-19-38) 94,303 ....Nov. 4,'38.10....
Blue Grass (12-17-38)....Dec. 2,'38†10....
Bow Strings 94,306.......Jan. 27,'39†.9....
Brother Golfers (8-6-38) 84,309 ....July 15,'38.II....
Fisherman's Paradise (10-8-38) 94,301 ....Sept. 9,'38†.9....
Flying Feathers 84,308...June 24,'38..9....
On the Wing 94,305.......Dec. 30,'38†10....
Underwater (6-25-38) 84,307 ....June 3,'38..9....

SMART SET

Buckaroo Broadcast, A (6-18-38) 83,203 ....Apr. 22,'38.18....
Ray Whitley
Hunting Trouble (8-13-38) 83,303 ....Aug. 12,'38.10....
Jed Prouty

WALT DISNEY CARTOONS

Brave Little Tailor (10-1-38) 94,101 .... Sept. 23,'38†.9....
Donald's Golf Game 94,103 ....Nov. 4,'38..8....
Donald's Lucky Day (10-1-38) 94,107 ....Jan. 13,'39†.8....
Farmyard Symphony (10-1-38) 94,102 ....Oct. 14,'38..8....
Ferdinand the Bull (10-1-38) 94,104 ....Nov. 25,'38†.8....
(Exploitation: Jan. 7,'39, p. 50; Jan. 28, '39, pp. 59, 60.)
Fox Hunt, The (6-18-38) 84,116 ....July 29,'38..8....
Good Scouts (6-25-38) 84,115 ....July 8,'38..8....
Goofy and Wilbur (10-1-38) 94,112 ....Apr. 28,'39†.8....
Merbabies 94,105 ....Dec. 9,'38†.8....
Mickey's Parrot (9-10-38) 84,118 ....Sept. 9,'38..8....
Mickey's Trailer 84,112...May 6,'38..8....
Mother Goose Goes Hollywood (10-38) 94,106 ....Dec. 23,'38†.7½..
Polar Trappers 84,114.....June 17,'38..8....
Practical Pig, The (10-1-38) 94,109........Feb. 24,'39†......
Society Dog Show (11-12-38) 94,108 .....Feb. 3,'39†.8....
Ugly Duckling, The (10-1-38) 94,111 ....Apr. 7,'39†.8....
Whalers, The (8-10-38) 84,117 ....Aug. 19,'38..8....
Wynken, Blynken and Nod 84,113 ....May 27,'38..8....

20TH CENTURY-FOX

Title Rel. Date Min.

ADVENTURES OF THE NEWSREEL CAMERAMAN

Athletic Oddities 9204....Nov. 11,'38..I rl..
Daily Diet of Danger, A..Dec. 9,'38†.I rl..
Filming Big Thrills 9202..Sept. 30,'38†.I rl..
Recording Modern Science 9201 ....Aug. 19,'38†.I rl..

FASHIONS (In Color)

Fashion Forecasts (Autumn Styles) (10-15-38) 9601.Sept. 16,'38†II....
Fashion Forecasts (Winter Styles) (12-31-38) 9602 Dec. 23,'38†10....
Fashion Forecasts, No. 3 9603 ....Mar. 31,'39†.I rl..

LEW LEHR

What Every Boy Should Know 9401 ....Sept. 2,'38†.I rl..
What Every Girl Should Know (10-22-38) 9402...Nov. 25,'38†10....
What Every Inventor Should Know 9403 ....Jan. 20,'39†.I rl..

MAGIC CARPET SERIES

(Lowell Thomas)

Good Neighbors 9106......Apr. 28,'39†.I rl..
Land of Contentment 9102. Oct. 14,'38†.I rl.
Golden California 9101....Aug. 5,'38 †.I rl..
Isle of Pleasure (11-19-38) 9103 .... Feb. 3,'39†II....
Mystic Siam 9105 ....Mar. 17,'39†.I rl..
Viking Trail (12-31-38) 9104 ....Feb. 17,'39†II....

Title Rel. Date Min.

TERRY-TOONS

Chris Columbo 9501.......Aug. 12,'38†.I rl..
Frozen Feet 9509.........Feb. 24,'39†.I rl..
Gandy Goose in G Man Jitters 9510 ....Mar. 10,'39†.I rl..
Gandy the Goose in the Frame Up 9507.........Dec. 30,'38†.I rl..
Gandy Goose in Doomsday 9524 ....Dec. 16,'38†.I rl..
Glass Slipper, The (10-22-38) 9522 ....Oct. 7,'38†.7....
Goose Flies High, The 9502 ....Sept. 9,'38†.I rl..
Housewife Herman (11-19-38) 9523 ....Nov. 18,'38†.6½..
New Comer, The 9504.....Oct. 21,'38†.I rl.
Nutty Network, The 9527..Mar. 24,'39†.I rl..
(in color)
One Gun Gary in Nick of Time 9508 ....Jan. 27,'39†.I rl..
Owl and the Pussycat, The 9525 ....Jan. 13,'39†.I rl..
(in color)
Stranger Rides Again, The (12-3-38) 9505 ....Nov. 4,'38†.8....
String Bean Jack 9521....Aug. 26,'38†.I rl.
(In color)
Three Bears, The 9526....Feb. 10,'39†.I rl..
(in color)
Untitled 9507 ....Dec. 30,'38†......
Village Blacksmith 9506...Dec. 2,'38†.....
Wolf's Side of the Story 9503 ....Sept. 23,'38†.I rl..

ED THORGENSEN (Sports)

Hunting Dogs 9303.......Mar. 2,'39†.I rl..
Inside BaseBall 9304......Apr. 14,'39†.I rl..
Shooting for Par 9302.....Jan. 13,'39..I rl..
Timber Toppers (11-12-38) 9301 ....Oct. 28,'38†10....

UNITED ARTISTS

Title Rel. Date Min.

WORLD WINDOWS

(Color)

Arabian Bazaar (12-31-38).............I rl..
Eternal Fire, The (1-28-39) ....I rl..
Fox Hunting (1-21-39) ....I rl..
Jersusalem (1-14-39)...................I rl..
Petra (1-14-39) ....I rl..
Rome Symphony (12-31-38) ....I rl..
Ruins of Palymra.........................
Wanderers of the Desert (1-7-39........I rl..

UNIVERSAL

Title Rel. Date Min.

GOING PLACES WITH LOWELL THOMAS

No. 48 2379 ....Apr. 11,'38..9....
No. 49 2380 ....Apr. 25,'38..9....
No. 50 (4-30-38) 2381.....May 9,'38..9...
No. 51 (6-11-38) 2382.....June 13,'38.10....
No. 52. (6-25-38) 2383....June 27,'38..9....
No. 53 3351 ....Aug. 22,'38†.9....
No. 54 (11-19-38) 3352....Sept. 12,'38†.9½.
No. 55 (12-3-38) 3353.....Oct. 3,'38†.9....
No. 56 (11-26-38) 3354....Nov. 14,'38†10...
No. 57 3355 ....Nov. 28,'38†.I rl..
No. 58 (2-11-39) 3356....Dec. 26,'38†.I rl..
No. 59 3357 ....Jan. 30,'39†.I rl..
No. 60 3358 ....Feb. 20,'39†.I rl..

LANTZ CARTUNES

Baby Kittens (12-3-38) 3245 ....Dec. 19,'38†.I rl.
Cat and the Bell, The 3241 ....Oct. 3,'38†.7....
Disobedient Mouse (12-3-38) 3244 ....Nov. 28,'38†.8½..
I'm Just a Jitterbug (1-21-39) 3248..........Jan. 23,'39†.7....
Little Blue Blackbirds (12-10-38) 3246 ....Dec. 26,'38†.7....
Magic Beans 3249.........Feb. 13,'39†.I rl..
Rabbit Hunt (11-19-38) 3242 ....Oct. 10,'38†.7½..
Sailor Mouse, The (11-19-38) 3243 ....Nov. 7,'38†.7....
Soup to Mutts (2-4-39) 3247 ....Jan. 9,'39†.7....

MENTONE MUSICAL COMEDIES

Bank Notes 3228 ....Mar. 15,'39†19....
Beauty Shoppe (8-27-38) 3222 ....Sept. 28,'38†19½..
Imogene Coca
Down on the Barn (2-26-38) 2167 ....Feb. 23,'38.17.....
Billy Jones-Ernie Hare

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Fits and Benefits 2173	July 27,'38	19
York and King
High Jack N' the Show (5-21-38) 2170	May 18,'38	17
James Barton
Latin Hi-Hattin' (4-30-38) 2169	Apr. 27,'38	17
Dorothy Stone-Chas. Collins
Music and Flowers (5-21-38) 2171	June 15,'38	19
Block and Sully
Music and Models (12-3-38) 3225	Dec. 14,'38†	18
Jack Arthur
Nautical Knights (1-28-39) 3226	Jan. 11,'39†	19
Arthur-Morton Havel ...
Patio Serenade (11-12-38) 3224	Nov. 16,'38†	17
Tito Coral-Armida
Rhythm Cafe 3221	Sept. 7,'38†	20
Virginia Verrill
Side Show Fakir 3223	Oct. 12,'38†	20
Clyde Hager-Charloteers
Somewhere in Paris (3-5-38) 2168	Mar. 23,'38	17
J. Harold Murray
Stars and Stripes (7-2-38) 2172	Feb. 15,'39	2 rls.
Ed. East-Ralph Dumke	July 6,'38	17½
Wild and Bully 3227	Feb. 15,'39	19
J. Harold Murray

OSWALD CARTOONS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Barnyard Romeo (8-20-38) 2291	Aug. 1,'38	7
Big Cat and the Little Mousie, The (10-15-38) 2293	Aug. 15,'38†	7
Cheese Nappers (7-2-38) 2288	July 4,'38	7
Feed the Kitty 2281	Mar. 14,'38	7
Ghost Town Frolics 2294	Sept. 5,'38	7
Happy Scouts (7-2-38) 2395	June 20,'38	7
Man Hunt (2-26-38) 2278	Feb. 7,'38	7
Movie Phony News 2285	May 30,'38
Nellie, The Indian Chief's Daughter (6-4-38) 2286	June 6,'38	7
Nellie, the Sewing Machine Girl (5-14-38) 2282	Apr. 11,'38	7½
Pixie Land 2295	Sept. 12,'38	7
Problem Child, The (5-14-38) 2284	May 16,'38	7
Queen's Kittens 2292	Aug. 8,'38	7
Silly Seals (8-27-38) 2290	July 25,'38	7
Tail End (5-21-38) 2283	Apr. 25,'38	7
Trade Mice 2280	Feb. 28,'38	7
Yokel Boy Makes Good (3-12-38) 2279	Feb. 21,'38	7
Voodoo in Harlem (7-9-38) 2289	July 18,'38	7

STRANGER THAN FICTION SERIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 50—Novelty 2394	May 2,'38	9
No. 51—Novelty (6-11-38) 2395	June 6,'38	9
No. 52—Novelty (7-2-38) 2396	June 20,'38	9
No. 53—Novelty 3364	Aug. 29,'38†	9
No. 54—Novelty 3365	Sept. 19,'38†	9
No. 55—Novelty (10-8-38) 3366	Oct. 10,'38†	9½
No. 56—Novelty (12-3-38) 3367	Nov. 21,'38†	9
No. 57—Novelty (12-17-38) 3368	Dec. 5,'38†	9
No. 58—Novelty (1-28-39) 3369	Jan. 2,'39†	9½
No. 59—Novelty 3370	Feb. 6,'39†	1 rl.
No. 60—Novelty 3371	Mar. 6,'39†	1 rl.

VITAPHONE

BROADWAY BREVITIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Forget-Me-Knots 3011	May 7,'38	2 rls.
Bernice Claire
Steeks and Blondes 3023	May 21,'38	2 rls.
Gene Lockhart
Out Where the Stars Begin 3004	May 28,'38	2 rls.
Evelyn Thawl-Jeffrey Lynn
Prisoner of Swing 3012	June 11,'38	2 rls.
Hal LeRoy
Rise and Sing 3029	June 25,'38	2 rls.
Cross and Dunn
Rainbow's End (7-23-38) 3017	July 2,'38	22
Eddie Peabody
My Pop 3024	July 16,'38	2 rls.
Henry Armetta
Sons of the Plains (7-23-38) 3006	July 30,'38	19
Mauch Twins
Up in Lights 3018	Aug. 13,'38	2 rls.
Pat Rooney
There Goes the Bride 3030	Aug. 27,'38	2 rls.
Fifi D'Orsay
Zero Girl 4009	Sept. 3,'38†	2 rls.
Evelyn Chandler
Campus Cinderella 4001	Sept. 17,'38†	18
Johnnie Davis
Murder with Reservations 4010	Sept. 24,'38†	2 rls.
George Campo
Toyland Casino (10-22-38) 4011	Oct. 8,'38†	22
Two Shadows 4012	Oct. 22,'38†	2 rls.
Knight Is Young, The 4013	Oct. 29,'38†	2 rls.
Hal LeRoy
Cleaning Up (10-29-38) 4014	Nov. 12,'38†	20
Cross and Dunn
Star Dust (12-3-38) 4015	Dec. 12,'38†	22
Benny Davis
Boarder Trouble 4016	Dec. 17,'38†	2 rls.
Joe and Asbestos
Swing Time in the Movies (1-7-39) 4003	Jan. 7,'39†	20
Fritz Feld (color)
Hats and Dogs 4017	Dec. 31,'38†	20
Wini Shaw
Sophmore Swing (2-4-39) 4021	Jan. 21,'39†	20
Harvest Moon Dancers

COLOR PARADE

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Miracles of Sport 4601	Sept. 10,'38†	10
China Today (11-12-38) 4602	Oct. 1,'38†	11
Mechanix Illustrated, No. 1 (7-23-38) 3511	June 4,'38	10
Mechanix Illustrated, No. 2 (12-3-38) 4605	Nov. 5,'38†	10
Nature's Mimics (2-4-39) 4604	Dec. 3,'38†	10

COLORTOUR ADVENTURE
(In Color)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Pearl of the East 3509	May 21,'38	1 rl.
Isles of Enchantment 3512	June 25,'38	1 rl.
Hermit Kingdom 3513	Aug. 27,'38	1 rl.

FLOYD GIBBONS' "YOUR TRUE ADVENTURE"

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Wanderlust 3309	May 14,'38	1 rl.
Dreams Come True, A 3310	June 6,'38	1 rl.
Fighting Judge, The (8-6-38) 3311	July 2,'38	13
Night Intruder (7-30-38) 3312	July 23,'38	14
Trapped Underground 3313	Aug. 20,'38	1 rl.
Identified 4301	Sept. 17,'38†	12
Defying Death (12-10-38) 4303	Oct. 15,'38†	12
Toils of the Law 4302	Nov. 12,'38†	1 rl.
Treacherous Waters (12-17-38) 4304	Dec. 10,'38†	10
The Human Bomb (1-28-39) 4305	Jan. 7,'39†	12

HISTORICAL TECHNICOLOR FEATURETTES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Declaration of Independence The (10-15-38) 4002	Nov. 26,'38	19
John Litel (color)
Lincoln in the White House (1-14-39) 4004	Feb. 11,'39†	20
Frank McGlynn (color)

LOONEY TUNES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 52—Injun Trouble 3611	May 21,'38	1 rl.
No. 53—Porky the Fireman 3612	June 4,'38	1 rl.
No. 54—Porky's Party 3613	June 25,'38	1 rl.
No. 55—Porky's Spring Planting (7-9-38) 3614	July 16,'38	7
No. 56—Porky and Daffy (7-30-38) 3615	Aug. 6,'38	7
No. 57—Wholly Smoke 3616	Aug. 27,'38	1 rl.
No. 58—Porky in Wackyland 4801	Sept. 24,'38†	1 rl.
No. 59—Porky's Naughty Nephew 4802	Oct. 15,'38†	1 rl.
No. 62—Porky The Gob (12-31-38) 4805	Dec. 17,'38†	7
No. 63—The Lone Stranger and Porky 4806	Jan. 7,'39†	7
No. 64—It's an Ill Wind 4807	Jan. 28,'39†	1 rl.

MELODY MASTERS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Don Bestor and Orch. 3716	July 9,'38	1 rl.
Saturday Night Swing Club 3717	July 30,'38	1 rl.
Clyde McCoy and Orch. 3718	Aug. 20,'38	1 rl.
Larry Clinton and Orch. 4701	Sept. 3,'38†	1 rl.
Ray Kinney and Hawaiians 4702	Oct. 1,'38†
Merle Kendricks and Orch. (10-22-38) 4704	Nov. 12,'38†	10
Music with a Smile (7-30-38) 4705	Dec. 3,'38†	10
Dave Apollon and Orch. (12-17-38) 4706	Dec. 24,'38†	11
Clyde Lucas and Orch. (1-21-39) 4707	Jan. 7,'39†	10
Blue Barron and Orch. 4708	Jan. 21,'39†	1 rl.

MERRIE MELODIES
(In Colors)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 58—Katnip Kollege 3414	June 11,'38	1 rl.
No. 59—Have You Got Any Castles 3415	June 25,'38	1 rl.
No. 60—Love and Curses (7-23-38) 3416	July 9,'38	7
No. 61—Cinderella Meets Fella (7-23-38) 3417	July 23,'38	7
No. 62—The Major Lied 'Til Dawn 3418	Aug. 13,'38	1 rl.
No. 63—A-Lad-in Bagdag 3419		1 rl.
No. 64—Cracked Ice 3420		1 rl.
No. 65—A Feud There Was 4501	Sept. 24,'38†	7
No. 66—Little Pancho Vanilla (10-22-38) 4502	Oct. 8,'38†	7
No. 67—Johnny Smith and Poker Huntas 4503	Oct. 22,'38†	1 rl.
No. 68—You're An Education (12-3-38) 4504	Nov. 5,'38†	7
No. 69—Night Watchman, The (11-26-38) 4505	Nov. 19,'38†	7
No. 70—Daffy Duck in Hollywood 4506	Dec. 12,'38†	1 rl.
No. 71—Count Me Out (12-31-38) 4507	Dec. 17,'38†	7
No. 72—The Mice Will Play 4508	Dec. 31,'38†	7
No. 73—Dog Gone Modern (1-21-39) 4509	Jan. 14,'39†	7
No. 73—Ham-ateur Night 4510	Jan. 28,'39†	7

PICTORIAL REVUES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 11—Plastics—Perfume 3811	July 9,'38	1 rl.
No. 12—Hollywood—Sculling—Furs 3812	Aug. 13,'38	1 rl.

TECHNICOLOR SPECIALS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Pow Wow 4401	Oct. 1,'38†
Immortal Brush (10-22-38) 4402	Nov. 19,'38†	9

VITAPHONE VARIETIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Swing Cat's Jamboree (7-9-38) 3912	Aug. 6,'38	8
Louis Prima and Orch.
The Great Library Misery 4901	Sept. 10,'38†	11
Table Manners 4902	Oct. 15,'38†	11
Vaudeville Interlude 4903	Nov. 19,'38†	1 rl.
Robbin' Good (12-3-38) 4904	Dec. 10,'38†	10
Luis Zingone
Ski Girl (1-28-39) 4905	Jan. 14,'39†	10

OTHER PRODUCT

A. B. F. D.

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Legend of Norfolk, A (12-31-38)

DEVLIN

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Ancient Cities of Southern France (8-13-38)	Aug. 15,'38†	10
No. 61—Daffy Doc, The (12-3-38) 4804	Nov. 26,'38†	7
Old Towns of Normandy Makassar (8-6-38)	Aug. 15,'38†	10
Resorts and Quaint Towns of the Blue Coast (5-21-38)	July 15,'38†	10½
Rio de Janeiro (8-13-38)	Aug. 15,'38†	10
Venice (8-13-38)	Aug. 15,'38†	10
Voyage to Cebu (7-2-38)	July 15,'38†	9

G.P.O. FILM UNIT

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
North Sea (7-9-38)

HOFFBERG

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Trailing the Jaguar (7-2-38)	July 15,'38	28

LENAUER

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Datelines (6-18-38)		8
Frosty Frolics (12-24-38)		11
Getting Your Money's Worth (12-31-38)		11

REGAL

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Youth Marches On (9-24-38)	Sept. 24,'38	20

SACK
(with Negro Cast)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Brown Gravey	July 30,'38†	21
Framing of the Shrew, The	July 30,'38†	19
Lady Fare, The	July 30,'38†	20
Melancholy Dame, The	July 30,'38†	19
Music Hath Harms	July 30,'38†	21
Off in the Silly Night	July 30,'38†	20
Old Black Joe	Sept. 15,'38†	17
On a Plantation	Sept. 1,'38†	20
Pickin' Cotton	Oct. 1,'38†	8
Road Back, The	Oct. 1,'38†	19
Slave Days	Sept. 15,'38†	9
Welcome Home	Sept. 1,'38†	18

SANDERS FILMS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Midsummer in Sweden (11-5-38)		10
Fishing in the Fiords (11-12-38)		10
Dalecarlia, The Heart of Sweden (11-19-38)		10

SCREEN MEMORIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Memory Lingers On, The (8-13-38)		9

WORLD

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Andante et Rondo
Ave Maria
Children's Corner
Jeune Fille Au Jardin
Les Berceuse
Song of Ceylon
Valse Brillante

SERIALS

12 Episodes Each Unless Otherwise Specified

COLUMBIA

Title	Rel Date	Min.
Flying G Men	Jan. 28,'39†
James Craig-Lorna Gray
Mandrake, the Magician	May 6,'39†
Overland with Kit Carson	Aug. 12,'39†
Bill Elliott
Spider's Web, The (11-5-38) 9120	Oct. 22,'38†	19
Warren Hull-Iris Meredith		(each)
(15 episodes)

REPUBLIC

Title	Rel Date	Min.
Dick Tracy Returns (8-6-38) 7201	Aug. 20,'38	18
Ralph Byrd-Lynn Roberts		(each)
(15 episodes)
Hawk of the Wilderness (12-10-38) 7301	Dec. 3,'38†	2 rls.
		(each)
		(1st episode 29)
H. Brix-J. Martin-Malo
Lone Ranger Rides Again	Feb. 25,'39†	2 rls.
Robert Livingston-		(each)
Chief Thunder Cloud		(1st episode-30 min.)
(15 episodes)

UNIVERSAL

Title	Rel Date	Min.
Buck Rogers (2-11-39) 3881-92	Apr. 11,'39†
Larry Crabbe
Red Barry (10-8-38) 3681-3793	Oct. 18,'38†	20
Buster Crabbe-Frances Robinson		(each)
Scouts to the Rescue (12-31-38) 3781-92	Jan. 17,'39†
Jackie Cooper-Vandell Darr

(Exploitation: Jan. 14,'39, p. 65.)

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

the great national medium for showmen

Ten cents per word, money-order or check with copy. Count initials, box number and address. Minimum insertion, $1. Four insertions for the price of three. Contract rates on application. No borders or cuts. Forms close Mondays at 5 P.M. Publisher reserves the right to reject any copy. Film and trailer service advertising not accepted. Classified advertising not subject to agency commission. Address correspondence, copy and checks to MOTION PICTURE HERALD, Classified Dept., Rockefeller Center, New York City.

THEATRES

FOR SALE. OPERATING RIGHTS ON THREE theatres in Middletown, Connecticut. "Closed Town." Population and drawing power about 50,000. Internal corporate friction requires public sale on April 11th at Capitol Theatre, Main Street, Middletown, at 2 P.M. Appraisal value for Court—$93,000. Terms upon request. WILLIAM L. HADDEN, Receiver, 129 Church Street, New Haven, Conn.

THEATRE FOR LEASE, 650 SEATS, SUBSEQUENT run, city of 100,000, reasonable terms. Good opportunity for right man. BOX 1111, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

MOTION PICTURE THEATRE WANTED. TOWN 2500 to 5000 population. BOX 1113, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

NEW GENERAL EQUIPMENT

THEATRE EQUIPMENT—SUPPLIES—ACCESSORIES—repair parts. Savings 20% to 50%. Send for big free catalog. CONSOLIDATED THEATRE SUPPLY CORP., 1600-M Broadway, New York.

STAGE CURTAINS MODERN, ATTRACTIVE for operating track sides and overhead, $25 and up. SCHELL SCENIC STUDIO, Columbus, O.

NEED EQUIPMENT? BUY ON TIME! NEW easy-payment plan open to reliable exhibitors. Send for free catalog and save money! S.O.S. CINEMA SUPPLY CORP., New York.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY

OPERATORS, EXPERIENCED, EVERY STATE, movie circuit work, car needed. NO. 519 STATE THEATRE BLDG., Pittsburgh, Pa.

TRAINING SCHOOL

LEARN MODERN THEATRE MANAGEMENT, advertising. Train for better theatre positions. Free information. THEATRE INSTITUTE, 315 Washington, Elmira, N. Y.

USED GENERAL EQUIPMENT

SOME THEATRE CAN USE YOUR OLD EQUIPMENT. A little ad here will reach thousands of potential customers. Only ten cents a word to tell the world what you have to sell. Try it today. MOTION PICTURE HERALD, Rockefeller Center, New York.

MANY RECONDITIONED CHAIRS IN STOCK. Your opportunity to buy now. Extremely low prices. ALLIED SEATING CO., INC., Used Chair Dept., 36 West 13th Street, New York.

HOW MUCH WILL YOU SPEND FOR GOOD used chairs? 14,281 used veneer and upholstered seats from 75c. Write S.O.S. CINEMA SUPPLY CORP., New York.

PRINTING SERVICE

CAN SUPPLY LAYOUTS, ART WORK, ENGRAVINGS and arrange printing for direct mail list. Prices furnished upon request and based on type of service needed. BOX 1098A, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

PROGRAM WINDOW CARDS—14 x 22, THREE flashy colors, new designs, 50, $3.50; 100, $4.75. Samples. HAWKEYE SHOW PRINT, Webster City, Iowa.

POSITIONS WANTED

MANAGER, SEEKS POSITION: PROGRESSIVE circuit, independent houses. Experienced booking, advertising. Best references. BOX 1108, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

PROJECTIONIST, 15 YEARS, DESIRES CHANGE small city anywhere, dependable, married, references. PROJECTIONIST, 4008 Clarendon, Chicago, Ill.

HAVE REACHED PEAK IN PRESENT POSITION, want to connect with circuit of theatres where there is possibility of getting somewhere. Have 15 years' experience as manager and district manager. Will go anywhere. BOX 1115, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

TRADE EXCHANGE

WILL TRADE 16MM MOVIE CAMERAS FOR 35mm. F. SHAFER, Washington, Ind.

BOOKS

MOTION PICTURE SOUND ENGINEERING—547 pages; illustrated; covers every practical method and process in present-day sound engineering. Leading engineers explain every detail of apparatus and its arrangement, with diagrams, tables, charts and graphs. This manual comes straight from the workshops of the studios in Hollywood. It is indispensable to everyone working with sound equipment. $6.50 postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

THE 1938-39 EDITION OF THE INDUSTRY'S INternational reference book, "Motion Picture Almanac," edited by Terry Ramsaye, is now available. It has the most facts about the motion picture business ever published. It is indispensable to every executive in the industry. This issue contains more than 12,000 biographies of important film people. Send your order today with a check for $3.25 and your copy will be promptly mailed, postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

RICHARDSON'S BLUEBOOK OF PROJECTION—Revised Sixth edition. The revised edition includes 722 pages of up-to-the-minute text charts and data with detailed description of assembly, wiring, and functioning of all modern sound and projection apparatus. It is a practical "trouble shooter," cross indexed for immediate reference in any projection room emergency. ORDER TODAY! $6.25 postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

NEW 567 PAGE BOOK ON AIR CONDITIONING by Charles A. Fuller, authority on the subject, reviewed in Buyers Number, available for theatre owners contemplating engineering changes. Book is cloth bound with index and charts and covers every branch of the industry as well as codes and ordinances regulating installation. Order now at $4.00 a copy postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

FAME. AN AUDIT OF PERSONALITIES EDITED by Terry Ramsaye. The class annual of the screen, radio and stage. Recognized by executives and talent agents as the guide to box office champions. Send your order today with check or money order for $1.00. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

BOOKKEEPING SYSTEM

THEATRE ACCOUNTING BY WILLIAM F. Morris, is still the best bookkeeping system for theatres. It not only guides you in making the proper entries, but provides sufficient blank pages for a complete record of your operations for each day of the year. Notable for its simplicity. Order now—$4 postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

PRESS OF
C. J. O'BRIEN, INC.
NEW YORK

Typical Eastman
RELIABILITY

EASTMAN Plus-X for general studio work ... Super-XX for all difficult exposures ... Background-X for backgrounds and all-round exterior work.... All three of these new negative films have special features suited to their particular fields ... plus the typical Eastman reliability that has served the industry so well in the past. Eastman Kodak Company, Rochester, N. Y. (J. E. Brulatour, Inc., Distributors, Fort Lee, Chicago. Hollywood.)

EASTMAN Plus-X . . .
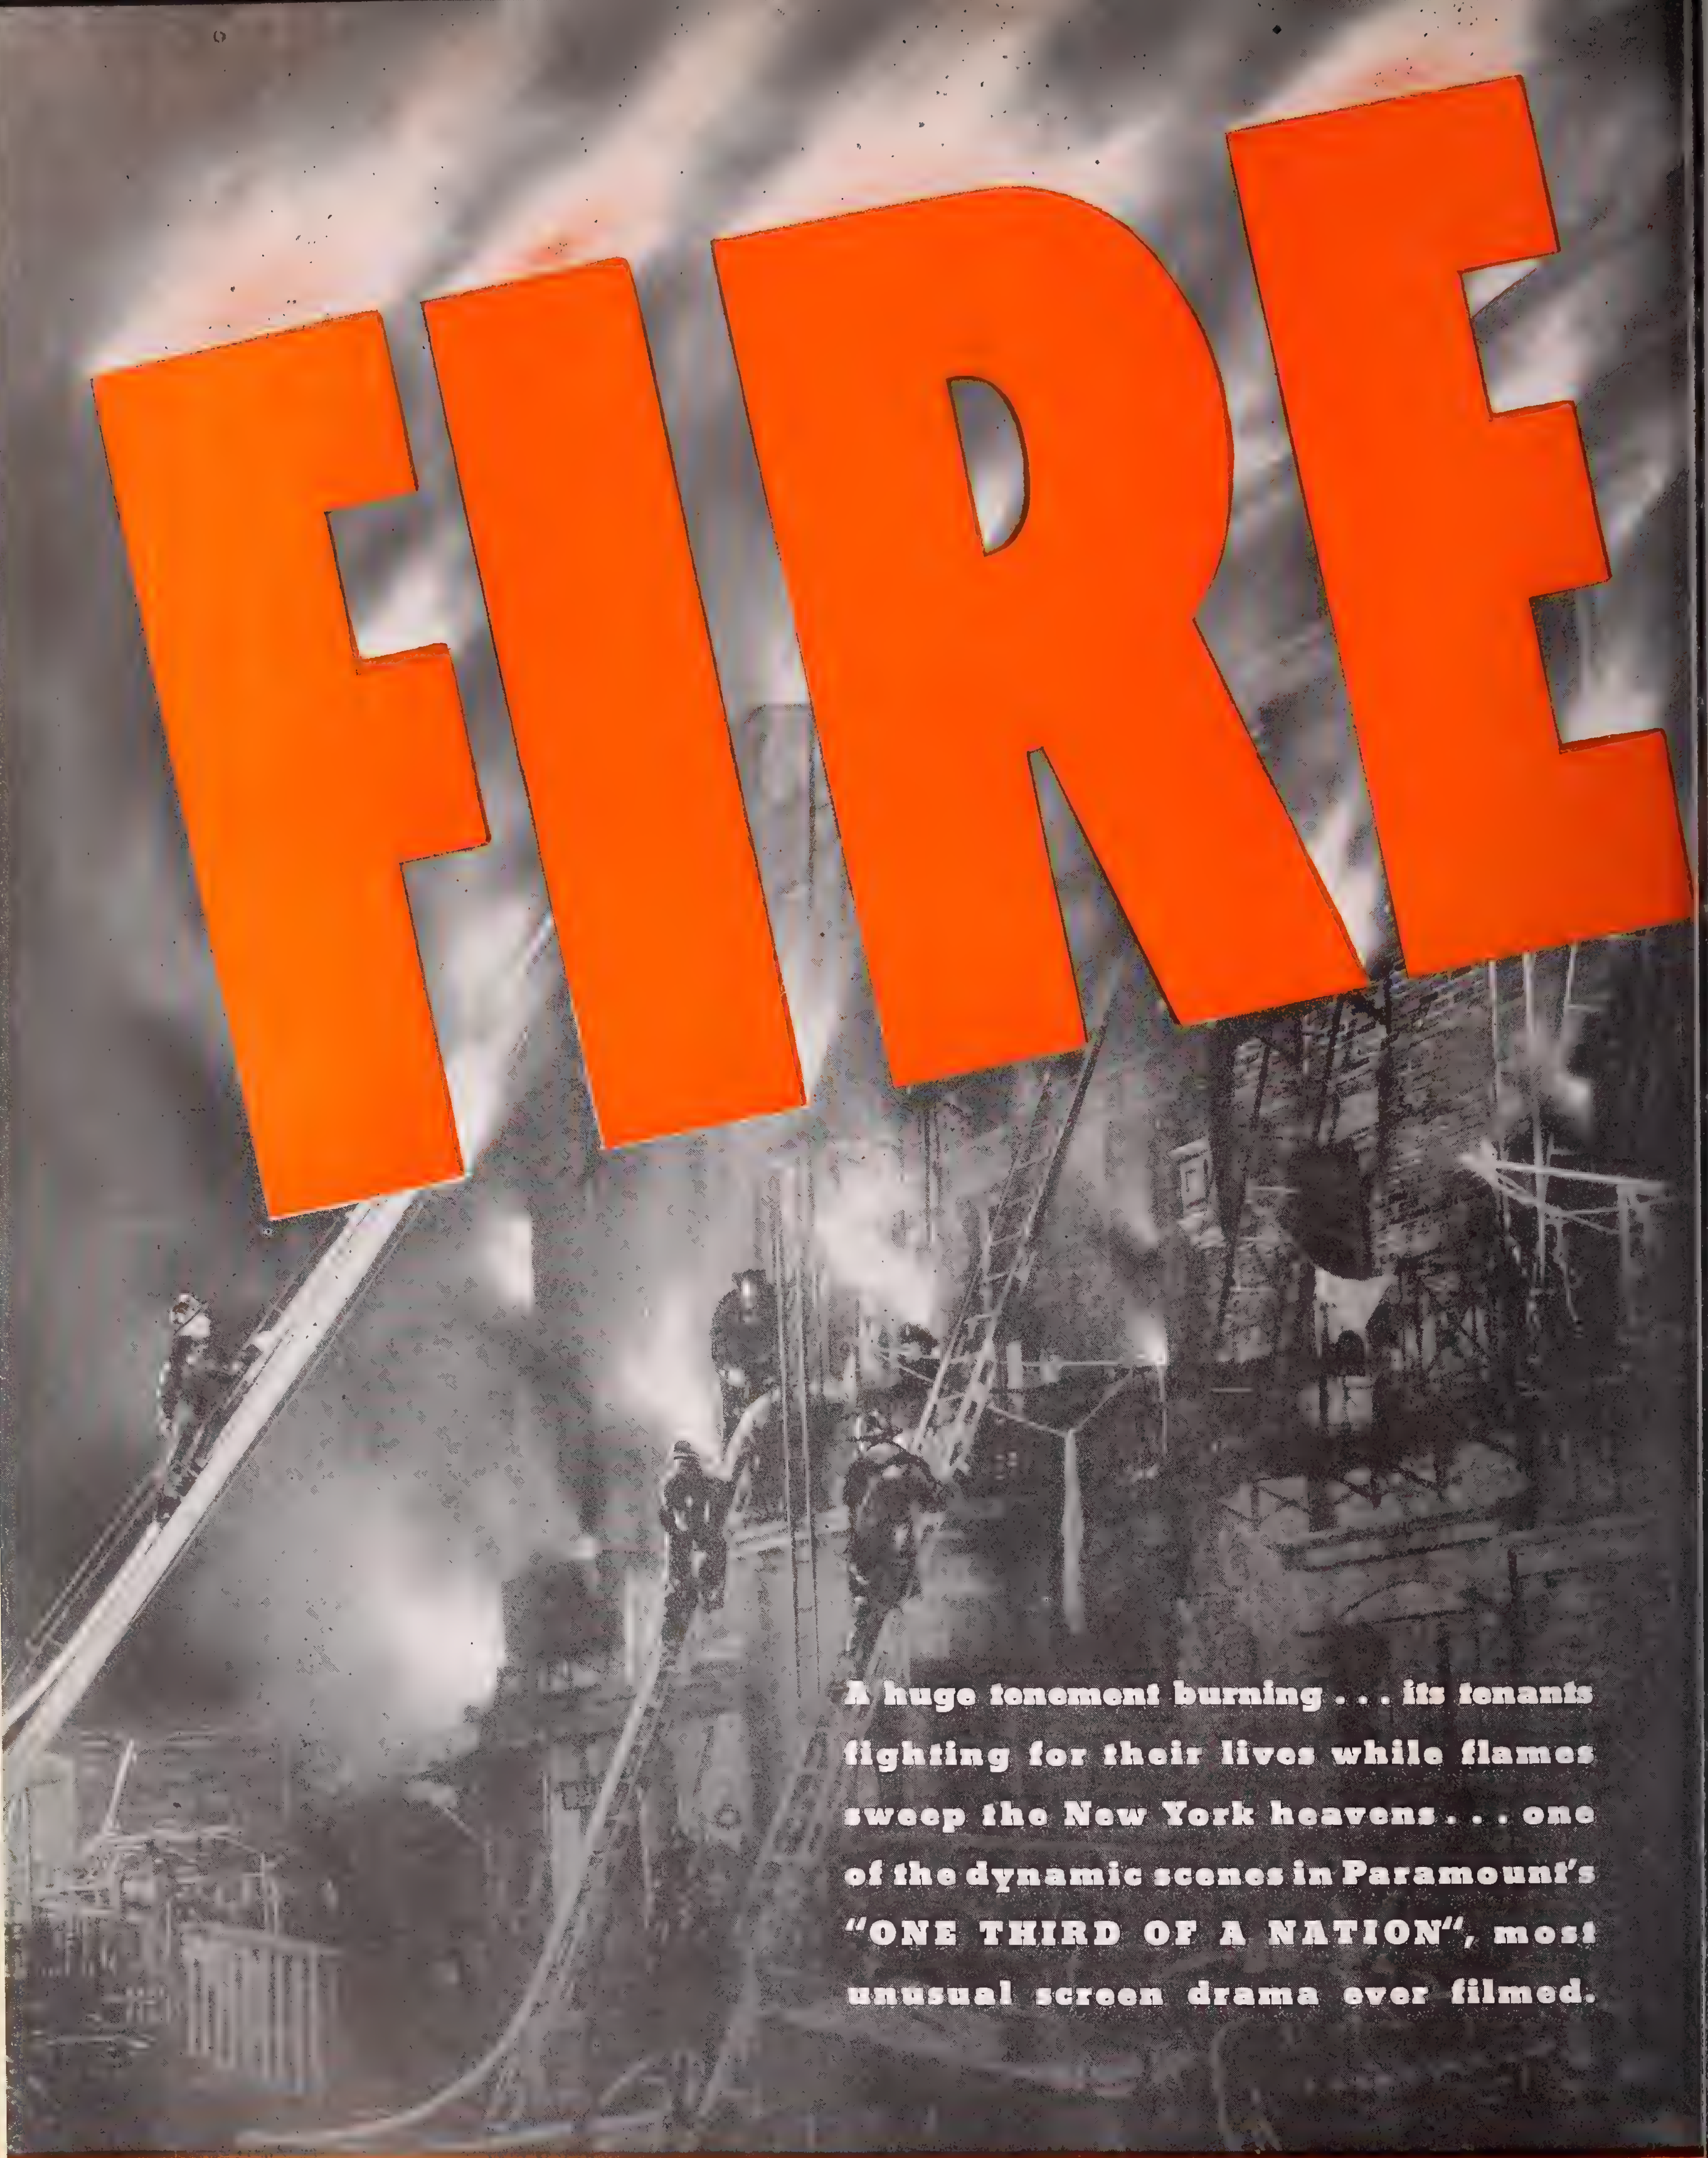
Super-XX . . . Background-X

FIRE



A huge tenement burning . . . its tenants fighting for their lives while flames sweep the New York heavens . . . one of the dynamic scenes in Paramount's "ONE THIRD OF A NATION", most unusual screen drama ever filmed.

Harold Orlob presents

Sylvia Sidney in "ONE THIRD OF A NATION"

Leif Erikson • A Dudley Murphy Production • Screen Play by Oliver H. P. Garrett • A Paramount Release

DO NOT REMOVE

MOTION PICTURE HERALD

What Hollywood Offers for Next Season

Company by company analysis of production plans, titles, new talent, sales convention dates

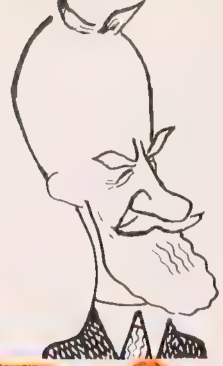
Americanism theme of 43 features and 84 short subjects

57 stories purchased by 13 producers for 1939-40 programs

VOL. 134, NO. 8 FEBRUARY 25, 1939

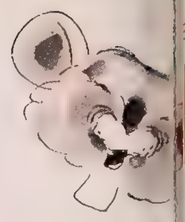
Entered as second-class matter, January 12, 1931, at the Post Office, at New York, N. Y., under the March 3, 1879. Published weekly by Quigley Publishing Co., Inc., at 1270 Sixth Avenue, Rockefeller C New York. Subscription prices: $5.00 a year in the Americas, $10.00 a year Foreign. Single copies, 25

All contents copyrighted 1939 by Quigley Publishing Company.



The man with the whiskers wrote it. Leslie Howard is the star. The cast includes Wendy Hiller, Wilfrid Lawson, Marie Lohr, Scott Sunderland. Directed by Anthony Asquith and Leslie Howard. Produced by Gabriel Pascal.

Astor, N.Y., 12th Big Week and still S.R.O. Los Angeles, 8th Big Week and no let-up! Two Big Juicy Weeks in Dayton, Cleveland, Pittsburgh. And in Miami, Miami Beach, Chicago, Kansas City, Houston, Dallas, San Diego ...all terrific! Watch fireworks in next 27 big openings!



PYGMALION

RELEASE DATE MARCH 3rd!

Here's the most interesting situation within recent film history!

It started when M-G-M acquired this celebrated English production, the first of Bernard Shaw's works to be personally supervised by him.

M-G-M exhibitors did not contemplate this when they signed their current year's contracts.

Any M-G-M customer was privileged to say "I did not buy 'Pygmalion'."

And then things happened!

We decided to back up our own faith in the great value of this entertainment by the judgment of the public.

We set out to establish "Pygmalion" at the box-office to let it speak for itself in the language exhibitors understand best, dollars and cents, mass audience reaction.

The rest is history. From the very first day when police handled the crowds at the Astor on Broadway, there was never any question but that here was an unusual attraction. Now in its 12th packed week in New York; and 8th record week in Los Angeles! The first "typical American city" test at Dayton, Ohio was sensational and had to be held a second big week. From city to city it swept like wildfire.

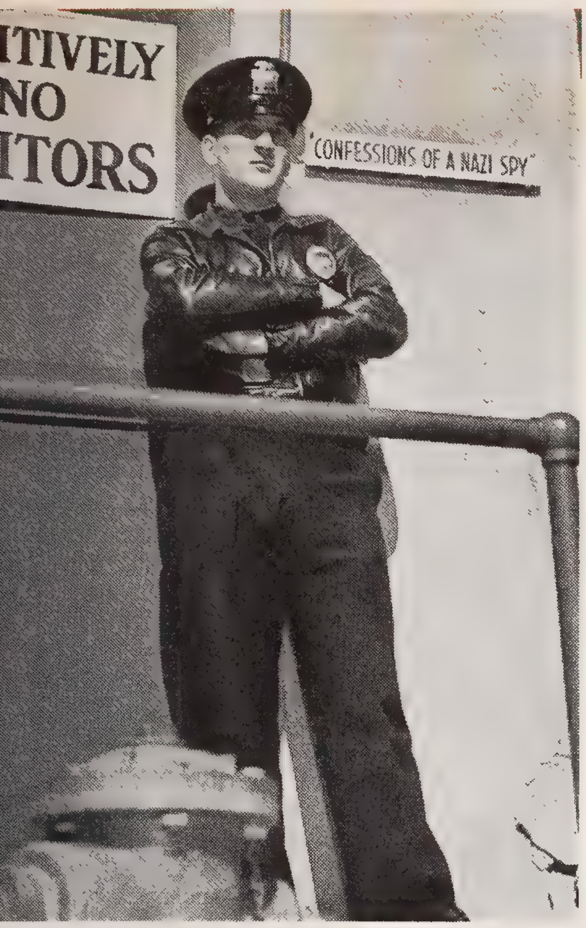
It's the masses who are enthusiastic for Bernard Shaw's shabby flower girl who becomes a society glamor girl in an exciting experiment. And the critics fan the blaze with plaudits everywhere. And showmanship does the rest.

And here's the amazing thing:

Not one exhibitor is obligated to book "Pygmalion" as part of his M-G-M service and yet from every section of America they're asking: "When do we get it?"

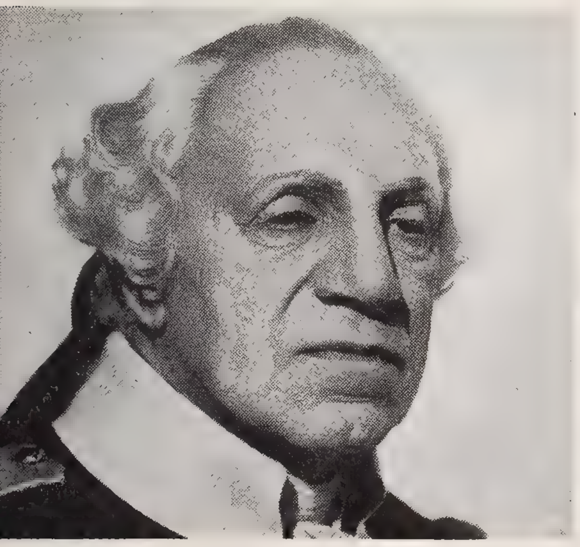
The answer is "RIGHT NOW WHILE IT'S HOT!"

New Product Featured In Week's News



ITIVELY
NO
ITORS
"CONFESSIONS OF A NAZI SPY"

EHIND GUARDED DOORS and in tmost secrecy, 'Confessions of a Nazi py', G-Man Leon Torrou's blazing exposé of anti-American activities, starts ast lap before cameras of Warner Bros. rior to cutting and late Spring delivery.



IRST IN WAR, FIRST IN PEACE, first n hearts of Americans everywhere will e newest and most elaborate of Warner ros.' patriotic 'featurets', Technicolor Sons of Liberty', now in production.

A SURE SIGN that Warners' sensational 'Each Dawn I Die' will have plenty of femme appeal is evidenced in signature of talented Jane Bryan to new long-term contract and award of coveted role opposite James Cagney.

BETTE DAVIS' 'VICTORY' is a triumph not only for herself (right) and Warner Bros. but for the entire industry, according to East-West critical accolade now booming her brilliant performance in 'Dark Victory'° for this year's Academy Award honors!

'KILLER' BOGART gets third degree from scribes on arrival in Gotham for a well-earned vacation after four months of 'heavy' duty in Warners' forthcoming epic of West, 'The Oklahoma Kid'. (See page 19.)

THEY'LL BE IN LOVE ALL OVER again this week when Warners release long-awaited 'Yes, My Darling Daughter' in 216 de-luxe houses from coast to coast! Priscilla Lane and Jeffrey Lynn (right) of 'Four Daughters' fame head all-star cast.

°A First National Picture

It's here—and now—after a year on the New York stage—after the road tour that covered the country!

To make a love story sweeter it's got

Lane and Lynn in love again!

To make a year-run stage riot still funnier it's got castful of

HA
HA HA
HA
HA
HA
Hollywood cut-

To make a long story short.

terrific... practically sensatio

Mother, aren't you glad you haven't Four Daughters like me?

Yes, my darling daughter

s!

s slightly

...merely a wow!

Starring the Lovable Sweethearts of 'Four Daughters'

Priscilla Lane
and Jeffrey Lynn

ROLAND YOUNG · FAY
BAINTER · MAY ROBSON
Genevieve Tobin · Ian Hunter
Directed by WILLIAM KEIGHLEY
Screen Play by Casey Robinson • From the Stage Play by MARK REED • A First National Picture

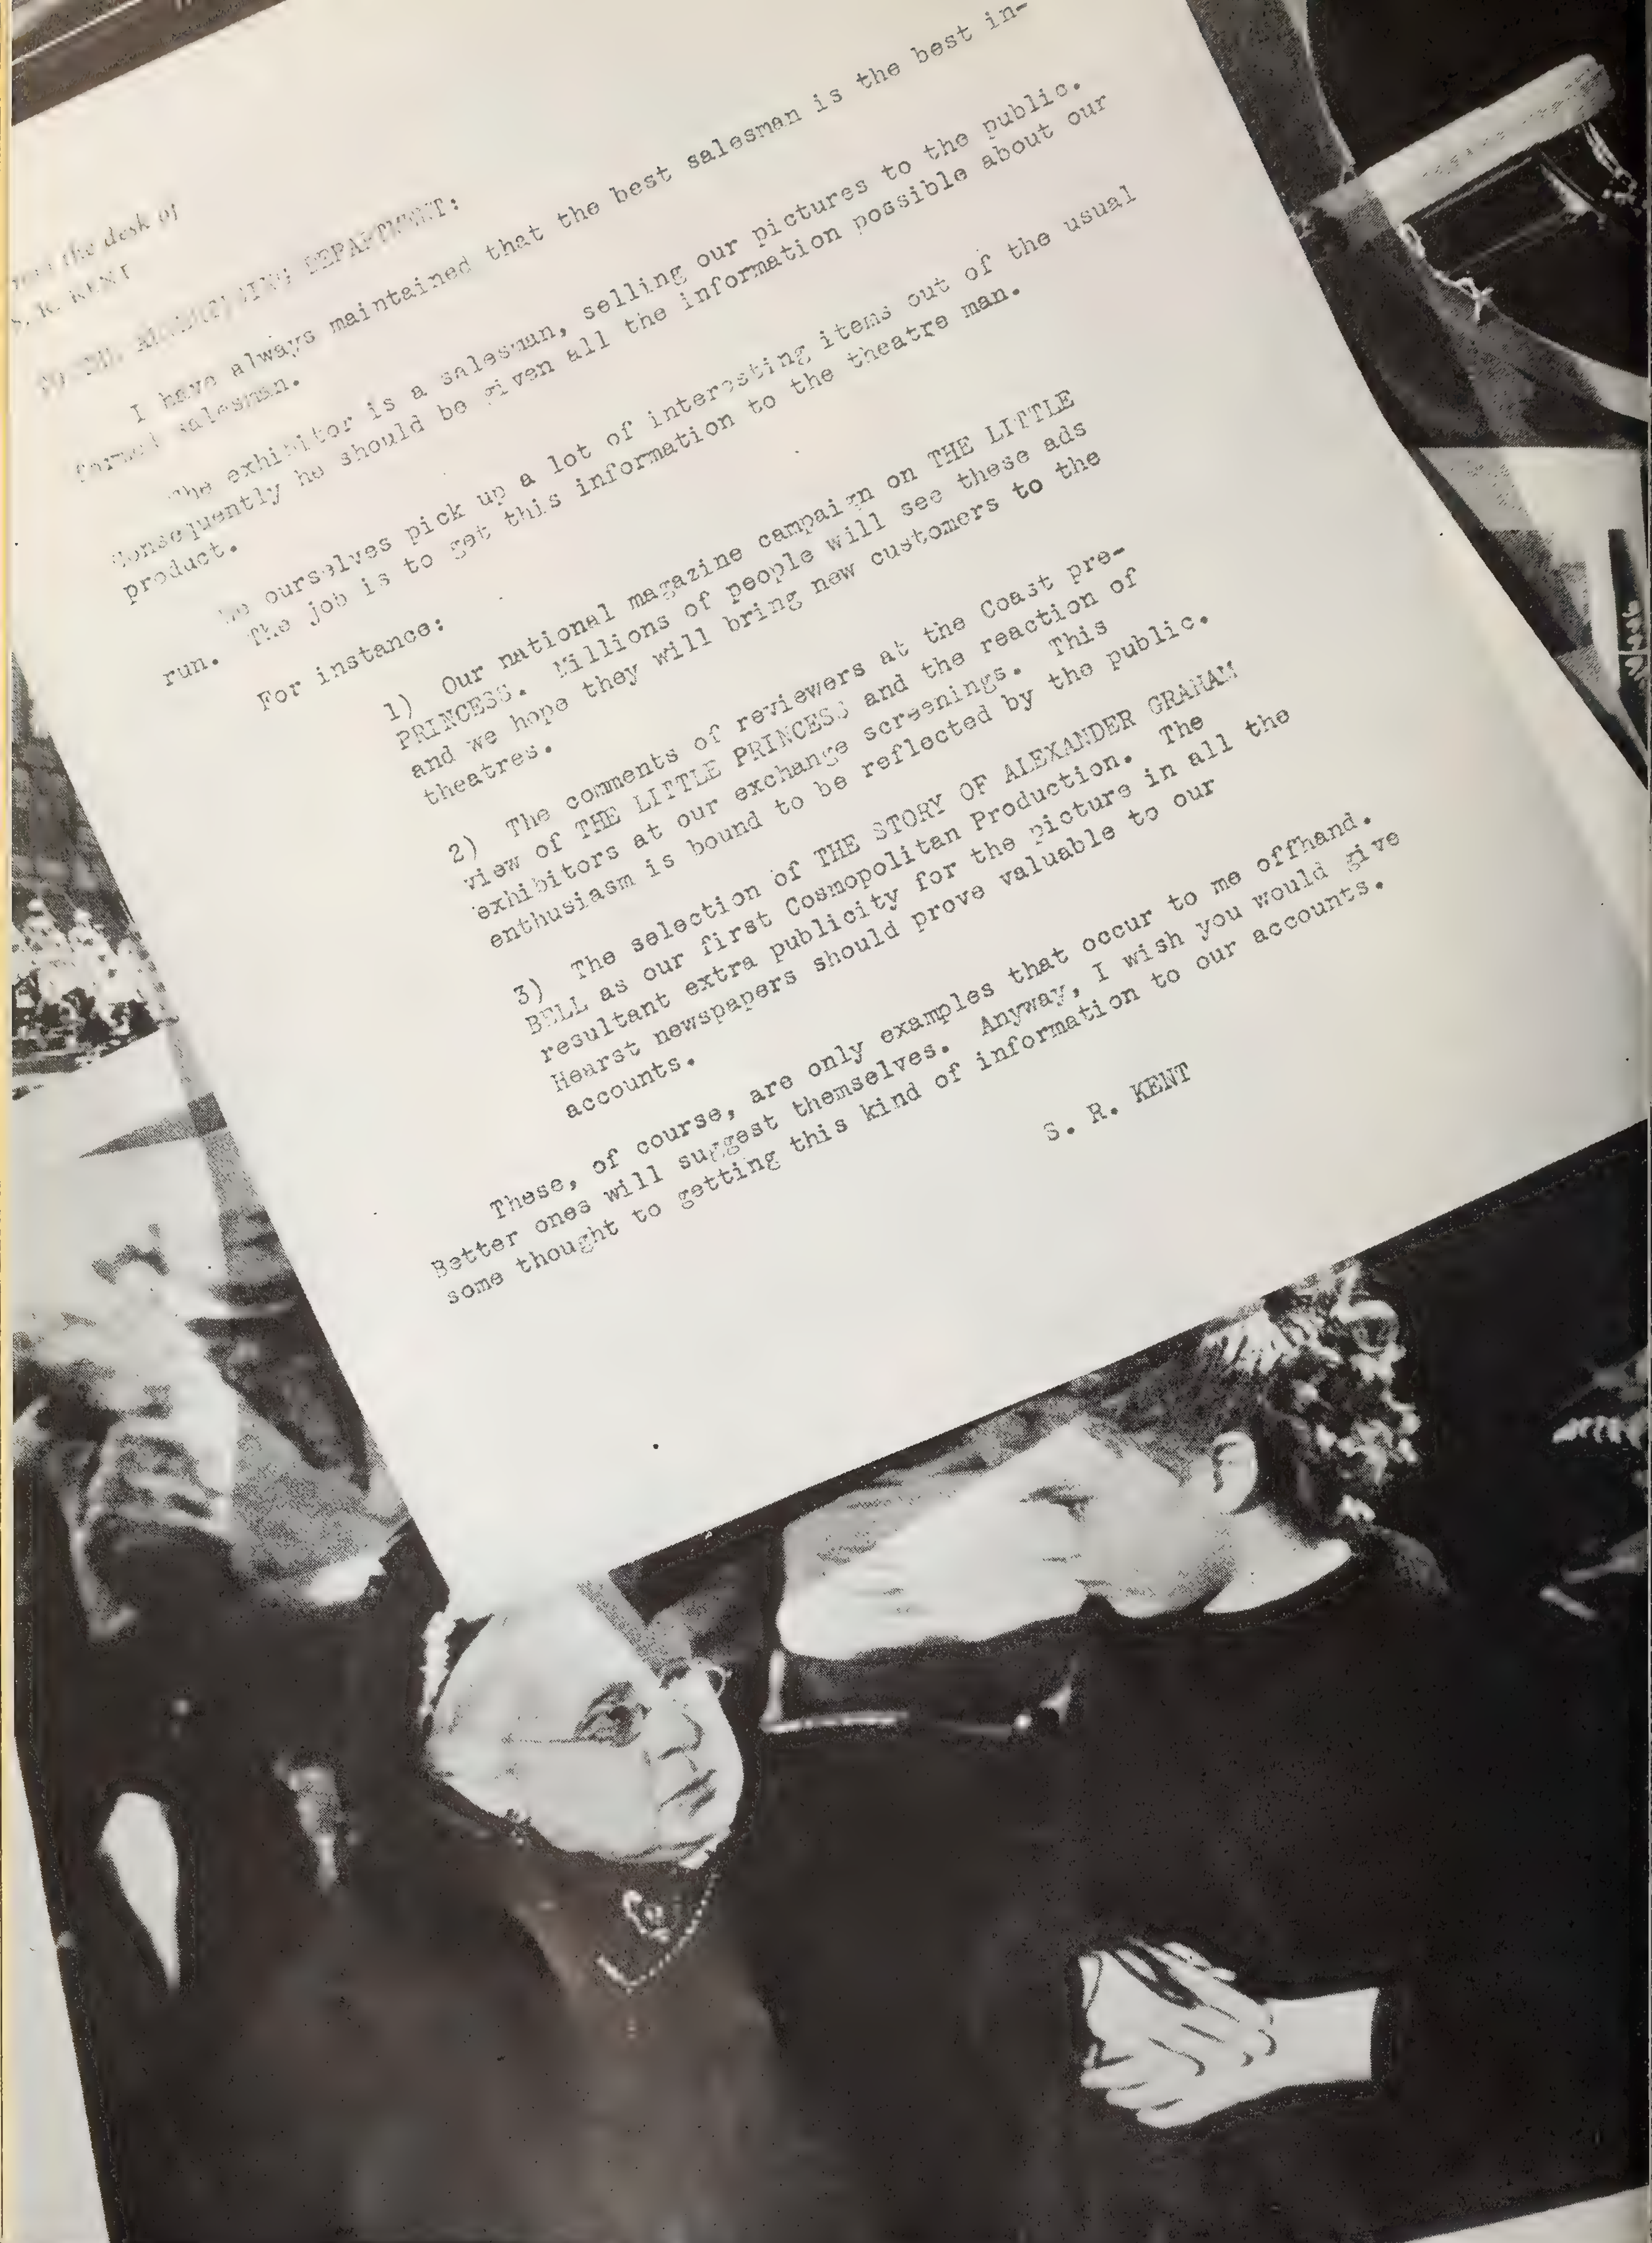
WARNER BROS.
Producers



the desk of
S. R. KENT

TO THE ADVERTISING DEPARTMENT:

I have always maintained that the best salesman is the best informed salesman.

The exhibitor is a salesman, selling our pictures to the public. Consequently he should be given all the information possible about our product.

We ourselves pick up a lot of interesting items out of the usual run. The job is to get this information to the theatre man.

For instance:

1) Our national magazine campaign on THE LITTLE PRINCESS. Millions of people will see these ads and we hope they will bring new customers to the theatres.

2) The comments of reviewers at the Coast preview of THE LITTLE PRINCESS and the reaction of exhibitors at our exchange screenings. This enthusiasm is bound to be reflected by the public.

3) The selection of THE STORY OF ALEXANDER GRAHAM BELL as our first Cosmopolitan Production. The resultant extra publicity for the picture in all the Hearst newspapers should prove valuable to our accounts.

These, of course, are only examples that occur to me offhand. Better ones will suggest themselves. Anyway, I wish you would give some thought to getting this kind of information to our accounts.

S. R. KENT

MOTION PICTURE HERALD

MARTIN QUIGLEY, Editor-in-Chief and Publisher

Vol. 134, No. 8 February 25, 1939

COMING PICTURES

THIS week your editor got extremely fed up with the endless bickerings, adjustment, readjustment, revises, drafts, programs, proposals, objections and whatnot of that broad and threadbare subject called "trade practises."

It has seemed appropriate and possibly constructive to consider for a while the practise of our art and industry, which consists, after all, of motion pictures. They are of basic importance—the "what" comes before the "how."

So this issue of The Herald will be found interestingly devoted to the product in sight and projected, and something of the plans for the box office material of the year.

There is a certain assurance that there will continue to be motion pictures and that they will be sold at the box offices. It will take no extremely acute eye, too, to discover that there are indications of a more intensive address at the home market. Hollywood tends to relinquish the hope that it can please all the people in the world all the time.

AS to trade practises, the conferrings go on and on, interminably, apparently. One can but marvel at the optimistic diligence of the negotiators, conspicuously among them Mr. William F. Rodgers, who seems to be at all the meetings and in all the negotiations, pouring in zeal and energy.

Despite all this diligence and able endeavour, there still remains the possibility that it may at any time come to exactly naught—save as the experience may have been educational.

Even an agreed program could not be final in the larger sense.

Over the trade practise conferences hangs the gloomy shadow of the fact that there is ever the possibility that the conferences themselves may one day be construed, legally, as sessions of conspiracy.

This fact, and some only a shade less obvious, controls the attitude of a probable preponderance of the lawyers for the majors in the government's monopoly suit. The lawyers are in substance against the placation notion.

Meanwhile continues, or arises again, the fact of legislation impending, which could, may and threatens to make all prior procedures and expedients of adjustment painfully immaterial and irrelevant in a practical sense.

The recrudescence of the Neely bill movement and kindred manifestations, national and state, taken together with what Mr. Thurman Arnold has had to say about doctrines of industrial regulation, tend in total to indicate that the motion picture has contrived to get into the arena of politics on terms where it can have for itself not so much control of the ball.

MEANWHILE up there in North Dakota, there are assorted indications that the action on the divorcement measure has not been, at any phase, exactly what it was represented to be. If the reported project of a federal investigation of the matter materializes, the probabilities are that the findings, interesting as they may be, will have not very much to do with the basic issue of state regulation. The findings may have a deal to do with the practise of law, lobby methods and such. But that will leave the motion picture issues still at issue.

All of these matters, which tend to concern the motion picture industry too much, are considerably less important than motion pictures and the continuance of their appeal to the customers.

△ △ △

SUCKER LORE

OF course it was meant just the best way in the world, but one can enjoy a chuckle at the opening line of a review in the genial New York Sun which says: "W. C. Fields is trimming the suckers again this week in 'You Can't Cheat an Honest Man' at the Rivoli."

The Rivoli, or Mr. Fields, is entitled to fuller explanation, which comes later in the review with ". . . a plot is really superfluous for W. C. Fields. It is enough just to have him present."

For the sake of the record for posterity, a patient researcher of the American scene would set aright the error in the Sun's statement that "'Never give a sucker an even break' is the motto of Larson E. Whipsnade" (the Fields role). That is larceny. It belongs to the late and ornate Texas Guinan, in her night club phase.

△ △ △

NAME IN PAPER

EXPERTS in the writing of patent medicine copy always have a mailing list of volunteer, eager guinea pigs who on receipt of a sample bottle will forthwith write testimonials proclaiming themselves cured of all and more diseases than are named on the label, and commonly enclosing photographs.

For kindred reasons many a newspaper rewrite desk has a list of "name persons" who are readily accessible and quotable by telephone on most any subject, and with the opinion which is considered the making of the best headline. That is always what the rewrite man is after.

These reflections come from the reading of a considerable stack of clippings concerning the motion picture.

△ △ △

THE late February wind blows soft from the southwest into the valley of the Silvermine fitfully prophetic of the nearing adolescence of another Springtime. Corvus-the-Crow, bored with a winter of piracy among the clam hunting gulls of the shore, has come inland to see if there's a clue to where our corn patch will be this year. The cock pheasant who wintered with us has added two trim hens to his harem, making a total of five—looks monopolistic, predatory. Every mail is laden with our favourite fiction, the seed catalogues. They are substantially press books.

—Terry Ramsaye

This Week

Product

Producers and distributors are moving forward rapidly in preparation for the 1939-40 season. In the acquisition of story material, in selection of titles, and players to be starred, and in new talent as well, the plans already made known by the studios show a general concentration of effort on the next motion picture year.

Americanism as a motion picture theme, as a result of the operation of various causes at home and abroad as well as in audience acceptances, is growing.

Distributors, too, are announcing the total number of features, and short subjects, to be expected from each. Dates for the conventions which will mark the opening of the selling seasons are being set.

A company-by-company resume of plans and commitments to date starts on page 12, followed by an article on the attention being given to American themes (page 17) and a study of story purchases (page 16).

Atlas Holdings

Floyd Odlum's Atlas Corporation on Thursday reported holdings in RKO valued at $3,884,014, an increase of $700,000 since April 30, 1938, and Paramount holdings valued at $507,900, a reduction of $21,153. The report listed gross assets of $66,509,941 as of December 31, 1938, equal to $12.44 a common share.

FOR READY REFERENCE

Editorial Page 7
This Week in Pictures Page 10
Managers' Round Table Page 65
Release Chart Page 73
Asides and Interludes Page 35
Showmen's Reviews Page 42
The Hollywood Scene Page 41
In the Courts Page 60
In the Newsreels Page 60
Short Subjects on Broadway Page 48
What the Picture Did for Me Page 61
Deaths of the Week Page 60
In British Studios Page 55
Technological Page 58
Productions in Work Page 59

Quiz Winners

The final reply having been tallied after weeks of counting, the total number of answers for the $250,000 "Movie Quiz" Contest, main feature of the $1,000,000 campaign to build "good-will", is 2,158,960. The answers had been trickling in during late December but came in a rush immediately after the New Year, presenting a counting problem, which delayed the judging. The date upon which theatre operators were to announce the winners had been February 20; this was advanced to Monday evening, February 27th.

The 5,404 winners will be announced to theatre operators at 8:00 Eastern Standard Time that evening; and for other sections of the country at the equivalent time. Theatre patrons will be informed that evening, shortly after the announcement. The Chemical Bank and Trust Company is handling the announcement to theatre operators.

The judges, Mrs. Ogden Reid, Dr. James E. West, Hendrik Willem Van Loon, Bruce Barton and Mrs. Helen Wills Moody, made their final choices Friday night at the Hotel Waldorf Astoria, in New York.

Trade Practice

The distributors' attorneys have completed revisions of the trade practice agreement, and it is expected that sales managers of the majors will have completed consideration of the draft by the weekend.

The industry still was wondering whether Abram Myers might withdraw Allied States from further participation in the negotiations, as he inferred last week when the Allied-sponsored North Datoka divorcement bill was repealed in what he called a "coup" by distributors.

A meeting of Allied's directors, scheduled by March 1st, to act on the proposed trade practice program may not be held but a poll may be taken by telegraph. Colonel H. A. Cole, president of Allied and chairman of the negotiating committee, plans to leave Dallas Saturday for Washington, announcing there how the vote of the directors will be taken.

A meeting of the distributors' drafting committee with Mr. Myers may be held next week. In presenting the new draft, the distributors will take the position that it is to be final.

Distributor attorneys and the trade practice committee, headed by Sidney R. Kent and William F. Rodgers, met for seven hours Thursday at the Astor hotel, New York, and agreed, it is understood, to include in the revised draft many of the suggestions made by Mr. Myers.

Sales of contracts for 1939-40 product to exhibitors made in advance of the adoption of the trade pact will be subject to the terms of the pact, on a retroactive basis.

Cherry Blossoms

Any among New York theatre managers who might have had slight leanings toward a cynical view of history, this week became enthusiastic admirers of the Father of our country. The celebration of his birthday on Wednesday resulted in one of the biggest midweek holidays in years from a box office standpoint. The Paramount reported fully 20 per cent better attendance than on the same holiday last year, Radio City Music Hall played to capacity, a gain of ten per cent over last year. The Capitol and Roxy reported considerably better business than in 1938 and the Astor, Globe, Criterion and Rialto played to capacity. Legitimate stage theatres also were playing to standing room.

WPA Competition

Theodore A. Mauntz, for three years publicity director of the WPA Federal Theatre, has been dismissed because he is said to have opposed production plans of his superiors as being in direct competition to the commercial theatre of Broadway. The action is with reference to "The Mikado," the Federal Theatre version of which has an all-negro cast and a "jazzed up" score, and has been a hit in Chicago. Mr. Mauntz was succeeded by Bernard Simon.

MOTION PICTURE HERALD

Published every Thursday by Quigley Publishing Company, Rockefeller Center, New York City. Telephone Circle 7-3100. Cable address "Quigpubco, New York." Martin Quigley, Editor-in-Chief and Publisher; Colvin Brown, Vice-President and General Manager; Terry Ramsaye, Editor; Ernest A. Rovelstad, Managing Editor; James P. Cunningham, News Editor; Chicago Bureau, 624 South Michigan Avenue, C. B. O'Neill, manager; Hollywood Bureau, Postal Union Life Building, Boone Mancall, manager, William R. Weaver, editor; Toronto Bureau, Ste. 811, 21 Dunas Sq., Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Allister Grosart, representative. Montreal Bureau, Press Bureau, Windsor Street Station, Montreal, Canada. Colin R. Haworth, representative. London Bureau, 4, Golden Square, London W 1, Hope Williams, manager; cable Quigpubco London; Berlin Bureau, Berlin-Tempelhof, Kaiserin-Augustastrasse 28, Joachim K. Rutenberg, representative; Paris Bureau, 21, Rue de Berri, Paris 8, France, Pierre Autre, representative, cable Autre-Lacifral-8 Paris; Rome Bureau, 54 Via Della Mercede, Rome, Italy, Joseph D. Ravotto, representative; cable Ravotto-Stampestera, Rome. Melbourne Bureau, Regent Theatre, 191 Collins St., Melbourne, Australia, Cliff Holt, representative; Sydney Bureau, 17, Archbold Rd., Roseville, Sydney, N.S.W., Australia. Lin Endean, representative. Mexico City Bureau, Apartado 269, Mexico City, James Lockhart, representative; Budapest Bureau, Szamos-utca 7, Budapest I, Hungary, Endre Hevesi, representative; Buenos Aires Bureau, Avellaneda 3949, Buenos Aires, Argentina, Natalio Bruski, representative; Tokyo Bureau, 880 Sasazuka, Ichikawa-shi Chiba-Ken, Japan, Hiromu Tominaga, representative; Rio de Janeiro Bureau, Caixa Postal 3358, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, L. S. Marinho, representative; India Bureau, Post Box 147 Bunder Road, Karachi, India; Uruguay, P. O. Box 664, Montevideo, Uruguay, Paul Bodo, representative, cable Argus Montevideo; Amsterdam Bureau, 87 Waalstraat, Amsterdam Z., Holland, Philip de Schaap, representative; Vienna Bureau, Neustiftgasse 54, Vienna, VII, John Lorant, representative; Prague Bureau, Uhelny trh 2, Prague I, Czechoslovakia. Harry Knopf, representative. Copenhagen Bureau, Rosengaarden 14, Copenhagen, Denmark, Kris Winther, representative. Member Audit Bureau of Circulations.

All contents copyright 1939 by Quigley Publishing Company.
Address all correspondence to the New York Office. Other Quigley Publications: Better Theatres, Motion Picture Daily, Teatro al Día, International Motion Picture Almanac and Fame.

Defense "Victories"

The defense in two of the many suits against large exhibition and distribution units appeared this week to have counter-attacked successfully.

In Chicago, the defense attorneys from the majors and Balaban and Katz, in the government's suit against these for violation of a 1932 consent decree, welcomed the ruling by Federal Judge Woodward that the government must file a bill of particulars, and that the defense then may have 20 days in which to file an answer.

In Newburgh, N. Y., Federal Judge Edward Conger ruled that the principals of the organizations suing the majors and a Newburgh circuit must appear for examination before trial. These principals are Isaac Miller, Phillip Sherry, Mrs. F. Sussman, and Conrad Fontaine, of the Orange County Theatres, Inc., and Miller and Sherry Enterprises, Inc., which are suing Twentieth Century-Fox, Paramount, Joseph Lee, George Walsh, Eugene Levy, Netco Theatres Corporation, RKO, and United Artists for $225,000, charging restraint of trade in Newburgh and violation of the Sherman anti-trust laws. All the defendants, except RKO and United Artists, had requested the action by the judge.

In Boston, the $2,000,000 anti-trust suit by Morse and Ruthenberg, against the majors, proceeded in federal court.

Petition for a rehearing of the case in which distributor-circuit contracts regulating subsequent run admissions were ruled illegal by the United States Supreme Court, will be filed by the defendants with that tribunal before March 13th.

Additional developments in suits concerning trade practices, including the theatre "divorcement" issue in North Dakota, appear on page 23, followed by a three-page table of anti-trust actions of the past year.

Patent Rights

Rights to manufacture devices for the application of the photoelectric cell to motion picture sound reproduction and other purposes, under the Radtke patent, were acquired this week by the American Telephone & Telegraph Company for its Western Electric and other subsidiaries. The patent, long an issue in the motion picture industry's sound suits, was finally granted to Albert A. Radtke, Chicago inventor, in April, 1938. Western Electric acquired its rights in a cross-licensing agreement with the Polytechnic Corporation of New York, which controls the Radtke patent. According to Leonard Day, chief administrative officer of Polytechnic, the Western Electric license covers all types of photoelectric application. RCA was licensed by Polytechnic about a year ago.

Bette Davis, Spencer Tracy and Columbia Win Academy Awards

Columbia's "You Can't Take It with You" was the outstanding motion picture produced in 1938 and Spencer Tracy and Bette Davis gave the best performances of the year, the membership of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences has decided. The plaques were presented Thursday night at the annual dinner at the Biltmore Bowl in Los Angeles, attended by 1,250.

PRODUCTION
"You Can't Take It with You," Columbia.

ACTOR
Spencer Tracy in "Boys Town," MGM.

ACTRESS
Bette Davis in "Jezebel," Warner.

SUPPORTING ACTOR
Walter Brennan in "Kentucky," Twentieth Century-Fox.

SUPPORTING ACTRESS
Fay Bainter in "Jezebel," Warner.

DIRECTOR
Frank Capra, "You Can't Take It with You," Columbia.

SCREEN PLAY
George Bernard Shaw, screen play and dialogue; W. P. Lipscomb, Cecil Lewis and Ian Dalrymple, adaptation, of "Pygmalion," MGM.

ORIGINAL
Dore Schary and Eleanore Griffin for "Boys Town," MGM.

ART DIRECTION
Carl Weyl for "The Adventures of Robin Hood," Warner Bros.

FILM EDITING
Ralph Dawson for "The Adventures of Robin Hood," Warner Bros.

SOUND RECORDING
T. T. Moulton for "The Cowboy and the Lady," Samuel Goldwyn-UA.

CINEMATOGRAPHY
Joseph Ruttenberg for "The Great Waltz," MGM.

IRVING G. THALBERG AWARD
Hal B. Wallis.

SHORT SUBJECTS
Cartoon: Walt Disney for "Ferdinand the Bull," RKO Radio.
1,000 Feet or Less: MGM for "That Mothers Might Live."
1,000 to 3,000 Feet: Warner Bros. for "The Declaration of Independence."

MUSIC
Best Song: Ralph Rainger and Leo Robin for "Thanks for the Memory," in Paramount's "Big Broadcast of 1938."
Best Scoring: Alfred Newman for "Alexander's Ragtime Band," Twentieth Century-Fox.
Best Original Musical Score: Eric Wolfgang Korngold, for "The Adventures of Robin Hood."

TECHNICAL AWARDS

Color Cinematography. A plaque to Oliver Marsh and Allan Davey for their work in MGM's "Sweethearts."

To Deanna Durbin and Mickey Rooney

To Harry M. Warner, president of Warner Bros., "in recognition of patriotic service in the production of historical short subjects." A scroll.

To Walt Disney for "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs." Trophy.

For their work in "Spawn of the North," Paramount: to Gordon Jennings for special effects, Farciot Edouart for transparencies, and Loren Ryder for sound effects. Plaques.

To J. Arthur Ball (recently resigned as vice-president of Technicolor) "for his outstanding contribution in the advancement of color." Scroll.

SCIENTIFIC AWARDS

No major awards.

Honorable mention to John Aalberg and the RKO Radio sound department for the application of compression to variable area recording.

Honorable mention to Byron Haskin and the special effects department of Warner Brothers studio for pioneering the development of the triple head background projector.

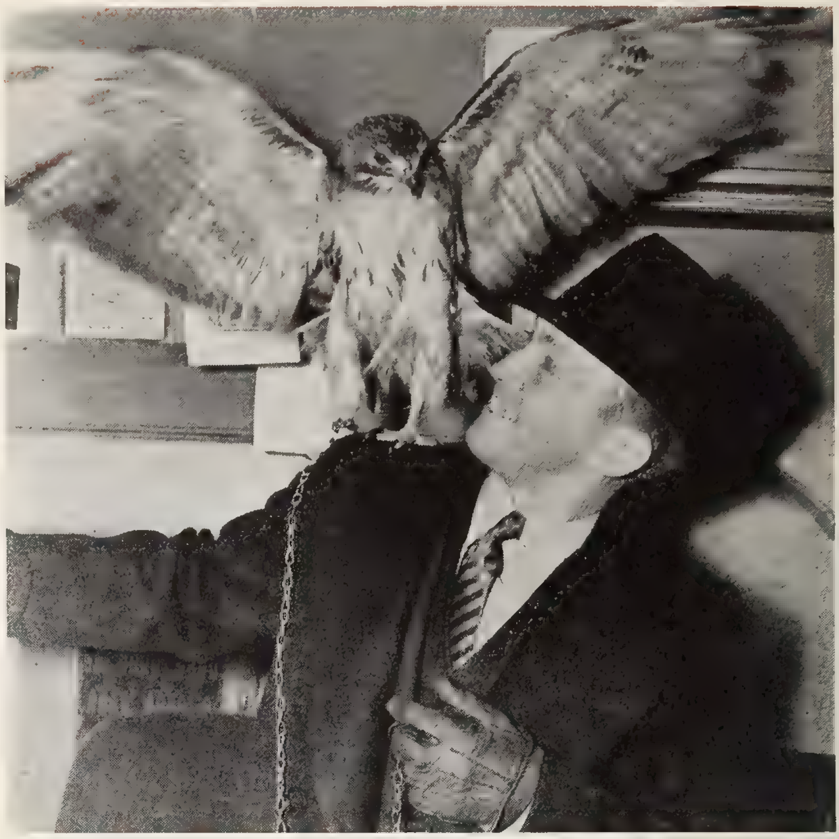
This Week In Pictures

EXHIBITOR becomes falconer, for practical ends rather than for exploitation, although yards of publicity expressed the gratitude of a city. Al Freeman, right, manager of the Majestic theatre, Springfield, Ohio, and somewhat of a naturalist, bought that Cooper falcon to rid his marquee of a plague of starlings who annoyed patrons and passersby. The starlings left.

SCOTCHMEN welcome Adolph Zukor. Grouped around the meagerly burdened table at a reception in Glasgow following a trade showing of Paramount's "Stolen Life" are C. G. Dickinson, general sales manager for Great Britain; J. A. Hamson, David Rose, British production head; Mr. Zukor, John W. Hicks, Jr., foreign distribution chief; C. R. Young and Earl St. John.

THE W. RAY JOHNSTON silver jubilee celebration continues at a studio party at the Lakeside Golf Club, Hollywood. Around the table are William Powers, Fox West Coast; Rick Ricketson, Fox West Coast; Leo McCarthy, Ralph Bettinson, Monogram studios; Horace Harris, The Cinema, London; Dorothy Reid, story editor at Monogram; Gordon Ellis, Monogram distributor in Australia; Mrs. Ralph Bettinson, Sam Harris, publisher of The Cinema, and Elmer Rhodes, Fox West Coast.

E. V. DINERMAN, extreme right, winner of the Class A Quigley Award for the fourth quarter of 1938, receives his Silver Plaque and the key to the city from James G. Stewart, mayor of Cincinnati. Arthur Frudenfeld, left, RKO Midwest division manager, arranged the presentation.



W. J. GELL, director of Pathe Pictures, Ltd., in England, is, since publication of the New Year's honors list, a Commander of the British Empire, an order conferred in recognition of his company's films on the 1938 crises.

By Blackstone

FRANK C. WALKER, designated trustee of the Comerford circuit in the will of the late M. E. Comerford, this week said his efforts would be devoted to continuing Mr. Comerford's policies. See page 36.

By Metropolitan

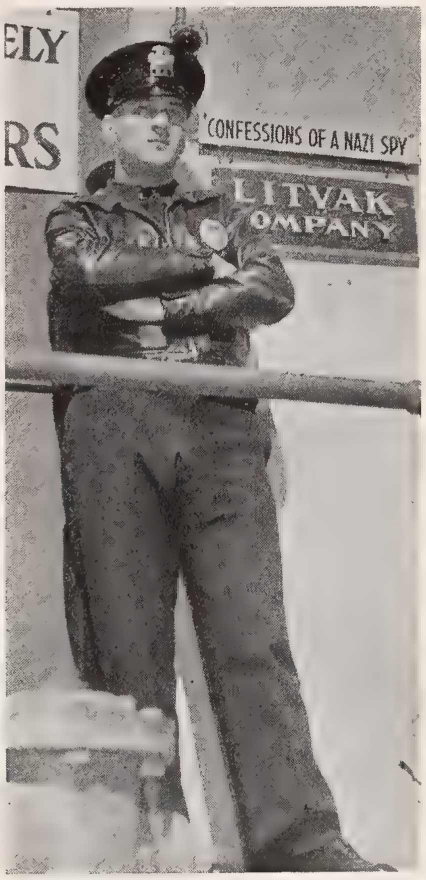
GEORGE J. SCHAEFER arrives with Mrs. Schaefer in New York prepared to resume the reins at the RKO Radio home offices.

MURRAY SILVERSTONE, below, executive head of United Artists, announces on his return from long meetings in Hollywood that the company will increase its foreign production commitments.

By Staff Photographer

By Metropolitan

DISTRICT managers for the Loew New York circuit gather at luncheon to observe the birthday of Charles C. Moskowitz, general executive of the circuit, at the Hotel Astor in New York. Executives, beginning at the upper left, are: Harry Moskowitz, Oscar A. Doob, Marvin Schenck, Leopold Friedman, Moskowitz, Eugene Picker, and, with their backs to the camera, Ernest Emerling, S. H. Meinhold and John Murphy.



ELY
RS
"CONFESSIONS OF A NAZI SPY"
LITVAK
OMPANY

A SPECIAL officer guards the entrance to the stage on the Warner lot where "Confessions of a Nazi Spy" is being filmed, typifying the precautions taken to maintain secrecy.

AT TOWN HALL, New York, for "America's Town Meeting of the Air" Walter Wanger, below, broadcasts on "Has Twentieth Century Civilization Improved Mankind?"

JACK COHN, below, vice-president of Columbia, returns to New York from studio conferences in Hollywood. The brick wall is a corner in Grand Central Station.

By Cosmo-Sileo

W. C. FIELDS, known variously in "You Can't Cheat an Honest Man" as Larson E. Whipsnade, star, and Charles Bogle, author, discuss the film with Ann Ronell, who wrote two songs for the picture, and B. Bernard Kreisler, Universal representative. Miss Ronell is a sister of Sol A. Rosenblatt.

STUDIOS PICK HOME THEME IN SPEEDING 1939-40 FILMS

Plans for New Season Turn Attention of Industry from Litigation and Legislation; Total to Equal Present Season Product

While their company lawyers and corporate executives in New York are engaged in the business of arranging for self-regulation for distribution-exhibition, and preparing to defend the U. S. Government's anti-trust suit and a score of district court trust suits, the producing departments of the majors in Hollywood—and virtually all independents, too—are going right ahead moulding product plans for 1939-40. An insight into the studios discloses that even at this early date much progress has been made in creating a supply of new product for next season for the screens of most of the world.

Seven of the eleven large companies have decided to make some 359 features for 1939-40, about the same number to which they are committed this year. Only four—Grand National, United Artists, Universal and Warner Brothers—have not set complete schedules, although they, too, are well advanced in the selection of stories and talent. Half of the companies have already set dates and places for their annual sales conventions, these signaling the official beginning of selling.

Of all the trends toward types contemplated for 1939-40, "Americanism" is the most outstanding, numerically, at least.

Growing out of the long-threatened international strife, "Americanism" and "patriotism" were made subjects of motion picture treatment as long ago as last fall. Now deeply imbedded in film fabrication, the theme is certain to continue well into the new film year. Already the subject has brought 14 features and 21 shorts from the studios of Hollywood, and announcements that another 29 features and 63 shorts are contemplated, with more likely to come. (See page 17.)

In the first few weeks of this year, 13 producers purchased 57 features for 1939-40, many outstanding books and plays counted among them. (Titles and talent assignments to date appear on page 16.)

Based on product already lined up there will be no appreciable change in the usual yearly total of about 575 features, 625 short subjects, four serials and the five semi-weekly newsreels.

There is promised, however, a wide extension of bigger-budgeted pictures and a decrease of the so-called Class "B's," this from virtually every one of the 11 large companies. Action will be emphasized, glamour-girl musicals and "screwball" comedies will lose much ground. Straight comedies, operettas, musical backgrounds, biographies and many dealing with contemporary political and social problems represent the rest of the contemplated range.

The average annual $200,000,000 production budget may well increase to $225,000,000.

Pictures and budgets already set for the new year, new talent contracted for, and other plans and policies, both specific and general, are outlined in the company-by-company disclosure of 1939-40 product arrangements made to date, which follows:

TAX COLLECTIONS RISE IN JANUARY

Outpacing the corresponding month of the previous year for the first time since last March, admission tax collections in January totaled $1,564,134, compared with $1,353,415 in the same month in 1938, it was reported February 21st by the Internal Revenue Bureau.

For the first seven months of the fiscal year which began July 1, last, admission tax collections aggregated $11,878,708 and were $928,724 under the $12,807,432 reported for the corresponding period a year ago.

Columbia Pictures

Winding up sales activities for this season with a year-end booking drive, called "Columbia's Personal Achievement Campaign," starting a month ago, and ending March 8th, Columbia Pictures turned to the business of 1939-40 product and policy with a series of executive meetings in Hollywood last week, attended by Harry Cohn, president, who disclosed new plans for the studio, and Jack Cohn, vice-president; A. Schneider, treasurer; Abe Montague, general sales manager, and Joseph McConville, foreign sales manager, these four from the home office and heading up corporate management and sales in New York.

There will be no change in the usual numerical lineup of 56 features, 40 regular features and 16 western features, but there will be an increase in high-budget pictures, a matter decided at the studio conferences. There will be a sharp reduction in Class "B" features.

One hundred and twenty-six shorts will again be produced—26 in two-reel length and 100 ones, plus four serials, the usual number. Jules White will continue to produce the shorts.

The high-budget features will be the result of the signing of Frank Lloyd, Wesley Ruggles and Mitchell Leisen as producer-directors, Mr. Lloyd highlighting the company's new program with "The Tree of Liberty," new American historical novel recently purchased prior to publication.

Columbia will elevate their "Three Stooges" from short subject comedy roles to features.

Another highlight for 1939-40 will be the Margaret Sidney Lathrop series of best-sellers, "Five Little Peppers," as starring vehicles for Edith Fellows, starting with "Five Little Peppers and How They Grew."

It is likely that Loretta Young, of the Twentieth Century-Fox roster, will do a feature for Columbia for next year, opposite Cary Grant in "Our Wife."

Columbia has signed Rose Stradner, European actress brought to Hollywood by MGM. She will appear first in "Blind Alley," with Chester Morris, Jean Perry and Ralph Bellamy.

Exhibitors will again find Joe E. Brown on Columbia's feature program, the company having signed the comedian to return to the studio for two years, starting with "Call Me Joe."

Product from England will continue to come from Irving Asher, whose contract to produce the company's quota pictures was extended for a year. Four are set for 1939-40, reputedly costing $1,000,000, and starting in April, probably featuring American players. Mr. Asher's "Q Planes" will be released in the United States by Columbia.

The new year will find Columbia extending considerably its foreign filmmaking activities. The company has signed with Producciones Grovas and Jose Luis Bueno, of Mexico City, to produce three features each for distribution in Latin America in 1939-40. It is possible that other Spanish feature assignments will increase the list to nine—all on a world distribution basis. Three Spanish features were handled by the company this season. The company additionally will produce features in Argentina.

The new season will mark the beginning of a plan to market French language films in this country. The company announced a series of "Famous Foreign Features," starting with "Life Dances On," with super-imposed English titles.

Grand National-Educational

Grand National's status and 1939-40 production program are now being established at studio conferences between E. W. Hammons, president, from New York, and Jack Skirball, production head, and Franklyn Warner, head of Fine Arts, principal contributing producer in Grand National. At the conferences Mr. Hammons will also decide whether there will be any Educational shorts.

Mr. Hammons on the eve of his leaving New York, announced that Grand National will deliver all 1938 commitments. Arcadia Pictures, another Grand National producer, headed by Mr. Skirball, will put three more features into production by March 15.

The New Grand National will feature in the new year a series of westerns starring Max (prizefighter) Baer. Six films are specified in the contract.

Features may be produced in 1939-40 by Al Christie, the company's short subjects producer, who has set up new headquarters at the company's studio in Hollywood.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer

This company will be the first to hold its annual new-season sales convention, opening on March 19th, for three days, in Chicago, probably at the Congress Hotel, with William F. Rodgers, general sales manager, presiding and explaining the 1939-40 product and sales policy, including the reported dropping of some of the present short subject series and reduction in the number of others.

One of the highlights for the new season will be "Madame Pompadour," famous New York stage play of 1924, rights to which were purchased Monday.

The company also will have a four-reel subject, "They All Come Out," to be produced in cooperation with the United States Government, based on Federal prison life.

MGM has signed Henry C. Potter, formerly of Broadway, as a director starting with 1939-

(Continued on following page)

HOLLYWOOD EMPHASIZES ACTION

40 assignments. Lou Ostrow will hereafter get credit as associate producer on the "Hardy Family" films.

New writing contracts have been given Ernest Vajda, Jacques Deval and Joe Laurie, Jr., Mr. Deval having been assigned to "Balalaika" and Mr. Vajda to the Broadway play, "Excursion." Other new contracts will bring to the 1939-40 program Henry C. Potter, director; Brown Holmes, writer, and Jo Ann Sayers and Rand Brook, players.

The new season's contribution from George Bernard Shaw, following "Pygmalion" of this year, will be "Doctor's Dilemma," likewise to be produced by Gabriel Pascal in England.

Mr. Pascal will produce a feature based on the life of Amelia Earhart, having concluded such arrangements with George Palmer Putnam, husband of the late aviatrix. Leopold Stokowski is already working on the musical theme. Either Wendy Hiller or Greer Garson will play the lead, with a cast including Roland Young, C. Aubrey Smith, Cedric Hardwicke, Paul Lukas and Jean Cadel. Following that Mr. Pascal plans to film George Bernard Shaw's "Major Barbara" and then "Devil's Disciple." The latter probably will be released by MGM, in 1939-40, but no arrangements for distribution have been made on "Doctor's Dilemma" and the Earhart picture, Mr. Pascal preferring to negotiate individual deals.

Mickey Rooney will probably go to England to make "Mickey Rooney at Eton," for next season.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer in all probability will continue with its policy of an elastic numerical lineup, the same as the 44-to-52 features of this season, with changes, if any, coming in the usual program of 12 two-reelers and 80 ones—again, no serials.

Monogram Pictures

With its annual sales convention expected in May in New Orleans, the Monogram Pictures headed by W. Ray Johnston will increase its usual program of 42 features—no short subjects—to 54 features for 1939-40, 40 of them regular pictures, and 24 westerns, including eight starring Tex Ritter, another eight with Jack Randall, and eight reissues featuring John Wayne.

The company is now lining up "name" stars for its 18 top-bracket features, and on these, as at other studios, production budgets will be considerably increased.

The "James Lee Wong" series starring Boris Karloff, the Frankie Darro group and the "Tailspin Tommy" series will continue.

This year's lineup is continuing at full speed, with two films now filming, six in preparation and four others ready for release. E. B. Derr is ready with four additional stories for Monogram production.

As with nearly all other companies, Monogram now is in the middle of a national sales campaign and booking drive, this company dedicating its efforts to the occasion of the 25th anniversary of Mr. Johnston, its president. More than 6,000 contracts have already been sold for 1939-40 and the company expects to exceed its sales quota of $6,000,000.

Paramount

Fifty-eight pictures to cost $28,000,000. That's the basis of the 1939-40 feature program of Paramount Pictures, as outlined by Neil Agnew, vice-president in charge of distribution. Paramount was the first to make announcement of definite nature on the new year's plans.

Indicating the trend at the studio, Mr. Agnew said that "America's taste in screen entertainment has concentrated itself on fast action and romantic dramas against colorful backgrounds and with human down-to-earth emotions and comedy. Our company has tailored its 1939 program to fit these demands."

OUTDOOR PICTURES LEAD, SAYS JOHN FORD

John Ford, director, who recently completed "Stagecoach" for Walter Wanger, visiting in New York last week, made the observation that "outdoor films with an action motif are staging a comback and they will dominate 1939 production. Westerns are once more rising in popularity."

The 58 features announced for 1939-40 are identical in number to the present season. It is expected that the company also will have about the same number of shorts, 102.

Mr. Agnew has outlined 31 features to be released during the remainder of 1938-39 and running well into 1939-40, as follows:

"Zaza" headed the list of new releases, followed by "Paris Honeymoon," starring Bing Crosby; "St. Louis Blues," with Dorothy Lamour; "Cafe Society," Madeleine Carroll, Fred MacMurray and Shirley Ross; "The Beachcomber," Charles Laughton and Elsa Lanchester; "Hotel Imperial," Isa Miranda and Ray Milland; "Never Say Die," Bob Hope and Martha Raye; "I'm from Missouri," Bob Burns; "The Lady from Kentucky," George Raft and Ellen Drew; Cecil B DeMille's "Union Pacific," with Barbara Stanwyck and Joel McCrea; "Midnight," Claudette Colbert and Don Ameche, and "Man About Town," with Jack Benny and Dorothy Lamour.

Additional titles listed were "Beau Geste," with Gary Cooper; "The Gracie Allen Murder Case," "The Light That Failed," "Wife Under Contract," "The Cat and the Canary," "Air Raid," "Are Husbands Necessary?" "Navy Nurse," "Lady Eve," "The Star Maker," with Bing Crosby; "Knights of the Round Table," "The Amazing Marriage," "Invitation to Happiness," "The World's Applause," "Follow the Sun," "Lives of a Texas Ranger," "Disputed Passage," "Untamed" and "What a Life."

One of the first series-producers to be signed by Paramount for 1939-40 was Harry Sherman, who this week contracted to make six "Hopalong Cassidy" and two Zane Grey pictures, the "Hopalongs" continuing with William Boyd. In addition, he will continue to the program ten westerns, an increase over this year, one O'Henry story, a Rex Beach story and a special feature on the life of Buffalo Bill, having purchased two Buffalo Bill stories from Captain Frank Winch, long associated with the Indian fighter. Harrison Jacobs is merging the two stories into one.

Paramount started its 1939-40 production in England last week, Anthony Asquith directing "Peace In Our Time" at the Denham Studio, London. "French Without Tears" will follow.

Paul Jones, producer, will continue in 1939-40, and for four years after that, having signed a new contract.

Edward H. Griffith, director, has been signed on a new two-year contract, starting with "Are Husbands Necessary?" starring Madeleine Carroll and Fred MacMurray.

One of the company's big feature highlights of 1939-40 will be Max Fleischer's full-length cartoon, "Gulliver's Travels," which will be ready about Christmas.

One old Paramount standby—George Raft, will not be seen on next year's schedule. The company cancelled his contract last month following a disagreement.

Radio Pictures

This company is another that favors the elastic-type of program, scheduling from 40 to 48 for 1939-40, same as this year. The shorts lineup, however, has not been set. The company is releasing 38 two-reelers and 57 ones this season. The feature budget for next year is expected to reach $20,000,000.

For 1939-40, Leslie Howard will produce three in England, starting with "The Man Who Found Himself." Starring contracts for next season's features have been signed with Carole Lombard, Claudette Colbert, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr. and Cary Grant.

Another 1939-40 highlight will be Joe Penner, who for five years has been on the company's star roster, and was given a new contract in January.

June and New York are the probable time and place for the new season's sales convention.

Although no deal has been set, Broadway hears that the company is interested in the film rights of "The American Way," season's outstanding stage success on Broadway.

Another important addition for next year will be "The Hunchback of Notre Dame," famous silent feature made by Universal, which had sold the rights to MGM, which, in turn, disposed of the property to RKO. It will be the largest on Pandro Berman's new schedule. And, of course, there will be Walt Disney's second feature cartoon, for which he has signed Leopold Stokowski for musical work. RKO, too, will re-release the Disney "Snow White" for 1939-40.

March of Time, magazine newsreel will continue at RKO, and, in addition, the magazine publishers will produce a feature for the company for next season. If successful, March of Time will produce other features.

Herbert Wilcox, important British contributor to RKO's U. S. program, has revised his cooperative producing arrangement with the company. He will probably start with a feature based on the life of Lord Kitchener, British army hero.

Anna Neagle, London star, will make three RKO features, and all will probably be costume stories. She will film in Hollywood, arriving there from England in March.

RKO may distribute "Katia" in 1939-40. E. A. Algazy made the feature in France, starring Danielle Darrieux, now under contract to Universal.

George O'Brien will continue making westerns for Radio, having three more to make under his old contract.

Republic

This company held pre-seasonal product conferences in New York as early as mid-January, where it was determined that the 1939-40 program would comprise 31 features and 24 westerns, compared to the present season's 55. The company has no short subjects. Again there will be four serials.

The westerns will continue in three series each with eight subjects, one group each with Gene Autry, Roy Rogers and "The Three Mesquiteers."

Here, too, production budgets will be increased.

20th Century-Fox

Reducing its 1938-39 feature program of 56 features to 52 in 1939-40, Twentieth Century-Fox has earmarked some $30,000,000 for the feature program next season. About the same number of shorts will be released, 52. Here, too, the company is increasing its budget all along the line of its first-line pictures.

(Continued on following page)

DISTRIBUTORS SET SALES DRIVES

(Continued from preceding page)

Of the 52, 48 will be made in Hollywood and four by Robert T. Kane in London.

Two of the new pictures, both to be made in England, will star Gracie Fields, the well known English comedy hall star. First for her will be "Sally Goes to Town," to be produced by Monty Banks, who also will produce the second, working at Gainsborough Studio (Gaumont British), London.

Sidney Kent, president and Herman Wobber, general sales manager, will meet with Darryl Zanuck in California March 16th to complete details of the program and budget.

Although the 1939-40 sales convention has been set for April 14th to 16th, Chicago, it is possible the date may be advanced.

Of the new program, Mr. Zanuck will make 28 features and Sol Wurtzel the remaining 20 to be produced in Hollywood. The first 1939-40 production will be "Stanley and Livingstone," slated to be a program highlight, and which is now in production at Movietone City. The budget is reputedly set at $2,000,000.

Of the eight features to be made by Gainsborough Productions in England, Fox will release four, but will finance the entire group.

Of the 1939-40 product, series pictures will again play an important part, various groups including four with Jane Withers, three Charley Chans, four "Jones Family," three "Mr. Moto's." Higher budgets will also be allotted to these.

Paul Terry will again make 26 Terrytoons, about eight of them in color. The present Lew Lehr series will be abandoned for another type with the same person.

Darryl Zanuck is expected to have four of his new features in work by April, and Sol Wurtzel may start even earlier.

Another big feature slated for next season is "Scotland Yard," to be produced by Mr. Zanuck.

Two pictures will come from Henry Fonda, who has been signed to a long term contract for Zanuck filming, following his work in "Jesse James," current.

Cosmopolitan will produce from four to six features annually, and besides, will make available to Fox for Fox filming the several hundred stories owned by Cosmopolitan. The first three pictures to be released are, "The Life of Graham Bell," with a cast headed by Loretta Young, Don Ameche and Henry Fonda, and Irving Cummings directing; "The Return of the Cisco Kid," and "Young Mr. Lincoln," about Abraham Lincoln, in which Henry Fonda will play the name role.

United Artists

This company is well on its way, after an early start, with plans for 1939-40.

Edward Small will remain with the company, producing until 1945. He will make from six to eight for 1930-40, starting with "The Man in the Iron Mask," already in production. Joan Bennett and Louis Hayward are starred. Mr. Small also has signed Wallace Beery for a 1939-40 feature, and has signed Jackie Cooper, Tom Brown and may have Randolph Scott, each to appear in one. Mr. Small's expanded activities have required him to get larger studio space, at General Service Studios (Erpi), in Hollywood, where he has acquired C. W. Thornton, formerly with Erpi, for the post of general manager, and Val Paul, formerly Universal studio manager, as production manager.

Some of Mr. Small's other features will include "My Son, My Son," from Howard Spring's novel; "Kid Carson," starting in April; "Life of Valentino," and "Pago Pago." The Small pictures will be financed by Guaranty Trust Company, New York.

> ### NO "GROPING IN THE DARK"
>
> I think your Herald and Better Theatres the most helpful and necessary of anything I've seen.
>
> I do not feel I can get along without it unless I wish to be "groping in the dark" and no exhibitor can afford to do that.
>
> —MARIE HRACHOVEC,
> White River Theatre,
> White River, S. D.

Murray Silverstone, operating head of the distributing company, declares that the numerical lineup will be greater than this year—30 are on the present schedule.

Alexander Korda, producing partner from London, will contribute six films to the new program. Four of the six will be done in color, starting with "The Thief of Bagdad," then "Lawrence of Arabia," "Jungle Book," starring Sabu; "Conquest of the Air" and two undetermined stories starring Merle Oberon.

His production budget is set at $7,500,000.

Mr. Silverstone and Hal Roach last week arranged for $5,000,000 of financing from Security First National Bank of Los Angeles with which he will produce six features for 1939-40, starting with "Captain Fury," to be directed by Mr. Roach, followed by "Water Gypsies," Donald Henderson Clark's "The Housekeeper's Daughter"; "Roadshow" and an undetermined feature to star Margaret Sullavan. Two more Hardy-Langdon pictures are tentatively scheduled with the same cast as their "It's Spring Again."

Walter Wanger will produce six for U. A. in 1939-40, with a combined budget running from $6,000,000 to $7,000,000.

Although the matter of David Selznick's continuing at United Artists has not yet been determined, Selznick International Pictures is going right ahead with its plans for next season. The highlight of his program, of course, will be "Gone With the Wind," but this is expected to go through MGM. Others on his schedule will be "Swanee River," based on the life of Stephen Foster, noted Amercian composer, whose well known Southern melodies will form the background. This definitely will be released by U. A.

This week Samuel G. Engel joined Mr. Selznick, going to him from producing at Paramount, and will produce three Selznicks in 1939-40.

Charlie Chaplin will return to the ranks of U. A. producing partners, making "The Dictators" for 1939-40. Besides producing, Chaplin will talk from the screen for the first time, playing a dual role. Shooting starts March 15th.

Douglas Fairbanks, too, will become active as a producing-partner, producing several, mostly in London.

Although Samuel Goldwyn has not completed his program plans, he will in all probability again contribute the largest number from among the U. A. partners.

United Artists will maintain its international policy by boosting its foreign production commitments, according to Murray Silverstone. With 40 to 50 per cent of the company's revenue coming from the world market, U. A. will sponsor the production of at least eight and probably 10 features in the Spanish language for Latin-American release.

The company also has an understanding with Cinesound studio in Sydney, Australia, for the production of one or more features, and is negotiating for French films for release in France and French territory.

Universal

Universal's home office and studio executives have held several conferences in recent weeks on 1939-40 production and policy matters. This year the company is committed to about 50 features, including several westerns.

There will in all likelihood be another 68 one reelers and 13 twos,, and again the company will have four serials—"The Oregon Trail," with Johnny Mack Brown starred and Henry MacRae producing; "The Shadow Creeps," mystery detective story; another "Buck Rogers" chapter-play, and "Conquering the Universe," all two reels and running from 12 to 15 chapters.

First disclose of 1939-40 feature plans came with the engagement of Harry Edington to produce four annually for the next 10 years. He will work as Famous Pictures, and will make first "Atlantic Cable," from a script by Dennison Clift, starting filming on May 1st. Two originals will follow, first "Paris Streets," a romance of the Latin quarter, and then a South Sea Island drama.

Ben Pivar will produce pictures for Universal in 1939-40. He will make seven features starring Richard Arlen and Andy Devine.

Universal next season will have a picture starring Joan Blondell. As her first outside deal since leaving Warners, the star will play opposite Bing Crosby in "U's" "East Side of Heaven."

Also, W. C. Fields will appear in an unnamed feature for the company, to be produced by Lester Cowan.

Warner Brothers

Following a series of 1939-40 production discussions at Burbank between home office and studio officials, the production chiefs will in a few days go to New York to conclude the talks.

Of the 52 features scheduled for the present season, 43 have already been completed, and the company will probably have the same total in 1939-40, also 30 two reel subjects and 104 ones.

The company will release the last two Cosmopolitan productions this season.

Reporting that the first quarter business of the "Gradwell Sears" sales drive shows an increase of 15 per cent over last year in disposing of this season's bookings, the company reported that it has slated a new series of detective features for next year, to be called "Old and Young King Brady." Ronald Reagan will star.

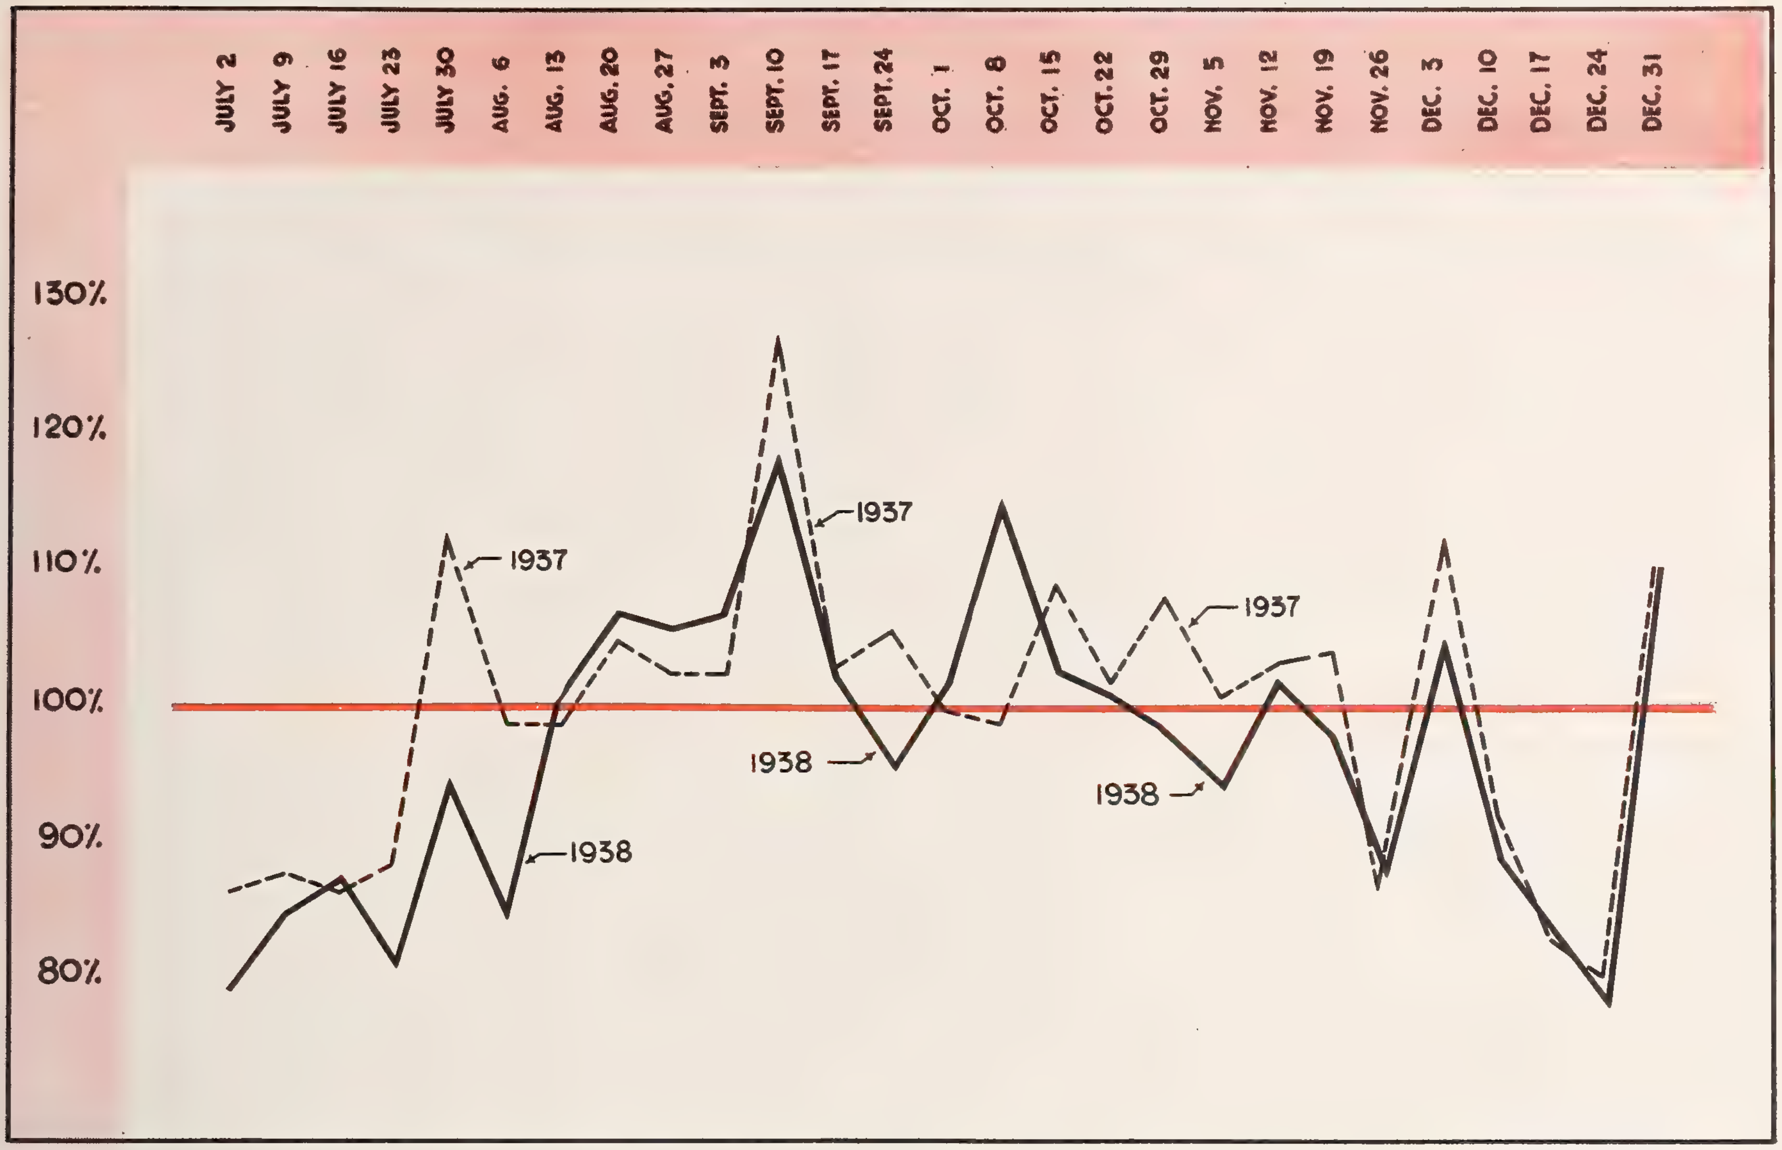
Plans have been completed also to remake "Disraeli," with Claude Rains in the title role.

Paul Muni will appear in "Dr. Martin Niemoeller, the Bishop Who Walked with God," about the Lutheran minister's persecution in Berlin at the hands of the Nazis.

Edward G. Robinson will continue to be seen in Warner pictures, having signed a new long term contract, starting with "Confessions of a Nazi Spy" and "Brother Orchid." Also given a new contract was Donald Crisp, and Aldrich Bowker, going into films for the first time from the Broadway stage.

Another important Warner feature will be "The Story of the Wright Brothers," dealing with the inception of aviation in this country. A film based on the life of John Dillinger, late Public Enemy No. 1, will be on the new program.

A Line on Business of the First-Runs



How the first-run theatres of the United States, and of Canada, fared in the second half of 1938, in comparison with their gross receipts for the same period in the preceding year, is shown in the chart, from Motion Picture Herald's compilation of reports on grosses in thirteen key cities. The week-by-week reports of at least three leading theatres in each of the cities was studied in the analysis, which covers the entire period of the Motion Picture's Greatest Year, September 1st through December 31st, plus the two months preceding the campaign.

The reported grosses of all the theatres under consideration were totaled for each week and then expressed in percentages, with the average weekly gross for the 1937 period as 100 per cent.

The cities are Boston, Chicago, Cleveland, Denver, Los Angeles, Minneapolis, Montreal, New York, Oklahoma City, Omaha, Philadelphia, San Francisco and Seattle.

Alperson Leaves Grand National

Edward L. Alperson in Hollywood this week submitted his resignation as vice-president and general sales manager of the recently organized Grand National to E. W. Hammons, president. Mr. Alperson said he would take a brief vacation before joining another enterprise.

Mr. Hammons said a successor to Mr. Alperson would be named within 10 days, that he was negotiating with a well known industry figure for the post and that the announcement would be made in New York.

Mr. Hammons was in Hollywood for production conferences with Jack Skirball, production executive, and Franklyn Warner, head of Fine Arts, and a contributing prodcer. Another decision to be made is whether Educational, the parent company, will continue producing short subjects.

Meanwhile Arcadia Pictures, producing subsidiary of Grand National and headed by Mr. Skirball, announced it would put three additional pictures into production by March 15th. One already is in the shooting stage.

Dr. Eugene Frenke has turned over the negative and prints of "Exile Express," which stars his wife, Anna Sten, to Grand National after a long dispute over the releasing arrangements.

Engel with Selznick

Sam Engel has joined Selznick International as an associate producer to make three pictures a year. He recently was with Paramount, earlier with Twentieth Century-Fox.

Kansas City Schools Pledge No Competition with Films

The Kansas City, Mo., school system will not compete with exhibitors through showing entertainment films, E. E. Webber, Jr., president of the Independent Theatre Owners there, said this week after he had conferred with Rupert Peters, director of the visual education department of the school board.

The occasion for anxiety on the part of exhibitors was the purchase of 16 mm. sound equipment by the school board for the first time. The equipment was bought for experimental purposes, Mr. Peters said, and would show entertainment films only occasionally at school assemblies, and then not at an admission.

13 STUDIOS BUY "FIRST CROP" OF 57 STORIES FOR 1939-40 PRODUCTION

Universal Leads with 16 Purchases; 11 Producers Acquire 42 Originals; "Hunchback" Bought by RKO from MGM

The first harvest of books, plays and original stories for feature filming in 1939-40 has brought 57 manuscripts into the Hollywood silos in the first few weeks of the year.

Production executives and talent scouts of Universal Pictures, leading story buyer in January, brought in 16 properties, followed by Twentieth Century-Fox, with nine; divided among four originals, three magazine stories, and two books. Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer and Paramount acquired seven and six properties, respectively, in both cases restricted to originals.

42 Originals Bought

For the sixth successive month, originals outnumbered all other forms of material bought, with 11 producers acquiring 42 originals, representing 74 per cent of the total, compared to seven magazine stories, six books, one play and one radio program. Only Columbia and Walt Disney, of all the purchasing producers, did not acquire originals.

Following its December purchase of "Invisible Stripes," Warner Brothers last month acquired "You Can't Get Away With Murder," by the same authors, Warden Lewis E. Lawes of Sing Sing, and Jonathan Finn. Paramount purchased "I Want a Divorce," the first radio program bought by any Hollywood producer since July, 1937.

Victor Hugo's famous novel, "The Hunchback of Notre Dame," one of Universal's biggest pictures of yesteryear, was bought by RKO from Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, which had acquired the rights from Universal. Another important purchase made by one company from another was Zoe Atkins' play "The Old Maid," which Paramount sold to Warner Brothers. Clarence Budington Kelland, who wrote Columbia's "Mr. Deeds Goes to Town," is reported to have received $35,000 for his magazine story, "Arizona," from the same company.

January Purchases

The month's purchases, with all available production credits, follow:

All Wires Down, original by John Peere Niles, purchased by Sol Lesser.

Arizona, magazine story by Clarence Budington Kelland, purchased by Columbia.

Belle Starr, and Belle Starr, Gadfly of the Civil War, magazine stories by Cameron Rogers, as part of a series of articles later reprinted in book form. Purchased by Twentieth Century-Fox.

Caballero's Way, The, novel by O. Henry (William Sydney Porter), purchased by Twentieth Century-Fox.

Casey Jones, original by Julien Josephson, purchased by Paramount for Bob Burns. George Arthur will produce.

City Mother, original by Robert Bren and Gladys Atwater, purchased by Paramount.

Code of the Cactus, original by Edward Halperin, purchased by Victory Pictures. Sam Newfield will direct.

Code of the Legion, original by Hugh King and Dennis Moore, purchased by Universal.

Another "Kildare" Story

Dr. Kildare's Mistake, tentative title of new story based on the Max Brand series, writing credits undetermined as yet. Lionel Barrymore and Lew Ayres will have the leading roles in the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production.

STORY PURCHASES OF YEAR COMPARED

Month	Originals	Books	Plays	Totals
February, 1938	28	10(a)	0	38
March	14	9(b)	2	25
April	25	9(c)	3	37
May	23	13	0	36
June	24	32(d)	3	59
July	11	5	2	18
August	44	43(e)	6	93
September	39	10(f)	2	51
October	23	28(g)	1	52
November	34	19(h)	6	59
December	27	14(i)	2	43
January, 1939	42	14(j)	1	57
TOTALS FOR 12 MONTHS	334	206(k)	28	568

(a) Including 1 published magazine story.
(b) Including 3 published magazine stories.
(c) Including 6 published magazine stories and 1 comic strip.
(d) Including 3 published magazine stories.
(e) Including 5 published magazine stories and 1 newspaper serial.
(f) Including 2 published magazine stories and 1 newspaper comic strip.
(g) Including 4 published magazine stories.
(h) Including 13 published magazine stories.
(i) Including 12 published magazine stories.
(j) Including 7 published magazine stories and 1 radio program.

Echoes That Old Refrain, magazine story by Corey Ford, purchased by Walter Wanger Productions (United Artists).

End of the World, original by Louis Weitzenkorn, purchased by Warner Brothers.

Ex-Champ, original by Gordon Kahn, purchased by Universal.

Family Next Door, original by Mortimer Offner, purchased by Universal.

Fast and Loose, original by Marco Page, purchased by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer; Robert Montgomery and Rosalind Russell will have the leading roles. E. L. Marin will direct and Frederick Stephani will produce.

For Love or Money, original by Dan Taradash, Julian Blaustein and Bernard Feins, purchased by Universal.

Full Confession, original by Leo Birinski, purchased by RKO.

Hawaiian Holiday, original by Edward Beison, purchased by Universal.

Heaven with a Barbed Wire Fence, original by Dalton Trumba, purchased by Twentieth Century-Fox.

Original on Baseball

Hit and Run, original about the development of baseball. Purchased by Warner Brothers to feature Connie Mack. Pat O'Brien, Wayne Morris, Johnnie Davis, Jane Wyman and Ronald Reagan will be in the picture.

Hotel for Women, original by Kathryn Scola, purchased by Twentieth Century-Fox. Elsa Maxwell will be featured.

Hunchback of Notre Dame, The, novel by Victor Hugo, purchased by RKO from Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, which had acquired the rights from Universal.

I Want a Divorce, radio program, purchased from Emil Brisacher & Co., San Francisco radio agency, by Paramount.

It Could Happen to You, magazine story by Charles Hoffman, purchased by Twentieth Century-Fox, with Allen Rivkin to write the screenplay. David Hempstead will be the associate producer.

Johnnie Apollo, original by Sam Engel and Hal Long, purchased by Twentieth Century-Fox.

Key Woman, original by Joseph Steele, purchased by Universal.

Kid from Texas, The, original. S. Sylvan Simon will direct and Harry Rapf produce for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. Dennis O'Keefe and Florence Rice will be in the film.

Little Kiplomat, The, unpublished story by Charles S. Beldon, purchased by Twentieth Century-Fox.

Lover's Meeting, novel by Gladys Hurlbut, purchased by Universal.

For Taylor and Myrna Loy

Lucky Night, original by Oliver Claxton, purchased by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. Vincent Lawrence and Grover Jones will adapt the story, which will co-star Robert Taylor and Myrna Loy. Norman Taurog will direct and Louis D. Lighton produce.

Metropolitan Police, original by Burnet Hershey and Martin Mooney, purchased by Universal.

Never Been Kissed, original by Aleen Wetstein, purchased by Universal.

Old Grad, magazine story by Matt Taylor, purchased by Universal.

Old Maid, The, stage play by Zoe Atkins, purchased by Warner Brothers from Paramount.

Our Neighbors—The Carters, original by Renaud Hoffman, purchased by Paramount. Charles P. Rogers will make the film.

Prelude to Freedom, original by John Huston, option taken by William Wyler, director.

Prisoner, The, original by Robert Thoeren, purchased by Solar Films for production in France.

Prodigal Returns, The, original by Dana Wilma, purchased by Dario Faralla (producer), to star Tito Guizar for Paramount release.

Risky Business, original by William Anthony McGuire, purchased by Universal.

She Said I Do, magazine story by Frank R. Adams, purchased by RKO for Ginger Rogers. Gregory LaCava will produce and direct.

Same Principals as "Dawn Patrol"

Single Lady, The, original, to be produced by Warner Brothers with the same principals as "Dawn Patrol," plus Ann Sheridan.

Six Thousand Enemies, original by Wilson Menard and Dr. Leonides Stanley (prison surgeon at San Quentin), purchased by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. Bertram Milhauser will do the script.

Small Town, original by Stephen Morehouse and Avery Partos, purchased by Universal.

Spellbinder, The, original by Joseph Anthony, purchased by RKO. Cliff Reid will produce.

Stop the Presses, novel by Frederick C. Davis, purchased by Universal.

Swanee River, original based on the life of Stephen Collins Foster, writing credits unknown as yet; to be produced by Selznick International.

Sword in the Stone, The, novel by T. H. White, about King Arthur and the Knights of the Round Table, purchased by Walt Disney.

Tenderloin, original by Howard Emmett Rogers and James Edward Grant, purchased

(Continued on page 18, column 3)

43 FEATURES AND 84 SHORT SUBJECTS ON "AMERICANISM" FROM STUDIOS

Trend Accelerated by Activity of State Department, MPPDA and Newspapers; Independents Also Planning Patriotic Films

The fast growing "Americanism" movement in the production of motion pictures already has brought 14 features and 21 short subjects from the studios of Hollywood and announcements that 29 more features and 63 shorts will be made immediately, some for release in the few months remaining in this season, many for release in 1939-40. There is very reason to believe that many more will be forthcoming.

The trend is a direct outgrowth of the international situation, and its effect on the United States.

Some of the motion pictures already released and projected are definitely marked "Americanism"; others are patriotic by inference.

An Accelerated Trend

The trend is accelerated by the attitude of the State Department, the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, and the newspapers. The State Department notes the activities of Italian and German business in penetration of South America, and even of this country. The MPPDA and the large producers feel that in South America may be recouped the losses sustained by the closing of the European markets by totalitarian states. The press has been playing up Democracy versus the authoritarian movements.

Independents, too, are planning production of features dealing with European conditions, and with the refugee problem.

Pathe News Feature

The latest move is a Pathe News' project to produce a feature, "The Unknown Patriot," production to start in March. Ned Depinet, vice-president of RKO Radio Pictures, said it would "point the way" to the future security of America.

Frederic Ullman, Jr., vice-president in charge of operations for Pathe News, after conferences on the coast, said in New York that the script was in preparation and production would be both in the East and the West.

Also under RKO release is the March of Time's current release, "Young America."

Pathe News has scheduled a short subject, "Soldiers of the Sea," based upon the activities of the Marines at San Diego.

Spy and Rebel Stories

RKO, which released "Cimarron" in 1931, "The Conquerors" in 1932, "Daniel Boone" and "Follow the Fleet" in 1936, and "Annapolis Salute" in 1937, now is releasing "The Great Man Votes." For early showing is "They Made Her a Spy," and under consideration is "The First Rebel," of pre-Revolutionary days.

Warner Brothers having made a series of patriotic shorts, and some features of the same type, but is expanding its program, and including several subjects to cover European political situations, such as "Confessions of a Nazi Spy." Then there will be "John Paul Jones," "Concentration Camp," "American Cavalcade," "Panama Canal," "The Story of the Wright Brothers." Others on Americanism themes are "Wings of the Navy," current release and the forthcoming "Dodge City" and "Oklahoma City."

EAGLE FLYING HIGHEST EVER, SAYS CRITIC

John Mason Brown, dramatic critic of the New York Evening Post, took official cognizance of the "patriotic motif" dominating screen and stage when he addressed a few remarks over the weekend to the University of Cincinnati business and professional men's group. Said Mr. Brown:

"Judging from the number of patriotic plays now current in the theatre throughout the country, dramatists have this season for the first time 'discovered America'. The eagle flies higher today than it ever has flown on the American stage."

Mr. Brown emphasized that musical comedy no longer "suffices"; it is now satire that pleases. He characterized the new type of musical comedy as "symbolic of the precious truth that is almost uniquely ours in a world that daily grows more tragic".

Warner short subjects of a patriotic nature recently made include "The Song of a Nation," "Give Me Liberty," "Under Southern Stars," "Romance of Louisiana," "The Man Without a Country," "The Declaration of Independence," "Lincoln in the White House," "Sons of Liberty."

Shorts contemplated for production are "Old Hickory," "Bill of Rights," "The Story of Benjamin Franklin," "Bolivar of South America," "General Jose Artigas," "Freedom of Worship," "Nathan Hale," "Lafayette," "The Monroe Doctrine," "Remember the Alamo," "Teddy Roosevelt and His Rough Riders."

During National Defense Week, which started on February 12, Warner shorts of this character were shown at hundreds of meetings of Legionnaires and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Lauded by Exhibitor

"The Independent," organ of the New York City Independent Theatre Owners, of which Harry Brandt is president, said in a recent editorial:

"To Harry and Jack Warner, the nation at large and the motion picture industry in particular owe a vote of thanks......They know that democracy is all the more sacred to us now, because it is being attacked on all sides."

Peter J. Wood, secretary of the Independent Theatre Owners of Ohio, reprinted this editorial in a bulletin and added:

"Showing these subjects in your theatre will indicate your Americanism to the people of your community."

Anthem in Warner Houses

Joseph Bernhard, general manager of Warner theatres, has directed that "The Star Spangled Banner" be played daily in all the circuit houses.

All Warner historical patriotic short subjects now are distributed under the name of Warners, instead of Vitaphone, a development from the personal interest in the patriotism theme emphasized by Harry M. Warner when he was host to Legionnaires during their convention in Los Angeles last fall, and his warning last Saturday to 1,400 Warner Club members that any "un-American manifestations" would not be tolerated.

The Warner special reel on the national anthem, Mr. Bernhard announced this week, will be available at cost to "any theatre operator in the United States."

In a pictorial interview in MOTION PICTURE HERALD (January 28th issue) Jack L. Warner emphasized that the Warners' American policy was started in 1918, with the production of "My Four Years in Germany."

A New "Declaration"

Last Month a "Declaration of Democratic Independence," protesting activities of the National Socialists in Germany, was signed by the brothers Warner and Walter Wanger, Carl Laemmle, Sr., Joseph M. Schenck, and others.

Twentieth Century-Fox will have films this year on Abraham Lincoln and the American Legion.

Mr. Schenck, speaking over the radio in a symposium on "The Business Outlook for 1939," declared that producers this year planned "to make the American public more proud than ever of their nation."

Samuel Goldwyn is scheduled to make "The Last Frontier," a story about life in the Philippine Army outposts.

United Artists will have producer Charles Chaplin's "The Dictator."

MGM's Share

MGM's part in this cycle includes its current "Idiot's Delight," a satire on war, possible production of "The Forty Days of Musa Dagh" and "It Can't Happen Here"; emphasis in the FitzPatrick Traveltalks of the American scene; its recent production, "Let Freedom Ring," and its short subjects, "Servant of the People," concerning the Constitution, and "The Perfect Tribute," on the Gettysburg address.

Also having political and patriotic themes were MGM's "Sequoia," a plea for wild life preservation; "West Point of the Air"; "Gorgeous Hussy," about the Andrew Jackson period; "Navy, Blue, and Gold," a service picture; "Of Human Hearts," in which Abraham Lincoln was a major figure; "Yellowjack," dealing with this country's victory over fever in its outlying possessions; "Boys Town," detailing a notable and peculiarly American philanthropic endeavor. There are also "Huckleberry Finn"; the forthcoming "Sergeant Madden," and "Stand Up and Fight."

Columbia Active

Columbia may produce a film called "Pan-America"; another titled "Sabotage"; also "Tree of Liberty" and "Arizona." It has just released a Color Rhapsody short, "Peaceful" Neighbors," on the futility of war. It is making a series called "Washington Parade," one-reel subjects. One portrays the White House, the other, Washington. The company has plans for another series, "Know Your History." In its "Community Sing" short series last year, one subject featured patriotic songs.

National Screen is making a series of trailer length shorts, the first two of which are finished, on "The Star Spangled Banner" and "The Bill of Rights." Another, on the Constitution, is to be made, and more will follow.

Universal Pictures in the past made several outstanding pictures on patriotic themes, such as "The Kaiser, Beast of Berlin," "All Quiet on the Western Front," "A Kaiser There Was," "War Bridegroom," "Private Jones," "The

(Continued on following page, column 1)

Studios Prepare Variety of Films On 'Americanism'

(Continued from preceding page)

Road Back." Service pictures made by Universal during the past year, were "Wings Over Honolulu" and "Air Devils."

In production now is "The Spirit of Culver."

Paramount and DeMille

Paramount, which has produced "The Frontiersman," "The Texans," "Wells Fargo," and others of the frontier historical type, and has a long history of Cecil B. DeMille spectacles, last year produced "Son of the Legion," and now is completing "Union Pacific."

Paramount News ended its season last year with a one-reel review of the year's events, with a patriotic note.

Independents

Various independents are cultivating the field. Jesse J. Goldburg, an independent producer, plans to begin work on a film concerning refugees, on his return from Europe in June.

Mrs. Timothy Kenney, under Kendor Productions, in New York, is producing 50 shorts on the Constitution.

The March of Time's "Young America" is not the only short of this type it has produced. There was recently "The Refugee—Today and Tomorrow."

The American Films Foundation intends to "educate the public in American Democracy."

"Films for Democracy," on the other hand, plans to make three pictures a year attacking Fascism with propaganda films.

The American Film Center, in New York, financially assisted by the Rockefeller interests, plans to survey the South American market and report on the ways in which it can best be cultivated by the State Department, and by the American film industry.

The State Department is sending several Government-made documentary films for exhibition in Latin-American countries by exhibitors and by our local embassies.

Writers and stage producers are active in the field. A series of patriotic playlets is being issued by a New York organization known as the Dramatist's Play Service, Inc. The scripts are reported under examination by MGM, Warners, and Paramount.

The Cleveland Plain Dealer last week commended Allied for its patriotic trailer "Old Reliable."

Influenza Epidemic In Chicago Wanes

The influenza and la grippe epidemic in Chicago, during which theatre business dropped 25 to 50 per cent, is on the wane, health authorities said Wednesday.

In Champaign and Urbana, Ill., J. K. Jones, G. E. Perry and Arthur Kinzer of the Board of Health had all theatres, schools and churches closed from last Friday until Monday.

In Chicago both Loop and neighborhood theatres had been hard hit.

At Urbana, where the University of Illinois is located, fraternity houses became sick wards and part of the gymnasium was used for a temporary hospital.

Jackson Arrives from London

Jerome Jackson, head of Warner Brothers production at Teddington studio, London, arrived Tuesday on the Ile de France for conferences at the home office in New York.

NATIONAL ANTHEM IN CHICAGO HOUSES

Chicago's Balaban & Katz circuit, Allied, Essaness, and numerous individual theatres are now opening and closing their houses with the playing of "The Star Spangled Banner".

Warners set the precedent. The Chicago reinforcements for the practice resulted from an editorial in the Chicago Times, understood to have the backing of what is termed the Non-Sectarian League for Americanism. Said this editorial, in part:

" 'The Star Spangled Banner' stands for liberty, equality, the right of the people to choose their own government. If 'Horst Wessel', 'Giovanezza' and 'Internationale' can rouse enthusiasm, we ought to hear our national anthem more often to remind us of the blessings that are ours."

UA Will Expand In Foreign Field, Says Silverstone

United Artists will extend its international policy this year by increasing its foreign production commitments, Murray Silverstone, executive head of the company, said this week in New York. The company plans to foster inter-American film trade relations, he said, by sponsoring production of 8 to 10 features in the Spanish language for Latin-America.

Mr. Silverstone said that United Artists has an understanding with Cinesound studio in Sydney, affiliate of Greater Union Theatres, for the production of one or more features.

The company also is negotiating for French films for release in France and French territory.

Besides production commitments with Felipe Mier of Mexico City and Fortunio Buona-Nova, who will make one Spanish language film in Hollywood and two in Mexico City, United Artists intends to close with other Spanish-American producers.

Syracuse Theatres Drop Nickel Tickets

Minimum price levels have been increased at Syracuse, N. Y., theatres as a result of an agreement reached by the RKO, Schine and Loew first-runs and the independent subsequents. The independents are pledged to discard five-cent admissions and charge a minimum of 10 cents, with no attempt to circumvent the scale through passes, rebates, tokens or other means. The first-runs have agreed to increase children's admission from 10 to 15 cents. The citywide agreement became effective Thursday.

The Schine theatres also have abandoned the practice of showing two preview films with two program features on change night.

Originals Lead For 6th Month in Story Purchases

(Continued from page 16)

by Paramount to co-star Fred MacMurray and Dorothy Lamour.

Texas Wildcats, original by George Plympton, purchased by Victory Pictures.

They Asked for It, original by James B. Lowell, purchased by Universal.

They Call it Glamour, original by John Larkin and Jerry Horwin, purchased by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. John Considine will produce.

Based on Cavalier Disaster

Thirteen Go Flying, original based on the Cavalier disaster, to be produced by Samuel Goldwyn (United Artists).

Three Kings and a Girl, original by Billy Gilbert, purchased by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

Three Musketeers, The, novel by Alexander Dumas and Auguste Maquet. The right to make one motion picture purchased by Twentieth Century-Fox.

Two's Company, original by Charles Polesie and David Butler, purchased by Universal.

Underpup, The, magazine story by I. A. R. Wylie, purchased by Universal.

Warden Goes to Jail, The, original by Sammy Fuller, purchased by Paramount.

You Can't Get Away With Murder, original by Warden Lewis E. Lawes of Sing Sing and Jonathan Finn, purchased by Warner Brothers.

Paris Theatres Win Lower Tax

by PIERRE AUTRÉ
in Paris

Paris exhibitors won their fight against drastic increases in theatre taxes over the weekend when, after a hearing of industry representatives, Finance Minister Paul Reynaud forced the Cabinet to adopt a decree reducing state taxes on Paris houses from 20 to 25 per cent.

The theatres immediately reestablished their advertising, which had been withdrawn in retaliation following the recent imposition of new taxes. The Journal Officiel published the decree Sunday with one-month tentative application, starting March 1st.

The decree establishes lower state tax rates and declares that new Paris municipal taxes cannot exceed half of the state tax rate. At the same time Mr. Reynaud asked exhibitors to increase admissions by 20 per cent on seats under 20 francs, and warned the industry that the measure for virtual Government control of the film industry, hanging fire for several years, will be introduced soon. The measure was prepared by Minister of National Education Jean Zay.

The main provisions of the bill include creation of a state organization to direct collection of percentage and taxes from exhibition, distribution and production; reorganization of production; limitation of theatre bills, eliminating double bills; a tax on dubbing. The two last-named provisions would be especially harmful to American interests, and are seen as contrary to the French-American trade agreement.

It is expected the Government virtually will control the Gaumont and Pathe companies, including circuits and studios.

He means
BUSINESS

NEVER BEFORE A FRONTIER EPIC LIKE THIS.. because

THERE NEVER WAS A ST

BLASTS THROUGH THE WEST'S LAST BAD
WAY HE GUNNED HIS NAME THROUGH G

R LIKE THIS TO PLAY IT!
NEY

D THE LAND!

Think of it–and you can't think of missing out on it!

OKLAHOMA KID

A Greater Cagney Performance than His Critics' Award Role in 'Angels'!

Among the 100's in support of James Cagney

HUMPHREY BOGART

ROSEMARY LANE

(One of the lovable '4 Daughters')

DONALD CRISP

Directed by LLOYD BACON

Music by Max Steiner • Screen Play by Warren Duff, Robt. Buckner and Edw. E. Paramore • From Original story by Edw. E. Paramore and Wally Klein

Set it in now! Set it up now! It's another 'Angel' of an attraction from

WARNER BROS.

N. D. GOVERNOR IGNORES U. S. PLEA TO POSTPONE DIVORCEMENT LAW REPEAL

FBI Agents Sent to Bismarck to Study Passage of Repeal Bill; Wanted Supreme Court Ruling; Myers Non-committal

Motion Picture Herald, starting on page 24, lists 34 anti-trust suits which were pending or disposed of during the past year in which the major companies were named defendants by various independent exhibitor interests. Mentioned are, besides names of plaintiffs and defendants, the location of the court in which the action had been filed, the relief sought, names of counsel and the status of each action.

The United States Department of Justice, in pursuing its prosecution of the motion picture business, attempted this week to interfere with the right of a state to legislate, petitioning Governor John Moses to refrain at this time from repealing the state law divorcing production-distribution from exhibition.

Governor Moses ignored the request and at 4:50 Monday afternoon, at the North Dakota capital, Bismarck, notified the legislature of his decision to sign the repealer. The law was enacted a year ago, but was not enforced, pending an appeal by Paramount, for all majors, to the United States Supreme Court. It was the first of its kind to be passed.

Two days after the signing a bill was introduced in the state senate which would prohibit the building of a new theatre in any community where one is established without permission of the state attorney general.

Last Friday, while the Department of Justice was exerting strenuous efforts to influence Governor Moses in North Dakota, the Federal Court in New York handling the Department's anti-trust and divorcement suit against the majors, received "instructions" from Attorney General Frank C. Murphy at Washington to speed up this action.

FBI Agents Sent to Dakota

Strengthening its petition to Governor John Moses not to take affirmative action on the repeal until after the U. S. Supreme Court had had an opportunity to pass on its constitutionality, which was to have been argued next month, the Department last week sent agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation from Washington to Bismarck to probe the events leading up to the unexpected passage of the repeal bill by the state legislature two weeks ago.

That these unusual steps had been taken was disclosed in Washington, apparently for the purpose of dragging the whole story into the open.

Department officials were frank in their condemnation of the legislature's action in repealing the North Dakota "divorce" law, declaring that it looked "very funny" to them and making no secret that they did not like it.

It was one of the rare occasions on which the Department, usually silent, disclosed its opinion on matters which, strictly speaking, do not come within its purview.

A number of inquiries regarding the Government's attitude were received at the Department, the same answer being given to all.

Strategic Move

A strategic move on the part of the Department, its FBI investigation on the scene at Bismarck was seen in Washington as possibly bringing to light circumstances surrounding the passage of the repealer which will in part offset the setback to the Department occasioned by approval of the repeal by Governor Moses, which renders the supreme court test suit moot.

In line with its normal policy, the Department refused to reveal the identity of the FBI agents who were assigned to the case, but it was admitted that they were detailed from Washington with instructions to ferret out the "story back of the story." The detail of FBI men, it is understood, was made at the suggestion of Thurman Arnold, assistant attorney general. who apparently was anxious for a supreme court decision holding the North Dakota law valid as support for the Government's New York trust suit against the major companies, in which theatre divorcement is a major issue. Mr. Arnold is handling this action. P. W. Lanier, of Fargo, N. D., United States district attorney, has been instructed to continue the investigation.

At the Department in Washington it was admitted on Monday that a letter had been sent to Governor Moses asking if he would not delay action on the repealer—if he intended to approve it—until after the Supreme Court has delivered its opinion on its constitutionality.

No Live Point to Adjudicate

The Supreme Court case, the Governor was told, is "very important" to the Department, but would be thrown out if the repeal bill was signed because there would then be no live point to adjudicate.

It is understood also that the Department pointed out that there were circumstances surrounding the passage of the bill which had raised doubts as to the propriety of the methods resorted to in securing its approval.

Department officials said that they had received a number of complaints, from North Dakota state officials as well as independent exhibitors, following the "unusual celerity" with which the legislature had passed the repeal bill, and the complainants desired the FBI investigation to determine whether "pressure" methods had been resorted to. They would not say, however, that supporters of repeal had resorted to any crude practices which would leave them open to action, but expressed the view that it was a "little more subtle than that."

"Repercussions" Waining

Sponsored by Allied States Association as one line of attack in its campaign against so-called distributor-circuit "aggressions," outcome of the law in the supreme court was expected to determine Allied's procedure on divorcement for other states. Allied's general counsel, Abram F. Myers, warned that as a result of the repeal, "there may be repercussions." He charged openly that "the coup is a tribute to the effectiveness of the producers' lobby."

However, official distribution quarters in New York had heard that the North Dakota legislators' action was an outgrowth of North Dakota politics, explaining that, after the new Governor, John Moses, a Democrat, defeated William A. Langer, Independent, and took office last January 1st, he immediately set out to eliminate all vestiges of the Langer administration, legislatively and otherwise, including the theatre divorcement bill.

Mr. Myers on Tuesday night was non-committal on the effect of the repeal on Allied's plans. Previously he had sent out notice that the "coup" might cause Allied to abandon participation in the self-regulation program.

In a special bulletin sent from his Washington headquarters Tuesday to Allied units in the field, Mr. Myers charged that, while Allied leaders were preoccupied with negotiations with the distributors on self-regulation, "agents of the Hays association and major distributors were unusually active in their efforts to undo Allied's accomplishments—meaning Allied's passage of the North Dakota divorcement law.

Charging that the distributors' first draft of proposals for self-regulation was sent to the Department of Justice and to members of Congress as constituting an "agreement" in principle when, in fact, he said it had been agreed to by no one, Mr. Myers' bulletin declared that, "The deliberate purpose of these maneuvers was to slow up prosecution of the Government's anti-trust suit against the 'Big Eight' and create the impression that there was no further need for anti-block booking legislation."

Mr. Myers called the "quick repeal" vote of the divorcement law by the North Dakota legislature one of the "dizziest manipulations" ever witnessed.

He added that the majors did not want the test case on the constitutionality of the law to be passed on by the U. S. Supreme Court because "they knew it would be sustained.

Declaring the industry presents an "unhappy spectacle," Mr. Myers warned that the "lesson to be drawn from recent experiences is that the situation of independent exhibitors will never be secure, and that they can never deal with the 'Big Eight' with confidence."

Granting of a motion to dismiss the test case before the Supreme Court is expected to be automatic now that the law has been repealed. Industry attorneys believe that any final test of state theatre divorce legislation is unlikely now before 1942.

Bondy To Speed Trust Suit

In response to a request by U. S. Attorney General Murphy, Federal Judge William Bondy in New York will devote the major portion of his time hereafter to consideration of pending motions in the Government anti-trust suit against major companies. The request was made known last Friday at a hearing on a Government motion for examination before trial of the United Artists group of defendants.

Contents of Mr. Murphy's letter were not made public but in the conversation between Judge Bondy and Paul William, Special Assistant Attorney General, it was disclosed that Mr. Murphy had written to the court requesting prompt disposition of the motions which were argued in November.

Calls Attempt Premature

Although the sides were in agreement that the Government would be entitled to the examination after it submits its bill of particulars and the defendants serve their answers, Benjaman Pepper, of O'Brien, Driscoll & Raftery, attorneys for United Artists, contended that the attempt at the present time was premature. He asserted that after 15 years of investigation by the Government of the industry, no violations of anti-trust laws in the production end of the business by U. A. had been alleged in the complaint.

34 ANTI-TRUST SUITS

Thirty-four anti-trust suits, alleging violation of the Sherman or Clayton Act, or of state anti-trust acts, were pending or disposed of during the past year. They were instituted by independent exhibitors, either individually or, as in some instances, concertedly with other owners.

The highlight trust suits of the year were the U. S. Government's civil action against the majors, filed in New York, and the criminal Government action filed in Chicago. In the New York case is sought a basic division of exhibition and production and distribution; in the Chicago case a violation of a consent decree of 1932 is charged.

Twenty-two suits seek, or sought, recovery of more than $22,000,000 in damages, besides relief, with 12 of the suits not mentioning monetary damages.

Twenty-three of the suits are still pending, with 10 having been dismissed and one mistrial declared.

In California, there were five cases, while Pennsylvania had four, and the courts of Massachusetts, Illinois and Georgia each had three. There were two cases in New York, New Jersey and Florida, and the U. S. Supreme Court and the courts of nine states, Oklahoma, Vermont, Wisconsin, Indiana, Iowa, Louisiana, Maine, Tennessee and Utah, had one case each.

PLAINTIFF & DEFENDANT	COURT	RELIEF SOUGHT	CHARGE	ATTORNEYS	STATUS
Department of Justice vs. Balaban & Katz and all majors except Columbia	U. S. District Court, Chicago	Breakup of clearance situation	Violation of consent decree of 1932	Mayer, Meyer, Austrian & Platt; Kirkland, Fleming, Green, Martin, & Ellis; and others	Pending
Orange County Theatres, Inc. vs. Eugene Levy, George Walsh, Netco Theatres Corp., Big "U" Film Exchange, Paramount, Twentieth Century-Fox, RKO, United Artists and Joseph Lee	U. S. District Court for the Southern Dist. of New York	$225,000 damages	Violation of the Sherman and Clayton Acts	Company counsel, and others, for defendants	Pending
La Crosse Theatre Company vs. Paramount, Twentieth Century-Fox, United Artists, Wellworth Theatres of Wisconsin, Inc., and Minnesota Amusement Co.	Federal Court, Madison, Wis.	Damages of $1,050,000	Violation of anti-trust laws	Robert Hess, for plaintiff; Miller, Mack & Fairchild, and others, for defendants	Filed July 14. Depositions to be taken shortly
Quemos Theatre Co., Inc. vs. Majors	U. S. District Court, Newark	$3,500,000	Violation of anti-trust laws	Ligham & Chester, for plaintiff, Merritt Lane, for defendants	Merritt Lane, of counsel for majors, secured show cause order in January, 1938. A stipulation has been entered into for the purpose of making a motion to dismiss the case on jurisdictional grounds
Rivoli Theatre, Tampa, Fla. vs. Majors	Florida U. S. District Court	....	Inability to obtain product, forcing theatre to close in 1931	....	One year postponement of trial granted in 1938
Harry Fried vs. Warner Bros. Theatres, and majors except Twentieth Century-Fox	U. S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania	Injunction against clearance over Fried theatres, and against overbuying by circuits	Violation of anti-trust laws	Fulkrod, Shephard, Porter & Alexander, for plaintiff	Action instituted September 28, 1938; defendants' motion for bill of particulars dismissed in January, 1939. Defendants must now file answer
Twenty exhibitors vs. Paramount	U. S. District Court, Los Angeles	$210,000 damages	Failure to deliver product and violation of anti-trust laws	....	Case dismissed by Federal Judge Leon Yankwich Feb. 1, 1938
Interstate Circuit vs. Texas Consolidated Circuit and majors	U. S. Supreme Court	Realignment of clearance and releasing situation	Conspiracy in restraint of trade	George S. Wright local attorney for the distributors. Also company counsel and others	The U. S. Supreme Court, after remanding the case to U. S. District Court in Dallas for findings of fact, ruled February 12th that it is unlawful for distributors to insert any restrictive provisions in their film license agreements at the request of affiliated or prior runs.
Colcata Corporation vs. Fox West Coast Theatres and majors	Federal District Court, Los Angeles	$1,200,000	Restraint of interstate commerce	....	Dismissed December 19, by Federal Judge Harry Holzer

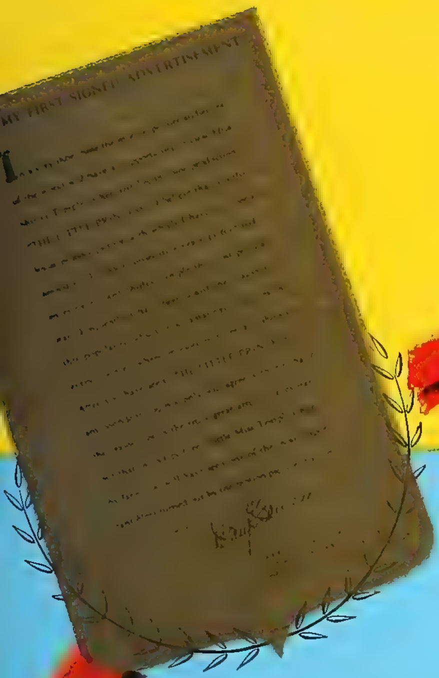
PENDING IN 12 MONTHS

PLAINTIFF & DEFENDANT	COURT	RELIEF SOUGHT	CHARGE	ATTORNEYS	STATUS
Kenneth M. Gorham (operator of the Town Hall Theatre, Middlebury, Vt.) vs. Samuel Kurson of Bangor, Me., and Middlebury, and majors	U. S. District Court, Middlebury	$100,000 damages and injunction preventing distributors from refusing to enter into contracts with plaintiff	Combination and conspiracy in restraint of trade	John T. Conley and George S. Ryan, for the plaintiff	Pending
Edmund G. Pollard vs. Maine & New Hampshire Theatres Co., Loew's, Twentieth Century-Fox, Paramount, Universal Exchange, Columbia	U. S. District Court, Boston	Judgment against each of defendants for $100,000	Conspiracy to monopolize and restrain interstate trade	George S. Ryan, for plaintiff	Pending
Morse & Rothenberg vs. Majors	Federal Court, Boston	$2,000,000	Violation of anti-trust laws	George S. Ryan, for plaintiff	Pending before Master Philip A. Hendrick
Aetna Amusement Enterprises, Commonwealth Amusement Enterprises, Inc., Nashua Theatres, Inc., Elite Amusement Enterprises, Inc., Fidel Amusement Enterprises, Inc., Standard Amusement Enterprises, Inc., and A. & W. Amusement Corp. vs. All majors and Maine & New Hampshire Theatres Co., Colonial Theatres Co., Colonial Theatres Co. of New Hampshire	U. S. District Court, Mass.	In nine suits, triple damages and attorneys' fees	Violation of anti-trust laws	George Ryan, for plaintiffs, Nutter, McClellan & Fish, for defendants	Judge Murray Hulbert has granted application to examine defendants before trial, in New York, by Rose Myerson, notary public
Peerless Amusement vs. Crescent Amusement, Cherokee Amusement, Columbia, Paramount, Twentieth Century-Fox and Vitagraph	U. S. District Court, Tennessee	$300,000	Violation of anti-trust laws	....	Pending
William Littlejohn vs. C. E. Huish Enterprises, Loew's, Paramount, RKO, Twentieth Century-Fox, United Artists, Universal	U. S. District Court, Utah	$10,000	Violation of anti-trust laws	Homer Holgren, Henry Ruggeri, and Irvine, Skeen & Thurman, for plaintiff	Pending
A. B. Momand vs. The majors, Griffith Amusement Co., & other companies, operating circuits	Federal District Court, Oklahoma City	$6,636,632	Violation of Sherman anti-trust Act	George S. Ryan heads prosecution	Original suit brought in April, 1931. Dismissed by U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals in July, 1936. Three new motions; denying all material allegations, asking that the plaintiff name the companies in the complaint, and asking to make the petition more definite, have been filed by some of the defendants
Laurel Theatre, Inc. vs. Fox West Coast Theatres, Wesco Corp., National Theatre Corp., Chase National Bank, Loew's, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, RKO, Warners, Universal, First National, Twentieth Century-Fox	Federal Court, Los Angeles	$300,000	Violation of Clayton anti-trust Act	Charles Katz, Alfred Gitelson, for plaintiff. Alfred Wright, and others, for defendants	Motion for dismissal pending
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wise vs. Lucas & Jenkins Circuit, Arthur Lucas and William Jenkins and all majors.	Fifth Federal District Court, Atlanta, Georgia	$654,000 damages	Conspiracy to monopolize motion picture theatre business in Savannah and other cities	John I. Kelly, for plaintiff	Pending
Garbo Amusement Co. vs. RKO	U. S. District Court, Pennsylvania	Injunction	Violation of anti-trust laws	....	Settled
Kinna-Mission Theatres vs. Fox West Coast Theatres, Twentieth Century-Fox, United Artists and Sunbeam Theatres Corp.	U. S. District Court, California	Realignment of clearance situation	Violation of anti-trust laws	Louis Swarts, for plaintiff	Temporary injunction granted

ANTI-TRUST SUITS . . . . . (Continued)

PLAINTIFF & DEFENDANT	COURT	RELIEF SOUGHT	CHARGE	ATTORNEYS	STATUS
Mrs. B. Smith vs. Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, Warner Brothers, RKO Pathe, Paramount, Twentieth Century-Fox, Vitagraph, Republic	Federal District Court, Rome, Georgia; Judge E. Marvin Underwood	$53,000 damages	Violation of anti-trust laws	John I. Kelly, for plaintiff. McDougall, Troutman & Arkwright, and others, for defendants	Mistrial declared last June; jury could not agree
89 Independent Exhibitors, sponsored by Illinois Allied vs. Balaban & Katz and majors	Illinois Federal District Court	Realignment of clearance and releasing system	Violation of Clayton anti-trust act	Joe Rosenberg, and others, for plaintiffs; company counsel, and others, for defendants	Hearing on all pending motions has been postponed to March 7th, at which time prior proceedings will be reviewed and future action outlined
Harry and Louis Perelman vs. Vitaphone, RKO, Paramount, MGM, Twentieth Century-Fox and United Artists	Originally instituted in 1933 in U. S. District Court, Philadelphia.	Injunction against banning of double features	Violation of anti-trust laws by conspiracy to restrain interstate commerce	Ben Golden, for plaintiff; Morris Wolf and others, for defendants	On an appeal, the Court of Appeals affirmed the injunction granted by the District Court. The U. S. Supreme Court refused to review the case, thus upholding the injunction. Petition for review filed June 11, 1938
Herbert J. Elliott vs. Majors and others	Federal Court, Pennsylvania	Injunction against alleged monopoly	Violation of anti-trust laws	....	Case dismissed
Gary Theatre Company vs. Majors, Balaban and Katz and Warner Bros. Theatres	Federal Court, Chicago	Injunction against alleged monopoly	Violation of anti-trust laws	Gavit & Richardson, for plaintiff; Mayer, Meyer, Austrian and Platt, for majors; Defree, Buckingham, Jones and Hoffman, for Warners, and Sonnenschein, Berkson, Lautman & Morse, for Balaban & Katz	Pending
Department of Justice vs. The eight majors, 24 affiliated companies, and 133 individuals	U. S. District Court, for the Southern District of New York	Dropping of theatre control by Paramount, Twentieth Century-Fox, and Warners. Withdrawal from production and distribution by Loew's, RKO.	Violation of Sherman Anti-Trust Act	Each defendant using company attorneys and special counsel	United Artists & Columbia have asked to be relieved; no decision. On Feb. 3, majors agreed to report to Department of Justice on their circuit activities, pending final disposition of the suit
Thornburg vs. Paramount	U. S. District Court, Iowa	$430,800	Violation of anti-trust laws	....	Settled
Millinocket Theatre vs. Graphic Theatre Circuit and majors	U. S. District Court, Maine	$200,000 from each defendant	Combination and conspiracy in restraint of trade	George S. Ryan, for plaintiffs	Pending
Indianapolis Amusement Co. vs. Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer	U. S. District Court, Indiana	$450,000	Violation of anti-trust laws	....	Verdict for defendants
W. H. Cornwell vs. Majors	Superior Court, Woodland, Calif.	$100,000	Violation of state anti-trust law	....	Settled
Ledrik vs. Majors	Newark, New Jersey	$1,060,000	Violation of anti-trust laws	....	Settled
George Fuller vs. Vitagraph and Twentieth Century-Fox	New Orleans, La.	$170,000 and an injunction (two cases)	Violation of anti-trust law	....	Settled
Broadway Theatre vs. Vitagraph	Atlanta, Ga.	$815,400	Violation of anti-trust law	....	Settled
Washington Operating Co. & Garden Operating Co. (Herman Weingarten, president of both concerns) vs. Paramount Enterprises, Wometco Theatres, and majors	Federal Court in Miami	Freedom from alleged overbuying and unreasonable clearance; triple damages of $432,000	Violation of Sherman & Clayton Act	Henry K. Gibson, for plaintiff; Loftin, Stokes & Calkins; and others, for defendants	First hearings scheduled for action in near future. Distributor defendants will move to quash action on grounds they are not licensed to do business in New York

AN ANSWER TO DARRYL F. ZANUCK



MY FIRST SIGNED ADVERTISEMENT

from

R. J. O'DONNELL
—Interstate Circuit

FRANK L. NEWMAN
—Evergreen State Amusement Corp.

H. J. FITZGERALD
—Fox Wisconsin Circuit

M. J. MULLIN
—M. & P. Theatres

E. C. RHODEN
—Fox Midwest Corp.

JOHN H. HARRIS
—Harris Amusement Co.

HARRY ARTHUR
—St. Louis Amusement Co.

You're Right

"THE LITTLE PRINCESS" IS ALL YOU SAY IT I

"Everything I heard in advance about 'THE LITTLE PRINCESS' is far surpassed. There is no question but that it is the finest Technicolor picture to date. And for all-around entertainment, star value and splendid cast, it is the last word. Congratulations to Mr. Zanuck and your organization."
—R. J. O'Donnell

"I believe 'THE LITTLE PRINCESS' is truly one of the finest pictures I have ever seen. This attraction has everything that goes to make up a great and successful motion picture! Exhibitors and the theatre-going public over the entire world have a great treat coming to them."
—Frank L. Newman

"Had privilege of previewing 'THE LITTLE PRINCESS', Temple in Technicolor (T. N. T.), at studio and again before a meeting of all our managers. Production is great adult entertainment and definitely stamps Shirley Temple as a great actress!"
—H. J. Fitzgerald

"Have just screened 'THE LITTLE PRINCESS'. It is one of the finest pictures I have had the privilege of seeing. Congratulations to 20th Century-Fox for a truly splendid production."
—M. J. Mullin

"I think 'THE LITTLE PRINCESS' is a magnificent picture. It is undoubtedly the most important picture Shirley Temple has ever appeared in. Considering the pictorial appeal and production value of this picture, it should out-gross all former Shirley Temple vehicles."
—E. C. Rhoden

"Just screened 'THE LITTLE PRINCESS'. Congratulations to Darryl Zanuck and the entire 20th Century-Fox organization. It has everything. Ranks as one of the finest pictures I have had the good fortune of seeing!"
—John H. Harris

"Words fail me in expressing my enthusiasm for this really great film—a human, warm and exceptionally brilliant Technicolor smash! Congratulations on another exceptional hit! I predict 'THE LITTLE PRINCESS' will roll up record after record at box offices throughout the country!"
—Harry Arthur

Shirley TEMPLE
in
THE LITTLE PRINCESS in TECHNICOLOR

with
RICHARD GREENE
ANITA LOUISE
and
IAN HUNTER · CESAR ROMERO
ARTHUR TREACHER · MARY NASH · SYBIL JASON · MILES MANDER · MARCIA MAE JONES
Directed by Walter Lang
Associate Producer Gene Markey
Screen Play by Ethel Hill and Walter Ferris • Based on a novel by Frances Hodgson Burnett

20th CENTURY FOX

THE KEYSTONE

PRINTED IN

And Now... The Boxoffice Answers!

WORLD PREMIERE OPENING OF

THE LITTLE PRINCESS

TOPS EVERY 20TH HIT EVER TO PLAY KEITH'S MEMORIAL, BOSTON!

Record-breaking Night Business Proves It to be Greatest Adult-Appeal Picture Shirley Temple Ever Appeared In!

20th CENTURY FOX

CENSOR LAWS UP IN MISSOURI, IOWA, DELAWARE, MICHIGAN, OKLAHOMA

Legion "Condemns" "Yes, My Darling Daughter" as New York Regents Hear Appeal from Chief Censor's Ban

Bills to enact state censorship were introduced this week in five states, the largest number in years to appear in such a period. The proposals were made in Missouri, Delaware, Iowa, Michigan and Oklahoma.

Two bills have been introduced in the Ohio legislature, one to abolish the state censor board, not expected to pass, the other to restrict its powers.

The "Political" Boards

There has not been one change in years in the total of the socalled "political" censor boards, in the six states of Kansas, Maryland, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Virginia, and in the 16 cities of Atlanta, Boston, Chicago, Charlotte (S. C.), Dallas, Detroit, Kansas City (Kansas), Los Angeles, Memphis, Milwaukee, New Haven, Oklahoma City, Philadelphia, Portland (Oregon), San Francisco and Seattle. The Philadelphia and Kansas City boards are the only localized units operating in states which have state censor boards.

Many of the local boards have some influence on the surrounding territory. For instance, rulings by the Boston board generally are observed throughout Massachusetts.

Films to Pay for Censors

The proposal for censorship in Missouri was submitted last week to the legislature by Samuel G. Hayden of Kansas City. It calls for the following: a three man board, to be appointed by the governor, with the approval of the Senate, each man to be paid $4,000 annually out of funds contributed to the state treasury by the motion picture companies; a secretary at $3,000 annually, and other employees; a tax of five dollars per reel reviewed; a tax of 50 cents per item on advertising; members of the board to have been residents of the state for five years, and to be "qualified by education and experience" to act as censors; expenses to be paid, as well as salaries, from the funds in the treasury obtained from the picture companies; violations of the law to be misdemeanors.

The bill further reads: "No person shall sell, lease, lend, exhibit, or use any motion picture film or reel unless such film or reel has been submitted by the exchange, lessee, or user to and duly approved by the . . . board."

Concerning advertising, the bill stipulates that the board must approve all folders, pictures, posters, or other advertising matter to be used for exhibition purposes.

The bill specifies that the board shall approve films and advertising, "which are moral and proper," and shall disapprove those which are, "obscene, indecent, immoral, and cruel"; shall further disapprove those which are, "inimical to the welfare of the state or nation, or such as to tend, in the discretion of the board, to debase or corrupt morals and citizenship, or unduly excite or deceive the public."

This last clause is regarded susceptible to unprecedentedly wide interpretation. Concerning the charge of five dollars per reel, it may be compared with the Kansas City board's charge of one dollar per reel; and this board is understood to have consistently shown a profit.

Iowa and Michigan Bills

The Iowa censor board proposal asks for nine members, to be appointed by the Governor for three years terms, at a maximum salary of $4,500 each; a majority vote of the board necessary for approval of a picture; pictures to be viewed in "entirety"; a stamp on the picture reviewed; a fine of $1,000, a year in prison or both, for exhibition of pictures without the board's approval; empowering of the board to lease equipment and halls, and hire investigators and operators; fees to be based on linear footage or the seating capacity of theatres, this being left to the board; the fees to equal twice the board's annual expense, the surplus going to the state's general school fund. The bill provides for board membership from representative patriotic and religious groups.

LEGION APPROVES 13 OF 14 NEW PICTURES

The National Legion of Decency approved 13 of the 14 films reviewed and classified this week. Five were found unobjectionable for general patronage, eight unobjectionable for adults and one objectionable in part. The films and their classifications follow:

Class A-1, Unobjectionable for General Patronage — "Adventures of Jane Arden", "The Headlys at Home", "Home on the Prairie", "Pride of the Navy" and "Thundering West". Class A-2, Unobjectionable for Adults — "Cafe Society", "Fast and Loose", "Lone Wolf's Spy Hunt", "One-Third of a Nation", "Stagecoach", "Star Reporter", "Twelve Crowded Hours" and "Woman Doctor". Class B — Objectionable in Part — "Never Say Die". Special classification was given to "The Will of the People" (Spain Fights On)" with the observation that it is a documentary film containing propaganda for the Madrid-Valencia Government in Spain. Class C — Condemned — "Yes, My Darling Daughter".

The Michigan bill, in the House and Senate, would establish a censor board for pictures, and for regulation and licensing of motion picture theatres; would charge three dollars per 1,000 feet of original film, and two dollars per 1,000 feet of copy film. The board would have the usual moral grounds for eliminating scenes.

Delaware Measure

The Delaware measure provides for the authorization of juvenile court judges to criticize "questionable" films; compels the exhibitor to submit his films for judgment after the application by five or more local persons, charging the film unfit; forbids the sale, leasing, or exhibition of films disapproved by the judges on the usual moral grounds; limits the length of previews to five minutes; provides fines of $25 to $100 for violations.

The Oklahoma measure calls for the elimination of Sunday shows and formation of a state censor board of three ministers and two educators. It also provides a $1,000 penalty for violations.

Warner Brothers' "Yes, My Darling Daughter," the first feature bearing a Production Code Seal to be banned by the New York board, was given a "Class C" rating this week by the Legion of Decency, on the grounds that the film "throughout the greater portion of its length maintains an attitude contrary to the fundamental concepts of marriage, morals and parental authority." The Legion's "Class C" rating means "condemned."

The film opened Wednesday at the Warner theatre, Bridgeport, where it grossed $1,792; at the Rogers, New Haven, making $2,131; at the Strand, Hartford, making $2,165, and at the Warner, Memphis, where it took $1,554. In all these locations it exceeded the heavy opening day business of "Brother Rat" and "Four Daughters." It will open at 216 places over the weekend.

The picture was screened Thursday to three members of the New York Board of Regents, which is listening to the appeal of Warner brothers from the decision of Irwin Esmond, chief censor, barring the picture. The screening in the State Office Building, New York City, was witnessed by Gordon Knox Bell, George Ryan and Susan Brandeis.

Dr. Esmond had asserted the film was an encouragement to "trial marriages." The appeal of First National Pictures declared that the film was a picturization of the successful stage play of the same name; that it had been "toned down"; that "certain modifications of dialogue in the picture will tend to further eliminate much of the objection thereto." The appeal cited "substantial investment" and "much material financial loss."

The version presented by Warners at Thursday's screening had been revised from the original but the extent of revision Warners and the regents declined to disclose. The regents' members refusing to comment on the acceptability of the film in its revised form, pointed out that the changes were made with the consent of the regents' committee and that none of the three members had seen the original revsion.

Press is Barred

Contrary to general practice the regents refused to allow the press to hear the arguments of opposing counsel following the screening. Albert S. Howson, Warners' contact with censorship boards, and Stanley Friedman, company counsel, argued for the distributor, and Charles A. Brind, Jr., represented the censors. The regents' sub-committee was to make its recommendations to the full board at its monthly meeting in Albany Friday.

Among the boards which passed the picture without deletions were those of Pennsylvania, Virginia, Chicago and Detroit.

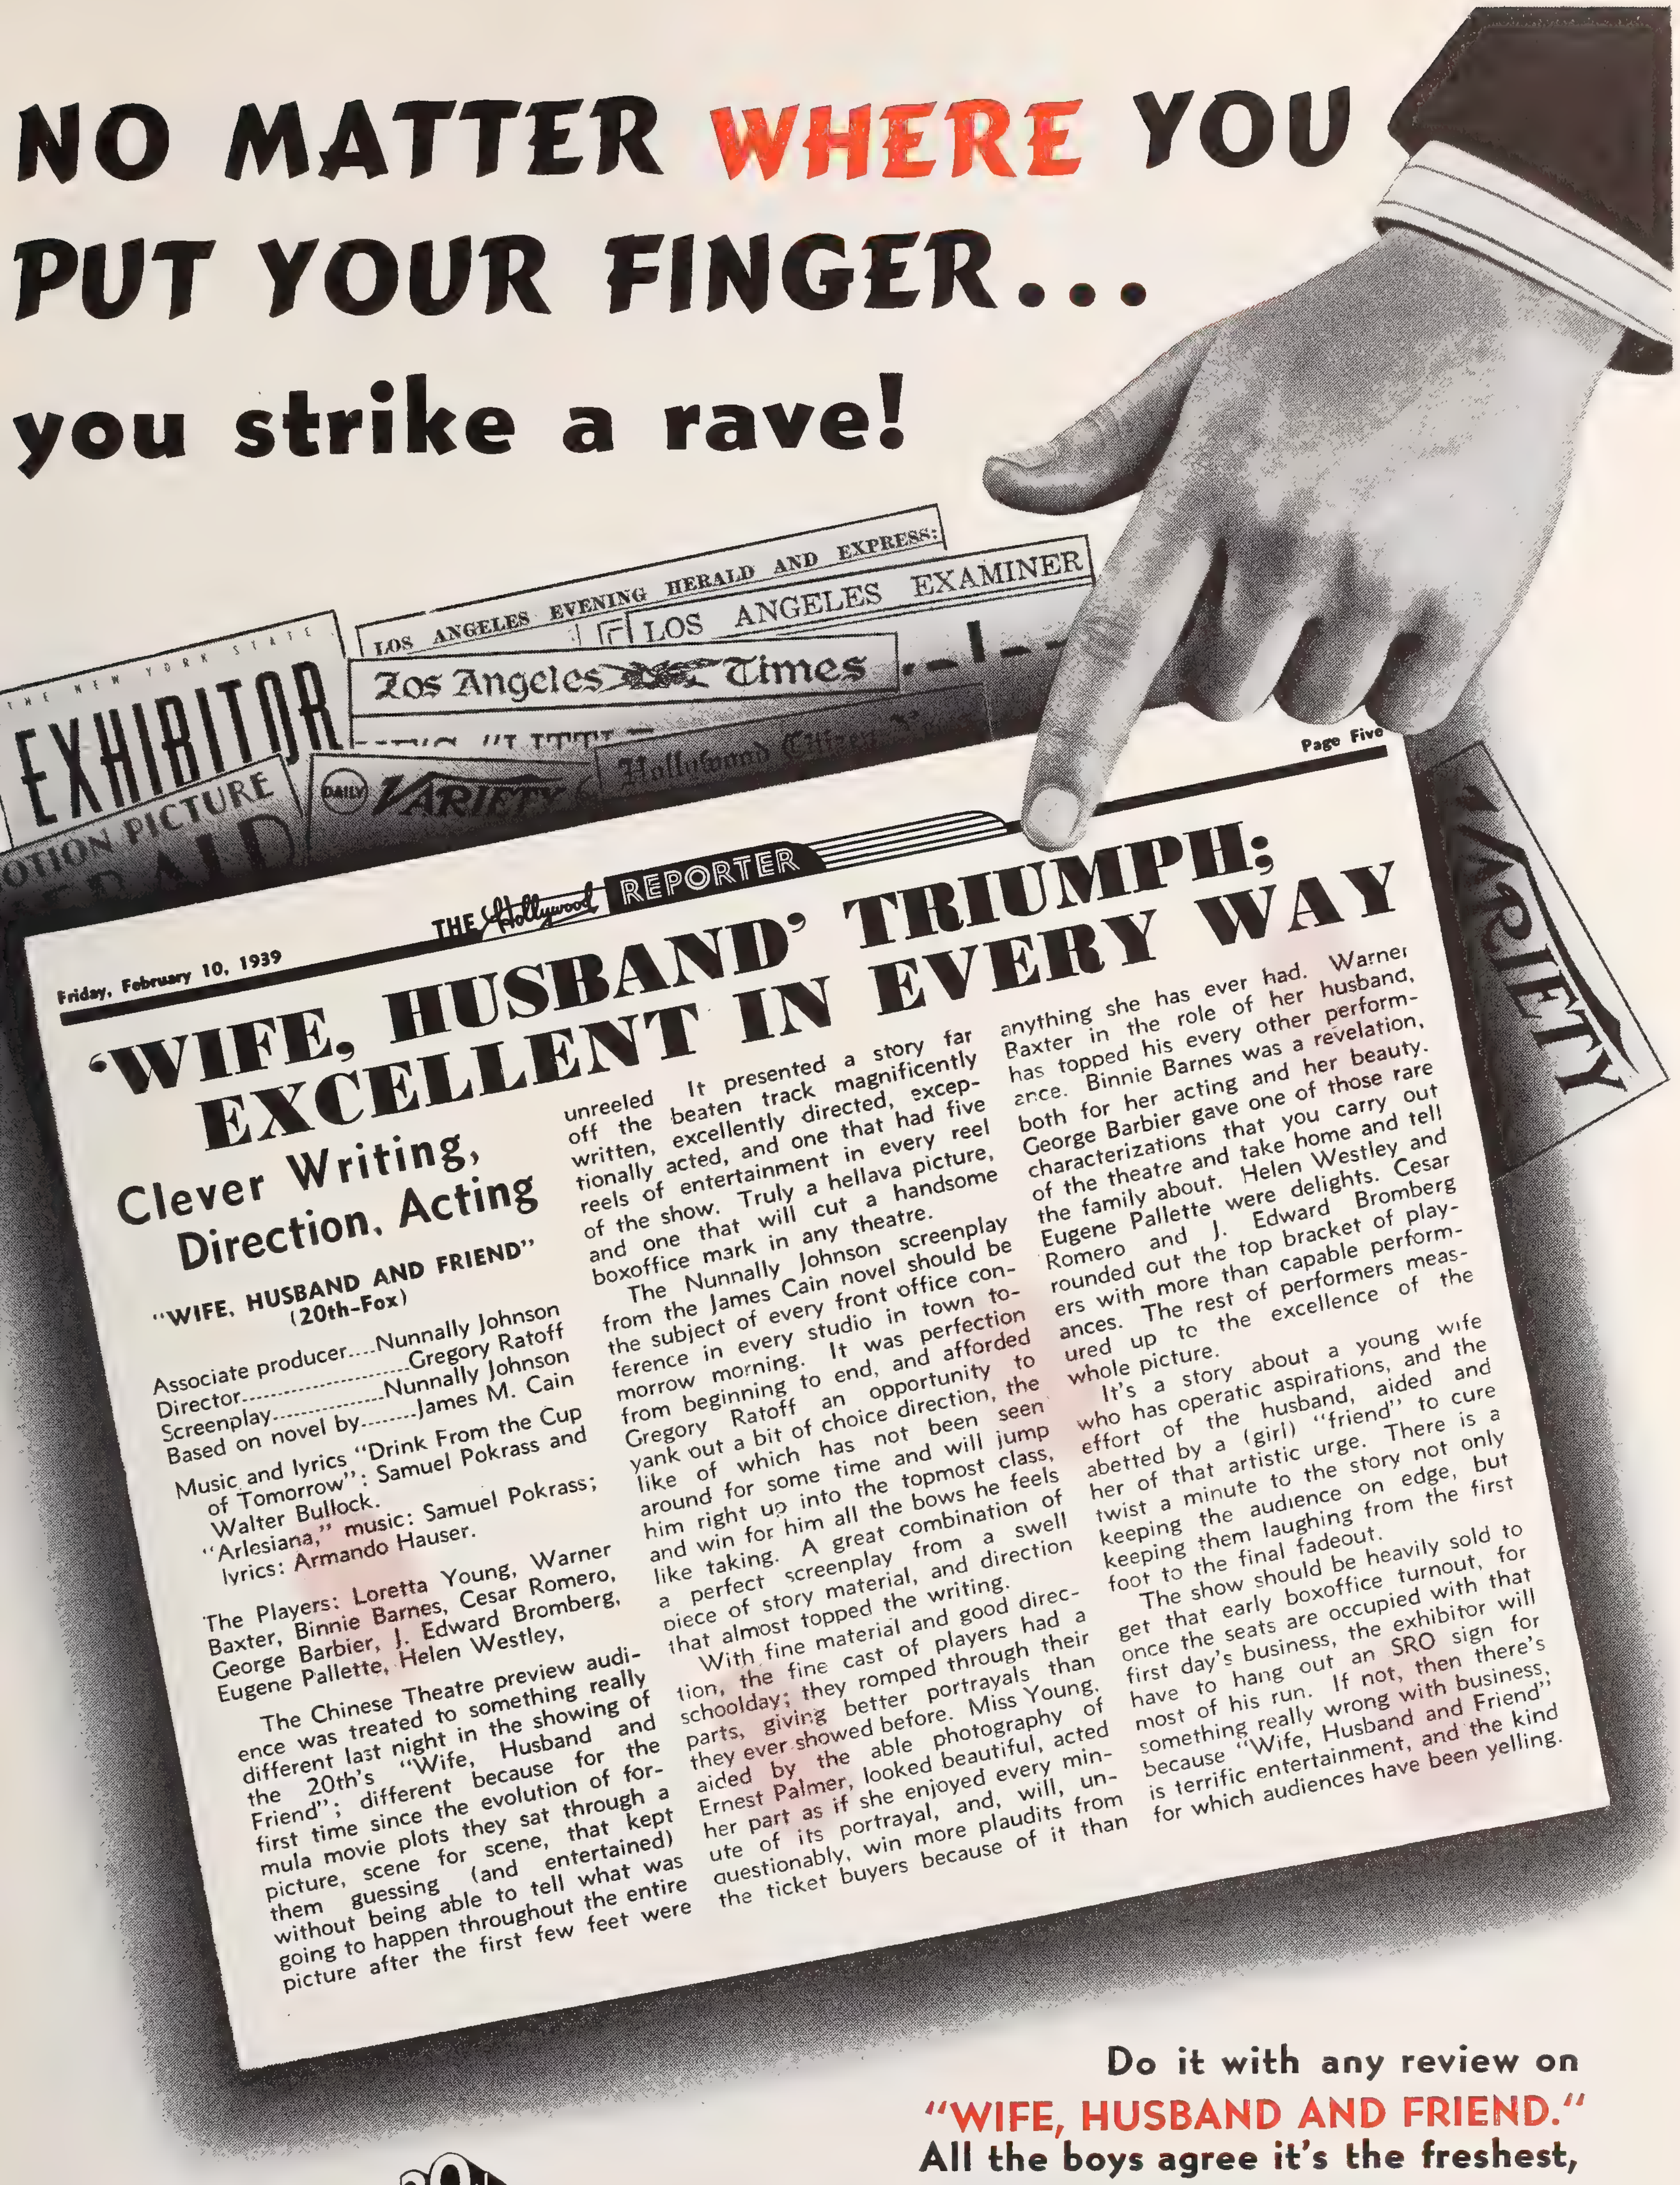
The New York three member censor board committee last week reviewed "The Puritan," which also was banned by Dr. Esmond. Lenauer International Films, which is handling this French film, was represented by Arthur Garfield Hays, attorney, who attacked censorship in general.

Warners in Air Deal

Station WMCA, New York, has completed a deal with Warner Brothers' Hollywood station, KFWB, for interchange of programs striking at the infiltration of foreign doctrines in America. The KFWB program is titled "America Marches On." In exchange, WMCA will give Warner Brothers recordings of programs the station produces in New York, including a new series titled "Persecution Must End."

NO MATTER WHERE YOU PUT YOUR FINGER...

you strike a rave!



THE Hollywood REPORTER

Page Five

Friday, February 10, 1939

'WIFE, HUSBAND' TRIUMPH; EXCELLENT IN EVERY WAY

Clever Writing, Direction, Acting

"WIFE, HUSBAND AND FRIEND"
(20th-Fox)

Associate producer....Nunnally Johnson
Director....Gregory Ratoff
Screenplay....Nunnally Johnson
Based on novel by....James M. Cain

Music and lyrics "Drink From the Cup of Tomorrow": Samuel Pokrass and Walter Bullock.
"Arlesiana," music: Samuel Pokrass; lyrics: Armando Hauser.

The Players: Loretta Young, Warner Baxter, Binnie Barnes, Cesar Romero, George Barbier, J. Edward Bromberg, Eugene Pallette, Helen Westley,

The Chinese Theatre preview audience was treated to something really different last night in the showing of the 20th's "Wife, Husband and Friend"; different because for the first time since the evolution of formula movie plots they sat through a picture, scene for scene, that kept them guessing (and entertained) without being able to tell what was going to happen throughout the entire picture after the first few feet were unreeled. It presented a story far off the beaten track magnificently written, excellently directed, exceptionally acted, and one that had five reels of entertainment in every reel of the show. Truly a hellava picture, and one that will cut a handsome boxoffice mark in any theatre.

The Nunnally Johnson screenplay from the James Cain novel should be the subject of every front office conference in every studio in town tomorrow morning. It was perfection from beginning to end, and afforded Gregory Ratoff an opportunity to yank out a bit of choice direction, the like of which has not been seen around for some time and will jump him right up into the topmost class, and win for him all the bows he feels like taking. A great combination of a perfect screenplay from a swell piece of story material, and direction that almost topped the writing.

With fine material and good direction, the fine cast of players had a schoolday; they romped through their parts, giving better portrayals than they ever showed before. Miss Young, aided by the able photography of Ernest Palmer, looked beautiful, acted her part as if she enjoyed every minute of its portrayal, and, will, unquestionably, win more plaudits from the ticket buyers because of it than anything she has ever had. Warner Baxter in the role of her husband, has topped his every other performance. Binnie Barnes was a revelation, both for her acting and her beauty. George Barbier gave one of those rare characterizations that you carry out of the theatre and take home and tell the family about. Helen Westley and Eugene Pallette were delights. Cesar Romero and J. Edward Bromberg rounded out the top bracket of players with more than capable performances. The rest of performers measured up to the excellence of the whole picture.

It's a story about a young wife who has operatic aspirations, and the effort of the husband, aided and abetted by a (girl) "friend" to cure her of that artistic urge. There is a twist a minute to the story not only keeping the audience on edge, but keeping them laughing from the first foot to the final fadeout.

The show should be heavily sold to get that early boxoffice turnout, for once the seats are occupied with that first day's business, the exhibitor will have to hang out an SRO sign for most of his run. If not, then there's something really wrong with business, because "Wife, Husband and Friend" is terrific entertainment, and the kind for which audiences have been yelling.

Do it with any review on
"WIFE, HUSBAND AND FRIEND."
All the boys agree it's the freshest, brightest comedy in years!

20th CENTURY FOX
THE KEYSTONE
OF YOUR FUTURE

DIRECTORS GUILD THREATENS STRIKE IF TERMS FOR ASSISTANTS AREN'T MET

Action Delayed After Meeting Producers; Committee Named for Associated Actors' Inquiry of Whitehead Regime

What is called potentially as great a threat to the functioning of the motion picture producing industry as was the recently averted radio actors' strike to broadcasting, was voiced this week by the Screen Directors' Guild as its members awaited the results of their virtual "ultimatum" to Hollywood producers to come to terms in a fortnight over wages and working conditions of assistant directors and unit managers.

Meeting last Thursday in Hollywood, the membership of the director's association voted to allow their chief officers, President Frank Capra, Howard Hawks and W. S. Van Dyke to call a strike, if necessary, to bring producers to agreement. There followed, on Friday, a meeting of Mr. Capra with the producers' committee, at which concessions apparently were made; at a second meeting on Friday of the Guild's board of directors, it was decided to postpone a strike for three weeks.

In the decision was cited a letter from the Associated Motion Picture Producers, recognizing the Guild and accepting all "points in the Guild's original program, with the exception of two which they assure us, can be brought to a successful conclusion if we grant them three weeks time."

Joseph M. Schenck, chairman of the board of Twentieth Century-Fox and president of the AMPP, declared that the "relations between directors and producers are cordial" and that a "satisfactory" understanding "would be reached, not only fair to directors and producers, but beneficial to the industry as a whole."

Producers present at the meeting with Mr. Capra were Mr. Schenck, Louis B. Mayer, Samuel Goldwyn, Harry Warner, Jack Warner, Y. Frank Freeman, Pandro S. Berman, and J. R. McDonough. Studio attorneys attending were Mendel B. Silberberg, Walter K. Tuller, Henry Herzbrun, Herbert Preston, Edwin J. Loeb, and Alfred Wright.

Threatened to Resign

Mr. Capra had threatened to resign from the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences, if the producers did not recognize the guild.

In Hollywood also, Bernard Alpert, special attorney of the National Labor Relations Board, conducting the Board's case against the large producers, in behalf of the Screen Writers Guild, which charges that the producers have used coercion and have failed to recognize the Guild as the bargaining agency of the writers predicted that "new complaints" with "more specific data" would be issued by the board.

The Board also has received petitions from the Sound Technicians Local 695 and Studio Photographers Local 659 of the International Alliance of Theatrical Stagehands and Employees, to dismiss charges of company unionism against international and major producers. This move is called the result of "behind the scenes" moves by which producers will grant concessions to the unions.

Actors Bar "Front Office" Men

The Associated Actors and Artistes of America have rejected informal requests for membership by the Theatrical Managers, Agents, and Treasurers Union. The AAA two weeks ago passed a resolution barring from membership all non-performers.

NEW "MIKE" CALLED DEAF TO UNWANTED SOUNDS

The RCA Manufacturing Company says it has a uni-directional microphone achieving new sensitiveness on its "live" side by the use of newly developed and more powerful steel magnets, yet capable of turning a completely deaf ear to unwanted sounds coming from any other quarter.

Only about half the size of the uni-directional microphone, the new instrument is said to be suited for use in auditoriums with broadcast or public address systems to eliminate pickup of audience noises or echo, as well as for use in small radio studios.

It has a frequency range of from 40 to 10,000 cycles, operated at output impedances of either 50 or 250 ohms and is unaffected by temperature or pressure changes according to RCA, while its average concellation from the back, or "dead" side, of minus 14 to minus 20 decibels.

Investigate Whitehead

The international board of the Associated Actors and Artistes of America this week named a committee to investigate the regime of Ralph Whitehead, executive secretary of the American Federation of Actors. Mr. Whitehead had asked for the inquiry in order to clear up complaints of mismanagement. Mrs. Florence Marsten, eastern representative of the Screen Actors Guild, heads the committee. Other members are Frank Gillmore, president of the AAAA; Paul Dulzell, executive secretary of the Actors' Equity; Paul Turner, attorney for the AAAA; George Heller, of the American Federation of Radio Artists.

A special committee of the AAAA is also meeting this week, to improve the present union card interchangeability arrangement.

—

Stagehands' Contract Protested

Two New York theatres have objected to certain clauses in the recently negotiated contract between New York circuits and Local 1, of the stagehands union. Several circuits may refuse to sign the contract, and reopen the dispute. The Astor and Rivoli theatre managements oppose the contracts, the Astor objecting to its designation, and consequent obligation to pay high wage scales, as a first-run house.

—

Film Technicians' Contract

Representatives of Consolidated Film Industries and the De Luxe Laboratories were closeted this week with members of the Laboratory Technicians Union, Local 702, in New York City, over terms of a proposed contract.

Union Actions

In New York City last week, a suit by 12 members of the Empire State Motion Picture Operators Union, to restrain their officers and organization from assessing dues against members, was dismissed for lack of prosecution; in St. Louis, last week, trial was scheduled to begin on the suit by 19 members of the Motion Picture Operator's Union, Local 143, to oust John P. Nick, president of the local, Clyde Weston, its business agent and George Browne, president of the IATSE, from control of the local.

Weston and Nick were named in an indictment returned this week charging extortion of $7,000 from theatre owners in 1937. A similar indictment, filed previously, named Nick and Edward M. Brady.

—

Music Union Agreement

Local musicians may share in a partial revival of stage presentations in St. Louis, following the completion of negotiations last week between Musicians Local No. 2 and Harry Arthur, Jr., vice-president of Fanchon and Marco Service Corporation. Three "de-luxe" houses are involved in the agreement: the Fox, the St. Louis and the Ambassador.

The arrangement calls for spot-booking in the event that name bands and personalities are available, the local musicians to be employed as a "stand-by" group for all such engagements. This was amplified by the union's demands, which Mr. Arthur termed unfair, but to which he capitulated, that local music-makers be given one-week employment for each week given to out-of-town bands.

Court to Hear Appeals on RKO

In an order filed in the U. S. district court in New York this week, William Bondy, federal judge, set next Monday for a hearing to determine whether the Irving Trust Company, as trustee of RKO, will be compelled under the rules of the court to notify more than 20,000 stockholders and creditors of RKO of objections filed by Ernest W. Stirn, holder of Class A stock of the company.

The application for the hearing was made by Irving Trust in a petition which stated that Mr. Stirn had objected to Judge Bondy's extension of permission to creditors to file claims by modifying a previous order and dispensing with the requirement of physical presentation by claimants of certificates of stock and debentures.

Mr. Stirn has filed notice of appeal from Judge Bondy's decision approving the plan with minor modifications. This is the third appeal from the approval of the plan itself. The others were made by Copia Realty Corporation and Fabian Operating Corporation.

Irving Trust has filed a petition for further interim allowance of $85,000. It previously had received $155,000. William J. Donovan, Irving Trust attorney, asked $95,000, after having received $245,000. The present application covers services rendered from Oct. 1, 1937 to Sept. 30, 1938.

George Seitz, director of the "Hardy Family" series of stories, and Nelson Eddy have signed new long term contracts at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studio.

MAJORS BEAT PENNSYLVANIA CHAIN STORE TAX; BILLS IN OTHER STATES

Pennsylvania Judge Issues Permanent Injunction Against Enforcement of 1937 Act to Tax Circuit Theatres

In New York, Kansas and Ohio the tax situation, evolved by legislators groping for new means and sources of taxation, continued acute this week.

In Pennsylvania, however, a county court judge handed down a permanent injunction, welcomed by major circuits, prohibiting enforcement of the 1937 chain store tax act.

New legislation in the states also, as usual, dealt with chance games, Sunday shows, billboards, socalled music tax, and numerous other exhibition problems.

Governor Hints Appeal

In Pennsylvania, William Hargest, presiding in Dauphin county court, supported the contention of theatre interests that the 1937 chain store act was illegal. The judge granted permanent injunctions prohibiting enforcement of the act. Both Arthur H. James, governor, and Claude Remo, state attorney general, hinted that the state would appeal.

The law imposed a graduated tax from $1 to $500 on each circuit house if there were over 500 theatres in the chain. The act had been passed ostensibly to raise $1,500,000 for the salaries of school teachers.

While some 40 corporations had joined in the fight against the legislation, Warner Brothers was foremost in representing the theatre interests. Through three state subsidiaries, it last August obtained injunctions preventing state officials from collecting the chain store tax.

Gross Sales Tax Threat

In New York, theatre interests were threatened by proposals for a two per cent gross sales tax, proposed by Senator John J. McNaboe.

Of the 3,000 bills before the New York legislature reveals that of those affecting the industry, the restrictive measures were confined to regulation of the billboard industry outdoor advertising and the number of men in the projection room.

With American Federation of Labor and International Alliance of Stage Employees' backing, the Phelps-Crews bill for two men in a booth, was seriously regarded.

Another non-taxation bill, by Assemblyman William Butler, of Buffalo, would permit admission of children under 16 to the theatres where matrons are present, without parents or guardians.

If the theatres in New York State escape the gross sales tax, they may face Governor Herbert Lehman's proposed "emergency taxes," one of them calling for a tax of one dollar over a thousand dollars assessed valuation. This would take an estimated $1,000,000 yearly.

The legislative threats were the subject of a meeting last Friday in the offices of Harry Brandt, president of the Independent Theatre Owners of New York, of attorneys and representatives of theatre interests of the city. Mr. Brandt is head of the circuit bearing his name. Present at the meeting, also, were J. H. Walter, RKO attorney; Dave Palfreyman, of the Hays office; Melvin Albert, of the ITOA; Harry G. Koschm, attorney for the New York Allied; Louis Frisch, of the Randforce circuit; Archie Weltman and Mike Rosen, of Loew's; Al Reid, of the Fabian circuit, and others.

In Kansas, as in New York state, the legislature has under consideration a gross receipts tax and a chain store tax.

ILLINOIS CONSIDERS STATE "NEELY BILL"

The first of its kind ever to be introduced into a state legislature, an anti-block booking bill, similar to the Neely Bill, was proposed in the Illinois legislature last week by Representative Arnold Lund. The measure was referred to the judiciary committee. The Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America have received a copy of the bill, and it is declared that, while the language is different, the bill practically would achieve what the Neely proposals are trying to achieve: prohibition of block booking, blind selling, forcing of shorts and foreign pictures, and would require submission to the exhibitor of a synopsis of each picture, with the contract. The bill provides, as penalties, a $2,000 fine, a year in jail, or both.

Mr. Lund operates the Tivoli theatre, Downers Grove, and the Brookfield Theatre, Brookfield, both in Illinois.

In Congress, meanwhile, a hearing date on the Neely anti-block selling bill is awaited.

The state already has a two per cent gross sales tax. The gross receipts tax would take its place, and would amount to 5 to 15 mills on the dollar.

In Ohio, the chief threat from the present legislature appears to be in a bill authorizing political subdivisions to impose an additional admission tax of two per cent on all admissions from 15 cents to one dollar, and two cents for every additional dollar. Observers said this would amount to a thirteen and one-third per cent tax upon 15-cent admissions, as compared with a two per cent tax on one dollar admissions. Ohio exhibitors now pay a three per cent tax on gross business.

Other Ohio legislation impending or introduced includes the following: a measure to exempt exhibitors from paying the 2.7 per cent unemployment compensation taxes, unless they have eight or more employees. The tax applies to all exhibitors employing three or more persons. The federal tax law applies only to those paying eight or more persons. There is also the introduction into this legislature of an anti-ASCAP bill.

Tennessee Receipts Tax Bill

In Tennessee, the legislature has under consideration Governor Cooper's revenue bill, which is understood to provide for a gross receipts tax of three per cent and a six per cent tax on theatres using Bank Night.

Theatres playing Bank Night are under attack in New Mexico. A measure originally providing for the outlawing of the game has been amended to assess a ten per cent admission tax on theatres on Bank Night.

In Connecticut, six Bingo bills to restrict Bingo have been presented. Other bills scheduled concerns two-men-in-a-booth and ASCAP.

Following is a listing by states, of these and other bills or movements affecting the industry:

VERMONT: A measure eliminating blue laws was passed last week and signed. The measure permits sports, lectures, concerts, and films on Sunday, subject to local option.

OHIO: Probate Judge Harry G. Cram, of Springfield, is sponsoring a movement to prohibit children under 16 years of age from attending theatres after six o'clock in the evening, on any day of the week.

ARKANSAS: A bill to outlaw ASCAP passed the Senate on Friday. The house committee recommended that it should not be passed.

ILLINOIS: An anti-ASCAP bill by Representative Robert Woodward was referred to the judiciary committee, with hearings scheduled this week.

MAINE: Representative John R. Smith brought forward a bill to permit Sunday shows between 3 and 11 p.m.

IOWA: A two-men-in-a-booth bill, for all towns of over 1,200 population was introduced into the House, also one to repeal the state law prohibiting the exhibition of prize fight pictures. A bill to abolish Bank Night was matched by one to legalize Bank Night and tax theatres using it.

WISCONSIN: The State Assembly has killed the Schlabach bill which was to have legalized daylight saving time.

MISSOURI: The House judiciary committee held a public hearing on a bill to prohibit the sale of standing room tickets in motion picture theatres.

DELAWARE: A movement for restriction of billboards was started by the Gordon Heights Garden Club.

Another billboard action, in the New York legislature, which would require a permit for individual signs and would prohibit erection within prescribed distance from the highway. In Schenectady, N. Y., the city council has unanimously adopted a billboard regulation ordinance.

Howard with Paramount

Hampton W. Howard, formerly with H. A. Bruno and Associates, has been signed by Paramount to handle public relations for Max Fleischer, Inc., Cartoon Studios, Miami, Fla. A full length cartoon feature, "Gulliver's Travels," is now in production at the Fleischer plant. It will be released in the 1939-40 season.

Milton A. Mooney this week appointed Ray Frisz as the third booker for Cooperative Theatres of Ohio. Mr. Frisz resigned as booker for the Schine circuit in the Cincinnati territory to join Cooperative. Joel Golden succeeds him at Schine.

Harry Price of Superior Films, Toronto, has disposed of the 16 mm. branch of his independent establishment. The stock of narrow width features has been sold to General Films, which operates principally in the Canadian west.

The Golden State circuit, San Francisco, has acquired the 1,200 seat neighborhood theatre, El Rey, formerly operated by San Francisco Theatres, Inc. The circuit now has 13 houses.

The contract of Vivien Leigh, signed to star in "Gone With the Wind," binds the English actress for seven years to Selznick International and Alexander Korda.

JAPANESE PRODUCERS BUSY ON SCHOOL FILMS

Half of Urban Primary Pupils See Films; 16mm. Market Extending to Circuits

by HIROMU TOMINAGA
in Tokyo

While guardian societies have been active preventing children from "playing hooky" at theatres during school hours, investigation by our Department of Education reveals that half of the urban primary school children are given opportunities to enjoy motion pictures at schools for instructive or amusement purposes.

The investigations report that 3,261 of the 20,939 primary schools are equipped with projectors. In cities, the average of schools so equipped is 51.2 per cent, in towns 20.3 per cent and in villages 0.9 per cent.

In secondary schools, including middle schools, normal and special schools, 714 of the 2,804 have film projectors.

Girls' and normal schools are much better equipped than middle schools for boys or young men, whereas special schools, technical, commercial and agricultural, are said to make less use of the motion picture. Almost 85% of high schools and universities can show pictures, for general study and for special research on the motion picture itself.

The Educational Department now is cooperating with leading producing companies to make films encouraging the national idea among the general public. The department recently called a conference of directors of the four large companies: Messrs. S. Kido of Shochiku, K. Ashida of Nikkatsu, I. Mori of Toho and O. Rokusha of Shinko. Attending from the Educational Department were Director Tanaka of Social Education Bureau, S. Shimizu of the Adult Education Bureau, and Superintendent Fuwa.

Arrangements arrived at by this conference follow:

Shochiku has taken charge of producing films featuring the cooperation of towns' and villages' educational organs and institutes for carrying out national policies.

Shinko handles production of films idealizing the manner of living in times of emergency. Nikkatsu is turning out films featuring the war materials made possible by the cooperation of the public, such as the utilization of waste products, whereas Toho is providing screen subjects depicting services rendered the public, such as to the families of soldiers.

The resultant pictures are two-reel subjects, each 500 meters in length.

▽

16mm. Films Increasing

The 16mm. film, is now winning popularity at motion picture theatres, but it is the subject of hot discussion at a number of rural theatres, particularly in newsreel theatres and houses showing a mixed program of cultural pictures and short subjects. A number of cinemas in Osaka, Kyoto and Kobe have started presentation of such shorts, with 16mm. projectors.

Now domestic manufacturers of 16mm. projectors, such as Nihon Koon Kogyo, Elmo and Arrow, have increased production activity, seeking to extend the market to major circuits. It is reported Nihon Koon has negotiated with Shochiku and Shinko, and that Shinko has signed for block purchase from the manufacturer.

Fuji Film has completed plans for large scale manufacture of 16mm. raw stock.

It is now expected that the 16mm. projectors will be used for features, particularly in smaller theatres.

Shochiku is reported contemplating reduction of 35mm. films to 16mm. for theatres from which only low rentals can be expected.

Shirokiya, one of the leading department stores in Tokyo, has opened a film theatre under the management of its new subsidiary company, Toa Kogyo, Ltd., on the seventh floor of the main building at Nihonbashi, Tokyo. The theatre, established with paid-up capital of 250,000 Yen(has J. Yamada, the managing director of the Shirokiya store, as president of the new theatre company.

According to Y. Miyairi, managing director of Toa Kogyo, ten similar cinemas are being established in Tokyo, as subsidiaries.

As no one is allowed to build a new cinema in Japan under the present regulations, establishment of such cinemas by utilizing the upper stories of department stores is attracting considerable attention.

"WAVE" HONORED AT DEMOCRACY DINNER

A letter of commendation signed by G. Vazquez Vela, secretary of public instruction of Mexico, was presented to Paul Strand at a dinner given by the Committee for Pan-American Democracy Wednesday night in New York, in honor of Mr. Strand's film, "The Wave," which was released in 1937. The picture, concerning the life in a Mexican fishing village, was called largely responsible for the formation of Frontier Films, a non-profit organization making American documentary films, of which Mr. Strand is president.

The Committee, sponsoring the award, is headed by Gardner Jackson, of the Labor Non-Partisan League. Its membership includes Franz Boas, anthropologist; Ruth Benedict, Columbia University professor; David Efron, professor at Sarah Lawrence College, and George Soule of the New Republic. The intention of the Committee is to combat Fascist propaganda in South America, and to this end they will organize a group to attend the Montevideo conference March 20th, will participate in an artists' congress in New York during the World's Fair, and may issue a magazine.

Rosenberg Joins RKO

Joe Rosenberg has left National Screen Service in Omaha to join the RKO sales staff there, filling the vacancy created by the departure of Fred Horn to Grand National's Omaha exchange as manager. Mike Roth succeeds Mr. Rosenberg at National Screen.

Field Unit Will Handle Rogers Drive in April

Will H. Hays, president of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, who was guest at a luncheon given last Friday by Major L. E. Thompson, RKO, to the trade press, at the Rockefeller Center Luncheon Club, approved the plans outlined by Mr. Thompson, covering this year's campaign to observe the Will Rogers "National Theatre Week," in major circuit and independent theatres throughout the United States, for one week, beginning Thursday, April 20th.

Field Organization

Exhibitors will be enrolled through a field organization, paralleling the exchange system. The organization will be headed by Major Thompson, chairman, and A. P. Waxman, director of the campaign, who will have 32 branch managers as field contacts to enroll exhibitors.

Each exchange center will have a branch manager, who will be designated as a zone chairman. Serving on the zone chairman's committee will be the branch managers of all the other distributing companies in his territory. Each zone chairman's committee also will include representatives of the five major circuits, leading independent exhibitors, executives of local Variety Clubs, newspaper editors, and local trade paper representatives.

Exhibitors will be classified in two categories; to run an all-star short subject, which will be provided gratis, and take audience collections; or to make contributions based on theatre capacities.

Proceeds to Hospital

The proceeds from this year's campaign will be devoted to the maintenance of the Will Rogers Memorial Hospital, at Saranac Lake, New York; its kindred philanthropies, maintained for the needy of stage and screen; and for the aid of local institutions, specializing in the care of handicapped children.

In connection with the aid to handicapped children, $50,000 already has been appropriated by the Will Rogers Memorial Commission, for allocation to local chapters of the Infantile Paralysis Foundation. Additionally, $50,000 has been earmarked by the Will Rogers Memorial Commission, to aid in the national work of the Infantile Paralysis Foundation. This additional sum will be made available following this year's observance of Will Rogers National Theatre Week.

Charter New Company

European News and Film Company, Inc., has been chartered to produce, sell and transact in motion picture film. Capital stock set up is valued at $10,000. Directors are Israel J. Beck, Edward Marks and Mildred Doelle, of Freeport, N. Y.

A. M. Gundlefinger, vice-president of Cinecolor and its technical director, is experimenting with a new high speed bi-pack color film, which he says, is four times faster than the present film of that type.

George Friedel, for two years booker at the 20th Century Fox exchange in Kansas City, is now head booker in Oklahoma City. He succeeds W. T. Clark, resigned.

ASIDES and INTERLUDES

By JAMES P. CUNNINGHAM

THE line of standees in the foyer of the Skouras-Fox theatre at Hackensack, New Jersey, was unusually long the other evening. A young man stepped out of it, turned to Harry Fuchs, the manager, and said: "Sir, when I purchased my ticket, I asked how long it would be before I could get a seat inside, and the usher told me: 'In a little while.' Well, I have been waiting a long while to get in. Just what does 'a little while' mean here, anyway?"

Mr. Fuchs eyed the young man solemnly. "That depends," he said, "on many things. A little while for you, because you are a young man, may be a day, a week, a year. For me, since I am growing old, it would be a relatively shorter time. My life expectancy, the ratio of the involved wait to the duration of my career, enter into the problem. And this itself raises the interesting question of relativity. A little while on earth, in its 365-day space frame, might be the infinitesimal fragment of an instant on some greater astral body or an unending epoch on a lesser. It is like the question 'What is a sound?' or 'What is sight?' If a room be full of the rarest jewels on earth and there be no one there to see them, that room is, according to many scholars whose philosophies defy contradiction, quite empty. If a symphony be played in a desert and no one is there to hear, there is no sound. And so when you ask me what the usher meant by 'a little while,' great vistas of thought open up before us."

The young man said that he would wait.

▽

Senator Matthew Neely, Democrat from West Virginia, took time off the other day from making preparations to bring the motion picture industry and the public before his Congressional committee for hearings on his film block booking bill, to have the Senate pass a resolution to pray more often. Previously, the Senators only prayed occasionally while in session. Senator Neely wants them to start with prayers every day.

If the Senate Chaplain, instead of leaving the Senate Chamber every day right after prayer, stayed around a while and listened to some of the Senators, he'd find out why they need more prayers.

▽

Walt Disney's scene from "Snow White" has finally been hung in the Metropolitan Museum of Art. The ritual witnessed the addition to the Museum of the Disney cartoon which shows the two big, black vultures perched ominously on a bough, also lace flounces of the Louis XIV era, two Buddhist altar pieces of the Wei dynasty, three samples of early French silver, a fragment of a prehistoric Egyptian monument and pieces of an Etruscan chariot which was found in a grave in Italy.

▽

Then there's Neal O'Hara's story about the Mrs. Newrich who went into a Broadway music store and asked for a piece of music for her little girl, who is learning to play the piano.

"Here's 'Twilight' for 25 cents," responded the clerk. "Will that do?"

"Oh, she's further along than that," replied Mrs. Newrich. "Why last week she played a piece that cost 50 cents. Haven't you got something for 'bout a dollar?"

Leonard Lyons, in his "Lyons Den," N. Y. Post, chuckles over the Vincent Prices and their amusing predicament which started when Mr. Price, movie actor and portrayer of Prince Albert in Helen Hayes' "Victoria Regina," started from home to attend the Prince Albert Ball at the Waldorf-Astoria on Park Avenue. He had to rush from his apartment, and so his wife, Edith Barrett, followed a few minutes later. She entered a cab and told the driver: "Go down Park Avenue until you see a gold coach drawn by four white horses." The driver obliged without a murmur and actually overtook the gold coach in which "Prince" Price was riding. The actor proceeded to pay the cabbie and then the driver confessed: "When the lady gave me her instructions, I wasn't heading for any gold coach and four horses. I was heading her straight for the psychopathic ward of Bellevue Hospital."

▽

Of all the freak stunts used by theatre managers to attract patronage, Ed Siegal, of the Freeman theatre in the Bronx, New York, has one that is at least fantastically imaginative.

The essence of his act is to heap all manner of personal indignities and embarrassments upon volunteers from the audience. Each indignity commands its cash price. Ed calls it "A Fun and Laff Festival"—and it's some fun.

Calling patrons to the stage, he has their hair cut off, bald, and pays them $2. The loss of a trouser leg—scissored roughly by Siegal himself right on the stage—is worth the same price. All women with runs in their stockings are invited to the footlights to compete, by means of public measurement, for a $1 prize for the longest run. Sartorial mayhem continues as Manager Siegal cuts the tie from the neck of a volunteer, who gets $1 for this indignity. Excision of a woman's high-heel is performed by willing victims with hammer and chisel. Their reward for spoiling a pair of shoes, one dollar.

▽

The word "SEX" cannot be used in Tampa newspaper advertisements to publicize "sex films." So the Broadway theatre down there bought space for "Race Suicide" and played up in very large type the first three letters of "SEXational."

▽

Drew Pearson-Robert Allen, political news writers, send along from Washington a story about John Balderston, crack news man who turned playwright, went to Hollywood, saved his cash, gradually bought three houses for investment purposes.

One house Balderston fitted out for the upper-class Hollywood renter, complete with family portraits brought from England. The second he fitted out for the lower middle-class rentpayer, and the third for the Hollywood under-privileged.

Mr. Balderston has just rented the third, the under-privileged house, to Samuel Goldwyn's new vice-president, Mr. James Roosevelt, son of the President of the United States!

Five hundred dollars weekly salary must be "under-privileged" in Hollywood.

▽

Mr. Alfred Finestone now carries with him a full-fledged rabbitt's foot while reporting for Motion Picture Daily.

AMERICAN motion picture companies and the motion picture stars they employ have for years basked in the glory of the thought that in Paris, at least, streets are named after them. We shall see.

No cinema star is more popular in Paris than charming Claudette Colbert—born Mlle. Chauchoin in the same city. One would not be surprised, therefore, to find a street sign reading "Rue Colbert" in Paris. But is it indeed Claudette la jolie who is commemorated in this street down near the National Library, neighboring the rue Richelieu, where in other days great nobles and prelates held individual courts in private mansions which kings envied? Or is it rather—as indeed seems to be the case—another Colbert, finance minister to Louis XIV, who built himself one of those mansions there? His home has disappeared, his name and street remain.

The Parisians have also honored their adored Charlot, as they call Charlie Chaplin; it is hard to find a month in which there is not an old "Charlot" film playing somewhere in Paris. So the "Rue Charlot" would seem to be undoubtedly for him, down in an old, old quarter which was extremely elegant in the 18th century, and which is now the center of the jewelry trade. Unless, of course, it was named for one Claude Charlot who built houses in this narrow street as early as 1627.

"Marie-Claire", the French magazine, finds us also a "Rue Taylor", commemorating Robert Taylor. Unfortunately he has a dark little, dingy street, which begins in an arcade, underneath a house, not far from the famous grande bouvelards and one of the only two monumental gates of Paris still left standing, the Porte St. Martin. But Robert will have to dispute his street with a Baron Taylor, who just a century ago was administrator of the Comédie-Francaise, director of Fine Arts and founder of the famous Society of Men of Letters.

René Duvivier, who has directed so many outstanding successes, (French) has his "Rue Duvivier" near the Ecole Militaire and Champs-de-Mars. It is a little street, short and lined with unprententious shops. It dates from 1848, but the other Duvivier was a general, hence his street near the Military School.

And handsome Jean Murat, who has turned so many pretty feminine heads as he plays the screen lover, has the most noble boulevard of them all, the "boulevard Murat" which begins at the Seine, and runs along the Parc des Princes in Auteuil to the race track. Here rise some of the most exclusive and handsome modern apartment houses of Paris, fitting tribute to the actor—but, also to Joachim Murat, King of Naples, who from simple beginnings rose to marry Caroline Bonaparte, the Emperor's sister and fell, as the Emperor fell, from his glory, to be shot.

And there's a street for the round and amusing French comic George Milton, a street in Montmartre, climbing gently uphill —but named for an English poet, dead some time, who wrote the great "Paradise Lost"!

▽

The movies' Frank Buck might well have influenced the Youngstown, Ohio, Radio Hospital Company to adopt the slogan: "Bring 'em in Dead. Take 'em out Alive."

Comerford Will Continues Walker As Circuit Head

by JOSEPH POLLEY
in Scranton

The personal property of M. E. Comerford, late owner of the large circuit of motion picture theatres in Pennsylvania and New York, was valued at "over $100,000" in his will, filed for probate last Thursday.

Additional Holdings

The will provides that Frank C. Walker, a nephew of Mr. Comerford and national treasurer of the Democratic Party, is to have full power to continue and manage the extensive Comerford interests. (Picture on page 10.)

Mr. Comerford, who died February 1st in Jackson Memorial Hospital, Miami, Fla., also held title to numerous properties and parcels of land. His real estate holdings, included as part of his personal property valuation, were valued at over $10,000."

The will, filed at the office of the register of wills, Thomas A. Quinland, was executed on July 27, 1934. It was handled by Attorney C. P. O'Malley, of the law firm of O'Malley, Hill, Harris & Harris.

Two of the principal beneficiaries preceded Mr. Comerford in death. They were his brother , Andrew Comerford, and his nephew, M. B. Comerford, who was a leading executive in the farflung Comerford enterprises, which included a hundred theatres.

The other principal beneficiaries are Mr. Comerford's widow, Margaret Comerford, and his daughter, Marial Comerford Friday, wife of Attorney Thomas Friday, both of Scranton.

Allocation of Estate

Mr. Comerford, who was the son of a Plymouth, Pa., mine worker, and was in his 71st year at the time of his death, had allocated his estate as follows:

In addition to an outright bequest of $5,000 to be paid her immediately, to Mrs. Comerford was bequeathed one-third of the residuary estate, also the Comerford residence in Scranton together with all its furnishings, personal property and automobiles owned by Mr. Comerford.

Marial Comerford is to receive real estate at 116 South Hyde Park Avenue, West Scranton, which consists of a lot and two dwellings, and is to have a one-ninth share of the residuary estate.

Mr. Comerford had directed that all his shares of stock in the Penncom Corporation be devised to his nephew, Frank C. Walker, vice-president and general manager of Comerford Theatres Company, and the late Michael B. Comerford, who formerly held the position now occupied by Mr. Walker.

Michael B. Comerford, who was vice-president of the company for 15 years, died on Dec. 2, 1935, of injuries incurred in an automobile accident on the Scranton-Daleville Highway.

Stock to Be Sold in 15 Years

The will provides that the stock be sold at the end of 15 years and the proceeds paid into the residuary estate for distribution to the residuary legatees. The trustees are empowered, if they deem it wise, to dispose of the stock prior to the expiration of the 15-year period.

Mr. Comerford's nieces and nephews are to benefit substantially by his will. He directed that a one-ninth share of the residuary estate be awarded, share and share alike, to his nieces and nephews who are children of his deceased sister, Ellen Comerford Walker. A similar share is to be divided among the nieces and nephews who are children of Mr. Comerford's other deceased brother, Patrick J. Comerford.

A one-ninth interest is also to be divided, share and share alike, to the nieces and nephews who are children of Mr. Comerford's deceased sister, Mary Comerford Collins.

One-ninth shares in the residuary estate also were bequeathed to a brother, John Comerford, Los Angeles, Mr. Comerford's only surviving brother, and to Mr. Comerford's sister, Margaret Carey, of Scranton, the only surviving sister.

Annuity Provided

Mr. Comerford bequeathed a monthly annuity of $125 to his brother, Andrew, who died less than six months ago in Los Angeles, after the will was executed.

The will contains a clause wherein Mr. Comerford stated that while he anticipated "no obstruction to the amicable administration of my estate, any beneficiary of the will who contests its validity will be divested of benefits and his or her share paid into the residuary estate.

Frank C. Walker, as executor (Mr. Walker and the late Michael B. Comerford had been named executors) was empowered to name a substitute trustee for the Penncom stock trust fund administration in the event of the other trustee's death and was authorized to convert any of the real estate or personal property into cash at discretion. Mr. Walker, under the will, is given full power "to continue and manage my business." Mr. Walker is now a resident of Scranton.

The will was witnessed by Attorneys Nathaniel H. Cowdrey, Edward W. Warren and Reese H. Harris, all of Scranton.

Other Bequests

Bequests also included:

"To my nieces and nephews, children of my deceased sister, to wit: my niece, Katherine Walter Cotter, of New York City; my nephew, Thomas J. Walker, of Butte, Mont.; my niece, Molly W. Graves, of Nelson, British Columbia; my nephew, Frank C. Walker, of New York City; my niece, Nell Walker Gaul, of Butte, Mont.; my niece, Margaret P. McCarthy, Boston, Mass., a one-ninth share of my said residuary estate to be divided among them, share and share alike, the issue of any said nieces or nephews who may predecease me to take the share which otherwise would have gone to its or their parent;

"To the children of my deceased brother, Patrick J. Comerford, to wit: my nephew, Michael B. Comerford, of Scranton; my nephew, John T. Comerford, of Wilkes-Barre; my niece, Katherine Comerford, of Scranton; my nephew, Thomas P. Comerford, of Scranton; my nephew, Joseph F. Comerford, of Scranton, and my niece, Helen Comerford Brennan, of Wilkes-Barre, a one-ninth share of my residuary estate to be divided among them, share and share alike, the issue of any of said nephews or nieces which may predecease me to take the share which their deceased parent otherwise would have received.

"To the children of my deceased sister, Mary Comerford Collins, to wit: my niece, Katherine Collins, of Scranton; my niece, Mae Collins Gibbons, of Scranton; my niece, Teresa Collins, of Scranton; my niece, Agnes Collins Allen, of Scranton, and my nephew, Thomas Collins, of Scranton, a one-ninth share of my said residuary estate, share and share alike, the issue of any of my nieces or nephews who may predecease me to take the share which otherwise would have been received by its parent or their parent."

Edward Cohen to Guayaquil

Edward Cohen, Twentieth Century-Fox manager in Ecuador, left this week on the Atenas for Guatemala, from where he will go to his headquarters in Guayaquil. He was in New York to confer with Walter J. Hutchinson, director of foreign distribution, and Sidney R. Kent, president.

U's "Mikado" Is Given Premiere at Toronto Uptown

by ALLISTER GROSART in Toronto

"The Mikado," British-made color production of one of the most famous of the Gilbert and Sullivan operettas, had its North American premiere in Toronto last Thursday at the Uptown theatre (2,800 seats), and the management reports that both the opening day and following business was close to that of "Snow White," record-holder at the theatre. Grosses on the opening day and on Friday averaged $3,000 daily, and Saturday witnessed a sellout, business aggregating almost $4,000 on five performances.

U. S. Radio Tieup Sunday

Universal has distribution rights for the United States, Canada, South America and the Far East. It has had prints in the United States for some six or eight weeks, withholding selling here until it determined the line of merchandising to be adopted. Only this week did the company round out its plans for the U. S., and although a Broadway opening date here has not been determined, national advertising begins Sunday afternoon, when, through a tieup with RCA, the "Magic Key Hour" and 125 NBC "Blue" networks stations will broadcast selections from "The Mikado" and announcements of the Universal film.

Universal bought the rights to the first color feature ever made on the Gilbert and Sullivan operetta from General Film Distributors, the company's British affiliate.

The film was directed in London by Victor Schertzinger, with musical direction by Geoffrey Toye and a cast including the D'Oyly Carte players and chorus, and Kenny Baker, with music played by the London Symphony Orchestra.

Various British and American companies had been trying to obtain rights to film "The Mikado" for some ten years, it is said.

Grosses Compared

Comparing the "Mikado" opening day grosses with those of "Snow White," the manager of Famous Players' Uptown theatre in Toronto pointed out that while "Snow White's" income exceeded that of the Gilbert and Sullivan opening, the Disney cartoon opened at nine in the morning, whereas "Mikado" opened three hours later. The theatre declared that the opening gross exceeded the combined gross for the day of three other first run theatres in Toronto—and the temperature ran seven degrees below zero.

Highlighted by the "five stars" given by Roly Young in the Toronto Globe and Mail—"Snow White" is the only other film to get such a rating—"The Mikado" generally had a warm press reception on its North American premiere.

"The Mikado" opened the day following a reserved seat Toronto premiere of MGM's "Pygmalion" at Loew's and for that reason did not feature reserved seats. Special invitations were, however, sent out to notables, who were headed by Sir William Mulock, retired Chief Justice of Ontario; Sir Earnest MacMillan, conductor of the Toronto Symphony orchestra, and Reginald Stewart, conductor of the Promenade Symphony (summer) concerts.

Exploitation was confined almost entirely to newspaper feature stories, because, as Manager Jack Arthur explained, "the anti-Japanese feeling and the boycott of Japanese goods made merchandise tie-ups too risky to contemplate.

EXTRA! CAFE SOCIETY NEWS ★★★

GLAMOUR GIRL NO.1 WEDS REPORTER ON BET!

by Sonny De Witt

Cafe Queen Chris West took hersel[illegible] early this [illegible] courtship of a whirlw[illegible] exactly [illegible] minutes. However, the marriage did not [illegible] even that long, [illegible] mediately after the ceremony the bride went home to read the headlines about her sensational escapade.

They love to GOSSIP about "CAFE SOCIETY"...

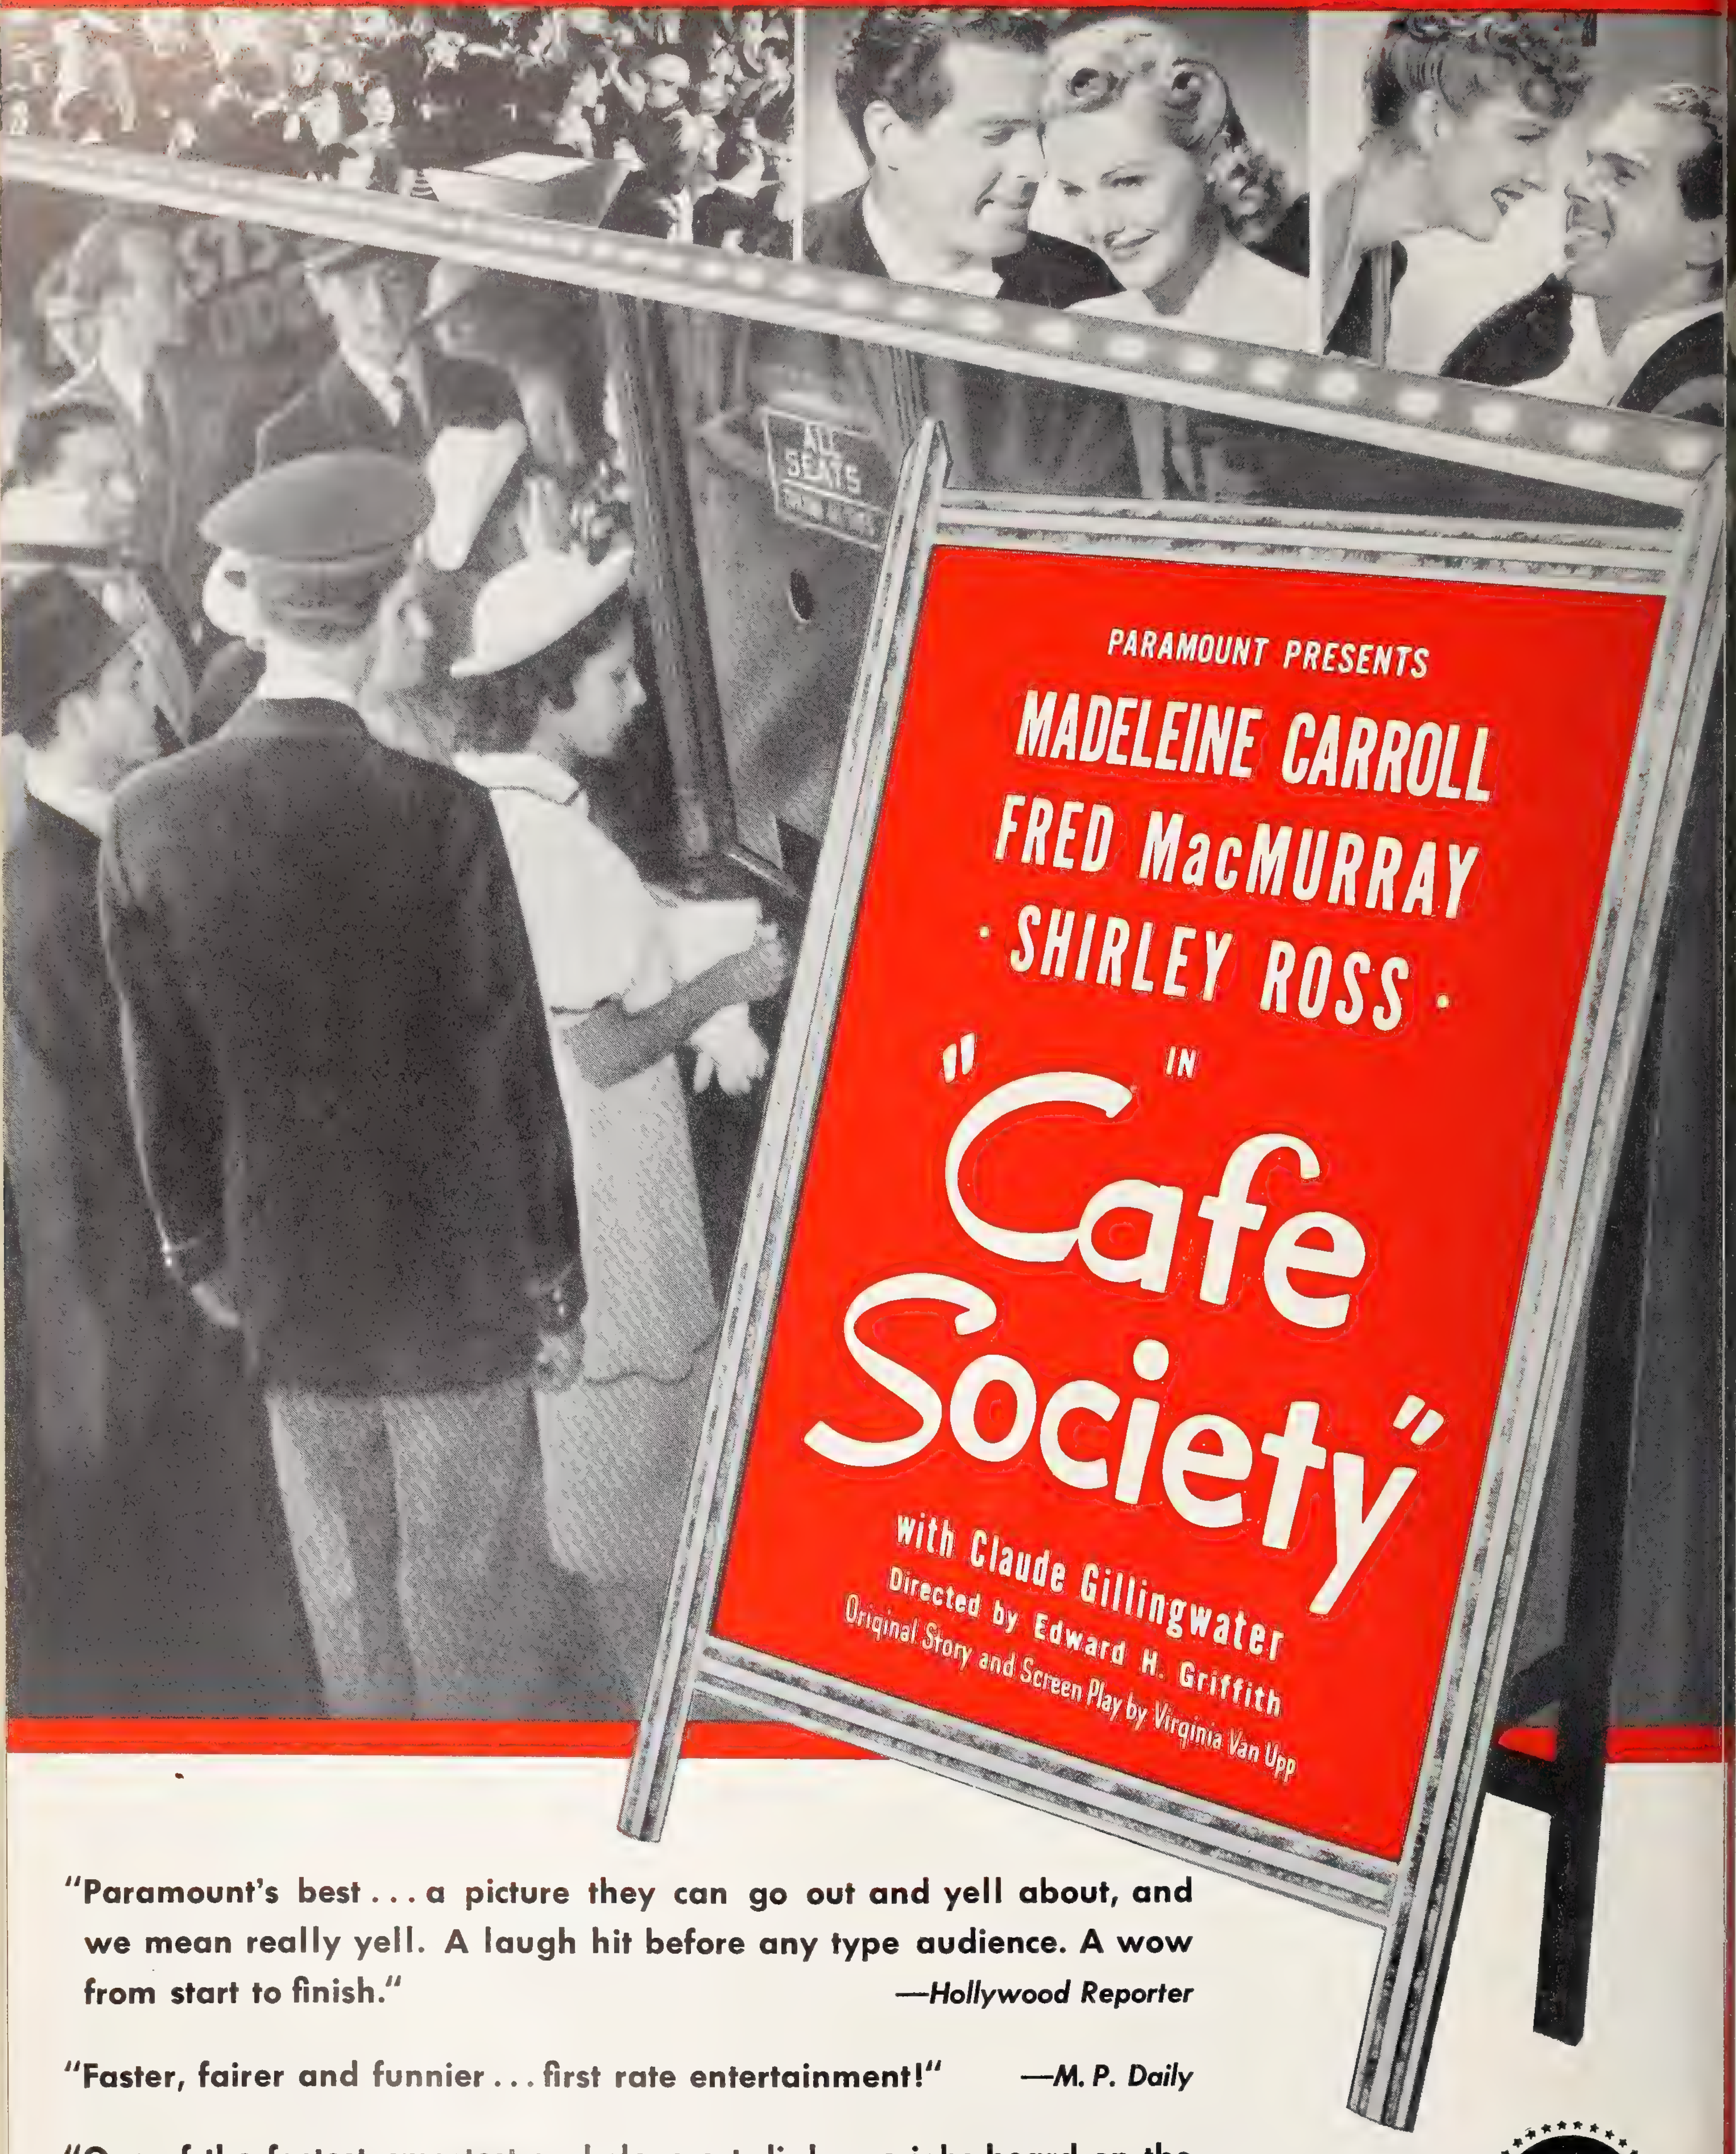
HOLLYWOOD'S $200,000 PARTY
The movies' "Cafe Society" is screwier than the real thing!
What have the CAFE SOCIETY gals got that I haven't got?
By Beth Browne, Night Club Cigarette Girl
A Plain Guy
FRED MacMURRAY
You've read about it . . . you've . . . now see it on the screen . . . the story of Cafe Society . . . "400" . . . lar, gay, romantic
Cafe

"CAFE SOCIETY"—The two best-publicized words throughout the nation today make the greatest picture title that has hit the screen in years. All America has read about it . . . and heard about it . . . and talked about it. Now Paramount comes across with the screen's first story of the glittering, glamorous, new "400" of the night clubs . . . and comes across with entertainment which, in the words of Film Daily, "has what it takes to click big at the box-office!"

Society
"IT'S NO CINCH BEING QUEEN OF CAFE SOCIETY!"
SOCIETY
"CAFE SOCIETY"
THE GAY, GIDDY GO
SOCIETY GLAMOUR GIRL WEDS REPORTER
BAUMANN'S FEBRUARY Sale
CIRCLE IN THE WO
Society
CAFE
SOCIETY
Southern Dr On Florid
CAFE SOCIETY SECRETS
Paramount Pictures

THEY'LL GO FOR PARAMOUNT'S "CAFE SOCIETY"!



PARAMOUNT PRESENTS

MADELEINE CARROLL
FRED MacMURRAY
· SHIRLEY ROSS ·

IN

"Cafe Society"

with Claude Gillingwater
Directed by Edward H. Griffith
Original Story and Screen Play by Virginia Van Upp

"Paramount's best . . . a picture they can go out and yell about, and we mean really yell. A laugh hit before any type audience. A wow from start to finish." —Hollywood Reporter

"Faster, fairer and funnier . . . first rate entertainment!" —M. P. Daily

"One of the fastest, smartest and cleverest dialogue jobs heard on the screen in a long time. Fresh, breezy, entertaining . . . never a let down from its fast-moving tempo!" —Film Daily

Paramount Pictures

PRINTED IN U.S.A.

THE HOLLYWOOD SCENE

New Directors

New blood has come in floods to every branch concerned in making pictures but one—the directors.

Pick up FAME for 1939, wherein, starting on page 299, is set forth the list of men (one woman is included) who have directed the Box Office Champions of the last several years. With only a few exceptions each name is well known. Each director has familiar tricks and characteristics.

One need but refer to MOTION PICTURE ALMANAC's biographies to acquaint himself with the personal and professional histories of the ace directors. Some were actors, assistant directors, stage directors and actors; a great many came from the most fertile field of director opportunity—the ranks of film cutters.

Picture trends give directors their opportunities and influence their selection. When the industry began to make pictures based on books and stage plays, experienced stage directors were chosen. When the "continental touch" was deemed the thing, Ernst Lubitsch and Josef von Sternberg were among its banner bearers. The more modern "Continental touch" has brought such European importations as Henry Koster and his producer mentor, Joe Pasternak, Anatole Litvak and Fritz Lang.

In the past year or so a couple of "sensational find" directors were made, Garson Kanin and Harold S. Bucquet.

Mr. Kanin started out to be a musician, turned to stage acting. A student, then a member of the American Academy of Dramatic Arts, he became associated with George Abbott as production assistant and directed a few plays. He signed with Samuel Goldwyn and sat it out. Moving over to RKO-Radio, he turned out one of the 1938 surprise pictures, "A Man to Remember." "Next Time I Marry" and "The Great Man Votes" followed.

Mr. Bucquet started as a picture extra, was a set designer, assistant director, test director and short subjects director with the Chic Sale and other units at MGM. He became a feature director with "Young Dr. Kildare" and is to direct all the pictures in this series.

Both Kanin and Bucquet are in debt to the brothers Barrymore for their present standing. Lionel arose from a sick bed, took to a wheel chair all the way through "Dr. Kildare" to help his friend Bucquet. When Kanin was a little timid about directing the great John Barrymore in "The Great Man Votes," John in his forceful way told Kanin to order him around as he would the most amateurish extra.

All studios are building up their director reserves, RKO-Radio and MGM more actively than the others. At the Culver City plant, Leslie Fenton, actor, and short subject director, has been assigned to direct "100 to 1." European-trained Reinhold Schinzel has turned in "Rich Man, Poor Girl" and completed "Ice Follies of 1939." Robert Sinclair, former New York theatre stage manager, production aide and director, came to MGM via the Selznick International and Mervyn LeRoy-Warner units. He directed "Dramatic School." His New York contemporary, A. Sylvan Simon, made four for Universal before he directed "Four Girls in White" for MGM. William Thiele came from Europe, saw service at 20th Century-Fox and Paramount, then made "London by Night" and "Beg, Borrow or Steal" for MGM. Another European importation, Gustav Machaty, is directing "Within the Law."

AWARDS FOR HISTORICAL FILMS

Revealing that the Julius Rosenwald Foundation is studying motion pictures as an educational medium, Dr. Edwin R. Embree, president, is in Hollywood making a survey of historical films now in production or recently completed.

Dr. Embree said that the Foundation is particularly interested in films such as "Union Pacific," "Gone with the Wind," "Juarez" and others which take for their substance events of American history.

Dr. Embree indicated that one possibility is the establishment of an annual award for the best motion picture dealing with an historical subject.

RKO-Radio has three candidates eager to emulate Kanin's success. Short subjects provided the training for Leslie Goodwin before he was assigned to "Crime Ring." "Picardy Max" is his present stint. P. J. Wolfson has four novels to his credit, and alone or in collaboration, ten photoplays. He turned director and will handle "Boy Slaves." Jack Hively, graduate of the cutting room, directed "They Made Her a Spy," and "The Second Shot" is his second.

Columbia's John Brahm is from a noted German theatrical family. He directed "Broken Blossoms" when it was produced in London. Coming to America, signing with Columbia, he made "Counsel for Crime," "Penitentiary," "Girl's School" and the current "Let Us Live."

Gordon Douglas, from acting, turned to assistant director of the "Our Gangs" at Hal Roach studio. His first as a director, "Bored of Education," won an Academy award. He moved into feature duty with "It's Spring Again."

Run of the Mill

With an exception or two, the eleven pictures started in the past week and the six finished are run of the mill material. The big pictures now in work will be completed within a week or two. About the first of March, the the tax appraisers start coming around.

MGM started two productions. "Calling Dr. Kildare" went before the cameras with Lionel Barrymore, Lew Ayres and Lorraine Johnson in the leads. The cast of "One Hundred to One" only has Melvyn Douglas this far. Leslie Fenton is to direct.

Ritz Brothers Return

Two pictures were given the "go" signal at 20th Century-Fox. Postponed when they rebelled, "The Gorilla" got going when the Ritz brothers repented. Bela Lugosi, Anita Louise, Lionel Atwill, Patsy Kelly, Edward Norris and Wally Vernon comprise the supporting troupe. The second picture, "Police School," will feature Jane Withers.

Warners also started two pictures. "Gantry the Great" will star an almost blind horse, with James McCallion, Edith Fellows and Frankie Darro. Marie Wilson, Frank Faylen, Gloria Dickson, Dennis Morgan and Larry Williams will be seen in "Waterfront."

Paramount put "The Magnificent Fraud" in work. Lloyd Nolan, Akim Tamiroff, Patricia Morison, Steffi Duna and Barbara Pepper are the principals.

Columbia's "Blind Alley" will present Ann Dvorak, Marc Lawrence, Melburn Stone, Ann Doran, Melvyn Cooper and Marie Blake.

"Lone Star Bullets," a "Three Mesquiteers" feature, started at Republic, with John Wayne, Ray Corrigan, Max Terhune, Ruth Rogers, Doreen McKay, Tom Tyler and Kermit Maynard.

RKO-Radio started "Sorority House" with Ann Shirley and James Ellison definitely assigned to the lead roles.

Monogram began "Streets of New York," with Jackie Cooper, Martin Spellman, June Martel, Dick Purcell and Robert Emmett O'Connor.

Wallace Beery Starred

MGM's "Sergeant Madden" potentially is the most important of the completed pictures. Wallace Beery is the star. Alan Curtis, Tom Brown, Lorraine Johnson, Marc Lawrence, David Gorcey, Marian Martin, Ben Welden, Horace MacMahon, Fay Holden and Etta McDaniels also will be seen.

Universal wound up two pictures. "Risky Business," a remake, will present George Murphy, Dorothea Kent, El Brendel, Grant Richards, Stanley Hughes, John Wray, Pierre Watkin, Ben Taggart and Leon Ames. Principals in "Mystery of the White Room," formerly titled "Murder in the Surgery," are Bruce Cabot, Helen Mack, Constance Worth, Joan Woodbury, Don Porter, Mabel Todd, Tom Dugan, and Tommy Jackson.

"Prairie Nights" finished at Columbia. Charles Starrett and Iris Meredith are the stars, supported by Dick Curtis, Bob Nolan, Hank Bell, Ed LeSaint and Sons of the Pioneers.

RKO-Radio finished "They Made Her a Spy," in which the principals are Sally Eilers, Allan Lane, Fritz Leiber, Peggy Shannon, Alec Craig, Leona Roberts and Jonathan Hale.

Monogram finished "Trigger Smith." Jack Randall, Frank Yaconelli, Dennis Moore, Bobb Clark, Warner Richmond and Joyce Bryant will be seen.

Edington Making Four Yearly for Universal

Harry Edington, producer, in New York last week to "look over" Broadway production and talent, will start work in May on the first of his four features this year for Universal. It will be "Atlantic Cable," the script of which is being prepared by Denison Clift, in London. Two more will follow immediately, "Paris Streets," and a South Seas drama, the title of which has not yet been chosen.

SHOWMEN'S REVIEWS

This department deals with new product from the point of view of the exhibitor who is to purvey it to his own public

The Little Princess

(20th Century-Fox)

Shirley Temple in Full Color

This is, above all else, the first Shirley Temple vehicle to come to screen since independent exhibitors participating in the MOTION PICTURE HERALD and FAME annual poll named her the leading Money-Making Star of 1938. It is likewise her first picture photographed in full color.

These two box office circumstances would seem to set the film apart from all contemporary attractions, in the exhibitor's exploitation plannings, yet these are by no means the only circumstances established by Darryl F. Zanuck for profitable mention by showmen.

Miss Temple's supporting cast is nameful beyond precedent. It offers the oncoming Richard Greene, well up in recent fan popularity surveys, as a clean-limbed young Britisher carrying the love interest, a simple but adequate one, with Anita Louise as the beauteous and somewhat persecuted young woman of his affections. It offers Ian Hunter as the star's father, from whom she is parted early in the picture and with whom she is reunited in the happy ending, and it offers Arthur Treacher, again, as her towering and, this time, comic friend-in-need. It presents Mary Nash as the harsh personality untouched by the child's charm, a necessary factor in any Temple story, and Cesar Romero as a Hindu manservant capable of achieving seeming miracles in the Little Princess' behalf.

Perhaps even more importantly, the picture presents Sybil Jason as a boarding-school slavey, who is the Little Princess' friend, and gives Miss Jason enough footage and emphasis to turn in a distinguished performance of her own. If there were need of proof that Miss Temple is genuinely entitled to her leadership in the junenile starring division, the fact that Miss Jason's stunning portrayal does not overshadow Miss Temple's would supply that proof.

The story of the picture, based on Frances Hodgson Burnett's novel of the same name, is widely known. The screen play by Ethel Hill and Walter Ferris is a reasonably direct adaptation. As directed by Walter Lang, it ranges from orthodox narrative, soundly appealing to adults, to shamelessly fabricated hokum delicious to juvenile eye and ear. Logic, cause-and-effect, time-equations and prosaic considerations in general kind are tossed overboard at various points in the late stretches of the picture, but by then nobody—if the preview audience may be taken as representative—cares about such trifles. The Temple charm has functioned, by then, to cushion improbabilities thoroughly, and the color-process by then has applied a high, deep gloss completely concealing lose story ends.

The early portion of the picture is strong in family appeal. The Little Princess' father places her in a boarding school to await his return from the Boer War, and their farewell is an acting triumph for both players. (Speaking for one father and his 12-year-old daughter who sat alongside, this sequence is a heart-wringer.) As the story goes, word is received that the father has died in action, whereupon the stern boarding school mistress reduces the child from student status to that of slavey. Unwilling to believe that her father is dead, the little girl runs away from the school to a nearby hospital, where she looks for her father among the injured soldiers returning from the front. She narrowly misses finding him several times (a la "Heidi") but Queen Victoria, visiting the place, aids her in her search, which is ultimately successful. (The suspense created by these narrow misses had the children present audibly excited.)

Midway in the picture a dream sequence presents Miss Temple and the principals, plus ballet, trumpeteers, soldiers, and so on, in a rhymed fantasy and ballet, an eye-filling and independently charming interlude.

Previewed at the Carthay Circle theatre, Hollywood, to a distinguished and experienced professional audience which earnestly applauded a number of individual sequences.—WILLIAM R. WEAVER.

Produced and distributed by Twentieth Century-Fox. Darryl F. Zanuck in charge of production. Gene Markey, associate producer. Directed by Walter Lang. Screen play by Ethel Hill and Walter Ferris. From the novel by Frances Hodgson Burnett. Words and music of "The Fantasy" by Walter Bullock and Samuel Pokrass. Ballet staged by Ernest Belcher. Dances staged by Nicholas Castle and Geneva Sawyer. Photographed by Arthur Miller and William Skall. Technicolor director, Natlie Kalmus; Associate, Morgan Padelford. P. C. A. Cerficate No. 4712. Release date, March 17, 1939. Running time, when seen in Hollywood, 95 minutes. General audience classification.

CAST

Sara Crewe	Shirley Temple
Geoffrey Hamilton	Richard Greene
Rose	Anita Louise
Captain Crewe	Ian Hunter
Ram Dass	Cesar Romero
Bertie Minchin	Arthur Treacher
Amanda Minchin	Mary Nash
Becky	Sybil Jason
Lord Wickham	Miles Manda
Lavinia	Marcia Mae Jones
Queen	Beryl Mercer
Jessie	Deidre Gale
Ermengarde	Ira Stevens
Mr. Barrows	Eily Malyon
Cook	Emily Malyon
Attendant	Clyde Cook
Bobbie	Keith Kenneth
Grooms	Will Stanton Harry Allen
Doctors	Holmes Herbert Evan Thomas Guy Bellis
General	Kenneth Hunter
Colonel	Lionel Braham

The Renegade Ranger

(RKO Radio)

Western

In this fast paced western melodrama with a Texas locale, all the usual ingredients are found, with a fiesta thrown in for good measure. The characters are a Texas Ranger, a girl wanted for murder, a dishonorably discharged ranger, a crooked politician and sundry lesser folk.

George O'Brien is the star. The girl is Rita Hayworth and in support are Tim Holt, Ray Whitley, Lucio Villegas and William Royle. The picture was produced by Bert Gilroy and directed by David Howard from a screen play by Oliver Drake.

"Jack Steele," a captain in the Texas Rangers, and "Larry Corwin," a private, are buddies until "Corwin" is discharged from the Rangers for fighting and blames "Steele." Meanwhile "Steele" is assigned to bring in "Judith Alvarez," accused of murdering a wealthy rancher. Posing as a roving cowboy, "Steele" is accepted in "Judith's" band of border renegades when he saves her life.

"Corwin" reveals "Steele's" identity, but he escapes and arrests "Judith." "Sanderson," a crooked politician and the actual murderer, has his men break open the jail and kidnap the girl. "Steele" and the renegades rescue "Judith" and arrest "Sanderson."

Reviewed at the Rialto theatre, New York. The male audience viewed the picture with attention.—Paul C. Mooney, Jr.

Produced and distributed by RKO Radio. Producer, Bert Gilroy. Directed by David Howard. Screen play by Oliver Drake. Story by Bennett Cohen. Musical director, Roy Webb. Photography by Harry Wild. Art director, Van Nest Polglase. Recorded by Hugh McDowell, Jr. Edited by Frederic Knudtson. P. C. A. Certificate No. 4521. Running time, 59 minutes. Release date, September 16, 1938. General audience classification.

CAST

Jack Steele	George O'Brien
Judith Alvarez	Rita Hayworth
Larry Corwin	Tim Holt
Happy O'Rourke	Ray Whitley
Juan	Lucio Villegas
Ben Sanderson	William Royle
Tonia	Cecelia Callejo
Rawlings	Neal Hart
Monte	Monte Montague
Idaho	Robert Kortman
Manuel	Charles Stevens
Hank	James Mason
Red	Tom London

I Was a Convict

(Republic)

Melodramatic Comedy

If your customers like a picture with as many possible entertainment ideas in it as there are articles displayed in a cut-rate drug store window, they'll discover it in "I Was a Convict." The whole inventory is in the 63 minutes, melodrama, romance, comedy, semi-mystery, action, excitement and adventure. Nobody sings or dances, but virtue triumphs over dishonesty.

Convicts "Ace King" and "Missouri" plan to kidnap "Harrison," tax-dodging prisoner, after the three are released, and hold him for ransom. Jail-birds "Rocks" and "Matty" have a similar idea. Warfare breaks out between the two forces when the parties of the first part frustrate a jail break plotted by the second. Upon release, "Harrison" announces to his snobbish relatives and business manager that he is going to take his fellow ex-convicts into his business. Only daughter "Judy" is sympathetic to the plan and thereby the way is paved for romance between her and "Ace." "Ace" and "Missouri" use the same tactics beer barons applied to speakeasy proprietors, during prohibition days, to hold

(Continued on page 44)

'hey were put to the test in 28 great engagements and they're box-office darlings!

NORMA... who became a woman in white because "nurses meet men!"

GERTIE... she just wanted to eat.... regularly!

PAT... who dreamt glorious dreams of service to humanity!

MARY... who sought to win a career for a baby son she loved more than life!

4 GIRLS IN WHITE" IS THE SHOWMAN'S DELIGHT!

ecause—its 28 test engagements show box-office returns soaring to as high s 67% above average! With all engagements 21% better than average!

ecause — it has sock ad possibilities! Ogden, U., Scranton, Pa., Albany, I.Y., Asheville, N. C., bowled over the paying customers with lines like: NURSES CAN ALWAYS MARRY BECAUSE THEY MEET STRONG IEN WHEN THEY'RE WEAK"; "NO PRETTY NURSE EVER STAYS INGLE—RICH MEN PATIENTS SEE TO THAT!"; "NURSES MEET IEN!"; "LOVE SECRETS OF THE GIRLS WHO FEEL YOUR PULSE ND TAKE YOUR HEART!"

ecause—it lends itself to swell exploitation! Walla Walla stores offered ash to people who could find "4 Girls In White" shopping at their counters! Albany offered a free trip to World's Fair for best letter on "My Most nteresting Experience As A Nurse!" Dozens of street ballyhoos! A natural!

T IN THE BLACK WITH "4 GIRLS IN WHITE"!

(Continued from page 42)

"Harrison's" customers. Business booms. Then "Rocks" and "Matty" get out of jail and go after the "Ace-Missouri-Harrison" trio. The relatives, except "Judy," try to put "Harrison" in a sanitarium, but "Ace" kidnaps him in a friendly way. Police take up the trail and then "Rocks" and "Matty" hijack the kidnaping. In the customary thrill action finale, as cars and motorcycles roar up and down roads, "Ace" takes care of the hijackers. The interfering relatives are put in their proper places, "Ace" becomes general manager, wins the girl, and "Harrison" and his wife go on a long vacation.

All that happens is implausible and it is made to happen in an unconvincing way. But it does make for variety and diversity.

Previewed at the Forum theatre, Los Angeles. Audience interest was apathetic, consequently there is scant reason to give the production more than an ordinary exploitation campaign.—GUS MCCARTHY.

Produced and distributed by Republic. Herman Schlom, associate producer. Directed by Aubrey Scotto. Story by Robert D. Andrews. Screen play by Robert D. Andrews and Ben Markson. Gene Milford, film editor. Photographed by Edward Snyder. P. C. A. Certificate No. 5019. Running time, 63 minutes, when seen here. Release date: Not determined. General audience classification.

CAST

Ace King	Barton MacLane
Judy	Beverly Roberts
J. B. Harrison	Clarence Kolb
Mrs. Harrison	Janet Beecher
Missouri Smith	Horace MacMahon
Rocks	Ben Welden
Jackson	Leon Ames
Aunt Sarah	Clara Blandick
District Attorney	Russell Hicks
Matty	John Harmon
Evans	Chester Clute
Dr. Garson	Craufurd Kent
Dr. Craile	Edwin Stanley
Martin Harrison	Harry Holman

The Outsider

(Associated British)

Medical Melodrama

Without outstanding banner names but bearing as a sales aid a title with a box office record behind it, this modestly produced Elstree offering achieves a reasonable share of universal appeal. Few of the cast are known outside Britain, save George Sanders and Mary Maguire. The success of the earlier version and the poignancy of its theme would seem to be the immediate points of persuasion. It is less discursive than "The Citadel," though its dramatic pivot, the humane work of the non-registered medico, is exploited to even more determined effect.

The production plays up the pathos of a young girl, deprived by spinal disease of her full and free life, who pits her urge to live against the pessimism and academic rigidity of the medical profession. In cross-pattern are glimpses of the bright young things at work with bodies but without much display of mind. Ragatzy, the "outsider," as played by George Sanders, is etched as an egotistical, almost pugnacious character, with a touch of absent mindedness, but there is little acid in the contrasting of his efficient unorthodoxy with the pompous lack of compromise of his legitimate brethren. Many passages of the film are tuned to a sentimental key and the penultimate scene, when Ragatzy seems to have failed, should register its tensity and almost painful drama with a wide audience. The medical atmosphere is personal rather than professional, and the English flavour is not too acute for non-English audiences.

Sanders' performance as "The Outsider" is both sympathetic and natural, and should enhance his following. Mary Maguire has both sweetness and some ability to suggest silent suffering as the crippled girl. Though little, if at all, known outside Britain, Frederick Leister as her father, P. Kynaston Reeves as a thin lipped embittered surgeon, Edmond Breon in a miniature but vivid portrayal, Barbara Blair as Mary's romantic rival and Kathleen Harrison in low life characterization, register effectively.

Seen in a London preview theatre.—AUBREY FLANAGAN.

Produced and distributed by Associated British Pictures. Director of production, Walter C. Mycroft. Director, Paul L. Stein. From a story by Dorothy Brandon. Screen play, Dudley Leslie. Photography, Gunther Krampf. Settings, Cedric Dawe. Running time, 91 minutes. Adult audience classification.

CAST

Lalage Sturdee	Mary Maguire
Ragatzy	George Sanders
Wendy	Barbara Blair
Basil Owen	Peter Murray Hill
Joseph Sturdee	Frederick Leister
Sir Montague Tollemache	P. Kynaston Reeves
Dr. Ladd	Edmond Breon
Sir Nathan Israel	Ralph Truman
Dr. Hellmore	Walter Hudd
Mrs. Coates	Kathleen Harrison

Winner Take All

(20th Century-Fox)

Prize Fight Story

There are no great screen names in "Winner Take All," it's not a big budget picture, and it lacks spectacular production features, and so exploitation ingenuity must turn to the story in search of elements to quicken public interest, for it is an entertaining film for general patronage.

The picture is intelligently plotted and ably acted. It has love interest, serio-melodrama, comedy, action and excitement, blended in a fresh treatment.

The hero is a young fellow with a mighty sock in either hand. He falls for a fight manager's line which promises him fame and money. While winning a series of faked matches, he becomes romantically interested in a girl reporter. She suspects something is queer about the tyro-fighter's successes, but he doesn't wake up to the situation until he is beaten in a legitimate bout, and an Italian friend, who has been using fraternal order funds to bet on him, meets financial disaster. Thereupon the fighter turns over a new leaf. Placing himself under the girl's wing, he starts the comeback trail and wins the championship.

A briskly-moving story, "Winner Take All" has much entertainment for men and boys as well as a great deal to appeal to women.

Previewed at the Uptown theatre, Los Angeles. This patronage, which regularly is given the opportunity to see the first public previews of several major company secondary productions, evinced a liking for the picture.

—G. M.

Produced and distributed by Twentieth Century-Fox. Jerry Hoffman associate producer. Directed by Otto Brower. Screen play by Frances Hyland and Albert Ray. Original story by Jerry Cady. Nick DiMaggio, film editor. Photographed by Edward Cronjager. P. C. A. certificate number 4941. Running time 60 minutes when seen in Hollywood. Release date: April 21, 1939. General audience classification.

CAST

Steve Bishop	Tony Martin
Julie Harrison	Gloria Stuart
Papa Gambini	Henry Armetta
Muldoon	Slim Summerville
Mitchell	Kane Richmond
Walker	Robert Allen
Mama Gambini	Inez Pelange
Tony Gambini	John Pirrone, Jr.
Pantrelli	Pedro de Cordoba
Marie Gambini	Betty Grecco
Rosa Gambini	Eleanor Virzie

Panama Patrol

(Grand National-Fine Arts)

Spy Melodrama

Second in the series of cipher bureau stories which Fine Arts is producing for Grand National release, "Panama Control" is straight melodrama, embellished by Oriental spies and their designs upon Panama Canal fortifications. Like the first of the series, "Cipher Bureau," this presents Leon Ames in the role of the head of the government agency in Washington which has charge of decoding intercepted messages between foreign governments.

Opposite Ames is Charlotte Wynters, and in supporting roles are Adrienne Ames, Weldon Hayburn, Abner Biberman, Sidney Miller, John Smart, Donald Barry, Hugh McArthur, William von Brincken, Frank Darien and Paul McVey. Charles Lamont was associate producer and director. The original screenplay was by Arthur Hoerl, based on original characters created by Hoerl and Monroe Shaff.

"Waring," head of the cipher bureau, stumbles across an Oriental spy ring stealing the Panama Canal secrets. With the aid of his secretary, "Helen Lane," whom he intends to marry, and "Murdock," he traps them after a series of adventures.

The Orientals are identified as Chinese, both by language, described in the dialogue as a "Canton dialect," and their mannerisms.

Previewed in a Hollywood studio projection room.—V. K.

Produced by Fine Arts Pictures for Grand National release. A Franklyn Warner presentation. Associate producer and director, Charles Lamont. Original screenplay by Arthur Hoerl, based on characters created by Arthur Hoerl and Monroe Shaff. Executive manager, J. Samuel Berkowitz. Production manager, Irene Schreck. Photographed by Arthur Martinelli. Art director, Ralph Berger. Assistant director, V. O. Smith. Edited by Bernard Loftus. Musical direction, David Chudnow. P. C. A. Certificate No.5097. Running time, when seen in Hollywood, 70 minutes. Release date, not set. General audience classification.

CAST

Major Phillip Waring	Leon Ames
Helen Lane	Charlotte Wynters
Lia Maing	Adrianne Ames
Lt. Murdock	Weldon Hayburn
Arlie Johnson	Abner Biberman
Jimmy	Sidney Miller
Eli Maing	John Smart
Lt. Loring	Donald Barry
Lt. Everett	Hugh McArthur
Marlin	Wm. Von Brincken
Sam	Frank Darien
Baird	Paul McVey

Sky Pirate

(Monogram)

Melodrama

First in a projected series of pictures based on the Hal Forrest newspaper cartoon, "Sky Pirate" bids fair to create a vogue for "Tailspin Tommy" adventures. Built of the stuff which in numerous guises has proved time after time to be popular stuff, production concentrates on action and suspense. Thrills on ground and in air are highlights. Topical as an exploitation feature, "Sky Pirate" is also substantial entertainment with no meaningless folderols. First a juvenile feature because youngsters are the most consistent followers of newspaper episodes, the show also has much adult significance.

Timely because of currently breaking newspaper headlines, the film follows the trend which currently is proving profitable at the box office. Its plot concerns a valuable secret aerial military device and the United States Government.

The young woman whom "Tommy" loves idolizes "Captain Brandy" postwar barnstorming aerial stunter. Cloud scraping thrills in the opening sequences set the pace for the ensuing action. Years later "Tommy," aided by "Skeeter" and "Betty Lou," invents a radio controlled bomb dropping device. Agents of foreign powers kidnap the trio after the invention has been proved practicable. But "Tommy," "Skeeter" and "Betty Lou," preserving their secret in the face of terrifying pressure, make their escape. All preceding aerial thrills become inconsequential in a seaplane and landplace chase when renegade "Brandy," now penitent, crashes the pursuing plane. The fadeout is one of the most novel climaxes seen on the screen in years, as the character of the follow-up production is disclosed.

The appeal of this picture and the exploitation basis is thrill action. It may be expected that the film will interest the youngsters greatly, and convince adults that sound entertainment is not entirely dependent upon statistics, the number of dollars spent or the inclusion in a cast of a regiment of glamorous screen names.

Previewed in the Monogram projection room in Hollywood to a press audience which was unanimous that it was a good picture for audi-

(Continued on page 47)

SEC Studying Film Stock Deals

Possibilities that motion picture securities had been sold to institutional investors by negotiation, thus making unnecessary the formality of registering under the U. S. Securities and Exchange Act, are being investigated by the Securities and Exchange Commission for the Administration monopoly committee.

Questionnaires seeking information on the direct placement of securities of any type with institutional investors between January 1, 1934, and December 31, 1938, have been sent to 69 financial houses by Peter R. Nehemkis, special SEC counsel assigned to studies for the Temporary National Economic Committee.

The inquiry is said to be purely exploratory, and is part of a study of the floating of securities by negotiation with investors initiated as part of an investigation of insurance company policies which the commission undertook for the monopoly committee.

The latest move is not directed especially toward motion picture securities, but is a general inquiry asking for information as to any securities placed directly by financial houses. The Securities and Exchange Act requires registration of all securities offered the public, but does not cover securities sold by treaty, so that an issue placed, say, with an insurance company would not require registration.

Motion Picture Herald on January 7th reported transactions in film company stocks of officers and directors for 1938.

Meanwhile a series of transactions, ranging in volume from 100 to 8,500 shares, enabling the Chase National Bank in December to dispose of 14,600 shares of Twentieth Cenutry-Fox common stock, was reported by the Securities and Exchange Commission this week.

At the close of the year, however, the SEC semi-monthly summary disclosed, the bank was still holding a large block of the film company's securities—222,158 shares of common and 671,916 shares of preferred stock.

Only two other film stock transactions, both minor in nature, were reported by the commission, the disposition by Robert L. Gordon, New York director, of 400 shares of Trans Lux Corporation common, reducing his holdings to 500 shares, and the disposition by Isidor Frey, New York director, of 100 shares of Loew's common, reducing his holdings to 200 shares.

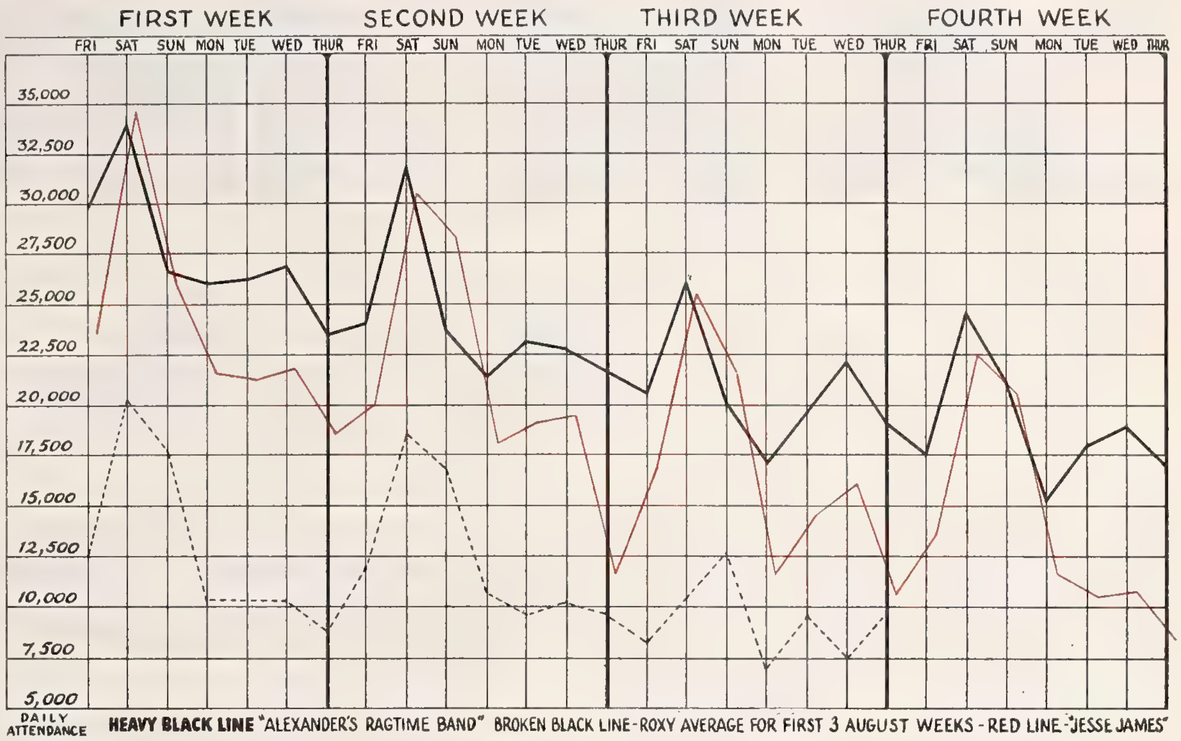
Kansas Variety Club Units

George Baker, newly elected head of the Kansas City Variety Club, Tent No. 8, has named the committee heads for the coming year, these being Earl Jameson, house; Senn Lawler, publicity; Harry McClure, entertainment; Sam Abend, finance; J. W. Lewis, bowling; Arthur Cole, charity; Charles Gregory, ways and means; Frank Hensler, initiation; Mr. and Mrs. Finton Jones, family night; Bill Warner, picnics; Finton Jones, kings-for-a-day; Tommy Thompson, golf and skeet; Harold Lux, and Robert F. Withers, games; Clarence A. Schultz, shows for shut-ins; Frank Hensler, Christmas bowling tourney; Charles Shafer and Frank Hensler, annual banquet; Douglas Desch, cinema club.

Spencer with Republic

Perry Spencer, formerly of Loew's home office publicity department, has been appointed director of publicity and exploitation of Republic exchanges at Atlanta, Charlotte, Tampa, New Orleans and Memphis.

93% "Jesse James" Holdovers



Both in attendance and grosses accruing, Twentieth Century-Fox Film cites its "Jesse James," of current exhibition, as a close second to its all-time box office performer, "Alexander's Ragtime Band," of last year. At its opening, at the Roxy, New York, "Jesse James" played to 450,000 admissions in four weeks, during the season's heaviest three snowstorms, besides rain and sub-zero weather. The chart shows the box office performance of "Jesse James" at the Roxy as it compares with "Alexander" and an average Roxy week.

This week the company's home office said that "Jesse" has been held over in 93 per cent of the theatres playing the picture to date—the largest number of holdovers in the company's history, nosing out "Alexander," this despite adverse winter, whereas "Alexander" enjoyed the balmy vacationist days of August.

In 11 large cities, "Jesse" so far has been held over for four weeks, and in 59 cities, it was held for three, and two weeks in 17 other places. Four-week playings include those in New York, Kansas City, Detroit, Dallas, Oklahoma City, Portland, Ore.; Salt Lake City, Richmond, San Diego, Long Beach, Cal., and Tacoma, Wash.

Television at California Fair

Visitors to the Golden Gate Exposition at San Francisco, which opened Saturday, will see home television demonstrated and have an opportunity to be televised themselves, according to officials of the Radio Corporation of America.

In the building which RCA has erected on the Exposition grounds is being shown radio facsimile to print news pictures and bulletins in the home, and other phases of radio.

Crane Wilbur To Direct Features

Crane Wilbur, former stage and screen star who in recent years has been a screen writer, has been given a new assignment as a director of feature length pictures by Warner Brothers. His first production is "Hero for a Day."

Bishell Leaves Post

Arthur Bishell, office manager for General Film Attractions' Seattle exchange, has resigned. He will open an office of his own to handle state rights and road show films.

Wykoff Editing Polish Picture

Alvin Wykoff, supervising director in charge of production for Polish Pictures, Inc., is in Hollwood putting final editing touches to "The Peasant's Wedding," first of four all Polish language films the company plans to make this year in color.

The films will be distributed in Poland and in Polish colonies in the United States and South America. "The Peasant's Wedding" was sponsored by the St. John Kanty Lyceum, Catholic diocese in Buffalo. B. Rostworowski, president of the company, wrote the original, with Burt McGregor doing the screen play. Most of the interiors were shot in Buffalo, with exteriors being filmed in Hollywood.

Record Music for Fair Film

The recording of all of the music and choral sequences for the New York, World's Fair film, which will be shown at the Perisphere, has been completed by RCA Photophone. A 55-piece orchestra under the direction of Andre Kostelanetz and a male chorus of 40 voices made the sound tracks in the Movietone News studio in New York.

"YOU CAN'T AN HONE
in its First

RIVOLI, NEW YORK . . . Opened at Rivoli Theatre Saturday . . . By Sunday Night on way to house record for season. Will hold over for three weeks.

KEITH'S BALTIMORE . . . Manager Schanberger of Keith's reported: "After vain efforts for two months to awaken business, this does it. More laughs than I have heard in ages!"

CIRCLE, INDIANAPOLIS . . ."Continuous laughter of audience drowned out many of the gags. Business almost tops anything in theatre's history despite continuous rain all afternoon and evening. Picture definitely box office."

—at the box-office...where it counts...an

CHEAT
ST MAN"....
Six Openings!

NITED ARTISTS, PORTLAND, OREGON . . ."Honest Man actually outrossed any Durbin picture. Can truthfully say 30% of Fields or Bergen gags lost continuous laughter."

OEW'S HARTFORD . . . At Loew's, "You Can't Cheat An Honest Man" beats oth "100 Men and a Girl" and "That Certain Age."

OHAWK, NORTH ADAMS, MASS. . . ."HONEST MAN opened very big. eating any previous gross on record. Manager reports picture had audience ctually rolling in aisles

here the public decides!—UNIVERSAL

SHOWMEN'S REVIEWS OF PRODUCT

(Continued from page 44)

ences appreciating a maximum of excitement and a minimum of those things requiring patrons to wrack their brains in an effort to understand and enjoy a production.—G. M.

Produced and distributed by Monogram. Supervisor, Paul Malvern. Director, George Waggner. Original story from the cartoon strip "Tailspin Tommy," by Hal Forrest. Screen play, Paul Schofield and Joseph West. P. C. A. Certificate No. 5065. Running time, 60 minutes. Release date, March 8, 1939. General audience classification.

CAST

Tailspin Tommy	John Trent
Betty Lou	Marjorie Reynolds
Skeeter	Milburn Stone
Paul	Jason Robards
Brandy	Pete George Lynn
Winslow	Lucien Littlefield
Anita	Polly Ann Young
Tommy, as a child	Tommy Bupp
Betty Lou, as a child	Betsy Gay
Fred	Sayre Dearing
Carl	John Peters

Blondie Meets the Boss

(Columbia)

Comedy

Move over, you "Hardys" and "Joneses," and make room for the "Bumsteads," because "Blondie," "Dagwood," "Baby Dumpling" and "Daisy" have moved in. Minute for minute and inch for inch this second film fashioned in the format of Chic Young's comic cartoon matches any family series on the market laugh for laugh. It is like none of the others, nor like any other domestic comedy of ready memory, and stands in clear command of its own appeal channel.

Drawing upon its cartoon derivation for the privilege to do things with camera and incident commonly denied directors employing living actors, Frank R. Strayer contrives stunningly amusing effects. He uses slow motion, invisible wires and camera tricks in running sequence with humorous dialogue and comic situation. He blends slapstick and parlor comedy with complete nonchalance. The end result is a houseful of happily and unabashedly laughing customers asking no more credibility than is asked of a cartoon, an extraordinary and exhilarating state of audience receptivity.

Arthur Lake, long an exhibitor favorite, has found his spot as the husband of this lively young family, and Penny Singleton seems to have been born for the wifely assignment. But it is tiny Larry Sims as "Baby Dumpling" who steals this episode in the family annals and, by his unbelievably natural delivery of lines that would stymie a child of twice his years, holds the frankly cartoonish plot together. The dog's deportment is pure cartoon comedy and immensely effective.

Richard Fournoy's screen play, from a story by Kay van Ripper and himself, opens with "Dagwood" quitting his job and "Blondie" going to see the boss about getting it back for him. The boss gives it to her instead. A pair of jitterbug champions, a scheme to buy a piece of property, a fishing trip in the course of which "Dagwood" finds himself embarrassingly justaposed to a pretty and approachable night club dancer, are among the factors complicating the married life of the "Bumsteads" before "Dagwood" gets his job back. The routine defies thumbnail chronicle.

Previewed at Pantages theatre in Hollywood where it kept the entire audience smiling, chuckling and guffawing in unbroken sequence from start to finish.—W. R. W.

Produced and distributed by Columbia. Associate producer, Robert Sparks. Director, Frank R. Strayer. Assistant director, Tommy Flood. Photographer, Henry Freulich, ASC. Film editor, Gene Havlick. Sound engineer, Perc Townsend. Art director, Lionel Banks. Screen play, Richard Flournoy. Based on the comic strip created by Chic Young. P. C. A. Certificate No. 4944. Running time, 71 minutes. Release date March 8, 1939. General classification.

CAST

Blondie	Penny Singleton
Dagwood	Arthur Lake
Baby Dumpling	Larry Simms
Dithers	Jonathan Hale
Alvin	Danny Mummert
Dot	Dorothy Moore
Freddie	Joe Coffin
Ollie	Stanley Brown
Marvin	Don Beddoe
Francine	Linda Winters
Kirk	Dick Durrell
Wilson	Jay Eaton
Sanders	David Newell
Mary	Mary Jane Carey
Daisy	Himself

SHORT PRODUCT PLAYING BROADWAY

Week of February 18

CAPITOL

Great Heart, The	MGM
Mice Will Play, The	Vitaphone

CRITERION

Date to Skate, A	Vitaphone
Rube Goldberg's Travelgab	Paramount

MUSIC HALL

Brave Little Tailor, The	RKO Radio
Gold	RKO Radio

RIVOLI

Lone Stranger, The	Vitaphone
Wild and Bully	Universal

ROXY

In the Nick of Time	20th Cent.-Fox
Mystic Siam	20th Cent.-Fox

STRAND

Mechanix Illustrated, No. 3	Vitaphone
Gold Rush Daze	Paramount

The Story of Alfred Nobel

(MGM)

Passing Parade

The story of Alfred Nobel, inventor of dynamite and through his foundations and bequests promoter of peace and culture, is studied dramatically and expertly. He comes upon a young soldier, a victim from the use of explosives in warfare. Realizing that his gift to humanity has been misused, Nobel establishes a program of counteraction and this work is yearly commemorated in the granting of the Nobel awards in the fields of peace, literature and science. The material should be of widespread interest to the general audience but should carry a particular appeal to school and cultural groups.—Running time, 11 minutes.

Going Places (No. 59)

(Universal)

Travelogue

Two places of diversified interest are visited. The first is the Tonawanda Indian Reservation in upstate New York, where long forgotten Indian lore and craftsmanship are being revived under the auspices of the Rochester Museum of Arts and Sciences. A long jump to Cairo takes the audience to a museum filled with early Egyptian art and color.—Running time, 9¼ minutes.

Ice Antics

(MGM)

Miniature

Timed for the wintery season, the subject bills some of the country's leading night spots in this miniature treatment of flashing blades. Besides a bit of practical and valuable advice on what to do and what not to do when on the frozen surface, there are appended several exhibits of expert performances by skaters comparatively new to the icy sport. Accompanying the sportive demonstrations are some tuneful musical backgrounds. At the end are scenes from the forthcoming "Ice Follies of 1939."—Running time, nine minutes.

Music Through the Years

(Paramount)

Headliner

Under the album thumbing of Jan Garber and his orchestra, some of the highlight melodies of the last decade are revived in smooth if not especially varied orchestral style. The tunes numbered in the revival recital include "Louise," "Sing, You Sinners," "Just One More Chance," "Please," "Did You Ever See a Dream Walking," "Love in Bloom," "Lookie, Lookie, Lookie—Here Comes Cookie," "Melody from the Sky," "Blue Hawaii" and "Thanks for the Memory," all song titles from Paramount Pictures. Lee Bennett and Phyllis Kenny supply the vocal recitations.—Running time, 11 minutes.

Always Kickin'

(Paramount)

Color Classic

Brought back by popular demand from their initial triumphs of last season, the donkey team of Hunky and Spunky appear in their second stanza of good cartoon entertainment. Hunky, realizing that a donkey can be considered only as good as his kick, embarks upon the training of the younger Spunky. When a hawk threatens some bird neighbors, the baby donkey thwarts the villainy with well placed kicks. The bright colors and the imaginative pen business help nicely to sustain the mood.—Running time, seven minutes.

Shock Troops of Disaster

(Works Progress Administration)

Documentary Film

The Motion Picture Division of the WPA has edited into one reel newsreel shots of the freakish hurricane of last fall that cut a swath through New England and northern Atlantic coast towns. Its primary purpose is to demonstrate the rehabilitation work of the WPA and other Government relief agencies, such as the Civilian Conservation Corps. It is essentially a documentary film. The first half of the reel is devoted to the hurricane and the destruction left in its wake; the second half is concerned with the reclamation. The reel seemingly contains nothing that didn't appear in newsreels or newspaper pictures at the time of the hurricane, but it stands as a documentation of a phenomenon of nature and the part man plays in combating its destructiveness. Distributed free by the WPA. Running time, 10 minutes.

The next quarterly meeting of Actors' Equity will be held March 24th at New York's Hotel Astor.

PENALTY ISSUE LEFT UNCHANGED IN NEW DALY COPYRIGHT BILL

Measure Does Not Touch Old Provision Which Takes from Infringer All Profits Made from Infringed Work

The aspect of copyright which leaders in the motion picture industry consider most vital, that which takes from an infringer all the profits made from an infringed work, is left untouched by a new bill to amend the copyright law, submitted to Congress by Representative John Daly of Pennsylvania, and identical with the bill introduced in the Senate on April 22nd, 1937, by Senator Joseph F. Guffey, also of Pennsylvania. The new bill, however, does afford protection to the sound tracks of films, and is in general a consolidation, revision and modernization of the copyright situation.

The award of all the profits made on a work, if that work was an infringement, was criticized by Federal Judge Vincent L. Leibell in his decision on the Letty Lynton case as reported in MOTION PICTURE HERALD of January 7th, 1939.

Neither Bill Changes 1909 Act

The copyright law, as it now stands, says in part: "If any person shall infringe the copyright in any work protected under the copyright laws of the United States, such person shall be liable: (a) To an injunction restraining such infringement; (b) To pay to the copyright proprietor such damages as the copyright proprietor may have suffered due to the infringement as well as all the profits which the infringer shall have made from the infringement. . . ." The Duffy copyright bill, introduced by Senator Francis Duffy on January 6th, 1937, and on which, like the Guffey bill, there was no action, had changed this clause to read that there should be paid to the owner of the right infringed such damages as may have been suffered and "all or such part of the profits which the infringer shall have made from such infringements. . . ."

Neither the Guffey nor the Daly bill changes the Copyright Act of March 4th, 1909, which is the present copyright law, in this respect. If the Daly bill, now before the Committee on Patents, is adopted without change, and becomes law, a film company guilty of plagiarism will still have to pay out all the profits made on the film created from the plagiarized work. The committee on copyright, composed of Edwin Kilroe, Twentieth Century-Fox attorney, and representatives of other interested organizations, which has been meeting in the trial room of the Association of the Bar of the City of New York, has this same problem to thresh out. If an agreement is reached by the committee, it will be suggested as the basis of future legislation on this point.

Two Classes of Copyright

The Duffy, Guffey and Daly bills all differ from the current law in that this provides for two classes of copyright with respect to films, motion picture photoplays and motion pictures other than photoplays (newsreels, travelogues, and so on). The new bills make only one classification of motion pictures; and then add a class of choreographic works and scenarios for radio broadcasting. The Guffey bill and its present equivalent, the Daly bill, go further in providing the privilege of copyright for the rendition or performance of any work when reproduced on phonograph records, discs and sound tracks. This eliminates impersonations without permission of an individualized interpretation, and specifically protects what is contained in a film sound track. The Guffey and Daly proposals also protect the personalized rendition of a work in the public domain.

MONEY-MAKING STARS' POLL IN NEW TRAILER

The results of the exhibitor polls conducted by MOTION PICTURE HERALD and Fame, which have named Shirley Temple the leading money-making star for four consecutive years, have been incorporated by National Screen Service into the trailer announcement of the young star's latest Twentieth Century-Fox picture, "The Little Princess".

The trailer opens with a reproduction of the front cover of Fame and, as a dateline is shown for each year of winning, continues with announcement of the Quigley Publications' polls. Following are presented preview scenes from the production, which, besides showing the star, offer glimpses of the work of Richard Greene, Anita Louse, Ian Hunter and Arthur Treacher.

Although the Duffy, Guffey and Daly bills all provide for the possibility of the United States entering the Berne Convention (the international copyright union), the two last-named bar entrance at the same time, by providing that all works in the English language must be printed in this country, which is the socalled manufacturing "clause" to protect the printing and allied trades.

Limits Exclusive Right

The 1909 law limits the exclusive right of the copyright owner to the delivery of a sermon or lecture in public for profit; all three of the recent proposals have the copyright cover the delivery of any work in public for profit. In this connection, the present law has been interpreted as meaning that the author of a poem, since it is neither a dramatic work nor a lecture or sermon, has no protection against public performance of his work for profit. Thus Federal Judge Patterson ruled in the case of Alfred Kreymborg vs. Jimmie Durante and National Broadcasting, Inc., in 1934. A poem of Mr. Kreymborg's had been read by Mr. Durante as part of a radio show, and infringement was claimed, but the action was dismissed.

That the feeling generally is for an extension of the protection is indicated by the broadening of the base in the recent bills.

The other side of the copyright situation, in which the industry is also much interested, is that in which the film companies are sellers of copyrighted materials, their own motion pictures. As Mr. Kilroe points out, the question is whether a motion picture company, having the protection of copyright and thus having a monopoly on its own product, can possibly violate the Sherman or any other anti-monopoly act. In Mr. Kilroe's opinion, there would be no violation unless two or more companies acted in concert, thus setting up a restraint of trade.

Two St. Louis Union Heads Indicted on Extortion Charge

John P. ("Big") Nick, head of the St. Louis Motion Picture Operators' Union, Local 143, and Clyde Weston, its business agent, were indicted Wednesday on charges that they extorted $7,000 from St. Louis theatre owners in 1937. Both Mr. Weston and Mr. Nick are at liberty on $25,000 bond.

Mr. Nick was indicted last month, together with Edward M. Brady, of the state legislature, on charges of extorting $10,000 from exhibitors in 1936, after Mr. Nick's union had threatened a strike.

Union members are seeking to oust Mr. Nick and Mr. Weston from their executive posts. Hearing on this suit continued Thursday before St. Louis Circuit Judge Earnest F. Oakley.

Sack Renews Franchise

Sack Amusement Enterprises of Dallas has renewed its franchise with Oscar Micheaux, maker of all-Negro features, and will distribute his three new features in the South and West. The features, now in production in the Eastern Service Studios, are "Lying Lips," "Another Woman's Husband" and "The Notorious Elinor Lee."

At a meeting of the Keith-Albee-Orpheum board of directors on Tuesday, John J. McCaffrey of the building firm of Best and McCaffrey was elected a director. Mr. McCaffrey fills a vacancy existing since the death last December of Peter J. Maloney, a representative of the M. J. Meehan investment interest.

The first concerted break in theatre admission prices in Topeka, Kan., occurred this week when one theatre reduced its admission from 40 to 25 cents; two from 25 to 20 cents; two from 20 to 15 cents, and one from 20 to 10 cents.

The voters of New Jersey will decide in June by referendum whether to permit horse racing. In an article in the MOTION PICTURE HERALD of January 14, outlining circuit operator Walter Reade's plans for the establishment of a race track in New Jersey, it was stated that horse racing in that state would be legal effective June 1st.

COMPANIES EMPHASIZE TOP FILMS IN COOPERATIVE AND DIRECT ADS

Type of Newspaper Advertisements Depends Upon Nature of the Individual Picture, Say the Large Companies

Heavier concentration by the large film companies on their more important motion pictures in both direct and cooperative advertising in newspapers is in order this year. No major changes in procedure are contemplated; the adherents of cooperative advertising with exhibitors are reasserting their advocacy of that practice, while the proponents of direct advertising are going ahead with appropriations to that end. In both cases, however, the emphasis is being placed upon outstanding productions.

RKO Experimenting

RKO, while retaining the cooperative policy, will experiment more this year with direct newspaper advertising.

Although at virtually all eight companies it was pointed out that the type of newspaper advertising was influenced by the kind of a picture, a decided divergence of opinion prevailed on the advantages or disadvantages of the cooperative distributor-exhibitor ads, in contrast to direct newspaper ads inserted by the distributor alone.

United Artists and Twentieth Century-Fox still stand firm for cooperative ads, but Warner Brothers, which discontinued cooperative advertising last February, champions the direct form. Other companies continue using both direct and "cooperative" copy, with Universal and Columbia, as heretofore, deciding on newspaper advertising procedure as they go along.

S. Barret McCormick, advertising director of RKO, said his company still realizes the value of cooperative advertising with exhibitors, but is willing to try new methods in order to reach a "greater public."

"We were one of the first," he said, "to go into cooperative advertising with the exhibitors. The real purpose was to reach a public not ordinarily reached by the movie page ads. Properly, the ads inserted in newspapers by exhibitors and distributor—and the ones inserted by the company itself do—should run off the amusement page, and follow it in the paper among the department store ads, and in the main news sections; so that by their size and different approach they reach, and arrest the attention of, the person who hasn't his mind on the movies, and the person who may have got out of the 'movie habit'."

Mr. McCormick said that the amount spent last year in cooperative advertising with exhibitors was less than in 1937, and that this was indicative of the trend. "We are now seriously considering," he said, "very extensive direct advertising in whatever media are suitable." He pointed out that on "Gunga Din" some $200,000 is being spent for three media: national magazines and papers, billboards, and cooperative advertising. He noted, also, that in the case of "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," much of the advertising was done through merchandising tieups, it being that "kind of a picture."

U. A. Favors "Cooperative" Ads

With a point of view somewhat divergent, Lynn Farnol, director of advertising of United Artists, pointed out that his company had mostly "A" pictures and that the cooperative advertising policy had always been successful. He said that the company's exploitation and theatre support advertising policy is geared, stylized to the individual picture. We have always found the exhibitor cooperative, and appreciate his help. To us, it is a reason for our success, and it is something we cannot afford to drop."

U. S. COMPETITION STIRS MEXICAN UNION

Competition from films in Spanish produced in Hollywood against films produced in Mexico is causing alarm among members of the Mexican film studio workers' union. The labor union is being hard pressed in its desire to prevent Mexican players from going to Hollywood to work, finding the high Hollywood salaries hard to combat.

Some direct advertising is done by the company, Mr. Farnol added, through national and "fan" magazines. In 1937, about $165,000 was spent in direct advertising thus; and in 1938, about $275,000. This does not indicate a trend, necessarily, he emphasized. No direct advertising through newspapers is contemplated, he said. The company spent about $400,000 in cooperative advertising in 1937, and again in 1938, according to Mr. Farnol, all of it matched 50 per cent by the exhibitor using United Artists product.

20th-Fox Cooperative Ads

Supporting this reasoning, Charles McCarthy, director of advertising and exploitation of Twentieth Century-Fox, said that "far from finding any fault with the exhibitors, we find them very cooperative."

"We've always spent our money on ads with them," he continued, "and we're keeping the policy. We spend about $750,000 a year in newspaper advertising all with the exhibitors, and there has been very little change. We are not doing any 'direct' advertising to the public in the papers, such as the personal messages which have been used by the others, with chief executives in the chief roles—and I do not know that we will. I used to do that in the old days with Jesse Lasky."

Columbia's Policy

At Columbia the chief of advertising, Maurice Bergman, declared, "We are still sticking to our original premise that where there should be cooperative advertising, we do it. I should say that our use of this form of advertising keeps at about the same level. We don't do any straight newspaper advertising. As to whether we will, I cannot say." He said it was against company policy to give actual figures.

Less "Co-op" Advertising by MGM

Howard Dietz, advertising director of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, had this to say:

"It all depends upon the picture. The picture gets the exploitation treatment it warrants.

"I cannot give you exact figures, but I can say that, generally speaking, we are not using as much cooperative advertising as formerly. As far as straight newspaper insertions are concerned, it stands about the same as before, always depending on the type of pictures we have. For newspaper advertising, of all categories, we spend about $1,500,000 a year.

Warners Favor Direct Form

At Warner Brothers, which dropped cooperative advertising in February of last year, it was said that figures for comparisons were not available. An official, who preferred that his name be withheld, said the company would go in more heavily this year for direct newspaper messages to the public. "As to what form these ads will take, that is up to the pictures we produce. Our policy in cooperative advertising remains the same."

Universal Pictures' eastern coast publicity chief, Lou Pollock, said that "we haven't done any direct advertising to speak of, and we don't intend to. What newspaper advertising we do is done cooperatively with the exhibitor, and that is only done on top pictures. During the past year we spent about $100,000 on that kind of advertising, which was a drastic cut from the year before."

Depends on Film at Paramount

At Paramount, Robert Gilham, director of advertising, said that the company was still using co-operative advertising; that, so far as he knew, as much money was being spent this year in newspaper advertising with the exhibitors as last year; that the company's policy "depended upon the picture."

Complaints that exhibitors were not living up to their cooperative advertising agreements had become noticeable early last year, with the withdrawal of Warner Brothers from the practice. At the time, Mort Blumenstock, director of advertising and publicity on the east coast for Warners, said: "We feel we have been imposed upon by some exhibitors."

In April, Jack Cohn of Columbia said that the "lack of vision of a minority group of exhibitors is jeopardizing an advertising practice that has been highly productive in the industry for many years." He said that henceforth exhibitor accounts would be carefully watched; that Columbia's cooperative campaigns would be run only with approved exhibitors, and only when the company could exercise "complete control."

In August Mr. Gillham of Paramount said the amount of money contributed by the company in such advertising had risen too high, in proportion to the exhibitor's share. Paramount issued a booklet to exhibitors explaining a new policy, that the company would do its major advertising in those media preferred by the people to whom a particular Paramount picture would appeal.

Radio at that time was mentioned in the home offices as a very promising medium for direct appeals to the public.

Warners' New Departure

The shift away from cooperative ads took form in the advertising done for "Four Daughters" in the second half of 1938 by Warners The company bore the entire cost of newspaper ads in 33 key cities. These ads were styled on ads used in New York papers, for the picture's opening at New York Radio City Music Hall. There were also ads in national fan magazines in November, which reached an estimated "18,000,000 readers." The company also "ran the largest tie-up advertising campaign in its history."

A new step for United Artists in the merchandising of its pictures will be undertaken in behalf of Walter Wanger's "Stagecoach," by arrangement with the Barron Collier organization.

Double-size streetcar cards will be taken in 111 cities, in busses, streetcars and elevated railways the week of February 17th.

This "theatre assistance" advertising and merchandising will not duplicate any of the theatre's regular newspaper advertising or posting, and represents the company's policy of "going direct to the theatre patron."

RADIO POINTS TO LISTENER MILLIONS AS PROTESTS ON STAR SHOWS GROW

Five More Exhibitor Units Commend Withdrawal of Film Players from the Air by MGM and Zanuck

While theatre owners this week renewed attacks upon radio appearances of Hollywood stars, on the grounds of detrimental effects on the box office, and the argument continued within and outside the film business, radio was patting itself on the back over the "multi-million" listener audience of several of its big programs—most of which highlight guest appearances of film stars.

More Exhibitors Protest

The old argument had been dormant for nearly a year when two weeks ago, Darryl Zanuck, production executive of Twentieth Century-Fox, in Hollywood, announced that, "heeding the protests and advice of exhibitors about the excessive appearances of film stars on radio programs," he was making "the first move of compliance by withdrawing Tyrone Power from further broadcasts."

Then the following week Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer announced that on July 1st, at the expiration of its contract, it will discontinue participation in the Maxwell House Good News air show, "in deference to the wishes of theatre owners who protest film stars' air performances."

Mr. Zanuck also has bought the radio contract of Alice Faye, which called for eight broadcasts annually.

Elsewhere in Hollywood, opinion continued divided as to stars' radio broadcasts, although the general opinion held that "over-playing" them on the air was not good box office.

In exhibition, however, theatre owners, both individually and concertedly, piled up protests against the practice.

Five More Units Act

Expressing "appreciation" of the action taken by Mr. Zanuck and MGM, Allied Theatre Owners of New Jersey, Independent Theatre Owners of Ohio and National Allied, through Abram Myers, chairman, wired approval immediately to the two companies. Similar expressions came from the Independent Theatre Owners of Ohio, Motion Picture Theatre Owners of Western Pennsylvania, Allied Theatres of Illinois and the Motion Picture Theatre Owners of St. Louis, Eastern Missouri and Southern Illinois.

The ITO of Ohio, P. J. Wood secretary, urged that the motion picture industry "rate" the products of air advertisers, as the advertisers' radio commentators rate films.

The MPTO of Western Pennsylvania demanded that all producers withdraw their stars.

In Chicago, 100 owners of Allied of Illinois called the action of Mr. Zanuck and Metro the finest gesture the producers have made in many months. The exhibitors declared the programs have hit the midwestern area the hardest of any territory, the bigger programs coming at show time. In "Bank Night" days Chicago theatremen used loud speakers in lobbies to broadcast favorite programs. Now they don't have Bank Night or loudspeakers.

Chicago owners hope also to see an elimination of the number and type of film gossip broadcasts which, they say, on numerous occasions have caused them much embarrassment through the dissemination of misleading information.

Few film stars will be on radio programs next fall, it was predicted at a meeting of the ITOA in New York.

Cites Television Competition

The New York Times on Friday said that according to agency men, motivating the current drive of exhibitors against broadcast stars is the fear that these players will become equally popular on sponsored television shows and provide even stronger competition for theatres.

They said that when a highly populated territory like New York can be blanketed with a live talent television broadcast, exhibitors face a problem.

The other question is whether film producers will go into direct competition with their exhibitors by preparing pictures for television, agency men said, pointing to announcement by Audio Production, Inc., that it was getting ready its technical staff and studio facilities in Long Island City for television industrial films.

CBS Lists Audiences

Landing precisely in the middle of the film-radio controversy with figures pointing up the vast audiences of some of its biggest radio star programs, Columbia Broadcasting System in New York this week estimated that the Eddie Cantor program, for one, has a program following of 6,800,106 families, which at the average of four persons a family, makes a total audience of 27,200,424; Hollywood Hotel, 5,256,350 families and 21,025,400 persons, and Lux Radio Theatre, 5,151,111 and 20,604,444, respectively, to mention but a few of the type of programs which, exhibitors complain, make inroads on box offices.

It is not believed, however, that CBS had any intention of adding fuel to the fire with its release of radio program audience figures.

Warners Putting Stars on Air

Moving in the other direction from Zanuck and MGM, Warner Brothers this week decided to extend the radio broadcastings of its studio stars, arranging to produce a program, "Let's Go to Hollywood," which with John Garfield and the "Dead End" kids, will be offered over Warners' own station, KFWB, and by eight other stations of the California Don Lee network, for Ford Motor Company. Additional Warner radio plans were said to be in the making.

Lohr to Studios

Apparently concerned over the situation created in Hollywood by the withdrawal of Twentieth Century-Fox and Metro players from air programs. Lenox R. Lohr, NBC president, will leave for Hollywood next week.

Radio will be found doing business in the same old way even if the last motion picture player is withdrawn from the air, John Royal, NBC vice-president in charge of programs, said this week. He feels radio will be able to carry on without serious damage to its programs or audience if the worst happens and Hollywood permanently bars film stars from working on the air.

Mr. Royal doesn't believe such a showdown ever will arrive anyway because both industries have much to offer each other.

OWNERS ATTACK AIR "GOSSIPERS"

Whenever Hollywood and theatre owners resurrect the argument over film stars' radio appearances, the so-called air "gossipers" of studio news inevitably come in for attack.

Now Jimmie Fidler, air "gossiper", again is singled out, this time by owners in Ohio and Illinois.

The Independent Theatre Owners of Ohio this week demanded that the industry give "good" and "bad" ratings to the products of the sponsors of Mr. Fidler, just as Mr. Fidler rates films on the air. They attacked his air statement of the other evening that the "Movie Quiz" contest gave patrons an opportunity to examine pictures closely "to see how bad motion pictures really are".

Chicago exhibitors and distributors alike were up in arms against Mr. Fidler's statements that admission prices are too high.

Last week the radio columnist let loose a barrage against "You Can't Cheat an Honest Man", which caused Universal Chicago exchange executives concern. A number of bookings were threatened with cancellation until exchange officials showed exhibitors the picture is doing heavy business.

Trans-Lux Has Showing Of Projection Equipment

The Trans-Lux Theatre, at Broadway and 49th St., New York, is showing, in its lounge, a historical exhibit of projection equipment loaned by the International Projector Corporation.

Included in the exhibit are a Cineograph, year unidentified; a Powers Cameragraph Band Propector, 1904; a Powers motor driven model, 1904; an Edengraph Hand Model, 1906; a French hand model made by Pathe, 1910; an early Kinetoscope motor driven model, 1911, made by Edison, and the 1939 Simplex.

December Air Express Shipment Record Seen

Air express shipments in the nationwide service of Railway Express Agency in December scored the all time high for any one month in the history of the service of 83,958, an increase of 29 per cent over December, 1937, the Air Express Division of the agency reported this week. Gross revenue was up 30½ per cent compared with December, 1937.

Printed matter led with 11,278 shipments, followed by electrotype plates, clothing, films, photographs, bank paper, radio broadcasting records, furs, manuscripts, drawing, music and flowers.

Oliver E. Curtis, Denver, has bought the We-Go film delivery from Ross Labart and has renamed it the intermountain Film Service.

COLUMBIA'S NEWEST SERIAL INSPIRED BY PAGE ONE NEWS!

FLY
G
24, 1939
st Pilot Fal
To Death F
ot Dies

Chapter Play aflame with the new fear s spirit of the screen today... as flying lerals blast spies from the skies... to thrill ır action fans of all ages... in the fine le of Columbia's serial showmanship!

A Columbia Chapter Play

ROBERT PAIGE · RICHARD FISKE

ammy McKim · Stanley Brown · Don Beddoe ·

14
New Bomber Crashes;
Noted Test Pilot Dies
To Death From BOMBER PILOT KILL IN COAST PLANE CRA NG
ARMY STUDIES BOMBER CRASH
R PILOT KILL
ST PLANE CRASH
Noted Test Pilot Die MEN
Municipal Airport.

JAMES CRAIG · LORNA GRAY

TELEVISION IN BRITISH THEATRES GIVES NEW TURN TO ENTERTAINMENT

Sports Event Relayed by Baird to Paid Audiences When BBC Grants Permission to Isidore Ostrer

by AUBREY FLANAGAN

in London

With approval by the British Broadcasting Corporation, State controlled monopolist of British radio, of the public theatre relaying of a television transmission on Thursday, a new era in British entertainment undoubtedly has been born.

Fight Televised

Hitherto implacably opposed to any intrusion upon their monopoly, the BBC finally granted Isidore Ostrer, chairman of the Baird group, permission to relay to paid audiences in two West End theatres, the Tatler and the Marble Arch Pavilion, a transmission by their service of the Boon-Danahar fight at the Harringay arena.

Visionaries of more than usually pessimistic trend foresaw at once the end of the newsreel, as currently understood. Visionaries of more than optimistic trend recorded the arrival of an entertainment millennium. Realists contented themselves with the conviction that a new corner had been turned in picture house entertainment.

A Long Fight

Mr. Ostrer long has battled with the oligarchy of Broadcasting House for official approval of his suggestion that select BBC transmissions might be relayed to picture house audiences. It has been a long fight. The technical advance of the Baird big screen system, by which the televised image is transmitted to an 8 x 6 foot screen by means of a cathode ray tube, undoubtedly has influenced the BBC, in this change of mind. The Tatler theatre, scene of the Armistice Day broadcast, reported in Motion Picture Herald, has long been an experimental laboratory for picture house television. Experiments with theatre transmission have been underway for some time, and considerable alterations made to the theatre. Secret shows have been given to officials of the BBC and the Television Advisory Committee.

Probably not without some responsibility for the official opposition to picture house television are the radio manufacturers themselves, some of whom are said to look askance upon theatre television as being likely to hamper the sales of domestic apparatus. A broader view probably has been taken by the Advisory Committee, for the decision in favour of the Baird plan synchronised precisely with a nationwide advertising campaign aimed to popularise television in the home.

The Precedent Sought

Although the transmission of the Boon-Danahar broadcast is in some respects experimental, it is the precedent for which the Baird group have been praying. There is, too, a likelihood that BBC approval will be given for the screening of other televised national events such as the Boat Race, Cup Final, Derby, Trooping of the Colour. Probably for the time being such broadcasts would be restricted to news and topical events. It is Mr. Ostrer's plan to extend the large screen television service to other theatres on the GB chain. Four houses, all in the West End, have been wired. The geographical limits of transmission, still within the 50 mile range for effectiveness, for some time will be a considerable factor, although the BBC plans to extend the television service to other areas, starting probably with Birmingham, suggest a gradually widening audience in the near future.

GERMAN CENSORS PASS 104 FILMS

In the period from January to September, 1938, 104 films were passed by the German Board of Censors, as against 116 in the same period of 1937. Of these, 57 per cent were of German origin, compared with 54 per cent in 1937. The percentage of American films decreased from 26.7 per cent to 23 per cent. Detailed figures for corresponding periods of the two years are:

	1938	1937
Germany	59	63
United States	24	31
France	7	6
Austria	4	7
Italy	4	1
England	2	2
Czechoslovakia	2	2
Hungary	1	1
Poland	1	..
Japan	..	1
Sweden	..	..
	104	106

The decrease in the number of Austrian films produced is accounted for by the fact that since July, 1938, films produced in Vienna have been classed under German films.

Scophony Ready to Act

Although the achievement so far is Baird's, close in step behind are Scophony, linked closely with the entire Odeon chain. Early this week the BBC permit to telecast the proceedings in the Harringay arena was extended to Scophony and it was indicated that a show open to the public would be given at the Monesigneur, March Arch.

The Scophony system is an optical system, but is said to give results on a 6 foot screen of high clarity of light and sharp definition. Its home television screen is one of the largest on the market, 24 ins. by 20.

Scophony has plans for the institution of a television service exclusively for the use of cinemas. It, too, favors collaboration with the BBC, and contends that the maturing of a cinema television service would give an impetus to general sale of television sets. Scophony recently concluded contracts with the Russian government and plans a further invasion of the U. S. markets.

The form in which any television service for cinemas ultimately would develop depends, of course, greatly upon the attitude of the BBC. It is known that Baird, too, favours a trade-sponsored entertainment service for the use of cinemas, but here again Baird and Scophony are tied by the fact that the Government has refused hitherto not only a screening of the BBC's transmissions of Alexandra Palace or elsewhere but the transmission of any form of radio and television over any wavelength. The monopoly thus has not only debarred anybody from using the BBC service for public entertainment but likewise the setting up of an independent transmission service.

Saloons Give Shows

An anomaly is that saloons and public house bars have been giving television shows on large receivers without objection from Broadcasting House, Alexandra Palace or Whitehall. And while the entertainment quality of the programme broadcast is still greatly criticised in the show business, there are signs of the widening of the entertainment scope. Last year, 172 hours out of a grand total of 957 were devoted by the BBC to televising films.

It is known that experiments conducted by Baird in the transmission of television in natural colour have made progress. Transmissions have been made from the Crystal Palace to outside receivers.

For the time being exhibitors are completely unmoved, finding solace official invocation by the Cinematograph Exhibitors Association that they sign no contract with manufacturers until officially approved and advised by Panton Street.

British Film Exports Rise

Total of exposed positive film exported from England in January amounted to 1,932,949 feet, an increase over January, 1938, of 58,797 feet. Imports totaled 1,890,222 feet, an increase of 975,953 feet over the same month in 1938.

Valuation of the exports for January, 1939, amounted to approximately $60,000, while the value of the imports for the month approximated $75,000.

Oliver Stanley, president of the Board of Trade, reported in the House of Commons that 10 distributors defaulted on their quota obligations in the year ended March 31, 1938, and 71 exhibitors in the year ended Sept. 30, 1938.

Mr. Stanley again declared that he is satisfied with the Films Act.

All British production organizations have been invited to send two delegates each to a conference to be held in a week to discuss the formation of a new body representative of every phase of production.

Those invited include the Film Group of the Federation of British Industries, the National Association of Theatrical and Kine Employees, the Screenwriters' Association and the directors' group.

On March 8th the British House of Lords will discuss a motion concerning the serious condition of the British production industry.

The motion has been presented by Viscount Bridgman, chairman of the Denham Laboratories.

Booth, Orshrey in New Jobs

Herman Booth, manager of the Gaumont British branch in Cincinnati prior to its discontinuance, has joined National Screen Service there. Sam Orshrey, GB booker, has been appointed Kentucky representative for Big Feature Rights, of which Lee Goldberg, Cincinnati, is executive head.

Ben Roman is handling the booking of "Morocco" and "The Spoilers" for Paramount in New York and New Jersey. The films originally were released in 1930. Both star ~~Clark Gable.~~

IN THE BRITISH STUDIOS

by AUBREY FLANAGAN
in London

First After Merger

The first film to be made at the D. & P. Studios, Denham, since the £2,000,000 merger, is now in full production under the direction of Herbert Mason. Adapted from the French novel, "The Chinese Fish," and brought up to date by the introduction of a European crisis, the film, despite its topical flavour, is not concerned with politics, and the great statesman who plays a prominent role in the narrative bears no resemblance, either physical or otherwise, to the Rt. Hon. Neville Chamberlain, M.P.

Playing leads are John Loder, Valerie Hobson, and Rex Harrison, who has the role of a French detective investigating the intrigues leading up to the crisis in the film.

Rodney Acland wrote the scenario. Captain Richard Norton is in charge of production with Anthony Havelock-Allan in direct control, for release by Paramount.

Prominent in the production plans of Paramount is Mario Zampi, director-producer, who is to follow "Peace in Our Time" on the Paramount program by producing and directing "Live and Let Live," first picture for that organization in which the comedy lead is to be entrusted to North Country comedian, Douglas Wakefield. On the completion of this film Zampi will go ahead with "French Without Tears," which will be directed by Anthony Asquith, from the West End stage success.

Hay's Latest

The first film to be made with Will Hay under the new auspices of Twentieth Century-Fox is "Where's That Fire?," which has gone to the floor at the Islington Studios-nee Gainsborough.

Hay's stooges, Moore Marriott and Graham Moffatt, support him in the film which is being produced by Edward Black and directed by Marcel Varnel. In charge of production is Maurice Ostrer, in close liaision with Robert T. Kane.

From Mystery Novel

On the floor at the Associated British Studios, Elstree, is Walter Mycroft's new production, "At the Villa Rose," film version of A. E. W. Mason's mystery novel. Presenting the role of Inspector Hanaud, the genial and shrewd French detective of fiction, is Keneth Kent, West End actor. Judy Kelly and Peter Murray Hill have leading roles.

Shooting already has started on the Casino set where Madame Dauvray, wealthy widow and collector of valuable jewels, first meets the mysterious Adele, played by Antoinette Cellier. Directing is Walter Summers.

Itemized

At the Teddington Studios of Warner-First National jewel thieves have been at work for screen purposes in "Too Dangerous to Live," which is being directed jointly by Anthony Hankey and Leslie Norman.

Playing leading roles are Sebastian Shaw and Greta Gynt, who is currently heralded as one of the reigning beauties of British films.

BEST SELLERS AND RENTERS

Rachel Field's "All This, and Heaven Too" continues in the van of best sellers, according to the monthly tabulations of "Ten Best" in the Retail Bookseller, house organ of the Baker & Taylor Company, New York. The Daphne du Maurier novel, "Rebecca", also continues to lead the best renters but has dropped from second to third in the best sellers listing.

Ten Best Sellers

(Based upon a count of sales from December 20th to January 17th)

1. All This, and Heaven Too, by Rachel Field.
2. Disputed Passage, by Lloyd C. Douglas.
3. Rebecca, by Daphne du Maurier.
4. Song of Years, by Bess S. Aldrich.
5. The Citadel, by A. J. Cronin.
6. Gone with the Wind, by Margaret Mitchell.
7. Dr. Norton's Wife, by Mildred Walker.
8. Three Harbours, by F. Van Wyck Mason.
9. The Yearling, by Marjorie K. Rawlings.
10. The Sword in the Stone, by T. H. White.

Ten Best Renters

(Based upon nationwide reports)

1. Rebecca, by Daphne du Maurier.
2. All This, and Heaven Too, by Rachel Field.
3. My Son, My Son, by Howard Spring.
4. The Yearling, by Marjorie K. Rawlings.
5. . . . and Tell of Time, by Laura Krey.
6. Wisdom's Gate, by Margaret Ayer Barnes.
7. Young Doctor Galahad, by Elizabeth Seifert.
8. Bricks without Straw, by Charles G. Norris.
9. The Citadel, by A. J. Cronin.
10. The Mortal Storm, by Phyllis Bottome.

* * *

Production at the Ealing Studios was suspended on "The Four Just Men" and "There Ain't No Justice," owing to a spread of influenza. "Young Man's Fancy" also will be delayed by this mishap.

* * *

Arthur Lucan, star of "Old Mother Riley" and "Old Mother Riley in Paris," is to make another film for Butcher's Film Service, entitled "Old Mother Riley, M.P."

* * *

Dogs of all sorts, shapes, sizes, breeds and pedigrees are heroes of a new Widgey Newman production, "Dogs and Dawgs," being made for release by Warner Brothers. Evelyn, Countess of Essex, has allowed Newman to film in her kennels, but the star of the film is a mongrel, "Bluddeigh."

* * *

The British quota success, "This Man is News" was broadcast in radio version recently by the British Broadcasting Corporation.

* * *

"Official Secret," British National's officially recognised film of A. R. P., has now been concluded and is being prepared for trade show. David Macdonald directed, with Barry K. Barnes, Felix Aylmer and Basil Radford in the cast. The Royal Air Force collaborated.

* * *

"Midnight Mail" is the title of a new Maurice Elvey production to be made under the banner of Admiral Films.

* * *

A total of £50,000 ($250,000) is budgeted for a new British production by Elsie Cohen of Unity Films, due to start at the Rock Studios, Elstree, early in May.

By Technicians

Seven British film technicians, six men and a girl, have joined forces in a new cooperative venture aiming at the production of shorts in color.

The first of the series is to deal with old inns and taverns of England. The rest of the series will exploit the beauties and antiquities of Britain's countryside and villages. They will be shot in Dufaycolor.

All concerned in the venture are experts in their fields and have been associated with productions made at Pinewood Studios. They include Phil Tannura, cameraman, an art director, film editor, wardrobe master, make-up expert, continuity girl and production manager. They give their services without immediate reward.

Captain Richard Norton, managing director of Pinewood, whose blessing has been given the plan, has offered to supply Pinewood's equipment for interior work.

German Film Drive On in Argentina

Exhibition interests in Buenos Aires report increasing German pressure for exhibition of German-made films in Argentina. Indicated plans of German distributors call for release in Argentina this year of 100 films, compared with the 14 released last year. Three hundred and seventy-seven American films were released in Argentina last year.

That the Irish need a film industry is the appeal of a group of Irish exhibitors who have been meeting with that country's Department of Industry and Commerce, at the urging of the Free State Government. Under consideration are possible film quotas and subsidies from the state.

MONOGRAM OPERATING AT PROFIT; 70% OF PATHE HOLDERS FAVOR PLAN

20th-Fox Earnings of $7,200,000 for Year Estimated; Western Electric Profit $5,734,000; KAO Declares $1.75 Dividend

W. Ray Johnston, president of Monogram, this week reported that 6,108 theatre licenses had been sold nationally for its 1938-39 features and that Monogram had an operating profit of $37,132 for November and December. In 1938, the company and all subsidiaries operated at a loss of $180,861, after all charges and film amortization, and in 1937 lost $239,076.

Pathe Holders Indorse Plan

Financial and corporate news in other motion picture and allied sectors included a favorable vote of 70 per cent of Pathe's stockholders in favor of the reorganization plan proposed by the management; consideration by Paramount of several plans for retiring $4,500,000 in bonds, and application by Columbia Pictures to the New York Stock Exchange to list 9,644 additional shares of common stock.

Western Electric Company, which has interests in motion pictures through Electrical Research Products, besides its main business of manufacturing telephone equipment, reported $5,734,000 profit for 1938, and at Twentieth Century-Fox predictions were heard that net earnings for 1938 may reach $7,200,000. Earnings in 1937 were $8,617,114. The first half of 1938 netted $3,419,658.

Dollar Volume Increased

"Monogram has every reason to look forward with optimism to its future activities," Mr. Johnston said in his annual report to the stockholders. "An increase of several hundred accounts for the 1938-39 program and an improvement in dollar volume of better than 30 per cent in deals covering the same situations as were sold on the 1937-38 schedule, provide additional reasons for confidence."

Deals have been closed for distribution of Monogram pictures in 34 countries compared with eight for last year, it was said.

The Pathe Plan

Pathe Film Corporation stockholders, at a special meeting last Thursday, by a vote of 398,093 to 5,869, approved the plan to separate the company's laboratories from the investment holdings of duPont Film Manufacturing Corporation stock. The meeting was marked by protests and threats of legal action by several minority stockholders.

Under the plan a new corporation will be organized, to be known as Pathe Laboratories, Inc., which will operate the film laboratories. The duPont Film Manufacturing Corp. stock owned by Pathe will be held separately, and dividends from this stock will not be subject to depletion from possible operating losses from the laboratories. The new corporation will be financed by $200,000 in cash to be borrowed on the security of the duPont stock, and will also have transferred to it 65,866 shares of Monogram common stock, and $248,000 past due notes of RKO. Fifty per cent of the new corporation's stock, of which 25,000 shares are authorized, but of which only 11,600 shares will be issued and outstanding, is to be issued to the stockholders of Pathe Film within 60 days after the plan is consummated, in the ratio of one share for each 50 of Pathe Film held. The other 50 per cent, also belonging to Pathe Film, will be distributed to stockholders as soon as the directors deem it practicable within two years.

O. Henry Briggs, president of Pathe Film, said that the company would show a deficit for 1938. Dividends last year on the duPont stock amounted to $245,000, approximately $70 a share on the 3,500 shares held by Pathe.

"The segregation of the company's nonprofitable assets," said Mr. Briggs, "will now make it possible to refund the seven per cent preferred stock at a substantial saving should the distribution of the film stock for any reason be delayed."

A Pathe-RKO deal is pending, as is a deal for the purchase of the International Cinema Laboratories on the coast, without investment.

Following retirement of $5,000,000 of its six per cent debentures on Monday, Paramount is considering several plans for the retirement of the final $4,500,000 of the issue. Payment of the principal amount plus the interest to date made on Monday was made out of the company's cash reserve, augmented some time ago by a $1,500,000 loan from a Chicago bank. The retirement saves Paramount $300,000 annually in interest charges.

In the annual report of the directors to the stockholders of the Western Electric Co. for the year ending December 31, 1938, the company's sales were put at $175,163,000, of which 96 per cent were to Bell Telephone Companies. The net earnings were $5,734,000, as compared to $19,514,000 for the preceding year. The balance sheet showed current assets of $91,179,708 as against current liabilities of $14,092,157. Total assets and liabilities are listed as $275,946,587.

The Board of Directors of Keith-Albee-Orpheum Corporation declared a dividend, out of operating surplus, of $1.75 per share on the 7% cumulative convertible preferred stock for the quarter ended June 30, 1936, payable on April 1, 1939, to the holders of record of said stock at the close of business on March 15, 1939.

Universal Cuts Net Loss in Half In Year; Profit in Last Quarter

The annual report of Universal Pictures Company, Inc., and subsidiaries for the fiscal year ended Oct. 29, 1938, shows combined net loss of $591,178 after providing for all charges, including depreciation and amortization of fixed assets in the sum of $269,232. This compares with a net loss for the year ended Oct. 30, 1937, of $1,084,998 after all charges including depreciation and amortization of fixed assets in the sum of $370,386. Total current and working assets were $9,866,282.12 as against total current liabilities of $5,284,530.54 as of October 29th.

J. Cheever Cowdin, chairman of the board of directors, pointed out in his remarks to stockholders that the company had operated at a profit of $161,929 in the last quarter of the fiscal year.

"While your company's operations were under the direction of the present executive operating personnel for only part of the fiscal year, the results thus far attained would indicate that the policies of the new operating management are meeting with success," Mr. Cowdin said, pointing particularly "to the steady improvement in the quality of the company's product since Clifford Work was placed in charge of the studio last May".

"Due to improved sales policies and methods and this better quality product," he continued, "the company experienced an increase of over $2,000,000 in gross revenue in the year ended October 29, 1938, as compared with the previous fiscal year."

Universal's revenues from Canada, Mr. Cowdin said, have substantially increased under the agreement entered into a year ago with Empire Films, Ltd., of Toronto and this improvement is expected to be bettered in the future. The distribution agreement with General Film Distributors, Ltd., covering distribution in the British Isles, has been modified to reduce Universal's costs in this territory, effective last January 1st and the term of the agreement extended for a further period.

Remarking on the rising trend of taxes being imposed on the company, Mr. Cowdin said that for the calendar year 1938 unemployment insurance taxes, both state and federal, and federal old age benefit tax totaled $323,708 as compared with $234,509 for the calendar year 1937.

Income from operations, film rentals and sales amounted to $12,048,124.38 in the domestic field and $7,562,928.34 in the foreign field for a total of $19,611,052.72. Income from the sale of accessories in both domestic and foreign totaled $465,392.31. The total income from operations, including theatre and commercial building rentals, was $20,190,117.84. Cost of sales and service, including amortization of film costs, royalties and building expenses, amounted to $13,790,984.75, making a gross operating profit of $6,399,133.09. Selling and branch expenses, both domestic and foreign, amounted to $5,634,081.01, while total general and administrative expenses amounted to $1,156,513.85, for a total of $6,790,594.86.

BETTER THEATRES—ISSUE OF MARCH 4—WITH NEXT WEEK'S MOTION PICTURE HERALD

the next issue of

Better Theatres

SUMMER AIR-CONDITIONING

. . . reporting and explaining developments in methods and equipment that bring air-conditioning into greater service for effective theatre operation in summer.

Ideas from the LAKEWOOD THEATRE IN DALLAS

. . . a complete description of this suggestive new theatre, its architectural scheme, lighting and staggered seating plan.

What Theatre Operators Should Know About Weaves in Carpeting

SOUND TROUBLE-SHOOTING CHARTS

. . . in addition to other special features and regular departments

●

SCHLANGER

. . . on Planning for Better Vision

POTWIN

. . . on Designing the Rear Wall for Better Acoustics

TECHNOLOGICAL

The Bluebook School

Conducted by

F. H. RICHARDSON

ANSWER TO QUESTION NO. 141

Question No. 141 was: "(A) What has the nature of sound to do with theatre equipment? (B) What is sound? (C) What is the effect of sound upon the human ear?

The following made the most acceptable answers: S. Evans and C. Rau; H. Edwards, J. R. Prater; G. E. Doe; L. Cimikoski; C. Oldham; M. and J. Devoy; M. B. Stout; G. H. Payne; W. E. Limroth; W. Schoneman; G. Burdis; R. and K. Wells; J. A. Zacheritz; C. A. Whitlock; R. K. Groton; E. Sulpizio; L. Johnson; E. and F. Wentworth; T. and W. Turk; D. and W. Porter; H. T. Steele; B. B. Kent; M. and B. Walker; N. F. Sheldon; P. Slobodny; L. D. Tomlinson; C. Hawkens; A. and B. Richardson; L. F. and G. Brown; W. B. Hennessy; S. L. Mercer; S. T. Watkins; W. Jones and T. L. Ward; S. W. Tomberg; S. L. Maxwell; H. T. Mandrake; F. H., S. and P. Dalbey; P. Somers; D. Jacobson, B. L. Oden and R. Smith; H. C. Martin; R. R. Robbins and W. Winkler; K. Irwin; G. L. Goss; H. T. Plum and D. A. Shea; J. M. Kelner and A. W. Baxter; R. M. Schnider; S. True; F. W. Brandenburg; M. Samuels and W. R. Allen; W. S. Daniels and L. Day; W. B. Hunter; T. S. Anderson; K. L. Brant and W. L. Lavenburg; B. L. Ogden, T. S. Taylor and R. Smith; F. D. Goldwyn; H. H. Todd and E. Dodson; J. K. Robinson and R. E. Bullard; P. L. Goldstein and L. Samuels; M. D. McGuire; M. F. Robinson and L. A. Beachwood; E. Exline; L. B. Daniels and O. Ordel; G. L. Knox; C. H. Lowrie; R. Davis and M. F. Brown; T. W. Redhouse; W. R. Matthews and J. R. Davidson; E. J. Brandell; D. R. Spencer; N. S. Reid and T. Watkins; L. M. Richards; H. J. Benjamin; B. L. Morris and H. M. Jackson; S. M. Robbins; T. D. Brady; H. B. Hawkins; E. M. Carleton and N. D. Logman; G. L. Baxter and H. C. Davis; E. N. Landon.

Answering Section A, Leo Cimikoski says, "The nature of sound has much to do with theatre equipment and even the simplest knowledge of it provides the projectionist with much broader understanding of the manner in which theatre sound equipments operate."

W. E. Limmroth says, "To understand the operation of sound equipments it is essential that one first understand the nature of sound."

G. E. Doe answers thus, "The nature of sound, if I rightly interpret the meaning of the question, is closely interrelated with all basic principles upon which theatre sound equipments operate. This is true for the reason that sound recording apparatus fixes, either mechanically, as in case of the disc record, or photographically, as in the film sound track, certain effects which, if reproduction of sound be perfect must be perfectly reproduced by theatre sound equipments. For competent handling of theatre sound equipments the projectionist must understand this interrelation perfectly, and how to obtain and maintain it in perfect form. Otherwise there cannot possibly be perfection in sound reproduction."

Well, what do you men think of that answer?

(B) Richard W. Groton replies, "sound is audible noise. It is produced by any and everything in motion. Though we all have seen things move without noise, as a matter of fact there was noise, but noise is the effect of vibrations, and where there is motion without sound it simply means that the vibrations set up were either above or below the frequency range capable of reproduction by the human ear—namely, below 16 or above approximately 16,000 cycles per second."

Clinton A. Whitlock says, "Basically, sound is vibration of some physical object disturbing the particles of some transmitting medium, usually air, with which it is in contact, causing them to vibrate in unison therewith. These particles are in contact with other similar particles, which are, in their turn, caused to vibrate. This agitation spreads outward in every direction from the source of vibration, losing energy with added distance from that source, until finally, contacting an ear drum, by nervous action the vibration imparted to said drum is translated into the sensation of sound by the brain. That sound transmission consists of agitation of a transmitting medium may be proved by sealing a buzzer in an air tight cell and slowly exhausting the air. The sound will become less as the air is exhausted, finally ceasing entirely when the vacuum within the cell is complete, but assuming a glass cell it will be observed that the buzzer becomes more active as the air friction is decreased."

(C) F. W. Brandenburg says, "I believe, Dad, it would require the knowledge of an expert otologist. (He means an ear doctor—F. H. R.) to answer that question in its entirety. But I do not imagine you intend us to discuss the nervous reactions. The human ear is affected not by sound, but by waves in some transmitting medium, usually air, that causes the diaphragm (drum) of the ear to vibrate, which in its turn sets up reactions upon the nerves connected therewith, that in some mysterious manner translates these vibrations into the effects we recognize as audible sound."

16mm. Newsreel Circuit Planned

A circuit of small theatres showing 16mm. newsreels and short subjects is planned by a company known as 5 and 10 Movies, Inc., which has been incorporated at Albany. Among officers will be Hickman Price, Ruth Maizel and Ruth M. Stohlberg. The company plans to charge five cents for children and 10 cents for adults.

Mr. Price is in charge of the New York office of DeVry Corporation, manufacturer of 16mm. projection and recording equipment. DeVry has been planning a national 16mm newsreel and other subjects for theatres built for the purpose.

David Bernstein, vice-president and treasurer of Loew's, sailed this week on the Nieuw Amsterdam for a 46-day South American cruise. It is a combination pleasure and business trip. Mr. Bernstein plans to confer with the company's distribution heads and theatre managers in several cities.

BLUEBOOK SCHOOL QUESTION NO. 146

(A) What types of material absorb sound?

(B) What is an "echo"? Describe it.

(C) What is reverberation? Name three cures for echo and reverberation.

Assessments for New York Houses

The tentative assessments on theatre properties for New York's Manhattan, representing the highest-bracket group in the country, for 1939 were released this week. The assessments become permanent if no protest is filed. The assessments follow:

Manhattan

Center	$4,500,000
Music Hall and RKO Bldg.	11,600,000
Metropolitan Opera House	5,400,000
Strand	3,250,000
The New Criterion	6,750,000
Rialto	3,250,000
Hippodrome	3,200,000
Empire	845,000
Loew's State	4,250,000
Palace	1,350,000
Mayfair	1,950,000
French Casino	2,000,000
Roxy's	4,100,000
Ziegfeld	1,150,000
Carnegie Hall	2,000,000
New Amsterdam	1,050,000
Times-Apollo	1,500,000
44th Street — Nora Bayes	900,000
St. James	640,000
Majestic	690,000
Booth-Shubert	1,200,000
Columbia Radio Playhouse No. 1	490,000
John Golden	310,000
Imperial	750,000
Music Box	600,000
Astor	1,750,000
40th Street Theatre	600,000
Globe	1,150,000
Mansfield	425,000
Biltmore	360,000
Barrymore	540,000
Forrest	410,000
Ambassador	510,000
Gaiety	2,250,000
Rivoli	1,650,000
Capitol	2,550,000
Hollywood	1,150,000
Guild	675,000
Al Jolson	1,350,000
Lincoln Square	1,035,000
Martin Beck	600,000
Playhouse	370,000
Windsor	435,000
Winter Garden	2,400,000
Lyceum	545,000
Cort	420,000
Belasco	565,000
Fulton	500,000
Vanderbilt	325,000
Henry Miller	475,000
Morosco	535,000
Broadhurst	475,000

In Brooklyn the Fox with $3,930,000 and the Paramount ($3,070,000) had the largest assessments.

Hollomon Named Counsel

Van Alen Hollomon, who has been with the Paramount home office legal staff four years, left this week for Dallas, where he will be associate counsel of the Interstate Circuit. Members of the Paramount legal department gave Mr. Hollomon a farewell luncheon at the Woodstock in New York.

PRODUCTIONS IN WORK

TITLE	WRITER AND DIRECTOR	CAST	STAGE OF PRODUCTION
COLUMBIA
"Plane No. 4"	Director: Howard Hawks.	Jean Arthur, Cary Grant, Richard Barthelmass, Thomas Mitchell, Sig Rumann, Rita Hayworth.	Shooting
"Blind Alley"	From a stage play by James Warwick. Director: Charles Vidor.	Chester Morris, Ralph Bellamy, Joan Perry, Rose Stradner, Ann Dvorak.	Shooting
METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER
"Calling Dr. Kildare"	Director: Harry Bucquet.	Lew Ayres, Lionel Barrymore, Lynne Carver, Nat Pendleton, Marie Blake, Samuel Hinds, Emma Dunn.	Shooting
"A Hundred to One"	Director: Leslie Fenton.	Melvyn Douglas, Louise Platt, H. B. Warner, Halliwell Hobbes, Jean Fenwick, Marjorie Main, Inez Courtney, Teresa Harris, Tom Collins, Ernest Whitman.	Shooting
"Maiden Voyage"	Director: William Thiele.	Robert Young, Annabella, Walter Connolly.	Shooting
"Penthouse"	Director: Edwin L. Marin.	Walter Pidgeon, Virginia Bruce, Herbert Mundin, Leo Carrillo, Frances Mercer, Tom Kennedy, Edward Brophy, Lee Bowman, Frank M. Thomas.	Shooting
"The Kid from Texas"	Director: S. Sylvan Simon.	Dennis O'Keefe, Florence Rice, Buddy Ebsen, Anthony Allen, Jessie Ralph.	Shooting
"Within the Law"	Director: Gustav Machaty.	Ruth Hussey, Rita Johnson, Paul Kelly, John King, Lynne Carver.	Shooting
MONOGRAM
"Streets of New York"	Screen play, Robert Andrews. Director: Jack Mintz.	Jackie Cooper, Martin Spellman, June Martel, Dick Purcel, Robert Emmett O'Connor, George Irving, George Cleveland.	Shooting
PARAMOUNT
"Some Like It Hot"	Director: George Archainbaud.	Gene Krupa and his Orchestra, Shirley Ross, Bop Hope, Una Merkel, Bernard Nedell.	Shooting
"Invitation to Happiness"	Producing director: Wesley Ruggles.	Irene Dunne, Fred MacMurray, Donald O'Connor, Charlie Ruggles.	Shooting
"Beau Geste"	Producing director: William A. Wellman.	Cary Cooper, Ray Milland, Robert Preston, Brian Donlevy, J. Carroll Naish, Donald O'Connor.	Shooting
"Gracie Allen Murder Case"	From the novel by S. S. Van Dine. Director: Alfred E. Green.	Havilland, Thomas Mitchell, Barbara O'Neil. Ann Judith Barrett.	Shooting
"The Magnificent Fraud"	Director: Robert Florey.	Akim Tamiroff, Lloyd Nolan, Patricia Morrision, Steffi Duna, Barbara Pepper.	Shooting
RKO RADIO
"Sorority House"	From a play by Mary Coyle Chase. Screen play, Dalton Trumbo. Director: John Farrow.	Anne Shirley, James Ellison, Barbara Read, Phyllis Fraser, Natalie Draper, Diana Lewis.	Shooting
REPUBLIC
"Lone Star Bullets"	Director: George Sherman.	Max Terhune, Ray Corrigan, John Wray, Ruth Rogers.	Shooting
TWENTIETH CENT.-FOX
"The Hound of the Baskervilles"	From the novel by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle. Director: Sidney Lanfield.	Richard Greene, Basil Rathbone, Anita Louise, Nigel Bruce, Lionel Atwill, John Carradine, Beryl Mercer, Barlow Borland.	Shooting
"Alexander Graham Bell"	Director: Irvin Cummings.	Don Ameche, Henry Fonda, Loretta Young, Polly Ann Young, Sally Blane, Georgianna Young.	Shooting
"Rose of Washington Square"	Director: Roy Del Ruth.	Tyrone Power, Alice Faye, Al Jolson, Marie Wilson, Douglas Fowley, Hobart Cavanaugh, Moroni Olsen, E. E. Clive.	Shooting
"Susannah of the Mounties"	Director: Walter Lang.	Shirley Temple, Randolph Scott, Moroni Olsen, J. Farrell MacDonald, Martin Goodrider.	Shooting
"Stanley and Livingstone"	Director: Henry King.	Spencer Tracy, Richard Greene, Nancy Kelly, Walter Brennan, Charles Coburn, Henry Hull, Sir Cedric Hardwicke, Henry Travers, Hasson Said.	Shooting
"Police School"	Director: James Tinling.	Jane Withers, Robert Kellard, Arleen Whelan, Richard Bond, George Ernst, Warren Hymer.	Shooting
"The Gorilla"	Director: Allan Dwan.	Ritz Brothers, Anita Louise, Bela Lugosi, Lionel Atwill, Patsy Kelly, Edward Norris, Wally Vernon, Joseph Calleia.	Shooting
UNITED ARTISTS
"Captain Fury" (Hal Roach)	Director: Hal Roach.	Brian Aherne, Victor McLaglen, Paul Lukas, John Carradine, June Lang, George Zucco, John Warburton.	Shooting
UNIVERSAL
"East Side of Heaven"	Director: David Butler.	Bing Crosby, Joan Blondell, Mischa Auer, Irene Hervey, Jerome Cowan, Jane Goude.	Shooting
WARNER BROTHERS-FIRST NATIONAL
"Confessions of a Nazi Spy"	Director: Anatole Litvak.	Edward G. Robinson, Francis Lederer, Lya Lys, Paul Lukas.	Shooting
"Each Dawn I Die"	From the novel by Jerome Odlum. Director: William Keighley.	James Cagney, Jane Bryan, George Raft, George Bancroft, Maxie Rosenbloom.	Shooting
"The Roaring Road"	Director: Lloyd Bacon.	Pat O'Brien, John Payne, Ann Sheridan, Gale Page.	Shooting
"Hell's Kitchen"	Director: E. A. Dupont.	Margaret Lindsay, "Dead End" Kids, Ronald Reagan, Stanley Fields	Shooting
"Family Reunion"	From an original play, "Fly Away Home," by Dorothy Bennett, Irving White. Screen play, Julius and Philip Epstein. Director: Michael Curtiz.	Priscilla, Rosemary and Lola Lane, John Garfield, Fay Bainter, Claude Rains, Gale Page, Jeffrey Lynn, Frank McHugh, Dick Foran, May Robson, Hombart George.	Shooting
"Gantry the Great"	Original screen play, Vincent Sherman. Director: William McGann.	Edith Fellows, James McCallion, Randall Bates, Jane Bryan, Fred Tozere.	Shooting
"Waterfront"	Based on a play "Blind Spot" by Kenyon Nicholson. Screen play, Don Rian, Charles Perry, Fred Niblo, Jr. Director: Terry Morse.	Gloria Dickson, Dennis Morgan, Marie Wilson, Larry Williams.	Shooting

BRANDT, EARLY FIGURE IN DISTRIBUTION, DEAD

Former Secretary to Laemmle Founded CBC Sales Co., Predecessor to Columbia

Joe Brandt, long an outstanding figure in the film industry, first president of Columbia Pictures and Educational Pictures, engaged in distribution of Italian-made films at the time of his retirement from active business in 1935, died Wednesday, aged 56, at his home in Beverly Hills, California. His widow, and a son, Jerrold Thurston, survive.

Started as Lawyer

Mr. Brandt was a native of Troy, New York. He received his high school education in Troy, and his college education at New York University, New York City, from which he gained a Bachelor of Literature degree. In 1906, Mr. Brandt was admitted to the bar.

His entrance into the motion picture industry was marked by his employment as Carl Laemmle, Sr.'s secretary, in 1908. Before this he had been advertising manager for the Dramatic Mirror, New York representative for Billboard, and associated with the Hampton Advertising Agency.

In association with Mr. Laemmle he was instrumental in forming Universal Pictures Corporation, and became its general manager. He resigned in 1921, formed his own company, the C. B. C. Sales Company. This became Columbia, Harry and Jack Cohn joining as partners, and Mr. Brandt becoming the president. Harry Cohn bought him out in 1932.

Mr. Brandt also held the presidency of World Wide Pictures, the vice-presidency of Educational Pictures, and headed Il Nuovo Mundo, distributors of Italian films. In 1935, he retired from this post and from business, and went to the coast to live.

JOE BRANDT

Maurice Rubinstein Dies

Maurice Rubinstein, 73, secretary of the Ruby Camera Exchange, New York, died February 16th after three weeks' illness. He is survived by four sons, Eddie, Leon, J. Irving and Oscar, and two daughters, Mrs. William Magul and Mrs. Nan Nannes.

Thomas G. Patten Dies

Thomas G. Patten, former Congressman and wartime postmaster of New York City, who was a representative of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America in Hollywood for a year, died at his home in Hollywood February 23 at the age of 77.

Dr. Clarke Ansley

Dr. Clarke Fisher Ansley, editor-in-chief since 1927 of the Columbia University Press and of "The Columbia Encyclopedia," which was published in 1935 after eight years of preparation, died February 14th at his home in Solebury, Pa. He was 69.

Clare Greet

Clare Greet, 67, stage and screen actress, who toured America with Lillian Russell, died February 14th in London. In recent years she had played supporting roles in many British films.

Warner Brothers has filed an application in federal court in New York seeking an order to examine Booth Tarkington before trial in his action against the company.

British Patents Suit Concluded

Trial in the patent infringement litigation brought by British Acoustic Films against the Radio Corporation of America and Electrical Research Products was concluded Tuesday, in Wilmington, Delaware, before Judge John P. Nields, in United States District Court. Judge Nields set April 7 for argument, March 6th for the filing of plaintiff's briefs, and March 25 for the filing of defendant's briefs.

The suit involves two patents for improved mechanism to feed film through sound head projectors at a constant speed. It is charged that the sound apparatus of both RCA and ERPI, the last named through Western Electric Company, uses inventions on which the British company claims to hold patents.

It is charged that the two American companies have distributed large numbers of projection machines to motion picture houses throughout the United States embodying these patent improvements. The plaintiff asks the court for a perpetual injunction and treble damages.

Dr. Edward Wente, of Bell Telephone, testifying as a defense witness, explained modification of the various arrangements on patents involved. Paul J. Larson, Warner Brothers' patent expert, was called in rebuttal by the plaintiffs.

Witnesses for the plaintiffs who testified last week, besides Mr. Larson, were Arnold Poulsen of Copenhagen, joint inventor of a projection machine that was entered as evidence, and Ian Cremieu-Javal of London, managing director of British Acoustics.

Argument on an appeal by Radio Corporation of America from an interlocutory decree of the late Chancellor Josiah Wolcott has been concluded and decision reserved by the Delaware supreme court in Dover. The decree was granted in the suit brought by the Philadelphia Storage Battery Company to enjoin RCA from terminating a licensing agreement.

IN NEWSREELS

MOVIETONE NEWS—No. 46, Vol. 21.—Army bomber returns home after delivering medical supplies to Chile....Dog show held in New York....Model of New York at World's Fair....Republicans hold Lincoln Dinner....Fashions in hats....Lew Lehr....Seabiscuit loses race, goes lame....Bobsledding at Lake Placid....Female jockeys at Agua Caliente.

MOVIETONE NEWS—No. 47, Vol. 21.—Developments in war torn Spain....French destroyer rammed by cruiser in sea maneuvers....Quebec asylum for insane destroyed by fire....President indorses world's fairs ....Eleanor Holm dedicates aquacade at New York Fair....Girl parachutist makes comeback....Picard wins golf title....Amateur boxing bouts....Jack Dempsey and Jess Willard meet.

NEWS OF THE DAY—No. 244, Vol. 10.—America pays tribute to late Pope....U. S. airmen hailed for mercy flight to Chile....Hoover sounds 1940 Republican battle cry....American Olympic bobsledders chosen....Big leaguers train baseball's sandlot hopefuls....Girl jockeys race at Agua Caliente....Seabiscuit beaten in Santa Anita race.

NEWS OF THE DAY—No. 245, Vol. 10.—Gales spread ruin in Southern California....Patients escape as fire razes hospital....Spanish fugitives in flight to France ....Girl parachutist in comeback....New Orleans society hails Mardi Gras....Dempsey and Willard box again.

PARAMOUNT NEWS—No. 57.—Army flyer awarded decoration for mercy flight to Chile....World's Fair diorama....Justice Brandeis retires....Dog show in New York....Requiems for Pope Pius....Kaiser celebrates birthday....Baseball school....Yacht race in Miami....Seabiscuit beaten at Santa Anita.

PARAMOUNT NEWS—No. 58.—San Francisco Fair opened....Hospital for Insane in Quebec destroyed by fire....President on fishing trip...."Prospectors" find pond full of shotgun pellets....Edouard Benes arrives here....Girl parachutist leaves hospital to try again ....Cardinals gather in Rome to elect Pope....Horse racing....Ice Carnival at Lake Placid....Jack Dempsey and Jess Willard meet in Miami Beach.

RKO PATHE NEWS—No. 61, Vol. 10.—Bomber returns from mercy flight....Lincoln Dinner rallies held by Republicans...."Ski-plane" makes inaugural hop....Capital holds high mass for Pope....Big leaguers open baseball school....Manhattan Island in miniature....Hotel for unemployed youth....Linney wins Olympic bobsled berth.

RKO PATHE NEWS—No. 62, Vol 10.—Flames raze hospital for insane....Golden Gates open for Frisco fair....Refugees flee into France....Wallace asks for national council....Attack on Kuhn attempted.... Stagehand wins Florida race.

UNIVERSAL NEWSREEL—No. 746, Vol. 11.—Requiem mass held for Pope....Hoover lambastes....Dog show in New York....Bomber returns from mercy flight to Chile....Girls aid Galento's training....Gotham miniature shown....Seabiscuit lame after losing race ....Yacht race in Miami....Bobsledders in Olympic trials....Girl jockeys vie in race.

UNIVERSAL NEWSREEL—No. 747, Vol. 11.—President opens Tampa exposition....Patients saved in asylum blaze....West coast fair is opened....French aid Spanish exodus....Young pilot smashes record.... Dempsey and Williard fight again....Horse racing ....Mardi Gras....Air-raid shelter tested....Czech leader starts new job....French see roller skating derby.

Court Rules Insurer Must Defend Theatre

The appellate division of the New York supreme court ruled this week that an insurance company must defend all suits for personal injuries, including assault cases, brought by patrons against theatre owners. The court granted the Florabell Amusement Corporation, former operator of the Floral at Floral Park, L. I., a judgment of $1,750 against the Standard Surety and Casualty Company for legal fees paid in defending such action.

The Florabell company successfully defended a $50,000 damage suit brought against it by a patron on a charge of assault by the theatre's manager, after the insurer had refused to defend the suit.

"Letty Lynton" Briefs Filed

Final briefs in the suit brought by the authors of the play "Dishonored Lady," which the courts have found to have been plagiarized in the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer film, "Letty Lynton," against the Moredall Realty Corporation, operators of the Capitol theatre in New York, were filed Monday with Kenneth E. Walser, special master. The charges followed the same lines as those in the suit against MGM, in which case the Federal Court in New York awarded the plaintiffs $532,153.

WHAT THE PICTURE DID FOR ME

IN this, the exhibitors' own department, the theatremen of the nation serve one another with information on the box-office performance of product for their mutual benefit. It is a service of the exhibitor for the exhibitor. Address all communications to—

What the Picture Did for Me
MOTION PICTURE HERALD
Rockefeller Center, New York

Columbia

SMASHING THE SPY RING: Ralph Bellamy, Fay Wray—A very timely melodrama that was more than appreciated by our patrons. Columbia is without a peer when it comes to reliable "B" product. So far this season they have not given us an "A" picture. Running time, 62 minutes.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

First National

ANGELS WITH DIRTY FACES: James Cagney, Pat O'Brien, Ann Sheridan, Humphrey Bogart, "Crime School Kids"—Excellent picture to the biggest gross in six months. Played February 3.—B. Hollenbeck, Rose Theatre, Sumas, Wash. General patronage.

GARDEN OF THE MOON: Pat O'Brien, Margaret Lindsay, John Payne, Johnnie Davis—Excellent picture. Played to average business. Played January 24.—B. Hollenbeck, Rose Theatre, Sumas, Wash. General patronage.

GARDEN OF THE MOON: Pat O'Brien, John Payne, Margaret Lindsay, Johnnie Davis—Late play date on this, but it proved that a good picture remains good whenever played. Good mid-week business and patrons well pleased. Running time, 94 minutes. Played January 18-19.—M. R. Harrington, Avalon Theatre, Clatskanie, Ore. Small town and rural patronage.

GIRLS ON PROBATION: Ronald Reagan, Jane Bryan, Larry Williams—This is a very worthwhile programmer. It is sincere and as such commands attention. Jane Bryan shows great dramatic promise. Penacook is not so far from New Hampton, N. H., and with our assistant manager, a former student in New Hampton School for Boys, we are watching Vitagraph's recruit from this fine old New Hampshire school. His brief appearance in this picture looked hopeful. The name, oh, yes, Larry Williams. We'll watch for other appearances of the young man and we wish him every success in future assignments. Played January 13-14.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

Grand National

DAMAGED GOODS: Pedro de Cordoba—We expected to do better than we did on this picture but feel in playing this we were of a service in the betterment of our community.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer

CITADEL, THE: Robert Donat, Rosalind Russell—One of the finest pictures of its type we have ever seen. And did a S.R.O. business, which is a novelty around these parts. Played February 1.—B. Hollenbeck, Rose Theatre, Sumas, Wash. General patronage.

FLIRTING WITH FATE: Joe E. Brown, Leo Carrillo—One of the poorer of the Browns. Slow, draggy, and the bull sequence was the only thing that drew a laugh. Not so hot. Running time, 70 minutes.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

FLIRTING WITH FATE: Joe E. Brown, Leo Carrillo—Very good comedy, which pleased all. Good business. Played February 5.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

GREAT WALTZ, THE: Luise Rainer, Fernand Gravet, Miliza Korjus—Good music but the picture was a flop here. Fernand Gravet was excellent in his role. Miliza Korjus has a swell voice but is a trifle too mature for the role of a siren. Luise Rainer played her part to perfection. Played February 7.—B. Hollenbeck, Rose Theatre, Sumas, Wash. General patronage.

HOLD THAT KISS: Maureen O'Sullivan, Mickey Rooney, Dennis O'Keefe—This picture proved to do average business. But our farm friends shy at "Love" or "Kiss" attractions; not like we city slickers.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

OF HUMAN HEARTS: Walter Huston, James Stewart, Beulah Bondi, Guy Kibbee, Charles Coburn, John Carradine, Gene Reynolds—Appealing, dramatic and thrilling, yet not without its moments of humor. This fine story, buttressed with excellent characterizations by Walter Huston, Beulah Bondi, Charles Coburn, John Carradine, James Stewart, et al., makes a picture which should prove very entertaining to any adult audience. It was well received here by what is termed a "hard-boiled" and "picayunish" audience. As a matter of fact, it certainly must have "un-boiled" many, for handkerchiefs appeared to be in evidence. Laurels to Guy Kibbee (the crafty, comical storekeeper), Gene Reynolds for his excellent portrayal of Jason Wilkins as a youth, and last but not least to John Carradine for his splendid impersonation of President Lincoln. No wonder students of Lincolnia praised his part in the picture. You can't go wrong with this one. Play it. Running time, 105 minutes. Played February 11.—J. A. Reynolds, Director of Education, Prison Theatre, New Jersey State Prison, Trenton, N. J. Prison patronage.

OUT WEST WITH THE HARDYS: Mickey Rooney, Lewis Stone, Cecilia Parker, Fay Holden, Virginia Weidler—This family has caught up with the public and this one keeps up the pace that the rest have set. The addition to the cast of little Virginia Weidler as "Jake" is distinctly an asset. This is one picture that Mickey did not run away with. "Jake" made a monkey of him in a couple of shots, and I mean shots. Virginia was deft and sure in her role. I hope she gets some breaks, for she deserves it.—A. E. Hancock, Columbia Theatre, Columbia City, Ind. General patronage.

SHINING HOUR, THE: Joan Crawford, Margaret Sullavan, Robert Young, Melvyn Douglas, Fay Bainter—Everyone agreed it was a good picture but no one turned out to see it. Poorest mid-week gross in many moons. It's still a good show but not for us. Running time, 75 miniutes. Played February 1-2.—M. R. Harrington, Avalon Theatre, Clatskanie, Ore. Small town and rural patronage.

SPRING MADNESS: Lew Ayres, Maureen O'Sullivan, Burgess Meredith—Why all the panning of this little comedy? Our audience was very well pleased with this picture and here true ability is shown. Burgess Meredith was outstanding, with Ayres a close second. It will stand alone, if you have an average audience, for a short run. Do not be afraid of it. Running time, 67 minutes.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

STABLEMATES: Wallace Beery, Mickey Rooney—Very good. Did some extra business on this. Played January 27.—B. Hollenbeck, Rose Theatre, Sumas, Wash. General patronage.

STAND UP AND FIGHT: Wallace Beery, Robert Taylor, Florence Rice, Helen Broderick, Barton MacLane—Played Sunday and Monday and it is not a Sunday picture but it still did business. The picture is rough and ready action. Fair story and made, I think, to counteract the critics that Robert Taylor is a matinee idol But he does all right in this one. You get these action pictures on the wrong dates due to our situation, the neighboring city being late on booking my picture, that was originally set for the Sunday date. I wrote the producer that pulled his picture on short notice but that is all the good it did me. But I had the satisfaction of giving him Hades anyway.—A. E. Hancock, Columbia Theatre, Columbia City, Ind. General patronage.

SWEETHEARTS: Jeannette MacDonald, Nelson Eddy, Florence Rice, Frank Morgan, Mischa Auer—Colossal, stupendous, breath-taking beauty, but it failed to pull the business in this situation. Lovers of team's singing certainly got their fill of songs in this one. Too long, too much of everything. It is far from the best of this team's pictures. Running time, 114 minutes. Played January 22-24.—M. R. Harrington, Avalon Theatre, Clatskanie, Ore. Small town and rural patronage.

SWEETHEARTS: Jeanette MacDonald, Nelson Eddy, Florence Rice, Frank Morgan, Mischa Auer—Color added considerable to this picture. Story very weak and too much wrangling on part of cast. They have done better. Running time, 114 minutes. Played February 6-7.—M. W. Mattecheck, Lark Theatre, McMinnville, Ore. Local patronage.

SWEETHEARTS: Jeanette MacDonald, Nelson Eddy, Florence Rice, Frank Morgan, Mischa Auer—A beautiful picture by the number one company again scores a hit with the small town audiences. Words cannot describe this lavish production except to say that it is tops of anything these two have done for us. Running time, 115 minutes.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

SWEETHEARTS: Jeanette MacDonald, Nelson Eddy, Florence Rice, Frank Morgan, Mischa Auer—Rate it A-1. What a sweetheart Jeanette is in color. The music is great and so is the color. It has all that it takes for any audience with the one exception and that is Eddy. When they gave him a voice, they did not give him ease in his acting. It seems to be an effort for him to go through his scenes. Two stiff and seeming a little wooden. The audience rates his voice high but not his acting.—A. E. Hancock, Columbia Theatre, Columbia City, Ind. General patronage.

THREE LOVES HAS NANCY: Janet Gaynor, Robert Montgomery, Franchot Tone—Really is a clever comedy with some of the smartest dialogue that has come this way in some time. Very well liked here. Business only fair, though. Played December 21-22.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Rural and small town patronage.

Monogram

DRIFTING WESTWARD: Jack Randall, Edna Duran—Jack Randall means more to us since he quit singing. Ritter and Autry do enough singing. My crowd likes plenty of fighting and comedy in their westerns. Played February 2.—G. Carey, Strand Theatre, Paris, Ark. General patronage.

SONG OF THE BUCKAROO: Tex Ritter, Jinx Falkenburg—Just made for my crowd. Tex gets better every picture.—G. Carey, Strand Theatre, Paris, Ark. General patronage.

Paramount

ARKANSAS TRAVELER: Bob Burns, Fay Bainter, Irvin S. Cobb, Jean Parker, John Beal—A good picture to above average business. Played January 24-25.—G. Carey, Strand Theatre, Paris, Ark. General patronage.

ARTISTS AND MODELS ABROAD: Jack Benny, Joan Bennett, Mary Boland, Yacht Club Boys—Jack Benny is no good for a lead. Satisfactory as a leading player but not in the top spot. Picture only part satisfactory. Fashion show too extreme. Ordinary people do not wear clothes like the ones shown. Running time, 94 minutes. Played February 3-4.—M. W. Mattecheck, Lark Theatre, McMinnville, Ore. Local patronage.

SAY IT IN FRENCH: Ray Milland, Olympe Bradna—A fine picture with lots of entertainment. Well liked. Very satisfactory reaction. Running time, 67 minutes. Played February 1-2.—M. W. Mattecheck, Lark Theatre, McMinnville, Ore. Local patronage.

TOM SAWYER, DETECTIVE: Donald O'Connor, Robert Kent, June Travis—Another reason why there should be a liberal cancellation in the trade pact, when and if it comes. We have found this season that there are too many pictures from Paramount that are only fit for the weak ends of a double bill, which we do not practice. Hence, we suffer by having to fill our time with pictures that the public walks out on and they are very apt to stay away and get out of the habit of coming.—A. E. Hancock, Columbia Theatre, Columbia City, Ind. General patronage.

TROPIC HOLIDAY: Dorothy Lamour, Ray Milland,

(Continued on following page)

(Continued from preceding page)

Martha Raye, Bob Burns—Personally we liked it. But not a top draw here. Dorothy's singing is too slow and dreary. Needs more snap to get general appeal.—G. Carey, Strand Theatre, Paris, Ark. General Patronage.

ZAZA: Claudette Colbert, Herbert Marshall, Bert Lahr—Should not have been made. Too much sex, and part overplayed badly by Colbert. Not worthy of her. Paramount can surely pick up a lot of poor story material. Running time, 84 minutes. Played February 8.—M. W. Mattecheck, Lark Theatre, McMinnville, Ore. Local patronage.

Republic

PRAIRIE MOON: Gene Autry, Smiley Burnette, Shirley Deane—Another up to the standards of this series. Autry's pictures used to be our best box office bets but lately they have fallen off considerably. Patrons complain they are all the same basic formula. Without Smiley Burnette, I'm afraid they would not be the pictures they are. Running time, 58 minutes. Played January 27-28.—M. R. Harrington, Avalon Theatre, Clatskanie, Ore. Small town and rural patronage.

RHYTHM OF THE SADDLE: Gene Autry, Smiley Burnette—Perfect entertainment. Personally enjoyed it very much. I don't believe Gene is doing quite as well as he used to do But we have no complaints.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

SANTE FE STAMPEDE: Three Mesquiteers (John Wayne, Ray Corrigan, Max Terhune), June Martel—Average western picture which pleased. Played February 11.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

SHINE ON HARVEST MOON: Roy Rogers, Mary Hart—One of his best. Good enough for any Saturday. Republic's westerns are tops; better for us than many of the big specials. Played January 21.—G. Carey, Strand Theatre, Ark. General patronage.

RKO Radio

MAD MISS MANTON: Barbara Stanwyck, Henry Fonda, Frances Mercer, Whitney Bourne—Another of those comedy-mystery affairs that kept the audience laughing from the start to finish. Better than average. Running time, 80 minutes. Played January 20-21.—M. R. Harrington, Avalon Theatre, Clatskanie, Ore. Small town and rural patronage.

MAN TO REMEMBER, A: Edward Ellis, Anne Shirley, Lee Bowman—Not a special but this has got that certain something, something that will cause it to be remembered long after some of the super productions have been forgotten. Edward Ellis gives a superb performance that certainly deserves far more recognition than it will probably receive. Running time, 80 minutes.—M. R. Harrington, Avalon Theatre, Clatskanie, Ore. Small town and rural patronage.

PECK'S BAD BOY AT THE CIRCUS: Tommy Kelly, Ann Gillis, Edgar Kennedy, Spank MacFarland—Nice little program picture with no box office pull except for children. Pleased fairly well but at best it's for the lower half of a double bill. Running time, 68 minutes. Played February 3-4.—M. R. Harrington, Avalon Theatre, Clatskanie, Ore. Small town and rural patronage.

ROOM SERVICE: Marx Brothers, Lucille Ball, the Ann Miller, Frank Albertson—Our customers come to the Movie and pay money to see and hear the Marx Brothers for a very weak show and then go home and hear them over the Radio in a good show for nothing. What are we going to do about this and how are we going to pay top price for such film?—W. H. Brenner, Cozy Theatre, Winchester, Ind. General patronage.

Twentieth Century-Fox

CHARLIE CHAN IN HONOLULU: Sidney Toler, Phyllis Brooks—Average Charlie Chan which failed to draw. Played February 7.—E. M. Freiburger. Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

JESSE JAMES: Tyrone Power, Henry Fonda, Nancy Kelly, Randolph Scott—Excellent picture, which broke all house records. I packed them in three times nightly for two nights. Could have played it longer. Played February 9-10.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

KIDNAPPED: Warner Baxter, Freddie Bartholomew, Arleen Whelan, C. Aubrey Smith—A dismal flop. Sold to us at top allocation; earned less than lowest. Played January 17-18.—G. Carey, Strand Theatre, Paris, Ark. General patronage.

STRAIGHT, PLACE AND SHOW: Ritz Brothers, Richard Arlen, Phyllis Brooks, Ethel Merman—Below average but a good program picture only. Played January 22-23.—G. Carey, Strand Theatre, Paris, Ark. General patronage.

SUEZ: Tyrone Power, Loretta Young, Annabella—Not tops here but sold to me that way. A good way to kill Tyrone Power. Historicals don't mean a thing here.—G. Carey, Strand Theatre, Paris, Ark. General patronage.

THREE MORE JOIN REPORTING CORPS

From three states come new contributors to "What the Picture Did for Me" this week. They are:

R. A. Moore, State theatre, Clarence, Iowa

G. Carey, Strand theatre, Paris, Arkansas

Jack Greene, Geneseo theatre, Geneseo, Illinois

Exhibitors Carey and Greene had reported earlier but the latest report from Mr. Carey appeared in the issue of January 18, 1936, and from Mr. Greene on August 3, 1935.

SUEZ: Tyrone Power, Loretta Young, Annabella—For some reason did not click and did not draw. Some said Power too young for the part.—C. L. Niles, Niles Theatre, Anamosa, Iowa. General patronage.

United Artists

COWBOY AND THE LADY, THE: Gary Cooper, Merle Oberon, Patsy Kelly, David Niven, Thomas Mitchell, Walter Brennan—Pulled fairly well in the face of conditions and patrons certainly liked it in a big way. One of those pictures you are glad to run because you can face your customers both when they enter and leave. Running time, 91 minutes. Played January 29-31.—M. R. Harrington, Avalon Theatre, Clatskanie, Ore. Small town and rural patronage.

DRUMS: Sabu, Raymond Massey, Roger Livesey, Valerie Hobson—Very good color, well made and if your patrons like scenery, this is one of the best. Hardly suitable for small towns. Played it Sunday-Monday, January 29-30.—R. A. Moore, State Theatre, Clarence, Iowa. Rural patronage.

THERE GOES MY HEART: Virginia Bruce, Fredric March, Patsy Kelly, Alan Mowbray, Nancy Carroll, Eugene Pallette—Mid-week showing to mediocre business and indifferent patron acceptance. A good enough little picture but it takes more than just a good enough picture to pull 'em in nowadays. Running time, 84 minutes. Played January 25-26.—M. R. Harrington, Avalon Theatre, Clatskanie, Ore. Small town and rural patronage.

Universal

NEWSBOYS' HOME: Jackie Cooper, "Little Tough Guys," Edmund Lowe, Wendy Barrie—A swell picture that clicked, with top honors to Jackie Cooper. Plenty of action and good any day in the week. Played it Sunday-Monday, February 5-6. Running time, 73 minutes.—R. A. Moore, State Theatre, Clarence, Iowa. Rupral patronage.

SERVICE DE LUXE: Constance Bennett, Vincent Price, Mischa Auer, Charles Ruggles, Helen Broderic, Joy Hodges—One of those pictures where the patron who does stop to comment merely says, "A cute little picture." There you have it, with business just about accordingly. Running time, 85 minutes. Played February 3-4.—M. R. Harrington, Avalon Theatre, Clatskanie, Ore. Small town and rural patronage.

SON OF FRANKENSTEIN, THE: Boris Karloff, Basil Rathbone, Bela Lugosi, Lionel Atwill, Josephine Hutchinson—A very fine show of its kind. Excellent story, cast and direction. Will please all thrill seekers. Business good.—C. L. Niles, Niles Theatre, Anamosa, Iowa. General patronage.

STORM, THE: Charles Bickford, Barton MacLane, Preston Foster, Tom Brown, Nan Grey—Rather indifferent production. No particular pull at box office and patrons' reactions just fair. At best the lower half of a double bill. Running time, 79 minutes. Played January 20-21.—M. R. Harrington, Avalon Theatre, Clatskanie, Ore.—Small town and rural patronage.

Warner Brothers

DAWN PATROL: Errol Flynn, Bazil Rathbone, David Niven, Donald Crisp—Wonderful picture of its kind with plenty of draw. We played it Friday-Saturday. Do not think it is just the type for Sunday, although it will do extra business whenever shown. Running time, 103 minutes. Played February 3-4.—N. E. Frank, Wayland Theatre, Wayland, Mich. Small town patronage.

DEVIL'S ISLAND: Boris Karloff, Nedda Harrigan—Interesting and well produced. But there are some very gruesome shots that did not sit well with the kids and the ladies.—A. E. Hancock, Columbia Theatre, Columbia City, Ind. General patronage.

HARD TO GET: Dick Powell, Olivia de Havilland, Charles Winninger, Allen Jenkins—Cute little comedy, and Miss de Havilland steals the picture from Dick Powell, and how she does it. Just average business. Powell does not pull like he did in former times.—A. E. Hancock, Columbia Theatre, Columbia City, Ind. General patronage.

HEART OF THE NORTH: Dick Foran, Gale Page, Gloria Dickson, Janet Chapman, Allen Jenkins—Not a big picture but a good family type of action story glorified by beautiful color. Arranged an extra good program of shorts and played Sunday to near top business. Shorts used were cartoon, style show in color and "Movements of Charm." Running time, 85 minutes. Played February 6-7.—N. E. Frank, Wayland Theatre, Wayland, Mich. Small town patronage.

NANCY DREW, DETECTIVE: Bonita Granville, John Litel, Frankie Thomas—This series has possibilities; both kids are likeable and go right to the hearts of the audience. Would rather see them in something besides gangster background pictures. Too many gangster stories now. Overdone by a large margin. Running time, 63 minutes.—Jack Greene, Geneseo Theatre, Geneseo, Ill. Small town patronage.

Short Features

Columbia

COMMUNITY SING: No. 8—This one had a lot of old time songs and they really stretched their adam's apples.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

COMMUNITY SING: No. 9—A Spanish sing song; not as popular.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

GYM JAMS: Krazy Kat Cartoons: Not so hot. Running time, seven minutes.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Legonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

MAJOR GOOGLE: Barney Google—Very good color.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

MOTHER HEN'S HOLIDAY: Color Rhapsodies—Just fair. I guess Disney spoils you.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer

ALFALFA'S AUNT: Our Gang—Amusing Our Gang comedy.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

ANAESTHESIA: Pete Smith Specialties—Another good short by Pete Smith. Audience held spellbound bv this treatise on anesthetics. Running time, nine minutes.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

CITY OF LITTLE MEN, THE: MGM Miniatures—Very good one-reeler which is both entertaining and educational.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

FOOTBALL THRILLS OF 1937: Pete Smith Specialties—Will please the men and boys; others doubtful.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

GREAT HEART, THE: MGM Miniatures—Excellent.—C. L. Niles, Niles Theatre, Anamosa, Iowa. General patronage.

MAN'S GREATEST FRIEND: Pete Smith Specialties—Swell. An animal short that is tops. Running time, eight minutes.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

MAN'S GREATEST FRIEND: Pete Smith Specialties—Good one-reeler about dogs.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

MEN OF STEEL: Musical Comedies—Not nearly up to MGM short comedy standard. We have learned to expect something extra from these Metro two-reel comedies. This didn't hardly fill the bill.—Horn and Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Neb. Small town patronage.

NOSTRADAMUS: Historical Mysteries—A good glimpse into the life of a dreamer. But let's see, they said his dreams came true! Will interest most audiences we think.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

ONCE OVER LIGHTLY: Johnny Downs—Very good.—Harold Smith, Dreamland Theatre, Carson, Iowa. Rural patronage.

PASSING PARADE: No. 1—Interesting. Running time, one reel.—Gladys E. McArdle, Owl Theatre, Lebanon, Kansas. Small town patronage.

PENNY'S PICNIC: Prudence Penny—Women will like this reel in color; others maybe.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

PETUNIA NATURAL PARK: Captain and the Kids—The best of these cartoons so far and in color but not up to Metro standard.—C. L. Niles, Niles Theatre, Anamosa, Iowa. General patronage.

SNOW GETS IN YOUR EYES: Musical Comedies—Fairly good musical comedy. Seemed to please. Running time, 19 minutes.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

SNOW GETS IN YOUR EYES: Musical Comedies—Good musical.—Harold Smith, Dreamland Theatre, Carson, Iowa. Rural patronage.

STREAMLINE SWING: MGM Miniatures—Not much entertainment in this one. Wish Leo would make more real comedies and not so many shorts. Doesn't he know people want to laugh, not be educated. Running time, one reel.—Gladys E. McArdle, Owl Theatre, Lebanon, Kansas. Small town patronage.

TRACKING THE SLEEPING DEATH: MGM Miniatures—A very fine subject that holds interest.—A. N. Beezley, New Grand Theatre, Littleton, Col. Suburban and rural patronage.

WINNING TICKET, THE: Captain and the Kids—Got laughs from the kids and that is all that is asked. Just fair. Running time, six minutes.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

WINNING TICKET, THE: Captain and the Kids—The best in this series that I have seen.—A. N. Beezley, New Grand Theatre, Littleton, Col. Suburban and rural patronage.

Paramount

GUATEMALA: Color Cruises—Okay but not for the day we were forced to use it, due to substitution. Fair color.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

HAL KEMP AND HIS ORCHESTRA: Headliners—Very excellent.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

HOLD YOUR BREATH: Grantland Rice Sportlights—Fairly good one-reeler on swimming under water.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

LAND OF INCA MEMORIES: Color Cruises—A very fine colored travel reel, and timely.—C. L. Niles, Niles Theatre, Anamosa, Iowa. General patronage.

LET'S CELEBRAKE: Popeye the Sailor—One of the best Popeyes to date. Do that sailor and grandma step! Wow! This one brought continual rolls of laughter which didn't die away until several minutes after the picture was over. Running time, seven minutes.—J. A. Reynolds, Director of Recreation, Prison Theatre, State Prison, Trenton, N. J. Prison patronage.

MOMENTS OF CHARM: Headliners—Phil Spitalny's all-girl orchestra in a color musical reel, playing several numbers in an extremely popular style. Orchestra good, color good, recording good, result: the most liked and talked about short we ever played. Let's have more, Paramount. Running time, 10 minutes.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

MOMENTS OF CHARM: Phil Spitalny and His All Girl Orchestra—One of the finest short subjects we have ever shown. Some remarked that this alone was worth the price of admission. Running time, 10 minutes.—N. E. Frank, Wayland Theatre, Wayland, Mich. Small town patronage.

PARAMOUNT PICTORIAL: No. 2—Only fair. Running time, nine minutes.—P. G. Held, New Strand Theatre, Griswold, Iowa. General patronage.

PARAMOUNT PICTORIAL: No. 4—Just a filler.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

PLAYFUL POLAR BEARS: Color Classics—A very good cartoon in color that should be enjoyed by all, young and old alike. Running time, eight minutes.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

POPULAR SCIENCE: No. 5—A very interesting reel and good filler.—C. L. Niles, Niles Theatre, Anamosa, Iowa. General patronage.

POPULAR SCIENCE: No. 6—Always good and this one is no exception. Running time, seven minutes.—A. J. Inks, Crystal Theatre, Ligonier, Ind. Small town patronage.

RAISING CANINES: Paragraphics—How to train your dog to do tricks. Entertaining.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

RAISING CANINES: Paragraphics—Good of its kind.—P. G. Held, New Strand Theatre, Griswold, Iowa. General patronage.

SONG IS BORN, A: Headliners—A very weak sister. Orchestra good. Singers bad and used twice. Leave it in the can.—C. L. Niles, Niles Theatre, Anamosa, Iowa. General patronage.

RKO Radio

DONALD'S GOLF GAME: Walt Disney Cartoons—Very good. Donald always pleases.—Harold Smith, Dreamland Theatre, Carson, Iowa. Rural patronage.

FARMYARD SYMPHONY: Walt Disney Cartoons—A surprisingly good cartoon. Didn't expect much from the title.—A. N. Beezley, New Grand Theatre, Littleton, Col. Suburban and rural patronage.

FARMYARD SYMPHONY: Walt Disney Cartoons—Highly entertaining and cleverly done.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

FERDINAND THE BULL: Walt Disney Cartoons—This is box office cartooning and darned clever, if very simple. Everyone happy to see it.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

GOOD SCOUTS: Walt Disney Cartoon—Good audience reaction and has more B.O. appeal than plenty of features that I know of.—A. N. Beezley, New Grand Theatre, Littleton, Col. Suburban and rural patronage.

HAWAIIAN HOLIDAY: Walt Disney Cartoons—Excellent. The best color cartoon series put out today and, of course, the most popular cartoon stars in the world. It's a Walt Disney picture, of course. Running time, eight minutes.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

HECTIC HONEYMOON: Radio Flash Comedies—Cleverly worked out comedy. Good.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

MICKEY'S PARROT: Walt Disney Cartoons—These Disneys are not getting better. We like the Merrie Melodies just as good and they don't cost as much. Running time, seven minutes.—P. G. Held, New Strand Theatre, Griswold, Iowa. General patronage.

PICKETING FOR LOVE: Headliner—Exceptionally good two-reel musical comedy. Joe Morrison is a fine singer. Remember him in Paramount's "Love in Bloom"? "Harris in Spring" and "Music will Tell" and "Twenty Girls and a Band" are other releases of this series. All are very fine. Play them all. Running time, 19 minutes.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

SEA MELODY: Ted Fio Rito and His Orchestra—A crackerjack musical two-reeler. Ted Fio Rito and Orchestra are okay.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

SEA MELODY: Ted Fio Rito—Have played some good musical comedies ("Harris in the Spring," etc.) but this one goes way over anything yet to come this way. Exceptional fine orchestration, singing and comedy. I never liked "Celito Lindo" until Fio Rito played it in this. Ran it once extra for myself to hear this gang play and sing "Josephine." At least two-thirds of the audience, and a big one, too, stayed to see it again both nights. It drew extra business on second night, too. Don't fail to play it. It's a honey. Running time, 20½ minutes.—R. D. Fisher, Cozy Theatre, Cabool, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

Universal

BABY KITTENS: Lantz Cartunes—A very good black and white cartoon about the kittens and the dog.—C. L. Niles, Niles Theatre, Anamosa, Iowa. General patronage.

DISOBEDIENT MOUSE: Lantz Cartunes—A clever black and white cartoon.—C. L. Niles, Niles Theatre, Anamosa, Iowa. General patronage.

Vitaphone

FEUD THERE WAS, A: Merrie Melodies—Vitaphone colored cartoons are usually very good and this one was no exception.—A. B. Jefferis, Piedmont Theatre, Piedmont, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

FEUD THERE WAS, A: Merrie Melodies—A very entertaining cartoon in color showing the feuds that go on out in the timberlands in a risque and humorour style. Running time, eight minutes.—Pearce Parkhurst, State Theatre, Torrington, Conn. General patronage.

HAVE YOU GOT ANY CASTLES: Merrie Melodies—Very good color cartoon.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

JOHNNY SMITH AND POKER HUNTAS: Merrie Melodies—One of the funniest cartoons we have screened.—A. B. Jefferis, Piedmont Theatre, Piedmont, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

JUGGLING FOOL, THE: Vitaphone Varieties—Just as good a juggling picture as you could wish. Our patrons enjoyed it immensely. Running time, 7 minutes.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ont., Canada. General patronage.

KATNIP KOLLEGE: Merrie Melodies—Good color cartoon.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

MURDER WITH RESERVATIONS: Broadway Brevities—A dandy subject in spite of the fact we got it in substitution. Will please anywhere.—L. A. Irwin, Palace Theatre, Penacook, N. H. General patronage.

Serial

Universal

RED BARRY: Buster Crabbe, Frances Robinson—Just finished this and it did not stand up like the other Universal serials have done. Patronage dropped off with each episode. Our patrons like their serials with cowboy hats, horses and 45's.—A. B. Jefferis, Piedmont Theatre, Piedmont, Mo. Small town and rural patronage.

WANT FILMS "Johnny-on-the-Spot"?

Films shot A. M., screened P. M. many miles away? Easy! Just ship them by AIR EXPRESS—3-mile-a-minute service with day and night deliveries. Smart exhibitors jump box-office receipts with newsreels flown "hot from the spot." Low cost, high returns. Direct super-speed service to 232 key cities in United States and Canada. Fast air-rail connections to off-airline points. Also to Latin America, Hawaii and Far East.

FREE booklet, "How to Profit with Air Express" tells how you can use Air Express for bigger profits. Write Dept. 8, Air Express Division, Railway Express Agency, 230 Park Avenue, New York, N. Y.

AIR EXPRESS

AIR EXPRESS DIVISION RAILWAY EXPRESS AGENCY, INC.

Strike Up the Band!

—Here Comes Your Baby

Full of zip...pep...dash and doing!...the National Screen Trailer running in advance of your show!

Seen...heard...entertaining...carrying conviction to seat buyers while they're in the mood. The only advertising combining sight...sound...voice and the printed word! Action on your screen. Samples of what the picture is about.

And how low in cost! How complete in coverage! How unique in appeal! How real a ticket-seller!

Big merchants...national advertisers would grab your screen in a minute. You've got it! Use it to the best advantage with National Screen Trailers by NATIONAL Screen SERVICE ...Prize Baby of the Industry!

MANAGERS' ROUND TABLE

An international association of showmen meeting weekly in MOTION PICTURE HERALD for mutual aid and progress

A-MIKE VOGEL, Chairman and Editor
GERTRUDE MERRIAM, Associate Editor

NOT IMPOSSIBLE

There is no city ordinance that requires the Mayor to proclaim a "week" in behalf of a motion picture; that assures permission of the city council for street decoration to advertise an attraction. No theatre license includes any right to call upon leading local organizations for strategic tieins. Yet such civic cooperations and others as important are brought about frequently, as these pages bear evidence. How are they accomplished? Surely, they just don't happen.

The answer is, of course, the theatreman. Through his personal contacts alone are effected the civic endorsement, store tiein, unusual publicity, or what have you. No circuit influence counts here. Nor do other outside factors. In the final countup, it's how well the manager stands locally and how he uses this stand-in to benefit the theatre.

∽ ∽

Some months back, George Limerick was promoted to the post of Griffiths' City Manager, in Enid, Oklahoma. Far from his old territory, Limerick was a stranger in a strange land. But not for long. As an example of how a level-headed theatreman goes about the imperative job of selling himself and, by the same token, his situation to the local leaders, the Enid Daily Eagle had this to say about George in its widely read "The Male Viewpoint" column, of a recent issue:

"As soon as he had located his place of business, he started making contacts. Within a short time he was enrolled as a member of the Rotary Club. Soon he was attending every open meeting he could learn about. He went as a guest to other civic clubs, committee meetings, social gatherings. At these sessions he met the leads of Enid. He not only met them but he remembered them. Seldom has a man come to Enid who has shown such determination to make himself an important cog in community affairs.

"Too little personal attenion has been given newcomers to Enid. They've been left more or less to shift for themselves. But here's one who wouldn't have it that way. He has gone out and made his own way."

This editorial is not meant particularly for any laudation of Limerick nor the many like him doing a similarly consistent and constructive job. The instance is set down in detail for the assurance of members who regard such comprehensive contacts as far beyond their abilities.

FINDS ITS OWN LEVEL

Moon Corker was awarded the Silver Plaque in the final quarter of the 1938 Awards for the best showmanship in Class "D". Now comes an announcement that the theatres under the Lucas & Jenkins city manager in Athens, Ga., win the first prize in the circuit's recent business drive. E. V. Dinerman, RKO Cincinnati district ad head, took down the Class "A" Silver Plaque in the final 1938 Quarter. "Dinny" also has been named as the first prize winner in Group One of the MPGY contest.

Though different judges have considered the same entries in the various contests, keen minds have been in accord in selecting Corker and Dinerman for the top honors. There's nothing unusual about that. Showmanship, like water, has the habit of seeking its own level.

△ △ △

DON'T HELP THE BOXOFFICE

A second-run situation in an Illinois city charges 20 cents for matinees. Recently, the first-run competition reduced first-hour matinee prices to the same figure. In return, the second-run started a "1–2–3 Free Matinee Club", issued cards to be punched three times, the fourth matinee on the house. The reason for the offer is to retain business without reducing prices accordingly.

For the purpose intended, the club idea may be a weighty one in the local fight for business, and the member who reports it, justified in so defending himself. But whatever the outcome, it is to be doubted whether any slicing of admission will bring permanent benefits to either side.

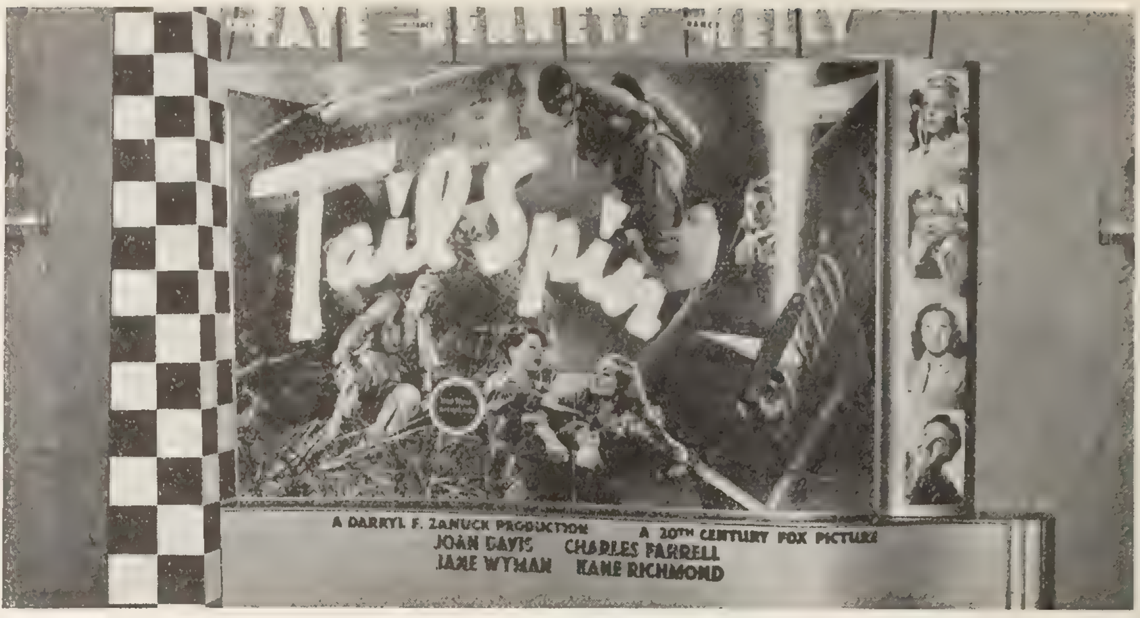
Price wars have yet to win lasting boxoffice victories.

△ △ △

Considering how much has been said and printed on the influence of the motion picture on world peace and thought, Glenn Franke might take an extra bow for his graphic delineation of the subject in the cartoon on a following page.

A-Mike Vogel

Conceived by Homer Harman, New York Roxy ad head, was the "Tail Spin" display shown at right. Setpiece had a burning effect of the plane with flasher lights back of the "remarks" panel. Title of picture was done in transparent lights, as were the 11 by 14 enlargements on the right panel.



Tail Spin
A DARRYL F. ZANUCK PRODUCTION
A 20TH CENTURY FOX PICTURE
JOAN DAVIS
CHARLES FARRELL
JANE WYMAN
KANE RICHMOND

At left is Helen Eager, motion picture editor of the Boston Traveler, talking with Jeanette MacDonald, recently selected as the new "Movie Queen for 1939". Seated are Joe DiPesa, Loew's Boston publicist; Fred Greenway, manager of Loew's State, and George A. Jones of the Orpheum listening in. Long distance call brought five-column art layout in the cooperating paper, together with stories to publicize the opening of "Sweethearts".

DIRTY FACES
CAGNEY O'BRIEN
ANGELS WITH DIRTY FACES
DOWN ON THE FARM

Atmospheric lobby display with man seated in an electric chair was planted in the lobby of the Maspeth Theatre, Maspeth, L. I., for "Angels with Dirty Faces". Red bulb on blinker in hood of chair provided animation. That's Manager Joe Sirkin standing at the right, with his assistant, Seymour Perlmutter, at left.

Sixteenth century Indian tribesman armor, valued at $5,000, was borrowed from a prominent Bridgeport collector by Matt Saunders, Loew's Poli, for lobby display in advance and during run of "Gunga Din". Model of the U.S.S. Dolphin, on which Rudyard Kipling cruised during visit to the United States, was also featured.

SON OF FRANKENSTEIN
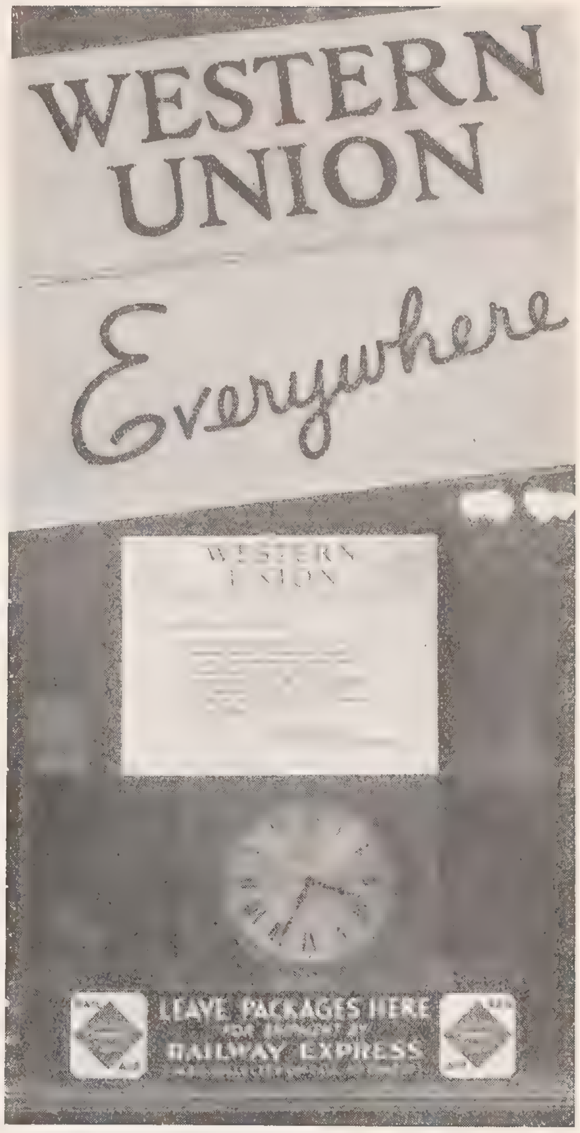
KEITH'S

That's Manager H. H. Unterfort, Keith Theatre, Syracuse, N. Y., extending congratulations to his usher, Robert Wooldridge, on the plaster head he made of the monster in "Son of Frankenstein". Head was placed in a glass case with picture, theatre and playdate card attached. Local dailies came through with art work and stories on the cast.

Round Table in Pictures



WESTERN UNION
Everywhere
WESTERN UNION
LEAVE PACKAGES HERE RAILWAY EXPRESS

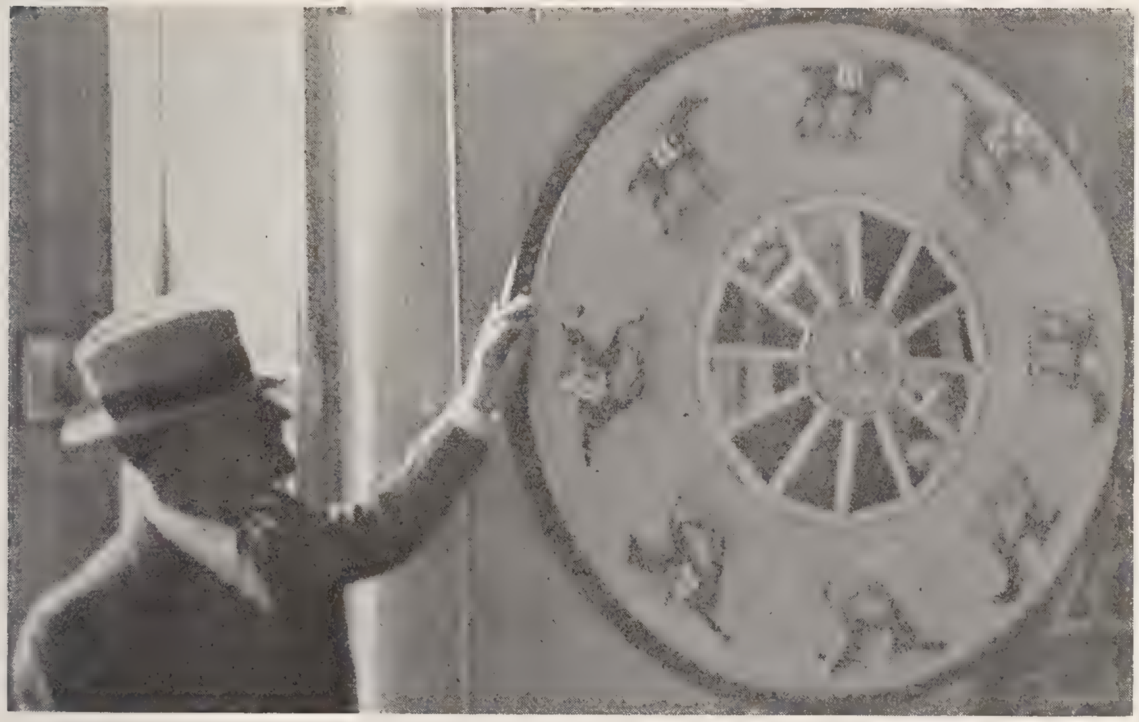
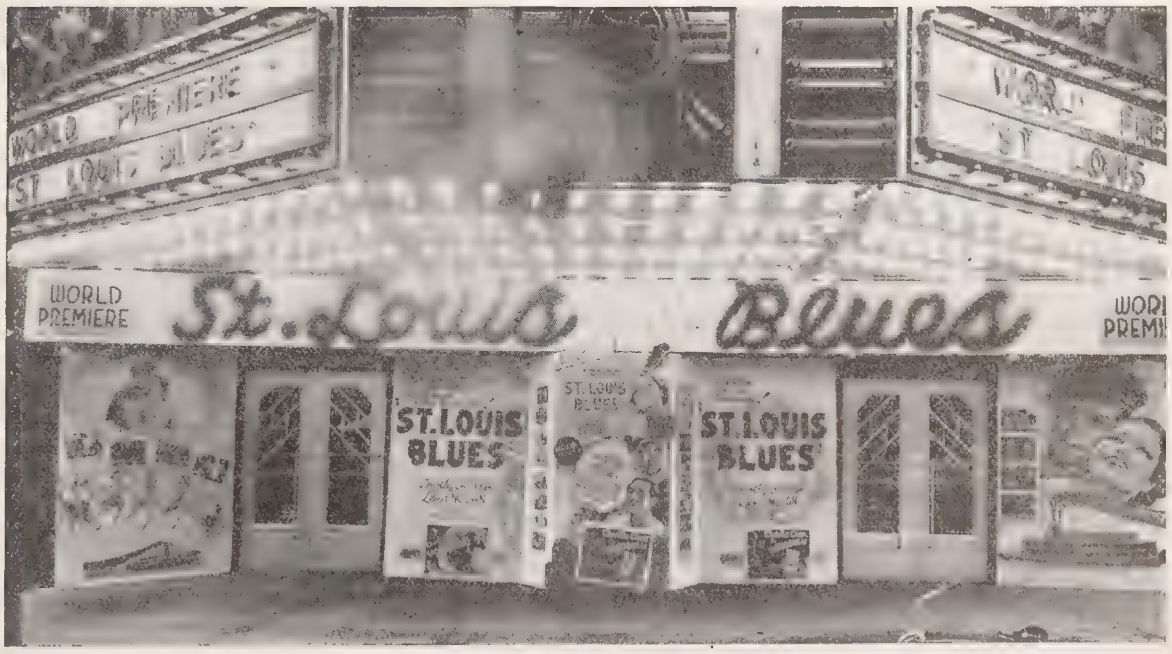
Above is photo of one of the 22 windows of Western Union in an exclusive tieup with that company, as well as Postal Telegraph, in arrangement to solicit sales for the "Pygmalion" premiere. Miniature telegrams bearing the same message were also inserted in envelopes carrying wires. Entire stunt was an exclusive conceived and arranged by Milt Harris, director of publicity for the Loew Cleveland Theatres.



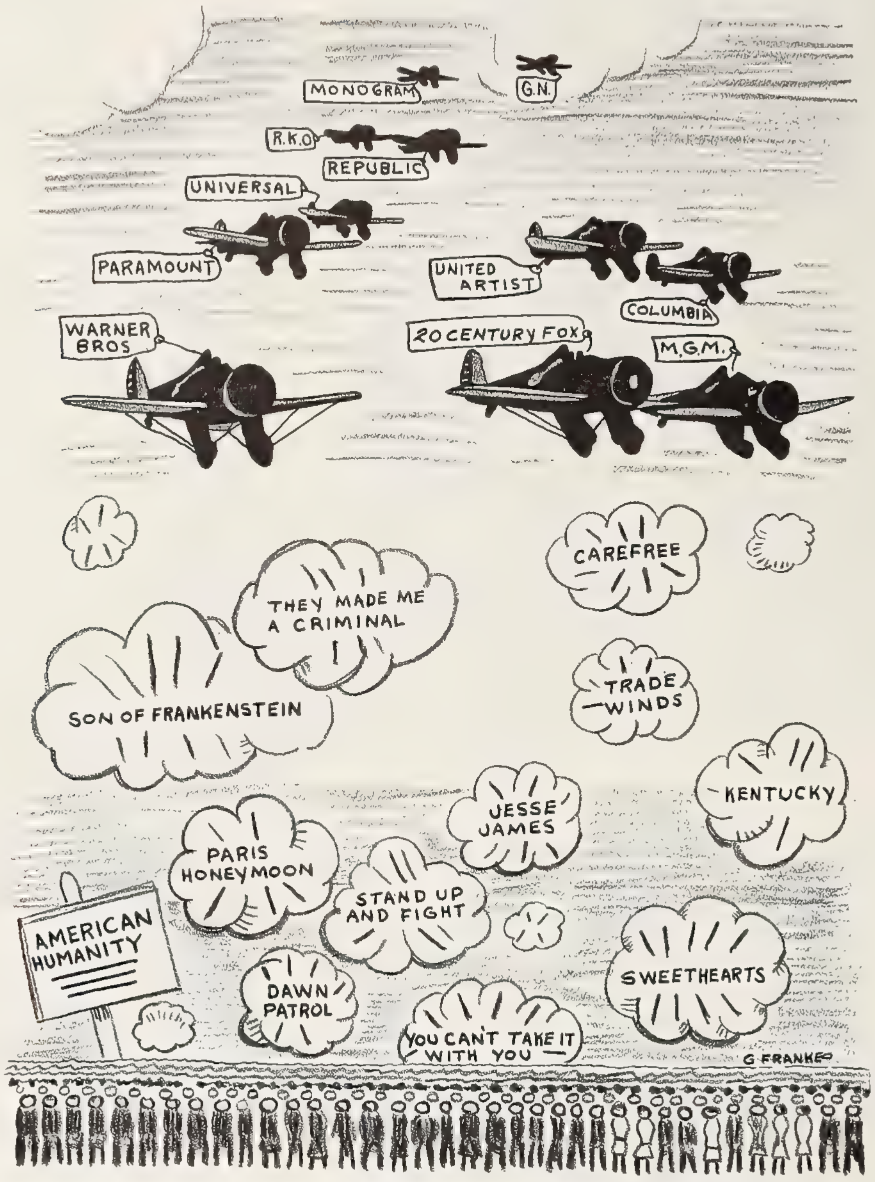
Miniature race track on spin wheel was planted out front of United Artists' Theatre, Los Angeles, by Tom Soriero for "Kentucky". To those hitting "Blue Grass", so dubbed for star in picture, guest tickets were awarded. Hitting it twice in succession, $10 cash prize was offered.



WORLD PREMIERE
ST. LOUIS BLUES
WORLD PREMIERE
St. Louis Blues
ST. LOUIS BLUES
ST. LOUIS BLUES

Eye-arresting front was constructed for "St. Louis Blues" at the Capitol, Burlington, Ia. Manager Harold B. Lyon reports that artist, E. Gilbert, produced an excellent effect using air brush to striking advantage.

SHOWMEN'S LOBBY LAFFS



This cartoon from the brush of Glenn Franke, Cheviot, O.

Americanism Program Inaugurated by Ayer

Concocting what he chose to call an Americanism program, Ralph Ayer, Ute Theatre, Colorado Springs, Colo., presented the idea of a special program to schools consisting of Metro's "Servant of the People" and Paramount's "Star Spangled Banner." Junior and senior high schools in relays of 1,100 each attended, presenting his program at nine, ten, eleven and twelve. This gave Ayer sufficient time to clear the house after each showing.

The schools set the date themselves, exchanges cooperated and the theatreman says in addition to playing to approximately 4,000 school children the goodwill of the school authorities was secured. A minimum of publicity was used, but the local daily came through with a feature article on the show.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Issues Special Section

For the recent opening of E. M. Loew's Mohawk Theatre, North Adams, Mass., manager B. Payne got out a special five-page section as part of the North Adams Transcript. Front page carried cut of Elias Loew, owner and Mayor Francis J. O'Hara together with special message from each. Inside spreads included photos of various sections of the house, in addition to congratulatory ads from leading merchants.

Military Academy Ties In On "Duke of West Point"

For a reported first time in its history, St. John's Military Academy, Delafield, Wis. third largest military academy in the country, lent its prestige to the exploitation of "Duke of West Point," when Harry MacDonald of Warners', Milwaukee, arranged for the entire student body with school band to attend a special showing of the picture.

Arriving by train, the cadets, headed by Col. Roy Farrand, president of the Academy, marched in formation through downtown Milwaukee to the theatre with motorcycle police escort. School band led the marchers, an unusual cooperative note was struck with the boys carrying a banner announcing they were on their way to see the film.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Comprehensive Pressbook For "Lone Star Ranger"

Republic's ad department under Al Adams has turned out an unusually comprehensive pressbook for a serial, "The Lone Star Ranger Rides Again." Headed by complete list of newspapers in which strip appears and listing of regular stations carrying the program, book stresses some eight pages of national tieups and accessories.

Ads and publicity to fit various situations are also emphasized. Different sections are tabbed for easy guidance.

City Cooperates On "Lincoln" Date

Since most of the subject matter in the Warner technicolor short, "Lincoln in the White House," is devoted to Gettysburg, Manager Irving Mirish of the Majestic in that spot executed a comprehensive campaign for his date, starting ten days ahead. Special preview to some dozen or more local educators, club heads, legislators and other prominents brought an unusual amount of newspaper publicity for a film subject of this nature. In addition, the Commander of the Pennsylvania National Guard was prevailed upon to speak from the stage on the evening of the first showing. This also was mentioned prominently in the press.

Hundreds of school teachers in local intitutions in surrounding towns were informed of the booking through a special letter. This was followed by heralds distributed over the entire area. Extra advertising was taken in high school and college papers.

By special permission of the civic officials, Mirish was able to borrow the town's flags for street decorations, theatre marquee was similarly bannered. Street parade on opening night marched through the town in units composed of American Legion, Boy Scouts and other local organizations, headed by three bands, banners carried in the parade announced the event.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

"Did It with Mirrors," Announces Lou Hart

Worked along the same lines as the Kute Kris Kringle display featured this past Christmas, Lou Hart, Schine's Hippodrome, Gloversville, conceived the idea of applying it to his date on "The Terror of Tiny Town." Contacting Montgomery-Ward, large window was secured and covered almost entirely with "frost." Closed off from view from any part of the store, a youngster dressed in cowboy suit with bull whip, lariat and mask were planted. Loud speaker was rigged up and during peak hours boy sang and played a guitar. Worked with mirrors, the boy and the setting looked no larger than three feet.

So great a traffic-stopper did this prove to be that special guards were stationed out front to see that no one went through the window. Lou reports that Montgomery-Ward was so satisfied that they carried an ad each day during runs to plug the stunt, which, incidentally, received a Fortnighter Appointment in the first two-week Preliminary.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

"Refugee" Gets Preview

Sonny Shepherd's exploitation campaign on March of Time's "The Refugee—Today and Tomorrow" included the film previewing the film for Walter Winchell at the Lincoln Theatre, Miami, Fla. Winchell's syndicated column the following day carried a story on the release. Shepherd also arranged previews for news and editorial writers, obtained editorials in Miami papers, urging all Miamians to attend the theatre during showing.

Theatre Celebrates 100th Anniversary

The 100th birthday of the Savannah Theatre, Savannah, Ga., was recently observed by Manager Fred G. Weis, the celebration also marking the 50th consecutive year in which his family has been identified with the operation of the house. A perpetual charter was granted the theatre company in 1838 and the original seal still in use was emphasized in the campaign to announce the century mark.

The observance included a strong newspaper campaign based on the theatre's background and history. In addition to generous publicity in the local press, which included interview with couple who had attended theatre 50 years ago, Weis called attention to the birthday with a special program and elaborate souvenirs to all patrons.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Scott Ties Johnson Visit To "Jesse James" Opening

When Nunnally Johnson visited his home town of Columbus, Ga., Manager E. M. Scott of the L & J Grand found many difficulties in his way of obtaining a pre-release date on "Jesse James" to celebrate the visit and also in persuading the 20th Century-Fox producer of the picture to promise an appearance at the opening. After many complications and on but two days' notice Manager Scott was able to set in the date and immediately launched a newspaper campaign in keeping.

Distinctly out of the ordinary were a number of page one breaks secured by the Round Tabler when it became known he had persuaded the producer to make a personal appearance. Advance stories of the detailed program were given much space from the time of his arrival and during the rest of his stay. Social events surrounding the home-town boy were widely reported, all carrying generous mention of the picture and date. Scott pegged all his newspaper ads to the "welcome" theme and finished up with a typical Hollywood premiere which was one of the highlights in the very thorough drive that earned him his Fortnighter Appointment.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Special Radio Tieup Sells "Wings of Navy"

Radio advertising tied to a score of first-run theatres in day and date openings of "Wings of the Navy" was used cooperatively throughout the entire Michigan territory in an arrangement effected by Mort Blumenstock, Eastern advertising and publicity manager for Warners', with United Detroit Theatres and E. C. Beatty and J. Oliver Brooks of the Butterfield Circuit in Michigan.

Plan provided for a half-hour program in which comedy highlights from the story were enacted, script designed to arouse listener curiosity without revealing climaxes. Program was broadcast by WXYZ, WWJ and WJR in advance of the opening of the picture at the Michigan Theatre. Each of the theatres ran trailers week ahead announcing the broadcast.

WOLF DON'T KEEP 'EM AWAY FROM BOXOFFICE

Famed Northwest trapper and his wild wolf team, enroute to the Boston and New York Sportsman Shows, stopping off in Sudbury, Canada, between trains, found himself and animals cajoled into a personal appearance by Sid Scott, at the Capitol. With little time to lose for the one-show date, Scott hit the radio with spot announcements and blanketed the front of the house with smash posters. Strong advance job for the quick booking filled the theatre to capacity.

"If there's a wolf at your door, well, put him on the stage and jam the house," says Sid. He might also bring you a Fortnighter Appointment, as the stunt did for the F.P.-C. theatreman.

Sirkin Breaks Records For Unique Lobby Display

In order not to slight either of his attractions, Joe Sirkin, Maspeth Theatre, Maspeth, L. I., created a novel lobby display. Gathering a few hundred victrola records together, Joe piled them all around the display board, some of them were suspended by wire from above to give the illusion of the records falling and broken ones were planted at base. The tiein line was "the show that breaks all records for laughs," with a three-sheet on each feature.

Concealed on top of the display was a speaker that was hooked up to an electric victrola in the boxoffice and from there the cashier played an old laugh record over and over.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Newsboys Aid "Penitentiary"

Newsboys of Paisley, Scotland, carried banners plugging Walter Hinks' opening of "Penitentiary" at the New Alex Cinema, "scare" copy indicating that a convict had escaped proved to be the attention-attractor Hinks had hoped for. In addition to his usual weekly publicity, numerous window displays were secured, large illuminated art streamers were used on his marquee and special preview was arranged for, letters of invitation going to list of local prominents.

STOPS TICKET SALE AT PICTURE CLIMAX

Seeking about for an inexpensive idea which would impress patrons attending a subsequent-run date on "Angels with Dirty Faces" at the Granada, New York City, Manager Martin Wurtzburg emphasized the climax of the picture by advertising no tickets would be sold during the electrocution sequence. No patrons were seated during the same period.

Novelty of the idea had the folks talking and was found good enough for some special publicity in the neighborhood weeklies.

Top Promotions Aid "Gunga Din"

Over 350 public, high and technical schools in Detroit were covered in advance of the local date on "Gunga Din" as a result of the special screening held for the superintendent of schools, other educators and local prominents. Another screening reported to have brought further assistance was given for the British Consul, who gave direct publicity where it would do the most good to the American Legion, Daughters of the British Empire and other British societies in that area. Kiltie band playing in front of the theatre on opening night shared the spotlight with a display of old-time artillery pieces promoted from Fort Wayne.

In New Orleans and Nashville, cooperation and endorsement from important personages and organizations were derived through addresses to schools, Kiwanis Clubs, etc. Nashville campaign, including jumbo cards on street cars and large banners were played in downtown section.

Honor Heroes in Boston

Four-day newspaper contest to find ten unsung heroes or heroines was staged for the Boston run of "Gunga Din" at the RKO Keith Memorial. Each winner received a solid silver medal and was written up in the Boston Traveler. Each night's showing was in honor of a particular hero. Colleges and schools within a 25-mile radius were contacted, libraries used bookmarks and one-sheets posted. Contest was arranged by Jack Granara, publicist of the RKO Theatres there.

Mammouth sign painted in soft coal dust over snow capped mountains in Denver drew attention to opening of "Gunga Din" at the Orpheum. Sign was seen by thousands of automobilists, skiers and tobogganers as they made their way to and from the mountains.

Manager Mickey Gross, aided by Ted Halmi, publicity director, contacted the Boy Scout organization and sent special letter to scout masters. Handbills were distributed to all members through the Highlander Boys organization and stills displayed on armory and canteen bulletin boards.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Ties "Devil's Island" To Escaped Convicts

J. H. Luter, Rex, Miami for "Devil's Island" used a special teaser trailer advantageously spliced into the newsreel a week in advance in conjunction with a news clip showing six fugitives from Devil's Island being deported from England.

Special display was used in lobby showing stills of Karloff being sent to Devil's Island, cards were planted in street cars, store windows, etc. Circulars in the form of booklets with copy on cover reading "here is the only method of escape from Devil's Island" were distributed. On opening leaflet a photograph of a guillotine was shown.

Newsboys in a downtown district wore imprinted aprons plugging the picture and highly effective was theatre front which was converted into a prison effect.

MORE EXPRESSIONS ON AWARDS POLICY

REX WILLIAMS

Manager, Hoosier
Whiting, Ind.

First let me congratulate you on the new Awards setup for 1939. Especially for the elimination of classifications. A good showman is not afraid of competition and certainly should not expect things made easier for him by confining his opposition to a certain group. I have always maintained that an idea is as good in Podunk as in New York.

I think your idea of speeding up the competitions a good one. Trying to compile a book for an entire quarter is a job. The single idea angle should get much more reaction from the boys in the field.

LARRY GRABURN

Manager, Capitol
Halifax, N. S.

The plan which you have put into effect for 1939 certainly seems to be the best scheme yet devised. I know from my own experiences that while many managers had some outstanding stunts for the selling of one attraction, they did not consider that they had sufficient to compete against a widespread and thorough campaign.

I feel sure that 1939 is going to be the biggest year yet for the managers who contribute to the pages of the Round Table, and for those who get ideas therefrom.

PEARCE PARKHURST

Manager, State
Torrington, Conn.

Your 1939 Awards plan is very good and it will allow a man to go to town on one particular stunt. I give my most hearty endorsement to your new setup on Awards and look forward to winning several Awards in the 1939 campaign.

BOB FULTON

Manager, Paramount
Waterloo, Iowa

I join the many other managers in congratulating you on the great success of the Quigley Awards of the past year of 1938, and I, too, am one of the many who are pleased to note that you are continuing this great idea in 1939. I am sincere when I say that I believe these Awards stimulate the efforts of managers to create more outstanding publicity and tieups pertaining to their motion pictures, and I am heartily in agreement with the idea behind the Awards for 1939, which should aid materially in the further promotion of this grand plan.

BILL SPARR

Manager, Grand Valley
Detroit, Mich.

Allow me please, to add my congratulations to the Managers' Round Table for another grand step in the right direction. The new arrangements for the judging of the Quigley Awards promotes effort on the part of the members to submit "box office" ideas only. It's what we have been needing for a long time.

'Jesse James' Gang Stole the Picture

Staging a "daring" daylight stage coach holdup in which bandits made off with the print of "Jesse James" was the stunt engineered by Jack Simons, Loew's Poli, Hartford, selected recently for one of the first Fortnighter Appointments.

Through tieup with dramatic editor of the Times, advance story was run to the effect that the print was going to be delivered to the theatre on opening day by stage coach. Opening day the coach was placed in front of depot awaiting train's arrival, large sign on back proclaiming that coach was delivering print to the theatre. Plastered on the coach in addition were the $5,000 reward posters.

Removed from the scene, a band of costumed riders on horseback, among them "Jesse James," lay in waiting. In slow-moving line the coach wended its way to the theatre, when, without warning, James and his band darted out of a side street, surrounded the coach, caused everyone to get out and raise their hands while Jesse reached inside, snatched the can of film, and made off with it in the opposite direction. All policemen along the line were tipped off beforehand. Crowds followed from all directions and at the theatre the bandit turned the film over to an attendant.

Newsies Distribute Tabloids

Timed for about a minute after James and his band got away and while the crowds gathered, boys appeared on the scene yelling "Extra, Jesse James captured, now at Loew's Poli," and distributed imprinted tabloids to bystanders. While the first group was busy handing out the papers, second group, also in costumes, appeared, and to arouse feminine interest in the picture, presented the fair sex with imprinted handkerchiefs reading, "It will stir your emotions and bring tears to your eyes when you see the pulsating love romance in," etc., etc. Local reporters covered the entire "holdup" and so much excitement was aroused that the dailies gave the entire story page-one prominence, an unusual break in the usually conservative Hartford press.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Ties "Heart of North" To Valentine's Day

Playing "Heart of the North" on Valentine's Day, Lige Brien, Prince, Ambridge, Penna. utilized the press sheets to good advantage. Cutting out the front cover in heart shape, Lige imprinted his theatre name and playdates and distributed them to young folks at local dance day ahead of opening.

For "Submarine Patrol," publishers were contacted for book covers of the novel and these too were imprinted and handed out to school children; posters were also planted in circulating libraries.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Candid Camera Contest

Playing "Sharpshooters," a picture depicting lives of cameramen, Alfred Simon, Inwood Theatre, Forest Hills, L. I., tied it up with a candid camera contest for aspiring photographers. Entries were on display in lobby ahead and during run and guest tickets were awarded to winners.

EXPLOITATION BRIEFS FROM HERE AND THERE

Entire mailing list was circularized by Wally Caldwell, Loew's Valentine, Toledo in advance of "Young Dr. Kildaire." Government postcards were mailed, reverse side carrying personal endorsement.

▽

Rochester Evening News cooperated with Art Krolick at the subsequent run Regent, Rochester, N. Y. by running a series of six pictorial serializations of "Kentucky." Series started opening day and helped build grosses, reports Krolick.

▽

To build up interest in his "Hawk of the Wilderness" serial, Carl Moore, Ohio Theatre, Van Wert secured cooperation of local merchants who donated weekly prizes in connection with a quiz contest. Heralds were distributed to children, and to those correctly answering two questions each week prizes were awarded.

▽

In connection with "Scouts to the Rescue." Louie Liss, National, Brooklyn secured cooperation of local scout troop for a signaling demonstration in lobby. Lad in attendance of booth during entire run, invited juveniles to join the organization.

▽

Fleet of buses, through the efforts of C. R. Glenn, Paramount, Bristol, Tenn. were bannered with "Sweetheart" publicity as building on that picture. Special imprinted love bird cutouts were hung about lobby as were 24 sheets.

▽

Classified ad contest helped Ted Shank sell his "Kentucky" date at Schine's Piqua, Piqua, Ohio. List of questions were run, answers to which were scattered throughout classified ad page, to those submitting correct list, guest tickets were awarded.

▽

Playing "The Citadel" just as it was acclaimed by the New York critics as the best film of the year, Sam Warshauer, Pelham, Bronx, N. Y. displayed the announcement prominently in his lobby. Through cooperation of local book store, copies of the novel were awarded in connection with a contest. Bookmarks were distributed, medical men circularized and newsboys aided.

▽

Co-op page containing misspelled words in merchants' ads was promoted for "Cowboy and the Lady" by R. S. Helson, Dickinson, Herington, Kan., guest tickets going to winners. Also promoted was front page break with story and scene mat.

▽

"Child Personality Contest" which resulted in reported good will was put over by John Ball, director of publicity, Oil City Theatre Company, Oil City, Pa. Paper sponsoring the stunt came through with a special section devoted to entrants' photos and urging readers to enter their children.

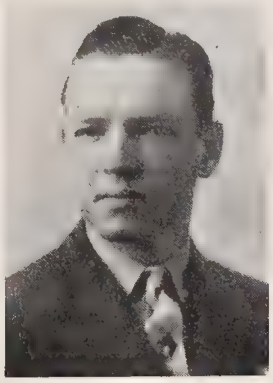
▽

For his lobby display on "Men with Wings" at the Capitol, Brampton, Ontario, Jack Campbell contacted local boys for airplane models. These together with credit cards made an attractive display and created the interest and attention Jack had anticipated.

MEET UP WITH SOME MEMBERS

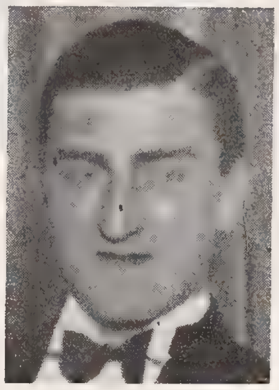
Harry Abbott
(above)
New Circle Theatre
Circleville, Ohio

Merl C. Hartung
(below)
Rose Theatre
Ft. Worth, Tex.



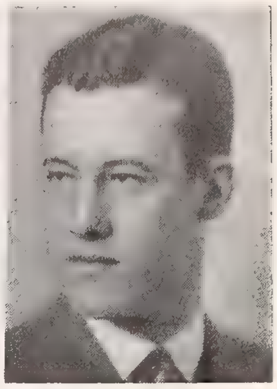
Chuck Milan
(above)
Panida Theatre
Sandpoint, Idaho

L. E. Piret
(below)
Crystal Theatre
Brussels, Belgium



John A. Schwalm
(above)
Rialto Theatre
Hamilton, Ohio

Elbert Thompson
(below)
San Marco Theatre
So. Jacksonville, Fla.

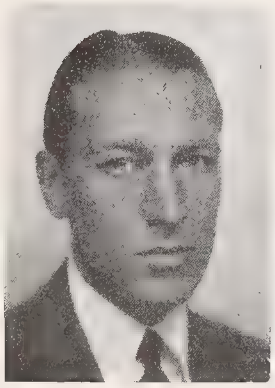


Gus J. Catamas
Venus Theatre
Brooklyn, N. Y.

Don Johnson
Vic Theatre
Indiana Harbor, Ind.

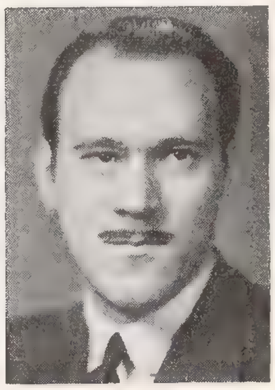
Don T. Palmer
Shea's State
Conneaut, Ohio

William Powelson
Harris Theatre
Tarentum, Penna.



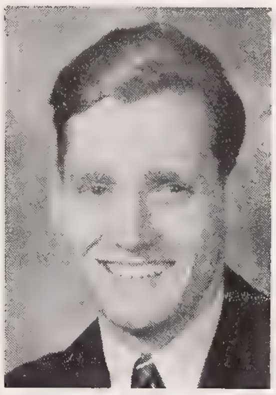
Walter Seligman
Assistant Manager
Loew's Criterion
New York City

Roland Treul
Assistant Manager
Princess Theatre
Milwaukee, Wis.



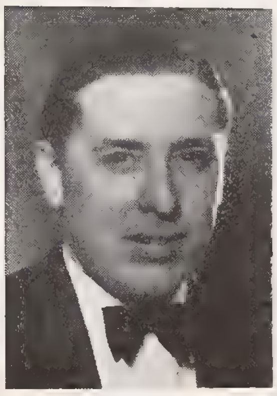
Clarence Golder
New Rena Theatre
Kellogg, Idaho

George O. Johnson
Cameo Theatre
Mt. Rainier, Md.



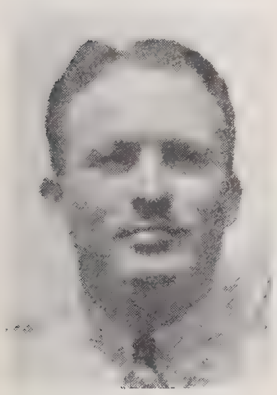
Joseph Parrott
Ritz Theatre
DeFuniak Springs, Fla.

Harry G. Rawlins
State Theatre
Richmond, Va.



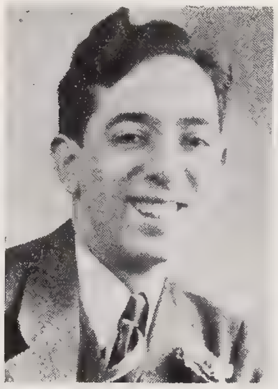
Cecil A. Smith
Patricia Theatre
London, Ont., Can.

Jack Van Lloyd
Tower Theatre
Miami, Florida



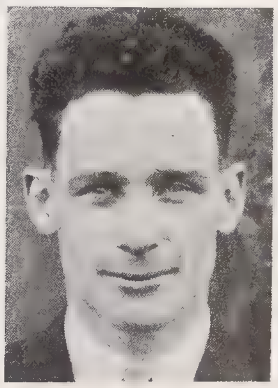
E. E. Ham
El Rey Theatre
Glendale, Ariz.

Al J. Klokkevold
Crystal Theatre
Salinas, Cal.



Bernard Payne
Mohawk Theatre
North Adams, Mass.

L. W. Richardson
Smalley's Theatre
St. Johnsville, N. Y.



Marion B. Stout
Assistant Manager
Coliseum Theatre
Petersburg, Alaska

Reed D. Yowell
La Nora Theatre
Pampa, Texas

personalities

DAN HENNESSY has purchased the Rialto, Marysville, Kansas from LES SPROULE.

▽

J. M. NIX has purchased the Castle Theatre, Brackettville, Texas.

▽

SAM RENNIS assistant at Loew's Avenue B Theatre, New York City has been transferred to the Post Road. Other Loew changes include EDWARD O'CONNOR, chief usher at the Pitkin, promoted to assistant at the Brevoort; LAWRENCE STARK, Broadway to the Spooner; REGINALD FORSYTH from the Post Road to the Apollo; SYDNEY KAIN is the new assistant at the Broadway and RALPH D. SCHWARTZ of the Spooner is on a leave of absence.

▽

M. J. MITCHELL former assistant manager of the Capitol, at Dover, Del., has been transferred to manage the Everett at Middletown.

▽

H. E. HEFFNER is the new manager of the Waller Theatre at Laurel, Del., succeeding ROLAND H. WALLER, former manager-owner. The theatre has been acquired by the Schine Circuit.

▽

RUBE FINKELSTEIN has taken over the Art Theatre, Kansas City, Kans., from CHARLES VAUGHAN.

▽

HARRY RICE former feature writer for the San Franciso Chronicle, has been named advertising and publicity manager of Dan McLean's Embassy Theatre there.

▽

BOB DE HAVEN formerly at the Princess in Bloomington, Ind., is now assistant to Clyde L. Winans, city manager of Theatrical Managers, Inc., hearquartering at the Palace, Gary, Ind.

▽

JACK FINCK in association with JOSEPH CARBONE, has acquired the Pelham Picture House, Pelham, N. Y.

▽

ROBERT E. RUSSELL manager of Loew's Poli, New Haven, Conn., and RODNEY TOUPS, Loew's State, New Orleans, both celebrated their 20th anniversaries with the company last week.

▽

GUS W. LAMPE city manager for RKO Schine Circuit in Syracuse is in Florida.

▽

B. F. "DINTY" MOORE who has been working in Oklahoma City for Standard Theatres Corp., goes to Pittsburgh to work under Harry Kalmine, Warner Bros. zone manager. WALTER B. SHUTTE, general manager before Moore's resignation, returns to that post.

▽

RODNEY BUSH in charge of national cooperative advertising for Twentieth Century-Fox, has been appointed special exploitation representative, succeeding Marc Lachmann, resigned.

On Wednesday, January 18th, Alberta Simmons to Russell Moring. Russ manages the Palace Theatre, Fort Wayne, Ind.

HARRY H. HOFFMAN manager of the Majestic for Midwest Theatres, Detroit, has resigned to become assistant to Nat Haase, Michigan manager for Metro Premium Co. LARRY NYBERG, former Majestic manager and lately with the Colonial, takes over.

▽

BERT WILD manager of Warners' Columbia, Erie, Penna., has been promoted to city manager in Butler, succeeding CHARLIE LYNCH, resigned. Other changes include: HARRY RASTATTER moves from the Strand in Erie, to the Columbia there; JOHN LANG of the Strand, Parkersburg, West Va., goes to the Strand in Erie. HAMDON V. FITCHER, Lang's assistant, succeeds him.

Showmen's Calendar

APRIL

1st	All Fool's Day
	Wallace Beery's Birthday
2nd	Palm Sunday
	U. S. Mint Established 1792
	Samuel Morse's Death 1872
3rd	Washington Irving Born 1783
	Leslie Howard's Birthday
	Walter Connolly's Birthday
4th-11th	Passover
5th	Elihu Yale Born 1649
	Bette Davis' Birthday
	Spencer Tracy's Birthday
	Melvyn Douglas' Birthday
7th	Good Friday
9th	Easter Sunday
14th	Assassination of Pres. Lincoln 1865
	Lee Tracy's Birthday
16th	Charlie Chaplin's Birthday
18th	Paul Revere's Famous Ride 1775
19th	May Robson's Birthday
23rd	Shakespeare Born 1564
	Shirley Temple's Birthday
27th	Samuel F. Morse, Telegrapher, Born 1791
28th	James Monroe, 5th President, Born 1758
	Lionel Barrymore's Birthday
29th-May 5th	National Boys' Week
30th	Daylight Saving Time Begins

KROGER BABB advertising manager for Filmack Trailer Co., Chicago, has resigned to accept a post with Schine's Theatres, of Gloversville, N. Y., in the northern Ohio territory, which zone is under the supervision of Lou Lazar. Babb will headquarter at Mt. Vernon, Ohio.

▽

ART FARRELL is now managing the Rapids Theatre in Rock Rapids, Ia.

▽

HARRY GOLUB former manager of the Orpheum, Denver, has taken over and is operating the Yacht Club, night spot.

▽

C. A MULOCK has resigned as manager of the Bidewee, Denver; JULIAN GUTTIERREZ, succeeds him. KENNETH RICHARDS, Granada manager, has gone to California for a vacation. SI GERTZ goes from the Rex to the Granada and GEORGE MILTON is managing the Rex.

▽

BILL GRANT has been named assistant manager of the Fox Waldo, Kansas City, Mo.

▽

JACK DALY display manager at the Capitol, San Francisco, has resigned to handle all advertising and promotion for the Royal Amusement Co., Ltd., Honolulu.

▽

RICHARD WARFIELD treasurer at the Fox, San Francisco, has been appointed manager at the Warfield.

▽

CHARLES TOMPKINS is the manager of the newly remodeled Voge in East Chicago, Inc.

▽

RICHARD V. KIRSH manager of the Warner Queen, Wilmington, Del., has been promoted to the Aldine, succeeding Lewis S. Black, promoted to the new Warner. SIDNEY MUNTER, Arcadia, replaces Kirsh, while the Warner distribt office will supervise the Arcadia with Stanley Zebrowski, assistant manager of the house, remaining in that capacity.

▽

HAROLD REAVES goes in as manager of the Paramount and DAVID FREEMAN into the Strand, both in Syracuse, N. Y. Freeman replaces WALTER LEAGUE, who will manage Schine's Palace, Auburn.

▽

JOE EDMONDSON former manager of the Carolina, High Point, N. C., has been transferred to the Paramount. DAVE GARVIN assumes management of the Carolina. CHARLES CONNOR, former assistant of the Paramount, goes to the New Center.

▽

RAY FRISZ has resigned as booker for Shine in the Cincinnati territory to loin Cooperative Theatres of Ohio.

THE RELEASE CHART

INDEX

On this and the following page appears an alphabetical index to the titles of all features listed in this week's Release Chart, with additional information for the exhibitor.

Following the title is information regarding the classification of the subject matter of the feature. A comedy is denoted by the abbreviation Com.; Melodrama by Mel.; Comedy-Melodrama by Com.-Mel.; Musical by Mus.; Musical Comedy by Mus.-Com.; Western by West. If the production is made in color, the letter "C" appears in parentheses after the classification. Thus: Col-Mel (C) denotes a Comedy-Melodrama in Color.

At the extreme right of the line containing the title of the production is the name of the distributor.

A
Abused Confidence, Mel............Col
Adventure in Sahara, Mel............Col
Adventure of Giacomo Casanova, Mel............Amerital
Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, The, Com-Mel............MGM
Adventures of Jane Arden, Mel....WB
Affairs of Annabel, Com............RKO
Alexander Graham Bell, Mel...20th-Fox
Alexander's Ragtime Band, Mus. 20th-Fox
Alf's Button Afloat, Com.......Foreign
Algiers, Mel............UA
All This and Heaven Too, Mel....WB
Almost a Gentleman, Mel.........RKO
Always Goodbye, Mel..........20th-Fox
Amazing Dr. Clitterhouse, Mel......FN
Ambush, Mel............Para
Angels With Dirty Faces, Mel......FN
Annabel Takes a Tour, Com......RKO
Annie Laurie, Mel............Foreign
Arkansas Traveler, Com............Para
Arrest Bulldog Drummond, Mel. Para
Arizona Legion, West............RKO
Arizona Wildcat, Com..........20th-Fox
Army Girl, Mel............Rep
Artists and Models Abroad, Com. Para
Avocate d'Amour, Com-Mel....Foreign

B
Back Door to Heaven, Mel........Para
Ballerina, Mel............Foreign
Bar-B Family, The, West...........GN
Barefoot Boy, Mel............Mono
Battle of City Hall, Mel...........WB
Beachcomber, The, Mel............Para
Beau Geste, Mel............Para
Beauty for the Asking, Com.....RKO
Big Fella, Mus............Foreign
Billy the Kid Returns, West.......Rep
Black Bandit, West............Univ
Blackwell's Island, Mel............WB
Blind Alley, Mel............Col
Blockheads, Com............MGM
"Blondie," Com............Col
Blondie Meets the Boss, Com.......Col
Booloo, Mel............Para
Border G-Man, West............RKO
Boy Meets Girl, Com............WB
Boy's Reformatory, Mel...........Mono
Boy Slaves, Mel............RKO
Boy Trouble, Mel............Para
Boys Town, Mel............MGM
Breaking the Ice, Mus............RKO
Broadway Musketeers, Mel..........FN
Broadway Serenade, Mus..........MGM
Bronze Buckaroo, Mel...........St. Rts.
Brother Orchid, Mel............WB
Brother Rat, Com............FN
Burn 'Em Up O'Connor, Com.-Mel. MGM
Bulldog Drummond in Africa, Mel..Para
Bulldog Drummond's Secret Police, Mel. ....Para

C
Cabira, Mel............Foreign
Cafe Society, Mel............Para
California Frontiers, West..........Col
Calling Dr. Kildare, Mel...........MGM
Campus Confessions, Com..........Para
Captain Fury, Mel............UA
Captain Scorpiob, Com...........Foreign
Carefree, Mus.-Com............RKO
Carnival in Flanders, Com.-Mel. Foreign
Charlie Chan in Honolulu, Mel. 20th-Fox
Charlie Chan in Reno, Mel.....20th-Fox
Chalked Out, Mel............FN
Chaser, The, Com.-Mel...........MGM
Chicago Ben, Mel............GB
Christmas Carol, Com.-Mel.......MGM
Cipher Bureau, Mel............GN
Citadel, The, Mel............MGM
Climbing High, Com............Foreign
Code of the Cactus, West......St. Rts.
Code of the Fearless, West.....St. Rts.
Code of the Secret Service, Mel....WB
Code of the Streets, Mel..........Univ
College Girl, Mel............Foreign
Colorado Trail, The, West...........Col
Comet Over Broadway, Mel.........WB
Convicted, Mel............Col
Convict's Code, Mel............Mono
Convicts at Large, Mel...........St..Rts.
Come On, Leathernecks, Mel.......Rep
Come On, Rangers, West...........Rep
Confessions of a Nazi Spy, Mel....WB
Cowboy and the Lady, Com.........UA
Cowboy from Brooklyn, Mus.......WB
Crashing Through, West............GN
Crashing Through Danger, Mel..St. Rts.
Crime Over London, Mel............GB
Crime Ring, Mel............RKO
Crime Takes a Holiday, Mel.........Col
Crossroads, Mel............Foreign
Crowd Roars, The, Com.-Mel.....MGM

D
Dangerous Cargo, Mel.........20th-Fox
Danger on the Air, Mel..........Univ
Dark Eyes, Mel............Foreign
Dark Rapture, Mel............Univ
Dark Sands, Mel............Foreign
Dark Victory, Mel............WB
David Copperfield, Mel............MGM
Dawn Patrol, Mel............WB
Delinquent Parents, Mel.........St. Rts.
Desperate Adventure, Com.-Mel....Rep
Devil's Island, Mel............WB
Disbarred, Mel............Para
Divorce of Lady X, Com. (C)........UA
Dock on the Havel, Mel.........Foreign
Dodge City, Mel............WB
Down in "Arkansaw," Mus.........Rep
Down on the Farm, Com.......20th-Fox
Dramatic School, Mel............MGM
Drifting Westward, West..........Mono
Drums, Mel. (C)............UA
Duke of West Point, Mel...........UA
Duke Steps Out, Mel...........St. Rts.
Durango Valley Raiders, West.....Rep
Dybbuk, The, Mel............Foreign

E
Each Dawn I Die, Mel............WB
East Side of Heaven, Mus.-Com...Univ
Edge of the World, Mel.........Foreign
Empire of the West, West.........GN
Empty World, Mel............GB
Everybody's Baby, Com.........20th-Fox
Exile Express, Mel............GN
Exposed, Mel............Univ

F
Family Next Door, Com............Univ
Family Reunion, Mel............WB
Fast and Loose, Mel............MGM
Fast Company, Com.-Mel.........MGM
Federal Man Hunt, Mel............Rep
Federal Offense, Mel............Para
Female Fugitive, Mel............Mono
Feud of the Range, West.......St. Rts.
Fighting Thoroughbreds, West.....Rep
First Offenders, Mel............Col
Fisherman's Wharf, Mus...........RKO
Five of a Kind, Mel............20th-Fox
Fixer Dugan ....RKO
Flight at Midnight, Mel............Rep
Flight Into Darkness, Mel.......Foreign
Flight to Fame, Mel............Col
Flirting with Fate, Com.-Mel.....MGM
Flying Irishman, Mel............RKO
Foggy Quay, Mel............Foreign
Forged Passport, Mel............Rep
40 Little Mothers, Mel..........Foreign
Four Daughters, Mel............FN
Four Feathers, Mel............UA
Four Girls in White, Mel.........MGM
Four's A Crowd, Com............WB
Freshman Year, Com.-Mel.........Univ
Frog, The, Mel............GB
Frontiersman, West. ....Para
Frontiers of '49, West............Col
Frontier Scout, West............GN
Fugitives for a Night, Com.........RKO

G
Gambling Ship, Mel............Univ
Gang, The, Mel............St. Rts.
Gang Bullets, Mel............Mono
Gang Smashers, Mel............St. Rts.
Gangster's Boy, Mel............Mono
Gantry the Great, Mel............WB
Garden of the Moon, Mus.-Com.....FN
Gateway, Mel............20th-Fox
Ghost Town Riders, West..........Univ
Girl Downstairs, The, Com.-Mel..MGM
Girl Must Live, Com............GB
Girl Refuge, The, Mel...........Foreign
Girls on Probation, Mel............FN
Girls' School, Mel............Col
Give Me a Sailor, Com............Para
Gladiator, The, Com............Col
Glory of the Faith, Mel.........Foreign
Going Places, Com.-Mel............FN
Gold Is Where You Find It, Mel. (C) FN
Gold Mine in the Sky, West........Rep
Gone Harlem, Mel............St. Rts.
Goodbye, Mr. Chips, Com.-Mel...MGM
Gorilla, The, Com-Mel..........20th-Fox
Gracie Allen Murder Case, Com.-Mel. Para
Grand Illusion, Mel.....Foreign (World)
Grand Jury's Secrets, Mel.........Para
Great Man Votes, Com............RKO
Great Waltz, The, Mus...........MGM
Guilty Trails, West............Univ
Gunga Din, Mel............RKO
Gun Packer, West............Mono
Gunsmoke Trail, West............Mono

H
Hard to Get, Com.-Mel............WB
Hardys Ride High, Com.-Mel.....MGM
Harlem Rides the Range, West..St. Rts.
Hatred, Mel............Foreign
Having Wonderful Time, Com.....RKO
Heart of the North, Mel. (C)......WB
Heart of Paris, Mel............Foreign
Hell Bound, Mel............St. Rts.
Hell's Kitchen, Mel............WB
Heritage of the Desert, Mel.......Para
Hero for a Day, Mel............WB
Heroes of the Hills, West...........Rep
Hey! Hey! U. S. A., Com.....Foreign
His Exciting Night, Com...........Univ
Hold That Co-ed, Com.........20th-Fox
Hold That Kiss, Com............MGM
Home on the Prairie, West.........Rep
Homicide Bureau, Mel............Col
Honolulu, Mus.-Com............MGM
Hotel Imperial, Mel............Para
Hound of the Baskervilles, Mel...20-Fox
Hundred to One, A, Mel..........MGM

I
I Am a Criminal, Mel............Mono
I Am the Law, Mel............Col
Ice Follies of 1939, Com.-Mel.......MGM
I Demand Payment, Mel.........St. Rts.
Idiot's Delight, Com.-Mel.........MGM
If I Were King, Mel............Para
Illegal Traffic, Mel............Para
I'll Give a Million, Mel.........20th-Fox
I Married a Spy, Mel............GN
I'm From Missouri, Com...........Para
I'm From the City, Com...........RKO
In Early Arizona, West............Col
In Old Mexico, West............Para
In Old Montana, West...........St. Rts.
Inside Story, Mel............20th-Fox
International Crime, Mel............GN
Invitation to Happiness, Com-Mel..Para
I Stand Accused, Mel............Rep
I Take This Woman, Com.-Mel...MGM
It's in the Air, Mel............Foreign
It's Spring Again, Com............UA
Itto, Mel............Foreign
I've Got a Horse, Mel...........Foreign
I Was Made a Convict, Mel.......Rep

J
Jesse James, Mel. (C)..........20th-Fox
Jones Family in Hollywood, Mel. 20th-Fox
Josette, Com............20th-Fox
Juarez, Mel............WB
Just Around the Corner, Mus.-Com. 20th-Fox
Juvenile Court, Mel............Col

K
Keep Smiling, Com............20th-Fox
Kentucky, Mel. (C)............20th-Fox
Kentucky Moonshine, Com.....20th-Fox
Kid from Kokomo, The, Mel........WB
Kid from Texas, Mel............MGM
Kidnapped, Mel............20th-Fox
King Kong, Mel............RKO
King of Chinatown, Mel............Para
King of Alcatraz, Mel............Para
King of the Turf, Mel............UA
King of the Underworld, Mel.......WB
Knight and the Lady, Mel.........WB
Knights of the Plains, West....St. Rts.
Kreutzer Sonata, Mel...........Foreign

L
Lady and the Mob, The, Mel.......Col
Lady's from Kentucky, The........Para
Lady Objects, The, Mel............Col
Lady Vanishes, Mel............GB
Land of Fighting Men, West......Mono
Last Express, Mel............Univ
Last Frontier, The, Mel............UA
Last Warning, The, West.........Univ
La Vierge Folle, Mel...........Foreign
Law Comes to Texas, The, West....Col
Lawless Valley, West............RKO
Law of the Texan, West............Col
Law West of Tombstone, West....RKO
Let Freedom Ring, Mus...........MGM
Letter of Introduction, Com.-Mel..Univ
Let Us Live, Mel............Col
Liebe Im ¾ Takt, Com.........Foreign
Lightning Carson Rides Again, West. Victory
Listen Darling, Mel............MGM
Little Adventuress, The, Mel........Col
Little Flower of Jesus, Mel.....Foreign
Little Miss Broadway, Mus...20th-Fox
Little Princess, The, Mel (C)...20th-Fox
Little Orphan Annie. Mel.........Para

(Continued on following page)

[THE RELEASE CHART--INDEX CONT'D]

(Continued from preceding page)

Little Tough Guy, Mel............Univ
Little Tough Guys in Society, Mel..Univ
Little Women, Mel.................RKO
Lone Star Bullets, West............Rep
Lone Star Pioneers, West..........Col
Lone Wolf Spy Hunt, Mel...........Col
Long Shot, The, Mel.................GN
Love Affair, Mel....................RKO
Love Finds Andy Hardy, Com.-Mel. MGM
Lucky Night, Com..................MGM

M

Made for Each Other, Mel...........UA
Mad Miss Manton, Com...........RKO
Magnificent Fraud, The............Para
Maiden Voyage, Com.-Mel.........MGM
Mamele, Com....................Foreign
Man About Town, Com.............Para
Man from Music Mountain, West..Rep
Man from Texas, West.............Mono
Man in the Iron Mask, Mel.........UA
Man's Country, West..............Mono
Man of Conquest, Mel..............Rep
Man to Remember, Mel...........RKO
Man with 100 Faces, Mel...........GB
Marie Antoinette, Mel..............MGM
Marseillaise, Mel................Foreign
Marusia, Mus....................Foreign
Meet the Girls, Mel............20th-Fox
Meet the Mayor, Com...........St. Rts.
Men Are Such Fools, Com.-Mel....WB
Men With Wings, Mel. (C)........Para
Mexicali Kid, West................Mono
Mexicali Rose, West...............Rep
Midnight, Mel.......................Para
Mis Dos Amores, Mus.............Para
Missing Guest, The, Mel...........Univ
Mr. Chump, Com...................WB
Mr. Doodle Kicks Off, Com........RKO
Mr. Moto in Terror Island, Mel..20-Fox
Mr. Moto's Last Warning, Mel..20-Fox
Mr. Moto Takes a Chance, Mel..20-Fox
Mr. Moto Takes a Vacation, Mel. 20th-Fox
Mr. Wong, Detective, Mel.........Mono
Mother Carey's Chickens, Com....RKO
My Bill, Mel.........................FN
My Lucky Star, Mus.-Com.....20th-Fox
My Song of Love, Mel..........Foreign
My Son Is a Criminal, Mel.........Col
Mysterious Miss X, Mel............Rep
Mysterious Mr. Moto, Mel.....20th-Fox
Mysterious Rider, West.............Para
Mystery of Mr. Wong, The, Mel..Mono
Mystery of the White Room, Mel..Univ
My Wife's Relatives, Com.-Mel.....Rep

N

Nancy Drew, Detective, Mel.......WB
Nancy Drew, Reporter, Mel.........WB
Nancy Drew, Trouble Shooter, Mel..WB
Naughty But Nice, Com.-Mel.......WB
Navy Secrets, Mel................Mono
Never Say Die, Com................Para
Newsboy's Home, Mel.............Univ
News Is Made at Night, Mel...20th-Fox
Next Time I Marry, Com...........RKO
Night Hawk, Mel....................Rep
Night in Ghost Town, A, West....RKO
Night on the Danube, Com-Mel..Foreign
90 Degrees South, Mel.........Foreign
North of Shanghai, Mel.............Col
North of the Yukon, Mel............Col

O

Off the Record, Com.-Mel..........WB
Oklahoma Kid, Mel..................WB
Old Bones of the River, Com...Foreign
Old Maid, The, Mel.................WB
One Third of a Nation, Mel.......Para
One Wild Night, Mel...........20th-Fox
On Trial, Mel........................WB
Orage, Mel.......................Foreign
Orphans of the Street, Mel.........Rep
Our Wife, Mel.......................Col
Outside These Walls, Mel...........Col
Outlaw's Paradise, West........St. Rts.
Out West with the Hardys, Com.-Mel. MGM
Overland Express, West............Col
Overland Stage Raiders, West.......Rep
Overland with Kit Carson, West....Col
Over the Moon, Mel. (C)............UA

P

Pacific Liner, Mel..................RKO
Painted Desert, West...............RKO
Pals of the Saddle, West...........Rep
Panama Patrol, Mel..................GN
Panamint's Bad Man, West....20th-Fox
Pardon Our Nerve, Mel........20th-Fox
Paris Honeymoon, Mus.-Com.....Para
Paroled from the Big House, Mel. St. Rts.
Passport Husband, Com.........20th-Fox
Peck's Bad Boy at the Circus, Com. RKO
Peg of Old Drury, Mel..........Foreign
Penny Paradise, Mel............Foreign
Penrod's Double Trouble, Mel.......FN
Penthouse, Mel.....................MGM
Personal Secretary, Mel...........Univ
Persons in Hiding, Mel............Para
Phantom Gold, West.................Col
Phantom Ranger, The, West.....Mono
Phantom Stage, West..............Univ
Pirates of the Skies, Mel..........Univ
Plane No. 4, Mel....................Col
Police School, Com-Mel.........20th-Fox
Policy Man, Mel.................St. Rts.
Port of Hate, Mel...............St. Rts.
Port of Seven Seas, Mel..........MGM
Prairie Justice, West..............Univ
Prairie Nights, West................Col
Pride of The Navy, Mel............Rep
Pride of the West, West...........Para
Prison Break, Mel..................Univ
Prison Nurse, Mel...................Rep
Prison Train, Mel...............St. Rts.
Prison Without Bars, Mel...........UA
Professor Beware, Com............Para
Pygmalion, Com.-Mel.............MGM

R

Racket Busters, Mel................WB
Radio Troubadour, Mus............Para
Rage of Paris, Com.................Univ
Rebellious Daughters, Mel.......St. Rts.
Red River Range, West............Rep
Refugiados en Madrid, Mel.....Foreign
Religious Racketeer, Mel.........St. Rts.
Renegade Ranger, The, West.....RKO
Renegade Trail, West...............Para
Restless Age, The, Mel..............UA
Renfrew of the Royal Mounted Saves a Lady, West.....GN
Renfrew on the Great White Trail, West.........GN
Return of the Frog, Mel.........Foreign
Rhythm of the Saddle, West........Rep
Rich Man, Poor Girl, Com.-Mel...MGM
Ride a Crooked Mile, Mel.........Para
Ride 'Em Cowgirl, West............GN
Riders of the Rio Grande, West...Mono
Rio Grande, West....................Col
Risky Business, Mel.................Univ
Road Demon, Mel..............20th-Fox
Road to Reno, Com.................Univ
Roaring Nineties, The, Mel.........WB
Roaring Road, The, Mel.............WB
Rollin' Plains, West..................GN
Rolling Westward, West...........Mono
Romance of the Redwoods, Mel.....Col
Room No. 111, Mel...............Foreign
Room Service, Com.................RKO
Rose of Tralee, Mel..............Foreign
Rose of Washington Square, Mus.-Com. 20th-Fox
Rothschild, Mel..................St. Rts.
Rough Riders Round-up, West.....Rep
Royal Divorce, Mel.................Para

S

Sacrifice d'Honneur, Mel........Foreign
Safety in Numbers, Com.......20th-Fox
Saint Strikes Back, Mel............RKO
St. Martin's Lane, Mel.........Foreign
St. Louis Blues, Mel...............Para
Santa Fe Stampede, West...........Rep
Say It in French, Com.............Para
Scandal House, Mel............St. Rts.
School for Scandal, Com-Mel....Foreign
Secret Service of the Air, Mel.......FN
Secrets of a Nurse, Mel............Univ
Secrets of an Actress, Mel..........FN
Sergeant Madden, Mel.............MGM
Service De Luxe, Com.............Univ
Shadows Over Shanghai, Mel........GN
Sharpshooters, Mel............20th-Fox
Shine On Harvest Moon, West.....Rep
Shining Hour, The, Mel...........MGM
Shopworn Angel, Com.-Mel.......MGM
Silver on the Sage, Mel.............Para
Sing, You Sinners, Mus............Para
Singing Blacksmith, Com-Mel...Foreign
Singing Cowgirl, The, West.........GN
Sin of Lena Rivers, Mel.........St. Rts.
Sisters, The, Mel....................WB
Six-Gun Rhythm, West..............GN
Six-Gun Trail, West............St. Rts.
Six Shootin' Sheriff, West...........GN
Sixty Glorious Years, Mel (C)....RKO
Sky Giant, Mel.....................RKO
Sky Pirate, Mel....................Mono
Slalom, Mel......................Foreign
Slums of New York, Mel........Foreign
Smashing the Rackets, Mel.........RKO
Smashing the Spy Ring, Mel........Col
Society Smugglers, Mel............Univ
Some Like It Hot, Mus.............Para
Song of the Buckaroo, West......Mono
Son of Frankenstein, Mel..........Univ
Sons of the Legion, Mel...........Para
Sorority House, Mel................RKO
So This Is London, Com........Foreign
South Riding, Mel...................UA
Spawn of the North, Mel...........Para
Speed to Burn, Mel...........20th-Fox
Spirit of Culver, Mel...............Univ
Spring Madness, Com-Mel........MGM
Stablemates, Com-Mel.............MGM
Stagecoach, Mel......................UA
Stand Up and Fight, Com-Mel....MGM
Stanley and Livingstone, Mel..20th-Fox
Starlight Over Texas, West.......Mono
Star Reporter, Mel.................Mono
Stolen Life, Mel....................Para
Storm, The, Mel....................Univ
Storm Over Bengal, Mel............Rep
Story of a Cheat, Mel...........Foreign
Story of Vernon and Irene Castle, The, Mus..........RKO
Straight, Place and Show, Com 20th-Fox
Strange Boarders, Mel..............GB
Strange Case of Dr. Meade, Mel....Col
Strange Faces, Com-Mel..........Univ
Street of Missing Men, Mel........Rep
Street Without a Name, Mel....Foreign
Streets of New York, Mel.........Mono
Student Nurse, Mel.................WB
Submarine Patrol, Mel..........20th-Fox
Sudden Money, Com-Mel...........Para
Suez, Mel. 20th-Fox
Sundown on the Prairie, West....Mono
Sunset Murder Case, Mel............GN
Sunset Trail, West..................Para
Susannah of the Mounties, Com-Mel, 20th-Fox
Sweepstake Winner, Com...........WB
Sweethearts, Mus. (C).............MGM
Sweetheart of Sigma Chi, Mus...Mono
Swing, Sister, Swing, Mus.........Univ
Swing That Cheer, Mel............Univ
Swiss Miss, Com...................MGM

T

Tail Spin, Mel..................20th-Fox
Taken for a Ride, Mel...............GN
Tarnished Angel, Mel...............RKO
Tarzan in Exile, Mel...............MGM
Tenth Avenue Kid, Mel.............Rep
Terror of Tiny Town, Mel...........Col
Texans, The, Mel...................Para
Texas Stampede, West...............Col
Texas Wildcats, West...........St. Rts.
Thanks for Everything, Mus-Com. 20th-Fox
Thanks for the Memory, Com......Para
That Certain Age, Mus-Com......Univ
There Goes My Heart, Com........UA
There's That Woman Again, Com..Col
They Drive by Night, Mel.....Foreign
They Made Her a Spy, Mel........RKO
They Made Me a Criminal, Mel.....WB
This Man Is News, Mel.............Para
39 Steps, Mel.........................GB
Three Blind Mice, Mel.........20th-Fox
Three Loves Has Nancy, Com-Mel.MGM
Three Musketeers, Mus-Com..20th-Fox
3 Smart Girls Grow Up, Mus-Com.Univ
Three Texas Steers, West...........Rep
Thundering West, The, West........Col
Time Out for Murder, Mel......20th-Fox
Titans of the Deep, Mel............GN
Tom Sawyer, Detective, Mel........Para
Too Hot to Handle, Com-Mel......MGM
Topa Topa, Mel..................St. Rts.
Topper Takes a Trip, Com.........UA
Torchy Blane Runs for Mayor, Mel.WB
Torchy Gets Her Man, Mel.........WB
Torchy Blane in Chinatown, Mel...WB
Touchdown Army, Com.............Para
Tough Kid, Mel....................Mono
Trade Winds, Com-Mel..............UA
Trapped in the Sky, Mel............Col
Treasure Island, Mel..............MGM
Trigger Pals, West..................GN
Trigger Smith, West...............Mono
Tropic Holiday, Mus...............Para
Trouble in Sundown, West.........RKO
12 Crowded Hours, Mel...........RKO
Two Gun Justice, West...........Mono
Two Gun Troubador, West.....St. Rts.

U

Undercover Agent, Mel............Univ
Under the Big Top, Mel...........Mono
Union Pacific, Mel.................Para
Unmarried ....Para
Up the River, Mel.............20th-Fox
Utah Trail, The, West..............GN

V

Vacation from Love, Com.........MGM
Valley of the Giants, Mel. (C)......WB
Volga Boatman, Mel.............Foreign

W

Wanted by Scotland Yard, Mel...Mono
Wanted by the Police, Mel........Mono
Ware Case, Mel.................Foreign
Waterfront, Mel......................WB
Water Rustlers, West................GN
We Are Not Alone, Mel............WB
Wedad, Mel. ....Foreign
We're Going to Be Rich, Mus-Com. 20th-Fox
Western Jamboree, West............Rep
West of Cheyenne, West............Col
West of the Sante Fe, West.........Col
What a Man! Com...............Foreign
When the Husband Travels, Mus-Com, Foreign
Where the Buffalo Roam, West...Mono
While New York Sleeps, Mel...20th-Fox
Whispering Enemies, Mel...........Col
Wife, Husband and Friend, Com. 20th-Fox
Wild Horse Canyon, West.........Mono
Wings of the Navy, Mel............WB
Winner Take All, Mus-Com....20th-Fox
Witch Night, Mel................Foreign
With a Smile, Mus-Com.........Foreign
Within the Law, Mel...............MGM
Wizard of Oz, Mus. (C)............MGM
Wolf Call, Mel.....................Mono
Woman Doctor, Mel.................Rep
Women in the Wind, Mel.........WB
Wuthering Heights, Mel............UA

Y

Yellow Sands, Mel.........Assoc British
Yes, Madam?, Com............Foreign
Yes, My Darling Daughter, Com..WB
You Can't Cheat an Honest Man, Com, Univ
You Can't Take It With You, Com.Col
Young Dr. Kildare, Com-Mel......MGM
Young Fugitives, Mel.............Univ
Young in Heart, Com-Mel.........UA

Z

Zaza, Mel.............. ....Para

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

THE CHART

Productions are listed according to the names of distributors in order that the exhibitor may have a short-cut towards such information as he may need, as well as information on pictures that are coming. Features now in work or completed for release later than the date of this issue are listed under "Coming Attractions." Letter in parentheses after title denotes audience classification of production: (A) Adult, (G) General. Numerals following audience classification are production numbers. Dagger symbol indicates picture is of the 1938-39 season. Asterisk (*) after title of feature denotes first appearance of picture in Release Chart.

NOTE: The totals for running time are the official figures announced by the home offices of the distributing companies.

When a production is reviewed in Hollywood, the running time is as officially given by the West Coast studio of the company at the time of the review, and this fact is denoted by an asterisk (*) immediately preceding the number. As soon as the home office has established the running time for national release, any change from the studio figure is made and the asterisk is removed.

Running times are subject to change according to local conditions. State or city censorship deletions may cause variations from the announced and published figures; repairs to the film may be another reason.

COLUMBIA

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Adventure in Sahara (G)	Paul Kelly-Lorna Gray	Nov. 15,'38†	58	Dec. 24,'38
Blondie (G)	Penny Singleton - Arthur Lake - Larry Simms-D. Mummert	Nov. 30,'38†	72	Nov. 5,'38
California Frontier	Buck Jones-Carmen Bailey	Dec. 15,'38†	54
Colorado Trail, The	Chas. Starrett-Iris Meredith	Sept. 8,'38	55
Convicted (G)	Chas. Quigley-Rita Hayworth	Aug. 18,'38	58	Sept. 3,'38
Crime Takes a Holiday (G)	Jack Holt - Marcia Ralston - Douglas Dumbrille	Oct. 5,'38†	59	May 7,'38
Flight to Fame	Chas. Farrell-Jacqueline Wells	Oct. 12,'38†	57
Frontiers of '49	Bill Elliott-Luana De Alcaniz	Jan. 19,'39†	54
(See "California Cavalcade," "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 19,'38.)
Girls' School (G)	Anne Shirley-Nan Grey-Ralph Bellamy-Noah Beery, Jr.	Sept. 30,'38	73	Sept. 24,'38
Gladiator, The (G)	Joe E. Brown-June Travis	Aug. 15,'38	72	Aug. 13,'38
Homicide Bureau (G)	Bruce Cabot-Rita Hayworth	Jan. 5,'39†	59	Feb. 11,'39
I Am the Law (G)	Edw. G. Robinson-Wendy Barrie-Barbara O'Neill-John Beal	Sept. 2,'38	83	Aug. 27,'38
In Early Arizona	Bill Elliott-Dorothy Gulliver	Nov. 2,'38†	53
Juvenile Court (G)	P. Kelly-R. Hayworth-F. Darro	Sept. 15,'38	61	Sept. 24,'38
Lady Objects, The	L. Ross-G. Stuart-J. Marsh	Sept. 9,'38	61
Law of the Texan	Buck Jones-Dorothy Fay	Oct. 24,'38†	54
Little Adventuress, The (G)	Edith Fellows-Robt. Paige	Oct. 24,'38†	62	Nov. 19,'38
Lone Wolf Spy Hunt (G)	Warren William - Ida Lupino - Virginia Weidler	Jan. 27,'39†	71	Jan. 28,'39
My Son Is a Criminal	Alan Baxter-Jacqueline Wells	Feb. 22,'39†
North of Shanghai	Betty Furness-James Craig	Feb. 10,'39†	59
(See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 12,'38.)
Phantom Gold	Jack Luden-Beth Marion	Aug. 31,'38	56
Rio Grande	Charles Starrett-Ann Doran	Dec. 8,'38†	59
Smashing the Spy Ring	Fay Wray-Ralph Bellamy	Dec. 29,'38†	62
(See "International Spy," "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 3,'38; exploitation: Jan. 28,'39, p. 60.)
Strange Case of Dr. Meade	J. Holt-B. Roberts-N. Beery, Jr.	Dec. 15,'38†	67	Oct. 29,'38
Terror of Tiny Town, The (G)	Billy Curtis	Dec. 1,'39†	63	July 23,'38
Texas Stampede	Chas. Starrett-Iris Meredith	Feb. 9,'39†
There's That Woman Again (G)	Melvyn Douglas-Virginia Bruce-Margaret Lindsay	Dec. 24,'38†	74	Dec. 17,'38
Thundering West, The	Chas. Starrett - Iris Meredith - Sons of the Pioneers	Jan. 12,'39†	57
West of Santa Fe	Chas. Starrett-Iris Meredith	Oct. 3,'38†	57
You Can't Take It With You (G)	Jean Arthur - Jas. Stewart - L. Barrymore-A. Miller-S. Byington-E. Arnold-M. Auer	Sept. 29,'38†	127	Aug. 27,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 24,'38, p. 64; Oct. 15,'38, p. 51; Oct. 29,'38, p. 58; Dec. 10,'38, p. 64; Dec. 24,'38, p. 54.)

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Blind Alley*	Chester Morris-Ralph Bellamy-Joan Perry-Rose Stradner
Blondie Meets the Boss	P. Singleton-A. Lake-L. Simms	Mar. 8,'39†
First Offenders	W. Abel-B. Roberts-J. Downs	Apr. 12,'39†
Lady and the Mob, The	F. Bainter-I. Lupino-L. Bowman	Apr. 3,'39†
Law Comes to Texas, The	Bill Elliott-Veda Ann Borg
Let Us Live (G)	Henry Fonda-Maureen O'Sullivan-Ralph Bellamy	Feb. 28,'39†	*65	Feb. 18,'39
Lone Star Pioneers	Bill Elliott-Dorothy Gulliver	Mar. 16,'39†	56
North of the Yukon	Chas. Starrett-Linda Winters	Mar. 23,'39†
Our Wife*	Cary Grant-Loretta Young
Outside These Walls	Dolores Costello - M. Whelan - Virginia Weidler
Plane No. 4	Jean Arthur-Cary Grant-Richard Barthelmess - Thos. Mitchell	Apr. 30,'39†
Prairie Nights	Charles Starrett-Iris Meredith
Romance of the Redwoods	Jean Parker-Chas. Bickford	Mar. 2,'39†
Trapped in the Sky (G)	Jack Holt-Katherine DeMille		*60	Feb. 18,'39
Whispering Enemies (G)	Jack Holt-Dolores Costello	Mar. 24,'39†	63	Jan. 7,'39

FIRST NATIONAL
(See Warner Brothers)

GB PICTURES
(Distributed in part by 20th Century-Fox)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Climbing High (G) 8012	Jessie Matthews-Michael Redgrave-Noel Madison	Dec. 1,'38†	79	Dec. 17,'38
Frog, The 8011	Noah Beery-Gordon Harker	Nov. 15,'38†	78
Lady Vanishes, The (A)	Margaret Lockwood-Paul Lukas-Michael Redgrave-Dame May Whitty	Nov. 1,'38†	78	Sept. 3,'38
Man With 100 Faces (G) 8008	Lilli Palmer-Noel Madison	Oct. 1,'38†	72	Nov. 12,'38
Ride 'Em Cowgirl WI-2	Dorothy Page	Jan. 20,'39†
Strange Boarders (A) 8006	Tom Walls-Renee Saint Cyr	Aug. 1,'38†	73	Nov. 26,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 28,'39, p. 58.)
Thirty-Nine Steps, The (re-issue) (G) 8009	Robt. Donat-Madeleine Carroll	Sept. 15,'38†	81	July 6,'35

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Chicago Ben*
Empty World	Nova Pilbeam
Girl Must Live, A	Lilli Palmer-Margaret Lockwood

GRAND NATIONAL

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Cipher Bureau (G) 312	Leon Ames-Joan Woodbury	Nov. 4,'38†	70	Oct. 22,'38
Crashing Through 327	James Newill	Jan. 20,'39†
Exile Express 301	Anna Sten-Alan Marshal	Jan. 20,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 10,'38.)
Frontier Scout (G) 325	George Houston-Beth Marion	Oct. 21,'38†	*62	Sept. 17,'38
High Command 227	Lionel Atwill-Lucy Mannheim	July 15,'38	59
I Married a Spy 225	Neil Hamilton-Brigitte Horney	July 1,'38	59
Long Shot, The (G) 313	Marsha Hunt-Gordon Jones	Jan. 6,'39†	69	Dec. 31,'38
Renfrew of the Royal Mounted Saves a Lady 328	James Newill	Feb. 10,'39†
Renfrew on the Great White Trail 228	James Newill-Terry Walker	July 22,'38	59
Ride 'Em Cowgirl (G) WI-2	Dorothy Page	Jan. 20,'39†	52	Jan. 21,'39
Rollin' Plains 226	Tex Ritter-Harriet Spencer	July 8,'38	57
Shadows Over Shanghai (G) 311	James Dunn-Ralph Morgan	Oct. 14,'38†	65	Sept. 17,'38
Sunset Murder Case 345	Sally Rand	Nov. 11,'38†	57
Titans of the Deep (G) 326	Dr. Wm. Beebe	Oct. 28,'38†	48	Nov. 19,'38
Trigger Pals (G) WI-13	Art Jarrett, Lee Powell-Al St. John	Jan. 13,'39†	55	Jan. 21,'39
Utah Trail, The 229	Tex Ritter-Adele Pearce	Aug. 12,'38
(See "In the Cutting Room," July 2,'38.)
Water Rustlers WI-1	Dave O'Brien-Dorothy Page	Jan. 6,'39†	54

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Bar-B Family, The*
Empire of the West	George Houston
Panama Patrol 314	Leon Ames-Charlotte Wynters
Singing Cowgirl, The WI-3	Dorothy Page
Six-Gun Rhythm WI-19 (G)	Tex Fletcher-Joan Barclay		*55	Feb. 18,'39
Taken for a Ride*	John King-Heather Angel

METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, The (G) 923	Mickey Rooney - Walter Connolly - Lynne Carver - Rex Ingram	Feb. 10,'39†	92	Feb. 11,'39
Blockheads (G) 844	Laurel & Hardy-Patricia Ellis-Billy Gilbert	Aug. 19,'38	57	Aug. 20,'38
Boys Town (G) 902	S. Tracy-M. Rooney-H. Hull	Sept. 9,'38†	93	Sept. 10,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 1,'38, pp. 55, 56; Oct. 22,'38, p. 64; Nov. 5,'38, p. 53; Nov. 12,'38, p. 68; Nov. 19,'38, pp. 92, 93; Dec. 3,'38, p. 50; Dec. 17,'38, pp. 74, 76; Dec. 24,'38, p. 57.)
Burn 'Em Up O'Connor (G) (919)	Dennis O'Keefe-Cecilia Parker-Harry Carey-Nat Pendleton	Jan. 13,'39†	70	Jan. 14,'39
Chaser, The (G) 842	D. O'Keefe-A. Morriss-L. Stone	July 29,'38	75	July 30,'38
Christmas Carol, A (G) 917	Terry Kilburn-Reginald Owen-Lynne Carver-Ann Rutherford	Dec. 16,'38†	69	Dec. 17,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 7,'39, p. 53; Jan. 21,'39, p. 54.)
Citadel, The (A) 909	Robert Donat-Rosalind Russell	Oct. 28,'38†	112	Oct. 29,'38
(Exploitation: Nov. [illegible]'38, p. 66; Dec. 10,'38, p. 62.)

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Crowd Roars, The (G) 846	Robert Taylor-M. O'Sullivan-Frank Morgan-Lionel Stander	Aug. 5,'38	92	Aug. 6,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 3,'38, p. 60; Sept. 10,'38, pp. 102, 105; Sept. 17,'38, p. 62; Oct. 1,'38, p. 53; Oct. 15,'38, p. 54; Nov. 5,'38, p. 51.)
Dramatic School (G) 915	Luise Rainer-Paulette Goddard-Alan Marshal - Ann Rutherford - Lana Turner	Dec. 9,'38†	80	Dec. 10,'38
Fast and Loose (G) 924	Robt. Montgomery-R. Russell	Feb. 17,'39†	79	Feb. 18,'39
Fast Company (G) 839	Melvyn Douglas-Florence Rice-Claire Dodd-Nat Pendleton	July 8,'38	74	July 2,'38
Flirting with Fate (G) 914	Joe E. Brown-Leo Carrillo	Dec. 2,'38†	70	Dec. 3,'38
Four Girls in White (G) 921	Florence Rice-Kent Taylor-Ann Rutherford	Jan. 27,'39†	73	Feb. 4,'39
Girl Downstairs, The (G) 916	Franchot Tone-Franciska Gaal-R. Gardner-W. Connolly	Dec. 23,'38†	77	Dec. 24,'38
Great Waltz, The (G) 908	Luise Rainer-Fernand Gravet-Miliza Korjus	Nov. 4,'38†	104	Nov. 5,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 1,'38, p. 57; Nov. 12,'38, p. 69; Nov. 19,'38, p. 94; Dec. 17,'38, pp. 72, 74; Dec. 24,'38, pp. 55, 56; Dec. 31,'38, p. 66; Jan. 7,'39, p. 50.)
Honolulu (G) 922	Eleanor Powell-Robert Young-Burns and Allen	Feb. 3,'39†	83	Feb. 4,'39
Idiot's Delight (A) 920	Norma Shearer - Clark Gable - Edw. Arnold-Burgess Meredith	Jan. 27,'39†	109	Jan. 28,'39
Let Freedom Ring (G) 926	N. Eddy - V. Bruce - L. Barrymore-E. Arnold-G. Kibbee-V. McLaglen	Feb. 24,'39†	*85	Feb. 18,'39
Listen, Darling (G) 904	F. Bartholomew-Judy Garland-Mary Astor-Walter Pidgeon	Oct. 21,'38†	75	Oct. 22,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 3,'38, p. 61; Sept. 10,'38, p. 102; Sept. 17,'38, p. 61.)
Love Finds Andy Hardy (G) 841	Mickey Rooney - Judy Garland-Lewis Stone-Cecilia Parker	July 22,'38	91	July 16,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 3,'38, p. 59; Jan. 21,'39, p. 53; Feb. 18,'39, p. 71.)
Marie Antoinette (A) 845	Norma Shearer - Tyrone Power - J. Barrymore-Robert Morley-Anita Louise-Gladys George	Aug. 26,'38	157	July 16,'38
(See production article, Mar. 26,'38, p. 16; exploitation: Sept. 10,'38, p. 98; Oct. 8,'38, p. 60; Oct. 22,'38, p. 66; Nov. 5,'38, p. 53.)
Out West with the Hardys (G) 913	Lewis Stone - Mickey Rooney - Cecilia Parker-Fay Holden	Nov. 25,'38†	85	Nov. 26,'38
Port of Seven Seas (A) 829	Wallace Beery-M. O'Sullivan-Frank Morgan-John Beal	July 7,'38	81	Apr. 9,'38
Rich Man, Poor Girl (G) 843	Robert Young - Ruth Hussey - Guy Kibbee-Lew Ayres	Aug. 12,'38	72	Aug. 13,'38
Shining Hour, The (A) 912	Joan Crawford-Margaret Sullavan - Melvyn Douglas-Robert Young-Fay Bainter	Nov. 18,'38†	76	Nov. 19,'38
Shopworn Angel (G) 835	Margaret Sullavan-Jas. Stewart-Walter Pidgeon-Alan Curtis	July 15,'38	85	July 9,'38
Spring Madness (G) 911	Lew Ayres-Burgess Meredith-Maureen O'Sullivan	Nov. 11,'38†	67	Nov. 12,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 17,'38, pp. 72, 74; Jan. 7,'39, p. 52.)
Stablemates (G) 906	Wallace Beery-Mickey Rooney	Oct. 7,'38†	89	Oct. 8,'38
(Exploitation: Nov. 26,'38, p. 47.)
Stand Up and Fight (G) 918	Robt. Taylor - Wallace Beery - Florence Rice - Helen Broderick - Barton MacLane	Jan. 6,'39†	97	Jan. 7,'39
(Exploitation: Jan. 21,'39, p. 52; Jan. 28,'39, p. 60; Feb. 4,'39, p. 85; Feb. 18,'39, pp. 68, 70.)
Sweethearts (G) 910	Jeanette MacDonald - Nelson Eddy - Florence Rice - Frank Morgan - Mischa Auer	Dec. 30,'38†	114	Dec. 24,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 31,'38, p. 66; Jan. 21,'39, p. 54; Feb. 4,'39, pp. 82, 85; Feb. 18,'39, pp. 70, 71.)
Three Loves Has Nancy (A) 901	Janet Gaynor - R. Montgomery - Franchot Tone	Sept. 2,'38†	69	Sept. 3,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 1,'38, p. 53.)
Too Hot to Handle (G) 903	Clark Gable - Myrna Loy - Walter Pidgeon-Leo Carrillo	Sept. 10,'38†	106	Sept. 17,'38
(Exploitation: Nov. 12,'38, p. 66; Nov. 19,'38, p. 93; Dec. 3,'38, p. 48; Dec. 10,'38, p. 63; Jan. 21,'39, p. 53.)
Vacation from Love (G) 905	Dennis O'Keefe-Florence Rice	Sept. 30,'38†	65	Oct. 8,'38
Young Dr. Kildare (G) 907	Lew Ayres-Lionel Barrymore	Oct. 14,'38†	81	Oct. 15,'38

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Broadway Serenade	Jeanette MacDonald-Lew Ayres-Ian Hunter	Apr. 7,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
Calling Dr. Kildare	Lionel Barrymore-Lew Ayres	Apr. 14,'39†
David Copperfield (reissue) (G) 533	F. Bartholomew-W. C. Fields-Maureen O'Sullivan - Lionel Barrymore-Madge Evans		33	Jan. 19,'35
Goodbye, Mr. Chips	Robert Donat-Greer Garson
Hardys Ride High, The	M. Rooney-L. Stone-F. Holden-C. Parker-A. Rutherford	May 5,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Feb. 11,'39.)
Hundred to One, A*	Melyvn Douglas
Ice Follies of 1939	Original Ice Follies Cast—Joan Crawford-James Stewart-Lew Ayres	Mar. 3,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 24,'38.)
I Take This Woman	Spencer Tracy - Hedy LaMarr - Walter Pidgeon	Apr. 7,'39†
Kid from Texas, The	Dennis O'Keefe-Florence Rice	Mar. 31,'39†	87
Lucky Night	Robert Taylor-Myrna Loy	Apr. 21,'39†
Maiden Voyage	R. Young-Annabella-W. Connolly	Apr. 28,'39†
Penthouse	W. Pidgeon-V. Bruce-L. Carrillo
Pygmalion (A) 980	Leslie Howard-Wendy Hiller	Mar. 3,'39†	87	Sept. 10,'38
(Exploitation: Feb. 18,'39, pp. 68, 70.)
Sergeant Madden	Wallace Beery-Marian Martin-Alan Curtis-Laraine Johnson	Mar. 17,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Feb. 11,'39.)
Tarzan in Exile	J. Weismuller-M. O'Sullivan
(See "Tarzan," "In the Cutting Room," Feb. 18,'39.)
Treasure Island (reissue) (G) 403	Wallace Beery-J. Cooper		103	July 14,'34
Within the Law	Ruth Hussey-Paul Kelly-John King-Lynne Carver	Mar. 24,'39†
Wizard of Oz	Judy Garland - Frank Morgan - R. Bolger-B. Lahr-B. Burke
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 3,'38.)

MONOGRAM

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Barefoot Boy (G) 3810	Jackie Moran-Claire Windsor-Marcia Mae Jones-R. Morgan	Aug. 3,'38†	63	Sept. 3,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 29,'38, p. 57.)
Convict's Code (G) 3822	R. Kent-A. Nagel-S. Blackmer	Jan. 18,'39†	*65	Feb. 11,'39
Drifting Westward 3853	Jack Randall-Edna Duran	Jan. 25,'39†
Gang Bullets (G) 3818	Anne Nagel-Robert Kent	Nov. 16,'38†	63	Dec. 10,'38
Gangster's Boy (G) 3801	Jackie Cooper	Nov. 16,'38†	80	Nov. 12,'38
Gun Packer 3851	Jack Randall	Nov. 9,'38†	49
I Am a Criminal (G) 3812	John Carroll-Mary Kornman	Dec. 7,'38†	73	Dec. 10,'38
Man's Country 3742	Jack Randall	July 6,'38	55
(See "In the Cutting Room," June 4,'38.)
Mexicali Kid (G) 3741	Jack Randall	Sept. 14,'38	51	Sept. 10,'38
Mr. Wong, Detective (G) 3804	Boris Karloff-Evelyn Brent	Oct. 5,'38†	69	Oct. 1,'38
Navy Secrets (G)	Fay Wray-Grant Withers	Feb. 8,'39†	*62	Feb. 18,'39
Song of the Buckaroo (G) 3861	Tex Ritter-Jinx Falkenberg	Dec. 7,'38†	56	Jan. 14,'39
Starlight Over Texas (G) 3859	Tex Ritter-Carmen LaRoux	Sept. 7,'38†	56	Sept. 24,'38
Sundown on the Prairie 3862	Tex Ritter	Feb. 8,'39†
Star Reporter	Warren Hull-Marsha Hunt	Feb. 22,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 28,'39.)
Sweetheart of Sigma Chi (re-issue) (G) 3827	Mary Carlisle - Betty Grable - Larry Crabbe-Leif Erikson	Oct. 10,'38†	65	Oct. 14,'38
Tough Kid (G) 3819	F. Darro-D. Purcell-J. Allen	Dec. 28,'38†	59	Jan. 7,'39
Under the Big Top (G) 3811	M. Main-A. Nagel-J. La Rue	Aug. 31,'38†	63	Sept. 17,'38
Wanted by Police (G) 3817	F. Darro-E. Knapp-R. Kent	Sept. 21,'38†	59	Sept. 24,'38
Where the Buffalo Roam (G) 3860	Tex Ritter-Dorothy Short	Oct. 12,'38†	62	Oct. 29,'38
Wild Horse Canyon (G) 3852	Jack Randall-Dorothy Short	Dec. 21,'38†	50	Jan. 7,'39

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Boys' Reformatory	Frankie Darro	Apr. 5,'39†
Man from Texas 3864	Tex Ritter	Apr. 19,'39†
Mystery of Mr. Wong, The	Boris Karloff-Dorothy Tree	Mar. 1,'39†
Riders of the Rio Grande 3855	Jack Randall	Apr. 30,'39†
Rolling Westward 3863	Tex Ritter	Mar. 1,'39†
Sky Pirate	John Trent-Marjorie Reynolds	Mar. 8,'39†
Streets of New York	J. Cooper-J. Martel-D. Purcell	Mar. 29,'39†
Trigger Smith 3854	Jack Randall	Mar. 15,'39†
Undercover Agent		Mar. 22,'39†
Wanted by Scotland Yard	James Stevenson-Betty Lynne	Apr. 16,'39†
Wolf Call	Movita-John Carroll	Apr. 12,'39†

PARAMOUNT

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Ambush (G)	Gladys Swarthout-Lloyd Nolan	Jan. 20,'39†	*65	Jan. 21,'39
Arkansas Traveler (G) 3806	B. Burns-J. Parker-F. Bainter-Irvin S. Cobb-J. Beal	Oct. 14,'38†	83	Oct. 8,'38
(Exploitation: Aug. 27,'38, p. 79; Sept. 10,'38, p. 105; Oct. 15,'38, p. 54.)
Arrest Bulldog Drummond (G)	John Howard-Heather Angel	Nov. 25,'38†	60	Jan. 21,'39
Artists and Models Abroad (G)	Jack Benny-Joan Bennett-Yacht Club Boys-Mary Boland	Dec. 30,'38†	90	Oct. 29,'38
Booloo (G) 3745	Colin Tapley-Suratna Asmaka	July 2,'38	61	July 23,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 10,'38, p. 99; Nov. 12,'38, p. 69.)
Boy Trouble	Charles Ruggles-Mary Boland	Feb. 17,'39†	*70	Feb. 4,'39
Bulldog Drummond in Africa (G) 3747	J. Howard - H. Angel - H. B. Warner	Aug. 5,'38	60	July 30,'38
Campus Confessions (G) 3802	Hank Luisetti - Betty Grable - Eleanore Whitney	Sept. 23,'38†	65	Sept. 17,'38
Disbarred (G) 3818	Gail Patrick - Otto Kruger - Robert Preston	Jan. 1,'39†	60	Jan. 14,'39
Frontiersman (G) 3856	Wm. Boyd-R. Hayden-G. Hayes	Dec. 16,'38†	74	Nov. 26,'38
Give Me a Sailor (G) 3749	Martha Raye-Bob Hope-Betty Grable-Jack Whiting	Aug. 19,'38	80	July 30,'38
(Exploitation: July 9,'38, p. 46; Oct. 15,'38, p. 51; Oct. 29,'38, p. 57.)
If I Were a King (A)	Ronald Colman - Frances Dee - Basil Rathbone-Ellen Drew	Nov. 11,'38†	100	Sept. 17,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 17,'38, p. 73; Jan. 14,'39, p. 65.)
Illegal Traffic (G) 3809	J. Carroll Naish-Mary Carlisle	Nov. 4,'38†	67	Nov. 5,'38
In Old Mexico (G) 3855	William Boyd-George Hayes	Sept. 9,'38†	62	Aug. 6,'38
King of Alcatraz (A) 3804	Lloyd Nolan - Gail Patrick - J. Carroll Naish	Sept. 30,'38†	58	Oct. 1,'38
Little Orphan Annie (G) 3814	Ann Gillis - Robert Kent - June Travis	Dec. 2,'38†	58	Dec. 3,'38
Men With Wings (G)	Fred MacMurray-Ray Milland-Louise Campbell-Andy Devine	Oct. '38†specl.	105	Oct. 29,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 29,'38, p. 56; Nov. 26,'38, p. 49; Dec. 10,'38, p. 62; Dec. 31,'38, pp. 64, 66; Feb. 4,'39, p. 84; Feb. 18,'39, pp. 68, 71.)
Mysterious Rider (G) 3807	Russell Hayden - Weldon Heyburn - Charlotte Fields	Oct. 21,'38†	90	Sept. 24,'38
One Third of a Nation (A)	Sylvia Sidney-Leif Erikson	Feb. 24,'39†	76	Feb. 18,'39
Paris Honeymoon (G) 3821	Bing Crosby - Franciska Gaal - E. E. Horton-Shirley Ross-Akim Tamiroff	Jan. 27,'39†	85	Dec. 17,'38

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Persons in Hiding (G)	L. Overman-Patricia Morrison	Feb. 10,'39†	*60	Jan. 28,'39
Pride of the West (G) 3854	William Boyd-Charlotte Fields	July 8,'38	55	June 25,'38
Professor Beware (G) 3746	Harold Lloyd - Phyllis Welch - R. Walburn - L. Sander	July 29,'38	87	July 16,'38
(See production article, Feb. 19,'38, p. 16; Sept. 17,'38, p. 63.)
Ride a Crooked Mile (G) 3815	Akim Tamiroff-Frances Farmer-Leif Erikson	Dec. 9,'38†	78	Dec. 3,'38
St. Louis Blues (G)	L. Nolan-D. Lamour-T. Guizar	Feb. 3,'39†	*90	Jan. 28,'39
Say It in French (G)	Olympe Bradna-Ray Milland	Nov. 25,'38†	70	Nov. 26,'38
Sing, You, Sinners (G) 3801	Bing Crosby-Fred MacMurray-Ellen Drew-Donald O'Connor	Sept. 2,'38†	88	Aug. 13,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 7,'39, p. 53.)
Sons of the Legion (G) 3803	Donald O'Connor - Billy Lee - Lynne Overman-Eliz. Patterson-William Frawley	Sept. 16,'38†	60	Sept. 17,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 24,'38, p. 65.)
Spawn of the North (G) 3750	George Raft - Dorothy Lamour - H. Fonda - A. Tamiroff - J. Barrymore - Louise Platt	Aug. 26,'38	110	Aug. 20,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 15,'38, p. 50; Nov. 12,'38, p. 65.)
Texans, The (G) 3748	Randolph Scott - Joan Bennett - M. Robson - W. Brennan - R. Cummings	Aug. 12,'38	90	July 23,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 3,'38, pp. 59, 60; Sept. 17,'38, p. 64.)
Thanks for the Memory (G)	B. Hope-S. Ross-C. Butterworth	Nov. 18,'38†	75	Nov. 12,'38
Tom Sawyer, Detective (G) 3811	Donald O'Connor - Robt. Kent - June Travis	Dec. 23,'38†	68	Dec. 24,'38
Touchdown Army (G) 3805	Mary Carlisle-John Howard	Oct. 7,'38†	70	Sept. 24,'38
Tropic Holiday (G) 3744	Dorothy Lamour-Ray Milland-Bob Burns-Martha Ray	July 1,'38	75	June 25,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 24,'38, p. 64; Nov. 5,'38, p. 53; Dec. 24,'38, p. 57.)
Zaza (A) 3819	C. Colbert-H. Marshall-B. Lahr	Jan. 13,'39†	86	Jan. 7,'39

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Back Door to Heaven	Patricia Ellis-Wallace Ford	Apr. 14,'39†
Beachcomber, The (A)	Chas. Laughton-Elsa Lanchester	Mar. 10,'39†	88	Nov. 26,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 14,'39, p. 65.)
Beau Geste	Gary Cooper - Ray Milland - Robert Preston-Brian Donlevy-Donald O'Connor
Bulldog Drummond's Secret Police	John Howard-Heather Angel	Apr. 21,'39†
Cafe Society (G)	Fred MacMurray - Madeleine Carroll - Shirley Ross	Mar. 3,'39†	*82	Feb. 11,'39
Federal Offense	L. Nolan-J. C. Naish-H. Angel
(See "In the Cutting Room," Feb. 4,'39.)
Gracie Allen Murder Case	Gracie Allen-Warren William-Kent Taylor-Ellen Drew
Grand Jury's Secrets	John Howard-Gail Patrick
Heritage of the Desert	Evelyn Venable-Donald Woods
Hotel Imperial	Isa Miranda-Ray Milland	Mar. 24,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
I'm from Missouri	Bob Burns-Gladys George	Apr. 7,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
Invitation to Happiness	Irene Dunne-Fred MacMurray-Donald O'Connor-C. Ruggles
King of Chinatown	Anna May Wong-Lloyd Nolan	Mar. 17,'39†
Lady's from Kentucky, The	George Raft-Ellen Drew-Hugh Herbert-Zasu Pitts	May 12,'39†
Magnificent Fraud, The*	A. Tamiroff-L. Nolan
Man About Town	J. Benny-D. Lamour-E. Arnold	May 26,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Feb. 18,'39.)
Midnight	Claudette Colbert-Don Ameche-Francis Lederer - John Barrymore - Mary Astor	May 19,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 28,'39.)
Never Say Die	Bob Hope-Martha Raye	Apr. 21,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
Renegade Trail	W. Boyd-R. Hayden-G. Hayes
(See "Arizona Bracelets," "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
Silver on the Sage (G)	Wm. Boyd-Geo. Hayes	Mar. 31,'39	*65	Feb. 11,'39
Some Like It Hot	Gene Krupa & Orch.-Shirley Ross-Bob Hope-Una Merkel
Stolen Life (A)	Elizabeth Bergner-Michael Regrave	May 5,'39†	92	Feb. 18,'39
Sudden Money	B. Lee-M.Rambeau-C. Ruggles	Mar. 31,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
Sunset Trail (G) 3857	Wm. Boyd-R. Hayden-G. Hayes	Feb. 24,'39†	68	Oct. 22,'38
Union Pacific	Joel McCrea-Barbara Stanwyck-Akim Tamiroff-Robt. Preston	Apr. 28,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 17,'38; exploitation: Feb. 18,'39, p. 72.)
Unmarried	Buck Jones-Helen Twelvetrees	May 26,'39†
(See "Me and My Gal," "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)

REPUBLIC

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Army Girl (G) 7002	Preston Foster - Madge Evans - Neil Hamilton-Ruth Donnelly	July 15,'38	88	July 16,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 7,'39, p. 52.)
Billy the Kid Returns 851	Roy Rogers - Mary Hart - Smiley Burnette	Sept. 4,'38†	56	Sept. 24,'38
Come On, Leathernecks (G) 7024	Richard Cromwell-Marsha Hunt-Bruce MacFarlane	Aug. 8,'38	65	Aug. 27,'38
Come on Rangers! (G) 818	Roy Rogers-Mary Hart	Nov. 25,'38†	57	Nov. 26,'38
Desperate Adventure, A (G) 7013	Ramon Novarro - Margt. Tallichet-Marian Marsh-E. Blore	Aug. 15,'38	65	July 30,'38
Down in "Arkansaw" (G) 805	Ralph Byrd - Weaver Bros. - Elviry - Pinky Tomlin	Oct. 8,'38†	66	Oct. 1,'38
Durango Valley Raiders 7128	Bob Steele-Louise Stanley	Aug. 22,'38	55
Federal Man Hunt (G) 820	Robt. Livingstone-June Travis	Dec. 26,'38†	64	Jan. 14,'39
Fighting Thoroughbreds (G) 821	R. Byrd-M. Carlisle-R. Allen	Jan. 6,'39†	65	Jan. 21,'39
Forged Passport (G)	P. Kelly-L. Talbot-J. Lang	Feb. 24,'39†	*64	Feb. 11,'39
Gold Mine in the Sky (G) 7103	Gene Autry - Carol Hughes - Smiley Burnette	July 4,'38	60	July 16,'38
Heroes of the Hills (G) 7118	Three Mesquiteers-P. Lawson	Aug. 1,'38	56	Aug. 6,'38
Higgins Family, The (G) 7014	Gleasons, James-Lucille-Russell	Aug. 29,'38	64	Sept. 10,'38
Home on the Prairie (G) 842	Gene Autry-Smiley Burnette	Feb. 3,'39†	58	Feb. 11,'39
I Stand Accused (G) 806	R. Cummings - H. Mack - L. Talbot - T. Beck	Oct. 29,'38†	63	Oct. 22,'38
Man from Music Mountain (G) 7104	Gene Autry - Smiley Burnette - Carol Hughes	Aug. 15,'38	58	Aug. 13,'38
Mysterious Miss X (G) 809	M. Whalen-M. Hart-C. Chandler	Jan. 10,'39†	65	Jan. 14,'39
Night Hawk, The (G) 817	Robt. Livingston-June Travis-Robert Armstrong	Oct. 1,'38†	63	Sept. 24,'38
Orphans of the Street (G) 819	Robt. Livingston-June Storey-Tommy Ryan	Dec. 5,'38†	64	Dec. 17,'38
Overland Stage Raiders (G) 862	Three Mesquiteers-Louise Brooks	Sept. 20,'38†	55	Oct. 1,'38
Pals of the Saddle (G) 861	Three Mesquiteers - Doreen McKay	Aug. 28,'38†	55	Sept. 24,'38
Prairie Moon 7107	Gene Autry - Shirley Deane - Smiley Burnette	Oct. 7,'38	58
Pride of the Navy (G) 822	J. Dunn-R. Hudson-G. Oliver	Jan. 23,'39†	65	Jan. 21,'39
Red River Range 864	Three Mesquiteers-Lorna Gray-Polly Moran	Dec. 22,'38†	56
(See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 19,'38.)
Rhythm of the Saddle (G) 7108	Gene Autry-Smiley Burnette	Nov. 5,'38†	58	Nov. 12,'38
Santa Fe Stampede (G) 863	Three Mesquiteers-June Martel	Nov. 18,'38†	56	Dec. 10,'38
Shine On Harvest Moon 852	Roy Rogers-Mary Hart	Dec. 23,'38†	57
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 3,'38.)
Storm Over Bengal (G) 807	Patric Knowles - Richard Cromwell-Rochelle Hudson	Nov. 14,'38†	65	Nov. 12,'38
Tenth Avenue Kid (G) 7025	Bruce Cabot-Beverly Roberts	Aug. 22,'38	65	Sept. 3,'38
Western Jamboree (G) 841	Gene Autry - Smiley Burnette - Jean Rouverol	Dec. 2,'38†	56	Dec. 24,'38
Woman Doctor (G) 808	Frieda Inescort-Henry Wilcoxon-Claire Dodd-Sybil Jason	Feb. 6,'39†	65	Feb. 4,'39

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Flight at Midnight	Col. Roscoe Turner
I Was a Convict	Barton MacLane-Beverly Roberts	Mar. 6,'39†	65
Lone Star Bullets*	Max Terhune-Ray Carrigan
Man of Conquest	Richard Dix-Gail Patrick-Edward Ellis-Max Terhune
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 28,'39.)
Mexicali Rose	Gene Autry-Smiley Burnette
(See "In the Cutting Room," Feb. 18,'39.)
My Wife's Relatives	Gleasons, Jas., Lucille, Russell
Rough Riders Round-up	Roy Rogers-Mary Hart
Street of Missing Men	Charles Bickford
Three Texas Steers	Three Mesquiteers

RKO RADIO

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Affairs of Annabel, The (G) 902	Jack Oakie-L. Ball-R. Donnelly	Sept. 9,'38†	68	July 16,'38
Annabel Takes a Tour (G) 908	Jack Oakie-L. Ball-R. Donnelly	Nov. 11,'38†	67	Oct. 22,'38
Arizona Legion (G) 982	George O'Brien-Laraine Johnson	Jan. 20,'39†	58	Jan. 14,'39
Beauty for the Asking (G) 915	L. Ball-D. Woods-P. Knowles	Feb. 24,'39†	68	Jan. 28,'39
Border G-Man (G) 882	George O'Brien-Ray Whitley	June 24,'38	60	June 18,'38
Boy Slaves 911 (G)	Anne Shirley-Roger Daniel	Feb. 10,'39†	72	Jan. 14,'39
Breaking the Ice (G) 845	Bobby Breen - Irene Dare - D. Costello - Chas. Ruggles	Aug. 26,'38	82	Aug. 27,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 29,'38, p. 58.)
Carefree 837 (G)	Fred Astaire - Ginger Rogers - Ralph Bellamy	Sept. 2,'38	83	Sept. 3,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 17,'38, p. 60; Oct. 1,'38, p. 54; Oct. 8,'38, pp. 62, 64.)
Crime Ring (G) 836	Allan Lane-Frances Mercer	July 8,'38	70	July 30,'38
Fisherman's Wharf (G) 844	B. Breen-H. Armetta-L. Carrillo	Feb. 3,'39	*70	Jan. 28,'39
Fugitives for a Night (G) 903	F. Albertson-E. Lynn-A. Ames	Sept. 23,'38†	63	Aug. 27,'38
Great Man Votes, The (G) 913	John Barrymore - Katharine Alexander - Peter Holden - Virginia Weidler	Jan. 13,'39†	72	Jan. 14,'39
Gunga Din (G) 912	Cary Grant - Victor McLaglen - D. Fairbanks, Jr.-J. Fontaine	Feb. 17,'39†	*135	Jan. 28,'39
Having Wonderful Time (A) 819	Ginger Rogers - D. Fairbanks, Jr.-Lucille Ball-Peggy Conklin	July 1,'38	70	June 18,'38
(Exploitation: July 23,'38, p. 67; Aug. 6,'38, p. 77; Sept. 3,'38, p. 63; Sept. 17,'38, p. 63; Sept. 24,'38, p. 65; Oct. 1,'38, p. 53; Oct. 15,'38, p. 54; Nov. 12,'38, p. 68; Nov. 26,'38, p. 49; Dec. 17,'38, p. 74.)
I'm from the City (G) 834	Joe Penner-Kay Sutton	Aug. 5,'38	66	July 30,'38
Lawless Valley (G) 981	George O'Brien-Kay Sutton	Nov. 4,'38†	59	Nov. 5,'38
Law West of Tombstone, The (G) 909	Jean Rouverol-Harry Carey-Tim Holt-Evelyn Brent	Nov. 18,'38†	73	Nov. 19,'38
(See "In the Cutting Room," Oct. 8,'38.)
Little Women (re-issue) (G) 871	K. Hepburn - Joan Bennett - P. Lukas-F. Dee-J. Parker	July 8,'38	107	Nov. 11,'38
Lost Patrol (re-issue) (A) 991	V. McLaglen-B. Karloff-W. Ford	Feb. 17,'39†	73	Feb. 3,'34

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Mad Miss Manton (G) 906	Barbara Stanwyck-Henry Fonda. Frances Mercer - Whitney Bourne	Oct. 21,'38†	80	Oct. 15,'38
(Exploitation: Nov. 12,'38, p. 64.)
Man to Remember, A (G) 905	Anne Shirley-Lee Bowman-Edward Ellis	Oct. 14,'38†	79	Oct. 1,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 10,'38, p. 64.)
Mother Carey's Chickens (G) 833	Ruby Keeler - Anne Shirley - J. Ellison-F. Bainter-R. Morgan	July 15,'38	82	July 30,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 3,'38, p. 59.)
Mr. Doodle Kicks Off (G) 904	J. Penner - J. Travis - R. Lane	Oct. 7,'38†	76	Sept. 24,'38
Next Time I Marry (G) 910	Lucille Ball-James Ellison	Dec. 9,'38†	65	Dec. 10,'38
Pacific Liner (G) 914	Victor McLaglen-Chester Morris-Wendy Barrie	Jan. 6,'39†	75	Dec. 31,'38
Painted Desert (G) 883	George O'Brien-Ray Whitley	Aug. 12,'38	59	Aug. 6,'38
Peck's Bad Boy with the Circus (G) 948	Tommy Kelly-Ann Gillis-Edgar Kennedy-Spanky MacFarland	Nov. 25,'38†	68	Nov. 26,'38
Renegade Ranger, The 884	George O'Brien-Rita Hayworth-Ray Whitley	Sept. 16,'38	59
(See "In the Cutting Room," Aug. 20,'38.)
Room Service (G) 901	Marx Brothers - Ann Miller - Lucille Ball-F. Albertson	Sept. 30,'38†	78	Sept. 10,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 8,'38, p. 64; Oct. 22,'38, p. 66; Nob. 5,'38, p. 50; Nov. 26,'38, p. 48; Dec. 3,'38, p. 50; Dec. 10,'38, p. 63.)
Sky Giant (G) 835	Richard Dix - Chester Morris - Joan Fontaine	July 29,'38	80	July 23,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 17,'38, pp. 61, 62.)
Smashing the Rackets (G) 832	C. Morris-F. Mercer-R. Johnson	Aug. 19,'38	69	Aug. 20,'38
Star of Midnight (re-issue) (G) 990	Ginger Rogers-William Powell	Feb. 17,'39†	90	Apr. 6,'35
Tarnished Angel (G) 907	S. Eilers-A. Miller-L. Bowman	Oct. 28,'38†	68	Oct. 29,'38
Coming Attractions
Almost a Gentleman 920	James Ellison-Helen Wood	Mar. 31,'39†
(See "Picardy Max," "In the Cutting Room," Feb. 18,'39.)
Fixer Dugan	Lee Tracy-Peggy Shannon
Flying Irishman, The 919	Douglas Corrigan-Paul Kelly-Robert Armstrong	Mar. 17,'39† (pre-release)
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 24,'38.)
Love Affair 916	I. Dunne-C. Boyer-L. Bowman	Mar. 10,'39† (pre-release)
(See "In the Cutting Room." Nov. 5,'38.)
Saint Strikes Back, The (G) 918	George Sanders-Wendy Barrie	Mar. 10,'39†	*64	Feb. 18,'39
Sixty Glorious Years (G)	Anna Neagle-Anton Walbrook-C. Aubrey Smith		95	Oct. 29,'38
Sorority House*	Anne Shirley-James Ellison
Story of Vernon and Irene Castle, The 838	Fred Astaire - Ginger Rogers - Edna Mae Oliver - Walter Brennan	Apr. 7,'39
(See "The Romantic Vernon Castle," "In The Cutting Room," Dec. 17,'38.)
They Made Her a Spy	Sally Eilers-Allan Lane
(See "In the Cutting Room," Feb. 11,'39.)
Trouble in Sundown 893	G. O'Brien-R. Keith-R. Whitley	Mar. 24,'39
Twelve Crowded Hours (A) 917	Richard Dix-Lucille Ball	Mar. 3,'39†	*65	Feb. 18,'39

TWENTIETH CENTURY-FOX

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Alexander's Ragtime Band (G) 903	T. Power-A. Faye-D. Ameche	Aug. 19,'38†	106	May 28,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 3,'38, p. 60; Sept. 10,'38, p. 99; Oct. 1,'38, p. 52; Oct. 8,'38, p. 64; Nov. 12,'38, p. 69; Nov. 19,'38, p. 92; Nov. 26,'38, p. 47; Jan. 7,'39, p. 52.)
Always Goodbye (A) 852	Barbara Stanwyck-H. Marshall-Binnie Barnes-Ian Hunter	July 1,'38	75	July 2,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 29,'38, p. 56.)
Always in Trouble (G) 914	J. Withers-R. Kellard-J. Rogers	Oct. 28,'38†	69	Aug. 20,'38
Arizona Wildcat, The (G) 929	Jane Withers - Leo Carrillo - Pauline Moore - H. Wilcoxon	Feb. 3,'39†	69	Nov. 19,'38
Charlie Chan in Honolulu (G) 928	Sidney Toler-Phyllis Brooks	Jan. 20,'39†	68	Dec. 24,'38
Down on the Farm (G) 920	Jed Prouty - Spring Byington - Louise Fazenda	Dec. 16,'38†	61	Oct. 15,'38
Five of a Kind (G) 919	Dionne Quintuplets-J. Hersholt-Claire Trevor - Joan Davis - Slim Summerville	Oct. 14,'38†	85	Oct. 15,'38
(Exploitation: Nov. 5,'38, p. 51; Jan. 7,'39, p. 53.)
Gateway (G) 901	Don Ameche - Arleen Whelan - L. Talbot-G. Ratoff-B. Barnes	Aug. 5,'38†	74	Aug. 6,'38
Hold That Co-ed (G) 907	J. Barrymore-Marjorie Weaver-Geo. Murphy-Jack Haley	Sept. 16,'38†	80	Sept. 17,'38
I'll Give a Million (G) 855	Warner Baxter-Marjorie Weaver-Jean Hersholt-Peter Lorre	July 22,'38	75	July 16,'38
Jesse James (G) 921	Tyrone Power - Henry Fonda - Nancy Kelly-Randolph Scott	Jan. 27,'39†	*105	Jan. 14,'39
(Exploitation: Jan. 14,'39, p. 63; Jan. 21,'39, pp. 52, 54; Feb. 4,'39, p. 83; Feb. 11,'39, pp. 58, 61.)
Just Around the Corner (G) 915	Shirley Temple - Joan Davis - Chas. Farrell-Armanda Duff-Bert Lahr-Bill Robinson	Nov. 11,'38†	71	Nov. 5,'38
Keep Smiling (G) 902	Jane Withers - Gloria Stuart - H. Wilcoxon-Helen Westley	Aug. 12,'38†	77	June 11,'38
Kentucky (G) 923	Loretta Young-Richard Greene-Walter Brennan	Dec. 30,'38†	96	Dec. 24,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 17,'38, p. 75; Jan. 7,'39, p. 53; Feb. 11,'39, p. 58.)
Little Miss Broadway (G) 856	Shirley Temple-Jimmy Durante-George Murphy - Edna Mae Oliver	July 29,'38	71	July 9,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 17 '38, p. 62.)
Meet the Girls 910	J. Lang-L. Bari-R. Allen	Oct. 7,'38†	66
Mr. Moto's Last Warning 926	Peter Lorre - Geo. Sanders - R. Cortez-Virginia Field	Feb. 24,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 24,'38.)
My Lucky Star (G) 905	Sonja Henie - Richard Greene - J. Davis-C. Romero-B. Ebsen	Sept. 2,'38†	84	Sept. 3,'38
(Exploitation: Feb. 4,'39, p. 83.)
Mysterious Mr. Moto (G) 912	Peter Lorre-Mary Maguire	Oct. 21,'38†	63	June 4,'38
Panamint's Bad Man 853	Smith Ballew-Evelyn Daw	July 8,'38	60
Pardon Our Nerve (G) 931	Michael Whalen-Lynn Bari	Feb. 24,'39†	68	Nov. 19,'38
Passport Husband (G) 854	S. Erwin-P. Moore-J. Woodbury	July 8,'38	67	July 2,'38
Road Demon (G) 918	Henry Arthur-Joan Valerie	Dec. 2,'38†	70	Aug. 27,'38
Safety in Numbers (G) 906	J. Prouty-S. Byington-S. Deane	Sept. 9,'38†	58	Aug. 13,'38
Sharpshooters (G) 916	Brian Donlevy-Lynn Bari	Nov. 18,'38†	64	Sept. 24,'38
Smiling Along (G) 933	Gracie Fields-Mary Maguire-Roger Livesey	Jan. 20,'39†	92	Oct. 22,'38
Speed to Burn (G) 904	Lynn Bari-Michael Whalen	Aug. 26,'38†	62	June 11,'38
Straight Place and Show (G) 911	Ritz Bros. - Ethel Merman - Richard Arlen-Phyllis Brooks	Sept. 30,'38†	68	Oct. 1,'38
Submarine Patrol (G) 909	Richard Greene-Nancy Kelly-Preston Foster-Geo. Bancroft	Nov. 25,'38†	95	Nov. 5,'38
(Exploitation: Nov. 5,'38, p. 52; Feb. 11,'39, p. 58.)
Suez (G) 913	Loretta Young-Tyrone Power-Annabella	Oct. 28,'38†	104	Oct. 22,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 17,'38, p. 73; Jan. 7,'39, p. 50; Jan. 21,'39, p. 52.)
Tail Spin (G) 925	A. Faye - C. Bennett - Nancy Kelly-J. Davis-Chas. Farrell	Feb. 10,'39†	*80	Feb. 4,'39
(Exploitation: Feb. 18,'39, p. 69.)
Thank You, Mr. Moto (G) 831	Peter Lorre-Jayne Regan	Dec. 24,'37	67	Nov. 27,'37
Thanks for Everything (G) 917	J. Haley-A. Menjou-A. Whelan-J. Oakie - T. Martin	Dec. 23,'38†	73	Dec. 10,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 17,'38, p. 75.)
Three Musketeers, The (G) 927	Ritz Brothers - D. Ameche - G. Stuart - Binne Barnes	Feb. 17,'39†	74	Feb. 11,'39
Time Out for Murder (G) 908	Gloria Stuart-Michael Whalen	Sept. 23,'38†	60	July 2,'38
Up the River (G) 924	Preston Foster-Phyllis Brooks-Tony Martin-Arthur Treacher	Dec. 9,'38†	77	Nov. 5,'38
(Exploitaticn: Feb. 18,'39, p. 69.)
We're Going to Be Rich (G) 857	Gracie Fields-Victor McLaglen-Brian Donlevy	July 8,'38	78	July 16,'38
While New York Sleeps (G) 922	Michael Whalen-Joan Woodbury-	Jan. 6,'39†	61	Aug. 27,'38
Coming Attractions
Alexander Graham Bell	Don Ameche - Henry Fonda - Loretta Young-Young Sisters	Apr. 14,'39†
Charlie Chan in Reno	S. Toler-P. Brooks-R. Cortez
Chasing Danger (G)	Preston Foster - Lynn Bari	May 5,'39†	*60	Jan. 14,'39
Everybody's Baby (A) 931	J. Prouty-S. Byington-S. Deane	Mar. 24,'39†	62	Nov. 26,'38
Gorilla, The*	Ritz Bros.-Anita Louise-Bela Lugosi-Patsy Kelly
Hound of the Baskervilles	Richard Greene-Basil Rathbone-Anita Louise-Nigel Bruce	Mar. 31,'39†
Inside Story (G) 934	Michael Whalen-Jean Rogers	Mar. 10,'39†	*60	Oct. 22,'38
Jones Family in Hollywood	Jed Prouty-Spring Byington
Little Princess, The 932	Shirley Temple-Richard Greene-Anita Louise - Ian Hunter - Cesar Romero-Arthur Treacher	Mar. 17,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 28,'39.)
Mr. Moto in Danger Island	P. Lorre-J. Hersholt-A. Duff	Apr. 7,'39†
Mr. Moto Takes a Vacation (G)	Peter Lorre - Virginia Field - John King-Joseph Schildkraut		68	Nov. 19,'38
News Is Made at Night	Preston Foster-Lynn Bari
Police School	J. Withers - R. Kellard - A. Whelan
Rose of Washington Square	Tyrone Power - Alice Faye - Al Jolson - Marie Wilson
Stanley and Livingstone	S. Tracy-R. Greene-N. Kelly-W. Brennan - C. Coburn - H. Hull-Sir C. Hardwicke
Susannah of the Mounties	Shirley Temple-Randolph Scott
Wife, Husband and Friend (G) 930	Loretta Young-Warner Baxter-Binnie Barnes-Cesar Romero	Mar. 3,'39†	*75	Feb. 18,'39
Winner Take All	Tony Martin-Gloria Stuart-Slim Summerville-Henry Armetta	Apr. 21,'59†

UNITED ARTISTS

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Algiers (A)	Charles Boyer - Sigrid Gurie - Hedy Lamarr - Jos. Calleia - Alan Hale - Gene Lockhart	Aug. 5,'38†	96	July 2,'38
(Exploitation: July 23,'38, p. 66; Aug. 6,'38, pp. 75, 78; Sept. 17,'38, p. 63; Oct. 15,'38, p. 54; Nov. 12,'38, pp. 67, 69.)
Cowboy and the Lady, The (G)	Gary Cooper - Merle Oberon - David Niven-Walter Brennan-Thomas Mitchell-Patsy Kelly	Nov. 17,'38†	90	Nov. 12,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 24,'38, p. 54; Jan. 28,'39, p. 59.)
Drums (G)	Raymond Massey - Sabu - Roger Livesey - Valerie Hobson	Sept. 30,'38†	96	Apr. 30,'38
(Reviewed under the title, "The Drum"; exploitation: Nov. 5,'38, p. 50; Nov. 19,'38, p. 94; Nov. 26,'38, p. 46; Dec. 3,'38, pp. 48, 49; Dec. 10,'38, p. 63; Dec. 24,'38, p. 54; Jan. 7,'39, p. 53; Jan. 14,'38, p. 64.)
Duke of West Point (G)	L. Hayward - J. Fontaine - R. Carlson	Dec. 29,'38†	109	Dec. 17,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 14,'38, p. 64; Feb. 4,'39, pp. 82, 84; Feb. 11,'39, p. 59.)
King of the Turf (G)	A. Menjou-D. Daniel-D. Costello	Feb. 17,'39†	88	Feb. 11,'39
Made for Each Other (G)	Carole Lombard-James Stewart-Lucille Watson-Chas. Coburn	Feb. 10,'39†	*84	Feb. 4,'39

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
South Riding (A)	Ralph Richardson-Edna Best	July 1,'38	90	Jan. 22,'38
There Goes My Heart (G)	Fredric March-Virginia Bruce-Patsy Kelly - Alan Mowbray-Nancy Carroll-Eugene Pallette	Oct. 14,'38†	84	Oct. 1,'38
(Exploitation: Nov. 19,'38, p. 94; Nov. 26,'38, p. 49.)
Topper Takes a Trip (G)	Constance Bennett-Roland Young-Billie Burke-Alan Mowbray	Jan. 12,'39†	80	Dec. 31,'38
(Exploitation: Feb. 4,'39, p. 82.)
Trade Winds (G)	Fredric March - Joan Bennett - Ralph Bellamy-Ann Sothern	Dec. 22,'38†	95	Dec. 24,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 21,'39, p. 54; Feb. 18,'39, p. 69.)
Young in Heart, The (G)	Janet Gaynor-D. Fairbanks, Jr.-P. Goddard-B. Burke-R. Young	Oct. 27,'38†	90	Nov. 5,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 17,'38, p. 73; Jan. 7,'39, p. 51; Jan. 14,'39, p. 65.)

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Captain Fury	Brian Aherne-Victor McLaglen-Paul Lukas-June Lang
Four Feathers	John Clements - June Duprez - C. Aubrey Smith-Ralph Richardson	Apr. 7,'39†
It's Spring Again	Oliver Hardy - Harry Langdon - Billie Burke - Alice Brady - James Ellison - J. Lang - J. Parker
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 14,'39.)
Last Frontier, The	Gary Cooper-Andrea Leeds
Man in the Iron Mask	Louis Hayward-Joan Bennett
Over the Moon	Merle Oberon - Rex Harrison - Louis Borell
Prison Without Bars	Corrine Luchaire-Edna Best
Restless Age, The	Jascha Heifetz-Sigrid Gurie
Stagecoach (G)	Claire Trevor - Andy Devine - John Wayne-George Bancroft	Mar. 3,'39†	96	Feb. 11,'39
Wuthering Heights	Merle Oberon-Lawrence Olivier-Flora Robson-David Niven
(See "In the Cutting Room," Feb. 4,'39.)

UNIVERSAL

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Black Bandit 3051	Bob Baker-Marjorie Reynolds	Sept. 16,'38†	57
Danger on the Air (G) 2032	D. Woods-N. Grey-W. Lundigan	July 1,'38	66	July 2,'38
Dark Rapture (G) 3041	Mr. and Mrs. Armand Denis	Aug. 26,'38	80	Oct. 15,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 29,'38, p. 57.)
Exposed (G) 3032	Glenda Farrell - Otto Kruger - Herbert Mundin	Nov. 4,'38†	63	Nov. 26,'38
Freshman Year (G) 3025	Dixie Dunbar - Ernest Truex - Wm. Lundigan-C. Moore	Sept. 2,'38†	68	Dec. 24,'38
Gambling Ship (G) 3023	Robert Wilcox-Helen Mack	Jan. 20,'39†	62	Aug. 20,'38
Ghost Town Riders 3054	Bob Baker-Fay Shannon	Dec. 16,'38†	54
Guilty Trail 3052	Bob Baker-Marjorie Reynolds	Oct. 21,'38†	57
His Exciting Night (G) 3036	Chas. Ruggles-Ona Munson	Nov. 11,'38†	61	Dec. 10,'38
Last Express, The (G) 3028	K. Taylor-Dorothea Kent	Oct. 28,'38†	63	Oct. 1,'38
(See "In the Cutting Room," Sept. 24,'38.)
Last Warning, The (G) 3027	P. Foster-F. Jenks-F. Robinson	Jan. 6,'39†	63	Dec. 10,'38
Letter of Introduction (G) 2003	E. Bergen-"Charlie McCarthy"-Andrea Leeds-Adolphe Menjou	Aug. 5,'38	103	Aug. 6,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 10,'38, pp. 103, 105; Nov. 5,'38, p. 50.)
Little Tough Guys (A) 2008	"Dead End" Kids-R. Wilcox-Helen Parrish	July 22,'38	67	July 10,'38
(Exploitation: Nov. 12,'38, p. 66.)
Little Tough Guys in Society (G) 3011	Mary Boland-Edw. Horton-Mischo Auer-Helen Parrish	Nov. 25,'38†	73	Nov. 26,'38
Mars Attacks the World (G) 3042	Larry Crabbe-Jean Rogers	Nov. 18,'38†	68	Nov. 19,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 10,'38, p. 62.)
Missing Guest, The (G) 2031	P. Kelly-C. Moore-W. Lundigan	Aug. 12,'38	68	Aug. 20,'38
Newsboys Home 3015	Jackie Cooper - Wendy Barrie - Edmund Lowe - "Little Tough Guys"	Dec. 23,'38†	73
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 17,'38.)
Personal Secretary 3034	W. Gargan-J. Hodges-A. Devine	Sept. 9,'38†	62
Phantom Stage, The 3056	Bob Baker-Marjorie Reynolds	Feb. 10,'39†	57
Pirates of the Skies 3033	Taylor-Rochelle Hudson	Feb. 3,'39†	61
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 3,'38.)
Prairie Justice 3053	Bob Baker-Dorothy Southworth	Nov. 4,'38	57
Prison Break (G) 2028	Barton MacLane-Glenda Farrell-Constance Moore-Robt. Wilcox	July 15,'38	72	July 23,'38
Rage of Paris, The (G) 2005	D. Darrieux-D. Fairbanks, Jr.-Micha Auer-H. Broderick	July 1,'38	78	June 18,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 17,'38, p. 64.)
Road to Reno (G) 3017	Hope Hampton - R. Scott - Helen Broderick - Glenda Farrell - Alan Marshall	Sept. 23,'38†	69	Sept. 3,'38
Secrets of a Nurse (G) 3022	E. Lowe-D. Foran-H. Mack	Dec. 9,'38†	75	Nov. 19,'38
Service De Luxe (G) 3013	C. Bennet-V. Price-C. Ruggles-M. Auer - H. Broderick - Joy Hodges	Oct. 21,'38†	86	Oct. 29,'38
Society Smugglers	Preston Foster-Irene Hervey	Feb. 24,'39†	70
(See "In the Cutting Room," Feb. 18,'39.)
Son of Frankenstein, The (G) 3004	Basil Rathbone - Boris Karloff-Bela Lugosi-Josephine Hutchinson	Jan. 13,'39†	94	Jan. 21,'39
Storm, The (G) 3016	Chas. Bickford-B. MacLane-P. Foster-Tom Brown-Nan Grey	Oct. 28,'38†	78	Nov. 5,'38
	D. Kent-F. Jenks-A. Devine	Dec. 2,'38†	65	Nov. 12,'38
Strange Faces 3035	Ken Murray - Ernest Truex -
Swing, Sister, Swing (G) 3021	Kathryn Kane-Johnny Downs	Dec. 16,'38†	67	Dec. 17,'38
Swing That Cheer (G) 3026	T. Brown-A. Devine-C. Moore	Oct. 14,'38†	63	Nov. 19,'38
That Certain Age (G) 2007	Deanna Durbin-Jackie Cooper-Melvyn Douglas-Irene Rich-John Halliday	Oct. 7,'38	101	Oct. 8,'38
(Exploitation: Nov. 19,'38, p. 94; Dec. 17,'38, p. 74.)
You Can't Cheat an Honest Man (G)	W. C. Fields - Edgar Bergen-"Charlie McCarthy" - Frank Jenks	Feb. 17,'39†	79	Feb. 18,'39
Youth Takes a Fling (G) 3012	Joel McCrea - Andrea Leeds - Dorothea Kent-Frank Jenks	Sept. 30,'38†	79	Oct. 1,'38

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Code of the Streets (G)	Frankie Thomas - Harry Carey - "Little Tough Guys"	May 5,'39†	*71	Feb. 4,'39
East Side of Heaven	B. Crosley-J. Blondell-M. Auer	Apr. 7,'39†
Family Next Door*	H. Herbert - J. Hodges - J. Quigley	Mar. 31,'39†
Mystery of the White Room	B. Cabot-H. Mack-C. Worth	Mar. 17,'39†
Risky Business	George Murphy-Dorothea Kent	Mar. 3,'39†
Spirit of Culver	Jackie Cooper-F. Bartholomew-A. Devine-H. Hull-J. Moran	Mar. 10,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Feb. 11,'39.)
Three Smart Girls Grow Up	D. Durbin-N. Grey-H. Parrish-C. Winninger-R. Cummings-William Lundigan	Mar. 24,'39†

WARNER BROTHERS-FIRST NATIONAL

First National Pictures

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Amazing Dr. Clitterhouse, The (A) 262	Edw. G. Robinson - C. Trevor - Humphrey Bogart-A. Jenkins	July 30,'38	87	June 25,'38
(Exploitation: July 30,'38, p. 80; Oct. 1,'38, p. 57; Oct. 15,'38, p. 51; Nov. 5,'38, p. 54; Dec. 24,'38, p. 58.)
Angels with Dirty Faces (A) 351	James Cagney - Pat O'Brien - Ann Sheridan-"Crime School Kids"-Humphrey Bogart	Nov. 26,'38†	97	Oct. 29,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 24,'38, p. 56; Jan. 7,'39, p. 52; Feb. 4,'39, p. 82.)
Broadway Musketeers (G) 368	Margt. Lindsay - M. Wilson - A. Sheridan - John Litel - Janet Chapman	Oct. 8,'38†	62	Sept. 3,'38
Brother Rat (G) 355	W. Morris-P. Lane-J. Bryan	Oct. 29,'38†	89	Oct. 15,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 14,'39, pp. 64, 65, 66; Jan. 28,'39, p. 60.)
Comet Over Broadway (G) 370	Kay Francis-Ian Hunter	Dec. 3,'38	69	Dec. 17,'38
Four Daughters (G) 352	Lane Sisters - Jeffrey Lynn - G. Page-C. Rains-J. Garfield	Sept. 24,'38†	90	Aug. 13,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 24,'38, p. 64; Oct. 15,'38, p. 54; Nov. 12,'38, p. 64; Nov. 26,'38, 46; Dec. 10,'38, p. 64; Dec. 17,'38, p. 76; Jan. 7,'39, p. 54; Jan. 21,'39, p. 53.)
Garden of the Moon (G) 358	Pat O'Brien-Margaret Lindsay-John Payne-Johnnie Davis	Oct. 1,'38	94	July 30,'38
(Exploitation: Nov. 12,'38, p. 67.)
Girls On Probation (G) 369	Ronald Reagan-Jane Bryan	Oct. 22,'38†	63	Oct. 29,'38
Going Places (G) 359	D. Powell-A. Louise-A. Jenkins	Dec. 31,'38†	84	Dec. 24,'38
My Bill (G) 260	Kay Francis-John Litel-Anita Louise-Bonita Granville	July 9,'38	60	June 18,'38
Penrod's Double Trouble (G) 276	Billy and Bobby Mauch	July 23,'38	60	Apr. 2,'38
Secrets of an Actress (G) 365	Kay Francis-George Brent	Sept. 10,'38†	70	Oct. 18,'38

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Secret Service of the Air	R. Reagan-I. Rhodes-J. Litel
You Can't Get Away with Murder (G)	Humphrey Bogart-Gale Page		*80	Jan. 21,'39

Warner Brothers

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Boy Meets Girl (A) 213	James Cagney - Pat O'Brien - Marie Wilson	Aug. 27,'38	86	July 23,'38
(Exploitation: July 9,'38, p. 46; Sept. 10,'38, p. 102; Nov. 5,'38, p. 52.)
Cowboy from Brooklyn (G) 217	Pat O'Brien - Dick Powell - Priscilla Lane-Dick Foran	July 16,'38	77	June 11,'38
(Exploitation: Sept. 3,'38, p. 58; Sept. 17,'38, pp. 60, 63.)
Dawn Patrol (G)	Errol Flynn - David Niven - Donald Crisp-Basil Rathbone	Dec. 24,'38†	103	Dec. 17,'38
(Exploitation: Dec. 31,'38, p. 66; Jan. 14,'39, p. 64; Feb. 11,'39, p. 58; Feb. 18,'39, pp. 69, 71.)
Devil's Island (G)	Boris Karloff-Nedda Harrigan	Jan. 7,'39†	62	Jan. 7,'39
(Exploitation: Feb. 11,'39, p. 59.)
Four's a Crowd (G) 306	E. Flynn - O. de Havilland - R. Russell-P. Knowles	Sept. 3,'38	91	July 16,'38
Hard to Get (G) 310	Dick Powell - O. de Havilland - C. Winninger-Allen Jenkins	Nov. 5,'38†	79	Nov. 12,'38
Heart of the North (G) 362	D. Foran-Gale Page-G. Dickson-J. Chapman-A. Jenkins	Dec. 10,'38†	85	Dec. 17,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 21,'39, p. 53; Feb. 4,'39, pp. 83, 84.)
King of the Underworld (A) 317	Kay Francis-Humphrey Bogart	Jan. 14,'39†	69	Jan. 14,'39
Men Are Such Fools (G) 215	Wayne Morris - Priscilla Lane - Humphrey Bogart-H. Herbert	July 16,'38	69	Apr. 23,'38
Mr. Chump 227	Johnnie Davis-Lola Lane	Aug. 6,'38	60
(See "In the Cutting Room," Apr. 9,'38.)
Nancy Drew, Detective 319	Bonita Granville-John Litel	Nov. 19,'38†	65
(See "In the Cutting Room," Oct. 22,'38.)

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Nancy Drew, Reporter (G)	Bonita Granville-John Litel	Feb. 18,'39†	68	Feb. 4,'39
Off the Record (G) 314	Pat O'Brien-Joan Blondell	Jan. 21,'39†	71	Jan. 28,'39
Racket Busters (G) 205	George Brent - Gloria Dickson - H. Bogart-Walter Abel	July 16,'38	71	Aug. 20,'38
Sisters, The (A) 302	B. Davis-E. Flynn-A. Louise-J. Bryan-D. Foran-I. Hunter	Oct. 15,'38†	99	Oct. 8,'38
(Exploitation: Oct. 8,'38, p. 62; Oct. 22,'38, p. 66.)
They Made Me a Criminal (G). 307	John Garfield-Ann Sheridan "Crime School Kids"-C. Rains	Jan. 28,'39†	92	Jan. 7,'39
Torchy Blane in Chinatown (G)	Glenda Farrell-Barton MacLane	Feb. 4,'39†	58	Feb. 11,'39
Torchy Gets Her Man (G)	Glenda Farrell-Barton MacLane	Nov. 12,'38†	62	Oct. 15,'38
Valley of the Giants (G) 305	Wayne Morris - Claire Trevor - John Litel-Chas. Bickford	Sept. 17,'38†	79	Sept. 17,'38
Wings of the Navy (G)	George Brent-O. de Havilland-John Payne-F. McHugh	Feb. 11,'39†	*90	Jan. 21,'39
(Exploitation: Jan. 14,'39, p. 64; Feb. 4,'39, p. 85; Feb. 11,'39, p. 61.)

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Adventures of Jane Arden, The (G)	Rosella Towne-William Gargan	Mar. 4,'39		Feb. 11,'39
All This and Heaven Too*
Battle of City Hall	Ronald Reagan-Jane Wyman
Blackwell's Island	J. Garfield-R. Lane-D. Purcell
(See "In the Cutting Room," Aug. 13,'38.)
Brother Orchid	Edw.G.Robinson-Wayne Morris-Gale Page
Code of the Secret Service	R. Reagan-R. Towne-J. Litel
Confessions of a Nazi Spy	Edw. G. Robinson - Francis Lederer
Dark Victory	Bette Davis - George Brent - Geraldine Fitzgerald - Ronald Reagan-Humphrey Bogart	Apr. 8,'39†
(See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 12,'38.)
Dodge City	Errol Flynn-Olivia de Havilland Ann Sheridan - Bruce Cabot - A. Hale-F. McHugh-V. Jory
(See "In the Cutting Room," Dec. 31,'38.)
Each Dawn I Die	James Cagney - Jane Bryan - George Raft-George Bancroft
Family Reunion	Lane Sisters-John Garfield.... F. Bainter-C. Rains-G. Page-J. Lynn-F. McHugh-M. Robson - D. Foran
Gantry, the Great*	Edith Fellows-James McCallion
Hell's Kitchen	Marg't Lindsay-Ronald Reagan-"Crime School Kids"
Here for a Day	Jane Bryan-Henry O'Neill
Juarez	Paul Muni - Bette Davis - B. Aherne-C. Rains-J. Garfield
(See "In the Cutting Room," Feb. 4,'39.)
Kid from Kokomo, The	Wayne Morris - Pat O'Brien - Joan Blondell-May Robson
Knight and the Lady, The	Bette Davis-Errol Flynn
Nancy Drew, Trouble Shooter	B. Granville-F. Thomas-J. Litel
Naughty But Nice	Dick Powell-Gale Page-Ronald Reagan-Ann Sheridan
(See "The Professor Steps Out," "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 7,'39.)
Oklahoma Kid	J. Cagney-H. Bogart-L. Lane
(See "In the Cutting Room," Nov. 12,'38.)
Old Maid, The	Bette Davis-Miriam Hopkins
On Trial	John Litel-Margaret Lindsay
(See "In the Cutting Room," Feb. 4,'39.)
Student Nurse	Marie Wilson-Marg't Lindsay-Rosella Towne
Roaring Nineties, The
Roaring Road, The	Pat O'Brien - John Payne - Ann Sheridan-Gale Page
Sweepstakes Winner	M. Wilson-J. Davis-A. Jenkins
Torchy Blane Runs for Mayor	Glenda Farrell-Barton MacLane
We Are Not Alone	Miriam Hopkins
Waterfront*	G. Dickson-D. Mrgan-M. Wilson
Women in the Wind (G)	K. Francis-W. Gargan-V. Jory	Apr. 15,'39†	*65	Feb. 4,'39
Yes, My Darling Daughter (A)	Jeffrey Lynn - P. Lane - Fay Bainter-M. Robson-R. Young	Feb. 25,'39†	*82	Feb. 11,'39
(Exploitation: Jan. 14,'39, p. 64.)

STATE RIGHTS

Title	Star	Producer	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Bronze Buckaroo, The	Negro Cast	Sack	Jan. 1,'39
Code of the Cactus	Tim McCoy	Victory	Feb. 25,'39
(See "In the Cutting Room," Jan. 14,'39.)
Code of the Fearless (G)	Fred Scott	Spectrum	Jan. 5,'39	56	Jan. 21,'39
Convicts at Large	Ralph Forbes	Record	Dec. 15,'38
Crashing Through Danger	Ray Walker	Excelsior	Sept. 15,'38	60
Delinquent Parents	Doris Weston	Progressive	July 15,'38
Duke Is Tops, The	Negro Cast	Popkin	Sept. 1,'38
Feud on the Range	Bob Steele	Webb	Jan. 15,'39
Gang, The	Gino Malo	Record	Dec. 1,'38	55
Gang Smashers	Negro Cast	Popkin	Jan. 1,'39
Gone Harlem	Negro Cast	Sack	Aug. 15,'38
Harlem Rides the Range	Negro Cast	Sack	Feb. 1,'39
Hell Bound (A) (reissue)	Leo Carrillo	Sack	Nov. 15,'38		Feb. 7,'31
I Demand Payment	Jack La Rue	Imperial	Nov. 15,'38	59
In Old Montana	Fred Scott	Spectrum	Feb. 5,'39
Lightning Carson Rides Again	Tim McCoy	Victory	Oct. 10,'38	59
Meet the Mayor	Frank Fay	Judel	Sept. 15,'38	60
Paroled from the Big House	Jean Carmen	J. D. Kay Prods.	Aug. 15,'38	57
Policy Man	Negro Cast	Sack	July 1,'38	61
Port of Hate	Stock Cast	Webb	Jan. 15,'39
Rebellious Daughters	Verna Hillie	Progressive	July 1,'38
Scandal House	Adrienne Ames	Progressive	July 1,'38
Sin of Lena Rivers, The (A) (reissue)	Charlotte Henry	Sack	Dec. 1,'38	67	May 28,'32
(Reviewed under the title, "Lena Rivers.")
Six-Gun Trail	Tim McCoy	Victory	Nov. 25,'38†	59
Slums of New York (reissue)	Mickey Rooney	Freuler	July 15,'38	61

Coming Attractions

Title	Star	Producer	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Headleys at Home, The	Evelyn Venable	Standard		59	Nov. 12,'38
Outlaws of Paradise	Tim McCoy	Victory
Prison Train (A)	Fred Keating	Equity		64	Oct. 22,'38
Religious Racketeer (G)	Robert Fiske	Fanchon Royer		9 rls.	Apr. 23,'38
Texas Wildcats	Tim McCoy	Victory	Apr. 10,'39
Topa Topa (G)	Helen Hughes	Pennant		*65	Apr. 16,'38
Two Gun Troubador	Fred Scott	Spectrum	Mar. 5,'39

OTHER PRODUCTS (FOREIGN)

Title	Star	Dist'r	Rel. Date	Running Time Minutes	Reviewed
Abused Confidence (A)	Danielle Darrieux	Columbia	Nov. 30,'38	87	Dec. 10,'38
Adventure of Giacomo Casanova (G)	Nerio Bernardi	Amerital	Dec. 1,'38	70	Dec. 10,'38
Alf's Button Afloat (G)	Bud Flanagan	General Film		89	July 23,'38
Annie Laurie	Will Fyffe	World	April 15,'39
Avocate d'Amour (G)	Danielle Darrieux	Regal	Sept. 7,'38	88	Sept. 24,'38
Ballerina (G)	Janine Charrat	Mayer-Burstyn	Dec. 3,'38	80	Dec. 3,'38
(Exploitation: Jan. 28,'39, p. 60.)
Big Fella (G)	Paul Robeson	Brecher		73	July 10,'37
Cabiria		Brodie	Feb. 3,'39	85
Captain Scorpiob	Ecunomou	Brodie	Apr. '39	85
Carnival in Flanders (A)	Francoise Rosay	Tri Nat'l Films	Sept. 22,'36	93	Oct. 8,'38
(Reviewed under the title, "La Kermesse Heroique.")
College Girl (G)	Ellen Schwanneke	Henka Film	Sept. 9,'38	90	Sept. 24,'38
Crossroads (A)	Charles Vanel	Tri-National		80	Dec. 31,'38
Dark Sands (G)	Paul Robeson	Record	Aug. 1,'38	75	July 30,'38
Edge of the World, The (A)	Finlay Currie	Pax		75	Aug. 14,'37
Flight Into Darkness (A)	Annabella	Frank Kassler	Oct. 15,'38	81	Nov. 5,'38
Foggy Quay, The (A)	Jean Gabin	Films Victoria		90	Sept. 8,'38
40 Little Mothers (A)	Lucien Baroux	National	Dec. 23,'38	94	Dec. 31,'38
Gaunt Stranger, The (A)	Wilfred Lawson	A. B. F. D.		72	Nov. 19,'38
Girl Refugee, The	Sophia Vebo	Brodie	Sept. 25,'38	110
Glory of the Faith, The (G)	Gabrielle Farguette	French	Nov. 24,'38	75	Dec. 3,'38
Grand Illusion (A)	Jean Gabin	World		96	July 3,'37
(Reviewed under the title, "La Grande Illusion"; exploitation: Dec. 17,'38, p. 73; Jan. 28,'39. p. 59.)
Hatred	Harry Baur	World	Feb. 15,'39
Heart of Paris (A)	Raimu	Tri-National	Jan. 12,'39	85	Jan. 14,'39
Hey! Hey! U. S. A. (G)	Will Hay	G. F. D.		92	Oct. 22,'38
Irish and Proud of It (G)	Richard Hayward	Guaranteed	Oct. 29,'38	73	Nov. 19,'38
Ihr Leibhauser (G)	Magda Schneider	Casino		80	Nov. 12,'38
Itto	Native Cast	World	Feb. 30,'39
It's in the Air (G)	George Formby	A. B. F. D.		87	Oct. 8,'38
I've Got a Horse (G)	Sandy Powell	British Lion		76	Sept. 3,'38
Kreutzer Sonata (A)	Gaby Morley	Foreign Cinema Arts	Feb. 1,'39	87	Jan. 7,'39
La Vierge Folle (A)	Juliette Faber	Walch	Dec. 28,'38	80	Jan. 21,'39
Liebe Im ⅜ Takt (G)	Leo Slezak	Casino	Sept. 23,'38	96	Oct. 8,'38
Little Flower of Jesus (G)	Simone Bourday	Sunray	Oct. 21,'38	75	Apr. 30,'38
Mamele	Molly Picon	Sphinx	Jan. .. '39	102
Marseillaise	Pierre Renoir	World	Mar. 30,'39
Marusia (G)	S. Meinyk	Ukrafilm	Dec. 8,'38	105	Dec. 31,'38
Mis Dos Amores (G)	Tito Guizar	Paramount		80	Aug. 20,'38
My Song of Love	Tito Schipa	World
Night on the Danube, A (G)	Leo Slezak	Casino		*85	Dec. 3,'38
Ninety Degrees South	Scott Expedition	World	July 1,'39
Old Bones of the River (G)	Will Hay	G. F. D.		90	Jan. 21,'39
Orage (A)	Charles Boyer	Tri Nat'l Films	Dec. 10,'38	105	Feb. 12,'38
Peg of Old Drury (A)	Anna Neagle - Sir Cedric Hardwicke	Tri Nat'l Films		75	Sept. 28,'35
Penny Paradise (G)	Edmund Gwen	A. T. P.		72	Sept. 24,'38
Radio Troubadour, The (G)	Tito Guizar	Paramount		*60	Dec. 3,'38
Return of the Frog (A)	Gordon Harker	British Lion		*75	Dec. 31,'38
Rose of Tralee (G)	Baby Binkie Stuart	Dublin Films	Oct. 15,'38	71	Nov. 12,'38
Rothschild	Harry Baur	Regal	Oct. 11,'38	78	Oct. 22,'38
Royal Divorce, A (A)	Ruth Chatterton	Paramount		85	Oct. 15,'38
Sacrifice d'Honneur (A)	Annabella	Tri-Nat'l	Nov. 30,'38	75	Dec. 10,'38
School for Husbands (A)	Rex Harrison	Hoffberg	Feb. 6,'39	70	Feb. 18,'39
St. Martin's Lane (G)	Chas. Laughton	Assoc. British		85	July 9,'38
Singing Blacksmith (A)	Moishe Oysher	New Star	Nov. 1,'38	100	Nov. 17,'38
Slalom (G)	Hella Hartwich	World	Mar. 1,'39	66	Jan. 23,'37
So This Is London* (A)	Alfred Drayton	20th Cent.-Fox		85	Feb. 4,'39
Story of a Cheat, The (A)	Sascha Guitry	Gallic Films	Sept. 26,'38	83	Oct. 15,'38
Street Without a Name	Pola Illery	World	Mar. 15,'39
They Drive by Night (A)	Emlyn Williams	First National		84	Jan. 28,'39
This Man Is News (A)	Barry Barnes	Paramount		77	Oct. 1,'38
Ware Case, The (A)	Clive Brook	A. B. F. D.		78	Dec. 31,'38
Wedad (A)	Egyptian Cast	Egyptian Film Co.		110	Nov. 26,'38
What a Man! (G)	Sydney Howard	British Lion		74	Feb. 18,'39
When the Husband Travels	M. Phillipides	Brodie	Mar. .. '39	95
Witch Night	Gosta Ekman	World
With a Smile (G)	Maurice Chevalier		Feb. 4,'39	79	Feb. 18,'39
Yes, Madam? (G)	Bobby Howes	Assoc. British		79	Dec. 31,'38

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

SHORT FILMS

[Numbers immediately following title designate date reviewed; for example, (8-6-38) August 6, 1938. Numerals following review dates are production numbers.]

COLUMBIA

BROADWAY COMEDIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Boom Goes the Groom 9431	Mar. 24,'39†	2 rls.
Ducking They Did Go, A 9406	Apr. 7,'39†	2 rls.
Flat Foot Stooges (2-4-39) 8403 (3 Stooges)	Dec. 5,'38†	15½
Halfway to Hollywood 8436 Johnny Arthur-Tom Kennedy	July 1,'38	17½
Home on the Range (12-17-38) 9426 Andy Clyde	Dec. 9,'38†	17
Many Sappy Returns 9421 Charley Chase	Aug. 19,'38†	18
Mutiny on the Body 9429 Smith & Dale	Feb. 10,'39†	17½
Mutts to You (1-14-39) 9402 (3 Stooges)	Oct. 14,'38†	18
Nag in the Bag (12-24-38) 9425 Smith & Dale	Nov. 11,'38†	17
Nightshirt Bandit (10-28-38) 8424 Charley Chase	Oct. 28,'38†	17
Not Guilty Enough (10-29-38) 9423 Andy Clyde	Sept. 30,'38†	20
Pie a la Maid 9427 Charley Chase	Dec. 23,'38†	18
Sap Takes a Wrap, The 9430	Mar. 10,'39†	15½
Star Is Shorn, A 9432	Apr. 21,'39†	2 rls.
Sue My Lawyer (10-15-38) 9422 Harry Langdon	Sept. 16,'38†	17
Swing, You, Swingers 9428 Andy Clyde	Jan. 29,'39†	19½
Three Little Sew and Sews 9404 (3 Stooges)	Jan. 6,'39†	16
Three Missing Links (6-25-38) 8408 (3 Stooges)	July 29,'38	17½
Violent Is the Word for Curly (9-10-38) 9401 (3 Stooges)	Sept. 2,'38†	18
We Want Our Mummy 9405	Feb. 24,'39†	2 rls.
Yes, We Have No Bananza 9407 (3 Stooges)	May 19,'39†	2 rls.

COLOR RHAPSODIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Animal Cracker Circus (10-8-38) 9502	Sept. 23,'38†	7
Frog Pond, The (10-15-38) 8512	Aug. 12,'38	6½
Gorilla Hunt, The 9507	Feb. 24,'39†	1 rl.
Happy Tots 9508	Mar. 31,'39†	1 rl.
Hollywood Graduation (9-10-38) 9501	Aug. 26,'38†	7
Horse on the Merry-Go-Round, The (3-26-38) 8505	Sept. 17,'38†	8
Kangaroo Kid 9505	Dec. 23,'38†	7½
Little Match Girl (reissue) (11-27-37) 8502	Dec. 16,'38	8½
Little Moth's Big Flame (12-31-38) 9503	Nov. 3,'38†	8
Midnight Frolics	Nov. 24,'38†	7
Peaceful Neighbors (2-18-39) 9506	Jan. 26,'39†	8
Poor Little Butterfly (7-23-38) 8510	July 4,'38	7½
Poor Elmer 8511	July 22,'38	7½

COLUMBIA TOURS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Bermuda—Isle of Paradise 9551	Nov. 4,'38†	10½
Big Town Commuters (New York) 9553	Feb. 3,'39†	9
Provincial Quebec (12-31-38) 9552	Dec. 15,'38†	11

COMMUNITY SING

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 10 (16-18-38) 8660 (Patriotic Songs)	July 4,'38	10
No. 11 (10-15-38) 8661 (Songs of Yesteryear)	Aug. 26,'38	10
No. 12 8862 (Scotch Songs)	Sept. 15,'38	10

(New Series)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 1 (10-15-38) 9651 (College Songs)	Oct. 1,'38	10
No. 2 (11-12-38) 9652 (South Seas)	Nov. 4,'38†	10
No. 3 9653 (Seasons Idea)	Dec. 2,'38†	11
No. 4 9654 (Girls' Names)	Dec. 30,'38†	10½
No. 5 (2-18-39) 9655 (Friendship Songs)	Jan. 27,'39†	10
No. 6 9656 (Moon Songs)	Feb. 24,'39†	10½
No. 7 9657	Mar. 24,'39†	1 rl.
No. 8 9658	Apr. 21,'39†	1 rl.

KRAZY KAT CARTOONS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
25. Krazy's Travel Squawks (6-25-38) 8706	July 4,'38	6½
26. Gym Jams (10-8-38) 9701	Sept. 9,'38†	6½
27. Hot Dogs On Ice 9702	Oct. 21,'38†	6
28. Lone Mountain, The 9703	Dec. 10,'38†	7
29. Krazy's Bear Tale 9704	Feb. 17,'39†	1 rl.
30. Golf Chumps 9705	Apr. 6,'39†	1 rl.

MUSIC HALL VANITIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Night in a Music Hall, A (2-18-39) 9961	Jan. 20,'39†	10½
Night at the Troc 9962	Mar. 2,'39†

PICTUREGRAPH

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 1 9951	Feb. 10,'39†

SCRAPPY CARTOONS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
City Slicker (7-23-38) 8758	July 8,'38	6
Early Bird (10-1-38) 9751	Sept. 16,'38†	5
Happy Birthday (2-18-39) 9752	Oct. 7,'38†	6
Scrappy's Added Attraction 9753	Jan. 13,'39†	6½
Scrappy's Sideshow 9754	Mar. 3,'39†	1 rl.

SCREEN SNAPSHOTS

(New Series)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 1 9851	Sept. 16,'38†	10
No. 2 9852	Oct. 14,'38†	10
No. 3 9853	Nov. 20,'38†	10
No. 4 (2-4-39) 9854	Dec. 15,'38†	10
No. 5 9855	Jan. 10,'39†	9
No. 6 9856	Feb. 17,'39†	10½
No. 7 9857	Mar. 17,'39†	1 rl.

SPECIAL

SPORT THRILLS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Athletic Youth 8811	July 29,'38	1 rl.
Demons of the Deep (9-24-38) 8812	Aug. 19,'38	9
Fistic Fun (7-30-38) 8810	July 1,'38	9½
Football Giants (10-8-38) 9801	Sept. 28,'38†	10
Get Ready Navy 9804	Feb. 24,'39†	1 rl.
King Vulure (1-21-38) 9803	Jan. 6,'39†	10½
Navy Champion 9805	Mar. 17,'39†	1 rl.
Odd Sports 9804	Feb. 10,'39†	1 rl.
Ski Rhythm (12-24-38) 9802	Nov. 4,'38†	10

WASHINGTON PARADE

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 1 (1-7-39) 9901 (Harry Newman)	Nov. 18,'38†	10
No. 2 (2-18-39) 9902 (Inside the White House)	Feb. 21,'39†	11
No. 3 9903	Apr. 4,'39†	1 rl.

EDUCATIONAL

[Distributed through Grand National]

SONG AND COMEDY HITS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Cavalcade of Stuff, No. 1 El-1	Jan. 6,'39†	9
Cavalcade of Stuff, No. 2 El-2	Jan. 20,'39†	9

TREASURE CHEST

(Color Cartoons)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Baby Checkers El-14
Monkey Business El-15

[Distributed through Twentieth Century-Fox]

TERRY-TOONS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Eliza Runs Again 8526	July 29,'38	6½
Milk for Baby 8524	July 8,'38	6½
Mrs. O'Leary's Cow 8525	July 22,'38	6½

TREASURE CHEST

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
We Live in Two Worlds (8-20-38) 8609	July 22,'38	11

MGM

CAPTAIN AND THE KIDS

(In Sepia)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Buried Treasure W-689	Sept. 17,'38	8
Captain's Christmas, The (12-24-38) W-692	Dec. 17,'38†	8
Honduras Hurricane (12-3-38) W-691	Oct. 15,'38†	9
Old Smokey W-688	Sept. 3,'38	7
Petunia Natural Park W-693 (color)	Jan. 14,'39	9
Pygmy Hunt, The W-687	Aug. 6,'38	8
What a Lion! W-686	July 16,'38	9
Winning Ticket, The W-690	Oct. 1,'38	9

CARTOONS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Mama's New Hat W-882	Feb. 11,'39†	9
Seal Skinners W-881 (sepia)	Jan. 28,'39†	8

CRIME DOESN'T PAY

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 18—They're Always Caught (10-8-38) P-615	Sept. 3,'38	22
No. 19—Think It Over (11-19-38) P-616	Sept. 24,'38	20
No. 20—The Wrong Way Out (1-21-39) P-811	Dec. 24,'38†	17

FITZPATRICK TRAVEL TALKS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Ancient Egypt T-856	Jan. 21,'39†	9
Cairo, City of Contrast (10-22-38) T-851	Sept. 10,'38†	9
Imperial Delphi T-857	Feb. 18,'39†	8
Jaipur, The Pink City (12-31-38) T-853	Oct. 29,'38†	8
Java Journey T-858	Mar. 18,'39†	8
Madeira—Isle of Romance (12-3-38) T-851	Oct. 1,'38†	8
Paris On Parade (8-20-38) T-662	July 9,'38	9
Singapore and Jahore (2-4-39) T-855	Aug. 31,'38†	9
Sydney, Pride of Australia (2-4-39) T-854	Dec. 3,'38†	9

HISTORICAL MYSTERIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Bravest of the Brave, The (8-27-38) H-728	Aug. 6,'38	11
Man on the Rock, The (10-8-38) H-729	Sept. 3,'38	11
Nostradamus (10-22-38) H-730	Sept. 24,'38	11
Strange Glory (8-6-38) H-727 Frank McGlynn	July 2,'38	11

MGM MINIATURES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
City of Little Men, The (11-12-38) M-871	Aug. 20,'38†	11
Great Heart, The (2-4-39) M-875	Dec. 31,'38†	11
Ice Antics M-876	Feb. 11,'39†	9
Streamline Swing (11-12-38) M-872 (In sepia)	Sept. 10,'38†	9
Miracle of Salt Lake (12-31-38) M-874	Nov. 12,'38†	11
They Live Again (2-18-39) M-873	Oct. 22,'38†	10
Tracking the Sleeping Death (8-27-38) M-680 Gilbert Emery-Doris Lloyd	July 9,'38	10

MUSICAL COMEDIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Dream of Love, A R-803	Jan. 28,'39†	17
It's In the Stars (8-27-38) R-606 Eleanor Lynn-Johnny Downs	July 30,'38	10
Magician's Daughter, The (8-20-38) R-605 Eleanor Lynn-Frank Albertson	July 16,'38	18
Men of Steel (1-28-39) R-801 Doris Weston	Dec. 17,'38†	21
Once Over Lightly (2-4-39) R-802 Dixie Dunbar-Johnny Downs	Dec. 17,'38†	19

OUR GANG

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Aladdin's Lanterns (10-15-38) C-931	Sept. 17,'38†	10
Alfalfa's Aunt (2-4-39) C-935	Jan. 7,'39†	11
Football Romeo (1-21-38) C-933	Nov. 12,'38†	10
Little Ranger, The (8-27-38) C-741	Aug. 6,'38	11
Men in Fright (11-19-38) C-392	Oct. 15,'38†	11
Party Fever (10-15-38) C-742	Aug. 27,'38	10
Practical Jokers (2-18-39) C-934	Dec. 17,'38†	9
Tiny Troubles C-936	Feb. 18,'39†	10

PASSING PARADE

(Sepia)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 1—K-921 (11-12-38)	Oct. 15,'38†	10
No. 2—K-922 (New Roadways)	Jan. 28,'39†	10
No. 3—K-923 (Story of Alfred Nobel)	Feb. 18,'39†	11

PETE SMITH SPECIALTIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Anaesthesia (8-6-38) S-711	July 9,'38	10
Double Diving (1-28-39) S-904 (sepia)	Jan. 14,'39†	8
Follow the Arrow (8-20-38) S-712	July 30,'38	10
Football Thrills of 1937 (10-1-38) S-714	Sept. 10,'38	10
Fistcuffs (10-1-38)	Aug. 27,'38	10
Grid Rules (11-19-38) S-715	Oct. 15,'38	9
Heroes at Leisure S-905	Feb. 11,'39†	10
Hot on Ice (12-1-38) S-901	Oct. 22,'38†	10
Man's Greatest Friend (12-31-38) S-902	Nov. 19,'38†	10
Penny's Picnic (1-14-39) S-903 (color)	Dec. 17,'38†	10

ROBERT BENCHLEY

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Courtship of a Newt, The (8-27-38) F-757	July 23,'38	8
Hour for Lunch, An F-955		1 rl.
How to Raise a Baby (8-20-38) F-756	July 2,'38	9
How to Read (10-15-38) F-758	Aug. 27,'38	9
How to Sublet (2-4-39) F-954		8
How to Watch Football (11-19-38) F-951	Oct. 8,'38†	9
Mental Poise (2-4-39) F-953	Dec. 10,'38†	7
Opening Day (12-10-38) F-952	Nov. 12,'38†	9

PARAMOUNT

BETTY BOOP CARTOONS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Buzzy Boop T7-12	July 22,'38	1 rl.
Buzzy Boop at the Concert (10-8-38) T8-2	Sept. 16,'38†	7
My Friend the Monkey (2-18-39) T8-6	Jan. 27,'39†	7
On With the New (12-17-38) T8-3	Dec. 2,'38†	7
Pudgy in Thrills and Chills (2-4-39) T8-5	Dec. 23,'38†	7
Pudgy the Watchman (G) (8-20-38) T8-1	Aug. 12,'38†	1 rl.
Sally Swing (10-22-38)	Oct. 14,'38†	7
So Does an Automobile T8-7	Feb. 17,'38†	1 rl.

COLOR CLASSICS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
All's Fair at the Fair (9-3-38) C8-1	Aug. 26,'38	7
Always Kickin' C8-3	Jan. 27,'39†	1 rl.
Playful Polar Bears (11-12-38) C8-2	Oct. 28,'38†	8
Small Fry C8-4	Mar. 17,'39†	1 rl.

COLOR CRUISES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Costa Rica (12-10-38) K8-3	Dec. 2,'38†	10
Guatemala (8-27-38) K8-1	Aug. 12,'38†	10
Land of Inca Memories (2-4-39) K8-4	Jan. 27,'39†	10
Mexico (10-15-38) K8-2	Oct. 7,'38†	10
Republic of Panama K8-5	Mar. 24,'39†	1 rl.

HEADLINERS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Busse Rhythm (10-22-38) A8-3 Henry Busse and Orch.	Oct. 7,'38†	10
Champagne Music of Lawrence Welk A8-8	Mar. 3,'39†	1 rl.
Hal Kemp and His Orch. A8-5	Dec. 2,'38†	1 rl.
Lights! Action! Lucas! (9-10-38) A8-2 Clyde Lucas and Orch.	Sept. 2,'38†	10
Moments of Charm (8-13-38) A8-1 P. Spitalny & Girl Orch.	Aug. 5,'38†	10
Music Through the Years A8-7 Jan Garber and Orch.	Feb. 3,'39†	1 rl.

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Orrin Tucker and Orch. A8-4	Nov. 4,'38†	1 rl.
Song Is Born, A (12-24-38) A8-6	Jan. 6,'39†	10
Larry Clinton and Orch.
Queens of the Air (7-23-38) A7-14	July 8,'38	11
Vincent Lopez and Orch.

PARAGRAPHICS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Mildewed Melodramas (10-15-38) V8-2	Sept. 9,'38†	11
Oh Say, Can You Ski (2-4-39) V8-5	Dec. 16,'38†	10
Raising Canines (11-5-38)	Nov. 11,'38†	10
Rube Goldberg's Travelgab (10-15-38) V8-3	Oct. 14,'38†	9
Schubert's Unfinished Symphony (11-26-38) V8-6	Jan. 13,'39†	10
Silver Millions V7-13	July 15,'38	10
Tannhauser (6-4-38) V8-1	Aug. 12,'38†	16
That's Africa V8-7	Feb. 10,'39†	1 rl.

PARAMOUNT PICTORIAL
(New Series)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 1—(8-20-38) P8-1	Aug. 5,'38†	10
No. 2—(9-3-38) P8-2	Sept. 2,'38†	10
No. 3—(9-24-38) P8-3	Oct. 7,'38†	10
No. 4—P8-4	Nov. 4,'38†	1 rl.
No. 5—(12-3-38) P8-5	Dec. 9,'38†	1 rl.
No. 6—P8-6	Jan. 6,'39†	1 rl.
No. 7—(2-11-39) P8-7	Feb. 3,'39†	1 rl.
No. 8—P8-8	Mar. 3,'39†	1 rl.

POPEYE THE SAILOR

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Bulldozing the Bull (8-28-38) E8-1	Aug. 19,'38†	7
Cops Is Always Right (1-21-39) E8-5	Dec. 30,'38†	7
Customers Wanted (2-18-39) E8-6	Jan. 27,'39†	7
Date to Skate, A (12-3-38) E8-4	Nov. 18,'38†	7
Goonland E8-3	Oct. 21,'38†	1 rl.
Jeep, The E7-12	July 15,'38	7
Leave Well Enough Alone	Feb. 24,'39†	1 rl.
Mutiny Ain't Nice (10-15-38) E8-2	Sept. 2,'38†	7
Wotta Nite Mare E8-8	Mar. 24,'39†	1 rl.

PARAMOUNT SOUND NEWS
Two Editions Weekly

POPULAR SCIENCE
(In Color)
(New Series)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 1—(10-15-38) J8-1	Sept. 2,'38†	10
No. 2—J8-2	Nov. 4,'39†	1 rl.
No. 3—J8-3	Jan. 6,'39†	1 rl.
No. 4—J8-4	Mar. 10,'39†	1 rl.

SCREEN SONGS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Beside a Moonlit Stream SC7-6	July 29,'38	1 rl.

GRANTLAND RICE SPORTLIGHTS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 52—Horseshoes R7-13	July 15,'38	1 rl.
No. 53—A Sporting Test (8-13-38) R8-1	Aug. 5,'38†	10
No. 54—Hunting Thrills (8-27-38) R8-2	Sept. 2,'38†	10
No. 55—Racing Pigeons (10-15-38) R8-3	Sept. 30,'38†	10
No. 56—Champion Airhoppers (11-12-38) R8-4	Oct. 28,'38†	10
No. 57—Super Athletes (11-19-38) R8-5	Nov. 25,'38†	1 rl.
No. 58—Frolicking Frogs R8-6	Dec. 23,'38†	1 rl.
No. 59—Two Boys and a Dog (12-31-38) R8-7	Jan. 20,'39†	10
No. 60—Hold Your Breath (2-18-39) R8-7	Feb. 17,'39†	10

UNUSUAL OCCUPATIONS
(In Color)
(New Series)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 1— (8-27-38) L8-1	Aug. 5,'38†	10
No. 2—(10-22-38) L8-2	Oct. 7,'38†	11
No. 3— (2-4-39) L8-3	Dec. 2,'38†	11
No. 4— (1-28-39) L8-4	Feb. 3,'39†	10

RKO RADIO

LEON ERROL COMEDIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Crime Rave 93,703	Jan. 13,'39†	18
Home Boner 93-704	Mar. 10,'39	20
Jitters, The (6-25-38) 83,706	July 1,'38	19
Major Difficulties 93,702	Nov. 18,'38†	19
Stage Fright (9-3-38) 93-701	Sept. 23,'38†	18

HEADLINERS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 1—Sea Melody (10-1-38) 93,601	Oct. 21,'38†	15
1938-39
No. 2—Romancing Along 93,602	Dec. 30,'38†	21
No. 3—Swing Vacation 93,603	Feb. 24,'39†	17

EDGAR KENNEDY COMEDIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Beaux and Errors (10-8-38) 93,401	Oct. 7,'38†	18
Clean Sweep, A 93,402	Dec. 2,'38†	17
Clock Wise 93404	Mar. 24,'39†	16
Fool Coverage (8-13-38) 83,406	July 15,'38	16
Kennedy's Castle 83,405	May 28,'38	17
Maid to Order 93,403	Jan. 27,'39†	18

MARCH OF TIME

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
1937-38
No. 12—U. S. Coast Guard 83,112	July 8,'38	17
No. 13—Man at the Wheel — Threat to Gibraltar (8-6-38) 83,113	Aug. 15,'38	19
1938-39
No. 1—Prelude to Conquest —Father Divine (9-3-38) 93,101	Sept. 2,'39†	2 rls.
No. 2—U. S. Fire Fighters —The British Dilemma (10-8-38) 93,102	Sept. 30,'38†	19
No. 3—Inside the Maginot Line (11-5-38) 93,103	Oct. 28,'38	20
No. 4—Uncle Sam the Good Neighbor (11-26-38) 93,104	Nov. 25,'38†	19
No. 5—The Refugee—Today and Tomorrow (12-24-38) 93,105	Dec. 23,'38†	18
No. 6—State of the Nation (1-28-39) 93,106	Jan. 20,'39†	18
No. 7—Young America — Mexico's New Crisis (2-18-39) 93,107	Feb. 17,'39†	19

NU-ATLAS PRODUCTIONS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Cafe Rendezvous (12-3-38) 94,205	Dec. 23,'38†	10
Carnival Show 84,212	June 24,'38	10
Jan Peerce
Hockshop Blues (8-6-38) 84,213	July 15,'38	10
Brad Reynolds & Orch.
International Rhythm (7-2-38) 84,211	June 3,'38	10
Roy Smeck and His Aloha Islanders
Reading', Ritin', and Rhythm 94,207	Feb. 17,'39†	10
Lucky Nilinder and Orch.
Samovar Serenade 94,208	Mar. 17,'34†	1 rl.
Luba Malina
Styles and Smiles (10-15-38) 94,202	Sept. 30,'38†	11
Virginia Verrill
Talent Auction 94,203	Oct. 28,'38†	10
Irene Beasley
Tropical Topics 94,206	Jan. 20,'39†	10
Rosita Ortega
Under a Gypsy Moon (9-3-38) 94,201	Sept. 2,'38†	10
J. Harold Murray
Venetian Moonlight 94,204	Nov. 25,'38	1 rl.
Mario Cozzi

PATHE NEWS
Released twice a week

PATHE PARADE

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 6—Count of Ten (7-16-38) 84,606	June 17,'38	10
No. 7—Expose of Spiritualism—Trip Thru Walt Disney Studios (7-23-38) 84,607	Aug. 12,'38	10

PATHE REVIEWS
Released once a month

PATHE TOPICS
Released seven times a year

RADIO FLASH COMEDIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Hectic Honeymoon 93,201	Nov. 4,'37†	17
Photografter, The 83,203	June 17,'38	15
Jack Rice
Plumb Crazy 93,202	Feb. 3,'39†	16

RAY WHITLEY COMEDIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Prairie Pappas 93,502	Dec. 16,'38†	18
Western Welcome, A 93,501	Sept. 9,'38†	18

REELISMS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Dude Ranch (12-3-38) 94,603	Nov. 11,'38	9
Gold 94,606	Feb. 10,'39†	1 rl.
Newsreel (12-31-38) 94,604	Dec. 9,'38†	10
Pilot Boat 94,605	Jan. 20,'39†	9
Trans-America 94,602	Oct. 14,'38†	11
Submarine Circus (10-8-38) 94,601	Sept. 16,'38†	10

RKO PATHE SPORTSCOPE

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Bird Dogs (11-19-38) 94,303	Nov. 4,'38	10
Blue Grass (12-17-38) 94,304	Dec. 2,'38†	10
Bow Strings 94,306	Jan. 27,'39†	9
Brother Golfers (8-6-38) 84,309	July 15,'38	11
Fisherman's Paradise (10-8-38) 94,301	Sept. 9,'38†	9
On the Wing 94,305	Dec. 30,'38†	10
Snow Falls 94,307	Feb. 24,'39†	1 rl.
Underwater (6-25-38) 84,307	June 3,'38	9

SMART SET

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Buckaroo Broadcast, A (6-18-38) 83,203	Apr. 22,'38	18
Ray Whitley
Hunting Trouble (8-13-38) 83,303	Aug. 12,'38	10
Jed Prouty

WALT DISNEY CARTOONS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Brave Little Tailor (10-1-38) 94,101	Sept. 23,'38†	9
Donald's Golf Game 94,103	Nov. 4,'38	8
Donald's Lucky Day (10-1-38) 94,107	Jan. 13,'39†	8
Farmyard Symphony (10-1-38) 94,102	Oct. 14,'38	8
Ferdinand the Bull (10-1-38) 94,104	Nov. 25,'38†	8
(Exploitation: Jan. 7,'39, p. 50; Jan. 28, '39, pp. 59, 60.)
Fox Hunt, The (6-18-38) 84,116	July 29,'38	8
Good Scouts (6-25-38) 84,115	July 8,'38	8
Goofy and Wilbur (10-1-38) 94,112	Apr. 28,'39†	8
Merbabies 94,105	Dec. 9,'38†	8
Mickey's Parrot (9-10-38) 84,118	Sept. 9,'38	8
Mickey's Trailer 84,112	May 6,'38	8
Mother Goose Goes Hollywood (10-38) 94,106	Dec. 23,'38†	7½
Polar Trappers 84,114	June 17,'38	8
Practical Pig, The (10-1-38) 94,109	Feb. 24,'39†
Society Dog Show (11-12-38) 94,108	Feb. 3,'39†	8
Ugly Duckling, The (10-1-38) 94,111	Apr. 7,'39†	8
Whalers, The (8-10-38) 84,117	Aug. 19,'38	8
Wynken, Blynken and Nod 84,113	May 27,'38	8

20TH CENTURY-FOX

ADVENTURES OF THE NEWSREEL CAMERAMAN

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Athletic Oddities 9204	Nov. 11,'38	1 rl.
Daily Diet of Danger, A 9203	Dec. 9,'38†	1 rl.
Filming Big Thrills 9202	Sept. 30,'38†	1 rl.
Recording Modern Selenee 9201	Aug. 19,'38†	1 rl.

FASHIONS (In Color)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Fashion Forecasts (Autumn Styles) (10-15-38) 9601	Sept. 16,'38†	11
Fashion Forecasts (Winter Styles) (12-31-38) 9602	Dec. 23,'38†	10
Fashion Forecasts, No. 3 9603	Mar. 31,'39†	1 rl.

LEW LEHR

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
What Every Boy Should Know 9401	Sept. 2,'38†	1 rl.
What Every Girl Should Know (10-22-38) 9402	Nov. 25,'38†	10
What Every Inventor Should Know 9403	Jan. 20,'39†	1 rl.

MAGIC CARPET SERIES
(Lowell Thomas)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Good Neighbors 9106	Apr. 28,'39†	1 rl.
Land of Contentment 9102	Oct. 14,'38†	1 rl.
Golden California 9101	Aug. 5,'38†	1 rl.
Isle of Pleasure (11-19-38) 9103	Feb. 3,'39†	11
Mystic Siam 9105	Mar. 17,'39†	1 rl.

TERRY-TOONS

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Viking Trail (12-31-38) 9104	Feb. 17,'39†	11
Chris Columbo 9501	Aug. 12,'38†	1 rl.
Frozen Feet 9509	Feb. 24,'39†	1 rl.
Gandy Goose in G Man Jitters 9510	Mar. 10,'39†	1 rl.
Gandy the Goose in the Frame Up 9507	Dec. 30,'38†	1 rl.
Gandy Goose in Doomsday 9524	Dec. 16,'38†	1 rl.
Glass Slipper, The (10-22-38) 9522	Oct. 7,'38†	7
Goose Flies High, The 9502	Sept. 9,'38†	1 rl.
Housewife Herman (11-19-38) 9523	Nov. 18,'38†	6½
New Comer, The 9504	Oct. 21,'38†	1 rl.
Nutty Network, The 9527 (in color)	Mar. 24,'39†	1 rl.
One Gun Gary in Nick of Time 9508	Jan. 27,'39†	1 rl.
Owl and the Pussycat, The 9525 (in color)	Jan. 13,'39†	1 rl.
Stranger Rides Again, The (12-3-38) 9505	Nov. 4,'38†	8
String Bean Jack 9521 (In color)	Aug. 26,'38†	1 rl.
Three Bears, The 9526 (in color)	Feb. 10,'39†	1 rl.
Village Blacksmith 9506	Dec. 2,'38†
Wolf's Side of the Story 9503	Sept. 23,'38†	1 rl.

ED THORGENSEN (Sports)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Hunting Dogs 9303	Mar. 2,'39†	1 rl.
Inside Baseball 9304	Apr. 14,'39†	1 rl.
Shooting for Par 9302	Jan. 13,'39	1 rl.
Timber Toppers (11-12-38) 9301	Oct. 28,'38†	10

UNITED ARTISTS

WORLD WINDOWS
(Color)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Arabian Bazaar (12-31-38)		1 rl.
Eternal Fire, The (1-28-39)		1 rl.
Fox Hunting (1-21-39)		1 rl.
Jerusalem (1-14-39)		1 rl.
Petra (1-14-39)		1 rl.
Rome Symphony (12-31-38)		1 rl.
Ruins of Palymra		1 rl.
Wanderers of the Desert (1-7-39)		1 rl.

UNIVERSAL

GOING PLACES WITH GRAHAME MC NAMEE

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
No. 48—2379	Apr. 11,'38	9
No. 49—2380	Apr. 25,'38	9
No. 50—(4-30-38) 2381	May 9,'38	9
No. 51—(6-11-38) 2382	June 13,'38	10
No. 52—(6-25-38) 2383	June 27,'38	9
No. 53—3351	Aug. 22,'38†	9
No. 54—(11-19-38) 3352	Sept. 12,'38†	9½
No. 55—(12-3-38) 3353	Oct. 3,'38†	9
No. 56—(11-26-38) 3354	Nov. 14,'38†	10
No. 57—3355	Nov. 28,'38†	1 rl.
No. 58—(2-11-39) 3356	Dec. 26,'38†	1 rl.
No. 59—3357	Jan. 30,'39†	1 rl.
No. 60—3358	Feb. 20,'39†	1 rl.

LANTZ CARTUNES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Baby Kittens (12-3-38) 3245	Dec. 19,'38†	1 rl.
Birth of a Toothpick	Feb. 27,'39†	7½
Cat and the Bell, The 3241	Oct. 3,'38†	7
Disobedient Mouse (12-3-38) 3244	Nov. 28,'38†	8½
I'm Just a Jitterbug (1-21-39) 3248	Jan. 23,'39†	7
Little Blue Blackbirds (12-10-38) 3246	Dec. 26,'38†	7
Magic Beans 3249	Feb. 13,'39†	1 rl.
Rabbit Hunt (11-19-38) 3242	Oct. 10,'38†	7½
Sailor Mouse, The (11-19-38) 3248	Nov. 7,'38†	7
Soup to Mutts (2-4-39) 3247	Jan. 9,'39†	7

MENTONE MUSICAL COMEDIES

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Bank Notes 3228	Mar. 15,'39†	19
Beauty Shoppe (8-27-38) 3222	Sept. 28,'38†	19½
Imogene Coca
Down on the Barn (2-26-38) 2167	Feb. 23,'38	17
Billy Jones-Ernie Hare

(THE RELEASE CHART--CONT'D)

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Fits and Benefits 2173 York and King	July 27,'38	19
High Jack N' the Show (-21-38) 2170 James Barton	May 18,'38	17
Latin Hi-Hattin' (4-30-38) 2169 Dorothy Stone-Chas. Collins	Apr. 27,'38	17
Music and Flowers (5-21-38) 2171 Block & Sully	June 15,'38	19
Music and Models (12-3-38) 3225 Jack Arthur	Dec. 14,'38†	18
Nautical Knights (1-28-39) 3226 Arthur & Morton Havel	Jan. 11,'39†	19
Patio Serenade (11-12-38) 3224 Tito Coral-Armida	Nov. 16,'38†	17
Rhythm Cafe 3221 Virginia Verrill	Sept. 7,'38†	20
Side Show Fakir 3223 Clyde Hager-Charioteers	Oct. 12,'38†	20
Somewhere in Paris (3-5-38) 2168 J. Harold Murray	Mar. 23,'38	17
Stars and Stripes (7-2-38) 2172 Ed. East-Ralph Dumke	Feb. 15,'39	2 rls.
Wild and Bully (2-18-39) 3227 J. Harold Murray	Feb. 15,'39	19
OSWALD CARTOONS
Barnyard Romeo (8-20-38) 2291	Aug. 1,'38	7
Big Cat and the Little Mousie, The (10-15-38) 2293	Aug. 15,'38†	7
Cheese Nappers (7-2-38) 2288	July 4,'38	7
Feed the Kitty 2281	Mar. 14,'38	7
Ghost Town Frolics 2294	Sept. 5,'38	7
Happy Scouts (7-2-38) 2395	June 20,'38	7
Man Hunt (2-26-38) 2278	Feb. 7,'38	7
Movie Phony News 2285	May 30,'38
Nellie, The Indian Chief's Daughter (6-4-38) 2286	June 6,'38	7
Nellie, The Sewing Machine Girl (5-14-38) 2282	Apr. 11,'38	7½
Pixie Land 2295	Sept. 12,'38	7
Problem Child, The (5-14-38) 2284	May 16,'38	7
Queen's Kittens 2292	Aug. 8,'38	7
Silly Seals (8-27-38) 2290	July 25,'38	7
Tail End (5-21-38) 2283	Apr. 25,'38	7
Trade Mice 2280	Feb. 28,'38	7
Yokel Boy Makes Good (3-12-38) 2279	Feb. 21,'38	7
Voodoo in Harlem (7-9-38) 2289	July 18,'38	7
STRANGER THAN FICTION SERIES
No. 50—Novelty 2394	May 2,'38	9
No. 51—Novelty (6-11-38) 2395	June 6,'38	9
No. 52—Novelty (7-2-38) 2396	June 20,'38	9
No. 53—Novelty 3364	Aug. 29,'38†	9
No. 54—Novelty 3365	Sept. 19,'38†	9
No. 55—Novelty (10-8-38) 3366	Oct. 10,'38†	9½
No. 56—Novelty (12-3-38) 3367	Nov. 21,'38†	9
No. 57—Novelty (12-17-38) 3368	Dec. 5,'38†	9
No. 58—Novelty (1-28-39) 3369	Jan. 2,'39†	9½
No. 59—Novelty 3370	Feb. 6,'39†	1 rl.
No. 60—Novelty 3371	Mar. 6,'39†	1 rl.
No. 61—Novelty 3372	Apr. 3,'39†	1 rl.

VITAPHONE

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
BROADWAY BREVITIES
Forget-Me Knots 3011 Bernice Claire	May 7,'38	2 rls.
Stocks and Blondes 3023 Gene Lockhart	May 21,'38	2 rls.
Out Where the Stars Begin 3004 Evelyn Thawl-Jeffrey Lynn	May 28,'38	2 rls.
Prisoner of Swing 3012 Hal LeRoy	June 11,'38	2 rls.
Rise and Sing 3029 Cross and Dunn	June 25,'38	2 rls.
Rainbow's End (7-23-38) 3017 Eddie Peabody	July 2,'38	22
My Pop 3024 Henry Armetta	July 16,'38	2 rls.
Sons of the Plains (7-23-38) 3006 Mauch Twins	July 30,'38	19
Up In Lights 3018 Pat Rooney	Aug. 13,'38	2 rls.
There Goes the Bride 3030 Fifi D'Orsay	Aug. 27,'38	2 rls.
Zero Girl 4009 Evelyn Chandler	Sept. 3,'38†	2 rls.
Campus Cinderella 4001 Johnnie Davis	Sep. 17,'38†	18
Murder with Reservations 4010 George Campo	Sept. 24,'38†	2 rls.
Toyland Casino (10-22-38) 4011	Oct. 8,'38†	22
Two Shadows 4012	Oct. 22,'38†	2 rls.
Knight is Young, The 4013 Hal LeRoy	Oct. 29,'38†	2 rls.
Cleaning Up (10-29-38) 4014 Cross and Dunn	Nov. 12,'38†	20
Star Dust (12-3-38) 4015 Benny Davis	Dec. 12,'38†	22
Boarder Trouble 4016 Joe and Asbestos	Dec. 17,'38†	2 rls.
Swing Time in the Movies (1-7-39) 4003 Fritz Feld (color)	Jan. 7,'39†	20
Hats and Dogs 4017 Wini Shaw	Dec. 31,'38†	20
Sophmore Swing (2-4-39) 4021 Harvest Moon Dancers	Jan. 21,'39†	20
COLOR PARADE
Miracles of Sport 4601	Sept. 10,'38†	10
China Today (11-12-38) 4602	Oct. 1,'38†	11
Mechanix Illustrated, No. 1 (7-23-38) 3511	June 4,'38	10
Mechanix Illustrated, No. 2 (12-3-28) 4605	Nov. 5,'38†	10
Nature's Mimics (2-4-39) 4604	Dec. 3,'38†	10
COLORTOUR ADVENTURE (In Color)
Pearl of the East 3509	May 21,'38	1 rl.
Isles of Enchanment 3512	June 25,'38	1 rl.
Hermit Kingdom 3513	Aug. 27,'38	1 rl.
FLOYD GIBBONS' "YOUR TRUE ADVENTURE"
Wanderlust 3309	May 14,'38	1 rl.
Dreams Come True, A 3310	June 6,'38	1 rl.
Fighting Judge, The (8-6-38) 3311	July 2,'38	13
Night Intruder (7-30-38) 3312	July 23,'38	14
Trapped Underground 3313	Aug. 20,'38	1 rl.
Identified 4301	Sept. 17,'38†	12
Defying Death (12-10-38) 4303	Oct. 15,'38†	12
Toils of the Law 4302	Nov. 12,'38†	1 rl.
Treacherous Waters (12-17-38) 4304	Dec. 10,'38†	10
The Human Bomb (1-28-39) 4305	Jan. 7,'39†	12
HISTORICAL TECHNICOLOR FEATURETTES
Declaration of Independence The (10-15-38) 4002 John Litel (color)	Nov. 26,'38	19
Lincoln in the White House (1-14-39) 4004 Frank McGlynn (color)	Feb. 11,'39†	20
LOONEY TUNES
No. 52—Injun Trouble 3611	May 21,'38	1 rl.
No. 53—Porky the Fireman 3612	June 4,'38	1 rl.
No. 54—Porky's Party 3613	June 25,'38	1 rl.
No. 55—Porky's Spring Planting (7-9-38) 3614	July 16,'38	7
No. 56—Porky and Daffy (7-30-38) 3615	Aug. 6,'38	7
No. 57—Wholly Smoke 3616	Aug. 27,'38	1 rl.
No. 58—Porky in Wackyland 4801	Sept. 24,'38†	1 rl.
No. 59—Porky's Naughty Nephew 4802	Oct. 15,'38†	1 rl.
No. 60—Porky in Egypt 4803	Nov. 5,'39†	1 rl.
No. 61—Daffy Doc, The (12-338) 4804	Nov. 26,'38†	7
No. 62—Porky The Gob (12-31-38) 4805	Dec. 17,'38†	7
No. 63—The Lone Stranger and Porky 4806	Jan. 7,'39†	7
No. 64—It's an Ill Wind 4807	Jan. 28,'39†	1 rl.
MELODY MASTERS
Don Bestor and Orch. 3716	July 9,'38	1 rl.
Saturday Night Swing Club 3717	July 30,'38	1 rl.
Clyde McCoy and Orch. 3718	Aug. 20,'38	1 rl.
Larry Clinton and Orch. 4701	Sept. 3,'38†	1 rl.
Ray Kinney and Hawaiians 4702	Oct. 1,'38†
Merle Kendricks and Orch. (10-22-38) 4704	Nov. 12,'38†	10
Music With a Smile (7-30-38) 4705	Dec. 3,'38†	10
Dave Apollon and Orch. (12-17-38) 4706	Dec. 24,'38†	11
Clyde Lucas and Orch. (1-21-39) 4707	Jan. 7,'39†	10
Blue Barron and Orch. 4708	Jan. 21,'39†	1 rl.
MERRIE MELODIES (In Colors)
No. 58—Katnip Kollege 3414	June 11,'38	1 rl.
No. 59—Have You Got Any Castles 3415	June 25,'38	1 rl.
No. 60—Love and Curses (7-23-38) 3416	July 9,'38	7
No. 61—Cinderella Meets Fella (7-23-38) 3417	July 23,'38	7
No. 62—The Major Lied 'Til Dawn 3418	Aug. 13,'38	1 rl.
No. 63—A-Lad-In Bagdag 3419		1 rl.
No. 64—Cracked Ice 3420		1 rl.
No. 65—A Feud There Was 4501	Sept. 24,'38†	7
No. 66—Little Pancho Vanilla (10-22-38) 4502	Oct. 8,'38†	7
No. 67—Johnny Smith and Poker Huntas 4503	Oct. 22,'38†	1 rl.
No. 68—You're An Education (12-3-38) 4504	Nov. 5,'38†	7
No. 69—Night Watchman The (11-26-38) 4505	Nov. 19,'38†	7
No. 70—Daffy Duck in Hollywood 4506	Dec. 12,'38†	1 rl.
No. 71—Count Me Out (12-31-38) 4507	Dec. 17,'38†	7
No. 72—The Mice Will Play 4508	Dec. 31,'38†	7
No. 73—Dog Gone Modern (1-21-39) 4509	Jan. 14,'39†	7
No. 74—Ham-ateur Night 4510	Jan. 28,'39†	7
PICTORIAL REVUES
No. 11—Plastics—Perfume 3811	July 9,'38	1 rl.
No. 12—Hollywood—Sculling—Furs 3812	Aug. 13,38	1 rl.
TECHNICOLOR SPECIALS
Pow Wow 4401	Oct. 1,'38†
Immortal Brush (10-22-38) 4402	Nov. 19,'38†	9
SPECIAL
Nine Million, The (2-18-39)		9
VITAPHONE VARIETIES
Swing Cat's Jamboree (7-9-38) 3912 Louis Prima and Orch.	Aug. 6,'38	8
The Great Library Misery 4901	Sept. 10,'38†	11
Table Manners 4902	Oct. 15,'38†	11
Vaudeville Interlude 4903	Nov. 19,'38†	1 rl.
Robbin' Good (12-3-38) 4904 Luis Zingone	Dec. 10,'38†	10
Ski Girl (1-28-39) 4905	Jan. 14,'39†	10

OTHER PRODUCT

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
A. B. F. D.
Legend of Norfolk, A (12-31-38)
DEVLIN
Ancient Cities of Southern France (8-13-38)	Aug. 15,'38†	10
Old Towns of Normandy Makassar (8-6-38)	Aug. 15,'38†	10
Resorts and Quaint Towns of the Blue Coast (5-21-38)	July 15,'38†	10½
Rio de Janeiro (8-13-38)	Aug. 15,'38†	10
Venice (8-13-38)	Aug. 15,'38†	10
Voyage to Cebu (7-2-38)	July 15,'38†	9
G.P.O. FILM UNIT
North Sea (7-9-38)
HOFFBERG
Trailing the Jaguar (7-2-38)	July 15,'38	28
LENAUER
Datelines (6-18-38)		8
Frosty Frolics (12-24-38)		11
Getting Your Money's Worth (12-31-38)		11
REGAL
Youth Marches On (9-24-38)	Sept. 24,'38	20
SACK (with Negro Cast)
Brown Gravey	July 30,'38†	21
Framing of the Shrew, The	July 30,'38†	19
Lady Fare, The	July 30,'38†	20
Melancholy Dame, The	July 30,'38†	19
Music Hath Harms	July 30,'38†	21
Off In the Silly Night	July 30,'38†	20
Old Black Joe	Sept. 15,'38†	17
On a Plantation	Sept. 1,'38†	20
Pickin' Cotton	Oct. 1,'38†	8
Road Back, The	Oct. 1,'38†	19
Slave Days	Sept. 15,'38†	9
Welcome Home	Sept. 1,'38†	10
SANDERS FILMS
Midsummer in Sweden (11-5-38)		10
Fishing in the Fiords (11-12-38)		10
Dalecarlia, The Heart of Sweden (11-19-38)		10
SCREEN MEMORIES
Memory Lingers On, The (8-13-38)		9
WORLD
Andante et Rondo
Ave Maria
Children's Corner
Jeune Fille Au Jardin
Les Berceuses
Song of Ceylon
Valse Brillante

SERIALS

12 Episodes Each Unless Otherwise Specified

COLUMBIA

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Flying G Men (2-18-39) James Craig-Lorna Gray	Jan. 28,'39†
Mandrake, the Magician	May 6,'39†
Overland with Kit Carson Bill Elliott	Aug. 12,'39†
Spider's Web, The (11-5-38) 9120 Warren Hull-Iris Meredith (15 episodes)	Oct. 22,'38†	19 (each)

REPUBLIC

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Dick Tracy Returns (8-6-38) 7201 Ralph Byrd-Lynn Roberts (15 episodes)	Aug. 20,'38	18 (each)
Hawk of the Wilderness (12-10-38) 7301 H. Brix-J. Martin-Malo	Dec. 3,'38†	2 rls. (each) (1st episode 29 min.)
Lone Ranger Rides Again Robert Livingston-Chief Thunder Cloud (15 episodes)	Feb. 25,'39†	2 rls. (each) (1st episode-30 min.)

UNIVERSAL

Title	Rel. Date	Min.
Buck Rogers (2-11-39) 3881-92 Larry Crabbe	Apr. 11,'39†
Red Barry (10-8-38) 3681-3793 Buster Crabbe-Frances Robinson	Oct. 18,'38†	20 (each)
Scouts to the Rescue (12-31-38) 3781-92 Jackie Cooper-Vandell Darr (Exploitation: Jan. 14,'39, p. 65.)	Jan. 17,'39†

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

the great national medium for showmen

Ten cents per word, money-order or check with copy. Count initials, box number and address. Minimum insertion, $1. Four insertions for the price of three. Contract rates on application. No borders or cuts. Forms close Mondays at 5 P.M. Publisher reserves the right to reject any copy. Film and trailer service advertising not accepted. Classified advertising not subject to agency commission. Address correspondence, copy and checks to MOTION PICTURE HERALD, Classified Dept., Rockefeller Center, New York City.

THEATRES

FOR SALE. OPERATING RIGHTS ON THREE theatres in Middletown, Connecticut. "Closed Town." Population and drawing power about 50,000. Internal corporate friction requires public sale on April 11th at Capitol Theatre, Main Street, Middletown, at 2 P.M. Appraisal value for Court—$93,000. Terms upon request. WILLIAM L. HADDEN, Receiver, 129 Church Street, New Haven, Conn.

THEATRE FOR LEASE, 650 SEATS, SUBSEQUENT run, city of 100,000, reasonable terms. Good opportunity for right man. BOX 1111, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

WILL SELL 538 SEAT NAN GRAY NEIGHBORhood theatre Houston, Texas. Best of equipment and business for $8000, $2000 down, balance terms. Building rent one year $125; two years $150; five years $175. Built new two years ago. Also will sell you 650 seat deluxe Queen neighborhood theatre Houston, Texas. D. F. LUCKIE, 1811 S. Main, Houston, Tex.

CONSIDER SALE CONTROLLED TOWN TWO Falls City theatres, 7,000 population, possession June 1st. First class condition, see to appreciate. O. C. JOHNSON, Rivoli & Electric Theatres, Falls City, Nebr.

FOR SALE THEATRE, CENTRAL ILLINOIS Address: E. CODO, 34 W. Van Buren, Joliet, Ill.

WANTED TO LEASE THEATRE IN KENTUCKY, Ohio, Indiana or Tennessee. Write full details. C. SCOTT, Vevay, Ind.

THEATRE FOR LEASE, OVER 600 NEW UPholstered seats, near Cleveland, town 30,000, moneymaker. Reason: other interests. BOX 1117, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

NEW GENERAL EQUIPMENT

THEATRE EQUIPMENT—SUPPLIES—ACCESsories—repair parts. Savings 20% to 50%. Send for big free catalog. CONSOLIDATED THEATRE SUPPLY CORP., 1600-M Broadway, New York.

BUY YOUR THEATRE EQUIPMENT NEEDS ON easy time payments! Projection and sound equipment included. Send for free catalog and save money. S. O. S. CINEMA SUPPLY CORP., New York.

AIR CONDITIONING—MAGIC WEATHER—100% performance, 1000% customer satisfaction. Silent operation, low first cost, low operating cost. Write for testimonial folder and prices. THE BALLANTYNE COMPANY, 222 N. 16th Street, Omaha, Nebr.

USED GENERAL EQUIPMENT

SOME THEATRE CAN USE YOUR OLD EQUIPment. A little ad here will reach thousands of potential customers. Only ten cents a word to tell the world what you have to sell. Try it today. MOTION PICTURE HERALD, Rockefeller Center, New York.

MANY RECONDITIONED CHAIRS IN STOCK. Your opportunity to buy now. Extremely low prices. ALLIED SEATING CO., INC., Used Chair Dept., 36 West 13th Street, New York.

DO YOU NEED CHAIRS? WE'VE GOT 16,433 good used veneer and upholstered seats, 75c up. S. O. S. CINEMA SUPPLY CORP., New York.

PRINTING SERVICE

CAN SUPPLY LAYOUTS, ART WORK, ENgravings and arrange printing for direct mail list. Prices furnished upon request and based on type of service needed. BOX 1098A, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

PROGRAM WINDOW CARDS—14 x 22, THREE flashy colors, new designs, 50, $3.50; 100, $4.75. Samples. HAWKEYE SHOW PRINT, Webster City, Iowa.

POSITIONS WANTED

PROJECTIONIST, 15 YEARS, DESIRES CHANGE small city anywhere, dependable, married, references. PROJECTIONIST, 4008 Clarendon, Chicago, Ill.

YOUNG MAN, 27, LIVE WIRE. TEN YEARS' experience motion picture distribution. Thoroughly familiar every aspect foreign distribution. Knowledge Spanish. Splendid references. BOX 1116, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY

OPERATORS, EXPERIENCED, EVERY STATE, movie circuit work, car needed. NO. 519 STATE THEATRE BLDG., Pittsburgh, Pa.

TRAINING SCHOOL

LEARN MODERN THEATRE MANAGEMENT, advertising. Train for better theatre positions. Free information. THEATRE INSTITUTE, 315 Washington, Elmira, N. Y.

BOOKS

MOTION PICTURE SOUND ENGINEERING—547 pages; illustrated; covers every practical method and process in present-day sound engineering. Leading engineers explain every detail of apparatus and its arrangement, with diagrams, tables, charts and graphs. This manual comes straight from the workshops of the studios in Hollywood. It is indispensable to everyone working with sound equipment. $6.50 postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

THE 1938-39 EDITION OF THE INDUSTRY'S INternational reference book, "Motion Picture Almanac," edited by Terry Ramsaye, is now available. It has the most facts about the motion picture business ever published. It is indispensable to every executive in the industry. This issue contains more than 12,000 biographies of important film people. Send your order today with a check for $3.25 and your copy will be promptly mailed, postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

RICHARDSON'S BLUEBOOK OF PROJECTION—Revised Sixth edition. The revised edition includes 722 pages of up-to-the-minute text charts and data with detailed description of assembly, wiring, and functioning of all modern sound and projection apparatus. It is a practical "trouble shooter," cross indexed for immediate reference in any projection room emergency. ORDER TODAY! $6.25 postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

NEW 567 PAGE BOOK ON AIR CONDITIONING by Charles A. Fuller, authority on the subject, reviewed in Buyers Number, available for theatre owners contemplating engineering changes. Book is cloth bound with index and charts and covers every branch of the industry as well as codes and ordinances regulating installation. Order now at $4.00 a copy postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

FAME. AN AUDIT OF PERSONALITIES EDITED by Terry Ramsaye. The class annual of the screen, radio and stage. Recognized by executives and talent agents as the guide to box office champions. Send your order today with check or money order for $1.00. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

BOOKKEEPING SYSTEM

THEATRE ACCOUNTING BY WILLIAM F. Morris, is still the best bookkeeping system for theatres. It not only guides you in making the proper entries, but provides sufficient blank pages for a complete record of your operations for each day of the year. Notable for its simplicity. Order now—$4 postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

PRESS OF
C. J. O'BRIEN, INC.
NEW YORK

Typical Eastman
RELIABILITY

EASTMAN Plus-X for general studio work . . . Super-XX for all difficult exposures . . . Background-X for backgrounds and all-round exterior work. . . . All three of these new negative films have special features suited to their particular fields . . . plus the typical Eastman reliability that has served the industry so well in the past. Eastman Kodak Company, Rochester, N. Y. (J. E. Brulatour, Inc., Distributors, Fort Lee, Chicago. Hollywood.)

EASTMAN Plus-X . . .
Super-XX . . . Background-X

RESERVED
For the smart exhibitor who plays Paramount's
"CAFE SOCIETY"

Paramount
Pictures

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS
0 007 551 755 5